AADITYA JHA (VADODARA)

Dear radhanath swami, i am a 15 year old boy who is very interested in krishna consciousness. I read your autobiography and I just loved it. I am yet to properly train myself to becomes a devotee but I hope once I do get a initiation from you (whenever krsna wants) I will always be your servant of the servant of the servant. Hard krishna and may shree shree radha madhav bless you on your divine birthday or vyasa puja. Hare Krishna

ABHAY CHARAN DAS (PUNE INDIA)

Hare Krishna. Dear Maharaj, please accept my most humble obeisances. I saw you first when you had come for youth meeting in Shri Radha Kunj Bihari Temple in 1997. I was the only teacher in that group of students . Till that time I was thinking HG Radheshyam prabhu was the only spiritual master . But then I saw, you were his spiritual master. The only thing I remember in that first lecture which I ever heard of you , is that you said, material knowledge is like zeros after zeros but when we put Krishna in front it has the value. That was such a striking point which I was reverberating in my mind for long time. The first ever yatra I attended was in 1998 to Vrindavan . your revelation of various pastimes at various places & heart melting kirtans made deep impact in my heart. Truly one requires a pure devotee who imbibe mood and eyes to see dham . That yatra made me I committed whole heartedly to Krishna consciousness . I had opportunity of few brief personal interactions with you which are permanently etched on my heart . In last 23 years I had been through lot of turbulent times but by association , care of god brothers & your ever well wishes ,somehow I am still in the movement. I am still struggling to follow your instruction of rectifying my anarthas. I have tried to do various services as assisting in college preaching, conducting programs for children, assisting in bhakti shastri courses, backup services, yagna assistance , some menial services ,Helping for Deity welcoming ceremonies at devotees homes. I am still struggling to find that one service in which I will be consistent & as per my real nature & I pray to you to empower me in one such service.

After 6 years I will be retiring from teaching job. Hopefully still living , I wish to dedicate most of time for services then.

Your sermons , bhajans & kirtans are the life saving medicines , which give impetus to perform devotional services, increases attraction to the Lord . I am habituated to go to sleep in night with playing of your lectures or Kirtans.

I don't have iota of seriousness, sincerity & simplicity , as you expect of your disciples. Please help me .

what contribution you have done to Shrila Prabhupad is stupendous . Reuniting many disciples of Shrila Prabhupad, inspiring thousands of disciples & millions of truth seeking souls, giving spiritual touch to otherwise worldly services such as hospitals, schools, food distribution. your quotes, non hurting /mood elevating humour, heart probing glance , soothing / comforting /assuring smile, personal interactions, personal care of devotees, spiritual insights into worlds incidents, your personal example of dedication, devotion, untiring serving the devotees in spite of serious health issues, tolerating the blunders of devotees and vision for simple living in harmony with the nature are simply awsome. It proves that you have been abundantly blessed, empowered by Shrila Prabhupad , guru parampara , Chaitanya Mahaprabhu , Nityananda Prabhu & as you revealed in one lecture as by shrimati Radharani Herself. All the great devotees like Narada , Prahlad who are very anxious to help suffering souls to take to KC, must be very much pleased by your efforts in assisting them. You have touched the hearts of souls in different bodies right from animals, children , illiterate , People following different religions, other sampradayas & Vrajvasis inspite of language barrier . This shows that you speak the language of heart and that is the language of selfless Love.

I pray to the Lord to fulfill my desire to assist your servants without offences in whatever way you want for the rest of eternity in any place of material or spiritual world .

your one insignificant servant aspiring to be servant of your servants without any ulterior motives

ABHAY GOPAL DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna,

Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisance unto your Lotus feet.

Although I don't have any qualifications to write about you, but still as I am writing this Vyas Puja offering for your glorification and for my purification.

Guru Maharaj, I am very much grateful for giving me an opportunity to associate with Radha Gopinath Mandir Ashram.

Guru Maharaj, for the last 2 years we all are missing your association although you have given your association through the Vani. But Vapu association is missing. This year we are waiting for your arrival.

Guru Maharaj, you gave a lot of wonderful classes during this pandemic period like Balram Jayanti, Janmashtami, and much more. Nowadays, while hearing your regular classes, I was hearing the 1992 series, in your short lecture clips, you have given such a nice lecture, you were talking about " what is full-time devotee", you very nicely mentioned in that lecture what is meant to be a full-time devotee. You told that one who is 24hr conscious about Krishna, Krishna Seva, his devotee's seva, is a full-time devotee. It is not that one who just stays in a temple, he is a full-time devotee. You told this thing in 1994 and still, you are firm on the same principles.

This year in Kartik month we went to the Vrindavan Dham. when we went to the Barsana there was one pujari from Maan mandir. He talked about you with us for about 30 to 40 minutes. He mentioned that you are Real Brajwasi and he is praying for you, that this very lifetime you will surely get Goloka Vrindavan. We came to understand how much you tried your best to serve Brajwasi Vaishnavas by arranging Barsana Eye camps and much more.

I saw a real-life example in my life of this phrase " Lav matra sadhu sanga sarva siddhi hoy". When my mother and father visited GEV last time, you were there at that time in GEV. They met you and your few words have changed their lifestyle and they started practicing Krishna Bhakti.

Gurudev, you have infinite qualities. I have a lot of conditioning ,with this. I am unable to glorify you with proper words .Many times I slipped out to follow your instructions and felt like doing filthy acts. Please forgive me Gurudev. Now onwards I will try my best to serve you by following your instructions and with my proper behaviour. Thank you, Gurudev, for all your support, all godbrothers helping me in my spiritual journey. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath to give you the best health and long life.

Thank you, Guru Maharaj.

Your unworthy servant,

Abhay Gopal Das

ABHAY KESHAV DAS (MUMBAI)

Hare Krishna. Dandavat pranam Maharaj. PAMHO. I am most unqualified person but you are so compassion that you accept me as your deciple. I am praying unto your lotus feet maharaj kindly bless me so that I may remain loyal and obedient to you, Srila Prabhupada. Your eternal servant, Abhay Keshav Das

ABHAY NITAI DAS (DUBAI, UAE)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your Lotus Feet.

By your causeless mercy I am able to practice Krishna Consciousness sincerely. In my recent experience I could realise that your dear Spiritual Master HDG AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada has peached to every continent of the world so whichever part of the world you go you will find the association of devotees.

Recently I have come to Dubai for my job purpose & everyday during Kartik month there is Damodar Arati in some devotees house so I tried to attend as far as possible. So I didn't felt that I am out of India because here there are so many devotees already practicing from so many years under the guidance of your dear God brother HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaj, so I felt very very fortunate as well as grateful for being able to practice Krishna Consciousness amongst all the devotees here.

And just last 2 & half days I was fortunate to serve HG Gauranga Prabhuji here in Dubai, it was so ecstatic experience with some chastisements as well..so today prabhuji left for India and I felt very sad because of loosing association of prabhuji bcz I felt very inspired by his association, especially I got to chant with him in the early mornings & got glimpse of his intense chanting which was very very inspiring, so for all these Guru Maharaj I am very very grateful for allowing me to serve your dear disciple.

Kindly forgive me Guru Maharaj as I am not able to read Srila Prabhupada's books everyday & even her your lectures regularly. I will try my best to do regular reading & hearing.

On your auspicious occasion of Vyasapuja I simply beg your mercy so that I can continue serving sincere followers of Srila Prabhupada, try to chant my 16 rounds of Hare Krishna Mahamantra as sincerely as possible in the mood of trinad api sunicena....

Kindly keep me always in your prayers & continue showering your blessings upon this fallen soul.

Thank you vey much,

Your insignificant servant,

Abhay Nitai das.

ABHEY SHAMSUNDER (BANGALORE, INDIA)

Weapon of Your Vani

Dear Gurudev,

I am very grateful for the weapon of your vani that you have blessed me with. This weapon is made up of your deepest realisations and pure love for Krishna. It is sharpened by your purity of heart. O Gurudev, with this weapon you remove the veil of ignorance to allow the light of purity and knowledge to enter into my heart. With this weapon you crack open the shell of false pride to make me a humble instrument of the divine grace descending in the parampara. With this weapon you burst the bubble of my illusion of thinking this world to be a nice place, and reveal my original home. With this weapon you shatter the tainted glass through which I perceive everything as meant for my enjoyment, thereby showing me the reality that everything belongs to Krishna and is simply meant for His enjoyment. With this weapon you drill into my consciousness that my only need is pure unconditional love for Krishna, so that I can cease my ever frustrating attempts to look for substitutes in this world to pacify that inner heart's hankering. With this weapon you have opened up an oasis to nourish the tender little devotional creeper in my heart. With this weapon you are paving the way that I need to follow to become a genuine humble Vaishnava.

O Gurudev, you are selflessly handing over this weapon into my hands, but I am unfortunate that my eagerness to take it and the strength to carry it are falling short by huge margin. Dear Gurudev, I sincerely pray to you to shower me with your causeless mercy so that I can be empowered with sufficient eagerness and strength to carry the weapon of your vani and march confidently against all onslaughts of material energy in my service to you!

Your servant

ABHIJIT TALUKDAR (GUWAHATI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna 🙏.Dear Guru Maharaj, at the very outset Please accept my humble obeisance.
I am an insignificant aspiring disciple of your divine lotus feet . Although till date I didn't have the good fortune to have your physical association but I feel highly inspired and motivated after hearing your divine transcendental vani in the lectures. Please accept me as the most insignificant servant of the servant of your divine lotus feet. May their lordships give me enough strength to serve you through my body, mind and words. Thank you dear guru Maharaj for reciprocating to my prayers 🙏 and giving me an opportunity to serve this mission of Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu.

ABHILASHA KESARWANI (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Dandwat pranam 🙏🙏

I really don't have words to express my gratitude and love for you for giving us the most confidential aspects of developing pure love for Krishna. Your teachings are priceless and rare. Every word from your mouth drives me into ecstasy of Krishna's love and I am indefinitely greatful to you for that. When I hear from you, I loose external consciousness and my hands and legs work mechanically without knowing their tiredness and pain. Your voice is like sun which not only dispels darkness within our hearts but also purifies it and makes it a fit place to plant the seed of love for Krishna.

By mercy of some devottees, I got the message of Krishna consciousness in Bangalore in 2010. By Krishna's mercy I immediately understood the purpose of life and dedicated my life for spiritual realisation. I shifted to Pune searching for your lotus feet. I was still not very sure about diksha that time as I had never met you, but I always used to pray deeply to Krishna to guide me in selecting my guru as I felt I was totally unqualified to do so.

Out of His causeless mercy Krishna arranged to get me your blessings in Radha-Gopinath temple in Mumbai. I had gone to IIT-Mumbai only for 2 days to attend a course and was praying intensely to Krishna that if you can come there that time then I can receive your long awaited blessings. Krishna heard my prayers and Pushp Abhishek was announced on same dates. My heart danced with joy. Krishna really took tough exams for me that day to reach temple wandering alone in unknown city in dark, reached other temple by mistake, returned and reached Radha-Gopinath temple facing lot of difficulties on the way. I was almost fainting when I reached but when I heard from you with your darshan, my tiredness immediately vanished. I thanked indefinitely to Gopinath for His mercy even upon a fallen soul. The hall was packed with devottees. After class, I somehow managed to reach in front and was praying deeply to Gopinath to show me the lotus feet of my guru maharaj. To my surprise I felt someone told me to turn back. I turned back and found you standing right behind me taking darshan. I immediately fell at your lotus feet and requested you to give me diksha. Although you didn't reply and just smiled, I could understand Gopinath's wish. Since that time I am desparately waiting for your mercy. This divine arrangement of Gopinath developed very deep love in my heart for Him for He showed me the lotus feet of my guru. I feel as if I am connected to Him and you from previous lives.

Out of His causeless mercy Krishna gave me the art of expressing myself via songs and poetries suddenly in September 2019. I have composed many many poetries and songs since then in which I have tried to preserve the priceless teachings given by you and Shrila Prabhupada for all times to come. Also in many of them I have tried to express my love for Radha-Krishna and prayers. If Krishna wishes, I deeply desire compile them in book and audio recording and offer them to the lotus feet of yourself and Shrila Prabhupada. It is like taking water from Ganges and offering it back.

I am presenting here one of the songs expressing my gratitude to you with translation, which I composed after getting your blessings.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please Accept my Humble Obeisance,

Maharaj It is now almost 5 years that I am in Bhakti and hearing your lectures and have got great instructions and guidance for how to remain in bhakti (i.e. in association of devotees). Your clear instruction to maintain the friendship among the devotees of the lord is engraved in my heart and I try my best to avoid my false ego to come in between me and the devotees.

In 2019 , I as a student of Govardhan School of Public Leadership started by HG Gauranga Pr , started the preparation for UPSC CSE (IAS) examination but still I am not able to ace it. But I am trying to do my best this time to clear it.

I am seeking your blessings and mercy so that I am able to maintain my mental stability while doing my seva.

Thanking You

Your Struggling Servant

ABHISHEK KUMAR PANDEY (PUNE)

Dear Maharaj , your qualities are endless

how to describe I am clueless

For my purification I am trying to write seeking your blessings to get insight.

Always grave and composed in your demeanour you hold your godbrothers in the highest honour nothing could stop your inner journey obstacles could only bolster your harmony

Braving many odds and difficulties in your travel hitchhiking you came to India for Krishna's plans to unravel

Mother Ganges taught you the Mahamantra

later on, to be revealed,it is the highest tantra

You wandered many places in search of your quest in Prabhupad's lotus feet , you could find the rest .

He could identify a devotee amongst many

To a conditioned soul like me that is uncanny.

You have lived a life of devotion and commitment

To get conditioned souls like me out of the material embodiment

I find it hard to follow even an iota of your teachings on this day, I beg for your blessings to imbibe your learnings.

ACARYA NISTHA DAS (CHICAGO, USA)

Dear Radhanatha Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Words cannot express my gratitude for having your association in my life. The service and inspiration you have given to ISKCON and devotees like myself is unfathomable. I am so grateful I was able to be in this movement during the time of your presence here. Thank you for teaching us the standards of humility, Vaisnava seva, and taste for chanting. Thank you for blessing me...You have helped us all so much. As my good friend Laxmi Von Prabhu (ACBSP) once said, "It would be hard to imagine ISKCON without someone like Radhanatha Swami."

In the name of Gauranga;

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Your significant servant,

Acarya Nistha Das

ACHINTYA BALARAM DAS (PUNE INDIA)

Dear Respected Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. You always said my instructions are in my lecture and i gave my blood in my lecture. so i am trying to follow instructions from your lectures. once you got pleased when HG Braj Vihari pr gave offering just by making notes from your lectures. I am trying to elaborate the letters of your name RADHANATH.

R:- You are respectful towards every living entity. Example:- a)once you asked HG Braj Chandra p to chant for a butterfly and made her fly back. b) You himself chanted for a puppy who got crushed by a car under a roadside ditch. c) You said that if my disciples gave more respect to my godbrother & godsister than me then i will be pleased from my disciple.

A:- Appreciating to each and every individual by seeing a spark in them. You always appreciate your godbrother and godsister in yatras for their contribution in ISKCON.

D:- You are always un-disturbed and determined. One devotee asked how you are not getting disturbed by hearing so many cases of your disciples and institution then you said that i have always hope in hopless situation that oneday this situation will improve.Your determination to fullfill Srila prabhupada desires to make a replica of vrindavan in New vrindavan, you everynight meditated on vrindavan parikrama in new vrindavan before sleeping, then in chowpatty you made a small vrindavan forest and finally in GEV you made a full fledge replica of vrindavan.

H:- You always speaks about humility in you lecture and also shows by your action and behaviour.

A:- Always Absorbed in vrindavan mood and keep praying for jivas to uplift them from materialistic life.

N:- You are a Naisthik Brhamchari.

A:- Attached to Srila Prabhupada. In 1993 you joined back ISKCON because Srila Prabhupada always says that ISKCON is my body and you all cooperate to each other to maintain it. you always absorbed in thoughts that how to bring back all your godbrothers and godsister into ISKCON and for that you always try to meet them in your US visit every year.

T:- You Tolerated so many accusation in murder case in New Vrindavan. You just kept yourself silent and keep tolerating and finally you got clean chit. And in one conversation with HG Srinathji pr, he said Maharaj ji i always win the fight by argument but then you replied that I always win by keeping myself silent.

H:- In one lecture one student asked you about your most liking sweet then you said Holyname is your most liking sweet even though if we do overeating of It there will be no problem but then you also mentioned that in Prasad Rava Halwa you like most.

These are some drops from your ocean of vaishnava qualities.

On this most auspicious occasion for a disciple, i beg at your lotus feet please bless me and empower me to follow your instructions and can cultivate at least a drop of your oceanic vaishnava qualities and missionary spirit with which you have dedicated your whole life to Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Mahraj, Dandwat Pranam, AGTSP AGTGG, your classes n teaching has given me insight and guidance in my practice of Krsna consciousness. Seeking blessings

ACHYUT KESHAV DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected Guru Maharaja,

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to you.

I had the good fortune of visiting GEV, Wada recently in association of senior devotees. I was in GEV for 5 nights and 6 days. It was an overwhelming experience. In your recent classes, you mentioned that Vrindavan Forest in GEV is gift for all devotees. All devotees can come and absorb the divine atmosphere of Vrindavan and take association of each other. By mercy of vaishnavas, I could deeply appreciate to some insignificant extent what you were saying in your classes.

Though I had visited Vrindavan Forest in GEV before, I had superficially seen it from outside. But in recent visit, I was able to spend very good time chanting and praying at all 7 temples, samadhis of goswamis, Govardhan etc. It was such nourishing deep spiritual experience especially chanting at foothills of Govardhan and SP rooms in Radha Damodar temple.

Attending the evening aartis at Govardhan, Yamuna and Maan Mandir was an out of the world experience. Hearing sweet bhajans by HG Jai Sachinandan prabhu was so special. We got such intimate and special association of your most intimate servant HG Gauranga prabhu. He made us feel so welcomes and special in GEV Wada.

Sitting in Yogshala, honoring such delicious prasadam and taking association of devotees was such wonderful experience. Moving around in GEV and seeing the lush greenery of trees, plants and vegetation saturated us with mode of goodness vibrations.

Thank you Maharaj for giving us such a precious gift in the form of GEV and Vrindavan Forest, eternally grateful to you.

Your insignificant servant,

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to your divine grace

Wish you a very happy vyasa puja.

After attending the Kolkata virtual Yatra this year, we understood that you have such a wonderful place in your heart for Srila Prabhupada. We felt so happy to be a part of the Kolkata Yatra.

By your visionary leadership, the birth place of Srila Prabhupada and the place where Srila Prabhupada met Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswathi Thakur are now under the care of ISKCON. I feel that these are amongst the greatest of your contributions to the ISKCON movement.

Thank you for your exemplary manner in which you treat both devotees and the general masses of people. We pray to follow in your footsteps.

You have stressed the most on devotee relationships so that we may have a strong ISKCON, where devotees have love and trust amongst themselves.

I beg for your mercy so that I can sincerely serve and engage my family in the service of the ISK-

CON movement.

Your Aspiring servant,

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Hope this letter finds you in good health

Dear Gurudev, you are personification of humility, as more and more I am able to hear about you from many other disciples and well-wishers, I am in process of developing love and appreciation for your so many divine qualities.. Like after a child is born, he is completely dependent on the care of mother, I am also trying and learning to be completely dependent on your instructions, as these instructions are non-different from what Srila Prabhupada wrote in his purports and what Krishna spoke in Bhagavad Gita. You are giving these divine instructions in each and every lecture.

Since last year Vyas Puja I got fortunate to perform service of transcribing your lectures, it made me come more near to you and be more dependent on you with in my heart. Every statement in your lecture conveys a powerful message about all qualities a Vaishnava should aspire for and one being at the top of all is Humility, considering self to be lower than the blade of grass and performing activities in the mood of das das dasanudas.

The external situations of this mortal world has no effect on your dedication and commitment to serve and deliver the message of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, be it during your young age when you were at ISKCON New Vrindavan in US, working 22 hours a day or the time you were managing ISKCON Chowpatty in India with so many issues and challenges during initial days. Your health remains not so good at many times, still you never stop delivering lectures and giving the divine nectar of Krishna Katha or Gaur Katha to thousands and thousands of devotees. This is all a display of your humble mood, considering self to be very insignificant and keep serving in and propagating the mission of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu.

On this day of your 71st Vyas Puja, I pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, to keep you always healthy and give long life so that you can deliver many millions of souls from this world through your divine instructions and nectarian Krishna Katha. I also pray at your lotus feet that may you bless me that in this life time I develop this quality of being humble and being servant of the servant of the servant of the Supreme Lord and other qualities of being a Vaishnava and also get some opportunity to do personal vapu seva to you, where like a small child, I can learn some drops of Bhakti in your pure and divine association before I leave this body.

I'm feeling very happy to celebrate your 71st Vyasapuja this year. It would have been even more joyful if once again we would be there in your association celebrating this festival like previous years.

I'm currently at ISKCON Pune Vishal Nagar under guidance of HG Kanai Thakur Pr. Last Jan-21 we started this centre as extention of ISKCON Pune camp. HG Kanai Thakur Pr gave me one VOICE to take care at Nanded Maharashtra. So along with HG Pankaj Gop Pr and Siddhesh Pr we travel to Nanded From Pune regularly.

Now by your grace and by mercy of Srila Prabhupada , this year 15 new boys shifted in VOICE. So now there are 30 devotees staying at Nanded VOICE centre.

HG Pankaj Gop Pr is leading this project. Everytime I serve under HG Pankaj Gop Pr there, I remember you serving at New Vrindavan under HH Kirtananand Swami. You told once that why you continued to serve in New Vrindavan under HH Kirtananand Swami. Reason being it was told by Srila Prabhupada to you that you stay in New Vrindavan and be under HH Kirtananand Swami. You took it to your heart and "Guru mukha Padma vakya chitate kariya aikya" no matter what all difficulties came, you neither complained nor thought of leaving New Vrindavan, even though it was so much hard struggle . Offcourse I'm not having any kind of hard struggle in my services. But mind and ego tussle creates problem. So I try to remember you and your situation and serve. What kind of problems we get while executing services is nothing as compared to what you underwent. In one of the lecture you told that essence of teaching of shastra we can understand by observing the behavior of great souls.

I seek your blessings maharaj so that I can follow your foot step and inculcate some of the qualities what you stress "Trnadapi sunicena tarorapi sahisnuna amanina manadena kirtaniya sada hari".

Unfortunately I have great desire to get Puja, Labha, Pratishtha. And now on top of that recently I received saffron, now people respect me even more. I fear this pratishtha. It should not happen that forgetting my goal of life and also why I came to ISKCON i.e. to do Bhakti, leaving this I should not be running after Pratishtha.

Please Guru Maharaj give me your blessings & prayers so that I continue to stay in association of devotees , serving mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Also I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai, Sril Gopal ji , Srila Prabhupada that They shower Their blessings upon you to have good health.

We really miss the devotees of chowpatty, the Vrindavan forest, the deity kitchen, temple hall, counselee meetings, those stairs that are blessed by your feet taking us to the abode of Sri Sri RadhaGopinath. Maharaj we try to listen to your lectures daily. Your Vani is our shelter. Maharaj, we want to increase our attachment to you and your instructions. We want to follow your instructions. Dear Srila Gurudeva,

As i sit down to write my offering to you on the most auspicious day of your appearance, i find myself utterly unqualified and incapable of describing your limitless qualities. You are an embodiment of Srila Prabhupada's mercy and a perfect example of everything that the word "Acarya" stands for. I don't think there has ever been a mismatch between what you preach and what you follow. When i hear about your life of surrender, especially your early days in New Vrindavan, it gives me extreme inspiration to do my bit in the service of this mission, which you have so dearly made your life and soul. Despite having led such austere life in service, you have always been very kind and compassionate towards your disciples and you are synonymous with the term 'Devotee Care'. Everything you do has a great lesson for us. Despite being one of the foremost leaders in our society, you always chose to keep a humble position and offer utmost respect to your godbrothers and godsisters. You always teach us the principles of love, compassion and spirit of co-operation. I believe the only expectation you have from your disciples is to become flowers which you can offer in service to your Guru Srila Prabhupada. Though i have not got an opportunity to have your physical association much, but i always feel a connection with you through your VANI. On this most special occasion of your appearance, i pray to lordships for your long healthy life and pray at your lotus feet to give me an iota of love and surrender that you have for your Guru Maharaj Gurudev, it is mercy of devotees that I am still in Krishna Consciousness and trying to keep moving in my spiritual journey. Your lectures give me strength to follow my vows everyday, understand value of the gift of Krishna Consciousness which Srila Prabhupada has given to me. Now I can understand & realise more that behind anything and everything is the hands of Krishna. I now feel more respect and gratitude towards devotees.

The sacrifice and struggle which you did for all of us so as to please Srila Prabhupada, may be one day I could get even a drop of it to please the devotees and to some extend to Srila Prabhupada and to you. I have honestly done many offenses and knowingly or unknowingly still doing, please help me Gurudev through your lectures so that I can avoid committing more, accept my mistakes, ask forgiveness, and be strong to accept the consequences of these offenses in such a way that my faith never gets affected.

Seeking your blessings to move on the path of pure devotional service and become eligible someday to be accepted under your shelter as a disciple

ADVAITA CANDRA DAS (NORTH CAROLINA, USA)

Dear Gurudeva, My dear Uncle,

Jai Srila Prabhupada

All glories to you!

I can never forget the time when I first saw you in person. The grave but humorous saintly being appearing before me not in the computer screen but sitting humbly in the crowd in 2016 Chant 4 Change retreat, right in front. That same exalted Vaishnava whose lectures would always rejuvenate my bhakti was right there before my eyes! As little me, and my mother offered obeisances to you we could not believe what was taking place. When we got up and looked at your smiling face our hearts filled up with joy. Although I have great respect for Abraham Lincoln, in my heart the place is Radhanath Swami Memorial, not Lincoln Memorial. Your kirtan that day along with your wonderful lecture was one of the best times of my little life of eleven Years.

After a joyful trip to India in 2017 we landed from New Delhi to the Newark airport knowing that you were present nearby in Bhakti Center for The Gauranga Deity's installation. We wanted to purposely skip the flight back to our residence in NC to attend the installation and it so happened that Krishna arranged that the Delhi to Newark flight get delayed enough to automatically miss the connecting flight home. The Airport staff told us to meet them somewhere to catch another flight home, however we snuck out rented a car and drove to a devotee friend's house, settled down, and finally reached our most awaited destination, Bhakti center. There you were, along with you star Kirtaneer disciples (the fruits don't fall far from the tree). Your lecture was at the evening and before the break started, I had my first conversation with you. When I told you how much I loved your beautiful Kirtan, elaborate and sweet katha, and your on-spot sound effects. You laughed and pulled me closely into a tight embrace and gently rubbed my back. Feeling your Fatherly love, my most dear Siksa Guru, you filled my heart with fulfilment. During Prasadam time you patted my head in the manner someone would play the smaller side of the Mridanga. Just looking at you is so potent!

Then in 2018 Sadhu Sanga the Lecture That you gave! The kirtans that you sang! And another pat on the head was relished by me to the highest extent. The way you walk, talk, sing, or whatever else you do is so beautiful! Your Love for your godbrothers is your first priority.

I remember the Radhastami when my parents were initiated, and I was to be initiated the next day. I remembered the blessing you gave me to be able to proceed in spiritual life and how you And HH Bir Krishna Goswami Maharaj were exchanging brotherly love. It is just so sweet to remember that day of overflowing mercy! I am eternally grateful for everything! My only wish is that you keep me under the waterfall of your love and mercy!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances in your Lotus feet!

All glories to Srila Prabhupad! All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranaga!

Guru Maharaj, this year had been quite an eventful year and it is by your mercy only that I could engage myself in the transcribing service of your wonderful lectures. This was the first time when I was doing this service and realized that every single lecture of yours is so precious. The way you enter deeply into various pastimes and the message against each and every story narrated by you has great value. Though most of these lectures were older than 15 years from now, but it all seemed as if I am sitting right in front of you and hearing them directly. The sound vibrations didn't seem to be from this material world.

One of the most inspiring events of this year was the Kolkatta Online Kartik Yatra wherein we could hear you, have your darshan and hear lots and lots of pastimes of Srila Prabhupada. The most inspiring of them was about the work being done at Ulta Danga under your great guidance and motivation. Your sincere service and love towards your eternal spiritual master Srila Prabhupada certainly inspires all of us and we pray and seek your blessings so that we can imbibe the same respect, dedication and devotion in us towards you and follow your instructions sincerely. You are exhibiting by your example and teaching us that how shall one honor and respect his Guru. I know that I am an unworthy follower, have no qualifications in me but I am sure that by your mercy and blessings only, I will be able to serve you and serve Srila Prabhupad.

Maharaj, your compassion towards each and everyone of us deeply touches my heart. I saw one video of yours in which you were addressing one Mataji who was seriously ill, hospitalized, almost on her death bed and you were showering your blessings on her over phone itself even though you were not physically present there because of Covid situations. Your caring attitude, your love towards each and everyone of us is marvelous and I am sure, nobody can love us more than you in this entire world.

Fortunately enough, despite of pandemic situation, we were able to hear and meet you online through Zoom. Every single lecture of yours, every single instruction, be it regarding engaging ourselves in selfless services, spreading Krishna consciousness, doing our services sincerely, etc were always very inspiring and motivating. In your address to all the lecture transcribers on 14th Nov this year, when you shared your memories of this day i.e. 14th Nov 1977, when Srila Prabhupada left this world, it literally shook me. Your dedication in your services of performing Kirtan round the clock, every night, serving deities in New Vrindavan, sleepless nights just doing your services so sincerely and dedicatedly, we cannot even dream of such dedication and devotion. I sincerely beg in your Lotus feet to kindly shower your mercy and bless me so that even if I can develop a drop of the same serving attitude and can engage myself in serving you and serving Srila Prabhupad, I will consider my life successful.

AKSHOBHYA KRSNA DAS (DELHI)

Thank you Maharaj for being such a perfect follower of Srila Prabhupada. I like just how you are able to notice even a small service done by someone in the background. Your sense of humour is so amazing. Thank you for accepting me. Please bless me so that I can make your instructions as my heart and soul and everything in my life.

ALISHA ISRANI (LONDON ,UK)

Dear Maharaj, you mean the world to me and beyond .Your lectures, quotes , personal exchanges have had a profound impact on my life. In major situations(if not impelled by selfish motives), I try and think how will you see or perceive something and divine widsom hits me . Maharaj let there be more of your consciousness be in me than my own conceptions. Srila prabhupada said for Malati prabhu once " I can slit my throat for her and she will do same for me" let me settle for nothing less than this .I beg to be initiated from you by your grace it may happen.

Bless this loser wretched insignificant jiva to attain whats usually unattainable: ecstatic prema and service to Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar.

ALOK KUMAR (KANPUR NAGAR)

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Sri Guru & Sri Gauranga.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, I can just reflect upon your mercy and my insincerity to accept it, your grace to uplift me and my resistance to accept it, your opportunities to make me KC and my unwilling to become KC, your instructions for my good and my inability to put them into practice.

Oh My Master! I remember you drowning us in the flood of KC in your Kartik Yatras. Those 7 days it felt as if I have become a pure devotee!! But I forgot it was your intense love for Krishna that induced us also.

Oh My Master! I remember every time you give a class, you beg us to chant attentively, sincerely, begging the holy name in the mood of servant of the servant. You request us from your heart to follow trnad api suni cena… But when will that day come seeing my fallen condition you yourself will give me spiritual strength to follow them.

Oh My Master! Vaisnava seva is your heart. You don't like a vaisnava be offended even mentally.

Not just for vaisnavas but your heart flows for each and every living being and that's why you are constantly preaching the glories of the Lord and inducing everyone to chant. When will Oh My master I will leave this judgmental mentality and stop offending devotees?

Oh My Master! You have given such a strong association of devotees which is sure path Back to Godhead. They are caring like you, loving like you, merciful like you, faithful and loyal like you, non-offensive like you and full of compassion like you. Yet my heart doesn't surrender fully to their service.

On this auspicious day, Oh My Master I beg and cry for your mercy and strength to follow your instructions strictly. I am struggling with my anarthas, without your mercy it is impossible to overcome them and be established in service of the lord. Kindly consider my appeal. Kindly give me some taste in chanting of the holy name and service to holy name.

Please accept my humble obeisances unto you

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga

Thanks Dear Guru Maharaj for giving me your kind shelter which is my greatest fortune That I have received.

Gurus shelter is like that cool shade of the tree that protects us from glaring heat of the sun..

During my journey in grihastha ashram I have some realized that it is so necessary to take shelter of holy names, follow regulative principles, regularly and diligently do our own sadhana of hearing and reading . As there are immense distractions around and amidst such distractions you have given me wonderful devotees Sanga , Counselor and Brahmacharis and two temples of pune Radha Kunjabihari and Radha Vrindavan Chandra . These are like oasis for me in this harsh material world. It's true that I am not at a sincere practitioner of bhakti and I am a sinful person. At the same time I want to become sincere and serve you and your vision through your instructions diligently. Its only by your mercy I can overcome my shortcomings in bhakti. On this auspicious day I want to beg your kind and magnanimous mercy so that I can serve you and all Vaishnavas and Srila Prabhupada in some insignificant way by becoming obedient to your instructions and sincere in practice of those instructions and remain consistent in the same. Also I have been doing some insignificant preaching endeavors under the guidance of senior Vaishnavas I need your blessing and prayers so that I can guide these souls to take shelter of Hari Guru and Vaishnavas.. They have started chanting and by your mercy and blessings they will surely be connected in parampara ad increase their devotional service to Lord Krishna.

Please forgive me for unlimited offenses I have done unto you and all Vaishnavas.

Maharaj, Dandavat pranam. Hare Krishna. With every passing day I realize that I cannot progress in bhakti by being a "part-time devotee". I understand that it is your causeless mercy which has been keeping me going this far. Maharaj, I'm really indebted to you and Srila Prabhupad for investing your time in me and bringing about significant changes to my life. But for you, Maharaj, I wouldn't be even remotely associated with devotional service, or devotees. I sincerely beg for your blessings on this auspicious occasion that I remain steadfast in following your instructions and living upto the standards that you want your disciples to be known for - humble and tolerant. At the same time, I also pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath that They give you a long healthy life so that you can inspire millions of other souls and bring about a change in their lives, in the service of Srila Prabhupad. Dandavat Pranam again Maharaj. Hare Krishna!

AMALA SUNDARI (MARIUPOL UKRAINE)

Hare Krishna, dear Guru Maharaja!

Please accept my obeisances and wishes for the fulfillment of all your innermost desires!

Let me offer to your lotus feet a story in my life about the omnipotence of chanting the Holy Name and hearing Krishna katha.

A few months ago, my sister Lyudmila left her body. For the last 2 months I was with her. When the need for my trip to her arose, I accepted it as a mission and the desire of the Lord. All this time I felt an extraordinary state of happiness and delight in my heart, despite I understood that Krishna had entrusted me with guiding this soul and deeply realized my responsibility. In the hospital and later at home I tried to look after and take care of my sister, and saw tears of gratitude in her eyes.

She is an Orthodox Christian, she said about Krishna consciousness: “This is not mine.” She had a wonderful spiritual mentor, the priest of the local church, with whom we became friends. All these days Krishna sent me wonderful people who helped me. I am with great warmth and gratitude I remember them.

With my arrival, a kirtan appeared in Ludmila’s life. I quietly turned on and asked if her music bothered, she allowed. We dressed kanthimala, on her pillow lay a mahaprasadam flower, and in her hand she constantly held a piece of cloth from Sri Sri Radha Madhava from Mayapur. .. The kirtan began to sound more and more distinctly. I tried to read the Book about Krishna, but she immediately fell asleep. Then I just quietly chanted the mantra next to her and stroked her hand. Severe pains began, an ambulance came twice a day and I could not relieve her condition. ‘‘ Lyudmila understood that she was dying.

Her beloved daughter arrived, the separation from whom had caused her so much suffering before, but now she only greeted her with a detached look and closed her eyes.

The pain disappeared and calmness came. I turned on the audio book of Kavi Karnapur “Ananda Vrindavana Champa” in the recording of His Holiness Ananda Vardhana Swami. Ludmila listened for 18 hours in a row with a smile on her face. I periodically approached and asked: “Do you like hearing about Krishna ? “She quietly answered:” Yes. “

The next morning, calmly and calmly with a smile on her face with a deep sigh, she left ...

I did not understand my feelings, I did not cry, but experienced delight and happiness. Only a subtle pain of longing from separation sometimes pierced my heart.

When relatives and friends came to say goodbye, I told them: “Don’t cry, rejoice, because she went to God.” I was absolutely sure of this.

Aindra prabhu’s kirtan sounded all day and all night until the very moment of the funeral, and no one who came could comment on me, they only asked what kind of religion is it that makes a person happy ?!

Here’s a story. I will be infinitely happy if you read it and it will bring you at least a drop of joy.

With deep gratitude and love for you, accept my obeisances!

Hare Krishna Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Wish you a very happy Krishna Conscious Birthday Maharaj. May Sri Sri Radha Vallabha and Sri Sri Radha Gopinath give you a long healthy life. May you get ever increasing strength to fulfill all your dreams and services you aspire and long to serve Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaj, I have met you only a couple of times, but the memories of seeing you are still fresh in my mind. Your blessings and shelter that we received on our initiation are everlasting. Yet on today's auspicious occasion of your appearance, I would like to beg you that may one day my heart will feel more and more compassion, humility and gratitude towards everyone.

Early this Year I started home schooling my son Srihari, please give us strength and blessings that may I achieve the purpose with which I started on this path. Which is to give him good values, love and compassion for people around him with a humble and great full heart. Serve and think for others before our own interest and desires. Become humble before the greatness of God. Understand the true sense of love which is Seva. Here at Melbourne mahabprabhu mandir we are blessed with best of devotee association, we are very fortunate to be amongst them. Srihari also has his aged friends to play with and loves every part of our home schooling. Maharaj only you can bless me and empower me to continue on this path of serving all of our children in a way that will provide them a support system of love and compassion so that they all successfully serve you and Srila Prabhupada in this mission.

Lastly I would like to beg and request Please enlighten my heart with real knowledge and compassion that I will be able to see Lord and His presence in everyone's heart.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I am very thankful and grateful to you for granting the shelter of Guru Shishya Parampara. Under this soothing umbrella, I feel greatly sheltered and safe. When I see so many people in this world have not experienced even 1% of devotional mellow, I feel myself very fortunate and it also helps me to realize how much rare devotional life is. Sometimes I wonder what was I had because of which I got introduced to this devotional service but at the end I come to conclusion that it is possible only by all Your and Acaharya's grace upon me.

I have learnt a many important aspects from your life, honoring and respecting every individual from the core of heart, Your love and dedication for Srila Prabhupada is the most important aspect which I observed. You personally take so much interest in reading Srila Prabhupada books and hearing his audio tapes. You have maintained a very strong bond amongst all your God Brothers. Your compassion for all of us can be seen through your lectures, your every lecture helps us to know different important facets of devotional service. Every lecture helps us to go one step higher in our devotional service. Your expert training and vision for devotee community is most amazing. You have given us the best & most unforgettable experiences through visiting holy places, cooking for Giriraj and also for HDG Srila Prabhupada, Travelling, staying and performing Sadhana with devotees.

I have experienced the best moments under Your shelter, but being unfortunate, I am very lenient and lazy to take part in devotional service. Although there is knowledge and experience of devotional service, still I am not able to practice devotional service as you have taught and expect all of us to practice. I can only survive on Your causeless mercy alone. Hence I beg for Your prayers and blessings for practicing devotional service sincerely and Seriously. Your mercy was only the cause to start devotional service and to maintain this devotional creeper, I will need your mercy only.

Please forgive me if written something wrong and please accept these broken words as an offering for Vyas Puja.

Thank you very much.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, please accept my respectful obeisances and please accept this few words with which my conditioned soul would like to express an endless gratitude:

“Sunset after sunset and the years go by

Everytime the same game, after night there comes the light

Sometimes abundance does its art

But sometimes the pain shreds my heart in shards.

And then Your Holiness comes as an endless shelter

And then Your Holiness comes to dry my tears

My soul is waiting for Him to live in harmony

With Your Holiness on my path the darkest fears disappear.

Finally I am not afraid

Finally I am not alone

Your Holiness is standing there

To carry me back Home!”

I hope that one day I will find a greater, stronger word to express thankfulness, till that moment I will just use THANK YOU, THANK YOU from the bottom of my heart! Hare Krishna

AMAR GAUR DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyas Puja, I would like to mention your quality of genuine, heartfelt appreciation of the slightest good which you see in anyone. This quality is the other half of trnad api sunichena - I am insignificant but Krishna is great and His greatness is manifest through so many around me. Humility and ability to appreciate others go hand in hand. If we imbibe this quality of humility it becomes so easy to be forthcoming in our appreciation, and vice versa. Your ability to appreciate all shows deep and strongly grounded faith in the principles of Gaurdiya Vaishnavism and not a sense of insecurity manifested through searching something better elsewhere while feeling that the path chosen by you offers anything less than the highest perfection of human life. We have the highest gift in our life by the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, but, there are others who may have different goals in their life and chosen different paths to reach those. However, you teach by your example and through our senior God-brothers how to continue practicing what we have received from you while being accommodative and appreciative of what others already have or are trying to accomplish. Thank you Guru Maharaj for exemplifying all that you teach through your lectures. I pray at your lotus feet to always be dragged and tied to them by force against my wishes till I realise the fortune that I have received for no qualification of mine.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Last year has been a year of lots of ups and down in my life in all aspects. Maharaj, biggest setback for me was departure of my close, dear friend HG Rasik Kumar Pr. We both got covid at the same time and were in constant touch. He departed untimely, leaving his family behind. There has been not even a single day, i am not reminded about him. I also had almost near death experience during covid. But even after so much of bad experience, i have become more and more lazy and not taking KC seriously. Maharaj, I am lacking spiritual taste and determination. The eagerness to surrender to Krishna is like gone. I am becoming lazy and lazy. I need a great push, to restart the schedule and my spiritual inclination.

Maharaj, please shower your causeless mercy over me so that i can become sincere, serious sadhaka without having any ulterior motives.

Your Insignificant Disciple,

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your Lotus feet

I feel very happy and grateful to be given this opportunity to write you this offering. I offer you my heartfelt wishes and gratitude on your 71st Vyas Puja for very mercifully appearing amongst us.

Although I have never had the fortune to meet you in person, nevertheless you have always been with me from the beginning of my devotional life. You gave it to me. Thank you so much dear Guru Maharaj.

You have given me opportunities to serve. You have given me Prabhupada. You are giving me Gaur Nitai. You are giving me Radharani. I can't find the words to thank you.

I recently visited to Vrindavan for the first time in this life, probably the first time in my exisitence and it became possible only by your blessings. You arranged everything for us there in your own sweet way. All the experiences I had there were only because of your choicest mercy. I got to visit the supreme abode Barsana, which I could only imagine, and received so much love. All this happened because of your presence in my life.

After hearing HG Vishwaroop Prabhuji's Radhashtami class I was developed a desire to become eligible to understand Srimati Radharani some day and by your sweet arrangements and blessings I am able to learn a little more about her.

Thank you so much dear Maharaj for everything. I am a fool number one and I know nothing but still have so much false ego. So I pray unto your Lotus feet to please curb this false ego with the sword of knowledge and bless me so that I may be able serve your servants and you as you desire

Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotusfeet

First of all, tons of thanks to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Temple administration for giving opportunity to us to purify ourselves by expressing few experiences about Maharaj and also for regularly arranging sessions of Maharaj during the difficult time of Corona and lockdowns.

Moving further, I would like to say that I'm from a generation who couldn't have fortune to see Prabhupada face to face and could only hear his extraordinary glories. However, we are very fortunate that we could get mercy of Srila Prabhupada in the form of his representatives like you who have completely imbibed the teachings of Srila Prabhupada to the core of heart and benevolently distributing their wisdoms to everyone including neophytes like me.

Maharaj, you have millions and billions of qualities. And it would take years if we just start mentioning the benefits that society have obtained because of your selfless and endless compassion. You have inspired thousands of devotees to take up Krishna conciousness and dedicate their lives in the mission of spreading the message of Lord Chaitanya. Although you are the inspiration behind thousands of ongoing Krishna concious activities in RG community and at Govardhan Ecovillage, you never ever took credit of these unimaginable realities. Can't thank you enough Maharaj for being a gem of role model to follow. My life would be successful even if I can do just a minute fraction of the ocean of accomplishments that you have achieved. However, it won't be possible without your mercy. Please bless me so that I can do something in the mission of Srila Prabhupada under your instructions.

All Glories to Prabhupada,

Dear Maharaj,

For the first time ever,I got an apportunity to write offering to you

I considered myself utterly fortunate to get your shelter in my life, I always thank krsna that he has given you to me.

Often, I lost faith in lord but I don't know, when I see you as walking, talking, chanting or speaking it's tremendously helps me to regain my faith in lord. It is becoming a process of regaining faith for me.

Your life itself is an wonderful example to know about God and how you attained him, you took so many risks, trouble, and did sacrifices. It teaches me personally,that how much we are supposed to focus and committed for God as devotional practices is not cheap thing.

When you Holiness arrived ujjain in 2017

GBC meeting, we got your association and we got apportunity to see, how a pure devotee nature is.. and how he exemplify himself as words of scripture

One incident pondering in memory.....

H.H Bhakti charu Maharaj has arranged a vist for Mahakal mandir, Sandipani muni ashram, and other places for GBC members and sanyasis as well

We also accompanied you in that visit.

I remembered as you were with other devotees, you were walking alone from your group, like a simple and innocent person.

When at one place His Holiness Bhakti charu swami was giving introduction about pilgrimage , you had simply sat on ground, and hearing nicely.

Although you are big speaker big leader but behaving like normal simple person inspired me a lot.

In ujjain guesthouse,we have arranged luxury room for you but you prefer to sleep on ground And you gave instructions to your secretary and personal servent as i need wiill call you please don't wander around me.

Dear Guru Maharaj your bonding and relationship with H.H. Bhakti charu swami Maharaj attracted me a lot

Dear Guru Maharaj in my krishna consciousness life most of time I recieve your association through internet or audio recordings but I got opportunity to have association of H.H Bhakti charu swami Maharaj. I always try to sees you in H.H Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaj

I always pray to you in Lotus feet dear Guru Maharaj that may I ever remain in srila Prabhupada Lotus feet and whatever doubts and confusions in my mind shall washed away by your mercy ...

The great devotee and poet Srila Narottama Dasa Takur has sung thus;

śrī-guru-caraṇa-padma, kevala-bhakati-sadma, bando mui sāvadhāna mate

jāhāra prasāde bhāi, e bhava toriyā jāi,

[Guru Vandana 1]

[The lotus feet of our spiritual master are the only way by which we can attain pure devotional service. I bow to his lotus feet with great awe and reverence. By his grace one can cross the ocean of material suffering and obtain the mercy of Krsna.]

The spiritual master is very dear to Krishna and hence his confidential associate. It is by the grace of the spiritual master; one can attain pure devotional service and access to Krishna. By your causeless mercy, you have kindly accepted me as your disciple in this life. I am forever indebted to your oceanic compassion. Srila Rupa Goswami has said that pure devotional service is rarely achieved but by serving a pure devotee following in his footsteps, one becomes a recipient of something very rare. It is my innermost desire to follow in your footsteps and realize the true joy of serving Krishna in full Krishna consciousness. You have taken upon yourself to cent percent dedicate your life in the service of Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. Srila Prabhupada vehemently wanted to eradicate the bane of impersonalism. The cloud of impersonalism, in my humble opinion, rears its head in different shapes and forms.

The growth of science and technology has given this false sense of independence that leads an impersonal life. Rarely, we are able to have an authentic discussion with anyone without being judged. Rarely, we are able to make time for someone, besides checking our phones and gadgets, in a way to connect humanly with that someone. We hear but we don't hear, we talk but we don't talk. We have Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, emails, whatsapp etc to connect and yet for some reason, I feel we are in the most disconnected age. Why? – because we have lost that human touch or in other words we have become impersonal in the name of personal independence or freedom. This expression of the impersonal self has manifested via technology in the form internet social media platforms.

Impersonalism no more just is confined to the traditional definition of a faceless and limbless god or the plurality of all gods as one or the losing of one's self to the universe but its modern-day evolution is that we have become grossly distracted (due to our self-centered nature) by these internet platforms to the point where we absent our real-person and connect with others via an internet-person. This type of internet avatar devoid of the real-person, I think, is impersonal at its core. The whole world is infected with this type of impersonalism.

Guru maharaj, you have avowedly dedicated to eradicate this modern version of impersonalism by teaching the core principles of 'love and to be loved.' How can we serve Krishna with any semblance of affection, when we treat our friends, families and fellow humans as mere formality? To be an instrument of cultural change requires humility of the highest order. I am always reminded in your lectures of how we must cooperate beyond our differences and separateness and how we must work together for a higher cause and to accomplish this requires humility and tolerance.

Lord Chaitanya prays;

tṛṇād api su-nīcena

taror iva sahiṣṇunā

amāninā māna-dena

kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ

[One who thinks himself lower than the grass, who is more tolerant than a tree, and who does not expect personal honor but is always prepared to give all respect to others can very easily always chant the holy name of the Lord.]

You have distilled the vast ocean of bhakti shastra into this essential principle of humility and tolerance. Without this, one cannot destroy the impersonalism within the heart of one's self and others. Without destroying this impersonalism, the creeper of bhakti cannot grow and without the creeper of bhakti, we cannot taste the fruit of pure devotion to Krishna which then means we have to face the suffering of repeated birth and death.

I pray on this most auspicious day to bless me with this essential ingredient of humility and tolerance to cure my own impersonal ways and counter that disease in others. I prostrate at your lotus feet to please always engage me in your service, Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Vrindavanchandra!

Happy Birthday guru maharaj!

It is my honor and privilege to have been introduced to you!

Thank you very much!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and Sri Gauranga

On this auspicious occasion of your vyasa puja, I pray at your lotus feet that I can continue to serve you, please you and Srila Prabhupada by serving and pleasing our Srila Prabhupada's dear family.

I am so grateful for the greatest wealth and treasure of your instructions. I am so grateful Krishna has blessed me with a small taste and attraction to listening to your words. When I make an attempt to follow them, I feel your personal presence and Krishna's presence in my life, guiding me like a loving father. I pray that this small attraction continues to grow and blossom so that I can continue to assist you in your mission to Srila Prabhupada in the correct mood of Trnad Api Sunicena and Taror Api Sahisnuna that you have repeatedly emphasized in your instructions and personal example.

I feel like I am the most fortunate daughter who has received so much undeserving mercy. My only wish is to please you and Srila Prabhupada.

I wish you a very happy appearance day and I sincerely pray to Krishna for your good health.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

You are a great soul. Full of compassion and humility and sincerity. You continually give of yourself to lift up the fallen souls so they can take shelter at Lord Sri Krishna's lotus feet. You have tremendous appreciation for the unparalleled work and mercy of Srila Prabhupada. You guide us to also develop deep gratitude for ISKCON's Founder-Acharya. Thank you dear Guru Maharaj.

I am an unqualified yet not disqualified aspiring Vaisnava. I am aware of the lamentable gap that exists between where I want to be and where I presently am. I desire to take full shelter of Srimati Radharani and Lord Sri Krishna, especially in Their most merciful forms of the Holy Names.

By your mercy it is possible. By your mercy it is possible. By your mercy it is possible. I beg for your mercy, dear Guru Maharaj, to be able to chant the Holy Names with affection and hear the Holy Names with attention. Please kindly bestow your mercy upon me. I am helpless.

Aspiring to serve you,

Maharaj ,thank You for taking shelter of Srila Prabhupada to help and guide us .That is our greatest blessing because everyday Your guidance in the form of lectures, videos and quotes guides me to push further and serve the general folk ,the Vaisnavas ,the Spiritual Master ,Srila Prabhupada and Their Lordships . I am ever grateful for the communication we receive daily .it opens up the Spiritual world for us and through You I appreciate my Spiritual Master more and can allow myself to be an instrument of mercy and also follow the teachings. ANANDAMAYṄ DEVI DASI. (KRISNA VALLEY HUNGARY)

Dear Gurudeva, please accept my humble obeisances!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

All glories to you on your blessed appearance day!

I was looking for you as early

As my memory recalls

In this very lifetime..

First in my parents

Only to meet later with disappointment.

In books and philosophies

Poetic words of wisdom

Entertainment for the mind

Made me forget constant boredom.

I saw some hope in the eyes of those Whose aim was worldwide revolution

But their ideas remained idealistic fiction.

For a while I thought I found you in the innosence of nature

Until I faced the cruel reality of material laws of survival.

I decided to travel far and wide

Discovering exotic places

Caves and the depth of oceans

But all this adventure was just Passing time with endless distraction.

Years have gone by

And I was still empty inside

Who will show me the Truth of existence

The reason for life?

I acquired good friends whose faith in God

Intensified my eagerness to find answers

And dissipate my doubts.

I new I was getting closer to find the meaning of life.

But still I felt dissatisfied

As the unanswered questions hunted my mind.

One day on the street I saw a bunch of man

Dancing and singing in orange robes

And that moment I had a glimpse of the spiritual world.

Their song misteriously struck a cord in my heart

A sure sign that than and there

God has found me at last.

And so He did

Just when I was ready to hear His message

He tried throughout my life to deliver.

Next I too looked like a devotee

Following the rules and regs

Believing that all is well as long as I play my part nicely

Adopting external manifestations

Of a sincere practitioner of bhakti.

I fell hard , repeatedly struggled to stand strong

When I saw I was taken care of all along.

Because I received the precious gift

Of hearing from you from an old tape.

It was the revelation that opened my heart for the Truth

That every situation and every single person in my life so far

Was the preparation to hear what you had to say.

True teacher, best friend, guide and master

Who shows me the very essence of devotion.

As if woken from a dream

You expressed clearly the reality

Of spiritual meaning of love and eternity.

With words,actions ,with your very being

The straighforward message is emanating:

Love and compassion are the most important goal of our being.

Your heart is made of it

And without reason or cause, you accepted mine

Even though I'm harsh and unloving.

I know for sure that I found what I always searched:

My master whose ever well wishing mercy

And love is unconditional.

However impossible to repay

I try to reciprocate with a small gift on my own.

By becoming the minial servant of the servant of the servant of the Holy Name.

Meanwhile I keep ,cherish ,carefully guard your gift in the secret chamber of my heart :

Become tolerant like a tree

And humble like a blade of grass.

Forever aspiring for such a service attitude,
Anandamayí dd.

हरे कृष्णा गुरु महाराज तुम्ही व रमेश बाबा एकदा व्रजवासी यांचे प्रवचन ऐकत होता तेव्हा रमेश बाबांनी तुम्हाला विचारले हे जे काही सांगत आहेत ते तुम्हाला समजत आहे का तेव्हा तुम्ही म्हणालात मी कसे समजू शकतो मी तर stone आहे तेव्हा रमेश बाबा म्हणाले की होय तुम्ही stone आहात परंतु touch stone आहात तुम्ही ज्यांना ही स्पर्श करता तो भक्ती स्वीकारतो रमेश बाबांचे वाक्य नेहमीच प्रत्ययास येते .

डोरोथी ही स्त्री आपल्या जवळ येऊन रागामध्ये आपल्याला विचारते तुम्ही साधू आहात तर माझ्या प्रश्नाचे उत्तर द्या परमेश्वर माझ्याशी असा का वागत आहे? गुरु महाराज तुम्ही त्यांना तुमच्या जवळ बसायला सांगितलं व तुमच्या अंतकरणात काय आहे ते मला सांगा असे म्हणालात तेव्हा तिने तिच्या जीवनात कशा प्रकारे तिच्या पती व मुलांचा मृत्यू झाला व व्यवसायामध्ये तिला कसे फसविले आणि आता तिला कर्करोग झाला आहे हे सांगितले तेव्हा तुम्ही त्यांना सरळ साध्या शब्दांमध्ये सांगितले की जीवनामध्ये घडलेल्या घटनांविषयी तुम्ही आता काही करू शकत नाही परंतु या घटनांना प्रतिसाद कसा करायचा याचे स्वातंत्र्य तुमच्या हातात आहे व या प्रतिसादावर तुमचे भावी जीवन व पुढील जन्म अवलंबून आहे .

त्यानंतर आपण सांगितले की गुरुत्वाकर्षणाच्या नियमाप्रमाणे कर्म हा ही एक नैसर्गिक विषय आहे गुरुत्वाकर्षणाचा नियम यावर कोणाचा विश्वास नसला तरी तो नियम कार्य करतोच आणि वरती फेकण्यात आलेली प्रत्येक वस्तू पृथ्वी खेचून घेतेच त्याप्रमाणेच कर्माचा नियम ही कार्य करतो

गुरु महाराज तुम्ही डोरोथीला मनुष्याला त्याचे मूळ स्वरूप कसे पुनजागृत करता येते. हा भगवद्गीतेचा महत्वपूर्ण उपदेश सांगितला व त्याच बरोबर चारित्र्य

परिवर्तनाने या मार्गाचा प्रारंभ कसा करायचा हे सांगितले उद्धटपणा चे नम्रतेमध्ये परिवर्तन , लोभाचे औदार्योमध्ये, मत्सराचे कृतज्ञते मध्ये, संशयाचे श्रद्धे मध्ये आणि कामाचे प्रेमामध्ये परिवर्तन करून आपले स्वरूप पुन्हा जागृत करता येते

खरा धर्म आपल्याला भगवंतांच्या अगाध प्रेमाची अनुभूती करून घेण्यास आणि त्या प्रेमाचे साधन होण्यास साहाय्य करते

अशाप्रकारे विमानाला सहा तास उशीर होता त्या काही तासांमध्ये आपण डोरोथिला संग दिलात तो खरेच touch stone प्रमाणे होता विमानातून उतरताना तुमची पुन्हा भेट झाली तेव्हा ती हसून म्हणाली मी पूर्ण प्रवासात महामंत्राचा जप करत होते जीवनात काहीही घडले तरी परमेश्वर माझा सोबत असल्याची प्रचिती मला झाली आहे परमेश्वर दयाळू असून तो माझ्यावर प्रेम करीत आहे मला खरी संपत्ती पुन्हा मिळालेली आहे आणि या विषयी मी कृतज्ञ आहे

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

You and Ramesh Baba were once listening to the discourse of Vrajavasi when Ramesh Baba asked you do you understand what they are saying then you said how can I understand then I am stone then Ramesh Baba said yes you are stone but You are a touch stone. Whoever you touch accepts devotion. Ramesh Baba's words always come true.

The Dorothy woman approaches you and angrily asks you if you are a monk. Answer my question. Why is God treating me like this? Guru Maharaj, when you asked her to sit next to you and tell me what is in your heart, how she lost her husband and children in her life and how she cheated on her in business and now when you tell her that she has cancer, you tell her simply that there is nothing you can do about life's events, but that you have the freedom to respond to them, and that your future life and future life depends on that response.

Then we said that according to the law of gravity, karma is a natural thing. No one believes in the law of gravity, but the law works, and the law of karma works just as the earth pulls everything thrown up.

Guru Maharaj, how can you, Dorothy, awaken man to his original form? This important sermon of the Bhagavad Gita, as well as how to start this path with a change of character, can be re-awakened by transforming arrogance into humility, greed into generosity, jealousy into gratitude, doubt into faith and work into love.

True religion helps us to experience the deep love of God and to be the instrument of that love.

It was like a touchstone when you met Dorothy in those few hours when the plane was six hours late. When you met her again when she got off the plane, she smiled and said, He is in love with me. I have regained my true wealth and I am grateful for that.

Hare Krsna Gurudev !

Please Accept My Humble Obeisance's at your lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada !

I wish you a very happy 71st Anniversary of your Appearance.

Thank you for your inspirational association during the trying times of the Pandemic.

Despite your busy preaching schedules, you managed to take out time for your disciples. I beg at your lotus feet for mercy so that I be able to value my godbrothers and god sisters and do not take their association for granted.

Thank you for the wonderful association of your inspiring disciples especially my spiritual mentor who serves as an inspiration and an ideal disciple of yours.

I am grateful that you accepted me as your disciple almost 3 years back. Despite receiving your causeless mercy, I struggle to follow the basic principles of Bhakti.

I feel weak facing so many challenging situations that are coming my way as I move on. Every day is a struggle.

At times it seems highly difficult and challenging to even do the bare minimum of the daily spiritual practices.

As time is passing by, I see a high degree of rebelliousness in me which does not allow me to accept the rules and regulations set forth by superiors. Because of my Independent nature, the very cause of my downfall since time immemorial, I am still struggling to become dependent on devotees, guru and Krsna. I am still wanting to be independent, trying to enjoy sense gratification as per dictations of my whimsical mind.

I beg at your lotus feet for sincerity in my practice of devotional service. May I be able to become a sincere, serious disciple wanting to please vaishnavas, serve by following your instructions and serve lord Hari.

I beg at your lotus feet for the strength, determination to move on practicing bhakti despite all odds.

I pray to their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji to shower give you good health so that you be able to bring in many more fallen souls like me at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada.

I beg for your mercy that I be able to assist my fellow devotees in this glorious mission of yours to spread the glories of lord Krsna.

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

You have showered your mercy while accepting me as your disciple though I don't have any qualifications. I want to become serious in devotional service but on the other hand this task seems to be unachievable. The hope to achieve unachievable lies in serving your Vani, at times I hear some lecture but other times I miss days to hear from you. First step I want to become regular in hearing, your profound lectures. Please bless me Maharaj so that I can hear your voice and become serious in executing Devotional Service.

I have registered for Bhakti Vaibhav due to inspiration of my wife, thankful to her for every support that she provides me in executing my Devotional service. Please bless me Maharaj so that I can offer this Certificate to your lotus feet with due diligence and complete with no breaks.

Somewhere in the corner of my heart I am feeling that I need to prepare myself for Vanprastha aashram but conviction is very low. Please give me confidence that I can enter into this aashram and sole purpose of entering into this ashram should be fulfilled and it should please and satisfy you.

Please accept our humblest gratitude and feelings of joy in separation unto your Lotus feet Maharaj.

Every moment has become meaningful since you have accepted these useless servants as your disciples. As we trying to assist you in serving the Holy Name, we submit Maharaj that it is only your mercy and blessings and prayers which is only our hope. Our only joy is your acceptance for us. Maharaj we submit that we find ourselves highly insignificant and totally incapable in front of the material energy as if limbless struggler in the deep ocean. But Maharaj even in that helpless limbless situation, we wanted to express that we feel protected because of your acceptance. We got initiated in the service of Holy Name in 2019 and since then we aspire to come closer to your Lotus Feet. Please consider this aspiration of us to come closer to you as the only desire in us since everything else in our hearts is rotten.

Maharaj somehow we are physically very far from you but by your causeless mercy with every sunset and sunrise you are pulling us.

Maharaj please accept our endeavour since our commitment in your previous year Vyasa Puja. We committed to you last year the following:

1) We will try to always present ourselves in kind words in every situation.

2) We will not try to find faults in anyone.

Since past one year, we submit that in 9 out of 10 situation with your divine grace, we tried to follow our last year commitment. However, Maharaj we submit it was very painful for our ego to follow the same but it was only your sublime care and personal example that today we only have tears of gratitude to bathe your Lotus Feet. We know Maharaj that your love for us is unconditional and this humbles us and leaves us drowning. Maharaj for the upcoming year we commit the following,

1) We will try to serve the devotees in a way that pleases them.

2) We will continue to aspire to find no faults in anyone...

My sincere prayers to Mother Yamuna to please give your vani and vapu association for many more years in this manifested presence of yours because we desperately long to see you need you.... Very highly missing Kartik Yatras..... Please accept our joy and helplessness to your Lotus Feet

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja

Please accept my humble obeisance

We are very excited to welcome the auspicious occasion of your Vyas puja. For on this day we have recieved the greatest gift from Krishna, in the form of our dear Spiritual Master.

This Kartik also we couldn't go for Yatra, physically. That is very sad for all of us. It's thru these yatras only that we get be around you. What more inspiring to us is the fact that you take out time for us!

Despite situation being incompatible, we could attend Virtual yatra, that was most amazing! Your presence is there in the form of instructions, we long for the day to serve you personally. Yatras, give us those tiny blissful moments.

These two years have marked the departure of many of your God brothers, our spiritual uncles and aunts. It brings us to a situation of grief, that there can't be any more opportunities to serve them.

i have observed you giving it a great importance to remember and pray for each of the devotees, on various occasions. In the world where own mother is ready to kill her child, to see selfless love is so soothing to heart!

We have also recieved your care and guidance thru your vani. Especially every time we get to hear the most important verse of the siksastakam. trnadapi sunicena. Which every single time reminds us with newer and newer realisations.

When we go out to share KC, on the order of your servants, we realise the rarity and glory of message of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. Then thinking about the souls, who kindly came and saved us gives great strength to continue on...

Because of your mercy, we have recieved the seed of Krishna Prem. It is such a loving creeper, that entire world can take its fruit.. never ends!

Still out of my stupid anarthas and offensive mentality, even while staying in the devotee association, we remain dull headed and succumb to our earlier habits. Creating troubles for you.

O Guru Maharaj! We need your mercy, please save us from the snares of Maya. Please engage us in the service of your Beloved, Sri Sri Radha and Krishna.

i do not stand anywhere in following your instructions sincerely. Although trying best to serve your devotees but regularly commiting offence at their lotus feet. Where shall i go? Please Gurudev, please give the shelter of your lotus feet to this unconditionally fallen soul.. please bless us to become a tiny insignificant instrument in the hands of your devotees.

ANKIT SORTE (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj.

Please accept my humble obeciences unto your Lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I came to know about you through your wonderful book The Journey Home. Before that I only heard about you from devotees. When I read it, I deeply felt in my heart that I must become very serious in my spiritual life. You struggled and hitch hiked from US traveling all over world and came to India and found shelter here to quench your spiritual thrist. After so much endeavour, for the first time you received the Hare Krishna Mahamantra from mother Ganges.

I contemplated how you strive hard to find Hare Krishna Mahamantra. I never endeavoured for the holy name. But your followers are very kind that they gave this blessing to me without any of my personal endeavor.

At that time I thought to increase my rounds of chanting Hare Krishna Mahamantra.

But that was not all.

When I came to Mumbai, I had Darshan of yours for the first time on 17th January 2014 in the temple hall where you were sitting near Hanumanji deities chanting on your beads. When I offered obesiences to you, you folded your hands with so much compassion and love that I was touched by your gesture and I felt I must make some resolution to serve you in some way and become more serious. On the same day I also resolved to increase my rounds to 16 everyday.

That first darshan of you deeply touched me that for me you became personification of Vaishnava quality of Humility and compassion.

I learn from devotees that You came through many insurmountable struggles while serving in Srils Prabhupada's mission. But you had deep faith in his words and you continued to serve him in all circumstances and situations. That same deep and firm faith you have induced in the hearts of your followers through your lectures and association, through your own example and through this wonderful temple and congregation of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath. Whenever I face challenges in my spiritual life, I always remember your sacrifice and commitment to serve HDG Srila Prabhupada and that always gives me strength to stay firm in the face of difficulties and to continue in devotional service.

I am very grateful to you Maharaj for all endeavours you have put only to see devotees happy and grow in spiritual life. Govardhan Eco Village is the live example we can all see and experience.

I beg forgiveness from you for offences I have committed and please kindly bless me that I can contribute and become an instrument in serving Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu's mission. Kindly accept this insignificant offering from this servant.

Servant of your servant,

Wishing you a very Happy 71st Appearance day dear Gurudev. Maharaj, this is my first offering unto your lotus feet, please forgive my offences. As an aspiring disciple of your divine self, I would like to express my deep gratitude to you and all your disciples. Being under the guidance and shelter of our counsellors H.G.Sachitanujdas and H.G.Diptiradhika devidasi has been the biggest blessing for me and my family. It is only because of them and your other senior disciples that we are trying to take baby steps on this journey of Krishna Consciousness.

With the Lord's blessings, last week my daughter's marriage took place. Due to the hectic schedule I couldn't complete my rounds and this has been weighing on my mind. With your blessings I am trying to complete the missed rounds by doing the extra rounds now. I ask for your forgiveness and pray that I should be able to follow your instructions through the words of your disciples. By your mercy I hope to take your darshan and come for Kartik yatra. Please forgive my offences and bless us Maharaj.

Thank you dear Guru Maharaj,

What to speak of the compassion you have expressed in allowing me to take shelter under you last year as your disciple...I am truly indebted to you to have found someone like me who was lifeless, forlorn, and ignorant, and bless me with your divine association.

In this dark age, you stand like a soldier of courage in an unfailing line of spiritual warriors armed with the weapons of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu by your own eternal guru and father AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada and down-pouring that knowledge and wisdom on us. Without you, there is danger and hopelessness at every step but with you, I feel protected, sheltered, and loved.

You only see good in others → The first time I ever met you face to face after you delivered a talk on the Hawk and Fish narrative from Journey Home, I approached you and said "Your talk was very nice" and in your heart-warming reply, you said, "You are very nice". Carrying so many insecurities about myself in my heart from lifetimes and a fool like me you captured my heart by your humble demeanor. You are truly a collector of hearts. You show your unbounded love for those like me who are full of flaws and failures and act as an unwavering guide and father to any who takes shelter under you and only see the highest and truest potential.

Through your lectures, you have taught me the right attitude of carrying service in the mood servant of servant of servant. You mentioned "The best service is the service we don't like because if you surrender to that, Krsna will reveal himself mostly through that service. The service you do like, oftentimes; you are doing it for your own enjoyment, so Krsna will not reveal himself so rapidly to that service. To sacrifice our own apparent self-interest for the purpose of fulfilling the needs and the desires of Krishna. That is service.

Hearing you attentively during this pandemic is taking such a form like a wave that is silently creating tremors in my journey of Krishna Consciousness. It's the only way I can feel Krishna's presence, Radharani's mercy, and Srila Prabhupada's guidance. Your lectures are soul-stirring, you have an uncanny way of making us feel comforted through your words and at the same time shake us to reality and take shelter from the Supreme Lord.

In all your lectures you show your gratitude towards Srila Prabhupada and never take any credit for yourself. Your internal character shines by relinquishing any false ego or claim. Your life is our evidence.

Sometimes I hear that your guru doesn't give time, but I can proudly say you have given me everything and even more through your kindness, representatives, and lectures. You have stretched and extended yourself more than you should. You keep nothing for yourself, you only know how to give, uplift others, bring the best in everyone to engage everyone by seeing the spark in them. I aspire to live what you stand for Maharaj and follow your stride sincerely.

Maharaj, by Krishna's mercy I have a very loving and supportive husband, who is also helping me raise my standards in Krishna Consciousness by keeping me true to my ideals. Together we are bringing a new soul to this world soon. I seek your blessings so that all of us together can serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the most pleasing mood to you.

I have absolutely no qualification to speak amidst such exalted and loving devotees, who fan my love for you even more, but I am taking it as an opportunity to purify myself and repurpose my aspirations in Krishna Consciousness.

Please consider this offering of remembrance and love as a shower of flowers at your lotus feet.

ANKUR SHARMA (MOUNTAIN VIEW, USA)

Hare Krishna dear maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

On the auspicious 71st appearance day of your holiness, I'd like to offer my few words of gratidue to you and pray to Krishna for your healthy long life.

For past several weeks, I've been meditating on the verses of Sri Guruvastakam. In the first verse Srila Viswanatha Cakravarti Thakur worships the guru's lotus feet for he is a cloud who is showering the rain of mercy upon materially afflicted souls of this world. Like many fortunate souls, I've been a recipient of that shower of grace in the form of your lectures, kirtans, merciful glances. Herein, I'll write my appreciation for one of the jewels from your lectures.

In yatras, you dedicate the first lecture for setting the right mood as we approach the dham. You emphasize that we need to become beggars. We cannot demand, but we can beg for mercy from Sri Guru, Sri Gauranga, Srimati Radharani. Success in bhakti depends on the higher grace which we can attract by our actions and attitude. You have very nicely explained the attitude of a beggar. A genuine beggar is not proud, they are desparate to receive the alms, and for whatever they receive they are so grateful. Such a person moves our heart. Similarly, as a sadhaka when we do our bhajan and service as a humble servant desiring to please the Lord, internally always feeling a desperate need for His grace, and be grateful for whatever we receive - that would attract the Lord.

Recently I heard from Madhavananda prabhu who was quoting his spiritual master, His Holiness Gaura Govinda Swami Maharaj, that bhakti is independent. Our chanting japa cannot take us to the spiritual world unless we receive the mercy of a devotee. Our chanting is a way to attract that grace. When I heard that it got stuck in my mind and remind me of what you emphasize about "becoming a beggar". I could understand that a genuine beggar begs from their heart. Similarly, my japa, singing of aratis, kirtans, doing seva, honoring prasadam should be from the heart and not mechanical. What does it mean to chant from the heart? In response to this question, you explained that it means to chant with a desire to please the Lord, since heart is the seat of desires. My desire should be to please Vaisnavas, Guru and Krishna, and attitude should be that of a beggar – humble, in need, and grateful.

Maharaj, you have realized the sublime truths about bhakti and out-of-your unlimited kindness, you share it with all of us. You take much trouble and tolerate great difficulties to thus benefit souls like myself. I feel eternal indebtedness to you for receiving the sublime process of bhakti in its purest form. I pray to you and your esteemed disciples for their continued guidance on this path to fulfill the purpose of this human form. May I become an instrument in their hands for the pleasure of yourself, Srila Prabhupada and the guru parampara.

ANOOK (ISKCON HYDERABAD)

Hare Krishna Maharaj, thank you very much for entering my life through your disciples, and vani. My life became rightly situated in right direction towards SP and Lord since I started hearing from you and your disciples.

Your depth in Bhakti is giving higher taste and pulling me upward, towards Krishna's lotus feet. You're safeguarding my tender intention for pure devotional service and maturing it. I'm always happily convinced whenever I heard from you. I physically rarely got your Darshan by divine arrangement at Pune, Vrindavan, Mayapur, and through vani always available.

Thank you very much.

You're so pure follower of SP and his teachings. But I many times fall down in my strict following and raise by your mercy. I beg you forgiveness for not following many instructions steadily,. I beg your association, forgiveness for my offences and I beg to serve you eternally Maharaj. Kindly have your mercy on this tiny insignificant soul. I'm waiting to get your shelter.

Your servant,

Anook.

ANTARDVIPA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

When Lord Chaitanya descended on this planet, He taught us many principles of sharanagati through the lives of His divine associates. Similarly, Srila Prabhupada descended with an entire entourage of his associates to help us understand how to live as surrendered devotees at his lotus feet within ISKCON.

ISKCON went through severe turmoils after Srila Prabhupada physically departed from this planet. However, it was only due to the unlimited faith and loving surrender, the purity and maturity – of all his disciples who together held firmly to his lotus feet – that we have our beautiful ISKCON society. I humbly pay my prostrated obeisances to each and every one of them for their sacrifices and contribution. You are one of the great shining examples amongst them.

Somehow, due to your unlimited compassion, you accepted me in your shelter as your insignificant disciple. Your heart is an ocean of bhakti bringing out pearl like wisdom through each of your lectures. You painstakingly invested into me so much through your 1000s of lectures.

Over the years of my hearing your lectures and seeing your personal example, one of the most repeated emphasis of yours is to serve in ISKCON in the mood of a humble servant of the servant of the servant.

By your lectures, glorifying and caring for your Godbrothers and Godsisters, to some degree, I now feel great family shelter in many Srila Prabhupada's disciple and grand-disciples' association. I am indebted to you for this most divine gift. I am still a greatly struggling sadhaka but my hope and joy in bhakti comes in their accepting me as their child, younger brother, friend and most importantly, their servant.

We have lost shelter of many great Vaishnavas of our movement through the COVID-19 period. Unfortunately, in the time to come, we will have to bear the reality of many more leaving us. Knowing that this is the nature of this world only helps to see the phenomenon philosophically well. However, for most, it doesn't help the crisis of inspiration, shelter and guidance.

Apart from the pain of losing their physical association, the greater pain and concern that I personally feel is about the sense of responsibility that is coming upon us, the next generation - to healthily carry forward what all of them have so painstakingly preserved as Srila Prabhupada's legacy and not let them down in anyway.

Maharaj, my only hope for that time is the shelter of Srila Prabhupada books, your vani & example and the guidance of the many exalted senior Vaishnavas who will still surround and protect this child of yours. I humbly and desperately beg you to bless this child - with the essence of bhakti that you have so beautifully captured in your heart – so that I can appreciate and serve all varieties of Vaishnavas as per your desire.

With these prayers, I seek shelter at your lotus feet eternally.

Your insignificant servant,

Antardvipa Das

ANTROY ROY CHOWDHURY (BERKELEY, USA)

Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my most respectful obeisance at your lotus feet. I am very grateful to Krsna for giving me the opportunity to glorify my aspiring spiritual master on the occasion of his vyasa puja. Krsna often sends His eternal associates in Goloka Vrindavan to this material world for delivering the fallen souls. You are such an eternal associate who came here to make us remember our lost connection with the supreme lord. In my devotional life till now (around 4 years) my main sources of hearing Krsna katha have been Srila Prabhupada and you. While listening to your lectures, very often I feel the saying that whenever a pure devotee speaks, it penetrates the heart of the careful listener.

Maharaj, you are a true follower of Srila Prabupada. Like a bona fide acharya you simply repeat what the previous acharyas including Srila Prabhupada have taught. I would like to recollect some of the major focuses in your lectures that created deep impact on my heart. You always stressed on the principle of "trinad api sunicena" i.e., being humbler than the blade of grass and more tolerant that the tree as a very important characteristic of a devotee. Without following this foundational principle, we won't be able to progress in bhakti. You taught us to always be in the mood of a servant of the servants of the servants of the Lord and always serve selflessly without having any personal motive. You stress on having a relationship based on love and trust among the devotees to create a congenial atmosphere for practicing bhakti. You always give great emphasis on the importance of devotee association to protect oneself from maya and continuously progress in bhakti.

Your ecstatic kirtans act as food for my soul. Your careful and clear utterance of the holy names of Krsna in a melodious way are ever relishable and blissful. Your deep love for Sri Sri Radha Gopinath gets clearly portrayed through your kirtans. I remember once HG Radheshyam prabhu mentioned in his lecture that you revealed your mood to them as a cowherd boy in Vrindavan. I'm most attracted by your way of dancing in kirtan. Your dancing during the Puri yatra captivates my heart as it exactly resembles the description of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's dancing infront of the chariots of Their Lordships.

The most fortunate moment of life came when I got your darshan at GEV during our Mumbai, Pune yatra in December 2019. It was a heart throbbing experience when my aspiring spiritual master most unexpectedly appeared in front of my eyes and that also for the first time in my life. I got your second darshan in Kolkata temple during Nityananda trayodashi in 2019.

I pray wholeheartedly to Krsna that he gives me strength to take all your teachings as my life and soul and adhere to your devine instructions at all circumstances. May the supreme Lord be merciful upon me and give me chance to serve you Maharaj throughout my life. I wish you a very happy, blissful and Krishna conscious appearance day.

Your aspiring servant,

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

Thank you for being so kind, for your dealings with everyone which is so full of love and care. Thank you Maharaj for being this amazing storyteller that makes all the Lord Krsna's pastimes even sweeter to us hearers and reveals us priceless secrets of bhakti.

Maharaj, I am unbelievably stupid and very incompetent. So I pray to you and Sri Sri Radha Gopinath that I be forever sheltered by your instructions.

I will eternally be grateful for your love, guidance and unlimited compassion.

Begging always to remain your servant,

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for what you have given me, to be constantly in touch with the Holy name. I am very much indebted to you and Srila Prabhupada. Please allow me the opportunity to better serve you and ISKCON. My heart is filled with all bad qualities accumulated through birth after birth. But by being in touch with you and Srila Prabhupada teaching and Vani, I feel myself most fortunate. Please shower your blessing that I always remain in your service and service of devotees. Thanks so much for everything you have given me in this life. Your Servant Anupam Murari Das

Dearest Gurudeva,

'Om ajnana timirandhasya jnananjana salakaya

caksur unmilitam yena

tasmai sri gurave namah'

These words are those through which I take you with me. When closing my eyes tight in the wish to convey some useful wisdom to the children. When I go before their merciful lordships Sri Sri Radha Gokulananda and Radha London isvara and pray to be a good disciple. Before I try and write about Krishna, before I present some attempts at a realisation over the radio. Before I try and take association or be a good friend, before I guide someone. I'm praying to enter the spirit of these prayers hoping to remember what it feels like in the shelter of your smile and grace.

It has been years now Guru maharaj…. long enough to instinctively need to recollect all the interactions I can remember with you and become swept up in plans to travel to a temple near you. Plans which are exposed to so many possible disruptions and which take me to the deities sighing in acknowledgment that I am meant to serve you where I am. The deeper truth involves finding you right here in November in London, to access you through the words of the sages you have devoted your life to, to serve the devotees you love and like a child wishing to please their father make you proud with unwavering determination to get up even when I repeatedly fall.

Gurudeva on this most beautiful occasion of your 71st Vyasa Puja, I wish to make you proud and honour all you have given me. I pray to pass on some of the gold you have shared with me and by doing so..meet you again as one of life's sweetest aims.

Praying with all my heart for your continued strength of spirit, body and inspiration in the service of your beloved Guru Maharaj.

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you a very Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday Maharaj. Thank you for your constant prayers and blessings which is helping me sustain and navigate through this difficult material existence.

I am a 25 year old, happily married to a wonderful devotee. The past few years have been quite challenging. From figuring out my career path to dealing with personal familial issues, it has been a roller coaster ride. However, taking shelter of Radha Gopinath and his devotees has been the greatest source of refuge. All this has somewhere brought to the forefront the very reality of this material world - temporary and full of misery. The shallow dreamy perceptions of this creation and its components has been harshly exposed and jolted me into reality. I wish to take it as a blessing in disguise. An opportunity to take seriously the only way to get out of this material existence - devotional service.

Maharaj, on this auspicious day I beg for your mercy to constantly hold on to the principles of devotional service and the association of devotees, to never lose faith in the Lord's plan, to always stick to dharma despite all wrong, to develop eagerness for service and to develop enthusiasm in the study of scriptures and chanting of the holy names.

I hope to never let you down and be sincere and serious in the process of Krishna Consciousness.

I am overwhelmed with gratitude for all the brief interactions I had with you during my childhood days which remains a great source of happiness and refuge for me. My heartfelt prayers for your good health.

Thank you Maharaj for everything.

Maharaj ji, I am an insignificant, fallen soul and have no qualification for offerings but I am so excited to open my heart today. Maharaj ji, I apologize and beg your kind mercy and forgiveness in advance, if I cross my limits because I have no manners to behave with the representatives of Lord Shri Krishna, real devotees and respected Vaishnavs. Also, I am seeking your mercy and blessings to grow properly on the devotional path.

Offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja on his 71st Vyasa Puja

Dear Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to Sri Guru & Sri Gauranga.

It is said in Srimad Bhagavatam 11.20.17 –

nṛ-deham ādyaṁ su-labhaṁ su-durlabhaṁ plavaṁ su-kalpaṁ guru-karṇadhāram mayānukūlena nabhasvateritaṁ

pumān bhavābdhiṁ na taret sa ātma-hā

The human body, which can award all benefit in life, is automatically obtained by the laws of nature, although it is a very rare achievement. This human body can be compared to a perfectly constructed boat having the spiritual master as the captain and the instructions of the Personality of Godhead as favorable winds impelling it on its course. Considering all these advantages, a human being who does not utilize his human life to cross the ocean of material existence must be considered the killer of his own soul.

You are the perfect captain of all of our lives. Your Vani & Vaishnava Example have always been great source of inspiration and nourishment for me since my beginning years in Krishna Consciousness. I wish to thank you from the core of my heart for –

1. Showing us what it means to be a pure Vaishnava

2. For being an embodiment of surrender at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada

3. For brilliantly manifesting the mercy of Sri Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Guru Shishya Sampradaya in our life

4. For giving us faith in the Japa & Kirtan of Hare Krishna Mahamantra, power of Hari Katha, Vaishnava Sanga & Seva and glories of Holy Dhams

5. For your powerful Vani which can immediately free one from influences of Rajas & tamas

6. For giving us attraction for Sri Vrindavan Dham

7. For repeatedly repeating the essence of Bhakti in your lectures and teaching it through your example

8. For inspiring loving, sincere and devotional Vaishnava Communities at Chowpatty, GEV & Pune.

9. For showing us the power of Humility & Unity

10. For showing us the example of pure selfless, non-envious Vaishnava Relationship with your Godbrothers

11. For giving us various stalwart Vaishnavas like HH BRSM, HG RGP, HG Gauranga Pr, HG RSP & others

12. And Last, but not the least, for sending HG Radheshyam Prabhu & HG Acyuta Mohan Prabhu in my life, who have kindly accepted and engaged this fallen conditioned soul in the service of Sri Sri Radha Gopalji

I even don't have sufficient words to thank you. But, Today, on this most auspicious day of your divine appearance on this Bhumandala, I wish to beg at your lotus feet that please bless me that –

1. I might always remain engaged in the service of Sri Sri Radha Gopalji under the instructions of senior vaishnavas for my entire life.

2. I might strictly follow the instructions of all of my spiritual masters.

3. I might always keep the devotee community united and not get affected myself or let others get affected by the influence of Kali

4. I might get some taste in the chanting of Hare Krishna Mahamantra and reading of Srimad Bhagavatam

5. I might always serve, appreciate and encourage devotees and never ever disrespect, offend or criticize devotees. Please give me strength to be humble servant of vaishnavas

6. I might develop genuine Vaishnava relationships with senior, equal and junior vaishnavas

7. I might get the strength to do my seva of taking care of IIT(BHU) preaching and taking care of VOICE inmates properly.

8. I might also get strength to do other sevas which my superiors might give in future

Please bless all the devotees with pure devotional service. May all the devotees of ISKCON always remain united under the shelter of Srila Prabhupada and may Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's mission steadily and organically spread everywhere! May every town and village be filled with more and more devotees and happier devotees!

Thank you very much!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj.

Dandavat Pranam.

Please accept my respectful obeisances.

Every time I hear journey home audio book I feel I've not heard it attentively before since I get some lesson to apply everytime. I'm deeply inspired by your sincere Good seeking nature because of which you see Krsna's hand in every situation. I beg your blessings to have a drop of that quality.

Once I visited Chowpatty and your holiness was present and made the entire atmosphere surcharged with transcendence. I was closing my eyes while chanting and whenever I opened my eyes I saw your holiness chanting with such intensity which I can never forget. I try to remember everyday before/while chanting, that form of yours which is my greatest inspiration for chanting.

As you say "Krishna consciousness in one word is absorption". So recently the seva of transcribing your lectures was a great boon for me to get absorbed in the pastimes and philosophy that you spoke in your lectures. Else so much of that time would have been spent either in passion or in ignorance. Your lectures are like a pole star which brings us back to proper direction whenever we are on a wrong track. We may do many things in our own passionate way but the consciousness is most important which gets refined when we hear from you the mood in which to serve. To be the servant of servant, to be humble like a blade of grass, tolerant like a tree, give all respect to others and expecting none in return.

Everyday night just before sleep I hear Narasimha Arati as adviced by my superior, most of the times it is audio sung by you which gives me strength to overcome bad thoughts and bad dreams.

Finally I want to beg your blessings upon me so that I'll be able to serve the Lord full time with pure motivations to please the Lord and his devotees.

Dear Maharaja I am very new is this path of Bhakti and in the beginning days of my spiritual life being very ignorant I commited many many offences at your lotus feet and at the lotus feet of many other exalted Godbrothers of yours. I am very regretful for that. I have realised what a mess I have done.

But Maharaja you are dear devotee of Krsna and your heart have oceanic mercy. Therefore I humbly request you to forgive my offences and please shower your mercy on this insignificant soul who is simply groping in darkness. Mercy of the vaishnavas like Your Holiness is only hope for me.

I personally feel that Your Holiness is the embodiment of Sriman Mahaprabhu's trinadapi sunichena verse. Please therefore forgive my offences and shower your causeless mercy on this fallen soul. I have developed a little desire to get out of maya and render loving service to Krsna under the guidance of a bonafide Guru who has gotten Krsna. But I am completely blind. I don't know who has gotten Krsna cent percent.Therefore I need your blessings.

ARJUNA PRANA DAS (BERKELEY, USA)

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada !!

In your life and teachings , you taught us to clean heart inside out. You followed Chaitanya mahaprabhu first instruction Ceto darpana marjanam , cleaning the heart by sincerely chanting the holy name of the lord like cleaning mirror and taught of the example by sincerely chanting holy name and teaching all of us importance of holy name.

Few years back you took us Jagannath puri yatra and you followed the chaitanya mahaprabhu foot steps, cleaning the Gundicha temple. Gurudev, that day experience of the spiritual joy was unlimited and you share and teach us how to clean our heart.

Gurudev one time you told story about prabhupada mercy on you. One time prabhupada came to Pittsburgh and prabhupada car was muddy and there were many devotees ready to render that service, You told prabhupada that when i was child, i was cleaning my father car please give me that service. when Prabhupada heard that, ask to give that service you. You were so blissful and joyful to render special service to cleaning the prabhupada car.

I pray that one day follow your footsteps and attract grace of Srila Prabhupada, Guru parampara and Krsna.

I pray to aspire to be a servant of your servant,

Arjuna Prana Dasa.

ARJUNANANDA DAS (NEW YORK CITY, US)

Hare Krishna Maharaj, PAMHO, AGTSP

Thank you Maharaj for accepting me as your disciple. I consider myself highly fortunate to have come in touch with you and your teachings and explanations of what Srila Prabhupada taught us. I see you as a brightly shining example and personification of vaisnava etiquettes. Just like, Lord Caitanya glorified Srila Haridas Thakur saying, “Some preach perfectly but don’t behave appropriately whereas others behave perfectly but don’t preach appropriately; But you Srila Haridas Thakur, you preach as well as behave perfectly”

These words remind me of your example.

I’m deeply grateful to you for creating a community of trained vaisnavas who carry your mood of trnad api suni cena, taror api sahisnuna, amanina manadena kirtaniya sada harih and spread glories of Krishna and His devotees. I’ve been protected by these devotees ever since I took to devotional service, especially by HG Radheshyam Prabhu.

To hear about all the austerities you have undergone in New Vrindavan is simply thrilling and inspiring for me to also follow in your divine footsteps of being determined to take shelter of Guru and Krishna in the face of obstacles that are bound to come while on the path of devotional service.

Your lectures help me to be fixed on the path of devotional service as you, very expertly, warn us about the various gross and subtle pit falls one could fall into. To hear your realizations about Krishna, KC philosophy, about Srila Prabhupada are nectar to my ears and nourishing to the heart.

Thank you very much Maharaj for your cent percent dedication and commitment to Srila Prabhupada and reaching out to fallen conditioned souls like myself. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Govinda, Gaura Nitai and Srila Prabhupada that your health remains intact and that we take full benefit of your association and mercy. I seek your blessings to be the servant of servant of all your servants.

Hare Krishna Maharaj, Dandavath pranam.

We could see how your sincere and pure prayers attracted the Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan to Govardhan Eco village, which is dream of Srila Prabhupada, our founder acharya.

I was always inspired by your commitment to Srila Prabhupada, through the Vani connection. It is said that spiritual master lies in his instructions and can be accessed through this way, even when he has disappeared from the planet.

Your accomodating nature of devotees by allowing them to render service in whatever way they could through your various projects like Bhakti Vedanta Hospital, sub projects in Govardhan Eco Village, Brahmachari ashram and other subprojects in Chowpatty, which are role models for entire planet.

Your example of how to stay and go long in spiritual life through gratitude and humility, these great qualities are root to all other qualities.

Thank you so much Maharaj, for glancing over this fallen soul's insignificant offering

In one of our Maharaj's Classes, while Maharaj had been explaining about the significance & advantages of 'Association of Devotees' Maharaj said that Devotees prayers to Krishna for other devotees would never ever be left unanswered. Maharaj said" when we associate with devotees & exchange our difficulties, sufferings reversals with devotees, when they Pray to Krishna, our emotional & mental strength would start enhancing more & more to withstand that sufferings. This Maharaj's statements gave me lot of encouragement & solace specifically when I had been undergoing some turmoils in my life. All glories to our Radhanath Swami Maharaj

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances

You have always been emphatic in your lectures about cultivating Gratitude in one's own life for the favors one has received, small or big. And you are the epitome of gratefulness for you were grateful to even apparently bad situations and people. Please grant me a drop of this ocean of gratitude which is there in your heart to please you. I take devotees, devotional activities and opportunities in devotional service for granted thinking that "I deserve this". But you always do say that one should feel unqualified for what he has received or is receiving by Krishna's Grace. Please grant me a drop of your Gratitude, oh gurudev.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj 🙏

Please Accept My Humble Obeisances.

All Glories to Sri Guru & Gauranga!

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I am feeling very grateful for this wonderful opportunity to share my humble offering at your lotus feet. Please accept this fallen servant's offering at your lotus feet, Maharaj.

I got introduced to Krishna Consciousness in the year 2009 and was very impressed by your disciples HG Gopendra Prabhu and his brother HG Sriman Nitai Prabhu in a weekly program at Goregaon Bace in Mumbai led by HG Jagannath Prabhu. In their holy association, I got an opportunity to know about Srila Prabhupada, ISKCON, and you. A few months later, I got my first opportunity to hear from you at the Prerna festival at the Chowpatty temple through which I became greatly inspired.

A few months later, your Journey Home was released which became a great source of inspiration and a turning point in my life which gave a kickstart in my Krishna Conscious Journey. As I started reading your Journey Home, I remunerated upon every word which made me think about what Krishna wants me to learn from every situation in my life.

Every incident that took place in your journey and most amazingly the reflection you had after those incidents gave me a very deep insight within myself and made me ponder upon those reflections in my life as well. I am very thankful to you Maharaj for sharing your Journey Home.

Soon after I started associating with your disciple HG Sundar Chaitanya Prabhu from Pune who began leading the IYF at Juhu, Mumbai. I am very grateful to you Maharaj for sending devotees to Juhu.

Twice I got an opportunity to personally attend and hear the offerings made by all the senior devotees in your Vyasa Puja Celebrations in the year 2012 and 2013. I am feeling very grateful as I am remembering those moments attending your Vyasa Puja Celebrations.

I am very grateful to you Maharaj for giving your valuable association on the yearly 26th January festival at Sri Sri Radha Rasabihariji temple. We are eagerly looking forward to your divine personal presence on coming 26th January 2022.

Last but not least, I want to thank you Maharaj for all the wonderful Kartik yatras both physical and online, Srimad Bhagavatam classes, for the wonderful association of all senior devotees who perfectly represent you and your divine teachings in the line of Srila Prabhupada.

Thank You Guru Maharaj

Dear Maharaj,

I would like to thank unlimitedly for your broad mindedness. Your vision saves me a gives a lot of inspiration to continue my journey of Krishna Consciousness. I like how you are non-sectarian and how you can use a language that can resonate with everyone. Such broad mindedness, which is also reflected in your support of other authorized Gaudiya Vaishnava acharyas and godbrothers of Srila Prabhupada also allows me to see and appreciate how rich and sacred our sampradaya really is, and what Lord Caitanya and Rupa Goswami really are wishing to share with us. With such vision of yours I am feeling your support and along with your and Srila Prabhupada's instructions continuing also taking siksa of Srila Bhakti Raksak Sridhar Maharaj which is so dear and valuable to me.

I wish you much health and praying that Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada support you and share their generous blessings with you.

Hare Krsna,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On the occasion of your Vyasa Puja I would like to thank you for the shelter that you have given to me. I remember when I was feeling so desperate to find a spiritual master and I could not connect with anyone. At one point I was standing next to you in the airport and I was just crying to Krsna that, "Please, I need that shelter in my life, I cannot live without it anymore". That time I was given an opportunity to aspire for you and my connection with you developed. I was never able to say anything to you whenever I met you, I was feeling too overwhelmed. But I was always getting your guidance through your lectures in the most magical ways. I knew it was not ordinary, it was not just words, it was not just accidents. Your words were fully penetrating my soul, uplifting me, giving me direction, light in the most powerful way. And I felt that you were always there to guide me and protect me from maya's onslaughts. Five years ago there was a time when I was feeling very discouraged and wanted to leave Krsna Consciousness, that day I was hearing your classes for 24 hours and after that marathon I regained the enthusiasm to serve and continue to struggle for the upliftment of my consciousness. After I asked for initiation, I also went through a period when I felt fully disconnected and I think it was a test so that I could become convinced that you are actually my spiritual master whom I want to follow under all circumstances. Both you and Krsna tested me in similar ways and in both cases my faith became stronger and my surrender increased by your grace.

In my life I always feel that noone really understands me but I also feel that you understand me better than I understand myself. I feel that your instructions always go to the core of the issue and help me to become better, surrender more, please Krsna more. I can see how much I am lacking to actually become a devotee but at the same time I am grateful, enthusiastic, happy that I am able to make progress, slowly but steadily. I know that you want us to connect with senior devotees around us and get their guidance, follow their instructions, obey our service authorities. I am trying my best to do that. I am trying to develop a genuine mood of the servant of the servant and Krsna is gracefully testing me in this regard everyday. You are always an example for me in how you take shelter of the Holy Names, in how absorbed you are in everything you do, how humble you are, how you surrender to the desires of the Lord and the spiritual master. There is not a day that I don't remember your example and try to follow it. I understand that everything that I have in my life, all opportunities to serve and all challenges, everything what I am able to do or not to do is simply your mercy.

Thank you for your eternal guidance.

I sincerely pray for your well being, i pray that we all lovingly serve you and the mission ahead. I beg you to kindly accept me as one of the fallen servant at your feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga!

Maharaj I offer my respectful obeisance unto your lotus feet. You are an ocean of auspicious qualities as you are receiving benedictions from the ocean of mercy, the Guru Parampara and Krishna. Just as a cloud pours water on a forest fire to extinguish it, similarly the words emanating from your lotus mouth extinguish the blazing fire of material desires in my heart.

You teach and inspire us through your personal actions and character. My devotion to Lord Krishna was very much inspired by your devotion to the Lord. Hearing your glorious activities from the sweet mouth of many devotees, gives great satisfaction to the heart and great impetus to my spiritual life.

Maharaj, we are very blessed to have your lecturers which are so much full of wonderful practical realisation, which helps to transform our consciousness. Your enthusiasm and eagerness to hear and glorify the pastimes of the Lord transforms my boring inactive life to a vibrant life full of energy and ecstasy.

Recently I have been listening to some recorded lectures by HH Bhakti-tīrtha Svāmī Maharaj and was amazed to witness the deep loving relationship of friendship both of you shared and it really inspires me to develop such strong loving relationships with devotees. And your instructions on Vaishnava dealings really guide us in such endeavours.

Thank you for creating so many compassionate systems like devotee care, which has personally helped me and my wife so much on this path.

On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I request your kind blessings so that I can advance in my spiritual journey and please Krishna and His Devotees. I also pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath for your good health.

Srila Prabhupada mercifully send you to be an example of his teaching and represent his teaching in a very simple language. Whenever I remember you immediately two verses comes in my mind "tṛṇād api sunīcena taror api sahiṣṇunā / amāninā mānadena kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ" and "Gopī-bhartur pada-kamalayor dāsa-dāsa-dāsānudāsaḥ." Without your mercy i am unable to follow these verses. Please continue showering your mercy upon us. So that one day I can follow these verses.

Thank you very much.

Dear Gurudev !

On the occasion of your auspicious appearance, please accept my humble offering. I bow down at your lotus feet to offer my humble obeisances.

I am only the most fallen soul, but when I see you and your divine smile, I become enchanted and all sadness goes off.

When I remember the divine figure ofmy Gurudev, the 3 things (which I often hear from His loving disciples about Him) that come immediately in my mind -

1) Trinadapi Sunichen Tarorapi sahishnuna, Amanina Mandena Kirtaniya sada Hari.

2) Absorption in the devotional activities

3) Gratitude

I firmly believe bringing these into my life, will make my Guru & Govind happy leading to my happiness. Although I have no qualification and qualities to serve You, Your instructions are the only hope.

Humbly hoping to have Your mercy and be Your servant,

ATUL AGRAWAL (PUNE INDIA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obiciences.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj for all the things you have done and are doing for me. Everyday through your lecture you tell me how to work, how to have proper consciousness, how to see the difficulties , how to deal with parents. As you know that I am trying to write everyday one page telling you and others about my day and many times I feel that you are actually eliminating the problem and fulfilling my spiritual desires. Guru Maharaj I was very much confused when I was thinking to help (which anyways was an illusion that I can help anyone) one of my devotee friend but at that time you were there to guide me. Although your instructions were something which I never wanted to follow at the moment (and now also) but some how or other you made me do the right thing everytime and I was telling you Guru Maharaj now this is too much but you were like a doctor doing the surgery without thinking of patient.

Few days ago When I was not able to chant then I realised that it is all your mercy. I do not having any qualifications but tons of disqualification. Yet you taught me how to live with those qualifications and serve Krishna and more importantly serve Vaishanava.

Guru Maharaj I am not (and will be) able to walk the path of Krishna consciousness on my own. So please never ever leave me as few days ago in one of the lecture of HG Mukund Anand Pr, he was saying that Krishna has already given hope on me and only pure devotees like Srilla Prabhupada are giving us a chance to deliver. I may do so many nonsense and even may not be able to do the effort but please never ever leave me and somehow or other engage me in your Servant's service.

Hare Krishna dear Gurudev please accept my humble obesciences Thank you so much for showering you mercy, Compassion and love through your Vani in these very difficult and turbulent times of Global Pandemic. This year specially has been very very difficult as we lost many senior devotees in our movement but you with you loving shelter always guided us so that we maintain our spiritual consciousness during such challenging times. I personally miss a lot of your Vapu association which we used to get through Kartik Yatra but that also you made for us online and this year it was all the more special as we could get to see the places of our beloved Srila Prabhupad.

As it is stated in Shrimad Bhagavatam that tirtham kurvanti tirthani that a pure devotee of the Lord makes any place holy as he carries Lord in his heart similarly all of us are locked down in various corners of the world and are most of the times cut off from the association of devotees but you take out time and give. Wonderful classes that makes all the places holy wherever it heared with faith and attention.

This month the place wherin I am living a senior devotee Mataji our God sister commited suicide and I went through such a difficult times personally I request you to always keep her in your shelter and forgive her for all the offences and mistakes that she did which forced her to take such extreme step.

I had a wonderful Janmashtami celebrations at Pune this year and meet various of your beloved desciple Such as HG Jahnava Mataji HG Vamsigopal Prji HG Ramchandra Prji and my Brahmchari friends and one thing that was commonly coming from all of them is that our generation of devotees are not doing enough for you and Srila Prabhupad and surprisingly when I returned to my place I got a big responsibility and I know it's not coincide and I could understand it's you who was speaking through all these devotees to me so that I increases my commitment towards yourself and Srila Prabhupad and I am trying sincerely in this direction but am totally powerless to do anything meaningful so I beg your mercy and grace so tgat I get some spiritual strength to carry out the services that had been given to me

I thank you so much again for all that you do for all of us and sincerely pray for your Long and healthy life.

Guru maharaj,

please accept my Humble obeisance.

I am very much inspired by your lectures and books, it's really helping me in my day to day life in order to become an better instrument to serve the servants of the servants of the servants.

In many of your lectures you stressed many key words like Loving devotional service, importance of chanting, compassion, developing taste for hearing Krishna katha, forgiveness, devotee care, enthusiasm, patience, tolerance, cleaning the heart etc... Which thought me in more practical experience and made me realizing to become humble servant.

Your services and dedication to srila Prabhupada is glorious, following footsteps of srila Prabhupada instructions and trying to make his mission fulfill.

On this most Auspicious Vysya Puja day, I beg for your mercy.

Dear GuruMaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and your Holiness.

Wish you a very healthy and happy 71st birthday, with deep prayers that Lord will allow many more of these. Just like pilgrims offer ganges water back into the mother Ganges as an offering, we shall take your words to glorify you for mine shall always fall short.

Just a few days ago, we were hearing your glories from few of your many glorious servants and here are few instructions that came striking.

1. That even with like minded devotees, you always look at the white balls and start throwing away the black balls to keep the friendship, overlooking any differences.

2. That correction is important to uplift the person in his/her devotion and is not for chastisement.

3. That the value of institution permeates over that of a congregation which further stands above the value of an individual. So one must whey the situation.

4. Some mentioned that how you have always passed on the essence even in the most joking questions, yet satisfied the one who has asked the question, not putting him/her down.

5. One very important thing you mentioned in one of your closed talks in your room in Radha-Gopinath that whatever we do, it must be done with the intention to facilitate one to read, hear and remember Lord, otherwise it is fruitless.

6. You exemplify how care must be taken for every individual over the projects and how relationships must be cherished over every difference.

7. Once we had asked GaurGopal Pr about few of the difficulties we were facing and he narrated how you have born so many false acquisitions but didn't complain and still carried on your loving devotional service, leaving things in hand of Lord.

These are just tip of your iceberg like qualities that we recollect today at this moment. Every morning we pray 'ebe yash ghushuk tribhuvana' for your kindness and compassion on people like us, it is incomparable. Thank you again and agin for penning down your life in The Journey Home and The Journey Within, books extremely dear to us- they inspire us time and again.

Thank you Dear Gurudev for classes that churn our heart, for beautiful yatras, splendid GEV and above all, setting so many glorious exemplary devotees for us to take inspiration from.

Though we fall behind every time to meet expectations you have from your disciples and also to follow your instructions, we pray that by your blessings

a) my deeds do not ever tarnish your spotless image,

b) that may we develop a deep faith in instructions Guru and not aspire for anything more

Your humility is beyond this world and a living example for all of us to follow. I am longing to get an opportunity to serve you personally.

I am still relishing the memories from your last visit to Dallas and waiting for the day when you will arrive in Dallas and allow us to serve you as you desire.

BALARAMA LILA DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

My whole life is based on the foundation of your kind mercy. Right from the first time I could visit Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Mandir, a manifestation of your causeless mercy in early 2002 till the current most auspicious services at BRC it is all based on one foundation, your causeless mercy.

You inspired my Path Pradarshika Guru Shyam Hari Prabhu and his guidance was the seed for my insignificant pursuit. The subsequent first visit to the temple in 2002 was a very special manifestation of your mercy. It cemented my very miniscule initial faith in a sort of mystical way. This was absolutely your causeless mercy. Nothing else could have saved a person so conditioned as me. Then Tulsi Prabhu and Damodaratti Mataji came over and their example, due to the training imparted by your wonderful disciples facilitated by your system of counseling and training devotees, was a very valuable source of inspiration. We naturally felt like we wanted to be like them. Gauranga Prabhu's spending his most valuable time with us and pushing us to move to 16 rounds was the next major manifestation of your kind mercy.

You then kindly came over and gave us initiation on Aug 16 2007. You clearly told us "we were disqualified", and still you showered your causeless mercy only because of HH Harivilas Maharaj's kind request. You similarly granted us second initiation on Aug 16 2010.

Your book "Journey Home" is such a great source of inspiration. It is very clear to me that you have kindly appeared just to show the right example of complete focus and determination with a tender and affectionate heart filled with devotion. Your divine lectures are filled with profoundly deep insights that can churn and turn the hearts of anyone and everyone. I pray at your lotus feet I can learn more deeply from your divine words. You always stress on sadhana and sadachar. I hope and pray to the Lord I do not displease you with my sadhana and dealings.

Finally the service at BRC is an absolutely special service responsibility that has been granted to me by your good self. My life would be absolutely nothing without this opportunity to serve. It is impossible for me to explain in words how precious it is. How rare and special it is that someone as conditioned as me has got this opportunity to serve in a mission so dear to you and to Srila Prabhupada. I hope and pray at your lotus feet that I can do some justice to this seva and can bring true pleasure to your good self and to Gauranga Prabhu. It is clear to me that it is through this service at this time that I can offer direct service to you. I have the most special opportunity to give you pleasure, to bring a smile to your face, to even elate you, through this service.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, Srimati Lalita Sakhi, Srimati Vishakha Sakhi, Sri Sri Gopal ji, Sri Sri Gaura Nitai, Sri Sri Radha Vrindavan Bihari, Sri Sri Gauranga, Sri Sri Radha Madan Moha, Srimati Lalita Sakhi and Sri Sri Giriraj Govardhan to kindly grant you with the best of health for a long time to come, so that devotees can gain deep inspiration from your personal association.

Your servant,

Hare Krishna Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your holy lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you very much for engaging me in Prabhupada's vision of establishing a farm community at GEV. Also thank you very much keeping me with your close aaociates. However, being great fool and ungrateful, for my own sense gratification I left everything and went away from your association. I do not know what I am doing and what I can do? I am totally confused whether my decision of leaving GEV and going to preach in Andhra is good or bad. Eventhough I uave no services at GEV I am trying to follow your instruction of coming to GEV every month. Whenever I come to GEV I feel very guilty as I have no specific service thereto render. I am also not anle do much in Andhra too. But keeping full faith on your blessings and Krishna's mercy I am patiently awaiting for the day I could proudly stand in front of you and express/exhibit the miracles

Maharajji I was initiated in February 2019. Three or four months before the initiation it was felt from the heart & what a surprise our Shiksha Guru Shrimaan Jankinath Prabhuji called & said Mataji your name is in the list of initiation. I was so much happy but on the other side I was worried about can I keep his words till the last moment of life . Maharajji I get a ray of hope that by only your mercy I can finish that nonsense business in this life time . I beg in your feet plz keep your mercy upon us 🙏 Thanku Maharaj Hare Krishna 🙏

Dear most Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my Dandavat Pranam. All glories to Guru and Gauranga.

Because of Journey home book written by u I get lots of inspiration and so many qualities can be learned from it. Out of which I like tolerance and humbleness most as it helps in developing taste in holy name and helps in preaching. Thank u very much for giving everything to survive in spiritual environment. Because of strong association with Anandvrindavan prabhuji I m able to chant holyname in brahma muhurat. Please bless me so that I can always fight against maya and chant in brahma muhurat in humble mood of das dasanu das and achieve goal at the end of this life.

BATTU GOPAL DAS (HYDERABAD, INDIA)

Most Respected My Dear Pujya Gurudev,

Please accept my most humble obesianceses at the dust of your holy feets.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

Before this worthless soul speaks any words in your esteemed presence, I beg you to cleanse me of anything and everything that displeases you. If there is one thought that never fails to cross my mind on a daily basis, it is in-fact, the thought of thankfulness for engaging me in the service of your Holiness. I have time and again realized the protection it has given me by nourishing me internally.

Research cites that a prisoner's life in the first few years of his term is difficult, owing to the navigations he has to make through the tubulations and vices of the new environment. Just as hard are also the last few years of his term due to the anticipation and anxiety of what is forthcoming.

In this ripened stage of life, I often face the same difficulty. However, there is one silver lining to the lifetime imprisonment for this prisoner, he has a window with a view and I have you. Sometimes the view is of a sunny day, much like the time when you lovingly embraced me. Sometimes the view is of a gentle breeze, much like the time when I got to have your divine darshan and association.

Sometimes the view is of a storm, much like the time when you deliver strong instructions and chastisement in form of your lectures, for prisoners and children like me. But what's more important is that there is a window, there is solace, there is hope and that there is you. My saving grace in this rather hopeless cell of dukhalayam.

How much can a child possibly recall when he begins to contemplate the kind of protection his mother must have given him? Perhaps she once sheltered him from a gentle knock on his head. Perhaps she nudged him from having a big shock. Perhaps she sheltered him from a huge fall. Who can ascertain the number of times she must have come to his rescue? Sometimes the child is aware and sometimes, he is not.

Dear Gurudev, you and your instructions have been the mother to this very ignorant child that I am and I continue to be. All along I have been saved and protected by you, to this, there is no doubt.

Your kind words have always been the bridge between my panic and peace. In times of conflict, whenever, I have turned to them, they have always rendered me a perspective. One, which I could never conclude, despite years and years of endeavors.

I have learned from your kind words that sometimes Krishna does not change our situation because He is trying to change our heart. Even in the most gruesome of all situations, I have been fortunate to have the access to you and your teachings.

Even the seemingly mere gesture of your hand on my head has lifted years and years of burden off myself. Even in the most trying circumstances, ones which would have led me astray, I have felt your mercy in keeping me on the path and your recommendations to Krishna in considering this wretched soul and bestowing His kindness on me.

In this material world, one does not care for a soul who does not care for himself. Sometimes even birth givers follow this principle. You my master have however disregarded this and chosen to accept me as your servant. Extended your love and care to pull me out of my distress. No amount of service or gratitude shall do justice to this.

It is rightly said that Guru, Sadhus and Mahajans are advocates in the court of Krishna, pleading on behalf of conditioned souls like me. Without you, who would be the connection between this suffering soul and Krishna? It is you who made the arrangement for my deliverance. Without you, who would make Krishna appear in my heart? It is you who initiated this noble cause.

Therefore, use me as you may. I can only hope to please you.

Above all soon after my initiation I went to you and requested your good selves to tell me how I could serve you better. Lacking spiritual maturity I waited for your answer. Guru Maharaj in a very gentle manner you instructed me - "Serve the local temple, it is the body of Srila Prabhupada". Over the years, I have tried my best to follow your instruction and the same has gotten me closer to Krishna and Guru Maharaj. I am ever so grateful for your teachings, they have helped this wretched soul evolve every passing day.

Dandavat Pranam Guru Maharaj.

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Dandavat Pranam.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and his dedicated followers.

I Pray to lord for your continued association year after year. And for your good health.

Thank you maharaj for giving me the opportunity to serve you, Guru parampara and Krishna by being able to transcribe some of your lectures. I wish to continue the same.

I thank you for always giving us this mood of humility and service through your classes. Also reminding us again and again about the futility of this material world.

Maharaj I wish to learn srimad bhagavatam from some of our devotees. Currently I am unable to give time to it but this desire is increasing slowly as I am listening to lectures of HH Radha Govind maharaj. I ask for your blessings, so that I can get some arrangement for learning and be able to serve Srimad bhagavatam.

I am also listening to the series on Gopi Geet by HG chaitanya caran prabhu's podcast which gives me the right context and mood to hearing about these most pure pastimes of lord. I beg your blessings for understanding and being able to appreciate the service and love of Gopis which is so easily misunderstood in this world.

I recently tried to shift two of my relatives son's in HG Mukunda lila prabhu's school so that they can live a Krishna conscious life. One of them, my sister's son, is continuing happily under the care of devotees. I beg blessings for these two childrends and thank you for inspiring devotees to create such an opportunity which is very rare nowadays.

I have completed Laghu bhagavatamrta about 75 percent. This book is so much clear cut in the position of different forms of lord, and supreme position of Krishna. I am very much encouraged by reading this book and my faith has increased.

Maharaj in my internal struggle to give up bad habits and desires, there is not much improvement from last year. But I am trying different means to get rid of them as they create such obstacles in devotional service. I need your blessings for overcoming these animalistic desires. Please bless me with a life free of these struggles with animalistic desires.

I am still unable to decide in which ashram to continue practicing devotional service, please maharaj give some direction regarding this.

Maharaj I have purchased one flat in Miraroad near our Iskcon temple. I am hoping my family members become proper devotees of Iskcon which does not seem to be happening right now. Please bless them with Krishna consciousness.

Maharaj I tried to connect two boys from my collage, but after sometime one continued chanting 2 rounds but the other did not. Please bless them also.

I thank all devotees in Gita bhavan for giving me a Krishna conscious environment and special thanks to HG Maharaas prabhu who is taking so much trouble in guiding us on our Krishna consciousness.

Finally I beg you to bless me with perfection in life. by getting a consciousness where we only wish to serve Krishna and his devotees free of all material contamination.

BHAGADATTA DAS & JAYANTI DEVI DASI (BHAKTIVEDANTA MANOR, UK)

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept our most respectful obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to our illustrious sampradaya! All glories to Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and His most merciful brother, Sri Nityananda Prabhu! All glories to the Divine Couple, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha!

We feel very blessed that this year we had your darshan, during the meeting you requested over internet. We feel very fortunate to be connected with you, even in the most insignificant way. We miss very much your personal visits to UK. We also miss the most precious moments we had with you during the annual yatras in the Holy Dhamas. We are constantly struggling with the lower modes of nature, due to our previous materialistic samskaras. It's a miracle that such fallen and unworthy conditioned humans, like us, have come in contact with Lord Caitanya's most glorious sankirtan movement. We have not been able to offer anything good at your lotus feet.

We still have a big hope that one day soon, we will be able to offer some more significant service at your feet. Please shower your causeless mercy and patience upon us. Although we don't deserve to be counted as your disciples, you gave us a lot of encouragement by enlightening us about the glories of Sri Shantipuram, the most precious abode of Sri Adhvaita Acarya. We hope that one day you will grace us with a visit to Bulgaria and put your lotus feet on our small land. We would love to develop that place as a centre for pleasing glorification of Srila Prabhupda, Sri Krishna Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Sri Sri Radha Krishna and all Their Vaishnava devotees.

Thank you very much for everything!

All glories to your most auspicious day of appearance in this world!

Respected Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Gurudev, I am extremely grateful to you for your association that you are giving to me through your lectures. By hearing your lectures I get to learn the deeper aspects of Vaishnava philosophy, Vaishnava culture and different apects of devotional service and at the same time I become aware of how far I 'm from these ideals that you set through your life and teachings.

Gurudev, in a recent address you were comparing how by taking care of cows in New Vrindhavan, you never felt the need to take care of another family which is generally fully dependent on the master of family, as these cows are already playing that role of fully dependent living entities and how all of us are like that cows which are completely dependent on your for our sustenence in our spiritual life. Guru Maharaj, its my sincere and earnest prayer that let the stick of your instructions control this cow from wandering away from devotional path chalked out by Srila Prabhupada and Acaryas.

Also, I am especially grateful Maharaj for most nectarean kathas that you make us drown in. Because, Maharaj, you are completely immersed in those pastimes, we also get to relish some drops of these nectarean pastimes coming though your Lotus mouth.

I beg to become and then remain a humble servant of servant of servant of your servants and assist in whatever insignificant way I can in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Pl. Accept my humble obesances at your lotus feet.

I was hearing a lecture from his Grace Radheshyam Prabhuji, Prabhuji was mentioning about your expectations from a disciple,

1. Do menial Services, be humble,and tolerant

2. Serve your God Brothers nicely to please them.

3. Cooperation with local authority and with all God Brothers and Sisters.

4. Not to be criticising and respect all

I feel ashamed when I analyses my actions with respect to the expectations from you. Dear Gurudev I have disrespeced my local authorities due to some of my egoistic understanding. I have all the qualities in worst level. Due to which my relationship with my God brothers also strained. My mind is always hanker for Kaam, Krodha...

But still desire to serve you and rise up the std set by you and bring happiness to you. I have only hope that your forgiveness and mercy.

I desire to correct my self and control my senses, pl give me some strength and blessings Maharaj.

Dear Gurudev you always make it a point to emphasize on trunadapi sunichena..., vaishnava seva, Morning Sadhana..but I take these instructions for granted, pl. Give me strength to prioritise these instructions are my life and sole and follow.

Hare Krishna,

Dear most Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your divine lotus feet.

I am grateful to you for guiding me on my spiritual Journey Home & Journey within by your abundant Vaani association which is very deep, profound, abundant in devotion, calls for urgency of surrender, with utmost seriousness, sincerity and without ulterior motives. You keep reminding the guiding compass on this journey is to live by the below two verses of Shikshastakam:

tṛṇād api su-nīcena

taror iva sahiṣṇunā

amāninā māna-dena

kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ

na dhanaṁ na janaṁ na sundarīṁ kavitāṁ vā jagad-īśa kāmaye

mama janmani janmanīśvare

bhavatād bhaktir ahaitukī tvayi

You keep telling about the three principles of Naamruchi, Vaishnav Seva and Jivadaya.

You keep reminding us of the six principles of surrender ānukūlyasya saṅkalpaḥ

prātikūlyasya varjanam

rakṣiṣyatīti viśvāso

goptṛtve varaṇaṁ tathā

ātma-nikṣepa-kārpaṇye

ṣaḍ-vidhā śaraṇāgatiḥ

You keep reminding to be careful of not watering the weeds instead of Bhakti lata & avoid the Hathi mata aparadha.

But instead of so much excellent guidance by your Holiness still I being a dull headed animal, hypocrite, ungrateful, so called disciple who has no love in his hard heart, has not taken any sincere effort to follow you.

I beg for forgiveness and your mercy. Please forgive me and be merciful to me so that I can get a drop of your oceanic vaishnav qualities, devotion and surrender.

Please accept me despite my fallen condition and purify me so that I can be of some use to Hari, Guru and vaishnavas and serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada as per your desire.

PAMHO.

Maharaj you always say ""Attention to datails is sign of love"

I recently went to visit GEV.I heard your one pastime. At Gev there are many diaromas. All diaromas there are very special. In rainy season devotees put them inside.Once after rainy season you were going to visit GEV with some guests. Devotees were in rush to put all diaromas in their respective places before your visit. You visited GEV with guests and was showing every place to them. Now you were near Aghasur diaroma. Suddenly you became very serious. You was looking at gopas and you said ,It is very critical time,all gopas are in dangerous situation. All devotees started looking at each other.And then you said If Krishna wl not reeach in time then all gopas life is in danger.. Then all understood that they have forget to put little krishna in diaroma. They rushed to bring Krishna. and then you said If you are not able to bring Krishna in next 2 minuits I will consider you are from Kamsas party. Although it feels that you were joking but you was very serious .

You are very serious even about the smallest thing in devotional service. You always respect things which are utilised in Krishnas service. You are wonderful achrya ,you showed by your example how to behave and respect people and things .You always act on principal Trunadapi Sunichen which you repeat always in your lectures.

on this auspicious day I beg yo bless me with some devotinal qualities to respect people and things in service of Krishna.

Last year I begged for mercy of Maharaj in the form of any special service and was fortunate to transcribe his few lectures.

Maharaj, recently I was transcribing one lecture of yours where you were mentioning that anything we are attracted to in this world for our own enjoyment we are taking the role of Ravana. Extract of the lecture is as below....

jīvera ‘svarūpa’ haya — kṛṣṇera ‘nitya-dāsa’ we are eternally His servants and the very root, the basis of all bondage and suffering is when we are not willing to accept our eternal position, when we want to be the predominator, when we want to be the controller and when we want to be the enjoyer. We find that Ram who is the enjoyer of everything he was being attacked by the sister of Ravana (Surpanakha) who wanted to enjoy Him. She wanted to fulfill her lusty desires by exploiting Him. Of course, as we know this entire creation is the expansion of His energy; He is within everything, so factually anyone who is in this unfortunate condition of being an enjoyer and wants to enjoy any of the property of God is more or less are attacking Ram to fulfill our own lusty desires. When we see the objects of senses, we are overcome with the desire to enjoy that. We should know that this is the property of Ram. Just as Ravana was lusty for Sita and his sister was lusty for Ram—there is no difference, everything is the energy of God—Sita is the divine energy of the Lord. Anything we are attracted to in this world for our own enjoyment we are taking the position of Ravana and his sister; we want to be the enjoyer of the Lord.

This narration of yours Maharaj is perfectly fitting to my situation. Whatever I do even in the name of devotional service, in the name of my own practicing sadhana, I look for my own enjoyment into it, may it be in the form of my own glorification, my own adoration, feeling of myself superior than others etc and the list is long.

Therefore Maharaj please bless me, have your causeless mercy upon me so that I can be relieved by taking role of Ravana rather I can take a role of Hanumanji’s or even the role of squirrel which will please to Lord. Wherein I can realize and practice my eternal nature of being servant of the servants of Lord.

Maharaj, you are personification of quality mentioned in

verse and whole world is glorifying you for your oceanic qualities. Kindly shower upon me a drop of it so that I can purify my human existence. Thank you so much Maharaj.

BHARGAV UDAYRAJ HATTEKAR (NANDED, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obesciense,

Your journey from the west to India in search of the absolute truth inspired me to take up to the path of devotional service unto Krishna and whatever little service I have been rendering is only because of your constant guidance through your transcendental vani.

Your care and guidance through your lectures and your empowered desciples is the only cause of spiritual nourishment for me and many devotees around me. I have no taste for chanting and hearing about the glories of Krishna and his devotees but because of your care I am able to be in association of devotees and I am being allowed to serve them whatever best possible.

Wretched fools like me only exist to increase your anxiety. With the hope of receiving a drop of your mercy I am striving to please you and Srila Prabhupada. Then I will be able to give all bad habits which are holding me back to become an instrument of compassion for the pleasure of Guru and Gauranga.

I only long to become a useful instrument in the hands of your servants and I hope that your kindness never leaves my heart as nothing worse can happen than forgetting your mercy towards an insignificant and ignorant fool like me.

I am not sure if I will be able live by these words. I aspire to only depend on your mercy and to accept my insignificant self as a servant at your lotus feet.

Aspiring to become a servant of your servants,

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Hare Krishna,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,

Happy Krishna Conscious Appearance Day !!

Shastra says Bramhanda Brahmite kon bhagyawan Jiva guru Krishna kripa paye bhakti lata bija,

I don't know what I have done in my past life that I became that bhagyavan jiva which found you as my spiritual master, I'm soo fortunate that I connected to this Guru Parampara through you. Your appearance in this world given the meaning to a life of fallen soul like me, it's you who had converted me from an animal to human being.

From school days I'm hearing about the relation between Guru and shishya but I never understood it until I met you through your book Journey Home. You have given me the realization of what is actually Guru and Shishya means and it is most precious in this entire creation. I have never got opportunity to take your darshan but I know you are their behind me in every situation of my life and in every decision of my life. In every problem your words are the hope and your instructions are the perfect solution.

Srila Prabhupada says that we never repay the debt that is given by our Guru. Which is so true You have given me that debt which I can't repay in any of the lifetime which I may require to go through. So I have nothing to give you on your appearance day except myself. I just want to become servant of your servant every time, just serve you and follow you for every seconds of my life and contribute something in the mission of Srila Prabhupad.

I Know I m not at all qualified for whatever mercy that I'm receiving but Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for being soo merciful upon me and taking care of me like your own daughter. You are sooo far but your closest to my heart you know everything that is going on in my heart. Being such great Maha bhagavat, you are even paying attention on such small insignificant soul who are doing nothing but making so many mistakes every time and even knowing this still you are answering all of my questions and taking me out from all of my difficulties each time.

I'm sooo grateful for your causeless mercy which is protecting me and motivating me for taking Krishna consciousness seriously. Thank you so much for giving me shelter under such wonderful family of Srila Prabhupada and becoming my spiritual father and engaging me in the service of such wonderful devotees.

I m so fallen that I m not able to follow all your instructions that you are giving through your lectures but on this auspicious occasion I'm begging to you please keep showering your mercy on this fallen soul so that I take this

Krishna consciousness seriously, Sincerely and without any alterative motive. And chant the holy name in the mood of trinad api sunichen. And follow your each words and become humble servant of servant and serve this Krishna conscious movement without expecting anything in return.

Your Daughter,

I am deeply grateful for your wisdom and exemplary leadership. You have created many jewels (Bhramacharies and many Grihastha devotees) from whom many around world took inspiration and transform their lives. You have run some of the very classic projects such as Bhakti Vedant Hospital, Gopal's Garden and GEV whose connection personally helped my family to improve our lives.

Your connection helped me during upheavals in my life. I do not have any complains for not having your personal association in quantum. I had your short personal association which gives me faith that you are always praying for all of your disciples and same is experienced by many. I never forget a seen of 2004 when at Nashik Kumbh mela, in hustle bustle of Shahi Snan at Ram Kund you took almost 15 minutes to pray so intensely before entering scared kund.

I am very dumb yet to transform my life worthy of your disciple.

Kindly bestow mercy upon me and my family that we can please vaishnavas to achieve highest benediction of Krishna Prema.

BHAVGRAHI DEVI DASI (PUNE INDIA)

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisance's unto your Lotus feet on this auspicious day of your 71st Vyasa Puja Day.

Gurudev you are the most precious gem in my life. You are like Rainbow in the sky not only with seven colors but with this with unlimited colors of qualities. And you are attracting everyone's attention to you by your beautiful rainbow of qualities.

From these qualities I always get attracted by your simplicity and sensitivity. I was hearing a lecture by HG Muralidhar Prabhu and HG RadhaRani Mataji on your 69th Vyasa puja celebration. HG RadhaRani Mataji was saying that there is a chain of Starbucks coffee shop and once they invited you for the inauguration of their shop in Mumbai. So you accepted their imitation and went there and cut the ribbon. they offered you coffee to drink. But without hurting them and putting them down you told them that you have taken vrata, so cannot bring coffee that day but if you would bring coffee anytime you will like to drink only Starbucks coffee.

Gurudev then HG Muralidhar Prabhu was saying that once in USA at your home HG RadhaRani Mataji told you that you must be having many nice memories associated with this place. You became Grave and said yes I have many positive Memories and after a pause you said I process them to make them positive

So HG Muralidhar Prabhu said this means Gurudev must be having negative

Memories also which he process them to make them positive

Gurudev, we can see in your journey home book that you went through so much negative and challenging situations. Even when Radha Gopinath temple was coming up. You went through many challenging situations but never complained about them rather you learnt from this situations. What you should do and what you should not do for you process them to make them positive and from all this processes you are teaching us how we should process our situation challenging into positive. Also how we should be forgiving and even grateful for the same

Gurudev I also wanted to imbibe these qualities like simplicity, sensitivity, tolerance, forgiveness, but it becomes very difficult for me and to be grateful to those who miss behave with me because becomes very challenging to me. But sincerely I want to please you by imbibing these qualities and to behave with everyone as per your instructions. Gurudev for this I am totally dependent on your Mercy. Gurudev please forgive me for my all sins and offences and one day May the drop of this Rainbow like qualities come in me

Gurudev we pray to the lord ship Shree Shree Radha Gopinath for your Long and healthy life.

My dearest Guru Maharaj, please accept my humble obeisances, all glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to you.

You have shown us by your example how one should follow in the footsteps of their spiritual master. Although trying to follow your instructions I am feeling that the quality and standard of my sadhana needs huge improvements. With your love and guidance we will reach there one day.

Recently I have understood the importance of helping others, we are all Lord Krishna's parts and parcels, some of whom just don't know it yet, regardless of our faults we should overlook them and see the wider picture.

You have opened my heart and soul from being narrowed minded and self centred to the spiritual world and I will be forever grateful to you Maharaj. I wish and pray that we may meet again very soon and would love to have your association again face to face with the hope of initiation.

BHN. TŪNDE SALAKTA (BUDAPEST, HUNGARY)

Hare Krishna! Dear Guru Maharaja!

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Two long years went by since we had seen each other in person at the Bhaktivedanta Manor in 2019. Thus I've been really missing the personal association with you but of course I have understanding and will wait patiently for the next opportunity when travelling won't be restricted anymore and we can go for journeys safely. Nevertheless the main thing is you remain healthy because your disciples love you so much and badly need your instructions in these hard times and for many more years.

Please allow me to share with you some wonderful news: This summer my counsellor Prithvi-pati prabhu and your Hungarian disciple Anandamayi mataji advised me to contact your initiation office in order to make the next step on the spiritual path. After getting in touch with your secretary they asked me to create a profile with my devotional data at the RGM database. A few weeks later I've got the following wonderful news: "We will get in touch whenever we get an update on initiation." It was one of the most wonderful sentences I've ever read in my life. So I keep waiting patiently until the appropriate time will come and I'll become mature enough to get initiated. Even though I don't feel qualified yet but I'll try to do my best to meet, to serve and to please Vaishnavas and I'm hoping to get the mercy of Guru and Gauranga.

In order to get closer to the initiation I've taken the vow Sri Guru Carana Ashraya a few weeks ago at the Govardhana Puja Festival. It was such an inspiring experience I had been waiting for since a long time so I couldn't help crying out of spiritual happiness. The most important question ever since: to find out how I can serve you a better way. Even though you send us regularly messages through your lessons and I keep trying to follow your instructions but it would be so good to know how I could render a more personal service to you. If you could send me some hints or a just a little sign I'd be so thankful.

I'd like to share with you one more wonderful experience: Recently before translating the daily amrita droplet I've sent a note for your Gratitude-book as follows: "Whenever you enter the temple room I can feel Krishna's presence radiating from your heart. Thank you for sharing His love with us."

After having sent this note online I started to translate your daily quote which sounds: "Make the door of your heart so shiny and effulgent that many people walk through that door and enter into the spiritual world." I could hardly believe to my eyes... it was such an amazing reciprocation and so uplifting to experience how much integrity you have and how you teach us with your own example and life which I'm really grateful for. 🙏

Please take good care of yourself and stay healthy. I'm looking forward to meeting you in person or online – as Krishna wishes to arrange it for us in the future.

Maharaj, I just want to thank you, on this day, as finally, I found my spiritual master. I started coming to ISKCON just after reading your book "The journey home", U were motivation, and this many years I was able to stay just because I was firm for taking initiation from you, otherwise, I won't have been able to find my real spiritual master, I was forced so much by other devotees to aspire from other Maharaj s. I used to get upset that why I am not able to meet you or hear live lectures from you... But now I realize it was because you acted as a medium to take me to my spiritual master...

Thank you so much

Dear guru maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupad.

Your compassion is unlimited and is available to all living entities. It was really touching to hear how you stopped your car and drove back, just to offer charnamrit and chant for a dying deer.

Your vibrant and devotion filled lectures always recharge my dead batteries of devotion. The outstanding way in which you sandwich timeless wisdom in enchanting pastimes and intellectual philosophy, has turned lakhs and lakhs of conditioned souls into krishna conscious devotees. Thank you for being the lighthouse guiding me out of the dark phase of my life. I wish I could be more grateful to you for the miracle you did in my life.

Time and again, you are teaching us through your own example how to be humble, tolerant and give respect to others without expecting respect. The difficulties you tolerated in New Vrindavan, are some of the classical examples. Yet this fallen conditioned soul fails the tests of tolerance and humility. Please bless me with strength and devotion to follow your instruction of becoming humble like blade of grass, tolerant like a tree and offering respect to others without expecting any for myself. Please bless me that I may execute duties in a krishna conscious way.

"Even though I have no speaking power to glorify the devotees of the Lord, still I am feeling great pleasure in my mind. Please overlook my faults, O vaishnavas, and make me your servant."

EMBODIMENT OF KRISHNA'S MERCY

One who works as the mediator between the Jiva and the Lord, he is Guru. It is said "guru krishna prasade paya bhakti lata bija", by the mercy of guru one gets the seed of bhakti. Therefore guru is known as krishna-kripa-shri-murti, he is embodiment of krishna-kripa. Krishna-kripa has assumed a body, and that is shri-guru. He has come here. To have the darshan of guru means to get krishna-prasada, the mercy of Krishna.

Once in the year 1999 you came to Nashik with some brahmacharies for Nashik Yatra. Its your causeless mercy that you desired to start a Iskcon center in Nashik. Krishna follows the desire of pure devotees. You sent your student here in Nashik & steadily started weekly program. That small desire of yours now fructify into a Big temple of Their Lordship Sri Sri Radha Madan-gopalji along with Lalita Devi & Vishakha Devi and Sri Sri Nitai Gaurchandra.

KRISHNA'S REPRESENTATIVE

Shri-guru is bona fide representative of Krishna. He knows Krishna; he knows the will of Krishna. He is very intimate with Krishna, nikunja-yuno rati-keli-siddhyai, arranging for the perfection of Radha and Krishna's conjugal loving affairs. He is mukunda-preshtha, Lord Mukunda's dear most servitor. kintu prabhoryah priya eva tasya — He is very dear to Krishna. He knows what Krishna's desire is, what Krishna's will is; and Krishna listens to him because he is a very intimate, confidential associate.

Through such guru, Krishna's will is expressed. Otherwise no one can understand what is the Krishna's will.

Shri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu descended here by his causeless mercy to deliver fallen souls & started Hari Naam Sankirtan movement. Shrila Prabhupad being His captain spread the movement all over the world. Now O Gurudeva you have taken this legacy from your spiritual master & continued sankirtan movement practically everywhere in the world. It's our great fortune that we are attached to such great Gaudiya Parampara.

RESIDENT OF VAIKUNTHA

Guru means one who brings the message of Vaikuntha to us. He is krishna Prasad, an associate of Krishna. If we completely surrender unto him and get his mercy, then we will be able to understand his message, otherwise not. Only one who has come from Vaikuntha can speak about Vaikuntha. Such person can deliver the pure message with nothing mixed because he has come from that kingdom. That is Guru.

O Guru Maharaj, whenever you give discourses we could immediately envision those pastimes of Lord at that moment. Completely creating the scene how that Lila took place with your different sounds, your explanation moreover your realisation all those pastimes become real in front of us.

One may say that to come close proximity to a person is association. But that is not the fact. Association takes place in the mind, in the heart.

O Guru Maharaj, in our yatra you gave us Vai-kuntha atmosphere. So many devotees association who came from various parts of the world. Its really great to know how they are struggling in devotional service & balancing household duties. Visiting various holy places together (pranayi bhakata sange). Together doing mangal aarti, chanting holy name, taking Prasad, Harinaam Sankirtan & many more. Just almost every moment absorbed in Krishna, really such wonderful experience that could not be written only relished or will never get anywhere.

In yatra we have seen how you lovingly reciprocate with your god brothers, caring every aspects of them, giving all respects by wonderfully glorifying their services in Shrila Prabhupad movement. It give us glimpse how we should be humble & respectful to our god brothers.

O Guru Maharaj, We have seen in yatra many devotees coming with different mentality. But when you go in front of Lord (the Archa Vigraha) you simply pray for everyone in yatra. Not just yatra to be smoothly conducted but for the upliftment of their consciousness. Also you gave us instruction to pray in front of the deities we visits in yatra; na dhanam na janam na sundarim kavitam va jagadish kamaye mam janmani janmani ishware bhavatad bhakti ahaituki tvayi.

In one of yatra in the year 2007 at Mayapur O Guru Maharaj, you were singing Damodar Ashtakam in front of Sri Sri Radha Madhav, all the devotees were offering lamps to the Lord. Suddenly I remembered in one of your lecture you mentioned when one pray to Their Lordships keeping pure devotee in forefront & beg for mercy or ask any spiritual boon, Lord bound to fulfil it. So I went to the back of Kirtan Mandali where you were singing, and asked Sri Sri Radha Madhav to make my parents devotees of yours (because though they were favourable but not so devoted & chanting rounds or following rules & regulations.) Miraculously in December same year they started chanting 16 rounds & following 4 regulative principles. Its all because of you dear Gurudeva. Later whenever I got opportunity to beg for spiritual boon I took advantage of it frequently.

PREMA BHAKTI SUTRA

Such Guru who has come down from Krishna' abode, there is a Prema-bhakti-sutra means "rope" or "Thread". One end of it is attached to the lotus feet of Krishna in Goloka Vrindavan. The guru has come with the other end of that rope here. The conditioned soul fallen in the deep dark well of material existence, are suffering. Such a guru is outside the well. He is not under the grip of Maya. He throws his end of the rope to the conditioned souls in the dark well & asks, "Grab it very tightly." Then he pulls the soul up. This is the process. It is not easy affair to deliver one soul from the fort of maya. The guru has to spend gallons and gallons of spiritual blood to deliver just one soul. It is a heavy responsibility.

It is reciprocal affair. It is not one-sided. One should grab the rope very tightly. That means one should follow the guru's instructions as it is. Whatever he says, just do exactly that. He gives us some do's and don'ts. We must strictly follow his instructions without laziness. Then guru will pull you up.

Yes O Gurudeva, whenever its Siddhant or Tattva in your lecture you present so easy & simple way that everyone like to follow it. Many times some principles are difficult to follow but you make them easily attainable. Its all happened because all those principles you strictly follow in your life. Its our responsibility to strictly follow in our life.

One of your student once asked O Guru Maharaj, Guru Puja is meant for our Gurudeva, how we lovingly worship you together with Shrila Prabhupad. You humbly answered my eternal position is at the lotus feet of Shrila Prabhupad, whenever you remember me & offer a flower at the lotus feet of Shrila Prabhupad that's enough. Listening to this answer I always remember & keep one more flower at the lotus feet of Shrila Prabhupad.

MERCIFUL GLANCE

Guru darshan means that the guru casts his merciful glance on us. One cannot see guru, but if he casts his merciful glance on us then one can see him. Otherwise a conditioned soul has no vision. Only by guru's mercy can one understand who he is, how he is an associate of the Lord. How one can see the Sun? Without the help of the sunshine no one can see the sun. Without the mercy of Guru one cannot see a Guru. When one really have guru darshana, whose heart bleeds seeing suffering souls then one can come out of clutches of Maya. What does association of guru mean? It means to hear from him and to imbibe his mood. That is association. To be influenced by his personality and to imbibe the mood of him is really Guru Darshan.

O Guru Maharaj, the atmosphere you created in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple its really splendid. The community you developed is so congenial & helpful. You practically fulfil various aspects of ideal community like counselor system, Bhaktivedant hospital, school, mid day meal, GEV eco villege, yatras, Sunday feast & many more. That same is replicated in various parts of Radha Gopinath extention centers also.

PRECIOUS GIFT – THE JOURNEY HOME

Shrila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur once said, "I don't read the book, I read the author. I first see the author to see if he's authentic."

So 'The Journey Home' is such a great gift to us which gives us enthusiasm & determination to follow rules & regulations of Sadhana Bhakti firmly. The Journey Home gives us a light how much pain you took to achieve the real goal of life, so we should not waste our time in finding different alternatives of spiritual path.

ACCEPTING THE DISCIPLE'S REACTIONS

When guru accepts a disciple it is natural that any sinful reactions of a disciple will go to the guru. A disciple must be careful, "My guru is so merciful who lifted me up from blind well, fort of Durga. I should be a worthy servant. I should not put gurudeva into trouble. Why shall he suffer for me? He is doing so much good for me that I cannot repay him. Why shall I become so degraded, do so much nonsense, become so fallen, performing sinful – abominable acts that will put him in trouble?" Disciple should think, "No! My duty is to help my guru. He should not get trouble from me."

O Guru Maharaj give us strength that throughout our life we will never make you embarrassed.

It was my great fortune that you chose me as your disciple eternally I am grateful to you.

Kripa bin-

du diya, koro ei dase, tranaaeksha ati hina…….. so that we can develop attitude of gratitude and genuine which you always emphasize in your teachings and exemplify by your conduct and dealings.

Guru Maharaj every year on this auspicious day of your vyas puja, your glories are revealed more and more which make us to feel more and more indebted to your lotus feet. When I hear more and more divine qualities from your God brothers and your senior disciples I feel so fortunate to be recipient of your mercy.

Thankyou Guru Maharaj for giving me shelter in this glorious Guru Sishya Parampara inspite of all my disqualification. You have given me everything (siksha diksha,sadhana, sastra, dham, devotees association, naam kirtan, Krishna prasadam,) needed to go back to Godhead.

Begging for your causeless mercy to develop right attitude, right motivation and right desires which may please you and allow me to assist you in your divine service to Srila Prabhupad. Also beg for your mercy so that I can sincerely follow my vow of initiation and can become insignificant instrument in this glorious misson of Srila Prabhupad for your pleasure.Guru Maharaj during pandemic time I got some time to read consistently Srila Prabhupad books, by your blessings and causeless mercy I could study Srimad Bhagvatam all 12 cantos with group of devotees (every day 2 hours) along with all Srila Prabhupad small books. Currently studying CC antya lila. Thank you for always inspiring us to study Srila Prabhupad books systematically Guru Maharaj.

Constantly praying for your mercy so that I may be able to render some service to your lotus feet in the mood of dasanudas. Due to my impure heart and limited ability, I am unable to glorify your divine qualities, Please forgive me Guru Maharaj but always keep me under your shelter and under guidance of your faithful disciples.

Hare Krsna Guru Maharaj.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, expressing my gratitude to you for accepting me as your disciple, although I have no qualifications to be so...

The kind of humility expressed by every act of Yours is inconceivable, your teachings are my lifelines, a couple of personal conversations with you are inscribed in my heart forever. Your love for all your disciples is unmeasurable and I am fortunate to be one of your disciple. The kind of love you have given me is something I have never received before.

Always praying to the Lord to keep you happy and healthy forever and praying for myself that someday, in some way I will be able to serve the Vaisnavas in a way which will please you. Eternally grateful to you.

Always desiring to make you proud.

Aspiring to be the servant of your servants.

Dear Gurumaharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to you in this most auspicious occasion of your appearance day.

I am grateful for the opportunity to glorify you. Even though I am an insignificant servant I am allowed to offer some service, although imperfectly performed. A senior godsister once said to me that all seva we are blessed with is just through the mercy of the spiritual master. Being totally unqualified I understand how the rare opportunity to serve devotees in this life is my greatest fortune and wealth.

Your exemplary character is so inspiring that you attract people from all cultures and made them favourable to Krishna consciousness. Your compassion and kindness toward everyone, your humility to always put yourself in the position of the servant of everyone, your integrity of character and the depth of your realisations... the description of your qualities reminds me the list of qualities of devotees mentioned in chapter twelve of Bhagavad Gita. Krishna said those who possess those qualities are very dear to Him. In a lecture you said how Bhagavad Gita is not a book for philosophical speculation but it's meant to be applied in our life, and Krishna consciousness is about transformation of the heart. So how fortunate we are as disciples to have such a great living example of Krishna 's teachings in your saintly character and transcendental personality.

Sometimes my meditation during book distribution is to treat whoever I meet in such a way that you would be pleased to see if you were present there. So although I don't have any of your qualities, I am trying to develop even a fraction of them by asking myself how would you behave in a particular situation.

Thank you for being a constant guidance in my life. Through your instructions and lectures I am relived from the burden of mentally speculate about what is best for me.

I pray for the blessing to never deviate from your instructions.

Many times in your lectures you mention how important is for devotees to be united in seva and cooperate nicely for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada. So I am grateful for the opportunity to serve you by serving the local spiritual community I am part of, hoping that my little efforts to try to please devotees here is pleasing to you.

18 फेब्रुवारी, 2018 हा दिवस माझ्या जीवनातिल सर्वात आनंदाचा होता कारण या दिवशी मला आपण शिष्य म्हणून स्वीकारले व मला नवीन जन्म मिळाला. गोवर्धन इको विलेज म्हणजे आपले आणि सर्वांचे आवडते स्थान. मी तो क्षण कधीच विसरू शकत नाही. आपला स्मित हास्य चेहरा सदैव डोळ्यासमोर येतो. आपण सर्वांना प्रेमाने घेऊन चालतात.

आपली यात्रा आम्हासाठी जणू पर्वणीच असते. चातक पक्ष्याप्रमाणे आम्ही यात्रेची वाट पहात असतो. आपण यात्रेमध्ये तीन तीन तास कृष्ण कथा सांगून गीता भागवताचे मर्म उदाहरणाद्वारे समाजवतात. त्यानंतर संकीर्तनामध्ये लहान बालकपासून वयस्कर सर्वजण आनंदाने नृत्य करतात. त्यात सर्वजण इतके मग्न होतात की आपले देहभान विसरून जातात.

गुरू महाराज आपल्या जीवनाचा प्रवास लहानपणापासून अतिशय खडतर आहे. आपल्या पालकांना सोडून भगवंत प्राप्तीसाठी आपण विश्व प्रवास केला. आपले आत्मवृत्त 'तृषार्थ पथिक 'वाचून काही प्रसंगातून डोळे पाणावतात जसे रात्रभर डोक्यावर मुंगुस ठेवून न हालचाल करता रात्रभर बसून राहणे, नेपाळमध्ये रानटी कुत्रे आपल्या सभोवताली भुंकत असतात त्यातून बाहेर येणे फारच कठीण होते, गंगेच्या दलदलीमध्ये आपण फसलात व मदत करण्यासाठी आसपास कोणीच नव्हते, तरी आपण आपली जिद्द न सोडता बाहेर आले.

आपणांस कृष्ण कोण आहे हे माहीत नव्हते परंतु एक कृष्णाचे चित्र आपणांस प्रभावी करते तसेच गंगामातेकडून हरे कृष्ण महामंत्र प्राप्त करून व त्यावर विश्वास ठेऊन पुढचा खडतर प्रवास आपण केला. आपल्या प्रवासात अनेक साधुसंत तसेच ढोंगी आपणांस भेटले परंतू त्यांचा गुरू म्हणून स्वीकार न करता योग्य गुरू, ज्यासाठी आपण सर्वस्व समर्पण करू शकाल या शोधात होते. शेवटी कृष्ण कृपा मूर्ती भक्तीवेदांत स्वामी प्रभूपाद यांचा आपण गुरू म्हणून स्वीकार केला.

आपणांस गीता भागवत काय आहे हे माहीत नव्हते परंतु श्रील प्रभूपादांच्या कृपेमुळे आपणांस त्याचा मर्म कळले. आज तेच ज्ञान आपण सर्वाना वाटत आहात व हजारोंचे लाडके गुरू झाले आहात.

मला खुप अभिमान आहे की आपल्या कडून मला दिक्षा प्राप्त झाली. गीता भागवताचा मर्म काही अंशी मला आपल्या कडून समजला. भगवान श्रीकृष्ण कसे सर्वोच्च आहेत व त्यांची भक्ती कशी करावी याचे खरे ज्ञान प्राप्त झाले.

जीवनात गुरू कृपा फार महत्वाची असतेव त्यांच्या कृपेनेच आपण भगवंतकडे पोहचू शकतो.

मी आपणांस मनापासून शतशःप्रणाम करते.

O Guru Maharaj, I bow down at your lotus feet.

February 18, 2018 was the happiest day of my life because on this day you accepted me as a disciple and I was born again. Govardhan Eco Village is your and everyone's favorite place. I will never forget that moment. Your smiling face is always in front of your eyes. We all walk with love.

Your journey is like a blessing for us. We are waiting for the Yatras like a Chatak bird. You spent three hours in the yatra telling the story of Krishna and explaining the essence of Gita, Bhagavata through examples. Then in Sankirtan, everyone from young to old dances happily. Everyone is so engrossed in it that they forget their consciousness.

Guru Maharaj, the journey of your life has been very difficult since childhood. Leaving your parents, you traveled the world to attain God. Reading your autobiography 'Trishartha Pathik' makes you blink your eyes on some occasions like sitting up all night without moving mongoose on your head, it is very difficult to get out of the barking of wild dogs around you in Nepal. He came out without giving up his stubbornness.

You did not know who Krishna was, but the image of a Krishna impresses you, and you made the next arduous journey by receiving and believing in the Hare Krishna Mahamantra from Mother Ganga. During your travels, he met many saints and hypocrites, but without accepting them as your Guru, you were in search of the right Guru, to whom you could dedicate everything. In the end, you accepted Swami Prabhupada as Guru.

You did not know what the Gita, Bhagavata was but by the grace of Srila Prabhupada you understood its essence. Today, we all feel the same knowledge and have become the beloved Guru of thousands.

I am very proud that I received Diksha from you. I understood the essence of Gita, Bhagwat from you to some extent. Gained true knowledge of how Lord Krishna is supreme and how to worship Him.

Guru's grace is very important in life and only by His grace can we reach God.

I salute you from the bottom of my heart

Please accept my humble offering adding in a small insignificant way to the splendor of the fragrant garland of unique flowerlike personalities, my future God siblings,

May I work in harmony with all,

to encircle all of Bhumi Devī, offering to all a sutra,

direct line,

connection to You, and through this variegated diverse garland of shelter may we offer a link, to all inquisitive, all suffering, all seeking souls, back to home,

back to our original connection with Godhead.

With a humble heart I long to serve, please provide me access to pure service of Their Lordships and the devotees.

My humble obeisances Guru Maharaj!!!

It's a great pleasure to write to you again. Throughout the year I had a lot of things in my mind to say to you about how you inspire me, and how I feel in many moments due to the separation of your near presence, but at this moment it's always difficult to think in something. But one of the things that's very clear is, when I am in a great problem, I think in you, in my mind I speak with you a lot, we have nice conversations and you help me to solve every single problem that I have. You are my north for everything, even simple things.

These last years were very difficult in many ways for everyone, many had problems with money, with relationships, with depression, with faith, and for me it was not different. We needed to stay far from our very dear friends, our dear comrades in Krishna consciousness and this made us sad and stagnant, but at this moment, I discovered how important and deep our connection is. Your words always inspired me, but at that time was the perfect moment to realize your instructions, and this saved me from my own mind and the traps of this material world.

You normally speaks about relationships and values, and this is very meaningful and special for me, - Be kind and help others, always have kind words to say or simply don't say things that could be harsh, try to solve the problems of others, be honest and ethic, take our vows and duties very siriusly to advance, to really attain krishna's mercy - to love krishna, and at the same time, don't judge others, try to understand the condition of each one. This is so precious that in these times it could help me to overcome many mental problems, and understand more and more Krishna consciousness. Through your lessons I could keep my faith, accept many things as it is, help others, develop devotion for Krishna, and develop some happiness in this world. Through your lessons I could see the mercy of Krishna upon me, and I could understand how to be a better person in every situation.

when I was a teenage I read a book called " The catcher in the rye", this book tells about the problems that a romantic teenage face about the conflicts and contradictions of the world, and have a special moment that the main persona is asked about what he really wanna to be, and he says more or less this: " do you remember this poem that speaks about children playing in a rye field? So imagine a rye field with children playing near a precipice, and when a child goes to the edge I catch her, this is what I want to be - The catcher in the rye." This is something that made an indelible impression on me, so when you act and say to be a caretaker, you are deeply encouraging me to be what I really desire to be, and I don't have enough words to say thank you.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj!!!

your ever disciple and servant,

Chaitanya Chandrodaya Das.

CHAITANYA KISHORE DAS (CHICAGO, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaja !!

Please accept my humble obiesances !!! All Glories to Srila Prabhupada and Al Glories to you.

Wishing you a Very Happy Appearance Day today. From all my little experiences of being in presence of you over the years either through your lectures or in person, one lesson I thoroughly learned is to always express our gratitude with utmost humility . Irrespective of what People think , we must always express our gratitude to all the living entities in general and all the devotees specially. Hearing about Gratitude and how it is a wonderful quality certainly makes me feel good, however when I delve deep into my heart , I see I am lacking so much of it . Having a role model , like yourself in midst of us it makes is so much easy to see and realize the principle of Gratitude and Humility in action. Expressing gratitude and humility is your second nature , I am simply amazed to see how consistently and effortlessly you express gratitude to those who are your well-wishers and those who are not. I do realize this practice of being Grateful definitely protects one from all the vices of human nature which are major roadblocks in our spiritual journey. Gratitude will protect us from being falsely proud and arrogant about our achievements or become completely depressed and hopeless in our failures. These are some of the lessons I have learnt from you.

This year has been a year of lot of anxiety and uncertainty. At global level anxieties created due to the pandemic and the destruction it caused to many of our acquaintances , and anxieties created because of personality conflicts, anxieties due to personal life situations and finally anxieties of mind and body. With all of this going on all at once, is sometimes seemed that I am getting distanced and complacent with my spiritual practice . In the midst of all of this, I was thinking how much more anxiety you were going through worrying and trying to console family of all your disciples and Godbrothers, who were going through various challenges due to the pandemic and other situations created because of that. Inspite of all this ,whenever we saw you on zoom giving a lecture , you were the same, expressing gratitude to everyone and humbly enlighthing and encouraging all of us by your example and words.

I pray to Sri Sri Kishore Kishori for your long and healthy life. Also We pray to continue serving you in your mission to help Srila Prabhupada. I also pray for your blessings so I can also emulate your example of Gratitude in my own life to some degree as per my capacity and be a transparent instrument to reflect your wonderful quality to others.

CHAITANYAPRIYA DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dear Gurumaharaj,

Hare Krsna. Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All Glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada. It has been around 21 months since you left India just before the Covid Lockdown. Since then things have been slow and then fast and then again slow and fast and somehow we have managed to get through this period having faced so many challenges falling sick, family members passing away, financial constraints etc. However your absence has made it feel like forever. We have seen you several times on the online lectures and programs which you have so kindly given your most valuable time for. But having your live darshan in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Temple or Govardhan Eco Village is a feast for the eyes for your disciples and followers who are missing you so much. It has felt like several decades these last few months. Many times we have felt so lost amidst all this chaos. We have tried to see these challenges in light of your teachings and inspirations that you have shared with us all these years in your lectures and meetings. Without knowing that you are there always with your disciples guiding them and giving them your shelter they would have probably been totally lost and would have taken terrible decisions thereby our lives would have been totally miserable. But somehow knowing at the back of our minds how we need to somehow or the other please you we have tried to pick ourselves up and continued to stand and walk like small babies and infants who fall while learning how to walk but then immediately try to stand up and keep moving forward.

I remember the first lecture i ever heard from Your Holiness in my first ever yatra was at Jagannath Baldev Gardens in Purshottam Kshetra Jagannath Puri. It was a lecture you gave on the appearance of Lord Jagannath in this world and His pastimes. You mentioned so many wonderful points in that lecture but two statements of yours i have always carried with me in my heart. One you said and the first time i ever heard from you and I quote your wonderful words you said " Who is a Vaishnava, one who offers all respect to others and expects no respect for oneself" and your second statement was when Lord Nila Madhava disappeared from this world and Maharaj Indradyumna was not able to get Lords Darshan so he became very sad and morose. Immediately Narada Muni could understand his mental condition and Narada told the King that one should never give up hope in Krsna Consciousness. This has been the most profound statement i have ever heard in my life in all these years. With my weak mental, emotional and spiritual condition even the small challenges in my life have rattled me and i have felt like giving up my life so many times but i try to remind myself how i should always be hopeful and pray to Lord for strength and mercy . I can very well say that had i not been trying to somehow practice Krsna Consciousness then i would surely given up my life by now. So you have not only saved me spiritually by accepting me as your disciple but also saved my life on the physical level also.

I have made many many mistakesand done very bad things in my life even after coming to ISKCON. For this reason i do not have the courage to show my face to you and i do not think i will ever have the courage to come in front of you. But still i promise you that i am working hard to improve on myself and i everyday remind myself how even though i may not able to sufficiently purify myself till the end of this life but still i will never leave ISKCON and this greatest movement of Srila Prabhupada and even though i consider myself a liability to Your Holiness, to Srila Prabhupada and to the entire parampara i will try to serve more and more and as much as i can with my limited capacity

I pray to you for keeping me in your prayers and your blessings and mercy to all the devotees that is my only hope in this world.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prubhudada.

This is very special year – it is the 125th anniversary of Srila Prabhupada's appearance in this world. It has been a very eventful year. We have seen the rise of Coronavirus bring about a situation never seen in recent times. In spite of the difficulties that this brought about, your tireless endeavours to bring the message of Caitanya Mahaprabhu through modern methods of communication – Zoom, You Tube, Instagram etc, was the saving grace for many souls.

Over the past year, one positive impact has been the rise of book distribution as desired by Srila Prabhupada. During the Christmas marathon 2020, worldwide distribution of Bhagavad Gita As It is reached record levels – over 2 million were distributed.

During the recent Bhadra campaign, over 35,000 sets of Srimad Bhagavatam were distributed worldwide, another truly remarkable record.

We are playing a small part in this seva to please Srila Prabhupada by being active members of the Sankirtan team at Bhaktivedanta Manor. We seek your blessings that we may continue to engage in this blissful service for many years to come.

We are also very grateful to have had the personal association of HG Vaisesika Prabhu and his wife, HG Nirakula Mataji during their just completed tour of the UK. This was due to the tireless endeavour of our Sankirtan leader, HG Divya Nama prabhu.

We pray that you continue to enjoy good health for many years to come in the service of ISKCON, enabling the message of Caitanya Mahaprabhu to be spread everywhere.

We remain grateful for your association online and look forward to the day when we may have the good fortune of having your personal association at a seminar/event.

Hare Krishna ! Obeisances to you Maharaj!

Extremely grateful to Your Holiness for creating an entire Krishna Conscious community in such an intensely material city of Mumbai.

The Radha Gopinath Temple set up by Your Holiness is like an oasis in a desert giving me and so many devotees an opportunity to engage all our senses in the service of the Lordships. Its very presence has given all of us the rare, invaluable association of devotees , a network of inspiring teachers, invalauable counsellee mentors, engaging spiritual programmes, easily available Vedic study courses, helpful senior devotees and ample seva oppurtunities. Its offshoot at Shivaji Park has given me a personal mentor, further association of devotees, cherished devotee friends, seva opportunities and kept me engaged in the thoughts of Lord Krishna, which wouldn't have been possible otherwise.

The Govardhan Eco Village, a dream dham built with so much of dedication , hard work and devotion for the Lord has absolutely brought the experience of Vrindavan within the reach of us Mumbaikars.

There is so much that I am missing acknowledging here in this offering.

The most inspiring of all is the way you live by example and exemplify humility and sincerity in your words and action. Prayers to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath and Sri Sri Vrindavan Bihari to always keep You under Their Shelter. Also praying that I am able to render some service to the temple or senior devotees which may please you and The Lordships.

Dear Gurudeva, Happy appearance day to you. Maharaj! I heard in lectures that the greatness of a person can be understood by how much he tolerate. I got the good fortune to hear about your New Vrindavan pastimes from devotees. Without intention, tears were rolling down and I thought why guru maharaj has to undergo this much struggles and I also got an answer that my guru maharaj has that much determination and faith towards Srila Prabhupad's mission and faith. Tree is glorified by the production of fruits. You are the most ripened fruit maharaj in the tree of Srila Prabhupad and You are giving the same nutrients whatever you got from Srila Prabhupad to nourish the soul of millions and millions through your nectarean lectures. I always pray that to be one of such a soul that completely depends upon the mercy of guru for nourishment of my spiritual life. Your insignificant aspiring disciple.

CHETAN TOTE (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj ji, Please accept my Dandavat Pranam, All glories to Your Own Self. I consider it my great fortune to have an opportunity to glorify such a Pure Devotee as Your Self though Im insignificant. It was possible only by the Mercy of Your Disciple HG Bhakti Vaibhav Prabhuji and Bhakta Vikas Sinam Prabhuji from Pune NVCC temple that I received this wonderful opportunity. Dear Maharaj ji Your life has been such an inspiration to millions, myself being one of them. Initially when I got connected to HG BVP, Your bestseller book 'The Journey Home' was the first book that he recommended me to read, but at that time I didn't know much about You and foolishly discontinued it. But HG BVP has always been so kind and merciful to this most fallen soul and he cultivated in me a taste to read Srila Prabhupad Books and hear Your recorded lectures. HG BVP once on the day of Gaur Poornima asked me listen with him a recorded discourse by You on the deliverance of Jagai and Madhai. Maharaj ji Your Vani is so enlightening and divine that it can attract anyone. Your Vani is so powerful it made me feel as if I had personally gone into the past and all the events of the deliverance of Jagai and Madhai were happening before my eyes and I couldnt hold back my emotions. Just like when the beams coming out of a projector are understandable when thay fall on a screen similarly when Your sound vibration enters the ears of a listener it makes one feel as if one is witnessing the pastimes before ones own eyes. Your Ram Katha during Ramanavami was similarly very attractive. During Lock down also You have been blessings us by Your online lectures which once ended up with Your Merciful Glance over all the viewers when you asked to put on our cameras, I just hope you happened to glance over me as well. Maharaj ji you have also taught by your own example how to remain surrendered to Guru and execute his orders. The dream project of Govardhan Eco village has come true so successfully and it wouldn't have been possible without Your Divine guidance and efforts.

By Your own example You have taught me how one should be eager. From HG BVP I had heard that You came from the west to India solely by asking only lifts. I was myself facing some problems at home as family is not favorable to my practice of Bhakti and hence couldnt come to temple, but learning from You I also started coming to temple by asking for lifts and hence continued coming to temple.

Maharaj Ji I feel that i dont have Bhakti in me nor do I have enough strength intelligence and enthusiasm. Please bless me Maharaj so that I can increase my enthusiasm in Bhakti more and more and hence stay absorbed and develop enough taste to be able to take initiation from You soon. Please bless my family so that they can also become devotees very soon.

Hare Krishna Dearest Guru Maharaj

Please accept our humble, respectful and loving obeisances in the dust at your lotus feel

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Maharaj, there are no words that we can find to express our gratitude, appreciation and indebtedness to you. You know that at the time of initiation, we didn't qualify for your mercy or shelter. We still don't and never will. Knowing all this, you still accepted us on behalf of Srila Prabhupada! You still took the responsibility of delivering us from the ocean of material miseries. And despite all our shortcomings and insincere promises to try and transform this heart and mind, you will never reject us! Thank you, Maharaj, for your compassion, for your open heart, for accepting us as we are, for always being with us.

At the time of initiation, we were told that we should never expect to have any personal dealings with you. And that was more was more than satisfactory to me, given the simple fact that, although we wouldn't be able to connect with you in the physical reality of this world, you connected us to you metaphysically, spiritually for all of eternity. We will never be able to repay this generosity, love, sincerity and sensitivity.

And although we don't have any direct contact with you, we feel your deep and protective presence with us whenever we turn to you. Maharaj, you have helped us through so many so-called crises these past few months. You have been guiding, protecting, sending helping and giving security all the time. We can't thank you enough for your shelter, for your personal care and affection.

We pray that someday we may begin transforming this heart and begin to make this life into a worthy offering to you for Srila Prabhupada.

We pray that someday we may become fully surrendered to you and the dear devotees of Sri Krishna and simply be driven by the desire to please selflessly and serve tirelessly.

We pray that we may always choose to turn to you instead of maya and that we allow you to help us in endeavouring to purify this heart of all its anarthas, especially those of impersonalism, selfishness and miserliness.

We pray that Sri Sri Radha Krishna continue blessing you and giving you the fullest capacity and facility in your desire to serve and please Srila Prabhupada.

We pray the we may develop this desire to want to please you by serving Srila Prabhupada's ISKCON and endeavour in every possible way, shedding all reservations and perceived limitations, to do so.

Maharaj, Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! For accepting me unconditionally.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupad! On this special occasion of your 71st appearance day, I would like to offer my heartfelt gratitude on your Lotus Feet for accepting me as your disciple and wishing you a very Happy Krishna Conscious birthday dear Guru Maharaj. I am not qualified in any way to speak about your glories but only for my greedy need of purifying myself, I would like to share few words.

As you say Maharaj "Krishna consciousness is not achieved but awarded", We know for sure that we are in no way qualified and it is only by your causeless mercy, you have accepted us and have brought us under the shelter of Srila Prabhupad's family. We are eternally indebted to you for accepting us in the parampara and without your mercy, we could never have imagined getting to know more about Krishna and to endeavor to go back home back to Godhead. Heartfelt gratitude and Thank you Maharaj.

You have given many instructions but one which touched deep in my heart is " A duty of the parent is to ensure that their kids don't take birth again in this material world." We are not good at anything and especially parenting but we are trying from our end to inculcate Krishna Consciousness in our kids and try to make the house conducive for practicing Bhakthi. Under the guidance of HG Hari Vilas Maharaj in Seattle, we as a family have come a long way from where we were and we have a long journey to go through. On your special day, we seek your blessings so that our family practices Bhakthi very seriously and we finish our material business in this lifetime itself. Please bless us Maharaj!

" At our level, genuine humility is to aspire for genuine humility.", In this special day, I pray, desire and aspire to develop genuine humility so that I can obey all your instructions and Srila Prabhupad's and of all Vaishnavas and become a devotee. "The behavior of a disciple can be an ornament for or a scar on the reputation of the spiritual master." I pray to the Lordships to bestow mercy on us so that we behave in a way that imbibes your mood and instructions and we serve all Vaishnavas with Love and respect and without duplicity or expecting anything in return.

Wishing you a very Happy Krishna Conscious birthday dear Guru Maharaj! Prayers to the Supreme Lord to bless you with good health and to bestow on us the ability to abide by your instructions so that we can serve you forever. Please accept our obeisances unto your Lotus Feet Maharaj!

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaj. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your Divine self.

Dear Guru Maharaj, since I started going to your Kartik Yatra, every year I wait with excitement for that day to come. It is such a bliss to hear from you, followed by Dham parikrama with so many exalted devotees. For last two years I am for sure missing this the most. But at the same time this separation of pandemic has brought me so much closer to you through online live sessions. Every time there is an announcement at the end that Guru Maharaj will now talk to some of the disciple families, my eagerness to talk to you increases and from the core of my heart I pray to Krishna to get a chance to talk to you one-o-one. At the same time I don't know what to talk and what update shall I give you that will please you. The only service that I am doing is weekend Book Distributions and washing the dishes in Sunday Feast kitchen. I pray to Radharani and your Divine self to bless me with more and more enthusiasm to continue with these services for rest of my life as my offering to you. I have heard you many times in your lecture that Book Distribution pleases Srila Prabhupada the most and I have taken that as your personal instruction to me. I pray and hope one day I can meet you face to face and get a chance to hear from you directly.

I remember this New Year, our family getting a chance to talk to you on a zoom call. It was so blissful and we always felt that it was absolutely your causeless mercy that we got this chance. May be you answered my unheard prayer. I will pray and eagerly wait for our next in person Kartik Yatra to get your association again to hear Hari Katha. I am so greatful to Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji and your Divine self to have such a beautiful family of God Brothers and God Sisters in Dallas. Under their sincere guidance I am trying to practice my Sadhana Bhakti and keep myself closer to you.

Guru Maharaj, I have many things to say and take your guidance. But not sure how to express it. May be you can hear it through my prayers. Everyday it's a struggle for me to do my Sadhana sincerely and remind myself how lucky I am to get introduced to this beautiful movement of Srila Prabhupada. Just by hearing your lectures I get so much inspiration to build my strength to fight against with my Anarthas. I hope one day I can come over them completely and dedicate myself fully in the service of Srila Prabhupada and your Divine self.

Finally, I pray at your lotus feet to bless me with strength, courage and love for Krishna to fight against Maya and keep my daily Sadhana going. Without your mercy I am sure I won't be able to fight against it alone. Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for accepting me as your disciple and blessing me with your causeless mercy. On this day of your 71st Birthday, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji for your good health and many more years of association to fallen souls like me. Thank you Guru Maharaj for everything that you have done for me and all of us.

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet Maharaj.

I am not even qualified to become your servant but still this insignificant servant of you seeking your blessing so that I may able to write some words of glorification about You. Last year and this year were most important years on my life, most memorable event the marriage ceremony. With your blessing I have taken important decisions for the future. In all the events I was simply witnessing your magical hands showering the blessings. From the initial discussions of the marriage between me and Malavika you were they're with us like a father giving all the blessings. How you captured my heart in the prerana festival at Calcutta. You captured the heart of Malavika in Vrindavan. She captured you in her camera as well as in her heart.

I am now totally indebted to you, if I am unable to repay you for this I will be considered as rascal. Under my counselor as your representative guiding me, need to prioritize the instructions. Since our family life is started from 2 months. Need to take some vows for your pleasure.

1. Early to bed as soon as possible, no other late-night activities.
2. Chanting should be done morning.
3. Reading and Hearing Quota should be executed.
4. Preaching plan for the kids and Adults.

5. New company should be planned.

6. Financial planning

Praying sincerely for your blessings for strength to follow above vows and Happy Krishna Conscious and Healthy family life. Although there are lot of differences are there in the background as you know, with your blessings only it is possible to go ahead. Give me the power to act in crucial situations which is going to come.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisance unto your lotus feet.

Gurudev, I want to express my deepest gratitude for making me understand the purpose of human life is to serve with humility, love, and compassion. When I was in distress your talks will do wonder. For years, I am taking your association through your lectures. I remember during the pandemic, in one of your talks you mentioned that how these tough times allow us to come one step closer to the lord. How important it is to be grateful and always in the mood of gratitude even in a distress situation. I am deeply grateful to you for giving so much hope through your lectures. From Journey Home to Journey within every word inspires me to live with integrity and consciously. How deeply you are connected with mother nature and other species is truly inspiring me to find solace in the lap of mother nature which is Sri Krishna's energy.

Thank you so much Maharaj for teaching me by your example which is more precious than anything in this world. I confess Gurudev, I am struggling to chant the holy name with all my heart and soul, I am struggling to be in a humble state of mind, my eyes are covered with the ointment of fault-finding and criticizing others. Gurudev on the auspicious day of your appearance I beg you to please bless me so that I can make the best use of human birth. I humbly pray to Sri Gaurang Mahaprabhu for your good health, may you always keep inspiring us with your divine talks for many more years to come.

A soul meets her master when in helpless and destitute

Darkness to light with the grace of master our life constitutes

Awakens the love for the divine and calling the holy name in desperate

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga

Wishing you a very Happy 71st Appearance day. As we, all your disciple celebrate this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I also take it as a day to express my gratitude for all that I have received by your causeless mercy and also a day of contemplation and deeply meditating, am I really following and standing by your instructions and am worthy of being a disciple of a person of your caliber and stature.

Dear Guru Maharaja, recently this year I was in S. Africa in the city of Johannesburg. I was there to offer my care for my brother's family as they were going through tough times. In the midst of this, I had the privilege and fortune to get association of your senior god brother HG Mediva Prabhu from Capetown by the mercy and genuine concern of some devotees here in Pune. To make things worse all of us in the family including my 70year old mother contracted Covid. When the devotees there, whom I was in touch with, came to know this they went out of their way to offer all care and support required for my family. HG Mediva Prabhu out of his sheer compassion, arranged for an online meeting for my family members to pray for us and share some of his realizations and thoughts from the Srimad Bhagavatam and Srila Prabhupads purports. I was really touched by this gesture from him. On my interaction, when I was expressing my gratefulness to him for all that he was doing for my family, people whom he had never met and had no relationship with, he said that I am only trying to follow what your Guru Maharaja is trying to preach and show by his own example. He made me realize that I was so fortunate to be the disciple of a pure devotee. This really struck me and that night I kept thinking, how worthless I was to stand up as your disciple but how by your causeless mercy and compassion on fallen soul like myself you have accepted me as your disciple.

Another incident which just happened a few days back was with my son, Kush who as you are aware is studying in Atlanta and is under the loving care of HG Adi Gadadhar Prabhu and HG Radha Bhav Mataji. He happened to meet one of your other god brothers at the Atlanta temple. Kush met him and spoke to him briefly. He later told him that, my parents are disciples of your holy self and he is also an aspiring disciple of your divine self. To this he immediately said that he should have guessed this earlier as only disciples of yourself portray this kind of a humility. When he narrated this incident to us it once again struck us the responsibility we carry being called as disciples of your divine self.

Dear Guru Maharaja, on this holy day I only pray and ask from you, to bless me, to now mould myself and my life in a way that would make you feel proud to call me as your disciple. We heard from the world that we are so fortunate to be your disciples and can't express our gratitude for all you have been giving us but now let me do some thing by which you are proud to tell the world they are my disciples. Dear Gurudev, I once again yet another year, I ask for forgiveness for not standing by your instructions and not making my spiritual life my priority.

Please keep me under your blessing dear Gurudev and be by my side in all circumstances only by which can I navigate my life, remembering all your words of wisdom and knowledge.

Thankyou dear Guru Maharaja

I am very grateful to you for accepting me as one of your servants and allowing me to be a part of family of Srila Prabhupada. I feel my life a meaningful life after knowing the purpose of my life that is to serve guru, krishna and Vaishnavas. Else previously I was just passing my life's valuable time aimlessly. Now I know every moment through your vani and the association of senior Vaishnavas, what is going to please krishna and what is going to displease him. This itself makes me satisfied in all conditions of my life. Still when challenges come I seek your blessings to conciously be able to remember krishna. As my offering I am trying to do book distribution and cleaning services in Rishikesh ashram. I seek your kind blessings to be able to keep rendering more and more service to you every moment with a humble pleasing disposition.

Maharaj your lectures are always guiding me in my difficult times. Your shelter is fully available in your lectures and kirtans. My all types of craziness, insanity and anxiety just disappears after hearing your potent words.

You are always reminding that how much valuable is pure devotional service and to become servant of servant. To aspire nothing but selfless service to Krsna without any result. To find happiness in putting ourselves last and putting others first. To practice humility, tolerance and giving all respect to others. To take shelter of Krishna's holy name and give whole energy to hear one one mantra of holy name. To be selfless instrument of compassion to others. Just by hearing these words it feels so nice then how nice it would be to practice. But I am struggling very hard Maharaj to follow your instructions in my life. I am far far away from these principles. I am still lacking so much faith on Krishna and His protection. I am still so much reserved to surrender completely. My bhakti is still so much superficial and external without the change of the heart. I need your intense mercy Maharaj though I am so incompetent and undeserving your mercy who neglected your instructions many many times.

Maharaj please bless me that your example and words always remain in my heart and I can apply it in my life no matter how much difficult it appears. May I not look for the worldly fame, glory and opulences which are so much alluring but always try for selfless devotional service to please Krsna, Prabhupad, you and take position of the servant of servant. Although these aspirations are very high but still I beg for your mercy.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada !

Happy birthday Maharaj!

Gurudev you remind me of a lotus flower. Beautiful and serene and uncontaminated by muddy murky waters around. And I feel grateful to be in your shelter. Thankyou for allowing me to remain at your lotus feet however muddy I am.

Thankyou for showering your love and affection when I was depressed and anxious and chastising me when necessary. Gurudev- you know exactly what was good for me. I will forever cherish these interactions as teachings from you. And someday I hope to rise above the muddy waters as a small lotus following in your footsteps .

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances!!

All Glories to Srila Prabhupad!!

Thank you so much maharaj for giving us such wonderful devotees who understand your mood and the mission of Srila Prabhupad and extend themselves so that we can grow in Bhakti.

Thank you for giving us the facility of Bhaktivedanta Vidyapitha Research Center at Govardhan Ecovillage which is helping us go deep into the Scriptures.

Your repeated focus on the point that Bhakti is an internal process which requires a simple heart is very striking.

Maharaj, I will try my best to follow and implement your desire of assisting in this Mahaprabhu's movement.

I pray to Srila Prabhupad that if you so desire, you may accept me in your lotus feet and offer me to our Guru Parampara.

DHANURDHAR PRAN DAS (PUNE INDIA)

My most humble and respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of HDG SP and HH Radhanath swami Maharaj.

Om agyan timirandhasya.

Just like a Guru dispels darkness of ignorance by the light of knowledge. similarly by taking shelter of your lotus feet and words I feel the hopes amidst this darkness of ignorance.

Its totally out my capacity to glorify the exalted vaishanava like you Maharaj. But only for my purification i would like to share some thoughts about you.Today your glories are not only limited to India but it has reached globally.You are certainly a distinguished personality and you have shown it's glimpse right from your childhood.When you were a child you were very compassionate toward the poor and needy. You always preferred to sit on ground for taking meals just like Indians usually do. That shows there was deep connection between you and Indian culture.Who at the age of 19 from Western world would ever think of spirituality and land upto India to fulfill that spiritual thirst. I remember the incident from your book journey home that how one official from India obstructs you and how in response you told that one day you certainly do some good for this country and its people. And the whole world is now witnessing the results.You did what you had promised. That is one of the quality of the great personality.

In Marathi there is saying bole taisa tyachi vandavi paule. That means one who acts like he says is qualified to be worshipped.

You gave us many gifts like Radha Gopinath temple, Govardhan eco village, Annamrit project, Bhakti Vedanta hospital, counsellors system etc.

Your lectures and books like journey home and journey within are inspiring to lots of youth and people all over the globe and it is one of the bestsellers.

Every time I hear you I find you the personification of humility and simplicity and sacrifice. You live the life on the verses of Sikshastakam, trinadapi sunichen taro eva sahisnunam.

We are very grateful for the yatras by which you give your association to us every year.

Your Karthik Yatras are ecstatic and your lectures are completely filled by the love for RadhaKrishna. Thank you very much Maharaj for initiating my bhakti, I'm eternally indebted to you.

Today on this Vyas puja day I pray to Lord and devotees to bless me with the strength to serve you and follow your instructions wholeheartedly and with determination in order to please you, SP and the Guru parampara.

DHULIPALA V R S S RAVIKIRAN (ELURU, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Dear Maharaja

Please accept my humble obedience's onto your divine lotus feet

Its my great fortune and causeless mercy of the Lord that I encountered ISKCON. Teachings of Srila Prabhupada gave a vision and purpose in life. Your divine instructions through Your Holiness lectures always inspire us to practice and grow in spiritual life.

Maharaja, Simple Temple, compilation made based on Your Holiness lectures reflects your vision and mission in glorifying Srila Prabhupada and building a community where everyone from all backgrounds can come and experience Krishna.

Maharaja, you are epitome of absorption. Your Holiness completely absorb in whichever activity you do like chanting, leading kirtan, worshipping deities, delivering lecture, honoring prasadam, speaking with devotees and guests, plucking flowers, ...

Maharaja, whenever I hear about Kholavecha Shridhara , I immediately remember Your Holiness. Your Holiness is such a humble and Simple person.

Maharaja, your ideals to respect everyone and not to disrespect anyone is truly inspiring. Your Holiness is true example of all principles and ideals we hear from your Holiness. Your Holiness kirtans and bhajans move hearts.

Maharaja, your compassion is magnanimous. In one lecture, Your Holiness mentions essence of Bhagavad Gita is to develop this vision – "vidya-vinaya-sampanne brahmane gavi hastini suni caiva sva-pake ca panditah sama-darsinah". Your Holiness truly exemplified with your life and projects.

Maharaja, your lectures are my shelter. I always feel if I could able to follow your instructions even from one lecture, one small talk, my life would become complete. My only wish is to live as per your instructions and please you Maharaja.

Maharaja, I am eternally grateful for giving such a wonderful disciples of Your Holiness, Sri Radha Gopinath Mandir, Bhakti Vedanta Research Center – GEV, and many more.

Aspiring to serve Your Holiness Sincerely and whole-heartedly

Dear Guru mahraj. Please accept my sincere-most obeisances and all glories to Srila Prabhupada. Gurudev, you've been so so so merciful and kind to all of us disciples, that words can possibly not even explain our feelings. As a father, as a guide, you remain with us constantly and for me, this whole world is vacant without you gurudev. I pray that may you have a healthy life, one that is engaged in the service of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath and engage us in their devotional service too. Ys. Diksha

DINADAYAL KRISHNA DAS (PRAYAGRAJ, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj.

Please accept my prostrate obeisances at your Lotus feet.

Maharaj thank you so much for giving us your kind shelter through your Vani and your representatives. As we are serving in the Holy land of Prayagraj, we are understanding the value of your teachings and example more and more. The love and surrender for Shri Gauranga Mahaprabhu, Srila Sanatan Goswami, Srila Rupa Goswami and Srila Prabhupada that we have gained from your lectures, willingness to assist HG Radheshyam prabhu in his services to you, in your services to Srila Prabhupada are our driving forces. So many times, I have been remembering our time of initiation, you had mentioned that make 3 thing your very lives and soul, chanting Japa, serving Vaishnavas and spreading this mission of Srila Prabhupada, make them your very very lives and souls. Guru Maharaj, so many times I have your words resounding in my mind and inspiring me in my practice and services. Maharaj, so many times I am put into situations of discouragement and disturbances, but your Vani and the association of your representatives, who have taken your Vani as their vital forces, are our only strengths. When faced with difficult times, we recall the great sacrifices of Srila Prabhupada and your Holiness for sharing Lord Chaitanya's mercy, and when we remember you, our problems look very tiny. Thank you so much Guru Maharaj so taking so much pain to give us this precious gift of Bhakti.

Guru Maharaj, these days I am developing great faith in your teachings, as I am seeing the magic of your values of humility, trying to become the servant of servant, being joyful to serve others and rejoicing the advancement of other Vaishnavas, heartily glorify the other Vaishnavas, going beyond right for keeping unity and Vaishnavas relationships, willingness to extend for the service of others, rejoicing the opportunity to serve, inspiring faith in the community of Vaishnavas, just happy to assist great Vaishnavas and trying our best of best to give pleasure to Vaishnavas and Krishna, I am becoming more and more eager to accept your words as just the Absolute Truth. Thank you so much Maharaj for giving us the essence of all scriptures in philosophy and practicality. Indeed, your every word is a ripened fruit of all the Vedic scriptures presented to us in such nectarean elaborations.

Recently, we visited Vrindavan with a group of devotees, as we were sharing the pastimes of the Goswamis, the Govardhan with devotees, I was feeling great longing for your yatras, as we were passing by the Mukunda Gardens in Govardhan, I was remembering you sitting on the stage sharing the nectarean pastimes of the Lord and your deep soulful kirtans bringing out the deepest prayers from thousands of devotees. We long Guru Maharaj for your Dham Yatras. Although, I don't know many places of Vrindavan, but I felt so blessed that I knew the mood of Vrindavan – of selfless service for the pleasure of Krishna, this is your glory that you've so deeply infused us with the mood of entering the Dhams. This year, we witnessed your Divine self, reveal Kolkata Dham to all of us, and after hearing from your lotus mouth, we felt as if Kolkata is the most important Holy place with so many pastime places of Gaur Nitai, our Gaudiya Acharyas and especially Srila Prabhupada. Your description of Kolkata Dham was revealing your oceanic love for Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaj, recently we had the blessed opportunity to stay at Govardhan Ecovillage for Bhakti Shastri, we could feel the magic of pure devotional service in the ethos there – an atmosphere of non-threatening existence infused with pure devotional service which is accommodating, inspiring and nourishing everyone new and old in their bhakti. We theoretically knew that Krishna Consciousness is not about the external activity but the internal service attitude, and we could very well experience it in there, a place built on the foundation of love and service, how even non-devotional activities like animal care were inspiring bhakti. It is indeed a manifestation of the Vrindavan of your heart.

Guru Maharaj, we have learnt from you the art of praying. As I am trying to practice and serve, I am realizing more and more my helpless situation and inabilities and am finding the only shelter in the mercy of Vaishnavas and the Lord. And, the greatest saving grace is offering fervent prayers to the Lord. We heard you once saying, I am just a prayerer. Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for teaching us the power of prayers.

Guru Maaharaj, on this Holiest day of your appearance, I pray to you to please give me strength to remain sincere in my Sadhana and eagerness to serve. That I can humbly serve Vaishnavas HG Radheshyam pr and HG Acyuta Mohan pr, who are representing you in my life. That my heart may always be filled with the nectar of glories of the Lord and His devotees and never be poisoned by the blasphemy or politics of Vaishnavas. That my heart may always be filled with the joy of serving the Lord in any way and never hanker for the post, position, name, fame of this world. That your words may always remain fresh in my consciousness and I may always be able to follow eternal principles f pure devotional service inspite of any external circumstances. That I may never cause faithlessness rather always endeavour to increase the faith and unity in the community of devotees. That I can always remain in the mood of a servant of servant. Please bless that we can serve in the places of Rupa Sanatan not just physically but in the mood of Rupanugas. And I can serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada, more and more and more in whatever way I can.

Thank you maharaj for everything. We can't imagine our life without your most valuable and precious presence. You have really moved, shaped and molded our life befitting to become menial servants of servant of servnats of Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. It is said that although there is no difference between vapu seva and vani seva still vani seva is considered more glorious as it can be done for generations to come. Thank you maharaj for giving such nectarian lectures in form of your vani which when properly heard and meditated can make a hard hearted person soften and awaken the attraction for our beloved Lord Sri Hari.

Past two years were very challenging and many devotees including all of us where longing for your physical presence to guide us and show us the path for such a difficult times.

Thank you maharaj for extending yourself so much during online sessions despite your bad health.

mahatāṁ bahu-mānena

Translation

The pure devotee should execute devotional service by giving the greatest respect to the spiritual master and the ācāryas. He should be compassionate to the poor and make friendship with persons who are his equals, but all his activities should be executed under regulation and with control of the senses.

.....This verse reminds me of how much you love Srila Prabhupada and the ultimate respect that you have for all our acharyas. You not only respect your seniors but have a wonderful loving relationship with your peers and you are a wonderful teacher teaching by setting an example for all your disciples.

Your favorite instruction for all your disciples for all times is.....

trinad api sunicena

taror api sahishnuna

amanina manadena

kirtaniyah sada harihi

One should chant the holy name of the Lord in a humble state of mind, thinking oneself lower than the straw in the street; one should be more tolerant than a tree, devoid of all sense of false prestige, and should be ready to offer all respect to others.

In such a state of mind one can chant the holy name of the Lord constantly.

.....so nice to hear this, I can sing it with all my emotions, understand it with full conviction but extremely extremely difficult to practice. And more difficult with all the additional responsibilities that are now with us with the position given to us. And every position comes with responsibilities. I personally don't befit this position but just to keep myself inspired I m making this small endeavor from my side. I would just like to repeat what Srila Prabhupada prayed

" I m just a puppet in your hands Gurudev now you make me dance.....you make me dance...!"

Still struggling with many internal issues, Anger being the foremost and the most critical one seeking your blessings to help me overcome this one so that I can remain sane and chant Lords name with fun.

You were put into so many trials in your quest for spirituality but your calling was so strong that you did not give up and continued on and on and on till your search ended at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada.

But my trials in comparison to yours are like a drop in the ocean but still cannot forget them as they surface up every time like waves in the ocean. And whenever that upsurge takes place I try to seek help in your instructions ....READ PRABHUPADAS BOOKS, HAVE A LOVING RELATIONSHIP WITH ALL DEVOTEES .

You knew me then ....

You know me now ....

You know what is best for me for all times to come

Books have turned out to be a soothing balm on all my bruises.

But I desperately need your shelter and your blessings so that these tormenting waves shall subside forever and my stormy mind becomes calm, compost, and peaceful. I don't know where am I still lacking and where can I improve. How can I make you happy?

A big question always haunting my mind .....Am I fit to be your disciple?

Life in general is quite happy but yet empty without you around.

As I gather wisdom from Srila Prabhupadas purports SB 1.18.13

The opportunity to associate with a pure devotee of the Supreme Lord is the beginning of ones complete perfection.

A decade back my Lord gave me that chance, and with those memories with you I could survive all the odds. But then I was a caterpillar learning to fly like a butterfly.

As every child likes a return gift on every birthday I seek your blessings as my return gift so that this so called butterfly can now be a small squirrel in Srila Prabhupadas mission and would like to feel your blissful hands patting my back as you whisper in my ears and say

"Yes !! I Love you.... my child."

Happy Birthday Gurudev

SKOPJE MACEDONIA

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance's to the dust of your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

All glories to you!

Dear Gurudeva, this is my first Vyasa puja on your seventy-first appearance day. This is a very auspicious day!

I hope with your mercy and support I will sincerely open my heart and I will find the words that will make you happy.

I will never forget the day when I got the video from Govardhan eco village.

My material mind and my material body began to scream from desire to be part of that wonderful place.

Overwhelmed by the views that for me, at that time were simply amazing and timeless, I started following your posts and wisdoms through social media.

Every new day I longed for a new wisdom and a new thought that would soften my stone heart.

Your causeless mercy carried me through the greyness of my everyday life and opened new and new magical doors for me. Doors that offered new unknown light and values in my life.

My heart trembled at each new virtual encounter with you and my melted soul began to send signals of eternal devotion to you.

With the grace of Krishna and forever attracted to you, I asked for mercy from our temple president to help me in my already burning desire to become servant of your lotus feet.

From that moment, at the speed of light, supported by the beautiful devotees from Slovenia and Italy and guided by the mercy of your god brother HG Trai Prabhu, the most beautiful moment in my life happened.

The memory of the first darshan with you 19.08.2021 (questions and answers with Italian Yatra) will never fade.

My whole life took a different turn when you accepted me to be your aspiring disciple.

My prayers are addressed to the day when I will be honoured to meet you and have a personal darshan, where I can express all my respect and gratitude for the mercy you have given me.

I pray for the opportunity to serve you and to be your humble servant.

With hope and great desire to receive the first initiation carried by your and devotees mercy.

My dear Gurudeva, I do not have enough words and thoughts in my imperfect mind to retell all my happiness that I have the opportunity to address you directly and to wish you to keep your good health.

On this great day, I am overjoyed to have you as a Guru who will guide me on the path to the Krishna Kingdom, and I thank you infinitely for being my guardian and guide in my imperfect spiritual life.

All glory to you my dear Gurudeva.

Dear Gurudev

I bow to you from all sides. Your servant's servant Dwarkanath Das. Whatever it is today, I am here because of your gracious vision and good wishes. I remember, twenty-five years have passed since that incident: I was lovingly embraced. We distributed the Bhagavad Gita in large numbers as it is. I still remember the words you spoke at the time when Radha Gopinath took the initiative to distribute it in the temple.

You said that you are serving my Gurumaharaj, Srila Prabhupada very well. With the same inspiration, lusting after your grace, I am your servant standing before you. I imagine you are just an excuse in the material world. You are a resident of Golak Dham. We can experience God through your conduct, through words, through deeds, through service. May the grace of Chaitanya Mahaprabhu be there on you. May the same grace be upon us and my family. This is how your servant Dwarkanath Das bows down and prays at your feet

I am very thankful to you Guru Maharaj.

I do not find myself qualified but to glorify you i am writing an offering to you Maharaj...

I still remember the Day in 2007 You had taken us to Mayapur Yatra and at night after lecture you had come down for a walk my frnd nd me had seen you alone nd had come running to you as we were kids nd had asked you Maharaj “What can we do to Make u Happy” and u smilingly told us Just chant the Holy name ...as I followed it as a golden words nd a blessing given by You to me ..

Once you had come home to take Lunch prasadam when You had come to Ahmedabad for RBC meeting I had written the Maha Mantra on the Entrance door when u were leaving after taking Prasadam you had asked who had written this and then You came to know that It was written by me and I dont know how I had got locked in the room and u came inside the room to give me blessing ...Thank you so much Maharaj for blessing me when had come home even though i was not qualified nd

Thank you so much Maharaj you have Always showed your blessings upon me whenever you have come to Ahmedabad wheither it is RBC-meeting or Your Journey Home Book Launch ...

Every year Maharaj you take your Discipes either to Vrindavan or Mayapur but when Covid came and It spread all over the World we as Disciples we were saddened that we would not have Yatra due to Covid but you made sure Maharaj we had Yatras and you removed time for all your disciples nd gave Lectures online nd we did not miss 2 years yatra due to Covid ...Thank you so much Maharaj we are really gratefull to You and I find myself Fortunate to Have you as my Spiritual Master ..

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

I am immensely grateful and indebted to you for giving shelter at your lotus feet and accepting me. I grateful to you for giving us and and whole world the Govardhan Eco Village a place for heart transformation. I have full faith that this place will create great transformation in the hearts of all kinds of people. We are already seeing that.

Many have expressed us at multiple times in multiple occasions to replicate GEV in many places. But this is something i am not able to comprehend. People want to replicate but we also have no clue. We may be able to create or replicate the structures that have been built in GEV, but will that be able to suffice. Because there is something can't be replicated. I don't know what is that.

It will ever remain a mystery to me.

I pray at your lotus feet to bestow a speck of love for Krishna you have and the genuine practice, it may probably take life times even to have a glimpse that i am aspiring for.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

This life is just like a dot on a huge line and our friend Krishna is the most near

This is how we learnt not to be in anxiety and fear.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

Whether its our job or business never be its prisoner

To depend on Sri Krishna and that these are just one of the ways to maintain your body mind and life air.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

When things go against our will and when mind is bewildered and finds no directions

Take shelter of Krishna and maintain integrity and honesty in all our dealings and reactions

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

Your favorite sweet is not only pineapple halwa but also the Hare Krishna maha mantra

While Chanting it's our most precious opportunity to go back to Krishna with this human body as the yantra.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

Nothing can separate us even in this pandemic, bhakti has the power to break all physical barriers

If you are chanting and we all are chanting Hare Krishna we are together with the transcendental sound as our love carrier.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

To become the servant of the servant with your own example you have taught

You gave the garland to your god brother and your sincerity was what prabhupada eyes caught.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

Simplicity means no duplicity you define.

In order to achieve we have to perform selfless service without ulterior motive to the Divine.

Guru Maharaj you taught us that..

Whatever our varna and ashram our strength is our guru through his instructions.

You become happy when we follow Srila Prabhupada's directions.

The materialistic propaganda of name fame and wealth is attracting my eyes

Soon enough, your pure teachings of the unmotivated love of the gopis of vrindavana in my heart rise.

Although we were not even qualified to be your disciples, your instructions are our only survival

We beg to you for the drop of your mercy for our souls original position revival.

This is our humble offering to you that we can make with your grace and blessings

We offer you this life Gaur Keshava Das and Ananga Priya Dasi confesses.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious appearance day of your Vyasa Puja I will like to express my heart felt gratitude for your kindness, and inspiration to my development in Krishna consciousness.

You are such an amazing ambassador of Srila Prabhupada who have and continue to positively touch the hearts of so many people across the globe through your books, and actual example of being a practitioner of Krishna consciousness.

Love, respect, compassion, humility, kindness, tolerance , selflessness are so difficult to put into practice yet you live these qualities with such ease - this is only possible due to your purity.

I pray that I can with your blessings and mercy that I can imbibe these qualities and in so doing bring honor to my Gurudev and Srila Prabhupada.

I pray that Krishna continues to bless you with good health and a long life so that you can continue to save & inspire the world.

Dear Guru maharaj please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet. On this auspicious occasion of your 71st appearance day I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for accepting me as a servant at your lotus feet.

Guru maharaj my only interactions with you were one on the day of my initiation and other when I met you for asking a name for my son. Though I have met you in person only on these two occasions but I can very much feel your personal presence and love whenever I interact and serve my god brothers who have very deep love for you and have a great sense of missionary spirit in serving the mission of srila prabhupada. Guru Maharaj I am eternally indebted to you for providing us with such wonderful association of gem like devotees who have nurtured us, showered unlimited love and kindness upon us. HG Krishna chandra prabhuji and HG Radha Priya mataji have always taken care of us as their own children. HG Vraj Bihari prabhuji, HG Vasudev prabhuji, HG Gauranga prabhuji, HG Govind prabhuji', HG Radhagopinath prabhuji, HG Dayanidhi Prabhuji, HG Dauji prabhuji and many more devotees have always been kind to engage us in services and taken wonderful care of us.

The mercy showered upon me by HG Vasudev Prabhuji and HG Gauranga Prabhuji in the form of engaging me in menial services and love and affection coupled with personally training me in the mood of accepting the mission of guru maharaj and Srila Prabhupad as our life and soul is something that I can never repay for.

Guru Maharaj all the glories are to you for creating such gems in the form of these wonderful devotees and putting us under their care and shelter where we can always experience your personal presence because of their deep love and surrender unto your lotus feet.

Thank you Guru Maharaj for everything. Hare Krishna.

Dear Guru Maharaja

Please accept my most humble obeisances on this most auspicious day of your appearance.

All glories Srila Prabhupada!

It was only after associating with you and your excellent disciples that I understood something about how to develop the heart of a Vaisnava, without which I am not sure if I had managed to survive in Krishna Consciousness.

I remember once in Mayapur during Kartik yatra, just after we had offered our lamps in the evening. You had earlier that day told the story of how Srila Prabhupada had poked frozen puddles with his cane in the park, later explaining that the hearts of the conditioned souls, originally soft like water, had become hard due to the influence of Maya, and that it was his mission to break them free from that influence and revive the original softness of their hearts. I told you than that I was feeling that same effect from having your association, that yasya prasadad bhagavat prasado in once sense means that the spiritual master softens the heart of the disciple so that the disciple can give that heart to Krishna. You were instantly so touched by my words and immediately expressed such deep love for me reciprocation.

I simply want to thank you for being in my life and helping me in keeping my heart soft.

Endeavoring to establish ISKCON in Iceland, although a very limited and small-scale effort, is giving me deeper realizations about our process and the connection to our Guru Parampara. Things seem to be progressing slowly yet steadily over here, and soon we hope to share the good news with you about a successfully operating restaurant, despite so many internal and external obstacles. I do not see myself qualified to establish something big over here but hope to at least be someone who makes it easier for others, way more qualified, to do so in the future.

It would be wonderful if you could just once place your lotus feet once again on the soil of Iceland and cast your merciful glance over whatever little we have developed for Srila Prabhupada's pleasure.

I really pray and hope to soon have your association once again.

Your whole life is a testament to this since both these divine personalities have empowered you to accomplish so many wonderful devotional achievements.

Maharaja, you inspire so much love and devotion in so many people because of your selfless love and care for everyone.

Unfortunately I am not able to fully appreciate the ocean of good qualities that you possess by the mercy of Srila Prabhupada and Krsna, due to my limited qualities. But I know that if I continue to meditate on your qualities and mercy I will surely make progress towards becoming the kind of disciple that will give you pleasure and make all your efforts and sacrifices worthwhile.

My dear Your Holiness Radhannath Swami Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday. I pray to Sri Sri Radhavallabha for your good health. I have been greatly inspired by your qualities like humility, compassion, gratefulness, and love for Krishna, and by your Journey Home experiences. One time in Istanbul you had got dysentery and people of the place were very compassionate and wanted to give you their love by offering you bread and milk. The only problem was that you had horrible dysentery, which they didn't know and they kept on offering bread and milk. You didn't want to make them feel sad so you accepted it when they offered. After that you had a very difficult night for you had become very weak and had to walk a lot of steps to reach the toilet, which was rarely cleaned and sanitised, to evacuate. This shows how you never wanted to make anyone feel embarrassed or despondent. I really admire the intense fire burning in you to search God that you could even risk your own life to find it. This was shown by you when you had reached Europe with Gary and another friend, who was supplying your tickets and food, had been robbed of all the money he had on the first day of your arrival and decided to leave, but Gary and you stayed back with full determination to find God with hardly any money. Please bless me to become more humble, thankful and compassionate, please bless me to chant my japa attentively without distraction, and as I'm doing home-schooling currently please bless me to learn more and more not just materially but also spiritually.

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you for accepting me as your little son. I am so fortunate to be named by you. You are such a sweet, simple, humble yet a vibrant and a leading commander in Srila Prabhupada's army.

Wishing you a very happy appearance day. I recall a very sweet incident of your kindness upon me when you had visited UAE in 2014 and gave me your mercy. There was a programme in one prabhuji's house and we were attending your class. You were speaking from Gaura Lila and describing the pastimes of Mukunda and Raghunandan where Chaitanya Mahaprabhu asks Mukund, "Is Raghunandan your son and you are his father OR is Raghunandan your father and you are his son?"

During the lecture while you were explaining this lila, my sister Kishori and I was sitting in front row amongst other devotees. So, to explain this point, you looked at me and asked, "for example, what is your name? and I replied "My name is Gauranga". And then you asked, "So you are Rasamrita's son? Yes, where is he?" My father, sitting at back, was translating your class to my grandmother Naambhaav Mataji who does not understand English, and you looked at him and asked him, "are you the father of Gauranga or is Gauranga your father?" and you started laughing, your shoulder going up and down, and everyone started laughing along. Then you told, "it is very obvious, but why did Lord Chaitanya asked this question? Because Lord Chaitanya wanted everyone to know the glories of his devotees". You also had a beautiful smile on your face and you looked at me with such beautiful smile and I was giggling to have your compassionate glance upon me.

This was probably the tiniest interaction with you but it was most memorable moment for him. I am so grateful Maharaj that you had taken my name. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji for your good health and also pray that They always keep me in service of devotees so that I can serve the devotees and please you.

Thank you so much for everything maharaj

GAURI KUMARI DEVI DASI (PLANO, TX , USA)

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

On this Auspicious occasion of your appearance I want to pray for your good health and express my gratitude for so many gifts you have given me. Its absolutely impossible to glorify you in few lines or pages. You are ocean of mercy and compassion and each passing day I get to know only a bit of you.

Thank you so much for accepting me as your daughter which is sheer your mercy and devotees' blessings. Your classes and lectures are the guiding principles for my life. When I get puzzled and confused to do what and where to seek help I find shelter in your lectures.

In your recent talk you told just like parents always want to have their children blessed by Sadhus, you always hoped that Srila Prabhupada will come and bless the cows in NV. And you mentioned we disciples are your kids. We are so very fortunate we have your shelter, blessings and prayers every moment. Also, you gave the example how we are tiny sparrows (who lost her eggs to the ocean and was later helped by Garuda) trying to collect water out of ocean and sometimes get proud. Maharaj you are the Garuda of our lives. Krishna has sent you for us else I never would realized how vast is this material ocean and would have wasted life just by show and collecting unwanted pebbles.

The other thing you mentioned that there is no greater joy than being someone's messenger. In KC, we don't try to prove ourselves. We just try to prove our Guru, who is trying to prove his Guru, and so on... And it goes back to proving the Jagad Guru, Krishna. And Krishna is trying to give all credit to His devotees. With your blessings I have firm faith that I can also do the service of being a postal peon. For all time to come, it is those who sincerely believe in your words and Srila Prabhupada's words, who are empowered to spread the movement by becoming your instruments, much to their surprise.

I was just enjoying the eating dancing part of Krishna Consciousness but over last 2 years with covid and other depressing situations in our lives and lives of our friends I have realized that the only truth and hope is Krishna Consciousness and there is absolutely no time to waste. I understand how much cleansing I need from inside and be sincere so that I can be eligible to be your disciple. On the new year day we could actually talk to you on zoom, got your blessing and despite all the crazy things going around we became confident that our year will be great and blessed. You infuse so much spiritual strength with just one gaze and few minutes of your time. I sincerely pray to Krishna we understand your blessings and never take the gifts in our life for granted.

There is also very exciting good news! Everywhere I go now I see that despite Kali-yuga's ruthless grip on people's minds and senses, the Holy Names are so powerful that there is a growing natural interactive response among people, they spontaneously tap their feet, clap their hands, and respond to the chanting. People find solace and they have sparling happiness when they understand Krishna Consciousness.

You explain Srila Prabhupada words and purports in such a beautiful way that we feel we relive those pastimes and also get the essence of squeezed for us. With your blessings only we can understand the depth and beauty of these purports whether its be Srimad Bhagvatam, Bhagavad Gita or Chaitanya Charitamrita or any other book.

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the bona fide spiritual master, an ocean of compassion. Even a fraction of his mercy is enough to liberate even the most fallen person.

I want to become a useful instrument in the hands of the Lord for this noble cause. I pray to you and to Shri Caitanya Mahaprabhu that, as you received the Krishna-Shakti to successfully spread the Sankirtana movement from Srila Prabhupada, I may also be empowered by you and your empowered servants to contribute to solidly establishing the Sankirtana movement.

With heartfelt gratitude, I pray to remain

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Hare Krishna,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada.

At this time, I am experiencing the amazing mercy of Krishna upon me. Three days back, I faced the serious injury because glass fell on my right hand 3 fingers and they got badly cut in the early morning at 2.30am. By 3.30am, I was hospitalised for emergency and doctors began their remedial course measures one after another.

More than pain, I had the fear of fingers dis-functionality and my inability to serve Krishna and Shrila Prabhupada. Thus at 6am, I sent message to all the devotees about my serious situation with the humble request of prayers for me. Soon enough all the devotees responded whole heartedly and I began to feel very light in my heart. Amazingly enough till today I am not experiencing any pain compared to seriousness of the injury and delicate surgery I have.

Sometimes negative thoughts crossed in my mind about this situation and I remembered your hospitalisation twice in Vrindavan, from the book “The Journey Home”, which was much more traumatic and painful. Both these hospitalisation had helped you to stay in Vrindavan and it gave hope to me as well that this difficult ordeal of hospitalisation in my life will bring me further closer to Krishna.

Thank you very much Maharaja for all your good teachings and your amazingly wonderful example which is very much sustaining our spiritual life.

Please pray for me that there be no material desires in my heart, and my heart be decorated with devotional qualities.

Guru Maharaj please accept my most humble obeisance's. On this very auspicious day of your appearance day I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to you. First of all I would like to thank you from my heart, for giving me this wonderful opportunity to remain under your shelter and the wonderful & sincere Vaishnavas for which I feel I'm not at all qualified. Thank you Maharaj for your bold and direct instructions in your lectures. This has inspired thousands of souls like me to surrender to the Supreme Personality of Godhead directly & indirectly.

We can't repay the debts of your efforts for distributing this priceless gift of Krishna Consciousness even if we live for eternity. Some times when we think what would have been our destination if you would have not come to protect us. We might also have lived animalistic life leading towards hell. But you kindly sacrificed your comforts and blissful stay just to save us from onslaught of Maya even at the risk of life threatening incidents. Your struggle to protect us as a loving father will always remain source of inspiration to push us on this path of back to Godhead.

By the mercy of devotees we have opened one small centre (Vrindavan Bhakti Kutir) Name given by HG Radheshyam Prabhuji here at Janjgir (Chhatishgarh, India) fortunately many wonderful devotees are sincerely practicing the process you thought us. We are trying to conduct various programs to provide opportunities to the people here and to protect us by remaining in the association of devotees. We humbly beg that kindly bestow your choicest blessings upon all of us so that we can continue to practice sincerely and remain faithful at your lotus feet.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Dear Gurudev, on this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa Puja day, feeling very grateful and fotunate to be the part of this divine branch of Chaitanya tree.

Dear Gurudev, on this special occasion, for my own purification, I would to like to reflect and contemplate on one of your teachings that you have spoken so often about- how “IN GIVING WE RECEIVE”.

You have been always stressing a lot on this principle all through out your talks. My fallen, conditional nature is to always think how can I receive from Krishna, the devotees and ISKCON, more and more. This is such a mean and selfish attitude that has always kept me away from receiving real mercy from Sri Guru and Gauranga. As you have several times explained, what can we give to Krishna since we are so very insignificant. However, just like one collects a palm full of water from mother Ganga and offers it back to her, receives unlimited mercy, similarly, if I could just offer back even if a tiny bit of what I have received from this wonderful community of devotees and the parmapara then in giving actually I will receive much more.

And therefore, I seek your blessings to empower me to give back what I have received from the parampara by becoming a humble instrument in this preaching movement, distributing his divine message to others.

On this day, I also would like to pray for your better health and long life.

Life is compared as a boat, and if this boat does not have a proper captain, then the boat is floating elsewhere in the sea. Today, I am very happy in my life that I have come in contact with great person like you and through your vani , life has got a better direction.

I understood very well how to live life in a seeker state in every of your lecture. One of the things I always like about each of your discourses is that you are always quoting Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu's "Trunadapi Sunichen" to make us realize that we cannot receive God's grace unless we come to this feeling.

And I have seen that how you are practically showing these qualities in your life.

So today I am praying at your lotus feet that special grace be bestowed on me and no matter what happens in my life, I will remain in the service of all Vaishnavas with the same feeling and will continue to serve in the mood of servant of servant of the servant.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. I'm not really sure how to express my heart in words. I've been finding myself deeply longing for your association and admiring your deep connection to Srila Prabhupada in separation. Thank you for accepting me as your disciple. I have been feeling very desperate and caught up in the ebbs and flows of material existence but your life and your love are my anchor. Any faith I have is through yours. I would be in a very helpless and hopeless state without you and I am seeing more and more as I look around me that connection to Guru is everything. I am desperate not to lose that, even when there is physical distance. Thank you for showing me what Krsna Consciousness looks like. Thank you for making it easy to put my faith in you. Please pray for me that I can be more surrendered, more forgiving and have deeper faith. I hope you are doing well and are taken care of, and I hope to see you again soon. (DALLAS, USA)

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Wish you a very happy Appearance day.

Vyasa Puja time is perhaps the most special and most important time of the year for a disciple. It is that much needed time which so naturally makes one dive deeper into one's own heart, self assess and realign our lives with the purpose of the guru. It is also that relishable time which makes you meditate upon and drown yourself in the glories of your glorious master. It is indeed a time that reconnects and recharges.

Guru Maharaj you are an ocean brimming with all auspicious qualities, every single one of which can be spoken about at great lengths. What a disciple chooses to talk about during Vyasa Puja is perhaps more a reflection of what they are going through in their own lives at that time, and what they feel most inspired by at that particular point.

I remember how during your last visit to Dallas, when you spoke about that twisted and bent tree in Lindsley park, I was struck by your ability to learn from things. As I contemplate, almost as a revelation, this quality alongside 'gratitude' appears to be the key in making progress in spiritual life. One after another, so many incidents flash by- your encounter with the mongoose nesting in your hair, your prayers after narrowly escaping death in Turkey, Krishna Chandra Prabhuji's account of your secretly trying to focus on Krishna through a splitting headache, your musings from watching a hawk swoop down and snatch a fish, or a herculean European overpowered by a monkey, your stay in the Himalayas, infact all the happy and testing encounters you had throughout your arduous journey to India. Then, I think of so many anecdotes you mention in your book, the Journey Within.....and why only that, you have had this learning outlook right from the very beginning guiding you through each and every step of life.

I am reminded of your words- "if we are not striving to move ahead, the current of material existence will push us backwards". Clearly, developing this learning outlook, of which you are an epitome, appears to be an indispensable part of this striving to move ahead. Thinking of my own spiritual life, it is confounding how Krishna brings one face to face with one's most subtle and hidden anarthas in the most subtle ways. This Vyasa Puja, I truly beg for your mercy to be able to take shelter of this learning quality, so as to grow past through such ugly discoveries. Please give me the ability to uncover and focus on the lessons each situation is trying to teach.

Lastly, as much as you would have despised to be physically held back from the active service of Srila Prabhupada in the past two years, we rejoice in seeing you getting time to recuperate your health.

Gratefully With love,

Your servant

Dear Maharaj

Please accept my respectful obeisances.

Every time I recite the prayer mukam karoti vachalam pangum langhayate girim yat-kripa tam aham vande shri-gurum dina-taranam, I feel that I do not have any good quality or capability in me. Whatever little I have learnt or got, it is all but of your kind mercy.

I am actually a dump person because even after completing my so called degree, I was not able to frame a single sentence in any language I had learnt. But now by your mercy, you gave me the capability to speak to and convince few people to take up the process that you have given us.

Dear maharaj, your conviction in the words of your spiritual master; your strong faith in the teachings of Bhagavad Gita, Bhagavatam and the holy name of Krishna are all obviously revealed in your lectures and teachings. I am simply trying to become a devotee like you. And you wanted all your followers to become a devotee.

Maharaj, I Wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the amazing books you have given us and als for your thunderbolt like striking lectures which destroys all our ignorance, for all fallen people like me could also gain great hope in our spiritual journey and for demonstrating by your own personal example to the whole world how a devotee should always be living remembering and serving for the pleasure of guru and Krishna.

Maharaj, I wish to become a devotee as you expect but I have lots of non-sense in me. I am willing to co-operate to correct myself, to change myself for your pleasure. I am a fool. I don't know what is ultimately good for me. My mind too cheats me regularly and takes me for a useless ride within this material world and gets me to do so many crazy things.

Please bless me with a drop of your mercy, so that I will be able to please you by spreading caitanya's message's and please you and Srila prabhupada

I take this opportunity to pray to Sri Sri Radha-gopinath to bless you with good health.

Thank you for everything Maharaj

Dearest Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances. Please forgive me for not writing to you for long.

In one of the Vyas puja offerings I had heard from some devotee that you were aware of your desciples spiritual growth even though he or she may not be physically in contact with you. I have faith that you are also aware of my spiritual standing.

I am caught up with my material duties and my baggage of bad Karma. If I am chanting my 16 rounds daily and keeping the desire to take shelter of Krishna, its only because of hearing your lectures . At every opportunity I had to pray before deities, I have prayed that I develop my attachment towards you. I really wish this to be true.

By Krishna's mercy, I have access to Srila Prabhupad's books, your lectures, lectures of other Vaishnavas, in need of guidance, I can rely on my dear God brothers and sisters, my personal situation is a perfectly suited to take shelter of your instructions and holy name, but yet I am not capable of taking this opportunity seriously. As time paases by, I am slowly getting a glimpse of how miserable this material world is and how true yours and Srila Prabhupad's words are.

Dear Guru. Maharaj, on your auspicious Vyas puja day, I pray for your mercy I badly need and I wish to imbibe your instructions and be a desciple you really want me to be.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudev

Wish you a very happy 71st Vyas Puja.

Gurudev, our deep rooted false ego covers our heart and mind with so much duplicity.

You teach us by your own example that Krsna enters our heart only when its full of simplicity.

False sense of pride in our heart leads us to build wrong attitude.

You remind us that, as devotees, we should develop attitude of gratitude.

Entrepreneurs and Executives around the world were working with no integrity and full of passion.

You inspired and taught them how to earn with integrity and spend with compassion.

Enviousness for others is the root cause of us being hateful.

You have taught us that if we are not grateful, we are a 'great fool'.

We are hankering to collect more and more and are always fearful of losing something

You explained that whether we have everything or nothing, if we simply have devotion, we actually have everything.

We try to focus on our skills thinking that these are the key things on which our service rests.

You emphasized that humility is the foundation on which love for god manifests.

We pray for your good health, so that you can continue to bring millions and millions of soul to the lotus feet of supreme lord and to Srila Prabhupada.

I offer my most respectful and humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.

Wish you a very happy vyasa-puja and pray to Shri Krishna and Srimati Radharani for many happy returns of this auspicious day.

I offer my glorification on 3 important aspects Maharaj:

1. Vaishnava Qualities:

Thank you very much Maharaj for setting yourself as ideal example by exhibiting wonderful Vaishnava qualities:

A. Strong Character and Strict Sadhana

B. Selfless Service

C. Humility - to remain humble than a blade of grass

Thank you Maharaj for giving us the right mood and consciousness we need to be.

2. Your Lectures:

Your lectures are very hope giving and act as a refresh button and refines our consciousness to carryout everything with willingness, love and respect in life.

Thank you Maharaj for awakening Krishna Consciousness which was lying dormant in my heart, by your lectures.

In every lecture of yours, you express your unconditional love by glorifying Srila Prabhupada. I pray to Hari Guru and Vaishnavas that I get blessed with tinge of servitorship you have for Srila Prabhupada, one day, Maharaj.

3. Your Projects:

Maharj, Your projects also are very attractive and Krishna conscious and give us a broader idea of what Krishna Consciousness can be.

Your projects nourishes body, mind and soul. Your vision and mission to serve the entire humanity and devotees community, in particular is very much inspiring, in particular Bakthivedanta hospital and Govardhan Eco-village (GEV).

Thank you Maharaj for giving me your association through your lectures, projects, disciples and books. Eternally grateful and indebted to you Maharaj.

I am such a dull minded person, it would take many lifetimes for me to properly glorify you.

Thank you very much, Maharaj for this opportunity to write on your vyasa-puja.

all glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga Thankyou Maharaj for all your love and causeless mercy upon me. i have got a diamond in my slum like ignorant life that too in the price of pebbles. i have no reason and excuse to complain about anything as the person who has such a sweet, humble, glorious spiritual master, especially if one has got him causelessly, i am the richest person in the whole world. but often, i seem to forget and drift away from the real purpose and goal of my life which should be only to serve you and please you. my conditionings and drawbacks are unlimited but with the limitless mercy and grace of yours, i have full faith that i would be able to cross over this ocean of material existence. maharaj, i need your mercy to overcome my desires for temporary happiness and pleasures and just be focused on reviving my relationship with the supreme lord and help others also to go closer to the lord.

maharaj, in your book, the journey home, when you were asked to take initiation from Srila Prabhupada, i was so surprised that you were genuinely feeling incapable and were so much thinking whether you would be able to be a good disciple. this is such a mood of a sincere and genuine disciple who always thinks himself to be unworthy. but you have got so much glory to Srila Prabhupada and how much he must be proud of you. and on the other hand, u so easily accepted such a unworthy filth of dirt as me as your disciple which depicts your ocean of compassion and mercy. you just see the positive and have hope upon each one of us. this is because you have such unconditional love for each and every living entity.

maharaj, i simply pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath to bestow upon you good health always and may we all make you proud and get a smile on your face the way you have reciprocated with Srila Prabhupada. love you very very much. please forgive me for all my knowingly and unknowingly comitted offenses against you

GOVIND PRASAD DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Gurudev,

Please Accept my humble obeisances,

All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga,

Dear Gurudev,

I connected to ISKCON in 2010. It was kind of dramatic. I came to ISKCON Camp, So I can bring my brother HG Prashant Madhav Prabhu back from Krishna Consciousness, but ended up chanting Hare Krishna myself. I was cultivated by many Vaishnavas, I will not write their names because list is very long. They put their sweat n toil, so that I can receive this beautiful gift of Krishna Consciousness. I was unware of the higher connections but these devotees wonderfully established that connection between a Guru and Disciple. Because their mercy I could recognise my relationship with You, Srila Prabhupada and Krishna ultimately. When I look back in to these 10 years in Practicing devotional service, I could realise, that without the Blessings of Hari Guru and Vaishnava one can't even chant Hare Krishna. In these Three, Vaishnavas are the most important key to attain perfection in life. You sent these Vaishnavas in my life so I can also get the golden chance to purify my existence by chanting Hare Krishna, serving devotees & Lord Gauranga, reading shastras & telling others the glories of Hare Krishna Mahamantra. I am very very grateful to you Gurudev for everything.

I was serving in Bramhachari Ashram for 5 years, 2 years back I passed out from Bramhachari Ashram now will take to Grihastha ashram soon. In this process I am getting to see the hardship & struggles of Grihastha ashram. It is very difficult to discharge your worldly duties and at the same time remain steady in Krishna Consciousness. Your lectures are making this difficult journey, very easy. Your vani association is the guiding light in this darkness. Sometimes I feel weak, not able to chant properly but your Vani always show me right path. Thank you Maharaj for everything. I'm very grateful to you for bestowing your causeless mercy on fallen soul like me.

Gurudev, Recently I shifted to Mysore.

Again by your mercy I got an association of HG Radha Krishna Prabhu Ji here. He is wonderfully preaching here in Mysore. Around 40 families chanting 16 rounds of Hare Krishna under his guidance. He converted his House in a temple. Here we have Sri Sri Radha Govinda Dev, Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga deties at his home. I feel fortunate to have his association here in Mysore.

Wherever I went, wherever I am going, you already made arrangemet, So I can always remain in association of devotees. I could realise this in all these years.

I still feel somewhere I am not doing my part properly. Not chanting properly, not reading shastras properly, not even serving devotees properly. Gurudev please give me strength and bless me so I can follow all your instructions and Serve devotees.

I'm eternally grateful to you for accepting me and showing your causeless mercy time to time.

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances,

All glories to you on this most auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja celebration!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for all of the sacrifices that you take up, just to inspire anyone who you may meet to become a better person and come closer to their spiritual goals. You are so kind and loving in your manner, yet so uncompromising on spiritual principles and the teachings of Srila Prabhupada. You are a living example of how a perfect devotee of Lord Krsna acts, and that is such an inspiration for me, and undoubtedly many others.

You lead a life of austerity, selflessness and simplicity, and deeply touch the hearts of all those you meet. Everything you do is for the welfare of others, and you always prioritize the needs of others before your own. Your personality is so genuine and true, without any touch of pride or envy, and even though you meet countless people on a daily basis, you somehow make everyone feel loved and cared for. I have no idea how you are able to give so much of yourself to everyone without feeling completely divided and split up.. Yet you do it! And you do it in such a way that not only are you giving attention to everyone, but you are also continually uplifting each and every person!

I pray that I may always keep your kind and wise words in the forefront of my mind, and that during the times when I might drift off course from my spiritual path, that I might remember your gentle and caring nature as well as your unyielding, resolute determination to make your life the ultimate sacrifice for others. I pray that I might meditate on everything that you do for us not only on the day of your Vyasa Puja, but rather, to appreciate and be grateful on a daily basis for the kind mercy you shower upon us. Lastly, I pray that I might somehow become an instrument in your hands to help you move forward the mission of Srila Prabhupada and that by doing so, in some way, I might please you.

Dear respected Gurudev,

Please accept my humble prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada, Guru and Gauranga. All Glories to your divine personality.

On this most wonderful occasion of your 71st Vyasa Puja celebration, I wish to try to express some of my feelings of gratitude for all the gifts you have given us and also to glorify your great Vaisnava qualities. I must confess that I severely lack these 2 important deep Vaisnava qualities - gratitude and glorifying/appreciating others, yet making a small attempt.

For me, your greatest gift is your VANI and also the personification of your VANI. You have so beautifully , meticulously assimilated the teachings of Srila Prabhupada and presented it so nicely along with your own deep profound realizations. Your classes are really pure nectar and they serve as guiding light for all situations of life. You are giving us hope especially in these hopeless times where the whole world suffered the worst ever pandemic and many people including devotees lost their lives. Your other gifts Include soul-stirring Kirtans, enlivening and absorbing Yatras to holy places, association of sweet and caring God brothers, GEV and many more.

Dear Gurudev, speaking about your qualities, you have unlimited Vaisnava qualities, prominent among them are your great humility, kindness, all Accommodating, compassion, and .devotee care. You have perfectly showed to us as to what it means to be an ideal disciple, and ideal Guru, all under the strong foundation of strong Sadhana and completely taking shelter of the holy names.

Dear Gurudev, on this auspicious occasion, I pray at your lotus feet that I always live upto your expectations of being a good example, try to imbibe your mood of being servant of the servant and contribute to Srila Prabhupada's mission

Guru Maharaj, everyone in three worlds know your Glories. Your humility, strict spiritual instructions and your unflinching devotion to the Lord is heart touching. Your absorption in Gaur and Krishna katha is very inspirational for all the sadhakas.

You are setting an example for modern misguided civilization which is breaking the laws of material nature and are being repeatedly punished through natural disasters and pandemics, through project such as Goverdhan Eco Village. There you are showing people how to live in Eco-friendly way and protect cows while practicing Krishna Consciousness.

You have recreated Sri Madan Mohan temple of Santana Goswami and are also carrying Vrindavan atmosphere wherever you go throughout the world.

Because you carry the Personality of Godhead within your heart, you turn all places into places of pilgrimage.Your sense control, your dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission, your compassion to fallen souls and your attachment to the chanting of Hare Krishna mahamantra is exemplary. Your dealings with your God-brothers and members of other spiritual sects portray your broad mindedness and all inclusive character. Your disciples like Gauranga prabhu, Radhesyam prabhu and other senior brahmacharis are role models to many youths in India and abroad. Your transcendental social welfare schemes like Annamrita simultaneously meet the material and spiritual necessities of a common man and at the same time fulfill Srila Prabhupada's desire for large scale prasad distribution. Your disciples like HG Krishna Chandra prabhu ji are setting an example how to be successful in material world while practicing Krishna Consciousness. Despite my unlimited failings and short comings, you have always showered so much attention, love and care by engaging me in services which are very critical and important for bringing pleasure to the devotees and serving the institution of Srila Prabhupada, be it the sound system, kartik yatras or the legal matters. I will be almost a year now that my mother whom you also accepted as your disciple HG Ladali Radha Devi Dasi passed away and like you always said about your mother's last rites that the Mother Ganga gave shelter to the remains of your mother, I feel so blessed that by your grace I have received the good fortune to serve on the banks of Mother Ganges, who now holds the remains of my mother too! Every day in the morning and afternoon when we worship and bathe in Mother Ganga I am reminded of my good fortune and your grace and pray to Mother Ganga to give me the ability and purity to serve and please you. I hope that very soon we shall be allowed to serve Sri Sri Radha Govind ji and Their servants in Rishikesh under your divine instructions and thus bring pleasure to you and Srila Prabhupada and our Guru Parampara!

HARI BHAKTI DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dearmost Respected HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Krishna is unlimitedly kind. Out of His causeless mercy, Krishna descends in this world and attracts all the living entities by His charming pastimes, urging them to join in His blissful sport. Moreover, Krishna's compassion impels Him to send His empowered representatives to beseech the unfortunate ones through being embodiments of His own love, compassion and grace. Just as a small child learning to walk may fall many times but is picked up by the parents, similarly, guru picks up the disciple who may fall repeatedly. The parents give instructions to the child that lead to the child's future growth. Similarly, guru's prime mercy is the instruction that is bestowed upon the disciple, following which destroys the anarthas in the heart of the disciple and awakens in him or her a genuine desire to love and serve Krishna.

Dvarakavasis are praying to Krishna in Srimad Bhagavatam 1.11.7, bhavaya nas tvam bhava vishva-bhavana

tvam eva matatha suhrt-patih pita

tvam sad-gurur nah paramam ca daivatam yasyanuvrttya krtino babhuvima

"O creator of the universe, You are our mother, well-wisher, Lord, father, spiritual master and worshipable Deity. By following in Your footsteps we have become successful in every respect. We pray, therefore, that You continue to bless us with Your mercy."

Gurudeva, for us, you have been our mother, well-wisher, father and spiritual master, guiding us in times of thick and thin, patting and protecting us in success, encouraging us in failure, enlivening us in hopelessness, comforting us in despair and engaging us at all times in Krishna's service.

You have been a transparent via medium of Srila Prabhupada's mercy, and your entire life exemplifies service to Srila Prabhupada in the mood of servant of the servant.

Thank you so much Maharaja for everything!

Thank you for the lectures given in the lockdown period. Your ecstasies could be clearly witnesssed through those lectures, and you are spilling that ecstasy upon all of us. You words completely penetrate the heart and urge us to take to this process more seriously. I wish to be become a sold out servant at your lotus feet - no other desires and aspirations - Beg for the strength to do your will...It is difficult, but if your grace is there, then what is impossible for us?

This year, some days back, we took to saffron. Please grant us the strength to really follow Mahaprabhu's teachings and example of renunciation, and not be hypocrites in our behavior. I feel utterly disqualified for anything Maharaja, but devotees are somehow engaging me in devotional service.

We also beg at your divine lotus feet to kindly grant us the strength to understand your instructions imparted in your lectures and through your personal life, assimilate those profound teachings in our life, share this gift of bhakti with whomever we come in contact with, and serve Srila Prabhupada's mission in a way pleasing to your heart by genuinely and co-operatively working in the mood of servant of the servant.

Aspiring to be the servant of your servants,

Hari Bhakti Das.

Dear Radhanath Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this most auspicious day of your appearance.

I beg to offer some appreciation, for in doing so surely Lord Krsna will be pleased.

It is said in the Svetasvatara Upanishad

Yasya deve para bhaktir yatha deve tatha gurau tasyaite kathita hy artha prakashante mahatmanah

" Only unto those great souls who have implicit faith in both the Lord and the spiritual master are all of the imports of Vedic knowledge automatically revealed"

You are the Mahatma spoken of in this verse. Your implicit faith in Srila Prabhupada and Śrī Krsna is as deep as the fathomless ocean. Your love and dedication to Their service melts the hearts of countless souls that have the great fortune to cross your path. Through this love you give them the opportunity to receive Srila Prabhupada's grace.

Your magnanimity knows no bounds and the good fortune of those that accept your gift is unparalleled. Thank you Maharaj for everything. Living forever in your debt. Aspiring to remain under the dust of your lotus feet.

HARI PRITI DEVI DASI (NEW MAYAPUR, UKRAINE)

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances on the holy day of Your appearance.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious day I would like to try to express my gratitude for You sacrificing Your life serving each and everyone of us and also for bringing up so many wonderful devotees in whose hearts there lives a deep love for You, who embody Your qualities and in this way let us feel Your presence. In this regard I would like to tell You a story, because I try to meditate on it a lot, and at the present moment it is one of the most meaningful things for me.

In 2019 when You last time came to Kiev I also came to see You. This was the first time I had an opportunity to go somewhere without my daughter, so I really tried to absorb myself in everything that happened. I really needed to feel a connection with You, and like a photographer I was trying to take pictures that would be there in my heart. But I also had a strong need to know You did accept me. It so happened that could not be there during my initiation ceremony, I just gave birth, so I was told I could not come, and Acyuta Priya Prabhu was giving wows on my behalf.

So now when You came I was watching Your sweet relations with the devotees, I attended the initiation ceremony where those fortunate souls were receiving such rare and sacred moments of intimate connection with You, and I was thinking, "Probably Guru Maharaj doesn't even know I exist..." Of course real connection is nothing superficial, it is the connection of hearts through service and chanting. But I had a strong urge to feel You did accept me. As I am.

When You were leaving I took a flower, and wanted to give it to You. I meditated that I was offering You not a flower, but my heart. Will You accept it? There were so many devotees seeing You off. I handed You that flower, You took it, but You did not even look at me. I felt insignificant and devastated…

You were leaving… Last interactions with the devotees at the car… I was watching it from some sort of a balcony at the entrance to the temple. Your sweet exchange with our dear Nitai Caitanya Maharaj and Mother Tungavidya Sakhi… I was crying… And finally You left… My heart was broken… Because again we will not see You and because I was not fortunate to feel You accepted me.

And suddenly one lady came up and reached out to the balcony where I was standing. She stretched me a flower and said, "This is for You from Guru Maharaj!" And she left. It was not that she was distributing some flowers, she just gave it to me and left. I was crying. But now not of devastation, but of gratitude. I did receive an answer. But the way I received it is the substance of my strong meditation now.

We may not be able to see You so often and have a personal relationship. But You are there in our lives in the form of Your disciples who deeply meditate on You and make efforts to please You with how they live their lives, how they serve and care, how they chant. This is my meditation and prayer now. Please bless me to always see the devotees as my worshipable objects. Let me always remember that how I serve them is how I serve You and Krishna. Let me always feel that connection in my life. And please help me to develop my affection for You by building strong loving relations with the devotees. Let these things always be inseparable in my life.

Thank you for Your priceless gift of those loving relations that You show us in Your own life.

Your insignificant servant,

Hari Priti dd

Dandvats Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Sril Prabhupada.

Maharaj when u were asked what would have happened to u if u would have not met Prabhupad ? Your reply was 'I would be dead'. Maharaj u have trained your desciples so well that because of Gaurang p I'm spiritually alive, else I would also be spiritually dead long time back.

Inspite of my repeated mistakes I was given shelter and mercy although I didn't deserve it.

After the fatal car accident Gaurang p met with Devamrit p, his realisation was and is that, I would have passed away, but Krishna has saved my life, now onwards every day let it be an offering to Him. So Maharaj in the same way I want to offer every day of my life in service to U, Gaurang p and Vaishnav community.

Please forgive my unlimited offences.

I'm eternally grateful to have u as my Guru, and all the teachings u have imparted, and the personal example u are setting is what I aspire to follow with utmost sincerity all my life.

Always aspiring to be servant of your divine servants,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Guru Maharaj,it has been a very long time that we experienced your phisical presence, enlivening classes, personal interactions and just your encouraging presence all because of catastrophic pandemic,now that things are becoming little easier we are hoping against hope that your arrival as per your plans will once again rejuvenate and enlighten all the devotees.

Still we all had the very good fortune of your valuable association online during all the major festivals ,Kartik yatras online zoom classes for brahmacharis as well as congregation all over various places.

We are eternally grateful and indebted for your encouraging words through these heart melting classes which have somehow or other helped devotees all over

Now we get the glimpse of what it means to have vapu sanga of Sri Guru and during the days of Srila Prabhupada how devotees served Srila Prabhupada year after year just eagerly awaiting for his personal association,that has given us a clue of what it means to serve the Lord and Sri Guru in separation

Dear Guru Maharaj felt truly encouraged to get your audience and blessings to have an Art exhibition in Mumbai on the eve of Srila Prabhupada's 125 th anniversary of appearance.

All most all the arrangements have been made by the co operative efforts of devotees, now we all are very eagerly awaiting for your most auspicious and valuable appearance on the land of Bharath Varsha very soon., and inagurate the most awaited event of Srila Prabhupada's paintings

Ever grateful and thankful for your Divine teachings and shower of mercy

Hare Krishna Maharaj.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All Glories to Sri Guru &Gauranga.

All Glories to SrilaPrabhupad.

I would like to thank the temple authorities for giving me this opportunity to express my gratitude for all what you have given me.

All of us remember SrilaPrabhupad & are so deeply attached to His Divine Grace due to the unflinching faith in the words of His Guru & His unparalleled devotion to serving His Guru's instruction.

The first quality what I cherish deep in my heart is Your devotion to His Divine Grace SrilaPrabhupad & eagerness to offer every drop of your existence for His service. This is very much evident in the way you begin every one of your lectures, by stating " By the unlimited compassion of His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada, we are all present here together today."

The last verse of the Guruashtakam says, true success in spiritual life is pleasing the spiritual master & all Sanyasis of ISKCON exemplify this & Your Holiness is no exception, always mediating on how to please Srila Prabhuada by every action. Two years back, we heard from HG Dwarakdish Pr on how the color of the paint was chosen for the walls of BhaktiVedanta Hosiptal. When all the devotee doctors and managers were called for and asked of their opinions, different people gave different opinions. Some said, blue, because Krishna is bluish, some said, saffron, some said white as it represents purity, peace etc.., but when devs finally asked Your opinion, You told them "it must be pink", because Srila Prabhupad liked this color very much and that is why it was chosen for the Chakra Building. This is your consciousness, what will Srila Prabhupad like it to be.

The last verse also says, dyayan stuvaams tasya.., a disciple should remember the spiritual master atleast 3 times a day. This is an amazing quality of Your Holiness that during the glorification of any personality of Srimad Bhagavatam or any Acharya, You always find how those noble qualities were exemplified by Your beloved Guru Maharaj, Srila Prabhupad.

In one lecture, while describing the pastime of Kaliya, You were mentioning there that just like the wives of Kaliya were praying to Krishna to forgive this envious serpent Kaliya, in the same way all of us are also tiny Kaliya's filled with envy for Krishna, but His Divine Grace SrilaPrabhupad was like the Nagapatnis, praying for all of us & this is our only qualification.

In another lecture, when glorifying Krishnadas Kaviraj Goswami, You were mentioning how like Krishnadas Kaviraj Goswami started a great spiritual project in his grand old age for the benefit of the world, His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupad also did the same.

I can see myself extremely fortunate to be under the shelter of a sincere disciple of SrilaPrabhupad., always remembering His Guru, understanding that all what I have is Guru's mercy. Maharaj, I beg you to bless me with this genuine humility & eagerness to take intense shelter of the all Acharyas& superiors & remain protected in my Krishna Consciousness.

In the recent Mayapur Yatra, when You narrated the pastime of the dog being delivered by Lord Chaitanya, You taught us through this simple pastime on what must be the attitude of all devotees and gave a glimpse of what is present in the heart of a pure Vaishnava like Your Holiness.

You told that, it was not that the Lord was attached to playing with the dog, but the Lord wanted to bestow His complete mercy on the dog, & when the Lord did that, the dog was chanting in ecstasy, leading kirtan & hundreds of other devotees were following the dog. You were telling us indirectly, that in the same way, whatever good things we do in our preaching, have hundreds of followers, we should consider ourselves as insignificant as the dog & understand that it is simply the mercy of the Lord & all the Acharyas.

In this way, Maharaj, You are helping your disciples to become finer in Krishna Consciousness. You are teaching us that even in our thoughts, there should not be a trace of pride. We should never consider any of our qualities separate from Guru's mercy.

A tree with very deep roots can stay firmly grounded and give rise to many wonderful fruits. This is one of the greatest gifts you have given to all of us. So many of your intimate disciples are helping us in our spiritual life at each and every step in our spiritual life. HG Radheshaym Pr & HG Radha Gopinath Pr are helping our ICC Temple to become a better community. HG Krishnanand Pr's regular intense association always reminds us on the urgency of improving in our spiritual lives & absorbing ourselves in every spiritual activity.

At the same time, I regret that I have not been able to practice Krishna Consciousness with sincerity.

On this auspicious occasion, I'm begging you Maharaj to kindly bless me so that I may get sincere desire & determination to reciprocate with the unlimited mercy which the most merciful Lordships & all the senior Vaishnavas are showering upon me.

I beg at Your lotus feet to give me the strength to call out the Holy Names in utter helplessness, to completely absorb myself in all my daily spiritual activities & develop genuine humility & aspire to always remain a humble servant of servant of the Lord. Kindly bless our parents, our daughter Haripriyaa and shower Your mercy upon them by awarding Krishna bhakti to them.

This is a small poem written by my good wife. Kindly accept her humble offering.

Guru Maharaj,

When I see Your love for Krishna and His devotees, I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

When I see Your humility, smile and simple living, I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

When You sing out Krishna's name and His glory and fame, it appears like the leelas are telecast directly from Goloka, then I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

When in pain or pleasure, You always try to please Your Lord and Your master, I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

When I see Your heart is so pure with love of God, with no pride, lust, greed anger, illusion and envy, and always so merciful, I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

You are far from us, yet so close to us by words and lectures, I feel I should hold Your lotus feet and surrender to you completely.

Please accept this fallen soul at Your lotus feet.

Thank you very much.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances! All Glories to Srila Prabhupada! All Glories to you!

Practicing spiritual file can be like walking through a mine field. One wrong step and one could blow up. Through your vani you are so meticulously guiding us and making us aware of the pitfalls of maya at every step. You tirelessly emphasize to us the golden mantra of being in the mood of servant of servant and of being trnad api sunichena . These itself if we embrace in our life can save us from so many offences and traps of maya. Gurudeva how the Lord's pastimes come to life when we hear from your lotus mouth is indescribable. Your deep lectures and soulful kirtans give us the higher taste to keep going in Krishna consciousness. Your complete and staunch faith in teachings of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Krishna, incredible taste for holy name and Lord's pastimes, flawless and refined Vaishnava behaviour, such deep realizations of scriptures which can only have been revealed by mercy of Guru and Krishna, such clarity of principles of Krishna consciousness and on how to apply them practically to our day to day life, your loving dealings with your own god-brothers and god-sisters, wonderful sense of humour. These and many other such incredible wonderful qualities that you possess in abundance have endeared you to so many souls across the universe. All these are guiding light of our lives and give us so much faith in the process of Krishna consciousness. They give us glimpse of how wonderful life must be in spiritual world. We are deeply indebted to you for selflessly giving all these to us.

Our only heartfelt prayer to Lord and deep longing in life is that may be one day we may be able to please you and bring happiness and smile on your face by assisting you and your servants completely with our mind , body and words.

HARIKRISHNAN (KOCHI, KERALA, INDIA)

Dear Respected Gurudev,

Hare Krishna. Please accept my humble obeisances.

You have many wonderful qualities that attracts and inspires me.

Thank you very much Maharaj for blessing us with so many wonderful lectures. Recently i was listening to one of your lectures on bring serious in Krishna consciousness. In that you were pointing out that how we should be serious in the practice of Krishna Consciousness. We should pay attention when we are chanting prasadam prayers and this will enhance the effect of taking prasadam. This lecture really helped me in rising standards of Krishna consciousness in my life.

You have many wonderful qualities. A pure devotee of the lord is Dhira. I was really inspired on how you said no to maya when you came across an incidence in Kabul. The above incidence also shows your determination to practice Krishna consciousness and pushes me and gives me determination to practice Krishna consciousness. You have come to this material world just to deliver us from the clutches of Maya and engage us in Krishna's service. When you were in some place in eastern India, when you were staying with lord Rama's devotees, one devotee had a dream in which Lord Rama told that you are a devotee of Krishna. This means you are a Nitya siddha who has come to the material world exclusively to deliver us.

The way you engage people in Krishna's service as per their level in Krishna consciousness and give them association is amazing. Just by associating with Bhaktivedantas, a young boy got darshan of Lord Krishna and became a pure devotee in the next life. In a similar way you engage people who are not interested also in Krishna's service in whatever way they can and give them your association.

I have a prayer to you Gurudev. I beg you to please give me your shelter and consider me your servant.

Your servant,

It's been 21 years that I was offered Harinaam Diksha & 7 years , Brahman Diksha.

I have had the fortune of rendering various sevas all these years.

I like to assist devotees in their spiritual progress.

But due to my negligence in sadhana I have yet not developed deep attachment to chanting of Holy Names.

I seek your blessings to develop taste in HOLY NAMES & give HOLY NAME to others in as many ways possible .

As years go by ,I wish to increase my services to mission, both quantitatively & qualitatively & also engage others in sevas.

Dearest Gurudev,

Hare Krishna!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this most auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to you.

There are many lessons I have learnt from your life and teachings and every time I think of my fortune to have you in my life, I am simply amazed, wonder struck and grateful.

You have been spoon feeding us in every aspect and dimension of our spiritual wellbeing. I feel like a pampered disciple and always feel so connected, nourished and comfortable just by associating and serving your disciples.

My journey in ISKCON started post the tenth standard exam in the summer vacation of the year 1991 and when I met you through my college friend H. G. Premnidhi Prabhu, I had a magical experience. It was beyond the ordinary and I felt very attracted to your smiles, gestures, teachings, behaviors, practices, interactions and disciplines. Being with you, every weekend during the Sunday feasts, annual festivals and the spiritual excursions to the various holy places in the first ten years of my Krishna Consciousness, etched deep impressions on my heart and mind; was like attending a complete long term spiritual education program in a university.

The key lessons learnt in that decade were:

1. Be grateful

2. Be humble

3. Be hungry for spiritual experiences and absorb them like a dry sponge

The year 2002 was when our son came in to our lives and you kindly agreed to name him Prahlad. It was like a gift from Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji and Priyanka followed in the year 2007 to add to our spiritual responsibilities. As your grhastha disciples we have tried our level best to give Krishna Consciousness to the kids and we got great guidance from various devotees in our congregation like H.G. Sridama Prabhu and H.G. Kisori Mataji, Yudhisthir Prabhu and Draupadi Priya Mataji, Satcidanand Prabhu and Anusuya Mataji, Krishnachandra Prabhu and RadhaPriya Mataji, Srinathji Prabhu and Mythili Priya Mataji, Dwarkadish Prabhu and Vishakha Priya Mataji and ofcourse H.G. Adikeshav Prabhu and H.G. Premlila Mataji along with H.G. AnandVrindavan Prabhu and TulsiPriya Mataji. It was an important decade, where my elder god brothers and god sisters showered their love and mercy with beautiful and enriching conversations.

The key lessons experienced from that decade were:

1. The power of Vaishnava Association

2. The importance of Vaishnava Culture

3. The positive impact of cultivating a Krishna Conscious Family

With GEV shaping up and having served at the Barsana eye camp in an insignificant capacity , I had the great fortune of developing friendship and strong bonds with my dear godbrothers like Hare Krishna Prabhu, Raghupati Prabhu, SuryaKrishna Prabhu, Premanjan Prabhu, VrajaKishore Prabhu, PrahladPriya Prabhu, Krishna Gopal Prabhu, Mukunda Prabhu, Veerachandra Prabhu, Yugavatar Prabhu, ParamBrahma Prabhu, VrajaGopal Prabhu, MadhuGopal Prabhu, Madhav Damodar Prabhu, Vishal Tiwari Prabhu, RavalTeertha Prabhu, Devanand Hari Prabhu, Mahaprakash Prabhu, Madhavendra Puri Prabhu, AcyutaGovinda Prabhu, Janardhan Keshav Prabhu, Madhu Mangal Prabhu, Amit Duhlani Prabhu, Suhail Prabhu, Karan Kaushik Prabhu, HrishikeshAnand Prabhu, Harinaam Anand Prabhu, VrindavanChandra Prabhu, Srinivas Acarya Prabhu and many more. My friends in Krishna Consciousness are like jewels in the beautiful festive crown of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Dev. Each one of them shining bright and inspiring me to appreciate the eternal gift that I have received from my Gurudev. Life has been a festival everyday with the memories and association of devotees.

The key lessons over the last decade of my Krishna Consciousness were:

1. The important, nourishing, secret sauce practice of serving Vaishnavas

2. Krishna is not different from His Holy Names and the power of consistent, sincere sadhana

3. Serving Cows and Tulasi Devi, following Ekadashi facilitate our journey back to Godhead

With this great wealth and legacy, I pray at your lotus feet that may I continue getting opportunities to serve and humbly stay in this amazing ecosystem of Krishna Consciousness you have given us, for the remaining time on this planet and then continue eternally serving Vaishnavas, Guru and Srimati Radharani and Krishna under your loving leadership, guidance and love.

We pray for your Great Health and Long Krishna Conscious healthy life.

HARMENDRA MISHRA (INDORE)

It was December 2015, I first time heard your live lecture at ISKCON Chowpatty. Maharaj, you spoke about Brahmin pleading for Jarasandh's captive kings to Krishna in Sudharma hall.

You were speaking word to word from Srila Prabhupada's Krishna book. That realization startled me and I got realization that you are representative of Srila Prabhupada in my life. Sometimes, I hear from here or there and start getting doubt on your words etc. But, within hours I find the same thing you say in the books of Srila Prabhupada. This cements my faith on your guidance. I always see a delicate manifestation of Vaishnavism and high ideals in your dealings, actions, talks, management and everything. Though, I will never know me. I do not know whether I will be ever able to meet you, but I offer my eternal surrender at your lotus feet. I clearly see your presence in your words. All glories to Srila Prabhupada, All glories to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

I feel greatly fortunate to be able to write Vyaspuja offering to you as well as gratitude to be given this opportunity.

I belong to the IIT Bombay project which took shape due to your strong intention transformed into action by your sincere disciples and followers in year 2015. Since then it is helping many souls practise purest of the teachings in otherwise darkest of the place for any spirituality or expression of surrender to take place.

"Each one, teach one while being taught by one" If we apply this principle to Guru Parampara, it highlights some of the crucial aspects in Guru disciple relationship. One is that Guru takes responsibility of each disciple. Another is that each disciple offers his life back to Guru and make his orders one's life and soul. I am unable to follow this as your aspiring disciple so please guide me in whatever way possible to improve and start taking it seriously.

I am in a community of so many of your sincere disciples who are themselves strictly following your teachings as well as through their lectures, personal guidance and example helping others learn the same. I thank you for creating such a vibrant Krishna Conscious atmosphere.

Recently one of the student devotees staying in our centre, Joy Prabhu, left his body. He was chanting 16 rounds everyday and a very sincere Vaishnava close to all of our hearts. I seek your blessings for him as well as the whole project at IIT Bombay that it may continue to flourish and be a pleasing offering to you in some insignificant way.

My Dearest Gurumaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to you on this very auspicious day of your Vyasapuja.

As a little girl, I was impressed by the pastimes of the Supreme Lord Krishna and the extent to which he went to protect His devotees. I wanted the Lord to love me in a similar way.

As I grew older, I became impressed by the patience and devotion of the devotees of the Lord – Mother Yashoda, Mother Kunti, Mother Shabri and the Gopis. I wanted to have the same love for the Supreme Lord.

As I started working, I became impressed by Srila Prabupada, his determination, his energy and dedication to execute his Guru instruction. I fell in love with his unadulterated faith and love for the Supreme lord and wanted to become her grand-daughter.

As days passed, I started to appreciate the dedication of many devotees at the temple and serving moods during the festivals even if their thoughts were not aligned. I now wanted to be connected to the temple.

I started sitting next to Srila Prabhupada, praying to Sri Sri Radhagolokananda and waiting for some mercy.

As you rightly said "Mercy is to get what we do not deserve." A friend of mine introduced me to your Lectures and my insignificant and lost life was filled with an inner contentment even if the fear of being rejected as an aspiring disciple was there.

Again, I do not and will not be able to know by whose mercy, you accepted me as your disciple.

I am forever grateful to you GuruMaharaj for accepting me in this glorious wonderful family of Srila Prabhupada and I sincerely pray to the Supreme Lord to let me remain in the shelter of your Lotus feet forever.

On this very auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja, I have got this amazing opportunity to write a few lines for my own purification.

The word thank you, is so dramatically small, to ever describe your dedication and profound surrender to the mission of your spiritual master, and our beloved grandfather Srila Prabhupada. That is indeed my greatest inspiration and deepest shelter.

There is no deeds and activities big enough I have ever done, even though I put all my little effort in it, to be compared with the power of your prayers, your example, and your love, which transforming my heart and my complete life.

I am experiencing that directly and indirectly through my beloved god family who are guiding and inspiring me, strengthening my spiritual intelligence and devotion. Seeing my beloved godsisters and brothers dedicating their whole life energy and being completely engaged in a numerous amazing project through the whole world, helping me realized that the greatest joy of life is being the servant, of the servant, of the servant of the Lord Sri Krishna.

Then there is nothing else left to me except humbly pray to my beloved grandfather who is always so merciful toward his grandchildren to keeps me away of the clutches of illusory energy of Maya. And keeps me strongly close to your lotus feet's dear Gurudeva, and under the shelter of Vaishnava's because that is the only way to purify my heart and develop humble attitude of the servant in whatever I do, as a modest expression of gratitude for your love, shelter, guidance, and inspiration.

All glories to Gurudev.

Dear Gurudev,

I am grateful to you for choosing me as your disciple and helping me in my spiritual growth. Past two years was crucial time and hard test to live.many doubts and thoughts came like flash and passed in a moment what will happen next. Guru Maharaj your lectures and online association gave lot of spiritual strength and recreated strong faith in Krishna again. My Chanting and reading developed a lot and gave a positive approach all the time. Smile on your face was a pure Amrit which one could get when a devotee is struggling. I am totally convinced that Krishna has sent you on earth to give usvtrue knowledge and take us all back to godhead.I am very grateful to Krishna and Shril Pabhupada, I am very grateful to you Guru Maharaj for accepting me and giving us such precious and priceless gift of Krishna consciousness.please bless me so that I can serve more vaishnavas.

My dear beloved Gurudeva,

As the years roll by, preparing an offering to submit at your lotus feet gets harder. The reasons are multifold: there is so much to be grateful for it is overwhelming, and at the same, I don't have much progress to show from the last twelve months. Another year goes by as I seek to appreciate your incomprehensible mercy and my good fortune for having found you.

When I came upon devotees and started practicing KC over a decade ago, from watching the saintly demeanor of HG Krsnanandini mataji, I concluded that I wanted to be like her when I was her age- enthusiastic and so in love with God. Getting better, not bitter with age. Perceiving what Srila Prabhupada has given us, beyond the surface level of things that are eye sores especially when it comes to ego dynamics, required me to think, support myself and work on the marathon-mode vs the sprint-mode. How else could a mother of over a dozen children, in an interfaith marriage love so liberally? Her soul smiled through her sparkling eyes and the warmth in her voice touched and calmed all. I wanted that for myself..!

Krishna knows, I've spent years contemplating on that goal and continue to do so. It would require me to become serious, study sastra scrutinizingly, serve senior vaisnavas and observe their interactions and above all, get perfect guidance of a striving rupanuga. Thus followed prayers upon prayers followed by lots of disappointment as I'd hoped to find someone who would jolt me back to the kind of life that this jiva yearned for. I prayed for personal spiritual stability, I prayed to understand the meaning of prayer. I'd hear over and over the importance of japa and how critical it was to have a good morning sadhana. It was on my list to work on for so many years and I knew this was not possible without the right association.

In the middle of this year, after a decade of prayers, in my godbrother who I have never met and who lives in another country, I found the brotherly, fatherly- motherly support that I have been craving. He has helped me bring the focus back on sadhana and delve deeper on the path ahead. I have been working on deepening my relationship with the guru parampara by taking active interest in hearing about our exalted acaryas, again something that I've been praying for some years and remained a mystery. I'm also slowly getting to understand the richness of this beautiful path of bhakti, what it means to be a devotee by closely following the classes of another godbrother.

In terms of services, I continue to teach children at the Sunday school with increasing zest. I serve with the Education department at the Temple and for the month of Kartik, with a team of devotees giving such wonderful ideas, an hour of daily sadhana- involving BG, SB and stotra recitation along with a Damodar aarti was accomplished. I continue to serve in other areas of the Temple as needed- Rath Yatra, Fundraising, Festivals.

I attended the Kolkota Yatra with you this year and your presence of mind, I worship. Your unconventional choice of the venue, your resources that you are diverting to recognize and establish the janama bhumi of Srila Prabhupada as a place of tirtha, along with other associated places, especially where Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati Thakur gave shelter to Prabhupada.. you are such a visionary. My repeated obeisances to you.

Gurudeva, this is a short video inspired from your experiences with mother Ganges as described in your book, The Journey Home. This was a novice attempt to celebrate you for your avirbhava tithi last year: https://www.instagram.com/tv/CIw0M̨6gnuG/?utm̨medium=copy̨link

On this auspicious occasion, I pray for your good health so you may continue to touch thousands upon thousands daily. I pray that you continue to serve Srila Prabhupada eternally and that I may get the eyes to appreciate a drop of the love and dedication that you have for him and that I may have even a fraction of that dedication towards you. Then my life will truly be successful.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you!

On this day of your appearance please let me offer you some words of gratitude.

Every time when I hear you speak, you express your deep love and gratitude towards your spiritual master, Srila Prabhupada. You always remember him and always try to please him. Even now, so many years after his physical departure, you are still so closely connected with him. That never stops to amaze me and make me think how such connection is made possible. And I see that you yourself are extremely serious and sincere, the perfect example for us to follow. You have let your spiritual master and his mission into the very core of your heart, dedicating your life to fulfilling his instructions as well as adopting his mood.

Following in the footsteps of Srila Prabhupada, you want to give everyone in the world a chance to practice bhakti – no matter which culture or background one is from. In your heart there is no room for separatism, arrogance or envy. You just want everyone to be happy in bhakti and to cooperate with each other while sharing this happiness with others.

Thank you so much for being such a loyal servant of your spiritual master, at the same time remaining so kind and humane. By the combination of these qualities you have totally won my heart and made me your eternal debtor.

At a difficult point in my life I read your book, The Journey Home. I remember it struck me how exciting your spiritual search was and how connected you were to your heart. A little later, in Mayapur on Govardhan Puja day, I met you in the temple room. You noticed me and even greeted me, with so much compassion and respect in your glance that I was stunned. This is how my heart and my life was changed.

Dear Gurudeva, on this day and always I pray that I learn this from you – how to be faithful to the spiritual master and his mission and how to be kind and respectful towards every living being.

I also pray to Sri Sri Radha-Gopinath for your good health and protection in these difficult times.

Your grateful servant,

Indulekha Priya devi dasi

IQRA (VADODARA, GUJARAT)

Hare Krishna Maharaj, PAMHO.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada. Honestly speaking I am not eligible to offer you even a single word but still I will try to do so for my own purification.

I was puzzled in my life because of many philosophies, many religions , many cultures and traditions. I always wanted to get to know something solid with could satisfy me logically as well as nurture me spiritually. At that Time I was already attending weekly BG classes yet my faith wasn't that strong. As I am a fallen soul I was skeptical about the BG Classes. I was not sure whether after Reading full BG all my questions would be answered or not because I was more confused after reading Holy Quran, Bible and Zend-Avesta and Egyptian mythology.Observing my Doubts and queries a devotee Presented me your 'Journey Home'. I started reading and steadily all my doubts began to fade. My faith in you and BG and Prabhpada's mission started to strengthen at that very moment. I accepted you as my Spiritual Master since that moment till my last breath. And I accepted all the devotees as my eternal family.Please forgive me if I wrote something wrong. Thank you for everything Maharaj. I pray that my mind may always be surrendered unto your Lotus Feet. Hare Krishna. Dandavat Pranam.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisance at your divine lotus feet!

All Glories to Sri Guru Gauranga and Prabhupada

Gurudeva,

We somehow had the good fortune of hearing your Kolkata Karthik yatra classes which you gave recently All your classes are always special but somehow, we feel your classes during Karthik yatras are super special

Maharaj, you beautifully explained the theme why this time we selected Kolkata ? This helped in setting the right mood of gratitude to Srila Prabhupad in this important 125 th year of his Appearance and also Kolkata being an such an important center for preaching for our Gaudiya Sampradaya Acharyas like Bhakti Siddhant Saraswathi Thakur and Bhakti Vinod Thakur

Also we liked it when you very graciously invited Mandakini Mataji and other Srila Prabhupad disciples to speak Through your every action You are giving us lessons on how we should also not only respect Srila Prabhuada disciples but also our own Godbrothers and God sisters by making them the very center of our lives

The Day 4 class by you was very very special where you spoke on the Merciful Glance of Nityananda prabhu and how it is important for all of us to understand that approaching Lord Chaitanya should be through his devotees and not directly

Gurudeva we know we are incapable to serve you and do not have any qualities, but we beg you that we are able to follow these two most important instructions of yours, of the importance of serving devotees and making them the center focus of our lives and knowing that the Mercy of Lord cannot be accessed directly but only through His devotees

yay me bhaktah Jana partha, na me bhaktas ca te Janah mad-bhaktanam ca ye bhaktas ,te me bhakta-tama matah

Those who are my direct devotees are actually not my devotees, but those who are the devotees of my servants are factually my devotees. This goes to show how important it is that we worship and serve the devotees of the Supreme Lord.

Gurudeva we offer our dandavats at your lotus feet and pray that somehow or other we can continue to serve in mood of the servant of servant in the mission of Srila Prabhupada

Hare Krishna

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

While writing this offering my heart is flooded with so many wonderful opportunities that we received to have your wonderful association at Govardhan Ecovillage.

In one of your lectures Maharaj mentions that if one can see the invisible then one can achieve the impossible.

At Govardhan Ecovillage, we get to see the wonderful vision of Srila Prabhupada which was invisible to many of us but now manifested in its full glory by your unbelievable desire and intensity to serve Srila Prabhupada. Covid-19 simply endorsed this realisation.

I pray at your lotus feet to continue to stay and serve in Govardhan Ecovillage and thus be a small part of your offering to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet.

As we are celebrating your 71 st vyasa puja, my heart is overflowing with gratitude towards you maharaj. As I daily recite the mantra ‘Om ajnana timirandhasya.....’, my gratitude keeps growing. It is you who opened my eyes from ignorance towards light. I just cannot imagine the life I had been living before taking shelter of your lotus feet Maharaj. Thank you so....much for sheltering an insignificant person like me.

Maharaj, you are the ocean of mercy, full of compassion, humble than the blade of grass and much more tolerant than a tree. Whenever I read Shrila Prabhupada’s purports and come across Prabhupada mentioning about the qualities of a pure devotee, it is only you who come in front of my eyes fulfilling all those descriptions.

There is no lecture in which you have not spoken about being Trinadapi sunicena, which makes it clear that you are the manifestation of all these incredible vaishnava qualities and you expect your disciples also to imbibe these qualities.

Maharaj, I am a totally conditioned soul. Please forgive me for not being able to come up to your expectations. In my heart I have all the desires to acquire these qualities one by one. But when it comes to practical life, I fail to practice them Maharaj.

On this auspicious occasion, my humble request to you is to kindly bestow your mercy on me, so that I will be able to acquire at least a bit of vaishnava qualities from you and all of your disciples. Bless me to treat all my family members, my Prabhuji and my son, all vaishnava community and every one and everything around me, the way how you want it to be. Bless me also to serve Shrila Prabhupad and his institution to the best of my capacity Maharaj.

Kindly shower your blessings on my Prabhuji, H G Raghunandan Acharya das, son, Likhit and on all our friends and relatives.

Thank you so much Maharaj for your precious time.

Thank you for everything Guru Maharaj.

Respected Radhanath Swami Maharaj,

On the occassion of your Vyasa Puja I have written a poem which I would like to offer at the dust of your lotus. I hope you accept it.

Oh! How fortunate are Gerald and Idelle Slavin,

That they got as their son Richard Slavin!

Born in 1950, eager to find God,

You decided to leave your home and go abroad.

For finding inner peace, you started your spiritual quest.

Always trying to absorb knowledge to your level best!

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

Maharaj, You went to the Himalayas bearing the cold,

Searching for a Guru with qualities like pure gold.

Being unsatisfied you went to Bombay,

Hearing Srila Prabhupad's lecture then of spiritual knowledge you got a ray.

Then in Vrindavan, accepted initiation,

From Richard to Radhanath Swami Maharaj was the transformation!

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

An ocean of humility you indeed are,

Always adjusting and obedience are divine qualities of yours.

Glorifying all your god siblings from the bottom of your heart,

Never allowing ISKCON to fall apart.

An amazing book you authored,

As to fulfill the promise you had offered.

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

Maharaj, you are the pole star,

You are the cause of all that we are.

With so much love and care you nurtured us,

The glories of the Lord you always discuss.

We are a drop, and you are the ocean,

Who gave us the potion of pure, unalloyed and selfless devotion.

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

You did so much for the welfare of humanity,

Making Krishna Consciousness available to outsiders and every devotee.

You established a great hospital which cures all,

Always there to save us when a health crisis does befall.

Hunger was never an issue,

When Annamrita came to the rescue.

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

What to speak of education?

Gopal's Garden is there to educate our nation.

For people to get a glimpse of the spiritual world,

You manifested Vrindavan here, more than what we deserved.

Do you know which project this is?

Govardhan Eco Village it indeed is!

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

You have touched millions of hearts,

Taking all illusions apart.

Gauranga Pr, Govind Pr, Radha Gopinath Pr, Radheshyam Pr

Of such great personalities you are the guru!

You have helped us realize the importance of this human life,

To reach our ultimate destination without having to take an afterlife.

Oh Maharaj! You are our only hope,

For escaping from this material world, you gave us the bhakti rope!

Oh Maharaj,

You are our mother, father, guru, and greatest inspiration,

The only path for us to get pure love and devotion.

You lit the lamp of knowledge in the room of ignorance,

Transforming lives never wanting to be acknowledged.

You are Srila Prabhupad's pride,

As you have spread Krishna Consciousness far and wide!

(Oh Worshipable One! Please give me a place in the dust of your lotus feet, Then one day, Krishna I will be able to meet!) x 2

Your Menial Servant,

Jahnava

Thank you very very very much.

JAI RADHIKA DEVI DASI (BHAKTIVANA FARM, USA)

February 2015. With the briefest of introductions to bhakti, I found myself in India for almost three weeks. It was our last day, and we were in Mumbai. My friend and I were arguing on the street. She wanted to go to Starbucks; I wanted to go to the temple. Across the street was a cafi called “Happiness” and in front of it, a construction sign… “diversion”.

At that time, I had read the Bhagavad-Gita, but was very naṣve in my understanding. Today, looking back, Kṛṣṇa’s words to Arjuna on happiness seem very relevant:

yat tad agre viṣam iva

pariṇāme ‘mṛtopamam

tat sukhaṁ sāttvikaṁ proktam

ātma-buddhi-prasāda-jam

“That which in the beginning may be just like poison but at the end is just like nectar and which awakens one to self-realization is said to be happiness in the mode of goodness.” (Bg 18.37) It was a bitter fight, and it was the first time I stood my ground with her.

I entered the crowded temple room alone. Finding a corner with barely enough room to sit, the Indian matajis welcomed me into their midst with smiles. It was Nityananda’s appearance day and you were telling the story of Jagai and Madhai… and I finally understood in my heart the need for guru, the purpose of stories…and the mercy of Lord Nityananda.

My deepest gratitude, my Gurudeva, for turning my poison to nectar. You continue to overflow my cup with the sweetness of Radha Kṛṣṇa; and in my own insignificant way, I endeavor to share it with the curious souls I encounter.

Also, we missing you so much, it’s been so long since we had a privileged to have your darshan…. But whenever we see you on zoom, it felt you were right beside us.

During pandemic , it was very difficult time, but you were always there for us. You never left us Gurudev. I felt your presence all the time. We are very very very fortunate to have your shelter. Thank you for always looking after us so nicely.

When we had your darshan on zoom, we felt so happy when your face lit up when you saw your loving children in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Mandir. Your love and compassion for everyone is unbelievable…

Please bless us that we always serve you with love and devotion.

Hare Krsna Guru Maharaj, Happy 71st Vyasa puja.

"If a person does not have an ideal, he is ready to die for, he has nothing really meaning full to live for". You really personified this ideology Guru Maharaj. Thank you for teaching me Krsna Consciousness and helping me to live a meaningful life. Without your presence, my life would have been a chaos struggling in the material world without a direction. Honesty and integrity with which you lead your life inspires me and shapes my life. Your life of loyalty and faithfulness to Srila Prabhupada and Guru Parampara is a beacon of light in my life. Thank you for connecting me to Srila Prabhupada, guru parampara and Krsna. Thank you for showing me the path and giving me the wings to fly in the path to the ultimate truth. Despite trying and trying, I keep failing again and again, but your presence has saved me from falling into the dangerous pits in the journey of my life. Living in the middle of nowhere, devoid of devotee's association I take shelter at your lotus feet through your invaluable lectures. Your life story has taught me that happiness and satisfaction come from within, and it comes through selfless service. Your presence in my life always reminds me of being humble and compassionate towards everyone around me. I truly have no qualification to have you in my life, I feel fortunate and grateful for you for being a constant companion in my life. Thank you, Guru Maharaj.

JANARDAN S (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dear Gurudev!!

On the occasion of your 71st vyasapooja I would like to offer my gratitude for your mercy upon me in the form of a small poem. In my insignificant sadhana I heard many analogies of moon and sun. I wanted to express in the form of a poem of how you have changed my life.

When darkness engulfed me both inside and outside

When the sky of my heart is dark and gloomy with no insight

When I questioned the very fabric with no hope in sight

You came in my life with the Sun of Srila Prabhupada's Mercy

In form of his books and lectures through your disciples courtesy

Many days they spent to get me out of my material tipsy

Eight years have passed without any regret

Many memories made in life which I will never forget

More time passes amidst Godbrothers' yours and mine

It is more evident you are embodiment of your Guru's sunshine

Oh, how I wished initially "If only born I was born while Srila Prabhupada lived"

Mulaprkiriti(mtj) true to her name showed Srila Prabhupada indeed lived!!

She revealed between the lines when the Sun sets down from the sky

Cometh the moon to make the darkness fly

The moon the sun are both same and different

Though sun is set for me moon assures me to be confident

As it is the sun which shines the moon

Sunrays may make me burn to soon

But your moonshine makes me always swoon

Because the mercy is moonshine is more

Why? Cause it is sweet cool and I want it more and more

Oh how am I so fortunate I just cant believe

It is Srila Prabhupada through my Guru come to relieve

My dear Gurudev!! Please rise in my heart

As a full moon to illuminate dark tunnel where I lay distraught

Show me the path to the shores of the ocean of love

And stir the waves of devotion for the Goddess of love

I beg my plea whilst I am overcome by sin

I am gutted and bruised in the war,with borken chin

I cry Gurudev I weep - Please don't let me die in this bin

I beg you to take me.. Take me to our eternal kin

JATAUPRAN DAS (MUMBAI)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj please ascept my humble respect to you Maharaj.

JAYADEV DAS (PUNE)

Respected and Dear Radhanath Maharaj,

Please accept our most humble obeisances at your lotus feet on this most auspicious occasion of your 71st appearance day. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

Srila Prabhupada, our founder acharya, left for USA in 1965 at the age of 70 to fulfill the dream of his beloved spiritual master Srila Bhakti Siddhantha Saraswati Thakur. And what was the dream? The dream was the prophecy of Lord Chaitanya and Lord Nityananda that Krishna Consciousness and the Sankirtana movement, the Yuga Dharma of the age of Kali, would be spread and established all over the world. In a short span of 12 years Srila Prabhupada successfully fulfilled the dream because of his qualifications – mercy and compassion of his spiritual master, tremendous faith in the instructions of his spiritual master, humility, sincerity, wisdom, compassion, selflessness and ability to sacrifice for the sake of others.

Gurudev, being worthy and one of the leading disciples of Srila Prabhupada you have also manifested these above qualities and qualifications. That is your unmeasurable wealth. And being so selfless aand compassionate you are distributing this wealth to your disciples and others – irrespective of whether they are qualified or not. In your lectures and discourse you stress on humility, compassion, gratitude, tolerance and cooperation and your message to all is "be sincere, serious, and non-duplicitous"

Gurudev, your belief that Lord Krishna and Guru always help if one is sincere and serious in devotional service – not the way we prefer to be helped, but whatever happens in our life is the grace of Krishna and Guru – is the guiding force of your life, right from childhood. Your thought process and actions have been guided by this positive belief which is very difficult to accept and understand by conditioned souls like us.

Gurudev, because of this belief you have been able to demonstrate, specially in the past 2 years of COVID era, your deep faith and love for Guru and Krishna, your inner strength and resolution; your loving fond remembrances of your dear and departed God brothers and God sisters, disciples and other devotees and talk about devotional service in separation. These were the topics of the lectures during this period.

When we hear these lectures, we feel deeply inadequate and unworthy. Only positive point that keeps us going is that we have taken shelter at your lotus feet. We sincerely hope and pray that one day in the future we shall be worthy of this shelter and serve devotees to your satisfaction.

My eternal spiritual master, Lord of my Life, best of friend, father and guide, I bow down to You from in front, from behind and from all sides.

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance’s at your lotus feet on this auspicious day of your appearance in this world.

Guru Maharaj, I have been fortunate enough to hear your daily wisdoms, which have been inspirational, powerful, and encouraging to continue my sadhana with unwavering faith in Krishna. Although, Guru Maharaj Maharaj, I did not have the opportunity to personally meet or serve you. However, through the wonderful mercy of your loving devotees I was able to live stream your lectures, so really grateful about that. I have been looking forward to you as my spiritual master who can guide and instruct me on this path of Krishna consciousness. So if you wish, please take this fallen soul under your shelter and lead her out of this darkness of this material world.

KALYAN KRISHNA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and Vaishnavas

Maharaj, on this your Vyaspuja, I would like to take an opportunity to express my gratitude for all the unlimited wonderful things you have bestowed on us. Some of the things I can recollect here are Yatras to Dham, Spiritual Counselor system, all your wonderful classes, etc. Trying to fathom greatness and contribution of each of these things would be like a bird trying to reach end of sky.

You have given us so many wonderful classes on different aspects of spiritual lives. Each and every class of yours is full of realizations of teachings of Srila Prabhupada and sufficient enough to nourish our spiritual lives. These classes are like light house to the ship of our spiritual lives.

Another thing, I believe, is that, through your teachings and various projects, you are trying to make us a good servant in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. You are simply preparing us to be offered at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada for his pleasure. This shows your dedication and love towards Srila Prabhupada.

In one of your classes, you tell us the story of the sparrow who lost her eggs to ocean. I feel that story is quite relevant to my life. I am like that sparrow, trying to practice KC and follow Srila Prabhupada's teachings but my individual efforts are all in vain without your Garuda like help and blessings. In fact, the sparrow in the story was determined but I am not even determined to practice KC. It is you only who give me the determination and the empowerment to practice KC. Without your mercy, I cannot even utter a single name of Krishna what to speak of chanting 16 rounds of Hare Krishna mahamantra every day. Your mercy is all I am made up of.

Maharaj, please be merciful to me and bless me so that, I can follow the teachings of Srila Prabhupada in my life. Without your mercy I cannot do anything.

Finally, I pray to Their Lorships to bless you with good health and long life in the service of Srila Prabhupda.

Thank you

KALYANI RADHIKA DEVIDASI (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj, please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. This has been the longest separation from you, almost eighteen twenty months. In the beginning as I realised this disease will take a long time to be in control, I told myself that now you have to learn from my Guru Maharaj and his spiritual master Srila Prabhupada. Both of them had physical association of their respective spiritual masters for a very few times, yet they are so much connected to their spiritual masters, so you too learn from them. Ever since that time, I began hearing your classes with more attention, hearing daily, reading your quotes, and searching what you are telling me, and since then I have got super connected with you, dear Guru Maharaj. Am truly grateful to you for this shelter. You had told me to chant the Hare Krsna mahamantra nicely and serve the Vaisnavas to please them. And I have been following this. There are difficult and challenging days, yet I do not forget to tell myself about this instruction given by you. And from whichever place I am fallen or being lazy or disturbed or feeling less enthusiastic, I loudly call out, utthista Bharata, get up to serve your Gurudeva. And with the struggle I have been surviving nicely and also happy to be on the path of devotion to Sri Radha Sri Gopinath Sri Nitai Sri Gaurahari and all Their associates. Guru Maharaj, since all the services turned online, I received a lot of opportunities to serve various groups of devotees, adults and children by teaching them sastra, exactly the way I learnt from yourself, Srila Prabhupada, all the brahmacaris from our temple and other temples, our guru parampara. Before every seva, I deeply pray to you and if anyone appreciates them immediately I offer their kind words to you, Srila Prabhupada, all the teachers and all Vaisnavas who are praying for me, and my parents and daughter. I have learnt this from yourself and HG Mandakini mataji. Last year received a very sweet service by the mercy of HG Hari Priya Radha mataji, to present "The Journey Home" with the guidance of HG Braja Candra Prabhu and HG Syam Piyare Prabhu. That week was a very beautiful week of my life, completely absorbed in reading, sharing and learning about yourself and your journey and your efforts, felt all that you underwent just for me, to pull me out from the darkness. Guru Maharaj, you would love to hear that am serving the children with Bhagavad Gita under the guidance of HG Radha Gopinath Prabhuji. And with great strength I also began to teach "Art and Science of Teaching", wherein I have got to serve very sincere devotees who are desiring to serve the mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu as a teacher of sastras. Designing the course, inviting devotees and conducting the course has been a real adventure. Every step I was remembering you and Srila Prabhupada all the time, will both of them be happy, will both of them like this offering? Now next week, for your birthday have got an opportunity to serve Varistha Vaisnavas by mercy of HG Hari Priya Radha mataji, Srimad Bhagavatam, every week. Seeking your blessings for staying focused to please you and Govinda, Gopal, Gopinath. Also want to tell you about my dear friend HG Vrsabhanu Nandini, her health is not so good, I visit her and help her by discussing topics that will make her feel she is really needed, she is precious. She remembers you a lot and we cry together, as her body condition is quite bad, and we realise how difficult it is even to chant the holy name in severe pain. Dear Guru Maharaj, please appear in her dream and speak to her, she will feel very happy and rejuvenated. Want to write more, yet will stop here, as you have to read many letters. Please take care of your health. Sometimes you look nice in the video, sometimes you look very tired, sometimes you look little upset. So I always keep praying for your good health and that when will this corona go away that you can then safely travel here. Seeking your blessings dear Guru Maharaj to fulfil your instruction and bring a smile to your lotus face. I am doing good. Lots of love care respect and dandavat pranam, your disciple, dasosmi, Kalyani Radhika devidasi, Sri Sri Radha Gopinath mandir, Chowpatty.

Please accept my humble obeisance dear Gurudev

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

I pray that we continue to get many many more healthy years of your invaluable association through your empowered disciples and your ever enlivening discourses..

Please bless me that I always seek ultimate refuge and shelter under the care and shelter of devotees through rendering humble services to them. Please bless me that I never forget and deviate from the purpose of this human birth.

On your most special day please also bless your grandchildren (my children Jagannath and Srinath) that they don't waste this human birth and take the ultimate benifit by utilising the most precious opportunities in Krishna consciousness for self realisation and preaching Lord's message to whoever they meet.

Thank you Maharaj for your recent lecture on the Yatras.. it was so refreshing thinking of the yatras that we were fortunate to attend with you 20 years ago..

Your have unlimited love for VRINDAVAN dhaam and you have literally manifested this in GEV which is non different than the original Vrindavan. This Kartik we were fortunate, by your causeless grace, to spend over a week in GEV. We just can't thank you and your dedicated team of devotees enough who have sacrificed most precious years of their youthful lives in creating your dream project. It was the most rejuvenating experience for our family to deeply connect ourselves with our real blissful identities..

Maharaj I want to share a personal realisation .. - whenever I am in any kind of pain - physical or mental- , your thoughts are most soothing and they give me ultimate shelter. I am sure that it's only by your causeless grace that you are allowing me to think of you during such times. Even thinking of Radha and Krishna doesn't make me feel as deeply sheltered and protected as much as your thoughts. I take it as an opportunity to prepare myself for the ultimate test of my life and by your grace if I am able to remember your Lotus feet at that time, then this human existence will be successful.

Praying (for my own purification) for your healthy long long life full of preaching and spreading love

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All Glories to Your selfless, untiring, and continuous services in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dearest and Respected Gurudev,

Wishing You a very very happy and healthy Krsna conscious appearance day Maharaj.

Praying for Your good health and May You live long long… keep us inspiring with Your exemplary life.

Maharaj Your glories are unlimited. Maharaj how in this difficult time of Covid You were always there on all the festivals to enlighten with Your inspiring heart, deepening lectures and Kirtans… as I heard in one lecture that You had to talk with different people having different sorrows and happiness.. Krishna fest during Janamahtmi period organised by Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple and GEV was so admiring and inspiring. Maharaj Your mercy and Your guidance is always available through your lectures, kirtans and specially through Your exemplary and most merciful disciples. Maharaj Your lectures are great solace for me to behave in proper manner(though I fail many times of struggles), to feel grateful whatever Krsna has provided and of course to remind me again and again that I am the very insignificant, not the doer but then also I am very proudy…helps me to remind that all the struggles and oppositions in the my devotional service are my previous karmas and helping me in purification process and also helps me to feel grateful that with your mercy I could walk 12 long years in my devotional service.. but a long long way to go……

Maharaj as I shared with You last year Your mercy is constantly flowing through your disciples like HG Vishvarup Prabhuji and Brajeshwari Mataji and many more disciples of Yours who are in their counselee group…in their guidance we are daily chanting together on zoom in the morning and afternoon too, we are daily reading Bhagavd Gita, on every Saturday Prabhupada Lilamrit and soon after completing Bhagavad Gita which is about to finish we are going to start reading together Srimad Bhagavatam.

Maharaj as I shared last year my son got stammering problem but with Your blessings he has almost recovered with the helping of putting desi cow ghee in his nose daily. Maharaj I beg You helplessly to bless my son pure devotional service that he may continue chanting, serving devotees, his doll deities of Radha Madhav ,Jaganath Subhdara and Baladev, Gaura Nitai and Prahlad Narsimha… he may continue chanting, hearing stories and bhajans.. Maharaj he is just 5 years and 9 months old but he is facing lot of struggles from my prabhuji and in-laws side, they want him to eat outside food which is cooked in non- vegetarian restaurants and may contain onion and garlic, his father has fed him mushroom also…now my Prabhuji is in so much anger and strictness and has told me not to preach Keshav(my son) to not eat out , they all don't want him to follow ISKCON and they themselves lead a very materialistic life of watching Television, eating in restraunts very very frequently etc…some how or other I am able to follow the process and principles with the blessings and guidance of Your disciples … though my Prabhuji and my in-laws don't like that I am following(but they have now got convinced that I will follow this path as my own father took a word(at the time of marriage) from them that they will allow his daughter(me) to follow Krsna consciousness… but for my son there are lot of struggles. He is so small that he doesn't even know that his Krsna consciousness is in danger. I am grateful Maharaj that I don't have any financial problems in my family. But lot of strictness ,rude and controlling behaviour from my husband on daily basis. Brajeshwari mataji told me that these things will continue, I have to continue my path with these things only…perhape my previous Karmas are pending… Maharaj I am ok to get purified in this manner… but I am very concerned for my son's Krsna consciousness. Perhaps these struggles will help me to take my son's Krsna consciousness more seriously.

I beg blessing from You Guru Maharaj for my son's Krsna consciousness. Please please bestow special mercy on him so that he may become a very good Krsna conscious devotee. As a small child may get distracted with materialistic things and talks .. Keshav need Your most merciful blessings to become good devotee. Please bless him.

I Beg blessing for my Prabhuji and in laws also that they can also understand and take Krsna consciousness seriously. Please please bless them Maharaj.

Gurudev Thank You so much for allowing me to talk to you on zoom on RamNavmi day. That was the most happiest moments of my life. You confirmed me again that I am most fortunate to be in guidance of Hg Vishvarup Prabhuji and Brajeshwari Mataji.

Thank You so much Guru Maharaj for everything. I am really very fortunate to be in under guidance of Your disciples and even my local counsellor(HG Krsna Vallabha Mataji and most senior mataji of our Chandigarh temple HG Yashoda Mataji) all are very very merciful upon me with their continuous love, guidance, and blessings.

Maharaj there is one Mataji who inspired me a lot in my Krsna consciounsess. She is not very good with her health, she has two small sons, her husband is very very nice. But due to bad health, and her determination in making her sons Krsna consciousness, she is not getting much time and good health to complete her 16 rounds daily. I beg blessings for that Mataji too.

Maharaj I am so much thankful to allowing me to get engage in Your lecture Transcription seva. Though I have done only two lectures.. but trying to do more. Your lecture with all transcribers on 14th November was very heart touching, as You were sharing the pastime of how You felt on Srila Prabhupada disappearence actual day when You were in New Vrindavan.

Gurudev Your humility is always sooo inspiring....recently I read a page of Journey Home in which You wrote a letter to Your parents.... Maharaj please bless me a pinch a humility You have. Please bless be tolerance and compassion. Maharaj Your blessings and mercy is only hope for me.

Maharaj please bless my own parents to take bhakti seriously as they are also in late 60's.

Maharaj Please keep blessings Your disciples who are really very loving and inspiring.

THANK YOU SO MUCH MAHARAJ

PRAYING INTENSELY FOR YOUR GOOD HEALTH.

A VERY HAPPY KRSNA CONSCIOUS APPEARANCE DAY GURUDEV.

JAI.... JAI....

KARISHMA HEMNANI (GANDHIDHAM, INDIA)

Dear guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your divine grace.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart, for always loving me as my best of lovers, my best of friends and my only well-wisher. At every moment, the love you have given me is unimaginable. I was never worthy of your love, being the most fallen and contaminated, but you out of your causeless mercy are always loving me, despite my greatest blunders and offenses.

You are the conqueror of my heart. Maharaj, you are the savior of my life, heart, and soul. Without you a way never I would find, as I'm always blind. Please give me your shelter, and open my eyes with the torchlight of knowledge.

The way you've always inspired me to serve the Lord and become a sincere devotee of the Lord, The way you have instructed me to see every living entity with equal vision, is incredible.

When the tears fall out from my eyes, you are the one who feels the pain. The world when leaves me in the utmost of pain, you are the only one whose love is still there with me, to heal that pain. You take my responsibility, you are there with me in my joy and my pain, and you are the one who stole all my miseries and misfortune, being my spiritual father, No one actually loves me except you, oh dear maharaj for your this selfless love, I'll always remain indebted to you.

You are always serving everyone with a pure and humble heart, only your mercy can make my service and heart cleansed and humble. You have changed my hate into love, my vengefulness into forgiveness, and thus made my life beautiful with the greatest values. Your humility, is what attracts/inspires me the most!

Maharaj, maybe I don't even deserve to beg you for your mercy being the most unqualified, I'm the most useless and have always caused others pain/hurt and suffering. But a spiritual master is said to be the representative of Lord Nitai, only you can purify my heart and desires and lead me to my Lord Nitai. I'm the most incapable of doing anything, nor am I ever sincere, yet your mercy can allow me to render the service and do everything, despite my incapability and immaturity.

Your service dear maharaj is so pure, and the most selfless, your compassion for the fallen souls is the most selfless! My heart is still so much contaminated with lust, greed, selfish motives, and so many distractions of this world. Oh maharaj I don't know what to do, how to do it, where to go and where not to go. I've no control over myself. Since my so many past lifetimes I have been an offender and forgetting Krishna, my heart today is crying like anything for your mercy. My life is useless and it'll be wasted like my past lifetimes if you don't give me your mercy. You're the most caring person and my only shelter. Please please please maharaj, Please come, Please accept this insignificant servant, Lead me to the lord of my heart and life, Lead me to Nitai Sundara! Please purify my heart with your divine mercy, and make it a perfect place for Krishna to reside.

Please finish my heart's starve by the nectar of your instructions, Please give it fulfilment by the sweetness of your smile, And please awaken the love that lies deep within it by your most causeless mercy and shelter.

May I remain an insignificant servant at your lotus feet eternally, and may your mercy remains the cause of my maintenance eternally!

Thank you dear Maharaj for allowing me to serve you, Thank you dear Maharaj for always guiding me to the right path. Thank you very very much dear dear Maharaj!

Ignore me not oh best of the lovers,

Save this servant from Maya's curse.

Begging your shelter and love,

This aspiring but underserving servant begs you with all reverence and still impure love.

गुरु के चरणकमल मे मेरा शत शत प्रणाम। आपका वह स्मिथ हास्य, कृपा दृष्टी और आपका संग मिलने के लिए मै हमेशा आतुर रहती हु। आपकी कृपा के कारण, आज पूरे भारत में आप के हज़ारों शिष्य हैं और वह जब यात्रा मै एक साथ आते हैं तो उनका संग पाकर मै धन्य हो जाति हु।

जब मै ऋषिकेश गई थी तब वहा पर आपकी साधना स्थली देखकर मन मै यही विचार आया की हर रोज निचे जा कर ठंडे जल से स्नान कर के, वही वस्त्र से आप उतनी उचाई पर ध्यान करने बेठते थे। सही मै कितनी बडी तपश्चर्या थी और आपने इतनी आसानी से पार कर ली। आपके जीवन मै इतनी कठिनाई आई लेकिन आपने उस कठिनाई पर मात की। गुरुदेव आप मुझे ऐसे ही शक्ति प्रदान करना की मै कठिनाईयोंका सामना कर सकु।

एक बार जब नशिक मै कुंभ मेला हुआ था, तब महाराज आप आये थे। मेरे मन मै एकही इच्छा थी की, मै आपको कुछ खिला सकू। मैने मूंगफली की चिक्की बनाई थी और वो आपने स्वीकार की। तभी मै समझ पाई कि, सही मै महाराज आप तो शिष्य के मन की बात भी पढ़ सकते हो। मुझ मै कोई योग्यता नही है, तो

भी आपने मुझे शिष्य के रूप मै स्वीकार किया।

अनोखा सफर पढ़कर मेरा मन आज भी भर आता हैं। महाराज इतनी कठिनाईयों का सामना आप ही कर सकते हो। आपकी वानी और कीर्तन से मेरा मन उल्हासीत रहता है। जीवन मै हमेशा आपका आशीर्वाद बना रहे, यही मै आपसे नम्र विनंती करती हू।

My humble salutations at the lotus feet of the Guru. Your beautiful humour, kindness, I always look forward to meeting you. Because of your grace, today you have thousands of disciples all over India and when they come together on the yatra, I am blessed to have their company.

When I had gone to Rishikesh, seeing your spiritual place there, this thought came to my mind that every day after going downstairs and bathing with cold water, you used to sit at the same height to meditate with the same clothes. Such a difficult situation but you crossed so easily. You have faced so much difficulty in your life but you have overcome that difficulty. Gurudev, you give me such strength that I can face difficulties.

Once when Kumbh Mela was held in Nashik, Maharaj you came. I had only one wish that I could feed you something. I had made peanut chikki and you accepted it. That's when I understood that, you can even read the mind of the disciple. I have no ability, yet you accepted me as a disciple.

Reading this unique journey fills my mind even today. Sir, only you can face so many difficulties. Your voice and kirtans keep my heart elated.

May your blessings always remain in my life, this is what I humble request to you.

KARUNA VISHWAMBHAR DAS (PUNE, IND)

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances on the dust of your lotus feet!!

This year we are celebrating your 71st Vyas

Puja ceremony. Due to ongoing pandemic, we cannot get your divine Darshan; I am missing the wonderful Yatra. That is the only time, when I can get your Darshan, hear you, see you walking, smiling and talking to your god brothers. This gives me great joy in my heart. Being in Govardhan eco village and Yatra in your presence makes everything alive. Maharaj, you recently addressed the Transcription Seva devotees and shared so many wonderful memories and importance of this Seva, was a great joy to hear. Guru Maharaj, I am feeling guilty as I didn't do this Seva sincerely but after hearing from you how you are daily working on the transcripts and completed 800 pages, gives me enthusiasm to resume again. Guru Maharaj, I am going through lot of struggle in my devotional life due to certain material conditions which are unavoidable to me. I am very frightened for my Sadhna Bhakti. I am continuously praying to the Lord for protection but still my mind and Maya are dragging me away; somehow by the mercy of yours, I am trying to fight. Guru Maharaj, be merciful and bless me so that this wretched soul come to his senses and sincerely take shelter of your Lotus feet in the service of Srila Prabhupad and Sri Sri Radha Gopinath. Guru Maharaj - you have so many disciples like Hanuman doing big-big seva, when I look upon me, I don't see my self even to the level of little squirrel, I am nothing but I have a hope that I might be the good case to obtain your mercy to progress on the path of Bhakti.

Bowing down at the lotus feet of yours- I pray and beg that your causeless mercy always shower upon me so that I can continue on the path of devotion and able do some Seva on your mission.

Your insignificant aspiring servant,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories unto you.

Thank you for always providing spiritual instruction, inspiration and guidance in my life. Although we have not had your physical association in the UK for over two years, it has been incredibly beneficial to watch and hear you virtually. In my life, you are a the best example of how to take shelter of Krishna in all circumstances.

Currently I am continuing with my endevour to improve the quality of my sadhana. In terms of service, I am enjoying facilitating a girls sanga on Nectar of Instruction, I was recently doing transcriptions for your Vrindavan yatra book and have started pujari service at Iskcon London. In addition to these services, I would like to seek your blessing to help me improve performing my duties of being a wife and mother in a way that will be most pleasing to yourself. Finally, I would like to pray that I can somehow follow in your footsteps and develop the mood of gratitude in my life, through rememberance and expression.

Dearest Guru Maharaja!

Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja celebration I can only reflect on how you overflow my heart daily with immense gratitude for everything you have given me by being the most dedicated, softhearted and surrendered disciple of Srila Prabhupada who has empowered you with unlimted intelligence and facilities to spread the causeless mercy of Lord Caitanya to every person in the world despite their background, gender, age and qualifications. You resemble Srila Prabhupada the most by being an exemplary gentleman, a person everyone immidiately want to associate with and surrender to.

Your genuine humility is often strikning the heart like a thunderbolt since it touches the innermost core of one's existence and make everyone realise that spiritual life is indeed a reality and there is no need at all to be fearful of surrendering one's false ego while serving a pure devotee like you.

I am eternally grateful to you for showing me the true path of bhakti yoga. The unlimited transcendental projects Lord Krishna has empowered you to accomplish during all thoes years have never slightly changed the original colour of your love for Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha-Krishna since you have always simply been a transparent viamedium of Their mercy.

I would like to take the opportunity today to pray for your merciful glance, to kindly continue to kick out all unwanted anarthas from my heart which are hindeing me in one day to be able to assist you properly and carry out the instructions you have given me - life after life.

Praying to become your aspiring servant,

KESHAV DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dearest Radhanath Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisance's at your Lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada! All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

Maharaj, we are almost 2 years into this Corona pandemic and away from your physical presence. The time is too long and we pray that you are indeed are able to come to India in early 2022. There are still many things to accomplish and too little time and resources, but by your mercy, we are plodding along. Your presence Maharaj will surely direct and hasten our actions !

Looking back at what our congregation, brahamcharis and ISKCON as a whole have been able to contribute to the world at large during this pandemic is really astounding. In the most critical phases, through Annamriata Foundation, Annashetra at GEV and Food for Life across ISKCON we have together nourished the needy with over 150 million meals of Krsna Prasad. Millions of people and seekers have been reached and preached over Zoom and other remote forms of communication and interaction. In many ways, it has allowed our preachers to be more effective, reach larger audiences and engage in a more serious, disciplined and profound manner to bring about a fundamental change in people's consciousness. Our bramacharis and preachers are like wonderful branches of a tree, growing in stature and influence and reaching out to so many people – who represent the fruits! But there is only one strong trunk, which is represented by you, nourishing and holding these branches in place, and connecting all of them, us and the people at large to the roots which is Srila Prabhupada and our Divine Parampara.

I remain in deep gratitude for inspiring me and all our ISKCON family members to remain relevant through these strange times and contribute in some way to Srila Prabhpada's movement. Your accepting us as individuals, as we are, with all our faults- shortcomings & liabilities, and then inspiring us to contribute in a positive way depending on our capacity and capability, has resulted in what I have tried to describe above. The movement is growing in all directions and picking up pace, allowing each of us to find shelter in some service, big or small that we can render. The broadening of our vision and catalysing our actions is all your mercy Maharaj. It has brought a new paradigm to our lives and out outlook.

I pray to Lord Krsna for your improved health. Eagerly look forward to meeting you in person and getting your divine "hug" which I have been yearning for since 18th March 2020.

Hari Bol Maharaj,

I remain your menial servant,

KESHAV NIMAI DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj, Dandavat pranam.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada..

Maharaj, I am eternally grateful and indebted for connecting me, fallen and conditioned soul, through bonafide parampara to Krishna,The supreme beloved.

Sastras talk about the identity of Spiritual Master.

It is said in CC adi 1.58, 47

jīve sākṣāt nāhi tāte guru caittya-rūpe/śikṣā-guru haya kṛṣṇa-mahānta-svarūpe

"Since one cannot visually experience the presence of the Supersoul, He appears before us as a liberated devotee. Such a spiritual master is none other than Kṛṣṇa Himself."

śikṣā-guruke ta' jāni kṛṣṇera svarūpa/antaryāmī, bhakta-śreṣṭha,—ei dui rūpa

"One should know the instructing spiritual master to be the Personality of Kṛṣṇa. Lord Kṛṣṇa manifests Himself as the Supersoul and as the greatest devotee of the Lord."

Srila Prabhupada mentions "The spiritual master is therefore Kṛṣṇa's manifestation-Kṛṣṇa's mercy manifestation to help a person to develop his Kṛṣṇa consciousness." [730822VP.LON].

Srila Viswanath Chakravarty Thakur instructs that a disciple should glorify Spiritual Master atleast three times a day.

Maharaj, actual glorification is an external expression of disciples' internal overflowing appreciation and gratitude. I am eternally grateful for you for being an excellent example for an 'ideal disciple' and and also for your encouraging and enlightening lectures.

Recently I was hearing a lecture from 1993, in which you mentioned how much Krishna loves the living entity. And that Krishna's Loving calls and Loving messages have always been sending but are not received. You mentioned how the 'nature' itself is a reminder for that call and message. You mentioned that I can hear and I can see and I can feel that love, if only my noise of ' enjoying mentality' not so loud.

In fact, my poor heart is always overpowered and overloaded by material desires that I can't hear that call but I have a great confidence and conviction that I can do that through you,if I stick to your instructions.

Maharaj, for health reasons , I am staying in your vrindavan dham that you manifested as Govardhan Eco village and I have a service to offer bhoga to all 9 temples everyday evening. I am extremely grateful for all devotees here who tirelessly worked and are working to expand the glories of Vrindavan. I can see through all these devotees your love and concern to fulfill Srila Prabhupada's desire.

Srila Prabhupada mentioned in a lecture -"a disciple is expected to live in gurukula or—gurukula means at the shelter of guru—nīcavat, menial servant. Menial servant. Nīcavat. Ācaran dāsavan nīco gurau sudṛdha sauhṛdaḥ [SB 7.12.1]. This can be possible when one is very thickly related with the guru. Otherwise, ordinary relationship will not do."

Maharaj, on this auspicious day I simply beg mercy and seek shelter of you, your instructions and strive to become a humble servant of your servants,.

servant of your servants

KHAIRE PRABHU (BARAMATI. INDIA)

On the Holy occasion of 71st Birthday of His Holiness Radhanath Swamy Maharaj I would like to express my sencere obseisance.

I was not very fortunate to get his direct association, what I know about Maharaj is from his lectures, recent online yatras, his book 'The Journey Home' and offerings of ISKCON devotees on his Vyas Pooja.

Last year, 2nd Nov. 2020 at the time of Vrindavan yatra, I was seriously ill. I was seating whole day and was fortunate to attend his lectures. That night he appeared in my dream and next day I found there was remarkable improvement in my health.

Maharaj is Shri Krishna's representative spreading Krishna Consciousness in the modern world. He always authentically gives service and Shril Prabupad's message to everyone. He is constantly in the mood of humanity and kindness. He is an inspiration for us.

Guru Maharaj please accept our humble obeisance, we pray to Shri Shri Radha Gopinath ji for your good health and wellness.

Hare krishna

KHUSHI GOEL (KANPUR, INDIA)

Respected Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

It has been a glorious journey since I come in contact with Srila Prabhupada's movement and with you. Your Journey Home is a very sweet, relishable and inspiring journey starting from the suburbs of Chicago to moving through the caves of Himalayas with yogis, mystics and babajis, and finding your destination at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada. I am greatly inspired by your quality of seeing even the most unpleasant situations to be the mercy of Lord and exhibiting the quality of gratitude in such situations. Your life is an exemplary example of who a Vaishnava truly is and this attracts me the most to take shelter of your lotus feet and make your instructions my life and soul. The qualities of humility, gratitude and sincerity which you stand for and adore the most are nil in my character. Only by your mercy is it possible to develop a tinge of these qualities and become offerable as the menial servant of the Guru Parampara.

You primarily focus on building Vaishnava relationships among devotees. But I have not been able to recognize such opportunity in my life. By your mercy, I shall be able to obtain the association of devotees and get the opportunity to become a menial servant of the servant of those devotees and develop spiritual friendship with them. Please bestow your kripa upon me to understand the value of the mercy of Lord Caitanya and take shelter of that wholeheartedly. Please empower me to bring other suffering souls also to this shelter of ISKCON society and to the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada.

By your mercy and blessings, I am getting admitted in one of the prestigious institutes of India, IIT Kanpur. My brother is serving in the capacity of Brahmacari in ISKCON Kanpur and I am very fortunate to get his guidance and direction in my life. I am also engaged in rendering some online seva to the kids wing at ISKCON Kanpur by his mercy.

Maharaj I am really grateful for the transcription seva of your lectures by which all of us are getting a chance to personally serve you, even staying in different parts of the world. I have started doing this service recently but I feel great pleasure in being a part of this glorious project.

One of your dear disciples HG Radheshyam Prabhu is inspiring me and conserving my spiritual practices. I am really grateful to you for giving us such crest jewels who are teaching us the right vision and mood to practice and aspire for. He shows by his personal discipline the ideal standard which you expect all your disciples to follow. I feel greatly nourished hearing his lectures and the more I hear from him, the more I feel the need of taking shelter of Hari, Guru and Vaishnavas. He instills an aspiration in my heart to follow in his footsteps and become a postman in sharing the mercy of Guru Parampara with the misguided world.

Srila Prabhupada says in one of his purports to Srimad Bhagavatam that it is offensive to think that we can repay our gurus and acharyas, but we can reciprocate with their mercy by serving them. Please empower me to become a humble instrument in your hands. Please bestow your kripa upon me so that I may come out of the cocoon of my conditionings and become a beautiful butterfly for the pleasure of Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Krishna.

Aspiring to be the servant of your servants,

Khushi.

Hare Krishna Maharaj, I am so lucky to have a spiritual master like you... Your struggle is extraordinary bcz you are a transcendental personality... After all I say I want to serve you but I am so sinful that I dont got the chance till today to serve you...

KIRTAN RAJ DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble, prostrated obeisances at your holy lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada & the entire Guru-Shishya Parampara.

I am eternally very grateful to you for all your causeless mercy by which I am allowed to follow the path of Krishna Consciousness. Whenever I hear your lecture, it always enlightens, enlivens and enthuses me to engage in devotional service of Lord and his devotees. Your melodious and heart touching kirtans shower the nectar of holy names upon my dry, hard stone like heart. Your Vani association was a great solace and hope giving during this recent pandemic while I was very much concerned about the health and fearful of death. I hope that I will have your Vapu association soon.

Due to my false ego, ignorance, lethargy, conditionings, lack of sincerity and seriousness, I am unable to fully surrender unto your lotus feet to follow the path of Krishna Consciousness with full dedication. Please forgive me for all the offences which I have committed due to my weaknesses and shortcomings.

Please bless me so that I will not offend anyone, rather always remain in the mood of humble servant of servant in Krishna Consciousness. Please bless me so that I can always hear, chant, remember and glorify the Holy Names of Lord with love, devotion, humility, gratitude and service attitude to serve and please Lord and his devotees.

Also please bless me so that I can always read, hear, remember and preach the message of Shrimad Bhagavad Gita, Shrimad Bhagavatam, Chaitanya Charitamrita and all other holy scriptures written by previous acharyas and thus always remain Krishna Conscious. This way let me always share, distribute this Krishna Consciousness and Holy Names all around to please you and Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna.

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to you on your most auspicious appearance day!

For your pleasure as a little service, I am writing this letter to you

First of all, I thank you for naming me and giving me an identity. I thank you for accepting me as your little daughter. I cannot describe how fortunate I am. I am so grateful to Krsna to have you in my life.

Your presence cuts a path through the crowd, just as river Yamuna cut the path and showed the way ahead towards Gokul. Your humility and nature soothe everyone's hearts just like the light of moon soothes the entire forest and creates serenity and silence.

Thinking of you makes me feel happy. You pull everyone towards krsna just like the waves of the ocean pulls the little sand particles towards itself. It is because of you and your waves of influence that I am able to sit here and make a silly attempt of writing a letter.

As I am writing this letter to you, I recall some of the most wonderful moments I have had with you. Once when we were in GEV, we got to know that you were also present that time and surprisingly you were staying just the room above ours. My brother Gauranga and I wanted to meet you but were a little scared. My dad had brought some dates offerings for Sri Sri Radha Vrindavan Bihari and you, so we thought about offering it to you. HG Brajchandra Prabhu told us to give it to you when you come out of the room. We were super exited to meet you. Finally, when we gave the dates to you, you had asked us our names, what school we were in, our grade etc. after which you gave us a small box of cookies. We were super happy after meeting you Maharaj. I ate those cookies in small pieces for almost a week.

Another incident I recall is of the Humpi-Udupi yatra. I was small at that time about 10 years or so. Every evening after the lecture you would do ecstatic kirtan where everyone would just raise their hands in the air and call out to krsna in the most loving form. During your lecture my friends and I would play on the corners of the pandal and do lots of mischiefs for some of which we were caught also. After your lecture would be over and when your kirtan would start my friends and I would come and stand down the stage waiting so that we could meet you. Every evening, after the kirtan would give away your garland in the air and all the kids used to wait below to catch it. Luckily on one day, I was fortunate enough to catch hold of the garland and also got the opportunity of getting a rose flower from you.

I cannot forget these wonderful memories and incidents with you Maharaj. I am so grateful for having you as my father. I listen to your small clips every day and get lot of inspiration from it. I love the example of the bamboo tree that you always give signifying patience and hard work. Every little word you say has such deep meaning in it. As you always say when there is love in the heart, only love will come out, I pray to you and my dearest Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji to bestow a little drop of mercy on me so that I can be of some use to you and Them someday and love all my friends. I hope and pray that someday I will be able to do a little service to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji.

Please bless me gurudev so that I can take the right decisions in life keeping Krsna and Srimati Radharani in the center for your pleasure.

I am extremely thankful to you and Radha Gopinath for giving me much much more than I deserve, for giving me the real wealth and happiness, for keeping me under the shelter of devotees.

Offering my obeisances to your lotus feet again and again. Thank you very much. Hare Krsna.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

Please accept my humble obeisances

Dear Maharaj,

I was reading the Gajendra Moksh pastime and thought how similar my situation is - caught in the jaws of Maya.

I was wandering aimlessly like a log of wood in the ocean of material existence, but blissfully unaware of the dangers lurking beneath the so called calm surface. There were others like me floating or rather drifting here and there. Suddenly, I found myself alone. I looked around for company but there was no one. I started panicking, being alone on this big, dark ocean.

Then suddenly, out of nowhere, I had company(devotees) and they were encouraging me, giving me a helping hand and soothing my fears. They assured me that together, we would be able to cross this material ocean with help of our spiritual master and they showed me your calm, glowing face on the shore waving at us, encouraging us and beckoning to us with so much love and compassion.

Though I'm still caught in the jaws of Maya(crocodile), I gain strength and courage from my God brothers and God sisters who are besides me.

Your book - The Journey Home is like a straw for a drowning man. Your amazing journey culminating in the fulfillment of your dreams is a panacea for millions across the world. Your humour, humility, love and compassion has captured the hearts of billions, transforming their lives forever.

KRISHNA BHAJAN DAS (JUHU, MUMBAI)

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada

On this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance my heart is drowning into the ocean of gratitude for all the mercy that you have showered upon me and my father.

I am Brahamchari in Shri Shri Radha Rasbihari Mandir Juhu, serving under the guidance of HG Brajahari prabhu.

Just 3 days before of the disappearance of HH Gaur Govinda Swami Maharaj my mother left this world when I was only 14 or 15. There after my father struggled a lot to make me happy and comfortable but I was attracted towards your lotus feet hence rather than fulfilling his desires I joined Ashram to serve you. He tried his level best to get me back home but due to your mercy he was unsuccessful in his efforts. When I was rewarded with saffron robes by your Holiness, I went to seek his blessings. He didn't like my wearing saffron so he took me to one great devotee of Lord Vitthala and requested him to instruct me to get married. That time that great devotee of Lord Vitthala reminded my father of his promise that he had given long back to Lord Vitthala, if I beget a son I will offer him back in the service of Lord Vitthala. That devotee said, "You have forgotten your promise but Krishna never forgets anything he has taken back his devotee. That's why your son will not come back, now give up your useless efforts to bring him back home. In this way my father there after never tried to take me back home

Recently on the auspicious occasion of Gudi Padawa he was very sick. My sister Vaidehi Sundari Devi Dasi, who was taking care of my father ever since I joined Ashram nearly about 20 years back, called me to see him at the last stage of life.

I was fortunate to reach in time and serve him for last few days. While I was there with him I could give as much Krishna Consciousness as possible. Every day we would read from Shri Chaitanya Charitamirta, Also I would hear your lectures on a loud speaker which he would also hear. On the last day on the auspicious occasion of Gudi Padawa we heard your lecture on Lord Nityananda Trayodashi about 3.30 hours. During our reading of Shri Chaitanya Charitamrita I could realize that he is going to leave his body then while hearing Narsigh Arati and Dashavatar Stotra sung by a small kid from my online audience and while meditating on Lord Vitthala and Sitaram & Hanuman he left his body.

I immediately informed you over what's app message and your Holiness mercifully blessed my father in the following divine words

"My prayers are with your father and know for sure that Krishna is blessing your father."

I was plunged into the ocean of gratitude by your mercy upon my father that how, a Brahamchari who stays far away from home and travelling holy places was allowed to be present during the departure of his father. And that fortunate father goes back home back to Godhead

Gurumahraj I was under the impression that I stay away from my father or travel to holy places I may not be to attend the final departure of my father. At the best I will get the news that he has left his body and come home for the funerals. But due to your divine arrangement I was present before him when he was leaving his body. I could serve and help my father to remember Krishna at the time of his death. Gurumaharaj I can never forget this divine arrangement of your mercy.

This was all possible due to your causeless mercy and nothing else.

I am eternally grateful to you for this divine mercy upon my father and me.

Dear Gurumaharaj, I am so proud, fallen, sinful and offensive in behavior so hopeless in my Krishna consciousness I don't know how to beg forgiveness from you.

Kindly forgive all my offences and grant me the association of sincere devotees who are genuinely trying to please you.

KRISHNA BIHARI DAS (PERTH, AUSTRALIA)

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances unto your lotus feet

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa puja, we wanted to wish you lots of good health and immense strength to deliver many fallen souls like us from this material ocean of nescience. We sincerely pray to Lord Sri Krsna that you get all the energy from the guru parampara to fulfill all the instructions of Srila Prabhupada. Also we pray to the dust of your lotus feet to always keeps us engaged in your service to your spiritual master in whatever small capacity we can.

You are the embodiment of mercy and ocean of compassion. Your instructions carry the weight of the entire guru parampara and those divine instructions have the condensed essence of all scriptures. Srila Prabhupada has given us everything we need to go back home back to Godhead in this one life time if we are sincere and enthusiastic enough to practice. You always remind us about this in your every instruction. You also teach us how to live with those instructions.

We beg and pray at your lotus feet to empower us to follow these instructions sincerely to the best of our ability and remain faithful and loyal to the process and mission Srila Prabhupada has given us through his exemplary life. Sometimes, there come many provocations and situations that can challenge our faith and strength in the process of devotional service. But only because of Srila Prabhupada's books, your causeless mercy and help of the devotees, we are able to survive in the strong currents of maya. We are certain that we wont be able to fight ourselves alone against the allurements of maya, and we need the protection under your strong wings for us to fly with our tiny wings of faith without being diminished or lost.

Your instructions through your lectures are giving me and Mala Sevini Chitra Devi Dasi (my wife) so much of inspiration to practice pure devotional service and serve the Vaishnavas as you always mention. More than me it is Mala who is taking more advantage of your intimate association by hearing attentively, while engaged in her favourite service of making garlands for our dear most deities Sri Sri Nitai Sachinandana and Gaura Nitai at Iskcon Perth, Australia. Our life is always guided by your instructions and the constant support of many many exemplary devotees in our congregation. We also wanted to offer our one year daughter Meera Kishori at your lotus feet to bless her and empower her, so that she can be of some help in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

We always wanted to express our gratitude and thankfulness for giving us a glimpse of the love of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, which is the most precious jewel in kali yuga. We are able to appreciate the love of Mahaprabhu's love to Krsna and His reciprocation with the devotees to an extend only by your mercy. Your yatra lectures gives us the glimpse to the spiritual world and always gives us that feeling of wanting to be there in the association of devotees.

As you know we are still struggling to practice the basics of spiritual life and have lots of short comings to become perfect in this path. We are hoping and begging for your compassion to keep us always in your most protective shelter.

Aspiring to be your servants

My message to you on this your 71st appearance day is a message of gratitude.

I cannot express how grateful I am that you initiated me into Srila Prabhupada's family on the 31st July 2005 at Bhaktivedanta manor in the presences of so many devotees, Srila Prabhupada, Radha-Gokulananda, Sita Rama Lakshmana Hanuman and Gaura-Nitai.

What a transformation took place that day in my life words cannot describe them.

Today I do so many services at the Manor and I feel that it was only through your mercy I am able to do them.

One main service is cooking Raja Bhoga three times a week. Monday,Thursday and Saturday and now like so many of other devotees we are involved in transcribing your lectures. Now that is something very special. A personal service to you

Thank you Guru Maharaj and I hope to see you soon in the UK.

KRISHNA MURALI DAS (SEATTLE, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus Feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Maharaj, I wish you a very happy Krsna Conscious birthday!! HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj's Avirbhava Mahotsav Ki Jai!!

Maharaj, this is my very humble attempt at writing my Vyasa Puja offering unto you. Please allow me to write a few words. I'm not qualified enough to glorify such an exalted personality like You, but for my own purification I make this attempt, and I seek your blessings for the same.

I begin by expressing my gratitude to you for giving shelter to me and my wife(Sakhi Priya DD), on September 19th 2016, in the Seattle ISKCON/VCC temple. This event, in which you compassionately gave us dhiksa initiation, shows how merciful you are towards this unworthy soul. This also showed how much of a large/kind heart you have towards conditioned souls like me.

I had your darshan for the first time when you visited Seattle in 2013. When you entered the temple hall and walked toward the deities, I could feel a very special presence when you approached and walked past me as I was sitting on the floor. After a while, when HG Madhava Chandra Prabhu introduced me to you and I sat near you to get a signed copy of the Journey Home, I could see such a sense of calmness, serenity and compassion in your Lotus eyes. The next day I started reading Journey Home, and as I kept reading, I just did not feel like putting the book down, and I completed reading the book in a few short days, and felt a very deep sense of inspiration by your example of seeking the spiritual truth, seeking a genuine spiritual master, not deterred by huge amount of challenges and hardships.

After initiation, when we met you at Senthil Prabhu's (now HG Shyama Mukund Prabhu) house, I came with my family – my daughter Samyuktha and my son Arjun. When HG Paramananda Prabhu mentioned to you that Arjun is a special needs child, you had a merciful glance at Arjun and then you looked towards me and my wife and said – "Then you both have a very special service to take care of him". Those words have stayed with me to this day. Arjun being non-verbal and low functioning autistic child, continues to need a good amount of time and energy from myself and my wife on a daily basis. Even though 10 years old, he is still very dependent on us for his daily activities such as brushing his teeth, bathing, dressing, eating and so on. I try to keep your instruction in my heart, to serve him and take care of him. We seek your blessings so that he may one day become a functioning adult, and we seek your blessings so that we can take good care of him.

Dear Guru Maharaj, you are the embodiment of compassion, unshakeable determination and selfless service to please Guru and Krishna. When I hear and read about your daily life at the New Vrindavan temple, my heart melts at the sacrifices you have made. Some of the key things that have amazed me

--Your daily routine which includes performing multiple aratis and multiple bhogas and how you got very little to almost no sleep (like 1.5 hours a day)

--How you read Srila Prabhupada books while walking (because if you sat down to read, you might sleep due to fatigue and tiredness)

--How during winter months, you'd break ice to get water to take a shower with that extremely cold water.

By such extraordinary actions and routine, you have demonstrated the glorious qualities of inner strength, determination and fighting spirit that Lord Krsna mentioned in the Bhagavad Gita

(yudhyasva vigata-jvaraḥ (3.30)

tasmāt sarveṣu kāleṣu mām anusmara yudhya ca(8.7) santuṣṭaḥ satataṁ yogī yatātmā dṛḍha-niścayaḥ 12.14).

And as Krsna describes the divine qualities in BG 16.1-3, abhayaṁ sattva-saṁśuddhir, you exhibit all the wonderful qualities of fearlessness, austerity, simplicity, renunciation, tranquility, fortitude, vigor and so on.

Thus, you are the embodiment of so many of Vaishnava qualities and because you live so many of the qualities and characteristics described by Lord Krsna, you are indeed very dear and most special to Lord Krishna.

After you came to India during the 1980s, you took up the great task of building the Iskcon Chowpatty temple for Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, and you have transformed the place into a now thriving world famous center for nurturing hundreds and thousands of brahmacharis and grihastha families. I have been very fortunate to get some personal association of some of your great disciples like HG Gauranga Prabhu, HG Radhe Shyam Prabhu, HG Chaitanya Charan Prabhu, HG Rohini Priya Prabhu and HG Radha Vallabha Prabhu. Each of these great devotees are a true gift to us! I'm not even qualified to list the glorious services rendered by them, but I can say that we have benefited immensely through their preaching efforts.

Dear Maharaj, out of your unlimited mercy, you have provided thousands of lectures and have given so many instructions. In one of your lectures, you mentioned very nicely as to the relationship between a guru and disciple, in that the Guru is eager to give instructions and Krsna Katha, and all the disciple needs to do is just take what the Guru is offering. When the devotee shows interest and takes Guru's offering and lives by the words, the Guru feels happy and gives more so that the devotee can take more, and if the devotee takes more, Guru feels even more happy and gives even more and so on…, and you mentioned in that lecture that as disciple, just hear from Guru sincerely and take what the Guru is offering out of mercy. I'm hoping that one day I can truly receive and utilize at least a fraction of your instructions.

You have shown by your wonderful example, as to how to be a perfect disciple, by following every instruction of HDG Srila Prabhupada, and living and breathing his instructions.

Maharaj, I'd like to share a dream that I had during November (2019). Due to the nature of my job, I had to travel to places like Las Vegas, stay for several days in hotels, and work very hard and long hours. I was going through a phase where my responsibilities kept increasing, and I was struggling to keep up with the pace of work, struggling to travel and find prasadam while staying away from home, struggling to handle tough/very demanding clients who often spoke in very aggressive language, and struggling across so many other fronts. I kept praying to the Lord to give me strength to carry out my duties. One such night when I was extremely tired, I had a dream, in which You approached me, looked at me with such compassion, and a warm loving smile, and gave me the most affectionate embrace! Never in my life had anyone given me a hug/embrace like that. I could feel your touch, your presence during that dream and I woke up the next morning with a great clarity and a calm mind. This goes on to show how truly compassionate you are towards this unworthy soul.

Maharaj, Your glorious and wonderful Katha of Gaura Lila are truly a nectar. You so beautifully narrate the sweet pastimes of little Nimai, with his dear devotees like Kolavecha Sridhar and Murari Gupta!!

It was so joyful when I heard you describe the story of the Brahman who visited Jagannath Mishra's house with his Gopal deities, and how Nimai would naughtily eat the offering made by the Brahman! :) :). With your amazing voice modulations and wonderful most lively expressions of tone, you provide us a direct first hand observation of Lord Gauranga's glorious pastimes. I am indeed so fortunate to hear such ecstatic and sweet narrations from your Lotus mouth. I'd like to thank you from the bottom of my heart for giving us such nectar!

Dear Maharaj, in many of your lectures, you have emphasized the importance of a few traits a) Enthusiasm b) Patience c) Determination. What I truly lack is enthusiasm. Many times, I approach life and my responsibilities as a burden, seeking a way out or seeking an escape route that things might magically get better soon. I do understand that I need to be more enthusiastic in my duties – be it material or spiritual. I seek your blessings for the same.

On the most auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Neela Madhava, Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, Sri Sri Gaura Nitai and Lord Narasimha Dev, that they bestow Their choicest blessings unto you and that they keep you in very good health.

I also sincerely pray that we may take your personal darshan either in Seattle or in some other place, very soon.

On this day, we seek your blessings that we be engaged in devotional service in the mood of servant of the servant of servant, to serve Vaishnavas, to serve you and to serve Their Lordships.

Maharaj, due to my conditioning, I may have committed many offenses through my thoughts, words or actions. I fall at your Lotus feet and seek forgiveness for such offenses.

Also please forgive if I committed any mistakes in the writing or in choice of words for this Vyasa Puja offering unto your lotus feet.

Aspiring to be called your worthy disciple,

Your humble servant,

Krishna Murali Das

"WILDFLOWER"

This was back in the Summer of 1970, when you and Gary were traveling through Europe.

Gary asked, "Hey, Monk, where to next? Your wish is my command". Gary's green eyes glistened with adventure as both of you stood on the side of a country road in western France. "The world is at your beck and call. Morocco, Spain, Paris, Rome, Switzerland, Germany. Where?"

You replied, "Where would you like to go, Gary?"

Gary, "Everywhere! But in which order? That's the question."

Thinking for a moment, you remembered the streams you so often studied, and stretched your arms towards the sky. "We should surrender our destiny to the will of God."

Here comes the principle of "Surrender to the will of God." Who knew in the coming years, this would be one of your prime teachings.

Gary laughed, threw down his backpack and sat on it. Mimicking your gesture, he responded, "What does that mean?"

"What would you like it to mean?" You said.

Gary mockingly joined his palms in prayer. "You spend your days studying scriptures and meditating while I'm hanging out." Again stretching his arms to the sky, he said, "You decide how we should surrender our destiny to the will of God."

Here comes one of the most frequently asked question, "How do we surrender to the will of God?"

Plucking a yellow wildflower from the ground, you declared, "Like this."

"You want us to sit here forever like that flower?"

"Look, Gary, From a small seed buried in the dirt, this flower has grown into what it is - a beautiful blossom, basking in the sunshine. How? By surrendering her destiny to the will of God."

"You win, brother, but how does your fancy poetry translate into a hitchhiker's language?"

You smelled the flower and had an idea. "Whenever a car stops for us, what are the first words they always ask? You play the role of the driver and I'll be us."

Gary shrugged his shoulders. "Hello, where are you going?"

You said, "Where are you going?"

"To Casablanca," he said, pretending to steer a car.

You clapped your hands, "Perfect, that's exactly where we are going." Handing him the flower, you asked, "What do you think Gary? Every time we stand on the side of the road our destiny will be a mystery to be revealed by the next ride."

Leaping up, Gary patted you on the back and exclaimed, "That's it, wherever our ride is going, that's where we go." And he cast the wildflower into wind.

What a wonderful lesson to learn from a wildflower, "Surrender to the will of God".

This is the principle you have imbibed in your deep consciousness back in your early days and have been teaching to us through various lessons in life.

Years later, the same wildflower came back to teach us another valuable lesson.

Fast forwarding to the years of 2010's. You where about to leave Los Angeles, New Dwaraka, after a week's stay, enlightening us, encouraging us and giving us the warmth of a spiritual father. As flocks of disciples, followers and well wishers circled you, paying respects, exchanging sweet words, somebody spoke to you, "Maharaj, today is Lalitha Sundari mataji's birthday". Wife of Bala Gopala Prabhu, who specifically holds charge of your dietary requirements during your stay in New Dwaraka. Within no time, you picked up something like a twig or wildflower from the garden nearby and presented it to her as her birthday gift. Mataji and all the onlookers were so touched by this gesture. It was probably her best birthday gift presented to her.

Lesson, "It is not the item that matters, but the intent behind presenting the item that counts"

You have presented valuable lessons to us from various practical experiences and simple analogies. I sincerely thank you pray that someday I shall follow them

Dear Guru Maharaj!!

Please accept our humble obeisance's onto the dust of your lotus feet.

All glories to srila prabhupada and All glories to you.

On this auspicious occasion, We wish you a happy Krishna conscious birthday. We pray falling at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Madhav, Jagannatha Baladev Subhadra mai and Nitai Gaura Sundar to shower their choicest blessings upon you.

We are very grateful and indebted to you for accepting us as your disciples though we are utterly unqualified.

From your lectures, we hear you repeatedly mentioning to be humble, tolerant and give all respect to other and do not expect any respect by quoting Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu 3rd verse of Sikstastakam.

trnad api sunicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harih

"One who is humbler than a blade of grass, more forbearing than a tree who gives due honour to others without desiring honour for himself is qualified to always chant the Holy Name of Krishna."

Last Year during pandemic, we are very fortunate to hear your glories from many senior god brothers how you showed all these great qualities through your personal example.

In one lecture, one of your servants mentioned about your compassion. One time one butterfly entered into your room and it's legs are hurt. Then you asked your servant to chant loudly in front of the butterfly. After some time, the butterfly flew away by your mercy and by the power of Chanting.

The devotee mentioned that if you have so much compassion on a small butterfly then what to speak on all your disciples.

He also mentioned that, when you cut grass in New Vrindavan as a new devotee, you used to bend down where your lips are almost touching the ground and chants Hare Krishna so that the grass may hear Krishna's holy name before it leaves the body.

Another senior godbrother mentioned how you are staying in Chicago during the pandemic and your daily schedule. Waking up at 1:30am and taking your bath, washing your cloths, performing arati, chanting rounds, cooking bhoga, offering it to supreme lord. All this you finish by 8am and available for the devotees/disciples of all over the world to serve the mission of Srila Prahupada.

He also mentioned that you like to be solitude but for serving your guru, you become available for the devotees to inspire them.

Please bless us and pray for us so that we will be able to follow in your footsteps and develop little bit of these qualities in performing service to your lotus feet and Srila Prabhupada's mission.

KRSNA CANDRA DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dear Maharaja ,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

With every passing year, your presence in my life is embedded more and more. I very often think of what I should do in my remaining years to please you, to try and assist you in any small way in your service to Srila Prabhupada to spread Krishna Consciousness all over the world. It is not a passing thought, but something I think of often and deeply. I feel so guilty in not doing even remotely adequate for you compared to what you have done in my life and in the lives of my family members. You have transformed so much of our thinking, our values, given us so much undeserving happiness, you have protected us, you have held our hands patiently when we moped and groaned about our petty little problems like spoilt kids, you have ignored our many failings--- all so lovingly, and at some cost to your own health, and that too, for thousands of incredibly fortunate families like ours!

“Thank you” is a phrase you must be hearing so often from so many grateful hearts, yet it is hopelessly inadequate in expressing my feelings. Though I know I can never even come close to repaying my debt to you in many lifetimes, yet I am happy in making that attempt at repayment the centre of my life.

KRSNAKANTA GOPALINI D D (MAYAPUR)

Hare Krsna, Maharaj. Please accept my humble obeisances. I wanted to thank you for all of your services. I have been watching your lectures on YouTube almost daily, on Radhanath Swami media, I am watching from the first one there. I don´t go to temple here in Mayapur for almost 2 years, I am very mental about the covid-19 (I am terrified by Indian hospitals), so online association is what is keeping my devotional kripa alive. I was blessed to see you in person a few times here in Mayapur and listen to your speeches. At first I couldn’t understand much, because I was very new to KC and wasn’t very familiar with the pastimes, but as I hear them I can have a glimpse of the sweetness of Krsna and Lord Caitanya. I also like reading you books very much. I realized that to be kind and compassionate in this day and age takes a lot of courage and self-improvement. I have heart hard like a stone, sometimes I feel like I will never become a devotee, more humble than a blade a grass and more tolerant than a tree, sounds like so far a way from my reality...I was thinking here how many letters you will receive on this auspicious day, I hope you read mine too. I think you are one of the most amazing personalities I ever met in my life, before I become a devotee I used to admire people who now I see that they had such nasty habits and lives, but when I think about you, you are a personification of a saintly person and a true poet (!), and you have so many followers and you are so humble. Knowing you have completely changed my life. Thank you so much

KṚṢṆALOKA DĀSA (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On this auspicious day of your appearance i seek your blessings and prayers. Your lectures are source of great inspiration in my Krishna consciousness. In difficult times these lectures give me hope and enthusiasm to continue Krishna consciousness.

I had one question from long time. If Krishna is all attractive then why am I not attracted to Him? I have natural attraction to maya and my mind gets illusioned and thinks false things as real. Why am I still addicted to the petty sources of misery in the form of the enjoyments of this world? Recently while hearing your lecture I got answer to this question.

You told that Bhakti means that through our sincere efforts, through our humility we attract the all attractive. When Krishna is attracted to us, to our consciousness then he reveals his all attractive nature and then we are naturally and completely attracted to Krishna. We become attracted when Krishna reveals himself to attract us and he reveals himself when he is attracted to our consciousness. When we feel we are low then we attract Krishna who is great. What attracts all attractive Krishna is humility. It is the law of nature that opposites attract one another. Magnet positive side repels the positive side of another magnet, but the negative side attracts the positive. Similarly Krishna is all great but if we think we are great we repel Krishna away from us, if we think we are small then we attract the great.

After hearing from you, I understood why I am not attracted to Krishna. I am completely satisfied with your answer. Many times I feel myself better than other devotees because I do some seva nicely. You have this quality of humility even after doing so many great services in the mission of Srila Prabhupada for so many years. On this auspicious day of your appearance I beg drop of humility from you so that I serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the mood of servant of servant without getting proud.

Gurudeva! By a drop of your mercy, make this servant of your servant humbler than a blade of grass. Please give me strength to bear all trials and troubles, make me devoid of all desires for personal honor. Please give me the power to properly honor all living beings. Only then will I sing the holy name in great ecstasy and all my offenses cease.

I remain eternally grateful to you for everything you have given in my life.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble respectful obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your divine being.

Thank you for teaching by your words and example. Approaching this celebration of your appearance in this world, I have been meditating on the quality of gratitude which you often speak about. It has been difficult to accept all things with a grateful heart. Amazingly enough, by meditating on you and such qualities it has become possible.

Your great mystic ability is not cheap like a magician transforming ash to gold. Instead, it is seen by many examples that you are making hearts of gold in service to guru and Krsna.

The gratitude only increases and expands. I very warmly recall all the chances I got to menially serve you somehow in New Dwarka by the grace of Svavasa prabhu and god family. Now I am humbly trying to serve under HH Devamrita Swami in Atlanta, Ga for your pleasure and that of the vaisnavas.

We are giving prasadam and books in a small restaurant we opened. So many times when I fall short, your presence in your recorded classes or discussions about you keep my spiritual progress alive.

I hope to better serve you, and pray to be an instrument in your service.

KUNAL RATHOD (PUNE,INDIA)

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaj please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

Guru Maharaj firstly I want to beg forgiveness for not able to follow your instructions and committing enormous blunders in Krishna Consciousness despite of having read, heard practically thousands of times your and SP's instructions.I don't know whether ever you will accept me as your disciple but still begging for strength to overcome my weaknesses of heart .

Dear Maharaj, in my initial days of Krishna Consciousness when I may be hardly chanting 1 round I used to watch your small clips on YouTube and don't know how they used to penetrate within my heart.At that time I was hardly knowing anything about you but just by hearing your wisdom and deepest realisations about life I was so attracted and touched .First time I felt like this person understands my heart and I have some connection with him .It was in Kartik Yatra the first time I saw you Maharaj live coming in front of the crowd with atmost humble and kind gesture to all your God Brothers &God Sisters and all the Vaishnavas.It was like being in completely different world.Your first words were appreciations full of gratitude for your God Brothers And God Sisters and to all the devotees who had worked so hard for making this yatra happen especially Chowpatty devotees (Gauranga Pr and team).All the classes you gave throughout the Yatra were so nourishing and uplifting and made a deep impression of Krishna and Vrindavan in our hearts. After coming back from Yatra I read "Journey Home" and my gratitude and love for you was increased million times more after understanding who you are and what amazing journey you had .It was so so inspiring for me and I developed faith unto the divine couple Sri Sri Radha -Krishna And I developed a sense of belief that yes Krishna is Supreme Personality of Godhead. I don't know how to express my gratitude for Prabhupada, His Disciples ,Grand Disciples.... without which I don't know what would have happened to this fallen conditioned soul who was living a life worst than hell practically for millions of lifetimes. It's only because of all the above mentioned great souls whose lifetime of selfless sacrifices, hardships ,unparalleled devotion unto Lord and oceanic compassion for the suffering souls that millions of people's lives have been completely transformed and fire of material existence which was burning them birth after birth has been extinguished.Maharaj your entire is itself a life manual for me .Your commitment dedication, loyalty towards Srila Prabhupada for an entire life is what everyone is aspiring for .I still don't understand how can somebody may face so many difficulties that you went through despite of not supposed to go through all this But you went for the sake of entire humanity .The New Vrindavan Project in West Virginia And GOvardhan Eco Village,Wada what we see today is the 4 decade dream of you and relentless efforts and vision you had for that.And what to speak of Chowpatty temple its non different than Vaikuntha.Its all your lifetimes efforts dear GuruMaharaj .I had heard from so many senior Vaishnavas how much difficulties you went through to develop such a loving community of devotees.Its only because of your pure unalloyed love and devotion for Krishna that these places like Chowpatty temple have been manifested in real.Maharaj you went through such blasphemy, criticism ,ill behaviour from so many peoples/ devotees which nobody could ever tolerate without having a iota of mistake involved in all these circumstances yet you forgave all of them and never maintained even a slightest of grudges and kept loving them ,who can in this entire universe do that except Lord and his unalloyed pure devotees .Gurudev And you are for sure one of those pure devotees just came from Spiritual World on loving request of Krishna to assist Prabhupada and save all of us....Dear GuruMaharaj I just beg at your lotus feet repeatedly that please always keep me engaged in your loving service wherever you go birth after birth and never leave me alone in this ocean of samsara..

Your eternal insignificant unqualified servant...

KUSAL GOVIND DAS (KANPUR NAGAR)

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to Sri Guru & Sri Gauranga.

Recently I heard how you had a great desire to get Srila Prabhupada's birthplace & since many years you were requesting devotees for same. Owing to your strong desire, Krishna very miraculously brought the land finally on the 125th Birth Anniversary of Srila Prabhupada which seemed quite impossible earlier. Such deep attachment & love for Srila Prabhupada is very inspiring for me. By your simplicity, humility & loving dealings with all kinds of devotees, I find greatly inspired. You always teach us how to focus upon essence in all situations as well as all people. In your talks, there is great treasure house of very mature wisdom & realizations which completely change the state of my consciousness.

I feel very grateful to you for helping me to learn the important values of humility, tolerance, forgiveness, devotion, dedication, unity, cooperation, absorption, selflessness, loyalty to parampara. Thank you so much for your merciful protection through your instructions & vaani association in all situations of my life. Thank you for all wonderful opportunities to serve you.

I beg for you mercy to get strength to follow your instructions in the spirit of humility. Please bless me with all good qualities required to be a good servant of Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Your insignificant servant

Kusal Govind Das

KUSHAL BIHARI DAS (INDIA)

Hare Krishna Gurudev,

Please accept my dandvat pranam,

When a soul gets most merciful glance from the Supreme Lord, then only he gets to come under the shelter of a Guru who, by his causeless mercy, accepts him as disciple and agrees to guide him to the loving lotus feet of the Lord. I don't know what good deeds I performed that I was compassionately accepted by you under your lotus feet. I was completely unknown to the path of spiritual life and was going to live a hellish life. But it was by association of your devotees, I was saved. It is indeed your purity and compassion which flows through the heart of your dear followers. Just like the wind carries the aroma of flowers, your devotees carry your compassion in their heart and spread everywhere. Through them, like a farmer, you have sown the seed of devotional service in our hearts and you have been providing all nourishment in form of your lectures and guidance. It is natural that the plant of devotion will grow until unless the land of my heart is barren. If you bless Gurudev, a miracle will definitely happen and barren land of my heart will be fertile. Please bless me.

Your loving dependence on the Lord Radha Gopinath gives me ultimate inspiration for following your footsteps. It is my utter incapability that due to the illusory potency of the lord, I at times forget to put me under the shadow of the lotus feet of the lord. I seek your blessings to make your teaching to aspire to be servant of the servant of the Lord as only goal of my life. Please bless me Gurudev to never ever leave the shelter of your lotus feet and like a faithful dog, follow your instructions.

Trying to be your faithful servant

Pamho Guru Maharaj. AGTSP

I cannot thank you enough for accepting a fallen soul like me as your disciple. I was so fond of Sri Barsana dham and especially the Kushal Bihari mandir there and i always wanted this name as my diksha name and by your mercy you initiated me as Kushal bihari das in GEV in front of Rupa Goswami samadhi mandir 3 years ago.

Guru Maharaj, i deeply admire the quality of Simplicity in you , totally in the mood of brajvasis of vrindavan. This topmost jewel of your qualities is seen most prominently in your dealings, speech, and your very life.

Guru Maharaj i still very vividly remember the talk you gave in iskcon juhu during my marriage ceremony with Madhavi Kumari, and you emphasised the 2 words which are to be practiced in Grhasta ashram-"FORGET IT!". Whenever there are ego clashes and fights in our married life, no matter how big or small, your words come to my rescue and it reverberates in my mind-FORGET IT and i avert the bigger clashes.

Maharaj during the last 2 years of the corona pandemic, we cudnt have your darshan in vapu form but the number of lectures in your vani and zoom darshans i had of you, was far more than ever even in vapu form. I feel so fortunate to have your association in the form of your nourishing classes. Whenever i hear your class, i imagine you're personally sitting in front of me and instructing me with so much energy and putting in your full heart and soul in it. You give your 100% energy in your classes maharaj. Please pray that i follow your teachings in my daily life and improve my sadhana and live an exemplary life of pure krishna consciousness with my family.

Maharaj my 20 month old daughter Parthivi was born in the covid times, and we so wanted her to take your blessings but physically it wasnt possible so we are eagerly waiting for your arrival so that you put your hand on her head and in your style on playing your knuckles on her forehead blessing her with your mercy. You had already blessed her when she was in the womb of her mother when you came to juhu temple on 26th jan 2020 terrace program.

Maharaj i lost my father to covid this year during the second wave😢, so from now on i consider you to be my spiritual father taking care of me in all walks of life.

Maharaj lastly i wish to commit to you that i will never let you down and always be exemplary in my spiritual life following the highest standards you have set and make your a proud father.

Maharaj please bless me and my family.

Wishing you a very happy birthday Guru Maharaj❤ With so much love

LALA KESHAV DAS (INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaja please accept my humble obeisance. .

First of all i am very much gratefull to get a chance to offer my word of feelings on your Vyasapuja day. Maharaj i am not qualified to say something and be your desciple. Still by your causeless mercy you have accept me. As i was working in Indian Navy and was not able to stay at one place long, specificaly in mumbai, i never got any chance to meet you. Many time i was thinking i couldn't meet you as you are busy and so much resposibility you have taken towards service to Srila Prabhupada. But there is always a desire to see you and talk with you. I know everything you have spoken in your lecture, but still desire remain to meet in person which is not practicaly possible to meet all. So only way is to write you a letter but it also will take some of your time which is very precious. so i remain silent. Now official i have got a chance to write you. So i am very happy.

Maharaja i am from from Jagannath Puri, and from my childhood listening the glories of Harinama and taking shelter at Lord Jagannath. But practically how to do bhakti as per parampara system was not known to me. So during those days only thing I prayed to Lord Jagannath, "To always keep me at His Lotus feet. Due to my material conditioning i may be driven away from Jagannath but please Oh Jagannath please you keep me with you inspite my wish to go away from You." That time i was unknow about the procedure of prayers and language of prayers. But Lord Jagannath listened my words and by Lord Jagannath's mercy i got your association and by your causeless mercy you accepted this fallen soul as you desciple.

Maharaja i am very much gratefull to you inspiring me through your lectures and association of Radhagopinath's devotee community which gave me a chance to see and experiences how to do bhakti and pure bhakti as life's ultimate goal. Maharaja when i was reading your book "The Journey Home" it gave me imense inspiration, how your longing for searching spirituality, visiting holy places and learning good lessons from different sadhus from different parts of India, Finally your meeting with Krishna's photo and staying in Vrindavan and intimate relationship with brajavasis. It gave me a complete overview of present day difficernt spiricual systems in india.

Maharaj, i don't know what i am talking, but i am very much gratefull for everything maharaja. Maharaja due to my past conditioning i have made many offences at your lotus feet. I beg to forgive me .....and i am trying not to do any offences in future, Please forgive me Maharaj.

Mahajara your blessings are in your instructions, but Please bless me Maharaja so that i could follow these instructions sincerely and will not do any such thing by which you, Prabhupada and Krishna will not pleased. I am offering my self at your lotus feet and trying to do best for Prabhupada's mission. Thank you Maharaja.

All Glories to You

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Dear Guru Maharaj I still remember attending you lecture for the 1st time at Sri Sri Radha Gopinath mandir which was my 1st first class experience of KC, that experience was on of the biggest stepping stones in the path of my KC. I would never forget that in my life and would cherish that memory throughout my life.

Your lecture are my number one source of inspiration to my Krishna Conciusness, in your lecture you teach us very sublime truths in the simple words. You teach us how we should perform our bhakti with our heart and soul and not just mechanically.

Your graphical explanation of pastimes attracts me to hear them more.

From seniors vaishnavas when I come to know that inspite of bodily uncomfortable situations you always want to please devotees who come to meet you or invite you for giving classes or in any other capacity that really melts my hearts and wish to have that attitude some day.

Thank you Dear Maharaj for giving me shelter and guidance in my life.

LALITA GOPIKA DEVI DASI (LIELVARDE, LATVIA)

Hare Krishna, dear Gurumaharaj!

Please kindly accept my respectful obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

In one of your recent lectures, you beautifully answered question regarding unity in diversity. "Even among great souls, there are apparent disagreements, but among great souls, there's a higher principle that we're united on. And this is very important, this idea of unity and diversity. The more we understand the unity of our purpose and our cause to love God and to actually be instruments of compassion to people to help them overcome suffering and be happy, the more we understand the unity we have on that, the more we can respect the diversity of our different experiences and different opinions, and different ideologies." [Hinduja Group, 2020.08.09] This really resonates with me, as I see so many different approaches to the challenges people are facing nowadays. It seems to me that during this time of pandemic, people now are truly showing themselves, often without hiding, showing their true wishes or the values their behavior is based upon, even if they wear medical masks. And without guidance one can become confused, as many things previously known and seemingly normal in this world are now being restricted and are changing. At the same time, I have never experienced so much spiritual opportunities online as in these few years – lectures, courses, trainings, even online parikramas! And it truly surprises me, how Krishna, restricting previous opportunities, gives other opportunities, widening our viewpoint in a way, many of us didn't even imagine. And in many ways being able to see you online so much more and seeing your sincere service to our Srila Prabhupada, devotees and people in general has strengthened my hope that I still can find spiritual unity and strength despite so many different approaches I experience in these turbulent times. So, thank you very much, Maharaj, for the invaluable treasure in the form of your online darshans and lectures.

Another precious gem in my life, where I can see the spiritual unity is in transcription service offered by RNS Transcriptions team. So many devotees all over the world united in listening your inspirational stories and lectures about Krishna and His devotees attentively and thus purifying hearts and getting inspired in service to you and Srila Prabhupada. And it is so inspiring to know that this service pleases you and can help you in your service of writing books. It is a great honor for me to be at least of some use to you. Thank you very much for such opportunity.

It is interesting how your lectures that were sent to me for transcription often came at the moment when some situation had created some confusion or some question in my mind. One such example was with the importance of forgiveness in our lives. One of my humble attempts to serve is to give Disciples and Bhakta program courses to devotees who want to study them. And sometimes those devotees shared with me situations where the people they had association with were so strongly-minded about their truths and rightfulness about their choices that were insistently trying to convince them to follow in their footsteps. And it sometimes made me wonder about how not to start unconsciously criticize someone, but instead always remember how important it is, to respect everyone's free-will and how to preach in such a way that I respect people's choices, but not compromising my spiritual practice and values Srila Prabhupada and you are teaching us. And then I received the lecture, where you beautifully said: "In Kali-yuga the circumstances of the environment are permeated with the influence or quarrel and hypocrisy. Every atomic particle in Kali-yuga is surcharged with the influence of quarrel and hypocrisy. How could there be unity? How could there be love? How could there be trust, when there is quarrel and hypocrisy? Therefore, devotees must be very understanding. They must be very forgiving. And, if the devotees are forgiving to one another, even though as devotees who committed terrible aparādhs against Śrīla Prabhupāda directly, but he forgave them." [Lecture in Mumbai, 2002.01.24] I read it, and it seemed to answer my questions in such a condensed, pure, simple manner! It is so amazing how you are affecting my life! Despite the physical distance I feel your guidance whenever there is something bothering me. I am far from perfection, and I have lot of work in front of me, but this strengthens my faith that with Prabhupada's, your mercy, mercy or devotees near me I can do it. In many ways people around me, especially my devotee husband, sincere disciple of HH Bhakti Bhringa Govinda Swami Maharaja, has helped me to deal with lot of my insecurities. By his example he also reminds me of the importance of sincere appreciation to my Spiritual Master. I feel blessed by people around me, and I hope, I will always be able to follow your example of sincere service and serve Srila Prabhupada, you and them to the best of my ability.

My sincerest greetings to you on this auspicious day. Thank you very much for your teachings, mercy, kindness, sincere example and opportunities to serve!

Dear Gurumaharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. On your auspicious appearance day, I pray to Sri Sri Nitai Sacisuta, Sri Sri Prahlad Narasimhadeva for your good health and safety. I would like to say that I feel fortunate to be your disciple. I would like to express my heartfelt feeling that you have shown us how a disciple should be. You are absolutely dedicated to Srila Prabhupada movement and his mission. Srila Prabhupada wanted to have a peaceful Vrindavan with all 7 temples and you have created GEV exactly for this cause. We can peacefully visit all 7 Vrindavan temples with exact replica of Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan temple. We also have Radha kund, Govardhan and we can do parikrama while visiting Kusum sarovar, Yamuna arati, many dioramas depicting Krishna lilas. It is simply amazing to see how this place manifested. Not only this, when we recently visited Kolkata, we visited Srila Prabhupada birth place. There the devotee said that it is you who pushed the devotees to purchase SP's birth place in 2012 which is expressed by Srila Prabhupada in his letter in 1977. It is because of you, the place got manifested now after long struggle. These two examples show howmuch value you give Srila Prabhupada's dreams, values and mission. it is truly inspirational to see this you live to satisfy your Gurumaharaj's mission. I will try to meditate and imbibe this quality and try my best to follow your instructions. Your servant, Lilasuka Dasa

LOKESVARA GOVINDA DAS (JAIPUR, INDIA)

Hare Krsna dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances, all glories to srila Prabhupada.

Whenever I want to write an offering to glorify you, I find myself blank as I don't find any word in dictionary from which I can express my gratitude and feeling for you. There is so much to say but due to my incapability and insignificance, I can't express in my words. I pray for your good health and wish you keep guiding us and keep showering your blessings. I wish that someday I can sit with you and serve you. Whenever I feel demotivated, I always remember the day when you have accepted this insignificant servant to be your disciple and handed be over chanting beads while lovingly looking in my eyes. Although with that loving loving glace I can spend my whole life but I feel that craving to sit at your lotus feet sometime and personally serve you. I am always trying to attend your live lectures as much as possible. Currently I am associting with HG Anand Vrindavan Prabhu via online medium. I try to join maximum morning Japa sessions with him and also asking guidance for my spiritual and material life. I am getting so much nourishment by his association as he always quotes you. I am aspiring to have the purity that you have. I am trying to feed good dog to best of my capacity but bad dog is barking more loudly. I beg for your mercy so that anarthas which are still lying in my heart can be conquered soon. I want to have your physical darshan as sson as possible. I am eternally indebted to you. Thank you for everything Dear Gurudev.

Please Accept my Humble Obeisances

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Sometimes if I just look at the world around me, I realize that how just in few years of coming in touch with KC, so much has changed in my life although externally it may not be visible so much. All this change which has come in my life is only due to the causeless divine mercy of HDG Srila Prabhupada and his sincere disciples like you. Your lectures are like the compass of my life. How to deal with devotees, external world, occupation, anarthas, Holy Name, disease and actually almost for every aspect of life you have given us instructions in your lectures. You are an ideal example of what it means to be a "Pure Devotee" and we all aspire to someday become sincere in following in your footsteps. Your love for your Godbrothers is such a deep example of how blissful and ever-fresh the heart of a pure devotee is. And still although you are so simple at heart but so much intelligent in Krishna's service and always out of compassion arranging so many projects just to engage more and more fallen souls in the divine service of Sri Sri Radha Krishna. But still Maharaja the current of maya is so strong & I am so stubborn that I still keep listening to my dirty mind and material attachments and not following you…On this very auspicious day, I beg and pray for your ever-increasing compassion that I may also sincerely try to assist your servants of servants in the divine preaching mission of Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu…

Please accept my humble obeisances at your Divine Lotus Feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Hare Krishna Maharaj, on this auspicious appearance day of yours we would like to pray to Sri Sri RadhaGopinathji for your good health and long life.

First of all i would like to express my deepest gratitude for accepting me as your discipline even though I lack all good qualities to even to come in contact with your illustrious servants... Thank you Maharaj.

In one of your talk you mentioned about equality by quoting a sloka from Bhagavat Gita vidya Vinay sampane.... Your life illustrates this sloka... You are knowledgeable as you can connect any topic or situation with Krishna. Which we could see from the book journey home... From every experience you went through, you extracted a positive message from it....be it favorable or unfavorable. Yet you were always grateful to each one of them, even to them who were cheaters.... This is due to the great treasure of humility you possess.

Thank you Maharaj for being such an inspiring example for all of us.

On this auspicious day I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji for your good health and a long life and also hope and pray that I can live a life as per your expectations.

Aspiring to become servant of your servants...

I only pray that whatever you have given If I can understand its value and dedicate my life in your mission to please Srila Prabhupada and Vaishnavas then my this life is success.

MADHAVA HARI DAS (BATTLE GROUND, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Hare Krishna! Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your lotus feet.

I wish to Thank You Maharaj and express my gratitude to your magnanimous self. I am a nobody but filled with pride. Somehow out of your kind heart you have accepted me as a servant though I can never measure up to be one. I am filled with intense desire to glorify myself. Occasionally I desire to chant in a humble manner but soon my mind drifts. Please bless me so I can chant the Holy Names of Lord Krishna offenselessly. Please bless me so I can make some effort to serve the Vaishnavas without any offence and give them joy. I have not done anything to serve you though I know that you are pleased when the Vaishnavas are served well. Please bless me so I can help out in some manner in this wonderful movement Srila Prabhupada and the previous acharyas have established. I hope and pray that someday I get your mercy, my Lord and master. I don't know to write anything that would glorify you but I hope my insignificant attempts at least gives you some pleasure.

We live in a tiny town called Battle Ground in Washington state. I have 3 sons and I am very anxious that they grow up to be servants of devotees and become humble. Their names are Neelambar, Gaur Govind and Hari Das. Me and my wife Jaya Lakshmi Devi Dasi are trying to bring them up as Vaishnavas. I have no good qualities to train them on. Only by your mercy and blessings can we make progress. Lord is my witness, I really want to become a good person, serve the Vaishnavas and chant the holy name with some taste. My inadequacies and my own lack of effort causes me to fail and I am always frustrated. Please bless me with even a drop of your mercy. That is sufficient for all perfections to come. You are a dear servant of Srila Prabhupada and you are very merciful just like him. Will you please pray and bless us? I hope and pray someday we can be in your personal presence and offer you some service. I pray Krishna consciousness spreads everywhere and more and more people take pleasure in the divine service. The world has a great need for Krishna consciousness just like me. You are inspiring a lot of people and I see and I am amazed by the dedication these wonderful Vaishnavas have to serve Lord Krishna. May I say I feel left out? I want to be a part of this movement, not as a spectator, not as a pretender, but as a genuine servant of the servant. Please please let me be a part of this movement and serve in a humble manner always. I believe in the words of the scriptures that says the Lord is in the heart and observes the desires of the living entity - these words are not hidden from Him and consequently it is not hidden from you.

I hope to remain forever and ever your servant of the servant of your Divine Self.

Your servant

Dear Guru Maharaja

Please accept my humble obeisance, All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasapuja.

I am very grateful to you Guru Maharaj for keeping me in your shelter always. Otherwise, it is very easy to get entangled in this material world, but the association of devotees is keeping me unshaken in the process of devotional service. Practically everyone in this world thinks that no matter what happens to others, I must enjoy at all costs. But despite trying so much for selfish enjoyment, not a single person is happy. Thank you Guru Maharaj for teaching me real path of happiness which comes through selfless service. “Service is life, no service means, spiritually no life.” You are serving selflessly for so many years to propagate the message of lord Chaitanya throughout the world I hope by your mercy I shall start serving the devotees selflessly in the mood of servant of the servant of servant. Love means to serve and serve means to please you. I hope one day I shall please you and Lord Krishna.

I am very grateful to you for everything you are doing for us.

Today on this very auspicious occasion I beg for your Mercy to serve all Vaishnavas in humble mood of servant of servant of servant.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji for you good health.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurumaharaj,

please accept my humble obeiscances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

I am not at all qualified to glorify you.please forgive me for the mistakes in this offering.

when you talk about Srila Prabhupada in your lectures,how much difficulty he has endured to make us all Krishna Conscious, my stone like heart is melting and slowly realizing what invaluble gift he has given us.Like Narada muni,Srila Prabhupada gave Krishna Consciousness to everyone without making any distinction.

although I was born in India,still i got Krishna only after i came to west.If Srila Prabhupada doesnot come to west,i dont know where i would be.

I am realizing that to be able to chant is a fortune.to be able to serve the deities is a fortune. associating with devotees is a fortune.

Gurudeva,

i am seeing suffering everywhere .my friends and myself are getting sick and people are loosing loved ones.

as you always say,this place is dukhalayam,asasvatam.but its gives so much pain to the heart to see the people suffering.

i am not able to see this suffering through scriptural eyes.please please bless me that i accept my suffering and other’s suffering as Krishna’s plan.

I am so much struggling not being able to chant quality rounds.not being able to associate with devotees .

in this darkness,my only hope is your lectures. Your simple yet profound lectures make deep impressions in my heart,your heartfelt kirtans brings tears to my eyes.you are showing by example how to take care of not only our soul but also our health as we use this body in Krishna’s service.whatever situation you are in,still you always preach in different ways be it zoom or youtube etc.I pray to Lord Krishna to always keep you in good health and safe so that you can bring many many more fallen souls to HIS lotus feet.

Gurudeva,

please bless me and my baby to stay at your lotus feet and Srila Prabhupada’s lotus feet eternally.

you are very very merciful.I beg forgiveness for all the mistakes i have committed at your lotus feet.

MADHAVNANDA DAS (MUMBAI)

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances. On this most fortunate day of your appearance I offer my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet.

The spiritual sky surrounding Srila Prabhupada is full of many many luminaries. All of them are very attractive, but for me, you are the special star who has extended his light of mercy to an unqualified spiritual seeker like me, that too without any endeavors from my side. How can I ever thank you enough?. Let me somehow remain in the cooling light of your mercy. The root of all my good fortune is undoubtedly YOUR DIVINE GRACE.

On a larger scale the effect of this mercy is manifested in all the projects inspired and sustained by your desire to serve Srila Prabhupada in an unique way.

It is providing the soothing light of mercy to so many vaishnavas and general spiritual seekers.

Bhaktivedanta hospital, Gopals Garden , Annamrit, Gopals fun school and many such projects have blossomed in the moon light of your mercy.

Govardhan eco village combined with the Prayag concept of spreading Krishna consciousness, is yet another level of your genius, hard work and perseverance, in order to please Srila Prabhupada.

Arrival of SrI Madan Mohan at GEV has made sure that the Palghar district, Mumbai and even far of countries will establish their SPIRITUAL SAMBANDH with Sri Madan Mohan dev.

Before the Covid pandemic, for more than a year, you were repeatedly requesting all the devotees to establish Govardhan Eco Village as place of pilgrimage. Come and to serve in this TIRTH KSHETRA. Now, Inspite of the pandemic, thousands and thousands of people are coming to GEV and experience the spiritual atmosphere of Vrindavan forest, Shri Govardhan, Yamuna and Shri Madan Mohan at GEV. All these people come form Mumbai, Palghar, Thane, Gujrat and many other distant places. They receive free prasadam to their hearts content. The experience of the evening arotik of Shri Govardhan, yamuna ji and the Kirtan at Maan Mandir, leaves lasting impact in their hearts. Hundreads and hundreads of tribal school children, women and farmers are coming in contact with Divine grace of Shri Madan Mohan.

Thank you Gurudev for giving all of us the opportunity to serve. We beg for your mercy so that every village in Palghar district will have Vaishnavas, by their connection with shri Madan Mohan.

On this auspious day I pray for your good health.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad.

Srila Gurudev you have showered your mercy on uncountable fortunate living entities through the devotional eco system you created around us. I am one of them :)

I was living my life like animal but to change my life came H.G. Sikshashtakam Prabhu in 2005 in my college UICT, Mumbai. From there on my life changed fully. I belongs to Udaipur, Rajasthan where in general our english is very weak so when I attended your Sunday lecture first time in 2005 I was not able to understand philosophy much but I was convinced that whatever you are saying is for ultimate benifit for me. First time ever in my life my atheistic heart started getting some emotions towards Lord Sri Krishna. After that I learned english through books of Srila Prabhupad.

After one year I got opportunity to stay at Bahndirvan BACE then in VTA. In 2010 when I shifted back to Udaipur I was already taught and nurtured under your divine guidance.

Here we tried to do some house program finally in 2012 we started Sunday program at some place with hindi Audio lecture of H.H. Bhakti Rasamrit Maharaj.

I am worthless to do any seva but during 5 years of my stay in Mumbai with devotees imparted so much conviction and knowledge in me that I could actually do some preaching. It was only by your mercy by which I could speak something. After couple of years Brahmacharis were sent by H.H. Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaj which really increased preaching. Till now we were on rented Bungalow but recently on 28th November 2021 we got new small 7000 sq feet temple for Jagannath Ji.

Merciful devotees are engaging me in service according to my capacity. A journey of 10 devotees to 200 devotees was very blissful. When I look back then I can see it was all because of training I received during BACE and VTA days that I was able to do some seva. Dear Guru Maharaj you made a whole eco system where everyone is taken care properly and connect to Krishna and serve.

Your Srimad Bhagvatam classes are my main source of inspiration and motivation on daily basis since many many years. Your classes are giving unlimited hope to this fallen conditional soul.

I admit that I am very slow learner and still miles to go before I can please you. Always aspiring for your divine shelter.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Ji for best of your health. Your life is so precious for all of us. I pray that may you get my age also. Srila Prabhupad's mission is blossoming like anything by your endeavor.

Dearest Gurumaharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada

On this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance my heart is drowning in the ocean of gratitude by remembering your causeless mercy upon me and my family.

Approximately since last 10 years by your instructions, blessings and causeless mercy being a physiotherapist I started to get ample opportunities to serve many great Vaishnavas to recuperate their physical health. GBC & Bureau members such as HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Mahraj, and many of your god brothers & God Sisters such as HG Mandakini Mataji etc. Apart from these great souls I also get an opportunity to serve Brajvasis in the Barasana dental camp conducted under the guidance of HG Muralidhar Prabhu.

HH Ramesh Babaji Maharaj, HH Pandit Ram Ji Lal Shashtriji, Sharma and family of Ras Mandir. Your beloved HG Brajahari Prabhu is guiding me how to serve these great souls. Indeed I am fortunate enough to serve him as well. He loves me like his younger brother.

Honestly speaking Gurumaharaj I am not at all qualified to serve these great personalities and get their love and care. However by your causeless mercy I have been rewarded with this divine opportunity to serve them. By your mercy I have come to know what will please you, hence I am serving these great souls just to please your Holiness and no other ulterior agenda.

Gurumahraj I am eternally grateful at your lotus feet,

Namah Om Vishnupadaya Krishna Preshthaya Bhootale

Srimate Radhanath swamin iti namine

Dear Guru maharaj,please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet on the this auspicious occasion of your appearance day.

Maharaj, a wretched conditioned soul like me doesn't have any qualification to glorify a pure devotee like you,but it is an effort Maharaj to purify myself.

Maharaj, it is stated time and again that by causeless mercy of Smt. radharani and hence of Lord Krishna a conditioned soul struck in endless loops of lefecycles sees light at the end of dark tunnel emanating from a true vaishnava like you, which kindles a glimmer of hope for the soul. Again in a dark tunnel there are numerous reasons to trip and fall down making it impossible to reach tunnel end,but for the timely light shown by selfless torch bearers like HG Mahashring Prabhuji.

Maharaj I don't have any personal experience to narrate about your direct association. But I am a fortunate witness to your enchanting kirtans and illuminating lectures during Kartik yatras since 2012. I saw you as an embodiment of Lord Chaitanya's 'trinadapi sunichena..'verse with humility and mesmerising smile on your lotus face always.

My earnest prayer to you Maharaj and ISKCON Guru parampara is to bestow mercy on me to be steadfast in devotional life to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission till my last breath by remaining an humble servant in a chain of servants.

Your insignificant Aspiring servant,

Madhukar Shanbhag

MADHUNITAI DAS (NEW DELHI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, please accept my respectful obeisances.

On this most auspicious occasion of your 71st appearance day first of all I am very thankful to you for giving us this opportunity to purify our heart.

In one of the lectures you were mentioning that in cultured society we appreciate people for what they can contribute for the mission instead of judging them. Gurudev you are an example of what you said. You are able to appreciate others for whatever they are contributing because you are focused to please srila Prabhupad.You are able to give shelter and nourishment to various kinds of devotees who have even issues among themselves.

I remember one of your quotes collective unity is more important than individual purity. Gurudev you are like salt which gives all taste to vegetable but it looses it's identity when it comes to get recognition. You are able to give shelter and nourishment to various kinds of devotees and have kept them United. When it comes to sacrifice you are at the front but it comes to take recognition you leave the arena. Examples that you have set is guiding light for us.

On this auspicious day I am begging for your causeless mercy so that I may give up looking for recognition for myself and look for satisfaction of interest of krishna and guru parampara.

I am a struggling householder, tormented by six vegas, weakly connected to parampara, kindly bless me by specs of desire that you have to selflessly serve devotees.

And the darkness spread, Your kindness your grace, Scattered light.

खुद के संबल से चल पाऊं,

आसान बने वह पथ, नामुमकिन है चलना जहां।।

I can walk on my own strength,

Where is such capability?

If you get the grace of your feet,

The path becomes easy, it is impossible to walk where.

मां की ममता, पिता का स्नेह, गुरु की कृपा, आप मेरे कर्णधार।

आपकी चरणों में समर्पित मेरा जीवन, चरण धूलि से ही मेरा उद्धार।।

Mother's love, father's affection, Guru's grace, you are my captain.

Whoever you shower your love, your compassion, may the sprout of devotion bloom in my desert like life.

जो स्वीकारो आप तो आपके चरणों में जिऊं।

Apart from 'prayers' there is nothing my life should offer you.

Whatever you accept, I will live at your feet.

अन्यथा आपकी कृपा की आस में मरुं।।

I offer my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet with deep gratitude Guru Maharaj.

Guru Maharaj as your Vyas puja day is nearing and it is when that I get this opportunity to write a few lines expressing my love for you Guru Maharaj.

I also go through various books of offerings written by your disciples throughout the globe so that I am in a proper mood of respect and humility when I come with this Offering for you Guru Maharaj. Actually Guru Maharaj, I am totally unworthy and fallen Soul with less intelligence. You are so merciful that you have accepted me as your disciple. I can always see the love and compassion that appears from within you for all. I always remember the day of Vyas puja when I had seen you for the 1st time in Mumbai 8 years back then. Guru Maharaj, On this day I offer you my respectful obeisances from the core of my heart and wish that you bestow upon me your causeless Mercy. I am sure that I will be liberated from the sufferings which I am going through due to my past Misdeeds. Guru Maharaj by reading your books and following your Instructions I always feel that you are very much near to me. You always live in the heart of sincere devotees. I may be unfit in many ways but the desire to receive your mercy is always within my mind. I cannot even imagine what would have been my fate if I would have not come in the association of devotees, Shiksha Guru and ultimately receive your mercy , love and blessings for me.

Loving you Guru Maharaj is like worshipping you. I bow down at your lotus feet and pray that I may be a worthy disciple enough to receive your Mercy always.

Bowing in gratitude and remain forever in your service,

Hare Krishna GuruMaharaj,

Thank you so much for everything you have done and still doing for me. If at all I have any value in my life it is because you have accepted me under your shelter. Your narrations of Krishna Lila and Gaura Lila made the spiritual world a reality for my conditioned mind. In times of darkness your words penetrate deep into heart and give some hope amidst dark times Mahārāj. Your quality of humility and gratitude is the epitome GuruMaharaj. Thank you Mahārāj for showing how to become servant of servant by your example. Thank you so much GuruMaharaj for showing me the value of devotional service and how to follow in the footsteps of great souls by your example, still I am trying to follow am not there yet Mahārāj. Thank you Mahārāj for holding my hands and making me walk through this beautiful path of Bhakti. Please GuruMaharaj your instructions and words should be the only driving force in my life.

Thank you GuruMaharaj..

Happy Krishna conscious birthday GuruMaharaj

MADRI DASI (VASHI MUMBAI INDIAN)

Hare Krishna,

Dear Gurudev,

Please our respectful obeisances...

All glories to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji, Sri Sri Nitai Gaur Chandra, Sri Gopal ji!!!!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

All glories to our Vartman Acharya's...

All glories to You Maharaj!!!

Wishing you a very happiest appearance day Guru Maharaj and we pray that you have many, many more to come...

The most awaited time of the year is here and that's your appearance day.... personally my favorite festival.... although I don't know how glorify great saintly, sadhu like you...I can not miss this opportunity to express my gratitude to you for the countless things you have done for us...that it's difficult to list it down... however I will make an insignificant effort to say something....

For me all the scriptures come alive with your every actions, we have been highly inspired and nourished by your nectarine lectures everytime I hear you...I find endless hope, much needed strength, determination to work in right direction, desire to co-operate, aspiration to serve the way you want..and much more through whatever you speak...when I feel low I immediately pray to you and play a lecture by you... and you just speak what is needed to uplift my mood and help me recommit myself... thank you for taking so much pain to give us the treasure of Krishna consciousness through your wonderful lectures... Maharaj your one lecture is enough for us to meditate and by working on your teachings based in that one class if we try our best we are sure we would perfect our lives...and I beg unto you to bless us that we can hear your classes attentively and live by your teachings...Maharaj the best thing about you is whatever you speak is never difficult to understand because we have seen it practically in your actions...you speak about being servant of servant of the servant... but then we see you exhibit it to the fullest with anyone and everyone you interact be it your seniors, your friends, disciples, little children or even unknown people...the way you offer respect to everyone and humbly serve...is something I have never seen anyone do...even during this lockdown period.... my love, respect and admiration for you has grown many times...just to see how humbly you submitted to the advice given by your medical team and your God brothers regarding the vaccine...by your own example you have shown us how Krishna consciousness can be so blissfully practiced even when we are locked down in our homes...you at this age have so gracefully, blissfully and single handedly managed everything be it cooking, cleaning, laundry, being available through zoom, writing books, praying for so many devotees who are suffering and much more...you have been extra cautious and taken all precautions...and taught us by your example how one needs to care for our body... because like you say it's gift from Krishna and our body belongs to Guru Maharaj and Srila Prabhupada...hearing all this is so heart touching but seeing how you have conducted yourself by living these teachings is something so amazing.... Thank you Maharaj!!! Thank you for teaching us such profound lessons through your loud actions...today on this most auspicious day I pray for your good health and a long life...so that many more suffering souls get your mercy and thereby get the opportunity to render devotional service...I also pray that by your blessings I can make some effort to live by your teachings. and please you in some small...and never be the best cause of your pain...

Seeking your blessings for everyone here...I specially seek your blessings for our daughter Jahnava so that she also can serve the way it pleases you....

Thank you for everything Maharaj!!!!!

We love you and we are longing to see you here in Mumbai...will gratefully wait till the time is perfect for you to travel...

Your unworthy daughter,

Madri dasi.

Our Gurudev is a loving father who,

With his actions he leads,

Bounding us together with love he pleads,

When in difficulty without we saying a word our minds he reads,

Taking all the pain in clearing our path very carefully removing all the weeds,

He is the perfect farmer sowing in everyone's heart the bhatki lata beej, yes this special seed..

We are supremely blessed as he has so mercifully arranged for our every need...

Through his every lecture our soul he does feed...

Ever smiling and greeting everyone with folded hands holding his beads...

Praying to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji that we always express our love for our dear Gurudev by living through his teachings and our kind deeds...

MAHABHAVI DAS (OSLO, BERGEN, NORWAY)

Dear Radhanath Swami

Please accept my humble obeisance's. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Your Divine Grace are decorated with so many of the divine qualities mentioned in the Gita.

You are very steadily determined in the practice of Krishna Consciousness and are inspiring us all to take our spiritual practice seriously. Your determination is also backed up by great enthusiasm, and this enthusiasm is spreading such happiness and joy to everyone who listen to you speak about Krishna and His devotees. And seeing your humility and respectful dealings with others we all become very attracted to you. Your humility and gentle dealings bring us out of impersonalism and firmly attracts us to Krishna and Your lotus feet. The association of a pure devotee is the only hope for a salvationist to become attracted to serving Krishna. We beg that our heart will always be filled with attraction to serving Your lotus feet.

Thank you for the wonderful association of my senior godbrothers, for their inspiration and for their sheltering relationships. I pray to always be in their association in a humble, grateful, happy, and serving mood. That is the joy of life.

Thank you for your compassionate prayers.

I wish you a very happy day on your auspicious appearance day.

With a great hope and prayer of becoming a sincere, humble servant of your servants

ALL GLORIES TO SRILA PRABHUPAD AND GURU SISHYA PARAMPARA

Dear Gurudev,

Gurudev, your humility is so very inspiring. Your lectures are always like a sun which helps to remove the shadow of the clouds which keeps croaking in my mind in regards to Krishna counciousness. Your lecture are a source of motivation and strength which helps us to maintain our enthusiasm in krsna counciousness.

Dear Gurudev gratitude is one quality which you always emphasize on. I pray that you shower your mercy on me so that I can also try and be grateful to one and all who have in some way or the other helped me in coming to krsna counciousness.

Gurudev, we are sorely missing your association in this last 2 years specially during the kartik yatra which were a luxury for us since this were few days we could get your personal association and relish pure nectar in the form of Krishna katha.

GURUDEV on this auspicious day of your appreance I pray at YOUR LOTUS FEET for your mercy so that I can try and serve all the VAISHNAVS in any insignificant way I can because I know that you will be most pleased when we serve others without any selfish motive as the servant of servant . MAHALINGAM IYER (GACHIBOWLI, HYDERABAD)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances onto your lotus feet.

I am very grateful to you.

It's because of you today I am able to live a life on the right path.

In S.B 3.15.24 Srila Prabhupada mentions

"It is said that the human form is a great boon because it is the most suitable boat for crossing over the nescience ocean. The spiritual master is considered to be the most able captain in that boat, and the information from the scriptures is the favorable wind for floating over the ocean of nescience."

I was terribly suffering in this material world trying hard to get material enjoyment but getting frustrated. I myself wanted to give up this life and travel to the Himalayas to find what is life?

By your causeless mercy you sent your disciple HG Sakshi Achyuta Prabhuji whom I met on the train.

After his recommendation when I read The Journey Home I was completely convinced that Krishna Consciousness is the Right way and the only way.

And you became the captain of my boat.

I sincerely strive to follow your instructions but I do not have strength myself but I am confident because of you being the captain of my life I can sail the boat over this and one day be eternally engaged in service of Guru and Krishna.

Please bless me so that I should be able to follow the instructions at any cross section of my life.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj.

MAHAPRABHU CAITANYA DAS (HYDERABAD, INDIA)

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaj,

please accept humble my humble obeisance.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear guru Maharaj You are ocean unlimited Vaishnava Qualities.

One of that is sensitivity to others. i remember reading to one of HG Vraj Chandra prs memories about you. How once you corrected him and then u could not sleep peacefully because you were thinking you have hurt somebody. Because your heart is so soft that it can not tolerate giving little bit of discomfort also to anybody.

i was hearing from HH Indradyumna Swami Maharaj, He was telling that many times you used to tell him, i dealt with this particular dev like this, but i should have dealt like that.

Another incidence of eating very spicy khichadi in Bihar during your quest for searching the true path. did not want to upset the host so u took whatever was served.

Another incidence when the 8 devotees met with fatal plane crash, u canceled ur other programs in USA and came to Mumbai to be with community and specially to be with the families of departed devotees to give them support and spiritual strength.

Another incidence when there was need in Hyderabad for somebody to take leadership on your behalf, u could have directly ordered HG Radheshyam pr to go and do it. But you took aside, spoke to him, understood his heart and then requested if he can take up this service.

Guru Maharaj i also want to develop this quality and become sensitive to devotees, understand them and behave accordingly. i very poor and blunt in my behavior. please forgive me and empower me, to become your good representative.

Thank you very much Maharaj for accepting me as your disciple. but i have Long way to go to be actually called as your disciple... As a disciple i should follow your all instructions, but i am failing in first and foremost instruction only - Try to chant as attentively as possible.

i am dutifully completing my 16 rounds but many times hardly there is ay attention.

Dear Guru Maharaj on this your 71st Vyasa Puja day i would like promise you that i will try my Best to chant all my 16 rounds as attentive as i can. Pls bless that i will be able to do it.

Also Guru Maharaj Thank you much for giving me your dear Disciple HG Radheshyam pr as my superior. very satisfied and protected serving under him. and thank you very much for Giving me wonderful friend HG Vaishnav Sharan pr, to whom i can reveal my heart without any reservations...

Please forgive me for my unlimited offenses, i beg to remain always at your Lotus feet and follow your instructions...

Hare Krishna Gurudev,

This pandemic has completely crushed me, I have experienced humiliation, job lay off and lot more in the last year and a half. If we were not in Krana Consciousness we would have by now collapsed for sure. MAHARAAS DEVI DASI (PUNE, INDIA)

My Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances at your divine and merciful lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you!

You are so dear to Lord Krishna (tatradi dakshyad ati vallabhasya) that Lord Krishna has become captive in your heart and it's your choice to whom you want to give Him. You are so eager to give Him to everyone. (Krishna se tomaro Krishna dite paro tomara shakati aache). If one sincerely and lovingly tries to serve you, by that insignificant attempt Krishna is so pleased that in an amazingly short time Lord Krishna bestows unlimited and higher taste that aspiring devotee. Otherwise to achieve that may have taken many life times. Therefore one of the statements from Srimad Bhagavatam that we realize is that the spiritual master is in merciful incarnation of Supreme Lord. You have proved to be a desire tree by serving whom one's all desires are fulfilled in a short time. (Yasya prasadad bhagvat prasado)

You are living Bhagvata. Your divine activities, behaviours and loving dealings bring Srimad bhagvatam live for us. We are eternally indebted to you for taking so many pains and untiring endeavours to uplift all of us. By your efforts even fallen person like me can realize some important statements of scripture in my life. You are giving us both gyan and Vigyan. You are thus bringing the best out of each one of us. One statement which I have begun to appreciate is that given in SB 11.29.6 it is mentioned that even if one is endowed with prolonged life time of Brahma or if one renders devotional service for a total duration of one thousand universal creations an aspiring devotee cannot repay the debt he or she feels for having been awarded loving service to Lord's lotus feet.

Aspiring to be servant of your servants

You have brought great hope, love and healing everywhere you have gone and touched hearts all around the globe. Your message has reached and transformed millions through the social media platforms as well. Everyone who has heard you or had the good fortune to meet you can never forget you and cannot stop speaking about you. Maharaj it is only by the presence of such great souls and saints as you that this world is at all bearable now and it is only due to your presence in this world that our hearts can go on in hope and faith and prayer following your example in your service to Srila Prabhupada. Regardless of how deep this darkness has become, you are a bright effulgent light showing us the way. MANAS KUMAR (INDIAN)

Hare Krishna Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeiscances !!

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada !!

I am a dumb and deaf fanatically egoist follower, then I started hearing your book “The journey home” as lullaby stories, and everyday excitement used to increase.

At first it seemed me a normal adventurous story but as I kept on hearing, I started understanding the deeper meaning of that. One of the story which settled really deep into my hear was when you were about to drown in river Ganges in Allahabad.

It was an event when you got stuck inside loose marshy sand, which was swallowing you continuously. This situation very much relates with the incidence of Gajendra, like Gajendra you were also in foreign place and there was literally only one hope in form of thorny bush which was hurting your hand continuously. At the very moment you surrendered yourself to mother Ganges remembering that this is the same Mother Ganges in whose lap in Hrishikesh you first heard “Hare Krishna” like Gajendra offered lotus to Lord Narayana after lot of struggle with the crocodile Huhu. All of a sudden a boatmen came and advised you flow in the direction of the current, which finally took to a safe place like Lord Narayana gave Gajendra his Swarupya mukti.

Then after reaching at the other shore you remembered your bag of clothes which were your only belongings in India, this instance is very much similar to the instance of Srila Sanatana Goswami in Varanasi, when he was having a good shawl as the only belonging. As Srila Sanatana Goswami exchanged his wonderful shawl with a torn one. Similarly, you also rejected your belongings by thinking “ Just before some time I was struggling to save my life but now I am getting anxious for my lost belongings”.

By hearing your pass-time it really invokes a sense of detachment in my mind, like what is the worth of the belongings of whole world if there is no love in my heart, on the contrary what is that I will ever miss if I ever get an iota of love like you from you. By doing this prayer I would like to offer myself unto your lotus feet.

My dear Maharaj, please accept me, I have literally no hope in this world without your mercy.

MANJARI GOPIKA DEVI DASI (CALIFORNIA, USA)

Dearest Guru Maharaj

Please accept our most respectful obeisances million times at the dust of Your divine lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupad! All glories to Your divine grace!

Wishing You a very very happy 71st birthday Guru Maharaj!

Last year in the middle of the pandemic with an overwhelming year, what kept us going, is only Your vani through Journey Home, Journey Within and listening to Your lectures. The best thing that happened in this pandemic is reading Your books with a group of devotees which helped us to understand how far we are from our goal. Thank you Maharaj for writing these books and the audiobook and allowing us to hear Your reflections about Your journey.

Hearing the lecture during Srila Prabhupada disappearance day in 2020 where You mentioned, what will please Prabhupada is when we practice and then preach to others, this reminded us of last year’s yatra. When the last days were approaching to leave Vrindavan we were thinking why do we have to travel back to the west and not stay in dham. Then on the last day’s lecture You mentioned whatever we have received in the last couple of days we go back and give. We give Vrindavan to others. Hearing from You, Guru Maharaj, cuts all the ignorance and there is a feeling of relief and freedom from all anxieties.

Guru Maharaj, when will we be able to surrender to You, when will we become like how You want us to be - “million times Servant of Servant of the Servant” ? Our only hope is Your mercy and grace !!

My Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept this insignificant soul humble obeisance's at your lotus feet.

First up all I am very grateful for getting the opportunity to write an offering to you. I never expected I will get the chance to write an offering to you. This is giving me an opportunity to talk with you what is there in my heart. I am feeling so happy to share this with you maharaj.

Maharaj I don't what to speak about your self maharaja. I wanted to tell you one thing how I have developed relationship with you. When in my beginning days of KC, my mentor mathaji has given me one book that is "Journey from Home", while giving that book mathaji told read this book it is very nice. That was my book I have read after starting KC journey. I have started reading that book, in starting I have not understand that book but when I came to middle of the book then I have started to understand, from that book got to know about you maharaj, how much you are yarning for the self-realization and for supreme truth. In that journey you have met many people, sadhus, devotees of other god's but you have learned many lessons from them but still your heart is not convinced for what you are searching for absolute truth, still you are continuing your journey. In India you have suffered a lot, but you didn't give up your search of supreme. How you got know about wholly name from Ganga mata (I think that was your first initiation before you are taking from Srila Prabhupad). What I have inspired from this book is that you never give up until unless you met Srila Prabhupada and you got convinced that you are search for absolute truth. When I heard about you from your disciples and from your lectures felt that you are the personification of humbleness and it is exactly depicting you third verse from sikastakam (trinadapi sunichena tarorapi sahisnuna, amanina manadena kirthaneya sadahari). You will give very much value to the relationships and sharing your love and compassion to the conditioned souls. These are the best jewels for a vaisnava. You are my inspiration maharaj when ever I am not making good relation ship with others and devotees immediately I will rember you maharaj. Whenever I rembered you my heart felt so rejoice Maharaj. In my heart I have accepted you as my Spiritual master and my wish and dream also to take initiation from you Maharaj, but I don't know whether it can happen or not. If you show your mercy on this insignificant soul I will be the most fortunate person maharaj. My heart is always anchoring to hear more and more about you maharaj.

You and your desciple Amal Mahaprabhu Prabhu are the best inspirer for me maharaj to practice bhakthi sincerely, enthusiastically and with patiently when I am falling from my standards. By devotees mercy I got the service opportunity of transcription of your lectures.

Please forgive me Maharaj if any mistakes I have spoken in this, because I am poor in communicating my heart.

Thank you so much Maharaj for giving me this opportunity

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance at the dust of the lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!! I wish you a very happy birthday. On this auspicious occasion, I pray to the divine couple Shri Shri Radha Golokananda to bless you with good health and long life. I am eternally grateful and indebted to you for accepting me as a disciple, providing me with shelter, and connecting me with Srila Prabhupada and the esteemed Brahma-Madhava-Gaudia Guru Parampara.

You have influenced my life by your sweet and nectarean lectures on Lord Krishna and Lord Gaura's pastimes and as well as His multifarious incarnations. Your descriptions were so deep and vivid that they transport us to transcendental time and space as if they are happening right in front of our eyes. Your melodious kirtans exemplify a truly appreciative and absorptive heart, and they are very dear to me. As a personal example of the "trinad api sunichena" principle given by Gauranga Mahaprabhu, you demonstrate the importance of humility and service as the foundation of our spiritual progress. I still remember the time I received a call from you before our initiation, where you said our names and humbly mentioned "please accept my obeisances, I am very grateful to serve you". I was overwhelmed with an appreciation of your kind and humble behavior. Whenever I read your books, “the journey home” and “the journey within,” I am left with a lasting impression. They delve into deeper aspects of life and give a profound spiritual message with very easy-to-understand examples and stories.

Srila Prabhupada writes in a purport- “However, by staunch faith in the spiritual master and the Supreme Personality of Godhead, one not only controls the senses but also realizes the Supreme Lord.

yasya deve parā bhaktir

yathā deve tathā gurau

tasyaite kathitā hy arthāḥ

prakāśante mahātmanaḥ

“Only unto those great souls who have implicit faith in both the Lord and the spiritual master are all the imports of the Vedic knowledge automatically revealed.” (Śvetāśvatara Upaniṣad 6.23)”. This verse reflects your life and your dedication to Srila Prabhupada, your Gurudeva.

I have a yearning to serve you personally and be a part of your Kartik yatras if Krishna so desires. Please bless me so that I can imbibe some of your qualities and humble mood into my life, follow your instructions, grow spiritually, and serve Srila Prabhupada’s mission to the best of my ability.

Seeking your kind blessings.

All glories to HDG Srila Prabhupada and HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj. Thankyou so much Maharajji for being so compassionate upon college students. I am the product of college preaching caught by HG Jagannathyatra pr serving under the direction of HG Swayam Bhagwan pr. If these two souls were not there at Sangamner then I couldn’t imagine my ultimate destination of such big suffering life of endless births and deaths. This all made possible just by your divine and compassionate instructions to my these siksha gurus. In this modern age of so much technology and machines, hypocrisy and selfishness, you have given compassion upon suffering souls like me. Thankyou so much Maharajji. Though I was not at all qualified to become servant of your servant but just by your compassionate intention, we at the college days only did got the pure, authentic way of living meaning ful life and I can not repay for what I have got. My only and last desire would be to always serve you and your servants under the directions given by Srila Prabhupada. My mother is so much thankful for getting Krishna consciousness. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Thank you for coming in our lives with the mercy of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you for encouraging through countless lectures, Kartik yatras, Pune yatras, Counselor system, Bhaktivedanta Hospital & Hospices, GEV Eco Village, Gopal’s Garden and so on.

Thank you for very lively preaching by your own examples how you eagerly read Srila Prabhupada’s Krsna book as you came to India.

You taught us what enthusiasm & determination are, by reading Sri Caitanya Caritamrita intensely while your devotional schedule was intense in New Vrindavan.

Thank you for being a live example of a loving godbrother to Srila Prabhupada’s disciples. The heart gets completely satisfied to see the wonderful relationship & dealings you have with your godbrothers & godsisters.

Thank you for the mesmerizing storytelling during the lectures as you speak on Krishna lila, Gaur lila, or any other Incarnation of Krishna..... feel like being transported to the lila as we hear the classes.

Thank you for writing The Journey Home and The Journey Within. I've only read the first one. Please bless me with strong determination to read the second one.

Foolishly I've committed so many mistakes & offenses that I don't even realize many of them. Kindly forgive me for all offenses, and bless me that I can practice & follow pure devotional service. Bless me with good chanting, reading & hearing so that I can serve purely.

Thank you so much for giving such wonderful association of devotees & rich culture of Krishna Consciousness.

MAYAPURI DEVI DASI (NASHIK,INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj, please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

I am reading transcriptions of your lectures. In one of your lecture, you said " I remember when i was Pujari, very happy doing deity worship day and night." But Srila Prabhupada is so eager for us to preach. So You sincerely prayed to Deities- "I want to please my Guru and he is interested in preaching but i have very little education but i also want to please him.

You said, I went to only one semester of junior college and here i was in Universities speaking to Phd candidates, Professors and they would be sitting in rapt attention challenging and being defeated and i was thinking what is happening? Who is doing it? I am fool, i dont know much. Prabhupad gave me urgency to surrender to Krishna. If we are convinced of the urgency to take Srila Prabhupad's message to heart, he will surely empower us to do incredible things. Srila Prabhupada can get anything done through any of us."

Guru Maharaj, i am also poor in knowledge of Devotion. You gave me sense of urgency to surrender to Krishna and follow the instructions of Guru Maharaj.

Despite of my material and economical issues, now i am living near Sri Sri Radha Madangopalji temple in Nasik, doing my devotional services. This itself is like miracle and this was possible only because i have taken your shelter from past 18 years. All glories to you Gurudev. Thank you again and again.

Yours faithfully

By reading the book "The Journey Home", it is known that how much grace is on you from God, who has kept you spiritually blessed since childhood. If you weren't there, what would I be doing today? Life had no goal.

In New Vrindavan you worked day-night at the age of near about 23-24 without thinking of your health, just to please Prabhupada, just to please Lord Krishna!

The day should come we will take little bit of service attitude that you have.

Respected Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet.

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

On your 71st divine appearance day, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for everything I have received by your blessings and your mercy. By continuing to your vani seva, listening to enlivening Nectarian kathas, I indeed feel your presence, as if doing vapu sewa. As a conditioned soul, whose piles and piles of karmic reactions have been accumulated over so many lifetimes, just by your mercy and shelter, these are shattered and bondages of the conditioning have been culminated. As said by you, mercy means to receive and get what we don't deserve, I can say this very profoundly that what ever I have received is only and only by your mercy, Maharaj.

Your loving affection towards each and every living being and seeing them as connected to the lord, forever reminds me of my eternal relationship and in-turn guides me to have compassion towards them. My only prayers unto your lotus feet to utilize the fullest of energy, enthusiasm and forever service to please you and Srila Prabhupad.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

It was Aug 2004 when we visited chowpatty temple amongst the group of boys from pune. And that was the first time had your darshan and got to hear from you.

It awakened a taste and eagerness for hearing chanting and devotees association. Thereafter on March 2010 you showed as ultimate mercy and inspite of unlimited deficiencies and short comings you accepted to allow me to enter and become part of spiritual heritage which I was never qualified.

Dear Gurumaharaj I will never be able to repay the cause less mercy you have shown. Please bless us to remain an eternal servant unto your lotus feet and the devotees.

On this most auspicious occasion my only prayer to you , please bless me that I can remember your instructions and strength to follow them. Hare Krishna

Dearest Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaj two years of life have slipped by during this covid pandemic and physically none of us had the fortune of meeting yourself in person, but still each one of us can feel your abundant compassion and mercy on all of us. Personally this is a very humbling experience for me… for I feel very underserving of your mercy and kindness and trying to search my heart and with sincere prayers on how best can we reciprocate with a farthing of your love and kindness. Still searching and hopefully Krsna will answer our broken prayers one day.

Your deep and heart touching classes reveal to us connections that we have never realised and experienced…. and possibly would have never realised too but for the pouring of such realisations from your heart.

It is not just your classes Maharaj but many a times, even though with severe past material conditionings, your ideal precept and example literally force us to reconsider our actions filled with ego & pride, and behooves us to act in accordance with harmony and co-operation with one and all.

Last 2 years we witnessed the departure of many great associates and souls… and you have showered your respects, love and mercy to all.

Among these personalities a small humble personal like my father too was very fortunate to receive your kind grace and mercy during his final moments. It was an inner cherished dream of his to be initiated by yourself but he never voiced it as he never considered himself worthy of it. Eternally grateful to you Maharaj for your kindness on him during his last moment.

As years slip by and time flies, criticality of understanding the true import of your instructions and serving you without any reservations and fully as per your desire gains more and more prominence. Hopefully to qualify for that one day.

Aspiring to be an insignificant servant of your servant,

MURARIPRIYA D.D. (INDIA.)

Dear Gurudev ,please accept my humble obesiances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Gurudev,recently I was hearing your dear most God brother H.H Bhakti Caru Maharaj’s class given in Vrindavana on 18th October 2018.

He was telling in that class while singing Gopi geet why H.H. always begins with ""Tava Kathamrutam ...bhuvhi grannanti ye bu-rida jana.

After singing this verse first then he used to sing the earlier verses.H.H revealed the reason,- says that in this verse Gopies are forecasting Srila Prabhupada appearance and his special position. Especially those last lines bhuvhi grannati ye bhuurida jana where gopies are indicating Srila Prabhupada appearance. That's why H.H.always used to sing Tava Kathamrutam first.

Bhuurida jana the most munificient one.

H.H also quoting another incident from Shri Caitanya Leela ,where King Prataprudra comes to meet Caitanya Maha Prabhu and Mahaprabhu rejects the idea.During ratha yatra pastimes Caitanya Mahaprabhu was resting in adjacent garden when chariot stopped in Balgundi. At that time king Prataprudra came disguised as an ordinary person and started massaging Caitanya Mahaprabhus lotus feet,started to sing verses from gopigeet ,but when it came to

9th verse,Tava Kathamrutam.....bhuvhi grannati

Ye bhuurida jana when king Prataprudra chanted this line Caitanya Mahaprabhu jumped up and embraced king Prataprudra and started exclaiming bhuurida,bhuurida! H.H. Bhakti caru swami telling that here also we can see Caitanya Mahaprabhu forecasting that there will be a personality who will do that bhuvhi grannati. He is the most munificient. The most munificient Caitanya Mahaprabhu also saying appearance of Srila Prabupada , the most munificient who will spread Krishna Consciousness all over the world.

Yes Gurudev, Srila prabhupad the most munificient one. who gave Radha Krishna to the entire world ,gave Vrindavana to the entire world. After the departure of Srila Prabhupada his Crest jewel disciples like you carrying forward that great humanitarian welfare work on their shoulders with same kind of enthusiasm compassion and spirit. To please

Srila Prabhupada you are relentlessly striving to give Krishna Consciousness to each and every strata of human society.

Creating Counsellor system,opening Bhakti Vedanta hospital ,Gopal's garden school, GEV these are all your plans to bring more and more people closer to Krishna and engage them in the service of their Lordship. Thus you are facilitating them realise their eternal constitutional position. And you're doing all this in the mood of an insignificant servant. Gurudev,

You are preaching by your actions. Always humble,eyes full of compassion,a heart full of love,and gratitude,always there to help devotees in their hours of need. Even though you are far away in Chicago you are there with the devotees who are leaving their bodies from far away places.These fortunate souls can see you and hear you and can leave their body with heart full

Of content.

Gurudev, the classes that you gave during the lockdown time they are our real shelter.

In one of your such classes you told that " just imagine the situation of Devaki and Vasudev, they are bound by shackles,even unable to move their hands and legs these words of yours are real stress bursters. This is what bhuurida jana. Illumunating the entire world with the words of wisdom during the hours of need.

In your Journey Home book Frank and Jim tried to help you ,they lost everything and your friend Gary asks you "hey monk do you think we're bad luck""? Your answer is "I don't know

Gary, maybe there is a reason for all this,yes

I believe there must be a beautiful plan behind it all." So same strong belief of yours continued till now and even during the lockdown, you are telling there is a beautiful plan behind this pandemic. These verse of yours really pacify me whenever there is a heart breaking incidents, i hold on to that beautiful statement that there is a beautiful plan behind this pandemic. Though dull headed me may not realise this. I have strong faith in your words because I can see in that staunch faith, you continued your journey and ultimately you met your Gurudev Srila Prabhupada who can bring you closer to your most cherished goal of life.

Gurudev this most auspicious day is chosen by Krishna to send you down to this material world to reclaim the most fallen souls like me and engage us in the service of their Lordship. On this day I am thanking Radhakrishna and whole parampara system who gave me you as a Spiritual Master and my only prayer is that let me serve your lotus feet and please you life after life and also imbibe those qualities which you always insist on ' be simple, sincere and no ulterior motives' and serve you eternally in the mood of servant of servant of servant.

MURLDHARA PRIYA DAS (LONDON, ENGLAND)

Dear Srila Gurudeva

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories at your lotus feet

Writing any homage at your lotus feet opens up an ocean of qualities and I find myself at a loss. What do I choose to speak on? Such is the greatness of a perfect disciple of a perfect master!

This year I pick your sense of compassion and care for the devotees and all living entities.

There are so many examples of how you have fully imbibed the mood of service to the Vaisnava's as Srila Prabhupada had exemplified himself.

At the Radha Gopinath Mandir, I heard many years ago how it was your desire that a very important aspect of the bramacari asram was to have a seva stan room where devotees can enter a dedicated nursing area for any illness they may encounter. This shows how much you cared for the bodies of the bramacaris who were dedicating their lives in service to Srila Prabhupada. That they are fully taken care off if they need any medical attention.

The councillor system at Radha Gopinath mandir was also inspired, motivated and pushed into manifestation by your desire. You wanted that all devotee that come to the temple are taken care off by those that are more experienced in both their devotional life and the practicalities in the material world. You wanted devotees to be given sufficient guidance so that they could navigate correctly under the guidance of senior devotees so that they could continue and grown in their spiritual life. This has evidently been a crucial and foundational aspect of the temple and subsequently been emulated in various other projects and temples around the world.

I recently heard how once HG Radha Vallab prabhu had burnt his foot whilst cooking. When it came to your attention, you visited Radha Vallab prabhu and personally massaged his foot with your own hands leaving Rahda Vallab prabhu stunned, speechless and with tears in his eyes. You instructed the devotees how to take care of the wound, how best to nurse it and to take good care of it. This story perfectly exemplifies your mood of the being the servant of the servant of Srila Prabhupadas followers.

When HH Bhakti Tirtha Swami was winding up his pastime in this mortal world, you were there to have your final dharshan of Maharaj in this world. What started off to be a visit, transformed to be a perfect example of how to care for a devotee at their last stages. Despite multiple pressures from various services both locally and worldwide, you fixed your presence besides Maharaj until the moment Maharaj left to meet Srila Prabhupada and Krsna. This was truly something for us all to marvel at and follow suit. How to be there for each other, remind each other of Krsna and provide the full care required to make the final passing.

When HG Sruti Dharma prabhu was diagnosed with cancer, you would visit prabhu at every opportunity when you travelled around the world to give your association and thank him for the services he had done over so many decades. You had such love for prabhu and showed us how to appreciate a devotee who had dedicated their life in the service of Srila Prabhupada.

I have seen while you are in the UK, how after every program there is an endless queue of devotees waiting to take dharshan of you, and you would patiently listen to and inspire all the devotees until it is beyond any reasonable time to return to your place of resting and sacrifice your sleep to serve the devotees in this way.

Often times, I have seen how you would be running to the check in point at the airport, simply because you gave more time than you had to a devotee who needed it for their spiritual life. Your love for the devotees engulfs all practicalities in life.

You have truly shown us how to care for and serve the assembly of devotees in whatever capacity they are in. You don't see the organisational position but a soul that is under the guidance of Srila Prabhupada and surrendering to Krsna. Let us always remember the example you have shown us and follow in your lotus footsteps.

Dear RadhaNath Swami Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances.My few Words can rarely touch the reality of your existence, but at least by trying to glorify you i can hope for a drop of your mercy and inspiration in reciprocation.

You are extremely Practical. You always talk about what you do and live. you are fully absorbed in Krishna. In your lecture, when you describe past times. you absorbed so much in the narration that it felt real. You make devotees immerse in the Lila and make presence to everyone in the Lila.

I pray to you, my spiritual father, that I may be able to follow your instruction and live a simple life. Please bless me that I may never forget you.

My dearest Gurudev,

Please accept my most humble and grateful obeisances at your lotus feet.

I feel so blessed, sheltered and immensely thankful for having such a pure, compassionate and loving spiritual master like you. I have had no good qualities or inclination for spiritual life. It is only the unconditional love, time and kindness that you have showered on me and my family that I have developed some taste for Bhakti. For this I remain ever-indebted to you, dear Gurudev.

In physical separation from you, I feel even more love and gratitude towards you and wish to serve you not only in this life but in all my lifetimes.

NAMGOVIND DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Maharaj please accept my humble obessiance.

All grories to Srila Prabhupada....!

Maharaj as you say Gratitude is a divine virtue and it leads to developing other saintly qualities. Bhakti grows like a seed in the field of our heart. By balancing our life style we protect that seed and we water it with our spiritual practises like chanting God's names, reading scriptures, and rendering service to God and his devotees. But gratitude is what makes the seed to have deeper roots and very strong. so rhat grateful heart is essential.

our hearts more fertile and allowing other virtues like sincerity and honesty to develop.

All the dualities of life successes or failures, honour or dishonour, happiness or distress, health or disease, victory or defeat, heat or cold, pleasure or pain are all opportunities to learn something, to become better and grow. Therefore, to seek the essence means to look for the hand of God in every situation.

This is the spiritual definition of success or key of success in the path of Bhakti. we all seen you have come to know throug the book "The Journey Home"

Thank you Maharaj for everything for me .

your servant Namgovind Das.

NANDA DULAL DAS (CHOWPATTY)

Dandavat Pranams

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Dear Guru Maharaja,

It is enlightening and inspiring to witness how through all the decisions taken by yourself, your priority always has been of devotee care. Whether it is turning a garbage dumping area into a beautiful attractive garden or it is having a dedicated guest reception team always present in temple hall. Whether it is an extensive project like Vrindavan forest at Govardhan Eco-Village which is for sparking memories of Sri Vrindavan Dham or a logistically small project like having a top class sound system in temple hall at Sri Sri Radha Gopinath's home at Chowpatty. Whether it is to arrange for tasty & nutritious prasadam for brahmacaries or allowing senior brahmacaries certain relaxations about morning program.

Every single management decision taken by your holiness which addresses any particular challenging situation has a component of devotee care in it without fail. Sometimes we - your disciples - get to hear about it or see it clearly and sometimes we get to understand after some time.

This willful & conscious emphasis on taking care of devotees reflects the deep respect you have in your heart for vaisnavas of all kinds - junior, senior, exalted. Number of years spent in Krishna consciousness does not matter. What matter is that someone has faith in Srila Prabhupada's process.

To someone who believes that devotee care is at the cost of projects and getting things accomplished, your projects and your own example is a strong reply that this is simply not true. You continue to prove time and again that devotees are our assets and unless we focus on our devotees, every other management is temporary and unsustainable.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath that I might also imbibe this principle of care for devotees in my own infertile heart and make my heart always work hard for showering meaningful and genuine affection for vaisnavas around in every possible way - affection, words, gestures, plans, projects etc. In this way, I hope to serve you in a mood that is favorable & pleasing to you.

aspiring to serve you,

Things have been going really tough and your selfless time and love that you gave personally is what is carrying me forward in these difficult times. I keep cherishing those sweet memories and it nourishes me spiritually. Thankyou so much Gurudeva.

Hare Krishna Maharaj, Dandavat, pranam. Please accept my humble obeiances. All glories to Srila Prabhupad. Wishing you a very happy 71st Vyas Puja day Maharaj. I'm very grateful for all you have taught me. I would like to thank you for your association, lectures and seva opportunity you have given me. Really miss your association coz we have not had Kartik yatra in last few years. Hopeful that it will resume soon. Very grateful for the transcription seva opportunity given because otherwise it would have been very difficult to render any service to you considering so many more qualified n exalted devotees always waiting to serve you. I recall a scene from Vrindavan where we were waiting in the sun in a temple for your arrival and subsequent lecture. It was very hot. To all our surprise, as soon as u arrived, along with the sun, can a large cloud which totally provided you with shade. This incident in forever etched in my mind. I'm also grateful to have HG Radhapati prabhuji and HG Lalita Priya mataji as my councilors. I could not have asked for a better spiritual family.. NARADA RISHI DAS (SINGAPORE)

Dear Guru Maharaj ,

Please accept my humble obeisance

Please accept my sincere and heart felt gratitude for giving me initiation.

I have been trying and struggling to keep the vow taken on Initiation day.

By HH blessing and able to perform devotional service and Sadhana in association of Sri Arsakesri Sivan Temple devotees in Singapore.

We have small congregation of 30 families who meet every Saturday in Arsakesri Sivan Temple.

It has been difficult and challenging to continue devotional service during COVID Pandemic but still by your mercy distributed and offered 3000 Ghee Lamp to Bhagvan Sri Damodar during whole Karthik month in 2021 , We organized ever day ghee lamp and Prsadam distribution in Sri Arsakesri Sivan Temple in Singapore during Kartik month.

On this auspicious day of Vyasa Puja humbly request your blessing and mercy to continue Sadhana and Seva and Pray to lotus feet of Sri Radha Gopinath for your good health.

Your menial servant

Narada Rishi Das

NARAYAN (NANDED, INDIA)

Hare Krishna,

I offer my respectful obeisance's unto the divine lotus feet of His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj.

On this auspicious appearance day of our beloved Gurudeva I would like to take opportunity to glorify him.

Maharaj has so many qualities I would like to highlight on Maharaj's Care & Compassion, Preaching through example.

According to Narada Muni in Narada Bhakti sutra:-

tad-dinam durdinam manye meghachhanam na durdinam, yad-dinam krsna samlapa

katha piyusa varjitam

[A cloudy day is not inauspicious, but a day devoid of discussing krsna-Katha is actually inauspicious.]

Earlier there used to be two times Prasadam in Chowpatty, when maharaj noticed this he said why don't we have the Prasadam three times so that devotees can come together to honor it and discuss Krsna-Katha so this is the care which maharaj has about devotees, he gives so much of importance for glorification of the Lord in the association.

We all know when HH Bhakti Teertha Swami Maharaj was in his last days Maharaj used to sit and have hours and hours of krsna Katha with him, here maharaj very beautifully teaching us that how one should take pleasure in discussing Krishna Katha as explained in SB :-

parasparānukathanaṁ

pāvanaṁ bhagavad-yaśaḥ

mitho ratir mithas tuṣṭir

nivṛttir mitha ātmanaḥ

[SB 11.3.30]

[One should learn how to associate with the devotees of the Lord by gathering with them to chant the glories of the Lord. This process is most purifying. As devotees thus develop their loving friendship, they feel mutual happiness and satisfaction. And by thus encouraging one another they are able to give up material sense gratification, which is the cause of all suffering.]

One time one godbrother of Maharaj, Badrinarayan Maharaj came to GEV and maharaj himself brought best towel form his room and gave it to Badrinarayan maharaj.

Maharaj has introduced counsellor system for taking care with which so many devotees are getting benefitted.

Maharaj's lectures are so beautiful, nourishing and satisfying which help to get up from the deep sleep of ignorance and engage ourselves in the service of the lord this is nothing but his compassion towards condition souls like me.

In this regards Maharaj Prithu offers one very beautiful prayer to Lord Vishnu as follows :-

sa uttamaśloka mahan-mukha-cyuto bhavat-padāmbhoja-sudhā kaṇānilaḥ smṛtiṁ punar vismṛta-tattva-vartmanāṁ kuyogināṁ no vitaraty alaṁ varaiḥ

[SB 4.20.25]

[My dear Lord, You are glorified by the selected verses uttered by great personalities. Such glorification of Your lotus feet is just like saffron particles. When the transcendental vibration from the mouths of great devotees carries the aroma of the saffron dust of Your lotus feet, the forgetful living entity gradually remembers his eternal relationship with You. Devotees thus gradually come to the right conclusion about the value of life. My dear Lord, I therefore do not need any other benediction but the opportunity to hear from the mouth of Your pure devotee.]

He connects every time to Krsna, one time in one of the Kartik yatra one devotee brought his son to him whose birthday was there so, maharaj asked to his son do you know why your birthday is there in Kartik month because krsna loves you, such a compassion to all.

Another time maharaj told when he was there in Puri embracing lord Jagannath he was praying that each and every devotee should get krsna-prema.

In one of the Kartik yatra Maharaj's health was very down still maharaj gave yatra lectures in that Kartik yatra accepting inconvenience out of compassion devotees which is vividly we can see in 8th canto of SB about Lord shiva :

tapyante loka-tāpena

sādhavaḥ prāyaśo janāḥ

paramārādhanaṁ tad dhi

puruṣasyākhilātmanaḥ

[SB 8.7.44]

[It is said that great personalities almost always accept voluntary suffering because of the suffering of people in general. This is considered the highest method of worshiping the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is present in everyone's heart.]

Recently I heard lecture in which one devotee was sharing about how maharaj used to sit many times for the classes in Chowpatty like and one time he was sick and unable to even come out of the room so he heard the lecture from his room on radio this is how maharaj is preaching by his example how it is important to hear bhagavatam. In the conversation between sanatan goswami and Srila Haridas thakur, he says to Srila Haridas thakur āpane ācare keha, nā kare pracāra pracāra karena keha, nā karena ācāra ācāra', 'pracāra', — nāmera karaha 'dui' kārya

tumi — sarva-guru, tumi jagatera ārya

[CC antya 102-103]

["Some behave very well but do not preach the cult of Kṛṣṇa consciousness, whereas others preach but do not behave properly. You simultaneously perform both duties in relation to the holy name by your personal behavior and by your preaching. Therefore you are the spiritual master of the entire world, for you are the most advanced devotee in the world."]

Even though I am not qualified Whatever I am able to practice today little bit of devotional service it is just because of the causeless mercy of Maharaj coming through my superiors.

On this auspicious day of appearance of Maharaj I pray at his divine lotus feet to give me a drop of taste for studying and preaching the message of Shrimad Bhagavatam, begging for his causeless mercy, let me serve in the mission forever in my upcoming journey.

Thank you very much!

Hare Krishna dear gurumaharaj PAMHO. Hope u are well gurumaharaj.

Just thinking what can I write here about you like pure devotee. I got a chance to say about you so fortunate m I.

1.Gurumaharaj I remembered when I joined Prabhupada's cenital 1996. I don't understand English very well that time. My younger brother raganuga invited me that programme at Varali I think . My childhood friend and we were came for that programme we were 23 years old that time. and we saw so big crowd , and so humble devotees whoever doctor, IT, engineers ,business man's, etc come for programme. My friend and I discussed about wearing Tulsi mala same day. And we think about our our guru.

2. This incident happened in 2013 or 14.

Shyam rani mataji (mira road giriraj prabhu's wife) call me in the morning and asked me"Narayani krupa today gurumaharaj coming in BVH hospital. Can u make sweet for him?? But condition no sugar no jaggery no ghee. Any idea how to make? I replied mataji," mataji plz give me 5 min I think. I was so excited and walking here there is pray to prabhupad. Plz give some ideas. And suddenly ideas come in my mind. I dropped my son to school bus and told mataji I don't have date and nutan my house and shop also not nearby. I want to make but I need some things. So mataji told what u want tell me if send my son he will drop yr house she live in sector 3 and I live in sector 2. In 15 mins she deliver things. And I make some dates rolls for gurudev vegan and sugar free?

Mataji was so happy so I think if she was happy so gurudev also happy.

1 day brajeshwari mataji told me can u make banana flowers sabji for maharaj. No oil and very less ghee.I was so happy senior devotees giving chance to serve u and our brahmacharis godbrothers when they coming for preaching. again and again chance to cook you maharaj. Bcoz of these senior devotees I always engage in seva.

Because of u me and my husband (shyamanand Pandit das BRS)could do seva of your godbrothers & godsisters at Bhaktivedanta hospital .really good memories.

Hey Krishna! Please give strength and good health to my gurudev. Happy Krishna conscious 17th birthday gurumaharaj.

NAROTTAM ANANDA DAS (LONDON, UK)

Dear Srila Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your holy lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

Hearing your words gives me faith and conviction in the topics of Krishna Consciousness and how to see and understand the material world. You have given me deep conviction on important topics of Krishna Consciousness starting with faith in Nityananda Prabhu, Sri Krishna Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, six goswamis, the previous acharyas and helped me go deeper in my relationship with Srila Prabhupada. When I joined Krishna Consciousness I could not accept Sri Nityananda Prabhu and Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu as the Supreme Personality of Godhead or the one I should worship. But hearing your class on Nityananda Triyodasi in 2001 followed by 5 day classes on Lord Chaitanya on Gaura Purnima festival gave me deep conviction to worship Lord Chaitanya first over Lord Krishna and to approach Lord Chaitanya by approaching Lord Nityananda Prabhu first. Somehow I did not get conviction even by reading Srila Prabhupada's books or lectures. It is by your causeless mercy that you bestowed in me the faith and surrender to Lord Chaitanya.

I am struggling to follow the basic instruction of chanting sixteen rounds sincerely, seriously and without ulterior motives. I am so weak spiritually and absorbed in so called material progress and advancement. My life is passing so fast and I am getting old but I am not making any spiritual progress in fact I am going down. I humbly beg for your causeless mercy to give me faith and conviction in the process of Krishna consciousness and take the shelter of the Holy Name and the association of devotees. My only desire is to please you by following your orders sincerely, seriously and without ulterior motives. I want to start at least now to dedicate my life in the service of you and Srila Prabhupada. My greatest fear is to leave this body without even endeavouring to please you and your servants. Please give your kripa bindu to save me from falling down. You are my only shelter.

I am praying for your good health and very long life.

I pray that I can somehow assist the devotees who are rendering wonderful service to you and Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Your unworthy servant,

Narottamananda Das

Thank you for taking the Karthik yatra to Kolkata, our dearmost Srila Prabhupada's appearance place. This was a unique experience which only you could have thought of. Your invaluable guidance in building GEV and making it a centre where people from all over the world can come and experience the mood of Braj dham must be so pleasing to Srila Prabhupada. On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa Puja, i beg Sri Sri Radha Gopinath and Sri Sri Nitai Sacinandana to bestow all Their mercy and keep you healthy so that you can being more and more souls closer to Krishna and Srila Prabhupada's Lotus feet! Since acaryas on their appearance day's are very merciful i would like to beg from you, your merciful glance upon this lowly servant of yours. yasya prasadāt bhagavat prasādo, and i hope i can please you in some way or other there by i am sure i will get Krishna's mercy.

NARSIMHA AVATAR DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Srila Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

It is said that devotional service has no material cause & therefore it is called as causeless. The causeless mercy of the Lord descends through the mercy of His devotees. Certainly, to have Your presence in our lives & be connected with Srila Prabhupada, I consider it to be our greatest fortune & a gift. Brahmāṇḍa bhramite kona bhāgyavān jīva guru-kṛṣṇa-prasāde pāya bhakti-latā-bīja.

But having obtained it, is not enough. To progress further on this path, one requires knowledge & build up faith in the process of devotional service. This comes, naturally when there is a role model, a living example, some one who inspires on this path.

Your presence instils an enormous faith in the process of Krishna consciousness. Your example is an essence of the definition of faith - śraddhā'-śabde – viśvāsa kahe sudṛḍha niścaya, kṛṣṇe bhakti kaile sarva-karma kṛta haya. Thus it is a source of heartfelt, ongoing inspiration. Your life is a loving offering, dedication in the service of Srila Prabhupada. In this connection, I would like to recall a few memories from what I have heard.

- Your first meeting with Srila Prabhupada at cross maidan March 1971, Bombay. Srila Prabhupada called you from the huge crowd to sit on the stage near to him.
- Although you did not have money to buy Krishna book that time, you went out of the way to collect money & purchase it. Srila Prabhupada was pleased to know it.
- First time you travelled to New Vrindavan because Srila Prabhupada was going to be there for Janmashtami and for his vyasapuja. You wanted to stay there just for six months to get the visa to come back to Vrindavan, India, again.
- Staying with Srila Prabhupada had such an impact on your life & you realized what it means to accept & surrender to a guru. Your resolved to stay there in New Vrindavan till Srila Prabhupada's further instructions.
- Ever since then, the various projects you have developed in India, be it the development of Radhagopinath temple & its congregation and all connected satellite centres & temples, Bhaktivedanta hospital, Govardhan eco village, ISKCON Kolkata, etc., just to name a few, are your loving offerings to Srila Prabhupada.

Srila Prabhupada mentions in SB 1.15.39 Purport – "Everyone's life must be so arranged that the last stage of life, say at least the last fifteen to twenty years prior to death, can be absolutely devoted to the devotional service of the Lord to attain the highest perfection of life."

Ever since you first met Srila Prabhupada & accepted his shelter, your entire life has been dedicated in his loving service, in serving his mission.

On this auspicious occasion of your 71st appearance day, I pray for a drop of your mercy so that I become worthy of being called as your disciple, having crossed 50 yrs of my life, trying to dedicate rest of my life for the devotional service in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you very much.

Dear Gurudev

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

My humble obeisances to Srila Prabhupada.

I pray to Radha Kalachandji

all Acharyas, all devotees of lord for your good health and long material life for millions and millions of souls purification.

since I have been associating with devotees who were aspiring or diciples of yours I knew little bit about you,

It was back in 2008 I learnt more about you thru your book journey home, thru your lectures and personal association on few occasions like festival of inspiration, when you visited Krishna House, krishna Balram deity installation, Prabhupada festival in LA and ISV.

You have been so kind and have always been loving to me, you have come to my dreams several times and always showed your affection knowing I am mudha, full rascal, not able to mend my ways but you still shown your love and affection.

Gurudev, I do not have any qualifications to be your spiritual son but I still beg your shelter and mercy.

Hare Krishna

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances onto your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Gauranga

All glories to Your Divine Self

Dear Gurudev, you are ocean of all Vaishnav qualities. Your Surender to your Guru Srila Prabhupada and dedication to fulfil his desires is very inspiring.

In my last visit to GEV, I could behold the most beautiful darshans of Sri Sri Radha MadanMohanji.

You have brought MadanMohanji back to His original residence. This MadanMohanji is non diffrent than that of Jaipur. Also, Maharaj, the evening Bhajans at Maan Mandir are very enlivening and heart touching. These bhajans simply takes us into deep submission and remembernce of Their Lordships. Visitng GEV is simply like visiting Vrindawan. Thank you so much for creating GEV.

Maharaj, I am also very much enamored by your amazing online Kartik yatra 2021 classes. This year being the 125 appearance of Srila Prabhupada, yatra venue as Kolkata dham was perfect and it was very nicely orchestrated by HG AnangaMohan pr and entire yatra team. I could witness so many places related to SP's pastimes. Although virtually in the form of online, but still it was so lively. I thank you again and again for that. And I hope and pray that next year if Krsna willing, we could have kartik yatra physically wherein we could see and hear you to physically.

Maharaj, although you are well accomplished and practically, whole world is behind to get your association. You can lead a very lavish lifestyle yet you r remaining all alone in Chicago, cooking and washing cloths on your own is a great lesson for all of us about how to not b egoistic & b simple.

Maharaj, after the 2nd wave of covid, my father was hospitalised for almost 3 weeks, due to pancreatitis and also due to his right half body portion paralysis. Due to this I had to leave devotee association and stay at home for 3months. In those three months, I understood that without devtotee association I have no strength to practice devotional service. Now, I m again back into devotee association and nicely practicing in their shelter.

Hence, I beg your mercy that I could always remain in devotee association till my last breath and do some tangible service in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. Also, let me please my authorities and all the Vaishnavas.

Maharaj, i m very much inspired by your lectures, however, due to so many distractions I m not able to regularly hear your lectures from last 5 months. I m haunted by anarthas and also by my fickle mind, hence I beg your mercy to crossover these obstacles.

My sincere prayers to Sri Sri Radha Vrindawanchandra to bestow good health and long life to you so that you could serve the world much more & bring more souls back to Godhead

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

Today my Godbrothers and Godsisters dug a spiritual mine and brought so many rare gems from it

As I reflect back , I am feeling great gratitude for all the realizations and glorification they shared from the core of their heart.

Below I picked up some of the rare and bright gems which is very inspiring when I read again and again and try to follow the lectures and implement it in my life

As my offering to You I am putting it all over here below

Thanks

Neel Madhav das

Maharaj did 200 Surya namaskar defeating his body builder friend

Maharaj said --- Sometime when u really want to help somebody then Krishna will empower u to do something extraordinary

U embody the spirit of servant of the servant

Equally disposed to anyone of any stature

Today is the day of introspection and look into our heart of how true we are to guru words and instructions

Maharaj --- Yes u r sick and I am the physician to treat u

Only if I would have taken ur words a little more seriously

Maharaj --- I will be eternally indebted to u if u take care of HH varsana Maharaj in his bad health --- his love and relationship for his god-

brothers

My priority is give time to my God brothers then disciples of my God brothers and then if there is time it is for my disciples --- extent of sacrifice for love for godbrothers

Maharaj -- Whatever u did is absolutely correct but I want u to be a vaishnava above the correctness and righteousness

U were writing in ur diary that u r going to a program as a representative of ur spiritual master Srila Prabhupad just as a calf in vrindavan is simply waiting to give pleasure to Krishna

U always glorify Srila Prabhupad In ur lecture and show commitment and loyal to him ...when shall I be doing the same as ur loyalty to Prabhupad ?

It took me a really long time to realize that I am not this body ...

Eat only Krishna prasadam and that has helped me.

I am feeling I am not chanting properly

Please let me chant properly

U gave the ECO village better than EGO village

When I approached u for initiation u said how can I serve u ?

Sadachar sadhana and satsanga

How u have compassion to spread KCON to all ?

So that everyone can benefit

I beg ur Mercy to be an instrument in spreading the KCON

Time is running out every fast There needs to be urgency to take to kcon specifically reading Srila Prabhupad Books

Vaishnava sadhu is always in Debt he gives more than what he has

Puts in gallons of blood in bringing a soul to Kcon

U said to a sick disciple unwilling to do the service of singing that for last 40 years I don't remember a day when I was not completely well

Gratitude is like good digestive capacity to have medicine and food to have affect

Vyasa puja is a day to offer gratitude to u

Strict sadhana and humble service

Cooked food staying for more than 3 hours has lost it's tasted similarly a devotee doesn't serve will lose taste

Living model of all teachings of Srila Prabhupad

Your instructions makes it so simple u said just chant Hare Krishna and love Krishna and serve devotees to make your life perfect

Sweet and deep lectures

Let us imbibe the mood of servant of the servant

Sadhana bhakti cures the soul from the madness of Maya

One has to fix his mind on krishna by any means

It is the duty of spiritual Master to find ways to help his disciple to fix his mind on krishna

Maharaj sat with his disciple over his schedule to tell him how he can chant his 16 rounds

A common person paid her obeisance to his disciple when she came to know that he is your disciple ..she was very touched by ur teachings .... I am grateful to be connected with u

One of the most important and first service to his guru is Chanting.

Kcon is simple for simple and complex for complex people.

When will I chant the name of lord the same just like u do?

Thru your lecture I see a ray of hope of going back home back to godhead.

I am nothing without YOU.

Finding a meaningful purpose in life to serve u and all.

U ate the prasadam with a broken spoon

I was thinking what to learn from this ??

Isopanishad --- everything animate and inanimate belongs to Krishna

Don't waste

I would like to renew my vows to you on this day

Kuresh love for his spiritual master Ramanuja

I can understand how ones relationship be his Spiritual master by ur lecture on kuresh

The vision of a pure devotee ::;;;;

2.9.35.

.....Although He is present in every atom, the Supreme Personality of Godhead may not be visible to the dry speculators; still the mystery is unfolded before the eyes of the pure devotees because their eyes are anointed with love of Godhead. And this love of Godhead can be attained only by the practice of transcendental loving service of the Lord, and nothing else. The vision of the devotees is not ordinary; it is purified by the process of devotional service. In other words, as the universal elements are both within and without, similarly the Lord's name, form, quality, pastimes, entourage, etc., as they are described in the revealed scriptures or as performed in the Vaikuṇṭhalokas, far, far beyond the material cosmic manifestation, are factually being televised in the heart of the devotee. The man with a poor fund of knowledge cannot understand, although by material science one can see things far away by means of television. Factually, the spiritually developed person is able to have the television of the kingdom of God always reflected within his heart. That is the mystery of knowledge of the Personality of Godhead.,.....

I never deviated from the instructions and teaching of my spiritual master ---- Prabhupad

I see the same example in You.

Take advantage of vapuh association of spiritual Master and more importantly take association of his Vani association and also from those who are sincerely serving him

Give to this servant just one drop of Mercy.

Bhakti is served with Love

Thank u from the core of my heart for accepting me as your disciple and been my spiritual Master

All glories to you for engaging all of us in Srila Prabhupads mission

You ran to One devotee who was leaving the association of devotees due to been have been disappointed by some negative experiences .... you talked with him and patiently heard his grievances.

U told to make a sand land near the pond for the turtles comfort hearing the way they slept... ur concern for those turtles

Unless humility devotion and desire to serve then only knowledge of Gita is understood

Devotional service is privilege don't undervalue it.

Ur lecture contains sound effects

I beg u make me to servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of Krishna

Your grace is always available in the form of your lectures your disciples and the counselor system u have made

Wish you very Happy Krishna Conscious 71st Appearance Day.

Your amazing simplicity touching many hearts and souls. I am really grateful to You for accepting me as your disciple. Till I am not at all qualified but only because of Your and Your disciples' causeless mercy I got connected to Parampara. Nectarian Krishna Katha narrated by You always gives great solace to my heart. Your dancing kirtan always reminds me to dance ecstatically while doing Sankirtan & in front of Supreme Lord. You always tried to learn from every situation in Your life and Your life is exemplary for all the generations to come through Your book "The Journey Home".

This is first time I am trying to write Vyas Puja offerings. Kindly accept my offerings and bless me to improve myself in chanting 16 rounds more attentively, and following four regulative principles more strictly.

Hare Krishna Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,

Maharaj , in your huge heart have love for all, you have immense compassion and love not only for devotees but also for those who are not devotees. You teach us to be serious and disciplined in service. You are the epitome of patience and humility.

Your every discourse teaches us to be humble, your books tell us that one who loves Lord Shri Krishna automatically starts loving everyone. Vrindavan is situated in your heart. The people of Vraj have a special attachment to you and you also have special attachment to people of Vraj .

You have organized another Vrindavan, Govardhan Eco Village project near a city like Mumbai so that more and more people can take advantage of the devotional atmosphere of Vrindavan. Srila Prabhupada is the focal point of your life, by assimilating Srila Prabhupada's teachings you have greatly increased his work, especially the institutional promotion of Krishna Bhakti.

On the occasion of this Vyasa Puja festival of yours, I pray at your feet that I should be more serious in my spiritual practice and service.

Be more authentic and give top priority to the company of Vaishnavas.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Knowing your conviction and definite commitment one can easily testify that KRSNA has happily, willingly and personally showcased you as an exemplary devotee for coming future generations to follow by keeping your image and teachings in mind and definitely trotting towards spirituality in a prescribed manner. We all can would have been totally confused and devastated if it was not for your true and able guidance and direction.

Therefore , Gurudev how so ever the world may face many challenges of economy, weather, health , war , personalities , etc , your genuine image of being steadfast in making the world understand the importance of spirituality and the advantages it perceives in facing any such challenges- is the only hope for this world to be a good place to live in by which then one can really springboard the journey to go back to Godhead.

We pray and wish sincerely that we remain determined and obstinate in following your teachings and always seek shelter under your lotus feet.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obesancies at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On your 71st vyas puja day I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for accepting me as your disciple. For always being very loving and compassionate to me. Knowing my faults still you continue to uplift me and give your mercy.

Maharaj you are so accepting of everyone. You let a person grow in Krishna Consiousness according to their own nature and strengths. Which is so rare. You examplify how to practice the principle of 'pandita sam darshina'.

My prayer is may I acquire a drop of this quality and love and serve each devotee with a non judgemental nature.

Maharaj many times in your lecture you have emphasised the importance of the these three qualities Simplicity, sincerity and having no ulterior motive. Lately I was distrubed by my mind and somehow I rememberred these words, everything became suddenly very clear for me in that situation. Your words are my saving grace and have come to my rescue in the most trying situations. I aspire now to hear your words with more attention and faith. As thats my connection to you.

Longing to have your in person darshan, hearing Krishna katha and singing and dancing in your soul touching kirtans.

Your unworthy servant,

Nikunja Rasa dasi.

NIKUNJA VILASINOII DEVI DASI (USA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Please forgive me. It is always so difficult to write when it comes to glorification of your magnificent personality. But every year this day of your appearance is an opportunity for me to contemplate on your precious instructions that I try to carry in my heart and express my gratitude for accepting me at your lotus feet. Realizing lack of my qualification to be your disciple makes me unlimitedly appreciate your unconditional mercy. As you say: "The more we appreciate what was given to us, the more we appreciate the person who is giving."

While I'm reflecting on it, I'm looking at the photo of the sun that was taken by you. I received this photo from your god sister Malati Prabhu. You captured a moment of the sunrise by Michigan lake. The more I'm looking at the photo the more it is speaking to me. It's telling me that there are so many living entities in the world and there is only one sun. The sun is so far and everyone needs it. The sun takes its power and energy from Krishna and distributes it equally in the form of light and warmth to everyone. In the same way you, Guru Maharaj, reach every one of us with personal care and awaken our hearts with your warmth and love. We just need to be open to receive it. You are the manifestation of this unconditional love and the brahminical quality described in Bhagavad-gita 5.18: "The humble sages, by virtue of true knowledge, see with equal vision a learned and gentle brāhmaṇa, a cow, an elephant, a dog and a dog-eater."

All fortune in spiritual life that I have comes from you. You put me on the spiritual path. Under your guidance I have life that I could not even imagine 5 years ago. I constantly pray to have my heart open and never take anything for granted. I'm grateful for my life in the holy dhama of New Vrindaban, association of exalted devotees, my god family and service to Radha Vrindaban Chandra. All that comes from shelter at your lotus feet.

Your servant Nikunja Vilasini devi dasi.

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

All Glories to Srila Prabhupad

Dear Guru Maharaj,

I am immensely fortunate to have this opportunity of glorifying you as I don't have any qualification to do so. However, for my purification and for the pleasure of Krishna I shall try to put a humble attempt.

It is not easy to be a leader. Every action is judged by people around us. Though averse of name fame and glory, you accepted the position of being a 'Guru' to serve the mission of srila prabhupad and Lord Chaitanya. You not only continued in the sannyasa ashram steadily but also has set examples for others to follow. For Instance, the trainings provided by you on Vaishnav etiquette, sadachar amongst material people, maintaining a balance between conditional and constitutional duties etc. are the pillars of our peaceful Krishna consciousness practice. Your sincere attempts to remove darkness from our life has allowed us to be out of all confusions and to choose the right path under dilemma.

Maharaj your enlivening lectures and melodious kirtans inspire us every moment to be Krishna conscious. We are finding ways to serve Krishna and remember Krishna at every moment by following the practical instructions from your enriching lectures. Thank you so much Maharaj for giving a purpose to our life. I am eternally indebted to you. All my words will be a drop in front of the vast ocean of glories you have.

I beg forgiveness for anything spoken incorrectly due to my immaturity. I beg for your mercy so that I can continue and grow in Krishna consciousness and render services that pleases you, srila prahupad and Krishna.

Maharaj, Thank you very much for wonderful lectures of yours and providing all of us your digital presence. Although we miss your Kartik yatra but expert arrangements at GEV really compensated to some extend. I had really awesome 3 days yatra at GEV where I heard from Vishwarupa prabhu on glories of Barsana and Nandgram and during the same I was just transferred there. The wonderful prasadam and devotee association and chanting with devotees post Mangal aarti really recharged my spiritual batteries. Unless you would have not envision this and encourage devotees to built such a wonderful place, how would have taken shelter in such precarious situation.

Maharaja I pray to your lotus feet I should able to serve the Vaishnavas in the mood of servant of servant of servant and able to please the lord with my sadhana and Seva. I pray that I act in a way which brings glories to you and someday I may able to please you.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Kindly accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for giving me so many means and ways to practice Krishna Consciousness. You have given me the wonderful association of Vaishnavs, your dear representatives, chanting of Holynames, your enlighting lectures and so many things to take me forward in Bhakti. But due to my foolishless I am always postponing the sincere practice and simply somehow going on. You have created so many facilities for devotees to be Krishna conscious from womb to tomb but I am unable to take benefit from them. Because of my insincerity, my wife and family is also not becoming very sincere. I understand that the responsibility lies on me. Due to my laziness, it will cost them. I need strength Maharaj. “Shakti buddhi heena ami aati deena koro mora atma saar”.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

I was fumbling in the Darkness of Ignorance

You came in my life like thousands of suns.

I was wondering in this materialistic dessert

You shower your mercy and filled this desert like an ocean.

I didn’t have any qualities nor any passion

Nothing can beat your love and compassion.

Anger, lust and greed were my friends forever

You killed them all without any error.

I used to think, I am so unfortunate that I didn’t meet Srila Prabhupada.

But no worry now I have an association of true disciple of Srila Prabhupada.

You made a devotee out of this monkey

Please accept my humble obeisance and always be with me.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your Merciful Lotus Feet.

I really want to thank you for so many things Maharaj,

The valuable lessons I have learnt from your teachings through your lectures and books, just to mention a few

-The importance of patience

-How Faith is the substance of Bhakti

-Focusing on the higher principles

These are so much helpful Maharaj, they help me overcome so many obstacles in day to day life and also help me develop so much more faith.

I am very fortunate and would like to thank you for continuing to give me your auspicious darshan by coming in my dreams so many times Maharaj.

Even though it's been few years since I got connected to ISKCON and also got to know about you, but what I have realised is that you have taken taking care of me since my childhood. You have been there for me, guiding me, protecting me throughout Maharaj by your mercy, by your prayers for me and by the Love you have for all of us.

By your mercy I am getting such wonderful opportunities to serve in the temple.

I am thankful to you for blessing me with association of such wonderful friends who help me in my practice of Krishna Consciousness.

Maharaj you are so Humble and Merciful, in your every teaching you emphasize on the verse "trinad api sunicena taror api sahisnuna amanina mandena kirtaniyah sada harih", you are a living example of this verse Maharaj.

I pray at your Lotus Feet for your Mercy and Love so that even I can develop Love for you, develop the correct attitude of servitude and being humble (as you teach in your lecture let every one be the master and we should be the servant).

I pray and seek your blessings Maharaj, so that I become qualified to be accepted by you as your disciple.

Thank you Maharaj.

Vyasa Puja offering 2021

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Through this offering, I wish to be as honest as I can because I want to get better and feel better. I am struggling a lot in my life right now, I have a lot of fears, insecurities, anxiety and worries about my material and spiritual life. I try to stay as present as I can and seek the necessary help. I haven't had the chance to have much of your association in person, but I listen to classes and a lot of Podcasts from your disciples including Jay Shetty.

I can see the impact that you have had on your disciples and how their life has changed because of you. If it wasn't for Aindra prabhu, Sivaram Maharaj, Radhi and Jay, and many other people in Iskcon, I don't think I would be where I am today.

I missed my initiation back in june 2019. I was not and still I am not able to commit to chanting 16 rounds daily. I am currently chanting one round daily, I listen to classes, I try to read and seek the right association, and heal through all of it, but I am still struggling a lot. I don't know why I am scared of committing and surrendering.

I feel pressured to be this perfect person all of the time, and I feel like if I commit, my friends will let me down, seeing me as this person with whom they cannot relate to anymore because I am too serious for them. There's also this fear of taking initiation just because people want me to take initiation. All of this may sound very raw and wrong, but this is what I feel inside and I really want to genuinely get better and become a better person. I want to pursue things genuinely. My only prayer to Krishna is for him to help me find my way, and my prayer to you is to guide and help navigate all of those thoughts and feelings that I have. I am so lost in my thoughts, I just pray that you give me some of your mercy and help me in this stage of my life. I need guidance.

Thank you for everything you've given us. Thank you for being so compassionate and showing that love and kindness can be superpowers. Your patience and grace is beyond my understanding. I pray that you stay healthy and publish even more books in the future.

Thank you,

ys

NITYANANDA AVADHUTA DAS (NASIK, INDIA)

Hare Krishna respected Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

Dear Gurudev, wishing you a very happy Vyasa Puja on this most auspicious day.

All glories to Their Lordships Shri Shri Radha Madangopal ji, Lalita Vishakha devi, Gaur Nitai, Shrila Prabhupad and to you Gurudev.

Two years back, on the day of initiation (The most auspicious occasion of appearance day of Shrila Narottam Das Thakurji) in the month of February, 2020, this humble servant of your servants experienced the result of your preaching and kindness for all of us in Nashik as this fallen soul born in voidist shudra family was blessed the shelter of your lotus feet and officially was blessed with the title of Das to fulfill the purpose of Shrila Prabhupad's mission.

I would like to share some incidences from one of the Jagannath Puri yatra during the cart pulling festival :

On one auspicious occasion I was blessed with the opportunity to serve you by fanning you with a peacock feather fan while you were preparing for a lecture at Gambhira. You glanced once upon me and showered so much of causeless mercy.

On another occasion during the same yatra, after taking a holy bath in the holy ocean of Jagannath Puri when you were walking on a sea beach some small children devotees of the congregation tried to take the dust from your lotus feet. I also got the desire to touch your lotus feet and I touched your lotus feet and touched my head. Senior devotees surrounding you told me to not do such a thing. I felt joyful and painful at the same time.

On another occasion, you asked us all to take bath in the holy kund of Indradyumna Sarovar. While taking bath one of our devotees was drowning. My devotee friends told me about it. Without realising my capacity I just jumped in and approached him. But because of his heavy body I could not pull him and got scared and turned back to the shore. Another devotee from Pune jumped in and saved him. I felt great relief.

Later on when I was contemplating on this incidence that how did I dare to jump and save the drowning devotee despite of not having swimming expertise, I realised that it was simply because of

● The merciful glance of you while I was fanning you at Gambhira and

● The dust of your lotus feet that I took on my head at the sea beach

I developed that pure unmotivated sincere desire to serve the vaishnavas. On this most auspicious day I beg at your lotus feet for that pure unmotivated sincere desire to serve Vaishnavas and Lordships to remain in my heart always.

My Krishna conscious journey started with attending the first Wednesday program lecture of H.G. Radheshyam Prabhuji at Mayapur VOICE which gave me conviction that I am at the right place to know God both philosophically and practically. Later on I got to know that Mayapur VOICE was inaugurated with your holy hands.

Dear Gurudev, your teachings of pure devotional service through your own life and lectures and training provided by your well trained humble representatives in the form of Project Managers, Counsellors, Mentors (both in Brahmchari/Sannyasi and Grihastha ashrams) is nourishing devotional service of all of us.

Your lectures on pastimes of Panchtatva and Vaishnava acharyas nourish us with qualities to be imbibed on the path of Krishna consciousness.

On the day of deity installation of Radha Madanmohan ji in GEV, I managed to be at GEV with the hope of getting at least your merciful glance upon me. After offering aartik to Radha Madanmohan ji when you stepped down the temple and were proceeding to another place, I just stood on the Radha Madanmohan temple premises hoping to get your merciful glance and to my surprise you looked back towards Radha Madanmohan temple and I happened to be standing on the same route and you fulfilled my wish to be showered with your merciful glance.

Dear Gurudev, in last Kartik yatra to Mayapur, during your lecture you got up from the Vyasasana when H. H. Jaypataka Swami maharaj arrived in the Pandal and greeted him so lovingly and garlanded him and asked him to speak about the Lord. This moment touched the heart of all of us.

In this pandemic, none of us imagined that we would be able to hear you. But dear Gurudev you are delivering so many talks almost everyday through online platforms. You are personally requesting local authorities to connect to all initiated devotees there and giving us opportunities to hear from you. Heart touching moment is when you request us all to put on video mode so that you can grace us all with your merciful glance.

Most heart touching moment in this Pandemic was when you glorified respected H. H. Bhakticharu Swami Maharaj for almost two hours. After H. H. Bhakticharu Swami Maharaj departed from this world you are giving so much of love and care to his dear disciples.

H.G. Gaurang prabhuji and his team under your direction are serving prasadam to so many souls everyday from GEV which suits it's name as Govardhan ji accepts and delivers tons of Prasad and expresses the compassionate heart of you for all living beings. Beautiful darshan of Radha Madanmohanji and Radha Vrundavanbihariji and Lord Gauranga brings bliss to the heart. During this lock down (and always) GEV has given us opportunity of Vrundavan yatra even if we could not actually go to Vrundavan Dham.

In yatras you are teaching us personally and through your representatives how to serve each and every vaishnav in every possible way which has encouraged vaishnavas to organize small yatras in a similar way.

H.G. Radheshyam Prabhuji, under your guidance and training started VOICE training by establishing them all over India which has helped a lot in understanding every aspect of Krishna consciousness, ISKCON festivals and appearance and disappearance days of acharyas and thus spreading the same to others. Everyday all aartis, Bhagavatam class for all of us at VOICE, every Saturday stay at temple and Sunday Bhagavatam class followed by Sunday feast class, association of many Prabhupad disciples and other senior vaishnavas has enriched our spiritual life. We relish those memories deep within the core of our heart.

H. G. Shikshashtakam Prabhuji, despite his health issues, has developed the Nasik congregation and Brahmachari ashram so well that it has become a replica of Radha Gopinath temple to some extent.

Dear Gurudev, without your strong desire to preach Krishna consciousness to youth to fulfill the desire of Prabhupad, all acharyas and Lord, we had no hope to get devotional service.

Your encouragement to attend yatras trained us to take families for similar dham yatras and thus benefiting them in spiritual life. In 2017, a seven days yatra to Vrundavan, in 2018, a 4 days yatra to Jagannath Puri and in 2019, 4 days yatra to Mayapur and Kolkatta Dham enriched my parent's and sister's spiritual experience. I was surprised that how fast it all happened.

I had a strong desire to take my parents to these three Dhams before they depart from this world as a gratitude towards them for giving me this body. And because of your training and by the grace of Radha rani it was fulfilled. This year my mother left her body at 00:45 am on 8th of March, 2021 in sleep. That day I realised why Lord had orchestrated these family yatras so fast as the all knowing lord was aware about the departure of my mother in 2021.

When my mother left her body, I was in deep sorrow due to bodily and emotional attachment. But then by applying your teachings about relationship based on spirituality when I prayed to my departed mother to chant holy names and serve Vaishnavas and Lordships in Golok Vrindavan, immediately I felt blissful. Even though I had tears in my eyes, I had bliss in my heart.

In this pandemic, I was being offered shelter along with siddhis by one guru from another spiritual path. He insisted upon me to accept it in many ways. But your teachings protected me to be steady on the path of pure devotional service and never leave the association of devotees. I was also being attacked by black magic to great extent but your mercy and Radha Shyamasundar's supreme protection saved me always. On this, I was even questioned about why did your Guru not stop these attacks even before reaching you. To that, I was just thinking that my Guru has the ability to take souls back to Godhead permanently. Black magicians may try to attack the body of a devotee to some extent as seen in case of Shrila Bhaktivinod Thakur, but can not kill and take his soul as he is always under the supreme protection of Radha Shyamasundarji.

Without considering any qualifications you showered countless mercy upon me and gave me shelter at your lotus feet.

I need your blessings to continue my small services and keep growing in my spiritual journey by serving you, all Vaishnavas and the Lord in a humble mood and practicing sadhana and rules strictly.

On this special occasion pray for we all Vaishnavas that Shri Shri Radha Shyamsundar ji, Lalita Vishakaha devi, Krishna Balaram ji and Jagannath, Baladev and Subhadra Devi ji bless us deep love for holy name, Shrila Prabhupad and Vaishnav acharya's books,Vaishnav sang and Vaishnav seva.

Panchatatva and all acharyas empower us to distribute Prabhupad books, holy name and Krishna prasad.

Lord Narsimha dev always protects us from all obstacles.

Radha Shyamsundar ji engages us in Their loving devotional service in Shri Goloka Vrundavan Dham.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj. Please accept my respectful obeisances to you. All Glories to you, All Glories to Srila Prabhupad, our Acharyas and Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji.

A Spiritual Master is the most important person in life of a person who has taken up Krishna Consciousness. It's by the mercy of Spiritual Master only, that a person can understand the process of Krishna Consciousness and also imbibe those very vibrations of Krishna Consciousness. In our Parampara we had great acharyas who dedicated their lives in propagating and preaching Krishna Consciousness to everyone. Srila Prabhupad is latest one. And you Maharaj, following in the very lineage of Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Vaishnava Parampara, you are the very representative of Srila Prabhupad and Srimati Radharani.

For a disciple, its always a privilege and honor to speak something about Spiritual Master. Even though not at all qualified, still you accepted the insignificant soul like me to be your disciple. I am absolutely unworthy of it. Since March 2020 , we faced the biggest obstacle and man made catastrophe of Covid 19. In such tough times, so many people lost the life, so many of our devotees are no more with us. In such critical moments, the biggest delight for me was to see you, attend your lectures on zoom and it was such a happiness to witness you Guru Maharaj. I am extremely thankful to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji that they have kept you safe and sound.

This year is the 50th year when you met Srila Prabhupad at Cross Maidan in 1971. It was my fortune to hear from and know from HH Giriraj Swami Maharaj , during the time of his new book opening at Juhu, how you got 1st Service in Iskcon and then later Srila Prabhupad calling you on stage. Its thrilling and historical. In Journey Home book you have vividly described that day.

Through various means you have tremendously contributed to the society and Iskcon, Guru Maharaj.

You have given Hospital, School, Farm Community, Temple, Best association, Best Yatras, Best Prasadam Management, Best Senior Disciples, Best Lectures …. Whatever I may name, you have given Best of it. Maharaj, You are fully Trinada Pisunichena Personified.

Your Compassion towards everyone and simplicity is what attracts everyone towards you Guru Maharaj. In the early days I had that fortune to come to Chowpatty, get your association and your smiling glances which would completely delight my heart. In past, I faced many hurdles in my life maharaj. During school times, I had few friends who left me all alone when college times started. Right during that time, I got shelter of you, I got the association of seniors. My completely shambled life came back on track just because I got your shelter Guru Maharaj.

From the core of my heart, I yearn to serve you, I just yearn for that one merciful glance of yours, I yearn for the taste for chanting that you have Guru Maharaj, I yearn for complete shelter of your Maharaj.

Let the core values of Nama Ruchi, Jiva Daya and Vaishnava Seva which you have taught, be imbibed in me Guru Maharaj.

Wishing you a Very Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday Guru Maharaj.

May your shelter be always be upon insignificant entities like me. My Hundreds and Thousands of Obeisances to you Guru Maharaj Completely Indebted to you and Grateful to you Guru Maharaj for everything.

Thank you from the core of my heart. You are the Hero of my heart. Love you Guru Maharaj from the inner core of my heart.

This year we have been a special recipient of your mercy. It started with the arrival of Sri Sri Gaur Nitai deities into our lives and you mecrifully named them Sri Sri Nitai Sachinandan. As time progressed, we were blessed with a son and again you mercyfully named him Chaitanya. When we shifted to Roorkee two years back we were worried about association. But again you came to our resque and we got association of the wonderful devotees in Rishikesh, coming all the way from Chowpatty. We had been benefitting from the wonderful online yatra and regular lectures that you have been painstaking giving for upliftment of everyone. We cannot thank you enough.

You never lose a single moment to glorify your spiritual master A.C.

Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. Anytime anyone credits you with the wonderful service you are doing, you attribute it to Srila Prabhupada's mercy.

GuruMaharaja, you have made all arrangements not only for your disciples but for humanity at large through your many innovative ways of getting your association through your lectures, live internet broadcasts, activity reports, etc.

By your mercy only we can perform devotional service without any difficulties and can be success also.

Your most valuable guidance has given us great courage. Your blessing and encouragement has given us great strength to render devotional service and to serve the mission of Sri Caitanya Maha Prabhu by spreading the holy name and message of the supreme lord.

Dearest Gurudev

Pls accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

We dearly await your most auspicious appearance day every year to express our gratitude for everything that you have given us and accepted us at your lotus feet.

You are always absorbed in the loving service to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji and Srila Prabhupada and have shown us the way of perfecting our lives by following your instructions.

You have given us a wonderful family of devotees who are there for each other every time without any ulterior motives. Just like mother Yashoda bound Lord Damodar with her love Your teachings are like that silken thread which keep us together despite the various differences that we have in us.

Not only have you given us this wonderful family but you have also given us a purpose to be a part of this family which is to serve fellow devotees in the mood of dasa- nu-das.

All this is not limited to your necterean words in your spiritual discourses but as an Acharya every act of your life glows with these teachings and inspires us to follow the same.

Your Kirtans enrich us with spiritual vigour and show us how we should call for Radharani & Krishna just like a baby calls for his mother.

Our words fall short in glorifying your unlimited qualities and we take the pride of having you as our spiritual master.

Last year by your mercy we have visited the holy Dham of Sri Vrindavan, Chitrakoot, Prayag & Kashi and served the devotees who came to visit these holy places.

By your mercy we are entrusted with service of guiding 25 devotee families in their spiritual life, giving lectures, making jewellery for deities of various temples and also translating your lectures in Gujarati language.

It has been a long wait for your physical association but we look forward to see you soon and get your personal darshan and association.

On this auspicious day we beg for your blessings and mercy so that we can continue our spiritual journey and achieve the Supreme destination.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,

All Glories to Shrila Prabhupada,

Maharaj this year has been most revolutionary in terms of my own personal Krishna consciousness and surely the credit goes to you and your mercy on even fallen insignificant soul like me.

You always regularly repeatedly mentioned in your lectures and showed by your actions and Life itself that how pleasing Guru and Krishna are the most important thing in one's life but unfortunately, I failed to catch this point and take it to my heart. But Maharaj due to your constant prayers and concern for your disciples and devotees, Krishna and devotees blessed me to come in touch with very exalted personality residing at Shri Dham Mayapur named HG Radha Madan Mohan Prabhuji, who is constantly absorb in always pleasing Guru and Krishna. He almost keeps chanting whole day and with deep mood of pleasing Guru and Krishna. With his association and personal guidance and training, Maharaj i could taste the divine pleasure of Pleasing Krishna and You and now I never want to leave this.

After tasting this when i heard each of your lectures I could easily see you are again and again repeating this same point and i could also see through your entire Life how, you have yourself lived by this Point and also have built entire devotee community based on this point.

HG Radheshyam Prabhuji under whose love and care you have entrusted me is your special gift to me and entire devotee community. Its because of him i could get enough time to spend at Mayapur and thus get association of HH Bhaktividya Purna Swami Maharaj and Radha Madan Mohan Prabhuji and thus I could taste what you always want all of us to taste: the taste of selfless service for pleasure of Guru and Krishna.

Maharaj in 2019 just before my initiation I could also see great quality of yours oourf that is of Broad mindedness and genuine sincere care for training and guiding devotee based on their exact need matching their Psychophysical nature. When i asked Gaurang Prabhuji that i get lot of Shiksha from HH Bhaktividya Purna Swami Maharaj and can i still continue with get that after initiation, Gaurang Prabhuji was jubiliant and mentioned that you never have any concerns with disciples taking shiksha from your God Brothers infact from his expressions i felt that you infact you like and feel happy if we take shiksha from other God brothers of yours. This was so tocuhing maharaj ...you are real selfless Vaishnava.

Another fact mesmerized me and completely melted my heart is that when one of brahmacharis did major blunder and entire community got upset but you made him take some tangible serivce and infact made sure that he is rightly engaged and extended your compassion to extent that you regularly went out of your way to go and personally embrace him.As a result of this that particualar brahmachari is still very nicely infact with even more enthusiasm and gravity is now engaged intensely in service of pleasing Guru(You) and Krishna. This is so very ideal Vaishnavism Maharaj, after this my respect to you increased billion times and I could understand what real Vaishnavism is.

Maharaj even though by your mercy I could now taste the topmost nectar of serving and living for pleasure of Guru and Krishna, I still resist in doing so and Iam unwilling to giving up the lower taste of material enjoyment. I beg at your feet to give me strength, inspiration and courage to always live and serve in way pleasing to you and Krishna.

Countless thanks and life sacrifice are still like drop in ocean in return to selfless and thankless task and sacrifices you have done on us and for pleasure of Shrila Prabhupada and Radha Krishna.I beg your mercy on me....

Hare Krsna dear Guru Maharaj,

Dandavats. All Glories To Srila Prabhupada

Thankyou very much Guru Maharaj for all your love and care for all of us. Your life has been completely dedicated in the service of Srila Prabhupada,You have extended yourself to the utmost to create such a wonderful devotee community. The love and care we experience from our Seniors is actually your love flowing through them to us. Your desire to have devotees experience Vrindavan has today taken the shape of GEV project which is such a wonderful project, where in we can experience all the Holy places and Temples of Vrindavan and get an opportunity to serve the dham. Your lectures are filled with instructions and have always given us directions on how we can keep moving ahead in our spiritual life even when confronted with difficult situations. Your Kirtans & Smiling glance have always been a source of inspiration for all of us.

Guru Maharaj this year we lost many devotees due to Covid, I myself had to go through the difficult experience of Covid. I was in Pune and down with fever for 12 days and then had to be moved to hospital at kalyan and was hospitalized for 13 days. But by support and prayers of Vaishnavas i survived but it was very painful to hear some of the devotees leaving us during the same time. I have realized to some extent been in hospital that life is very short and anything can happen any moment but still i am struggling to live my life as per the principles (1. To become Servant of Servant of Servant,

2. Become Sincere, Serious and without ulterior motives.)

which you keep telling us to follow in almost every of your classes.

Guru Maharaj on this auspicious occasion please bless this struggling disciple of yours that i may be able to remember and follow these principles in my life.

Guru Maharaj it has been close to 2 years since we saw you in Person, hopefully the Covid situation will improve and we will get to see you again.

We miss you and love you very much.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

This is Parama Govinda Das, one of the most insignificant fallen devotee. Often times, I was very much ashamed to be called as your disciple Maharaj. However, all my dear God Brothers and God Sisters are so compassionate, an extended wings from yourself, they treat me as one of them, protect me, nurture me, guard me without any discrimination. I get encouraged whenever I'm present in their association. I'm not very sincere as I only listen to you once or twice a week. I want to hear to you everyday, but due to my incapability, I was not able to do it sincerely. However, through the association and dealings of my Dear God Brothers and Sisters, I see you and listen to you everyday Maharaj. That indirect association of your vani itself is the savior of my life Maharaj. My God Brothers character and qualities resonate with yours and emanate grace upon a complacent soul like me Maharaj. I sincerely want to serve your words through your lectures everyday and if I can do it, I know my life will be successful Maharaj. I don't want anything else for this life Maharaj. Once again thank you very much for considering all of us as your family of cows, I may not be a cow , but a hog or a pig, yet your grace shows no discrimination, It has touched me and touching me every day. With your grace I was able to transcribe few of your lectures and I get to know the value of your words much deeper. I hope to make you proud one day before this body goes to dust.

You enriched my life and widened my horizons. Without you many aspects of my life would have been unexplored.

My light is rekindled by a spark from you. Deep gratitude to you for having lighted the flame within me.

Thank You very much, for giving us More than we can wish for, more than we deserve.

I again and again bow down to you for your benignity.

PATIT PAVAN DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected Guru Maharaj

Kindly accept my humble obeisances. I feel very unqualified to attempt to write this offering on the special occasion of your vyaspuja. But with the magnanimous heart that you have, it is certain that you will overlook my shortcomings and frailties and only accept the emotions, spirit and intent behind this offering. Writing this offering is heart stirring for me and for my purification.

At this point in time, as we all are celebrating Srila Prabhupada book distribution marathon, my mind goes down the memory lane. I am fortunate enough to have received my first set of Srila Prabhupada books from your lotus hands in Pune at Sri Sri Radha Kunjbihari temple. Heart rejoices whenever I remember little interactions with you be it at the house of Jhanava mataji or during karthik or puri rath yatra or once in your room at Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple. We all are getting personal association and instructions of your holiness through your words always and to one's hearts content.

It will be amazing to imbibe your way of glorifying Srila Prabhupada by appreciating your God brothers and sisters for the specific services they have rendered to His Divine Grace. During one of your recent online discourse, hair stood on end as we heard you wonderfully describe the Supreme mercy of Lord Nityananda through His pastimes. As the saying goes "enthusiasm is contagious ", your enthusiasm rubbed on us. Last week, we had a family trip to Jagannath puri. At siddhabakula, we remembered your historical class describing the passing away of Srila Haridas Thakura. Its inspiring to hear you speak about Ghanshyam das babaji and Sri Gopijana Vallabha deities and also about Jayananda prabhu.

You have in no time forgiven me for some big mistakes that I have committed in my journey. It's some kind of realization for me that following you, all others including my parents, seniors God brothers, mentors, friends and relatives have also forgiven me and have always encouraged me.

On this occasion of your vyaspuja, I should be offering something to you. I wish to offer a better version of myself at your lotus feet. Hope that will make you happy. They say on appearance day, great personalities bless you profusely . Beg and pray at your lotus feet that I put in sincere efforts to develop qualities of humility, gratitude, compassion, determination and integrity.

My mother was super excited to have received autographed copy of Journey Home from you. That day onwards , things have turned around for her. She is taking small steady steps in the right direction. She is under the loving care of His grace Jaidev prabhu and rendering service in temple. She is eternally grateful to you.

We pray to Sri Panchtattva that they bless you always with the best of health.

Aspiring to be a servant of your servant,

I hope you are doing well. I come with the humble intention of wishing you an excellent new year, a new cycle in your life that always inspires me to continue making the necessary internal transformations, aiming to reach the ultimate goal of life, which is to be able to surrender more every day to his instructions, to the service of the Vaishnavas and of Srī Srī Radha-Gopinath.

I deeply look forward at some point to receiving a direct personal response from the emails I have already sent asking for directions on my way. And, I sincerely wish I could Be useful, serve and have your darsana again, receive your mercy by connecting me with Srila Prabhupāda and all the genuine disciplic stream to which without the connection behind your shelter and initiation, I will not be able to develop loving attitude in serving , neither delivery and genuine devotion.

For Love, when will I have the fortune of receiving your Personal and Direct Instructions which will give me greater meaning in my life!?

PĪTĀMBAR GOPĀL DĀS (AHMEDABAD ,INDIA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Dandavat Pranaam...

My heart’s Glorification for Guru Maharaj has translated into an acronym which is synonymous to very existence of Guru Maharaj i.e., CARE.

C:- Cooperation

Guru Maharaj has not only emphasized sufficiently on this aspect in all his lectures but he has been living with this principle throughout his life where in the initial days Guru Maharaj persevered immensely in difficult situation at Śri New Vrindavan Dham at the current times he makes sure that all his disciples are contributing to this principle for example so many Brahmacharis being sent to other temples and projects and the list continues.

A:Accomplishment with vision:-

Guru Maharaj has

Strategic planning for making projects grow and Heartfelt genuine concern for the individual devotee to flourish.

Vision for ISKCON CHOWPATTY devotee care which fructified in an unprecedented manner and GEV vision is also getting unfolded.

R:- touching the Right cord

We see Guru Maharaj touches the right cord of the person to transform them in a way that person appreciates Krishna, his devotees and the process followed by them and then gradually takes on the path of devotional service with a blissful heart.

I've come across many people who weren't aware about ISKCON or devotional service yet had got "The Journey home" book read and had got interested in devotional service.

Also amongst those who are already devotees Guru Maharaj exactly knows how to act, speak and behave in a way so as to inspire a person to be more enthusiastic in practice of bhakti.

E:-

Expertise in Conflict resolution

Guru Maharaj has resolved so many complex conflicts in an amicable way thus enabling devotees to practice bhakti in an incessant manner.

Most importantly I humbly pray at the lotus feet of Guru Maharaj to have an iota of intensity and sincerity he has for the core principles of Bhakti and also beseech for strength to follow his instructions.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Our sincere gratitude to Lord Sri Krishna and all the vaishnavas for giving us the opportunity to submit this offering even though we have absolutely no qualification to do so.

Guru Maharaj, we are reminded of the verse from Srimad Bhagavatam that describes the symptoms of a sadhu as,

titikṣavaḥ kāruṇikāḥ

suhṛdaḥ sarva-dehinām

ajāta-śatravaḥ śāntāḥ

sādhavaḥ sādhu-bhūṣaṇāḥ

We are truly inspired by your tolerance, compassion, friendliness to all living entities, your nature of being ever peaceful and abiding by scriptures, and above all, your sublime characteristics. We are awed to see you as an exemplification of this verse by all means in all circumstances.

Our heartfelt gratitude for your transforming lectures that keep us inspired to keep persevering to grow spiritually. Every single word that is uttered by you in your lectures have profound meaning, emerging from a deep thought from your humble heart that shows your incomparable grace and compassion upon suffering souls. The time that we spend listening to your soul-touching kirtans and amazing lectures feel like in the spiritual world with your direct association, although you may be physically situated in the other corner of the world. We could feel your presence so much so in your lectures, and every instruction feels as if it was just meant for us Guru Maharaj.

It gives us immense happiness to be communicating a few words through this offering, though we are not able to express them enough to the extent we should be, due to our poor fund of knowledge. Please forgive us for our shortcomings and bless us Guru Maharaj to follow every single instruction of yours with great care and deliver our thoughts, words and actions only in ways that will please you. Also the qualities that you keep emphasizing by your own example, humility and compassion... We will keep trying to develop these qualities genuinely, by the strength of your mercy Guru Maharaj.

Thank you Guru Maharaj!

PRANESHWARI SAKHI DEVI DASI (MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisance at the dust of your divine lotus feet.

Guru Maharaj, this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa Puja is a wonderful opportunity for me to sing the glories of my beloved spiritual master, who is an ocean of mercy and love. I am an insignificant disciple of yours who can just pray to Lord Narasimha and Sri Sri Radha Ballabha to bless you with good health and long life.

Guru Maharaj whenever I think about your glories I go deep in touch with the vision you display in the performance of Krishna Consciousness and how you have given yourself completely to Srila Prabhupad and ISKCON. Guru Maharaj because of your dedication and love towards your Guru Maharaj Srila Prabhupad, this mission of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu is spreading all over the world rapidly. Your teachings have always made our life better and simple. You teach to be united and to cooperate with one another. Like a kind father, you always instruct us to preach in an easy way, which can make the listener comfortable and influenced through our preaching.

Recently, I read one of your books and I came across a page that made me ponder and my mind pushed me to read again and again just to absorb the wisdom you have brought out. You mentioned about two things to forget and two things to remember in life.

2 things to forget forever are: Anything bad anyone has done unto us and anything good that we have done unto others.

2 things to always remember are: Death, which can come at any moment and God's holy name.

These two points of wisdom are so powerful and encouraging to help an insignificant soul like me to overcome the blunder of ignorance which leads to suffering and sorrow in this present world.

Kindly give me the strength to fulfill my initiation vows, stay fixed up on my spiritual conviction and practice the process sincerely. I wish to deidcate my entire life in just serving you and Krishna. Please bless my family and me so that we never leave the shelter of Srila Prabhupad and ISKCON. Rest you know it all. Hare Krishna Dear GuruDev,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Dear GuruMaharaj, the only real fortune in my life is taking your association through Vani, that ripped all my hope for false happiness of this world, and enabled my mind experience something tangible & substantial satisfaction in attentive and submissive hearing of your classes (the transcendental oasis).

I heard from HG YugalKishore Prabhuji, who is my Sikhsaguru, that Your Holiness mentioned one time to Brahmacharies: "You All Will Be Tested" by pointing to all of them. Last year I have experienced that when test comes how it feels like. It was hell, every moment I was in constant agony, fear, hopelessness, acute sadness or restlessness. The cause was lust mixed with some unknown other anardhas, I was not like that even in my teenage. But I was constantly taking shelter of Holynames, your classes, and service. The moment I was not taking shelter, I was captured by some acute sadness. It was really a mystery, why that happened. But I know for sure the reason I was saved without any damage is only because I'm disciple of Your Holiness

Your classes are my true shelter. Without Them I'm a demonic person (realized after that hard lesson).

I sincerely pray Your Holiness should give many more classes and engage all of us in Pure Devotional Service in pleasing Srila Prabhupada.

HAPPY VYASA PUJA GURUDEV ☺

May You be Increasingly Experiencing Deepest Mellows of SudhaBhakti to the Lotus Feet of Sri Sri RadhaGopinath.

I am an worthless servant trying to take shelter at your lotus feet. Without a Guru there is no way one will ever be able to overcome the ill influences of Maya and I am practically seeing it around Maharaj. Even though I never had a good fortune of seeing you personally through your lectures I have always felt your personal presence and your guidance Maharaj. In times of need your lectures are like a beacon light for me. You have mentioned once in a lecture on Avanti brahmana that how powerful Maya is and how difficult it is to maintain the standards in our Bhakti. I am practically feeling it Maharaj, and when I see how all great liberated souls like you swim against it with such determination just to show us the way of doing it I have nothing but tears in my eyes and a heart full of greatness to yourself and to Srila Prabhupada who gave us such great devotees. There is no end in sight to the struggles you have to undergo for our benefit Maharaj. I once read in a Bhagavatham purport where Srila Prabhupada says it is a joke when one says he will repay his spiritual master. By seeing personal bhagavata's like you we understand the depth of the purports Maharaj. Thank you very much for everything Maharaj. I pray with all my heart to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath to help me take shelter at your Lotus feet.

Hare Krishna HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj ji,

Please accept my humble Obeisance's!

On this auspicious day of your appearance, although I am not qualified but for my purification and to express my gratitude towards you, I am writing this offering at your lotus feet.

I have heard from you that devotees are even more merciful than Krishna, which is so true. In your form, we got our cherished spiritual master who came to this burning material world to save fallen souls like me and to guide us spiritually, mentally, physically, socially in all ways in order to go Back to Godhead.

You explained us how we are entangled in the web of Maya devi, and how simply chanting the Hare Krishna Mantra with the attitude of servant of servant of servant, we can become free. You explained lucidly the ways to practice Krishna Conscious in the family life.

You have showered the rain of nectar upon us in form of your classes of Srimad Bhagvatam, Bhagvad gita and Chaitanya Charitramita. By your causeless mercy, I am able to continue my menial sadhana and seva. By your attitude and behavior, you have taught us the true essence of becoming the servant of servant of devotees. Then only Lordships Radha Madhava will be pleased.

I am very grateful and fortunate for getting the chance to attend the spiritual yatras organized by you, where we get association of your grace and hundreds of devotees, from all around world. By your example and struggles you faced just to give us benefit of Krishna consciousness , you have melted out stoned heart of millions of fallen soul, like doing alone cooking for deities, preaching intensely with humble mood, cleaning, deity worship, singing kirtans, etc. has energized our devotion. And despite of getting all things ready-made, I am not able to practice bhakti with full intensity and increase KC movement.

On this day Sri Guru Maharaj ji please bless me so that I can also follow in your footsteps and become a sincere disciple to actually please you and guru parampara. Please bless me so that I can see whatever I am getting good association, opportunity to serve, prasadam etc. as your blessings and can follow your teachings year after year in mood of trnadapi sunichena.. and please forgive me Guru Maharaj. I always fall short of my superior and equals expectation, many times bring my own false ego instead of your pleasure, gets disturbed by temporary things instead of embracing eternal assets given by you, find faults in devotees instead of seeing their brighter side. I do not have any hope other than your mercy to become better devotee.

Thank you very much guru maharaj ji for keeping me under your safe shelter.

PRASHANTH JAMPANI (FULLERTON, USA)

Hare Krishna dear Guru maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Sri Guru & Gauranga. All glories to Srila Prabhupad.

Maharaj, wish you a most wonderful appearance day. Unqualified as I am, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji for your good health and for more glory to be achieved by your amazing services to Srila Prabhupad's mission.

Maharaj, by your kind mercy, I have been able to chant my rounds everyday this year. Last year, we were blessed with baby Sreenidhi on your appearance day. Her appearance has been a good learning experience as well as challenging for me. I have learnt the critical importance of a support structure in raising a baby, having been blessed with support from my wife's parents (at whose place we reside). I have also seen how quickly babies learn and have seen my in-laws do a good job including the baby in their system of faith. I have attempted to share the holy name with her to the best of my abilities, but have not been impactful, given that I find myself a lone practitioner in the household.

I have been extremely fortunate, however, to have had the opportunity this year to be introduced to HG Rupanuga prabhu at ISKCON Laguna Beach. Though I haven't had the chance to spend a lots of time with him, I had the opportunity to serve the GBC college this year under his tutelage. Your kind session for the college was wonderful to see and though I could not attend the graduation ceremony live, I found your kindness heart melting upon watching the video at a later time.

The latter part of this year has been very challenging for me maharaj. I have struggled with an intense schedule due to a new job and my chanting quality has been extremely sub-par. My hearing (I used to listen to your lectures all the time for the last few years, but this year has been different) has taken a hit as well. Both have resulted in old anarthas raising their head after 5 years of my marriage. It has been heart-breaking for me personally, but I find myself a victim of an old habit.

Going into another new year, I cannot see any other hope to overcome my anarthas and to get back to a more balanced and sincere bhakti life without your kind mercy.

I have somehow lost my way and connection to your mercy in the recent past and pray for your kind prayers so that I may somehow serve your servants in service of Srila Prabhupad with much love for Lord Gauranga's mission.

Your aspiring servant,

Prashanth

PRATIK KUMAR (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krsna Respected Maharaj,

Please accept my most respectful humble obeisances.

All Glories to You, All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I always feel privileged to glorify You exclusively as You are someone in my life whom I look upon to follow and derive inner inspiration.

Dear Guru Maharaj, last year have been full of so many important events in my life, marriage was the highlight and some hiccups in the beginning. I was away from the contact of Your divine vaani for long time after which I am realising how important Guru's shelter is. Hearing from You and hearing about You from senior vaishnavas is very dear to my heart.

You always share the treasure of love and compassion that your heart carries and that's what You keep emphasizing in your instructions. And when I hear from devotees who carry this mood I feel very enlivened and like to associate more and more with them. And this mood of yours is very much replicated in the communities which are created by you.

Maharaj, it's my desire that I can fulfill this one instruction of yours' by sharing what I have with others. But still I haven't found the right way to do so, I still need right guidance. I do little bit of services here and there but no service to which I can give my life to, that's the biggest dissatisfaction in my heart. Maharaj, I wish to please you by taking a commitment to hear your vaani atleast half an hour everyday, developing devotional relationship with my wife and my parents, inviting and serving vaishnavas at my home. I beg for your mercy, that I get strength to fulfill my commitments to please you in some little way.

Thank you Maharaj.

Trying to be your unworthy follower....

Hare Krishna,

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at Your Lotus Feet.

As insignificant lowly servant of your servants, making this humble attempt to write few words of Glorification. Please bless me to write few words.

"If you are not Grateful then you are great fool" these golden words of yours always keep ringing and I am unable to become Grateful. Just by seeing You Gurudev, I start thinking to develop all these Vaishnava qualities. 3rd verse of Shikshastam prayers are inbuilt in you and I personally aspire to follow tinge of that, which will make my life perfect.

One of the inspiring pastime of that turkey lady forcing you with her bodyguard is really inspiring. Your intense loving relationship and sweet Vaishnava relationship with Your God Brother's and God sister's is epitome of dealings.

In most lowly, lonely and bad times, Your Vani, Oh My Dear Gurudev acts like most cooking shelter and solace and in times of joy, same Vani brings me to ground level and Your Vani keeps me on track of Bhakti whenever I go astray from path. That means I have complete faith that if someone keeps on hearing Your Vani, and following it, then no one can stop him from becoming perfect.

Thank you so much for everything, just by Your presense Gurudev, people feel closer to Krishna and Srila Prabhupada.

Please bless this servant of your servants so that I can serve and engage in Srila Prabhupada's service.

PRATIK PRASAD (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna dear Gurudev,

Please accept my obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad!

All glories to your divine self!!

Our scriptures describe that how great personalities, who are associates of lord, descend from the spiritual abode and walk on the surface of the earth to deliver the fallen souls, out of great compassion for them, being forgetful of Krishna.

Your appearance specially in my life is the greatest mercy of Krishna and Srila Prabhupad.

I am sustaining my spiritual life only by the grace of your blessings, your enlivening Vani, your personal example, arising out of great concern for us.

I am aspiring to be your disciple and take initiation from yourself. Understanding the standard of your expectation of your disciple, I am extremely unqualified, pastly not being able to follow spiritual principles, offending devotees, not interested in seva, and still proud for nothing. I am aware that all these things are extremely unliked by you. But somehow or other I am attracted by your disciples family, and your personal example and specially your Vani, which is the source of all my inspiration, strength to practice my each limb of spiritual life.

I beg you to shower me mercy so that I can become grateful for you, which is the fuel for my spiritual life ahead. I am like an dull animal, keep on forgetting what you have been doing for me. Please bless me with that intelligence.

Please Gurudev, I beg you to give me strength to remain protected from Maya, and have great enthusiasm, determination to serve Krishna and his devotees.

Your continous shower of mercy upon me, in the form of your lectures, counsellor, devotees around me, temple, desire for practicing spiritual life and do something for mission of SP is unvaluable and inconceivable. My only hope is your causeless mercy upon me to accept me your disciple and give me strength, intelligence, mercy, determination to follow in your footsteps.

I only desire to chant sincerely names of Krishna and develop love for him and his devotees, and become an instrument in your hands to distribute mercy of Srila Prabhupad and Lord Chaitanya in the mood of servant of servant.

Please forgive for my frivolous behaviour and offences to you and your devotees.

Aspiring to be your servant of servants,

PREETI CHOUDHARY (SURAT, GUJARAT, INDIA)

Dearmost Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto the dust of your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to Your Holiness.

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyas Puja, I offer my most respectful obeisances unto Your Divine Lotus Feet.

In Srimad Bhagavatam, 3.2.17, Srila Prabhupada says that- 'By the grace of the spiritual master, the cloud of the mercy of the Personality of Godhead is brought in, and then only, when the rains of Krishna Consciousness fall, can the fire of material existence be extinguished.

Guru Maharaj, everyday, while trying to perform my sadhana, and the entire day, I realise how much I am covered with the thick curtain of maya, because how much ever I try to perform my sadhana and devotional services in a way that pleases you and Krishna, I fail to do so. And my only hope is your unlimited grace which can cut down the thick curtain of maya.

Your Holiness, many a times, mentioned of what it means to be the servant of the servant of the servant. You have said that- 'What it means to be a servant? To rejoice to see another devotee succeed, to rejoice to see another devotee empowered, to lament when we see a devotee suffering..whatever difficulties, and doing everything we can to help. That is Vaishnava. You further continued and quoted Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur and said that to be the servant of the Vaishnavas is the aspiration of those in the line of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu.

May the only desire of my heart be to be the servant of the servant of the servant of the Vaishnavas.

Srila Prabhupada has given the most sublime method of Krishna Consciousness to the entire world. Yet because of my anarthas, I am unable to fully acknowledge and show my gratitude towards this matchless gift that has been given to the conditioned souls like myself, by His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada. It's only by your causeless mercy, Guru Maharaj, that I'll be able to understand the importance of what has been given to me, and be able to follow it, make every moment of this human life successful, and by not wasting any moment for the things that binds me to this material existence, as you instructed that one should not be wasting a moment for the things that binds us to material existence.

I once heard in a lecture by HG Vrajendra Krishna Prabhuji, disciple of HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaj, that Bhakti life works on the principle of Sharnagati, surrender, just like a mobile works on battery. Without surrender, there is not Bhakti.

Guru Maharaj, today, I completely surrender until Your Divine lotus feet. I am a helpless soul, crying and begging for your causeless mercy. Please accept me Guru Maharaj under your divine shelter, that's the only ray of light in the darkness of this material existence, and the only hope I have.

Your Holiness once said that- 'By such an endeavour of surrendering to the Lord through His Divine representatives, following their instructions and through chanting Krishna's Holy names- Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare Hare, Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare, and not giving up when things are difficult.- That's Surrender.

Today, I immensely pray at Your Lotus Feet, Guru Maharaj, that May I be able to surrender in a way that you want, in a way that pleases you, the acharyas and Krishna, and May whatever difficulties come, I always find solace under divine shelter and my surrender towards your lotus feet keeps on ever-increasing. May the only desire of my heart is to please you, the acharyas, Krishna and always engage in the service of the Vaishnavas.

Thank you very much for everything.

Your most insignificant servant,

Preeti.

Please accept my humble obseinces

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

On this most auspicious occasion of your appearance day, we would like to wish you lots of good health.

Also we would like to express gratitude at your lotus feet on this special day for so many spiritual gifts that we have recieved from you.

About nine months back we have shifted from Muscat to Mumbai, Mira Road mainly as a concern for Devotee Association for us and especially for our nine year old son Sankarshan. And all along since we have arrived we are feeling that personnal warmth of devotees all around us.

We have found shelter for our services at Bhaktivedanta Hospital and Gopals Garden as doctor and teacher respectively. Our son joined Gopal's Garden for his education.

For spiritual visits you have arranged Govardhan Eco Village for us, where we celebrated Govardhan Puja, Srila Prabhupada Dissaperance day, and Spiritual retreat by BVH already along with devotees and relatives. Amazing discourses by our senior Godbrothers like HG Gaurang Pr,HG Vishwarup Pr, HG Dwarkadhish Pr were immensely inspiring.

We would like to thank you from the core of our hearts for not only giving wisdom in your wonderful lectures but also live community where we practically see principles of devotional service in action.

We seek your kind blessings that we become an asset to our society(and not liability) by being able to embrace your teachings in our life very seriously and also contribute to its growth in some humble yet meaning way.

Dearest Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to You.

I am eternally indebted to you for everything that you have taught me through your vani and your infinite compassion. Although I do not have your direct association but your prayers and affection are always keeping me in Krishna consciousness otherwise I do not have any qualification. Your emphasis on the most essential aspects of bhakti is what I aspire to follow namely- Nama Ruci, Vaishnava Seva and Jiva Daya. Everything that you have taught revolves around these three principles which should be practiced in the mood of servant of servant of servant in separation....I beg and pray at your feet to give me taste and attraction to these three and that I may always practice it in the mood of servant of servant.... I am desperately looking forward to your vapuh association.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you!!!

It's been long two years since we had your physical Darshan at the Institute House (IFAST, DC). Even though we had good fortune via Zoom but to just see you and your assuring loving, sweet smile is a feast to our eyes. The very reason for our existence gets fulfilled. Your gentle ways, politeness and humility wins hearts and you direct those hearts to Krishna. What attracts people to Krishna is not philosophy but the behaviour and conduct of a person. This quality is present in you. You have a very loving and caring attitude.

Guru Maharaj you are an uttama adhikari, you never see bad in others, you always see the good, you are our best well wisher.

This year has been full of real practical life lessons for me in spirituality. At the beginning of this year, my father was very sick and was in the last stage of his life. I had the desire to go see him and speak to him once before he left his body. Because of yours and Lord's mercy, I had the fortune of traveling to India in this pandemic and seeing him. I chanted besides him, served him, spoke to him, kept Srila Prabhupada's tape next to his ears so he could be surrounded by the Holy Name of Krishna. He was happy that I was with him. He left his body ten days later. I immersed his ashes in Udupi, our hometown. After I travelled back to Washington DC, I got to know that travel to India got banned one week later. I was so grateful that I could just travel to India and come back in time. This whole thing gave me special realizations on how mercy of Lord and pure Vaishnavas can fulfil our sincere and heartfelt desires to serve others. This is all possible by your mercy Guru Maharaja.

You instructed me to be in service in the mood of servant of the servant of servants of the Lord and to be exemplary servant leader in this way. At every step i always try to remember this that I am just a servant nothing else. Thank you Maharaja!! Words are not enough to glorify you and your sweet qualities. So I try to glorify you through the life that I live everyday.

At IFAST, the place which is very close to your heart as Bhakti Tirtha Swami lived and preached, I try to serve Madhvacharya prabhu and Kunti mataji. This place is very close to me and my family. We feel safe and sheltered under them. I find myself fortunate to be in association with them. Their humble mood, service attitude, love and care always attracts many, including me.

Thank you Maharaja for associating me with IFAST.

On this divine appearance day, I pray Krishna grant you good health and long life so that you can continue preaching throughout the world and glorifying our Madhva Gaudiya Sampradaya.

All glories to you and your service,

We love you from the core of my heart,

With love,

PREMA SVARUPA DAS (KOLKATA, INDIA)

Respected Gurudev,

Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances.

i am very grateful to you for giving me your shelter and accepting me as your disciple. Srila Prabhupada always signed his letter in conclusion as "Your ever well wisher", which meant suhrdam sarva bhutanam. Prabhupada has awarded me the house of ISKCON and you as my eternal master. this is the greatest reward any person may receive. i am so blinded with my impurities and illusioned by the material energy, that i don't realize the greatest blessing in my life. my only duty is to become chaste and embrace your instructions as my life and soul. please forgive me for my inability and bless me so that i can make a beginning.

i am able to associate with you through your vani, association of your senior disciples and the opportunity of service at Kolkata dhaam. i feel enthralled and have many sublime spiritual experiences when i place myself in the association of above. i would like to reflect and share the blessings you have been awarding me through them.

Reflection 1: associating with your vani

Srila Prabhupada would become greatly annoyed by the dogs barking and devotees snoring in the night during his translation service. He would ask his senior disciples to chase the dogs off and shift the devotees snoring to avoid the disturbance in your service. Prabhupada identified this service as his main offering to the Lordships and to his spiritual master. He gave his precious night hours sacrificing his health and life to make this offering for the whole world's emancipation. Similarly, you become greatly annoyed when the sound system goes off or does not function well during your lectures. your message through your lectures is your greatest offering to the Lordships and to Srila Prabhupada. you sacrifice your existence to prepare these lectures for all of our deliverance. you called the wires of sound system as the arteries and veins of the sankirtan movement. Every word of your lecture is filled with so much message and realizations. i seriously become affected by your words and shaken to my reality by them. i owe you my existence Gurudev. i want to commit to become more regular to hear your lectures and churn them to remove the poison of my annarthas and drink the elixir of Krishna rasayanam. Please bless me to be able to associate with you regularly and keep my chastity to the parampara.

Reflection 2: associating with your senior disciples.

your senior disciples put me in awe and veneration by their devotion, dedication and complete surrender. they are so advanced and accomplished, but they are very humble. In spite of being so empowered and contributing in the mission at such great levels, still they identify themselves as servants. They love you so much and are ready to dedicate their lives wholeheartedly in gratitude. i have been blessed by association of HG Radheshyam pr, HG Gauranga pr and HG Acaryaratna pr. Recently, i received the shower of nectar through the association of HG Radha Gopinath pr and HH Bhakti Rasamrita Swami Maharaj. Their example is a beacon light for each of us. i am surviving because of receiving your warmth through them. Please bless me so that i can take your association through your disciples very seriously. i want to commit my life in their footsteps and lose my independent mentality and plans. All my problems evaporate instantaneously in their association and example.

Reflection 3: Association with your service at Kolkata dhaam.

This is my lifeline and your greatest mercy upon me. you have given me your heart and heartfelt blessings to be able to serve here at SP's birth place. you have awarded us residence at Sripada Kshetra(place of Guru) and directives to prepare a place of worship to honor the master(Srila Prabhupada). It is an amazing journey of discovery at every step of my service. you are revealing Krishna's hand in course of my service. Lord Chaitanya's divine blue print is unfolding in course of time by itself. thank you for tolerating me and giving me your association through this service at Srila Prabhupada's birth place.

thank you for being my eternal master and accepting me as your servant. please qualify me in your service and make me worthy. i want to become your instrument and give my life for that.

thank you again for your divine association.

PREMALATA DEVI DASI AND ARJUNGOPA DAS (LOS ANGELES, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances, All glories to Srila Prabhupad, All glories to you.

Gurudev you exibit innumerable Vaishnava qualities. One that inspires us most is your dedication to please your guru maharaj Srila Prabhupad. There are many incidents in your life that exhibit this quality. One of the most striking incident that show this is manifestation of Govardhan Eco Village (GEV).

Srila Prabhupad wanted New Vrindavan to be replica of Vrindavan Dham. He wanted temples of all 7 goswamis there. When you were at New Vrindavan, you tried your best to help to bring that dream true. We heard that even when you were not there, you had collected huge donations and gave it to New Vrindavan temple for building remaining temples and forests of Vrindavan. Still due to some reasons the funds were not utilized for that purpose and Srila Prabhupad's dream was still unfulfilled. But your desire to fulfill that dream was much stronger than circumstances. You started slowly developing GEV. And now we see that one after other all the pastime places of Lord Krishna are manifested in GEV.

Srila Prabhupad was given instruction to preach when he was very young. Though he could not fulfill it immediately, that instruction was close to his heart and he fulfilled it in most glories way after taking sanyasa. Similarly we see that you were knowing Srila Prabhupad's desire for creating Gupta Vrindavan and you fulfilled it in most glories way. You not only created GEV but imbibed the mood of being servant of servant, as taught by Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, in everyone staying there and visiting that place.

It is said there are five types of Vrindavan.

1. Goloka Vrindavan: Vrindavan in Spiritual World

2. Bhauma Vrindavan: Vrindavan 5000 years when Krishna was personally present on Earth and enacted his pastimes

3. Drishyamana Vrindavan: Vrindavan on Earth after Krishna left, which is visible to us and is covered by his yogamaya potency

4. Gupta Vrindavan: Vrindavan which is created as a replica on the order and instruction of great souls.

5. Hridi sthita Vrindavan: Vrindavan in the heart of the devotees, revealed by the grace of the Lord Gurumaharaj by seeing you we can very well say that you have Hridi Sthita Vrindavan. Your heart is always in Vrindava and Vrindavan is in your heart. If it was not for serving Srila Prabhupad, you would never have left Vrindavan.

Since Virndavan is in your heart, you could manifest it in form of Gupta Vrindavan – GEV.

Through your yatras we can see and appreciate Drishyamana Vrindavan.

Through your lectures we can get faith in Bhuma Vrindavan and understand pastimes of Lord Krishna happened there.

And we know that if we follow your instruction, you'll take us to to Golok Vrindavan at the end of our life.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, we pray for your good health and long life so that many thousands of wondering souls can be delivered by your mercy. We beg your mercy so that we always follow your instructions and act in way that is pleasing to you. We beg forgiveness guru maharaj for our inability to live up to what you expect us to live many a time. Your mercy is our only hope.

• ”One can immediately purify his entire house simply by remembering exalted personalities, to say nothing of directly seeing them, touching their lotus feet, washing their feet or offering them places to sit.”

Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.19.33

Even during difficult situation of Pandemic around the world, you mercifully gave your association to all of us through zoom classes on practically every festival and also exclusive sanga/association for all brahmacaris disciples.

By your absorbing classes, enthusiastic kirtans and very heart touching personal zoom meeting, we all felt very close to you.

Thank you for keeping all Kanpur devotees in your prayers and merciful glance.

• You have really given yourselves to your disciples and followers through your transcendental classes.

In year 2009-10, seeing my low KC situation, HG Radheshyam P told me to make my service report and meet you after SB class in Chaupatty. I was eagerly waiting for this movement. After SB class got over, I came to you with seva report and some students, requesting your directions/instructions, you told in very simple world - “I just spoke”

• At GEV initiation 2019, HG Radheshyam Prabhu wanted to me to introduce all Kanpur Varanasi devotees to you. When I was introducing in broken words, we could see that you were really concern for us and your lips were making movement to speak and you spoke with concern to all of us Kanpur, Varanasi and Prayagraj devotees -”Take shelter of Srimad Bhagavatam, serve Vaishnavas and Chant holyname enthusiastically”

We could see amazing transformation at Kanpur, when devotees tried to follow you instruction which you gave in first meeting - “Be sincere and humble , Krishna will empower you beyond your imaginations “. Personally and collectively we can see in our life that your words manifested in totality.

• Modes are very difficult to overcome, material desires always agitates heart and world around is changing very fast. In such situation, it becomes extremely difficult to focus and execute your divine instructions. We humbly beg for strength to overcome lethargy, to not deviated to material attractions, to work on anarthas to serve Srila Prabhupada’s mission at Kanpur and UP.

Thank you very much Maharaj for all the wonderful gifts of Krishna consciousness.

Parampujya Guru Maharaj,

Please Accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga. All glories to Shrila Prabhupad.

Maharaj, this year we all are celebrating 125th Anniversary of Jagat Guru His Divine Grace A C Bhaktivedanta swamy Prabhupad.

On this Auspicious Occasion Maharaj, I am enumerating your Revelations of life & times of Shrila Prabhupad and your Instructions on how to please prabhupad.

The Internal Substance of our moment will be recognized to the degree the devotees actually live by what shrila prabhupad has taught us and live by the example that he has set, that is where the real integrity will manifest. Prabhupad wanted us to distribute his books by the millions. Now is the December marathon. How wonderful it is that we have the opportunity to actually accept inconveniences, tolerate the dualities and approach every type of living being and try to give them Krishna. But that's not what prabhupad wanted us to do. He wanted us to read the books, understand them and to live by them. He built beautiful Temples, why? So that people can come and associate with the devotees & see the living examples but a perfect preacher is one who would speak the truth and live by that rule. That was Shrila prabhupad's glory.

We know that Shrila prabhupad is nitya siddha but still his life is instructive. Shrila prabhupad explains his parents, when he was young, when he would get up in the morning what he would see?

He would see his parents not drinking tea & reading newspaper. He would see his parents worshipping Radha govind, the deities, his father would be offering Aarti, and his mother would be serving bhoga. He would see them actively engaged in serving deities.

Everyday his father would invite sadhus to the house, feed them and his father would never ask sadhus for good business or never ask his son marry a good lady. His father was only asking to give the benediction that my son would be a good devotee of Shrimati Radharani and what was the result? Shrila prabhupad dedicated the Krishna book to his father Gaur Mohan Dey in that dedication Shrila prabhupad says that Gaur Mohan Dey imbibe within me from my earliest age, the spirit of devotion to Krishna and later on, When I met my eternal father Bhakti Sidhant Saraswati Thakur who gave me the full revelation.

Shrila prabhupad said, "My prayer is that you all become better preacher than me." Shrila prabhupad and other great acharya's were not preaching simply to become famous. Instead, they were praying that everyone become a good preacher and the whole world becomes Krishna Conscious.

Whatever we say or we do, we must calculate "Is this going to bring about a good result or a negative result. Is this going to help Shrila prabhupad and Lord Chaitnaya's mission or is this going to create an impediment in the progress of this mission? This is human life. This is Tapasya. The mind is very fickle. So, we cannot put our trust in our mind. We have to understand "What is it that guru and Krishna and vaishnava's want from me. I will accept it and what is not to be done, I will not do even if my senses are just bombarding me with desires, even if ,my mind is going mad with greed or anger or lust or pride.

Due to egoism, everyone thinks "I can judge others. I am right, you are wrong. If you stand between me and my aspirations of pooja, labh, pratishta, then, you become my enemy."

Where there is disunity amongst devotees, there cannot be proper Sankirtan and that is the reason prabhupad in his last days said "Show your love for me by co-operating with each other." Work together & save the whole world, to the degree we can develop these relations with one another to that degree, we could be really be part of Chaitanya mahaprabhu's mission & through his representatives, the five Goswami's & later on of course Bhaktivedanta swami they have given such a perfect & complete philosophy that can transform the whole world, they have given us the most powerful weapon in all of the whole creation; the holy names of Krishna & the world is in great need of this.

Shrila Prabhupad stressed the urgency to surrender to Krishna. Every line of his books, every sentence of his tapes, you would hear him urgently, just pleading with you and me, to take Krishna Consciousness seriously.

Shrila Prabhupad's miracle was that he gave everybody the chance to become Krishna conscious. And those who heard his voice and somehow or other connected to that urgency within him, they became empowered. They were lazy hippies sleeping on the streets, never worked a day in their life, and then by contact with Shrila Prabhupad, they were out distributing books 15 Hours a day! Outside in the blizzard winters of the New York City! And the only reason why they came home is for mangala arati and to chant their rounds. They did this for years!

I remember when I was pujari. I was very happy doing deity worship day & night, year after year, but would always read Shrila Prabhupad's books, hear his tapes, hear about how Shrila Prabhupads is so eager for us to preach. So I was praying to the deities, “I am very grateful to worship you, but my Guru Maharaj keeps talking about preaching. Ultimately I want to please him. I don’t know what preaching is. But I want to please him. So whatever you think is best.”

And sometimes later I was given an order, “We need more devotees in the temple. Go out and preach.” I never asked. And who was I? From New Vrindavan. I smelt like a cow because I would milk cows. I had one dhoti that had holes in it and an old blanket from the World War II army that had holes in it. I was told to preach. Very little education. I went to one semester of a Junior College. And here I was in Universities speaking to Ph.D candidates, Professors, and they would be sitting in rapt attention, challenging and being defeated. And I was thinking, “What’s happening? Who is doing it? I am a fool. I don’t know much.” But if we somehow or other feel that urgency, Shrila Prabhupad could do everything through anyone of us.”

Before I conclude my offerings, I want to state to my god brother’s, One of our senior god brother told me that Maharaj after giving initiation, he felt that he is just connecting all of us to Shrila Prabhupad and He is only an instrument.

Maharaj on this auspicious day we all seek blessings from you for full protection as we all are like crying babies very close to Maya and bound to do nonsense. We request you to forgive us and continue to shower your causeless mercy and we all will try our sincere best to serve you & Shrila prabhupad.

Praying to all the assembled Vaishnavas to bless, so that I shed down my enjoying spirit and develop the service attitude in the mood of Servant of servants.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humblest obeisance at your Lotus feet

All glories to srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

On the auspicious occasion of your 71st Vyaspuja, pls accept my sincere prayers, obeisances and heartfelt wishes.

“Greatness of a person has to be estimated by his ability to tolerate provoking situations”... Srila Prabhupadas eternal masterpiece!

Everytime I think of your example in this light, I become awestruck by your unfathomable and immeasurable greatness.

Provoking situations could either be the temptations which maya would put on a sadhakas path or they could be utter difficulties where one feels completely hopeless and dejected to carry on the mission, or it could be insults and misunderstandings from the very people one might look upto and love, or a provoking situation could also be a shower unlimited glory and success which might come a devotees way while trying to assist Guru and Krishna in Their mission of compassion. There are probably unlimited ways in which a devotee might face such provoking situations when the very foundation of his spiritual jouney could be callenged. Each one of these situations could be such intense tests that surpassing them successfully would establish the greatness of one’s devotional commitment to the path of KC.

But what an awesome example is yours, Guru Maharaj, who had ALL of such provoking situations to the highest degree, most intense and for multiple times and your ability to not deter even a fig from your service and commitment to Srila Prabhupad’s service proved your unlimited greatness time and again.

There were situations of irresistible approaches and advances from opposite sex but you kept the mission of Guru as your priority and easily resisted the vicious attacks from maya

There were situations of temptations when on your quest of search for the truth, you came across hearty invitations from so many masters of diffrent paths to join them, but you resisted with grace and respect yet firmly continueing your search untill it was truly met.

There were situations when you were insulted by mere neophyte brahmacharis out of their envy and literally stopped from giving even a Bhagavatam class, there were situations when you had to go thru unbearable pain of accusations and blasphemy for absolutely no faults of yours, there were situations when your health was on the blink of full collapse almost unrecoverable, ... And on the other hands there were also provoking situations of unlimited glory, success, adoration and worship by millions in your journey home... But even that didn’t distract you a fig from your journey within.... The list of such situations is unending Guru Maharaj, and so is your greatness and glory.

It wont be an exaggeration Guru maharaj, if I call each day nay each moment of your journey as a moment of great provoking situation... And that is the testimony of your true greatness. As you always teach “ one becomes great, by taking shelter of the all great, Lord Sri Krishna...” And you have personified that teaching.

On your auspicious apperance day today, pls bless me with an iota of that spiritual strength so that I might be able to grateful and gracefully tolerate any insignificant provoking situations, in comparison to yours, which are and which might come on my way while trying to serve you.

I have no strength Guru maharaj, and the varities of weapons of provokations which maya throws constantly are very strong... Your mercy is my only only and only hope.

Aspiring to be Servant of your servants,

His Holiness Radhanath Swami Turns 71 in 2021

Hare Krishna and Dandavat Pranam to Maharaj and everyone

Under the sun and deep beneath the ocean

Maharaj has turned seventy-one

In this current year of twenty twenty-one

Henceforth we have assembled here today on the occasion

Of Vyas Puja special celebration

So many hearts he has won

By surrendering to the one and only one

And that is Srila Prabhupada who accepted him as his divine son

Your “Journey Home” and “Journey Within” got rid of our confusion

And outlined the path for everyone

On how to attain the Supreme goal and destination

Your vaani mesmerizes everyone

Your vaapu brightens the room like the radiant sun

It is hard to describe your accomplishments as to what you have done

So, let’s suffice by saying that we feel extremely blessed and grateful that you have accepted all of us as your chosen one

It’s been quite some time since you visited Detroit during Farmington Hills’ Radha Gopijana Vallabha temple inauguration

Perhaps consider Detroit for twenty twenty two as your next destination

Even their Lordships, Radha Kunjabihari and Radha Gopijana Vallabha, are inviting you for association

Until then all of us will stay absorbed in chanting of the Hare Krishna Mahamantra meditation

Your rendition,

Be it of the Golden Avatar incarnation,

Or of the Six Goswamis of the Mathura Vrindavan station,

Or of Devakinandan and Yashodanandan, the Supreme epitome of mother-child relation,

Captivates us all in rapt attention

And puts us right in the middle of the past times in person

Then in addition

Your sense of humor makes us all laugh in jubilation

Your kirtan Maharaj, not only puts us in a state of trance, dance, parlance, ecstatic stance, but also in a state of blissful meditative absorption

This makes us want to do more holy name glorification

Undoubtedly, these are fantastic gifts that you have been given

Finally, Maharaj, our limited understanding is that you like four things in unison

First, our service attitude in line with Supreme Personality of Godhead devotion

Then, humility, tolerance and loving relation

With each and everyone in this creation

We believe these bring you immense joy and satisfaction

Especially, from all of us in this disciplic succession

Maharaj, while we perform our own self – introspection

Towards these four basic qualification

Continue to bless us, as you know, we all have our own trials and tribulation

Such as laziness, conditioning, and mental agitation

But we do humbly state that we have strong faith, conviction, and determination

We wish you the best of health and eagerly await our next in person visitation

Until then, by having you as our Spiritual master we truly feel that we have already won by forming a divine relation

With our colleagues, friends, strangers, and family, thereby transcending the boundaries of any nation

PRIYA RANI (SHYAMDESH, UAE)

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of Your lotus feet.

Fortunate is the soul who is in Krishna Consciousness and even fortunate is he who is practicing Krishna Consciousness under the guidance of a bonafide spiritual master. Wandering in the 14 planetary system, I had no hope for redemption for I didn't know the path or the process. Being born in this human form, I still remained ignorant and never questioned my existence until the torments and dualities of this world stroke me. In such a time, my dear Gurudeva, You appeared to this orphan child like an angel. The feeling was that of seeing the full moon after an elongated period of dark nights. Your gracious smile is the source of solace to the subdued heart and Your speech the nectar that nourishes my dying soul.

Therefore, there's no day as blessed as Your appearance day and no person as dear and near than Your gracious self to this lowly servant. On this most auspicious day of Your appearance, I express my hearty gratitude to Srimati Radharani and Sri Krishna, for sending Their most merciful servant in my life, to Srila Prabhupada for bestowing His mercy upon me through one of His dear sons, to Your parents for bringing You to this world. Lord Nityānanda Prabhu has surely been merciful to me, how else could I meet a bonafide and loving spiritual master otherwise?

On the day of Vyasa puja, the sincere disciples should glorify their Guru. Dear Gurudeva, I have no wit or worth to do so. However, considering my shortcomings and your greatness, I am often reminded of a verse from Sri Caitanya Bhagavat-

—nityānanda-aṅge muṣi kailuṅ raktapāta

ihā bali' nirantara kare ātma-ghāta‖

He would condemn himself while repeatedly saying, “I made the body of Nityānanda bleed.

—ye aṅge caitanya candra karaye vihāra

hena aṅge muṣi pāpī kariluṅ prahāra‖

“I am so sinful that I hit the body in which Lord Caitanya enjoys His pastimes.”

Srila Gurudeva You are the embodiment of the essence of bhakti and the representative of Nityānanda Prabhu, it’s through You that we have access to Sri Gauranga Mahaprabhu.

When I fail to chant, when I don’t follow the regulative principles, when I engage in sinful activities, I hurt the body of my dear guru maharaj. My sins, my inattentiveness in KC leave scars on the body of Nityānanda swarupa! I’m so sinful I cause pain and disturbance to the body in which Lord Caitanya Candra enjoys His pastimes, the body through which Lord Nityānanda speaks, showers His mercy and delivers miscreants like me. What hope do I have, my dear Nityānanda Prabhu? You saved Madhai, so I also have great hope that my dear Gurudev will never forsake me for if true love never dies, I hope You never forsake me dear Gurudev.

I forever seek Thy shelter and may I forever walk the path that You lead. Please keep me as a watchdog in the house you live in and call me Your loyal servant and may I live a life to establish my loyalty to my dear master, my Srila Gurudeva. Thank you dear Gurudev for lending me Your ears and heart. Love and gratitude to you.

Your forever aspiring daughter and servant

PRIYAGAURANGA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru maharaj

Please accept my respectful obeisance at your lotus feet guru maharaj.

I feel very fortunate to accepted me your disciples, even though I am not qualified.

Maharaj on this auspicious day I would only say big Thank you to you for accepting me.

I join ISKCON in 1996 in Solapur, Maharashtra India. after couple of year I left because of my ego, selfishness, etc etc… One day I saw Temple opening poster of Shri Shri Radha Govindji in Nigdi Pune. I don’t know what was happened that day after office work, when I started to go home, suddenly my motorcycle took U turn to find the temple. I visited temple after the opening ceremony, started to attend weekly program, slowly slowly mangala aarti and thanks to temple bramchari’s HG Ram Govind dev prabhu who hold my hand and guided me. With his recommendation I joined Concealer group.

I only heart your name during my first part of Iskcon, even in our concealer group, but I never saw you from my eyes. I tried to take your darshan during NVCC temple opening, but I failed.

When I got news about my initiation from my concealer HG Haridham Das prabhuji, I was not so excited about initiation, I was so happy to see my Guru Maharaj.

Finally Guru Maharaj I saw you very closely during your initiation lecture in Wada and when you called me PriyaGauranga.

There is a lot to write but I will stop here.

Once again thank you so much Maharaj for accepting me.

Please keep your blessing on me that I stay steady on path shown and guided by you.

PRIYANKA KAMBLI (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Thank you guru maharaj fir your live and mercy upon us. Bless me maharaj to stay focused in bhakti and serve krsna and you a little more.

PRIYANKA MADHUMESH KENCHE (MUMBAI, MAHARASHTRA)

Dear radhanath Swami Maharaj,

I’m really great ful to you prabhuji,I’m very eager to listen to your lectures and wish to once at least darshan of your in this life so that I can advance in my devotional service.

All glories to you on this day.

Hare krishna Maharaj.

PUNYA VANDANA DEVI DASI (CHENNAI, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj

My humble obeisances to you

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

I feel unqualified & very insignificant to say anything about you. Please accept my humble attempt to glorify you on your most auspicious appearance day.

You are an epitome of humility. I saw your one of the pictures where you were sitting on the ground at the airport. I was really stunned to see it. How humility and gravity are reflected on your face and character, is amazing. And how degraded I am, not having even 0.1% of any of the qualities that you are possessing.

At the same time I felt very fortunate, safe and protected under your shelter. Thank you so much Guru Maharaj. My heartfelt gratitude to you to accept and be the captain of my boat which is tossing very badly in the ocean of nescience, material miseries as well as my anarthas which are as high as mountain Meru. I have the hope that how much high the waves may be, you will save me from drowning.

By your mercy I had some fortune moments of your association when I went to Yatra. Be it Vrindavana, Jagannath Puri or Mayapur, you were always grave and serenity entered as you stepped in into the pandal. Silence surrounded the whole arena when you deeply dived in to the mantras. And everyone was so attentive to see the glimpse of yours and hear the nectar that starts flowing from your lotus mouth. Your love and gratitude for your Guru Maharaj, Srila Prabhupada, is always an inspiration for me. Your deep absorption in to the Krishna Katha shows how you are always in the association of the Supreme Lord as if you are part of those pastimes, as if you are personally experiencing those pastimes. When will I be so absorbed like you? It's like a dream and my one birth seems to be very less.

And who can forget your ecstatic Kirtan, which is out of the world experience. That part of land becomes aloof from the material world and transforms in to spiritual world. Each and every face is jubilant and blissful. And this is what it means when one says "In spiritual world every word is a song and every step is a dance".

And what to speak about your mercy and compassion dear Guru Maharaj. You are very merciful and compassionate to not only to the fallen souls like me but also to all the living entities. I am recalling an incident when a Prabhuji was telling that once there was a program somewhere and outside pandal there was an arrangement of small water fountain and decoration where a small tortoise was kept. Once Prabhuji showed it to you Guru Maharaj, and you became so grave and asked about well-being of Tortoise and what will he eat and where will he sit? You requested that Prabhuji to make arrangement for it. This shows how compassionate you are.

Please continue to shower your mercy on us, please bless me dear Guru Maharaj so that I can serve you, in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant, by following your instructions faithfully and dedicatedly as you followed Srila Prabhupada instructions…

71st Vyasa Puja Offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj

7 wonderful qualities of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj which makes him today one of the most influential spiritual leaders of the world

I consider myself fortunate that I am getting an opportunity to write something in the glory of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj, my spiritual master, on the occasion of his 71st Vyasa Puja. HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj is one of the most prominent spiritual leaders of the world today. He is inspiring thousands of people all over the world to become devotees of Krishna. Although Maharaj has unlimited qualities but below I am sharing 7 wonderful qualities of Maharaj which inspires me a lot.

1. Perfect disciple: A perfect disciple assimilates the instructions of his guru in his heart and in spite of challenging circumstances continues carrying forward that instruction of his guru without any selfish desire. HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj is one of the best examples of an ideal disciple.

As a 19 year old teenager Maharaj left his home in USA in search for truth. Like rest of the youngsters of his age, he did not just want to have good career, make money, get married, produce children and finish his life. He desperately wanted to understand the meaning and purpose of his life. So, he came to India. India is a land of sadhus and yogis. It is the land where the holy rivers like the Ganges and the Yamuna flows and where the sages and saints renounce their material attachments and spend every moment of their life in remembering the Supreme Lord. And most importantly Lord Krishna and Lord Rama appeared in this glorious country to perform many beautiful pastimes.

In spiritual India, Maharaj performed penance in Himalayas, went to places of pilgrimage, meditated on the Supreme Lord and earnestly prayed to the Lord to show him the right path. Seeing the sincerity of an American boy many spiritual leaders of that time residing in India got impressed. Many of them wanted him to join their monastery. Maharaja was so grateful to them but still within his heart he found there was something which he was looking for which he was not able to get.

He continued with his spiritual quest. He continued praying to the Lord for that spiritual path which is the summum bonum of all the spiritual paths. Pleased by his sincere devotion, Lord Krishna, the Supreme Lord, directed him to Srila Prabhupada, a great devotee of Lord Krishna. The very first time Maharaj met Srila Prabhupada he felt deep inner connection with him. Like a son meeting his father after a long period of time. He experienced satisfaction, great inner joy and felt protected. He got convinced that his search for truth is now over because he has found that great personality who knows "who is that Supreme Truth." Srila Prabhupada is the ambassador from the spiritual world who came to distribute love of Krishna to the people of this world. Maharaj begged Srila Prabhupada to accept him as his disciple. And Srila Prabhupada, the world acharya, happily accepted him and embraced him in his heart just like a father embraces his child. Maharaj decided to dedicate his life to his spiritual father, Srila Prabhupada. And from the day he met him and accepted him as his guru, he has been following each and every instruction of Srila Prabhupada as it is without any compromise.

2. Dedicated servant of Krishna: As per the wish of Srila Prabhupada, HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj dedicated his life to serve Krishna. And he is always ready to serve Krishna in all circumstances. As a young brahmachari, celibate monk, when he was staying in Iskcon New Vrindavan, West Virginia, he was given the responsibility of doing deity worship. At that time New Vrindavan was a secluded place with almost no facility. He was taking care of the deities almost all alone. To worship the deity, he had to take bath several times in a day. It was too cold there. There was no facility for hot water. In fact, the temperature would be so low that water would turn into ice. And he would break the ice and take ice water bath. He did it without any complain and without any grudge. His purpose was to just serve Krishna in all situations. He did not ever think about his physical comforts.

Later when he was given the responsibility of sharing Krishna Conscious messages to the world, he took that service with great sense of responsibility. For last several decades, he has been speaking Krishna Conscious philosophy all over the world. His lectures have inspired thousands of people to become sincere devotees of Krishna.

3. Visionary: A visionary has the intelligence to understand the future and with determination and careful planning he shapes the future. Understanding the need of the society Maharaj inspired a group of doctors who were devotees of Krishna to open Bhaktivedanta Hospital in Mumbai. No one would have imagined that a hospital whose primary purpose is to cure the disease of a person will also become a place to make devotees of Krishna. Today, Bhaktivedanta Hospital not just relieves the physical pain of a sick person, but it also unites all the spiritually sick souls to the Supreme Soul, Krishna. The spiritual care wing of the hospital is playing a great role in helping the distraught patients and their well-wishing care takers to take shelter of Krishna and get relief from all the present and future sufferings.

Under his leadership students of many prestigious colleges and universities study Bhagavad Gita and other Vedic literatures. It helps them to understand the importance of leading a Krishna Conscious life. After hearing Bhagavad Gita from Krishna, Arjuna did not give up his duty of fighting, similarly after studying Bhagavad Gita the students do not give up their studies. Like Arjuna they do take care of their material responsibilities but while doing so they always keep Krishna in the centre. They become a selfless servant of Krishna and contribute constructively to the society.

Not just the students but many working professionals, housewives have also got inspired from Maharaj and have become devotees of Krishna. Maharaj has special love for children. Children have specific needs and those must be addressed. So, Maharaj has trained devotees so that they properly take care of children so that the kids spontaneously get attracted to Krishna Conscious lifestyle and become devotees of Krishna.

4. Great communicator: HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj is gifted with the ability of sharing the pristine message of Vedic literatures like Bhagavad Gita, Srimad Bhagavatam, Chaitanya Charitamrita in a way that the audience can understand it, appreciate it and apply it in their life. He communicates with his audience who are from diverse background in their language. He is an expert in cross cultural communication. Whether he is speaking to the top bankers at HSBC, London or to the top technocrats of the world at Microsoft, Google, Facebook, Intel, Oracle or to the university students at Oxford, Cambridge, Harvard, Stanford, he is able to make everyone understand the need and importance of inculcating spiritual values of love, selflessness, gratitude, compassion in their life.

And when he is speaking to the devotees in the temple or in his famous Kartik yatra then through his mellifluous words he shows the glimpse of the spiritual world to us. His Krishna Conscious lectures are so engaging and so inspiring that it quickly connects our heart to Krishna. While hearing him, we just feel that let his class never end, let his transcendental message penetrate our hearts and let the glories of Krishna permeate the whole world.

5. Full of compassion: It is because of his compassion that he wants every soul of this world to get connected to Krishna. Because once we become devotees of Krishna then all the miseries of our life will come to an end. To give Krishna to others, Maharaj applies different strategies. For example, through the Midday Meal program today thousands of kids from humble background can eat Krishna prasadam which is nourishing their body and also their soul. Maharaj organizes free eye camp in Barsana where thousands of villagers who are residents of Vrindavan and Barsana get free eye treatment. It is a great way of serving the residents of dhams.

6. Team building and promoting teamwork: Under his able guidance devotees from different backgrounds come together and engage in the service of Krishna. Devotees forego all their material designations, they forget their caste, creed, colour, nationality, gender because everyone understand that they have only one identity - that they are eternal servants of Krishna. And the purpose of their life is to live for the pleasure of Krishna. Today Iskcon Chowpatty, Mumbai has become a model temple which inspires devotees from all over the world because at Iskcon Chowpatty everyone feels the camaraderie among all the devotees; grihasthas and brahmacharis come together to serve together and have great love and respect for each other. Maharaj has inspired scores of devotees to lead various projects which is helping in the growth of Iskcon.

7. Creating spiritual leaders: Srila Prabhupada one of the most prominent spiritual leaders of modern times trained his disciples so that they too become great leaders. Following the mood of Srila Prabhupada Maharaj has created so many leaders in Iskcon today. Under his guidance they are playing a pivotal role in spreading Krishna Consciousness all over the world which was the desire of Srila Prabhupada. There are so many of them. HH Bhakti Rasamrita Swami Maharaj, HG Radha Gopinath Prabhu, HG Krishnananda Prabhu, HG Radheshyam Prabhu, HG Gauranga Prabhu, HG Gaur Gopal Prabhu and there are many such great devotees. HG Radheshyam Prabhu is playing an extraordinary role in spreading Krishna Consciousness especially amongst the youth. HG Gaur Gopal Prabhu is today one of the most famous motivational speakers of the world, his talks are based on spiritual literatures like Bhagavad Gita.

I have just underlined 7 extraordinary qualities of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj. With my limited intelligence I have tried to describe those qualities. But his qualities are unlimited and cannot be quantified. Also, I do not have wisdom to know and understand all the qualities of Maharaj.

Seeking shelter of Maharaj:

On the auspicious occasion of his 71st Vyasa Puja, I beg Maharaj to give me shelter at his lotus feet and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life. I beg Maharaj to give me knowledge, intelligence and determination so that I give up all types of sense gratification, give up all the anarthas and develop great attachment to chant the holy names of Krishna, read Srila Prabhupada books and serve the devotees.

Your eternal Servant

PURUSHOTTAMA KESHAVA DAS (PATNA)

Respected Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeiscances unto your lotus feet.

Thank you Maharaja for being an exemplary carrier of the message, mercy, culture and devotion of the glorious Gauruya Vaishnava Sampradaya. It was your divine qualities that Srila Prabhupada identified you in crowd of thousands of people at cross Maidan and allowed to touch his lotus feet. Your intense desire to serve him under any condition overpowered the unlimited obstacles that tried to impede the services. I heard from you that there were times when there was practically no time left for you to do read Srila Prabhupada books and you would read them while caring for the cows. The countless blessings that you received from so many saints are testimony of your humility and ideal behaviour.

The projects guided by you reflect the exact desires of Srila Prabhupada being fulfilled while some others reflect the concern for the humanity at large.

There are just so many qualities in you that could be described, I would like to mention a few which I am feeling currently. The kind of devotee care system developed by you is really awe inspiring, You have so nicely carried the pure teachings of Gaudiya Vaishnava Parampara without any adulteration reflects your dedication for the parampara.

You lectures have protected me from so many of the possible deviations and kept on the right track.

I am most unqualified and many times unable to follow your instructions or fulfill your expectations. Please forgive my shortcomings and offences and kindly keep me under the shade of your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna dearest and most respected Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet! All glories to Srila Prabhupada and to you!

Hope your health is well! We are very happy and encouraged when we see you online, smiling and laughing while giving classes. Our prayers for your and your respected father's good health and long life!

It has been Krishna's, Guru parampara particularly Srila Prabhupada's and many devotees' most kindest blessings that you accepted even a naradhama like me as one of your many, many disciples. I am eternally grateful to you, O most munificent one! All your disciples are so sincere, strong in sadhana and seva as taught by you. They are dedicating their lives to the mission of Srila Prabhupada, following your footsteps. They are trying to be humble; many of them are really humble and sincere. I am an exception to them. I am very sorry to inform you that I have no such qualities or sadhana. In your illustrious list of disciples, I may look like an anomaly. That has been so since the day of initiation. I should have been brave that day to own up that I don't belong here. I am not able to dedicate my whole life to Srila Prabhupada's mission. I cannot serve as a humble servant of the servant of the servant of the servant due to false ego and pride. But I kept quiet due to my selfishness. I wanted to get initiated by you. I was not able to put anybody else in the place that is reserved for one's guru. But I didn't know then what it means to be known as your disciple in the devotee community. I am falling short of everyone's expectation every time. At such a point, I don't know what to do except beg for your causeless mercy that I can come out of this abyss I find myself. One of the marks on the lotus feet of Sri Radha Shyamsunder is a long line. You know what that means more than all of us. Since guru is the representative of the Supreme Lord, you must have that line in your compassionate heart too. Please extend a point of this line to this unworthy, undeserving disciple of yours. And why am I asking for such a great thing? Because you are Nitai's representative. So please be very merciful upon this fallen, failing disciple of yours.

Begging to get the aspiration to become everyone's servant,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada !!!

All glories to Gurudev!!!

First of all a very Happiest Birthday Dear Gurudev. This day is very special for me and very close to my heart. As you took birth just to deliver fallen soul like me and many more. You went through so many challenges in life, faced many ups and downs, but remained strong and determined to please Guru and Gauranga. You have taught us all the valuable teachings of their Lordship Sri Sri RadhaKrishna, Srila Prabhupada and other acharyas through your wonderful lectures. This pandemic though created a distance from you but still you gave us time through ONLINE classes. When we met you after marriage you gave us instruction that “Charity begins from home, so serve each other like vaishnavas. Never see each other as sense object. Keeping Krishna in the center do your prescribed duties.” Its been 20 years of marriage now Maharaj and still those words are ringing in my ears. We both have tried well to fulfill your wish and also my children Krishnadas and Tulsi both are teenagers now but accurately following your instructions and trying to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. I wish that they both will get your mercy and blessings in the form of Initiation. Your wonderful home Sri Sri Radha Gopinath and devotees are waiting for your presence once again and also the Govardhan Eco village which is close to your heart. Actually we all are waiting eagerly for you. I am just feeling body without a soul. Lastly, want to thank you for everything you have done for me but in reciprocation I am doing nothing. On this day I pray that someday I would be really in Krishna Consciousness and become servant of the servant of the devotees and fulfill desires of my Gurudev.

Thank you,

Your insignificant servant,

Dear Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisance’s at your lotus feet.

I would like to share some feelings of my heart about the inspirations Iam receiving from your holy self on this auspicious day of your 71st appearance day.

When I think of your personality, I find so many of your great qualities like your simplicity, loving and forgiving nature, deep in Krishna consciousness, prayerful attitude, encouraging all devotees, eagerness to serve and glorify God brothers and God sisters, strict with oneself and lenience with others, accommodating nature, non-envious, self satisfied, no hankering for name, fame, glory; Absorption in Krishna conscious practices, Spontaneous love for their lordships and cows, holy dhamas etc, deeper understanding of KC philosophy, eagerness to narrate Krishna Katha, Chaitanya lila, Acharyas glories, Heart transforming presentation of Krishna Katha and philosophy, Natural Humorous nature at the same time fully absorbed in Krishna consciousness, extending nature etc.

Let me always think of your lotus feet which can bestow me a drop of such qualities, Let me always take shelter of your vani in the form of your instructions and lectures and live this life as per them. We always pray for your best health and long life span to inspire and deliver more and more conditioned souls like me. You have given us so much in the form of Nectarian classes and personal dealings with devotees, exemplary qualities, Let me not demand any more beyond my adhikar, let me be grateful for whatever I have received from your holy self and my god brothers and god sisters. Let me just dedicate myself. who else is the better master than a pure devotee like your holy self.

You are very personal with the devotees, your just one smile is sufficient to enthuse any devotee, Your darshan, vani are so purifying. Your online association in these 2 years was very much solace for us.

I need your continuous valuable guidance and empowerment to serve the mission of srila Prabhupada.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj for all things given to me.

Seeking forgiveness for all my anarthas, short comings, foolishness, irresponsibility, laziness etc

Taking the dust of your lotus feet on my head, seeking your blessings,

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj !

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Thank you Maharaj..

For accepting me as your disciple.

For allowing me to begin my spiritual journey towards the highest goal of life.

For giving a direction to this wandering soul, to fulfill the purpose of life.

For constantly enthusing and guiding this misguided soul with your nectarean instructions.

For the opportunities to experience the joy of Krisna consciousness in the loving care and association of my godbrothers and godsisters.

For making me understand the futility of material achievements , and lead a life of simplicity and humility.

For that ray of hope , in this dark and fearful material existence.

For making me realise the responsibilities and duties of a disciple, of service to Guru and Krishna , through your exemplary love and service attitude towards Srila Prabhupada and Krishna.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

I am very grateful for giving me shelter at your Lotus feet.

Maharaj we are very fortunate to have your guidance in the form of your lectures, we learn what is proper behaviour form your example.

In spite of getting so much affection and Love from you, I am not able to follow the standards you are expecting. I am very whimsical and independent minded. Because of this mentality I am not able to control mind and senses.

I asked a question in one Brahmachari class regarding guiding small children, you said not to do but I did not follow your instructions and continued doing because of which I faced difficulties.

I asked you 2 times how to give up enjoying mentality, you told me keep trying. Maharaj I am trying but not much success, I need your blessings and mercy to over come my conditionings. Please give me guidance and direction so that I will be able to overcome my conditionings. Without your mercy I can't do anything, there is no hope for me in this dangerous material world.

Maharaj please be kind on this fallen soul and give me some direction and guidance so that I can be saved. I have committed so many offences and sinful activates because of my sinful nature. I am struggling alone, not knowing where to go. Please save me, please save me, please save me.

Thanking you

We were born in ignorance suffering the miseries of this material world and also foolishly enjoying the false enjoyment of this material world, but our Guru Maharaj mercifully picked up and gave us shelter at his lotus feet in service to Srila Prabhupad,service to the Vaisanavas and service to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji

We are eternally grateful and thankful to you Guru Maharaj for your causless mercy. We can never fathom the depth of this wonderful seva opportunity and devotional life you have showered on us.

Dear Guru Maharaj the last two years of the Pandamic had been very turbulent and full of fears. Had it not been your shelters, your guidance, your compassion, your love it would have been very very difficult to pass through. The whole world including our ISKCON society and our Radha Gopinath community also went through a tough time, losing many sweet devotees. Maharaj although so many miles away from the temple you were there for all of us though not personally but virtually for everyone of us. We can feel how much you must be going through internally but still you were there for all, encouraging them and giving them hope and guiding us to take shelter of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji at all times and with much sincerity. Very much grateful and thankful to you Maharaj for everything

By your blessings we got to stay in the temple and assist with the various services in the temple during the lockdown period. It was only and only your blessings on us that we could manage our services. We whole heartedly bow our heads at your louts feet for your blessings. You also gave us opportunity to connect with you online on a few occasions during your talks and you shorted your blessings on us virtually. We are what we are because of your blessings and shelter. Dear Guru Maharaj we just seek this shelter of your lotus feet and blessings to please you and the Vaisanavas by our humble attempts

On this glorious occasion of your Vyasa puja we pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji, Lord Narasimha dev and Srila Prabhupada for your good heath and long life. We beg and pray at your lotus feet to kindly forgive our multiple offences committed every now and then and engage us as always in whatever small or big seva you feel we are worthy of. We beg and pray to you to always keep us in your shelter and guide us overlooking our shortcomings, otherwise there is no hope for us. Your shelter is our only hope

Dear Guru Maharaj thank you very very much for everything. Hoping and waiting eagerly to see you personally soon in our temple Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji

Harekrishna, please accept my humble obeisances , dandwat pranam beloved Guru Maharaj, many many happy returns of the day,. Thankyou so much Maharaj for accepting transcription service from me . During this service I heard your lectures, one of these i like to share you its a very very heart touchingand very lovely pastime.

When you were living in Vrindavan in 1971, when you first came, you were not a member of ISKCON; ISKCON had no temple or any devotees in Vrindavan at that time. For several months you lived with one of Srila Prabhupada's God-brother ashrams and living in a little room in the corner of the ashram was Krishna Das Babaji Maharaj and he would chant the holy names all night long. Any time you would go by his room you would hear."Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare, Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma, Rāma, Hare, Hare and every time would meet him, he would very blissfully call all out very loudly Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare, Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma, Rāma, Hare, Hare. He would cry out Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare, Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma, Rāma, Hare, Hare devotees are chanting Hare Krishna. He was always so blissful and so loving and you thought he must not know English because the only thing he says is 'Hare Krishna'. But day after about a month and plus, actually when you first got there, you were sick with typhoid fever and were in the hospital, he used to come and visit you and he would just come and smile and say 'Hare Krishna' and you were so sick so you would just say Hare Krishna. Then you would sit with him for about four hours every morning, just the two of you in the temple room and he would just have a little Mrdanga and he would chant Bhajans before the deities and chant beautiful prayers and sloka's and mantras and songs by Narottama and Bhaktivinoda but mostly he would chant the Mahamantra. You become very, very close because you were just sitting there together for four five hours every morning but he never spoke to you, You thought he didn't speak English so you would just chant together and look at each other and he would just cast merciful glances upon you. But one day you went out for Parikrama of Vrindavan all night long and weren't there for Mangal Aarti the next day and you went to the well of this Ashram to get some water and someone was behind you and said, "Where were you for Mangal Aarti." you looked at back and there was Srila Krishna Das Babaji Maharaj, so you thought he couldn't have said it. So you just went on getting more water and then you heard, "Why you did not come to Mangal Aarti?" When you again looked back and saw him standing and you were looking, you wanted to ask him, who is asking you this question? But you didn't think he would be able to answer your question. So you went and got another bucket of water and he said, "Why you did not come to Mangal Aarti?" Then you looked back again and there was only him standing there and you looked at him and he looked at you right in the eyes, he says, "Why you are not answering my questions?"

So this shows that you are so soft hearted and you are a treasure of Vaishnav qualities. So please kindly sprinkle some of the treasure unto me.

Thank you Maharaja

RAHUL GUNDRE (MUMBAI)

Happy Krishna conscious birthday maharaj,

Thank you maharaj for giving me association of wonderful devotees who give protection to me and inspires to take shelter of Guru and Gauranga.

As you tell in your class that we have to take instructions of spiritual master as our life & soul, SP first instruction is to chant attentively 16 rounds of Hare Krishna mahamantra and so on this auspicious day of your appearance day I will again firm my determination to chant holy name attentively with the humble mood and with all my energy. Today, I was hearing your class and you were talking about how cow protection is very dear to Krsna after preaching activities.

I am very much inspired by your attention to detail in each activity whether it is having an alter of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, Vrindavan forest, Govardhan Eco Village and earlier also in New Vrindavan where you are always wants to have a Vrindavan atmosphere. Then how you always take care for everyone whoever it may be as you says "Sarve Sukhanu Bhavantu".

Here, I want to ask forgiveness for my laziness in performing devotional service, waking up late for morning program, not taking your Vani association regularly and not giving importance to read SP books by not being determined to follow vows, not working enthusiastically for preaching the glories of Krishna and having too much greed for money. Please Maharaj forgive me for these but I want to confess you that I want to dedicate my life with my full mind, body & intelligence in assisting you and superiors for spreading this Krsna consciousness to all people in the world specifically youth as they are getting misdirected by the strong influence of maya and not able to take full advantage of this rare human form of life in God realization. I don't want to waste my any energy for sense gratification and as you say that sex life is the highest sense enjoyment in material world. I don't want to waste my energy in that and there is always chance to get misdirected by onslaughts of maya. Please help me to take shelter of your lotus feet.

I will distribute at least 71 mahabig books during this book marathon for pleasure of SP, Guru and Gauranga. I take commitment of reading at least 15 minutes of Srila prabhupada book daily. I will plan my life to complete first reading of small books, Srimad bhagavatam, Prabhupada Lilamrita in 2022.

Thank you very much maharaj for guiding me through your instructions and through devotees to do each devotional limb for the pleasure of devotees and Krishna. Also thank you for your kind support in my difficult times and giving me opportunity to serve devotees in whatever small way that I can able to do. I know that I have so many limitations but I have full faith on you, SP, Lord Nityananda pr and Lord Chaitanya mahaprabhu's mercy to get engagement, empowerment and strength to serve and assist devotees for the pleasure of Guru and Gauranga.

Thank you very much maharaj again and happy Krsna Conscious birthday!!!

Your aspiring servant,

RAJGOPINATH DAS (NEW TOWN KOLKATA)

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances at your lotus feet

It was over 6 years ago when you kindly accepted this fallen soul as your disciple. I took the sacred vows of chanting minimum sixteen rounds of Hare Krishna Mahamantra daily, following the 4 regulative principles strictly and striving to be the servant of the servant. While these vows are meant for my spiritual protection, I beg for your mercy that will empower me in carefully observing these holy vows throughout my life.

May the fond remembrance of your lotus feet awaken in my heart whenever I am succumbed to any sort of internal weakness. I earnestly pray that I may not become duplicitous in my behavior rather I remain transparent in my all sorts of dealings.

The pearls of instructions which you bring out through your deeply mediated talks/lectures, may I be able to carefully collect them in the core of my heart and strive faithfully to follow so that I remain faithful to the disciplic succession. Kindly make me fortunate by helping me in overcoming laziness in doing so.

May I consciously focus on cultivating humility, the hall mark of spiritual life. In this mood, let me call out the holy names feelingly, serve and cooperate with everyone. Certainly this would please you and Srila Prabhupada. May you vanquish the mountain of my false pride and discipline the maddened elephant of my mind so that I remain sane and direly dependent upon the mercy of vaishnavas.

Let the purpose for which I dedicated my life always remain fresh by your grace. Let me never deviate from the path of pure devotional service, despite upheavals and challenges whatever may come by. Though it's utterly difficult, it will be possible by your compassion upon me.

May I not become the blemish on the parampara to which you have kindly connected me and through which you have offered shelter to this orphan.

On the most auspicious vyasa puja celebration, I sing the glories of your wonderful qualities that gives me hope that yes, good fortune will arise upon this useless soul.

गुरु के शरनगत नही होते तभ तक भक्ति में प्रगति नही कर सकते

मैं अमृतसर से हू और हमारे शिक्षा गुरु रघुनाथ दास(राजेश तलवार जी) और उनकी पत्नी रासप्रिया मातजी जी हैं |

मैंने महाराज श्री के बारे में उनसे सुना है और सोशल मीडिया के माध्यम से महाराज को जाना है, महाराज बहुत कृताग्य भाव के है अनोखा सफर में अपनी माँ के प्रति उनकी बार बार कृताज्ञ भावना बहुत सराहनीय है, बहुत करुणा के भाव के है किसी की बुराई नही सुनते है, हमेशा appreciate करते है, सभी को comfort फील कराते है, always encourage there devotees, महाराज बहुत नरम ह्रदय के है, सुना है 1 बार आँखों के कैंप में उन्होने अपने हाथो से एक बूढ़ी औरत को चप्पल पहनाई थी, महाराज बहुत कृपालु है, विशाल ह्रदय के है || सुना है महाराज किसी devotee को डांटते भी है लेकिन डांटने भी महाराज की करुणा

झलकती है, एक बार एक माताजी महाराज के पास आकर पूछती है how old i looks दिखने मेंवह माताजी 35 से 40 की आयु की होंगी, लेकिन महाराज ने ऊपर से उतर दिआ i dont know your age but according to me you are sweetsixteen एक बार एक माताजी ने उनसे पूछा behind every sucessful man there इस women, who is behind you maharaj, maharaj give very sweet reply उन्होंने कहा श्रीमती राधा रानी ☺ 🙏इससे हमें यह पता चलता है कि maharaj सभी को भक्ति में प्रेरित करते है |

अगर किसी devotee में कुछ भी अच्छी चीज दिखाई पडती है तो महाराज उसको हमेशा सरहते है और उनको और अच्छा करने को प्रेरित करते है ||

It is said that one meets Guru with a lot of luck. Until we do not worship the Guru with a sincere heart, we cannot progress in devotion, so it is our responsibility towards this offering that we worship our Guru, we listen to the instructions given by him and implemented them in our lives with a true heart.

I am from Amritsar and our education guru is Raghunath Das(Rajesh Talwar ji) and his wife Raspriya Matji.

I have heard about Maharaj through them and got to know Maharaj through social media. Maharaj is very grateful. He doesn't listen to evil, always appreciates, makes everyone feel comfortable, always encourages the devotees, Maharaj is very soft hearted, I have heard that once in the eye camp he wore an old lady slipper with his hands, Maharaj, He is very kind, has a big heart.

I have heard that Maharaj scolds a devotee, but even when he scolds, Maharaj's compassion is reflected. Once a mother comes to Maharaj and asks how old I looks, that mother must have been 35 to 40 years old, but Maharaj came down from above. i dont know your age but according to me you are sweet sixteen It is that Maharaj inspires everyone in devotion.

If any good thing is seen in a devotee, then Maharaj always appreciates him and inspires him to do better.

There is a lot more to write, while concluding, I would like to say this, I pray to Thakur ji to give good health to Maharaj and wish him a long life.

Hare Krishna , guru maharaj ji please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feets. On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day I was meditating about your contribution for the world. So guru maharaj you only revealed the actual meaning, importance & mood of serving or being in dhams like Sri Vrindavan, Sri Mayapur, Sri Jagannath Puri , Sri Kolkata dham ..etc. otherwise I am fully in ignorance but by your merci I understood dham at least to small extent without any qualifications of mine. Although you are giving full merci through your classes or instructions but I am so unfortunate guru maharaj that I am so much stooped into sense gratification that even after understanding I am not following them. without hearing the nector of your instructions & imbibing them in my life I can't budge even a inch in my spiritual life please give me your merci & also strength ,desire & determination to accept your merci so that I can hear nector of your instructions through your lectures regularly, attentively, seriously & sincerely. & Make those instructions as my life & soul & my ultimate goal of life should be just to please Hari,Guru & Vaishnavas. Guru Maharaj you yourself is ideal example of perfect disciple. You exactly follow the instructions of HDG SP & you have dedicated your body,mind , words & soul to PRABHUPADA. Your love for PRABHUPADA is unlimited. So guru Maharaj please bless me with at least drop of that love for PRABHUPADA & you, although I don't deserve. Also guru Maharaj please bless me & engage my body,mind words & my soul in service of Hari guru Vaishnavas.

My humble Vyasa Puja offering letter to Poojya Gurudev

Date : 29.11.21

My dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my million million humble obeisances at your Holy Lotus feet.

All glories to Guru and Gauranga !

All glories to my beloved Radha Madhava !

All glories to Srila Prabhupada !

All glories to your Holiness !

All glories to Anantha Koti Vaisnavas !

First of all I humbly beg at your Holy Lotus feet to bless me with right mood and right consciousness to write this Vyasa Puja offering to you although I am not qualified at all. My deep gratitude to you for kindly empowering me to make this humble and feeble attempt of writing Vyasa Puja offering to you.

My dear Guru Maharaj, I wish you a very happy Radha Krishna Conscious Birthday !

Our beloved Radha Krishna has so mercifully sent you to this world to deliver many many suffering souls like me who are rotting in this material world. It is impossible for this tiny insignificant servant of yours to glorify you as your glories are unlimited Maharaj !!! It is like trying to count how many precious gems are there in an ocean.

Your glorious qualities of utter humility, love and compassion for all living entities, your commitment and dedication to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada, your love and respect for Srila Prabhupada, your preaching by your own example, enormous patience, eagerness to serve devotees, expertise in Sastric knowledge, taking care of devotees and a host of unlimited Vaisnava qualities are ever inspiring for me my dear Guru Maharaj.

Your love for your God brothers is really not of this world Maharaj. My heart is filled with ecstasy when I see the loving exchanges between you and your God brothers my dear Maharaj. My deep gratitude to you, for blessing me with the rarest opportunity to witness those wonderful moments, my dear Maharaj.

Although we could not get your divine physical association this year in yatra , you have so mercifully blessed us with your virtual darshan in e-Karthik yatra 2021. By your nectarian lectures and ecstatic keertans you have actually made every home into a Holy dham Vrindavan. We could feel that we are actually in Vrindavan dham by your special mercy Maharaj. By your mercy alone I was also blessed with the glorious opportunity to enter into the Holy dham of Vrindavan and could serve Vrindavana dhaama in my little insignificant inspite of so many Covid restrictions and uncertainties.

By your mercy alone I am blessed with various sevas like taking care of devotees, teaching value education for children, cooking seva, prasadam distribution seva, book distribution etc., and only and only by your mercy alone I am able to render these sevas inspite of so many obstacles.

In your physical absence your lion like disciples through your powerful counsellor system are protecting us just like an eye lid protects the eye ball. I am eternally grateful to you and I am indebted to you eternally for protecting me and my family at every moment through your powerful counselling system, Maharaj. Without such protection, love and care I would have certainly ended my life foolishly and would have again taken millions and millions of births not knowing how to come out of this vicious cycle. By your special mercy alone you have blessed me with the knowledge that only the relationship with Guru is eternal.

In this critical hour of Covid 19 pandemic situation, where the whole world is full of anxiety and depression, your divine lectures and the lectures of your dear disciples are acting like a powerful shelter and protecting us from this dangerous situation and making us completely absorbed in Krishna Katha. Without your loving protection at all times every moment seems to be a like a ferocious demon devouring us. Just like our beloved Krishna, protected all the cowherd boys from the blazing forest fire, you are always protecting us from the blazing forest fire of maya.

My dear Guru Maharaj, on this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance day, I sincerely pray at the Lotus feet of our Srila Prabhupada, Guru Parampara and our beloved Radha Krishna to empower you more and more and more to bring more and more suffer souls to the Lotus of our Radha Krishna.

I also humbly beg you at your Holy Lotus feet to bless me and my family and akhila jeeva bhakta koti, with pure, loving, unmotivated, uninterrupted, unconditional loving service to you, Srila Prabhupada and our beloved Radha Krishna in the way it pleases you all the most and only and only for all of your pleasure alone.

I beg you at your Holy Lotus feet to forgive my innumerable offences committed to you knowingly or unknowingly.

Dearmost Gurumaharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances, all glories to Srila Prabhupada. In this blessed recurrence of your birthday in this world we celebrate your appearance in our lives and hearts as well as in the lives and hearts of so many fortunate souls.

Who is a Guru? He who can protect me from the death's fear, he is a Guru. The Guru is that person who doesn't make you feel the need to go elsewhere and after lissening to his words you don't feel the need to hear from anybody else. He's the reservoir of mercy and is able to make us free from false ego. He offers us the revealed truth and by showerIng us with such truth, makes us more humble than a blade of grass and more tolerant than a tree. He who teaches us how to respect everybody and how to get rid from the desire to get honor from others he's a Guru. He who can manifest the transcendental kirtan in our mouths he's a Guru. Only the Guru's lotus feet can free us from the shackels of illusion and let us understand that the entire world is meant for the service to the Guru and that serving Krishna trough the Guru is our only duty.

Please keep us under the divine dust of your lotus feet and in the sublime service of Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Maharaj although you are in the epitome of pure devotion but you are so much sensitive to all of our needs and have learned from your senior disciples that how you come to their level and help them practically

Maharaja through your life and teachings you have taught us how a devotee should keep their acharana and What is the definition of devotee and You symbolizes the verse of Trinadi sunicena taror api sahissuna amanina maan dena kirtanaya sada hari.

Maharaj your faith in Shrila prabhupada goes beyond the imagination of our thoughts.

You are an ideal Guru and Ideal disciple.

Maharaj during the early Krishna Consciousdays of Your lifeat New Vrindavan, we have learned according to situations there, how you alone used to do all aratis, bhoga preparation without compromise on the quality and this you did not for few days but did all this alone consistently for 7 years.

Through this you teaches how a devotee should follow his authority as life and soul and also qualities of tolerance, patience and how a ideal Sadhaka devotee should live a life. .

Maharaj your love and care for your God brothers is sign of your love for Shrila Prabhupada and Vaishnavas etiquette.

I pray at the lotus feet of Radha gopinath for your health and pray to Lord that by their mercybyou,continue to spread glories of bhalti for good number of years, again we get same ffortune of listening your classes in the assembly of devotees, attending wonderful yatras in your divine presence.

Hare Krishna guru maharaj ! PAMHO !

life has moved on quite fast over the last two and half decades since I first got blessed by lord krishna and saw you at the NSC WORLI program in 1996.

As the scriptures say " by mercy of krishna we get guru and by mercy of guru we get krishna "

That day by mercy of sri krishna I got you maharaj and I am so thankful to lord..

just like in management there is a product life cycle , I feel in the life of the devotee there is devotee life cycle ..over the period of time , situations and circumstances change a lot , our faith in the process of bhakti keeps going through various stages as we are challenged by the material energy in various ways.. to keep faith in the process of bhakti is so critical and that is possible only through the association of great souls Vani and vapuh .. many of us have been blessed in the initial stages of our congregation life cycle to have got lot of association of you maharaj and we are grateful for that . You often say that my association is through my Vani especially in the Yatras where you give yourself fully via evening Katha and kirtan .. due to covid we have physically missed these enriching Yatras and those concentrated focused hearing.. now we realise the importance of missing them more than before..

Thank you maharaj for your example in life and in bhakti and hope as a sadhaka and disciple we can make a genuine attempt to please you and Srila Prabhupad and never leave the iskcon movement despite so many difficult situations that come about in our lives.

Pray that your holiness continue to keep good health and we can all assemble and hear you in the Yatras year after year !

तृषार्थ पथिक म्हणजे तहान लेला वाटसरू. हे शीर्षक माननिय मोहोदय, राधानाथ महाराजां साठी अगदी योग्य आहे. ते सुद्धा भगवान कृष्ण च्या शोधात पाश्चात्य देशातून आपली तहान, भूक, पाऊस, उन्, थंडी, वारा यां गोष्टींना बाजूला ठेवून भारतात आले. तेव्हा त्यांना अनेक संकटांना तोंड द्यावे लागले. पण न डगमगता आपला ध्यास चालू ठेवला. महाराजांचा स्वभाव अत्यंत मन मिळाऊ, सर्वां मध्ये मिसळणारे.

त्यांना संकीर्तनाची खूपच आवड आहे. मि त्यांच्या सोबत यात्रेत अनेक वेळा गेलो. प्रवचन संपल्यावर अर्धा तास पेटी वाजवून महामंत्र तालबद्ध सूरात गात. त्यामुळे सभे मध्ये बसलेले सर्वजन त्यांच्या सोबत नाचत. ते सुद्धा व्यास पिठावरून खाली येऊन आमच्या सर्वांच्या नाचण्यात सहभागि होत. असे वाटायचे कि हे कीर्तन कधीच संपू नये. महाराज एकदा नाशिकला आले होते. सकाळचि वेळ होती मंदिराच्या परिसरात चक्रा मारत होते, सोबत वृंदावन प्रसाद प्रभु होते. महाराजांनी त्यांच्या खांद्यावर हात ठेवून गप्पा मारत चक्रा मारत होते. मी मनात म्हंटले कि असा योग आपल्याला केव्हा येणार.

महाराजांनी ज्यांना म्हणून दीक्षा दिली त्यांच्य मुखात सरस्वतीने वास करून ते व्यासासणावर बसुन प्रवचन देत आहे. मला सुद्धा लिखाण करण्याची स्पुर्ती त्यांच्या मुळेच अवगत झाली. अशा माननिय मोहोदय राधानाथ स्वामी महाराजांच्या ७१ व्या वाढ दिवसा निमित्त शतशाह प्रणाम.

Thrrsharth Pathik (The Journey Home) means the thirsty traveler and this title is very apt for you, O Radhanath Maharaj. That’s right. He too came to India in search of Lord Krishna, leaving aside their thirst, hunger, rain, heat, cold and wind. Then he had to face many difficulties. But he did not waver. Maharaj’s temperament is very pleasing to the mind, mingling with all.

He is very fond of Sankirtan. I traveled with them many times. At the end of the discourse, the Mahamantra is sung in a rhythmic tone for half an hour. So, everyone in the meeting danced with them. He also came down from Vyas Pitha and participated in all our dances.

It seemed that this kirtan should never end. Maharaj had once come to Nashik. It was early in the morning, walking around the temple area, accompanied by Vrindavan Prasad Prabhu. Maharaj was speaking to him with his hands on his shoulders. I said in my mind when will such chance come to me.

Those who got initiated by Maharaj were blessed and when they would sit on Vyasasan, Saraswati would speak through their mouths. He also inspired me to write. Shastang Pranam on the occasion of 71st birthday of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj.

My dearest Guru Dev,

Please accept our humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I shall make an attempt to express my feelings, although my abilities are very much limited to describe glories of great Acharya like you.

With passing of each occasion of your Vyas-Puja-Day, I feel more closure to your teachings and try to hold on to it.

You have been presenting Gaudiya Vaishnav Siddhanta expertly in your pravachans and writings which is giving rays of hopes to the masses in getting connected to spirituality.

On this auspicious festival day of your Vyaspuja I offer prayers unto the lotus feet of Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha GopinathJi for your healthy long life and seek Your blessings.

Thank you Guru Maharaj for your efforts in making us advance on the path of Krishna Consciousness.

Aap bachapan se lekar aaj tak Bhagwan ko pane ke liye bahut sari tapasya aur sangarsh kiye apni jaan ki bhi parwah nahi kiye. Aap ke Guru Maharaj Srila Prabhupad ne jo aapko aadesh diye the use aapne achi tarah se palan kiya aur apne shisyon ko bhi usi tarah banne ke liye protsaha Kiya.Pravachan me jo bhi aap batate hai waise hi aap apne jivan mein utar te hai. Dear Gurudev, I'm lacking in strength and determination to follow the rules and regulations of KC. Please bless me so that my heart's weakness can go away and follow your instructions with determination. Thank you.

Your aspiring servant.

RANGADEVI DEVI DASI (UK)

Dearest Gurudev,

Please accept my obeisances to your Lotus feet, Jay Jay Srila Prabhupada! Please accept this small poem on the occasion of your blessed appearance.

Gurudev, I've known you for two thirds of my life

Yet I could argue that our relationship runs ever deeper with time

Like water flowing, carving it's course

Your words have flowed, etching and moulding my grooves of thought

Bathing in your words rekindles pathways that feel old, known, and true

Whatever my mind conjures, I default back to you

Immediate safety and solace, yet inspiration anew

Only possible from one whose dance with the Divine is alive and dynamic, this I witness in you

Perhaps with age, my gratitude grows,

My recognition of your immense sacrifice hits home

How you extend love, support and care tirelessly

But with bright mind, pragmatic wisdom, quick wit, and childish play

You have a way of understanding my heart, encouraging my ideals,

Validating my feelings whilst grounding me in what's real.

You teach me not only what bhakti is, but also how to build character and mature dealings

That foster a life of love, fellowship, service and inner discovery

You guide me to overcome spiritual lethargy and habits long spun

To instead weave habits that revive and rekindle my spiritual heart

To seek to serve more, and demand it less

By you I have only ever felt trusted

You see in me what I do not see in myself

And despite my fickle mind and desires

This instils in me the courage

To also trust and go beyond my conditioned self

When I doubt myself you gaze at me with confidence

When I shun myself your loving smile buoys me and reminds me to take myself less seriously

When I feel groundless, in your acceptance and shelter I find safety, support and belonging

When I feel lost, a few words from you direct me back to my path

On this your 71st Vyasa Puja with all my sincerity I pray to remain chaste to your words and spirit,

To transmit your grace to all I meet

To be less self-concerned and more possessed, impelled,

By the same indebtedness, determination and love that is your core essence

I pray to swim upstream despite the incessant current that pulls downward

Dear Gurudev, please keep me afloat with your words and prayers

Let me bathe in them

So they surcharge me with your strength

Thank you for loving and believing in me.

Physically distant yet ever closer in mind and heart,

Through spoken word and obedience we are never apart

I don't deserve my stroke of luck to have found you.

I pray you are well and strong in all ways.

With all my love, aspiring to be sincere and to make you happy,

Your spiritual daughter,

Rangadevi Devi Dasi (UK)

beneficiaries, are also in a position to appreciate the efforts of Srila Prabhupada in creating a society free from all sinful tendencies, austere, clean, truthful and promoting brahminical qualities amongst his followers.

Dear Gurudev,

It has been more than 2 years that we visited temple. Throughout this period, your lectures has been the source of my strength to not loose hope and maintain devotional life. Your graphic explanations of Lord's pastimes transform us to the spiritual world and we get a glimpse of your intense taste, absorption, and realizations.

Just as King Parikshit perfected his life simply by hearing katha attentively, we are privileged to hear pastimes of the Lord through your lectures.

On this most auspicious day, I pray at your lotus feet that I may value the association of devotees and serve them to the best of my capacity and view all obstacles as opportunities to serve.

Dear Guru Maharaja

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaja for accepting this insignificant soul as your disciple and connecting me to Srila Prabhupada.

On this glorious day of yours, dear Guru Maharaja, I am remembering all those moments which always gave me the realisation that you really really know my heart very well. Many moments are there when you just reacted to what was going in my mind.

You are a mine of qualities. To name few, you are so humble, so tolerant, so kind, so generous, so loving, so simple at heart and many more.

Today on your appearance day, I pray to Lord Krishna to bless you with good health and bless us with more and more of your association.

Thank you Guru Maharaja for giving us this wonderful counsellor system. Please bless me Maharaja that I shall follow your instructions in the right mood and proper consciousness and could do atleast some service in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Thank you Guru Maharaja

RANJEET SINGH CHAUHAN (MEERUT, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj ji,

Please accept my humble obeisances,

The scriptures state that without mercy of spiritual master it not possible to understand pure devotional service. The spiritual master himself teaches by His activities and words. Your life itself is a lesson for all the fallen souls like me who are struggling with the 3 modes of material nature.

Srila Prabhupada says that a magnet when freed from contamination can attract iron fillings. But, our contamination is so strong that even after so many years of practicing i am unable to take full benefit of your divine association in the form of Vani or Vapu, thus unable to attract your mercy.

On this auspicious day I pray unto you lotus feet that please bless us with your nectarine words, by which we can develop some attraction towards you and ultimately Krishna.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj,

Wish you a Happy Birthday.

I would like to offer my deepest heart felt gratitude and humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for giving me an opportunity so that I could offer some humble service to your great exalted disciples and also accepting me as your disciple, which I was not really worthy of. But through your merciful and amazing lectures you paved my way and led me into Krishna consciousness, which I am extremely fortunate of.

As my mother passed away this year due to COVID but due to your mercy she had an exalted passing away, as she was in the hospital being cared by a devotee doctor who is you disciple (Shyam Prabhu, Hyderabad), took care of her medically and spiritually. All the devotees prayed for her.

By your merciful arrangements like yearly Karthik yatra, I was able to visit the various dham`s like Mayapur, Puri and Vrindavan, which I really relish. With you and all your exalted disciples who explaining the mode we need to carry while being in the dham and the exalted vision we need to hold, even with apparent distraction .

I am amazed with the Govardhan Eco village, which really Vrindavan dham has been manifested with all the minor details, which every devotee can relish in this dham. I visited this in online Karthik yatra last year 2020. My daughter and family watch this video and excited to hear various pastimes of Krishna.

I pray at your lotus feet , may you please keep me engaged me in serving the mission of Srila Prabhupad like distributing books, assist devotees in spreading Krishna Consciousness to the society outside like outreach activities, assist in startup a new center , humbly serve all the devotees in a proper mood of your servant of the servant and I may advance in Krishna consciousness.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for everything.

Happy appearance day to you, Maharaja. Wishing you many, many, many returns of the day, so you will be able to serve your dear most Srila Prabhupada, and His mission. Gurudeva, when I think of you, I think of how realistic, admirable, determined, honest, able-bodied, and noble you are. You are also accommodating to all your disciples and humanity at large, tolerant, humble, and assuring. Even though you are all these things, you are also very simple, wise, aware, extremely merciful, and incredible. Thank you so much, Maharaja. Indeed, you are one of a kind.

When I think about your incredibly merciful nature, a fond memory comes to mind. Last year, during your annual retreat in Gita Nagari, it was only by your mercy that I was allowed to attend the festival, knowing how much it had pained me to miss it the previous year. Upon meeting me, you said, “May your glistering eyes forever be filled with joy.” Gurudeva, you already know the difficulties I had (and still am) facing both materially and spiritually; therefore, the blessings you bestowed upon me, filled me with hope. I cannot thank you enough for everything you have done for me—for all of us…I can only say, may your unlimited glories be sung eternally.

You showed your incredible mercy when you accepted to initiate my brother and I. When my parents approached and asked you to please accept my brother and I, as your disciples, you smiled, looked at us, and said, “Why not?” By accepting us (knowing how ungrateful, and undeserving I am,) you embodied the mood of your dear-most Srila Prabhupada, who, at the age of 70, left Vrndavan Dhama, and set his course to come to the West to remind us of what we had forgotten—Krishna; to revive our dormant Krishna Consciousness. Suffering multiple heart-attacks and sea-sicknesses, He endured all those difficulties for us! He could have stayed in Vrndavan, but, taking the order of His spiritual master and the shelter of Sri Sri Gaura Nitai, and Radha-Krishna, He embarked on the seemingly impossible journey. What was the result of that endeavor? You, Maharaja, are one of His wonderful, merciful, and generous Fruits. He was (still Is) the farmer, who planted the seed of love of Krishna within the hearts of His disciples—to the whole word, practically—and the result of that tirelessly endeavor, is You, and this nourishing, everlasting Krishna Conscious Movement. Thank you so much for being a part of His Fruits.

Gurudeva, I also remember asking you as to how I may serve you, and your answer was, “Just be happy. Keep doing what you are doing, and be happy.” Whenever I think about the simple, yet instructive answer you gave to the question I had asked, I ask myself, “How can I be happy in a world filled with numerous miseries emanating from all directions? How can I possibly be happy with everything I am going through?” And then I remember your striking words, “Just be happy.” Indicating that, everything in this world is temporary, including the miseries. The only substantial and eternal thing, is Krishna Conscious. Making Krishna the center of my life, will enable me to overcome (and not be attached to) to seemingly “impossible” challenges. I am to be grateful for those challenges, for, it is in those challenges that we discover just how merciful Krishna is. By taking complete shelter of His Lotus Feet, only then, are we able to overcome the obstacles. Thank you for that reminder, Gurudeva, all glories to you.

On this auspicious day of the occasion of your appearance day, I pray for the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai to eternally remain with you. I pray for the success of your every endeavor. I once again beg to ask you, how may I serve you? thank you, Gurudeva. All glories to you. Happy appearance day once again. All glories to you. Jaya Sri Vaisnava Thakura..!

Hare Krishna

Dear Giuru Maharaj

Please accept our humble and respectful obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this very special day of our lives, I would like to Thank you from the bottom of my heart for accepting a perdon like me very graciously insppite of so many faults in me. I do not have words to glorify you but in my limited words all I can say is that you are an amazing person - a very loving father, a very understanding friend, a very inspiring leader and a true spiritual master.

Out of these many wonderful Qualities you have one thing which always touched my heart was that you are very understanding and a very loving father, who always listens, inspires, and gives precise suggestions which are so meaningful in life that a person can live throughout one’s life just pondering over those words.

In my life I always found you next to me in my difficult times as well as happy times. Somehow or ther other you have always sheltered me and shown a lot of love and affection, corrected me when required with concern just like my father.

When I got married and came to meet you, you very lovingly explained to me how to interact with my in-laws and my husband and basic etiquettes which I should follow just like a loving father. And then you explain both if us whatis principle of a marriage. When we were planning to have a child you guided us at every step and prayed for us. When I conceived Rasalila you as a loving father once again gave me instructions on how to be very careful what to do and what not to. When Rasalila grew up at every step you encouraged me to be a nice mother to her. When I was sick you guided me once again what to do and what not, and a very loving father encouraged me and assured me thatthings will be fine soon. When we went through many ordeals you always help out hands with love and affection to assure us that things are going to be fine soon and you love us so much - what else matters. I feel ashamed that you have always given and given and given, and till now I am just taking and taking and taking.. Please I beg with my folded hands that please give me some opportunity to do something for you.

Your saying -> Your spiritual master trusts, you loves you and is there with you always what else matters has given me a new life to always move on.

To do devotional service and bhakti we need two things - Endevour and mercy. And I see have no enthusiasm to practice bhakti. I struggle every day even to do basic spiritual practices, what to talk about pleasing you or Krishna. I beg at your lotus feet on this very special day to give me enthusiasm to make that endeavour and mercy so that I can practice just to please you.

ei-bāro karuṇā koro vaiṣṇava gosāṣi

I do noty possess any qualification to do any service to you or to be even close to you.I feel very ashamed to beg you this, but, I sincerely pray at your feet to please give me some opportunity to be of some use to you in any ways, and also please give me alittle space in your lotus feet to live eternally. I have full faith that in that corner of your lotus feet resides all the shelter, protection and love.

At times I go to the temple stand in front of SS Radha Kalachandji and wonder how am I going to serve you some day, and find myself puzzled alot. The only hope I have to se eKrishna is that you can one day develop that love for Krishna in me, and show me how to serve SS Radha KAlachandji pleasingly.

RASALILA SHINDE (DALLAS, TEXAS, USA)

I wrote this song, "Thank You" for Maharaj to thank him for everything he has done for me and for me helping my family and I through all the hardships we have been through.

I was lying on the cold hard ground

And u lifted me all the way up

I was lost in the night

And you gave me some light

And now I owe my life to you

I did so many things

That I was not supposed to do

But you told me to just

Let it go, let it go…

All I can say is thank you…

For giving me the shelter I need

For opening the doors so I can see

I'm just walking down the path u made for me

So I don't get lost again

Now that i'm on my feet

I'm walking down the path you paved for me

I may have lost myself

But you always bring me back on track

All I can say is thank you…

For giving me the shelter I need

For opening the doors so I can see

I'm just walking down the path u made for me

So I don't get lost again

The path is so easy

Why can't I follow it on my own

It's written so clearly

What you want me to do

All I can say Is thank you…

For giving me the shelter I need

For opening the doors so I can see

I'm just walking down the path u made for me

So I don't get lost again

I'm doing my very best

Serving you in every way I can

But I know I can do more

Please give me the strength too

All I can say Is thank you…

For giving me the shelter I need

For opening the doors so I can see

I'm just walking down the path u made for me

So I don't get lost again

All glories to Srila Prabhupad!

On this most auspicious occasion I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Because you did so many severe austerities for such long period , because of you cause less and Supreme compassion and mercy , we have got the greatest and most priceless gift of Krishna Bhakti which Mahaprabhu has come to give and which Srila Prabhupad distributed freely all over the world

We can know your heart from your lectures and it is not easy to come to the standards which might be needed to be called as worthy disciple of yours. Anyway I am the most lowliest and insignificant servant of yours.

RASARAJ DAS (DALLAS, TX, USA)

Dear Gurumharaj

My humblest obeisance's to you. All glories to Srila Prabhupada

It is so very amazing to see how your contributions to Srila Prabhupada have bloomed during some of the most difficult of times. How you have been able to utilize the often decried medium of social media and technology, channelize this very difficult energy in the most beautiful way to reach an audience that would have been beyond the reaches of the normal preaching methods.

Even more glorious is how those you have inspired and invested in for decades, are also taking your lead to present the sublime message of Lord Chaitanya is so many varied and ingenious ways so as to successfully enter the hearts of a varied, diverse audience.

Recently, I met a lady who attends a massage and Yoga session at our Bhakti center in Dallas. She calls herself the "Reformed Catholic Yogi" and serves as a pastor at a Church in Dallas. She happened to read your "Journey Within" and was so very inspired and enthralled, she finished the book in 2 days (read it over night). For her, this was the best book on Bhakti and spirituality that she had read. Now she is inspired to read the Bhagavad Gita! This and many such instances constantly remind us how you have incorporated the essence and given the best in an uncompromising way in your messages and books, which gives a chance to everyone to access Bhakti, and the realm of devotion as given to us by our dear Srila Prabhupada.

This past year has also allowed me to understand the power of culture and community that you have put in place, wherever we are. Facing an unfortunate situation, it would have been difficult, almost impossible, to maintain my faith in the process, were it not the loving and sheltering care that your disciples and those who are inspired by you have shown towards me. Your lectures now have a very different meaning and I can see that you put in tremendous effort to extract the culture of Bhakti, the culture of care, compassion, humility, tolerance, simplicity, service and incorporate them in all your teachings. You bring out the sweetness of the messages of the scriptures and emphasize this essence in your words. And all those that have carefully studied your message have their heart transformed with the power of this cultural presentation.

And the most emphatic expression of that culture is you yourself. You walk your talk! In all your interactions you present how this culture is to be practiced, cultivated and spread. We hear this also from several of your God brothers and sisters, from devotees within and without the movement, from individuals that have no connection to Bhakti, from hippies, from bankers, from industrialists. Anyone you touch wants to practice that culture, since you represent what you have taught in your talks and books.

I so wish that I could really understand with my heart that sweet culture you are presenting. I wish I could see the world through the eyes of that culture, as you see it. I wish I could overcome the onslaught of my base instincts, of my miserly heart that drags me towards hatred, and criticism, and fault finding and fear and lust and anger and fame and recognition, so many impediments, and feel the beauty of Sri Sri Radha Kalachandjis holy names, and experience their glories in my every interaction. I do not have any faith in my abilities to do so, but I do have firm faith that you and the community you have empowered can drag me toward this vision, even with so many of my shortcomings. How fortunate I am to be included in this glorious retinue of devotees that call themselves your disciples.

Thank you Gurumaharaj. May I spend every day, every moment glorifying you. May I never forget the glorious gifts you have given us unconditionally.

Respected and Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble and prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet,

All glories to Shri Guru and Gouranga,

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada,

Thank you, maharaja, for inspiring me always, by your divine presence through your lectures, your books, your counselling systems, and your divine instructions. Recently, by your causeless mercy, I am trying my best to follow a strict and regulated sadhana. However, I have a long way to go as the anarthas in the heart are troubling me always. Please bless me and pray for me so that I can always be your authorized representative and take to the seva of preaching as an assistant in your divine mission. In last year I have. heard. many lectures of Shrila Prabhupada from desire tree, and now I started with your lectures again from start. (Lectures of 1989-90). Through that I could understand that you perfectly represent the mood and mission of Shrila Prabhupada.

You have always been. very kind to me and have not only inspired me but blessed me always, especially during my second initiation in 2002. That time you have spoken those golden words in my ears " May Lord Krishna Bless you to infuse Love of Godhead in everyone's heart". Trying to make this my life mission. However, I am totally unworthy and useless disciples, who is only surviving on your cause less mercy.

I am eternally grateful to you for accepting me as your insignificant servant, as you are a kind-hearted and merciful representative of Shrila Prabhupada and Lord Chaitanya.

Praying on this very auspicious and special day for your good health and long life and always aspiring for your causeless blessings, mercy, and prayers.

Thank you, maharaja, for everything.

your most obedient and humble servant,

RASAYATRA DAS (BHUSAWAL)

Hare Krishna, Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance unto your lotus feet.

All glories to Sril Prabhupad.

Thank you very much for allowing me to express my heart in the form of offering to srila Gurudev.

Life is very struggling maharaj, but you words (lectures) are the soothing remedies for all.

Doing services under immediate authorities, but some time some comments passes by other devotees that not having direct instruction, services by Guru Maharaj, is discouraging some time. But your clear guidance and instructions through your lectutes is motivation to continue services and specifically your address for satellite centers, that I felt very much personal.

Your health is not so good sometimes and having busy schedule, but still you are taking so much effort to prepare for all.

Thank you very much Maharaj for all.

Please maharaj, bless me to understand your mood in the services of Prabhupad and I may able to take this mood to serve you.

Your servant of the servant,

Rasayatra Das.

My humble obeisances to Maharaj

I am not qualified to speak about the glories of Maharaj ,

But given this opportunity would like to share a few words in his glory .

Maharaj epitomizes the highest principles of devotee care and community development.

Maharaj has been instrumental in leading the projects like Bhakti Vedanta hospital ,Ann amrita ,Govardhan Eco village to name a few

He is true leader who shows by example ,All his projects are nice confluence of Vedic and spiritual values using scientific and modern tools aimed at holistic development of society at large

He is very simple and grounded his dealings with god brothers is praiseworthy ,His lectures are philosophical. The past times of Krishna when he narrates seem that they are happening in front of our eyes.

Maharaj is also a Family Man he being Sanyasi he cares about the well being of all the devotees

He also tries to see goodness in each one of the human beings he comes in contact with leaving aside their shortcomings

He is approachable ,He is loving ,Caring.

Being true Vaishnava not just by words but through action too you stand by the people around you in moments of their grief and when they need you the most demonstrating the quality of being para dukkha dukhi.

You are one of the rarest gems in the Prabhupad's Jewel box.

You also very good teacher who teaches us to practise limbs of bhakti by being in the material realm.

On this day wish Maharaj a very good health in the years to come and pray that Radha Gopinath shower his choicest blessings on to Maharaj so that he continues Prabhupad's mission and gives shelter to many more conditioned souls ..

Please forgive us for our short comings we would try to increase our sadhana and try to serve the Prabhupad's mission in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant ..

RASIKA GOPI DEVI DASI (ADILABAD, TELANGANA, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at you lotus feet.

All glories to Guru and Gauranga..

All glories to Srila Prabhupada..

When I contemplate on good qualities mentioned in Bagavad Gita I can very well remember Srila Prabhupada. All the qualities that I have heard Srila Prabhupada has, I can very well see them in you too. I have not seen srila pravhupada but can see him through you. As you once said in a lecture that association is contagious so you too have got all the qualities form srila prabhupada.

Gurudev you have been a living example for me. You have taught us so many things through your own example. In all you lectures you would always speak about – trinad api sunichena taror eva sahisnunam, amanina mana dena kirtaniya sada hari , which is the basis of devotional service. This is the most difficult thing to do, giving up our false ego, you say all the difficulties that we have is just be cause of our false ego. I think myself to be very great by doing small things, but in reality Krishna is great for making me do such things. Krishna is great for allowing me to serve him and his devotees.

Gurudev you teach us many times that to serve Lord we have to serve his devotees with humble and grateful heart. But I am so unfortunate to take this lesson from you. My pride come in front of your instruction. When will the day come when I can give up my pride.. It is so easy to say give up your pride but when it comes for my own practice its very difficult. It may be difficult but not impossible. By your mercy alone I can give up my pride one day.

Gurudev please keep showering your mercy upon this insignificant soul so that I can learn all your lessons thoroughly and practice them in my life.

Thank you so much for everything.

Your insignificant servant,

Rasika Gopi Devi Dasi.

RASIKA SIROMANI DEVI DASI (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances .

As the fear of uncertainty looms large over the world due to disease and its after effects, we are now able to see the importance and relevance of your divine instructions.

How you have always emphasized the temporary nature of this world and the urgency to take up Krishna consciousness seriously. Your words have given me shelter and direction in these dark times.

This pandemic has shown us the kamala dala jala nature , the fragility of our human existence. If anything it has forced us to reconsider our priorities and embossed the lesson of remembering Krishna at all times.

Maharaj, I sincerely pray that Krishna may protect your health and the health of all devotees.

I pray that you may live long and healthy because we all need you as a beacon of hope for your followers and disciples.

I again aspire to become your worthy disciple eternally. Thank you Maharaj .

Your servant,

On this day, many many Days ago, a little boy was born.

shy He was, as he grew up,

His ways were guessed by none.

Then one day, listening to His heart,

He left his home for Home.

crossing rivers , crossing borders, crossing guns and goons.

passing trials of his faith at last he made it home.

And soon He too, became a home for many souls astray.

guiding all the wandering ones,

on this blissful way.

On this auspicious day, of your Vyas puja I pray,

May Their Lordships, always Bless you More,

Oh Mora Guru!

Oh Vaishnava Thakur!

Oh The Purest Soul!

You are the shining Jewel on the crown of the Lord.

I am so fallen,

How can I serve you?

My heart is filled with anarthas,

And mind so restless and flickering to Subdue.

There is so much envy,

And pride that's snickering.

Only your mercy can drag me out of this suffering.

You have been so kind and inspiring,

That keeps in me, the fire of Bhakti kindling.

Oh my Guru, You display yourself, as an example to be followed.

You are the one through whom,

All my anarthas will get swollowed.

Please shake me up!

Please scould me and chastise!

They say chastisement by Guru,

Is more merciful than praise.

You have always shown me,

the right path to progress.

You have always nourished me,

As a mother in this process.

How can I pay back?

To the soul so bright.

Some say there is no way,

To pay back the dues to the soul of such a geart flight.

But you! You have shown me the way,

By giving me some clue.

And in that way again I owe to You.

I said, I am incompetent to do so,

But you give me different ways to reach that goal.

I sometimes thought that,

How can Krishna give a Guru like you to me-the soul so fallen?

You said, Krishna takes special care of His child most callow(immature).

Your words seems to be direct instructions to me which I will surely fallow,

And it will surely make my anarthas get swallowed.

My Life was filled with lack of clarity about myself and where to go?

Krishna paved the way for me,

So that I can reach you so.

You have been so merciful and compassionate,

That it teaches me to shuffle myself and regulate.

I am full of sin,

You are filled with compassion.

I am full of excuses,

You are filled with action.

I am full of distraction.

You subtract that distraction.

I am full of doubts,

And you are filled with the confidence.

Oh! what I am doing?

There can't be any comparison.

Please bless me,

So that I can serve you and all the vaishnavas..

Please bless me,

So that I can Propagate the Name of The Lord..

Please bless me,

So that I can serve Srila Prabhupada's mission...

Your eternal servant and aspiring and insignificant disciple.

OFFERINGS TO HIS HOLINESS RADHANATH SWAMI MAHARAJ

Dear Most Guru Maharaj,

HARE KRISHNA

Please accept my millions of humble obiesances unto your lotus feet.

I would like to focus on two verses, one from BG and one from SB to meditate on few of your unlimited divine qualities.

BG 5.18

vidyā-vinaya-sampanne

brāhmaṇe gavi hastini

śuni caiva śva-pāke ca

paṇḍitāḥ sama-darśinaḥ

The humble sages, by virtue of true knowledge, see with equal vision a learned and gentle brāhmaṇa, a cow, an elephant, a dog and a dog-eater [outcaste].

You have perfected in practicing this verse. Equal vision is one virtue that is inseparable from you. In your journey home, you met hundreds of people, many sages, mystics, common people, beggars, people in diseased condition, bodily (People suffering with leprosy in leper's colony at Rishikesh), mentally and spiritually, the security guards at Pashupatinath temple and Pakistan border, many species of animals, the dogs, the snake and snake charmer, the mongoose, the list is endless. But every one of them you met, you treated them with equal vision. Not a single complaint, dis-respect and judgement against them.

Maharaj, You mentioned in one of his lectures how You were invited to a meeting of high delegates. When all these delegates were engaged in a conversation, a bird came sat on an angle post near You. You saw into its eyes and could feel the presence of soul in that bird. Maharaj, You thought at that moment, what's the difference. This life time these people are in the bodies of high delegates and next life they may become bird like this and the bird may take their role. That's the equal vision. Maharaj, You could see the presence of divine soul and Super soul in those high delegates and the bird equally.

Second verse which you naturally represent is from Bhagavatam 3.25.21:

titikṣavaḥ kāruṇikāḥ

suhṛdaḥ sarva-dehinām

ajāta-śatravaḥ śāntāḥ

sādhavaḥ sādhu-bhūṣaṇāḥ

The symptoms of a sādhu are that he is tolerant, merciful and friendly to all living entities. He has no enemies, he is peaceful, he abides by the scriptures, and all his characteristics are sublime.

Titkishavah – from chilly winter residence of Yamuna banks in Vrindavan to tolerating many life threatening situations

Kārunika – compassion shown by You in preaching

Suhrdah sarva dehinām – We have seen above how You treat everyone with equal vision and accepted and respected every living entity as part and parcel of Krishna and as a friend.

Ajāta satravah – No enemies

Sāntāh – With all the above qualities, You are naturally peaceful

I wish to offer this poem through Your heart, Maharaj, depicting Your divine compassionate heart to all the living entities. It is Your heart in the form poem saying these things for all living entities considering them all Your friends. We are included:

O friend I am with you

Undertaking repeated journeys

Wandering through replete of counties

Forgetting promises to remember me forever

I missed your prayers of fervor

O friend I am with you

Trespassing the nature's dictation

Surpassing the matured regulations

Impressed by the worldly allurements

Possessed by the proudly achievements

You suppressed all your engagements for me

O friend I am with you

Creating unlimited occupations

Imitating unwanted designations

The rosy dreams of lordship appeared as unending

The cozy screams of friendship perceived as unbecoming

O friend I am with you

Conditioned by the three modes of material nature

Petitioned by the alluring beautiful pastures

Cherished by the tempting worldly caricature

Illusioned by the tricky beauties of material miniatures

Absorbed in ephemeral joys you ignored the hearty calls of friendly virtues

O friend I am still with you

Despite all our anarthas, faults and plethora of mistakes, you are always ready to accommodate us with large heart and still with all of us as an ever well-wishing friend as mentioned in the above poem. Your compassion has no bounds.

It is my great fortune that You have accepted me as Your insignificant disciple despite many of my faults and disqualifications.

On this very auspicious occasion of your divine appearance, I sincerely seek your blessings so that I can improve on relationships with all, sincerely serve all the vaishnavas and develop taste for the holy name. I have strong aspiration to serve Your mission of serving Your Guru Maharaj, Srila Prabhupad till my last breath in any insignificant way to my best of capacity and beyond.

Your most humble & eternal servant of servant of servant

I offer my respectful obeisances unto His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda, who is very dear to Lord Kṛṣṇa, having taken shelter at His lotus feet.

nirvishesha shunyavadi pashchatya desha tarine

"Our respectful obeisances unto you, O spiritual master, servant of A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda. You are kindly preaching the message of Srila Prabhupad all over the world."

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances to your lotus feet. All glories to you and Srila Prabhupada.

Based on your teachings and instructions we study Bhagavad Gita, Bhagavatam, Chaitanya Charitamrita translations and purports under guidance of senior vaishnavas like Shubvilas prabhuji, Nayanabiram Prabhuji, Ramiya prabhuji and devotees here in Tampa.

Request you to please accept us as your disciples. It is because of your selfless love and genuine desire that you were able to transform the lives of thousands of people all over the world.

We have been listening to your lectures and your disciple teachings regularly.

I was fortunate that I met you a few years ago in an Ohio retreat in glorification of Bhakti Tirtha Swami Maharaj and also I was fortunate to receive your book "The Journey Home" with your autograph in Bhakti center New York. I was also fortunate to visit Radha Gopinath mandir in Chowpatty Mumbai celebrating the flower festival last year 2020.

We are regularly hearing your teachings and glories. Here are some of the learnings we learned from your lectures.

You always emphasize that we should practice devotion to Krishna with utmost sincerity and without any ulterior motives.

In one of the lectures you mentioned "Do not get involved in any politics. Have no desire for name, fame, power and position. Your only desire should be to practice Krishna consciousness sincerely and serve all selflessly."

In this age of Kali there is no other way except the chanting of the holy names of Lord Hari.

You are one of today's most beloved and respected spiritual teachers in the Iskcon family.

You wrote books and gave hundreds of lectures on glories of holy name and srila prabhupada.

You established Govardhan Ecovillage which is recognised by United Nations that is based on the principles of "simple living and higher thinking",

You established Bhaktivedanta Hospital & Research Institute to serve poor devotees free of cost. The hospital is responsible for multiple community initiatives for the welfare of rural and tribal populations – including eye camps and dental camps.

You have established Annamitra to ensure every child should be educated in a hunger free environment.

You have established The Bhakti Centre in New York City which is a community devoted to sharing the experience of self-transformation through the timeless culture and practices of Bhakti.

We are regularly chanting but we need to improve the quality of our chanting. I am regularly participating in Book distribution (Monthly Sankirtan Festivals) here in Tampa. We were fortunate to serve HH Maha Vishnu maharaj at our home last week.

You have emphasized that Srila Prabhupada teachings will provide effective solution to get out of this material world by chanting, dancing , feasting and following four regulative principles.

On this auspicious day, We humbly beg you to give us intelligence to continue and improve our sadhna and request you to please accept us as your soldier in spreading Krishna consciousness at your lotus feet.

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the Vaishnava devotees of the Lord. They are just like desire trees and can fulfill the desires of everyone, and they are full of compassion for the fallen conditioned souls.

Your servants.

REVATIPATI DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected and Dear Guru maharaj,

please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

all glories to Srila Prabhupada.

all glories to Sri Vrindavan dham and glorious Vrindavan forest.

i am very fortunate to have this opportunity to speak a few words of gratitude on the occasion of your 71th Vyas puja and 50th anniversary of your being at Sri vrindavan dham. As Srila Prabhupada mentions that the debt towards the spiritual master can never be repaid and one who even thinks of repaying is nothing more than a joker whose acts make everyone just laugh, so, i am just in the process of realizing how much debt do i have and that to live and act according to your desires, teachings and personal example is the only way to truly reciprocate. since you are a bonafide representative of Lord Krishna and all the previous Acharyas, your desire is non different from their expectations and thus to think of living in any other way will not serve the purpose. practically in every lecture and personal example of yours, you have always emphasized on chanting the Holy names with great sincerity, serving the devotees and co-operating with them in the mood of servant of servant and to expand Srila Prabhupada’s mission of compassion by forming communities of devotees based on principles taught by Srila Prabhupada. i have been escaping far from living by these deep principles and have been practicing Krishna Consciousness in a very shallow and callous way but on this most auspicious occasion of your 71th appearance day celebrations, i wish to offer you my desire to become serious, sincere and free from all ulterior motives in my practice and to simply become a humble instrument in your loving hands to assist you in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Recently in my visit to GEV, i came across your vision for Vrindavan forest "Vrindavan Forest is our earnest humble offering to be a place to remember Sri Vrindavan dham in seperation". this statement of yours so clearly reveals your magnanimity in offering us a chance to attain the highest perfection of life. Remembrance of Vrindavan dham and Its residents is the most precious gift which Lord Krishna in the form of Lord Gauranga comes to give us all and Srila Prabhupada on behalf of all previous acharyas distributed this gift to one and all in every town and village without discrimination. As an eternal resident of vrindavan and eternal loving servant of Srila Prabhupada, you have offered the same gift to us in a totally accessible way. still the qualification to experience this magnanimous gift is to have a heart free from desire of selfish egoistic motivations and desire for sense gratification. i have deep conditioning to be lusty, proud, egoistic, finding faults and criticising the devotees and thus i am kept far away from this great blessing. today on this auspicious day, i pray for your long life of constant service to Srila Prabhupada and his transcendental body in the form of ISKCON and i beg at your lotus feet for your mercy upon me to give up these undesirable habits and conditionings and become a malleable and pure servant. i also wish to thank you for your glorious katha on Srila Prabhupada and Kolkata dham during this kartik month apart from your divine katha on all major festivals for this year.

your unworthy son and disciple

Happy birthday GuruMaharaj

My name is Rishabh and I am 6 yrs old. Mahārāj thank you so much for telling me so many stories. You are a very nice storyteller GuruMaharaj. I like the sounds that you make in your classes. Thank you so much GuruMaharaj I listen to your Kailya class everyday.

RITU VYAS (INDORE, MADHYA PRADESH)

Hare Krishna,

My beloved gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine Lotus feet.

All glorious to Shrila Prabhupada

All glories to you my beloved spiritual father HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj

All glorious to my beloved spiritual mother HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaj

All glorious to you both my spiritual parents.

I bag forgiveness to you because I am very weak in writing English language as I have not learnt English language at all, because I have studied fully in hindi medium school and college. And how much English I am knowing now, is purely because I am hearing your beautiful vani. By your causeless mercy I learnt to speak a little. Thank you very much gurudev for making this insignificant servent learn english language as well as many lessons of my life through purely your causeless mercy.

I had your first darshan (vani+vapu) association 27 years back in shri shri Radha Gopinath temple, there you performed my maternal cousin brother's (Shyam Sundar+ Radhika Sundari) marriage ceremony, and very mercifully you addressed all the relatives.

I couldn't understand anything, but because of your merciful glance upon this fallen soul , in 2005 I got connected to srila Prabhupada's causeless mercy through Prabhupada lilamrita . Vrajaras prabhu (Shyam Sundar bhaiya's younger brother) gave me the book.

I got married in 2003 and in 2005 we shifted to Mumbai and stayed there till 2016 , and then again came back to Indore, Madhya Pradesh.

During 2005-2016 I got your beautiful Vani and vapu association (darshan).

By hg. Jahnava mataji's (my previous counselor) causeless mercy,I got a beautiful opportunity to serve in Gopal's garden high school as a music teacher (2005-2007).

Unfortunately I had to leave this services as I was pregnant for my first daughter sita (now 13 years).

That time you my beloved gurudeva visited to the school and I was having a deep strong desire to hear your vani to get some recharge and solace to my heart as I don't want to leave the job.

And my beloved gurudev you reciprocated to my deep desire, the announcement was made:- the first time maharaj will be addressing the teachers. And I really became so happy then I was having one more desire- to sit in the first row in front of you and here very carefully your beautiful instructions.

And you also full filled that one.

Actually unfortunately I was sitting in the last line but out of your causeless mercy you made me the most fortunate soul, all the nondevotee teachers got up from there please (they were sitting ahead my line) and went to sit my back side.

And in this way I became in the first line.

but That the distance between you and me was to long,

so you requested us to come closer than much closer than much- much closer to you.

And during all this your beautiful reciprocations inside my stomach ("garbha") my 7 months daughter sita was keep rolling in ecstasy and my eyes were fully covered with the tears of your loving exchange is with my deep desire.

my heart was so overwhelmed with the feelings of so much gratitude, that it was running in full speed like a very fast train .

my ears were not able to tolerate the big sound of my heart beats as I want to hear your beautiful bliss full vani.

And then you started to speak :-

" This gopal garden hai school is one of the project of srila Prabhupada's mission".

Then you concluded :- "therefore you must serve srila Prabhupada honestly " and you repeated the same line 3 times" you must serve Prabhupada honestly".

I could relate and understand that you were talking about my separation feelings for leaving the school.

And when you repeating the same instruction thrice, then I was sure that this is your personal instruction to me.

Later on after 1 year you appeared in my dream and repeated the same instruction :- "you must surf prabhupad honestly".

but I was not able to get how should I follow your instruction in day to day practical life.

Later on again after 1 years you appeared in my dream and repeat it doesn't instruction :- "you must sara prabhpad honestly".

Then I asked to my (present) counselor his grace paramhans prabhuji about your same instruction in person and repeated the same instruction 2 times in my dreams, he answered me- you are already doing it, but i was not satisfied with this answer.

Later in 2013 by hg. krishna leela mataji's heart-felt prayers and hg. paramhans prabhuji and haripriya gopi mataji's causeless mercy, some of our counselee members sponsored us for Sri vrindavan dham karthik yatra.

Myself along with my prabhuji (Ashish Vyas and elder daughter sita (that time 6 years old) attended the yatra. And got your beautiful bliss-ful vani+vapu association.

And after that by both of you my beloved spiritual parents blessings,

I got shrimati radha Rani's causeless mercy and in my garbha my younger daughter Hemangi appeared.

During this pregnancy i was having a very good fortune to serve Lord jagannath - Baladeva and subhadra in Bhakti vedanta hospital mira road, through garland making dasasanu das seva.

But in 8th month of my pregnancy it was becoming too difficult for me to sit straight to make garlands so I told my friend Nayan Gopi that now I am not able to sit straight for the service so please forgive me from next week I will not come for this seva.

but Nayan Gopi told me-no you have to serve anyhow in anyway. you can't live this service till you deliver your baby.

And the next day on ekadashi very early in the morning you appeared my be loved Gurudev in my dream and I saw you were wearing a half made Tulsi garland and in one hand you were having so many Tulsi leaves and whoever was coming to you, you were giving them Tulsi leaf.

And I was little tensed, that if you will be distributing all the Tulsi leaves then how will I be completing your half made Tulsi garland?

and out of this anxiety I came to you then you smiled at me and give me all the Tulsi leaves along with the Tulsi garland you were wearing. then I took both to complete the garland and the dream got over.

I work up and called nayan gopi and described her about your loving exchange in my dream and then she started scolding me very heavily - "are you a queen that Maharaj has to appeared in your dream and tell you do not leave the garland seva and keep continue this service because you are not ready to continue this service . maharaj had to appeared in your dream . Shame on you.

now what are you supposed to do?

in this way she was keep scolding me but I was feeling it all as showering of rose petals upon me.

as she was doing it out of so much love and care. I told her I will be continued doing this beautiful garland seva till my baby will be born.

I thought that meaning of this dream was this much only , but after my beloved spiritual mother HH. bhakti charu Swami maharaj left this world, I totally broke down and drawing in the separation feelings from my beloved mother and was just unable to overcome in anyway, then I saw a picture in which I saw my beloved mother(HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaj) is welcoming you my beloved father (HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj)both of you my beloved spiritual parents loving exchanges.

In that picture I saw that in your hand that Tulsi garland was there, same like you gave me in my dream and in this way my mother made me realize that now I need to be under your divine shelter and protection as you are my beloved of father.

Later on one day at night during my prayers before going to bed, I was again feeling deep separation and was not able to overcome my separation feelings for my beloved mother.

I was praying and asking him many questions- why i am alive?

for which service i am here?

And praying to him please engage me in that service.

my dear mother you told me to take shelter of my father but please tell me when will I get his shelter ?

when will I be in his shelter?

Then in the next morning i got my mother's answer.

my dear god brother and your dear son hg. Gaurang prabhuji called my prabhuji on phone call and asked him to come to govardhan eco village wada for music services as job opportunity.

and in the evening my friend filled up my form of iskcon disciple course and I completed iskcon disiple course and got certificate.

Now I was very eagerly awaiting to get your causeless mercy in the form of being initiated by you my beloved gurudeva, but when I looked at myself I came to know that I am just unqualified within and without to get your blessings.

At night I prayed to you very humbly please forgive me for all my fault . I am offering myself unto your divine lotus feet. i am yours. please accept me and please make me a puppet in your hand and please use me however you want to use me for the service of all the Vaishnavas.

Next morning you very mercifully appeared in my dream and so many brahmacharis were serving you one of them was taking a sweater in his hand for you I saw him and I placed both of my hands before him, he got my intention and gave me that sweater I paid my heartfelt gratitude to him and took that sweater and came to you.

you were smiling at me

And by sitting you just kept your both hands straight into left side and write side and from your back side I put the sweater into your hands.

and you happily accepted this in significant service from this in significant fallen soul.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

thank you very much my beloved gurudeva for all your loving exchanges and causeless mercy upon this in significant fallen soul.

please accept my heartfelt gratitude and most respectfull humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.

Thank you very much for everything

ROHIT KUMAR SHARMA (BANGALORE)

Dear Guru Maharaj, Please Accept my Humble Obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada. Currently I am reading “Chasing Rhinos with Swami - Vol 1”, it is bit enthralling the way devotees served Srila Prabhupada in the initial years of ISKCON. The same spirit was passed on to us by HG Radheshyam Prji in our initial days of KC. In serving IYF in Preaching services in our own and also in various colleges I believe we also experienced that spirit upto certain good extent. I stayed in VOICE youth centers and had wonderful association of ecstatic devotees all along. I was given various departments which gave me realisations and purification huming my ego. Post graduation and working in corporate I have lost most of that spirit in my practice and services esp. the Preaching. On this day of your Divine Appearance on this earthly planet, I humbly Pray at Your Lotus Feet to kindly be merciful upon me and bestow upon me your Kind Blessings so that I can practice Sadhana Bhakti principles sincerely like Chanting 16 rounds and become qualified and take Your Shelter at the earliest. Servant of Servant of Your Servants - Rohit

Hare krishna Dear most Guru Maharaj!

Please accept my prostrated obeisance's at your divine Lotus feet!

All Glories to Srila Prabhupad, Sri Gauranga and Srila Gurudev!

Srila Gurudev, please accept my humble wishes for your 71st appearance in this world. With every Dear maharaj its very much visible and experienced that your enthusiasm to serve your spiritual master is exponentially increasing every year. It is my great fortune and blessings to witness this amazing dedication and compassion.

Mahraj , right from my initial days I had the fortune to get association of yours through vani, and with some time I received the manifestation of your compassion and experienced a very wonderful Krsna conscious culture by visiting Radha gopinath temple, Bhaktivedanta hospital and GEV. Subsequently I finally got your association with an oppurtunity to attend bact to back classes in Radha Gopinath Mandir. My belongingness towards you became multifolds and more genuine when I finally got entry to your most celebrated karthik yatra, where whatever I learned heard and applied, it reached to its great heights, by just being one amongst thousands of loving disciples and well-wishers. And the sweet and most nourishing part for me is to hear your divine pastimes from your loving disciples.

Maharaj, due to some odd reason, I always like to explore the knowledge, and due to my limited understanding always get confused with multiple and seeming to be contradictory views. But listening from you and hearing about has always reconciled my doubts and concerns and gave me clarity in all aspects. And over the time everything is very much harmonized and relishable. As heard from your loving disciple HH Bhakti Vijana Maharaj, there are 2 kinds of Faith, shastriya shradha(faith based upon scriptures) and Laukik shradha(faith based upon social norms), lukik shradha is generally very much percolated in all kinds of society and institution, but with you it is very much visible that you have great faith on the words of scriptures and Srila Prabhupada. In your recent class you were mentioning, it is a very liberating experience for you to simply repeat words of Prabhupada. At the same time maharaj, it's very much with the spirit you are inline and not only words. Also maharaj your genuine faithful and surrendered disciples have been the torch bearers in my spiritual life, and I see them as your representative sent and trained by you.

Maharaj this year around janmashtmi, I made relatively bold decision to be ready for entering Grihastha ashram, I was somehow not open for this option and seem impractical , but listening from you and your mature desciples, I understood its better not to be mithyachar and rather accept your need and go fo it. But having taken that decision and to experieince I am currently physically more with worldly people and the reality of life is getting exposed to me. Magnitude of endeavours needed to overcome this kind of association and remain steady in unsurmountable and overwhelming, being very much in adolescent age in bhakti realization. But frankly speaking somehow, I felt I can be in better situation here and may be better humbled contributor. But I do not know how, please allow and bless me to get proper intelligence to do so. Lastly maharaj, my brother today is moving onto other western nation ie canada, Srila prabhpada has spread his mercy everywhere , I seek your prayers to somehow connect him with loving devotee with whatever capacity he has. Also, I am aspiring to approach holiest land of vrindavan. Not with much known association but I wish to hear rember your life, Srila Prabhupada journey and lord's pastimes.

Thank you very much maharaj for everything, Please forgive for all the bad names I am bringing with my immature behaviour. Seeking your mercy, blessings, and service guru Maharaj. My unlimited prayers to lordships for your stable and long-lasting health.

Yours aspiring servant

Wish you a very Happy Krishna conscious appearance day.May Sri Sri Radha Gopinath shower their unlimited love upon you and their special blessings upon you today and always. May Lord Nrasimhadeva protect you always and may you be blessed with good health.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for showering your causeless mercy upon us. Thank you so much for accepting us and giving us shelter at your lotus feet.

On your vyas puja day every year i remember that you mentioned in one of your lectures that you want all of your disciples to be the shining stars on guru Parampara and not the black spots on guru parampara. Every year on your vyas puja day it is a reminder for me and a humble prayer from me that i may not be the shining star but i don't want to be the black spot on guru parampara.

Guru Maharaj, Thank you so much for giving us "The Journey Within" book. The life stories of devotees and prayers you mentioned in the book are very inspiring. It gives so much strength and inspiration. i get lot of strength from reading about Sindhu tai Sapkal and Tarabai.One time i had little health concern but i was so much disturbed that time Vishwarup prabhu's family story inspired me a lot.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaj for giving us Sri Sri RadhaGopinath. It's a joy to have their darshan on facebook and You tube. Radharani is so merciful. By her loving glance she is showering her love upon us.Whenever there is an opportunity to have their darshan in person i feel blessed to be there. Radharani always feed us prasadam at the temple when we go. Somehow some devotee will ask us questions and then they will invite us and personally take us to prasadam hall to honor sumptuous yummy prasadam.

Thank you for everything Guru Maharaj.my humble prayers at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga to please give us strength and good intelligence to behave in such a way that every day we may try with sincerity to please you.

Thank you,

your servant,

Hare Krishna GuruMaharaj

Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances!!!

Amongst many ways how you have nourished multiple times, I recollect two instances in my life:

1. Once in the locality of residence, there was a festival where songs of Lord Siva were played on a speaker in loud volume. While I was cooking dinner, I was simultaneously hearing your lecture. Many times I couldn't hear the words from the lecture despite the maximum volume. I was disturbed and anger arouse on the speakers, organisers and finally extended to Lord Siva. As soon as those feelings arouse for Lord Shiva, you resounded in my ears, through lecture, saying - Vaisnavanam yatha sambho. Immediately I stopped myself in amazement reflecting your words in the lecture as an answer to my thoughts.

Grateful to you, Gurudev, for teaching an important instruction of not to criticise Vaisnavas.

2. In one of the Vrindavan kartik yatras, I was engaged in guest department seva. With days passing by, the services kept increasing and one evening in Govardhan, I was tired physically and mentally. In few minutes, Maharaj was nearing to the stage to begin evening lecture. Along with the devotees of guest department, I was standing near to the dias, waiting for Maharaj like everyone. On his way, Maharaj was paying respects to all the near by devotees by folding his palms briefly stopping at regular intervals. He stopped where we were waiting. With his folded palms, He turned towards all of us and smiled. His folded palms and the glance penetrated the heart filling it with an inspiration by instructing that these hardships are worth taking to serve Vaisnavas.

Grateful to you, Gurudev, for giving the encouragement to serve Vaisnavas.

Praying at your lotus feet to give me the strength to follow your instructions in the mood of servant of servant.

Hare Krishna Gurudev !

Please accept my humble obesiances at your divine lotus feet !

Dear Gurudev,

This year has been exceptional for me as I got a chance to talk to You one to one over zoom for about 2 minutes. By Your mercy I got the Strength to say whatever was in my mind and You listened so patiently. I absolutely forgot that there are other people in zoom as well and for those couple of minutes I was just in a different world , just talking to You. Another great part was that my family was also there and they could get your blessings as well.

Gurudev, at the end of discussion, I asked for a benedication from You that I want to develope a very strong craving to get Krishna just like You had a very deep calling of your heart to find the absolute. If I can get even 1% of craving you had ,my life would be successful. I still want to ask You same benedication on your Vyas Puja. I am very much tired of this material world and I want to just keep myself engaged fully in Your Service and in service of Srila Prabhupada.

Gurudev, I want to surrender my life to You whatever years I am left with. Please drag me to Your lotus feet. Please give me Strength to follow your instructions from my heart and soul.

I pray for your good health and long life so that we can get more and more association of Yours and people in general also get benefitted. I am ever grateful to You Gurudev for everything You are doing for us.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

I first got to know about you, after reading the book ''The Journey home''. I was amazed and inspired by many of the incidents mentioned there and what I liked most was, that after the description, there was a message applicable to me in my daily life.

Maharaj initially I had only heard few of your lectures. I had seen your pictures but not seen you in person. I was keen to see you and so I asked one of your devotees, 'From how close have you seen Maharaj?' And to my surprise, soon after few weeks, I got your darshan. I happened to go to New York, and there in the Manhattan Ratha yatra procession, I got to see you from a close distance. This was your reciprocation and my first interaction.

I often listen to your lectures, and I now realize that I must endeavor to develop humility, compassion, gratitude and integrity in my character; and do away with hatred, anger and envy. It is difficult for me but I am trying. It is only by your grace that this might be possible.

Maharaj you are the epitome of humility. Whenever I hear you speak and the few times I have seen you, you personify humility. In fact, your favourite verse in most lectures is – ''trinad api sunichena taror api sahishnunam amanena manadena kirtaniya sada hari.''

Maharaj, I have heard lectures from few of your disciples. I am much amazed and impressed with their dedication, sincerity and expertise. I strongly believe that their eloquence is possible only as a result of your empowerment. You are the conduit to connect to Krishna's grace. So wonderful!

Maharaj I am struggling in my sadhana and face many challenges. But after listening to your lectures, I believe that these turmoils will be there, and I must continue. This would purify me, and also make the path more dear to me, more precious to me. Maharaj, I feel that the fact that I am continuing despite the many odds, itself is proof that I am under your shelter and guidance.

I beg of you to guide me and keep me strong on this path.

SACHI SUNDARI DEVI DASI (PUNE)

Hare Krishna, pamho

Thank you for giving me this opportunity on the auspicious occasion of Vyaspuja. I would like to share a few incidents.

Maharaj is an ocean of qualities.

Once Maharaj was visiting Delhi. When he was going to hotel, the car passed by the Connaught Place. Maharaj is having memories of this place. He had a simple wish, to walk through these streets again. He had stayed at the Hanuman temple there, in the company of sadhus. Also it was this place where he first saw the painting of Lord Krishna. but his schedule was very busy. He had to go Hrishikesh also. So at that time his secretary couldn't arrange for that. While going back to Mumbai, they came to Delhi at around 1.30 and the flight to Mumbai was at 5.30. so they arranged for his visit. But then Maharaj thought, should I really go? the next day was Gaur Poornima festival and he had to give class. Thousands in Mumbai will visit the temple next day and his lecture was the sought after inspirational event for the attendees. So he found out a quiet place on the airport and pored over Chaitanya Charitamrita. Next day he discoursed 4 hours non-stop and thousands listened in rapt attention. So Maharaj sacrificed his personal desires for the sake of service.

Once Maharaj was passing by the kitchen in Radha Gopinath temple, he saw the milk boiling on the stove. He came closer and with the spoon started stirring the milk gently. He said to the cook, "You please become the GBC and allow me to cook." Some silent moments passed. Then as if reaching the conclusion he said, "I will have to serve as a GBC for many lifetimes before I could get the opportunity to cook for the Lord." He has such simple desires and he always wants to be in the background.

Once devotees were preparing a list of devotees who were to be initiated in Maharaj's forthcoming visit. When Maharaj came, they told him we are working on the initiation. Holding up his bead bag, Maharaj shook it. "And I am working on mine," Maharaj announced, "first trying to be a good disciple myself." He walked out carrying a smile that unveiled the gratitude he felt for his guru. Though he had thousands of disciples all over the globe and thousands more to accept him as guru, his humility won't allow him to consider himself a worthy disciple of his own guru.

Another time in Mayapur, Maharaj was relaxing on the lawn with few of his students. After meandering along various topics, their conversation finally turned into a glorification session, each one glorifying the spiritual qualities of others. When everyone was done, Maharaj leaned to finger a blade of grass on the ground, and said, "Wish I could be like this blade of grass."

So, from these incidents, I am struck with wonder seeing Maharaj's qualities of humility, eagerness to serve, devotion, gratitude. As he himself has imbibed these qualities so deeply, He always stresses on these qualities in his lectures.

Maharaj is so simple at heart, and he has such simple desires just to please his Guru and Lord. On this auspicious occasion of his 71st vyaspuja, I pray for his good health and long life. And pray unto his lotus feet to have mercy on me so I can develop at least a drop of these qualities in me.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my dandvat pranam at your lotus feet.

Since many months,I am struggling with chanting with attention. Main distraction is the mobile. Today, I somehow gathered all my will power and chanted without much distraction. I beg at your lotus feet to bestow your mercy so that I can chant nicely so that you, Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Govind ji will be pleased.

I have made up my mind that now onwards I will sincerely follow instructions of my counselor and improve my accountability.

Thank you Guru Maharaj for your association through the instructions during various lectures.

SACHISUTA CHARAN DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

28-Nov-2021

Hare Krishna,

Dear Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances.

Today while writing this offering I am reminded of how much you and your disciples have touched my and lives of many of my relatives who are now blissfully practicing Krishna Consciousness. Your lectures gives me feeling of your constant association and close guidance. I find deep love and care from many of your senior disciples who are dutifully following your footsteps and guiding us to path back home back to godhead like father teaches son holding his little finger.

Dear Gurudeva, in recent class to Chowpatty resident devotees you mentioned that, “Foundation of Varnashram system is respect to the elders, if this is taken away then entire system will be ruined. You gave example of how inspite of many baseless criticism by Ramchandra Puri, Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu always respected him simply because Ramchandra puri was senior. You have stressed many times that, “ Sadhana will not have substance unless individually or collectively we learn to respect each other.”

Your personal example is the reflection of what you speak. Your loving dealings with your Godbrothers gives us great emotional fulfilment. Presence of unique & big vyasasan in the temple hall signifies your big heart to invite many of senior devotees and hear from them. You glorifies them as if you have 5 mouths. Many occasions seeing your deep respect for your senior Godbrothers, your Sensitivity about their personal needs gives us glimpses of what must be the Spiritual world where there is no envy but only appreciation for each other.

On this day, I would like to seek your blessings that may I take wealth of devotee association very seriously and may only purpose of my existence be seeing the smile on the face of every devotee around me.

SACI PRIYA DAS (KRANICHFELD, GERMANY)

Dear Gurumaharaja, please accept my humble obeisances. All glories unto you and Shrila Prabhupada.

It is pretty difficult for me to put in words what I want to express without making it sound artificial or histrionic. Let me try this way:

At the time when I started to think about a spiritual master in earnest, a (now) Godbrother told me: “When I first time attended a class of Guru Maharaja for me it felt as if he was talking to me only, he precisely adressed what was in my heart right then.”. At that time I thought him to use a Hyperbole to make his point clear. And then I first attended one of your classes, it was in Villa Vrindavan, Italy, and since that time I know he didn’t.

When I talk to somebody about beeing a disciple of a spiritual master I prefer to use the word “Spiritual Father”. On the one hand the term “Master” for many has a certain negative connotation, on the other this is more like what it feels to me.

I can not honestly pretend to always think about Krishna. By your mercy I might some day, but that is “Future Music”, as we say in Germany. But there ist not too much pretending in saying I think of you very often. And it happened again and again that there was some doubt about certain themes, some things Shrila Prabhupada said or some devotees did and then the answer came instantly in the form of one of my friends talking to me about that without me even noticing this doubts, or in the form of an article, some times even a movie occuring somehow and giving me the answer, every time making me feel (I dare to claim “know”) this is you giving me the answer. I can’t thank you enough for this.

And I’m even thankfull for the responsibility coming with taking the vows (and I can tell you: after co- raising three younger brothers I don’t strive to find new responisibilities too vigorously, have had them in abundance), for every time there is the temptation to fall into old ways the last and strongest ancor is always: “I couldn’t do this to you.”. And all of a sudden it’s very easy to say: “No, there’s a better way.”

I dearly love you

Please forgive me all my mistakes

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami, who built a house for the whole world to live in! All glories to your compassionate and loving service to the world, which the devotees here in Kansas deeply treasure.

Thank you, Maharaj! Thank you, thank you! The truth is that I can never say these two words enough, but please bear with me as I repeat them again: thank you!

I am deeply grateful for all that you do, inspiring and encouraging us to grow into being better devotees and thus better human beings.

Your compassionate care is the lifeline for so many people as we navigate the tragedies and suffering of this world, as well as the joys. You show us how to be a caring and compassionate servant of the servant of Srila Prabhupada and his mission.

You have given us the greatest gifts: the keys to the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, and the keys to becoming a caring, loving servant of Sri Radha and Sri Krishna.

It is my greatest fortune to have the opportunity to say, sincerely and humbly: Thank you, Maharaj. May every particle of my being, my every action and word sing out my deep gratitude for you: Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

Wish You a very very happy 71st Vyasapuja Maharaj. We pray to Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji to bestow You a good health and very long life Maharaj. The most jubilant festival of Your Vyasapuja has arrived. So many thoughts gush in my mind when I thought of writing an offering to You Maharaj. But, at the same time, I am short of words thinking what I can offer to You. Maharaj, You have unlimited qualities like an ocean. But, I am like a sparrow trying to take out a drop from that ocean. This year, I thought of putting together a drop of Your unlimited qualities, Your mood and Your teachings from the letters of Your name "RADHANATH SWAMI".

In RADHANATH -

R for "Relationships among the devotees is the key principle in Your teachings" - You are such a wonderful example of having good relationships with all Your God siblings. You just look for the similarities between You and Your friends leaving aside the differences to develop that relationship to grow. They all look up to You as a wonderful friend.

A for "Attachment to the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada" - As Srila Prabhupada always gives credit to Srila BhaktiSiddhanta Saraswathi Thakur for all His success, similarly You attribute all Your accomplishments at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada. In every lecture You give, ultimately it culminates in glorifying Srila Prabhupada.

D for "Determination" - You are determined to find Your path and You are determined to achieve perfection in that path, after achieving perfection also, Your determination keep growing to show us the example. One of the devotees mentioned during last year Vyasapuja offering, You wake up every day at 1:30 AM to perform Your sadhana and make Yourself available for the devotees who need You. This is a great example of determination Maharaj.

H for "Humility" - we don't find any lecture without you mentioning trnadapi sunicena verse. Maharaj, You are a living example of humility. Even though You have done so many projects in ISKCON, You receive tremendous name and fame, You are still a simple sadhu at heart as always.

A for "Austerity" - Austerity is so natural for You Maharaj. To find Your path, You never minded staying in caves, living with wild animals and so many austere conditions. Later when You were in New Vrindavan, You did such austerities without complaints to please Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Vrindavan-nath.

N for "Natural Love for sharing the pastimes of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu" - Whenever you start sharing the pastimes of Lord Chaitanya or pastimes of Radha Krishna, You completely immerse Yourself in those pastimes. Your absorption in narrating those pastimes keeps everyone alert in hearing those pastimes for several hours.

A for “Attitude of Gratitude” - Gratitude is the core principle in Your teachings. Gratefulness is the quality which makes our heart soft and will help us receive the mercy of God. Maharaj, You are always grateful for whatever circumstances You are put in. You are grateful to anyone who has done any small service rendered in Srila Prabhupada’s movement.

T for “Tolerance ” - You tolerated many difficult circumstances in new Vrindavan, You tolerated Radha Gopinath being not a part of ISKCON in the initial days. Maharaj, Your tolerance and patience brought You all success. You are tolerating the shortcomings of us, Your disciples with a merciful glance.

H for “Honesty” - You are so honest in Your devotion, we can see so much in Your Journey Home book, how even minute details You have shared without hesitation. That makes the Journey Home book so attractive to whoever reads or comes across it.

In SWAMI -

S for “Servant of the Servant of the Servant of the gopis is the principle You preach and live” - In every initiation lecture or any yatra lecture, this is the point that mostly touches my heart Maharaj. More than anything else, You emphasize this point hundreds of times. There is no better position than being the servant of servant of the servant…many servants of the Gopi’s. If we please and serve the devotees, both the Spiritual master and Krishna are pleased. Even though, You are the master of all of us, You still ask Your disciples, how You can serve them.

W for “Watering the seed of Bhakti in our hearts” - Through Your vani, You are constantly nourishing us in the path of our devotion. We are only able to sustain our seed of Bhakti which is very tender from the water emanating from Your lotus mouth.

A for “Appreciating others” - Maharaj, when the point of appreciation comes, You always appreciate the devotees as if You have five mouths. Recently after HH Bhakticaru Maharaj left this planet, in every single lecture You give, You always appreciate Bhakticaru Maharaj’s contribution in Srila Prabhupada’s movement. This is emblem of true friendship on the highest platform.

M for “Merciful” - You are merciful not only to human beings but also to every living entity. Even when you were pulling out weeds, You used to chant Hare Krishna maha mantra so that they will all get liberated. This shows Your mercy upon insignificant living entities also.

I for “Instrumental in developing Radha Gopinath’s congregation” - This is the last in the list of the letters but not the least Maharaj, You are the pillar in creating a wonderful community of devotees with real love and care for each other. You developed this wonderful Radha Gopinath temple where the whole world looks up to.

Maharaj, these are a tiny fraction of Your glories from Your many oceanic qualities. Thank You Maharaj for being a such a wonderful example for all of us to follow.

I am still very very far from what You expect from your disciples Maharaj. But, only by Your causeless mercy and the association of wonderful Godbrothers and Godsisters, one day, I wish to please and serve Your lotus feet Maharaj. I beg for Your mercy to be able to hear, understand and follow Your instructions properly.

We pray at your lotus feet Maharaj to please always bless us to be united to serve and please Srila Prabhupada. Thank You so much Maharaj for all that You do for each one of us Maharaj.

Your insignificant daughter,

Sada Nandini devi dasi.

SADAYOGI DAS (DHARWAD, KARNATAKA)

Guru Maharaj, you have set a high example of loving c-operative dealing with your God-brothers. Kindly bless me that I make this as priority to serve to please Vaishnava without any ulterior motives. Let me value all interactions with all vaishnava at all levels. Bless me so that I understand the meaning of serving in the mood of SOSOS. As a servant leader in community let me honour, respect the opinions and empower to make decisions which all inclusive. Bless me to chant my daily rounds attentively and free from all 10 offences. your servant Sadayogi Das,

Dharwad. (Under shelter of HH Bhakti Rasamrit Swami Maharaj)

SADHU SANGA DAS (SHYAMDESH, UAE)

HARE KRISHNA DEARMOST GURUDEV,

On the most blessed and auspicious day of the celebration of Your appearance, please accept my humble obeisances at Your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada! All Glories to You!

Although I'm a very insignificant disciple and full of flaws, I constantly await Your mercy to be bestowed upon me. Having never given up faith and hope, I aspire to be a worthy son some day. Srila Vishvanath Chakravarti Thakur has written that by the mercy of the spiritual master one receives the benediction of Krishna. Without the grace of the spiritual master one can not make any advancement. Therefore, without Your help I can not execute pure devotional service.

In Nectar of Instruction Text 5, Srila Rupa Goswami explains that a pure devotee is always engaged in undeviated devotional service and is devoid of the tendency to criticise others and never sees the bad in people. Similarly, dear Gurudev, You always see the good in others and You always extent Yourself to give Krishna to others.

Love transcends all the language barriers. Dear Gurudev, although sometimes due to language barrier, it's difficult to communicate. However, You always speak the language of the heart and as such You even communicate so graciously to the simple Vrajvasis and endear them.

An Acharya is one who preaches by his example. You are always showing us by your love and exemplary actions how to care for others. Even on days when I feel lowly and unsure on my own efforts to practice devotional service, I'm always reminded of Your love and compassion toward me which gives me great hope and propels me with enthusiasm.

Dear Gurudev, Your love and mercy is my only qualification. Just like a frog in the well fails to understand the vastness of the ocean, I find it very difficult to fully conceive the greatness of Your personality, compassion and love upon me.

An insignificant bee buzzing around the lotus of Your feet, hankering for a drop of love unto You.

Your insignificant son,

Sadhu Sanga Das

Dear Gurumaharaj,

Hare Krishna

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your austere lotus feet.

In writing to you, I feel the most scared, scared because there is a self-conscious feeling, which says that I have not done enough to write to you again after a year with nothing done enough to please you. Although I tried Gurumaharaj, but my legs are so burdened with conditionings of this world that it becomes very difficult for me to even take a small step towards you and Srila Prabhupad.

The constant blow which I experience from my anarthas keep surprising me, but what surprises me the most is your causeless mercy. There is not a single day when i don't commit mistakes and there is not a single day when I don't feel forgiven and accepted by you again.

I want to be very honest with you Gurumaharaj, since I can only write and express this, would probably never be able to speak this to you. That I really miss you, and I seek your presence in your divine and nectarean instructions as HH Gaur Govind Swami Maharaj says, that Guru's instruction is Guru, I find you there. When I see your qualified disciples love and serve you with so much seriousness, I understand my disqualifications even better, I am totally unqualified to be with you, yet you make yourself available through your instructions, Kirtans, lectures and in my thoughts, and I have accepted this, I know you are training me to serve you from distance. Because if I can serve you like this, no circumstance would ever hinder my service to you then. This is your special mercy. You are making your presence so special in the heart of even an insignificant person like myself. Thank You so much Gurumaharaj for just being there!

When I see Srila Prabhupad's disciple my heart starts beating faster, I want to jump in happiness, run after them, preserve their instructions, collect the dust of their lotus feet, serve, serve and serve them, I feel belonged! When I am around them I seek yours and Srila Gurudev's presence in them, and no matter how much I get it's always less. Thankyou so much for making yourself available to me through so many sources. I hear you in them.

Although it is your appearance day, and I have to offer something to you Gurumaharaj, but what can I offer? Everything belongs to your Srila Prabhupad, he is the King, the Owner, the Ruler of our lives, I can only humbly place my insignificant self at your lotus and pray for acceptance as a mere instrument to be used in the service of your Srila Prabhupad, the way you desire.

Thankyou for filling my life with a new hope, and so much love and joy, which had become void after the departure of Srila Gurudev.

With whatever little honesty and genuineness I have, I pray to you Gurumaharaj, to kindly bestow on me immense faith and loyalty to the Lotus feet of Srila Prabhupad, may my life be only an arrangement to serve him, kindly give me the strength and the purity to serve his Iskcon, to serve his disciples, to see only good in every devotee, to keep his instructions on my head, and carry him in my heart everywhere, Kindly help me understand the true meaning of becoming serious in Krishna Consciousness. I have no qualifications, neither the strength and the ability to execute any of these Gurumaharaj and therefore like a shameless beggar, I beg again and again for your causeless mercy, and like Srila Gurudev says, causeless mercy is simply causeless, therefore we should pray for it and wait for it, and I have complete faith in his words and your causeless mercy, they are my strength! You are my strength, you are a beautiful arrangement and expansion of the love and mercy of Srila Gurudev, you are doubly special for me!

I pray forever to remain at your lotus feet in it's truest sense.

Your insignificant servant,

Sahibą/\

SAHIL KHOSLA (DELHI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj

Dandvats Pranam,

Maharaj, this has been a tough year but by mercy of all devotees, guru and Krishna, somehow I was able to come out of the testing times. But they have shown me my naked self, my strengths and my whole lot of shortcomings. Seeing them, sometimes I feel very discouraged. I beg for your mercy to make myself capable enough of coming in front of you or showing you my face.

There is whole lot of bad qualities in me and probably that's why I see them in others as well. This leads to decrease in enthusiasm for all my efforts especially in spiritual life. Although being father, a husband and above all, being a aspiring disciple, I cannot afford to be complacent.

Please oh my Master, I seek your blessings to pull myself out of this trap. Lord has been very merciful, giving their blessed darshan in various dhams we visited. I pray for best of your health Maharaj and you continue to deliver many more fallen souls like me.

Your aspiring servant,

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasapuja.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaj on this divine Appearance day i am making a feeble attempt to write a few lines of praise and gratitude as an offering unto your Lotus feet. Please forgive me for my mistakes.I am indebted to you for giving me my wonderful godbrothers and godsisters who strictly follow in your footsteps. I am eternally indebted and most grateful to you for kindly allowing this insignificant soul to be engaged in your great mission of compassion,which is mission of HDG Srila Prabhupada.

I have been in Krsna consciousness for 15 years but still have to learn a lot.Although i keep trying to cleanse myself ,i fail always.But your words that we should keep trying always,we should never give up,we should go on endeavouring with determination and one day we will be successful gives me so much of hope and assurance.

Today on this Auspicious day, i sincerely pray to you to give me strength , determination, sincerity, dedication to make whatever sacrifices are needed just to be a insignificant instrument in this whole journey of Iskcon.

Please accept my humble obeisances

Thankyou so much Guru Maharaj, for accepting me as your disciple and giving shelter under your lotus feet. your nectarean lectures and instructions keep me in the path of Krishna consciousness. The experiences you had in New Vrindavan and the kind of austerities' you underwent with simplicity, humility ,Sincerity at such a young age following the footsteps of Prabhupada teach us how to be sincere to Guru Maharaj, how to be tolerant and humble, how to sincerely perform devotional service for the deities with so much care and with complete absorption. Your firm faith in Guru, Gauranga and Krishna at all circumstances is very inspiring .Please bless me on the occasion of your Vyasa Puja that I can get an iota of your amazing qualities so that I can perform my devotional service with utmost sincerity and absorption.

My Sincere prayers to Sri Radha Neelamadhava to always keep you in good health so that you can serve Srila Prabhupada's mission for many many years.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my most humble obeisance at the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to you guru Maharaj. All glories to Srila Prabhupada who is so kind to me for giving me such a wonderful spiritual father.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, my words would surely fail to describe your glories. I do not have tinge of intelligence to glorify you properly because your glories are unlimited.

Thank you Guru Maharaj for accepting me as your spiritual daughter. Since I have only got few opportunities too see you, I always have burning desire to meet you again and again And always hankering for your association. Your sweet words always makes me settle down my restless childish mind.

Once I met you during Book launch, I asked you "Are you upset with me?" You lovingly answered me, " I always love to be with you." Those words are and will always be precious jewelry to me. Those words always makes me feel you are with me watching over me my childish behavior, my ego and my mistakes and asking me to rectify it.

Once again thank you Guru Maharaj for accepting me as your disciple. I am praying to serve you in some small way and I pray that my mind always meditate upon your Lotus feet.

All glories to Guru Maharaj

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Dear Gurudeva, PAMHO.

Because of your mercy, we have good fortune to be engaged in service of Lord and His devotees in the everchanging circumstances of this word. I am eternally grateful to you and your disciples for the unlimited mercy and compassion on me, especially, during my medical education draining days in SSRGM & in Barsana camps. Those days are still the main source of strength and nourishment for me.

On this special day of your appearance into this world, I beg for your mercy, blessings and strength to become more serious in devotional service. I also seek forgiveness for my many mistakes. I also beg you to kindly bless my sons Mukund & Madhav and husband Dr. Gorakhnath prabhuji.

Servant of your servants

SAKSHAAT NARAYANA DAS (BARAMATI, INDIA)

I m very thankful and grateful to maharaja for being in my life and inspiring me by his example ad actions and words. Thank u. Hare krsna AGTSP

SAKSHI (INDORE, INDIA)

Hare Krsna Dear Maharaja

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to You and Srila Prabhupada!

On the most auspicious occasion of your divine appearance day, I wish you a very Happy Krsna Conscious Birthday, Dear Maharaja. I pray to Sri Sri Krsna Balaram to protect you at all times from all sorts of dangers and that you always stay with us to guide us and hold our hands, as children like myself always get lost without their spiritual family.

Maharaja, this is a humble attempt of an insignificant servant of yours, to glorify you and thank you, with her limited intelligence and vocabulary. In reality, any attempt that I can make with my scarce resources to thank you and glorify you is futile because it will never be enough to express my love and gratitude for you, it will never equate your real glory, because your glory is infinite Maharaja.

I don't know much about you. I only know what I've heard from your gem like disciples that you have sent me to help me and what I've heard from my Gurudeva. Since I heard about you and your childhood, and your power to feel everything so deeply and strongly in a world of crusty feelings, I was so touched and I just felt I could bow to you all my life.

Dear Maharaja, when I hear about your merciful reciprocations with your dear disciples, I feel so touched and loved even though they aren't directly with me. But I feel the love, warmth and mercy flowing through and reaching me, through your disciples, who I'm so blessed to have in my life. You even appeared in one of my dreams and reciprocated with me, an insignificant jiva, who has done nothing for you. Yet your love and grace is so causeless, that it reaches even rascals like me. I beg you to please never leave me and always be with me as I try to reach Kṛṣṇa.

You embody and personify each of the value that you preach about. The way you present the philosophy makes it seem so natural and simple to follow. The way you narrate pastimes makes me feel like you're right here with me, telling me the story just as my father or grandfather would. You also narrate it with so many voice modulations, which makes the story so much more interesting.

Dear Maharaja your glory is endless. Your love for chanting, your humility, your story telling, your compassion for fallen souls like me, your love for every jiva and your softhearted and gentle, yet grave dealings with everyone are so endearing and reserve a special portion of my heart.

I beg and pray that someday, sometime, in some menial way, i am able to serve your Divine Lotus Feet and purify myself.

I beg you to ignore my mistakes in this letter to you, thinking of me as your naive child. My dear spiritual uncle (my Guru Maharaja's godbrother), thank you so much for everything- a million, a billion, a trillion, a zillion and multizillion times over, for all you have done for me, for your loving disciples and for all your videos and classes.

Happy appearance day again!!

Your insignificant maidservant,

With love and gratitude,

Sakshi

SAME AS ABOVE (BELAGAVI, INDIA)

Hare Kṛṣṇa respected Mahārāja.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda, our glorious Guru Paramparā, Śrī Śrī Gaura Nitai and Śrī Śrī Rādhā Govinda.

This is my first Vyāsa Pūjā offering in the written format. My name is Vrajarāja Govinda Dāsa and am part of the Belagaum community. I was introduced to Kṛṣṇa Consciousness in 2009 as a graduate student at NIT-K, Surathkal by devotees under the leadership of HG Rādheśyāma Prabhu. The devotees were been very kind to me and tolerated me a lot while helping me to take my baby steps in bhakti.

The first saffron-clothed devotee I ever met was HG Caitanya Caraṇa Prabhu, who with his humility, astute understanding of the śāstras and an amazing, clear analysis and presentation convinced me about the authenticity and relevance of the Vedic scriptures in the modern world. He continues to be an inspiration in my life even though I am personally unknown to him.

Later on, I accepted the guidance of HG Sadāyogī Prabhu who counselled me and helped me to become responsible and mature in my life. I stayed in the Brahmacārī Āśrama for 5 years trying to please him through my insignificant, error-prone services.

Currently, I am under the shelter of your loving, trustworthy, stalwart disciple and visionary, HH Bhakti Rasāmṛta Swami Mahārāja, who is an emblem of kindness and compassion. His sagacious demeanour has inspired thousands of devotees including me.

I have mentioned the names of all these devotees since they are your disciples. Even though my association with you has been only through your lectures, both in-person and recorded, I get a glimpse of who you are by seeing the Vaiṣṇava qualities of your disciples. Your commitment and dedication to your Guru Mahārāja, Śrīla Prabhupāda has inspired these and many more devotees to become faithful servants of the Guru Paraṁparā. All glories to you, Guru Mahārāja for being such an inspiration.

I was blessed to be initiated by you in 2019 in the Govardhan Eco Village premises. Ever since, very inconceivably, my journey of my life has seen apparently difficult times. I simply take such circumstances to be the causeless mercy of Kṛṣṇa for the sake of purifying me and bringing me closer to Him.

I beg your mercy, to be able to overcome the current phase of my life by increasing my sādhana standards, especially, the chanting of the HolyNames. I again beg for your mercy to be able to consistently chant 16 rounds as attentively as I can in the mood of a servant of the HolyNames.

Please grant me this benediction for that will please your divine self and Śrīla Prabhupāda immensely.

Your insignificant servant,

Vrajarāja Govinda Dāsa.

SAMIRAN KAR (DHANBAD , INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj dandavat pranam.

I am very grateful to you your life is very inspiring. From your life I have learnt how to Serve in humble servant mode.

Almost at the end of most of the class you told about tolerance, giving respect to others. It is very inspired me and I applied in some cases I becomes very satisfied. Form your lecture I learnt how to serve the Vasianava. Thank you Maharaj for giving me nice teachings which is gradually changing my life.

SANATAN CHAITANYA DAS (PALGHAR, MUMBAI)

My Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On your 71st Birthday, We pray to Lord Sri Sri Radha-Gopinath for your good health and your long association.

ISKCON Palghar Yatra is led by Adhokshaj Pr. and Maha Bhagavat Pr. and with the continuous blessings and guidance of your senior disciples like HG. Gauranga Pr. HG. Madhavananda Pr. HG. Dwarkadhish Pr. HG. Vishakha Priya Mataji and many other devotees.

Maharaja this Vasant Panchami 5th Feb 2022, ISKCON Palghar congregation waiting for the Deity installation ceremony of Sri Radha Krishna in your auspicious presence.

I have been told that any service one renders in ISKCON is service to his Guru. But still, I have always longed for your personal service and but due to lack of good qualities and bhakti piety, I did not get one. I tried to assist other devotees in discharging their service to you whenever Krishna gave the opportunity.

Last year through "Project Transcribe" I did get my long-cherished dream fulfilled and with that, I am getting purified by hearing your lectures, again and again, I have realized that our struggle is with our mind and senses and not with others. Being a Kanistha bhakta I would always find faults with others. Your profound teachings that, Krishna's mercy will come to us only if we live according to Verse 3 of the Shikshastakam. Krishna has bestowed on us the greatest boon which great devotees like Parikshit Maharaja asked for, that is being in the association of devotees discussing the glories of the Lord and his devotees.

Maharaja with the project like Bhaktivedanta Vidyapitha our desire to study Srila Prabhupada's books through various courses is also fulfilled that too at a very low price...

The debts of Guru cannot be paid off but one can please Guru if one becomes Krishna conscious. As you have mentioned that whatever service has been assigned to us by the devotees we should do it sincerely and that will please Krishna. Whatever teachings you have given us I will try to follow them in life and share them with other devotees.

Your servant,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Several years ago when I first came to Krishna consciousness your lectures and pastimes made me so comfortable to start the journey from where I was. Your talks and actions made my whatever little spritual journey so enriching and you always have been so accomodative to my countless limitations.

Deep from my heart I am grateful how you tolerate so many shortcomings in me and still bless me to keep going on.

I struggle to chant properly but you tolerate me.

I struggle to be attentive in hearing but you tolerate me.

I struggle to serve properly with right mood but you tolerate me.

I struggle in having the right mood when dealing with situations, people and others but you tolerate me.

I struggle to follow so many simple yet extremely helpful instructions but you tolerate me.

The list goes on and on...

I just do not know when I would overcome and become a good son of yours and serve the way I should, seeking your mercy, Gurudev.

On this auspicious day, I beg to Srimati Radha Rani to bless you with good health and her mercy upon you.

Gurudev, last year was another year with limited direct sanga of devotees but within the house practices continued the way we could. Your online talks were constantly nurturing us.

You gave the name Radhika to the new addition in family in Kartik last year, thank you so much, Gurudev

My spiritual father, on this most auspicious day I beg to seek your forgiveness and seeking blessings so that I and all the members in family can serve in the best ways.

SANATANA DHARMA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Your Holiness.

I feel very insignificant while writing my humble offering to you. However, I shall make this attempt. I am very grateful to you for your vani association that you have been giving us time and again from Chicago in this pandemic season. This has been a very great energy booster in our service to you in separation.

By your blessings we have been able to setup and run a center in Kharadi, the IT hub of Pune during the pandemic. We did send you a report, through HG Radheshyam prabhuji and we hope that you are pleased with our small good work that we are doing for the transcendental pleasure of Srila Prabhupada and Your Holiness. Gurudeva, we are waiting for that day when you shall come to Kharadi and grace us all here with your divine association.

Gurudeva, I wish to beg at your lotus feet to give me the taste to chant the holyname of Krsna with attention, awareness and absorption. I wish to go deeper in the teachings and application of the teachings of Srimad Bhagavatam. I cannot possibly fathom the greatest fortune I have to be your insignificant disciple but I am so grossly foolish that I am unable to benefit from this relationship.

I have a desire in my heart to serve under you directly as your confidential associate, making every word as my life and soul. I wish to live by this principle, on that I don't know when this day shall come, kabe habe bolo se dina amara. Srila Prabhupada's disciples used to think 24 hours about him, I too wish to think of you and Srila Prabhupada 24 hours every single day. The only problem is that my sincerity sparks on such rare occasions and disappears after that, never to show up again.

Gurudeva, I simply wish to make your words and instructions as my life and soul. Let there be no other desires in my heart. Please bless me again on this occasion so that I can be a puppet and a humble instrument of your compassion in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Your insignificant son,

Sanatana Dharma das brahmacari.

I have no qualification to glorify you but trying to attempt for my purification.

Happy 71st Anniversary to my dear Vrajvasi

Once a Vrajvasi stated in Chawpatty temple that Krishna has done one mistake that though you are a Vrajvasi but born in America. Srila Prabhuapad also mentioned that his guru maharaj has sent many souls in America to assist his preaching mission. This year Janamashtami was 50th anniversary of you entrance to Mathura dham. After that you decided never to leave Vrindavan. Indeed, you never left Vrindavan despite of staying in US for many years. As you went to Mithila the birthplace of Janaki ji and later went to US to renew your visa but went to New Vrindavan for long. We could also see glimpse of VrindaVan in RadhaGopinath temple where the deities are surrounded with trees, parrots, peacocks, cows, caves, monkeys, swans and deer. It does have a small Vrindavan forest in the temple. Srila Prabhupada wanted to have 12 forests in New Vrindavan, you kept his desire in your heart and executed magnificently in WADA farm the replica of Vrindavan. Your personality is simple as Vrajvasi, fragrant as sandalwood and clean like water as mentioned in Udhava Gita

svacchaḥ prakṛtitaḥ snigdho mādhuryas tīrtha-bhūr nṛṇām muniḥ punāty apāṁ mitram īkṣopasparśa-kīrtanaiḥ SB ११,७,४४

O King, a saintly person is just like water because he is free from all contamination, gentle by nature, and by speaking creates a beautiful vibration like that of flowing water. Just by seeing, touching or hearing such a saintly person, the living entity is purified, just as one is cleansed by contact with pure water. Thus, a saintly person, just like a holy place, purifies all those who contact him because he always chants the glories of the Lord.

Please bless me so I can get the taste the holy name and can become an instrument to Srila Prabhupada preaching mission.

Always indebted to you,

Yours aspiring servant

My Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance's at Your Lotus Feet. I offer my deepest thanks and appreciation to you – having accepted me as your insignificant servant – and given me this golden opportunity to go Back to Godhead. Maharaj when you came at Kolkata while your book " The Journey Home" launch at that time I got opportunity to see you and hear from you. After hearing your biography I decided in my mind I will become your servant. From that time I am continues trying to hear your lectures and it give me so much spiritual strength through this I am trying to balance myself in this material world. To follow your instruction and live in such a way, I can become purified. I believe in your words, lectures, and your many blessings. You are in my personal conviction. You are in the power of Lord Chaitanya Sankirtan. Without you i am nothing. You are teaching us daily by your lectures – how to be stronger devotees. Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I would like to express my deep gratitude by the way in which my life has been touched by your limitless mercy. Your book "Journey Home" has imprinted such deep lessons in my heart. Your lectures are an endless source of joy for a suffering and struggling soul like me. The projects you have successfully launched whether it is Gopal's Garden or Bhaktivedanta Hospital, or GEV at Wada all have the same purpose …how to get connected to the Supreme Lord Krishna. In most lectures you constantly remind us of the flickering nature of this temporary life …

Kamala-dala-jala, jivana talamala, bhajahu hari pada, niti re

This life is tottering like a drop of water on a lotus petal, therefore you should always serve and worship the divine feet of Lord Hari (God)

Your life is a great example of service attitude to your Guru Maharaj HDG A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. I am reminded of a verse from the BG 4.34

tad viddhi praṇipātena

paripraśnena sevayā

upadekṣyanti te jṣānaṁ

jṣāninas tattva-darśinaḥ

Translated by HDG Srila Prabhupada as : "Just try to learn the truth by approaching a spiritual master. Inquire from him submissively and render service unto him. The self-realized souls can impart knowledge unto you because they have seen the truth."

Dear Guru Maharaj, I would humbly like to submit that I would consider myself most fortunate if I can serve your lotus feet and always be under your shelter. Seek your blessings that I may always follow your instruction which you have mentioned in so many of your lectures … "trnad api sunicena taror api sunicena…" in the mood of the dasanudasanudas.

All glories to you Maharaj, All glories to Srila Prabhupad

My dearmost Maharaj, I really do not know how to write the glorification to Spiritual Master. Please forgive if any little word is wrong.

I am aspiring Bhakta from Bangalore. From last 3 years at-least I do remeber each and everyday more than 3 times. Sometimes in someday I do always meditating upon you and your instructions(trunad api..) Maharaj.

Whenever my senses agitaded, I just tried remembering your instuctions Maharaj. Somehow by the mercy of you and Pabhupada, my senses calms down and helps me to do devotional service Maharaj.

I met you only one time Maharaj during GBC meeting in Tirupati, 2019. But, due to my ignorance I was not knowing how to approach you Maharaj and I just stayed 2 days only due to my office. Now few of the days I am really really regretting😒, I could left the office and have been stayed there only all days by taking Darshans and association of all Pure devotees of the Lord Sri Hari. Now I am eagerly waiting for that time. Again if I get the same oppertunity to meet and serve you all, definitely I will be there all days Maharaj.

Really I am regretting by not knowing how to serve you Maharaj on those days. Even now also I do not. I have to have the devine association of you dear Maharaj to serve you all the way. But, due to this covid, I have been associating with you online lectures.

I am aspiring Brahmachari Ashrama Maharaj. To continue the same aspiration, I really need your blessings upon this unfortunate fallen soul. Please bless me Maharaj and at any time any where any service, by the mercy of you and Srila Prabhupada, I can do Maharaj.

Please bless be to do Pure Devotional Service..!! Please Help me Maharaj..!!

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obesiences,On the occasion of your vyaspuja today i want to focus on some of your important instructions which helped me in my life.In one lecture you said when ever things, devs dont go the way we expect,when pains ,difficulties come we should be grateful to devs, because if devs are not there in our life then we will never become trnad api sunicena...so we should be grateful that they are helping us to become like that.Also in another lecture you mentioned that humility means i dont deserve anything i should be kicked on the face and thrown in fire but Lord you are so kind you are giving me this.Although initially it was tough for me to take it but later by being grateful i was happy .Being grateful is like having good digestion you can digest all the mercy you are getting by being grateful so i am realising that i am not being grateful for what i am recieving.I am getting so much but i need to be grateful to you,devs and Lord .Please protect this insignificant servant who is trying to do some little tiny service.

मेरे प्रिय गुरु महाराज

आपकीं जय हो

श्रील प्रभुपाद की जय हो ।

गुरु के द्वारा कलयुग के बद्ध जीवो को , जो स्वभाव से ही विरोधी होते है उन्हें भगवान की सेवा में लगाना एक महान चुनोती है ये एक कर्ज है जिसे जीवात्मा कभी नही चुका सकती

“युक्तस्य भक्तांश च नियुञ्जतो$पि

वन्दे गुरो:श्रीचरणारविंदम»!!

जब ये ऑफरिंग लिख रहा था तब सोच रहा था कि गुरु के द्वारा अपने हजारों-हजारों शिष्यों की ओफरिंग पढ़ना एक महान कार्य है ।

ये एक ऐसा कार्य है कि जिसके लिए केवल धन्यवाद देना महज खाना पूर्ति है। केवल सच्चे प्रेम में ही ये

संभव है कि गुरु अपने सभी शिष्यों की ऑफरिंग का अध्ययन करे ।

अतःये बात मुझे पूरी तरह स्पष्ट है कि में कृष्ण से, आपसे, आपके गुरु-भाइयो से, आपके शिष्यों से, आपके शुभचिंतकों से जरा सा भी प्रेम नही करता लेकिन मुझे पूर्ण विस्वास है कि फिर भी आप और भगवान कृष्ण मुझसे प्रेम करते है और में इस अहेतुकी कृपा के आधार पर अपने विचारों को एक कविता के रूप में प्रस्तुत करने की कोशिश कर रहा हु । त्रुटियों के लिए के लिए क्षमा प्रार्थी हु ।

-1-सबको खबर थी मेरे कच्चे मकान की !

फिर भी सब ने दुआओ में बारिशों की मांग की !!

-2अगर राधाश्याम-सुंदर का सहारा न होता

भंवर में ही रहता किनारा न होता ।

-3जो में इस जगत से निरादर न पाता ।

तो प्रभु तेरी शरण मे फिर कैसे आता ।।

-4है, प्रभु ये आपकीं ही कृपा थी कि लगतार 15 years जो मेने quarantine में गुजारा न होता !

तो गुरु महाराज की शिक्षाओ को सफलतापूर्वक अभ्यास में कैसे कर पाता !!

४- है, प्रभु ये आपकीं ही कृपा थी कि दुःखो से जो मेरी जग हसाई न होती

तो फिर मुझे मेरे गुरु महाराज की भी याद आई न होती !!!

-5है, प्रभु ये आपकीं ही कृपा थी कि जो मेरे ही अपने ही (गुरु-भाइयों) ने मुझे जान से मारने की साजिश न रचाई होती ।

तो फिर आपने भी मेरे जान न बचाई होती और सजातीय वैष्णवो से मेरी मुलाकात न करवाई होती, मेने आपकीं विशेष कृपा भी न पाई होती ।।

६-है, मेरे प्रभु अब तो केवल आपकीं अहैतुकी कृपा ही मेरी अंतिम आशा है, वरना तो चारो तरफ निराशा है !

नही छोडूंगा में आपकीं कृपा की आस, बुझने नही दूंगा ये प्यास

क्योकि ये आस ही तो मेरी भक्ति की परीभाषा है ।।

-7और आपकीं कृपा की ये आशा में न कभी छोड़ुंगा क्योकि ये आशा ही तो है जो सभी प्रकार की विपरीत परिस्थितियों में मेरे जीने का सहारा है ।

में ये जान गया हूं कि में आपसे प्रेम नही करता किन्तु फिर भी में आपका प्यारा है ।

-है प्रभु जब आपकीं इच्छा से ही सब हो रहा है , मेरी इच्छा से कुछ हो नही सकता तो फिर में क्यू किसी की निंदा करू !

या उन्हें दोष दे कर आपकीं नजरो में क्यो गिरू !!

कृपया करके मुझे शक्ति दीजिये की !

आपकीं इच्छा मानकर सब स्वीकार कर लूं !!

Subject- My gift of Commitment !!!

Q-Inspite of having all minus points, why should I continue to practice the process of Krsna conscious in ISKCON with the association of devotees, irrespective of facing ALL negative circumstances in my devotional life ?

Ans-Because I have only 01 plus point.

My dear Spiritual Master ,initially when I joined the process of Krsna consciousness than my experience was extremely-extermly bitter because I had been sent to live a quorontine life for 15 consecutive years, I have been cheated in terms of philosophy of Krsna consciousness, I have been planned to murdered, etc, etc.

And all this happened due to sweet will of Krsna. So because of all this I was experiencing a bitter taste in my K.C. although I heard that it's sweet nector.

But after having bitter experience of 15 years of my struggle, I received an instruction from you in 2018 in Vrindavan. And I joined IBM, Goverdhan and now I feel that as days are passing my struggle is becoming sweeter-N-sweeter-N-sweeter.

My dear Spiritual Master the only reason that why I don't leave Krsna consciousness or ISKCON , the only plus point I have is that I am convinced that Although I have no love for Krsna , I have no love for you , your disciples, followers, god-brothers, well -wishers etc.

STILL you love me , STILL Krsna loves me.

So considering this eternal reality , the unbreakable truth that althoug I don't love Krsna but Krsna loves me , still you love me and this faith is my ONLY strength to practice the process of Krsna consciousness in the association of devotees , in the International society of Krsna consciousness, irrespective of facing all so called negative circumstances in my life.

My dear Spiritual Master, When I was writing my offering , I was thinking that it's really a thankless task for the Spiritual Master to engage the Kalyuga rebellious souls to engage in the service of the Lord.

Reading offerings of thousands of disciples it's not at all easy task. Only possible when Spiritual Master really loves his desciples.

Dear Guru Maharaja on the occasion of your Vyas-Puja please allow me to make a commitment to you that in-spite of facing series of life threatening problems

I will not leave the K.C., in the association of devotees in ISKCON

Because you love me, because Prabhupada loves me, because Krsna loves me and I feel that love otherwise I could have left ISKCON.

"O, my dear Radha-Shyamsunder NOW your causeless mercy is my only hope !

Because I understood that for me, devotional life is like climbing a mountain without any rope" !!

Thank you so much .

Aspiring to become your genuine

Hare Krishna guru maharaja

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Every year in your Vyas Puja, I try to write some Vyas Puja offering for you but fails to do so. I feel I am not worthy of writing anything for you. You are such an extraordinary, inspiring, humble servant of prabhupada and I am such a great fool. I still feel the same but this time I gathered some courage to write something in your glorification.

Before pandemic situation, on fourth December 2019 we were blessed with a baby boy. So, we seek your merciful blessings for our baby. I miss our dhaam yatras and your personal association.

But I am so grateful to you to get your lecture transcription seva. I also attended zoom meeting for all transcribers. Now i feel my life is successful as I could offer some seva to you. I try to hear your lectures and your words are my only hope.

I live here in Noida under the guidance of hg Vedanta Chaitanya Prabhu , me and my husband (hg achyuta swarup das) got the opportunity to do some congregational preaching and youth girls preaching.

I am also grateful to hg Rasavigraha Prabhu and Bhakti Nidhi mataji for guiding me to better serve you.

I would also like to thank hg Krishnanada Prabhu and hg pankaj gopa Das Prabhu ji who always inspires me to improve my Sadhana and set right mood to serve you.

I would also like to thank our mentor hg devakinandan Prabhu ji(Singapore)for constantly guiding us in our devotional service.

Atlast I would say I have no words to express how much I am grateful to you for everything you gave. I constantly pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji for your good health, and seek service at your lotus feet birth after birth. Please give me shelter at your lotus feet. Hare Krishna

In this age of Kali, you have opened our eyes to see our real constitutional position. We are so fortunate to get this knowledge from you. You have shown us the path to devotional service and have given us instructions, principles and regulations to further develop our bhakti.

Maharaj, you are so merciful that through your blessing and guidance we are united and progressing together our spiritual journey. Also, by your mercy we are getting devotee association who can help to elevate us in our spiritual path and guide us, so we do not commit mistakes.

When we struggle to develop our sadhana we always remember your often quote from Mahaprabhu's 3rd instruction Trinad api sunicina taror api sahishnuna Amanina manadena kirtaniya sada hari then all struggles are overcome. Your words, teachings, and devotion are so pure that whenever we hear your kirtan, your speech, or your sweet voice we feel ecstasy, peace, and joy spreading through our heart.

Maharaj, you are so kind to give us this knowledge and teaching about Krishna Katha. Wherever we go, we always feel your presence and guidance with us. Please give us your blessing so we can always engage in devotional service life after life.

SHANKAR HANDORE (INDIA)

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please Accept My Humble Obeseinces,

Thank you very much for your causeless mercy upon me. I was rotting in this material world but it is only because of your causeless mercy I got an opportunity to serve the lord and devotess. Otherwise, I Would have been serving my mind and senses.

Also, as said

Brahmand brahmite kon bhagyavan jiva,

Guru Krishna Prasade paye bhakti lata bija.

After many many lifetimes & by undergoing through all species of life one receives the mercy of guru and Krishna.

I consider myself fortunate, that how by your causeless mercy I got an opportunity to render service. Although there was no qualification of mine. I was not looking after god or dedicating my life. But its only your's causeless mercy because of which I have received this gift of Krishna Consciousness.

Dear guru maharaj thank you very much for your inspiration so I can continue and experience krishna consciosness. And Inspire others to practice Krishna Consciousness. When I read the scriptures and understand the position of guru I feel myself fully unqualified. Like the way Srila Narottam das thakur surrendering himself at the lotus feet of thhe loknath goswami, and Srila Rupa & Sanatan Goswami surrendering at the lotus feet of lord sri chaitanya mahaprabhu, His divine grace Srila Bhakti Siddhant Saraswati Thakur surrendering at the lotus feet of Srila Gaur Kishor das babaji maharaj.. And your divine grace surrendering unto the lotus feet of A.C Bhaktivendenta Swami Srila Prabhupad, travelling around and searching for genuine spiritual master & dedicating your life at his lotus feet. When I read this I feel myself insignificant that without having any qualifications just because of your causeless mercy I have received this gift of krishna conscioousness. Your whole life is dedication in the service of srila prabhupad.

Thank You Very much guru maharaj for this gift of krishna consciousness, I am etrnally indebted for it. Begging for your mercy so that I get that drop of dedication and surrender at your lotus feet and shlter at your service.

SHANKARANAND DAS (SACRAMENTO CALIFORNIA)

Dear Maharaja,

Please accept our respectful obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Srila Bhakti Vinod Thakur identifies himself as sweeper in market place of holy name. We were meditating on the role of sweeper and were trying to understand why sweeper? Srila Bhakti Vinod Thakur could have used any other role as assistant, preacher and so on. Why sweeper?

Sweeper has a very significant and important role of cleaning up behind the mess left by people in general. People in general make mess and leave mess on streets and by nature's way also mess accumulates. Sweeper cleans all of that.

During last virtual gathering, when you were addressing the devotees thanking them for help with transcribing service, and describing devotees that you are reading the transcription of Pavan Sarovar, I was reminded of Bhakti Vinod Thakur's role as Sweeper in market place of Holy Name. You had explained in the past that for each Yatra you had done lots of preparation for these lectures and now you are spending so much time with proofreading the books that will serve Vaishnavas for long time in the future. You have been putting so much efforts to prepare to clean our consciousness. We have been accumulating lots of trash like desires and thus polluting our consciousness, but you are never tired of doing the job of sweeper in the market place of holy name and helping us to bring our consciousness back to Lotus Feet of Krsna and thus truly making us Happy.

On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, we pray at your Lotus Feet to bless us with your mercy and give us some service to assist you, forgetting our personal selfish desires. In fact, this is our sincere prayer to assist you in any possible way birth after birth in your role as Sweeper in the market place of Holy name.

Thank you very much.

Aspiring to be your servants,

Dear Gurudev! Thank you very much for showering your kindness and love on me every time i get the fortune to see you in person , though it has been a long while to have had your darshan in person . But your wonderful lectures and appearances in Virtual events are helping us stay afloat. Seeing you and thinking of you, i feel assured of some hope to progress spiritually simple on the basis of your prayers to Krishna to bless your disciples! I can never ever repay you for giving me the opportunity to Serve Shri Shri Radha Kalachandji ever since you granted me second initiation. Each time i go on the Altar, my heart swells with Gratitude to you as it is only your qualification that you have shared with me that i am getting this rarest of rare opportunities to serve Thier Lordships Shri Shri Radha Kalachandji!!

Hare Krishna...

Thank you Guru Maharaj for giving me the opportunity to be in the association of devotees. It's your causeless mercy only by which somehow I am able to continue on this path. Guru Maharaj your lectures are so necterian and inspiring whenever I hear them I get the enthusiasm to practise Krsna consciousness more sincerely. I have personally seen and witness through your lectures the humility you have in your heart is I can just aspire for. Guru Maharaj I know I can never thank you enough for what you have given to me. I just beg your prayers and mercy so that one day I can actively serve the devotees and contribute in some ways to the mission.

SHARAD KESHARI (VARANASI, INDIA)

Dear Guri Maharaj,

I have no understanding of what actually the bhakti is. It is only by your mercy and guidance that i am able to practice whatever little i am able to do.

Even after practicing for many years the doubts keep on popping up about the surity of success.

It is more because of my own lack of sincerity.

Please bless me to have proper attitude and sincerity to follow the instructions and serve Vaishnavas and the Lordships.

I bless me to be fearless in life and have firm faith in the shelter of Krishna.

Thank you guru maharaj for giving me your loving RG Bhakt samaj, your beloved ISKCON, your life and soul Srila Prabhupadji and your worshipable Radha Gopinath ji and their Vrindavan Dham.... eternally grateful to you. Please forgive me for my offences and kindly engage me in your service, forever...

SHASHIKANT GUPTA (MAYAPUR , INDIA)

Hare Krishna guru maharaj,

Please please accept my most humble and respectful obeisance onto your divine lotus feet.

It is mentioned in Chaitanya Charitamrita that Krishna bestows His mercy through guru. So yes, now I realise to some extent that my life is only source of disturbance for others as well as for me if I will not be sheltered at your lotus feet. In my current situation of life which is covered with many of my self destructive tendencies, I only hope your infinite causeless mercy which is the only way to rescue me from my contaminated existence which is the result of my sinful and punishable desires. I am constantly offender at the lotus feet of great souls but because of their forgiving nature I am still being allowed to be in the association of devotees. And because Krishna, you and all the Vaishnavas know that I have no other hope otherwise are constantly forgiving me and are giving opportunities to continue in process of reviving my Krishna consciousness. By your causeless mercy I have been allowed to stay in the Sridham Mayapur and after so much struggle I have got the reliable and safe association of devotees including some of the Srila Prabhupada's disciples like HH Bhaktivighna Vinashak Narasimha swami maharaj. Currently, under the guidelines of HG Balaram Govind Prabhu from ISKCON Kolkata who is helping me in practice of devotional service, I am serving in Mayapur Institute and is getting opportunities to associate with many wonderful devotees. Soon , I am going to be assigned with some services in the mission of Srila Prabhupad in MI. Then I hope that my joining MI will be complete. You mentioned that purpose of institution like MI is to develop unalloyed love for Krishna and with this purpose I have joined MI for your pleasure. Unfortunately I am not able to take full advantage of this wonderful opportunities and wasting my time in useless things. I hope that once I get services then things will be steady. Now I am realising the value of rendering service in the mission of Srila Prabhupad which you mention again and again in your lectures. I am finding myself simply insignificant infront of Maya and is having hope against hope for your causeless mercy which will reinstate me in proper attitude to execute your instructions the way you will be pleased. I personally have no qualifications and intelligence to make any progress in Krishna consciousness and is entirely dependent on your causeless mercy like a helpless child who seeks help of his mother. I do not know the science of devotional service. Dear Gurudev, You as my master, make me qualified to understand the mystery of devotional service in the way you are pleased and help me to serve you because that will be the perfection of my existence. Please forgive me for my impudence in above writing. Please forgive me for my offences which I may have been committing till now.

Aspiring to be humble servant of the servant,

Your insignificant and worthless servant,

All glories to Vaishnavas who have taken shelter under the lotus feet of Lord Krsna

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

All glories to you, our most beloved spiritual master

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

While number of people struggle for relief from endless sufferings and aimlessly seek pleasure to compensate their empty hearts, we find sweet shelter in your wisdom and love.

Please accept our most humble obeisances, and kindly forgive the offences we commit. On this most blessed and auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja, we are filled with a sense of gratitude and wonder of the inconceivable gift we have received from you.

In the Sri Caitanya-caritamrta Madhya-lila 1.205, the translation of this verse describes our mood and feelings.

"Indeed, we are like a dwarf who wants to capture the moon. Although we are completely unfit, a desire to receive Your mercy is awakening within our minds."

This is our position, completely unworthy, and most fallen, therefore by showing us your mercy, our existence has totally been transformed. For you are patita-pavana, the savior of the fallen souls, and who is more fallen than us? We have no good qualities, born of low birth, without good intelligence, without beauty, or wealth, just a fallen soul, desiring only for your causeless mercy to be bestowed upon us.

Krsna's grace is everlasting and limitless, while in comparison the entire creation is but an evaporating cloud in the spiritual sky. On the path of devotion there will always be infnite hope and joy.

Just like a loving father appreciates the incoherent stammering of his young child as the child tries to express his affections, by your mercy, you appreciate our outpourings and heartfelt appreciations reposed at your lotus feet.

You are the one keeps reminding us time and again that Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu is Krishna himself and that he came as a devotee to elevate us to the topmost region of spiritual sky, Goloka Vrindavan, where we can join Him in His eternal pastimes.

You are the personification of the bliss of Krsna's, Mahaprabhu's and Srila Prabhupada's mercy. You are the storehouse of compassion for the poor and suffering souls like us.

Krishna says in Srimad Bhagavatam 10.80.34:

"I, the Soul of all beings, am not as satisfied by ritual worship, brahminical initiation, penances or self-discipline as I am by faithful service rendered to one's spiritual master."

How dear you must be to Krsna for your faithful service. You are always absorbed in your service to your spiritual master, setting such an example for all the disciples to follow.

"My dear Lord, one who earnestly waits for You to bestow Your causeless mercy upon him, all the while patiently suffering the reactions of his past misdeeds and offering You respectful obeisances with his heart, words and body, is surely eligible for liberation, for it has become his rightful claim." this particular verse of Srimad bhagavatam 10.14.8 touches our heart and inspires us to not question the lord's plan.

For instance in Mahabharata, Lord yudhistira and his brothers were 100% surrendered to Krishna but yet Krishna put them in that burning house, fed his brother Bhima deadly poison, that evil minded Shakuni to assist Dhuryodhana in the gambling match and cheat them, they were sent to forest where they lost all wealth, everything, and had to be hiding like criminals, begging for food. Krishna allowed all this to happen and took away everything from them.

Seeing this Yudhistira asks Krishna that he is the husband of godess of fortune, instead of giving he took everything and left nothing. On this Krishna replies that when I am merciful to my devotee I give everything my devotee wants but when I show my supreme compassion upon my devotee I take everything away. Turn his family against him and when there's nothing left my devotee with humble heart turns towards me, seeking my mercy. That is my compassion.

It is still my child-like wish that your causeless mercy be bestowed upon us, as we continue to offer our respectful obeisances from the core of our heart. You have stolen our heart, and we cannot help, but to love You.

It is through you we have learnt that the Supreme Personality of Godhead is not a person to be feared, infact our dearmost friend, who is eagerly waiting for us to come back to Him in the spiritual world, where He sports with His eternal consort, Srimati Radharani and when we re-establish our lost relationship with Him by surrendering unto His lotus feet, He allows us to enter the world of endless joy.

Translation of Srimad Bhagavatam 12.3.51 goes as follows:

"My dear King, although Kali-yuga is an ocean of faults, there is still one good quality about this age: Simply by chanting the Hare Krsna maha-mantra, one can become free from material bondage and be promoted to the transcendental kingdom."

Most loving Guru Maharaj, you are our light, and before you came we were in darkness and ignorance. You have taught us that we should not criticize each other because there is fault in everyone and we may be ourselves subjected to criticism. You made us realize that Srimati Radhrani is the transformation of Krsna's love. You were the one who showed us the light of Lord Sri Krishna, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, and Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, His most merciful incarnation.

Guru Maharaj your dependence on Krishna is full of transcendental realization. You are fearless because you have taken shelter under the lotus feed of the lord who is feared by fear personified.

By your mercy, we are very fortunate to have our Bhakti Vriksha class every Wednesday followed by Kirtan Kripa that takes place mostly on the last week of a particular month where all of them sing the glories the Lord and many other classes where every class there is a new realization. By your mercy, we are able to listen to your kirtans that act like a spiritual battery. By your mercy, I have been able to listen your Srimad Bhagavatam class more and many other. By your mercy, me along with my god brothers have been able to stream few of your zoom classes on YouTube.

This year 2021, we have lost our many loved ones and devotees. This world filled with so much of sufferings and distress keeps making us realize “Harer nama evakevalam” that chanting is the only way out of this material world.

“On this most blessed and auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja “ Just by reading this one line, we understand the meaning of writing a Vyasa-Puja offering. Remembering you in love, is worshiping you.

In closing, In Caitanya Caritamrta Madhya Lila 11.28 Krishna tells Arujna, “Those who are My direct devotees are actually not My devotees, but those who are the devotees of My servant are factually My devotees.” and in Caintanya Caritamrta Madhya Lila 11.31 Lord Shiva told the goddess Durga, “My dear Devi, although the Vedas recommend worship of demigods, the worship of Lord Visnu is topmost. However, above the worship of Lord Visnu is the rendering of service to Vaisnavas, who are related to Lord Visnu.”

Guru Maharaj please bless us that we always keep serving the vaishnavas 24/7 with any pride and please bless us that we never loose association of such merciful vaishnavas. Please never let us stop appreciating your glories. Please always allow us to remember your lotus feet and that we never forget them. Please bless us that we always remember “kali-kale nama-rupe krsna-avatara” or the Hare Krsna maha-mantra, is the incarnation of Lord Krsna in this age of Kali.

We pray to Radha Murlidhar and Narsimha Dev for your good health.

A soul surrendered at your lotus feet,

Shivam Patwa

Thank you very much Maharaj for establishing such high standards of Vaishnava etiquette and behaviour. You are a source of inspiration of how to serve Godbrothers, Godsisters and other Vaishnavas. You teach us how to develop loving relationships with all living entities.

My mother is at that stage of life where she needs constant love, care and attention. And it is your instructions which are at the fore of my mind while serving her. And your nice dealings with your parents is an example to be emulated.

My prayer at your lotus feet Guru Maharaj is that I am able to develop patience and tolerance and exchange loving dealings with her so that both of us are able to advance spiritually. Please help me to overcome my offensive nature by guiding me from within my heart. Please help to fulfill the objective of my birth by pleasing you and other Vaishnavas.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet, All glories to you.

Your divine words are source of my life, In your 1991 lecture series under "Obedience to Guru Parampara" you said, Lord Chaitanya mahaprabhu says there are four vital and essential qualities for aspiring to be devotee Humility, Tolerance, Self-control, Neutrality …As the years are passing I am seeing these qualities are very difficult to imbibe without your causeless mercy. I am seeing myself as Kamsa who was instructing mother Devaki after killing her six children in SB 10.4.20 on how we suffer if we have bodily attachments. In that contest you said only knowledge is not sufficient to receive Krishna's mercy but a need of "Humble service attitude". On this auspicious day of your appearance Dear Gurudev, I beg at your lotus feet that I should be able to serve with humble service attitude in ToVP.

Maharaj, Recently we at ToVP on the 125th Birth anniversary of Srila Prabhupada, We welcomed Srila Prabhupada to oversee the ongoing activities of ToVP and are expecting blessing from him to Open ToVP to the world to see and serve the Divine Deities by 2024.The event was very warm and hope giving as I saw the enthusiastic presence of your god brothers & sisters and their commitments towards, fulfilling desire of Srila Prabhupada to complete the ToVP project soon.

Dear Guru Maharaj,I bow down, to receive your causeless mercy for allowing me to serve in ToVP. Please continue showering your blessing and protection, So that I can serve and please vaishnavas, Srila Prabhupada and You Srila Gurudev.

Please accept my most loving humble obeisances

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda

I only wish to sincerely express my gratitude for allowing some insignificant service in the mission of our beloved Śrīla Prabhupāda. Exactly one year ago, on your 70th Vyas-puja day, I expressed to you my desire to serve in the mission of Śrīla Prabhupāda and in no time you accepted me by sending your beloved disciples in my life. You immediately awarded me Vaiṣṇava association, and Vaiṣṇava service, the two most valuable possessions in the entire creation.

Since then my life has been transformed, my faith, my determination, and my conviction in the service of Śrī Guru and the Vaiṣṇavas is growing steadily.

I pray that I may remain grateful for this benediction that you have bestowed upon me, and may this be my desire alone, to live a life of devotion to Śrī Śrī Nitāi Śacī-suta, dedicated to humble and sincere service to Śrīla Gurudeva and the Vaiṣṇavas.

Hare Krishna

Dearmost Maharaj,

On this most auspicious occasion I pray for your good health.so that you can continue your glorious contribution in Hare Krishna movement for millions of years. I am not at all qualified to speak about an exalted vaishnava like you. Every thing which began from your journey to India, your meeting with his divine grace, opening of Sri sri Radha Gopinath temple, Govardhan Eco village is simply amazing. You are a born brajvashi as stated by a vrajvashi. Out of hundreds of your swan like qualities I have always loved and maddened by your simplicity, genuine humility and your love towards your God brothers. I have heard your many many lectures in which you have genuinely glorified your godbrothers like the way you glorified your spiritual master.

Whenever I am bewildered by Maya I take the shelter of your autobiography the journey home. Every single page of this book completely pacifies me and makes me feel pure and serene. I can confidently say that most of the readers must have the same feelings after reading your book. On this most auspicious occasion I beg for your mercy to get at least one good quality which will help me in serving vaishnavas.

SHUBHAM BIYANI (KOLKATA, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance!

I am feeling very blessed to write this Vyaspuja offering to you. Once in a Vyaspuja offering, HG Krishnachandra prabhu said that, in a disciple's life, the holiest of all days is his spiritual master's appearance day. I am feeling very grateful to you while I am writing this offering.

I heard from HG Gauranga prabhu that your emphasis on Vaishnava seva among the 5 primary limbs of devotional service is very prominent . And we can see how your life revolves around that. Whether it is your Godbrother or your disciple or anyone else, you always serve them in one way or the other.

When you were in New Vrindavan, you faced so many challenges, insensitive behaviour, insults. But we see in you, that you are always giving love, appreciating others and being very sensitive in your dealings. It is like Draupadi, who was bereaving her children's gruesome murder by Asvatthama, but even then she was thinking about the mother of Asvatthama. Similarly, you also, caring little for your own pains and pleasures, always try to serve others, always try to give happiness to others. These qualities of forgiveness and concern for others, along with humility, gratitude, integrity and many more, all whose source is Krishna, are visible in the lives of great souls. You win the heart of everyone who comes in contact with you, whether it be your godbrothers, devotees from other sampradayas, vrajavasis or big influential people from the outside world. And by doing so, you are spreading the glories of Srila Prabhupada far and wide.

And this year, on the 125th anniversary of Srila Prabhupada's appearance, we got Srila Prabhupada's birth place. And very recently, did I come to know how much crucial role you played in acquiring that land for years and years together.

On this very auspicious day, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Govindaji to award you long and healthy life to fulfil Srila Prabhupada's desires.

In my humble attempts to glorify you, I know there will be many flaws, but still, I request you, for you are very compassionate to fallen souls like me, to please accept me in your service. My mentality is very much fruitive and even though I don't deserve, I have received your great mercy in the form of your transcendental divine lectures. These lectures are sustaining me in my little attempts to perform devotional service.

And in pride, I have behaved insensitively with devotees. With your blessings, I will consciously try to avoid it to please you.

And please empower me to continue serving in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Aspiring to be your humble servant,

Shubham Biyani

Please Accept My Humble Obeisances unto Your Lotus Feet,

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga

Very little I understand about humility and gratitude which is the biggest ornament of a Vaishnava, though whenever I see you or remember you It compels me to think again and again about your life in New Vrindavan. The amount of sacrifices you made and austerity you went through without even an iota of complaint or ill feeling for other devotees. Your lectures shake my material attachments and awaken me from a deep slumber of forgetting respect for other vaishnavas. There is deep tendency within core of my heart to look for pooja, laabh and pratishatha even while serving in vaishnava community and many times it stops me even from service thinking being at backfoot would be better though I am hopeful that by hearing your classes and praying for your causeless mercy It will be removed and I would be able to serve with appropriate service attitude. May I always seek shelter at lotus feet and please guru parampara as a true follower without the tinge of any selfish motives and respect or honor.

For 2020 - Somehow missed to update on form and sent on mail.

Hare Krishna Maharaj Ji,

Please Accept My Humble Obeisance unto Your Lotus Feet,

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga

I have been very much fortunate to Read and Hear about you in my initial days of Krishna Consciousness. Reading your autobiography Journey Home for the first time in 2014, I could not stop myself only until I finished the whole book and It filled me with wonders and tears in my eyes thinking How you met Srila Prabhupada and the way you surrendered for his instructions and Mission. First time in my life I was going through a trauma thinking again and again that Humility is such a valuable jewel to win the heart of our teachers and all the relationships around but never before I was encouraged to be humble and submissive to the will of others rather than aggression and dominating others was my passion. I was thinking how it is possible that just by mere determination to search God in the wildest place a person would get enlightenment and the best of the Spiritual Master. The whole subject matter seemed a blissful dream mesmerising my heart to go through the book and writer's journey again. But It was a real fact that your simple demeanor and huge willpower to attain and serve Krishna had given you eternal relationship with your ever well wisher and friend Srila Prabhupada.

Little I knew about devotees to whom you had personally trained and nurtured over the years and before I could understand that they were your disciples I had lost my heart with their presentation of Krishna Consciousness. Especially HG Gauranga Prabhu and HG Radheshyam Prabhu Ji who later became a beacon of torch light in my life and still guiding me by their exemplary practice of Krishna Consciousness. Though after some time when I came to know that It is your energy which was enlivening their speech I felt deep satisfaction that I have found true Spiritual Master and my eternal father.

How could it be possible for me to not long for your personal association yet I rarely had opportunity and due to lack of hearing your lectures I was unable to feel a connection with you. Again fortune arose and devotees association made it possible where I heard your lectures on dealing with anarthas, such a thunderous voice yet pleading message to cultivate right service attitude and strive to have vaishnava etiquettes "Nothing for myself but everything for the pleasure of Krishna and his devotees." Then It became a regular affair to hear your lectures and boost the Krishna Consciousness.

As much as I read your transcripts and heard your lectures that much my faith started deepening about giving my life and soul in Prabhupada's mission. Over the years I had a very long and healthy relationship with your dear disciples HG Praneshwar Prabhu Ji in Indore and HG Madan Sundar Prabhu Ji in Pune.

The huge amount of energy and life itself they had been putting to push the movement of Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. Never before I felt so inspired to do something for others and to my real self. Just being near to these great souls I felt I am somewhere around you only.

For the last two years I have been trying my best in overcoming weaknesses of heart. And your lectures have given me immense hope and a destination which is reachable. I am daily reading Srila Prabhupda books and also hearing his lectures regularly. Hearing Srila Prabhupada is broadening my intelligence and convincing me to become full Krishna Conscious in this life only. And hearing your lectures is giving me impetus to withstand my vows and commitments in spiritual life.

I wish and pray at your lotus feet that Lord Nityanand blesses me with greatest fortune when I will receive your shelter. With unending hopes and desire to serve you eternally and please you with sincere devotion I do not wish any other object of my life.

Your most fallen servant

Ashtang Dandawat Pranaam to Maharaj ji. Although I have a lot to express and thank for, but I will write few most important points. Without the expert spiritual guidance of such pure disciples of Maharaj like HG Radheshyam prabhu ji, HG Achyut Mohan prji and HG Prem Harinaam prji, I really cannot imagine my human life. They have saved me from experiencing hell in this material world. I am thankful to Maharaj for providing us such great spiritual leaders who inspire us through there own example. I have conviction and a deep feeling that in every decision of my life I feel His presence. I also feel that if I just keep taking inspiration and association of the wonderful community created by Maharaj, my life will be perfect and free from all material miseries. I am in my important phase of life as I am searching for a life partner to enter into Grihastha Ashram soon, therefore I request blessings from Maharaj. Although have no purity but still I pray to Lord to give us more and more association of Maharaj in coming years.

तुमच्या व्यासपूजेच्या निमित्ताने माझे अनेक गुरू बंधू आणि भगिनी त्यांच्या वरील आपल्या कृपे बद्दल कृतज्ञता व्यक्त करतात, जे माझ्यासारख्या बद्ध जीवांना वैष्णव क्रिया, कृपा आणि आचरण एवढेच नव्हे तर गुरु-शिष्य नाते देखील समजून घेण्याची संधी देतात.

गुरुदेव..! व्यासपूजेच्या दिवशी आपल्या गुरुमहाराजांप्रती कृतज्ञता व्यक्त करणे हा प्रत्येक शिष्याचा एक बहुमान (सेवा अधिकार) आहे, परंतु माझ्याकडे अशी विकसित बुद्धी नसल्याने मी नेहमीप्रमाणे तुमच्या अहैतूकी कृपेबद्दल काही शब्द व्यक्त करण्यास असमर्थ आहे. याबद्दल माझा अपराध क्षमा करावा ही आपल्या चरणकामली विनंती..!

पण गुरु शिष्य हे पिता-पुत्राचे नाते असल्याने मी तुमच्याकडे काहीतरी मागू इच्छितो आणि तुम्ही ही भेट द्याल याची मला खात्री बाळगतो.

O Gurudev, please accept my obeisances!

On the occasion of your Vyaspuja, many of my God brothers and sisters express their gratitude for their grace upon them, which gives a conditioned soul like me the opportunity to understand not only Vaishnava actions, grace and conduct but also the Guru-disciple relationship.

Gurudev ..! Expressing gratitude to you Gurumaharaja on the day of Vyaspuja is an honor (service right) of every disciple, but as I do not have such developed intellect, I am not able to express a few words about your unconditional grace as usual. I beg at your lotus feet to forgive my aparadas!

But since Guru Shishya is a father-son relationship, I would like to ask you for something and I am sure that you will give this gift.

O Gurudev, O Kripasindhu, sprinkle some of your grace on me too, so that I may stay away from my unwanted materialistic desires. Also, just like you, I too can serve in the spirit of Dasanudas in this Harekrishna movement for the sake of serving as the head of Guru Maharaj's wish and for the happiness of Srila Prabhupada and all Vaishnavas in this Hare Krishna movement of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Gurudev, you are always travelling around the world for the propagation of Srila Prabhupada's mission but internally you are always meditating on your children. Just like a mother turtle nourishes her eggs simply by meditating on them, similarly you nourish us children by your love and vani association. The most fortunate person is that person who has received the shelter of Guru in vapu or vani and for him/her there is nothing remaining in this world to lament or fear and his/her life quickly attains perfection because of Guru's mercy.

Guru Maharaj, you are the personification of humility and by your example you always stress the importance of service-attitude of being the servant of the servant and cooperation while living within a devotee community. Since a long time I have seen a lot of clashes arising while living with my devotee parents and it seemed that the differences were irreconcilable due to my own false ego and apparent differences between the principles of practice. I have been listening to your lectures. Your association in the vani form gave me solace and strength to go through these situations with as much tolerance and patience that I could gather. You appealed to the good dog within me to remain humble and Gurudev, when the devotees prayed for me and due to the mercy of Harinam all these differences have slowly started subsiding. And I am very happily situated in the temple services under the guidance of my counsellor Her Grace Sachi Devi Mataji now. I am indebted to you for taming the good dog within me and giving me the internal strength to continue in bhakti. Your mercy has materialized all around me now and I feel that I am the most fortunate person, all by your mercy.

You always stress the importance of strong sadhana and service attitude. We are learning to practically apply this principle to our own life through the example of your representatives. I'm indebted to my siksa gurus who are like those fragrant champa flowers who are distributing the fragrance of your instructions and teachings to us. Although we are not as fortunate to receive your vapu association but through their lifestyle, they are exemplifying your teachings for us. I am indebted to my siksa gurus. It is because of them that we never feel devoid of your association.

Disciple means discipline. By the grace of HG Anand Vrindavan Prabhuji, my daily japa practice has become regulated and disciplined. I daily attend the zoom japa sessions in the early morning and complete my japa of minimum 16 rounds by your mercy.

I want to express my gratitude to you. Today on this auspicious day of your divine appearance, I pray that I may get a taste in chanting and enthusiasm to continue in Bhakti and pray for your good health and long life.

Please accept humble obeisances from this unqualified aspiring servant of your servants, Hare Krishna Maharaj, All Glories to Guru And Gauranga Please accept my humble obeisances at Your Lotus Feet .

I am an insignificant person with zero qualifications yet I have been fortunate to receive immeasurable mercy from Sri Radha Gopinathji and all His devotees .This is possible only because of your causeless mercy upon us . You have been sheltering us and guiding us on our spiritual path tirelessly and with great efforts. I do not have words to express my gratitude. On the auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja I pray at the Lotus Feet of Sri Radha Gopinathji to allow us to be in your shelter for long long time as we would be lost without you . And may we have the opportunity to serve you till our last breath. Wish you a happy blessed healthy birthday.

Thank you very very much .

SHWETA VARSHNEY (PUNE, MAHARASHTRA)

Hare Krishna respected Maharaja.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am very grateful to you that you have given a purpose and meaning to my life. I have understood from your lectures what is the purpose of human form of life. You teach us through your own life's example how to be in harmony with oneself and with nature around us. Your dealings with others teach us how to be selfless and how to live for others.

You teach us how external practices dont matter much, how important it is to change the internals as Krishna is only concerned about our internals, and how Bhakti is a matter of heart. You tell us that the essence of Bhakti is to have loving relationships with devotees and we should practice Bhakti happily in the association of devotees.

Maharaja, I am currently involved in Transcription service, and preaching to girls. I am also part of Arjuna group and render quote designing and preaching service there.

For your pleasure, I want to -

1. Complete my Bhagavad Gita assignments and attend classes with sincerity, understand and apply the principles in my life.

2. To reach out young girls for giving Krishna Consciousness with whatever little capacity I have.

3. Read Srimad Bhagavatam 1st Canto with sincerity.

4. Hear, assimilate and apply the instructions in your lectures in my life.

5. Always serve the devotees such that it is pleasing to them.

I beg at your lotus feet to kindly bless me that I will be able to mould my life, my thoughts and my actions according to your instructions. I wish to imbibe your teachings and want to change my internal consciousness. With time, I am becoming less and less sincere, so please bless me that i become more grateful for being connected with the glorious parampara, for the sacrifice that our previous acharyas, Srila Prabhupada and all the Vaishnavas have undergone for giving us the precious gift of Krishna Consciousness. Please bless me that my existence becomes of some use to you and Srila Prabhupada.

Your aspiring servant

Shweta

SHWETAGANGA DEVI DASI. (PUNE. INDIA)

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

You are an abode of all Vaishnav qualities. Among them ,today I speak of the quality of service to the spiritual master, of how you serve Shrila Prabhupad.

Of the 3 kinds of disciples... ie. 1) those who follow instructions of the spiritual master, 2) those who not only follow instruction but do much more than what they have been told and lastly 3) those who understand the mind of the spiritual master and act accordingly, Maharaj, you belong to this third category.

Whatever instructions Prabhupad left for his disciples and the devotee community , we see you follow them to the last detail. Whether they are regarding regulative principles, formalities,attitude, etiquettes,writings,preaching, Iskcon, or any other type of instructions, you follow and exemplify them perfectly.

Prabhupad had said that Iskcon was his body and that devotees should cooperate and care for each other. We see how far you go, to hold on to your Godbrothers and sisters, in a spirit of love and cooperation.

We learn so much from seeing how you respect and care for your Godbrothers and sisters. And you love and care as much, all the people you know,devotees and friends alike.

Your soft ,gentle way of speaking with everyone exudes humility, love, compassion and an ever grateful heart.

What ever we read in Bhakti Shastras about Vaishnav qualities, you possess those qualities to the fullest.

You started so many projects which Shrila Prabhupad had envisioned and today, all of them are successful. Yet you stay in the background, giving credit to all others involved in them. Projects like Govardhan Eco Village, Bhakti Vedant Hospital,Food for life, Gopal's Garden, to mention only a few.

By your example you have shown us the importance of Vani service to the spiritual master.

Gurudev, I am an ordinary person, struggling in Krsna consciousness, struggling to live up to your standards. My only hope is your deep compassion for one and all.

I am very grateful that you have accepted me in your family. I beg for your mercy so that I am able to overcome the obstacles in my spiritual life and live up to the standards you have set by your own example. I am grateful for the counsellors you have entrusted me to, and for the family of devotees, whose association is like the very life giving air I breathe.

Thank you Maharaj for everything.

I pray at the lotus feet of Radha Rani and Krsna that they grant you a long life of good health so that you continue to serve humanity by spreading Krsna Consciousness.

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet.

First of all I would like to take this opportunity to wish you for a very very and Krishna conscious appearance day on this earth for the sake of saving the fallen souls like me who neither understand nor want to realize the importance of this human form of life which is given by the Lord to us out of His cause causeless mercy upon us.

This is your great mercy Maharaj upon the fallen souls like me that you are always wishing well and always extending yourself to give your mercy to us in many many forms but specifically in the form of your sweet and nectarine classes and discussions on Srimad Bhagavatam, Bhagavd Gita and Chaitanya Charitamrita.

Maharaj, you always teach us by your example how to be humble and grateful for everything that we are getting in our life considering it everything as the mercy of the Lord.

Now on this very very auspicious day Maharaj, I beg you that please be pleased upon me by whtever little endeavor I am able to make in the direction of serving and pleasing you. And please bless me Maharaj that I can put my full effort in serving and pleasing you and thus pleasing Krishna. Without your mercy and blessings Maharaj, there is no hope for me.

Thank you so very much Maharaj.

SHYAM BIHARI DAS (ATLANTA GEORGIA, USA)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances, All glories to Srila Prabhupada, Gurudev and Gauranga.

The essence of all your instructions has been for your disciples to always be grateful and forgiving in all circumstances. These character traits would help us to be humble and serve Krishna and His devotees purely.

This pandemic has been a facilitator to these qualities. The lack of personal association has been an impetus to recognizing the value of this association. Working from home has resulted in appreciation for the spouse who has always been serving uninterrupted. More family time has created a close bond with children. The hunger for association with devotees has been intense.

Now, with the association of devotees being more personal, we have learnt to value these moments and be grateful for it. We have learnt to glorify and appreciate devotees, and to see only the good in them. With gratitude, has come forgetfulness of the past and forgiveness of any misgivings.

We have learnt to take more shelter of your instructions and have developed more attachment to you through your Vani. These were the light of our lives and the source of our spiritual strength during these past two years.

On this Vyasa puja, our gratitude is heartfelt and unlimited. When I think of being connected to this amazing Parampara of Acaryas, I am overwhelmed with thankfulness for your compassion on this most unqualified soul. This was not possible even in my dreams, but you glanced upon me and saved me.

I look forward to your Vapu association at Gaur Purnima in Mayapur or at the Kartik parikrama next year. I know that you are always with me, empowering me in my preaching and guiding me in my sadhana.

With a heart full of gratitude, I offer my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet, O personification of Forgiveness and Gratitude, and take complete shelter in your instructions.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance's. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you so very much for all your unconditional love towards us.

I pray to preceding deities of Dallas Sri Radhakalachandji to shower lots of blessings on you for your best health.

In most of your lectures and in your books "Journey Home" and "Journey Within" you showed us how we need to be submissive (BG 4.34: tad viddhi praṇipātena paripraśnena sevayā upadekṣyanti te jṣānaṁ jṣāninas tattva-darśinaḥ) and how to be always humble (trinad api sunichena taror api sahishnuna amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harih).

I am meditating on these two things and trying to be a part of Srila Prabhupada mission in spreading the Krishna Consciousness under your guidance.

Please pray for me to be always humble and submissive so that I can help in the Srila prabhupada mission.

Your Humble Servant,

SHYAM GOVINDA DAS (BOLOGNA)

Beloved Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my obeisances and

all glories to Srila Prabhupada.

If I know anything, I know it through you.

What would my life be if I had not read your book The Journey Home ?

I do what we do just because of you.

I've got plans and my future is bright because of you.

You give me vision, eyes to see truth.

A reason to live. a plan, a lifestyle to believe in.

Please engage me in service of this wonderful mission of San Kirtan movement, even though my heart is full of pride and egoism. May I surrender more and more, and eventually become serious, may my my heart be cleansed by real chanting.

There must be something I can do, by your mercy, please qualify me for any menial service. And I'll be saved.

I know that even just a drop of devotion for you, would allow me to cross over this ocean of miseries and birth and death. May my intention be sincere.

Your example and instructions are my only wealth. May I realise this.

Thank you Maharaja, may I always follow, serve and please you and your loyal servants.

May I not have any other desire beside this.

To,

My worshippable and respected Guru Maharaj (HH Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaj), Hare Krishna to our spiritual father !!

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet on this auspicious day of the 71st year of your divine appearance. All glories to our beloved Siksha Guru HDG Srila Prabhupada.

By your causeless mercy and blessings of several Vaishnavas, I am getting this opportunity to offer my humble prayers and appearance day (Vyas Puja) wishes to my beloved Guru Maharaj.

Millions of words are still less to glorify your unlimited dedication and services to fulfill the mission of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu. Your words, lectures, motivational examples, instructions, and in-depth explanations of holy scriptures are guiding my spiritual journey and helping me to humbly overcome the continuous material calamities. By your loving and merciful grace and by blessings of several Vaishnavas only, one day I aspire to live up to the standard of "trinad api sunicena taror api sahishnuna, amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harihi" and become humble servants of the servants of Srila Prabhupada. Though each and every sentence spoken by you is a most priceless treasure for me, the following learnings from my Guru Maharaj have always helped me in my spiritual life as well as in material engagements-

- A Vaishnava does not consider himself better than others rather he feels fortunate to be the servant of Sri Krishna and extends this fortune to others.

- Ones greatness has to be estimated by ones ability to tolerate provoking situations

- The example of a fish swimming just under the water surface can be easily caught, hence we devotees should go deeper in our devotional life and sadhana so that we can avoid the clutches of three modes of material nature.

- The tendency in this world is that something has to thoroughly shake us up for us to really take shelter of the Lord.

I pray humbly to the Supreme Lord Sri Krishna for your good health Guru Maharaj and may the Supreme Lord give us your association, your Vani, and Vapu for several upcoming decades. We continuously seek your shelter and blessings to grow in our spiritual life and become useful instruments in the hands of Srila Prabhupada. I also seek your forgiveness for any unintentional mistakes or false ego impulses while performing my devotional services in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaj, it is still a long way to go for an insignificant and unqualified person like me. I am eager to serve and ready to fulfill your instructions, to be the instrument of your pleasure. Please kindly order me, instruct me like your puppet, and engage my insignificant life for the pleasure of HDG Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

Dandavat pranam!

Please accept my humble obeisance.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad.

As I sit to write this offering, deep in my heart I feel unqualified and find no appropriate words to do so. Still I try to take this as an opportunity to express my feelings.

A guru is the shelter for his disciple. And the disciple feels protected, loved and cared under this shelter. It's been 9 years that you initiated me. In these 9 years never was a day that I did not feel your love, care and protection. Although you are physically away still I have always felt your presence through your lectures, quotes and your dear disciples who are your representatives. I take this opportunity to thank you for all the guidance, love, blessings and care you have showered on me. There are times when I am able to follow your teachings and there are times when I fail to, due to my own faults. During such times, I have always felt that you are watching over me and getting displeased with me. I feel guilty and repentant later. Today I want to beg forgiveness to displease and disappoint you. Maharaj, I really want to please you by becoming your humble and sincere disciple but I am struggling. I am very grateful to you that inspite of all this you keep showering your causeless mercy on me. Your mercy allows me to chant, your mercy allows me to speak and preach, your mercy keeps me motivated and inspired, your mercy keeps me protected, your mercy keeps me guided. In fact it is only because of your mercy that my spiritual life gets nourished and I am able to do whatever little bhakti I can. Without your mercy I am nothing and without your mercy I am unable to do anything. Therefore I do not find appropriate words because "thank you" is a very small word for the your causeless mercy on me.

I can only pray at the lotus feet of Srimati Radharani and Krishna that they always keep you in the best of your health and help you in your mission to you serve and please Srila Prabhupad, your beloved gurudev.

Thank you Maharaj for teaching the meaning of service by your personal example during yatras. Your selfless service attitude inspires me to serve others without complaining. I cannot be like you but on the auspicious occasion of your birthday I pray to the Lord to bless you with many more years of healthy life so that you can enlighten many more people like me suffering in this material world accepting sense gratification to be the ultimate goal of life.

SHYAMARUPA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected and dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

We are overjoyed to get this opportunity once again to express our feelings to your kind self. Our heartiest wishes and sincerest prayers on this wonderful day of your appearance.

A genuine guide is one who Knows the way, Goes the way and Shows the way. How wonderfully you have exemplified this. Srila Prabhupad taught us the meaning of 'acharya'. By your staunch understanding of Srila Prabhupad's teachings, you have understood the essence of Mahaprabhu's teachings. You are expert in 'p reaching' – reaching Prabhu to all. It was told to missionaries, 'All day long you should preach and if required also speak'. Your lectures are heart melting and surcharging. With that the teaching through your behavior, conduct and sensitivity are equally powerful.

One cannot be so much giving for others without genuine compassion for others. You have imbibed the important teachings of Lord Chaitanya: chanting, dancing and feasting; and emphasize on them time and again.

We are especially grateful to you for your vision and guidance about the newly come up NVCC Project here at Pune. Despite all your engagements you have been taking out time for us and visiting Pune for all the important events to encourage us all. The days you visit here are very much packed but you have been so kind to offer yourself completely for everything required.

Your sensitivity for giving God Consciousness to the people of western world is amazing. Towards that direction, all your efforts, especially producing literatures is very glorious. We get a small glimpse of the oceanic wisdom you possess and you have lived.

We feel very fortunate at the same time very incapable to reciprocate with the great mercy you have been showing upon us. You make all of us vow during the initiation that 'I will serve the mission of Srila Prabhupad in the humble mood of servant of servant, throughout my life'. We seek your blessings for our family to do so and to practice what you expect from all of us.

With extreme gratitude,

Your unworthy servants,

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet,

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga,

All glories to Srila Prabhupad,

On the occasion of 125th birth anniversary of Srila Prabhupad , we would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to you for training us in the teachings of Srila Prabhupad and giving us the Vaishnav culture through Radha Gopinath congregation.

While working in BhaktiVedanta Hospital during the corona phase, we could experience how the entire staff demonstrated the compassion and courage by stretching themselves for the needs of the society even at the cost of personal risks for themselves and their family members.

The senior devotees who were trained personally by you were our inspiration.

We could see that their only desire was to serve selflessly and we were also encouraged to follow in their footsteps.

We pray at your lotus feet that we can develop the service attitude and be useful instruments in your hand to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupad.

All Glories to Lord Gauranga

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

All Glories to your Holiness

Wish you a very happy Vyasa puja. We are grateful for all your teachings and your personal example and rescuing us from a deep materialistic life full of suffering and frustration. This year 2021 Kolkata yatra was a very deep and overwhelming experience where you taught gratitude to Srila Prabhupada and Srila Prabhupada's immense contribution in our lives. The whole series of 4 days lectures has left a deep impression and I felt that you have given us the greatest gift on how to be really successful in life. We have made many mistakes in life but we have done this one good thing of taking shelter of your lotus feet. That decision is the turning point in our life. From that point a floodgate of mercy has come in the form of amrita vani from your lotus mouth.

last summer meeting with ISV devotees you mentioned many wonderful teachings but one of them shine brightly in our heart is that you mentioned that the highest technology is "Trinadapi Sunicena Taror Api Sahisnuna". Dear guru maharaj, our aspiration is to learn and graduate in that special technology which will make the heart very soft and would be suitable for Govinda seva.

Dear guru maharaj, you have been teaching this lesson of trinadapi sunicena for many many years, repeating this sacred principle almost in every of your lecture, but I honestly admit to have failed on this basic teaching, but on this auspicious day of your appearance I again fix myself in the determination to follow this basic teaching and live upto your expectation on the same. Kindly forgive all our shortcomings.

We recently lost quite a few devotees and we feel sorry at their loss and learn that we need to take the association of the exalted godbrothers and god sisters and all the devotees very seriously.

Thanks a lot for giving us your shelter, we are eternally grateful for the same.

We pray to their Lordships to give you a very long and healthy life so that many many souls may be rescued and will get eternal shelter at Krsna's lotus feet.

We are grateful to be under the guidance and inspiration of His Grace Vaisesika prabhu and Her Grace Nirakula mataji for training us in Krsna Consciousness.

Thank you for everything.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Sri Guru and Gaurang!

In one of the lectures, Maharaja spoke about how we identify ourselves to the gross body and its byproducts and we get so affected by union with and separation from our family, society and nation. And we are so attached that we get convinced that this is all we want and make our plans surrounding to these things and as long as this continues, one continues to be in the material life. We do it on a small scale but there are and were personalities who very much grossly would like to dominate and lord it over material nature.

For example, Kamsa and Hiranyakashipu. Kamsa was a very great scholar in Vedic knowledge but without realization. We read few verses from Srimad Bhagavatam wherein he speaks similar to the preaching done by our Gaudiya Sampraday Acharyas. Kamsa explains, "Everyone enjoys and suffers the results of his or her own works under the control of providence which are awarded as per the past deeds. One must not be attached to the bodily concept of life as this is the darkest illusion of life." So, if we hear Kamsa's words then we see how he is speaking the philosophy, sounds like he is giving pravachan. But Kamsa is trying to kill Krishna, he was considering Krishna his enemy, he was causing trouble to the devotees of Krishna. He was always meditating on Krishna, probably more than anybody of us. He was only speaking these words without actually imbibing in his own life and he was missing the most important part, seva, devotional service. Without devotional service one cannot change his consciousness. We also see another example of Hiranyakashipu in seventh canto of Srimad Bhagavatam, there he is talking such high-level philosophy, that anybody only hears or reads those verses then one can misunderstand Hiranyakashipu as a great devotee of Lord.

Both these personalities were constantly thinking of Krishna but unfavorably. Also, they never practiced what they said, that is, there was no acharan in their behavior. Haridas Thakur would explain that a preacher is one who preaches by his or her own example. We can see that none of our Acharyas have ever been quoted Kamsa or Hiranyakashipu. Because they were unfavorable to Krishna consciousness and never followed the Vedic scriptures and the previous Acharyas in their life.

Maharaja, is a perfect example as an Acharya, because he follows what he preaches. He has tremendous qualities of surrender (sharnagati), humility (namrata), determination (nishayat), patience (dhairya), his love for Vrindavan and many more.

Through Maharaja's lectures we had known about his preaching when he was initially in New Vrindavan. He was assigned the preaching in the universities and colleges in US. Maharaja had wonderfully developed the devotees there through his lectures and cooking classes. Maharaja was personally taking care of the devotees which would attract them and make them Krishna conscious.

During such a preaching in one of the college, Maharaja was allowed to conduct cooking classes but without discussing Krishna conscious philosophy. A staunch follower of Christianity, a professor was closely following Maharaja's classes and was very particular about each and every word Maharaja would speak during the classes he would conduct. The professor would attend the class and he never ate the preparations, but he was very much mesmerized by the aroma of the various preparations. After around four weeks, the professor decided to take a small portion of the preparation and that day Maharaja had taught his students to prepare halva. Maharaja gave it to professor; he ate it and went away. The next week the professor approached Maharaja and told Maharaja that I have prepared the halva as per your instruction, as per the recipe mentioned by you but it did not taste the way you had prepared it. So, he inquired what is that missing in my preparation. In the cooking class, after the preparation was done, Maharaja would first offer the preparation to Krishna and then distribute the prasadam. Maharaja told him the secret and when the professor followed, he got the results. And later, this professor became a good devotee of Krishna. Maharaja always follows the instructions of his Guru and preach as it is without any modification.

During 1980s when Maharaja was also preaching in Mumbai, he came here for few days. The preaching was going on and after completing his scheduled programs he was going back to US for continuing his preaching activities back in US. At that time Maharaja had developed many full-time devotees and he would take care of them very nicely and engage them in devotional service. But suddenly he got a call from his authority and was told to stay back in Mumbai and preach here. Maharaja's flight was schedule to depart the next day and when he was told to stay back, he never asked why. He stayed back and continued his preaching in Mumbai. With the mercy of Guru and Krishna, Maharaja has developed such a nice community of devotees that we are so fortunate to be a part of this. This has happened only because the quality of surrender, dedication and service attitude in Maharaja.

When Maharaja joined ISKCON and went to New Vrindavan, he was told to take up the service of a Pujari and take care of cows. He was the Pujari of Sri Radha Vrindavan Nath deity. At that time, to reach the temple, one had to walk two miles to reach the mountain top, with no proper roads. Once in 1972 when Prabhupada had visited New Vrindavan, he had told the temple authority that there must be 24 hours kirtan. Accordingly, the temple management had made the arrangements and the devotees were assigned the services as per the shifts. But after some time, devotees could not continue the service and temple authority told Maharaja to take up these services – as a pujari, to take care of cows and to do kirtan from 9 PM to 2:30 AM. So, Maharaja continued this service for 4 years without fail. Maharaja was hardly getting 2 hours of sleep and he consistently continued this service. Maharaja never gave any excuses, he would travel all the way from the mountain at 2:30 AM and come to take his bath, wake up the deities, do Mangala arti, then he would dress the deities for Darshan arti, offer bhoga, after morning program take rest for 2 hours and then again go and herd the cows, wash them, again offer raj bhoga to deities, so on the seva was going on without any break. Maharaja would also read Prabhupada books in this tight schedule. Maharaja once mentioned that the reading which he did during those days gave him the most nourishment for his spiritual life. This shows how an Acharya preaches with his own example of patience, enthusiasm and determination.

Maharaja, I beg at your lotus feet to please shower your mercy upon this fallen condition soul so that I can follow your instructions through the counselor system developed by you and try to be always in the association of the devotees to serve them and somehow or other assist Srila Prabhupada's mission and aspire to be servant of servant of servant.

You are really an acarya who , by your own example teach and guide us how to become very dear to Krsna. How to not take the Bhakti as a cheaper thing . As a unalloyed devotee of the Lord you are complete surrender to Him and your spiritual master. You touch the life of thousands of people, and change theirs life and give them a sense not only to remain alive but also happy.

I like the way that you are preaching the message of great acaryas, the glories of Mahaprabhu with kindness, natural sensibility for the suffering people, generosity etc.

You are magnanimous like a cloud who spill the rain in everywhere even in the ocean, without discrimination who is qualified or not . I'm feeling very fortunate because I receive a drop of this mercy which fell down in my poor desert heart.

In this way I take shelter at your lotus feet, in your wise and kind words and make them my life and soul. This is my feelings and pray that my faith become fruitful, as a ripe fruits and my acts becoming completely devoted to you .

Dear guru Maharaja I know that you are in my heart; I can contact you in any time or circumstance, but my mind is very restless. I pray that by your mercy I can developed firm faith and attachment for you and Caitanya Mahaprabhu lotus feet. Thus I can become the servant of the servant of the servant of the devotees and realize my inner desire to come to Vrindavan.

Vyasa Puja offering for Maharaj

Dear most Spiritual Master and Eternal Father,

Please accept our humble obeisances at your all-merciful Lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabh-upada.

Vyasa-puja is an offering of honour to Guru who represents Krishna Himself and Krishna's incar-nation Vyasadev. Krishna recommends everyone seeking God to first seek God's representative and to accept his guidance.

Your smile and your merciful glances keep us joyful even though such interactions are very less and brief. We keep recollecting such times and keep looking for more such occasions.

Your book "The journey home" teaches what determination really is. In spite of several scary situations, you kept moving forward focusing on the goal.

Your book "The Journey Within" has given us an understanding in subtler aspects of spiritual subjects with your deep realisations. Your im-partiality to all religions and all nationalities can be understood through this book.

Vapu is the physical body and Vani is the mes-sage and the grace. For those who are sincere, the instructions and grace come through and nothing can separate.

Your instructions and compassion are available in the form of your enlightening lectures, in the form of your disciples, and in the form of systems you have instituted for taking care of devotees. Your constant emphasis on humility, tolerance, and sincere service inspires us. You are a personification of humility. There is prac-tically no class wherein you have not quoted "trinadapi suneechena" verse.

The depth of the subject and intensity with which you speak are the same whether we hear your lectures of 1989 or of 2021. You speak with the same mood whether there are 2000 or 20 persons in the audience. The absorption with which you speak is the same irrespective of time and place. Every visitor to the temple is treated as Krishna's guest and anyone who visits once to Radha Gopinath temple feels like coming again due to this environment.

With your initiative, Radha Gopinath temple and its congregation has been the origin for many successful projects. The programmes span diverse aspects such as cultural education, school for children, an orphanage, preaching programmes, marriage board, care for monks as well as the elderly, counselling for house holders, hospital, Govardhan eco village, annual pilgrimages, drama festivals and Food relief programmes. Practically, there are the best facilities available in every area for spiritual seekers.

Annamrita's has been praised by several organisations through their awards. Bhaktivedanta Hospital has become a centre for holistic health and spiritual care in Mumbai. Special medication was developed during Covid pandemic and many are benefitted. What started as a dream to provide quality healthcare is transformed in to a state-of-the-art multi-specialty hospital. It functions as a "not-for-profit" institution with the motto of "Serving in Devotion". The hospital has a special palliative care unit. Community services form one of the core activities of the hospital. The hospital conducts regular free medical camps such as Barsana Eye and Dental Camps, Pandharpur Camp, Cancer Camp and Dialysis Camp, etc.

In addition, Bhakti Vedanta Hospice at Vrindavan serves those who desire to spend their last days in the holy place of Vrindavan with good medical care.

Govardhan Ecovillage (GEV) is a "model farm community and retreat centre highlighting the importance of spiritual ecology: the need to live in harmony with others, nature and with sacred values". To bring about holistic and sustainable ecological changes, GEV puts great emphasis on community initiatives such as water conservation and protection, empowerment of women, rural health care, and animal care. GEV specialises in recycling and strives to offer sustainable solutions.

You have a strong global influence even on heads of state and have been globally honoured for your humanitarian deeds.

Dear Gurudev, let our appreciation for you grow day by day. Let us realise your transcendental position and let us become more sincere and serious disciples.

It is not easy to desist from ego, anger, pride, etc.; even though we are aware of them. Lot has to be done by us in these areas. We pray for the ability to recognise our shortcomings and to become better instruments in carrying out your mission of serving the devotees. We pray that we lead lives of prayer particularly considering the advancing age and seek your blessings to be properly fixed in devotional service for the rest of our lives till our last breaths.

I am grateful for your kind prayers during my major neurosurgery in December 2019. I got a second life in the same body. I am saved with your mercy and I will strive to lead the rest of my life dedicated in your mission. I realise now how suffering is useful in developing a prayerful life. There is something to learn at each stage of life. When I try to observe my body as a third person, I realise what body is and how old age and ill health help as a preparation for the last day.

We request you to kindly continue to shower your causeless mercy that we may internalise your instructions more than ever to develop strong desire to perform service for your pleasure. Maharaj, your complete faith and dedication to your spiritual master, is the cause for your astounding and unparalleled qualities. We pray that we may develop similar conviction and faith that you have for your spiritual master.

We are indebted to you for giving us the most valuable Krishna Consciousness in our lives and teaching the purpose of life.

Begging to remain in your eternal service,

Your insignificant servants,

Dear Guru Dev

A very happy blissful and best vyas Pooja 2021 I would like to thank you so much ooo sorry thank you very much as you say before you end the class, I am very greatful to you for being so kind to me and giving me your shelter ,gurudev even when I was not initiated by you still that time you use too reciprocate, and please keep reciprocating eternally as always!

I was Worried:-

This time my offerings has a new style which I never used for anyone, I was worried what will I write in my vyas pooja offerings, it should be creative in style and content should be real event as this is about a guru disciple thanking letter also wishing you on such a special occasion , these thoughts will I write something tangible oh Krsna, I won't be able to write even 150words sms/message but gurudev I could write this big letter to you on such an auspicious occasion of your vyas pooja ,finally this style or templating with titles the idea I discovered in transcribing seva but these titles I have written.

Money is not everything:-

I was thinking of money to get so that I may serve the mission,also the loss of our property whole night, get money some means to get money over taken by the thought, but the next day morning when I checked my what's up in the group named amritdroplet your quote came- Quote by His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj:-The only property that actually has true value is bhakti. And after reading I thought maybe I must have thought over it to much and there you stopped me and guided me, in many ways you have always guided me Guru Dev when i was not your official disciple be it when I met with accident, or any occasion like meeting and greeting you, or any, without any emails or calls but eternally, thanking you ,I always felt the shelter as a father guru, guide, amazing and inspiring friend,unflinching faith which I have in you may remain the same and please keep guiding me always.

Guru Dev your books really are instant solutions:-

I read your book lemon drops and I used some of your quotes to share in my presentations in many ways, so greatful to you please keep writing so that I can add them in my small way of preaching also other all your books are gems(-jouney home, journey within, evolve,) book on yatra named vrindavan, wow Guru Dev please bless I may always read hear (your books/lectures)and apply in life your teachings and lords teachings.

Real education:-

I was very fond of reading books taking knowledge and practising was always very important I thought I'll do PhD and more for sure but unfortunately things dint turn that way but I tried hard even when we expect to much from on whom we are depended it hurts in end if it doesn't happen ,so your cort inspired me,

Quote-Real knowledge and education is not about storing masses of data in our brain; it means to have the wisdom to see every human being with equal vision. – Radhanath Swami.

Wow transcribing seva Hari Hari:-

Your Transcribing seva oh my gopinath it was like only Krsna everywhere, every word, reading along with hearing the audio registerred your lecture in mind. I remember you said once when we write lecture we remember ,but this seva gave inspiration felt very close to you as if you are sitting live and instructing me, hearing and reading and correcting, complete spiritual experience, as even if we hear read same scriptures/pastimes millions of times we read hear the pastime it's fresh newly like freshly churned butter , and with the rewinding of your lecture and rechecking always came up with something unheard undiscovered really thank you very much for giving this seva where in I could serve like sparrow but not garuda it was possible only by your blessings I am very very very greatful and happy.

Dearest gurudev points which inspired me from the lectures which I transcribed:-

- Krishna cannot be captured even by the meditation and a tapasya, the greatest of the yogis or the intense study of jnanis ,he cannot be captured even by millions and millions of sacrifices and yajnas of the karmis, and he is only captured by devotion. My thought -(Being of the field if we come to know it doesn't works it hurts right and I am yoga teacher thank you for opening my eyes. When we discover what we have studied for decades wasn't helpful ouch it really hurts but truth should be accepted how much ever it maybe bitter.)

- Queen Kunti said, attachments to material opulence are the greatest curses to our spiritual life, because they make us proud, and what is the greatest danger of being proud you offend great souls, and you cannot call out the name of Krsna helplessly.My thought.(such a true point this false pride o Krsna.)

- Human life is meant to be conscious of God and to serve God in that consciousness, in everything we do, everything we say, everything we think. My thought.(such a true point not easy to follow o Krsna.)

- Srimad Bhagavatam explains that whatever occupation, whatever field of life, if it does not increase your desire to hear and chant the glories of the Lord, then.....śrama eva hi kevalam.....consider that you have simply waste of your time, futile.

- Grihastha ashram is when we put Krishna in the centre. My thoughts (when will I keep)

- The real thing we live for is Krishna, purification and elevation of Consciousness, and that comes when we put God in the centre.

- What is the difference between a Grihamedhi and a Grihastha, that we acknowledge that everything and everyone in our household is Krishna's property.

To follow everything is not possible atleast follow one instruction:-

I'm still trying to follow your 2 statements 1- A woman is perfect only in Saree and 2- When we write while hearing a lecture we are attentive, but in this seva of transcribing I realized that hearing and reading the lectures given by you took me more closer to Krsna truly gurudev, like once one Ayurvedic babaji checked your health and when he came out he said that while he holded your hand nerves he got the darshan of Lord Krishna same I felt in this seva.

Small quotes with big benefits:-

Your small quotes gave me answers and inspired me always , I was thinking how much your personal association and big hours lectures must have transformed E.g.:- hg. Anandavrindavan prabhuji and tulsi mataji, mufatlal prabhuji and family, shetty family,vishakha mataji and dwarkadhish prabhuji and all senior devotees, and people around the globe, please bless dasosmi.

Your true inspiring examples easy to understand:-

Once you said, mataji should serve family and take care of home, really this I saw in my mother how tirelessly she served always and still serving, there are many other matajis who are doing job as well house work, please bless gurudev I may serve my family parents brothers sister, more nicely as they are very supportive always allowed me to follow bhakti and yatras and entirely Krsna consciousness they may be Krsna conscious and I may to be serious devotee really struggling hard internally guru dev.

You are my ideal gurudev :-

I like your kirtans(holyname), lectures(gaurlilas) ,bhajans(amhi jamuna puline), sloka recitation especially the sloka-Mann manaa bhav madh bhakto. samsiddhir hari toshanam , many others in above titles, all your set of lectures theme wise Eg 6anarthas each 15+ lectures, chanting 20-25 ,I found them very instructive which connected me with krsna by being completely aware of anarthas, when I was one year old in Krsna consciousness.

My gratitude message to the project transcribe team:-

¤ Topic -I am greatful to project transcribe team

-Respects to all the devotees, seeking blessings of all ,kindly pardon me if you find I spoke much ,but want to share this very important...

Such and encouraging lecture by hg.gaur gopal prabhuji

And Sunday's class by gurudev (h.h.radhanath swami maharaj)where in he encouraged so much ,such a humble class maharaja's heart filled with so much gratitude really very heart touching class all must hear it ,he is amazing he shared example of,Ganpati/vyasdev ,vyasdev told Ganpati to write in one short if Ganpati misses to write then vyasdev won't narrate further the scriptures ,but we all got one year and with no such rules,

What inspired me was gurudev said serve like

Sparrow or garuda but serve,and both ways u serve is equal to me ...what a big heart really only a guru who walks his talks can say this... I was really touched hg.gaur gopal prabhuji said one Mataji did many files I was really happy,and manyother devotees, they had facility they all did but because of you gurudev at least I could serve like sparrow I m very happy ..... Hari Hari

Due to lack of laptop I was unable to do the seva, when one promises and does not gives you it impediments the service we think but when we pray to lord, he listens, always be depended on krsna, famous sloka wherein lordsays, I carry what my devotees lack and I preserve what my devotee has .. with help of my phone I was hearing and finally adding in the main file, mybrother gave his PC when I asked him later ,maybe Krsna wanted his PC to be used in the service , when the mission is of pure devotee Krsna blesses ,the one who is trying to serve in any possible way lord sees the efforts and blesses finally lord blessed and things got arranged and before the vyasa pooja of guru dev I'll try to submit as many files i can, gurudev thank you very much because of your blessings I could get a chance to serve, dear devotees never loose hope in Krsna consciousness always be depended on Krsna ,like how Arjuna was just a instrument to serve the battle ,and as the battle was already over, we must try till last in possible way.. If one lecture if anyone can do maharaj will be happy like he said in class that whether you serve like sparrow or garuda but serve please don't give up, if you all have the facility then please remove time and do .. Priya kholi mataji and team very patient thank you tons for letting me do the seva, I am sorry if spoke much but just want to encourage all to do the seva that's why said...

Note -You should be depended on krsna more then depending on promises one makes to let you excicute the seva...

Hearing , reading and transcribing took me very close to maharaj ...

I offer my most respectful obeisances again and again at your lotus feet dear Maharaj

I am so insignificant that i do not even consider myself eligible to write here amidst all the wonderful devotees who are serving you so wonderfully.

Maharaj, during the very initial days of my coming into Krishna consciousness, when i was a lost soul and had no idea about my purpose in life, my path pradarshak & siksha guru HG Ananta Vilas prabhu who is your diksha disciple, introduced me to Krishna consciousness through your classes. It is by your causeless mercy that i first came into this path of Krishna consciousness. Dear Maharaj, your humility, your tolerance, your selfless love is beyond the perception of fallen souls as myself. Please with your glance and mercy, purify me so that this insignificant hopeless soul, can also develop these qualities that are so pleasing to Krishna, and try to serve & please Gurumaharaj with my everything..

SONAR GAURAGA DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Respected Guru maharaj,

Please Accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. all glories to Srila Prahupada!

Maharaj, i want to express my gratitude to you for giving so many gifts in KC. KC itself is a greatest gift you have given me and you will continue giving me. And in order to practice KC, you are giving so many gifts out of your mercy and compassion. Few to name are Counselor system, Govardhan Eco Village, Vrindavan Forest, Kartik Yatras, Enchanting dramas.

Two gifts i want to especially high light out of so many are your association through vaani- your lectures and your personal uncompromising example.

1. Your lectures are so amazingly infused with spiritual potency, bhakti, love for Radha-Krsna and Srila Prabhupada that they uplift me even in darkest of ignorance and passion. when iam lost in confusion, bewilderment, lack of service attitude, inattentive chanting, offensive dealings, your Vani association cuts through all the ignorance and coverings and help me restore back in proper KC. i have so many experiences that after hearing your lectures, iam really inspired, heart touched and felt revived, enthused to practice KC properly. I am very grateful to you Guru maharaj for your enlightened lectures filled with love for RadhaGopinath.

Secondly, your personal example in terms of parcticing KC is another gift I want to thankyou for. Your great taste for chanting, Krsna Katha, Gaur Katha, your great desire to love and serve Srila Prabhupada by fulfilling his desires and following his directions and instructions, your loving relationship with your Godbrothers, your genuine concern for taking care of devotees at all levels and much more are very very inspiring to me. Just by remembering any of these qualities fill my heart with so much of joy, inspiration and gratitude.

Maharaj, unfortunately, since last few months, Iam not giving top priority to hear your Vani or meditate on your qualities, both of which are very important for a disciple. i am telling others the importance of both, but i myself not doing them. On this auspicious day of your divine appearance, I pray at your lotus feet begging to bless me to give me strength to take time and give priority to hear your vani regularly and meditate on your divine qualities.

Once again, I express my deepest gratitude for your so many gifts you keep on giving to inspire me in my KC. I pray at your lotus feet that I will reciprocate with you by accepting the gifts you are giving me and sharing them with others and getting them appreciate what you are giving all of us. please forgive me for not practicing KC according to your expectations and guidelines. please make me instrument in your hands to serve others and bring others closer to Lord and Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you very much Maharaja,

Hare Krishna dear Devotees,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada...

Offering For His Divine Grace Radhanath Swami Maharaj

His Divine Grace appeared in this world to deliver millions of fallen souls like us. He gave this world the perfect process to become free from the bondage of matter and be elevated to the spiritual sky. Now it is up to us to practice that process and take full advantage of his divine mercy. If we do that with all sincerity, our lives will become perfect. There is no doubt about it.

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj..

SOORAJ SINGH (KOLKATA, INDIA)

Hare Krishna,

Dear Guru Maharaj please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Although I'm neither qualified nor capable of glorifying you, still for my own purification I'm making this humble attempt.

Due to my utter foolishness and aversion to serve Krishna, I'm constantly being beaten up by Maya. But whenever I take shelter of your lotus feet, it is as if soothing rain is falling on my burning heart

Unfortunately, I forget to take shelter at your feet and keep getting beaten up by Maya. But you are so kind that you never reject me, whenever I turn towards you after regaining consciousness, you always protect me, help me

I will not find anyone who loves me more than you in this world. But I cry because even after this I leave you and run towards other people of the world who have always cheated me. This is the main reason of my sadness.

Maharaj please have mercy on me and you yourself kindly keep me at your lotus feet. You are like a doctor who treats a patient even against his will. I don't see any other way than this. I'm so very foolish, so very lethargic, proud, lusty, envious, illusioned to understand spiritual subject matters.

Please give me attraction for your lotus feet. Then only my life can be a success.

SRESTHA TIRTHA DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Dearest Guru dev,

We heard from you that in the Damodar Lila, Nalakuvera and Manigriva were cursed (blessing in disguise) to become trees in Nanda bhavan to be delivered by Lord Himself later. Both of them had the further to witness the childhood past times on the Lord simply due to the mercy of Narada muni (and not owing to their airstocratic birth and past misdeeds).

In similar vein, Srila Prabhupada showered his mercy without discrimination based upon someone's pasr, qualification, or birth. In fact, Srila Prabhupada carried the preaching spirit of Narada muni.

Dear Gurudev, we see that you carry the merciful nature of Srila Prabhupada, by showing your compassion to unworthy people like me. Simply by your purity, you have transformed the hearts of millions. Through your deep absorption in lectures we get a glimpse of the taste in Srimad Bhagvatam that Srila Sukadev Gossami had.

On this most auspicious day I pray at your lotus feet that I may imbibe the instructions given in your lectures and serve the devotees with all sincerity, seriousness, and without ulterior motives (as you recommend) in the mood of the servant of the servant of your servants.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

Dear Guru Maharaj I am not sure from where to start glorifying your qualities because they are countless. Every time I hear your glorification from my God Brothers and God Sisters a new dimension or a new quality stands up and my appreciation of your presence in my life multiplies infinitely. One of such fathomless quality that I am touched with most is your RECIPROCATION.

In my life till now you have allowed me close proximity four times and all of them have been life changing times for me.

First time it was in Radha Gopinath Mandir when I was new to Krishna Consciousness and did not know anything at all, however you still gave me your darshan and blessings.

Second time it was in Bangalore when you had come for your book launch and I had just recently moved from Mumbai, though not yet seriously started practicing. However post that by your inconceivable mercy you connected me with your disciples and who accepted me as their counselee and supported me in all ways possible to help practice Krishna Consciousness happily.

The third time was during a meeting in GEV along with devotees from Delhi. Though an insignificant soul that I am, you still enquired about our stay in GEV. I was so touched by this kind gesture of yours.

And the fourth was when you mercifully accepted a conditioned soul like me as your disciple, along side all the well qualified and deserving devotees.

Guru Maharaj on this auspicious occasion I would like to request you to shower your mercy on me so that I can sincerely appreciate these moments that you have kindly given me and help you in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Guru Maharaj in Bangalore I am connected to ISKCON South Bengaluru (ISB) temple in Kumaraswamy Layout, which is very ably lead by HG Narahari Chaitanya prji [disciple of HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaj]. By your mercy and blessings Guru Maharaj we have been assigned the seva and responsibility as a Devotee Care Giver which is a role within the Devotee Care System. There are 10 devotee families whom we have to help and facilitate so that they feel nourished and engaged in Krishna Consciousness. Only due to your causeless mercy both me and my wife are now satisfactorily engaged in temple services.

Dear Guru Maharaj I would like to request your merciful shelter so that we can serve your mission sincerely and please you, Srila Prabhupada and devotees.

SRI BHAGAVAT DAS (BANGALORE, INDIA)

Dear Gurudev –

Please accept our humble obeisances.

On the auspicious occasion of your 71st vyasa puja, we humbly pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath to shower their unlimited blessings upon you.

Before I begin, I 'd like to repeat a point you shared in one of your lectures which I had the opportunity to transcribe. The difference between spiritual and material is when we start to see things and people separate from Krishna, who is the source of everything. This point has struck me and I feel I need to contemplate daily on this point which will have a very positive impact on my consciousness.

Firstly, we would like to express our gratitude for your causeless mercy in connecting us to guru parampara and accepting us as your disciples on 22nd February 2019 in GEV. As, we examine ourselves, especially since we got initiated, any spiritual endeavor we undertake can only be impactful only when we take complete shelter of you and guru Parampara indicating our insignificance and the importance of humility and dependence.

We take this opportunity to mention the below events that had happened since your last vyasa puja. This year has been extremely good because we had 3 personal and 1 group interaction with you on zoom.

1) We were extremely blessed to get our first opportunity to interact with you on Zoom, on the auspicious day of Nityananda Trayodasi. For the first time, we spoke to you in person and introduced ourselves. You very kindly smiled upon us.

2) Extreme good fortune came to us again we got a second opportunity soon to interact with you on zoom. This time it was on the occasion to thank donators for GEV forest sevaks. During this interaction, we expressed our gratitude in how we are so fortunate to receive initiation in GEV amidst Rupa Goswami's Samadhi and bhajan kutir

3) Third interaction on zoom happened on the occasion 50 years of kartik yatra session, wherein we expressed our gratitude in how fulfilling, nourishing and memorable the Kartik yatras are and we eagerly look forward to the next one

4) Fourth interaction happened as a group, when you met the transcribers. Personally, we were nourished by the transcription seva as we had the opportunity to carefully hear your instructions and write it down. While doing we came across many wisdom pearls that must be etched in our hearts for constant mediation. Of course, it will not happen just by our so-called endeavor, it can happen only by your blessings.

We thank you for your interactions though we didn't have any significant spiritual success to share with you on each of those occasions. We only pray to you that next time we meet you (we hope it will be personal and not on zoom) we can share with you some significant spiritual contributions that can please you.

A short report on our seva and sadhana by the grace of guru and gauranga –

1) I (Sri Bhagavat das) got the opportunity to take 6 days introductory Bhagavad Gita session in telugu language. 35 participants used to attend daily and few of them have registered for advanced BG course. I along with my wife (Radha Chandrika Devi dasi) did another 6 session course together again

2) I'm continuing my nityam bhagavata sevaya hosting service in our local temple, ISKCON South Bengaluru

3) I have also given few SB classes during this period

4) Started conducting advanced BG course every Saturday in telugu

5) Transcribed 4 lectures of yours

6) My chanting still needs improvement, however since Radhastami, I'm doing all my rounds before 8 am on majority of days.

7) Radha Chandrika devi dasi is doing Krishna Kingdom (Sunday School) in our local temple, ISKCON South Bengaluru

8) She is also conducting weekly Srimad Bhagavatam reading classes for children aged between 8 and 12 every Saturday. Parents of these children have called her and expressed their pleasure and satisfaction in how the classes are going on

9) Her chanting has streamlined a bit but still needs improvements in terms of completing all the rounds before 8 am

10) She has transcribed and proof read 16 lectures of yours

11) She is also doing youth preaching programs in our local temple

12) We both have started reading Chaitanya charitamrita daily for few minutes, however it needs to be done consistently

13) Our daughter (Vrinda Kishori) is attending Vishnu Sahasranama classes weekly

Also, we are very happy to mention that by the mercy of Radharani, we got chance to go to Vrindavan dham in Kartik this year. We went after a gap of 6 years. Though, I'm practicing Krishna consciousness since last 13 years, I hardly had a chance to have darshan of the prominent lila places in vraj mandal. Only this time, we could have darshan of many places. During our yatra, we prayed for your and for the community of ISKCON devotees.

Also, in the upcoming months, we are going to take a decision which can have positive or negative implications on our spiritual and material lives. We are moving out of our own house and moving closer to our local temple. Reasons being, we found a school for our daughter, and we want to be closer to temple as currently we are very far. Thought of moving to temple sounds good decision, but we will be incurring additional expenses due to our move and additional rent burden. So, we seek your blessings that the decision we take turns out be beneficial for our spiritual progress.

Dear Gurudev, we humbly beg you to shower us with your mercy so that we can get the spiritual strength to improve our sadhana and services by your next vyasa puja ceremony

SRI GAURANGA DAS (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Respected Maharaj,

Dandavat Pranam.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On the occasion of your 71st Birth anniversary, I was inspired to meditate on your interaction with Mrs. Maneka Gandhi @ Delhi airport.

Mrs. Maneka Gandhi, at that time was the Union Minister for Environment.

While conversing with you, she elucidated how climate change, pollution, waste generation etc. are adversely impacting the environment, people's lives and livelihoods.

She then questioned how a Sadhu's prayers and related activities are actually helping in addressing these burning environmental issues??

Maharaj, your response was very genuine and sincere.

You said environmental degradation is the external manifestation of internal deterioration.

One of the major driving factors being "GREED". Other factor that you mention is that we don't fully appreciate that human society and nature are interdependent. Infact human society cannot survive without nature, but nature can survive and flourish without us.

Less intelligent as we are, because of our accepting the body as the self, we our unable to fathom existence beyond a lifetime.

Result of such short-sightedness is to life live king size and exploit nature, living entities and people.

Maharaj as always, you give practical solutions for problems, as per time, place, circumstance and people. In this case, a combination of internal and external cleansing was your solution. Only external action without internal cleansing will not give sustainable results. Internal cleansing and satisfaction will automatically reflect in nature & the environment.

Bhakti means to focus on the root cause. Addressing the root cause is what you stressed while talking about internal transformation and cleansing. This gains special significance for people that are influential, as their decisions greatly impact the environment and influence others. You further added that for sustainable change in society there needs to be a corresponding and commensurate change in peoples value, behaviour and philosophy.

I am also reminded about a question to Srila Prabhupada after a talk in Geneva. He was asked if the movement became bigger and bigger, would it not create a problem in terms of working of the economy? won't the economy suffer?

Srila Prabhupada, promptly responded - No economy will not suffer, but economy it will be simplified. There are problems because we have created an artificial economy.

Maharaj, you have imbibed the same mood.

You not only emphasise "simple living and high thinking", but you also walk the talk.

Please guide & bless us, so that we may take a balanced approach to living and caring for the environment, in a manner that will please you and Krishna.

We sincerely pray for your good health.

SRI GAURBHAV DAS (HYDERABAD, INDIA)

Dear Beloved Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Guru and Sri Gauranga.

Maharaj, it was in the year 2001 in Mumbai I along with other devotees under the Congregation of HG Mahashringa prabhuji, came to Mumbai Iskcon Choupatty for Rath Yatra festival, so that was the first time I met you Maharaj, we were allowed to meet you and seek your blessings and waiting for you to appear, at that time I had a feeling that Maharaj you may not come, because of your busy schedule, I was thinking that Guru Maharaj being situated in such a exalted position, how could he give his valuable time to meet all of us who were so insignificant nor qualified to meet you. But Maharaj you came, my siksha guru HG Mahashringa Prabhuji introduced all of us to you, and you were glancing upon each and every one of us, and when you were just staring in my eyes, I was so jubilant, I felt like butterflies flying in my stomach, Maharaj you were staring in love and giving your causeless mercy to every one of us. Maharaj you never discriminated, anyone just like a dear father having equal vision to all with love and compassion. Even now also I try to remember those golden moments and feel so happy, and I always aspire for that one glance of you Maharaj.

In the present days we see that If you want to meet a VIP or Minister, we have to meet his secretary, then he would take many days to give appointment to meet the Minister. But here Maharaj who is the direct representative of Lord Krishna and Srila Prabhupada, always absorbed in Krishna, and is very busy in his schedules full day, how much busy he could be? but he has given his valuable time to meet us. Not only to us but who ever comes to meet him you would always meet them. Like, we know from Lilamrita how Srila Prabhupada would prefer to meet anyone who came to meet him, even though he was so busy in translating his books. This shows how much compassionate Guru Maharaj is towards all living entities. That was the first quality I observed in Guru Maharaj. He is the personification of Mercy & love.

Thereafter I heard so many good qualities of you Maharaj, that kept me attracted to you.

I used to attend your Vyasa puja, Pune Yatra, listening to your Kirtans and Lectures daily in Pune pandal programmes just absorbing the nector to keep myself energetic and was feeling enthusiastic in Krishna Conscious. But ever since I stopped going to Iskcon Choupatty, I could not take the advantage of having his physical presence (Vapu) for some reason or other, I lost the enthusiasm and attraction towards you Maharaj. But was getting the association of Guru Maharaj's disciples, by the mercy of my Siksha Guru, who arranged their regular visit in his house at Marredpally. Slowly even that association was lost and I was loosing that enthusiasm and my health also affected, I could not get the association of even devotees.

In one of your lecture you said that without the association of devotees we could not make any progress in our Krishna Conscious. Association of devotees is so important that without which death in Krishna Conscious is certain. This is how a devotee falls down and slowly does a lot of sinful activities, criticiziing, blasphemming the devotees, and Krishna takes him away from the association of devotees, I don't know what sinful activities I have done in the past life or this life that I have become bereft of that association of devotees struggling mentally and physically.

In one of your lecture you said that "Maya convinces Non-devotee not to surrender to Krishna and she convinces a devotee to postpone the surrender to Krishna". I humbly beg and pray at your Lotus feet that by your causeless mercy hoping to get back the same spirit of enthusiasm and strength physically and mentally which I had lost.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj. All Glories to your divine lotus feet.

SRI GOURAHARI DAS (MOSCOW, RUSSIA)

Hare Krisna, dear Guru Maharaj! Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of Your lotus feet! All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada!

It was quite a long time ago when you first came to Moscow and it was then that I accepted in my heart You as my eternal Spiritual Master. Though I was already initiated by another Vaishnava. At that time I was just a foolish neophyte and I didn't understand at all what the spiritual life was about. I was just like a blind kitten, just crawling randomly at the sound and the smell. At that time almost all the lectures (at least in Russia) were about the importance of book distribution and I liked that, although subconsciously I felt that I was missing something & I couldn't figure out what. And then in 1997 You came and started talking about service to the devotees, how important it is. It wasn't just what You said, it was how You said it. I felt such love in Your words that this blind kitten thought - this is my eternal Spiritual Master! Immediately I realized that I had already been initiated! I did not understand Guru-Tattva at all at that time. But somehow, by Krishna's incomprehensible plan, my first Spiritual Teacher left & You took me under Your gracious wing. During those more than 20 years I went through many crises, Krishna taught me many things. I realized to some degree that I am not a Paramahamsa - Vaishnava, that I am a tiny little jiva, drowning in the vast ocean of material existence, very firmly chained by my attachments. Over the years, time has put everything in its place, clarified many things and revealed that my ideas about almost everything were very far from reality. When you look back, it's great to see that you are rid of many illusions now, but in those moments when they were shattered it was no fun at all! And the feeling that all these years You, dear Guru Maharaj, loved me, that You were interested in me as a person, warmed me and I helped me to stay on this difficult but so exciting path. I feel that I have often been going the wrong way all these years, often cutting myself on the blade of the easiest and most effective spiritual path of bhakti, often stopping, and my progress is quite small, but I have realized quite clearly that I want to go where You and other similarly loving souls are. Where there is Krishna, Who through You shows me how much He loves me. And what is even more important, I want to be in a place where I can fully manifest my desire to love and serve You and everyone You represent. Thank you, Guru Maharaj, for teaching us all this lessons of love!

Your insignificant servant, Sri Gourahari das.

SRI JANAKI DASI (PUNE)

Dearmost Gurudev,

Hare Krishna!!!

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!!!

Words are not enough to express gratitude towards you and glorify your divine qualities. I have no qualification but still doing this insignificant attempt.

Gurudev, once you were at Krishna Chandra Prabhu's house and you had severe headache.

You requested to not disturb you. You were inside room, behind closed door, suffering from a splitting headache. Krishna Chandra Prabhu was worrying about you and he tried to see from the key hole of the door and he fell on his knees and peeped in through it. The sight inside chocked his breath. You were writhed in pain on the bed, you held your head tightly in your hands, as if it were to crumble otherwise. Then Prabhuji came into room and you replied, "Why did you disturb me?" Pointing to the key hole Prabhuji confessed, "I saw that you were in such pain." and then you whispered back, "I was trying to understand Lord Krishna through this pain. You broke my meditation." Maharaj, you are incredible!!!! You Always Remembers Krishna in any and every situation of your life. Your absorption in Krishna inspires me a lot.

You are the ocean of divine qualities and one of those qualities - "Praying to Lord" I like so much. You are a Prayerer. Please bless me so that I will also get one drop of your qualities. Heartfelt thank you very very much for everything Gurudev. Please forgive me for all my mistakes and offences which knowingly and unknowingly I have done. Thank you very much for accepting me as you disciple and daughter. Radhe Radhe!!! Haribol.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj

Please accept our respectful obeisance

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

All glories unto you.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

It is an unimaginably great fortune upon us, to get this rare opportunity of being your disciples. We have utterly no qualification to get the gift of Krishna Consciousness.

Srila Prabhupada, out of his extreme compassion, reached out to the whole world with the message of Krishna consciousness. Although acharyas like you have no business in this material world, you came to deliver us the message of Godhead as it is received from Srila Prabhupada. If it were not for your mercy, we would be still rotting in this material world.

Through your lectures, you set such simple yet pure and most sublime standards for us to follow and many of your senior disciples have a life transforming experience by following them. We are your insignificant poor hearted servants who find it difficult to follow even such simple instructions. Especially the jewel like qualities of humility and tolerance are not ready to manifest in our hearts owing to the mountains of pride and selfish ego which are more or less permanent residents in there. I remember the phrase from a vaishnav song 'Shakti budhi hina, ami ati dina koro more atma satha'. On this auspicious occasion of your 71st Vyas Puja, we sincerely pray at your lotus feet to bestow upon us the necessary discrimination and determination to follow your sublime instructions and gain entrance into a higher spiritual consciousness.

Thank you very much,

Your insignificant servants,

Dear Guru Maharaj.....

PAMHO Dear Guru Maharaj.....

Dear Guru Maharaj when myself and my mother get to hear your voice and kirtans.... We feel like as if any expert music teacher is sings.... But an expert teacher only teaches us the difference between body and the soul ..

And you are one such an expert musician of the soul. Each time you sit down to speak, you fold your palms, close your eyes, and crease your brows in prayer. With the tuning fork of your prayers, you adjust your heart to the unshakeable and eternal values and instructions of your beloved spiritual master, Srila Prabhupada....

Then, when you are tuned, you open your eyes and speak. I have seen you move thousands of people to laughter as well as to tears. You respond to the most cutting questions and challenges with grace. You have transform many of hearts and in that is ourselves and our hearts also got transformed...

Similarly, we devotees of Krishna and your disciples are all different instruments. But if we can tune in to each other - even if it's a long or boring or painful process - we can create something so much more powerful than we could ever create on our own. We can create a symphony of love and compassion for God and for the world. This is our highest destiny.

On this Holy day of your Vsya Puja day I pray to you that I may follow your example. I pray that I may tune in to your and Srila Prabhupad's values and instructions. I want to be your instrument. Please Dear Guru Maharaj please accept us as your insignificant servant of yours.....

Thank you for being in my life, Dear Guru Maharaj. Thank you for showing by example how to tune in and be a part of this divine symphony. And Thank you for showering your blessings upon this useless souls....

Always aspiring to be the servant of servants of your servant

SRI MAHAPRABHU DAS (CALIFORNIA, USA)

Respected Guru Maharaj,

Mind races back to the memories of the Salesforce event on the 30th July of 2019. This was followed by your talk at the Bhakti Yoga Studio in San Francisco in the evening. It was one of the best days of my life. I got a chance to film both events.

I've not been able to write you an offering from the past 2 years, ridden by a deep guilt. I was jailed on 23rd of Oct 2018, for a night, when my wife dialed 911 for domestic violence. There was no such event, but a deep disagreement triggered an irrational response. We have been living separately ever since. I, however, seek forgiveness from you. I probably could have been a better husband, let alone being a better disciple. It feels like the entire event, and the aftermath, has had your name sullied in some ways.

The juvenile enthusiasm of 'conquering the world with Krishna consciousness', that ruled the mind in teenage years, now no longer exists. As I grow older, the goals are more measured and realistic. Life is bigger, way more diverse, studded with more crests and troughs than we originally imagined with our adolescent minds. Personalities like Prabhupada, and his disciples like yourself, however, seem to posses an unlimited pool of enthusiasm even in your age. It simply shames me as I try to gather the perspective and find my place in that perspective. I'm a dwarf trying to understand Mt. Everest, and the grandeur only becomes more visible as I move away from the mountain with every passing year. I now realize that it is an unimaginable honor to get a chance to even write to you directly. Your enthusiasm to spread Krishna Consciousness even in this matured age is a north star for me and so many like myself - it might be unreachable, but certain gives a direction to sail towards.

Guru Maharaj, I'm infused with unlimited vices. You, through your transcendental vision, are probably aware of all of them. Some of these are cardinally forbidden. I feel ashamed. If you so desire, kindly bless me - I need strength to overcome these. From my own side, I can guarantee you a renewed effort and a renewed sense of sincerity. I truly do Maharaj. I wish to be the same person I was when you handed me over the beads 12 years ago in Kolkata.

At ISV, I'm trying to assist HG Vaisesika prabhu by leading a team for Arabic + Farsi book distribution effort. This arena has its own challenges, but so far we have had good success with no mishaps. Our modus operandi is to place the books in stores frequented by Arabs. Our team has also designed innovative tags, in Arabic/Farsi languages, that hang over the books and raise the appeal. Bay Area has a good concentration of Arab speakers, especially in Alameda, Oakland and Marin counties. If you so desire, kindly bless the team so they continue to hit their targets and stay safe.

Kindly excuse me Guru Maharaj if the thoughts above sounded sporadic and unorganized. I truly wish that by the time I get to write the next offering, I'm a better disciple than today. Praying at your lotus feet with only one desire - I wish to be sincere.

Your servant,

Sri Mahaprabhu Das

SRI MATHURA PATI DAS (KOLKATA, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj, kindly accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

As my concisciousness is going very low for quite sometime because of my anarthas and previous conditioning, I seek shelter and protection at your lotus feet. They say that shelter is always available only to the sincere souls and not to the infidels and although it is entirely your prerogative but I am still begging for it as I have no other hope anywhere else.

Recently I was hearing one of your talk where you were describing those old day's in New Vrindaban firm, where you were engaged in milking the cows and later became the Pujari, how you all reacted when the news of the departure of Srila Prabhupada reached there. And then how as per Prabbupada's instruction there was supposed to be twenty four hours of kirtana and Prabhupada had said during the day time your activities itselfs are sankirtana and during the night time some devotees were scheduled to perform kirtana. A roaster was made but that schedule had failed and finally it came upon you to perform kirtana all the night. To do this service you had to walk for half an hour from the hilltop and then again return back to the hilltop for another half an hour in the unbearable cold. Then again engaging in the service of the Pujari all the day. For me this was an example of unimaginable dedication and unimaginable austerities. Most amazingly even after the departure of Srila Prabhupada, when there was no clear way forward and a sense of uncertainity engulfed the movement, how still you carried on by following the authority who were present at that time, with firm conviction and loyality as if you were given orders by Srila Prabhupada himself.

I had read all these incindents more than once few years back but after hearing again from your own self, it opened for me a diferent dimension. I thought loyality had a limit and at times when it even reaches to the point of exploitation, it becomes almost impossible to cooperate. I had this feeling particularly when I introspect my behaviour with devotees, even after not being a full time devotee and with the little involvement that I have with devoytees, during some point of disagreement or when I assume that I was treated unfairly or some unnecessary services were allotted to me. How easily I can switch my loyality from the instructions of devotees to my mind and it appears that continuing for a long term under such situation is not at all possible. So those words of yours gave me a clear pathways to follow but still I am illusioned, I am not able to put my faith on those words and most importantly I am not able to accept those facts as a guiding force in my life. And this is true for almost all your instructions and advices.

Therefore although I am not fit to receive your blessings, still I pray that may you kindly bless me with determination, with loyality, with good intelligence, with gratitude and may the mood of the servant of the servant of your servant manifests in the core of my heart during this lifetime. Ys

Dear Sri Guru Maharaj kindly accept our sincere koti koti dandavat pranams at your lotus feet. your goodself was kind enough in accepting

This kind gesture your goodself & our Shiksha Guru HG Shikshatakam Prabhuji enables us to lovingly serve Sri Sri Radha Rani & Madan Gopalji.

Nature's fury in past two years (Corona) has deprived us of your darshan & association through Yatras. Still your Vani, takes care & nourishes us just so as a tortise takes care & nourishes & its eggs till incubation by just thinking of them.

For both of us what inspires most is - your courageous decision at a very young age to pursue your life goal - ie in search of the Supreme Personality for which you untiringly travelled from far off lands and endured all types of hardships - still remaining always calm & composed as is your nature.

On your 71st Birthday we pray at the Lords feet, that you continue to serve Srila Prabhupafad mission by spreading Lords glories throughout the world.

My Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Dear and most respectable Gurudev, Dandavat Pranam. This is very auspicious occasion and my great fortune to celebrate your 71st Vaspuja this year. It's most precious and very rare opportunity to have this chance to interact with you through my simple offering. Gurudev first of all I would like express my deep gratitude for accepting me as one of the disciple and allowing me to walk this glorious path of Krsna consciousness. Your lectures are always my source of greatest inspiration and nourishment. Whatever little I am able to contribute for the mission of Srila Prabhupada is all because of your kind blessings and inspiration. Without your grace and shelter through your senior disciples and my counselor it would have been impossible to carry on this rarest path of devotional service. So my deepest and heartfelt obeisances at your lotus feet and I am seeking your blessings to continue and serve this wonderful path of devotional service.

As you know this corona pandemic is going on and entire world is suffering from this virus which reminds me that this is not the place where we should try to plan for eternal stay as you mentioned in your lectures that this is not our home this is foreign land to us so we should try to get out of this miserable place and also help others to come out as well, which you have personified. Though I have my own conditionings and most of the time its lethargy which I keep fighting with to come over my comfort zone so with your blessings I am sure I will be able to overcome that and will become instrument in the hand of my authority. During this pandemic we have lost many wonderful God brothers and for sure we miss their association and wonderful inspiration. Nevertheless they have shown such courageous character and determination in difficult times that they have left with great legacy for which I can certainly take more shelter and come more closer to you and your devotees association and shelter.

Gurudev I am able to serve in little possible way as per my capacity and conditionings. As you know recently I have taken up this seva of transcribing your lectures and though I am doing it quite slowly but whenever I do I personally feel to have your association next to me and you are talking and I am writing it down...I will try to continue this service in a more sincere and dedicated way...Also I was serving for some time in ICS department to document some new modules under the guidance of HG Pavaan Nitai Prji...also I could give some time for the IDC Evaluation seva as well, under the kind guidance of HG Kashi Mishra prji...then apart from these on a personal level we are doing deity worship every week, book reading with my equal God-brothers every week and able to hear some of your lectures on a regular basis. Also we are very happy to inform you that recently we have requested new Altar for our home and I am sure with that we will feel more temple like atmosphere in our home as well and we will be able to serve you with more dedication and eagerness. It has been good year from the career perspective as well for both of us (Sayali my wife n me). She is also doing good with deity seva and her personal sadhana. In the coming month of Dec we request to bless us so that we can do some book distribution and spread the glories of Bhagavad Gita and Srimad Bhagavatam.

We again seek your blessings to walk this path and to imbibe the mood of servant of servant of servant and always remain humble and meek and serve all the vaishanvas and your lotus feet. Also we are eagerly waiting to have Krishnas child in our care with whom we can excel our devotional practices and commitments, we seek your blessings for the same. Also thank you very much for accepting me and guiding through your senior disciples and lectures. We will try to increase our dedication and quality of our practices and will try to please you and to our authority and will try to serve you more n more in coming years...In this pandemic we request you to take care of your health and if Krishna permits very soon we all will get your association in Kartik yatras for which we are very eagerly waiting for. Also I take this opportunity to beg forgiveness at your lotus feet for all my mistakes, offences, inattentiveness and laziness and all those things which are not up to the standard of your disciple and I definitely try to serve and set good example of being your disciple. Please forgive us for all misdeeds and procrastinating behavior in the service of Srila Prabhupada. We will try to show our love with more dedication and surrender.

Thank you Gurudev for your shelter and love. Our sincere and best prayers for your safety and long life and we wish to see you soon in yatras and hear from you the spiritual and uplifting discourses. Thank you once again for everything ...!!! Always Grateful to you for all your compassion on this fallen soul....Gurudev...!!!! Seeking your blessings ...!!!

SRI ROHININANDAN DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my respectful and humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I am feeling deeply grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple although I am utterly unqualified in any way. But Vaisnavas like you are very magnanimous and compassionate and thus they are very eager to extend the shelter of the Lord to the conditioned souls like me suffering in this material world.

It’s the greatest fortune that arose in my life to get connected with you and through that the entire parampara. I feel so fortunate.

I have been very much touched seeing your gold standard example of the Vaisnava Sadachar. Your respectful dealings with your Godbrothers and disciples and each and every devotee you interact, gives me so much inspiration to aspire to follow your example some day.

I derive a lot of strength and nourishment from your Vani - which is full of your realizations of the spiritual subject matter and filled with genuine compassion and concern for us to improve our spiritual lives. I find so many practical instructions to follow in my life.

I always long to get your personal association but the best form of association, as we have heard from you and the acaryas is through Vani. And this principle you have so amazingly personified in your life. I have firm faith that if I sincerely try my best to hear and apply your words in life and in that way somewhat try to please you then I am always with you.

I wish to live forever in your vani. I wish that I may be able to bring your words into my life. That means to act, speak and think only in a way pleasing you and your representatives.

Although I am a very tiny insignificant soul and often fail to apply your instructions, still by your kind mercy I am trying to get up again and again to start with newer enthusiasm to attempt with the only hope that someday I will be able to please you and your representatives by my actions, words and attitude.

Your mercy is the only thing I am made up of and have no other hope than this. Although I may speak big big words but I am very much lacking in my surrender.

Kindly bless me that I will be able to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission following in your footsteps although in a tiny insignificant way under the guidance of your representatives and also serve the devotee community in whatever best way I could and bring good name to you and Srila Prabhupada.

I seek forgiveness for all the mistakes and offences I have done and I once again recommit myself to your service and to be a good devotee.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada..!

All glories to you Gurudev..!

Thank you very much...

Eternally aspiring to be in your service,

SRIDEVI GOPI DEVI DASI (CRAWLEY, ENGLAND)

Dearest Gurudev

Please accept my humble obeisances, at your lotus feet, all glories to your lotus feet, Srila Prabhupada's lotus feet and all Vaishnavas.

Happy birthday to you

Hare Krishna to you.

I hope you have a lovely spiritual birthday, with lots of virtual association with your dearest sweet god brothers. Srila Prabhupada will be looking down and smiling upon you. As you are definitely an instrument of his love and you're definitely filled with his love.

I hope you're taking care of yourself, eating and resting well. As I know you have a very busy schedule, with all the service you do. So I hope this Vyas puja offering finds you in good health. Not knowing when we might see you in the UK, with this Pandemic continuing, makes me realise more than before, how much I miss you. Seeing you at the airport, when my daughter would greet you with a friendship bracelet.

For Srila Prabhupada 125th Vyas puja offering, all I can say is thank you to him, for his shelter, blessings, for just being there every time I needed, someone to talk to, for smiling down and giving me reassurance that this too will pass, just trust me. Feeling his warm grace during ecstatic kirtan and my darkest storms. Gurudev with your blessings and connection to parampara I have been able to feel this mercy, so thank you very much, I hope I can make you smile with any little service I am trying to do.

Visiting the Manor for 1st time after Pandemic, felt like Prabhupada's personal warm embrace, like I'd come home after being away for years. This took me back to November 2019, when I took my vows in front of you my dearest gurudev, with your blessings and mercy I felt the nectar of your presence and parampara. Thank you so much gurudev.

Please help me be detached from all the externals, as you always says “go deeper in your meditation.”

Gurudev just when we thought the pandemic was over we patiently waited, as 4 months went by, questioning, when will we have darshan of Nitai Gauranga? When will we dance in association with devotees?

Then Janmastmi at Bhakti yoga center, (Crawley,UK). opened our hearts to sing and dance for Krsna, til our heart’s content,

I’m so sorry for all my offences, as life starts picking up speed. It’s terrifying and overwhelming, how days seem like hours and months seem like days. Trying to squeeze in bhakti whilst running a home. With Srila Prabhupada’s books to give us guidance, shelter and reassurance, only then can we tolerate all this.

Every December book distribution, I turn to Srila prabhupada and you gurudev for inspiration, last year was no different, the only difference was, you inspired me to write a target for how many books I aim to distribute, with your mercy. My mind was trying to play it safe. I was thinking… maybe 100 but YOU made me promise 200. Once you write a promise there’s no going back. I turned to you and said “it’s all in your hands, please guide me.” As reality kicked in I remembered

IT’S A PANDEMIC!

HOW IS THIS EVEN POSSIBLE!

After praying for direction, I came across Vaisesika prabhu’s, telephone sankirtan video. This really inspired me to try.

You guide me every time I struggle. You teach me to surrender, to sing Nitai Gauranga, to give me direction. Nitai Gauranga always reassures me. With your mercy, you sent Leena mataji to support me in distributing books. Together we both got a total of 202 Bhagavad Gitas sponsored. Srila Prabhupada’s transcendental book distribution ki jai!!

I’m so indebted to you, PLEASE, PLEASE, guide me once again so I can make a SPECIAL offering to Srila Prabhupadaon on his 125th Vyas puja year, only in a humble, sincere mood, as you’re my ONLY shelter.

Please help me to be the best version of myself, to try and control my tongue.

Thanks to Srila Prabhupada’s all the Rathyatras that happened this year. I really enjoyed the energy at Croydon and Brighton Rathyatra. We could feel the nectar pouring from Jaganath, Baladev and Subhadra.As we danced to the smooth waves of Brighton beach, (UK). Where I was so grateful to receive the association of our God family, Jai Nita Prabhu, Bhava Bhakti mataji, Tulsi seva mataji, Ladini mataji, Lalita madhvi mataji.

This Kartik my family was so blessed, with 2 Govardhan puja’s. My sister Vidyagati mataji, arranged for a family govardhan puja with a huge feast for her cute merciful Giriraj.

Then BYC’s 1st Govardhan puja, feeling blissful as we sang, the presence of the beautiful 3 Giriraj’s bought the mood of Vrindavan, to our senses, whilst our hearts danced in ecstasy.

Gurudev, please guide me, help me remember Srila Prabhupada’s teachings, so I can try and practice what I read in his books. Please help me overcome my offenses. By holding the torch of knowledge in my darkest days. Please help me focus on my bhakti and not be distracted when serving my family.

Please give me the vision to see all my obstacles as Krsna’s plan, not to be disturbed by whatever comes my way.

Gurudev recently when I’ve been chanting, all my anarthas are coming to the surface and they’re getting really strong. Please help me stay patient and strong in my bhakti so they don’t upset me.

Please help me try and be an instrument of your love and be filled with your love, Please pray for my family, as they’ve been finding life mentally challenging

Sorry if I have offended you in any way with my words or actions. Please forgive me, guide me with my worst fears.

Your lost rascal.

Trying hard to serve in the mood of servant of the servant.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisences. All glories to Srila Prabhupad and to you.

Thank you for accepting this fallen soul as your disciple. I need your mercy the most at this point as my husband and me are trying to bring one more soul for your service. Please bless us so I will be capable enough to nurture that child to serve Prabhupad's mission.

SRIDEVI RADHA DEVI DASI (LAGUNA BEACH, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories unto your lotus feet on this auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja.

For approximately five years now, you have been a guiding light in my life. As a result of this unlimited good fortune, I feel strongly connected to Krsna, and have finally become aware of my life's great purpose; serving the Supreme Lord. Your superlative example as a servant of the servant inspires me daily, and my great hope is to somehow in a small way follow in your footsteps by dedicating my life to serving the mission. I am also deeply inspired by your humility, compassion, breadth of knowledge, commitment to Krsna, and service to ISKCON and society at large; and most of all by your capacity to love everyone. I know I can't repay my debt to you for all that you've bestowed upon me, but it's my intention to always try.

I'm sad that it's been more than two years since I've been in your presence. I even find myself feeling jealous of others who have opportunities to see their respective Guru Maharajas more regularly. I know it's good to long for Krsna, and my desire to see you in person, and sadness about not being able to, feels like a healthy extension of my attachment to Krsna, as you are his dear-most messenger.

During this past year, I have continued to faithfully serve Pancatattva and H.G. Tukaram Prabhu at the Laguna Beach ISKCON Temple and at Long Beach satellite. I assist the pujaris in the morning, set up the Deities' dresses, assist with accounting and paperwork, and also manage serving prasadam on Sundays and at festivals.

I work professionally as a therapist and Tukaram Prabhu has also begun to entrust me with guiding and counseling some of the newer devotees. It's an honor, and also humbling to serve in this capacity, and it's my sincere hope that I can reflect to others the compassion and mercy that's been shown to me.

By Krsna's grace, my work as a therapist in "material life" is quite successful, and that success has allowed me to work a bit less and be engaged in more service. My hope is to continue to develop my therapy practice in a way that ultimately frees me up enough to primarily do service, while still buying a home and living comfortably etc.

Just recently, for the first time in my life, I started to feel some remorse for all the times I've turned away from Krsna in the past (and even currently). As a result of this, I have been thinking about how I can be a better devotee. I'm trying to keep it simple by chanting more focused rounds and reading shastra. I'm also making a concerted effort to emulate your amazing example of compassion in my everyday dealings with others.

More specifically, I'm trying to better remember that each person I come across is part and parcel of Krsna, and very dear to him, and that I should therefore treat every interaction with others as important; even sacred. During this next year, it is my plan to get better at doing all this, and also serve Pancatattva, if They and your good self so desire.

Maharaja, all in all, I hope this year I can continue to serve you, Srila Prabhupada, Pancatattva, and our mission. I pray to be able to honor you and your gift of grace to me.

Your humble servant,

Dearmost Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet,

Maharaj, Your lectures are like drops of water in the desert of material existence where I quench my thirst. Each lecture of yours Maharaj when I hear it gives me life, it make me see the world in a completely different perspective.

You often say in your lectures:

1)How every situation in this world is a blessing of Lord Sri Krishna and infact He is always there next to us as a Dearmost friend and well-wisher eager to guide us in every step .

2)The value of association of devotees. What is the need of picking up quarrel with a devotee or having a cold war? these are all very trivial matters, passing phases in life, at the time of death who cares for all these things.

3)How much grateful we should feel for the opportunity for devotional service, just cooperate and serve in the mood of a humble servant of the servant of the servant, this opportunity we have got is so rare.

I am eternally grateful for sharing these realisations (only few I have written out of many) of yours in your most precious lectures.

Even though I am not qualified to pray for you but still I pray to Srimati Radharani that she gives you a long life. Maharaj my only fear is that when you start travelling you may get infected with COVID so my humble request is you always stay in Chicago and keep giving online classes eternally.

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Danadavat pranam,

This is Srihari, I am 11 years old from Australia, Melbourne.

Wish you a very happy birthday maharaj. May this birthday bring you lots of happiness.

What I love about you and also inspires me is whenever I hear in classes explaining pastimes of Lord Krishna, you explain the pastimes so detailed and the stories are so amazing and sweet. Whenever you speak or even talk generally, your voice is so calm, melodious, and sweet that whenever you speak, I feel very peaceful myself. Also, with your ever-soothing voice, whenever you sing kirtan or give classes, your words sink deep into the core of my heart. When I heard your Journey Home, the emotions you put in the story actually painted a picture in my mind and brought the picture Infront of me like I was actually there. The hard times you experienced and went through, really inspired me, inspires me, and will keep inspiring me.

You are an eternal, Paramahamsa, being sent by Krishna to deliver fallen souls like me and take us back to Godhead.

You are the embodiment of peace, bliss, and devotion.

You are forever my guru.

I love you maharaj.

Hare Krishna Maharaj, dandavat pranam. Mercy, compassion, humility, gratitude, forgiveness, simplicity, these were only dictionary words before coming across your divine presence in this mysterious material world. You have acted as a transparent transcendental instrument in bringing to a fallen soul like me, the divine message of Srila Prabhupada, the krsna prem, the treasure of love of god. It's not so easy to transmit the mercy of lord Chaitanya in this dark age, but you have done it so easily with your spiritual strength and the grace of parampara. You gave mercy of gaudiya vaishnavism through your humorous, loving, and kind lectures so that even the most fallen can be uplifted to higher states of consciousness. We are blessed to have association of such angels like you even though we are filled with so many anarthas. Kindly bless us with your mercy so that we ascend to goloka vrindavan, in this very life, by chanting holy names with love and devotion and avoiding offenses at the lotus feet of all Vaishnavas including the newcomers in the mission of lord Chaitanya. SRIMAN NITAI DAS (PUNE)

Dear Srila Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet!

I am so grateful, that inspite of all the grave and petty shortcomings of mine, I have you as my Spiritual Master. I think that this the only good fortune I have in my life. I can very vividly recall the very first time I heard you from a cassette recording while in college hostel room on a borrowed cassette player, that very instant your inconceivable mercy strummed the strings of my heart. And engulfed in that amazing mercy, a desire to surrender arose towards your lotus feet.

On the day of initiation, 18th March 2010, Radhe Shyam Pr gave a morning japa talk, especially addressing devotees-to-be-initiated. He said that Guru means heavy. On ourselves we have no way to resist being swayed and carried away by the unceasing waves of material nature, but Guru is HEAVY, when we are anchored at the lotus feet Guru Dev, Maya cannot sway us.

And this is a sure fact that we can feel everytime as soon as we hear from you! Generally hearing can be with or without attention. But when we hear from your lotus mouth, we become naturally attentive. We don't have to strain to be attentive, this is inconceivable to me. There can be no other cause than the unhibited pure mercy of Srila Prabhupada and all the Acaryas shining brilliantly through you. Not only this, but the words spoken by you is embellished with your own pure sweetness and it becomes extraordinarily relishable, just as Srimad Bhagavatam became all the more sweet and relishable by being spoken by Sukadev Goswami!

With the insights given by you, even the seemingly insurmountable hurdle becomes non-matter. For example, the way you explained how you and HH Bhakti Tirtha Swami had such a nice reciprocal relationship, that you both could easily laugh away with even so-calles significant differences of opinions. And you further explained that how this is the essential beauty of Vaishnavism - Unity in Diversity!

There is so much to say and express my heartfelt gratitude in writing this offering to you, but my humble submission at your lotus feet is that, I may develop the real attachment to you and your instructions as we can witness in the lives of so many of my exemplary God-brothers and God-sisters! Like, Gauranga Pr, Radhe Shyam Pr, Sundar Var Pr, Krishna Chandra Pr, Dwarkadhisha Pr.....Shyama Mataji, Stoka Krishna pr, Srinathji Pr and so many others.

Petitioning your mercy alongwith with wisdom, courage and fortitude to hold it in my heart and share the eternal good fortune with others as an instrument in your hands!

Your servant

SRIMAN VALLABHA DAS (INDIA)

Hare Krsna Gurudev,

I am very much grateful to you for accepting me as your desciple. Actually, I am not at all qualified, but it is totally your mercy on a very fallen soul.

Today, as I see as all material people enjoying their life, I remember my own past life how I was enjoying life like all material people. Somehow, Krsna being most merciful pulled me out and connected me to ISKCON. And with Sirla Prabhupad' s mercy and compassion I came in contact with devotees. in Pune. My life changed in the year 2001 when I joined ISKCON in Pune.

Gurudev, you gave me another birth by accepting me as your disciple in March 2010 in Pune. From then onwards it has been a blissful life. I am attending all Yatras and in this way trying to be in contact with you.

Gurudev, you are so merciful that in the year 2004 during your visit to Ahmedabad for GBC meeting, you showered your mercy on my family by coming to my house for prasadam. Though I am totally unqualified to serve you, you gave me another chance of service in the year 2007 during your visit to Baroda for GBC meeting. Again in the year 2011 during book launch of The Journey Home (Gujarati) in Ahmedabad I got a chance to serve you.

IGurudev, I am very thankful to you for giving me service again and again. It is totally your mercy. Please bless me that I can follow your instructions and thereby please Krshna.

Thank you once again.

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Srila Gurudev.

Narada transformed the heart of violent hunter mrighari, Haridas Thakur transformed the bad intention of prostitute, Our founder Acharya transformed the lives of many athiest, and materialistic people. You are following in their footsteps, transforming the heart of many peoples like us. You demonstrate us that pure devotion is the only hope in this world of conflict and danger. You urges us to take complete shelter in the holy name and by your example and inspiration we are trying to take complete shelter on the path given by Srila Prabhupada.

When I am reading Chaitanya caritamrta, I see how Lord Caitanya receives the devotees from Bengal, how he take care of their accommodation, prasadam and every day how the Lord engages everyone in harinam sankirtan. We saw the same approach in you when we are attending the Karthik yatra. You teach exactly by your example what Lord Chaitanya teaches to everyone.

Thank you for your continuous encouragement and inspiration. Kindly bless us and guide us, so that we will free from all unwanted propensities which is against pure devotion.

Pujya Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

Please accept my wishes and greetings on your 71st birthday and vyasa puja celebration.

I hope that you are keeping good health and getting high quality rest than before. I also pray to Srila Prabhupada, guru parampara, Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Sri Nityananda Prabhu and Srimati Radharani that They offer prayers to Lord Krishna to keep you healthy and They bless you profusely that you will continue to uplift conditioned souls.

A spiritual master's role is an esteem, sacred, profound and singular. A guru not only imparts spiritual knowledge but also enforces. Dear maharaj, the clarity in your teachings have made me realize this. Examples of your life emphasized those teachings. Guru is the single outlet in a disciple's life to receive the mercy of the Lord and get out of this material conditioning. I am eternally grateful for that. You have not only provided knowledge but wisdom around it.

This is an important opportunity in a year and every year, I can write about how grateful I am for everything you have given. I know that you will read every single offering. When I start collecting my thoughts, I pause for a moment to ask what can I write to a personality who is an ocean of humility, devotion, tolerance and surrender. When I recollect my experiences, impressions and understandings of your teachings, my insignificant expressions start disappearing. Silence start taking hold. At the end, I am left with only two words – Thank You.

You have given me so much and I have not returned that favor yet. The perfection of my life is when I live just to please you and no one else. When I break the shackles of my lust, anger and greed to support Srila Prabhupada's mission. Thank you for everything!

I bow down at your lotus feet to wish you happy vyasa puja and happy birthday.

Dandavat Pranam Maharaj, All glories to you Maharaj!

This is the very special year, the more I felt a fool at your lotus feet, I experienced your mercy more and more.

Maharaj with your mercy:

- My best friend Prana Vallabha prabhu encouraged me to begin Bhaktivriksha to help Telugu speaking devotees. I was completely surrendered at your lotus feet to begin the program. There was no program or service I have done without taking your shelter and permission, I always felt encouraged, felt your association. Only because of your unconditional mercy, Almost all the devotees attending the bhaktivriksha took the Shradhavan certificate by committing to chant everyday, read and attend programs regularly

- This year our family got the shelter of HG Yugala Kishore prabhu. Prabhuji Kindly aggreged to mentor our family as we took new BhaktiVriksha responsibilities, we wanted take care our services with utmost care. Everything is happening smoothly with your mercy

SRINIVASA PRASADA DAS (DELHI-NCR, INDIA.)

Hare Krishna, Kindly accept our most humble obeisances Dear Respected Guru Maharaj.

We consider ourselves very very fortunate to receive your causeless mercy since you accepted us as your disciples without having any good quality and no devotion.

We are struggling in our Devotional life, however, we still feel so much blessed to struggle on the path of devotion rather than being falsely busy in material world.

Whatever little we are able to do on the path of Devotional life , is purely on the basis of Sri Sri Radhagopinath Bhagwan, SS Nitai Gaurchandra Bhagwan and Sri Gopal Ji through your blessings and Srila Prabhupada mercy and blessings.

We remember that golden moment when we first met you after your gave the Katha at Sri Goverdhan Dham during 2013 Sri Vrindavan Dham and Sri Goverdhan Dham yatra alongwith my good wife and two daughters and you we could all could not hold our tears and you patted this fool for quite a long time and thereafter you visited Delhi in early 2014 to meet Barrck Obama and represented Iskcon and that time you gave your blessings and thereafter we have been hearing to your lectures more and more and trying our best to follow your teachings and reading all the books of Srila Prabhupada.

Trying to serve in local temples here in Delhi through book distribution and preaching on one on one basis since you always remind us at the end of every Kartik Yatra to share this Krishna Consciousness with whomsoever we meet if they show some spark and whatever we have heard from your lotus mouth and your amazing God Brothers and HDG Srila Prabhupada without whom we can't think about ABC...of Devotional life.

With your blessings we are trying to serve SS Nitai Gaur Hari at our small home whom your good self named them through seeing g their picture over phone. They are very very merciful and we are totally maintained vy them.

We are blessed by the association of your very serious and sincere disciples like HG Radhagopinath Prabhu ji, HG Gauranga Prabhuji, HG Radheshyam Prabhuji, HG Sanat Kumar Prabhu ji, HG Braja Chandra Prabhuji,Vishvarup Prabhuji, HG Krishna Chandra Prabhuji HG Dwarkadish Prabhuji, HG Sridama Prabhuji, HG Krishnananda Prabhu ji, HG Sudama Prabhu, HG Radhakunda Prabhuji, HG Hare Krishna Prabhuji, HG Vraja Vihari Prabhuji , HG Nanda Dulal Prabhu ji and here in Delhi-NCR we seek guidance from HG Kanai Priya Prabhuji, HG Aranya Vihari Prabhuji, HG Nityananda Ram Prabhu Ji, HG Nitai Prabhu ji and the list is unending.

We want to share so many wonderful instances and memories from last 11 years but at the same time we don't want to bother you so much since you already know everything about our each and every moment of our struggling Devotional life.

We pray at the Lotus feets of HDG Srila Prabhupada, the entire Guru Parampara, Six Goswamis, Pancha Tatva, SS Radhagopinath Bhagwan, SS Nitai Gaurchandra Sri Gopal Ji and Lord Narsimhadev with good health so that you could continue to serve Srila Prabhupada endlessly and we could serve you on that mission in some or the other way and this way we could perfect our this most precious human life. we both 53 years old and have two daughters of almost marriageable age and once we get through with that responsibility we want to come to you and beg for any service at any place till the rest of our life. We are begging at your lotus feets to please citrine to shower your causeless mercy so that we could become serious, sincere disciples and do not have any ulterior motives and serve selflessly HDG Srila Prabhupada through Iskcon in the mission of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu for the pleasure of Sri Radha and Krishna and Your good self and all the Vaishnavas eternally.

Kindly forgive for all our shortcomings and mistakes.

your insignificant and foolish disciples.

Dear Guru Maharaj, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. Eternally grateful to you for having given me shelter under you. Your servant, Srivas Thakur das

SRIVISHVAMBHAR DAS (MUMBAI)

Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my respectful obeisances unto your divine Lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Maharaj, your Holiness is our live connection to Srila Prabhupada exemplifying the teachings of His Divine Grace by your humble character. The spiritual master descends to this material realm only to teach this one primary lesson to all the jiva ie SERVICE ATTITUDE. It is next to impossible for the jiva to learn this lesson without having served such a glorious pure hearted soul who is always in the consciousness of being the servant of the servant.

I am one of the brahmacaris in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple who is reaping the benefits of the sacrifice of so many Vaishnavas. It is because of their sincere reciprocation with your Holiness that we got some inspiration to participate in a cooperative spirit and thus try to help spread the glories of this sacrifice far and wide. Ultimately, I understand Maharaj that by all my efforts I am trying to preach to the non devotee in me.

My hard heart is softened by hearing and seeing your own humble personality. Few years ago your Holiness spent more than 50 hours hearing from many brahmacaris at Radha Gopinath temple. You are teaching everyone by your example HOW THE LEADER NEEDS TO TAKE OUT TIME HEARING (the problems of) devotees who are trying to dedicate their lives.

But, I especially feel more and more blessed in the 2nd last zoom meeting your Holiness had had with us brahmacaris in Chowpatty.

You had then remembered Yamuna Mataji and cautioned us against this tendency for ENTITLEMENT. But, what was more unique about that meeting was that for the FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE I heard you CHASTISE us (you had suddenly become angry while pointing out this tendency of complaining against the leaders in that their very way of working is westernised). Then you had raised your voice and said that those who DARE to speak such things about the leaders are themselves non-Vedic deviants because they are missing on the Vedic DOCTRINE by being disrespectful to the ELDERS. And, then you defined who is an 'ELDER' devotee in ISKCON. I promise you, Gurudev that I will never be cynical about any brahmacari --- senior, equal or junior. Actually, these devotees are indeed the best people I ever had in my life. I love them all. And, I will serve them with all my heart, all my soul, all my strength.

I wish to be part of Srila Prabhupada's huge plan in reestablishing Varnasrama based society. I do not have any vision on this. However, while trying to make my humble contribution in this direction I will always remember that you are never pleased with a non-cooperative, cynical attitude especially towards ELDERS. The ELDERS in our movement are obviously loaded with so many responsibilities. To find faults in them is certainly a grave offense ---- tejiyasam Na dosāyah!

I remain the humble servant of the devotees..... Srivishvambhar dasa

SRUSHTI AREKAR (PUNE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna,

Please accept my most humble obeisances!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada, and all glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj!

Recently I visited the Govardhan Eco village, Wada. I heard a lot about how His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj was so particular on every thing to be done in this project, like he literally meditated on every place in the Vrindavan forest before finalizing the position of every Diorama, every Samadhi and every lila sthali.

In his book, the Journey home, Maharaj's final destination was Vrindavan. Even at that time, Maharaj got very much attracted towards Vrindavan, so much so that he took a vow to remain in Vrindavan for the rest of his life. Later Srila Prabhupada instructed him to go to New Vrindavan. But, because he completely was surrendered towards Srila Prabhupada, he went to New Vrindavan, but his heart was always in Vrindavan. He used to do meditation on Vrindavan and Govardhan Parikrama daily. Later when he came back to India, especially at the Chowpatty temple, he tried to give some Vrindavan effect to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Altar, and also made a little Vrindavan garden behind the temple. This shows how much deep love he has for Vrindavan. And this finally got manifested in the form of Govardhan Eco Village project.

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj has an ocean of good qualities like his simplicity, tremendous compassion, and his complete dedication towards Srila Prabhupada etc. And unlike Srila Prabhupada he has deep compassion for all the living beings. He not just preaches by his words, but he also preaches by his actions.

Today on this auspicious day of your vyasa puja, I humbly beg for your mercy to follow your instructions in my life and that I may be able to please you Maharaj, and please Srila Prabhupad and Sri Krishna.

All glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj!

Dear Gurudev

Please accept our humble obediences at your lotus feet.All glories to Srila Prabhupada

During your journey in search of God from America to India , you exhibited devine qualities through your actions, as being humble, having full faith on Lord, being patience,being greatful.

You are very Kind, generous, to everyone. From every actions of your you shown how to serve selflessly.

Thank you for giving us , Sri Sri RadhaGopinath, Sri Sri RadhaGovind, Sri Sri RadhaKunjavihari, Sri Sri RadhaVrindavanchandra.

For giving Councellor system, Gopals Garden school,Bhaktivedant Hospital, Govardhan eco village,and many more. But you never demanded anything from us.

We can learn how to server selflessly from this.

Once one devotee ask you, how to get your personal instructions. You said I gave it through my lectures.

When I was staying at Mira Road and was doing backup service at deity room. Due to previous day schedule I was feeling tired and lazy. Also having headache. Due to which I was spaced out in my seva. That time your Bhagavatam class was going on. I heard one sentence which was eyeopner for me.

“You should be greatful to the Lord that you have only headache and your head is not crushed.”

Initial days I was in Pune and staying at PVG base near swargate. We were trying our level best to get more student , but not getting success. One day I was preparing breakfast for devotees. I was listening to the lecture, there maharaj was insisting on putting our best effort and leaving rest for Krishna. Should not expect for result. You said having no result is also a kind of result.

Like that we got many instructions and solutions to our problems through your lectures.

If we are sincere and really want to server Gurudev then Vani association will be as powerful as vapu association.

On this day we pray at your lotus feet to keep us under your devine shelter and engage us in the mood of servant of servant of you servant.

Hare Krishna Dear Maharaj,

Please accept my sincerest attempt at trying to pay obeisances at your lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

I have comfortably written several prayers to you in my journal. But I'm completely clueless on how to write a special personal Vyasa Puja offering, Maharaj. There is so much to share, but I feel I may bother you with my useless stories.

At the age of 18, my fickle attempts to change the world got me a chance to work for a newspaper in war-torn Kashmir while studying and I went on to do Photo reportage with a deep pull towards becoming a war journalist so I could visit the war zones around the globe and try narrating stories of Refugees. All these with a hope of finding the little bit of love left in humanity. Funnily, I was running behind extreme sufferings and trauma of others to bring out love.

When in Spain during the Pandemic, with no family or friends, my dreams sleeping in the closet, finances to shambles, parents retired, as Krishna arranged, I bumped on to your ted talk. I had no clue you were a Swami in Iskcon. All I knew within 5 mins into it was, that 'My life was for you.'

I was already drenched in tears and told my closest friend sitting beside me (with whom I travelled 4 years searching for a higher purpose)

That, "If this person (in the video) ever has a mission, I want to serve under that." After all the adventures and miracles of God we witnessed over the years, I had to say goodbye to her, and move in to the temple.

Everyone I met in ISKCON along the way, since then shared their divine encounters with you. And my heart has only grown to try loving you more and more.

Fast forward, I finally am here at the place I always longed to be. Your dearest Govardhan Ecovillage, Maharaj. Your dear disciples have mercifully picked up this usless soul from the pitfalls of Maya. I'm sticking around here like a lizard on the wall with a desire to learn and serve Prabhupad's and Your divine mission.

I have never met you maharaj, but every time I think of seeing you, tears roll down my cheeks. Yet as I witness several of your disciples completely in love with you and surrendered unto serving you, I feel like an imposter, a cheater for thinking I genuinely love you.

All while, I managed to keep it a secret, thinking I was utterly undeserving to desire your divine shelter. But maharaj, I beg you on your appearance day, that kindly use me, use me as your puppet, use me as your instrument to execute your mission in spreading Krishna Consciousness.

I promised my friend before we parted ways that my life was meant to serve you.

Simply longing for that day my parched eyes and soul get drenched in your darshan and blessings to serve Prabhupada's mission life after life. Let me never be separated from you in service, Maharaj, for my life is yours. Otherwise, I wouldn't find myself more useful than a piece of damp log.

Although insignificant, I still Pray to Srila Prabhupad and Lord Nrishmadev that they keep you healthy and safe amid present uncertainties, Maharaj.

Kindly forgive me for making this all abour myself, maharaj. This offering was meant to glorify your loving sacrifice for conditioned souls like me but it turned into an emotional outpour of my heart which is contaminated with full of pride and false ego.

Dear Maharaj, once again on your 71st appearance day, I thank you for being tender and loving towards this unworthy soul. I pray that you enter within my heart & guide me in diligently and serve this movement and lovingly care for the vaishnavas without envy, greed, anger, lust, pride and illusion.

Let me never forget you and always remember you dear Maharaj.

Thank you for connecting me to Srila Prabhupad and Disciplic Succession.I sincerely aspire and need your blessings to strengthen this connection.

Maya works through three modes and avaranatmika and prakshepatmika aspects of Maya Shakti are intrinsic to each modes. Avaranatmika aspects of Maya Shakti covers the consciousness of living entity so that it can forget it's identity as eternal servant of Krsna and Prakshepatmika throws the living entity in to material existence. Your sublime teachings helps us to uncover our real identity and guides us further to live in such a way so that we can safeguard ourselves from different allurements which Maya projects before us. Since time immemorial I have been wandering in to different species of life and it has happened by your grace that I have understood my identity as das dasanudas. By your mercy I am realizing futility of material existence and increasing my attraction for a life full of loving service to Lord and his devotees. Having said this I admit that I am still struggling with my mind and senses which are always busy to pull my consciousness towards material life. Please bless me so that despite all challenges I can practice your teachings and can contribute in your mission to please Srila Prabhupad with all enthusiasm. Whatever little attraction I have towards Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu is all because of your sweet narrations of Gaur Lila. By your mercy only I would be able to apply,relish and share the teachings of the Lord.

Thank you for accepting me as your disciple. Please bless me so that I can become a good disciple.

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances! All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Happy Vyasa Puja to you!!

I feel so fortunate to be able to be called as your spiritual daughter!! Even though I don't have any qualification to be accepted by you as a disciple, with your unconditional mercy and love you gave me the blessing to call you Gurudeva!!

When I asked you how I will make you happy you said by being a Krishna conscious wife, a Krishna Conscious mother, to become an exemplary disciple and have exemplary sadhana. This is the to-do list for my entire life!! Whenever I feel I am not sure what should I do, I remember your instructions, then I find my answer.

Like every daughter, I also dream for a day when I could see you again, get to hear from you, cook something for you or do your laundry. Haha, at least I can dream!!

Yes, I love to hear your lectures, but right now my sweet daughter needs so much attention and active time I am not able to listen, this pandemic kept us from seeing you but every time I chant your Pranam mantra I feel I am still very fortunate that I have your blessings with me.

When I hear about you from other devotees my heart swells up with joy and happiness!

I pray that you may stay healthy in this planet for many years to come if Krishna so desire!! Please bless me so that we can go to your Yatra as a family.

Seeking your blessings and love

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyas Puja please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet. My heart is so full of gratitude to you for accepting me as your disciple, despite my unworthiness. Thank you for your instructions. Particularly the one to serve the Vaishnavas. Vaishnavas are so merciful, that they reciprocate with such love. It is so wonderful to be part of Prabhupada's loving family. Thank you for being so inspiring. It gives me great joy to watch your videos and hear your lectures over and over again. Thank you for your wonderful service to Prabhupada. You have produced so many great disciples who are also very inspiring. Please give me your blessings that I will be the servant of the servant of Prabhupada's servants. It is my long cherished desire to be of some special service to you. I pray to Krishna to fulfill my desire. This year has been very challenging for me but I feel so safe and secure at the shelter of your lotus feet.

Dear Guru dev,

Please accept my humble obeisance.

All glories to you. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On the auspicious day of your Vyas puja, I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to you. Few years back when I was in GEV for some service. In morning serene hours of winter, I was sitting chanting in one of the chabutaras, near the Yamuna river, and suddenly I saw that you were sitting with Gauranga pr and few brahmacharis. I was thinking, how fortunate are them to have such a close association of yours and to serve you in one of the most dear projects for you. While I admired your interactions with them, suddenly, Gauranga pr saw me and indicated with his finger to come and join you. For sometime I couldn't believe it, asked whether he is sure that I can join? I gathered myself and came,paid my obeisances and sat lowest on the steps to have your darshan and to listen to what you were saying. You were discussing the direction of Lord Chaitanya mahaprabhu s aasan on the banks of Yamuna. Some of the brahmacharis were giving their suggestions. You were listening very carefully to understand their viewpoints before coming to a conclusion. You taught me, how much you value each and every point and how should consider all the viewpoints and make everyone inclusive of decision making. Then we were doing a parikrama of Sri Govardhan ji. At a particular spot you stood and said, this landscape was developed under the guidance of HG Shrinathji prabhu (he had recently left the world) so it should be maintained as per his desire. You taught me how much you valued ,loved him and are so sensitive to the sentiments and desires of the devotees, even in their absence. After walking further, you again stopped and you told Gauranga pr, that you saw some dogs and they were looking frail, so we should make good arrangements of food for them. Gauranga pr said, actually they are not the street dogs but a special species of dogs (who look frail) kept in the farm. You, insisted, I know about it , these are street dogs from nearby villages, they come to the farm, we should feed them. Gauranga pr was trying to convince you that it may be difficult to feed them like this, as we don't know where they will be. However, you insisted that we should create a shelter for dogs and the dogs should know that they will be fed Prasad. Gauranga pr, simply surrendered to your will and said, Yes Maharaj, it will be done. You taught me how to be compassionate in true sense to all the living entities as the children of the Lord.

In all these interactions, I could see your love by giving importance to the minutest of the details to please the vaishnavas and the Lord. I can only say these were one of the best moments of my life in your close association and just by listening to your instructions I got so much of benefits.

Thank you Maharaj for your love and blessings. Although unqualified, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath ji, that you get good health for many more years to come. I beg you to always please keep me in your prayers and under your shelter.

I remain insignificant servant of your servants.

For the last several years I have been trying to serve Krishna by struggling with my mind and senses. So far I am in the service of Krishna because of your grace. Currently I am serving in Sankirtan Bus at Sri Sri Radha Rasbihari Temple. It is a special pleasure to meet new people and give them Prabhupada's scriptures. All glories to Srila Prabhupad.

Dear Maharaj, thank you very much for giving me shelter under your divine lotus feet. I am eternally grateful to you for whatever you have given to me and bringing me in Brahma Madhav Gaudiya parampara.

Since the beginning of my Krishna conscious life I am very much touched by your purity, transcendental wisdom, loving nature, humility. Your lectures are always inspiration for me and helped me to overcome many problems in my life and focus on my KC life as well as material life.

Maharaj, your loving relationship with your godbrothers will always be in my heart. When I heard first time that you made big Vyasasan (usually one person can sit on Vyasasana) so that whenever you give class other godbrothers also can sit on it, I was very much touched by this quality of giving deep respect to your godbrothers.

The way you train your disciple is very special and can be seen by your disciple. Your disciples are there all over the world and they are appreciated by local temple devotees.

Your dedication to Srila Prabhupada's movement is extraordinary and we cannot imagine it. You always obeyed instructions of all disciples of Srila Prabhupad as if they are directly coming from SP.

Maharaj, I am facing one problem in my life please guide me and give me strength to solve that problem and serve you in whatever best possible way.

I beg at your lotus feet please forgive me for my offenses and give me strength to do 16 rounds of attentive chanting every day, do proper sadhana, services, follow regulative principles life long and serve in the mission of SP.

Dear Srila Gurudev,

Please accept my dandavat pranams at your lotus feet.

Gurudev you tirelessly preach all over the world and inspire thousands and thousands of souls to follow the path prescribed by our beloved Chaitanya Mahaprabhu and Srila prabhupad and their instructions for chanting the holy name and performing Harinam Sankirtan. I feel myself extremely fortunate to be one of those insignificant souls who is highly inspired by your words and deeds.

Gurudev by the special mercy of Radha Krsna I have come in contact with ISKCON and I think I have been able to make a negligible advancement in the path of bhakti under the guidance of the wonderful devotee association that you have created.

In this age of Kali there is a constant war between my effort to progress in the devotional path and Mayadevi, and needless to say most of the time I am the loser. Please bestow your mercy on me and my family so that we are able to follow your instructions and progress on the devotional path and able to contribute to Srila Prabhupad's mission.

Thank you very much Gurumaharaj for mercifully guiding and inspiring me always to become more serious in Krishna Consciousness. I always remember your words from one of the Nasik Yatra when one devotee asked you a question – why we came to this material world leaving such beautiful spiritual world ? Your answer came in the form of a reverse question – important question is not 'why you came here ?' but 'Why are you still here?' Your merciful actions and words are always pushing me to serve Krishna and His devotees.

Your quality of seeking the essence in everyone and everything, gives inspiration and hope to me. Although utterly unqualified and still struggling with anarthas, I want to serve you. Please kindly bless me and help me to make this life a good offering to Srila Prabhupada.

I'm feeling very much grateful to you Guru Maharaj for all that you have given us by your personal example, your lectures, kirtans, yatras, dealings with your God brothers, God sisters and other devotees, also in many other ways you inspired me and continue to inspire me to take up Krishna Consciousness very seriously and practice it properly whole life. I got proper understanding of philosophy and developed faith in the path of Bhakti and specifically in Srila Prabhupada as pre eminent Siksha Guru. You taught me how to work in cooperation with other devotees and authorities in ISKCON and express our love to Srila Prabhupada.

By your mercy and inspiration I'm developing more taste in reading Srila Prabhupada Books and also hearing Srila Prabhupada lectures than ever before.

But, still because I'm filled with lots of anarthas and have lots of shortcomings. Still cannot control my mind and senses at a times and fall short of being Krishna Conscious all the time. I'm incapable of overcoming these anarthas without your mercy. Hence, I seek your mercy.

By desire of authorities above me, I'm currently serving as President at ISKCON Habibpur for which I'm not at all qualified. Hence, I desperately seek your mercy and blessings to continue upon me so that I can do services given to me with proper Krishna conscious mindset and not overcome by anarthas and material desires.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj!

SUNDARA ŚYĀMA DĀSA (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble, prostrated obeisances at your holy lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada & the entire Guru-Shishya Parampara.

As the years are passing by, I simply wonder how you have been always thinking, speaking & endeavoring to bring us closer to Krishna.

I was introduced to devotees in Pune in the first week of Jan.1996 & with their help could pick up devotional service. As I am hearing your lectures in series of years from 1989 onwards, now I am at 1996 lectures. I realise how in 1995 end & the centennial year, you have inspired so many devotees to get us (in particular me) closer to Srila Prabhupada's lotus feet. Had you not been there (yadi Guru Maharaj na hoito), I would have been drowning in the material ocean of repeated birth & death (ami bhava-sagare dubito).

Your lectures are saving rope for a person like me who is drowning in an ocean of separation from you. In lockdown, you have been in Chicago & though giving online classes, I could not take full advantage as I sleep early due to the needs of my health treatment. But still, the earlier recorded lectures are always helping me. I hope & pray that I may have your VAPU-association also soon.

In 1998, I failed in exams & thus got a lot of your association in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple as I was free in Dec.1997 to May 1998 period (failure in material education leading to spiritual education) & now failure in health leading to spiritual health by hearing your nectarean words in the recorded audio lectures! Thus I pray that I may completely fail in material life leading to have completely spiritual life in your divine association.

Thank you very much Maharaj for your both VAPU & VANI associations!

Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances

All glories to you

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

Maharaj, Thank you so much for accepting me as your disciple and connecting me to the Guru parampara. Without you it is very difficult to imagine how my life would be.

Every time if I have a problem and struggling with some questions, I would listen to any of your lectures and i will get my answers in that. Your lectures are so helpful and guide me in my life in any situation. Thank you so much for taking out your precious time to teach me through your lectures.

I first heard your lectures in a radio in the internet which my prabhu put, at that time I didn't even knew your name or how you look like and got so much attached to your lectures that we started listening them again and again. The lectures are so powerful and with a strong voice, but when I saw you for the first time in Festival of inspiration in New Vrindavan, I couldn't really connect that voice to you as you were one of the most humble and calm person I have ever seen.

I had talked to you may be for just few times, I wish I could have the opportunity to serve you more directly, but as you say in the lectures, we are connected through our chanting, that gives the solace. But I wish I could do little more service through which I can please you.

After Covid, I started doing some science of self realization sessions, I did that for 4 times by the inspiration of my prabhu and people liked it, which is very surprising because I am a person who don't like to and don't know how to speak, if there is a group of 10 and 9 people will be speaking, I will be the only one who wont speak and I know that only by the mercy of You and Srila Prabhupad I was able to speak in these sessions. Thank you so much for showering that mercy.

Along with those I started kids classes, that was not planned but somehow it came up and kids like those classes, my son helps me in preparing the slides for the kids sessions which I conduct in the weekends. Its for just around 8 kids, but I really like those sessions as they are very interactive and I really like spending time with kids. I am still continuing these sessions.

Please give your blessings so that I could do more services in whatever way I can and please You.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji for your good health. Please take care of your health.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

All glories to your holiness

My very dear and respected Maharaj, I got to attend your Vrindavan Kartik Yaatra in 2019, I was so fortunate to be part of it. Your humility and compassion touched my heart immensely. I remember your holiness sitting on a insignificant, tiny Vyas Asna infront of Srila Prabhupad's huge Vyas Asna. This quality of your holiness touched my heart ♥.

Also, one of the very young Vaishnav who was under 10 years of age wrote a book and your holiness very humbly greeted that little Vaishnav on the podium and very respectfully you folded your hands in front of this little Vaishnav. It was a moment when I realised that your holiness does see the eternal soul within not the body.

I also heard one of your lectures on HH Bhakti Tirtha Swami Maharaj and no wonder your holiness is known as Ananta Sesa of ISKCON.

Thank you Maharaj ji for inspiring me and millions other.

I beg at your lotus feet for your causeless mercy so that I can become a sincere servant of Srila Prabhupad.

Yours in service

Hare Krishna Maharaj. Dandavat pranaam 🙇. I am very glad that I came in Krishna Conciousness and got to know about the most amazing personalities like Lord Krishna, HDG Srila Prabhupad, Lord Gauranga and Nityananda and all the 6 goswamis & acharyas carrying the sweetest nectar to free us from this miserable cycle of birth and death. Now I just want you to pray for me that i get the realization that this is only the way to be free and get a firm faith to practice the principles with great faith and geniunety without carrying any cheating propensity in my heart for serving the Devotees, HDG Srila Prabhupad, Guru and Krishna that i serve them without committing any offenses. All glories to Srila Prabhupad. All glories to You. All glories to Lord Krishna. All glories to his devotees.

SURAJ RACHA (MUMBAI, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisance Maharaj

i am a very fallen soul and i have absolutely no qualifications to offer anything to You. But Maharaj, even though i lack the fortune to meet You physically, the impact You have made on my insignificant life, the meaning You have given to it, is so great that i can never ever repay even a part of it. When i had first read The Journey Home, i felt i was present with You throughout the Book. Often tears would roll while reading because Maharaj, Your experiences and realizations were so great. It made our faith on Krishna and Srila Prabhupada more firm.

Whenever life tips upside down, Maharaj, simply hearing to Your Lectures connects us to Krishna. Your Lectures, Maharaj are so sublime, deep, and enriching, that one doesn't get tired even hearing for hours at once. The way You have molded our lives, especially for those in Mumbai and other regions of Maharashtra, we are forever grateful for it. GEV, congregation communities, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Devotee care, and so many more, You have given us such precious gifts to nourish and make our Krishna Consciousness more enlivening.

Maharaj, i cannot say much, i am not qualified for it, for how can an insect living in dark regions know much about the Glories of the Bright Sun. Maharaj, i am not at all sincere and dedicated, and i stand no where in Devotional Service, my heart is filled with anarthas and they are often reflected in my thoughts and acts. But Maharaj, at heart, i have seen You as my Guru Maharaj, even though i am so much far from actually being Your student. Maharaj, i sincerely seek Your Blessings that i may be able to serve You, Srila Prabhupada, Our mission, and Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Krishna everyday thoughts, teachings, and example of You keep so many of hearts of ours joyful. i aspire that some day this fallen soul is able to serve and glorify You, more and more. Please bless us Maharaj

Dear Gurudev,

This human life is extremely precious because provides an opportunity to return back to Goloka Vrindavan. Ever since we came to the shelter of you Maharaj, we have learned that If we remain under your shelter, follow your teachings sincerely, our journey to the kingdom of Krishna will be smooth and pleasurable. In fact, every moment we will experience the presence of Krishna in our hearts.

On the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa Puja, we pray at your feet to shower your mercy upon us so that we continue chanting 16 rounds of Hare Krishna Mahamantra sincerely, and that we should engage every moment of our life in serving the mission of Lord Chaitanya and Srila Prabhupada without any selfish desire.

Hare Krsna,H.H.Radhanath Swami Maharaj,please Accept my family's Humble Obeisances at your Lotus Feet 1.Myself 2.Lovina Jaswaney 3. Nikita Jaswaney 4.Priti Jaswaney.

We started to come to the Temple regularly along with H.G.Madhav Prasad Prabhu, from the year 1996,and we were always welcomed warmly and enthusiastic ally,by the whole congregation till date,for which we will be eternally grateful to them.

Me along with my family were closely Associated during the Centennial Celebrations Of Srila Prabhupada,and had attended and learnt lot of things in all the Pandal programs at that time and till date, this was possible for my family,since you have nurtured the whole congregation to shower love and affection along with devotional service to all including us.

We are also grateful to H.G.Radhakrishna Prabhu who was our Counsellor,and who has always guided us with love and affection.

Now the only sad thing is that inspite of all the help and support of the congregation,my family could not be initiated, only since we can't complete our daily 16 rounds daily,and therefore my family are the most unfortunate among the whole congregation to receive the mercy of Krsna, inspite of the Devotees love and affection of the congregation.

The deficiency is only ours,

We promise you that we will now take additional efforts to adhere and finish all rounds and then be part of the Parampara.

We offer you our obesainces in gratitude to all vaishnaivas,and we hope that everyone will bless us,so that we can be even one percentage like all the congregation of Devotees.

Maharaj,

My family prays at the Lotus feet of Krsna and Radha Rani that you have a long and healthy life and continue to shower your mercy on us poor souls.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my respectful obeisance to Your glorious lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, as well as the assembled devotees.

Happy appearance day to you, Guru Maharaja. Wishing you many, many, many returns of the day Guru Maharaj.

On this auspicious day of the occasion of your appearance day, I pray for the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai to eternally remain with you.

Guru Maharaj last Saturday I was doing some service of book distribution and Prasadam distribution and not many devotee was visiting, so I was reading some random page of teaching of Lord Kapila at book table and in one of the Purport Srila Prabhupada was explaining that due to Krishna's mercy fallen conditioned entity can be enlightened and Krishna also sends his devotee or Krishna leaves behind him Bhagavad Gita. Then Srila Prabhupada quotes Caitanya Mahaprabhu said:

" Brahmada Bhramite Kona Bhagyavan Jiva

Guru-krishan prasade paya bhakti lata bija" (Cc. Madhay 19.151)

I can relate to this that how I am fortunate to have Srila Prabhupada Books and you as spiritual master.

I am really most fortunate that you have accepted me as your disciple. You explained during our initiation the Krishna Sambhandha, Abhideya and Prayojana and you always explained how Srila Prabhupada use to instruct his disciples about following instructions of spiritual master. You always explains how Srila prabhupad followed his spiritual master. Guru Maharaj, through your actions, devotional service, sadachar and devotee care program you always serve your beloved guru Maharaj Srila Prabhupada. With your blessing and mercy I am trying to follow your instructions and trying every year to improve my Sadhana and try to support our North Sydney ISKCON temple in my capacity. I am trying to do some service once in a week at North Sydney ISCKON temple. With your blessing and mercy we able survive last two difficult years of pandemic.

On this auspicious day of your appearance day, I pray to Lord Narshima dev , Sri Sri Radha Gopinath and Sri Gaura Nitai to protect you and bless you with good health.

Guru Maharaj, again wishing Happy appearance day to you, Wishing you many, many, many returns of the day!

I am but a poor uneducated, ignorant fool who is trying somehow to glorify you, but what can I say about your glories and your mercy which is endless, I can only beg you to somehow forgive me of my past sinful activities and accept me as your most humbled servant. My desire is to be your humble servant always, please bless me with your mercy.

I am an ordinary soul, sinful soul. Thank you so much for being my spiritual master, thank you so much for accepting me even though I am not eligible.

An ordinary man don't even know how many jewels are hidden in the ocean. In the same way I don't even know how many qualities are hidden in your personality. Please bless me with all the great qualities which you have & which I don't even know.

I can't praise you properly but I am trying to do it. In marathi it is called "ज्योतीने तेजाची आरती « means I am trying to show a lamp to sun. It is hard to remain in bhakti so please hold my hand & keep me in bhakti so that I don't move from or distract from the path of bhakti. Please bless me with unflinching faith in Krishna. When reverse condition comes in life, my mind disturbs so please bless me with devotion & dedication for devotional service.

I really like your humble & down to earth nature which I need most. Please bless me with that. Thank you so much for everything...

Inspired by your qualities, teachings, experiences and glories heard from devotees I am attempting to offer a small poem at your lotus feet. I am utterly unqualified to be able to rightly glorify you however for my purification and in order to find myself closer to you I am attempting this. Please forgive me in case there are any flaws while doing this.

Dear Maharaja

Your hugs are like a cool breeze

Which makes devotees heart freeze

Your humility is nothing but the reality

I can say it with clarity

Your simplicity is without duplicity

Not for name, fame or publicity

Your Love and care are two pair

Which can make broken heart quickly repair

You have made many greats souls to surrender (to Krishna)

After hearing about your qualities they will say it's no wonder

Your smile is like that of a child

Which makes devotees heart go wild

Your compassion is like that of a mother

Which I could not compare to any other (In this world)

Your support is like that of a father

Which gives feelings of unparalleled shelter

You are the moon of your Master

Your presence in our life has removed all the disasters (Obstacles in spiritual progress)

You lived the life of surrender

For non-other that Srila Prabhupada and Radha Shyamsunder

Therefore I wish to have only one sweet

Which is nothing but the dust of your lotus feet.

SYAMA KESAVA DAS (DALLAS, USA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my prostrated obeiesances at your divine lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to you.

I am grateful that on this auspicious occasion of your Vyas Puja, I am getting an opportunity to glorify you and express my heart's feeling about you in the assembly of my dear God brothers and God sisters.

I was meditating on your quality of sarva-bhutatma-bhutatma - That how you are dear to everyone and everyone is dear to you.

Just a few days ago, a disciple of Srila Prabhupada - HG Misra Bhagavan Prabhuji shared a pastime with me. He mentioned that Radhanath Swami is one of the pure devotee of Lord. It is your great fortune that he is your spiritual master.

He said, "You know why Radhanath Swami is able to attract so many people all over the world in the path of Bhakti Yoga? Because he practices what he says." In this regard, he related a pastime from a Rainbow Gathering.

He attended one of the rainbow gatherings in USA. He said that usually at that place, the parking attendants are very rough and not very co-operative. He parked his vehicle and asked one of the parking attendant about Krishna Camp tent. The parking attendant gave him directions and he mentioned once you reach there, ask for Radhanath, he is my very best friend "Radhanath". Misra Bhagavan Prabhuji said I was shocked to know that parking attendant saying my best friend Radhanath. He said this is teaching by his own example. This is the perfect example of sarva-bhutatma-bhutatma.

Another quality of yours that I was meditating on is simplicity and firm faith in the grace of Lord.

In one of your recent lectures, you had mentioned how you came to Bombay to establish congregation and Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Temple.

You were in Mayapur, and you were asked to renounce all other services and just go to Bombay. You thought, I know only three things - College Preaching, Deity Worship and Taking care of Cows. When you first went to Bombay for your service, at that time there were no cows and no deities. You started with college preaching, sleeping on floors, at different people's houses etc.

Due your unflinching faith in Srila Prabhupada and Krishna, your simplicity and purity, you are able to transform the hearts of millions of people in Bombay and was able to establish one of the largest congregation in ISKCON.

While hearing this pastitime, immediately a thought came in my mind that Maharaj can do any thing, he can turn around any situation after all he is saksad hari. But then you immediately mentioned the story of Sparrow and how with her determination she was able to get the help from Garudji to get her eggs back. You mentioned that when you have strong determination, lord sends his pure devotees to help you succeed in your service. This example immediately made me think that to please you, Srila Prabhupada and Krishna, I should have strong determination and sincerity and always mention about sincerity and determination in your several lectures.

Guru Maharaj, through your lectures, I am able to get the glimpse of Krishna's unlimited grace, compassion and love. I am very grateful for accepting me as your disciple. I take it for granted but I want to let you know Maharaj that there is nothing more one can ask for. You have given me the most sacred and rarest thing in the entire creation that is devotional service to Lord. I beg for your mercy to follow your instructions and serve in your and Srila Prabhupada's mission.

SYAMESVARI PRITI DEVI DASI (INDIA)

Hare Krishna my dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my heartfelt and most humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and his wonderful followers.

I am in no way qualified to offer anything to you, Guru Maharaj!

Rather I am the one who is always taking and taking from you!

But, on this very auspicious ceremony of your Appearance Day, I would not like to miss the opportunity of writing something for you and offering it to you!

Please accept this humble offering of a poem I made for you.

O Father, Dear father, where shall I find someone like you?

I have wandered everywhere, outside and inside of me too!

I was lost in the dingy dark corners of this material world.

Crippled in ignorance and in everything my mind can behold;

Sins overshadowed my existence, I was drowning in the ocean of ego, Blinded by darkness, deaf and dumb with material talks, I had no where to go!

A heart full of pain, a mind full of regrets and not a single ray of hope,

I was treading the path of my life, holding on to the miserable material rope!

You came in my life as a ray of vibrant and shining hue,

Wherever I am, wherever I go, one who is there with me, is just you!

You gave me your hand and uplifted me, gave me your shelter and lighted up this life!

You freed me from the mundane ties and healed my wounds from the material knife!

You teach me each day with your example, your kindness and your compassion,

I hold you so dear to my heart, just like your priceless instruction.

O Father, you pulled me to witness the beauty of the Holy Name,

The sweetness of its vibration and the nectar of its fame!

You taught me to be kind, to be honest and to serve the Supreme!

I now take this as my heart and soul; in awakening and in dream!

I owe my life to you dear father, my everything belongs to you,

On your Appearance day this is the only gift I can afford to give you!

O Father, dear father, where shall I find someone like you?

Even in countless births, there shall be no one, who's like you!

From,

Your insignificant servant,

Hare Krishna Maharaj.

Please accept my respectful obeisance at your lotus feet.

Thank you very much Maharaj for being Karuna sindhu and saving me from this dangerous and horrible bhava sindhu and drowning us in Bhakti rasamrita sindhu.

Guru Puja which we sing everyday reminds us of you being a Karuna sindhu for me.

Sri guru Karuna sindhu, adhama janara bandhu

You are ocean of mercy and friend of a poor like me.

Although it's difficult to meet everyone personally but you personally pray for everyone's spiritual growth and advancement always and try to become their true savior.

Through your lectures you always keep me alert about the dangers of this bhava sindhu. Without which I am completely lost in this material world.

As guru puja says,

jahara prasade Bhai, e bhava toriya jai...

Only by your mercy it's possible to cross over this bhava sindhu.

Your lectures, instructions, books which are coming through your transcibe project are our real boats to cross over this ocean.

It is very amazing to see how devs are taking so much effort to transcribe your lectures and you are going through them to make it into books. Books for devotees and for people in general.

And you not only taking us out of this bhava sindhu but giving us the ultimate shelter of Karuna sindhu! He Krishna Karuna sindhu.

You are giving us the service to Krishna for eternity.

Krishna se tomar Krishna dite paro, tomara shakti ache.

Only by your mercy and devotional power it is possible.

Krishna prapti hoy jaha hoyate.

It is very difficult for me to understand the Krishnas oceanic compassion and Krishna as akhila rasamrita murti.

But to access Krishna and get drowned in the pastimes of Krishna becomes so easy when you speak those pastimes through your lotus mouth and unalloyed devotion.

Everyone remembers the pastimes which you speak in all yatras, how those explanations and glorification of Krishna drowns us in to Bhakti rasamrita sindhu.

Last Kartik yatra, in which you described the pastime of Krishna dancing on the hoods of kaliya. It was so live and absorbing.

I beg forgiveness at your lotus feet for being a so unworthy disciple. You have given me so many instructions and you have stated your expectations so many times but I am not able to follow it due my lack of enthusiasm and faith.

On this very auspicious day I beg to gain more strength and faith in devotional service from you and one day I can sincerely try to become worthy disciple of you and your devotees.

Hare Krishna Maharaj ji

After 8 years of devotion of Lord Krishna I've realized that you are my guru Maharaj. I don't know how long I have to wait for your divine darshan. I've no quality but even then I really want to develop humbleness and want to be a servant of servant of Lord Chaitanya.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Thank You very much Guru Maharaj for accepting me as your disciple although I don't deserve this mercy. Your instructions like "devotee must be grateful", "become servant of the servant", "Chanting is our first priority", "Tolerate the provoking situations", "serve the local authorities" helps me a lot. Whenever I face some difficultly in spiritual life, I find solace in your lecture. From core of my heart I am very grateful for saving my life & available for us through your vani. I am able to continue in KC because of your lectures & devotees association. Also, I am very grateful to you for keeping me under the shelter of HG RadheShyam pr & HG SaraSiromani Pr.

You are giving me so much, but i am so degraded that i am taking your causeless mercy very cheeply, & not practicing Devotional Service seriously. I beg forgiveness for the same. I have taken a vow of chanting 16 rounds attentively, follow 4 regs & serve in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant. I beg for your mercy that i can follow these vows in my life.

Please bless me that I can follow your instructions as my life & soul & eternally serve Srila Prabhupada.

Seeking your prayers & blessings.

Hare Krishna,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the various GIFTS you have showered over a period of time. It's very inspiring to see you working so hard to make us Krishna conscious. I pray at your lotus feet that I may very soon be able to follow your instructions.

Since COVID 19 period started there were many challenges with foremost of that was to maintain Krishna Consciousness (at home) without much physical association of devotees / temple, your hard efforts in giving so many ONLINE talks really acted like a nectar.

Missing your incomparable association during Kartik Yatras. During these Yatras, we could actually feel the FAMILY of VAISHNAVAS (keeping far away from material things … that usually are part of our life). None the less with the kind of wonderful devotee snaga you have sent to Pune, same atmosphere (like Yatra) is available. Your lectures & journey Home has helped a lot to learn the mood & art of How we should conduct our self in devotee sanga. Thank you so much for this ETERNAL GIFT "Journey HOME". It's a classic masterpiece which gives us chance to associate with you personally through your journey. I feel very much present at that moments through your explanations. Kindly bless me to follow the path shown by you & serve Vaishnavas , Srila Prabhupada & the mission with my full energy.

Kindly forgive my inability to serve your instructions & any knowing / unknowing offences committed at your lotus feet. Your Kind mercy is the only hope for my any kind of advancement on the path of bhakti.

Thank you so much for your love & kind concern

Hare Krishna Maharaj. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I would like to thank you for all the opportunities that you gave me to serve you and RadhaGopinath. In the month of December,the brahmacharis would go for book distribution and matajis would do Deity worship. This gave us a good opportunity to serve RadhaGopinath and a wonderful opportunity to develop a loving relationship with these matajis and also with RadhaGopinath. You gave me opportunities to serve you and other devotees. I consider all this as your great mercy upon an unworthy person like me. I consider myself to be very fortunate to be staying in the temple and I thank you for the same. I beg you to forgive me for all my mistakes, and thank you for tolerating my shortcomings. I am missing you a lot Hope to see you soon. Wishing you a very happy birthday

Offering to Gurudev

My dear Gurudev, please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. And please accept my heartfelt greetings with your Birthday. I'm very grateful that I know this world with you – seeing it with your kind eyes and words, by blessing of your kind and loving heart. You teach me how to love and respect others and your love means love of Krishna for me.

Last 2 months I feel like I'm always in your association thanks to transcribing your lectures. It's some magic but I just feel so safe and happy in my heart – just because I have an important reason to hear you so attentively, see the text and meditate deeper. It's the same as I've been hearing your lectures in real – on yatras or other occasions. And your book "Journey Within" also helps me to feel your loving heart so close – I'm so grateful how much wisdom, sincerity and compassion you've poured on these pages. Every time I read it, I feel so cozy and warm as if you were telling those stories to your close friends or relatives near the camp fire, and I had a luck to join you. I'm grateful to you for this connection, and keeping it, I feel this world so wise, full of God's compassion as if I'm under an umbrella of your association, mercy, shelter.

I'm so thankful to Krishna that I have wonderful friends which are also your children. It feels part of your mercy and the way we try to build relations is a very touching and filling experience: trying to serve together, care of each other, just being good friends to each other. I pray that Jagannath give me wisdom and purity to value these relationships and that you'd be happy with us.

Thank you for you example how to love and treat parents and friends. You truly show how to treat others with equal vision of love and care.

Thank you that I can turn to you in my hard and happy minutes and feel your mercy and support – sometimes from my heart, sometimes from others, sometimes from instructions from you or Srila Prabhupada or from other teachers. It's your magic that doesn't follow any logic.

I would love to be of any use to you or those who are dear to you. Please engage me in your service as you would like. Let gracious Srimati Radharani keep you always safe and happy and help you in all your wonderful projects and service to your Beloved Srila Prabhupada.

Yours,

Dear Guru Mahārāja, Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada and Guru Paramapara.

These challenging times brought upon this world by this pandemic has clearly shown us the ugly reality of this material world - the nature of it being a temporary and unpredictable place. Further it has re-awakened the deeply buried and forgotten feelings of mutual mistrust, hate and conflicts, and divisions among the people.

Yet, as I come across the beautiful and hope giving words of Srila Prabhupada in his books and your reassuring words and wisdom of those bhakti teachings, it makes me think that all I need to do is to become sincere and serious in my practice of devotional service. It may not possible to fully comprehend why and what goes on around us, both at individual or collective levels, and one may not even have the ability to change anything.

I am slowly understanding that by making that sincere and serious connection with Sri Sri Radha Govinda one will not be deviated by any conundrums in one's life. Just like when Sri Krishna protected his cowherd friends (who sought His shelter) by first asking them to close their eyes, and then by Himself devouring the fire with His mouth, similarly I beg to develop that simple faith to just depend on Krishna, and more importantly depend on his protection to nurture and increase my devotion towards Him and not just become overwhelmed by the changing surroundings.

On this most auspicious occasion of your divine Vyasa puja, with sincere honestly I pray for your mercy so that I can develop, nurture and increase that sincere devotion towards Sri Sri Radha Govinda. I am convinced that I cannot have that, unless it is bestowed by Lord Himself, and that is only possible by your grace. Then only all my efforts to struggle with mind and senses have any meaning, when I am able to please Krishna by pleasing his sincere representatives.

Thank you for everything.

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada

On this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance my heart is drowning into the ocean of gratitude by remembering your causeless mercy upon me and my family.

Approximately since last 12 years I have been assisting you in making garlands for Shri Shri Radha Rasbihariji, the beloved Ishtadeva of your divine Gurumahraj HDG AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Shrila Prabhupada. While putting each petal or flower in every garland I try to remember you, Shrila Prabhupada and Lord Shri Panchatattva Bhagvan. I have been experiencing so much mercy of Shri Shri Radha Rasbihariji upon me and my family through so many ways in my day today life. I don't know in which lifetime I will get an opportunity to share with you all those merciful loving exchanges of Their Lordships. Hoping for the same life after life.

Also my heart feels happiness when I see my worshipable husband HG Madhu Vaani Prabhu, through his physiotherapy skills serving your God Brothers and God Sisters, Brajvasis and other Vaishnavas under your instructions.

Since last 2 years my entire family everyday together reads Shri Chaitanaya Charitamrita. We have completed first round of reading in just 45 days of Lockdown, now in the second round we are at Antya Lila chapter 7, The meeting of Shri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu and Vallabh Bhatta.

Following your footsteps meditatively my entire family everyday at home perfoms Giriraj Govardhan Parikrama and takes bath in all holy places in an around Shri Giriraj.

We also try to recite every auspicious marks on the lotus feets of Their Lordships, Shri Shri Radha Rasbihariji, Gaur Nitai and Shri Adwait Acharya .

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyaspuja ceremony, kindly give me your causeless mercy and blessings to follow your instructions and come up to your expectations.

Gurumaharaj with tears in my heart and eyes I am praying at your lotus feet kindly forgive all my offences which I have committed knowingly or unknowingly, because without your causeless mercy my life is clueless, useless & hopeless

We would like to thank you Guru Maharaja for the causeless mercy and love that you have unconditionally showered upon us.

We are very undeserving ,yet due to your unlimited kindness and compassion we continue to receive such a wonderful opportunity to be an insignificant part of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's and Srila Prabhupada's glorious mission.

It is by your mercy that we are connected to our Guru Parampara and all the wonderful Vaishnavas and their grace is what is keeping us going on the path of Krishna Consciousness.

We are very grateful for your compassionate presence in our lives through :

1. Your nectarine lectures full of valuable pearls of wisdom, life lessons, guidance, shelter and so many precious instructions for us to follow. Whenever we are facing any difficult situation we derive a lot of hope and shelter in your words.

2. Blissful yatras whether in person or online are something we look forward to every year. These yatras in association of so many wonderful devotees help us learn so many valuable lessons and keep us recharged and going for the rest of the year.

3. Your wonderful books which teach us precious life lessons which are very difficult for us to fully practice right now but with your kind blessings and mercy we are taking small baby steps trying to live these values and divine qualities.

Your experiences & the associated life lessons which you've beautifully captured in your book - 'The Journey Home' is a treasure house for us to cherish.

We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all that you've bestowed upon us.

You came across so many people, devotees, faithful, atheistic, religious people with different ideology and your dealings with all of them has been so wonderful. You deal with every person albeit every living entity according to their spe-cific position in a very mature way. Dearmost Radhanath Swami Maharaj ,

I was really born in ignorance and raised in ignorance too , till 17 yrs of my life , Its only after meeting your dear disciples H.G. Radha Gopinath Prabhu and H.G Devamrut Prabhu (Bhakti Rasamrit Mhrj now) that I was made aware of existence of Krishna . I met you at Mumbai on multiple occasions just trying to understand whatever little awareness I had at that particular time .The first yatra that I attended was " Ahobilam Yatra " where my take home message was " Lord Chaitanya really walked this planet 500 yrs back and these are not just stories , That happened at Kavvoor, place where Ramanand Rai met Lord Chaitanya .That was huge shift for my rational mind (atleast I thought so being raised by rational and academic parents).I was really blessed to marry a wonderful person and raise 3 sons and work at Bhaktivedanta Hospital . Shifting to Gurugram was a huge trauma for me initially but your memories and devotees guidance (Her grace Sukhavah Mtji) helped me through it . Thank you for being present in my memories and life forever . You created and crafted seed of devotion in my heart through all the devotees and the culture that you created at Sri Sri Radha Gopinath temple . Thank you and prayers for your good health and hopes of meeting you soon again in India .Happy Birthday Maharaj .kind regards

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Shrila Prabhupada

On this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance my heart is drowning into the ocean of gratitude for all the mercy that you have showered upon me and family.

Gurumahraj, my only brother Krishna Bhajan Das is a Brahmachari in Shri Shri Radha Rasbihariji temple, and serving under the guidance of HG Brajahri Prabhu. When he left home and joined Brahmchari Ashram I was very much distressed because he is the only son in the family and my mother had died long back when we were just kids. But in due course of time by your mercy I came to my senses and understood that he has taken your shelter and under your loving care serving Shrila Prabhupada, and thus we felt fortunate by his surrender. Eventually he started telling me about your Holiness and Shrila Prabhupada and I was convinced of Shrila Prabhuapda's divine mission and then became your initiated disciple in the year 2015 in Shri Govardhan Eco Village.

Gurumaharaj, My husband, kids and in-laws none of them are devotees. I don't have any proper association of devotees, neither Sunday Feast, nor Counselor meeting no Dham yatras no Festivals nothing. Save and except the association of my brother Krishna Bhajan Das.

Because my brother joined Brahamchari Ashram so there was no one to take of my father. I had the good fortune to take care of my father over last 20 years in which my husband also cooperated and took care of him.

This year on the auspicious occasion of Gudi Padava my father, Late Shri Devendra Narsingh Shinde left his body while hearing Shri Chaitanya Charitamrita in midst of Kirtan while meditating on the picture of Lord Vitthala & Sitaram Hanuman. For this most important event of his life my Brahmachari brother was fortunate to be present and served his father during his last days and helped him to remember the Lord at his last breath. There after my brother informed you about his departure on what's app message then you replied that

By this transcendental merciful blessings all of us were thrilled in ecstasy that how my father without any proper etiquette of ISKCON or dedication to Lord Krishna still he achieved the highest destination of human life by your mercy.

I have a daughter who is married and a son studying in 12th class. Both are struggling with their bad habits of teen age. My daughter Smital made so many grave mistakes in her life and now struggling a lot to maintain her relationship with her husband and in-laws.

By your mercy now I have realized that Lord Nityanand Prabhu has arranged these difficulties in my life so that I could give up my attachments to husband and kids and becomes attached to your lotus feet. I consider this is a very great mercy upon me by the Supreme Lord.

Gurumahraj, every day I get up early in the morning and complete my 16 rounds and try to chant more rounds if possible. Then I cook for the family and go for school as I am a school teacher by profession. In the evening I come back home and cook for the family and read Shrimad bhagvatam. I confess Guruamaharaj I don't hear your lectures but on this auspicious occasion of your Vyaspuja I give you promise that I will try to hear your lectures and rejuvenate my Krishna consciousness.

Gurumaharaj honestly speaking I am not on the level of Kunti Devi or other such great exalted devotees but surely I can aspire to follow your footsteps and come up to your expectations in this very lifetime.

Eternally grateful to you for all the mercy that you have showered upon me and my family.

Thank you very much

VAISHNAV SHARAN DAS (PUNE-IN)

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please Accept My Humble Obeisance,

Just few days back, I was reading a verse from Srimad Bhagavad-Gita and I immediately remembered you.

BG 12.13-14: One who is not envious but is a kind friend to all living entities, who does not think himself a proprietor and is free from false ego, who is equal in both happiness and distress, who is tolerant, always satisfied, self-controlled, and engaged in devotional service with determination, his mind and intelligence fixed on Me – such a devotee of Mine is very dear to Me.

This verse and many more verses in this series of Pure Devotional Service Chapter, completely exemplifies your personality.

Non-Envious: When it comes to glorify devotees, you do it with thousand mouths describing every small detail, it may be about Bhagavatam characters, Gosvamis, Parampara Acharyas, your Godbrothers or even your own disciples. But when it is about your own self, you don't accept it and give credits to others saying that I'm a simple person, I don't know anything but Krishna.

Friendly to all living entities: Your one glance is sufficient to make a person feel deep connection with you. Also your dealings with devotees, well-wishers, other organisations, vrajvasis and even animals like cows, etc. shows your friendly nature.

No Proprietorship: You always teach us to respect your Godbrothers more than yourself. When one of your disciple commented that Maharaj, you are the best Spiritual Master, immediately you became grave and corrected him with mature understanding.

Free from False Ego: I heard many times from you saying to various devotees, " I'm eternally your servant and want to take dust from your feet".

Equal in Both Happiness and Distress: So many challenges, difficulties, came in your life in your journey to search for a Bonafide Guru, but you remain undisturbed, and same with success, it didn't affect you but through that you always glorified the arrangement of the Lord and Services of various devotees involved.

Tolerant: 'trnadapi sunicena...' Tolerant like a tree. You always speak on this because you are exemplifying it in your own life.

Always Satisfied: In the initial days of New Vrindavan, when you got service of taking care of cows, that was the world for you, later deity services, you just got absorbed in the service. Whatever service, responsibility was given you did your best in that without any hankering for Post, Position or Fame.

Self-controlled: 'vacho vegam Manas krodha vegam...' Situations where a conditioned soul get tempted and pours out his anarthas, you turned it into an opportunity to take shelter of Krishna.

Engaged in devotional service with determination: You are very meticulous in performing any service and getting the service done in the best possible way. You took repeated follow-up for the deity incharge to put thin garland on Srimati Radharani's head, reforming Radha Gopinath Mandir and the entire Vaishnav community and many more.

Mind and intelligence fixed on Krishna: Once HG Gauranga pr shared how you never uttered a single holy name unconsciously. Every situation in your life, you always remembered Krishna and how he is so merciful. Your lectures on Krishna Lila in Kartik Yatra, are so absorbing because you are fully fixed and narrates the pastimes as if you are into that.

I'm just trying to write some of your unlimited glories in my limited understanding. Eternally grateful to you Maharaj for giving me shelter at your lotus feet by accepting me as your disciple. Please bless me so that I never disappoint you and can follow your teachings and genuinely apply it in my life.

Seeking your blessings,

Gurudeva, when I think of you, I think of how realistic, admirable, determined, honest, able-bodied, and noble you are. You are also accommodating to all your disciples and humanity at large, tolerant, humble, and assuring. Even though you are all these things, you are also very simple, wise, aware, extremely merciful, and incredible. Thank you so much, Maharaja. Indeed, you are one of a king.

Gurudeva, I also remember asking you as to how I may serve you, and your answer was, "Just be happy. Keep doing what you are doing, and be happy." Whenever I think about the simple, yet instructive answer you gave to the question I had asked, I ask myself, "How can I be happy in a world filled with numerous miseries emanating from all directions? How can I possibly be happy with everything I am going through?" And then I remember your striking words, "Just be happy." Indicating that, everything in this world is temporary, including the miseries. The only substantial and eternal thing, is Krishna Conscious. Making Krishna the center of my life, will enable me to overcome (and not be attached to) to seemingly "impossible" challenges. I am to be grateful for those challenges, for, it is in those challenges that we discover just how merciful Krishna is. By taking complete shelter of His Lotus Feet, only then, are we able to overcome the obstacles. Thank you for that reminder, Gurudeva, all glories to you.

On this auspicious day of the occasion of your appearance day, I pray for the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai to eternally remain with you. I pray for the success of your every endeavor. I once again beg to ask you, how may I serve you? thank you, Gurudeva. All glories to you. Happy appearance day once again. All glories to you. Jaya Sri Vaisnava Thakura..!

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you.

On the occasion of your 71st appearance day, I attempt to make an offering to you, utilizing the occasion to please you, and to further purify myself by receiving your mercy, which you transmit in Parampara.

I am a little subdued by the journey of this lifetime. In this state, there is now an awakening of feeling of gratitude and also the feeling of my wayward soul trying to lord it over the elements of material nature instead of utilizing and offering those elements in the service of the Owner of those elements. Dancing between this duality, I am helpless, yet I see your grace, benediction and blessings upon me to navigate the journey of this lifetime.

Seeing your hand in guiding us, I feel what is it that I have to write. I am praying to the Lord of the Universe for your good health, which is put at risk by the extraordinary services you are doing in your service to Srila Prabhupada. I pray to you for empowerment so that I may engage my full capacity in executing all my responsibilities. I wish my responsibilities to also include more transcription of your lectures. However, I propose, but you can dispose with whatever you deem fit for me.

The priorities of the journey of this lifetime as I see them now are my health, upbringing of Neelamadhava who is now 9 years old, care of family, sadhana, and some seva. The environment at home I wish for Neelamadhava is that he sees sadhana and Deity worship happening properly. I am also trying to prioritize doing some basic gardening in the apartment as part of this environment.

Despite her hectic school schedule, Kumarisakhi is trying to do as much temple seva also as possible. Again, the motivation also here is to keep connected with the devotee community, and also that Neelamadhava experiences this connection.

I am blessed to have the opportunity to support the education of a few children by teaching them Maths and Form Drawing. I am also endeavouring to support the school by way of development of Indic curriculum and content in History, and the Maths and Sciences. Some of the school parents have read, appreciated and enjoyed reading the Journey Home. Neelamadhava is making progress in learning by heart chapters of the Bhagavad Gita and in learning mridanga, harmonium and sangeeta from his teachers.

Please excuse and forgive our mistakes. I am having difficulty in keeping positivity when situations become difficult or hard. We hope to become good disciples just as you are to Srila Prabhupada.

Aspiring,

Guru Maharaj, you are the reason I am still alive. A life without Krishna is as good as being in a dead body. Your mercy flowing through your senior disciples has given me the opportunity practice Bakthi yoga. Thank you Maharaj for initiating me and connecting me to our wonderful Guru Parampara. In every lecture you stress on being humbler than a blade of grass, more tolerant than a tree and to give respect without expecting any in return.I am trying to serve your instructions to the best of my ability but will need your mercy to achieve it. Maharaj, you are my role model and have received guidance from your senior disciples like Srinivas Acharya Prabhu, Srinivas Gopal Prabhu, Achyut Gopal Prabhu. I have got the special mercy from Shubvilas Govind Prabhu another exemplary disciple of yours who was instrumental in guiding me to chant 16 rounds, read Bhagawatam everyday and follow the 4 regulative principles that eventually lead to initiation.

I have seen a dream before you accepted me as your disciple in 2019 in Washington DC, Potomac temple that I was entering a nice home where Prabhupad was sitting on his easy chair and you were standing beside his lotus feet. And both of you were letting me into the home.

I am having so many challenges and obstacles in the path of bakthi, another disciple of yours Nandini Kishori Mataji and Radhikesh Prabhu gave me good counselling on how to handle the situation.

Hence I can say without doubt that I am truly indebted to you and your wonderful disciples.

Thank you for being such a wonderful spiritual master for all of us. Wishing and praying to Krishna for your good health and comfort.

My humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Your eternal servant

I wanted to express my gratitude and appreciation all your kindness and prayers for my son Jagadeesh who was having health challenges beginning of the year. By your prayers and mercy of the Lord, he is doing well now. You have been merciful to me and my family over years and biggest inspiration to keep us in Krishna consciousness. During Covid years, you extended so much to appear on Zoom calls, and give us your dharshan regularly. We love to see you and hear from you. I get so much nourished just hearing the lectures from past. During last year in Covid, with group of my god brothers and sisters, and aspiring ones, we are able to read Journey home chapter by chapter, and able to remember you more and more. We started a bhakti vriksha program at our home for peoples near by, and it has been going well. We pray to our lordships that they bless you with good health.

Guru-Maharaj, you are the ocean of mercy and friend of all fallen souls. Please be merciful unto me and my family and give us shelter at your lotus feet. We miss so much your physical presence but knows that your presence is always with us, in our minds, in our heart and you will always help us when we are struggling. Thanks you so much Maharaj.

Many times your gave me opportunities to take initiation from you Maharaj, but unfortunately I didn't utilize the chance. I always feel quilt and shame that why I'm not becoming serious in KC. Please forgive me. My sincere prayers to you and Lord Krishna to give me strength and drive me to the right path to become more and more sincere in Krishna Consciousness to go back to gohead.

Maharaj, you have so many inspiring qualities, I'm not qualified to talk but when I think of your good qualities I always remember the perfect example for you how the trees in Vrindavana are bowing down due to their heavy fruits. Chaitanya mahaprabhu explained by describing how a person who has the fruits of good qualities is like a tree with good fruits. The weights of the fruits cause the tree to bow down to everyone. But a tree that doesn't have good fruits stands up very straight, doesn't bow to anyone.

One of the qualities I like the most is your simplicity. Your simple sweet smile and glance gives me so much of strength. Your character shows that you are as humble as blade of grass. Krishna shows in many examples he likes simple and humble devotees. I know it's very hard to be but I will try to be like simple and humble.

Please accept my humble obeisance's again and again.All glories to your service!

Dear Radhanath Swami,

Please accept my humble obeisances,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I wish you the utmost joy and blessings on your Vyasa Puja. We have only briefly met once at my local temple where I felt so incredibly fortunate to hear you speak and sing His Holy Names and have you sign my copy of The Journey Home. Though having only met you once you have inspired me tremendously, being a sure and steady light for me on my spiritual journey for two years now.

For so many you embody the characteristics of spiritual perfection and are a true example of selflessness, compassion, humility and devotion towards Krishna and one's guru maharaj. In dark times of doubt and uncertainty all that is needed for me is to see just a picture of you or hear one of your lectures and I find myself inwardly and outwardly smiling, filled with encouragement and a renewed sense of determination. When I turn towards your direction and guidance I begin to feel the dark tides of spiritual insecurity recede and the light and joy of devotion begin to rise once again in my heart.

I will always be forever thankful for your presence in my spiritual life. I seek someday to serve you more fully as one of your disciples.

May this auspicious day meet you with the love of all of those whose lives you have touched. You are a light to us all in this dark material world. Thank you.

All Glories To Srila Prabhupada,

I hear your lectures regularly. Especially in the face of obstacles and turmoil your lectures are my solace. Every time I hear your lecture I get more faith and deeper understanding in Krishna Consciousness. My convictions get refreshed, rejuvenated and further strengthened by your lectures. Recently I was going through some self help books. I saw that you spoke on such practical topics from a very Krishna Conscious way yet very practically sensible and applicable way. This gave me a lot of confidence that in Krishna consciousness we have everything included. Your presence and example is a great blessing in my life. On this auspicious occasion of your vyasa puja, please bless us with strength and fixedness to follow your instructions. On this day I'm determined, fixed to receive initiation from your lotus feet. Kindly bless.

On this day of your vyas puja, I would like to express my gratitude towards you in changing my course of life. I would be eternally indebted to you for accepting me as your disciple and taking me in the fold of this ISKCON family. You have introduced us to Srila Prabhupada and we came to know how much pain he has to undergo to built this organization. You are a perfect example of how a disciple should carry the mood of his guru. In carrying out GEV project you have accomplished Srila Prabhupada's long pending desire to build such farm community and bring Vrindavan closer to people. Your simplicity and humility inspite of such a great stature is what attracts everyone. Thank you guru Maharaj for all those lectures where we could see the Dhams like Vrindavan through your eyes without even physically visiting it. I would pray at lotus feet of Lord for your health and may you continue to guide us with your vani and vapu.

VEDANT (CHICAGO, USA)

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet.

I am very grateful to Srila Prabhupad and devotees for giving me chance to meet you and take shelter under you. I feel this is the most possible fortunate gift one can receive in his life, for this I will be eternally indebted to all. The only way I can give some amount back and please Srila Prabhupad and devotees is to always remain sheltered at your lotus feet by serving you and devotees with my full capacity and desire.

This material world is meaningless without understanding the purpose of the creation. Your realizations and purport on the different interactions of yours with nature give me a different view and sense to learn from them. You always focus on the aspect of Gratitude which is like the solid concrete base to higher principles of the Krsna Consciousness. With this base, everything seems relevant and practical to me. The foremost quality which will keep one going in Krsna Consciousness is Humility, which you exhibit by your every action, word, and thought. This humility is what attracted me to you at first sight. I deeply take shelter in your words and instructions although I am very much struggling to follow them.

I am here today after many years of practice still unable to keep up with the principles and instruction, I feel very much ashamed and guilty for it. My only hope is Balaram Shakti (Guru's Grace). I with my sincerest heart and desire offer my prayers to you – to always keep your merciful glance and blessing upon this jiva. I know you are always praying and giving your blessings to all the disciples and well-wishers, and this is what kept me going till now in KC and will keep also.

Thank you for all the limitless gifts of blessings and bliss in KC.

I am longing for your physical association.

Maharaj just by recalling what all I have received from you I can say it as a fact that I could have never come across pure devotional service without you.

As Srila Prabhupada use to say, pure devotional service is simple but not easy. I am also the one who is struggling in Bhakti. Currently I am at the lower sadhana level of bhakti still just by thinking about your life boosts me up.

although Bhakti is natural to soul still I find it difficult at this conditioned stage. hopefully by your grace I will be dragged to perfection.

currently in my new ashram I am trying to settle my material life. I am already married and now the father of little daughter. My contribution to Srila Prabhupada's mission is negligible. I am always been encouraged by your devotees to swiftly progress on the path of pure devotional service. Here at my home town I have many opportunities to serve the mission. And I desire to serve in such a way that it will be pleasing to you.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to your esteemed self.

It is indeed the wonderful day of your appearance and therefore, appropriate to glorify you, even though you are qualified to be glorified always.

It is well known that your mercy knows no bounds and that is why you have taken it upon yourself to deliver so many fallen and conditioned souls like us. We are eternally grateful to you for taking this arduous job upon yourself.

In the past year, we have had the chance to do some of the transcription Seva of your lectures. It is very soothing to our hearts to hear your sweet voice and your instructions regularly. We are still not very realized, that's why we have not developed any genuine attachment to your instructions.

This pandemic has taken a toll not only on many of our Godbrothers but also many Srila Prabhupada disciples and other people too. But hearing your lectures and kirtanas, seeing you online in many broadcasts has kept us going. Also, what has given us hope is even though you too are grieving for the many souls who have passed on, you have given us the right perspective to understand this difficult situation.

There have been difficult family situations amongst devotee friends, but it is only your instructions that have kept us going. You have consoled many leaving devotees, speaking kind words to them, encouragingly cajoling them to call out to Sri Radha Gopinath, assuring them that they are in the loving embrace of Sri Radha Gopinath and thus they can peacefully leave this world. We are amazed by your capacity to love everyone and anyone. Otherwise, what else can impel you to speak these loving words to a dying person, telling him that you are praying for him and you are eternally grateful for his association? Because of your genuine desire to serve this soul, Sri Sri Radha Gopinath has made the arrangement for him to reach out and connect to you.

We hear in your classes your interactions with your Godbrothers, when you are glorifying them, you are doing it out of true love and affection for them. They love you too, because they are feeling your genuine nature.

Dear Guru Maharaj, you are one of a kind.

We pray to be of some service to you, match your expectations as your disciples, live up to our vows and most importantly, render service in the mood of the servant of the servant.

Praying for your good health and long life of service dedicated to Srila Prabhupada and to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath.

I am extremely grateful to you for all you have given us yatras, lectures, counsellor system and your exemplary disciples who always guide us.

This year we took our parents to wada farm Govardhan ecovillage. It was an amazing experience. All beautiful temples, govardhan pooja, yamuna aarti, manmandir kirtan, prasad, loving association of devotees was so pleasing to heart. Everyone experienced sri vrindavan dham yatra and old parents could get spiritual experience with so much comfort. Everyone planned to visit GEV again and again.

On this auspicious day of vyaspooja I pray to Lord jagnnath baladev subhdramai and Lord sri sri Radha Gopinath to give you best of health.

Dear Gurudeva

Pls accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet. Thank you very much Maharaj for accepting me as your servant, Though my words cannot actually glorify you because I am submerged in complete material consciousness which cannot touch and reach up to you because you are completely transcendental ,however would try to express my heartfelt feelings for you.

Dear Gurudeva in these tough years of Pandemic I have realized how fortunate I was to get association of you and your exalted servants specially during the Dham Yatra. Those 10-15 days of yatra were of such an intense transcendental experience which would kept me driving throughout the Year. Your lectures were like guided spiritual tour to the inner most pastimes of lord . Though you and devotees have arranged such a nice facility of online yatra, I somehow miss those "Spiritually guided Tours".

Dear Gurudeva your quality of abstracting the essence of all the instructions of scriptures and explaining in such a practical and simple way so that all of us could understand and apply in our life ,is most unique gift to all of us and mercy of Krishna on all of us. Like in absence of Physical Yatras you so mercifully arranged facility of online yatra ,where we could get your association and got so immensely benefitted .You explained once "Vani is more important than Vapu" because Vani is for ever, Dear Gurudeva Pls bless me so that I could also realize it once.

Dear Gurudeva as you have explained "The easiest way to make advancement is to feel genuinely happy by seeing and celebrating the success and advancement of another devotees" is such an important lessons for all of us because if we could remove envy for Krishna and his devotees and feel happy about it we would also get the mercy of lord. Pls bless so that I could also get rid of mountain of envy of my heart .

Dear Gurudeva by your causeless mercy last year was specially fortunate for me, where by the arrangement of Noida Temple ,I could be once again be engaged in Preaching service almost after 7-8 years of gap, when I had the similar service opportunity . By your mercy at least few families have shown some interest to revive their connection with Krishna. Pls bless so that I could continue this seva and remain in service of Srila Prabhupada and Yours.

Dear Gurudeva I have limitless faults and in capabilities but your mercy is my only hope.Pls bless so that I could always serve you and your servants in a way which pleases you .

Offering to Spiritual Master HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj on the occasion of his 71st Vyasa Puja :

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, Please Accept my humble obeisance. All Glories to Srila Prabhupad and Sri Sri Radha Vrindavanchandra.

A Spiritual Master has very special place in the heart of disciple. Being the representative of Maharshi Veda-Vyas Muni, a Spiritual Master always spreads the message of godhead and distributes the pure love of godhead. Guru Maharaj you come in exactly same lineage of Vyas Muni. You are compassion personified Guru Maharaj. The first sentence I heard directly from you was how by the mercy of Krishna a person gets Guru and how by the mercy of Guru one gets Krishna. Really to speak Guru Maharaj, its our greatest fortune of life that you are our Spiritual Master. You have been the 1st Sanyasi in Iskcon I witnessed, You are the 1st Guru in Iskcon I saw in the early days and you are Spiritual Master as well , its an extreme delight for me.

You are embodiment of all good qualities Guru Maharaj. I remember the 1st yatra I attended in 2002 that of Vrindavan. You smiled to me, talked to me for minute – that really touched my heart. During Tirupati Temple opening, I was so happy to receive small cookie given by you directly. I have no qualities Guru Maharaj, But still you gave your mercy to me.

You have created Vrindavan Dham at Govardhan Eco Village for the benefit of all Vaisnavas. We witnessed how every corner of GEV you have poured your heart everywhere creating the atmosphere of enchantment whereby devotees take positive vibrations and return back with renewed enthusiasm in doing the sadhana.

Thank you for everything you have given us Guru Maharaj. Very Grateful to you forever for giving us the essential teachings and nourishments in Krishna Consciousness.

Please keep us in your shelter Guru Maharaj.

As a lamp in a windless place does not waver, so the transcendentalist, whose mind is controlled, remains always steady in his meditation on the transcendent Self.

PURPORT

A truly Krsna conscious person, always absorbed in Transcendence, in constant undisturbed meditation on his worshipable Lord, is as steady as a lamp in a windless place.

Guru Maharaja, Whenever I have heard your lectures online in the past 2 years of this Lockdown, I have always remembered this sloka. Same seat, same background of Srila Prabhupadas book shelf, same angle and there you are sitting fully absorbed in telling Krishna katha. Whether it is Kartik Yatra, Janmashatami, Radhaastami, Gaur Pournima, Narshima Jayanti or any other live stream, you are fully absorbed in to it without moving an inch from that seating place. Completely oblivious to the church bells which are ringing every 15 minutes, the ringing of landline calls or any mobile. With full focus and concentration and with a consistent delightful smile and some occasional full-hearted laughs, you are completely absorbed in Krishna. And the most wonderful thing is that, all the thousands and thousands of us, hearing you, also get absorbed into your lectures, not matter, where we might be. That is the glory of you Guru Maharaja. All glories to H H Radhanath Swami.

Your servant / Vijay Gopal Das , Daivi Priya Gopi DD , Krishnalila Das and Dhruv.

Hare Krishna Maharaj ji,

Please Accept My Humble Obeisances,

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Maharaj ji first of all thank you so much for taking birth in this world for the elevation of fallen souls like me. I never saw you in person but try to associate with you through your lectures. I always have wonderful experience after hearing your lecture and always learnt lot's of things from your lecture which helps me too much in my devotional service. Your contribution to this mission of lord Chaitanya and Prabhupada is very significant. I always observe your disciples Maharaj ji they all have very great enthusiasm and very affectionate attitude towards fallen souls because they all are in the shelter of your mercy. I also wanted to be the part of your family Maharaj ji. although i don't have any qualification to serve or please you still I pray to Krishna, Radharani, Prabhupada and You that please bestow you mercy upon me so that one day I will please you with my service.

Your Servant,

VIKRAMA KRSNA DAS (MUMBAI , INDIA)

Hare Krishna Sri Gurudeva , Dandavat Pranams, You have always been my inspiration and i always think of you whenever feeling low or feeling defeated . I always think of all the hardships and the trouble you have taken for spreading the message of Srila Prabhupada. The hardships of physical health where we have seen you preaching even when you have fever or you may not have enough sleep or no sleep for many days, even when your hands are trembling due to bad health and still playing the harmonium for pleasure of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathji and several such hardships which may be at different levels be it at mental level , economical level , oppositions from others etc which we may never ever come to know and you still keep marching ahead with a smile , tirelessly, never complaining and taking all the pains to deliver the fallen souls. Thank you for everything dear GuruMaharaj.

VIKRANT CHAUDHARY (INDIA)

Dear Maharaj Ji, it takes a lot of courage and conviction not to follow the herd and herd over here is this world and it's attractions. It is your kind leadership and guidance which gives devotees the conviction not to follow the herd i.e to swim against the stream. Your journey home in reality is a journey taken on behalf of devotees so that we are on the right spiritual path. Thank you for being there for us .

VILAS MANJARI DEVI DASI (VILNIUS, LITHUANIA)

Dear Gurumaharaj,

please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

So many turbulences people have been experiencing around the world in recent years but you're so kind, so loving, so genuinely devoted to the service to Krishna, Srila Prabhupada, the ISKCON mission and the service to each and everyone that you're continueing preaching and giving. It's very inspiring to see. I can't even keep up and listen to all the recordings of your even most recent talks, what to speak of the mountain of all of your lectures recorded some time back. Even a thought that there is a person, a truly saintly person, in this world keeps me in my spiritual path with all of its ups and downs. I suppose people desperately need such an example, an embodied inspiration, someone to be in awe with and amazed by.

Thank you for being such a person!

Missing your association in person. Hopefully, Krishna-willing, I'll have mercy to see you again.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, Dandavats pranaam! All glories to Srila prabhupad ! I'm deeply feeling gratitude for your holiness message in every lecture , the essence go so much together inline with what Is present in my situation and that has given me enormous amount of happiness and made me change a lot. I feel gratitude when I touch upon your verses in lecture that deeply condemn my bad , satisfy my longing for deep understanding the subjects that you talk about. Your senior disciples are my most dearest as each one of them are gem of the crown, with variety of opulences. The rays of the moon have the same nature as moon itself. Similarly they all have flown from your shelter serving us everyday in their sessions and lectures. My deepest gratitude for each one of them. With you being in the boat , and with the corner shelter of your eyes I have the greatest fortune that can uplift me, and one day my humbleness and qualities of surrendering developing in me by only your mercy, can take me back home back to godhead. In my present condition, I'm sure it can take many lives but I'm ready to struggle and achieve it at the end. By only your causeless compassion and mercy I'm initiated and I'm struggling to fulfill my responsibilities in family. I have a longing to genuinely surrender and be absorbed continuously in Krishna consciousness for which I want to only beg for your mercy to improve myself. I aspire to be your servant of the servants of the servants always.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaj

In such a state of mind one can chant the holy name of the Lord constantly.” (Śikṣāṣṭaka 3)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Dear Maharaj,

You are an ocean of mercy, and that is the reason you want to distribute this spiritual knowledge to the whole world sacrificing your time, energy and health. Your compassionate nature is making the people submit to your instructions unconditionally and lovingly. I have so many faults and have made so many mistakes in my life, still you have accepted me, I am feeling very eternally grateful to you. Your evergreen transcendental smile, your concern for everyone is making us so comfortable giving us a feeling that we are sheltered and protected. After so many years in KC, I am still faltering at every step in my life and still learning many life-changing lessons from your valuable instructions. I am falling short of words to describe your qualities, which in itself is an ocean. I also know you are praying for each and every one of us, otherwise how is it possible for us to lead such a blissful and happy life in KC? Our hope is in your prayers and your loving care for all of us. We cannot thank you enough for all that you have done for us.

VITTHAL BIHARI DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept our humble obeisances,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Your journey before joining Srila Prabhupada's movement and after joining, both are very extra ordinary. Your determination to search for god, is exactly like determination of Dhruva Maharaj. Dhruva maharaj left home, without caring for personal comforts and sefty in jungle. Same way you also left your home and country without caring for which all situations you will face in your route. Your travel from middle east countries was more dangerous than jungles. After reaching your dream land India also, your travel to various places, meeting with various people are unimaginable. In travel you met all kinds of people from genuine to hypocrates. But in your book you never have talked anything bad about them, you always focused on taking good out of them. You are like honeybee, who always take good, leaving bad aside.

Hearing about your austerities in new Vrindavan is also thrilling. Your everyday services were milking cow, making Bhoga, worshiping, offering bhoga etc. Your only resting time was, if at all you get some time in between two offering. This is unimaginable to a condition soul like us. This can only be done by person who has completely surrendered to supreme lord.

Dear Guru Maharaj, Your favourite shloka, which you quote offen in your lectures, is perfectly seen in you. Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu says in shikshastakam,

tṛṇād api sunīcena

taror api sahiṣṇunā

amāninā mānadena

kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ.

After joining Srila Prabhupada, you were assigned under one authority in new Vrindavan. There you followed your authority with complete surrender. Accepted every service assigned to you. There you perfectly showed your mood as tṛṇād api sunīcena.

In your travel from west to east and within India, you tolerated all kinds of people, seasons, difficult situations in forest and caves of Himalayas are perfect example of taror api sahiṣṇunā

In your talks, book you always talked good about people you met, is showing your amāninā mānadena quality.

And your meditation on all seven temple deities of Vrindavan, everyday before going bed. Creating Vrindavan in GEV, is perfect kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ example.

Dear Guru Maharaj, you are perfect personification of teachings of lord Chaitanya and Srila Prabhupada.

Narottam Das Thakur says in his bhajan, radha-krishna na bhajiya, janiya suniya visha khainu. Dear Gurudev, our life is exactly like that. We dont have any taste in the service of Radha Krishna and His devotees. We are everyday, knowingly or unknowingly drinking poison of material pleasure. Our only hope is your lotus feet. Please bless us that, we will get some taste to serve Radha Krishna and devotees.

Dearmost Srila Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine Lotus Feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your love for Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you a very happy Vyasa Puja, praying for my eternal service at your divine shelter.

I pray for your long healthy life and indefinite continued years of service to Srila Prabhupada.

- O savior of the fallen, due to my own ignorance, I had forgotten the real Goal of my Life and got trapped in the lusty allurements of this temporary world.

- 2011, on the construction site of NVCC temple in Pune, first time I saw you in saffron robes, spreading the saffron aroma of your sweet words with your friend Gary, while launching “The Journey Home” book. I consider that day to be the most fortunate day of my life. First time I felt humbled when I realised the deep respect and emotions of your disciples. Their willingness to please Krishna by serving you was so captivating. I am eternally grateful to Lord for that arrangement.

- Dear Gurudev, I have been a sinner and has no qualification to describe your glories. Still I’m trying... Even in these tough Covid times, you’re inspiring everyone by writing books, giving lectures, meeting so many people virtually and not taking much personal service from others. You are a true renunciate.

- I whole heartedly want to thank you for giving Kolkata Dham Yatra this Kartik month, after which I felt inspired to go to Kolkata and felt fortunate after eating the divine dust of Srila Prabhupada’s birthplace. First time I felt through your words, that “Kolkata is the Gateway to Sridham Mayapur.”

- Your hard working capacity is beyond calculations. In one of your recent address on Transcribing Project, we came to know that you have already read more than 800 pages of transcription to write your book on Yatras. I really felt ashamed at myself as definitely I haven't read 800 pages of Srila Prabhupada's divine books in last 1 year.. or even more than that. But I also felt immensely inspired by your grace.

- Srila Gurudev, i am a bad instrument and you are an expert musician. Kindly make me hear your harmonica and harmonize with your desire.

- You are an epitome of Humility and Tolerance. Please give me the understanding by which I can wear the the offered garland of Trinadapi Sunichena Tarorapi sahishnuna around my neck.

- You are my most respectable spiritual guide, please speak through me when I attempt to pass on the compassion of Srila Prabhupada to other jivas.

- Through your merciful glance filled with compassion, please make me use my little capacity to understand that somehow I have to surrender as an insignificant instrument of your mercy and work hard towards pleasing you. So many opportunities came and I casually denied. But I no longer wish to displease you.

- O my dearmost master, please make me use my intelligence to save myself from unwanted weeds and creepers and pick the right seed of devotion. I might severely hurt myself in this rat race. Kindly pick me up. Kindly save me.

VIVEK PHADKE (BANGALORE, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj

Please accept my humble obeisances.

This is my first vyasa puja offering to you since the time I heard about you in 2015. My first introduction to you happened when my counsellor gave me your lectures to hear after I had completed basic series of SP and DD lectures. First lecture I heard from you was on Anartha series. These lectures affected me very deeply and I felt this was real commitment to the KC process – to seriously try to overcome the anarthas. Your analysis on ego and lust striked a cord with me, as I had never analysed my life in this way. I got a realization yes I have ego , lust, envy pride all of them. I started to ask my counsellor about who was the person he gave the lectures of. It was at totally different level of lectures. I felt if at all I have to accept a guru , I would blindly choose you Maharaj. Later I started attending Pune yatras and Kartik yatras. My counsellor told me about your journey much before your book came. Year after year Maharaj my conviction in KC kept on increasing. Yourself and your amazing family of disciples nurtured me and this still keeps me in KC. Maharaj whenever I find difficulty and confusion I just try to medidate on you , your teachings, and that gives me clarity. I have faced numerous difficulties in life due to anarthas and still facing them- due to subtle and gross karma in the form of anarthas.

Please give me guidance and help me cross this material world of misery and while being in this world help me to live a life free on sin and fixed in KC.

I thank you so Maharaj for appearing in this world and leading us in the path of KC. Your amazing qualities of sense control, dedication to Guru, seriousness and depth in KC, vaisnava qualities, compassion etc to name a few of your oceanic qualities inspire me so much. I cannot see Krishna, but through you I can experience what it means to be in the spiritual world and to love Krishna.

As I have time constraints, I had to write a short offering Maharaj.

But I commit to myself that I will write a detailed offering to you to express my heart in detail before your vyasa puja.

Thank You Maharaj , than you so much

I am grateful to you for accepting me under your shelter through your own very wonderful deciple HG Ras Vigrah Prji and HG Bhakti Nidhi Mataji. They both are very very great and magnanimous and on this day I beg at Your Lotus Feet for the strength and sincerity to serve both of them to the full of my capacity. vraj sampat das

VRAJ VIJAY DAS (INDIA)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

To be honest, I don't feel as if I belong here and I don't even deserve to be here. Just to illustrate my point, here are a few examples.

When I was studying for Bhakti Shastri, everyone (and I mean everyone) in the class would repeat and learn the Sanskrit slokas in 5 minutes, just by repeating 3 times. And it would take me at least a week of daily repeating to somehow or the other learn it.

Even when I try to learn a new Hare Krishna tune on the harmonium, my wife learns it in only an hour or a day max. And it takes me 2-3 months, minimum. And that also is very 'iffy' to say the least.

Even while doing Shringar Seva for Laxmi Narayanji, I'm the slowest to dress them up. The other pujaris get perturbed that time for opening darshan is nearing.

Even when I came to the temple for the first time, I was invited by a girl I was interested in. So I came for her, not for Krishna. Who does that? Who chases a girl to a temple?

Even when I received initiation, I was the last person. In fact, I was No. 331. There were 331 disciples who received initiation from you on that auspicious day, and I was last one. And when I was getting the badge from a brahmachari (badge No. 331 - one of my most priced possessions) he said, "You are the last one. By some grace marks you have just managed to enter here today."

And what he said was so, so true. In my entire Krishna Consciousness, I'm constantly reminded that I'm here by grace marks. I'm the odd one out. The black sheep of the Radha Gopinath family, which is brimming with pure, pious, honest and sincere practitioners - who are probably here because they have done some good and earned some sukruti from their previous lives. And it clearly shows in how easily they learn, progress and take seva up.

But then, how am I here? And why am I here? I know, I've done no-good in this life, that's for sure. And I'm pretty sure, I've done no-good in my previous lives as well - the anarthas in my heart, the ridiculous conditioning, the abominable thoughts in my mind are a constant reminder of that fact.

So the only answer is, I'm here by your grace. Your compassion. Your tolerance. Your kindness. Your infinite acceptance of me. Your unlimited love on a person who does not deserve to be here, whatsoever.

Hopefully Maharaj, again (only with your grace, which I can't live without), someday I can make your acceptance towards me worth your while.

Forever and eternally in debt of your grace, compassion and acceptance.

Your odd son,

Vraj Vijay Das.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

All Glories to You

My best wishes to you for your long and healthy life on this auspicious day. I remember the day when you accepted me as your disciple. Before handing me the beads and giving me my name, you said 'Thank You Very Much''. Rather than me thanking you for accepting me as your disciple, you thanked me.

By thanking me you showered your gratitude upon me. Because I was just willing to commit myself to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada, you showered your mercy.

Even then and now and with every passing day, I have realised that I have absolutely no qualification to receive what I have received from you in these many years. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath that, through my words and actions, I become at least a little worthy of your mercy.

Being geographically so far away from you, I have had only a handful of occasions to have your darshan and to hear your instructions, during my Mumbai visits. But I never felt a lack of your presence and your instructions. The expert and loving guidance of your senior disciples have always made me feel your presence.

Thank you very much dear Guru Maharaj

Your Servant

Vraja Bhava Das

VRAJA BHUMI DAS (NEW YORK CITY, USA)

Dearest Srila Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

I wanted to start off by just thanking you for your love and kindness and your willingness to share bhakti wisdom in such a compassionate way. I can't thank you enough for the love that you have shown my parents and my brother, sister-in-law and my nieces, and of course the love you have shown me. I am not worthy, but I pray to Kṛṣṇa every day for the strength to be a good disciple in hopes I can make you happy and serve Mahaprabhu's mission and serve Srila Prabhupada and the vaisnavas.

There's a quote by His Holiness Bhakti Tirtha Swami Maharaj about guru's love

"My child it was not really your screaming, your crying or even your change of consciousness that turned the key. It was the prayers of your spiritual master. For decades your spiritual master has been begging, screaming, and crying to the Supreme Lord on your behalf- even more loudly and feelingly than you have cried."

How do I ever repay you gurudev for all your prayers and patience and love.

These past two years have been so difficult for so many with it being more and more clear that this material world isn't our home, isn't our shelter. The teachings of Srila Prabhupada and other vaisnavas became so much clearer.

When I was working the COVID units in NYC at the beginning of the pandemic, there was so much death and fear. We (physicians/nurses/staff) were even scared to eat food and take off our masks during our 10-12hr shifts, because we did not know if it was safe. Some went hours without even a sip of water; but I had to learn to put this fear aside and take care of these patients with love and compassion as you have spoken about so often. Now today, I mostly see individuals with long covid symptoms. I try to remember you gurudev every morning before I start clinic and try to serve in a mood that you so often teach about.

Dear gurudev, I am continuing to work on myself and become a better servant. I apologize for how long its taking me. Somehow Radharani and Vrindadevi are still so merciful and despite not being able to go to Vrindavan this year for kartik, I was able to collect funds to sponsor a feast for the Brijabasis at Vamsi Vaat. We were also able to sponsor to decorate Vamsi vaat with lamps on the last night of kartik. Devotees from the 24hr kirtan mandali had a wonderful program there along with a kheer distribution at night for the local residents. I hope to understand more and more how to be Vraja Bhumi Das and serve Sri Vrindavan Dham.

Even though we all miss seeing you physically so much, I am grateful for the zoom presentations and association. I am even more grateful that you are staying safe and taking care of your health to your best ability that Kṛṣṇa allows.

I pray Srila Gurudev to continuously be empowered understand more and more what it means to be servant and to be able to serve you and the vaisnavas and this mission. I pray to always remember your compassion and love and remain a servant at your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurumaharaj.

Please accept my respectful obeisances at your Lotus feet.

Wish you a very Happy , Healthy, Krishna conscious appearance day.

Gurumaharaj once again Your Vyasapuja came and once again I have the opportunity to remember Your beautiful qualities and Glorify you if not every day every second

I was listening to.one of the audio clippings and You were describing how important is the mood being chanting the holy names. How we are not taking complete shelter of the Holy names because we have so many other shelters.

Yes Gurumaharaj, I wish I could do that but even after so many years of being in this movement, I still didn't progressed as a devotee and developed complete faith in the process of Krishna consciousness.

I still think I am better then others, I still think I am right, I still think I understand better then others.

Please help me to come out of this cheap mentality of hoping adoration from others.

On this day I request you to please bless me do that I can be of some use to You in the service of Srila Prabhupada

VRAJA MANJARI DEVI DASI (DALLAS, USA)

Hare Krishna Respected Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you a very happy birthday and good health and happiness in Krishna consciousness. My gratitude and heartfelt prayers for having given me your shelter.

As the years go by, my heart grows deeply grateful and profoundly happy for this beautiful blessing of Krishna consciousness. I cannot contain this joy in my heart and just want to share it with everyone I meet.

With this intention, I started Ayurvedic healing programs such as free health sessions, classes and wellbeing consults in my hometown of Dallas. My plan was to slowly guide people to spirituality through the medium of Ayurveda. Through that experience, I learned that people need spiritual healing even more than health advice. Many health issues stemmed from ignorance of the nature of the soul and lack of knowledge of Krishna.

One such client who came for Ayurvedic advice broke down within a few minutes into the session and started sobbing uncontrollably. After I hugged her and consoled her, she confessed that she was with a man for seven years assuming that he would ask her to marry him, but he never did. The anxiety and anguish had devastated her health and emotions. I just wanted to hug her tightly and tell her that Krishna loves her dearly, unconditionally and eternally.

Another client had similar emotional imbalance as indicated by her pulse and she confessed that she had a recent break-up with her boyfriend. She had lost all her eyelashes in one week and was trying very hard to keep a strong front, but was on the breaking point.

These and similar experiences made me realize that it was more important to give spiritual knowledge. Since then, I started Bhagavat Gita reading groups. I made short videos of the basics of KC and tried to encourage my clients and course students to watch them and join the reading groups.

I cannot describe the joy I feel from talking about Krishna and his infinite glories. Every festival is an opportunity to share Krishna's amazing and sweet pastimes. I invite them to the temple to see the beautiful forms of Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji and their devoted devotees.

I remember reading that devotees like to preach more than going back to the spiritual world. I used to wonder how that can be possible. But now I am experiencing the nectar of the infinite bliss of sharing Krishna with the world. I am so grateful that I have the inclination and opportunity to do so. I also introduce people to the Bhakti center and the awesome programs that they offer.

Everyday, I am inspired to perform my sadhana with great diligence so that I may be an effective medium to share Bhakti yoga. I strive to study Prabhupada's books with sincerity so I may be able to understand his profound teachings with the right consciousness. And sharing that knowledge with others helps me to internalize and understand it more deeply and progress in my fight against Maya.

I pray that Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji will always keep their blessings and merciful glance on me. And I seek your guidance and blessings that I may be able to serve Srila Prabhupada in some small way.

Aspiring to be a humble servant

VRAJA RAMAN DAS & SRIJI VALLABHI DEVI DASI (SEATTLE,USA)

Hare Krsna dear Radhanath Swami Maharaj.

Please accept our most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to your HDG AC Bhakitvendra swami Srila Prabhupada.

We feel very fortunate to have this opportunity to participate in this most auspicious event of your vyasa puja celebrations. We don't have any eligibility to understand or appreciate true substance of a pure devotee whose position is transcendental and is beyond the my mundane perceptions and intelligence but still we are making this feeble attempt to speak about your exalted position as you are fully dedicated your life for spreading Srila Pradhupada's movement.

Dear Maharaj, We saw you first time at ISKCON Chicago in 2010 when we started visiting ISKCON temple and it was just our third visit. That time, we had no appreciation of your stature, and just had begun association with devotees there. Although we had no taste for hearing katha and no idea of the subject matter being spoke, your first class itself touched our hearts and brought tears to our eyes . Though we could not define what moved us so much, we just knew that we wanted that moment to continue forever. After that short association we were longing see you again while moving from Chicago to Boise and finally to Seattle. Meanwhile we realized that your grace is always available, in the vani form as lectures and also in the form of your disciples associations. Being new to KC, my material conditionings were holding me back, but taking shelter of this grace is the only way out. We started hearing your class on Gaur lila as a mediation for upcoming guarapoorinma festival which are so full of nectars that we return to them each year before gaurapoornima festival. This was very instrumental in developing our taste for Hari Katha and we started hearing every day . Our desire to see you again was fulfilled when you visited Seattle in 2011 were again your soulful kirtan touched our hearts like never before and It was first time we let go my reservations and danced in great jubilations . Thus your lectures and Kirtans have aroused our desire to serve prabhupada and Krsna in our early days in ISKCON.

Dear Maharaj , although we have nothing concrete to offer to you for this year which we have felt for you but still we would like to mediate on some of your qualities and teachings so that we can become your worthy disciple.

One of your prime teaching, that is close to our hearts is that every situation can be transformed into an opportunity for devotional service. Though this is an art that are yet to learn, this teaching of yours gives us tremendous hope in times of despair.

Dear Maharaj, Your have constantly laid great emphasis on being humble, tolerant, and carrying a sincere service attitude. You are the embodiment of these qualities yourself; and are teaching by example how all devotees should conduct themselves. Time and again, through your lectures, you have made us realize that it to blame, criticize and to find faults with everyone is very ordinary, and easy, but then the flip side is that Krsna leaves from your heart. You always speak about how we must love each other, serve and cooperate with each other. We humble beg at your lotus feet, that I may always remain within the safety net of your instructions, that by your mercy I can drive away these qualities of criticism, faultfinding and blaming and instead embrace the qualities of cooperation and glorifying the goodness in each other.

We pray to Sri Sri Radha Neelamadhava, that this song of Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakura from Saranagati, may be our constant meditation and aspiration. The song is “Gurudev Kripa Bindu” and meaning of the song is as follows:

1) Gurudeva, O spiritual master! Give to this servant just one drop of mercy. I am lower than a blade of grass. Give me all help. Give me strength. Let me be as you are, without desires or aspirations.

2) I offer you all respects, for thus I may have the energy to know you correctly. Then, by chanting the holy name in great ecstasy, all my offenses will cease.

3) When will such mercy fall to this one who is weak and devoid of intelligence? Allow me to be with you.

4) If you examine me, you will find no qualities. Your mercy is all that I am made of. If you are not merciful unto me, I can only weep, and I will not be able to maintain my life.

Dear Gurudev, let our appreciation for you grow every day. Let us realize your transcendental position. And let us become a sincere and serious disciple of yours.

I beg your blessing that we forever remain attached to the society of Srila Prabhupada .We are sincerely able to follow Prabhupada’s instructions and please and serve Vaishnava community here in Seattle.

Hare Krishna Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble & respectful obeisances.

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories unto you.

I really feel indebted to Your Holiness for accepting such a fallen soul like me as a disciple, struggling to maintain sadhna, not at all sincere & serious.

It’s Your causeless mercy which is sustaining me in devotional service. Your Holiness teachings based on humility, gratitude, tolerance, non envious, to be servant of the servant etc. has inspired me a lot in devotional service, even though I am failing everyday to acquire these qualities.

Your Holiness mercy has been poured through so many wonderful lectures, but I am so fallen that I am not yet committed to systemically hear all these nectar.

May Sri Sri Radha Krishna bestow Your Holiness with good health & long life for making the whole world Krishna conscious.

On this auspicious occasion of Your Holiness Vyasa Puja, I beg Your Holiness blessings so that let me become a puppet in Your Holiness hands, by taking up Your Holiness instructions as life and soul, & dance accordingly and be of some use in Srila Prabhupada's mission, to ultimately achieve pure devotional service.

Hare Krishna dearest Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

There is so much to thank you for, that my words can never do justice to the overwhelming joy and strength you have given me since you entered my heart.

When I felt surrounded by overwhelming darkness and caught up with my story, you lifted me up by your indescribable mercy and your presence in my heart continues to do so, each and every day.

The courage and faith I feel in Krishna's plan has grown so deeply since you have accepted me and not a day goes by where I don't experience this tremendous, invaluable difference and priceless gift. Your presence in my life gives me an abundance of joy, insights, realisations, hope and growth.

You have completely changed my life by awakening me and reconnecting me with Srila Prabhupada's endless mercy, incredible vision, otherworldly perseverance and his deeply humble and courageous mood. I simply can't thank you enough and I don't think I will ever be able to express my gratitude on the level that I feel inside.

I only pray to one day become your sincere disciple with unwavering determination, enthusiasm and faith to serve you and Caitanya Mahaprabhu's mission with all my being and to never ever forget and always remember Sri Sri Radha-Krishna.

I pray with all my heart to become an instrument of Radha's grace, in everything I do and will do and I know that this is only possible through your mercy and guidance. I never thought I would be so fortunate to be guided and so supported by you and each day I remind myself of my incredible fortune.

Thank you for seeing in me what I can't see. Thank you for your life-changing support.

Thank you for being the light in my life guiding me back to Sri Sri Radha-Krishna, back Home.

Dear Guru Maharaj, You are epitome of surrender and love. I can see contradictions present in your personality which is humanly impossible - you are very strict to yourself but very kind to others. You do not take credit for yourself but give all credit to others. You eat very austerely but provides opulent feast for others. You give respect to everyone but expect none in return.

You are expert in capturing the hearts of people and offer them to Guru parampara. Your lectures during these pandemic is helping us so much. Always aspiring for your more and more association. Let me live my life simply to please you and your representatives Guru Maharaj. Your mercy is my only hope and my only shelter.

Respected Guru Maharaj, please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

The auspicious occasion of your Vyaspuja is the time to reflect, introspect, feel immensely grateful and be humbled by your grace in our life. This long time of Covid and lockdown has been difficult for many of us. I lost my parents in a span of one year, and so did many devotees loose their near and dear ones. Now, more than ever, we feel the need to take your shelter and be grateful to the connection you have given us to Yourself, your loving disciples and the Guru Parampara. In these times, your message of achieving eternal life by serving the servants of the servants of Krishna with love, simplicity is ringing more and more loudly in my ears.

As I look back in my life and reflect what my parents gave me, taught me, and as I peek into the future to the responsibilities I have to shoulder, I feel great assurance, warmth and hope that your loving and guiding hand is firmly with me. Often I stumble and fall, only to see your towering exemplary personality, always showing the way forward. I pray that we will always be able to see you and serve you through your disciples and followers, who have always stood by us in our difficult and happy times.

VRAJANATHA GOPALA DAS (LONDON, UK)

Dear Śrīla Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories unto the dust of your lotus feet.

Earlier this year I came across an interview of Will Smith taken by Ghanaśyāma-priya Prabhu in which Will revealed that you're his teacher. Reflecting on this, it seems to act as an indication of your very special position in the movement. You're able to appeal to such a wide range of individuals, including those that are very high profile. Will Smith is one of the biggest names in Hollywood and is generally seen as being very cool. This situation reminded me of Śrīmān George Harrison becoming a follower of Śrīla Prabhupāda. I'm sure it will go a long way towards making ISKCON more popular and accessible as well as being seen as more legitimate.

I see my main service to you as being my involvement in ISKCON Redbridge, a devotee community in east London, in which I serve as a member of its leadership team. Over the past 12 months we have been running virtual monthly programmes for our members, but the attendance had dwindled, probably because they were suffering from 'Zoomitis'. We're now running them again in person and our November programme had around 80 attendees. We ran the Bhakti Life course, in which the participants learnt how to live as a member of ISKCON based on the Vaiṣṇava tradition. We will be starting a sanga with this batch of individuals in a few months and we already have another one running for another group of devotees. We visited the Ahimsa farm in the east Midlands a few months ago as a community outing and we've recently introduced going to either the Manor or Soho for guru-puja on a monthly basis. We distributed prasadam for Gaura-pūrṇimā as well. We're finding that there are more and more devotees taking up responsibilities. Their doing so seems to serve as a good indication that we will be able to scale up our activities and thereby help even more jīvas come closer to Kṛṣṇa.

Last year, while my uncle was terminally ill, I contacted a few devotees to find out how I can best serve him at such a time. I followed their guidance but felt that there should be a resource that gave devotees such information. A few years ago, Kripamoya Prabhu published a booklet titled 'What to do when someone dies' for the Hindu community here in the UK. I spoke to him about adapting it for an ISKCON audience; he agreed but with the condition that I produce a framework for it. Despite having minimal experience in playing a pastoral role with bereavements as well as having limited writing skills, I provided your exalted Godbrother with what I thought he was looking for and I got an encouraging response from him. You emphasise that the intervention of a devotee is an essential ingredient in achieving Kṛṣṇa's mercy. It's clear that my ability to produce the framework for Kripamoya Prabhu was only possible due to the intervention of a pure devotee: you.

Thank you for everything you do for me, especially for looking beyond my many faults and not giving up on me.

Dear Gurudev,

Kindly accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you Maharaj.

It is now over 26 years that you have sheltered and nurtured me and our family by your love, compassion and care. You have saved us from the materialistic world and related pitfalls but alas, we still are vulnerable and struggling to focus on the Holy name and take complete shelter of the Holy name and association of devotees. We have given assurance many times in the past that we will become humbler than blade of grass and offer respects to other expecting nothing in return...but still struggling to fulfil our promises. Despite such struggles which are known to you just by your glance at us, you have been merciful to keep us in the association of your wonderful disciples . It is really high time that we realise the value of your gifts- the Temples, the congregation, various projects like Hospital, GEV etc to keep us united and happy in Krishna Consciousness and become worthy of receiving such gifts. Please bless us that we remain united, cooperative with each other and with everyone and serve to your hearts content to please you ,devotees and Srila Prabhupada. Please keep us engaged in your Mission of Compassion.

VYAS ACHARYA DAS (BANGALORE, INDIA)

Respected Guru Maharaj,

Hare Krishna. Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to you. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Gauranga.

Thank you for showering your causeless mercy upon us through your vani which is like soothing rain in scorching desert. As we all grow individually as devotees and collectively as ISKCON, we are coming across more diversity than ever before, especially in the world of internet and social media. While broad mindedness is good, it should not hamper our loyalty to Srila Prabhupada. While diversity is good, it should not come at the cost of our unity. We all have heard how principles are to be preserved while details can be adjusted according to time, place and circumstances. However, as we grow, there is a danger of mistaking principles to be details and details to be principles. Indeed, in Chaitanya Charitamrta, different deviant philosophies are compared to crocodiles. Amidst all this Guru Maharaj, your vani, your clear, simple, direct, penetrating presentation of pure Krishna Consciousness - which is at the same time very relevant to our time, place and circumstances - is nothing short of much needed rain in a scorching desert. In the face of any confusion or just when I am about to become complacent in spiritual life, taking shelter of your lectures gives a solace like nothing else and opens our eyes to how much there is for us to work on ourselves. Your lectures expose the similarities and differences between pseudo Krishna Consicousness and real Krishna Consciousness. Thank you very much Maharaj for being accessible to us always through your vani. Knowledge is a double edged sword. I pray for your blessings that I may develop the right humility and attitude to be able to understand and apply your lectures they way you mean them to be.

Maharaj, I have heard from some senior disciples of yours that every Acharya stands for something. Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur stood for defeating Mayavada. Srila Prabhupada stood for using everything in Krishna's service. You stand for cooperation. I am deeply touched by your amazing quality of entering into the hearts of whoever you touch with your kind, gentle, sensitive, understanding and yet non-compromising behavior. You are a king of relationships. Thank you Maharaj for teaching by your example that we can stand by our principles and yet extend our warmth to one and all attracting every one to the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada. On this most auspicious day of your Vyas Puja, Maharaj, I beg you for a drop of this quality so that I can properly represent you in my dealings with everyone.

It is said that we value something only when it is taken away from us. I would like to confess that after attending Kartik yatras for several years I had started becoming a bit choosy about attending the yatras, especially with respect to attending it full or half. As we know we didn't have physical yatras for two years now and it is enough to make us realize their importance in our spiritual lives. The yatras led by you are an important annual boost to our spiritual lives and I wish to take this opportunity to tell you how much we miss them. We are hankering for the day when our yatras will resume.

Last year in December my father (your disciple, HG Krishna Krida pr) was diagnosed with a brain tumor. He has been actively and selflessly involved in various services in ISKCON Pune since many years. However, the pandemic and the tumor had come as a big obstacle in his services. By the support, prayers and blessings of all devotees, the surgery went well and as he recovers he is back rendering services in ISKCON NVCC, Pune. I am sure Maharaj that you have prayed for him implicitly or explicitly and want to thank you for that from the core of my heart. I also take this opportunity Maharaj to seek your prayers and blessings for my other family members who are all your disciples - my mother (HG Sudha Lakshmi mtj), my brother (HG Paavan Nitai pr), my sister-in-law (HG Radhika Ruchi mtj), my sife (Sundari Vishakha devi dasi) and the four children in our family (Pradyumna, Parth, Prahlad and Radhika). My sister-in-law's father, Shri Shrinivas Gupta, passed away a few days back in Kanpur due to brain haemorrhage. He has been very favorable to Krishna Consicousness and an active contributor to ISKCON Kanpur. I seek your prayers and blessings for the departed soul. You often say, "do not ask for blessings. Ask for service, blessings will follow". I pray that all of us can be whole heartedly and blissfullly engaged in following your instructions and contributing to the mission of Srila Prabhupada till our last breath. This is surely something beyond our qualification and capacity, but we have faith in your mercy and empowerment for the same.

It has been a little over a year and a half since I, my wife (Sundari Vishakha devi dasi) and children (Prahlad and Radhika) have moved to Bangalore from Pune/Mumbai. I regret that we have not yet been able to render enough services the way you would expect us to. We may have our excuses for that, but as you often say, "if you look for excuses, Maya will give you 108 excuses!". We pray at your lotus feet Maharaj so that we get the required strength to become better sadhakas and better sevakas and better soldiers in the army of Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. Several years back during the launch of The Journey Home in Bangalore, we were fortunate to receive your mercy through several opportunities of service and also through your vapu association. Though we cannot demand, but we continue to hanker for more such opportunities in future.

Thank you very much,

Your aspiring servants,

Vyas Acharya das and family.

हरे कृष्णा महाराज तुम्ही प्रत्येक लेक्चर मध्ये सांगितले की कृष्णभक्ती सहज मिळत नाही परंतु महाराज आपण आमच्या संपर्कामध्ये येऊन आम्हाला खूप काही भगवत ज्ञान दिले महाराज मी आपणास ओळखत नव्हते काही वर्षापूर्वी माझ्या शिक्षा गुरूंकडून आपला संपर्क आला तसेच तेव्हा मी आपल्या बरोबर खूप काही यात्रा केल्या त्यांनी माझ्या अध्यात्मिक जीवनामध्ये बरीच प्रगती झाली

असे मला वाटते काही वर्षा पूर्वी महाराज तुम्ही मला दीक्षा देऊन आपली सेवा करण्याची संधी दिली त्याबद्दल महाराज आपले खूप खूप धन्यवाद आपल्या प्रवचन मधून मी बरेच काही अध्यात्मिक शिक्षण घेतले. महाराज तुमच्या द जर्नी होम या पुस्तकातून खूप काही शिकायला मिळाले व अध्यात्मिक ऊर्जा मिळाली त्यावेळी तुमच्या जीवन प्रवासामध्ये तुम्हाला किती दुःख झाले तुम्ही किती हाल-अपेष्टा भोगल्या त्या एकूण खरंच दुःख वाटले पण तुम्ही अध्यात्मिक जीवनामध्ये यशस्वी झालात. महाराज मला एक आठवण सांगावीशी वाटते तुम्ही एकदा गोपाल गार्डन्स हायस्कूल मध्ये आला होता तेव्हा तुम्ही आपल्या गळ्यातील हार मला दिला होता तेव्हा खूप खूप आनंद वाटला . महाराज तुम्ही दिलेल्या अध्यात्म कृती संधीचा मी माझ्या जीवनामध्ये उपयोग खूप उपयोग करून घेईल व श्री श्री राधा गोपीनाथ यांच्या चरणी मी सेवा करण्याचा प्रयत्न करीन.

Hare Krishna Maharaj you said in every lecture that devotion to Krishna is not easy but Maharaj you came in contact with us and gave us a lot of Bhagwat knowledge. Maharaj I did not know you. I think there has been a lot of progress in life. Thank you very much Maharaj for giving me the opportunity to serve you by initiating me a few years ago. I learned a lot from your discourse. Maharaj, I learned a lot from your book The Journey Home. I was really saddened by how much you suffered in your life's journey, how much you suffered, but you succeeded in your spiritual life.

Maharaj, I would like to remind you that once you came to Gopal Gardens High School, I was very happy when you gave me your garland. Maharaj, I will use the opportunity of spiritual instructions given by you in my life and I will try to serve in the footsteps of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath.

WAITING FOR INITIATION (BANGALORE)

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please Accept my Humble Obeisance's

All Glories to you, to Srila Prabhupada and to all our Parampara acharyas !

Hare Krishna !

I was there in Bangalore due to job change, went to Pune, that's the time where all devotees had gone to Puri Yatra 2018. but a lonely hearing lecture on each day without fail sharp @6-30, joining live YouTube channel as soon as start hearing your lotus-like words from Sri Chaitanya Charitamrita. Mahaprabhu Past times in Puri, really amazed and felt so ecstasy, since I was there alone, sometimes I danced a lot, in other times I cried a lot, and in other times, I felt so distress, big laugh, because I emerged in your lecture and teachings from Mahaprabhu past times all your Yatra lecture, it had so much effect on My devotional life, from there I took the devotional service life and soul. Thank you so much Maharaja, for all your kind lessons to this fallen soul.

Whenever I hear your talks, dealings with devotees and Lord's past times, it really shocks my heart and mind, any distress, material desire; it immediately disappears and awakens a relationship with Krishna and his devotees. Few lessons and points which I could recall from your lecture.

Even though you're so far from me in physically, you are always with me through your teachings and your disciples guidance. One word of love will completely change the heart of a person. This quality we see in you, Maharaj. It is because of your loving and caring attitude that your disciples have been able to preach to thousands of people all over the world. Your humility and simplicity and desire to serve selflessly attract the hearts of so many people.

I have learned so much in devotion from your teachings, like taking up services under guidance, dedicating results to lordship, not aspiring for name and fame, following rules and regulations very strictly without any deviation.

I can share thousands of lessons learned from your teachings, but I only aspire to you, Maharaja.

The only hope to continue in Krishna Consciousness is your kindness, actions, loving relationship with Devotees and stressing on Srila Prabhupada teachings.

Thank you for being in my life, Maharaj.

Thank you for showing by example how to tune in and be a part of this divine symphony.

Your Sincere Servant,

YASHOMATI PRAN DAS (RISHIKESH)

Hare krishna Guru Maharaj, please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I wish to serve your lotus feet purely, as long as possible and as much as possible. And for this I seek ur sincere blessings. Personally I always fall short in my attempts to serve Guru Parampara. Here in Rishikesh by ur grace I have such a rich association of HG Madhvacharya pr (very simple and devoted vaishnava), HG Radhakund pr (a fatherly figure filled with humour), HG Hare Krishna pr (simple and shrewd in service to guru and K), HG Dina Gopal p (a surrendered soul committed to please his superiors), HG Chaitanya Lila pr (a caring preaching), HG Prem Gauranga pr (addicted to SP's Vani) and several others equally dedicated souls.

I know u always emphasise and want loving cooperation to always exist amongst vaishnavas. I pray to u to give me strength to worship and serve all these vaishnvas to my heart and soul despite any conflict that may occur due to my lacking.

In ur character I have seen... U take Krishna very personally and hence maya otherwise. But it's just opposite in my case. I heard once when u were offered the peda prasad of Radha Raman ji by Their pujari, u took all of it although generally u would not take so much of sweet that too a simple peda. U took it as to honor the prasadam of Radha Raman ji. If I were in ur case probably I would also have taken all but in some other spirit.

Please Maharaj forgive this poor soul and give ur kind shelter so that I can spend this whole life in ur's and SP's service. Hare krishna. Pl forgive me for the offences I committed knowingly and unknowingly. I pray to Radharani to give me ur association always. Yas yps

YASHWANT SHETTY (PUNE)

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj, please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

On the auspicious occasion of your Vyas puja I wish to express my gratitude for your causeless mercy that I have received.

It is very inspiring Guru maharaj the way you have received mercy of SP. From the very beginning of your life you were having faith on the Lordship and prayerful mood. Your inquisitive nature and desire to attain Lord made you go through the journey of life and brought you to SP and Krishna. Throughout this Journey you have received many realisation and wisdom. And I feel inspired whenever I read any incident from your journey home book. One of the most inspiring incident for me was when you met SP on stage and when SP was leaving from Vrindavan he allowed you to touch his lotus feet.

Guru maharaj you have dedicated your entire life to please SP and the acaryas by fulfilling their instructions. RGM , Bhaktvedanta Hospital , GEV, Annamrita program..many other programs that you have started is recognised by the whole world and SP will be very pleased by your valuable contribution.

Guru Maharaj you are pioneer in the whole ISKCON society for devotee care. I am very fortunate Guru Maharaj that I also received such care from devotees here in Pune who are sincerely serving you.

I am really inspired by one of your instruction that we need to develop attraction to the sound vibration or vani of Spiritual master. And fulfilling those instruction to please Spiritual master. Your own life is an ideal example Guru Maharaj, you met SP only couple of occasions but you followed instruction of SP and rendered service and pleased SP.

Guru Maharaj on this occasion I beg at your lotus feet that let me develop attraction to hear your and SP instructions and give me strength to follow those instructions. Guru Maharaj , I will be entering Grihastha Ashram this year , I beg for your blessings that I can set up good example of devotee and inspire others. Your lecture and instructions are the only shelter of my life. Please kindly forgive me for my innumerable offences and insincerity in KC.

Your insignificant servant

YUGAL PREMA DAS (SURAT, INDIA)

Your love towards Srila Prabhupada, ISKCON, God brothers & devotees are very very amazing. Please bestow your mercy upon me that I can become a devotee as you wanted us to be.

YUGAL RASIKA DEVI DASI (GURUGRAM, INDIA)

Hare Krishna Maharaj, dandavat! I have not seen Prabhupada in person but I know him through you. In my early days in ISKCON, I read Bg. and SB. and heard your lectures, I was very much floating on the surface but with time, doing both the activities together, now I can say that you are personification of his teachings. Your each word which you have given emphasis on, is making all sense to me by Krishna' s and your mercy. Humility, service attitude and sincere sadhna are your key words , I am trying to imbibe. Especially while doing a small transcribing sewa, when I heard your lectures over n over again, I could get a little glimpse of what you meant...and that itself helped me to be steady and peaceful. I bow down to all who serve you personally and are serving through your personal instructions. But for me, Whenever I am sinking due to any difficulty in my life, I just randomly select and hear your lecture and you make me afloat again with your guidance... and that is what, is amazing. Thank you for being there in my this life, Maharaj!

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudev,

Please accept humble obeisance of Jada Bharat Das.

My humble request is that I should be able to spend my life as per your orders, to fulfil desires of Srila Prabhupada. Let my life be at your command. For the fulfillment of Prabhupada's wish, I am offering at your feet the desire that my body should be destroyed and that I should be happy in life by serving all Vaishnavas.

You said this during my initiation – "expecting a lot from you". Many years have passed since I was initiated but I have not been able to fulfill my command. Also many aparadas are happening in life. The struggle in life continues. The war with misfortunes is on but I am trying to live this life for the fulfillment of Prabhupada's wishes, so I am still on the path of devotion.

O Gurudev, there is a lot of expectation from you, and with the inspiration of Prabhupada and yourself, I have devised a new campaign for the fulfillment of Prabhupada's wish, and its work has begun a little.

Prabhupada's books should be distributed in villages, his favorite monthly magazine Jau Devachia Gawa should be distributed in lakhs, village Harinama should be spread as per the orders of Mahaprabhu, and from this Goseva, to serve the society from spiritual point of view, I have planned 'Bharat-Sanskriti Vikas'. this work has started a little. This preaching work and activity is beyond my power. This work will be successful only when this work receives your permission and blessings, Prabhupada's and God's blessings.

Therefore, I am begging for your blessings for this work and I will always be humble, and I will always be able to serve you, Prabhupada, Gods and all Vaishnavas by being in the spirit of Dasanudas. Hare Krishna.

All glories to Sri Sri Radha Govind, all glories to Sri Sri Radha Vijay Govind Dev, all glories to Sri Sri Gaur Nitai, All glories to Srila Prabhupada, O Gurudev.

At your service

Servant of your servant,

Jada Bharat Das.

BHAKTIMARG DAS (PUNE, INDIA)

हे गुरूदेव,

मेरा साष्टांग दंडवत प्रणाम स्विकार किजिए

हे गुरू महाराज आप तो बहुत सारे गुणों की खाण है।मेरे जैसा तुच्छ जीव आपके गुणों का वर्णन करने मे सक्षम नही है,तो भी आपकी और गुरू भाईयों की कृपासे जो सुना है और जो पढा है उनमे से कुछ लिखने का प्रयत्न कर रहा हूँ।आप उसे स्विकार किजिए।

एक बार श्री श्री राधागोपीनाथ मंदिर में ब्रम्हचारी क्लास चल रहा था यह हॉल महाराज के रूम के बगल मे ही है और कई बार महाराज कॅरिडोर मे घूमने के लिए आते है

तो क्लास के बाद कुछ फल प्रसाद के रूप मे बाँटते है तो उस दिन चिक्कू लाके रखे थे और जैसा ही क्लास खत्म हुआ महाराज वहॉ आ गये और प्रसाद बाँटने लगे सबने प्रसाद लिया लेकिन कोई भी आगे जाने को तयार नही था सब महाराज से कुछ सुनना चाहते थे।

तो महाराज ने जान लिया और बोले

1.आपके पास सर्वोत्तम तत्त्वहै जो सिध्दांत महाप्रभू ने दिया है वह भागवत का सिध्दांत है और उसके ऊपर कोई सिध्दांत नही है।

2.सुमधूर भक्तों का संग है,

3.भगवान का प्रेममय आश्रय है।

यह हमारे पास बहुत बडी कृपा है लेकिन यदि आपके ह्रदय में कृतज्ञता है तभी आप उसको समझ पाओगे कृतज्ञता के बिना आपको ऐसा लगेगा कि यह प्राब्लेम है, वह प्राब्लेम है , यह तकलीब है, वह तकलीब है इ.मतलब कृतज्ञता के बिना हम शुध्द भक्ती कर ही नही सकते ऐसा महाराज ने कहा

उदा.

1960 मे न्यूयार्क में मंदिर बनाने के लिए श्रील प्रभुपादजीने बहुत सारे उद्योगपतियों को मदद के लिए पत्र लिखे थे, उनमें पदमपद सिंघानिया ही एक थे ,तो वे मदद देने के लिए तयार भी हो गये।लेकिन बहुत सारे नियम के कारण वे मदद नही दे सके।

तो एक दिन उनके पौत्र अनंत सिंगानिया को एक ब्रम्हचारी ने महाराज से मिलवाया। और बोले वे अनंत

सिंघानिया है उनके दादाजी पदमपद सिंघानिया जो प्रभुपाद से मिले थे।

तो महाराज ने तुरंत पहचान लिया और उनको गले लगाया और बोले मैं आपका बहुत आभारी हूँ।क्योंकि आपके दादाजीने हमारे गुरू महाराज को एक होप दिया जब वे होपलेस थे तब।और बार बार बोल रहे थे मैं आपका बहुत कृतज्ञ हूँ।

हम रहते थे तो क्या सोचते कुछ मिला नही तो क्या कृतज्ञता प्रगट करना है। लेकिन महाराज भाव देखो वे बार बार कृतज्ञता प्रगट कर रहे थे ।तो यह है गुरूदेव भाव ।

फीर अनंत सिंघानिया बोले महाराज! आपके शिष्य हमे बहुत अच्छीतरह से गाईड कर रहे है।तो महाराज बोले

They are all beter than me.

तो यह महाराज का भाव है,मैं इस शुभ दिनी महाराज प्रार्थना करता हूँ कि हे गुरूदेव! मेरे जैसे तुच्छ जीव के उपर ऐसी कृपा करे कि आपके गुणोंमेसे कुछ बूँद मुझे प्रदान करने की कृपा करे।

प.पू. राधानाथ महाराज की जय।

श्रील प्रभुपाद की जय।

हरे कृष्ण।

He Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisance.

He Guru Maharaj you are mine of all great qualities. Fallen soul like me is not capable of describing your qualities, but whatever I heard and read from you and my god brothers I am trying to write few things here. You please accept that.

One time in Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Temple Brahmachari class was going on. This hall is next to Maharaj's room and many times Maharaj moves in that corridor.

After end of class some fruits are distributed, on that day chikku (sapota) were brought and as soon as class was over, Maharaj came there and started distributing prasad, everyone took but no one was going out, everyone wanted to hear from Maharaj.

You then understood and said:

"You have

1) Best principles that Mahaprabhu has given. This is principle from Srimad bhagavatam. And above this there is no other principle.

2) Association of sweet devotees.

3) Shelter of loving Lord.

This is a great mercy but if in your heart there is gratefulness then only you will be able to understand. Without gratefulness you will feel that this is a problem, that is problem, this is painful, that is painful, it means without gratitude we cannot do pure devotional service.

Then you gave example that in New York 1960 Srila Prabhupad wrote letters to many businessmen for help, Padampat Singhania was the only one who wanted to help but due to some rules and regulations he was not able to help.

One day a Brahmachari introduced his nephew Anant Singhania with Maharaj and he said I am Anant Singhania and my grandfather Padampat Singhania met Srila Prabhupad. Maharaj immediately recognized, he embraced him and said I am very grateful to you because your grandfather gave a hope to my Guru Maharaj when he was hopeless and thus I am very grateful to you."

If we would have been there we would have thought anyway we could not get anything so what gratitude we should express but if we see Maharaj he was expressing gratitude again and again. This is bhava of Gurudev.

Then Anant Singhania said Maharaj your disciples are guiding me well then Maharaj said "They are all better than me"

So this is emotion of Maharaj. On this special occasion I pray to Maharaj that, "Gurudev please shower your mercy on this fallen soul so that I can get few drops of your great qualities."

All glories to HH Radhanath Maharaj

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

Respected Guru Maharaj. Millions and Millions of humble obeisances.

You full fills everyone's desire here is one example for that. One time after end of Pune Yatra you were meeting all. I was thinking if I will get chance to meet. In little time you held HG Deenanath Prabhu, HG Sheshashayi pr close to chest and embraced me also together in this way you fulfilled my desire. You kissed heads of all three and water started flowing from my eyes. I became more serious in Bhakti, your touch and glances are like touchstone touching iron. My life became successful. That time I understood "Sri Guru Charane Rati, Ei se uttama gati je prasade pure sarva asha" Since when I realised this my life became happy.
