Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to You
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Dear Maharaja, will remain eternally indebted to you.

When I was introduced to Krishna Consciousness. and took steps to progress, it was listening your lectures I could made it. It was really challenging days in the beginning and hearing your lectures filled with inspiration that I could sustain.

When I saw you for the first time it was really an amazing experience. The devotees whom you trained personally had always been an inspiration to me. Even now after so many years it's because of your guidance I am able to continue.

Please pray Maharaja so that I always remain under the shelter of Srila Prabhupada, Your grace and the devotees. I am very very weak and devotee's support is my only hope.

Thank you so much.
Yours insignificant servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude and obeisances to you, Maharaja. It is with great humility and reverence that I take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation for the profound and transformative impact you have had on my life and the lives of so many others.

Your teachings, which are rooted in deep compassion and pure devotion, have illuminated the path of bhakti for countless souls struggling in the darkness of material existence. Through your lectures, books, personal guidance, and exemplary lifestyle, you have shown us how to live with purpose, how to serve the Supreme Lord with sincerity, and how to cultivate true humility—the essence of spiritual advancement.

Maharaja, I am especially grateful to you for the mercy you extended to my parents when they visited GEV. Their hearts were deeply touched by your kindness, and the seeds of bhakti that you planted in their hearts are beginning to grow. Your graciousness and loving presence created a lasting impression on them, and they are now taking steps toward embracing Krishna Consciousness.. Your mercy has touched not only my life but also the lives of my family, and for this, I am eternally grateful.

I am also excited to share that I had the great privilege of giving my first Srimad-Bhagavatam class at ISKCON Vancouver. This was a monumental step in my journey, and it was only by your inspiration and blessings that I had the courage and conviction to take on this responsibility. It was an opportunity to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission and share the divine wisdom of the Bhagavatam with others. Please bless me, Maharaja, that I may continue to preach and practice with sincerity, enthusiasm, and dedication. May I always remain humble and focused on the welfare of others, helping to spread the light of Srimad-Bhagavatam wherever I go.

You are the embodiment of Srila Prabhupada's mercy, and by your unwavering dedication to his mission, you have spread his teachings around the world. Your life is a shining example of selfless service, deep spiritual insight, and unconditional love for all living beings. Through your example, you inspire us all to rise above our material attachments and to serve Krishna with the highest ideal of devotion.

On this auspicious day, I pray to you, Maharaja, for the strength to follow your teachings with more sincerity and determination. Please bless me with the ability to always stay under the shelter of your lotus feet and to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada with a humble heart. May I always seek your guidance and blessings, and may my efforts in devotional service be pleasing to you.

I am truly blessed to have you as my spiritual master, and I offer my humble obeisances at your divine feet, praying that I may continue to serve you and the mission of Srila Prabhupada with ever-increasing devotion and sincerity.

With all my heart, I pray that may Lord Nrsimhadeva always protect you. May Lord Krishna bless you with continued strength, good health, and divine inspiration, and may you continue to shower your mercy upon us through your vapuh and vani.

All glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja! All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Dear Guru Maharaja,
All glories to you. Please accept my humble obeisances.

I feel fortunate for having got an opportunity to write this offering on your 74th appearance day. I don't know from where should I begin to thank you. You are the reason for everything auspicious in my life from all angles of vision.

My life in this living did not start when I was born, but when I read The Journey Home, and teachings came in. That was my real birth.

My learning did not begin in school or college, but from when I started to hear your transcendental teachings. That was my real education.

I am able to coin words and speak few sentences today is only after learning from you. I was a dumb fool. You made my life. Everything that others see in me today, is but a mercy that you have given, though I am not worthy of it. I am able repeat something from scriptures today, is only because of your mercy. I am able to think something to be right and wrong today, is only because of your teachings. I am able to do something today is only because of you. I am writing this offering also, only because of your mercy.

I really don't know where should I begin to thank you. Everything in my life, is what you have given me.

I simply wish to spend my time eternally remembering and thanking you.

You have given so much transcendental instructions, but I am struggling to put a lot of your teachings in my personal life. I am still in deep dark ignorance, and I need to hold on to the rope you have thrown and climb up leaving behind all my useless habits. I am willing to change for your pleasure. I will continue to fight with my internal enemies. I am willing to improve. Your mercy is there to make my effort complete. I just need to step up to grab it.

Thank you Guru Maharaja for making my life. I will try my best to follow your teachings. Today I am far away but hopefully sooner, I will also be given the entrance into your sincere followers list. I am willing to work for that change.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Dandavat Pranama. All glories to Srila Prabhupada, Guru, and Gauranga.
I would like to start my offering with deep gratitude: vande guroh sri-caranaravindam!!

Thank you, Maharaja, for inspiring, motivating, and always guiding me through your words. I would not be the person I am today if I had not read Journey Home and listened to your lectures.

In one of your lectures, you shared the story of the crow, which has been an eye-opener for me. When you described how the crow, by nature, is attracted to garbage and does not seek out the beauty of a garden, it made me reflect deeply on my own behavior. On the other hand, the swan naturally chooses the beautiful garden. This story has taught me that it is important to change from within if I truly want to develop Krishna Consciousness.

Through your lectures, I also understand how beautiful it is to be more empathetic and compassionate in life. I am trying my best to become a better version of myself and to preach Krishna Consciousness. to others.

Please bless me, Maharaja, so I can continue to serve and improve in Krishna Consciousness..

Hare Krishna Dear Most Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet,

I'm truly your servant wishing you your 74th appearance day. Guru Maharaja ji, I came to know you with the YouTube shorts. That humbleness I saw in you was so blissful, and again, I saw you in another video with Amarendra Prabhu Ji, which made me melt. On Krishna, Bandhu one Prabhu ji I found Karan Prabhu ji he also wants to serve you so Prabhu ji gave me some of your lecture videos too and showed me your glorification video by Amogha Lila Prabhu ji that video makes me so close to you I'm very sinful my guru Maharaja ji, I'm very pathetic please accept me as your servant I'm very curious about the spirituality aspects. Thank you so much for letting me write all these things to you about what I genuinely feel about you please guide me I'm eagerly waiting For you to accept me as your eternal servant disciple.

Dear most Gurudeva,

May the Lord bless all the suffering souls to get opportunity to associate with Caitanya Mahaprabhu's mission through you at least for a moment.

It is simply unimaginable, how I received shelter of your lotus feet, it is just the causeless mercy of the Lord & your divine self.

I am surviving, getting nourished & relishing on your Nectarian pravachans (tustih pustih ksud-apayo SB 11.2.42). I don't exaggerate, but I relish your vani more than I chant the Holy name. I almost everyday hear your vani during travel to job & while hearing your lecture, I go to bed. Till now I have heard more than 500 lectures from 1989 to 1992 for which I am grateful to ISKCON desire tree.

When you describe the pastimes of the devotees & the Lord, I, like many other devotees feel being present there physically but more than that, we can feel or get some glimpse of transcendental emotions arising in the personalities present in those pastimes, which otherwise impossible for me even if I am allowed to witness the pastimes.

Your cherished project of GEV, I have seen it from initial days till today, how it has been developed under your transcendental vision and guidance and herculean efforts by the devotees. The Vrndavana in Mathura is getting covered externally, year after year and is losing its forests, chirping of the birds, clear water kundas, soft cushioned sand pathways & getting occupied with buildings, noisy traffic, concrete and stone pebble roads. GEV is your special offering to the Srila Prabhupada and gift to the whole world. I try to support this project with my squirrel-like efforts.

Now I am 57 years old. Still 2.5 years to retire from teaching job. My daughter Premrupa will be completing post-graduation in MBA. My home under redevelopment will be completing in 2.5 years.

After which I desire to devote more time in ISKCON vanaprastha sanga, the project initiated by HG Radheshyam prabhu in Pune. Please empower and bless all of us, to fulfil his expectations from us.

In last 26 years of connection to Krishna Consciousness., I had fortune of rendering various services, but I couldn't stick to any single service. I request your blessing that I identify one prominent service, which I will be able to perform in the mission of HDG Srila Prabhupada. Also, I plan to visit prominent tirthas after I take to vanaprastha.

My wife Shri DD had some issue with two devotees while doing festival seva and not allowed to come for seva. She was so upset (because her intentions were not to offend) that she stopped coming for any seva. I don't know what to do. Please, please help her.

Thank you for giving me second initiation on Gaura-purnima this year, even though I was undeserving and unqualified even to get first initiation. I am still struggling with my mind and ego. Please forgive me for my offenses. Praying at the lotus feet of the Lord, to give me opportunity to serve you eternally.

Trying to be servant of your servants,

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I am eternally grateful for the matchless gift you have bestowed upon me through your disciples. This year, during the Kartika-yatra, I witnessed the unimaginable efforts and dedication the devotees offered in their service. Their selfless endeavors were nothing short of extraordinary—something that even the demigods might marvel at.

Maharaja, I humbly admit that I lack the sincerity to fully practice the principles you lovingly impart in your lectures. I earnestly seek your blessings for determination so I may assist in building stronger communities for your pleasure and for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada. I do not yet know the depths of true humility, but I long to cultivate it in this lifetime so that I may become an instrument in your compassionate endeavours to spread Krishna Consciousness.

Please allow me to serve your disciples as their servant, and as the servant of their servants. It is said that the prayers of Vaisnavas never go in vain, and so I pray to be an instrument in your mission to make the world a better place, fulfilling the desires of Srila Prabhupada and the parampara.

Hare Krishna dear Gurudeva,
Dandavat Pranama
I am very grateful to you for accepting me as a disciple.

Through your vani you have always been merciful to us. Always guiding through your wonderful lectures. Many things you are expecting from us to be followed as part of Srila Prabhupada mission. But we always fail in doing that. You are always expecting to follow the principal of trnad api sunicena. But it is always our failure in practicing that. You always expecting us to practice devotional service under the guidance of superior authority and in the association of devotees but many times we doesn't follow authority and offend Vaisnavas.

On your auspicious appearance day we pray to you that by your mercy we may able to follow some of the principal what you have been teaching us for so many years. Pray to Radha Madana Gopala Nrsimhadeva may they bless you with very good health incoming years so that we get your long association.

Respected Srila Gurudeva,
Please accept my prostrated obeisances at the dust of your Lotus Feet.

I was listening to Srila Prabhupada today morning, where he was mentioning that only by developing eagerness to see Krishna one can achieve the perfection of life, and Srila Prabhupada beautifully narrates the pastime of thief who heard from a professional reciter about Krishna wearing gold jewels roams in the forest of Vrndavana and the thief gets immediately attracted to this small boy named Krishna and thief reaches to Vrndavana forest looking for Krishna and Krishna comes in front of him, so his only qualification to see Krishna is that "I must see Krishna" that faith and eagerness he had. So I was thinking personally I don't have any qualification to practice Krishna Consciousness. and be in the association of wonderful Vaisnavas. But you have made me qualified and allowing me to develop faith and eagerness towards Krishna. Thank you very much dear Gurudeva for giving most rarest gift of Krishna Consciousness..

This year I was very fortunate to continue my services at ISKCON Mega Kitchen under the directions of HG Gauranga Prabhu, this time I was given a very responsible seva of looking after pre-processing of cooking and I was asked to report at 2:30 AM and that was first time in my life for doing seva so early. So on first day I reported late at 4 AM but next day onwards I was before time ready for seva. Its first time and new experience but felt very happy and satisfied in assisting all other Vaisnavas. Thank you dear Gurudeva for giving me this opportunity also to serve. Very grateful to you!

Your classes during Yatra were very much enlivening and especially dancing kirtanas... also serving 10,000+ Vaisnavas under same roof was out of the world experience, life memorable experience.

Here at Damodardesh I am trying to assist whatever way possible, either through cooking for weekly Satsanga, doing kirtanas, giving short talks etc. Its altogether heart satisfying and enlivening experience. Thank you for this opportunities as well dear Gurudeva.

Dear Gurudeva I sincerely beg for your blessing so that I can stick to reading Srila Prabhupada books everyday without fail. This is where I need to improve a lot and also chanting without much distractions, developing higher taste in performing Sadhana Bhakti. Kindly bless me so that I can do better and better day by day in my practice of Krishna Consciousness.

Dear Gurudeva, I am sincerely praying for your good health so that you continue spreading the glories of Lord Caitanya far and wide and keep assisting your dear Gurudeva Srila Prabhupada!
I again thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything you are doing for all of us.
Praying to remain humble servant of servant of servant of your servants,

The first time I saw Guru Maharaja on YouTube, he got out of the car and folded his hands and bowed to everyone, I had never seen anyone so humble before, and then I saw him in Mayapur, GBC meeting was going on, One morning in pañca-tattva Mandir he was chanting loudly next to us and I kept looking at him. One day I was surprised to see Guru Maharaja walking alone because all Maharajas have servants and devotees with them but no one was with Guru Maharaja, he was walking alone, one day I saw a Mataji in the temple touching Guru Maharaja's feet with her hand gesture, then Guru Maharaja was also touching that Mataji's feet with hand gestures, one day a devotee bowed to him in the Pañcanga in the middle of the road, then Guru Maharaja also bowed to him in the Pañcanga, I heard from a devotee that he went to the general devotees in the Pandal program and sat quietly, one day Guru Maharaja was distributing Prasada in the Brahmacari kitchen, it was difficult to distribute it while standing, he was distributing Prasada by kneeling down, I had never seen anyone so humble before, since then I have fallen in love with Guru Maharaja.

The Honorable HH Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaja
Subject: A Servant's Love for Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaja

Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaja has taught everyone, through his own life, how to remain steadfast in love for the Supreme Lord. No matter how great the challenges, Maharaja has shown us, through his invaluable book The Journey Home, how to maintain unwavering faith in the Lord.

Maharaja's lectures and the profound words within them touch the heart and help deepen our love for the Lord. When Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaja visited the Sri Sri Radha Madhav temple in Kolhapur, he gave me a rose. That rose became a significant turning point in my life, marking a great blessing and fortune. After that event, my life completely changed.

Glories to HH Sri Radhanath Swami Maharaja!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Dear Guru Maharaja ji,

Although insignificant, I am happy to share my offering for your Vyasa-puja this year. I am truly blessed to be able to hear from you, read about you, and be inspired by your words and actions.

Some time ago, I was reading one of your lectures, and I came across the incident you narrated from your childhood, where your parents decided to stay together for the happiness of their children. How beautifully you explained the concept of "The Higher Principle" while sharing your personal pastime. The highest principle of becoming a servant of the servant of the servant of the Lord (in its true sense) by developing love for Krishna can be connected to every walk of life of every human. To achieve the higher principle, to never forget our ultimate goal in life, and how dedicated we should be in overcoming the challenges and difficulties we face—this left a mark on me. It made me reflect on how easily we give up at times and how easily we forget our ultimate goal.

Reading and hearing from you always brings us back and bonds us stronger to the higher principle we ought to follow. Thank you, dear Maharaja. Requesting your blessings so I can become a better servant in your eyes. I know the rest of it will automatically follow.

Your insignificant and aspiring servant,

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am very very grateful for your deep realizations coming through the vani of your lectures. which keeps me down to earth. and at least try to practice the principles which you live by like humility tolerance forgiveness compassion kindness respect etc. such divine spiritual qualities in me impossible and no question practicing them if I do not hear your lectures.

Your lectures keeps me humbled for my fallen condition.

This Kartika-yatra 2024 I could develop more and more appreciation for your loving sacrifice and your exemplary dealing with all varieties of devotees.

You will ever remain my role model for what you are.

You have conquered the most difficult to conquer the False ego.

You have achieved the best of all achievements the pure devotion to Sri Sri Radha and Krishna.

You are the most famous as the pure devotee of Krishna in the world.

Your genuine humility attracts millions.

Your respectful and affectionate dealing with godbrothers give ever new joy in the heart for being connected to you in some way.

your enthusiasm to glorify the Lord is very attractive.

Your sensitive behaviour and dealings show forth your alertness.

Whenever I have trouble with my impurity in the heart, I just remember you sitting in-front of Srila Prabhupada praying for all the conditioned souls like me. And I get enthusiasm to dedicate my life to Srila Prabhupada.

I am very much inspired by your teachings, life and dedication to Srila Prabhupada. I hope someday to be accepted by you.

Before I start my humble offerings, I would like to thank Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple's congregation and media team to actually come up with this idea of online google form submission for offerings and also to all those devotees who were directly or indirectly involved in manifestation of this super idea.

As this gives chance to all the jiva's (souls) connected to Sri Gurudeva to actually pour out their heartfelt emotions and gratitude towards guru Maharaja.

Sri Gurudeva, let me confess honestly that I have no qualification to glorify you, yet myself writing this humble offering is like a dwarf man trying to catch moon. Still I will try to begin this offering by quoting a sloka from Srimad-Bhagavatam to carefully draw my mind and my personal attention and make myself aware of this greater responsibility towards your kind-self and our glorious guru parampara.

jñana-dipa-prade gurau martyasad-dhih srutam tasya sarvam kuñjara-saucavat

S.B. 7.15.26
Translation
"The spiritual master should be considered to be directly the Supreme Lord because he gives transcendental knowledge for enlightenment. Consequently, for one who maintains the material conception that the spiritual master is an ordinary human being, everything is frustrated. His enlightenment and his Vedic studies and knowledge are like the bathing of an elephant."

Dear Guru Maharaja only fools like me see a great Vaisnava like your kind-self as human, forgetting that Vaisnavas are super humans and they descent to this "mrtyuh loka" by their own sweet will to dissipate the nescience and darkness of this world and uplift the fools like me.

Srila Prabhupada in purport of the above sloka has requested the engrossed jivas like me to consider ones spiritual master as directly Supreme God, Prabhupada writes by warning jivas like me, if one considers the spiritual master an ordinary human being, one is doomed. His study of the Vedas and his austerities and penances for enlightenment are all useless, like the bathing of an elephant. Prabhupada further quotes in the purport of next verse about two types of God firstly the sevya-bhagavan and secondly the sevaka-bhagavan. Prabhupada mentions that the spiritual master is sevak bhagavan while the supreme Lord is sevya-bhagavan. So with my deepest gratitude unto Srila Prabhupada and your kind-self and considering you as my "Supreme Lord" as per this sloka I humbly begin my offering.

Dear Gurudeva, what Devarsi Narada meant to evil Ratnakar who finally transformed as famous Valmiki rsi by the unreserved grace of Srila narad muni, your Lordship mean same to this ignorant soul (myself).

Dear Gurudeva you are like ocean and you possess infinitely deep and vast attributes like ocean. Person standing on the shore of ocean will be called a speculator and fool of highest order if he tries to measure the depth of an ocean just by standing at the shores. Dear Guru Maharaja your kind-self are like philosopher's stone which transforms the base metals into Gold.

It is by your inconceivable mercy and acintya shakti and strong conviction that we have got such a beautiful congregation and wonderful temple of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha.

Dear Guru Maharaja by your own sweet will you decided to reveal your innermost deepest longing and treasure of love for Krishna by manifesting your deeper emotions in your book "The Journey Home". An ignorant man like me cannot fathom how much mercy and compassion you displayed upon this world just by revealing your deepest and purest emotions in your book "The Journey Home", it is like your personal maha-prakasa-lila. The way Lord Caitanya manifested his real swaroop and deeper attributes of compassion upon this world through his maha-prakasa-lila. You my dear Gurudeva has opened the flood gates of compassion and mercy through your book.

For me "The Journey Home"is not a book it is your maha-prakasa-lila. In maha-prakasa-lila Lord Caitanya openly distributed the love of Krishna without any reservation, similarly through your book you mercifully revealed your inner and deeper most longing for Krishna and you distributed that same longing to all the readers without reservation.

Dear Guru Maharaja of your infinite attributes picking up few qualities was not so tedious task. As Srila Prabhupada writes in the introduction of Srimad-Bhagavatam about "book bhagavata" and "vyakti bhagavata" and draws conclusion that Lord Caitanya is himself the "vyakti bhagavata" (person bhagavata). After reading this I also started to draw parallel and started my search for person bhagavata and honestly my search for person bhagavata culminated at yourself dear Gurudeva.

There is ain't any quality of you which don't stand the definition of person bhagavata dear Gurudeva. In contemporary society of devotees around, my search for person bhagavata culminated at yourself.

The attributes which I picked up in your kind glorification has concluded into the acronym "GURU".

Of which "G" stands for your foremost quality of "Gravity".

manah-prasadah saumyatvam
maunam atma-vinigrahah bhava-samsuddhir ity etat tapo manasam ucyate

Gita 17.16

Translation :- And satisfaction, simplicity, gravity, self-control and purification of one's existence are the austerities of the mind.

In the purport Prabhupada mentions, Silence means that one is always thinking of self-realization whereas Prabhupada translates "maunam" as "gravity".

Dear Gurudeva, you are embodiment of highest gravity in your behaviour, just by your mere audience the mind of engrossed jivas like me becomes sober and peaceful.

The "U" stands for "Unadulterated".

Dear Guru Maharaja, your self are epitome of absolute purity, you are unadulterated from vice and malice of material nature and material existence. Dear guru Maharaja you also represent the unadulterated teachings of authentic vedic siddhanta.

etan matam samatistha
paramena samadhina
bhavan kalpa-vikalpesu
na vimuhyati karhicit

SB 2.9.37

In purports Srila Prabhupada writes, and the first step, therefore, in pursuance of the system of knowledge received by Brahma, is to approach a bona fide guru who is the representative of the Lord following the parampara system. No one should try to squeeze out his own meaning by imperfect mundane knowledge. The guru, or the bona fide spiritual master, is competent to teach the disciple in the right path with reference to the context of all authentic Vedic literature. He does not attempt to juggle words to bewilder the student. The bona fide spiritual master, by his personal activities, teaches the disciple the principles of devotional service.

Dear Gurudeva you are representing the same authentic vedic teachings in an unadulterated manner, this is what defines you a faithful soldier and commander in chief of Srila Prabhupada.

The "R" stands for "Respect"

Dear Guru Maharaja, you are embodiment of trnad api su-nicena

taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana-dena
kirtaniyah sada harih

Translation

"One who thinks himself lower than the grass, who is more tolerant than a tree, and who does not expect personal honor yet is always prepared to give all respect to others can very easily always chant the holy name of the Lord."

Dear Gurudeva your personal dealings with not only your godbrothers and sister but also with small devotee kids of congregation is representation of above verse of Siksastakam. You are pinnacle of utmost humility and simplicity this comes because you pay attention to details of giving respect even to most insignificant beings who are just toddlers in Krishna Consciousness..

The " U" stands for "Undaunted".

Dear Guru Maharaja, you are undaunted and resolute in your purpose "Govardhan Eco Village" is embodiment of your undaunted spirit where you personally revealed how to overcome all difficulties in the way of spiritual project like GEV.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I wish I should not stop this offering and keep on glorifying you but material world is limited, it is limited in time and space these limitation is forcing me to keep my personal emotions aside and stop at this point.

I would like to humbly beg for your kind compassion on this insignificant soul, I am filled with so much flaws and enjoying mentality I keep committing mistakes, the force of mind is very powerful which keeps forcing me to think myself as enjoyer some day because of your unreserved compassion my impure mind will purify in this hope I am stopping here, in the hope to always remain your eternal humble servant and praying to achieve your humble service and eternal association forever.

Your Servant,

My Dear Guru Maharaja, please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet. I'm privileged and honoured to present you this offering on your 74th Appearance Day!

I pray to their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji to have this honour for many more years to come. I am unworthy of this opportunity and of the mercy I have got from you Guru Maharaja. I want to express my sincere heartfelt gratitude to your holiness for bestowing mercy of Lord Caitanya by teaching the art of humility and cultivation of pure love and devotion. Your nectarian Gaur katha at the Kartika-yatra 2024 was not only pleasing to the heart and the mind but also nourishing and fulfilling to the soul. Extending love and compassion to everyone, to make them feel inclusive is something which your grace has been doing since decades now. My eternal father, my eternal shelter, mentor and savior. An acarya always teaches by his own example, your holiness is personification of trnad api su-nicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana-dena kirtaniyah sada harih. I'm eternally indebted to you Guru Maharaja, even though I'm undeserving of your mercy yet you continue to dispel my ignorance and hold my hand in my spiritual journey. I would have to dedicate eons upon eons of lifetimes and it would still not be enough to express my gratitude for you Guru Maharaja. Krishna se tomara, Krishna dite para, tomara sakati ache, ami to' kangala, 'Krishna' 'Krishna' bali', dhai tava pache pache. Gurudeva please bless me so that I may eternally chase after those two most precious lotus feet of yours, for I am sure they will lead me directly to the sankirtana party of Nitai Gauranga, that is steadily flowing towards the forests where Srimati Vrndavanesvari Radhika performs Her pastimes.

I pray for your health, so your physical body can keep up with your most thundering, all-consuming and all-encompassing desire to execute the order of His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada.

Your unworthy aspiring disciple.

Hare Krishna Maharaja ji, kindly accept my humble obeisances.

As Lord Nityananda was so merciful upon the souls, who was distributing the greatest wealth, Krishna prem, without considering the qualification. As an grihastha of Kaliyuga, I have no qualification to perform bhakti. As Lord Sri nityanand, you are distributing Krishna Prem all around the world and I am completely dependent upon the mercy and grace of you. It will be my greatest fortune to perform any minimal service in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. However I couldn't serve any devotee and perform seva which pleases my siksa guru. It is only possible by the grace of the pure devotees. Kindly accept me as your servant. I am like a street dog. Kindly make me your pet.

PAMHO. AGTSP.

Maharaja you have been a source of inspiration to countless devotees and the love and respect that you give to each and every devotee, no matter how neophyte or how advanced, has touched my heart the most. As you have once explained, "To awaken our own love, we simply have to adjust our vision. Bhagvad Gita also explains 'vidya vinaya sampanne brahmane gavi hastini', that one who is actually in connection with their own self will then see that same divinity within everyone". This so truly applies in your case and is a Pratyaksha Praman for everyone to follow.

I request your blessings to be able to advance on the path of Bhakti and be able to connect with the true self, aatma, and with Paramatma, the divinity within every cell.

All Glories to you Srila Gurudeva

Please accept our humble obeisances at Your Lotus Feet on the most auspicious occasion of Your Vyasa-puja 2024. All Glories unto You. We are not capable of knowing and describing Your Glories. It is very heartening to see You very enthusiastic and fully engaged in Mahaprabhu's mission despite all your busy schedules. You are practically showing all of us, how to do devotional services in all circumstances. We sincerely pray to Lord Krishna to give You all strengths to resist the material encumbrances.

Lord Caitanya shows compassion by spreading the Holy Name to all beings. Srila Prabhupada shows compassion towards the people of west by spreading the Teachings of Lord Caitanya, Bhagavad Gita, Srimad-Bhagavatam etc.., Following in their footsteps, you dedicated your whole life in spreading the glories of Lord Krishna . All glories to your Dedication, Compassion and Love.

I am deeply fortunate to write this offering, gratitude-filled, to you.

Yourvani(words)haveprofoundlyimpacted my life, guiding me in Krishna Consciousness. for the past 12 years. Your teachings are the soul of my spiritual advancement, connecting me to Srila Prabhupada and instructing me in the ideal mood of Vaisnava and etiquette in the Vaisnava association.

Your journey home book is a north pole in my journey in this ocean of miseries. I struggle to repay your selfless sacrifices for us all. My only offering is to assist my superiors in their service to Srila Prabhupada in every possible way.

I strive to embody the qualities you instill in us: humility like a blade of grass, tolerance like a tree, and offering respect to others without expectation. Your absorption in chanting and kirtana/katha inspires me, granting strength to overcome anarthas (impurities).

I humbly seek your prayers and blessings to become a dedicated servant of your servants and an obedient Brahmacari under your representatives. Thank you, Maharaja.

I am indebted to you, life after life.

Respected Gurudeva,
Please accept my most humble obeisances.

Each incarnation of the Supreme Personality of Godhead - Krishna, comes to fulfill a specific purpose. Similarly, a pure devotee of the Lord comes to this material world to fulfill a very specific purpose of the Lord. Srila Prabhupada appeared to build a home in which the whole world can live. Maharaja, you have come to teach us how to live and behave in that home by being a humble and menial servant of the servant of the servant of the Lord.

Thank You!

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble Obeisances at your lotus feet;
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

As the time being pass in bhakti process, I feel more and more near to your vani association. I have lot of anarthas and bad qualities which pulls me back time and again however, your wisdom and instructions has always been a beacon of light to guide and direct me towards the path of righteousness in Krishna Consciousness. You have made the words of Srila Prabhupada simpler yet keeping it to the point as it is. Your expression of love for Srila Prabhupada has always been an inspiration for me. Whatever I have felt and understood about spirituality and Krishna bhakti is because of your vani association, and I wish to come in your permanent shelter.

Under your shelter, I could get training in GGD VOICE and ISKCON Pune which is helping me to stay protected in the association of devotees while facing challenges in this material world. Currently, I am assisting ISKCON Dublin Project under the guidance of HG Manu Prabhu (temple President) and senior devotees here. I eagerly long to become your disciple and get your divine blessings & instructions in order to serve Caitanya Mahaprabhu's sankirtana movement with thousands of times more firm conviction.

Please forgive this ignorant fellow as I don't really know how to write offering, and this is the first time, I am writing to you directly. Seeking your forgiveness and eternal blessings.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

Firstly, I express my heartful gratitude to RGM secretary for giving me this opportunity to write my offerings to you.

I remember my first encounter with you back at ISKCON Chowpatty in Dec of 2016 when I was just a new entrant into JP VOICE.

Gradually hearing your lectures in VOICE helped me to inculcate the attitude to develop and sustain relationship with devotees. Your concern for other living entities has always been very inspiring to me.

In the year of 2K19, I had the fortune to be in GEV and I was astounded to see how animals there roamed freely without fear (i.e. not attacking humans) especially snakes. This is the testimony of the harmonious society that you built for the whole world to learn.

I have been constantly learning from your lectures to develop a mood of devotion towards Krishna and attitude of service towards devotees and sincere concern for every other living entity.

I am seeking your eternal shelter.

Loitering in this material world with no meaning

Your words come as a breeze to disentangle us from suffering.

When the world is insensitive to humanity
You teach us to be sensitive to all beings with parity
We are in great hurry to get the 6 anarthas conquered
You teach us to be patient as dirt of innumerable life is to be erased
Our senses are very strong and force us to see everything as a source of enjoyment
Your teachings and life of devotion teach us to dovetail everything for Krishna's pleasure enhancement.
With age not on the right side, when people struggle to make the ends meet
You struggle to uplift our brighter side and bring us closer to Krishna's lotus feet.
On this auspicious day I seek your blessings to ignite the spark,
Which can help me to alleviate the dark.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,

Dandavat Pranama. Thank you Maharaja for giving me knowledge of Krishna Consciousness. I really feel inspired and nourished by hearing your lectures. You explain in so detail how to apply practically the principles of Krishna Consciousness. in our day to day life. Thank you Maharaja for bringing this counsellor system, I always get guidance from your disciples and they also give very nice guidance in my day to day life.

Thank you Maharaja for such a nice training system and for arranging beautiful yatras to Mayapur, Vrndavana & Jagannath puri. I feel so much happy when I come in your yatra with very beautiful darshan of dhama and such a nice katha and very good Prasada. Thank you Maharaja for giving so much in the form of devotees association, very good temples, your wonderful lectures.

Maharaja, I really feel inspired by your life that how you yourself apply principles of bhakti by being so humble, tolerant and always serving devotees. I pray to you Maharaja pls give me strength and determination so that I can follow your teachings and serve Lord and his devotees.

Please forgive me for my offenses which I have committed knowingly and unknowingly.

Hare Krishna respected, revered and beloved Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you Gurudeva.
On this most auspicious occasion of your divine appearance day, I, Acarya Chandra das, an insignificant servant of your servants, would like to make a humble attempt to express my appreciation for your innumerable divine qualities and your extraordinary achievements and contributions in Srila Prabhupada's movement.

Gurudeva, from your early childhood you have been an embodiment of humility. By observing your dealings with various Vaisnavas we get an understanding of what humility is. You always walk your talk. In every class you gave, you have instructed us to be more humble than a blade of grass and more tolerant than a tree as taught by Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu. However, I have learnt what it really means by observing you.

I want to cite an incident in this context. Very recently when you were in Sridham Mayapur for immersing your father's ashes in mother Ganga I was fortunate to render some service of purchasing for your assistants. Once when I came to deliver some items to the room opposite to yours, you happened to step out. I was elated and I bowed down to offer my obeisances. Guru Maharaja, to my great astonishment you also bowed down to reciprocate. My mind was puzzled for a long time after this. I was thinking that you are my Guru and savior, and I am your insignificant servant so why should you bow to such a fallen conditioned soul as me. Also, you are best of the brahmanas and in high order of sannyasa being a worshippable Parivrajakacarya and I am worse than a sudra. I also felt guilty. But eventually it dawned on me that it was only due to your natural humility that you can respect anyone and everyone.

I learned a very important lesson. For many days during that time period, I was disturbed in my mind because I had heard some criticism from one of my God brothers about another senior God brother and I was confused about what should be my stand in that scenario. After seeing your example, I learned that I should always be humble and respect my seniors without being judgmental.

Guru Maharaja, over the years you have made significant contributions to the movement of your beloved Guru Maharaja, HDG A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada. Whether it was your thankless services in New Vrndavana or youth preaching in early days in the west, developing the community in Chowpatty, inspiring devotees to become exemplary brahmacaris or grhasthas, setting up the counsellor system with the deep sense of caring for your disciples, starting the Bhaktivedanta hospital, Gopal's garden school, barsana eye camp, Pune yatra, Kartika-yatra, creating the Govardhan Eco village, and being instrumental in working with your God brothers to reinstate the glory of Srila Prabhupada's places of pastimes in Calcutta. The list goes on and on.

From your services in Srila Prabhupada's mission, it is clear that, you could work through all the insurmountable difficulties by your relentless perseverance which comes from your love and dedication towards Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaja, from the early days when devotees in Srila Prabhupada's mission were going through tough times, after Srila Prabhupada departed from this world, till today, you have inspired the spirit of cooperation in the hearts of thousands of devotees. You have helped devotees to not succumb to egoistic differences and apparent misunderstandings. It was through your example and timely instructions that many Vaisnava communities have been built across India and abroad with this spirit of cooperation.

Guru Maharaja, on this special occasion of Vyasa-puja, I thank you from the core of my heart for the immense mercy that you have showered upon such a fallen and insignificant person like me. During the times of biggest crisis in my life, you have saved me through your vani in your classes, through the association of my counsellors who have been your greatest gift and mercy to me, and through your personal example.

Guru Maharaja, please forgive me that I am so foolish that I have not been able to do any prominent services like many of my senior God brothers to assist you in your service to Srila Prabhupada. I am trying my best to have a very good Sadhana and in my dealings with family and devotees I am trying to set a very good example of following your instructions. I am trying to serve Vaisnavas while staying in Sridham Mayapur. Whatever my life is, is due to your kindness. I have earnest desire to bring smile to your lotus face and to please you, Gurudeva.

Although I am not qualified, but I beg at your lotus feet, kindly accept me, Gurudeva. I have no other hope than your mercy.

Please forgive my limited capability to glorify you like a glow worm trying to bring some light in front of the sun. Kindly accept my prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama Guru Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisances and all glories to Srila Prabhupada.
On this auspicious day I want to thank you for showering your mercy on me and my family.

I still remember your miraculous smile that you gave when I entered Radha Gopinatha mandir for the second time in the month of Kartika. I was there to know what is ISKCON all about but with mood of challenge and not humility but still you reciprocated and your one smile changed my life.

You always extend yourself just for us and shower your mercy through lectures, yatras, kirtanas, sweet glances and smile. You have this amazing quality of understanding the heart of others and reciprocate in a manner that will change their lives. But oh Guru Maharaja even after repeatedly instructing us to be humble, tolerant, grateful, not criticise or judge others, I am still struggling to do that. And I feel ashamed that I am not putting enough effort to follow your instructions. But I have faith that someday there will be some transformation if stay in constant association of your lectures and senior Vaisnavas. Please pray and bless me and my family that we always remember Krishna and Radharani and never forget Them.

You are humility personified and have changed thousands of hearts and please pray that someday my stone like heart will melt and I will be able to chant the holy names of Krishna with prayerful mood and humility.

I pray to Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha to give you good health so that you can help many more souls to come closer to Krishna.

Eternally grateful for everything you did for us, are doing and will do in future.

Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,

I am really grateful to You for the taking up of responsibility for the whole Madhava Gaudiya Parampara to preach the message of Lord Gauranga to every village to metro politician city, from GEV school to University, reaching out to all from beggar to multi-billion like Ambani family and from arrogance materialistic to Srila Prabhupada ex. Disciples to reconnect them to take up Krishna conscious as utmost priority.

Thank You Maharaja setting up the highest standard of humility and teaching by practical example how to be a real ideal sadhu.. please bless me to imbibe some of these qualities to make this human life so worthy as now struggling very very hard.. even you bestowing your blessing through sending me in multi aspect like your genuine followers disciples (My counsellor, HG RSP), your. Heartily beloved deity (Ss RG, SS RVC, SS RKB, SS. RD GOVIND, SS R M, SS RSS), Scripture, Especially the most personal and empowering Kartika-yatra, lastly Mahaprasada of Lord, still I am lingering here in the material world.

Please help and bless me so will take these all assets of Devotional service very seriously and will go BTG in this life only by cutting all the Anartha and also bless me to help Srila Prabhupada mission in the interior of Odisha by distributing books and many ways.

May Lord Narasimha Dev and Lord Jagannatha keep You in good health, Thank You Maharaja for spending Krishna's s TIME To us.

Hare Krishna Respected and Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept My Humble Obeisances at Your Divine Lotus Feet

In one of your lectures, you said, “Bhakti is not the big picture, but the details within it.” I am deeply grateful to you, Guru Maharaja, for teaching me these important details of Bhakti through both your words and actions.

I am far from the standards you have mentioned in your lectures for a disciple. On this auspicious day of your appearance, I humbly pray at your lotus feet to bestow your mercy upon me, so that I may focus on hearing the Vani of HDG Srila Prabhupada and yours, instead of following the voice of my own mind, and try to meet the expectations you have mentioned in your lectures for a disciple.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

As heard from one of the lectures given by HG Sant Kumar prabhuji, Maharaja, when you had gotten malaria for the first and hopefully the last time and you had turned delirious, still in the incognizant state, you were continuously talking about the pastimes of Krishna in Vrndavana, like Krishna killing all the demons. If a person can speak like this while being in an incognizant state, then one cannot imagine how much love for Krishna is filled in your heart.

Maharaja, from one interaction of yours with Anand Vrndavana Prabhuji as narrated by HG Braj Bihari Prabhuji in one of his classes, I understand that you are free from fault finding, and you glorify even the ones who blaspheme you. May I get a drop of this quality of yours? In this material world, problems are always existing, but you always see the bigger picture and also advise your disciples to see the bigger picture. You have an amazing vision, Gurudeva. You are very sensitive to the community needs. Recently you saw that the head cooks and the helpers serving in the Radha Rani kitchen at the Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji temple were perspiring badly while cooking for the Lord. But they, being simple ladies with all their seva bhav, have cooked for their Lordships in the same way for many, many years now. When you saw the inconvenience caused to them due to heat and hot weather, you immediately ordered to put an air conditioner in the kitchen so that the Matajis can cook nicely for their Lordships. Warmth and affection flow from you along with profound knowledge.

Always indebted to you, Gurudeva.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to your Divine Grace

On our recent visit to the Govardhan Eco Village, we witnessed your glorious visionary project to fulfill Srila Prabhupada's desire of Simple Living and High Thinking.

Govardhan Eco Village is attracting students from universities such as Harvard, Yale who are inspired by the working model of an Eco Village. Many of these students then take to the practice Bhakti after being impressed by the devotees efforts at GEV.

We were so impressed at seeing the love and care shown towards the Cows and bulls at GEV. It is an unique Goshala, where cows and bulls are so gentle that anyone could walk up to, hug, massage, feed and serve them.

Your mood of serving your god brothers and other senior devotees shines at GEV. We got Darshan of HH Devamrta Swami, HG Sesa Prabhu, HG Madhumati Mataji, who were all taking treatment at the GEV Ayurveda clinic. We also heard that HH Niranjana Swami was also recuperating at GEV after a surgery.

The tour of the Vrndavana Forest at GEV was so beautiful that any new comer would appreciate Vrndavana and anyone who has been to Bauma Vrndavana would fondly remember the Holy Dham. We were deeply touched by the love and care of the GEV devotees who have maintained the legacy of devotee care at ISKCON Chowpatty.

Our heartfelt gratitude to the wonderful and ecstatic Kartika-yatra in Mayapur. Despite the many challenges, the Yatra organizers made the Yatra as comfortable as possible to everyone who attended.

The Katha, Kirtanas, Holy places visited in Navadvipa and the Prasadam were purifying and at the same time ecstatic.

We beg and pray to draw inspiration from the above to serve in our respective temple communities.

Dear Guru Maharaja, on this auspicious day, I offer my heartfelt gratitude for the light you bring into our lives.

Your life is a testament to love, humility, and devotion.

Your journey of surrender and service inspires countless souls to seek the divine and walk the path of bhakti. Through your teachings, books, and gentle example, you show us how to transform challenges into opportunities for spiritual growth, and how to live with compassion, regardless of circumstances.

Your presence reminds us of the eternal truths of life, and your words guide us to the lotus feet of the Supreme Lord. With every kirtana you lead and every story you share, you draw us closer to Krishna's love.

On this special day, I pray for your health, and continued service. May you always remain a beacon of hope and devotion in this world, and may your message reach hearts far and wide.

Respected Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Maharaja, with the passage of time, my heart's appreciation for your divine qualities, your exemplary character, good behavior, and the culture & values taught by you goes on increasing.

More than 5 decades have passed by and you have been serving Srila Prabhupada without any interest in any gossip, politics, or criticism.

Tens of thousands of devotees literally worship you and surrender their hearts and lives unto your lotus feet, but you do not try to control anyone but rather just serve them with the same humility as ever.

Irrespective of time, place, and circumstances, you continue to make everyone fall in love with hearing the pastimes of Sri Sri Radha Krishna and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai and make everyone loudly chant and dance in Harinama Sankirtana.

You are like a lotus who remains pure amidst all the temporary but seemingly important ups and downs of this material world.

I also especially wish to thank you for your lectures. Your vani is like a Sanjivani herb for my material disease, and every time I take its association it acts as the 'Raam Baan' i.e. like a super miraculous cure for any agitation I face in my mind. It Not only calms down and protects my mind, but it also deeply nourishes my heart with Krishna and makes me joyfully aligned with the Vaisnava values taught by our Acaryas and Sastras. In fact, your vani often literally gives a direct experience of Krishna. Therefore, undoubtedly the greatest gift Krishna gave me in my life is Srila Prabhupada's books and your vani.

I also wish to thank you from the bottom of my heart for giving so many saintly devotees to this world and to all of us, in the form of your wonderful disciples. By their good qualities, respectful dealings, and especially by their genuine bhakti to Sri Krishna, they glorify you in a very special way. I feel forever indebted to tens of your disciples, if not hundreds, who have had direct contributions to my life or have helped in my services to you. Plus many more of them have given me so much spiritual inspiration through their enthusiasm for hearing and chanting the glories of Sri Krishna.

Time and again you have taught us to always seek the blessings of Vaisnavas, and never offend them because they are very dear to Sri Krishna. This one value alone can uplift every devotee and help alleviate several challenges in devotional service. Similarly many other values like unity, and focusing on commonality and essence of devotees.

I seek your blessings to be able to be a genuine Vaisnava someday, a humble servant of servants of Sri Krishna, from inside as well as outside, the way Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada have taught us, and be able to heartily take shelter of Krishna's holy names.
Thank you once again, Maharaja.
Grateful to you for everything.

Thank you Maharaja for accepting me as your disciple and connecting me to Vaisnava sampraday in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. It is my great fortune. It is said that a disciple is always in debt to his spiritual master. So extending that I can never pay the mercy which you have shown on me but I am trying to follow your instructions of you and Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you guru Maharaja for extending your mercy to bring us at the different dham in the association of so many devotees. Specially your lectures are very nourishing to the heart and touching. I really cannot explain in the words but it's like life giving and life transforming for me.

Thank you Maharaja for giving us so many valuable seniors in our life like HG Radheshyam Pr and HG Prem Harinam Pr. And by following them sincerely, I am sure to achieve some drop of limitless ocean of bhakti Ras someday.

As innocent and just neophyte practitioner of bhakti, due to my conditioning, I am always doing so many mistakes by not following the instruction of you and Prabhupada. Please forgive me guru Maharaja And please bless me so that I can come out of my anathas and become a devotee to start contributing in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you a happy Krishna Conscious birthday to you Maharaja. On this auspicious occasion praying to Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha and Srila Prabhupada to bestow you unlimited spiritual and material strength so that you can reach unlimited soul and inspire them in Krishna Consciousness.

Dear Guru Maharaja, on the joyous occasion of Your 74th Vyasa-puja, I humbly pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Lalita Vishakha Radha Gopinatha for Your good health and long life.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to You for giving us the rare opportunity to attain Krishna prema in this lifetime. Your thousands of amazing lectures and kirtanas continue to inspire and guide us tremendously. Your personal example of pure devotional service is the guiding light for conditioned souls like us.

By Your empowerment, the preaching in North Atlanta is growing. Devotees are feeling encouraged. I have the joy of seeing so many devotees advance spiritually. The opportunities for speaking Hari katha are also increasing.

Despite all this, I continue to be a victim of my vices. It is very difficult for me to be a good disciple due to my insincerity. I make frequent mistakes. My Sadhana is not consistent.

But still, You have not rejected me. You spent so much time with me at Sadhu Sanga. This is due to Your extreme kindness, Guru Maharaja. Sitting with You for over an hour and listening to Your words of wisdom was the highlight of this year for me. I gleaned four important lessons from You that day...

1. Have exemplary personal Sadhana (acara)
2. Preach a lot (pracara)
3. Don't be attached to position and prestige (vairagya)
4. Always be humble, considering oneself to be a very small servant (dainya)

I also realized that despite all my millions of faults, You consider me Your own. Thank you very much Guru Maharaja.

I beg for Your blessings so that I become a good disciple and please You always in all ways. Hare Krishna.
Your servant,
Adi Gadadhar Das

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
My Koti Koti Dandavat Pranamas unto your lotus feet!
Dear Guru Maharaja,

I really need your mercy so that I may have only one desire in my life: to serve you and all the Vaisnavas. I am such a foolish person that I have no idea how to perform any service properly.

I pray that my only desire becomes to lead my life by following in your footsteps. I pray to Lord Krishna that I can receive your personal association one day in my life, which would be the greatest success of my life.

Please always remain in my heart with your transcendental smile. Kindly guide me on how to chant properly, how to live as a true devotee, how to sing the Lord's glories from the heart, and how to serve the Vaisnavas nicely.

I pray for your good health, Guru Maharaja, and for your continuous mercy.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my Humble Obeisances.
All Glory to Srila Prabhupada
All Glory to Guru & Gauranga.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my humble respects and heartfelt gratitude. Your profound teachings and compassionate leadership have transformed countless lives, including my own. Though I am adamant under the influence of material energy, to not follow it and perfect my life.

Your dedication to spreading Krishna Consciousness. and your unwavering commitment to the principles of bhakti inspire me daily. Through your lectures and personal interactions, you instill in us the values of humility, service, and love for all beings.

Your ability to connect deeply with people, regardless of their background, exemplifies the spirit of compassion taught by Srila Prabhupada. You have shown us that true spiritual strength lies in service and devotion.

As I reflect on your teachings, I am reminded of your emphasis on the importance of community and support in our spiritual journeys. Your guidance has helped us navigate challenges and grow in our devotion. However, I am still falling short due to my attachment and eagerness to enjoy this material world. I pray for your good health and well-being so you may continue to guide us on this path of devotion. May I always serve you and follow your teachings with sincerity and dedication. Thank you for being a beacon of light in this world.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my Humble Obeisances on to your divine Lotus feet.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Although not qualified to speak your glories I will try my level best to do so, it is just like taking Ganga water and again offering it back to Ganga in the same way whatever I have learnt through your association just offering it back to you.

I would just like to glorify few aspects of your divine being.

First one of being Compassionate.

Your compassionate nature is truly beyond words and has given rise to the beautiful association of devotees at Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple.

This temple is nothing but an expansion of your compassionate nature. Only through this association I am holding on to the tree of bhakti.

Your glorious disciples have given ultimate shelter to me by providing the best ever guidance I ever needed in my life and also hand holding me in various aspects of life.

For this very glorious contribution to Srila Prabhupada's mission I am eternally grateful to you. Your quality of being grateful is something that really has touched me.

You have emphasized this point of being grateful for every circumstance that is being brought about in life, and this is being a torch head for me in tough times.

You have been constantly guiding through your words of wisdom in your nectarine classes which when taken seriously will seriously help one face the difficult circumstances in one's life.

Your mission of taking Srila Prabhupada's vision so very close your heart is something commendable.

Making the Dream come true of Srila Prabhupada, of bringing Vrndavana to the world, and also people to Vrndavana by making the Govardhan Eco Village is exceptional. It holds true of your divine Vision that you have. I humbly pray at your lotus feet, that I serve eternally in the Mission of Srila Prabhupada in the most humble way possible & make you glorious some day..

Aspiring to be your servant.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,

It is the most auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja mahotsav and like every year I would like to make a humble attempt to offer my heartfelt offering to you which I know is not even a drop of the unlimited qualities that you have. I would like to describe some of your glories by using the acronym "Radhanath"

R - Radharani's compassion personified. Your heart is a storehouse of love and compassion for all living beings. Just observing your dealings one can automatically know what it means to love Krishna because that love naturally manifests in the form of compassion for one and all

A - Acarya. Gurudeva, you actually personify the word Acarya i.e someone who teaches by example. You not only give instructions in your lectures but also live by each word you teach us.

D - Devoted: your life is a perfect example of dedication and devotion to the order of your beloved spiritual master. Whatever be your achievements, you are never puffed up by them and always do these as a devotional service to your gurudeva

H - Humility personified. Gurudeva you have actually shown the real meaning of the verse Trinad api sunichen by your own example. You are never ever attached to any power, post or position and in your heart you are always a simple brajwasi who is happy serving everyone with your heart and soul as an offering to Srila Prabhupada. Even while externally taking the role of a guru, you carry the spirit of doing this on behalf of your dear Gurudeva, Srila Prabhupada

A - Ascetic - You have no attachment to any material designations or bodily comforts. Your days of extreme austerity in new Vrndavana are a testimony to your inherent nature of a real sadhu

N- Nurturing like a mother and Affectionate like a father: You have actually played the role of a nurturing mother as well as an Affectionate father in the lives of hundred of devotees. The community that you have developed is just like a family which is kept together and nurtured by a loving mother and an Affectionate father

A - Absorption- Your Absorption in every activity in devotional service be it your sadhna, seva or sadachar is exemplary. You always live by the instruction you give " Attention to details is a sign of love".

T - Transcedentalist: Right from your early childhood, you have always been Transcedental and not really belonging to this world. Materialism never really influenced you and you have always ran away from things that normally people would run after. The book Journey home beautifully describes so many instances of you always seeking spirituality or transcendence

H - Humorous : Your wit and humour always makes devotees laugh incessantly and your own laugh is so transcendentally attractive that it is loved by one and all

On this special day, I sincerely pray to Lordships to bestow you with long life and very good health so that you can continue to serve your gurudeva and help giving shelter to unworthy souls like myself who are totally dependent on your mercy

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
Thank you Maharaja for all your kindness that you show to this fallen soul. I am an aspiring disciple of Srila Lokanath Swami Maharaja. Please bless me so that I can serve my Guru Maharaja at my best.

Srila Maharaja, you are personification of humility. Being a Guru you are showing us the way how shall we behave with devotees and what should be our approach to everyone. You are a great great example from whom every person could learn many things. I have got to learn many things from you Maharaja. You face so much difficulty still you are preaching the mission of Sriman Mahaprabhu and Srila Prabhupada. THERE IS A LOT TO LEARN FROM YOU.

Maharaja, I am currently serving in ISKCON Kolkata, Sri Radha Govind Mandir, Albert Road. By your mercy I am currently serving in the kitchen hall. Sometimes I also do get to make the garlands for the deities. And I also do get to do Kirtanas in the temple hall. I hope in the upcoming months I'll be able to serve Srila Prabhupada in distributing transcendental Krishna Conscious books. I pray to your holiness that please bless me so that I could do more service and make my spiritual master and Krishna happy. Maharaja please bless me so that I get initiated soon by Srila Lokanath Swami Maharaja.

Praying to Sri Radha Govind, Jagannath Baldev Subhadra Maharani for your good health.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

I have no personal qualification to get connected to you but because of the causeless mercy of Shri Shri Radha Govind dev, previous acaryas, guru parampara, Srila Prabhupada and senior devotees I got this wonderful opportunity. I feel really grateful for this.

Your qualities of gratitude, humility, compassion, tolerance, giving respect to all, not expecting any respect for oneself, determination, simplicity, teaching us by example and other innumerable qualities are inspiring me to work on my spiritual path.

You are always emphasising the application of Sikshatakam Verse 3 - Trnad api sunicena, taror api sahisnuna, amanina mana dena, kirtanaiyah sada harih in our lives. I cannot develop these qualities without your mercy and blessings. At least theoretically I know the mood of chanting and I'm making an attempt to chant Hare Krishna Maha Mantra with this consciousness by your grace but due to the conditioning, I'm unable to do so.

You give prominence to the unity in diversity principle to apply in my life, so that I can appreciate the differences by simply understanding the presence of spirit soul (part and parcel of Krishna) and Supersoul in each and every living entity. This is really challenging principle to apply in my life and I want your mercy and blessings to develop this consciousness.

Simply by hearing your recorded classes or attending live classes in the temple or in yatra or even by association of your disciples and the mood that they carry, any person can experience a change of heart and immediately take up the path of devotion. By your personal example you are teaching me to accept austerities to try to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

I'm really grateful to you that with your grace there is a temple in Thane and I'm getting the chance to associate with the devotees, chant the Holy Name, hear Srimad-Bhagavatam, get darshan of Sri Sri Radha Govind dev, honour Prasadam and serve according to my limited capacity.

Kartika-yatra 2024 was my first yatra. Thank you for providing amazing facilities in the yatra, so that I can simply engross myself in taking full benefit of the dham (katha, chanting, darshan, Prasadam, association of devotees, seva, etc.). It shows the amazing care you are taking of all your children. Thank you for showing the depth of care and affection and encouraging me to help others by your example.

Please shower your mercy and blessings on me to become a servant of the servant of the servant and make me an instrument in serving the mission. Please give me strength to take all austerities in serving your mission under the guidance of senior devotees and carry out the instructions as it is. Please bless me so that I can understand the value of what I'm getting in this wonderful community and continue to remember that.

Respected Radhanath Swami Guru Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet.
Maharaja, you are completing 74 years of your life. I pray to Lord Krishna for your long, healthy, blissful life. You have spent your whole life preaching Krishna Consciousness.

Maharaja, you are very humble, compassionate, and tolerant. These qualities of yours always inspire us for progress in Krishna Consciousness. (bhakti). Your unlimited endeavors and pains taken for establishing the Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple at Chowpatty, Mumbai, likewise so many temples and preaching centers. Thousands of highly qualified devotees are inspired by you, and they have become devotees and Brahmacaris, following Krishna Consciousness., devotional services, preaching devotion, preaching the Bhagvat Geeta, the Bhagavatam, the Caitanya Charitramruta, and other Sril Prabhupada books.

Dear Maharaja, you have developed the Goverdhan Eco Village at Wada Dist. Thane. It is such a wonderful, very nice place. The functioning of the village is purely vedic cultural. Under your guidance, Bhaktivedanta Hospital at Mira Road and at Vridavan and Eye Hospital at Barsana are established.

Maharaja, in your lectures you always press glorification of bhakti. You always talk about humility and compassion (Trumadapi Sunichen). Even though we do not get your physical association, we listen to you through your lectures (Vani) and get guidance from your lectures.

Maharaja You are so kind, very much caring, and merciful to your disciples and devotees. You have deep knowledge of Vedic scriptures that is expressed in your lectures. Your quotes are very meaningful and important for devotees. Your grand personality, by seeing you, only you attract devotees and give them blissfulness. I am very much lucky that I got initiation from you, Maharaja; for that, I am very much obliged, and I cannot repay anything in its turn.

Maharaja, thank you very much for your mercy.

Our Most Beloved Father, Srila Guru Maharaja, Please accept our respectful obeisances at the dust of Your lotus feet on the most auspicious occasion of Your divine appearance. All glories to You! All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji!!

Guru Maharaja, You are truly an ocean of mercy, Kripa Sindhu!! The way You touch the lives of anyone whom You come in contact with, You make them feel that they are the only people important to You, You make them feel so special. Anyone who has been a recipient of Your merciful association, can fathom this.

Srila Narottama Das Thakur, in one of his Vaisnava songs glorifying a Vaisnava says,

" If one touches the sacred waters of the Ganga, they become purified later. The quality of a Vaisnava is that anyone can be immediately purified just by the sight of you".

This statement of Srila Narottama Das Thakur is so true, and we see it practically with our own eyes, in regards to You, that who so ever interacts with You, becomes unconditionally more attached to the lotus feet of Sri Sri Guru & Gauranga!! Even if You don't speak to someone, Your merciful glance and Your most enchanting smile, does all the magic in transforming a person's heart!

On this most auspicious day of Your divine appearance, we humbly beg at the Lotus Feet of Sri Ugrastanu Nrsimhadev, to always keep You in His transcendental shelter and in the best of health!!

Guru Maharaja, we beg forgiveness for any offenses committed by us knowingly or unknowingly, and allow us to remain as particles of dust at Your Lotus Feet. We humbly beg for Your blessings to continue and increase our services for the pleasure of all the Vaisnavas, Yourself, Srila Prabhupada and the entire Guru Parampara. Your personal association, some menial services rendered to You and Your causeless mercy upon us, allows us to sustain in our spiritual lives. We are eternally indebted to You. On this most auspicious day of Your divine appearance, we beg at Your lotus feet to mercifully allow us to remain engaged in Your service, for Your pleasure, eternally.

I am eternally grateful to you Gurudeva, for accepting me & giving me shelter at your holy lotus feet.

brahmanda bhramite kona bhagyavan jiva guru-Krishna-prasade paya bhakti-lata-bija

I don't know by what good fortune I came to be accepted in this most glorious & legendary Brahma-madhva-gaudiya sampradaya, wherein Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu himself came along with all his associates, the all-famous 6 goswamis were leading this disciplic succession then followed by Srila Narottam Das Thakur, Srinivas Acarya, Vishwanath Chakravarti Thakur, Baladeva Vidyabhushana & many others. Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakur then preserved the teachings of this sampradaya handing it over to Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur who spread it all over India. Later Srila Prabhupada, the commander-in-chief of Lord Caitanya's army took this movement all over the world. I consider myself greatly fortunate & eternally indebted to you Gurudeva for connecting me to such a glorious disciplic succession, I do not see myself having any qualification, still you showered your causeless mercy unto this useless soul. In return I wish to dedicate myself fully in your service, knowing well that it's nothing in comparison to what your gave me.

Thank you so much Gurudeva everything, especially your nourishing lectures. In the recent Kartika-yatra in Mayapur, you were telling that the actual mood for chanting should be that we are doing this only for the pleasure of Krishna, as when Nimai's neighbourhood ladies would chant, they had no other motive than to see Nimai happy by their chanting (Ahaituky apratihatä). Other time you mentioned that our spiritual advancement does not depend on our liking a particular devotee, but it is based on the outlook that how Srila Prabhupada is pleased with that devotee & how Srila Prabhupada loves him. You always bring about lessons which deal with how should be our mood while doing devotional duties, which is very essential. Please bless us that we may one day come up to your expectations.

I pray at your lotus feet Guru Maharaja, that I may be able to keep up my practice of devotional service cultivating the mood of being the servant of servant, chant my rounds sincerely & attentively, cultivate genuine humility, not judge other Vaisnavas, assist in the preaching & give respect to everyone without expecting it in return.

Always seeking your mercy,

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

I am most fortunate to get the shelter of your Lotus feet.

Your dedication and devotional services towards your spiritual master, HDG Srila Prabhupada, inspire and motivate the most fallen souls, like me, to follow the spiritual path.

Maharaja, one instruction that you have personally given to Anandavrndavana Prabhuji and to all the devotees, to step out of home only after chanting 16 rounds in one sitting in the morning, is helping and motivating me to give priority to chanting. Though I am struggling a lot to sincerely follow this instruction, I am trying and trying and trying, and I will be able to follow this consistently.

Dear Maharaja, you are nurturing hundreds and thousands and millions of devotees for their spiritual advancements by your love and care.

I beg at your lotus feet to please give me shelter so that one day I can serve the devotees in the mood of daas anu daas anu daas and daas... and can please you as well.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

I am an ocean of faults but you are the ocean of mercy.

What can one expect from a person who knowingly drinks poison daily by engaging into material existence? What is the hope for a person who willingly keeps distance from god and diving into sense gratification?

What is the hope for a person who is egoistically doing aparadh?

The answer is you my dear Guru Maharaja... Kusumadapi komalam Vajradapi kathoram... But you just know how to shower loving mercy and nothing else... In your lectures you always say that devotees are more merciful than Lord himself, but where is an example.... One of its examples is you my dear Guru Maharaja. I beg you at your lotus feet to forgive all my offenses. I beg your mercy again and again and strength to serve you by following regulative principles and chanting attentively. Hare Krishna

First I thank all the Vaisnavas by whose grace I am on the path of devotion today.

I consider myself fortunate to have had the opportunity to speak about Guru on the occasion of Maharaja's 74th Vyasa-puja.

At a childhood age when children want to garden, play, and learn, an unusual person who, with a voice from his heart, has crossed the whole world. Suffering hardships, and without protection he comes to India for the realization of God and embraces Krishna Consciousness. with intensity, passion, and earnestness.

To get even a particle of it would be my gratitude to the Guru.

Maharaja, please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, the greatest inspiration for me is chanting the holy names in your footsteps. The way you chant every syllable of the mahamantra with great love, if you are merciful upon this fallen soul, I would like to taste a tiny particle of it sometime, the love with which you offer each mantra to the Lord.

On your Vyasa-puja, I wish to humbly submit that even if I have to take many lifetimes in the material world, I never wish to go away from the movement of Srila Prabhupada. Because of the care and affection, you have given me all these years, I feel like an eternal home in this movement. This is most valuable for me.

I understand that the brunt of taking Srila Prabhupada's movement forward lies ahead, and I humbly seek your mercy to be able to represent Srila Prabhupada in the right way for the years to come.

I understand that the spiritual master's debt can never be paid off, but I humbly wish to offer this life to following your Vani and making them as my heart and soul.

As every disciple tries to imbibe the qualities of his spiritual master, I wish to be able to follow your instruction, especially about being humble, and serve others with genuine humility always.

I feel the most surrendered to you presently than ever before, and I just humbly pray for your blessings to be an instrument of grace and to uphold your Vani, even in the most difficult situations with integrity.

As it is said 'A perfect follower can only be a perfect Guru'.

We can see through your life Guru Maharaja how you have followed your Guru very perfectly.

How sincerely and seriously you used to do many services with so many hard struggles all alone in New Vrndavana just for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada is really a very motivating factor for all of us in our devotional service.

I have seen many times how profound loving relationship you have with all of your God brothers and God Sisters and your glorifications for them have no end.

On this auspicious occasion, I would like to thank you for always nourishing us through your lectures and through your own personal examples and teachings.

Thank You, Gurudeva for taking us to Dham Yatra every year in Kartika month and making us absorbed and charged ourselves spiritually for the whole year through your nectarine classes and kirtanas.

You always emphasize all of us on the verse
'trnad api sunicena
taror api sahisnuna amanina manadena
kirtaniyah sada harih'

One should chant the holy name of the Lord in a humble state of mind, thinking oneself lower than the straw in the street; one should be more tolerant than a tree, devoid of all sense of false prestige, and should be ready to offer all respect to others. In such a state of mind, one can chant the holy name of the Lord constantly.

Please Guru Maharaja bless us so that we can be able to follow a drop of it and assist you in carrying out the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you. All glories to Prabhupada.

Maharaja, you are such an amazing acarya, leader and at the same time very simple and humble person; It's so Inspiring. This year I was not able to participate in the Annual Kartika-yatra at Sridham Mayapur. But I saw in one of the videos, you walk through the pandal giving your darshan and blessings to all the devotees and to see and appreciate their services...You even walked literally through the vessel washing area. It's really amazing how a person can inspire so many people!! This is your greatness.

Now last year I have shifted to Indianapolis US & here I am very fortunate to get the association of one of your very dear disciple HG Yashoda Dulal Pr. Prji shared very inspiring pastimes which happened between you and him. I feel so encouraged and inspired after hearing those.

Also I heard from HG Caitanya Charan Pr one of the advice you gave which is we should speak out of concern for other people. This is very important advice and you personally show so much concern for everyone. Recently you have started giving initiations at many places in India. In every lecture you start with the verse of Om Apavitrah Pavitro Vaa..I really get hope after hearing it. I am struggling with my Anarthas and distracted by many worries. I beg to have your shelter so that I can overcome my struggles and can keep myself more and more in service of Krishna and Prabhupada.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and to you, divine grace.

By your great kindness, you travel all over the world just to deliver the fallen souls rotting in the material world. They have turned away from Krishna, given up service to Krishna, and are trying to enjoy separately. As a result, they are suffering terribly.

You inspire the fallen souls to take to Krishna Consciousness., to give up materialistic ways of life, to love and serve Krishna, and thereby every living entity.

Srila Prabhupada preached in a nonsectarian way how there is one God, who is to be worshipped by everyone. Following in the footsteps of Srila Prabhupada, you preach very expertly in a nonsectarian way, without diluting the pure message given by Acaryas. So many people all over the world, from different backgrounds, got transformed by coming into your contact.

Your books and lectures are beacons of light for our lives. They are so pure and sublime, based on the essence of all great scriptures of the world.

Your life is a great example of pure devotional service, surrender, loyalty to Srila Prabhupada and ISKCON, wonderful friendships with Godbrothers, first-class deity worship, humility, and devotion. Just by hearing your kirtanas or lectures, we get purified and get inspired to do better in bhakti.

Almost everything I know about Srila Prabhupada, all the previous acaryas, Lord Caitanya, Lord Nityananda, and all others, is just from hearing your all-merciful lectures. Which are very authentic, very pure, and in great depth.

You are very merciful, kind, and expert at meeting with all different kinds of people: devotees from other Sampradayas, people from impersonalist societies, and all kinds of materialistic people, but you never get contaminated, but you transform others by your touch.

Srila Prabhupada was very pleased with your Sandesha, which you would make with great love and devotion, spending many hours sacrificing your sleep. And you are making an immeasurably great contribution to Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Thank you very much for your innumerable transcendental gifts. Guru Maharaja. Like Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Govardhan Eco Village, Kartika Yatras, ISKCON Desire Tree, and many more, which give everyone a chance to love and serve Krishna.

I am suffering greatly due to my uncontrolled mind. My only hope is to get shelter at your lotus feet and to be engaged in your service as a servant of your servants.

Please forgive me for my sins and offenses.

Hare Krishna Maharaja ji,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Maharaja, I do not know how to write a Vyasa-puja offering, and even if I try, I often fall short of words. However, as an aspiring disciple, it is my duty to glorify you, for doing so strengthens my love and surrender at your lotus feet. Please accept this humble and simple offering.

Dear Gurudeva, ever since I was able to understand love, it was my father who showed me the deepest affection and gave me the gift of life. After his departure, I found that same love once again—in you, through your divine voice and lectures. Maharaja, your life is a beacon of inspiration that guides me to persevere and progress in my devotional journey.

While reading The Journey Home, many moments in your life deeply moved and inspired me to embrace devotional service—your surrender to Mother Ganga, your sacrifice to save for the Krishna Book, and so many other instances that exemplify your unwavering devotion and surrender to the Lord.

I remember your visit to Ayodhya for the inauguration of the Ram Mandir. By your mercy, I had the good fortune to take your darshan up close and to serve those who were serving you. On January 22, 2024, you showered your love upon everyone with your affectionate embrace. Though I may not yet be worthy of such grace, I live with the hope that one day, I will be blessed by your kindness again.

Gurudeva, while your personal association may be rare, I feel your presence in my life at every moment. I know you are always with me, guiding and caring for me, hearing even my silent cries.

Dear Gurudeva, I beg for your mercy. You alone know how fallen and weak I am in my determination. Yet, with your grace, I am confident that I can rise above the illusion of Maya and strive sincerely on the path of devotion.

I am filled with anarthas and duplicity, undeserving of your mercy. Yet, I yearn to purify my heart and dedicate myself to the mission of Srila Prabhupada. This will only be possible by your causeless grace, Gurudeva.

Please accept me as a servant of the servant of the servant at your lotus feet.
Your aspiring servant,

It is difficult for me to describe the effect that Maharaja had upon me. They say that the saints think of the welfare of the whole world. It must be true. Otherwise how is that someone that I have never met, who is from the opposite side of the world that I am in, and brought up in an entirely different culture, has put so much effort to contribute to my spiritual upliftment? I came under the guidance of HG Radheshyam Prabhu in 2015, and later on realized that Maharaja is his Spiritual Master. Therefore, in a sense, Maharaja is the reason for me being in the movement. I will forever be indebted to Maharaja for that.

Srila Prabhupada writes in Srimad-Bhagavatam 9.18.43P "Everyone gets a father and mother, but if one gets the benediction of Krishna and guru, he can conquer material nature and return home, back to Godhead."

This opportunity to get Guru is only possible in human form.

On this auspicious day of your appearance day, Vyasa-puja, its my great fortune to express some broken words of gratitude.

I always find myself very sheltered and nourish when I hear from you. Every word is filled with such compassion and urgency that I feel inspired to become more sincere at every step to commit myself in service.

Esp when you say in lecture, 'today I was hearing from Srila Prabhupada' which shows your deep connection and love for Guru which inspires me to strengthen my connection with Spiritual Master more seriously through vani.

Your respectful, humble yet friendly dealing with your Godbrothers enlivens my life by seeing such interaction which are of beyond this world.

Guru Maharaja, please bless me so that I become sincere serious and have no ulterior motive in my daily services, Sadhana and respectful in my dealings with devotees. Let me not take anything in Krishna Consciousness. for granted and cheaply and not become careless.

May I take every word from your as my life and lead myself at every moment accordingly. Please forgive me for my unlimited offenses, misbehavior and mistakes.

I would forever remain indebted to You Maharaja for giving me this beautiful community at Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple, ISKCON Chowpatty.

My heartfelt gratitude to You for giving us fallen souls, an opportunity to serve in various ways using our talents gifted my Krishna.

Thank You Maharaja immensely for having started Chetana community past so many years which gives a platform to girls to meet and make friendly relations with like minded girls. The Senior Preacher Matajis here are very disciplined, compassionate, humble, exemplary example of great disciples. Thank You for Your amazing Mataji disciples.

Eternally indebted to You Maharaja for giving us Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha who are highly captivating and enchanting.

Grateful to You Maharaja for giving Your wonderful disciples and brilliant spiritual leaders like Gauranga Prabhuji, Gaur Gopal Prabhuji to name a few to guide us in our path of bhakti.

Words would always fall short to offer gratitude for the unending, magnanimous contribution of Yours in our lives.

Please keep showering Your mercy and blessings on this fallen soul like me always. Your merciful glance we get at ISKCON Chowpatty is purifying us. May Your merciful glance continue to purify us in many more years to come.

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
Ocean full of LOVE and MERCY!

I am eternally grateful to be able to write this offering.

I am even more grateful that because of the prayers and blessings of the devotees, I could be able to attend this year's Kartika-yatra (ocean full of devotees).

All those days went MAGICAL!

I really love, how their Lordships plan each and every single thing so perfectly!

Your merciful glance on us in front of TOVP, made this Yatra even more magical.

When I revisit this memory, my eyes are always overflowing with tears of being under your shelter, and I feel the most beautiful thing around my heart!

Yesterday. Today. Tomorrow. Forevermore.

That day still feels like a dream to me!

Your love washes over us, like waves on the shore,

Infinite compassion, forevermore.

Your compassion is like a beacon lighting our way,

In your ocean of mercy and love,

We'll never stray!

GuruMaharaja, when you offer your love and respect to your Godbrothers and Godsisters, it reminds me the importance of love, empathy and support for one another.

Presents a perfect example for us that by reaching out and offering our love in our community, we create a harmonious and nurturing environment where everyone feels appreciated and valued.

In this act of giving love and respect, strengthen our spiritual connection and deepen our understanding of the divine love that flows through.

And your divine melodious kirtanas are so sweet.

In your holiness rhythm and rhyme, our hearts beat.

Each word a song of pray and love,

Transporting us to a sacred space.

GuruMaharaja, I am unworthy, insignificant but am grateful for the blessings, love and mercy that have been bestowed upon me.

I cannot repay you and the devotees but I am committed to serve you all with my utmost dedication.

I humbly requesting you for continued blessings and guidance on my spiritual journey.

With a heart full of gratitude.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, it is my great fortune to glorify your ocean-like Vaisnava qualities, remember your causeless mercy upon a fallen soul like me, and express my heartfelt gratitude towards you. This year marks a very special event in my life, as on 11th October 2024, in Nashik Dham, you kindly accepted me as your disciple and gave me a new spiritual birth. Moreover, my 8-month-old daughter received your very special blessings and divine touch, creating an unforgettable memory in my heart.

Since the early days of my devotional life, your lectures have been the prime source of my inspiration. In every lecture, you emphasize the most important devotional qualities—humility and tolerance—encapsulated in the verse, trinad api sunichena taror api sahishnunam. You have exemplified these qualities through your actions, inspiring me deeply to follow them. Your loyal devotion to Srila Prabhupada is also a guiding light for me. I take immense inspiration from your instruction to your disciples: "My disciples should treat my godbrothers in the same way they treat me." This profound instruction is a cornerstone for fostering unity within ISKCON and ultimately pleases Srila Prabhupada.

This year, by the blessings of Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Guru, and Vaisnavas, I, along with my family, had the great fortune to attend the Kartika-yatra at Sri Mayapur Dham. It was spiritually nourishing to listen to your lectures, participate in your kirtanas, and honor the delicious Prasadam at Sri Mayapur Dham during the holy month of Kartika. Your eagerness to serve and please the Vaisnavas, even at such an advanced age, deeply touched my heart.

Thank you very much for your divine mercy upon this fallen soul. On this auspicious day, I humbly beg for your blessings so that I may follow your instructions sincerely, in the proper spirit, and always strive to please Hari, Guru, and Vaisnavas.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
I offer my humble obeisances at your holy lotus feet.
All glories Gauranga! All glories to Sril Prabhupada!

I find myself very very fortunate to have you Sril Gurudeva in my life. It was truly a blessing that, I could attend this year Kartika-yatra. I feel so fortunate that I could attend this soul nourishing yatra in my life though I was not qualified. That every word you were speaking while narrating pastimes of our dear Lord Krishna, ears were really relishing a nectar. It was truly amazing opportunity I got in yatra as Sabji Cutting, by mercy of you, HG Gauranga Prabhu and HG Radheshyaam Prabhuji.

Sril Gurudeva, I am so thankful for your boundless love and mercy. No words can fully express my appreciation. When I think about my past, it brings tears to my eyes. I was surrounded by so many obstacles, yet through Sril Prabhupada's books, lectures, and the company of devotees, I began to see life through the lens of shastra. You have shown me the true goal of life.

Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for everything. Your sacrifice, tolerance, humility, compassion, and countless other things have shown me the way. I feel eternally grateful and indebted to you for all that you've given me. You are the embodiment of Lord Caitanya's and Sril Prabhupada's mercy.

In the last three years, my life has changed in wonderful ways. By divine arrangement, I came into the association of devotees at GGD during my first year of college. Soon after, I was invited to the Sankalpa and Sphurti camps at GEV which is the manifestation of your love for Lord and compassion for the world. After spending nearly a year in isolation at home due to COVID, visiting GEV and being with the devotees felt like a pilgrimage to Vrndavana.

Through your vani, I am reminded of how Lord Caitanya's mission is being spread by your instructions and how the mercy flows through HG Radheshyam Prabhu, HG Amshu Prabhu, HG Kadamb Kanan Prabhu, HG Subal Priya Prabhu, Amit Prabhu and so many other devotees.

Thank you, Sril Gurudeva, for all the mercy you've given me, though I am undeserving. Srila Prabhupada, I feel so fortunate to worship you and hear your teachings. Without your guidance, I would not understand the purpose of my life. Your mercy, sacrifice, and compassion have been the light that guides me on the path of bhakti. I am forever grateful.

Thank you for welcoming me into your mission and giving me the chance to chant, dance, and relish Krishna Prasadam – the most precious gift. Sometimes, I take this association lightly because it came to me so easily, but I vow to never forget its significance. I will always respect the devotees and honor their exalted positions. Please bless me with the strength to follow your teachings sincerely and live my life according to your guidance. May I always strive to please you, the authorities, and the Vaisnavas through my practice of Krishna Consciousness.

Dear Gurudeva, I struggle with my chanting and the inner obstacles that hold me back. I seek your mercy to overcome these challenges. I recall the words of Sant Tukaram Maharaja: "ethe pahiye jatiche, yedya gabadyache kaam nahi" – and I feel he is speaking of me. Please help me always remember Sril Prabhupada, you and dedicate myself to your mission with all my heart.

With deepest gratitude and sincerity,
Your aspiring and devoted servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet! All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On the occasion of this most auspicious event of your 74-th Vyasa- puja, I would like to offer you the words of gratitude that by your mercy and by the mercy of our kind and compassionate Lord Sri Krishna, you came to my life to give me protection from this abyss of sufferings of material enjoyments.

Taking the path of bhakti-yoga, I started discovering so many obstacles inside, which hold me away from real devotional life. Only by your mercy, dear Guru Maharaja, I am starting to distinguish between false and true.

On Mayapur yatra you told how Mukunda had faith and enthusiasm when Lord Caitanya told in angry mood that he will be able to see Him after 10 million births. And you elaborated that this is what surrender means - to have faith and enthusiasm. I was inspired by this words and wanted to hold to them, but later on I found that my heart is bereft of neither faith, not enthusiasm. I became horrified how empty my heart is and how actually demoniac it is. And again that was your mercy on me I was able to see it. The only thing I could rely on became your mercy which only can reveal the dormant faith and enthusiasm within me. Your mercy, the mercy of Vaisnavas, the mercy of the Lord are my only hope, not my attempts to obtain it, not even my prayers, but the mercy only on which I can rely, continuing my attempts, continuing my prayers to satisfy you.

I am in the process of finding myself and I start understanding that this is possible only in my relationships with you, not separately. This is possible in the relationships with the sound vibration of the holy name, which is Krishna Himself in the mood of servitorship.

Thinking of your quality of humility, which is like a vast, shoreless ocean, with beautiful treasures in its depth, I feel so much joy, so much happiness and peace of mind. Your humility opens the sacred, hitherto untouchable, transcendental realms. And thinking of my conditioned life, I feel acute pangs, how unable I am to act and think in a humble mood and respect others. It's another shoreless ocean, which keeps me far apart...

On the initiation lecture in Nashik this year you told: "Who are we to chant these sacred prayers of Sri Siksastakam?" It echoed in my heart with these words: "Who am I to claim becoming your disciple?" You have thousands of wonderful disciples, bearing beautiful services at your lotus feet. I can only humbly hope and pray for their mercy and learn from them the proper mood of your humble servant.

Grateful and aspiring to your mercy,
though unworthy,

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

It is said in the scriptures: brahmanda bhramite kona bhagyavan jiva guru-Krishna-prasade paya bhakti-lata-bija (CC Madhya 19.151)

It is by the causeless mercy of Krishna that one is fortunate to receive the shelter of a bona fide spiritual master. The Divine Master mercifully gives him instructions that dispel all his ignorance and re-establish his lost connection with Krishna.

The Spiritual Master is compared to a physician who expertly treats the diseases of lust, anger, envy, and greed from the heart of the conditioned soul.

kama-krodhera dasa haña tara lathi khaya
bhramite bhramite yadi sadhu-vaidya paya (CC Madhya 22.14)

If one follows the treatment properly, then by the mercy of the spiritual master, he is released from the clutches of maya and gets the shelter of Krishna.

tanra upadesa-mantre pisaci palaya
Krishna-bhakti paya, tabe Krishna-nikata yaya (CC Madhya 22.15)

The Spiritual Master is the most dear and confidential servitor of Lord Krishna because he relieves Lord Krishna of His anxiety to reclaim the fallen souls from this material world. Thus, Krishna is very inclined to fulfill all the desires of His pure devotees who take the risk of taming the conditioned souls to pure devotional service.

This insignificant soul is also the recipient of your causeless mercy. You have made me fortunate by giving me a bona fide parampara to take shelter of, authorized books to see the reality, transcendental holy names to purify my heart, encouraging association to love and care for me, beautiful deities to pray to, delicious Prasadam to cherish, and your divine instructions to follow.

Still, with all these facilities, my mind refuses to obey your commands and become sincere and serious. I am still implicated in my sinful desires and actions. Your wonderful servants have given me so many chances to improve, yet I am not able to follow their simple instructions.

Oh! Most Merciful Master! Your words have always given me strength to carry on. I therefore beg, from the core of my heart, to please give me a drop of mercy so that I may again receive strength to rise and take your words seriously. In today's lecture, I heard: "To get maximum benefit, we should strictly follow now. Because tomorrow never comes. If we follow the principles of Krishna Consciousness. very strictly today, then it is a gradual process. If you are not following strictly, then it is a very, very gradual process. So, we should not waste our life. We should understand that death can come at any moment. That which is auspicious must be done at once. Because the same weak-heartedness which you have now, maya will always present that excuse for the rest of eternity unless and until you are willing to say NO."

My Master, please make me conscious of your instructions at every moment.
Begging for your mercy,
Your insincere servant wanting to be sincere,
Alok

Even as I write this offering, the reality of being under the shelter of your lotus feet for the last 17 years sinks in gradually. I'm ever indebted to you for engaging me in the service of Prabhupada, Krishna, and all Vaisnavas. I pray to you that your instructions and teachings stay with me always; and that I get to remember them at the most critical times in my life. I realize that I'm far from being anywhere near to perfection as a devotee must be - especially about your instructions on humility, gratitude, and not being judgemental. I realize that my efforts won't be enough in practicing bhakti unless I have your grace & causeless mercy of Prabhupada & all other Vaisnavas. So, on this appearance day, I beg of you to shower your causeless mercy on me. Please engage me in your service in whichever way you feel appropriate Maharaja - I hope to be of some use to you and Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Hare Krishna dear most GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my sincere humble obeisances. To my memory, this would be my second conscious offering at your lotus feet.

I got the fortune of getting your darshans at GEV, Kartika-yatra at Mayapur Dham, in East of Kailash Temple..., and many regular online darshans and updates through the mercy of devotees doing the media services; I am sincerely grateful to them.

I also got to hear Krishna Katha through the online collection of lectures, old(yet ever new) lectures of 1988-90. Somehow, I realized their importance when I was at home, and on the various days the relevant lectures came up; I felt that it is only through the ears that I feel anything... I feel Krishna conscious. Again all glories to the media team, so nicely they have curated everything. In addition to this, I heard from the Chopatty media tape of your lectures.

GuruMaharaja, I have a narrow vision but your glories are infinitely vast...

I observed you always going and meeting the devotees in the yatra kitchen, the ones doing simple humble services, and yourself cooking and increasing the faith and enthusiasm of all the devotees in person... Although we are already inspired to hear from you and hear about you, this presence adds to the most cherished memorable moments...

Your focus on high-quality training and the way it is communicated and executed is also very impeccable. Your absorption and reciprocation with the devotees is so beautiful, so touching, and sometimes totally out of this world... It shows your compassion and willingness to extend out of your infinite compassion and love.

Guru Maharaja, I am also doing a Bhakti Shastri course from our NVCC Pune center, which my counselor, HG Varadraj Prji, encouraged me to take up. Beg for your blessings to purely use the learnings to assist in this mission of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu. Before all this, I owe an apology to my counselors and friends and family for letting them down and being rude to them due to my shortcomings and mistakes and conditionings. I have not been able to assist properly in preaching due to not being able to settle my mind in one place and my nature.

So many changes have happened in my material life, but I feel no progress in my spiritual life... Being pulled back, being dragged and tossed by Krishna's all-powerful energy, maya devi in this dukhalayam...

GuruMaharaja, I feel I have failed you in many of the promises I made last year... some subtly some grossly... I feel there is no hope for this wretched soul, but the association of devotees you've given have always given me corrections, care, hope to live on and mend my life by practicing Krishna Consciousness....

I restate that I am very fond of you because you connect us selflessly to the Acaryas and the devotees through your words as well as your actions. Although, I know, I cannot fathom the depth of your actions. I have a strong desire to contribute to serving and fulfilling your desire to serve Srila Prabhupada. Kindly empower me, Maharaja, Kripa Bindu Diya, and secondly, give me the humility to recognize the empowerment through the devotees. One such instance was bringing my parents to GEV, who, being new to KC, could yet relate to the place and, while leaving, desired to return to it every year at least once...

A major shift has occurred in my life, guru Maharaja... I seek your blessings to enter Grihasta's life - the business world, family dealings, and various social responsibilities along with my Sadhana and other obligations... Maharaja... I don't know how to behave with devotees, nor do I know how to talk politely and humbly and sweetly. I remember hearing that, Mahaprabhu gave mercy to Chand Kazi Pr, in a very different way earlier by little fear and then very sweetly... But Maharaja what hope do I have?

All I seek is your blessings to serve you more full-heartedly... and every moment, not be conscious of s our parampara. Again, out of my audacity, I ask you to accept me as your insignificant servant.

Hare Krishna Maharaja ji.
Dandavat Pranamas. AGTSP.

I am a fallen soul who is deeply attached to maya; somehow connected to ISKCON through Srila Prabhupada mercy for 10 years. I take spiritual guidance from your disciples and humbly begging at your lotus feet to seek your shelter. Kindly accept my prayer and give me your causeless mercy. I am an aspiring servant of the servants of your servants.

Hare Krishna Maharaja!
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for all that you have given me in my spiritual and material life. Whatever I have achieved—whether in academics, in my service at ISKCON Kurukshetra, or in my personal spiritual journey—is solely due to your mercy and the mercy of Srila Prabhupada.

Over the past year, I have tried to serve to the best of my ability, particularly at IIT Roorkee, where we have been striving to spread Krishna Consciousness.. Whatever success we have achieved, I humbly offer at your lotus feet.

One of the most cherished moments of this year for me was meeting you at ISKCON Delhi during the Vyasa-puja ceremony of His Holiness Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja. Though the interaction was brief, it left an everlasting impression on my heart. Receiving your MahaPrasada garland through my spiritual mentor was another precious blessing, and I have preserved it with great reverence.

Your glorification of the Kurukshetra project during your lecture in Delhi gave me immense hope that you may visit ISKCON Kurukshetra someday. I fervently pray to Srila Prabhupada that I may have the opportunity to serve you personally when you do. Even if I do not meet you directly, the chance to serve you in any capacity will be the greatest privilege of my life.

Seeing you give initiations at Chowpatty, Juhu, Belgaum, and Kolhapur this year has filled my heart with hope. I am really happy for the devotees who have received your shelter and eagerly pray for the day when I too may be deemed worthy of receiving it.

I also got the chance to attend this year's Kartika-yatra. The moment when you were singing and His Holiness Jayapataka Swami Maharaja was dancing with his hands raised is still fresh before my eyes. I aspire to participate in more Kartika Yatras under your guidance in the future.

After hearing so many of your lectures, I've understood that what will please you is when the devotees come together and serve Krishna with humility and without any false ego or pride. Developing the servant-of-the-servant attitude has become the mission statement of my life, though I am acutely aware of my shortcomings and misgivings. Like Mukunda's unwavering determination to wait, I am also ready to practice devotional service enthusiastically, no matter how long it takes.

While I serve at IIT Roorkee, I often face temptations and distractions from Maya. I pray to you for strength to remain protected, stay in the shelter of devotees, and use my material abilities solely in Krishna's service. As I contemplate my future, I seek your guidance in making decisions that are auspicious and aligned with Krishna Consciousness.. May these decisions empower me to continue serving you and the Vaisnavas with all my heart and soul.

Finally, I humbly seek the benediction that Lord Caitanya gave to Haridas Thakur, that I may remain under your shelter and always serve and please the Vaisnavas.

Thank you for your boundless mercy and for being the guiding light in my life.
Your aspiring servant,

They told me, take the shelter of the spiritual master that is more accessible.

They told me, take the shelter of the spiritual master that is more present.

They told me, take the shelter of the spiritual master with less disciples...

But I couldn't...the voice of my heart was too loud!

Every single day I get the sign that following You as a spiritual master is the best choice for my spiritual growth.

Even if I am not initiated yet (You only humbly gave me the shelter) maybe I never will, I feel a strong call to take the path of following and serving You. Every day I feel enormous support of the family (Your disciples). I know that I need a lot of Radha and Krishna's mercy to become a good servant of Her and His Lotus feet. Insignificant and worthless as I am, I only hope to become the servant of the servant of the servant to satisfy Your Lotus feet too.

Thank You for being such a perfect guide! May Radha and Krishna bless You and Your precious mission! Wish you all the best for Your appearance day!

I am very insignificant and has no qualification and quality to glorify you, but still I will try to glorify you.

I have heard in your lecture the first class devotee is one who, by just seeing only you get Krishna Prema, so for me you are one of the example of purest devotee, I have seen in my life, whenever I would see you, I always remember Krishna and how you glorify Krishna so nicely.

You are a first-class devotee, whereas I am in the darkness of logical arguments. Because of your relationship with the Lord, the Lord has bestowed His benediction upon me.

Hare Krishna Dear Maharaja Ji. Thank you so much for being with me from the beginning of my days in Krishna Consciousness., and especially during my tough days. I can feel your blessings making my tough times insignificant as that of a calf's hoofprint's size. I am eternally grateful to you; by your blessings now my wife has also been chanting 5 rounds daily for the past 4 months. I beg unto your Lotus feet to please give me the intelligence and strength to take decisions Krishna Consciously and become the devotee that you want me to be. I will never be able to repay your debt of being so kind to an insignificant soul like me. Thank you so much Maharaja Ji. Hare Krishna :)

Hare Krishna, Dandavat Pranama,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Dear Srila Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Words fall short in expressing your greatness, as any glorification would merely be a drop in the ocean. You embody all the qualities of a pure devotee—humility, purity, leadership, magnanimity, and tolerance. Above all, you demonstrate unwavering faith in the transcendental service of the Supreme Lord.

Despite attending your Yatras, reading your books, and listening to your lectures, I struggled for a long time to decide who should be my Guru. Even during my surgery, my thoughts were only of you still due to false ego and material opulence's that I carry I couldn't surrender so far.

I find myself at a loss for words, yet from the depths of my heart, I want to complete surrender and beg for your shelter. Acknowledging my unworthiness, I request your unconditional mercy. Without it, I fear I will remain trapped in the clutches of illusion. It is my earnest hope that through your guidance, I may find refuge.

I sincerely beg for the mercy so that I can break free from this illusion and make the Holy Name my top priority, serving this movement with all my heart. Devotees say we must cry to attain Krishna's mercy and that of Srila Prabhupada, but I struggle with ego—so much so that when a single tear comes to my eye, I think I have become a great devotee. My situation is dire: unable to let go of maya, bound by pride, and struggling to overcome my shortcomings. Please bless me.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Recently when I attended your yatra and heard from you I realised your love for Vaisnavas, Srila Prabhupada, his instructions, and his disciples. Before yatra my consciousness was very much stopped in ignorance and due to lot of effort to manage my duties I felt I have gone down in Krishna Consciousness.. Your faith in Krishna katha and it's power that it alone can give utmost satisfaction to soul and no other material endeavours can satisfy soul is demonstrated by your long kathas in yatra. I had lost this faith and was very much endeavouring to simply improve my material life but due to yatra it was kind of life came back.

I know I need to put lot of effort in my sadhana, chanting and basic reading and I think devotee association and their shelter is only solution that I have. Recently whatever services have started please belts me so that I can do them properly. I have desire to do Goseva and I know the challenges it has and without your mercy it's not possible for to perform it. I would like to offer my life in your service but due to uncontrolled mind and influence Maya it's not happening. please please Maharaja bless so that I can dedicate my life and do lot of services in to please you.

When I heard your introduction in a Prerana lecture in 2004, I was touched and got the conviction to seriously practice Krishna Consciousness. I understood clearly that as long as I keep hearing your lectures, I will have the courage to face the problems in this world. Your lectures are simply amazing and they are full of your love for Krishna as well as practical wisdom. During Brahmin initiation in March, I got to know about your health condition and was told that all the initiated devotees should seriously follow the vows taken. I have taken this seriously and I am trying to follow the vows sincerely and seriously. As you instructed during the Brahmin initiation, I am trying to improve the quality of my chanting by being attentive and by taking shelter of the Lord. Some months after Brahmin initiation, I had a dream in which I was talking with you about so many challenges I am facing in life and then suddenly the dream got interrupted which made me despondent. But you suddenly came back in the dream and just asked me - "Are you taking shelter of the Lord during chanting?". I felt that you had given me the ultimate solution for every problem. Then, I remembered the instruction you gave during Brahmin initiation and I began taking the process of chanting seriously. I pray at your lotus feet to give me the strength to follow this instruction of attentively chanting for the rest of my life. Also, please bless me that I imbibe even an iota of your qualities such as simplicity, absorption in the chanting, tolerance, compassion for living beings, humility, and the mood of the servant of the servant of the servant.

Hare Krishna my Param Pujya Maharaja.
Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances unto your Lotus feet.

I consider myself fortunate that I am writing an offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, my spiritual master, on the occasion of his 74th Vyasa-puja. HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is one of the most prominent spiritual leaders of the world today. He is inspiring thousands of people all over the world to become devotees of Krishna.

Devotees across the world are giving heartfelt offerings to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja on his Vyasa-puja. In my little way, I am also trying to give my offering by sharing Maharaja's qualities. Although Maharaja has unlimited qualities, I am sharing the following wonderful qualities of Maharaja, which inspire me a lot.

(1) Perfect disciple of Srila Prabhupada.

A perfect disciple assimilates the instructions of his guru in his heart and, despite challenging circumstances, continues carrying forward that instruction of his guru without any selfish desire. HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is one of the best examples of an ideal disciple

(2) Great communicator

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is gifted with the ability to share the pristine message of Vedic literatures like Bhagavad Gita, Srimad-Bhagavatam, and Caitanya Charitamrita in a way that the audience can understand, appreciate, and apply it in their life. He communicates with his audience, who are from diverse backgrounds in their languages. In the recently concluded Kartika-yatra 2024, Maharaja has given amazing Kathas, which are easily understandable by anyone.

(3) Full of compassion

It is because of his compassion that he wants every soul in this world to get connected to Krishna. To give Krishna to others, Maharaja applies different strategies.

Maharaja has accepted me as his disciple and showered his unlimited mercy upon me.

I do not have sufficient qualifications to give a Vyasa-puja offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja. As an offering to him, I have just underlined his above qualities. With my limited intelligence, I have tried to describe those qualities. But his qualities are unlimited and cannot be quantified. Also, I do not have the wisdom to know and understand all the qualities of Maharaja, who is a pure devotee of Krishna.

On the auspicious occasion of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja's 74th Vyasa-puja, I beg Maharaja to shelter me at his lotus feet and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja and Dandavata Pranamas to your lotus feet!

I am unworthy to say anything about your magnanimous glory which comes from actually being as humble as a blade of grass. You have always led by example. I tried a small, very small initiative being inspired and had an amazing realization. I have always seen you keeping your hands folded (in namaste) when you are meeting people, walking even. At least for all the photos we get your darshan in and for a few times when I had the good fortune to actually see you in person.

Last month, I tried to keep my hands folded and perhaps relish some minuscule bit of the joy you realize. And to my surprise, I realized it is NOT EASY to do it. It is not easy to stay in that pose for long; the bodily itches, pain in my shoulders, distractions, mobile phone, and so many things keep taking me away from the pose. At moments I even had just one hand in that pose while the other gone wild :). And, of course, I could only try this in a favorable setting, yet I failed miserably to hold it for long.

But for the moments that I could hold this pose, I could feel it. I could feel your mercy coming through the tips of my fingers as warmth, your teachings coming through to actually realize the humility that we hear about always. A natural smile appears on my face for realizing that - anything I am getting is actually a favor upon me because I am totally unworthy.

I really "wish", I really really "wish", I really really really "wish", though I don't qualify, and I won't ever qualify but I still "wish" that I can spend some time in your valuable personal association - "serving you", observing you, looking at you, chersing your presence, relishing your smile. For now, I take solace in your lectures, but I sincerely hope someday I will have the good fortune I really "wish for."

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

While reading the section of your book Journey Home where you told the officer at the border of Pakistan and India to allow you to enter India, assuring him that you would do much good for the people of his country, I nearly had tears in my eyes. Today, after several decades, I find myself reflecting on how that statement of yours has turned into a profound reality.

Dear Gurudeva, you have been so instrumental in transforming the lives of countless people. I am one of the fortunate recipients of your mercy. One of the greatest gifts you have given us is the establishment and maintenance of SriSri RadhaGopinatha temple. I cannot imagine my life without it.

The temple has given me so much—indescribable blessings. The compassionate Brahmacaris who have guided me in every aspect of life, the beautiful darshan of the Deities, the wonderful association of devotee friends, the ever-cherished khichadi, the innumerable opportunities to serve, the much-awaited festivals, and so much more. The temple has become an inseparable part of my life, and I cannot imagine a single day without it. Thank you, Gurudeva, for this precious gift.

On this 74th year of your appearance day, I am delighted to offer you an app called GITAHabits. This app is designed to help devotees connect with the Bhagavad Gita in their daily lives. I am deeply grateful for your blessings, which have made this initiative possible.

Thank you once again, Gurudeva, for everything.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada

In the Vedic scriptures, the significance of a spiritual master is repeatedly stressed in multiple places. I was reading these three verses and found it enlightening in more ways than one.

O mother of the demigods, in My opinion almost all the chiefs of the demons are now unconquerable, for they are being protected by brahmanas, whom the Supreme Lord always favors. Thus the use of power against them now will not at all be a source of happiness. Yet because I have been satisfied by the activities of your vow, O goddess Aditi, I must find some means to favor you, for worship of Me never goes in vain but certainly gives the desired result according to what one deserves. You have prayed to Me and properly worshiped Me by performing the great payo-vrata ceremony for the sake of protecting your sons. Because of Kasyapa Muni's austerities, I shall agree to become your son and thus protect your other sons. – SB 8.17.16-18

For the SB 8.17.16 verse, Srila Prabhupada writes in his purport, "When a person is favored by brahmanas and Vaisnavas, no one can defeat him. Even the Supreme Personality of Godhead does not interfere when one is protected by a brahmana. It is said, go-brahmana-hitaya ca. The Lord's first inclination is to give all benedictions to the cows and brahmanas. Therefore, if brahmanas favor someone, the Lord does not interfere, nor can anyone interfere with the happiness of such a person."

In another place, SB 5.5.21-22, in the chapter where Lord Rsabhadeva gives instructions to his sons, he says that the brahmanas occupy a position superior to the Supreme Lord Himself, starting his explanation of evolution from dull matter up to the Lord Himself and above the Lord, he places the position of a brahmana.

In SB 11.19.21, Krishna tells Arjuna that worship of his devotees constitutes dharma and leads to pure bhakti.

Srila Vishwanath Chakravarthy Thakur makes this point crystal clear that the spiritual master is to be honored as much as the Supreme Lord because he is the most confidential servitor of the Lord and that it is acknowledged in all revealed scriptures and followed by all authorities.

You are that gentle brahamana, Vaisnava spiritual master mentioned by Krishna in various places in the Bhagavatam. You have kindly taken upon yourself to follow in the footsteps of His Divine Grace AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada and teach others to do the same.

Without the mercy of Krishna, one cannot get the mercy of a bonafide spiritual master and without the mercy of the spiritual master, one cannot get the mercy of Krishna. I am confident that by following in your footsteps, I will get the mercy of Krishna one day. In one lecture, you talked about how the leaders of ISKCON should lead by example despite provocation. This is a quality that is most important in today's world of quarrel and hypocrisy – tolerance and humility. I have met you personally only a few times but I have learnt and am still learning much from your lectures and personal behavior that tolerance and humility are the two qualities that prepare the heart to receive Krishna and thus receiving the Lord one can eternally live in Vrndavana in any nook and cranny of this cosmos. This I am confident I can acquire if I simply follow in your footsteps.

Your contribution to the legacy of Srila Prabhupada is worth mentioning. Your ability to amalgamize the Indian community in greater Mumbai to be devotees of Krishna, inspire devotees to build and construct the Govardhan Eco-village, inspire devotees to conduct yatra with people joining in the thousands, inspire devotees to acquire Srila Prabhupada's birth place in Kolkata and inspire many many devotees around the world to chant Hare Krishna are testament to the blessings you yourself received from your spiritual master and Krishna.

It is true, indeed, that the brahmana Vaisnava is above in position to Vishnu and that Vishnu does not have the power to override the desires of his pure devotees to the point he himself appeared as a brahmana dwarf to regain the lost kingdom of the demigods. By your purity and surrender to your guru and Krishna, you are teaching the whole world on the true meaning of how to be spiritual.

On this most auspicious appearance day of yours, I want to wish you a very happy birthday and I pray that please bestow your mercy on this lowly soul who is very much attached to his body and mind. Please bestow your mercy upon this lowly soul to chant with conviction and desire to please the Lord. Without your mercy and blessings, I am confident I will be lost in this quagmire of materialism. I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude a thousand-fold and another thousand-fold for accepting me as your spiritual son and disciple. I pray that one day I am able to fulfill the true potential of being your proper disciple.

The pure devotee is always within the core of My heart, and I am always in the heart of the pure devotee. My devotees do not know anything else but Me, and I do not know anyone else but them. – SB 9.4.68

Your Lotus Feet

I offer my respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet

When I first saw you, I was a student in high school

At Pune Yatra, I vividly remember you swayed with Jananivas and Pankajanghri prabhu

I watched as oceans of devotees smiled and looked on reverently

At that time, I did not know the gloriousness of your lotus feet

As I grew older, for the association of your dear disciples, I was yearning

Whether it was Pune, Mumbai, Moscow or Michigan I would be

I was told ideal behavior and values would attract your mercy

I seriously lacked these, yet, on many occasions I was brought to your lotus feet

My dear parents, brother guided me with their enthusiasm

Keeping me always in the company of devotees, they were firm

They nourished my years with them securely

I was starting to become attracted to your lotus feet

Then I met my husband, my guide, your disciple

From him, I am learning introspection and how, to Guru, be faithful

Grihastha ashram is teaching me the struggles surely

I know that he knows the meaning of your lotus feet

Lust, anger, greed, illusion, madness and envy

I remain a victim to them, I feel I am unable to break free

Please, please extinguish this blazing forest fire that burns my heart repeatedly

Will you always keep me at your lotus feet?

The holy names you worship and chant so affectionately, feelingly

Meditating on the Lord's transcendental pastimes internally, constantly

You exemplify peacefulness, humility, simplicity of the heart and all the Vaisnava qualities

Will I ever understand the glory of your lotus feet?

You personify the true meaning of gratitude

You teach us the meaning of proper service attitude

But my heart is so hard, I continue to lack these Mood of servant of the servant I aspire for by the worship of your lotus feet.

Your devotion to Srila Prabhupada I strive to realize

What it means to be a disciple, you outstandingly epitomize

Guidance from your example I prayerfully seek

Please give me shelter at your lotus feet

Our recent meeting with you, you kindly emphasized the importance

Of service to and care for the Vaisnavas you enlightened

A story from the exemplary life of Kuresh you extracted

Your gentle and loving approach to instructing your disciple, I tried to fathom

Dear Maharaja, despite your very busy schedule

You still make each and every one of us feel so special

I feel like a disobedient child, yet you encourage and uplift so mercifully

You keep us desiring to be attached to your lotus feet
As the struggle with Maya continues, I pray
That I can make you proud of your daughter someday
That I can execute, meditate on, worship your instructions consciously
So that we can follow you back to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna, holding on to your lotus feet

Maharaja, thank you for your mercy this past year. I know that whatever comes into my life is your loving mercy upon me, slowly and steadily preparing me to go back home, back to Godhead. Thank you for blessing me with the resources I need to grow. For providing me with what I need to heal, to let go of fear, to dissolve my false ego more.

I have begun to realize the truth that Srimati Radharani and Lord Sri Krishna love me. I've begun to see Their affection, support and protection. I've begun to become courageous in reaching out for help when I need it... and to accept it when it comes. I am gaining more faith that I have value, too, and that it is OK for me to take care of myself.

Consequently, my support and service to other Vaisnavas has become more authentic and more effective.

It is by your mercy that these positive changes are happening. Thank you for helping me show up more to my life.

Kindly continue to bless me and those with whom I am connected.

Your servant,

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

On this day we are so grateful to have you in our lives. You give us the nectar from Srimad Bhagavatam, Caitanya Caritramrita, Bhagavad Gita and from other Srila Prabhupada's teachings through your lectures which are so instructive for us to put into practice. Maharaja, we share your wisdom with other people and can see their appreciation which is all due to the nectar that you so succinctly provide us with.

Maharaja, on this special day, we are praying for your well-being and may Shree Shree Radha-Gukulananda bless you with good health so that we have your association always.

With lots of gratitude and appreciation,

My Dear Spiritual Father, Every year, we wait for this auspicious day when we can express our gratitude and respect to your Holiness. The rest of the year, you're busy with the Prabhupada mission. Which in itself is a task on a massive scale to have every town and village singing the glories of Caitanya Mahaprabhu. Only a sincere disciple of HDG Prabhupada can achieve this. Every narration on Caitanya Mahaprabhu I ever heard from you, seems like a first-hand eyewitness description of Lila.

DANDAVATS to the lotus feet of Maharaja,

Dear Maharaja,

You are an ocean of great qualities: compassion, humility, patience, perfection in each and everything you do, determination to serve Srila Prabhupada in every best means, and many more.

Your lectures are so inspiring, motivating, and full of nectar. I pray at your lotus feet that whatever you say in your lectures about qualities, serving devotees, quality in devotion, and many more, I may at least try to follow your teaching sincerely and may please you.

I am really grateful to Srila Prabhupada and the Lord for giving me—you—as my guru.

Please accept me eternally, and please forgive me for any offenses.

Thank you for everything.

Dear Gurudeva, please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to you!

As I meditate on your glorification
There is a significant event
Resurfacing in my meditation,
As this year's unique contribution.
It doesn't involve my special deed or act,
But the selfless dedication of my dear friends.
The valuable service of your silent, humble devotees,
Who accomplished a monumental feat.
I'm talking about two Hungarian devotees
Istvàn and his dear wife, Tulasi Nandini.

They courageously took up the service
Of translating to Hungarian “The journey Home”
Your literal and spiritual masterpiece.
We did entertain the idea since quite some time
Until one day they had enough of the talk
And started the hard but blissful “walk”.
This was all done without any financial or moral support from authorities, temples or book distributors.
I admit I didn’t believe it fully that such a task
Can be accomplished in the given circumstances.
But these two devotees just started to empty the ocean with their little beaks.
Just see! How much faith I have that the Lord will preserve what I have and carry what I lack...
They have proved that the intense desire to please the spiritual master, is the sure way
To overcome any obstacle.
They moved on with determination and resolute purpose to satisfy you and the devotees of Srila Prabhupada.
Facing rejection, financial uncertainty and silent indifference didn’t discourage them the slightest.
And one glorious day the manuscript was transported to the printing press.
The result: attractive cover, beautiful edition,
High quality, devotional translation.
Almost immediately the devotees went mad,
Like intoxicated bees after the honey
All wanted to purchase at least one copy,
No one would want to miss the opportunity.
I don’t exaggerate when I say: it exploded, the success was pulsable.. Devotees and non devotees alike were reading and loving it far and wide.
And soon after the first few hundred copies,the book was purchased by famous book companies!
100% success at all levels!
Meanwhile these beautiful disciple of yours remaining on the back seat, not accepting any credit.
Their love, adoration and service attitude towards you is admirable and heart warming.
I’m learning so much from them and feel so blessed to have them nearby.
Their honest dedication and sincere desire teaches and touches many lives including mine.
You are physically far and we have very few of your disciples, but those few truly represent and understand you.
I pray that you remember them, bless them, love them and eventually take them with you to continue together the exchange of this loving service eternally.

Thank you for being present in my life in so many ways- far away, but very near.
Aspiring to be a sincere servant, Anandamayí dd.

Dear Gurudeva
Please accept my humble obeisances
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to you on this day of your appearance.

Guru Maharaja, on this auspicious day I pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar ji to shower you with many more Vyasa-puja days. May Gauranga Mahaprabhu always keep you healthy and energetic so you can keep distributing His love to millions of conditioned souls. Guru Maharaja with contaminated consciousness, it is difficult to understand Krishna or Krishna Consciousness. without taking the shelter of Srila Prabhupada's books. And I always see you reminding all of us again and again "books are the basis." Guru Maharaja you carry Srila Prabhupada in your heart where ever you speak which is relish able in your lectures. I do not feel I have not seen Prabhupada, thanks to your dynamic lectures describing Prabhupada's purports so strongly.

Just like Caitanya Mahaprabhu mercifully accepted even fallen living entities like Jagai-Madai, Guru Maharaja you have accepted this unqualified disciple. Guru Maharaja, please bless me with a very special blessing on this auspicious day that I always stay on Srila Prabhupada's ISKCON. Guru Maharaja you have been very merciful to me in spite of all my faults and I am such an unfortunate servant I could not justify my existence due to lack of serving attitude. Guru Maharaja, I also have a desire to serve your self through your instructions just like my other sincere god brothers and sisters. But I am so shameless that I am still attached to many useless things which is not at all useful for my devotional life.

Narottama Dasa Thakura's Bhajan~ Sri Guru Carana Padma perfectly summaries my sentiments.

"The lotus feet of our spiritual master are the only way by which we can attain pure devotional service. I bow to his lotus feet with great awe and reverence. By his grace, one can cross the ocean of material suffering and obtain the mercy of Krishna. My only wish is to have my consciousness purified by the words emanating from his lotus mouth. Attachment to his lotus feet is the perfection that fulfils all desires."

Words cannot express the deepest gratitude I feel for being a recipient of your causeless mercy. Under the dark veil of ignorance I was rotting away in material life, becoming increasingly more degraded. Through your causeless mercy, your deepest compassion for the fallen souls of Kali-Yuga, you lifted that dark veil and revealed the light of transcendental knowledge.

As Srila Bhakti Vinoda Thakura mentioned in his prayers:

ekaki amara, nahi paya bala, hari-nama-sankirtanae tumi kripa kori', sraddha-bindu diya, deho' Krishna-nama-dhane

Alone, I do not find the strength to chant the holy name of Hari. Please be merciful and, blessing me with a drop of faith, bestow on me the great treasure of the holy name of Krishna.

Krishna se tomara, Krishna dite paro, tomara sakati ache
ami to' kangala, 'Krishna' 'Krishna' boli', dhai tava pache pache

Krishna is yours, and you can give Him to me, for such is your power. This wretch is simply running behind you, crying out, "Krishna! Krishna!

And Srila Prabhupada also wrote in a purport, "We should know that material suffering due to the material body will come and go. Therefore we must tolerate the suffering and proceed with discharging our duty as ordained by our spiritual master." (Srimad-Bhagavatam 10.8.41)

On this day, I humbly beg for a drop of the unwavering dedication you have for your beloved spiritual master, despite all circumstances.

Krishna says in Srimad-Bhagavatam (10.80.34):

I, the soul of all beings, am not as satisfied by ritual worship, brahminical initiation, penances or self-discipline as I am by faithful service rendered to one's spiritual master.

How dear you must be to Krishna for your faithful service to Srila Prabhupada. You are always absorbed in your service to your spiritual master, setting such an exalted example for all your disciples to follow.

Gurudeva it is my sincere desire that I may be able to assist you, in some small way, in your service to Srila Prabhupada. Please allow me to stay in devotional service and please allow me to stay close to your lotus feet.

I am sorry that I am not as sincere as your other disciples. I cannot really call myself your disciple although I proudly call you my Guru Maharaja. You have so kindly tried to teach me and guide me but I am so puffed up with my false ego that I am sorry that I have not lived up to your expectations which you are expecting from your disciples But I want you to know that I am thinking of you always.

Guru Maharaja kindly keep me under your divine shelter, always.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Koti koti Pranama.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

There is no limit to how grateful I should be for your grace upon me.

By your causeless mercy, Gurudeva, you sent devotees into my life who served me through their words, through their physical service, and their example. I realize it's time I serve them, too.

Dear Gurudeva, I have heard that any realization that a disciple gets is only by the mercy of Guru. It is not our ability.

You just revealed in my heart that attempting to serve devotees through our words and our physical service may be an easier seva compared to serving those devotees who serve us and instill faith in Krishna simply when we watch their devotional and yet simple behavior.

By your causeless mercy, I got a desire to initiate attempts to serve devotees to please you someday.

Gurudeva, even though I am undeserving, I do not have any hope other than begging you for more mercy.

Please give me the intelligence to serve all categories of devotees for your pleasure only. Please give me the faith to serve devotees not caring for the dictations of my mind and false ego.

I wish to be grateful for all that I have received by your grace. Please bestow upon me this virtue of gratitude.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for everything.

I have never had the chance to interact with or meet you personally, and it seems nearly impossible to do so amidst the vast number of such wonderful devotees. However, I did catch a glimpse of you during my Harinaam initiation.

I was hesitant to stand near you, fearing that you might feel uncomfortable or disturbed by the large gathering of devotees around you.

After 12 years, I joined the yatra in Mayapur this year. During that time, I felt that I had missed a valuable opportunity to hear from you and be in the Dham with you. Unfortunately, I have been unable to overcome the guilt from my past karmas and the weight of my current situation, even after 10 years.

This is something I cannot share with anyone else and have kept in my heart. My mother was the only person with whom I could express everything, but she left this world 18 years ago. Since her departure, I have never felt the solace of putting my head down and crying, even during the greatest tragedies that occurred due to my own

Over the years, I felt I was maturing, but I realize now that I have been losing spiritual maturity and growth. I have become greatly degraded and fallen in my Sadhana, chanting, and faith throughout these years.

I pray to the Lord and to you, Guru Maharaja, for guidance. I am in need of a senior devotee who can guide me, give me association, provide mature understanding, and form a meaningful bond with me. I have a strong desire to dedicate this life to Srila Prabhupada's mission, but I have done nothing for it so far and feel I am simply wasting this life.

Please help and bless me, Gurudeva. I pray for your longest and healthiest life. I humbly hope for your merciful glance upon this child and for even a small moment of your association in this lifetime.

Most of the time, I stay in Vrndavana. Guru Maharaja, please bless me to remain in the Dham with the right consciousness.

Regards,

Dearest Maharaja,

Wishing you a very healthy, joyful 74th. Maharaja, how happy it is to see you in India taking yatras, giving discourses, and inspiring lakhs of souls in hearing and chanting the glories of the Lord. But, Maharaja, here in London everything seems dry and vacant without you.

I feel so ashamed that I can't render any direct service to you or in any projects. But the only thing I desire is please don't reject me. It's mentioned in CC Antya 8.99. "If one's spiritual master rejects him, one becomes so fallen that he, like Ramacandra Puri, commits offenses even to the Supreme Personality of Godhead." Maharaja, you always say to take shelter of Krishna through His Name, service, and prayer. Please bless me so I can always attentively hear your instructions in the form of your lectures and follow them seriously and sincerely. Your mercy and grace are my only sustenance. Please also let me assist you and give me some opportunity to serve you.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga!!

This day is very auspicious and divine
Appeared a person who's very sweet and kind.
Loving and caring for one and all
Making everyone hear Krishna's call.
As a person you are humble and meek,
For whom Guru's service is always at peak.
Your compassion has no definition
And your heart is full of satisfaction.
Transferring hearts of all you meet
Always with a gentle smile you're there to greet.
For you, priority is always Guru's vision
So, you've given your heart and soul to this mission.
Your lectures are full of instructions
If taken seriously it can lead one to perfection.
But knowing us to be lazy and dumb
To release us from confusion you always come.
You are a big role model for us
To treat all equally and make no fuss.
Your heart is full of surrender and devotion
Hope to get a drop from this massive ocean.
Hearing from you changes our heart
Following you our bhakti will start.
Spiritual life is really so simple
But this mind is ready to make everything wrinkled.

Wanting to serve you in someway
Hoping soon will come that day.
But really love you from my heart
Which is pulling my life's useless cart.
Please bless me so I improve soon
And serve you and Krishna which is a boon.
Really want to surrender my life
And want to be away from any trife.
Your mercy is always there on this useless soul
So moving ahead slowly towards my goal.
Never abandon me because of my sins
I know I'm selfish and at times mean.
Thanking you for all that you do for us
Knowing that we can never repay your love
But will surely do something for this mission
As serving you is only my aspiration.
Please Gurudeva forgive me for my offenses
And always keep me under your cooling shelter.

I offer my humble and respectful obeisances at your divine Lotus feet

I was wondering in this universe on account of my fruitive activities, by your causeless mercy and by your beloved servants I got the ultimate treasure of my life to cultivate Krishna consciousness & to share Krishna consciousness.

I consider how this impossibly mercy given to the wandering soul, I consider it as my eternal debt.

Please bless me always by your words, kirtana, your unlimited qualities to remain always enthusiastic to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the mood of servant of servant of servant.

Please bless me, so that I can be humble, Tolerant and respectful to all situations and without offence could able to chant pure holyname.

I remind my vows again in this holy occasion of your appearance day, to continue ahead.

Hare Krishna, Dandavat Maharaja,

I am really very grateful to you for what you have given to me. The day by day I am realizing that I am really a very fool and wasting my life without any meaningful purpose. I am praying to Lordship to remove my anarthas so I can try to serve in meaningful ways and help the movement as per the wish of devotees and can please you. I am really incapable of doing serious Sadhana and preaching to please you and only hoping the same, and it can only be possible by the mercy. Praying to the Lord to protect and give strength to do the same and please you, as you have given me shelter as well as understanding of this valuable human form of life. So that I can fulfill the meaning of this human form of life.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my respectful obeisances
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Dear Maharaja, on your most auspicious 74th appearance day, I humbly prostrate myself at your lotus feet as I reflect upon your instructions and qualities, and also your grace upon me. I re-commit myself on this day to following your instructions and my vows. Lastly, I'd like to offer some prayers.

In your lectures, you often fondly remember your dear guru Maharaja, Srila Prabhupada, and inspire love and gratitude for him in the hearts of your listeners. As a seeker, you came to India following your heart's calling. You met several teachers, learned from various situations, and ultimately surrendered to Srila Prabhupada. Learning from Prabhupada, you assimilated his instructions. You share the same teachings embellished with your own realizations from decades of sincere and serious service. Your emphasis on Sadhana, seva and sadacara - all rooted in the principle of humility, have been my inspiration from the early days of my Krishna Consciousness.. Despite limited physical association with your guru, your loving dedication for him is my guiding light on how to serve my guru.

In your lectures, you express your heartfelt gratitude to be in the association of your audience. This quality of yours - to be grateful in every situation, shows your humble heart. Once I heard someone quote HH Goura Govinda Maharaja, and also witnessed myself when you sing kirtanas and bhajans, that you know how to cry for Krishna. I feel that's because you have a sarala man (simple heart) which you have unconditionally offered to Krishna since the time you first came to know Him in Vrndavana. And, Krishna has gladly stolen your simple and humble heart.

On the Balarama Purnima of 2022, at ISV, you had kindly connected me to the Gaudiya sampradaya by accepting me as one of your disciples. I had taken the vow to chant 16 rounds daily. However, on account of arrival of our son, Thakur Kanai - as named by HG Srivas Pandit prabhu, there have been some interruptions to that vow. I apologize for that. On this day, I re-commit myself to not interrupt that vow anymore.

Seeing your dedication to your guru Maharaja, I don't see a trace in my own being. Seeing your simple heart overflowing with genuine humility, I find myself hard-hearted, ruined by worldly logic and reason.

I have a desire to serve you, Vaisnavas and Lord Hari. I aspire to become an instrument and dance as per the dictations of your dear servants, for your pleasure. I wish to roll in the divine dust of your feet, hoping to develop simplicity and humility of the heart, and determination to follow your instructions and my vows.

I desire to be able to desire one day that may I get your ill-health and may Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan bestow best of the health upon you, for I'm insignificant and wretched but you are the hope for many conditioned souls.

Dear Srila Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most respectful obeisances at your lotus feet. I wish you a very happy Vyasa-puja. You're an ocean of compassion. Just a few days ago I was hearing from HG Caitanya Charan prabhu where he quoted you saying whenever you speak to someone, you feel a deep concern for that person. As your words are the manifestation of that concern it happen to touch the heart of that person. Through this you're teaching us the real essence of preaching Krishna Consciousness.: having a deep concern and compassion for the people of this world. I had the good fortune to witness your holistic compassion during LA Rath Yatra 2022. During the parade while public were trying to come close to you and touch you, we were trying to restrain them. At that point, you instructed us to be very careful so that they don't get physically hurt. Your instruction struck me. Guru Maharaja I can see that you deeply imbibed the mood of our acaryas. Srila Jaypataka Swami Maharaja often mentions to his disciples that you have the mood of Sril Narottam Das Thakur Mahashaya. Once during Bangladesh Yatra, sitting on Kheturi dham you gave a 5-6 hour long discourse on the life and teachings of Srila Thakur Mahashaya. While I was hearing that lecture a few month ago, it really touched my heart and to me it felt like you were personally present while all these pastimes were taking place 450 years ago.

You always teach us to be grateful for wherever we are situated or whatever we have received. Like any neophyte devotee, I always have the lamentation that I could never get your enough personal association. When Srila Prabhupada was being asked by devotees about his personal association with Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur, Srila Prabhupada boldly replied that he is always in touch with his spiritual master. I aspire to develop this mood: to be fully convinced that by strictly following your instruction and serving your desires I'll be always in you personal touch.

I pray to Lord Nrsimhadeva for your good health and I beg your mercy so that I can internalize your mood, implement your teachings in my life to please you and Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Guru Maharaja, I have realized you are my most invaluable treasure in life. I'm extremely grateful to you for nurturing me with your nectarean vani, protecting by your association and uplifting in every possible ways. I'm also grateful to you for manifesting the association of most exemplary devotees around me who are always protecting me. You have bestowed upon me the greatest fortune by accepting this lowly person as your disciple. You're truly an acarya, exemplary in your activities and always teaching by your personal example.

Guru Maharaja, this year's highlight has been the Kartika-yatra. I have been eagerly waiting to attend this yatra for 7 years and by your causeless mercy, I was able to attend it this year. The daily nectar katha and your soul stirring kirtana followed by Damodarastakam was such a purifying experience. I'm so grateful to you for the Prasada you cooked with intense love for two days. Although being a small insignificant devotee, I was behind all your disciples and probably the last one ... I was constantly feeling you were still nourishing all my senses through the prasada and katha.

Guru Maharaja, I want to write so much more and want to offer my gratitude moment by moment for everything that you are giving us – as everything is by your mercy but I'm realizing that I'm unable to express my heart due to the contaminations in my heart. I am an insignificant insect but I beg you to shower your mercy on this insignificant person so that I can open up my heart to glorify always endlessly and constantly - you, our beloved founder acarya Srila Prabhupada, our great Guru Parampara, Sri Sri Pancha Tattva and all the devotees.

Guru Maharaja, In my this yatra after getting your pure association, when I observed the devotees around, I realized that I'm yet to become a devotee. I'm extremely fallen and degraded. But I'm very much hopeful because you're infinitely merciful. Hence I beg you taking shelter of the lotus feet of Srila Bhaktivinod Thakur

"Krishna is yours. You have the power to give Him to me. I am simply your servant running behind you shouting, "Krishna! Krishna!" Please accept me Guru Maharaja and please give me Krishna prem.

tumi to' thakur, tomara kukur, boliya janaho more

I'm eternally your dog Guru Maharaja. But due to a contaminated past for millions of lifetimes, I'm leading a life full of offenses. I'm constantly faltering with my uncontrolled mind and senses but have a constant desire to come out of this.

I don't want to make offenses. Aparadhe guchi, harinaame ruchi. I beg you please purify me so that I can lead an offense free life and get naam ruchi. I have not taste. I beg for your causeless mercy to get these four qualities very dear to Krishna as suggested by Mahaprabhu - genuine humility, genuine tolerance, pridelessness and being respectful to all so that I can always chant the holy name in this mood. Guru Maharaja, this lowly disciple begs at your lotus feet.

Lastly, Guru Maharaja, I want to ask you one thing. You have so many disciples and all of them are exemplary. They may be in different ashrams but they are all exemplary. I'm quite insignificant but I have an intense desire to serve you. How can I serve and please you Guru Maharaja?

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I wish you a very happy appearance day. Guru Maharaja, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for always inspiring me through your exemplary selflessness and unwavering service to others. Reflecting on your tireless dedication, I am in awe of how you continually travel far and wide, solely out of your causeless compassion in service to Srila Prabhupada. By doing so, you extend your mercy to countless souls, connecting them to Krishna.

Thank you for facilitating the Kartika-yatra once again this year. It was a truly memorable experience, bringing together many devotees in the sacred land of Mayapur Dham—a beautiful and heartwarming reunion. Your tireless efforts and encouragement have always inspired devotees to give their very best to make this Yatra a success year after year.

Through your life and actions, you exemplify what true love and care among Godbrothers mean. This year has been especially difficult for us due to the loss of the

I am feeling so fortunate that I got this auspicious opportunity of writing an offering letter to Maharaja.

Maharaja is humility personified. I have never met Maharaja but through his lectures, his pastimes, and various videos I have seen the humility of the Maharaja, Maharaja keeps stressing on trinad api sunicena, I beg Maharaja please make me humble so that I can also read scriptures meaningfully.

Maharaja's Journey Home book has created a great impact on my life as a Maharaja who is liberated from his very existence in this world still shows us how valuable this spiritual life is, which we got very easily by sitting on our desktops. We have joined in this movement during the COVID via zoom sessions. This is simply an extended mercy of Maharaja through his hands and heart, HG Radheshyam Prji and my counselor HG Harikripa Prji.

On this auspicious day I promise you that I will always be obedient to all the Vaisnavas, and respect all your godbrothers and godsisters like you only.

Maharaja, please bless me so that I can also join this wonderful movement in your personal care and affection.

Vyaspuja glories of HH RNS
Dear Gurudeva please accept our humble obeisences.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to you.

It is clearly visible from seeing Gurudev's life starting from the childhood upto now that Maharaja has not come to this material world just to do bhakti. He must have been happily serving the Lord in Golok Vrndavana but to initiate our bhakti and take all of us back home back to Godhead he has come.

From the very beginning Maharaja was a spiritual inquirer and left home during the teen age to search for the spirituality in India and neighbouring countries.

As usual to make you a perfect example for the generations to come, Krishna put you in so many difficulties and took exams by sending Mahamaya to you but you easily passed all the exams and finally met HDG Srila Prabhupada your spiritual master and dived into the depths of Krishna conciousness.

Maharaja is such a multitalented leader that he is handling many projects at the same time with the help of his disciples for example free midday meal in India, Bhaktivedanta hospital in Mumbai, devotee care program, farm community, RadhaGopinatha ashram, Barsana eye camp, Govardhan eco village etc

Guru Maharaja, We can literally see your purity and your humility is beyond the expectations which Prabhupada must be expecting from you. We can see all that from seeing your disciples' humility and their teaching that whatever instructions you have given them they are following and spreading the exact same way and persons like me are getting the benefit of it.

Your teachings in your lectures are my life and soul to what I can stick to all my life. Its very touching to hear from your lectures that there is not a single lecture where you don't glorify your spiritual master. You always teach us to make deeper and humble friendship with all the devotees because after many many births we have got this opportunity of engaging our life with devotees.

It was a very life changing event in my life when I read your book 'the journey home and journey within'.

I am very much indebted to you forever for accepting us your servants and disciples. We would like to devote our life eternally under your instructions and try to spread forward your mission of Krishna conciousness to the world and I pray for your good health to the Lord

Please accept my obeisances to your lotus feet.

I am no one as such to give any offerings to you as nor do I have proper words to speak about you nor that realisation to understand about whom I am trying to speak. I am just writing it because I have got so many reminders from the temple team to grab this opportunity and express what you have done in my life.

I am grateful to you Maharaja for giving me this opportunity to enter in the temple of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha because of you I am getting this opportunity to get their glances upon me. You have taught us how to take their darshans. You have taught us how much important it is to take precautions while doing services in the temple hall. Your wonderful disciples are loving, caring so much that they are quenching the thirst of the heart and nourishing the soul by engaging us in the service of Lordships.

Maharaja you tell that preaching is a 24 hour activity and only sometimes we need to speak your life teaches us that very well. Your loving and humble approach towards everyone be it your god brothers or your disciples shows your quality of equanimity seeing everyone as a child of God and dealing in that loving caring compassionate way. You have given us every single detail in your classes about how to attain the goal of life. I am grateful that I am getting to hear these lectures of yours, association of your disciples, opportunity to serve your Prandhan in the form of washing utensils in the backup room.

Maharaja I just want to pray one thing to you & that is I really want to serve you through following your instructions and adopting the mood of Vaisnava of sharing loving bonds with devotees and to be a humble puppet in the hand of those who are serving the Parampara by spreading the teachings of Lord Caitanya. Thankyou soo much Mahraj. Thank you very much. Please forgive Maharaja for my offences.

Happy 74th Vyasa-puja dearmost Guru Maharaja. Your appearance day is the most auspicious day of my life. Thank you for making my dark faded life blooming with Krishna Consciousness. each and every day.

Maharaja, this is true that anyone who once knows about you is captivated by your simplicity, tolerance and humility. You are just a simple cowherd boy, as you often say, and we have always noticed that through your acharan. Gurudeva, your book "Journey home", for an ordinary man may be a journey of a great man, but for your dedicated disciples, it is a worshipable scripture. In your association, I remember the words of your beloved godbrother, Srila Bhakti Tirtha Maharaja saying, "It doesn't gets better than this" yet, oh Gurudeva, it always keeps getting better and better the next time. Thank you Guru Maharaja for not considering our faults and always elevating us towards this beautiful Krishna Consciousness..

Thank you Guru Maharaja for sharing your home, Sri Radha Gopinatha temple with me. Thank you for knowing my heart always.

I only pray to have the intelligence to follow your instructions in my life and also become an instrument in your service to Srila Prabhupada. The best gift I can offer you is my service towards our Acaryas. I would always continue with book distribution as much as possible for Srila Prabhupada's pleasure.

Lastly, you know everything I want to tell you Guru Maharaja. My only desire is to please you at every single moment of my life and serve you in all situations, with all my capacity. Guru Maharaja, I am yours, always and in all ways. Please accept me as your servant for eternity. I pray to Sri Radha Gopinatha to give you a long and healthy life so that you can preach the message of Lord Caitanya more and more.

Aspiring to become a servant of your servants,

Vyasa-puja is the day of offering our gratitude to the Lord and Srila Prabhupada for sending you into our lives as much as offering that same gratitude to our counselor for accepting me and giving shelter in our glorious parampara. Maharaja, you are an ocean of all the good qualities. When you set the example for tolerance and humility, it shakes me to the core because it is very difficult to practice. Yet your words give so much faith and hope that if we cling to the feet of the Lord and be there somehow someday, the Lord will give shelter. Maharaja, everyone sees in you their best friend and guide. Your presence is God's priceless gift to the world. I pray that I may be able to serve you for eternity.

Once I asked a devotee, how can we accept spiritual master then he told me we should pray to Krishna that oh Lord please give me realisation for my spiritual master, how can I connect with Guru parampara, please reveal in my heart so I can serve whole guru parampara, panch tattva and you better. So I started praying to Krishna same. And after some months I got realisation for you that I can surrender my whole life to you, my life's meaning is follow your instructions.

Hare Krishna Srila Radhanath Swami Maharaja!
Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet.
Glories to Srila Prabhupada!
On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I wish to express my deepest gratitude for the inspiration you've given me to pursue a spiritual life.

In 2018, while on parikrama in the Himalayas with your disciples, HG Mukunda Murari Prabhu and HG Vatsala Prabhu, they read an excerpt from a book. I noted down the title and author for later. Upon returning home, I found and read The Journey Home, and the passage they shared about HG Ghanshyam Prabhu's service attitude touched me deeply.

Every word of that book spoke directly to my heart. From that moment, I began following your teachings on YouTube and Instagram, and I also discovered a website with a vast library of your lectures. Listening to them has felt like drinking water in a desert — nourishing and life-saving.

By the grace of the Lord, I later joined the local temple and came into contact with many wonderful devotees. Yet, I've never stopped drawing inspiration from the words that flow from your lotus mouth.

I feel that my pursuit of spiritual life is sustained by the grace that comes through you. To lose that connection would feel like spiritual suicide. I fear that initiation from any other spiritual master, even from one of your disciples, could affect this attachment — the very attachment that keeps me spiritually alive. For some reason, the chance to take shelter at your lotus feet is almost unattainable for me now. Perhaps this is due to offenses I committed in a previous life or other sinful activities.

Nevertheless, I am endlessly grateful for the opportunity you've given me to continue from where I stand, moving forward on the path back to Godhead. I know I don't deserve this chance, yet I've been blessed with the rare gift of continuing on this journey, and for that, I owe everything to you, GuruMaharaja.

With great humility, I bow down at the dust of your lotus feet, striving to become your servant and the servant of all Vaisnavas.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Every word that you speak in your lectures, you have lived it for every moment of your life as an ideal Acarya. Quality personal Sadhana, appropriate Vaisnava dealings, and dedicating oneself to the mission of the spiritual master – you are a perfect example on all fronts.

In my recent hearing of your Gaur Katha lectures, you have repeatedly emphasized two principles – Chanting The Holy Names and becoming humble sincere servants of Vaisnavas and appreciating them.

You also love to speak pastimes of Sridhar Kolavecha, Dukhi becoming Sukhi, Haridas Thakur, etc. Your repetition of these pastimes, the way you elaborate on them, and your voice energy while sharing them – it comes straight from the core of your heart. It speaks volumes about the values that you carry and how earnestly you are trying to instill in our consciousness.

You want us to genuinely delight in simple loving devotional service to The Lord and His devotees without any ulterior motive. Thank you Guru Maharaja for always showing us the True North; otherwise it is very easy for conditioned souls like me to get distracted.

Guru Maharaja, your dealings with your Godbrother-Godsisters are a strong and loud statement about how much we should respect, value, and literally worship them in our lives.

Recently, in a Chowpatty lecture, one of the senior counselors asked – how we can offer our lives wholesale like the disciples of Srila Prabhupada did for the mission. Your answer was so touching. You told that we should surely respect the devotees of that generation. However, it's also important that we see dedication even amongst the devotees around us. You told how their consistency in devotional services for over three decades is itself a sign of their dedication that many of the senior devotees in the congregation have shown.

You worship your Godbrothers- Godsisters; so we value them too. But what you also are teaching through that is that we should have deep respect for and servitude to our Godbrothers-Godsisters. This struck me only when you spoke it so explicitly that day in your reply to that question.

Maharaja, I can go on and on...Your heart is oceanic with pearl-like realizations and values. And you have offered this heart so fully to us out of your compassion through your life example and lectures.

I pray that I spent my millions of lives diving deep into this ocean and mining these unlimited pearls. More importantly, I pray at your lotus feet that I adorn my own bhakti with these pearls and make it beautiful in your and Lord Krishna's eyes.

Happy 74 Vyasa-puja offering Maharaja, Your holiness has created a beautiful place of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha in the heart because they are manifested by you only to give seva opportunity to fallen conditional souls like me Maharaja.

I really feel at home as you always say in your lecture after every visit that I am very happy because I am finally in my home; that the mood and ambience that you have created for us Maharaja; we always feel pacified whenever we are in temple. the bond which have in temple that really gives a hope in the darkest and duplicitous condition world Maharaja, It has almost been 3 years of service to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and everytime they have some beautiful reciprocation with me because they are manifested from your heart

Your holiness has inspired millions of soul who have come in touch with you and what to speak of devotees they have seen tremendous change in their lives. your lectures are very helpful Maharaja because everytime I specially learn so many things and it's said sadhu is one who only by speaking can cut the deep rooted attachment of a jiva and your kirtana Maharaja is always in the mood of separation from the Lordship

Your holiness you have also been reciprocating with me Maharaja when you came in june I could only saw you once in brahma utsav of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha bhagavan but later I was hankering for your darahan but unfortunately I wasn't able to get your darshan Maharaja but you came in my dream twice only for me and reciprocated with me I heart was and would always be awaiting to have that sweet and beautiful reciprocation again and again

Your holiness also reciprocated with me by giving a disciple the same name as I have Anupam Nitai Das That is the best movement of my life and deep down I was also thinking that you have actually accepted me as your disciple.

Oo Srila Maharaja ji I just pray on this 74 Vyasa-puja for your long and good health to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and to Sri Nrsimhadeva. may you always remain in my heart because by constant remembance of a pure devotees of Krishna also the attachment to Krishna increases and no more cycle of birth and death

Since You mercifully have given me Your shelter, I feel even more that I am a part of a big family of Srila Prabhupada!
Thank you so much for your qualities, for your knowledge, love, and compassion that you share with every word you say.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I really wanted to read your books in association with other devotees, and by your mercy, it happened this year! Devotees really supported this idea, and it's already a 4th book we are reading together once a week, as well as experiences that devotees shared when they had a blessing to be with You.

I can't express in full my gratitude for this service, especially to dear Guru Maharaja, and for the opportunity to be in Your Holy Association in this way.

I also read your book, "The Journey Home," with one new bhaktine from Malta, and it inspired her to begin devotional service and to go to Villa Vrndavana in Italy!

This book continuously inspires more and more people to choose the path of Bhakti. Thank you so much for sharing it with all of us.

Recently you have visited ISKCON Ujjian, at that time I was at home. When I heard that you are going to come at ISKCON Ujjian, I was too excited to seek your blessings and receive the mercy from you. When I left for Ujjian I was thinking that himself HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji is coming, there will be so much crowd, how will be able to see you from the short distance, then I said to myself- okay I'm seeing you first time in a same hall that is the more than enough for me. But by the mercy of you and Radha madan mohan I somehow got the sitting just ahead of you in that auditorium hall. You were sitting on the sofa and I was just sitting near to your lotus feet. That time I was so fortune enough,

I can't believe to myself this is happening for real, then a question raised in my mind- do I deserve all of this, there are so many senior devotees present here, they deserve all of this not me.

After sitting near to you my while thinking process changed, I start looking at the Vaisnavas with more and more respected and happy way, I started to try more and more Vaisnava seva as much I can do. You just complety changed my life at that time to till now and also for the future.

If I sound wrong or something disrespected towards you Please forgive me and bless me so that I can serve Vaisnavas without any hesitation and without any aparadha.

As, Suta Goswami tells, SB 3.19.34 anyesam punya-slokanam uddama-yasasam satam upasrutya bhaven modah
srivatsankasya kim punah

What to speak of hearing the pastimes of the Lord, whose chest is marked with Srivatsa, people may take transcendental pleasure even in hearing of the works and deeds of the devotees, whose fame is immortal.

Purport - "Bhagavatam literally means the pastimes of the Lord and the Lord's devotees"... And Prabhupada mentions further about devotees like Prahalad Maharaja etc.

So, although I had not seen those Bhagavatas, but I had fortune to get darshan of living Bhagavat as your His Holiness, who was called by Lord himself to his personal abode on this dhara dham.

Also, your Dedication to your Spiritual Master, in mood of servants of servants. Specifically, when you had written "SERVANT" in the ILS meeting attendance, that was your actual feeling from the core of your heart.

Being your disciple, let me also follow your foot steps in whatever faltering way to serve in this mission under your umbrella Seriously, Sincerely and Without any ulterior motives, which you often instruct in your lecture. Although, I am having conditioned third class body, rascal mind, speculative intelligence and egoistic attitude. Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru & Sri Gauranga.
On this most auspicious occasion of your 74th Appearance Day on this earth, I bow my head repeatedly at your divine lotus feet, which are the safest shelter for us in the entire creation, which are the abode of Pure Devotional Service (Kevala Bhakati Sadma) and Perfection of one's very existence (Aise uttama gati).

If I reflect back at my life and the lives of many of my seniors, my equals and younger devotees, I am deeply moved by the fact the we all owe you our spiritual inspirations, aspirations and the desires in the devotional service.

I specially wish to thank you for giving us your gemlike disciples, your life transforming Yatras, your illuminating lectures, nectarine katha and kirtanas, and spotless example of being a Pure Vaisnavaa. Thank you for always guiding me very personally through your Vani. Whatever I need to hear and know in my devotional journey, you always mercifully speak that to me whichever lecture I hear. In fact whenever I have faced difficulties in my life, my saving grace has been your vani and the cause for my misfortune has been not attentively and regularly listening your Vani. Please bless me that I can take full shelter of your divine words.

I also offer my heartfelt gratitude, obeisances and surrender to you for trusting me and blessing me with Brahmana Diksha this year, for which I am totally undeserving.

I seek your forgiveness for always falling short in the standards of pure devotional service which you expect, and I seek your blessings and empowerment to assist HG Acyuta Mohan Prabhu. Please also bless all the devotees on this most auspicious occasion with Name Ruci, Vaisnava seva and Jive Doya. May we remain focused in our servitude and become genuine lovers of Krishna one day, because that's what will give you maximum joy!

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please allow us to offer our most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Wish you a very happy 74th appearance day.

We are remembering you very fondly and with immense gratitude on this special day. Thank you so much for appearing in our insignificant lives and accepting us as your servants at your lotus feet, although we are absolutely unqualified to receive your mercy.

We wish you good health and sincerely pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji for your well-being. May Their unlimited blessings always shower on Your Holiness eternally and flow through you to many, many more deserving souls year after year.

Gurudeva, you have made yourself accessible to one and all without any discrimination. Your energy and enthusiasm to preach and to give your life and soul to the mission of Srila Prabhupada are exemplary. Your loving dealings with other spiritual masters within the movement, with your godbrothers and godsisters, with senior devotees in the congregation, and with neophytes are most inspiring. You rightfully epitomize and live the teachings of Sriman Caitanya Mahaprabhu, especially the verse that you often quote as the very core and fabric of devotional service: trnad api sunicena taror iva sahishnuna, amanina manadena kirtanaiya sada harih. Your "Journey Home" and "Journey Within" so beautifully encapsulate your genuine inquiry while seeking the essence, unflinching faith, unlimited sacrifice, unbelievable austerities, boundless compassion, and above all, complete surrender and dedication.

Gurudeva, you have always so lovingly and graciously given us your mercy through your instructions, through the wonderful community of devotees, and through your most invaluable, yet most rare, personal association. Being fallen and eternally conditioned to material sense enjoyment, we struggle to follow your instructions and falter at every step. We are grateful to the community of devotees that helps to keep us anchored, preventing us from going astray. But we earnestly and patiently wait for an opportunity to have your personal association serve you personally in order to recharge our spiritual journey.

Gurudeva, by your mercy and the blessings of devotees, I was allowed to be of some service at the annual Barsana Eye Camp this year as well. The opportunity to serve Brajvasis is most invaluable for an insignificant and unqualified soul like me. I am eternally grateful and sincerely pray that your mercy allows me to humbly serve them to the best of my abilities under the guidance of senior devotees. I am always reminded of your instruction that this special service is actually the most invaluable opportunity to clear my own cloudy conditioned material vision and to purify my own polluted consciousness while attempting to humbly serve the Brajvasis.

Gurudeva, here in Singapore, we are blessed to have a very special congregation of devotees, which includes disciples of many exalted spiritual masters from Srila Prabhupada's movement as well as many of our godbrothers and godsisters serving Sri Jagannath Baladev Subhadra Mai together under the guidance of HG Devakinandan Prabhu. We are so fortunate to have darshan of and an opportunity to hear from many spiritual masters and senior devotees who happen to travel through Singapore throughout the year. We yearn for an opportunity to welcome you to Singapore and have your divine darshan as well as hear from you again in person.

We once again wish you a very happy and blessed 74th appearance day.
With sincere gratitude we bow down at your lotus feet.

My dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
Writing an offering helps to meditate and be grateful for the valuable gifts that I have received from you.

1. Your vani is the most inspiring association for me that keeps me alive & rejuvenated in Krishna Consciousness.. Particularly, your description of different characters of Srimad-Bhagavatam and Caitanya Caritamrita is so nectrean as you bring out their surrender, pure motivation to serve with genuine humility. This time in Kartika-yatra during describing Mahaprakash Lila you narrated in great detail the pastimes of Kolavecha Sridhar, Mukunda and other devotees which was very heart touching. Kindly bless me so that I remain eager to associate with your Vani regularly and try to apply them in my life.

2. Another very instructive teaching is your dealings with your Godbrothers and Godsisters. Your maintain such good relationships with them in spite you being so famous, influential and having so many followers because you truly value them. This time in Kartika-yatra during Srila Prabhupada disappearance festival you gave all opportunities to your Godbrothers and Godsisters to express their offerings to Srila Prabhupada, you did not come to stage. This shows your genuine humility & love for your Godbrothers & Godsisters. Kindly bless so that I can develop this quality to some extent.

3. Phalena paricayate - The tree is known by its fruits. Taking inspiration from you, Your sincere followers are exhibiting such high degree of surrender with genuine humility and contributing so much for the mission. We are blessed to have Acaryaratna prabhu here as a representative of you who is kindly tolerating me & engaging me in different services. Please bless me that I remain in the mood of servant of servant and carry out the orders with my full heart & soul.

4. I am also grateful for receiving second initiation from you this year in the month of May. Thank you very much for engaging me in the service of deities, thus I am getting purified and getting an opportunity to develop little bit of affection for Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga. Kindly bless so that I remain enthusiastic for deity services.

5. We are encouraged by your recent visit to ISKCON Newtown Kolkata recently after the Kartika-yatra when you expressed your desire that we should have bigger temple hall & install Radha Krishna deities. Thus you are guiding us to expand the services here, thereby we can increase our enthusiasm, commitment and dedication. Kindly bless that I remain insignificant servitor & assist superior Vaishnvas in whatever little way I can.

I am deeply conditioned and always distracted by lower desires, this wasting my valuable time. Kindly bless me so that I remain alert to properly utilise my time in devotional service, appreciate pure devotional service more & more & cultivate the genuine mood of humility.

Gurudeva, it is only by your mercy that I have received this wonderful opportunity to write something about you.

Reading your book Trushart Pathik, I deeply admire your spiritual inclination and your relentless efforts to attain it. It is solely due to your kindness that you accepted this insignificant servant as your disciple.

As Saint Tukaram Maharaja says:

"Bole Taisa Chale Tyachi Vandavi Paule"

(One whose actions align with their words, their feet are truly worthy of worship).

Your conduct is a testament to this teaching, though it took me a long time to understand it. For this delay, I sincerely seek your forgiveness.

I have only one prayer to you:

"Gurudeva, please shower a drop of your mercy upon this servant, who is more insignificant than a blade of grass."

Dear Guru Maharaja, please accept my humble obeisances to your lotus feet!
On this beautiful day, when you came into this world, I would like to send you words of gratitude and love from my heart! Even though you won't read them.

A lot has changed in my life since last year. Now I am very happy that I chant your Pranamaa mantra. From a comfortable apartment in a megalopolis, Krishna took me to an ashram where I perform daily services for the deities. There was so much service that sometimes I had nosebleeds from overloading. Apparently, I can't take so much mercy from the Lord. But your large portrait in my room helps me remember that my attunement with you is taking place right now, and my intentions are being tested for seriousness. Most of all, I want you to be happy and satisfied with me. And I hope that this test will end well and the Lord will be pleased. Of course, I did not expect last year that I would do what I am doing now, when you were cutting a cake for my birthday in the Govardhan Ecovillage! :)) And having tasted mahaPrasada after you, I probably soaked up your pure energy, and now I'm here. :))

I am so far from your purity!! But I'm ready to pay the price that it takes to become your real disciple. I really wish you happiness and health. And live a long, happy life. And may the Lord allow me to contribute to your happiness.

The heart that loves you is in Arina's body. ??

Gurudeva, you have changed my life!

Your explanation on "how to chant at Vaisnava etiquette book", gives me always hope and direction to connect to holy name that is Krishna directly. Your lecture always gives me hope to bring me out of frustration in this miserable life. You have gifted me so many senior devotees like Hg Radheshyam Prabhu, HG Gauranga Prabhu, HG Anand vrindvan Prabhu, Hg Dwarkadhish prabhu and the count is so many, who are always helping me, guiding me in connecting and experiencing Krishna and holy name. You are my only hope to get rid of this circle of birth and death and to attain pure devotional service by your causeless mercy!

Please forgive me insincerity, my unlimited anarthas due to which I give you so much pain and trouble. Please empower me to become surrendered to you and to have taste in holy name. Make me and my family an instrument in your loving service!

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude for the extraordinary compassion, wisdom, and spiritual guidance you bestow upon all of us. Your life exemplifies the very essence of a surrendered soul, dedicated entirely to serving the lotus feet of Lord Krishna and His devotees.

You have shown us, through your own example, the path of humility, dedication, and unwavering faith in the process of bhakti-yoga. Your tireless efforts to spread Srila Prabhupada's mission inspire countless souls across the globe. Whether it is through your deep and heartfelt kirtanas, your transformative lectures, or your kind and encouraging words, you touch the hearts of everyone you meet, awakening in them a spark of devotion that has the power to change their lives.

Maharaja, your teachings go far beyond mere words. You live the principles you teach, demonstrating what it means to be a true servant-leader. Your compassion knows no bounds, as you embrace everyone with open arms, regardless of their background. You see Krishna in everyone and everything, reminding us that our true purpose is to serve Him with love and sincerity.

Your book, "The Journey Home" has illuminated the path for me personally and so many other lost souls like me, offering a glimpse into your incredible journey of faith and surrender. Your life story teaches us that even in challenges, when we hold firmly to Krishna's lotus feet, His mercy and guidance will lead us to transcendental success.

Maharaja, I pray to serve you sincerely and be able to please you with full of my ability. I pray for the strength to follow your instructions, the humility to seek your shelter, and the wisdom to understand the depth of your mercy.

On this day, I offer my collective gratitude and love at your lotus feet, praying that you continue to bless us with your association and guide us on the path of pure devotion. May you always be pleased with our humble attempts to serve, and may we never forget the unparalleled gift of your shelter.

Thank you, Maharaja, for being our ever-compassionate well-wisher, our guiding light, and our connection to Srila Prabhupada and the Supreme Lord.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja
Please accept my most humble obeisance at your lotus feet.

Thanks for accepting the most fallen soul as a disciple. I am eternally grateful for your Vani association, "Amrita Droplets," which keeps us reminded about living in the material world but not in the world where we should be.

Your remembrance in every dealing, either material or spiritual, will make auspiciousness, and results are truly unexpected.

I am eternally grateful for your gracious mercy. At present, my family situation is improving, and my wife has started cooperating, always trying to remember that "tolerance" is key to success in spiritual life. Remembering your words, "If we tolerate someone, God will tolerate us.".

Guru Maharaja I am still struggling with Vaisnava sadhachar aspects; my dealing with everyone is always in the eyes of material prospects instead of spiritual prospects. Begging for your causeless mercy so that I can follow your instructions and create unity among the association of the devotee community. I always want to serve unconditionally, but, due to material desire, I am unable to serve.

Guru Maharaja, I am struggling with a lack of faith in the absence of the association of devotees and the morning program. Although everything is available, mind and sense are conquering weak intelligence. A day without a morning program is a dry and boring one, making me feel loneliness in spiritual life. Begging for your causeless mercy so that I can follow your instructions and also strictly attend the morning program.

Guru Maharaja, I am begging again for your causeless mercy on my family members, my wife and daughters, to make them devotees of Lord Gaurganga and Lord Nityanand.
Most humble request for my uncle Bhakta Pradip Shinkar: He is struggling in his life more than 25 years on bed return. Please show your causeless mercy and bless him so that he can get out from this suffering.

Dear Gurudeva
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

I am actually unworthy to receive your shelter but like Lord Nityanand you are extremely merciful on granting this fool shelter under your lotus feet. What do I have to offer to you this day? I see more blessings but very less or in fact nothing to offer to you apart from being insincere and struggling Sadhana. I know I am really not coming up to your expectations in any way but I have great hope that some day this fool will please you. I have a desire to see smile on your face from my activity or small service. Not sure I will be able to do that but I am trying by best and falling over again and again like little child trying to walk. I have so much of conditioning and sometimes I feel so hopeless but when I see mercy coming my way in the form direct services to deities, I see hope in the horizon.

My humble request to Gurudeva kindly do not lose hope in this insincere fallen soul. I shall certainly try my best and I know Lord Nityanand will surely help me one day to become your worthy disciple.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Gurudeva, I have witnessed your profound dedication to serving Srila Prabhupada with the heart of a servant of servants. During this year's Mayapur Kartika-yatra, where over 10,000 devotees joined, your service attitude has been exemplary. When challenges arise—such as a malfunctioning sound system—you may fear that you are not able to serve the devotees as beautifully as you wish. Yet, in those moments, your unwavering decision to utilize the time for kirtana exemplifies your remarkable commitment, responsibility, and service attitude.

On this auspicious day, I beg forgiveness for my countless offenses. I am a devotionally struggling crying out for your mercy and guidance.

Hare Krishna dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and yourself.
On this auspicious occasion of your appearance we want to wish you very happy, healthy decades ahead in service of Srila Prabhupada. Let millions of souls benifit from your divine association.

Due to your deep concern for suffering souls, you have created so many wonderful projects and initiatives around the world. The most important of all that we feel is your lectures GuruMaharaja.

Your dealings with everyone are so sweet that wherever you go the devotees hover around you like honeybees. Though we want, we can't have your physical association always. But you guidance is always available to us through your lectures. Some incidents happened in our life recently where our faith on devotees and process was getting tested. In that desperate state when we heard your lectures, sure enough we got hope again to continue our Krishna conscious journey.

Your instructions like "one should be sincere, serious and without alterior motives", repeated stress on becoming humble and being in mood of servant of servant are guiding lights. When we go for yatra, we can appreciate the Dham and get real benifit due to you lectures. Without your lectures, visiting Dham becomes just another travel.

We have full faith that if we keep on listening your Vani and try to follow to best of our ability, our life will be successful. We seek your blessings so that we develop taste for hearing these lectures and follow your teachings. We want to express our gratitude to you for everything you have done for us. Could you please forgive us for all the shortcomings we have?

Thank you GuruMaharaja for everything and wish you once again very very happy and healthy decades ahead.

Hare Krishna. Dandavat Pranama, Maharaja.

On the occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I extend my heartfelt Krishna-filled wishes to you. Participating in the 2024 Kartika-yatra in Mayapur with your association is my second experience of such a journey. My first yatra was to Jagannath Puri in 2023, and the second is now in Mayapur.

The moment I saw you in Mayapur, my heart was filled with devotional ecstasy. The humility that you embody is truly something that humbles me deeply. The association you provided us during the Mayapur yatra was unforgettable.

Through your lectures and narrations, I had the opportunity to hear many pastimes of Caitanya Mahaprabhu, which will greatly help in enhancing my devotion. I pray at your lotus feet that my devotional service continues to grow, progresses steadily, and remains enthusiastic. May this devotional enthusiasm flourish and deepen further.

This is my humble prayer at your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Since my teenage years, I was seeking a spiritual path and purpose in life. In my spiritual quest, I have heard sermons and opinions of various spiritual teachers and scriptures. One question always troubled my intelligence - “How do I know which is the right spiritual path? There are so many paths and teachers. Who is right? How will I ever know? How shall I surrender?”. The only answer that came to my mind was “It can only be revealed from within”. Indeed, it was a miraculous revelation far beyond my worthiness. I always pondered on what faith is, what does it truly mean? Is it hope? Is it an assumption based on past experiences? Is it a mental belief? How can it be non-sectarian? Guru Maharaja, all of these questions and all of my doubts were cleared by coming in contact with your lotus feet. Your journey has illuminated the path for many spiritual seekers. I never truly understood the mysteries of faith until it dawned in my heart by your divine grace. Thank you for coming into my life. I would’ve remained a wandering seeker without your shelter. Many many devotees have contributed to my spiritual life and ultimately brought me to you. I am eternally indebted to each one of them, they shared your mercy with me.

Guru Maharaja, you have taught us the true meaning of humility through your life and teachings. I wish to meditate on some statements regarding humility from your 1989 lectures.

1. It is the beginning of spiritual life when we realize, accept and admit that we are sick with the disease of ignorance. In that humble submissive mood, we can accept the medicine of the holy names of God.

2. It is only through humility that we can attract the mercy of God.

3. You have to admit that you're helpless, powerless and you need His mercy. Unless you yearn and beg for it, God will not bestow his mercy.

4. There is no greater strength than humility. In that humility, all the glory and power of God is behind us, to uplift us, to save us in all circumstances of life.

In Isopanisad, Srila Prabhupada writes "To follow the regulative principles, one must go under the shelter of a bona fide spiritual master." Guru Maharaja, we are truly dependent on your mercy to follow the regulative principles, to embody the highest Vaisnava etiquettes that you've personally exemplified and instructed, to chant the holy names in the mood of servant of the servant. Guru Maharaja, you have always emphasized on sharing the mercy we have received with others, to make sacrifices to show concern for other spiritual lives. Please bless and empower us to be your instruments in this mission of sharing the mercy of Srila Prabhupada everywhere possible.

विनम्रता - मै यात्रा मे देखा हूँ कि महराज जी prabhupad के अन्य शिष्यो से कसि तरह से मलिते है और dealing करते है । बहुत ही विनम्र भाव से दास के रूप मे present करते है।

कृतज्ञता - महराज जी सभी के प्रति जो थोड़ी भी कुछ भगवान की सेवा मे paricipat कयि है, उसके प्रति बहुत ही कृतज्ञ रहते है यहाँ तक कि सफाई की सेवा करने वाले के प्रति भी।

संवेदनशील - महराज जी बहुत ही संवेदनशील है । छोटी छोटी चीजों का भी ध्यान रखते है कि अपराध तो दूर किसी को थोड़ा सा भी बुरा ना लगे इतना ध्यान रखते है ।

Groundlevol की सेवाओ को बहुत प्रशंशा करते है। विशेष रूप से कचिन की सेवा को इसलिए मै न चाहते हुए भी गुरू महराज जी की प्रसन्नता के लिए कचिन मे सेवा करता हूं ।

Devotee care - भक्तो का बहुत ही care करते है महराज जी।

अन्त मे मै गुरू महराज जी से pray करता हूं कि हमारे लिए भी भगवान से pray कर दें कि मुझे भी शुद्ध भक्ति मिले और भक्ति के मार्ग मे आने वाली बाधाएं दुर हो जाएं।

First of all I pray to the Acaryas, Panchtatva and Radha Madhav that Maharaja ji should remain completely healthy and continue to preach for the salvation of fallen people like us. Among the infinite qualities of Maharaja ji, some qualities are described below, which I am impressed by - Humility - I have seen in my travels how Maharaja ji meets and deals with other disciples of Prabhupada. He presents himself as a servant with a very humble attitude.

Gratitude - Maharaja ji is very grateful to everyone for whatever little they have done in the service of God, even to the person doing the cleaning service.

Sensitive - Maharaja ji is very sensitive. He takes care of even the smallest things so that leave alone committing a crime, he takes so much care that no one feels even a little bad.

He praises the services of ground level workers a lot. Especially the kitchen service because Even though I don't want to, I serve in the kitchen to please Guru Maharaja Ji.

Devotee care - Maharaja Ji takes great care of his devotees. In the end, I pray to Guru Maharaja Ji to pray to God for me too so that I too get pure devotion and the obstacles coming in the way of devotion get removed.

Thank you, Maharaja, for saving my life. They say the two most important days in life are the day you are born and the day you discover why. For me, the most important days of my life are the day I got connected to ISKCON and the day I was first introduced to one of your lectures.

Srila Prabhupada eternally guides fallen souls like us, showing us who we truly are and what to do with our eternal identity as parts and parcels of God. You have not only shown me this path but have continuously motivated me to repay Srila Prabhupada through my life. You maintain an exceptionally high standard of service to Srila Prabhupada—one that we can never imitate, but one that inspires us every day to follow in your footsteps and please Srila Prabhupada.

The day I learned from you the true definition of opulence, a wretched soul like me instantly became opulent with priceless knowledge. That realization is so deeply etched in my heart that it will keep me grounded for the rest of my life. Thank you for being a living embodiment of Srila Prabhupada's teachings, for showing us what a true follower of his legacy looks like, and for keeping us enlightened and motivated. Hare Krishna Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and Guru parampara. I am very greatful for getting this opportunity to offer Vyasa-puja offering to you. Maharaja my offering to you is like trying to offer a drop to an ocean. A drop which anyways belongs to the ocean. Since my anarthas do not allow me to fully appreciate and recognise your glories in full, hence what I am mentioning here is my very limited and meager understanding of your unlimited and ever increasing glories. Maharaja I lost my mother quiet early in my childhood and had spent my life feeling like an orphan, uncared for, lifeless, aimless, bereft of any love. However, everything changed after Krishna and his wonderful devotees introduced me to you. Your date of appearance is same as my mother's date of disappearance. Hence I think Krishna took away my mother of this birth and gave me my internal mother in you. I and millions of devotees around the world feel much needed love, care, value and presence of Krishna in our lives because of you. Although your glories are countless which attracts countless souls to you, your emphasis and personal example of devotee care is what attracts me the most. I have spent many years without many any advancement in bhakti for which I beg forgiveness from you for not following your instructions. I hope one day I can do something which would make you happy and proud. I pray to Lord Narshimha dev for your health. Thank you for adoption this orphan. Your servant Ashish

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
I feel extremely blessed to express myself in the form of an offering to you.

It is said, that this world is a blazing forest fire of material existence, where conditioned souls are suffering and crying. But I feel fortunate that I came into your contact through devotees. You are like a cloud carrying showers of mercy from the ocean of mercy that is Krishna. It's you who give me the inspiration to chant the Holy name of the Lord like a helpless child unable to do anything on Its own.

By seeing your chanting and hearing from you about the mood of chanting, I feel deeply touched and try to chant my best with absorption. I remember a few instances when your words from lectures exactly matched my situation and helped me to come closer to Krishna. Once, I got a little proud of my chanting as I was able to chant without sleeping or dozing, on the same day, you said in your lecture: "With what mood you are chanting? Are you trying to show people around you how good you are chanting or sincerely trying to please Krishna?"

Once, even after trying so much, I was unable to render service properly. With that hopeless condition, I was feeling unworthy among devotees. The next day, when I heard your lecture, you gave the example of Jatayu who even though could not succeed externally he pleased Lord Ram. In the spiritual life, it's the intention with which we are doing service that is really what Krishna sees.

With just that statement, I felt really pacified and enthusiastic about taking more services. Like this, there are more instances, you really have won everyone's heart by your humility and devotion.

I feel very inspired by you, about being serious in devotional life. On this auspicious occasion,I pray for your blessings that I may follow the principles of devotion coming down the line through you. Please forgive me for my broken grammar and vocabulary, I am writing an offering for the first time.

Please accept this humble offering from a conditioned soul who is trying to get your mercy and seek your shelter.

Your trying-to-be humble menial servant of servant of your servants,

Thank you so much Maharaja for teaching us the sacred principles of Humility and Gratitude. They are so vital not just to progress on the path of Bhakti but also to function consistently in this world. When you speak Krishna Katha, it is like nectar is flowing and we never want it to stop... Thank you so much Maharaja for extending yourself in so many ways for our sake although we are not at all qualified..

Ohh! My dear, most respected Gurudeva.
Please accept repeated humble obeisances from a very fallen aspiring servant of yours.
All glories to you!

Being fully drowned in the ocean of nescience and materialism, I was blinded by pseudo-atheism and so-called "modern advancement." Gurudeva, you provided me with the vision to differentiate between what is right and what is wrong.

Guru Maharaja, your book "The Journey Home" has been a medium of hope in the most challenging periods of my life. Whenever I felt low, your book gave me hope and light, and every time it addressed the exact question that I was seeking. It feels like you are always personally by my side, guiding me through the crests and troughs of this life.

In your pleasure, here I am trying to present the most important teaching from your journey, which every spiritual seeker should try to take on.

Throughout your journey Oh! Gurudeva... beginning from the suburb of Chicago to Vrndavana, you came across every single type of obstacle that could come in a spiritual seeker's journey. But your firm determination in the supreme and prayful mood in every circumstance teaches us the quality of how a seeker should be.

Here are those which I am able to collect with my very, very little intelligence: -

1) Mental Obstacles: At times our mind tries to trick us in the name of loneliness, ego, pride, and fear of safety, but by your own example, you showed us how to overcome these.

2) Financial Obstacles: At the very start of your journey, your friend was robbed of all his money, who was sponsoring the trip for all, but this incident didn't deter you from your goal.

3) Doubt: Oftentimes you had doubts about the path that you were going, but not even once did you leave the shelter of the divine and pray for the right guidance.

4) Physical Obstacles: In the Middle East, when you took a room with Gary and others, you faced a life-threatening situation when the goons attacked you all, but then also you didn't give up and finally escaped that situation.

5) Temptations from the opposite gender: In Kabul you were approached by a lady who helped you from a freezing night, but eventually she tried to seduce you but you didn't fall for such a cheap trick.

In another incident, you met a very sweet girl. For once you thought that if a girl is worthy of being your partner, then it should be her. But you recalled the previous acaryas and great souls, and eventually you decided this is nothing but temptations trying to deviate you from your goal.

6) False Gurus: Gurudeva... you never surrendered yourself to anyone until you saw Srila Prabhupada. In your journey you met some bogus Gurus, but this trick of Maya Devi also failed to stop you.

7) Family Duties: Emotional letters from families were heart-wrenching for you; it was tough to explain to your divine parents what you were doing, but then also you followed your inner calling and kept moving forward.

8) Health: Whether it was diarrhea or typhoid, they may be able to harm you physically/externally, but not for a second did they move you from your determination and surrender.

9) Attachment with people: It was very difficult for you to leave your best friend and companion Gary and move forward without him. But your surrender to the super soul provided you with the strength to take it as a part of the journey.

10) Hunger: You were always situated above the consciousness of your body. Having spent a month eating only 1 carrot and drinking Ganga water, you taught that if one's consciousness is fixed in the supreme, then the hunger of the stomach is insignificant in front of the hunger for the love of Godhead.

These are just a few of your innumerable divine qualities. I had no qualification to glorify you, Gurudeva, but for my self-improvement, I attempted...so that someday I could also follow your footsteps.

Please forgive me, Gurudeva, for anything that I said beyond my adhikar, although I have no adhikar. I am your insignificant and unworthy aspiring servant and a rascal child. Please forgive me, Gurudeva.

I pray that someday I will become your sincere servant and only do things for your pleasure and the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada... for the pleasure of acaryas is my only hope.
Thank you so much, Gurudeva, for everything.
Yours, an unworthy, insignificant, aspiring servant

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

To become a devotee is a great responsibility. The moment I look like a devotee, people start expecting that I should act like a devotee...But I am just a trainee and failed to fulfill their expectations. Now in a devotee community being your disciple, devotees have great expectations from me. Because you have set such a standard in your own life and behavior, the moment devotees identify someone as your disciple, they immediately search for your qualities in them and they expect some standard behavior from us.

I am fearful to call myself as your disciple. I don't want to defame your name. Guru Maharaja please forgive my offenses. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Govinda Dev, that I should not become the cause of your defamation. And from my side I'll try my best to assist you in your service to Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you

Hare Krishan, my Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my very humble obeisances. Gurudeva the words will be insignificant to the glories and the mercy you have showered to us...The amount of sacrifice and service you are doing to our Acarya Srila Prabhupada is inconceivable and cannot be fully understood...Even if I got the body of Sesa naag with unlimited hoods still I cannot speak your glories and the sacrifice you have done for us. Gurudeva, your mood is always in Trinad api sunichena and the same mood you are giving to the disciples....Gurudeva, I am an unworthy and a rascal disciple who is puffed up and proud and always have deep inside in core of my heart to get people's attention and fame...My life is like a worm who is trying to enjoy in a deep stool of hog. Gurudeva, although I am trying to hear every day your lecture for at least 45 min and trying to read Srila Prabhupada books for at least 45 min. Please give your blessings that I can do it throughout my life. Gurudeva, you mercifully gave me an initiation on 20 September 2024, although I am an unqualified soul. I am so grateful that you extended your mercy to this rascal and allowed me to connect in Madhava Gaudiya Sampradaya through your grace. I am deeply grateful for it. Gurudeva, I desperately need your blessings so that I can chant my 16 round attentively and serve you to assist in Srila Prabhupada mission without committing any offenses to any Vaisnava and Vaisnavai and always try to please the authorities and devotees in the mood of a humble servant of a servant and never trans grand the Vaisnav etiquette. I am a puffed-up rascal, and it's only your causeless mercy that can make me humble. I simply beg my beloved Sri Sri Radha Rasbihari, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai, Sri Sri Sita Ram Laxman Hanuman, and our dear Acarya Srila Prabhupada to whom in front of them I got initiation from your grace that they help you as they will to give your holy association to us and help you to be always in good health.

Guru Maharaja, This year I got married on July 15 with Rama Devi Dasi, disciple of HG Mahaman pr ji. Life has changed a lot for me after marriage and most of the time I am not able to take care of my spiritual life. Sometimes I felt as my spiritual life has almost ended but your quotation and short clips on Amrita droplets channel and your regular darshan through sadhu walks channel has kept me alive. I am really grateful to you for your Kartika-yatra lectures at mayapur which actually gave me and my wife the bliss for which we were thirsty since a long time. Guru Maharaja, it is only by your blessings coming in the form of your lectures that is helping me to continue my family life, professional life and spiritual life. I know Guru Maharaja that I am not a disciple which you expect to be but please always keep me under the shelter of your lotus feet because if you leave me then I would not be having any shelter.

Dear Guru Maharaja, My prayer or offering is simply to say thank you for everything and showering your wisdom, love and mercy on a soul like me. I cannot thank you enough on how you have changed my life since you entered with your lotus feet. Your grace is present everywhere in my life and I feel I don't deserve this many times that a great soul like you has accepted me. I am trying my best to follow and remain steady and it's difficult but I know you will always help and support me and be the guiding light. Your Journey Home till date inspires me and makes me cry everytime I read it and makes me feel again grateful to all that you have gone through and making our lives better and giving us shelter. This book has become saviour for me in my loneliness and sadness. You tolerated so much with love and faith. Your lectures on humility and tolerance speaks of your character. I have not come across any teacher whos fully practicing what he preaches. In you I find the perfect Guru. Your voice awakens my soul everytime I hear your audio lectures and is really helping me specially the old lectures 1989-93.My only desire is to hear you always and serve you in whatever little capacity I can.

Thank you for everything!

Dear Guru Maharaja, thank you so very much for every way inspiring me in my spiritual life and giving me a lot of mercy through your Wani association and in Kartika-yatra by your Vapu association. I am not qualified to get all this, but by your causeless mercy and mercy of devotees, I can perform the devotional service. On this auspicious occasion of your vyaspuja, my offering to you will be that, as you always say, one must be in the mood of the servant and never accept any respect for oneself and give all respect to others. I will try to follow this instruction of yours. Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for again and again reminding the forgetful jiva like me to follow such most important instructions of yours. One more thing you say is to chant our rounds as attentively as possible. I will also try my best to do that; please help me by giving your mercy.

Although my prayers have no power then, I will also pray from the core of my heart to Lord Krishna that you will always remain healthy and give us a lot of association of yours, i.e., the only hope for me.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for everything.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

Maharaja, words are but faint echoes of the immense gratitude I hold in my heart for you. You have been a radiant beacon in my life, dispelling the shadows of ignorance and illuminating the true path of Krishna. Just as Krishna is irresistibly attractive, so too are you—drawing me nearer to the divine with every word, every glance, and every act of compassion.

Your teaching, "The goal of life is to love God, and in order to love God, we have to love each other, and until we are free from envy, we cannot truly love God," strikes at the very core of my heart. In you, Maharaja, I see this truth embodied with a purity that stirs my soul. Through your example, I learn that to truly love Krishna, I must cleanse my heart of envy and love others selflessly. Your life shows that the pathway to divine love is not through words alone but through humility and unwavering service.

In moments of doubt and confusion, I find shelter in your lectures and quotes. They are my sanctuary, guiding me back to devotion with clarity and peace. You have taught me that my purpose is bound to Krishna and that in serving him, I find my true self.

Maharaja, I pray with all my heart, "chakhu-dan dilo jei, janme janme prabhu sei"—may you bless me, birth after birth, with the vision you have so mercifully shared. Through your grace, may I grow in wisdom and devotion, worthy of this sacred path. Please bless me to become an instrument in Krishna's hands, to serve with even a fraction of the dedication and compassion you embody. May your mercy free me from envy and deepen my desire to serve Srila Prabhupada and Krishna with every breath.

Thank you, Maharaja, for being the light in my life, you are a living example of Krishna's love. May I dedicate my life to the path you have shown, learning to serve with love as you so selflessly do.

Dear Guru Maharaja you are a perfect follower of your spiritual Master. You are a perfect disciple of Srila Prabhupada.

When you were sent to New Vrndavana in your early twenties you carried out all your duties of worship of deities for 6 times in a day, milking the cows, and cooking without a complain. You took bath in ice cold water in winter when there was nofacility of hot water. You had no association there and yet you took out some time to read the Shastras in such a packed schedule.

This determination is something that I want learn and imbibe in my life.

I think these 2 instructions are most important to remember in our life....

1.One must be the servant of the servant of the devotees having no ego.

2.One must take the shelter of the holy name of Krishna.

On this day of your Vyasa-puja please bless me with your unconditional mercy.

The Guru's form is the best to meditate upon; the Guru's feet are the best for worship; the Guru's word is the mantra; the Guru's Grace is the root of liberation-[Guru Gita - Skanda Purana Dialogue between Shiva and Uma (Shakti)]

Dear Guru Maharaja,

I offer my heartfelt obeisances unto the dust of your lotus feets on your 74th appearance day, and I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve you for another year with my imperfect words.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I'd like to express my gratitude to all the devotees who have you in their hearts - those who always think of you, speak about you, remember you, serve you, follow you, and share your teachings with others.

Over the past year, there have been moments when I thought I understood what it means to be Krishna conscious, but soon I found myself chasing after things that are ultimately worthless. Sadly, my priorities often strayed far from my ideals. To be honest, I felt lost during those times, but I knew I could draw inspiration from your example. Your kindness, generosity, and compassion on one hand, and your unwavering faith, determination, transparency, honesty, and freedom on the other, always touch my heart.

You are like living model of teaching of Srila Prabhupad's Teachings, instructions, mercy- (Kripamurti)

GuruMaharaja, a few months ago, I was struggling with the bad habit of finding fault in others, criticizing and condemning devotees and non-devotees alike, and people with differing views, due to my own ego and pride. Although I was aware of this flaw, I couldn't seem to shake it off. However, I was fortunate to hear a message you shared during your last Kartika-yatra, which Pranavanand Prabhu mentioned in one of his lectures. You said, "Krishna has created everything; the diversity we see is His creation. When we understand and appreciate this principle of unity in diversity, we won't feel threatened, but instead, we'll appreciate Krishna's creation even more." Hearing this, I realized how mistaken I had been. Your words completely changed my perspective, teaching me to see everyone through the lens of Krishna's mercy.

Your lectures are a source of spiritual nourishment for me, and your guidance helps me navigate life's challenges and anxieties. Your stories about meeting Srila Prabhupada are incredibly inspiring, and I often listen to them. Your dedication to Srila Prabhupada strengthens my faith in the Guru Parampara. Your humility and respect for others have the power to touch even the hardest of hearts.
As you always say, "The words of the guru are the only thing that can bring unity to the heart."
Dear GuruMaharaja, I'm your struggling disciple, deeply influenced by maya and lacking attachment to Krishna or bhakti. Yet, whenever I hear your lectures or see you, I feel hopeful that your boundless compassion might deliver someone as insignificant as me. Although I haven't had the good fortune of spending much time with you in person, when I hear your intimate disciples share their realizations with you, I'm deeply moved by your divine qualities.
I'm forever indebted to you for all that you've given me, and I know I can never repay you. My only prayer is that I may be able to serve you in some small way, bringing you joy and fulfilling my life's purpose.

Thank you for your guiding light, example and friendship in our lives. You are a genuine representative of Srila Prabhupada and Their Lordships and through your example you are bringing all of us lost souls closer to understanding our true relationship to Guru and Gauranga. This world is full of so many challenges and difficulties. It is so easy to become bewildered and hopeless. But by your example, your compassion, your kindness, you give us all some hope. I offer all my gratitude for the love and kindness you show to this lost soul, full of material desires. I pray for your mercy, and for the strength and determination, that I may be able to serve you nicely. I pray to Their Lordships that you may be always blessed with Their never ending grace and love. I pray for your well-being and happiness in your service to your dear Guru, Srila Prabhupada. You are truly such a special and beautiful soul. Thank you for everything dear Gurudeva.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja!
Please accept my humble obeisances unto you.

I was looking for Absolute Truth. Looking at many unanswered Philosophical questions. I experimented with Various organizations, but I finally found my oasis, ISKCON. Srila Prabhupada and his disciples built this home for all generations to come. I am deeply inspired by HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja, HH Lokanath Swami Maharaja, and HH Bhakti Caru Swami Maharaja. But Guru Maharaja, your vani deeply stirred my heart, even before I knew what Diksha Guru and Siksha Guru. You started stirring my heart with resonation. Guru Maharaja, you speak foundational, but The profound Principles without everything that we do in the name of Bhakthi may become just ritual. I see Srila Prabhupada Vani in your Teachings. But the teachings of Prabhupada are becoming more prominent and Nectarian because they are being spoken by you, who apply and relish Srila Prabhupada's Teachings.

Your Vani is my savior, Wishing to be your eternal Servant. Please help me overcome all obstacles in following your instructions, Gurudeva. I also seek your blessings in some of the crucial services I am involved in. I am clueless but hopeful that Sri Sri Radha Govinda Ashtasakhi.. will not allow it to go wrong. But we can access them by your blessings, Guru Dev.

Your Servant of Servant,

I humbly offer my obedience at your lotus feet, Guru Maharaja.

I didn't know much about you until I read your book 'Journey Home.' It made me realize that you were sent by God himself for me and many others seeking true spirituality. You are my spiritual shelter.

Your life story captivated me; When I read your story, I wished the book wouldn't end. Your overcoming of Maya, relishing Vrndavana, and meeting Srila Prabhupada deeply inspired me. I regularly listen to your lectures; thank you for everything, Maharaja.

My heartfelt desire is to meet you in this lifetime and become your disciple. Please accept me and bless me to follow Srila Prabhupada's&your instructions my whole lifetime.

Dear Gurudeva,
Kindly accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus Feet.

I have started practicing Srimad-Bhagavatam in my daily life after I met you, heard you and followed your instructions.

With your mercy and blessings I have started feeling insignificant (previously which was only theoretical) and understanding your teachings.

It is always a pleasure and satisfaction to serve you and your disciples.

I feel happy to Finish rounds during Brahma Muhurt and before Sunrise.

As per your instructions, I try to please my deities, Sri Sri Sri Jagannath, Baldev, Shubhada and Sri Sri Gaur Nitai.

Your advise of feeling existence of Supreme Lord in every activity is helping me to focus on Krishna Consciousness..

Our Councelees :

After taking "Harinam" and "Brahman" Initiations they are happy and pleased.

They have become more enthusiastic and active in practicing devotional services.

Mayapur Kartika-yatra :

a) I could feel existence of Supreme Lord during Kartika-yatra, serving devotees and assisting Yatra coordinators.

b) We had Adhyatmik desires and during Yatra our Anarthas (kama, krodha, moha, mada, matsara and ahankar) were almost nil.

c) In Yatra chanting with you in the morning was coming from the heart.

d) Meeting God brothers and God sisters, talking to them and serving them was spiritual experience and happiness.

e) Prasadam in Yatra was "Nector" and purifying our mind.

f) One of the Counselee's son "Caitanya" (6 years) was so much happy during the Yatra that he wanted to stay at Mayapur, he refused to come back to Mumbai.

Dear Gurudeva,

I am praying at the Lotus Feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji for your long life with good health.

Kindly bless me so that I can serve you Sincerely in Srila Prabhupada's Mission.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaja, thank you very much for accepting me as your disciple and guiding me and inspiring me in every respect. As the time pass by I am realizing and feeling how difficult it is to maintain and walk on the path of good character like you. The more I try to follow the way you act or deal with people the more I am realizing how great you are. Because it is simply not possible to act like you. Many a times I failed and accepted my defeat in dealing the situations like you. That leads to increase in further appreciation and respect towards you Gurudeva. As HG Gauranga pr once said, "everyone can become a leader but maintaining that gap between the Leader and subordinate is very difficult". Also he proclaims "the beauty of Guru Maharaja is He maintains the gap" that means you increase your standards with time. When he mentioned it in a causual conversation I never felt the gravity of those words. But when I try to follow it I felt myself as a little dwarf trying to touch the sky. Thank you for being an example and exemplary in every aspect of devotional practice Gurudeva. I am really indebted to you forever.

On this auspicious day of your appearance day I would like beg your causeless mercy so that I would meet the expectations of you have for your disciples and able to serve you and Srila Prabhupada's mission the way you expect from us.

Thank you very much for everything you have given us.

HH Radhanath Swami guru Maharaja,

Dandavat Pranama. I liked all qualities of guru Maharaja but out of all qualities few attracts me more. Always remains down to earth(humbleness), never criticises anyone, gives respects to all but not expect respect for self, tolerance. Guru Maharaja always quotes this sloka of shikshashtakam in his almost all lectures and by his example also he is teaching the same to all his disciples. During mayapur yatra, as usual he was very eagerly waiting to serve. To go beyond his physical limits to give himself for spiritual benefits of all.

I am always grateful to Srila Prabhupada for giving me shelter of such a Great soul who can take me back home back to god head if follow all his instructions sincerely and seriously till last breadth of life and request Srila Prabhupada, guru parampara to always bestow their mercy upon guru Maharaja. May Lord Narsimha always protect guru Maharaja and keep him in good health so that his neophyte disciple like me can learn everything from my guru Maharaja to perfect my life and achieve the goal of my life. Thank u very much from bottom of my heart guru Maharaja to accept Insignificant soul like me. Please accept our humble obeisances at the dust of your holy feet
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
Beloved Guru Maharaja,

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasapuja, we bow our heads in deepest gratitude, overwhelmed by the mercy of Sri Krishna, who has allowed us to find shelter at your lotus feet. In this age of Kali, where illusion, pride, and envy cloud our hearts, we feel so fortunate that Lord Krishna has placed you in our lives. Through His infinite kindness, He has sent you to deliver us from this darkness, just as the rising sun dispels the night.

Srila Prabhupada says that "The spiritual master is like the captain of the ship, and he is helping us to cross the ocean of nescience. By following his instructions and staying within the shelter of his guidance, we are protected from the tumultuous waves of material existence"

Your protection for us has primarily been in form of your instructions that are like divine nectar, the most effective medicine for the disease that all of us suffer in this fallen age. The ignorance, the selfish desires, and the endless distractions of Kali Yuga weigh heavy on our souls, but in your teachings, we find immense strength. You have taught us that the real solution to our suffering is surrender to the Holy Name, and you have led by example, illuminating our path with your unwavering devotion to Sri Krishna.

Guru Maharaja, your compassion and patience are boundless. Despite our countless faults, you continue to guide us, uplift us, and inspire us to walk this sacred path. We are forever indebted to you for the mercy you show, even though we are absolutely undeserving. You teach us that our only real qualification is our sincere desire to serve and to be faithful to Krishna's mission.

Amongst all the examples or metaphors we hear from spiritual mentors, the one we very strongly relate to is how you could be compared to a sculptor. We see you as a very merciful, skilled, meticulous, flawless, quintessential, patient, perceptive and a visionary sculptor. On the other hand, we are rough, worthless, repulsive, inconsequential, unsightly and futiles stones. Yet you saw potential in such stones and are carefully chipping away all our outer layers. What can be said in the glory of such a divine sculptor who can chip away the material conditioning from worthless souls like us? The transformative power that you extend in form of your guidance in our lives has been our only saving grace. Overtime, we only hope to become refined so that we continue to inherit your love and association for all eternity.

On this day, we pray to remain as humble servants at your feet, seeking only to assist in the mission you have so mercifully undertaken. May we never forget the divine fortune of having found you as our spiritual master. May we strive each day to carry out your instructions, with faith and enthusiasm, so that we may one day please you, and in pleasing you, please Sri Krishna.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for your unceasing compassion, your wisdom, and your love. We pray to become worthy disciples, and may Krishna grant us the strength to always remain beneath you, serving your divine mission.

Hare Krishna! Dearest Gurumaharaja!
Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you.

On this most auspicious day please allow us to say Thank you for the countless blessings you have given us over many years. We can never be grateful enough to you for continuing Srila Prabhupada's mission by tirelessly dedicating your time and all your energies to Krishna in the service of devotees.

Thank you for the inspiration to translate and to publish your book The Journey Home in Hungarian (Hazatérés). We have tried to do the best possible service to serve Hungarian devotees and non-devotee readers alike and have received many nice comments from readers just to mention one:

If someone like me loves true stories of spiritual journeys in exotic landscapes, deeply thought-provoking, autobiographically inspired, true stories; then hopefully Radhanath Swami's book will be a great experience for them too. A beautifully written, very human story of a pure-hearted, sincere American boy's extraordinary journey, his spiritual homecoming and his becoming a guru. It is true of this book that life writes the best stories...for me it was unputdownable.

After reading the book another reader (the mother of a Mataji) quit smoking cigarettes and someone called it a "spiritual blood transfusion". Another great joy for all of us is that the book, along with Srila Prabhupada's books, will be distributed in a small gift pack at the book distribution marathon.

On this special day we beg for your mercy to give us the intelligence and strength to never forget Krishna, to always chant His Holy Name with loving devotion. Please grant us the grace to learn to chant the Holy Name without offence and to realize the verse of Sri Caitanya-caritamrta in our lives:

harer nama harer nama harer namaiva kevalam kalau nasty eva nasty eva nasty eva gatir anyatha

"In this age of quarrel and hypocrisy, the only means of deliverance is the chanting of the holy names of the Lord. There is no other way. There is no other way. There is no other way." We pray to always remember this inspiring verse.

Please give us your blessings so that we can continue to persevere and devote ourselves to follow your teachings and serve devotees in the mission of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada. And please take good care of your health. Hoping to see you soon in person either in India or in Europe.

Hare Krishna my Param Pujya Maharaja.
Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances unto your Lotus feet.

I consider myself fortunate that I am writing an offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, my spiritual master, on the occasion of his 74th Vyasa-puja.

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is one of the most prominent spiritual leaders of the world today. He is inspiring thousands of people all over the world to become devotees of Krishna.

Devotees across the world are giving heartfelt offerings to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja on his 74th Vyasa-puja. In my little way, I am also trying to give my offering by sharing Maharaja's qualities. Although Maharaja has unlimited qualities, I am sharing the following wonderful qualities of Maharaja, which inspire me a lot.

(1) Perfect disciple of Srila Prabhupada.

A perfect disciple assimilates the instructions of his guru in his heart and, despite challenging circumstances, continues carrying forward that instruction of his guru without any selfish desire. HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is one of the best examples of an ideal disciple

(2) Great communicator

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is gifted with the ability to share the pristine message of Vedic literatures like Bhagavad Gita, Srimad-Bhagavatam, and Caitanya Charitamrita in a way that the audience can understand, appreciate, and apply it in their life. He communicates with his audience, who are from diverse backgrounds in their languages. In the recently concluded Kartika-yatra 2024, Maharaja has given amazing Kathas, which are easily understandable by anyone.

(3) Full of compassion

It is because of his compassion that he wants every soul in this world to get connected to Krishna. To give Krishna to others, Maharaja applies different strategies.

Maharaja has accepted me as his disciple and showered his unlimited mercy upon me.

I do not have sufficient qualifications to give a Vyasa-puja offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja. As an offering to him, I have just underlined his above qualities. With my limited intelligence, I have tried to describe those qualities. But his qualities are unlimited and cannot be quantified. Also, I do not have the wisdom to know and understand all the qualities of Maharaja, who is a pure devotee of Krishna.

On the auspicious occasion of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja's 74th Vyasa-puja, I beg Maharaja to shelter me at his lotus feet and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life.

I am waiting last 14 years for your blessing. And finally you bless me in Chowpatty, Mumbai last September 21, Saturday. I am so grateful to get your divine Darshan in Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple that time. So nice all others thing like Temple Deity, Prasadam facilitates, all God brother so kind behaviour, etc. I am so fortunate to take a divine Harinam Japa Mala by your lotus hand. Dear Guru Maharaja you gave me so beautiful spiritual name "Bhaja Gauranga Das. My life is meaning full now. Please give me strength so I can serve Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha deity of Sydney ISKCON Temple. By your and HDG Srila Prabhupada blessing we distribute Srila Prabhupada Books in Sydney door to door. I always hear your Hari Katha. So sweet all the time. Your mercy always with me I can feel. I like to see you again in some Yatra, but don't know when my desire will be fulfilled. Oh! Guru Maharaja you know my heart, please remove my all anartha so I can serve all pure Vaisnava and Guru Gauranga. I wish your health will be good so we can hear from your own voice Sri Sri Harinam Sankirtana and Hari Katha.

Please forgive me if I do any offence in to your Lotus feet's.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

I am very grateful to you Maharaja for giving me this wonderful opportunity to present my offering to you on the most auspicious day of your 74th Vyasa-puja.

While writing this offering, I am remembering the mercy which I have got from you Maharaja this year with deep gratitude in my heart. The valuable teachings which I have learnt from your lectures, life, and dealings are precious diamonds in my life. Maharaja your lectures are so very wonderful that whenever I listen to it, it increases my attachment to your lotus feet more and more. By hearing your lectures my taste for listening to Srila Prabhupada and my Guru Maharaja has increased. I got the chance to have your darshan two times Maharaja and both the times it was unexpected mercy.

1) This year in the month of February, I planned to visit GEV as I got to know you are in GEV. It was difficult to come there as I live in Indore and family is not very much supportive but somehow or other arrangements were successful and I arrived at GEV. I was there for about 6-7 hours but didn't got the chance to have your darshan, one senior brahmacari told it is little possible that you can come in yamuna arati. But it was getting late and my relatives was also not allowing as it was getting darker as well. While leaving GEV, I was feeling bad that I couldn't have your darshan even after coming so near to you. Next day, I saw a picture on Instagram that you came to give darshan to people who visited GEV on that day, I was completely broken that if I could have gone today I can have your darshan. Then, in the evening, I went to ISKCON Chowpatty for the first time it was beautiful as I could feel your presence in the hearts of the devotees. I pondered in my mind that how beautifully you have nourished devotees at ISKCON Chowpatty and your immense love for Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. Then I came downstairs I was behind a pillar, to my amazement I saw alll the Vaisnavas paying prostrated Dandavats I thought to him they are paying Dandavats. Finally, when I saw I got darshans of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, your effulgence was shining as like sun. My heart finally got satisfied that for which I did everything I got it i.e. darshans of your lotus feet Maharaja and I thanked Radha Gopinatha for their mercy.

2) Maharaja when you recently visited ISKCON Ujjain for the Vyasa-puja of HH Bhakti Caru Swami Maharaja, I couldn't come to hear your lecture and to have your darshan due to some problem. I was feeling very much sad that you are so near to Indore and I couldn't come. But one devotee really helped me to have your darshan when you were about to leave by flight from Indore. I arrived at airport by the help of that devotee and you arrived at airport with a beautiful smile. I was about to ask from you to sign on my book but I was completely immersed in having your beautiful darshan I relished it very much to that extent that you signed the book of devotee who was near to me you looked at me with your beautiful lotus eyes but I couldn't approach you to sign my book as well. I was completely in seeing your beauty Maharaja, later I was feeling little bit sad that I couldn't approach as you were so near but feeling blissful that you again made an arrangement to give me your darshan in such an unexpected way. Fortunately, the pen with which you signed the book was mine and it is still with me and it is the best gift I got from you that you touched the pen with your lotus hands. Also, that day I got flower petals from the flower garland which was offered to you. I was again blissful and grateful.

Lastly, Maharaja whenever I am in troublesome conditions your transcendental vani has helped me alot to gain nourishment and proper guidance on what is best way to deal with it. I feel sheltered by hearing your lectures Maharaja. Thank you so much for the teachings, mercy, love & support you have gave to me. Eternally indebted to your lotus feet Maharaja.

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my Humble obisences unto your lotus feet..

Thank you for everything you have given to us.. protection from deviations, shelter in Bhakti, many Shiksha gurus, valuable devotee association, your lectures which deepen our faith in the process of Bhakti and devotional service. You tolerated and patiently handled obstacles in your Krishna Consciousness. journey which is very inspiring. Inspite of your ill health you give the lectures. Your mood of preaching, giving the holy name to everyone is proving that you are the right person to spread this mission. I am amazed, in every lecture how nicely you quote the slokas, pastimes and its application in current life. You nicely balance Tattva and Rasa.

Maharaja we rarely get your vapu but in Kartika-yatra you fulfilled our desire for the vapu association and to see you. Mainly in your lectures you take us into pastimes of that very place and that nourishes us.

I am trying to follow your instructions and mood and mission. Thank you for giving us the leaders like HG Radheshyam prabhuji and many others in Puna and Chowpatty temple. You are meeting with different people with different communities, and everyone loves you.

In Kartika-yatra I saw your relationship with your god brothers and sisters, how you love each other is very inspirational and lesson giving.

Maharaja by taking inspiration from you I have started preaching in small scale though I am not qualified. Please bless me and empower me to continue to follow your instructions, attentively absorbing Holy name with humility and to preach and spread holy names.

Thank you for everything and accepting me as your disciple even though I don't deserve it. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Vrndavanachandra to give you good health and a long life.
Thank you,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I want to express my deepest gratitude for showing compassion upon a most fallen conditioned soul like me. It is by your causeless mercy alone that I have been able to stay in VOICE, in the association of devotees, for the past one and a half years. It has been a very transforming experience. The devotees around me are very sincere and serious in their practice of Krishna Consciousness.. I have learned various kinds of services in this association. I have tried to develop good relationships with all devotees, keeping Krishna in the center. I have had the wonderful opportunity of serving in the deity department as well as the health department. It is by your mercy alone that I am developing attachment to the deities and devotees. In this association, I am learning the art of taking shelter of devotees and practicing the nine processes of devotional service, especially chanting and hearing.

My association with my siksa guru, HG Gaurlila Prabhuji, has deepened. In addition, I am also getting the wonderful association of HG Sri Rohininandan Prabhu, HG Tamal Govind Prabhu, and HG Priyagopesh Prabhu. By taking advantage of the VOICE setup, I am feeling a lot of strength within and a deeper connection to my Lord in my heart. I want to appreciate the mercy of my siksa guru, HG Gaurlila Prabhuji, for not giving up on me despite my past conditionings. It is only because of his unconditional mercy that I am alive in Krishna Consciousness.. Otherwise, the forces of maya are very strong, and I have no strength to defend myself.

I want to express my desire to learn mridanga and kartal. Additionally, I wish to learn how to preach in colleges. Maharaja, I pray for your blessings so that I may chant attentively, keep my lifestyle in the mode of goodness, make preaching a part of my Sadhana, and always remain in the association of devotees at all times, places, and circumstances. If it is your desire, please bless me with the confidence to join the brahmacari ashram and dedicate all my time and energy to the service of the deities, devotees, and the propagation of this movement in whatever small way I can, following in the footsteps of my siksa gurus. Please bless me to cultivate a consciousness of serving and pleasing all devotees and Lord Krishna. Let me faithfully follow the instructions of my counselor, HG Gaurlila Prabhuji. Kindly glance mercifully upon me so that all my rebellious attitudes may be vanquished, and I can serve with a grateful and simple heart.

I also pray for all the devotees with whom I am staying here, that they make all-around progress in Krishna Consciousness.. May they always stay in this movement, happy and growing in their Krishna Consciousness. with each passing year of their lives.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

On this occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I would like to express my gratitude to you for saving my life, guiding me on the path of Bhakti by your divine Vaani. Your lectures are so deep and filled with devotion. You have set a very high example yourself and you teach us also to be exemplary. I derive lot of nourishment from your lectures.

But due to my conditionings and anarthas I am not upto your expectations.

I beg forgiveness from you for my hypocrisy, laziness, lack of sincerity, false ego, lack of surrender and unlimited shortcomings.

Please shower your mercy upon me so that I can become your worthy disciple and offerable to Guru Parampara.

Gurudeva, I was remembered one of your lectures where you were explaining, Krishna is all knowing, and He knows all subtlest-to-subtlest desires of everyone, but Krishna will fulfill only those which are necessary. And I have got a tinge of realization on this subject matter.

Gurudeva, early this year I moved out of India with my career ambition. Before taking decision to move out, I was meeting various senior devotees, counsellors to know their opinion about it whether decision is correct? Trying to connect devotees to the country where I was planning to move, making lot of efforts to ensure if I am out of country, my family and I must be in the association of devotees only, to remain protected from maya. Ultimately, during mid of March-24, I moved to Saudi Arabia with an offer from one of Company. Good number of practicing devotees are there to this city of Saudi Arabia, I joined the organization, started serving to the company and making arrangement to move family also. Finding good ambience of devotee circle to practice devotional service, I was about to call my family to Saudi Arabia, but then suddenly company said we no more need your service. I was dismay with the situations.

I had left my good, stable job in India and moved to Saudi Arabia with an ambition to early completion of family responsibility with more money in comparatively short span of time, so that I can be remain fixed in my devotional service more enthusiastically, but Lord always has His own plan for everybody to remain dependent on Him.

Later, I got another job offer in Saudi Arabia itself in a city where there is no devotee shelter. I am struggling to find any favorable soul with whom I can discuss Krishna Katha and get some juice in my devotional life.

I don't have words to express how much Srila Prabhupada struggled in foreign land to spread Krishna Consciousness. to the whole world. And here I am finding difficult to get even single sincere soul with whom I can mingle and find juice of devotional Service.

Gurudeva my wife and I very soon will start conducting a regular weekly program here and will try to create some associations to protect ourselves from onslaught of materialistic life, to protect our devotional life.

Begging for your causeless mercy to remain always in mood of servant of the servants. Gurudeva begging for your mercy so that we always remain fixed to your instructions fulfilling the desires of Guru and Gauranga. Srila Gurudeva, on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, we pray to the Lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for your good health.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,

On this auspicious occasion of your divine appearance day I feel so much blessed an fortunate to have been receiving a constant flow of care, guidance and compassion from you through your representatives.

Although, worthless as I am in every sense, still it has been only your words and exemplary services that have inspired me to go on with my services and my humble attempt in following the path of pure devotional service.

I was deeply touched by your care and love for all the devotees who served in background during this year's Kartika-yatra at Sridham Mayapur. Your appreciation for all the devotees who were engaged in the most menial services and also those who were managing things for the entire yatra was so genuine and heartfelt.

You also shared that how the simple and sincere life of Kolavecha Sridhar is a role model for all kinds of devotees and that only love of God is the thing which is truly valuable while all the seemingly valuable material possessions which I hold so dearly are perishable.

Guru Maharaja, please blees me to become more sincere, serious and strict in my Sadhana and early morning chanting. Also, that I will be able to perform services given to me as efficiently as possible and trying to be in the mood a menial servant by which I can please all the devotees around me and thus please you.

It's very auspicious day for all of us that you came in this world.

Your every words inspires me and each actions teaches me.

You are that lotus who is blossoming and shining in the muddy material world, yet remains divine and shows us the path of bhakti to live in harmony.

Maya is continuously attacking from everywhere and distracting my mind, but your nectaring Kathas flood the heart with devotion and bring sweet solace to my troubled mind.

To live peacefully in this chaotic material world is daunting endeavor, but your one smile and enthusiastic kirtanas instantly sooth my soul.

O guru Maharaja I offer my heartfelt gratitude for all the endeavors and selfless efforts that your taking for fallen souls like me, and showing the right path of devotion and bhakti.

Lastly,On this occasion I pray to your lotus feet that I get all the strength to follow all your instructions and please bless me so I can chant seriously and sincerely and serve you and Prabhupada life after life.

Dear Gurudeva, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for everything you have given me.

How merciful you are! The realization that whether we face ups or downs, happiness or distress, problems or happy times, it's all happiness as it is coming from our Beloved Lord SS RadhaGopinatha came by your mercy.

Tears were coming from my eyes externally, but inside I had hope, faith and prayers.

In my hard times, I felt your presence, in your words. Yes, you are there.. you are there.. always with us, in your mercy, in your instructions, in your disciples. Even if I was walking on cinders, still it felt like beautiful fragrant flowers.

My dear Gurudeva, I beg you, I cry for your mercy, please engage me in your service, in the service of Srila Prabhupada and SS RadhaGopinatha. Please make me an instrument in Lord's service. This life shouldn't go waste, please allow me to serve you in your mission to serve Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Kindly accept my humble obeisance to your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Today when I look back, I remember long years ago how I was...!!

From innocent child to a mother, today my own journey in ISKCON. How things keep changing in this journey. Ups and downs, happiness and sorrow, anxiety to auspiciousness, at all phases I found your valuable blessings with me. Directly or indirectly, your support and guidance.

And that's the reason I'm here.

I'm very grateful to you, Guru Maharaja, for everything and for making me understand Krishna's plans are always better for us, more than we think.

I wish to say a lot, but I'm unable to express myself in words, Gurudeva.

I pray for your healthy life ahead with many more years. Kindly keep showering your blessings so that I can serve in Srila Prabhupada's mission, following in the footsteps of all devotees and becoming an instrument.

My only hope is that one day I can please you, Guru and Gauranga, and all Vaisnavas.

Hare Krishna,
Respected and beloved Gurudeva.
Please accept my humble obeisances.

This is a great honor and pleasure to write your Vyasa-puja offering in 2024. As you have taught us, that is what offering a person can give to Mother Ganges by offering a palmful of water to her vast flow. However, it is an expression of love to offer a palmful of water to Mother Ganges. In a similar way, I take this opportunity to offer you a few words of gratitude to yourself, who is the flow of wisdom and divine grace to this humanity.

I am offering my gratefulness to you for engaging me in various services this year. Indeed, working on the GEV project as a structural engineer was quite stressful; however, it is a great chance to learn spirituality in karma yoga through your dedicated disciples during the project execution. Even amidst great pressure to execute work, your dedicated disciple, HG Vasudev Prabhu, said that I cannot complain about pressure since these services are awarded on begging. What a profound mood I learned; that services are to be earned, then it will be a driving force rather than a burden. Also, we all know how stressful it was for HG Gauranga Prabhu to manage the mega kitchen in Kartika-yatra 2024, Mayapur. I just received his call after one day of Yatra. And he asked me, Where are you? I want to show you something about some project in the area of Kolkata. This type of consistency and dedication towards the services is very well seen in the lives of the dedicated devotees around you. You have imparted that quality in your loving disciples through your unconditional love towards them and by your relentless efforts for the society at large.

Dear Gurudeva, I beg you to engage me and my family in the service with real servitor mood as dasa nu das. Please give us vision to see only good qualities in others and love everyone around us. Kindly bestow attachment, love, and discipline in the chanting of the Holy name.

I have no qualification to glorify you, but I must express my gratitude for your divine association.

Your determination for Prabhupada's mission inspires me and countless devotees. Your love and affection for godbrothers, godsisters, and all living beings are exemplary in these challenging times.

Your lectures, writings, and kirtanas show us your pure love for Krishna and compassion for all of us. Your wisdom teaches us to cultivate love and humility. Your kirtanas show us how to call out and cry for Krishna. Your lectures, vividly describing Lord Krishna's and Mahaprabhu's pastimes, are filled with ecstatic, unconditional love.

I beg for your mercy and guidance, Maharaja. Make me your instrument to serve Prabhupada and Krishna.

Dearest Gurudeva, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I bow my head in gratitude, reflecting on how your compassion and unwavering devotion have touched my life and the lives of countless souls. Through your example, you illuminate the timeless teachings of our parampara, showing us that the true essence of bhakti lies in sincere service, humility, and dedication to the Supreme Lord, Sri Krishna.

You have taught us that love is not simply a feeling but a choice—a commitment to uplift and serve others selflessly. Your journey, so beautifully narrated in The Journey Home and exemplified by your life, reminds us all that spiritual progress requires courage, faith, and above all, surrender to the will of Krishna. Your instructions inspire me daily to strive for purity, compassion, and a genuine desire to serve.

Gurudeva, I am still struggling with so many shortcomings. Yet your teachings give me strength and the guidance to overcome them, one step at a time. You have shown us that our struggles, when seen through the lens of Krishna Consciousness., can become our greatest blessings, as they purify us and draw us closer to Krishna's loving embrace.

On this holy day, I pray for your continued blessings and guidance. Please grant me the strength to stay true to this path of bhakti, to use my life in service, and to deepen my love for Sri Krishna and the Vaisnavas. May I learn to imbibe even a small fraction of your compassion, humility, and dedication in my own life.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for everything. May I forever be a humble servant at your lotus feet.

Mayapur is always very blissful and the rarest opportunity to be in Mayapur in your presence oh Gurudeva, cannot be described in words! Thank you again and again for calling me in KY2024 and experience the bliss of being in presence of so many of your dedicated disciples Maharaja..

Thank you for walking ahead of me from temple to Pandal this year.. I experienced the love of a father and daughter having a morning walk together.. Thank you again for showering your divine lovable glance at me when you came to check Srila Prabhupada disappearance cooking..

I want to tell you that I was able to progress (even though little bit) in bhakti by listening to HG Vraj Bihari prabhuji, HG Krishnanand Prabhuji, HG Sneha Tambe Mataji (from Pune) and they have helped me understand the subtler concepts in bhakti so nicely..

When I see your dedicated sincere disciples like HG Anand Vrndavana prabhuji, I can just pray at your feet to give me determination like them so that I can chant the Holynames of Lord blissfully and with love..

You have nurtured and cared for each devotee in ISKCON chowpatty and devotees all over the world. Please glance over ISKCON Chandrapur as well Gurudeva and bless this community to carry the compassion of Srila Prabhupada here and spread it generously..

Gurudeva,I want to become pure, I want to please you, to follow your instructions, I want to remove this resentment from my heart, I want to experience the bliss of chanting the Holynames Maharaja, but I am unable to fight this battle and failing again and again. Please by your divine glance, purify my heart to become recipient of this most special gift Gurudeva and get your shelter as your disciple (although I do not deserve, I have no other hope than your causeless mercy my dear father)

Hare Krishna, my dear Guru Maharaja, my heartiest congratulations on your birthday. Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am feeling very happy that I am able to congratulate you on this auspicious occasion of your birthday today.

I have joined this mission of Srila Prabhupada only a year ago, the entire credit for which goes to my husband Suman Prabhu. He has accepted me as his wife so that I can help Srila Prabhupada in this mission along with him and both of us can move forward with firm faith in devotion by serving the devotees together and please the Lord.

But to please the Lord, surrendering to you is very necessary in our life. Both my husband and I desire to take shelter of your feet. Kindly grant us both the service of your feet. Grant us the ability so that we can engage in your service and attain the real success of this human life which is Krishnabhanamrit. Also, by the grace of the Lord and the blessings of the Gurus, we have been blessed with a son a few days ago. We have been blessed with a child. You have named him Haricharan. Thank you very much Guru Maharaja for this. We are very happy that you have named our child.

Just as you have given a name to our son, please sow the seed of devotion in his life too. So that he remains engaged in the service of Shri Bhagavan and his pure devotees every day. He should never deviate from the path of devotion.

And being his parents, we too should be able to provide him the proper education to always follow the path of devotion and fulfil our responsibilities as parents with full devotion. Please grant us such a blessing Guru Maharaja.

I am currently studying at IIT Kharagpur. Here I am under the divine shelter of Your very merciful disciples. I am getting the opportunity to serve Lord Jagannath and His devotees in many ways. Now I am in my final year of graduation, and next year by April I will have to leave my college. I am not sure where I will end up after that.

Whatever happens please help me always stay in the mission of His Divine Grace AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada. I know I can't do many important sevas but please give me the strength to do any small seva and that I am always connected to this movement and serve You. Maharaja, please help me stay nice and humble with all the devotees around me. I wish to become- a sincere disciple of Yours, the way You would like me to be, the way Srila Prabhupada will be pleased, the way all the devotees around me will be pleased, and ultimately the way Krishna and Srimati Radharani will want me to be. I beg You at Your lotus feet to kindly help me cleanse my heart of all the bad habits, purify myself and, make my life successful by dedicating it unto you. This is my offering, and I hope I always firmly stick to this. Please help me Maharaja. Hare Krishna and dandavat pranama.

I am currently trying to chant 8 rounds of Hare Krishna Mahamantra every day.

Most Respected Srila Guru Maharaja, Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feetAll Glories to youAll Glories to Srila Prabhupada,Respected Guru Maharaja, despite of my disqualification it is your causeless mercy and greatness that your holiness accepted me as your disciple. Humbly requesting your blessings and compassionate mercy so that practically I can attempt to express my gratitude through my heartfelt words, body and mind for the most wonderful gift of seed of Pure unalloyed devotional service which you have mercifully planted in my heart. Maharaja this year is very special for me, reason you mercifully bestowed your causeless mercy upon us in the form of second initiation (Brahman Initiation) on 30th March 2024 at GEV. We are very grateful to our shiksha Gurus HG Madan Gopal Prabhu and HG Baladev Prabhu for always guiding us and being instrumental to receive this mercy. We always seek your blessings so that we can carry this greater responsibility as per your instructions and expectations in the service of Hari, Your Holiness and Vaisnavas. Guru Maharaja recently I heard one of your divine lecture wherein you mentioned that ego is like big mountain and it is impossible to move but Krishna is Giridhari, he can move it very easily once we take his shelter. Guru Maharaja we are completely ignorant and depending on your causeless mercy, We always pray at your lotus feet to keep us under your divine shelter give us just drop of mercy " Gurudeva! Kripa bindu diya, koro ei dase, tranaaeksha ati hina..... so that we can develop attitude of gratitude and genuine humility which you always emphasize in your teachings and exemplify by your conduct and dealings.Guru Maharaja every year on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, your glories are revealed more and more which make us to feel more and more indebted to your lotus feet. When I hear more and more divine qualities from your God brothers and your senior disciples I feel so fortunate to be recipient of your mercy.Thankyou Guru Maharaja for giving us the shelter in this glorious Guru Sishya Parampara inspite of all our disqualification. Every year during Kartika-yatra your holiness tirelessly give us so many instructions/teachings for our benefit, which we try to meditate on whole year. Dearest Guru Maharaja,

I offer millions of humble obeisances at your sacred lotus feet. My heart overflows with gratitude for everything you have done for me, yet words seem so inadequate to express the depth of my emotions. Since the moment you have accepted me as your disciple, my entire perspective on life has been transformed. I have learned to embrace people and situations as they are, striving to cultivate a heart free from judgment.

Although I do not have direct interactions with you, I feel your divine presence in the hearts of all your disciples. They embody your humble spirit and radiate your countless positive qualities, which serve as a guiding light in my life.

Each of your yatras is spiritually uplifting, and the lecture you gave on the final day at Sridham Mayapur is etched forever in my heart. I am filled with boundless gratitude for you and for all the devotees who make these moments possible.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to the Guru Parampara and to Srila Prabhupada for blessing me with a spiritual master in your exalted form.

Thank you a million times for your immense mercy and for granting me the shelter of your lotus feet. I am always in need of your blessings, as I strive to follow your instructions, properly follow Vaisnava etiquette, and try to please you, please the devotees, and please Sri Sri RadhaGopinathaji, Sri Sri Gauranga Mahaprabhu, and all Their divine associates.
THANK YOU

Dearest, most lovable, and most merciful, Srila Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Please accept millions of obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

As time goes by, your words in your lectures and books are becoming clearer to me. I am beginning to realize that I'm sitting on a cloud of mercy, which may be withdrawn at any moment. I also see how I can't progress a single millimeter without your mercy, prayers, and blessings.

I pray every day that I may be purified of all my sins and sinful tendencies. I admit that I am very dull-headed and cannot properly understand what is to be done and what is not to be done despite hearing from you. May my mind always remember to ask how I can be of service. May I learn to truly value the association of devotees and how rarely it is attained. May I never commit offences even in my dreams. And may I somehow bring happiness to you. May I be able to see, hear, and talk for I am still blind, deaf, and dumb. Thank you for accepting me. Please keep me in your shelter and protection at all times.

I am so proud of your selfless sacrifices for the good of all. Please forgive me for all my foolishness.

Begging to receive your causeless mercy, Your servant, Braja Rani Devi Dasi.

Dear guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja.

While trying to find the right words to properly glorify you I am wondering: how can a person without any saintly qualities and without devotion be able to glorify such an exalted pure devotee of the Lord as yourself, guru Maharaja? Still, I hope that just my desire to describe a drop from the ocean of your qualities will attract the mercy of Krishna who may give me the empowerment to write. As Nrsimha blessed Prahlada so he could offer beautiful prayers, as Dhruva was empowered by the Lord to speak eloquently in full knowledge and realisation of all Vedic conclusions, in the same way even an insignificant devotee like myself can hope to achieve the same benediction for the higher purpose of serving and glorifying great souls like yourself, guru Maharaja.

Recently I was reading how the spiritual master is always perfectly in line with the knowledge of sastra. Your classes are always so rich with pastimes from sastra, with teachings and knowledge from scriptures that it is impossible to get diverted by controversies or confusion when hearing from you. Your words are always so clear and straight to the point that whenever I feel confused and lost my way I always get back on track just by hearing your classes. The conclusion of all transcendental knowledge and the purpose of life, to surrender to Krishna, is such a clear message in your classes that it always increases my faith. It may seem such a simple message but it becomes so powerful when coming from you, guru Maharaja, because of the strength of your realisations.

I pray that in whatever condition of life I may be I will always be able to hear your words so I will always be safe in my spiritual life.

By your compassion and love for your disciples you have created such an amazing spiritual family that I am grateful to be part of. When I see how my godbrothers and godsisters are engaged in devotional service, I think about how fortunate we are to be connected with the parampara through you. It is said in sastra that out of many millions of living entities one may be so fortunate to meet a pure devotee to receive the bhakti-lata-bija. But we are so unfortunate when we don't understand and appreciate the value of it. Sometimes I feel ashamed of not being able to fully appreciate the opportunity of devotional service. When I struggle with my uncontrolled mind I catch myself wondering why am I even trying to offer some service since I am so useless I cannot even offer a decent service to the Lord. But thinking of how you always start your classes gives me strength: you always express your appreciation for the service you've been given by often saying you are deeply honoured and grateful to be among devotees. You always act in that consciousness of a servant of servants. You just present sastra as it is, just like Srila Prabhupada, always humble, never looking for honour, recognition or prestige, simply satisfied with pleasing your spiritual master and the devotees by service.

I pray to develop that level of consciousness. As I am distracted by so many material desires I pray for having that fixed consciousness in Krishna and absorption in seva as you have.

I was recently hearing your Kartika-yatra classes in Mayapur. How amazing to see such a big crowd of enthusiastic devotees eager to hear from you! At some point you were speaking about the maha prakash lila and how devotees, although offered benedictions by Caitanya Mahaprabhu, were reluctant to ask for anything and when they did ask it was always in the mood of a servant of the servants. Your mood of selfless service reminds me of these wonderful pastimes in Caitanya Caritamrta where Lord Caitanya is always in the centre and everything is meant for His satisfaction.

In sastra it is said that great devotees are holy places personified. Because they carry the Supreme Lord in their hearts they turn all places into places of pilgrimage. Now, with the help of technology, even if we cannot physically be present wherever you are, we can connect with you through sound vibration by hearing your classes. So even our homes can be transformed into places of pilgrimage just by the purifying power of your words.

Thank you for allowing me to serve Srila Prabhupada's spiritual family and thank you for always inspiring me to develop a desire to get closer to Krishna.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

"Caretaking" is a challenging act. Still, Maharaja has inconspicuously taken care of so many aspects of our (disciples) life. In spite of time and distance, the number of devotees (10,000) we feel the personal touch...a connection.

It's heart touching how you do it.

Especially grateful to you, Maharaja, for all the caretaking episodes of my life. Which I still cherish in my memories.

This year praying to Their Lordships to award you with many, many more years of long and healthy life ahead.

Dear Gurudeva please accept my humble obeseinces at your divine Lotus feet.

Gurudeva right from beginning your teachings are to increase surrender to Krishna day by day. However just like father walks with the growing child alongside especially in childhood you walked with us, stayed with us in yatras and in temples for days together and not only in beginning of our life but you accompanied us for years likewise till now you're there to maintain our faith n devotion to Sri Gaur Nitais mercy.

You are most pure hearted and such live examples are of great need in Kaliyug where hypocrisy is in nook and corner of the world. Saints are benediction of Sri Krishna to the humanity and I beg on auspicious appearance day of your to let me become fit to be called as your sincere disciple before leaving this body.

I didn't know I needed a guru, a spiritual practice, and the support of a spiritual sangha.

Then I met you, guru Maharaja. My heart was open, my consciousness expanded, and my life was forever transformed.

Yoga teaches us wherever there's light, there's no darkness, wherever there's wisdom, there's no ignorance.

Thank you for your mercy in bringing wisdom into the ignorance I was living in and allowing me to be on the path of bhakti, the highest form of yoga, yoga of love and devotion. Thank you for being a living example of a pure devotee and showing me how to be a channel of Krishna's love and a pure servant of his devotees.

From the moment I met you, you made me feel like I was seen as a unique, divine spiritual soul. Even before, I could see myself in that light, even though my consciousness had been so covered by Maya and conditioned by the modes of material nature. You saw the pure soul underneath. You made me believe in the power of the soul. You treat everyone with such compassion and humility. And I aspire to become a little bit more like you every day.

This material life is messy, full of ups and downs, happiness and distress. Thank you for being the torch of light that keeps guiding me on the days when things are going well or the days that are meant to allow me to purify and evolve.

I have so many sweet memories of our interactions. I'm still so in awe of the unconditional love you shower upon me and everyone you meet. I remember the last time I saw you in between yoga classes at the Bhakti Center. I was so eager to tell you that I got to share yoga at Times Square that month. You looked at me and said, "In the Bhagavad Gita, Krishna said," I was so intrigued to hear your teachings, and you continued, "Time I am. So technically Times Square is Krishna's square." Then we both laughed, and you left with your bright laughter. I was so in awe of your humor, words,s, and energy!

Moments like this empower me to keep doing my practice and service to the best I can. It's truly a blessing that I get to be your disciple and get to share the sacred teaching in this life. I'm beyond grateful.
Thank you for your mercy, thank you for your wisdom, thank you for your compassion. Thank you for gracing us with your love and devotion to Krishna. Happy appearance day Guru Maharaja!

Maharaja, I am eternally indebted to you for sharing such wonderful knowledge. Your mood of being the servant of the servant and your humbleness attract me deeply. One day, I want to develop these Vaisnava qualities in myself. Please bless me, Maharaja.

The community that you have developed at Radha Gopinatha Temple and in GEV is excellent. I am benefiting greatly from these two places. Thank you very much, Maharaja.

Today is a day of introspection to look into my heart and see how truly I am following Guru Maharaja's words and instructions. I am lacking a lot, Maharaja. Please bless me so that I may be a good servant of the servant of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Temple.

In your previous lecture, you mentioned that due to your compassion for the upliftment of mankind, you have accepted this spiritual journey. You have done this job wonderfully, Maharaja.

Please bless me, Maharaja, to follow your instructions and Srila Prabhupada's instructions properly.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to you.

Out of millions of life time, when one gets the mercy of devotees one get mercy of Krishna and with the mercy of Krishna, one gets a bonafide spiritual master.

I can say for sure that at least I got the mercy of devotees & Krishna, that I got my spiritual master in the form of Your Holiness.

We can see that many of our previous acaryas though truly qualified and eligible, do not get direct mercy of their Spiritual Master, or do not got acceptance as a disciple as quick as it should be. In case of Srila Bhatkti Siddhant Saraswati Prahupada, He tried to surrender to Srila Gaur Kishore Babaji Maharaja. He tried to request Srila Guar Kishore Das Babaji many times to accept him as his disciple. But it was not that easy to convince him. By seeing the determination, seriousness, enthusiasm to serve and integrity of Bhakti Siddhant Saraswati Maharaja, Srila Gaur Kishore Das Babaji finally accepted him as his disciple.

In my case, neither my determination, integrity, seriousness or enthusiasm to serve can be seen in my life, even tough you accepted me as your disciple. This is truly your causeless mercy. In one of your quote you mentioned "Mercy means to receive something which we do not deserve". So I can relate this quote with my life, I truly do no deserve to be your disciple, but still you shower your mercy upon me & accepted me as your disciple.

Srila Prabhupada accepted many disciples by do not considering any qualification, caste, race, nationality, birth or any other criteria. Simply He saw a little spark of Krishna Consciousness. in them and accepted their menial service towards Krishna, accepting them as disciples. Giving them what they do not deserve.

I feel very much inspired when I listen your talks of the early days of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. Your lectures were building blocks in devotional life for all the devotees in the temple. Many disciples are still following what you had instructed in early days of the temple and serving enthusiastically. This is truly exemplary. My ambition in life is to follow such integrity and enthusiasm to serve.

Gurudeva, you are truly a friend or well wisher for everyone, whether it is a cat in the temple, sweeper in the temple, security personnel in temple, a gardener in the temple, cook in the kitchen, toilet cleaner in the temple, everyone in the community. You are truly a friend and a well wisher of everyone. Ajaat Shatru - one who does not have any enemy.

I seek your blessing always to remain humble and accept whatever challenges comes in the life accepting it as Krishna's mercy and follow the basic principle of Krishna Consciousness. as given by Srila Prabhupada.

Since past many years I am not able to devote much time in reading, hearing or performing any service at temple due to my engagement in business & other things, I am unable to attend morning program regularly. I seek your blessing upon me to guide me upon this, increasing my time in Krishna conscious activities.

Couple of months back, we lost our Shiksha Guru H.G Radhacharan Prabhu who was inspiring us from the very beginning of our Bhakti Life. When he was present we were not valuing his instruction but now I can realise how important it was. I seek your blessing to serve Him and follow his instructions which he had given us and help in some or the other way to spread Krishna Consciousness..

Gurudeva, due to my uncontrolled mind and senses I am unable to absorb myself in hearing and chanting the glories of the Lord. My mind is so restless that I cannot fixed it in doing one thing at a time. I humbly pray at your lotus feet that a little drop of this quality of yours (absorption) I can grasp and imbibe in my life which would give my restless mind and senses a protected shelter of Harinaam and glories of Lord and his devotees.

Today on this auspicious occasion of Vyasa-puja Celebration, I pray to all assembled Vaishanavas that I can remain a loyal servant of my Siksha Guru and Diksha Guru and discharge my duties wholeheartedly without any adulterated motives.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Kindly accept my prostrated obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories unto Srila Prabhupada, Sri Guru, and Sri Gauranga.

Gurudeva,

I have been hearing Advaita Acarya's

pastime for the past one week from the many lectures you have given. You mention that he is the most merciful incarnation of the Lord who is so compassionate and concerned about the spiritual welfare of the living beings that He loudly and humbly called out for the Lord to descend and the Lord obliged.

Similarly, I feel that, you although were in your quest of finding the Absolute Truth while trying to enter India, the internal reason was that you were actually sent by the Lord to India for me and myriad souls. You were sent to save us from the illusion and to take us back to our original position. You underwent so many struggles, austerities, difficulties to give us Krishna Consciousness. through your very divine self, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir and Their many devotees. Your compassion and mercy towards me is something which I wish to remember every day, every moment and be grateful and be of some use to your servants. You very kindly showered your mercy upon me many times and whenever I hear your lecture, the mercy flow continues.

I am very sorry that I am not at all a resourceful person but I wish to be of some use to your servants by your mercy. I pray that you continue to shower your mercy upon me through your lectures and rectify me of my faulty position and make me worthy of your trust and engage me in devotional service pleasing to your heart.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

It is my great fortune to have received the hari naam diksha from you a few days before. Since then, by your mercy, I have been experiencing an added strength and gravity in my daily sadhna, and increased responsibility towards my services.

Maharaja, through your lectures and your personal life, you have taught us the very essential principles - the very objectives - of devotional service. You have shown us how we should be eager for rendering services to the Lord and the Vaisnavas, how humble and grateful we should be and how fortunate we should consider ourselves for having received the shelter of Srila Prabhupada, how careful we should be in our dealings with the devotees and how we should delight in giving credit to others.

Maharaja, we remain forever indebted to you for having given us so much love and shelter in the form of your lectures, kirtanas, yatras and darshans. I hope and pray that I could be firmly situated in my devotional aspirations and render some service in the mood of servant of servant.

Wishing you a very long life ahead!

Maharaja You have so many qualities. You speak so politely. You are so humble and play the harmonium very well.

I want to share one of your pastimes in which you saw many posters, and at that time you were searching for God. The posters were of different demigods and Lord Vishnu. You saw Shivji's poster, and he was holding a trishul in one of his hands, so you thought that Shivji was protecting someone. In the last you saw Lord Krishna's poster and thought that he was playing the flute and not doing any of the work. He must be the God.

I always become elated when I listen about Kartika-yatra. I want to share an incident of Jagannath Yarta held in 2019. I was seeing many stickers of Lord Jagannath and wanted to buy one, and you only gave me a sticker of Lord Jagannath. At that time, I felt myself the most luckiest in the entire world.

Dear Maharaja, I want to be your servant and always want to serve you.

Thank you.

Chaitanya Charan Das

Mumbai, India

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to your divine self.
On this auspicious day, I would like to express my appreciation for your contributions on five different levels:

To our movement at large through the Mumbai community's model

To our movement's Western outreach.

To yoga outreach.

To outreach among elite Indians, especially those who would like to be spiritual but not religious.

To me in my intellectual journey in bhakti

Over the last 10 years, as I have traveled across the ISKCON world, I have come to appreciate what you have developed in Mumbai at the Radha Gopinatha Temple and the broader community, including associated projects like the Bhaktivedanta Hospital and the Govardhan Eco Village.

The ethos of training Brahmacaris to become teachers was pioneered by you in the Radha Gopinatha community and has been adopted with great success by several other communities across ISKCON.

The vision to nurture the congregation through the council system, the Rama festival, and the yatras has also been widely adopted in various ways. This marks a new era in our movement's history, where both the renounced and householder orders are well-nourished and well-engaged.

The way you have accommodated devotees with different inspirations and visions for outreach is a living embodiment of the principle of unity in diversity. This principle of empowering devotees is being slowly recognized and gradually experimented with across the world, ensuring that talented and dedicated devotees with vision and vigor no longer feel shackled by the constraints of sometimes parochial or political impurities that inevitably prevail in institutional setups.

In Western outreach, you have boldly ventured ahead with many cutting-edge projects. Slowly, the fruit of Western outreach is manifesting among the many Westerners coming to India, especially in places like Rsikesh and the Govardhan Eco Village. Your dedication to outreach in territories where the battles are hard and the returns limited, even when you could be achieving huge triumphs in India, speaks volumes of your selflessness. In India, your disciples are conquering many territories and offering their successes for your pleasure and the pleasure of our tradition. Yet you focused on Western outreach for nearly two decades and are now bringing both together.

The synergy between Western and Indian outreach, especially at places like the Govardhan Eco Village, showcases your superlative genius in bringing together two very different rivers of merciful outreach into one magnificent and munificent confluence, as is often seen in December and January at this scenic location.

Your contribution to pioneering yoga outreach and demonstrating how there can be a smooth and seamless segue from yoga to Bhakti Yoga, without any need for one-upmanship, reflects your deeply held belief in the value of harmonization for a higher purpose. Some of the most introspective and thoughtful thinkers I have met in recent years are those exploring the link between yoga and Bhakti Yoga. Our movement's receptivity and creativity in opening its arms and hearts to them are largely due to your compassion and courage. You once mentioned to me that the yoga community today is richer with potential for Bhakti than the counterculture was during the 1960s and 70s. Your projects are showing that truth of that statement slowly manifesting for everyone to see.

In India, especially in cities like Mumbai, we see almost three historical ages coexisting: the pre-modern, the modern, and the post-modern. Among postmodern people, many subscribe to the "spiritual but not religious" ethos. For them, places like the Govardhan Eco Village—natural, comfortable, and spiritual without seeming overtly religious—serve as gateways to a higher level of consciousness. These places showcase devotional landmarks filled with cultural beauty and aesthetic appeal, transporting visitors to a realm where they can experience the rasa of Krishna Consciousness..

Personally, for me, the broad-mindedness you have shown by accommodating my intellectual interests and instincts, as well as facilitating and encouraging them, has been invaluable. You have helped me connect with like-minded devotees and have given me hours and hours of your personal time, sharing your insights and nuanced thinking on various delicate and provocative issues related to our movement, outreach, and tradition.

All these leave me immensely indebted to you. I seek your blessings on this day that I may play my small part in serving you and your illustrious followers in their prodigious efforts to raise human consciousness and bring us all closer to the flute-playing Lord, whose call forever longs for a response from our feeble and fickle hearts.

I am really indebted limitlessly for accepting me for sheltering under Guru shishya Parampara without any qualification. No one can just write a commentary on revealed Scriptures without the mercy of Lord Just like Srila Prabhupada, You also Maharaja empowered to narrate the pastimes of Lord Caitanya. Every year on Gaur Poornima, yatra and even often times You repeat the same pastimes of Lord Caitanya and His Devotees like Sridher Kolavecha, Mukunda, jagai & Madhai but they never felt repetitive but relishing and recognising Lord Chaitany's Mercy.

My case is "Janiya Sunia wish khainu", that really depress me but Your Lectures and senior disciples are the saving and Hope giving Shelter for Me to rise up and continue the struggle happily. When I see How much You have respect towards Your Godbrothers and your personal dealing with then in even menial way that really inspires me to cooperate with and respect my fellow, equal devotees and serve them.

As I see You in advanced age although having health challenges Your Service unto Srila Prabhupada is widening by sheltering and protecting Many. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

With a heart full of gratitude, I offer my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

I am deeply inspired by your profound understanding of the intricate truths of Gaudiya Vaisnava philosophy and your unwavering commitment to the parampara knowledge system. Your life exemplifies the ideal of a true follower of our exalted lineage, embodying the teachings of our great acaryas with such clarity and devotion.

Your ability to seek the essence of every situation and remain blissful, even amidst challenges, serves as a beacon of hope and guidance for those aspiring to tread the path of bhakti. Your focus on emphasizing the core principles of Bhakti Yoga, amidst the countless distractions and possibilities of this field, has instilled in me the importance of staying anchored to the essence of devotional service.

Guru Maharaja, I humbly seek your prayers and blessings that I may chant the holy names of the Lord with unwavering attention and heartfelt devotion, as instructed by the guru parampara represented by you.

That I may dive deeper into the ocean of shastric teachings and the works of our previous acaryas while remaining firmly aligned with the teachings and mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you for your endless compassion, guidance, and inspiration. I remain forever indebted to your mercy.

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you!

I wanted to start off with my gratitude for the mercy and reciprocation you have given us. I'm eternally grateful to you for every drop of mercy you've offered, even though I don't deserve one. You've been so compassionate and merciful to our entire family and I can't express how much your presence and blessings mean. I love how you incorporate humor as well as philosophy in your lectures and I feel blessed listening to your kirtanas. You are a visionary and are helping to shape so much of ISKCON, making endeavors to inspire devotees to start the Bhaktivedanta Hospital, to start the free eye camp in Barsana, and multiple other projects while preaching and traveling despite your poor health at times. Thank you for your contribution to all of our lives, especially my mom's. You made time just to stay on that video call for over 2 hours and that means so so much. You brought her back home and even if I talk for hours I cannot express how incredibly grateful and indebted to you.

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I beg you to be compassionate upon me and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life. I request you to give me the strength and determination to overcome the challenges of sense gratification and anarthas and develop the great attachment you have to chant and sing the holy names of Krishna because harer nama harer nam harer nam eva kevalam, the holy name is the only way, read Srila Prabhupada's books, and serve the devotees. Please bless this fallen soul so that I can return home, back to all the wonderful Vaisnavas in Goloka Vrndavana, back to my mom, and back to the divine couple Srimati Radharani and Krishna. I pay my humble obeisances to your divine self.

Dear His Holiness Radhanath Swami, Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I sit down to write this offering to you after listening to your Mayapur yatra lectures in separation from you. My husband, Gopal Krishna Das, and I were meant to attend your Kartika-yatra in Mayapur, but unfortunately were not able to attend. Our hearts yearned to be with you in person, yet our hearts are with you through your vani.

The first darshan I ever had with you as your aspiring disciple, I shared with you how I had been in India when you were in America, and then I came to America due to my health when you came to India. Yet, when I was in India and you were in America, I felt so close to you. I asked you, "Maharaja, now I am sitting here with you in person, but inevitably the separation will come again. What to do?" You looked me in the eyes and said, "You can feel closer to me in separation than you can sitting here with me right now." That was your instruction and blessing. Due to your inconceivable mercy, you have allowed me to have your Vapu association in this life, and in those times, I have prayed my very best to be absorbed in serving you properly and not being a mosquito biting you due to close proximity. In those times I have felt so much gratitude. And yet, it is true, I have felt the closest to you in times of separation when I am meditating on your instructions and trying my very best to follow them.

In one of our last darshans, I asked you how to go deeper in my japa and spiritual life. You looked at me and said, "By being sincere. You've already given all the instructions, but we have to sincerely apply them in our life internally and externally. To the degree we are actually, sincerely trying to be humble, our prayers are pleasing to Krishna. Without humility, prayers are just a very superficial offering." This is my disease. Maharaja: I am not humble. Therefore, I am superficial. I fall flat on the ground, begging at your feet to, by your mercy, become genuinely humble like a blade of grass, tolerant like a tree, eager to offer all respect to others, and not demand respect for myself. Then I will actually be able to chant the Holy Names always, in a way that is pleasing to you and the Lord. This "trnad api sunicena" verse is the verse you quote most often in your lectures, and you are emphasizing that it is the foundation of our spiritual lives.

Her Grace Padma Devi (from IFAST DC) always told me that each time we come in front of our spiritual master, we should have positively progressed from when we saw him last. The last time we saw you was at our wedding when you so mercifully came to instruct and bless us. My husband and I felt changed after that experience; it was like initiation, and we felt so much gratitude for the blessings of the devotees that we want to dedicate the rest of our lives to serving the devotees, you, and Sri Sri Radha Murlidhara and Their Home, Bhakti Center. We have been trying to get ourselves financially stable living outside of the Bhakti Center so we can do just that. We led a pilgrimage for Bhakti Center to Sri Vrndavana Dhama. That was one of the most special experiences we have had in Krishna Consciousness.. We took the devotees to the temple of Radha Gopijanavallabha and told the story from your book "The Journey Home" and meditated on your journey and what true humility is. You wanted to live your whole life in Vrndavana, and Vrndavana is your home and your heart, and you were, for so many years, away from Vrndavana. Now you bring thousands of people to Sri Vrndavana Dhama to fall in love with Radha and Krishna and Sri Vrndavana Dhama. I can only imagine what that experience is like for you. I am completely insignificant, Maharaja, but in my own small way I also wanted to live in Vrndavana my whole life and also was away for some years. I did not even bring anyone to Vrndavana, because the fact is that you brought them but by your mercy allowed me to bring them. We brought a small group of people versus thousands, but seeing others fall in love with Vrndavana Dham was the highlight of my life and my life purpose. I pray by your blessings to be able to continue this service and to continue to go deeper in my spiritual life. My husband, Gopal, and I stayed 2 more weeks in Vrndavana and chanted and read all day. In our meditations and japa, we served you, and we knew that we were only able to chant and read and be in Vrndavana by your mercy. I feel like I am just starting to glimpse the unending mystical journey of Krishna Consciousness..

I see the way that you treat your God brothers and God sisters with so much love and respect and understand that this is what you want all of us to do with our God family and ISKCON family. I see the way that you do everything with so much attention and seriousness. When you bow down to Srila Prabhupada and Tulsi Devi at Bhakti Center, it is with a gravity that I cannot begin to comprehend. I have no qualification to comprehend how deep your japa is, but you teach us by your example the kind of focus you want us to have while we chant japa. You have said, "Sincerity in Sadhana and eagerness to serve is the basis of one's relationship with the spiritual master." You show by your example how we should practice Sadhana and how we should have a service attitude.

One day at Bhakti Center you walked past the reception desk, and you were on the phone with one of your God brothers, and you said to him, "I also don't like all the phone calls and text messages, but I deal with them." You take on so much headache and responsibility in your service to Srila Prabhupada, but it is a transcendental loving offering, and you never complain. I pray that we, all of your disciples, can take on your headache to relieve you of that. I also pray that we never give you a further headache. You told me once that "we make advancement in Krishna Consciousness. according to how we take responsibility. If we are preaching, we take responsibility for those we are caring for."

Many times, while giving a lecture to the staff at Bhakti Center, you have spoken to us about not being envious of each other. What pleases you is seeing all of us serve each other with love and not be envious. You want a thriving devotee care department at Bhakti Center, and you want the devotee community and the senior devotees to be taken care of.

The qualification of a spiritual master is that they are a perfect disciple of their spiritual master. You are that, Maharaja. You always say when you are giving class that you were just listening to a recording of Srila Prabhupada. You are always hearing from Srila Prabhupada and taking his instructions.

Despite so many health challenges, especially this last year, you have carried on in your service. Even when you are in the middle of leading a Kartika-yatra to Mayapur, you still take the time to message my friend, who has just had a hip surgery, to send your prayers to him. This is radical personalism. Her Grace Rukmini Devi Dasi always says that you do not travel with personal deities because the devotees are your deities.

The deepest japa I have ever chanted in my life was when I was so fortunate to sit in a room with you and His Grace Madhavacarya Prabhu at IFAST DC to chant japa. As soon as you left the room, my japa became completely mundane, and I realized that any taste I have in chanting the Holy Names is only due to your mercy.

In the lecture that I just listened to, you spoke about deity worship and the importance of cleanliness. You said that sometimes we get so busy in other services we think are important and do not consider this, but in deity worship, Prabhupada wanted punctuality and cleanliness. You spoke about how Jananivasa Prabhu trained you in deity worship, and you were so grateful to him.

Prabhupada writes in the purport to Srimad-Bhagavatam 3.22.6: "In Visvanatha Cakravati Thakura's eight stanzas of prayer to the spiritual master, it is clearly stated that simply by satisfying the spiritual master one can achieve the supreme success in life, and in spite of executing all ritualistic performances, if one cannot satisfy the spiritual master, one has no access to spiritual perfection." Serving you and trying to please you is our only hope, and this is the goal of every moment of our life.

Hare Krishna respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to your humble services in spreading Krishna Consciousness. around the world.

On this most blessed day of your Vyasa-puja, I express my deepest gratitude to you for your instructions, mercy and blessings for my Krishna Consciousness.. I humbly beg that your mercy continues on this fallen soul and I practice Krishna Consciousness. and continue to perform the devotional services. I sincerely pray to Lord Sri Krishna for your good health, and humbly request you to please plan to visit Australia. Australia is the driest continent in the world, both bereft of rain and Krishna Consciousness.. However, the environment is favourable for the distribution and cultivation of Krishna Consciousness. among the masses. So, your valuable visit and association will be greatly beneficial for the progression of the Krishna Consciousness. movement in fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's desire.

With the deepest gratitude.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am very grateful and thankful to Guru and Gauranga for their causeless mercy that I could attend Kartika-yatra 2024 in Sridham Mayapur. In fact, it is my first Kartika-yatra, first dharshan of Mayapur Dham, and first dharshan of You. Maharaja, after listening to the nectarian glories of the Lord and Dham directly from You,

My heart is filled with gratitude for the service of all devotees who made our yatra very comfortable, and I prayed to Gauranga for his blessings on them.

Mahraj, after reading "The Journey Home" in 2017, I am very much inspired by your determination and surrender in search of the love of God and a spiritual master.

After 7 years, I could attend the yatra and listen to you directly. I don't know why, Maharaja, but the first day you started kirtana, 'Jaya Radhamadhava,' I had continuous tears in my eyes.

Sincere heartfelt prayers to Prabhupada and Gauranga for their blessings for your well-being so that fallen souls like me can take shelter and serve sincerely.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prubhudada.

In the face of so many tribulations in this world, it is so heartening to see you travelling in America, Europe and India over the past few months, spreading the message of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu. This is indeed a very great service to the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

We pray that you continue to keep in good health and bring many souls to the Lotus Feet of our Founder-Acarya, Srila Prabhupada.

Having moved from Croydon, South London to Stanmore in Harrow four years ago, we are now much closer to Bhaktivedanta Manor. The positive side of this move is the opportunity to render service at the Manor which is 10 minutes away by car from our residence. Both my wife and I are endeavouring to render service. I wash pots following the Raj Bhoga offering on Mondays and do the cleaning up in the Deity Kitchen at the Manor. Prema Vilasini does alternate pujari room service at the Manor and Soho Temple.

Our main service remains Sankirtana, distribution of Srila Prabhupada's books. During a video made just prior to the commencement of the December Marathon, you encouraged everyone to participate in this sublime service for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada. We are still learning the art of book distribution and seek your blessings that we perform this service with enthusiasm and dedication. We are also blessed to be part of the Sankirtana Team at Bhaktivedanta Manor lead by HG Divyanama Prabhu and HG Vrndavana Chandra Prabhu.

As members of the Sankirtana Team, we played an active part in the Bhadra campaign 2024 for the distribution of Srimad-Bhagavatam. This year the Manor distributed 319 sets of Srimad-Bhagavatam in the UK, with another 110 sets to overseas countries, making a total of 429 sets.

We also participate as much as possible in the Monthly Sankirtana Festival, where we distribute books door-to-door and on the streets, including Srimad-Bhagavatam.

Prema Vilasini devi dasi also helps with cooking for the Deities at the Manor when asked to do so by the pujaris. In fact, she enjoys this service as cooking for Deities is very dear to her heart.

We are now eagerly awaiting the December Marathon which starts in the last week of November.

The very special auspicious month of Kartika has started and we offer divo/candle to Lord Damodar and Yashoda Mayi every day singing the Damodarastakam prayers. This month brings lots of auspiciousness and we will endeavour to increase our chanting and reading.

We are both now over 70 years of age and naturally are slowing down. While we perform service at the Manor by looking after the Information desk on Sundays, we remain committed to our Sankirtana activities.

This year, we had the good fortune of serving Vaisnavas such as HG Vaisesika prabhu, HG Yadubara prabhu, HD Atul Krishna prabhu, HG Patri prabhu, HG Vraja Bihari prabhu, HG Gauranga Darshan prabhu and others. Please bless us that we may always serve the Vaisnavas with love and affection.

Both of us are looking forward to having the wonderful opportunity of your association in Sridham Mayapur during the Kartika-yatra.

We remain, your eternal servants

Hare Krishna your holiness.

I was living in a remote village in Cornwall when I read your two books. My daughter and I had faced some racism and I especially was lost and not sure what we were doing living there. Every morning I would light a candle in front of a picture of Srila Prabhupada and read your books. I would mark the lines and highlight sections and copy them down in my notebook. I am a long long way away from being a devotee but reading your books gave me the path to do my work as a service.

Today we are living in London and I am grateful for the temples near by. I teach in a college with students with severe needs and I would have found it very hard without remembering every day what you taught me— to do my work as service.

I hope to be able to meet you in this life time. Please accept my Pranamas and gratitude.

Wishing you a very Happy 74th Appearance Day, my dear Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

First and foremost, I would like to express my gratitude to the Radha Gopinatha Mandir Secretary for giving us this golden opportunity to share our heartfelt feelings for our beloved Guru Maharaja, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja, on this auspicious occasion of your appearance day.

The very first time I met you was in Kolkata, and I was deeply attracted to your simplicity and humility. Later, by the mercy of His Grace Sundar Bihari Prabhuji, I had the privilege of attending my first Kartika-yatra in Vrndavana in 2018. This year, I was again blessed to attend your Yatra, which has left an indelible impression on my heart.

During the Yatra, I was inspired and learned so much by observing your humility and the gratitude you expressed before the devotees. Your transcendental lectures, melodious kirtanas, and profound guidance filled the entire Yatra with divine energy. Among all the wonderful experiences, I especially cherished your Gaura Katha, which touched my heart deeply.

I have also had the opportunity to read your autobiography, The Journey Home. This book has profoundly impacted me, teaching me invaluable lessons about life, devotion, and the search for the divine. After years of seeking, I feel I have now found my spiritual shelter in you, Maharaja. With this conviction, I humbly surrender myself at your lotus feet and pray that you kindly accept me as your aspiring disciple.

Please bless me so that I may dedicate myself to Srila Prabhupada's mission, serving his devotees in the mood of the servant of the servant of the servant. I aspire to contribute humbly and meaningfully to this sacred mission under your guidance.

Thank you, Maharaja, for your boundless mercy and for accepting my offering at your lotus feet.

Guru Maharaja please accept my insignificant humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to your loving services to your beloved master and Lord.
Respected Guru Dev you are an ocean of innumerable divine Vaisnava qualities and I am an insignificant unqualified aspiring to be the servant of your sincere servants, have no capacity to even touch the surface of that reservoir.
I seek for your merciful blessings to utilise my words in an appropriate manner that is most pleasing to your saintly heart, also praying for forgiveness for my shortcomings in my seemingly humble attempt.
Every year before writing my offering I try to meditate on the gifts I have received from you directly or indirectly.

Your life is a beautiful manifestation of devotional attributes as we read in journey home. humility, sensitivity, selflessness, purity of thoughts and emotions, extremely loving and caring nature, deep focus, shyness and yet bold in expressing the truth, meek and submissive at the same time firm and straight forward in achieving the ultimate goal, sharp intelligence, eloquent speech, respectful to one and all, devoid of false prestige and envy, ever giving and never expecting, forgiving and non judgmental, extending beyond the limit, your amazing sense of humour and the list can go on and on and on but when I dive deep into this ocean to collect some hand full of jewels each time I fail to go beyond the power of your words.

Your Vani is the very life of my spiritual existence. It's the life and soul of my Krishna Consciousness.. The potency of your words have no match in the entire universe. I have personally experienced and have also witness in others life the miraculous effects of your speech. I have often read Srila Prabhupada's statement where he emphasises that not only japa but also when we speak about Krishna is considered chanting. Guru Maharaja understanding the significance of this definition please forgive my audacity to say that your chanting is the sum and substance of my practice of Krishna Consciousness..

Simply by trying to hear you speak initiates the process of uprooting the deepest anarthas of my heart, I am awaken from my forget-fullness, then the desire to become free of it develops so strongly that my false ego seems to have no power and I feel liberated from the clutches of ignorance I just want to be absorbed in your chanting ... this is the potency of your Vani it's beyond this world. And the best part is that it is so supremely loving and mercifully showering all the blessings that even though I forget the doubts and confusions that I carry with me for so long your words illuminates my consciousness and everything becomes so Crystal clear and satisfies me within. Guru Maharaja to illustrate these feelings I wish to share some gross practical experiences that took place recently.

All my questions are answered and doubts are resolved

This was during H.G.Daivi shakti Mataji's class about Srila Prabhupada where she describes how Prabhupada would struggle to write, print and distribute books single handedly. When I get to hear the challenges he suffered and with practically no help he pushed on all by himself. It would shake me up and force me to question Krishna why why my Lord someone who is so dear to you and offering such incredible services to you and you being the master and source of everything then why is it that you could not make Prabhupada know the skill of typing why did you make him type with just two fingers that would take so much of his time and energy which he is only using it for your pleasure. Why wouldn't you send him some help so that someone else could do the running while he just sat and wrote at that age.

I know I heard this before that Krishna uses His devotees to show us the example of how to be surrendered but some how it wasn't enough to pacify me and I was looking for further explanation.

And 2023 Kartika-yatra 1st day of the lecture you not only gave me the answer and satisfied me completely but also reminded me of these questions which I had forgotten.

Describing the kitchen devotees seva you mentioned they are the most blissful devotees in the whole Yatra why so blissful because what they are doing is very difficult.

Then you further mention Advaitacarya tells us that obstacles are the servants of the Lord they help us take shelter of the Lord help us define whose pleasure I am seeking for.....

mine or devotees which is ultimately Krishna's. So actually these obstacles help us to please and satisfy Krishna by satisfying His devotees and that's what Srila Prabhupada was doing. In his struggle to help each one of us Krishna was enjoying every bit of it. And Prabhupada was most blissful. It was a deep rasa between Krishna and Prabhupada. It completely satisfied me of course it doesn't make me insensitive towards Prabhupada's struggle but gives me an understanding that when we serve higher purpose we transcend lower modes.

many of us wish to sit in the front rows so that we can hear from you undisturbed and also see your beautiful expressions while you deliver the classes which is I guess everyone's cherished desire since it's a rare opportunity for us to be so close to you.

So we try to be as early as 1:30pm while the class only starts around 5pm and devotees who are unable to come so early they are little disappointed not being able to get their spot as we not only occupy place for ourselves but also try to reserve for our friends and other devotees who requested us.

That's one thing and another when someone comes to sit next to us we try to keep enough leg space for ourselves and in doing so we come across as being intolerant and often little harsh in our behaviour.

This just defeats the purpose of hearing from you but this is our deep conditioning and we even try to justify our doing which is totally unacceptable.

The magic begins when we first have a glimpse of your darshan (vapu) and as soon as your words starts to enter our ears and then slowly entering into our hearts by their own power the mood of everyone changes and suddenly from intolerance we become so accommodating from being harsh we start to manifest soft and loving behaviour towards devotees. All this is your glory and purity of your heart which forces us to shed our conditioning.

Anyone who exhibits glorious behaviour is ultimately your glory Guru Dev. I have seen how your faithful followers easily overcome the weaknesses of their hearts just by giving humble aural reception to you.

If I could just follow in the foot steps of your loving sincere servants my success is guaranteed. The more I hear from you the more this becomes a reality to me.

Your Vani is the ultimate panacea for all my conditioning. Please Sri Guru dev may I gratefully receive your blessings to make your words my life and soul and serve you to your hearts content.

Your Vani is my ever well wishing friend and I pray that it becomes my constant companion, guiding me and taking me back to our eternal home

Hare Krishna!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
Please accept my humble obeisances.

This year is a very special year for me as you have accepted me as your disciple on 4th September, 2024.Though I know I am not qualified for this honour but because of the desire of senior Vaisnavas like my first formal teacher from ISKCON and guide HG Shubha Vilas prabhuji, whose contribution has been immense to put down in words and my very kind and ever giving selfless counselors HG Krishnanaam prabhuji and HG Amritnaam Mataji, my dear sister-in-law HG Mandakini Mataji,whom I had the good fortune to observe closely in her lifetime, I have been very fortunate to receive this gift of a lifetime which now connects me to such a rich and glorious parampara.

I am sincerely praying that I am always conscious of the responsibility that comes with this, especially in terms of my behavior with everyone around me and the service attitude which I need to develop more now.

Also constantly praying for your good health so that you continue to inspire lost souls like me who are fortunate to be consistently nourished by the contribution of a large network of sincere Brahmacaris associated with Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Temple and senior devotees carefully and laboriously nurtured by you. They are always giving their time and energy to distribute the nectar of the Srimad-Bhagavatam, and Bhagavad Gita and also setting an example with their service and interaction with everyone around them.

Your Holiness, despite your health challenges, your lectures and actions have set very high standards of devotee care, deity worship, festival celebrations, temple functioning and so much more and your personal exchanges with your God brothers and sisters, your disciples and everyone around you continue to impact the whole congregation in a way I cannot even fathom.

Your efforts in offering a world class Govardhan Eco Village to the community is just so huge and humbling.

Special gratitude to you for creating facilities where I am able to attend online sessions regularly for almost last 3 years from a very rare teacher HG Gauranga Darshan prabhuji who has with his own example very painstakingly led me through the nectarian course of Bhakti Shastri and now continuing with the Srimad-Bhagavatam.

I am also very grateful to the consistent efforts of HG Nimai Chand Prabhuji who has been teaching us on a regular basis Srimad-Bhagavatam for the last 4 or more years through offline sessions in devotee homes.

I am indeed grateful to so many Brahmacaris like HG RadhaGopinatha prabhuji, HG Nanda Dulal prabhuji, HG Gaur Vilas prabhuji, HG Amarendra prabhuji, HG Nitai Sevini Mataji, HG Jai Sachinandan prabhuji and so many more Brahmacaris and senior Vaisnavas, an endless list of who have served me through lectures, kirtanas, divine Prasadam, the RG Media team,and so many more in the background and definitely to the entire functional and support staff who have been making this possible.

Thanking you also for the endless list of service opportunities you have created for me and other devotees to serve Srila Prabhupada.

I have so much to learn from your humble demeanour and humungous efforts that you have put in to help me stay nourished and inspired in remembering Lord Krishna and Srimati Radharani, Gauranga Mahaprabhu and all the saintly associates of the Lord.

Thank you Maharaja, praying that I serve with action in a sincere manner to take the mission of Srila Prabhupada forward.
Please forgive me if I have written something beyond my own realization and for any errors in expressing myself.

Dear and most revered Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Your Divine Grace on this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja.

On this sacred day, we gather to glorify you as the transparent via medium through which Srila Prabhupada's mercy flows, carrying the divine message of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu to the fallen souls of this world. The significance of this day cannot be overstated, for it is by your mercy alone that we can receive the shelter of Krishna's lotus feet.

Maharaja, your life is the embodiment of the highest teachings of our Gaudiya Vaisnava parampara. Through your words, actions, and compassionate heart, you have shown us what it means to live as a humble servant of the Lord. You tirelessly travel the world, spreading Krishna Consciousness., touching the hearts of all whom you meet, and uplifting the fallen souls with your profound wisdom and kindness.

Your ability to see Krishna in every living entity and every situation is a constant inspiration. You teach us not only through scriptural knowledge but by your exemplary life—filled with humility, simplicity, and unwavering faith in Guru and Krishna.

Your personal sacrifices for the sake of Srila Prabhupada's mission are awe-inspiring. Despite the challenges of this world, you remain a steady beacon of light, guiding us back to the eternal shelter of Sri Sri Radha and Krishna. Your heartfelt kirtanas and soul-stirring lectures carry the potency to awaken the sleeping soul within us, reminding us of our eternal relationship with the Lord. Every year you take us on a spiritual journey to holy dhams and give us the opportunity to have your association.

Maharaja, I am but an insignificant soul caught in the clutches of maya. Yet, by your causeless mercy, you have given me the chance to serve in this movement of Lord Caitanya. You are my eternal well-wisher and guide, and I am forever indebted to you. Please bless me that I may become a sincere servant, eager to assist you in fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's mission. May I always remember your instructions, and may they become the guiding principles of my life.

On this auspicious day, I humbly beg for your forgiveness for my countless offenses and shortcomings in service. I pray to always remain under your loving shelter, serving you and the Vaisnavas with a pure heart.
Guru Maharaja, your divine presence is the greatest gift in my life. Please continue to guide me, correct me, and inspire me on the path back to Krishna. Let my life, words, and actions be an offering at your lotus feet, which are my only refuge.

I might be the blessed one who travelled many births n got this birth; where I got this beautiful opportunity to keep my emotions, my feelings, my gratitude and my dedication in front of you. For obvious every dedication n feelings I put forward is what I feel for you my Gurudeva, Let myself stay in thee feet, Am none other than the one who got reconstructed from your words, I was a pure nomad untill I got you Gurudeva, and thats how Krishna showerd upmost blessing on me, My life aint mine anymore, its under your holy feet, The first glance I had to see you, I felt like A CHILD WHO WAS LOST FOUND THE FATHER, I felt like shade for the one who was wandering whole life into sun, like nectar for my thirst, Your words your sound your every vocal is like thousand of birds singing in my ear, I apologize for lack of better words, but am not able to put forward everything that I feel for you. Me aint me; its you.How can a child thank the father? You pulled me out of a pit Gurudeva, You broke the hurdles of my life, please accept my Dandavat at your lotus feet, I shall always stay there forever and ever, they say sins wash off if we get to see gurudev's face, I wish let that process slow down, so that I get to see you more n more. YOU ARE MY BEAUTIFUL JOURNEY TO REACH Almighty, and infront of him too, I want myself at thy feet Gurudeva.....

Hare Krishna,
Very very happy Krishna Consciousness. Birthday to you our beloved Maharaja. May you have good health and prosperity.

I was fully immersed into the pool of this dangerous material energy but with your divine help I have reached to the top of the pool and am now floating just because of your mercy. Only you can uplift me and remove me from this pool of ever suffering.

You are the only hope for me Maharaja. Please shower your mercy upon this fallen soul. Those who have taken shelter of your lotus instructions have easily developed the skill to fight with this material energy and relieve themselves from this bondage. Please bless me that I too can take your instructions as my life & soul.

You have changed my life Maharaja and whatever little that I am it's because of your mercy. I request your causeless mercy on all of us so that we too can join you in serving Lord Krishna eternally.

I pray for your well being Maharaja.

Always praying for your divine association now and in my coming lives.

Thanking you for everything,

Hare Krishna
Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances

On this wonderful occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja appearance, I would like to express my heartfelt love and gratitude to you and especially to HDG AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Maharaja Srila Prabhupada (your beloved spiritual master), also to supreme Lord Krishna, also to your beloved parents, for making you appear in this world.

For appearance of such a great soul is, as mentioned in the revealed scriptures is just to glorify the supreme Lord and share the love of godhead directly from the spiritual world with everyone.

I know I don't have any qualifications even to make a attempt to glorify such a pure devotee like you, only I can do is express my gratitude towards you, for not only making an impact on my life and inspiring a fallen soul like me but also being a shelter for so many childrens of Lord Krishna throughout the globe, by reminding each one of them, about their lost relationship with the supreme Lord, and that too selflessly with all pure love, humility and great compassion, so that the dormant love of godhead is awakened in their hearts.

The only regret I have in my life is, why I was too late to be introduced to you and to ISKCON and the wonderful process of kc,

After wasting 25 years of my life, by the mercy of HDG SP, devotees and Lord, although little late,but I got an opportunity, to connect to ISKCON and especially to hear from you,and to know about pure devotional service, which is the real treasure of both the worlds.

From your loving dealings, I m learning and trying to understand that...

how to love Lord and his parts and parcels,
how to be a good disciple, how to serve selflessly,
how to be compassionate,
how to be tolerant,
how to surrender to supreme will,
how to be always respectful to others and not expecting anything in return, how to be humble,
And much more unlimited qualities.

I want to thank you for allowing me to attend Kartika-yatra, by the Grace of Lord it was my 3rd visit, I cannot estimate the good fortune of getting an opportunity to attend yatra with more than 10k+ devotees and especially with each visit of Kartika-yatra creating a deep impression in my heart, slowly revealing me the joy of service in association of devotees.

I desire to become your disciple some day, I don't which lifetime, it will be fulfilled, but all I can pray is that, Each lifetime dear Maharaja I will be indebted to you, please engage me in the service of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the Lord.

Please forgive my offences.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances onto your dust of your lotus feet guru Maharaja.

I am inspiring in Krishna conscious through your lectures,(like being humble, service attitude, respecting others, feeling gratitude etc).

Maharaja please bless me on this auspicious occasion that I would strictly chant 16 rounds daily with attentive and correct consciousness.

Maharaja I want to be the servant of the servant of the servant at your lotus feet to Full fill the mission of your spiritual master.

Even though I am hearing lectures and all I may not be able to satisfy or make my siksha guru happy with my service, please bless me guru Maharaja that something I do may bring happiness to Hari guru Vaisnavas.

Also on this auspicious occasion of your 74th appearance day, by your blessings I want to improve my Vaisnava qualities to please you guru Maharaja.

Hare Krishna, Maharaja...
please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet

I pray for your good health so you can guide us all in this spiritual journey.

It's been 3 years since I got connected to ISKCON Chowpatty and got to know about you about 2 years before, and I am really grateful to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha that we have all got your shelter... you are our ever well-wishers, you are our spiritual father, you are the one who is making us strong and guiding us on this spiritual journey, you are the smile of our face, I, again and again, offer my humble obeisance at you lotus feet... please please please please please take care of your health maharj.

I'm greedy and I always dream that I am spreading my pallu in front of you and begging that Maharaja please accept me as your daughter, and with a beautiful smile (that you always carry) accepting me as your spiritual daughter and giving me a beautiful name. No matter what the future holds I'll follow in your footsteps forever because you have given me a very beautiful association of devotees who are always guiding, and making sure that we may keep serving you, his divine grace, and the mission of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

His Holiness Radhanath swami Maharaja ki jai!!!!!!!!
Thank you so much for everything.

Hare Krishna, Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances; all glories to Srila Prabhupada and to you.
I wish you all the best on your birthday.

By chanting the maha mantra, I ask to be put at the service of Krishna, of Srila Prabhupada's mission, and of you and your disciples. However, I feel like the clothes of Kolaveca Sridar, who knotted the holes. I am full of holes; what service can I offer?

And yet during initiations you often quote that verse that says:

"Purified or not purified, or even having passed through all situations of life, one who remembers the beautiful lotus eyes of the Supreme personality of Godhead becomes purified both within and without."

and then you give me hope that my service can be accepted.

It is thanks to you that my life now has meaning, that I can hope to reconnect with Krishna. Thanks to you, who in my heart inspired me to associate with the devotees of Turin. Thanks to you, who shine with all the qualities of a spiritual seeker and who are so attractive that you immediately dispelled every doubt in my heart: bhakti is the path I want to follow for the rest of my life, and you are my guru Maharaja.

I thank you for the example you embody. I am particularly amazed and inspired by your humility, your love for serving the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, your empathy, your introspection and the ability to grasp a lesson from every difficulty, the pure and loving friendship you establish with other devotees, your affection for Yamuna devi dasi, and the sound of your voice that brings me home.

Thank you for sending into my life your disciple Bhaktyalabhya prabhu, who, with his wife Rupamanjari Mataji and their son Rasikananda prabhu, are giving me so much love and association, helping me take my first steps on the path of bhakti.

Maharaja, you teach me with sweetness and determination to follow your footsteps. I imagine them warm and imprinted in the sand on the banks of the Yamuna River. I would like to live there, inside one of your footprints, for the rest of my life.

Your aspiring humble servant
Chiara (Giaveno, Turin, Italy)
P.S. Please, if you can, come back to Italy soon. Hare Krishna!

My respectful and humble obeisance to Gauranga
All glories to our beloved Srila Prabhupada.
Guru Maharaja, please accept my respectful and humble obeisances.
Dear Maharaja,

It was a great blessing and immense pleasure being in your association for a short duration during the Mayapur yatra this year.

Your compassion towards every living being is commendable. During the kitchen seva in yatra, I got to hear one pastime of yours. You had visited Amritsar Gurudwara, and they had installed chapatti making in their kitchen with the latest technology; Maharaja was quite impressed. When Prasada was served to Maharaja, he was served handmade rotis. Maharaja asked them why they were serving these handmade rotis instead of the machine-made rotis. They said handmade rotis are made with love, which machine-made rotis cannot be. Maharaja was so impressed with this, and in our yatra kitchen, even today, handmade chapattis are made and served with love.

During the yatra, you told various pastimes of Maha Prakash Lila, Jagai, Madhai, etc. We keep hearing these pastimes quite often, but hearing them from your mouth every time is a new experience.

Your love for all your disciples was displayed in your cooking personally for the devotees in the yatra kitchen.

I pray at the lotus feet of Lord Krishna for your good health.
Please bless me so that I can follow your instructions and become a worthy servant of yours. I pray that I may tune in to your and Srila Prabhupada's values and instructions. I want to be the instrument in doing various services for the pleasure of Guru and Gauranga.
Thank you for being in my life, Maharaja.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am very much overwhelmed with the causeless mercy, you showered upon my mother-in-law H.G. Manmohini Radhe Devi Dasi.

You are an ocean of mercy.

That day I was stunned and couldn't say a word, just said Thank you so much

But you taught us every time by your acharan. How Vaisnava should do Sadhana, perform a duty, and maintain a relationship.

Please bless me that I can follow and apply your instructions till the last breath of my life with full determination and please Hari, Guru, Vaisnavas.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja, Kindly accept my humble obeisances in your lotus feet. I am really really very thankful for accepting me your disciple recently. In so many ways you inspire me which is not at possible to describe, that words will fall short. You always encourage to practice and spread Lord Sri Caitanya and HDG Srila Prabhupada's teachings boldly, which actually I find true in my real life also, more bolder I become I find more n more Guru and Gauranga's mercy bestows upon me, which further increases my confidence to practice and spread Krishna Consciousness.. Kindly always keep me and my family in your prayers for our spiritual well being. Your humble servant Cincinnati Dhama Dasa

Please accept my deepest, humblest and most respectful obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to your holiness.

Dear Maharaja, it's been another year filled with so much purification. As I learn that this endeavor of journeying back home is not easy – it requires me to keep moving, to keep transforming, to keep looking above and beyond. And yet at the same time, it requires me to keep still, to keep submitting and to keep going inward and deeper into my very being. This dichotomy of shutting out the externals and entering into a whole 'new' world internally is what I am struggling with.

This mind is so strong and obstinate, and it is determined to not let go. Yet letting go of that which no longer serves is so necessary and so crucial for my spiritual survival. The battle is ongoing and exhausting. There have been so many instances where I have wanted to give up and call it quits. There has been so much change and resulting pain. And the only thing that pulls me through each time is your mercy, Maharaja, your shelter, and your unwavering love and service. You remove all fear and all pain. You are with me constantly, and you are protecting me from all sides. You are doing everything for me and all I have to do is choose you.

Thank you, Maharaja, for your causeless mercy on this most fallen and insignificant soul. When my tiny brain tries to comprehend the service that you, and all other Gurus and our acaryas, have taken up, I become awe-struck, being unable to fathom just a fraction of understanding of that. So thank you is really not enough. Nor does it really convey what's in my heart.

This life truly belongs to you. And no matter how long it takes, my desire remains to ultimately offer everything I have, everything that has been given to me and all that I am, to you. In the mood of humble surrender to serving your instructions and desires.

I seek your blessings that I may be able to withstand the dictates of this mind and become your completely sold-out servant. I beg to never again forget you and your shelter, and I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for your overall wellbeing.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances to your lotus feet.

This is my first time writing on your Vyasa-puja. I was previously a worshiper of Lord Shiva and had decided to take a guru on that path. My husband, wanting to convince me otherwise, started sending me many ISKCON videos. Among them, he sent me one where you spoke about "Sindhu tai." That video moved me deeply—I cried while watching it. What astonished me the most was your compassion. I continued watching your videos, and it was always your compassion that surprised and inspired me. At that moment, I decided that if I ever took initiation, it would have to be from you. I knew you were my spiritual father.

Last year, in 2023, I finally had the opportunity to have your darshan. As you were leaving the Bhaktivedanta Research Center (BRC) in a car, you waved at me. I stood there, overwhelmed, thinking how fortunate I was. I couldn't stop telling everyone, "Maharaja waved at me!"

I recently watched a series by Radheshyam Prabhu titled "The Master Who Tamed Me," where he spoke about how you guided him and were always available for his queries. I felt such admiration and longing for that kind of guidance, though I understand it may not be possible for me. So, I began writing letters to you and kept them with me, hoping to give them to you someday. It feels silly, but I cherish this act of writing to you.

This past year, after moving near the Newtown temple, I had the good fortune of associating with many devotees. In October, during the VOICE training camp led by Radheshyam Prabhu, I attended all the sessions and felt immense joy.

Maharaja, I have a humble desire to speak with you for just 15 minutes. I don't even know why it's precisely 15 minutes, but this yearning has remained with me. I also have a desire to cook for you. For your Vyasa-puja this year, I will offer a few dishes, hoping you will like them. Interestingly, I never enjoyed cooking before, but after reading Srila Prabhupada's books and understanding the significance of cooking for Krishna, I started learning. Cooking for the Lord brings me the greatest joy. I am also learning to sew clothes for the Lord. Recently, I made outfits for my home Deities. They were not perfect, but I believe Krishna accepted them with love.

I have been inspired by "Yamuna Devi: A Life of Unalloyed Devotion," especially the parts where Yamuna Mataji shares how you helped her and her sister, Jahnavi Mataji. She devoted herself to the welfare of Matajis in ISKCON, and I aspire to do the same.

Maharaja, this letter has grown long, so I will stop here. Please bless me to continue serving Krishna and Srila Prabhupada's mission with sincerity.

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

Don't know how should I submit my offering to you whether you will accept this or not..when I know I'm not at all sincere in following your instructions to chant attentively and in a prayerful mood, regularly reading Srila Prabhupada books, dealing humbly and nicely with all the devotees..

Due to so many anarthas in my heart,I fall short in following your instructions as it is..

I have a lot of pride,anger and lust in my heart..

Only by your causeless mercy O my Gurudeva can I be delivered..please Guru Maharaja kindly keep me always in the shelter of the dust of your lotus feet..though I don't have any qualification and eligibility but still I ask for your causeless mercy Maharaja to kindly bless us and empower us to follow all of your instructions as it is.

Dearest Guru Maharaja, please accept our humble obeisances, all glories to your transcendental and auspicious appearance.

It's allways so nice to remember You in this special day, You are the real light in the world because your qualities and activities are so deep and unfathomable just like the ocean's abysses. You are a patrimony for humanity at large, You are always engaged in spreading Krishna Consciousness. in so many places all over the world by sowing the Bhakti seeds which will sprout by your kindness and care. You are the real soul therapist. As we read in the Sri Caitanya Caritamrita You are Upadhyaya, a person Who can give teachings and guidance to those who approach You.

We pray that our love for You can become more pure and spontaneous and full of faith. A Teacher like You know the secrets of divine Love and can open the door which enshrine the access path to Radha Krishna's divine throne. We remember our last short visit to the Govardhana Eco Village, It has been so touching and inspiring and it just reflects your intimate connection with Sri Vrndavanaa dham.

Your talk at Man Mandir was so sweet and inspiring, You have gifted us with your precious time and advice and the leaf You kindly gave us is still blessing our small altar. We are the last of your disciples but your mercy keeps us engaged in Srila Prabhupada's mission and in the santly association of the Vaisnavas.

Please forgive our offences and shortcomings, You have been like a meteor of love that left a trail of light in our heart.

Dear Guru Maharaja, please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. Guru Maharaja Your Vyasa-puja is a time for celebration and meditation for me to follow your teachings with more vigor and enthusiasm. Cooperation with my god brothers and sisters and working with other members of Prabupad's family with humility and respect for them. You are an emblem of humility and compassion for everyone; your natural friendliness for all Jeeva is exactly how Prabhupada instructed from his example as well. You like Krishna Katha and are always immersed in it, but a fallen soul like me has no taste for Krishna's name and pastimes; only through your vani am I trying to awaken the dormant love for Krishna. When I hear your kirtana, each utterance of the holy name from you connects me to Krishna. You inspire not only your disciples but also other devotees in the ISKCON family and all seekers from all around the world, which Prabhupada wants from all his children. Guru Maharaja You are very dear to Prabhupada and your god brothers and loved by all. Guru Maharaja I cannot describe your glories and qualities because they are unlimited, so I beg for forgiveness for my ignorance and limitation and pray for your mercy. I pray to Krishna that you stay healthy and continue to spread the holy name through every town and village in the world as Mahaprabhu instructed. Also begging for your mercy that I could serve you and Prabhupada in your mission.

Kindly accept our humble obesciances. All glories to Guru & Gauranga. On this occasion of your 74th birthday, we wish you the holiest, happy & healthy devotional life.

Maharaja, this time the Kartika-yatra at Sridham Mayapur was supremely auspicious. Your classes were too good. After many years of yatra, now we could understand something about devotional service.

We also attended Ultadanga road while returning. This place was supremely good with transcendental vibration.

The meeting of Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur Prabhupada & Srila A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada is the first birth place for the Hare Krishna movement (102 years old). The credit goes to you Maharaja for achieving the place. Your determined desire was successful by Krishna’s mercy. This is the devotional inspiration for the future generation.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!
Gurudeva, On this auspicious occasion of Your 74th appearance day, we pray to Their Lordship Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to always keep You in good health.

We were very fortunate in Dec 2023 to have Your association at Govardhan Retreat Centre, Vrndavana. We had not attended the Kartika-yatra 2023 held in Puri and were thinking when we will have Your physical presence and Lord Krishna answered our prayers and that too in Govardhan. This year also we were not there for Kartika-yatra 2024 held in Mayapur as we were going to Vrndavana instead. While in Vrndavana, we got the news that You were going to come to Vrndavana for attending H.H Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja Samadhi inauguration. Second time, we became fortunate to get Your association in the holy land of Vrndavana.

We seek Your apology for not attending the Kartika-yatra 2023 and 2024. Kindly forgive us.

We are eternally, grateful to You, Gurudeva for keeping us in association of devotees and giving us opportunity to serve them.

Our only desire is to serve the devotees and seek their blessing to chant the holy name of Lord attentively and without offence.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. I am completely unqualified and incapable of describing the glories of your devotion and the gifts that you have given to all of us. But at the same time, I must attempt this offering for the pleasure of my seniors and my purification, which can eventually allow me to serve the devotees better. Please forgive me if I make any mistakes in my attempt, considering me an insignificant and incompetent servant of yours.

In one of your recent lectures, you stressed how we should develop a relationship with the deities who is Krishna Himself in His arca-vigraha form. As devotees of the Lord, we ourselves don't need any opulent Prasadam, dress, etc but we have to give everything for the pleasure of Krishna. You said that if the deities are satisfied then the whole community is satisfied. And if we are actually loving the deities then we can serve the devotees more. And when we serve the devotees more by being conscious that every devotee is better than me, i.e. in the mood of the servant of the servant then our love for the deities also increases. You also quoted Srila Prabhupada's words that if we are not doing our Sadhana properly, hearing and chanting then we will think that why my Spiritual Master has left me with the burden of worshiping the deities.

Another thing you mentioned is that only when one is honeycombed with their own faults he find faults in others and finding faults with other Vaisnavas becomes the greatest impediment in our surrender to Krishna. In another lecture, you mentioned being serious about going Back to Godhead. This is the foundation of wherever we are or whatever service we are doing in Krishna Consciousness.. We have to please Krishna in whatever we are doing. This consciousness is very important. We have to be resolute in our purpose and make the words of Guru and Krishna our life and soul.

This year I also joined the New Bhakta program at ISKCON Juhu temple where I got the wonderful opportunity to do 2-3 times a week Harinaam Sankirtana and Srila Prabhupada books distribution in different parts of Mumbai. When we went out we could see how the people are suffering in ignorance and feel the extreme need of distributing this knowledge to every soul. I am also trying to serve in the Value Education Program for the school students for this year's marathon. I pray for your mercy that we can reach out to more and more students and give them the opportunity to make their lives successful.

This year only by Krishna and your causeless mercy, you accepted me as your disciple and have given me this golden opportunity to be connected to the bonafide sampradaya. My only prayer at your lotus feet is that I may be able to firmly follow the initiation vows throughout my life and be an insignificant servant in spreading the mission of Srila Prabhupada. I beg for your causeless mercy that I may not be deviated by the pleasure of this world especially attachment to the opposite gender. And, throughout my life, I may be able to serve you by serving those who are serving you sincerely without any hypocrisy.

हरे कृष्ण दंडवत प्रणाम कृपया माझी वनिम्रता स्वीकारा गुरू महाराज माझ्या कडे तुम्हाला अर्पण करायला काही नाही आहे, आज मी भक्ती मध्ये ज्या पातळी वर आहे त्या पातळी वर एके काळी मला शक्य नव्हतं, आणि हे सगळं समस्त वैष्णव भक्ताच्या कृपेने करू शकले. आज मी तुम्हाला काही भेट न देता, स्वार्थी मनाने तुमच्या कडून काहीतरी मागेन आणि तुम्ही ते एक वडीलान सारखे मला देणार ते म्हणजे " तुमची कृपा" "तुमचा आशीर्वाद". बस एवढंच मागणं आहे. माझा हाथ नका सोडू मला तुमच्या आश्रयात ठेवा मी भक्तीत सतत प्रगतशील अशी कृपा करावे आणि तिसेच मी तुमच्या शषिा ची पात्र ठरेल अशी मी आशा करते तुम्हाला तुमच्या ७४ व्या कृष्णभवणामृत वाढदविसाच्या खूप खूप शुभेच्छा हरे कृष्ण दंडवत प्रणाम

Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama Please accept my humble obeisances Guru Maharaja, I have nothing to offer you. Today, the level of devotion I have reached was once unimaginable for me, and all of this has been possible by the mercy of all the Vaisnava devotees. Today, I approach you with an empty hand but a selfish heart, seeking something from you, which you will graciously give me like a father. That is your ""mercy"" and your ""blessings.""

This is all I ask for. Please do not let go of my hand Keep me under your shelter Kindly bless me so that I can continuously progress in devotion. I also aspire to become worthy of being your disciple

Wishing you a very happy 74th Krishna Bhavanamrita birthday Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama "

Hare Krshna dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my Panchang Pranamas.

My sincere prayers at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, Sri Sri Madan Mohanji & Sri Narshimha devji on your 74th appearance day celebrations. Wishing you good health, all auspiciousness & bliss always.

Dear Gurudeva you mentioned, "Where we are seeking happiness, is where we are going to find our experience in life.That happiness of the atma, the soul the living force within all living beings is the happiness of feeling the infinite love of God. Reconizing it, appreciating it and being instrument of that love." On this spiritual journey of life,my humble and heartfelt gratitudes to you dear Gurudeva for making me experience that pure happiness, the joy of Krshna conciousness, joy of simplicity & humility, joy of service, joy of giving respect rather than expecting, joy of compassion and care...its all so beautiful, wholesome and nourishing to the soul!

Grateful for giving your divine association in Mayapur dham Kartika-yatra this year.Your presence was as serene and pure as mother Ganga..Very mercifully showering your compassionate glances and unconditional love on each and every soul.Cleansing our conditioned mind, body and soul and rejuvenating our Krshna Conciousness.Loving teaching us by example the humble mood, we should imbibe in the practice of devotional service.The humble mood which Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu wants each and every vaishanava to inculcate.

Under your loving shelter and guidance, my dear spiritual father may I learn to recognize, appreciate and share this pure joy of Krshna Conscious that I have received to one and all.

Eternally indebted for giving me shelter at your lotus feet,in this loving family of yours.

Your spiritual daughter,

Hare Krishna dandwat parnam pujnyea Maharaja. You are really very humble and always have smiling face. Your smile is always remember of Krishna's smile. First time I saw you at Vrndavana dham on Kartika-yatra. When, I entered the pandal hall Gaushala just that time I impressed your smiling face and dancing many devotees. That time was very fortunate for me. I didn't know that how can take shelter of you. But I thought you will be definitely my GuruMaharaja. Even I didn't know about your name. From that time I always think about you offer parsadam and Dandavat parnam in routeen. Once, I had chance to meet while attending your viyas puja where all devotees were very seniors and were initiated from you. I listened them how do you help personally for all devotees. You are always present in any devotional service even struggling with your health. You are very merciful as a shri mati Radha Rani. I have really no words that how can I glorify to you. I want to take shelter in your feet.

Respected Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to write this offering on your 74th appearance day.

I am deeply grateful for your presence in my life, which has been made possible through your compassionate devotees. Their care and dedication in following your instructions have truly touched me.

I have embarked on the path of Krishna Consciousness. solely due to the guidance and presence of your disciples. While I'm unsure of my progress, I am gradually realizing each day that this is indeed the right path. I am also coming to appreciate how deeply empowered you are to perform everything so perfectly. Your instructions and teachings are remarkably practical and relevant to every situation I face.

There has never been a time when I've been searching for answers, and your lecture or message hasn't come to me, providing exactly the guidance I needed.

I am deeply grateful for your mercy.

With humility, I respectfully request that you kindly accept me as your disciple and allow me to serve you, however insignificant my capacity may be, under your shelter.

Your aspiring servant, hoping to become truly humble.

Hare Krishna Maharaja.
Dandavat Pranama.

I am following you from 2011 when I first read The Journey Home. That book has changed my life and vision. After that whoever I see with little ray of devotion, I gift him this book. By now I have gifted more than 50 books of The Journey Home. I regularly hear your lectures and read all of your books. I was part of 2024 Mayapur Kartika-yatra and every word from your divine lecture was drops of nectar. I did not wanted to blink my eyes and not wanted to attend any phone call. I remember when I put your lotus feet dust on my forehead an energy waved my body. I again and again wanted to have your darshan. I am long back initiated with Holy Ram Naam from my Guru Maharaja.My Guru Maharaja departed in 2013. I have a strong feeling and desire to take your shelter. I am doing 16 rounds of Hare Krishna Mahamantra from more than a year. I am waiting for right time. Please keep on blessing me.Yiue servant.

Dear Gurudeva,

My mother listened to your classes daily when I was growing up. Then, in time I was fortunate enough to be accepted by you as your disciple and hear your voice in my heart through the holy name. Now, I'm going through severe heartbreak and loss. I don't know where to go from here. But what I do know is who I am, and every day, when I pull myself together to confront my new reality, the first thing I do is offer my obeisances to you; I offer prayers and puja to you. In this crisis, I know that as long as you don't reject me, as long as you let me keep my identity as the servant of your servant, I know I can survive one more day. Please do not ever leave me Gurudeva. Please let me never stop serving you,

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja, please accept my humble obeisances.

I feel most fortunate that you have so mercifully accepted me as your disciple and officially connected me to the glorious Gaudiya Vaisnava Parampara, even though I am most unqualified and possess no Vaisnava qualities or etiquettes. A disciple should approach Guru at His place of residence, surrender to His lotus feet, serve Him and beg for initiation, but in my case You have so mercifully came all the way to my temple (ISKCON Belgaum) and formally accepted me which shows Your causeless mercy upon me. I feel very inspired by Your personal Vaisnava dealings and sincerely want to follow in Your footsteps and try to follow Your instructions, but I have lot of shortcomings and feel powerless, but my only hope is that Your causeless mercy would remove all the difficulties in my spiritual journey (Duskaram Sukaram Bhavet).

Seeking your blessings that I stay committed to You in Srila Prabhupadas movement and achieve the ultimate goal. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gokulanand for your good health so that we get your personal association more and more..

Dear Gurudeva. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada and you.

Maharaja, on this most auspicious day of your appearance day we are felling eternally indebted to you for sharing with our family so much love, care and affection. Because of your divine blessings we are trying to imbibe and live your instructions. This Year we were able to do a small seva of facilitating your visit to BAPS temple in NJ. This Year by the mercy of our God family we were given a chance to serve HG Govinda prabhu, HG Radha Gopinatha Prabhu, HG Gauranga prabhu, HG Caitanya Charan prabhu, HG Baladev prabhu, HG Vraj Bihari prabhu, HG Damodar prabhu and HG Dwarkadish prabhu and mata ji. I am remembering that few years ago when some devotees mentioned to you that GEV is like a black hole (so much laxmi spent without much return) then you translated his comment by saying that black hole is a Black-Whole explaining that Krishna is black and He is also a Whole. After few Years GEV in the form of Black-Whole is attracting millions of souls to the lotus feet of mother Yamuna, Sri Giriraj ji and Six Goswami. I am praying at your lotus feet that please arrange so that I can serve you by feeling more attraction for the Holy Names of Krishna and Srimad-Bhagavatam in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant of your disciples.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Thank You Maharaja for giving me Krishna Consciousness.! I was wondering what you had said in Kartika Yatra: that it is after so many births and species that we have received the gift of Krishna Consciousness. especially the seed of unalloyed and pure bhakti and we are so close to perfection, when we look at everything from an eternal, absolute point of view. Thank you for instructing HG Radheshyam pr to do youth preaching and sending your representatives in my life to save me. Thank you for your wonderful lectures which focus so much on tolerance, humility, sincerity, pure devotional service with no ulterior motives and creating sheltering relationships amongst devotees. Thank you for this year's special Kartika-yatra in Mayapur in which you drowned us in Gaura katha.

Last year: was another wonderful year in your service. I was engaged by my superiors in various services. I was involved in outreach services at IITB and as a result of the endeavors of all the Vaisnavas: 4 boys have decided to undergo VOICE training. I pray to you Maharaja to bless us with the intelligence and ability to serve them nicely. We also distributed 2500 books in December last year and was involved in starting outreach services in Hyderabad: especially IITH, IIITH and Corporate. We also have been continuing our Bhakti Sastri study and we completed the study of NOI, NOD and now we are continuing with Bhagavad Gita. I hope and pray that I can imbibe the correct service attitude in which you wanted us to undergo such courses. I pray to you for increasing my service attitude, quality and quantity!

I am struggling in a lot of aspects Maharaja especially to hear and apply the instructions in your lectures. I recently heard your lecture entitled: "A devotee must be grateful" and I was shocked by the depth of the behavior which you expect from all of us. Due to my rebellious nature, emotional weaknesses and huge false ego I have offended many devotees whom you have sent so mercifully in my life to help me come out of this dark pit of material existence. I sincerely seek forgiveness for the above and will try even more sincerely to develop cordial relationships with my fellow Vaisnavas to please you.

I pray to you Maharaja on this auspicious day to bless me with the ability to listen to your vani attentively, the strength to follow the instructions given by you and your representatives, and the purity and enthusiasm to share your message of compassion to more and more suffering souls.
Thank you,
Your servant devansh

By your mercy I'm trying my best to follow your instructions. Though not able to get your Darshan not more than twice till now I'm able to remember your kindness upon me everyday. Maharaja be merciful unto this soul so that I can give up my material desires and develop taste for holy name and service attitude towards Hari Guru Vaisnavas. I pray to so that I can serve nicely and pleased you by serving your instructions nicely.

Please kindly forgive me for my offences and I commit to that I'll give my best for serving the Vaisnavas.

Maharaja, I cannot thank you enough for your wonderful, life-saving lectures. I always try to apply the teachings in my life. Your deep understanding of the Sastras is benefitting all of us. Thank you, Maharaja, for giving us your association through the Annual Kartika-yatra.

This year, there were many points from your lectures that I have been reflecting upon and trying to incorporate in my own life, such as:

1. "Becoming a devotee of the Lord will reduce our material sufferings; it is not the appropriate thought."
2. "Lust is the desire for the pleasure of one's own mind and senses; true love means to offer pleasure to Krishna."
3. "The spiritual formula is: the less we want for ourselves, the more we can give for Krishna, and the happier we become."
4. "Developing deep attachment to Krishna Katha and His Holy Names will make all other things of this world seem pale."
5. "If Krishna sees that we are happy seeing others get blessed, He blesses us too. But if we are envious, we still have miles to go."

And many more such profound points.

Thank you so much, Maharaja, for all the sacrifices you have made for all of us. I will pray to Krishna to always keep you in very good health.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to you.

We are very excited to welcome the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja. We are too unqualified to even start glorifying someone like you.

We pray to Lord Narsingh dev to bless you with good health so that you can continue saving fallen souls like us. May you be able to serve Krishna more, spread more love and compassion to all those whose hearts are paining for spiritual guidance all over the world.

We are grateful for your spiritual presence, guidance and for always being a great source of inspiration for us in every situation of life.

The instructions through your lectures and talks inspire me to practice devotional service. Some days it gets tough and overwhelming but your nectarian words somehow or other keeps me going on.

By your own actions we could understand the depth of the meaning “how may I serve you “.

With your mercy some day I may become a genuine humble servant to Vaisnavas and a better devotee.

We need your blessings Gurudeva to overcome my anarthas, we struggle every day to overcome these and I wish to be able to serve with a mood of humble servant, to be able to practice the devotional service with enthusiasm, eagerness and determination.

Thank you Guru Maharaja for inspiring thousands of us to take the path of devotion. We cannot imagine how miserable our lives would have been without you, entangled in maya leading a directionless, aimless life and wasting all the precious moments of this human birth.

Thank you Gurudeva for preaching humility, compassion, tolerance, patience, and simplicity by your actions, words and deeds.

The gratitude you have for your spiritual master and the selfless services that you do in your kind humble mood to please all living entities, shows us what a disciple should aspire for.

Thank you for inspiring me so much, thank you for being who you are to me, a source of compassion and sincerity.

Maharaja, four decades ago, I was fortunate enough to have my first darshan and Interactions with your grace at a Jagannath ji's Ratha Yatra at our Chowpatty beach

I was so so overwhelmed and mesmerised by your Magnetic Personality, Your purity And your pure and positive spiritual vibrations.

This interaction brought about a spiritual awakening and a 360° change and transformation

In my life. It was in the years, 1980 and 1981, that I had lost my father and brother in a span of 1 1/2 years. My world had come to an end and there was no hope Direction, guidance, or purpose for me to move on in life.

Just then you appeared in my Life and showered, your infinite grace, love, care, concern, and kindness upon me.

I felt Krishna has given me my father, my brother and my mother all in one personality, HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, my saviour, my philosopher, my guide And my Gurudeva.

From thence till date You have been showering, your grace, Causeless, mercy, Benedictions And blessings inundating My heart with Krishna Consciousness., bestowing, limitless, kindness upon Me, you gave me the directions and strength to face all my myriad Challenges of life from within and without. You nurtured me, spiritually and helped to grow the bhakti Lata beej Which you planted four Decades ago

Although I have still not been able to reach up reach to your Expectations, but I am sure and positive that one day I shall be able to make you proud and happy and please you.

Just recently on fourth of November 2024, while we were in Mayapur Yatra Around 10 PM, as you were walking towards your residence You were informed about the completion of 40 years of our Grihasth Ashram, and in spite of being tired, you spoke to us for almost 30 minutes In a crowd of 10,000, devotees and showered us profusely with your love Mercy and blessings and infinite grace.

Maharaja, we can't thank you enough for always being with us, supporting us during all our hardships and challenges which we faced since then till date. You have been our rock solid Support in every Difficult situation in life, always guiding us and directing us, and praying for us.

Gurudeva, you are the KARTA OF OUR FAMILY,

Your grace and blessings inspire us to utterly surrender to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji

Please accept my heartfelt gratefulness and deepest gratitude from the deepest core of my heart

Please bless that I serve your lotus feet eternally with utmost love, reverence Sincerity, loyalty, and honesty.

My only aspiration is to take up more and more responsibilities on your behalf and assist you wherever whenever, and however, you may want me to, and that I always make you very proud and happy.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I'm very fortunate to receive initiation this year in chowpatty. I am extremely grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple. The occasion was even more blissful and blessed by the constant presence and classes of HH Bhakti Rasamrita Swami where we understood the meaning and importance of initiation. We also received counter beads for the Japa mala from him. I'm very thankful that you also blessed my son by your glance and smile during the initiation ceremony. We could also get the blessing and darshan of GEV this year.

I am also very happy to receive your daily updates and darshan in a daily communication group and thankful to the devotees doing that seva.

I seek your blessings so that I can continue and do my best as a humble disciple with whatever service I can offer. I also seek your blessings to increase consistency in hearing and reading and improve our Sadhana and mood of service.

On this auspicious day I pray for your good health and that we can please you by our actions.

Thank you very much.

Dear Maharaja,
Pls accept my humble obeisance,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

On this most auspicious day, as we celebrate your 74th appearance, our hearts overflow with gratitude and love for all that you have given us and the world. Your life is a living testament to the principles of bhakti, compassion, and humility, inspiring countless souls to walk the path of devotion.

Through your teachings, you have ignited the flame of devotion in the hearts of many. You have given us not only knowledge but the realization that love for God is the highest goal of life. In every word you speak, and every action you take, we see the embodiment of divine grace and selfless service.

Your journey, from the Himalayas to the streets of the world, has been one of incredible surrender to the Lord's will. You have shown us that true leadership is found in service, and that spiritual growth comes not from fame or position, but from humbly offering oneself to the divine and to others.

On this special day, we offer our heartfelt prayers for your health and happiness, and we pray that you continue to guide us with your wisdom and compassion for many more years. Your presence in our lives is a blessing beyond words, and we are ever grateful for your tireless efforts to spread the love of God.

May we, in some small way, live up to the example you have set, and may we serve you in ways that please you and bring joy to your heart.

An Ode to Graceful Love
On this sacred day, in golden light,
We honor a soul, whose path shines bright.
A heart so pure, like the moon above,
Radhanath Maharaja, embodiment of love.
With wisdom vast and compassion deep,
He wakes the souls that once did sleep.
A gentle guide through life's great tide,
In his words, God's grace does abide.
Through temples, towns, and lands afar,
He carries the light, like a radiant star.
With every step, each breath, each glance,
He leads us in divine dance.

Seventy-four years of selfless care,
Of spreading joy and heartfelt prayer.
We bow our heads and lift our voice,
In his love, we all rejoice.
Maharaja, your life a sacred song,
A beacon for us to journey along.
On this day, we offer our hearts,
Grateful to play our humble parts.
For your presence, so serene, so kind,
A gift of God for all mankind.
May your grace forever flow,
And with each year, your light only grow.

Thank you, Maharaja, for being the light in our lives, for showing us the path to love and devotion, and for leading us closer to the Supreme Lord.

With deepest gratitude and love,

आता मला अचानक कॅन्सर आजार झाला आहे. कधी कधी मानसकि दृष्टया मी खचून गेल्यासारखं वाटतो. पण मग लक्षात येतो की माझ्या गुरूंनी सुद्धा आयुष्यात कतिीतरी खडतर प्रवास करुन गुरू शोधण्याचा प्रयत्न केला. आणि तुमचा सदैव हसरा चेहरा माझ्या मनात कायमचा बसला आहे. त्यामूळे तुमच स्मरण करताच क्षणी मला आपली साथ असल्याची एक जाणीव नरि्माण होते. आणि मी भतिीमुक्त होतो आणि मन शांत होतो. मी खूप पापी आहे पण तरी ही तुम्ही माझं स्वीकार केला आहे. म्हनून मी स्वतःला खूप भाग्यवान समजत आहे. आपल्या आशीर्वादाने माझे जीवन धन्य झाला आहे असे मी मान्य करतो.

आयुष्यात एकाच इच्छा आहे की आपले जीवन असे जगायचे आहे की लोकांनी बोललं पाहजि की यांचे गुरू कतिी महान असतील. परम पूज्य राधानाथ स्वामी महाराजांच्या आशरि्वादाचे आम्ही सदैव लालशी राहणार. कारण गुरूंचे आशरि्वादामुळेच मी हा भवसधिु पार करू शकतो. म्हणून माझे उर्जा स्त्रोत महाराज आपण आहात.....

मी एवठा ही योग्य नाही की काही शब्दात महाराज तुमची महती मी व्यक्त करू शकू. परंतू स्वतःला खूप भाग्यवान समजतो. Thanks Dear H.H. Radhanath Swami Maharaj

I am Dhananjay Sakha Das, previously known as Devidas Ganpat Patil. Before receiving initiation from my spiritual master, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja, my life was deeply materialistic, with not even 1% awareness of spirituality. However, when a guru enters your life, you begin to realize how much transformation is possible, and I am now experiencing that change.

I have a small family, and by the mercy of all devotees and Guru Maharaja, everything in my life is going smoothly. My journey into devotion began because of my dear friend and godbrother, Shriman Sandipani Krishna Prabhu, and the guidance of Shriman Roop Raghunath Prabhu.

When my son was studying in Gurukul, he received your biography, Trushart Pathik, as a prize. Before that, I had already heard about you because I first saw you at a festival in Galtare village, where I also listened to your English discourse, which I could surprisingly understand. During the entire lecture, I felt as if you were looking directly at me. I was overjoyed and, in my heart, I had already accepted you as my guru.

Later, I received proper guidance, and the greatest moment of my life was when I received initiation from you.

Now, I am facing a sudden battle with cancer. At times, I feel mentally broken. But then I remember how my Guru also faced many challenges and undertook a difficult journey in search of his own guru. Your ever-smiling face is etched in my memory, and the very thought of you brings a sense of strength and calmness to my heart. I feel your presence with me, which makes me fearless and at peace.

Although I am a great sinner, you have still accepted me, and for that, I consider myself extremely fortunate. By your blessings, my life has become meaningful, and I humbly acknowledge this truth.

I have only one wish in life — to live in such a way that people will say, “”How great his guru must be!”” We will always remain eager for the blessings of our revered Radhanath Swami Maharaja because it is only through the grace of a guru that we can cross the ocean of material existence. Guru Maharaja, you are my source of energy.

I may not be worthy enough to express your glories in words, but I consider myself truly blessed. Thank you, dear H.H. Radhanath Swami Maharaja. ??

My Guru, Param Pujya Shri Radhanath Swami Maharaja

Through relentless efforts and a challenging journey,

Your sweet and profound words inspire many.

Becoming Trushart Pathik, you crossed worldly borders,

Seeking a true guru, fulfilling your spiritual orders.

Simple living with noble thoughts you embrace,

Awakening devotion in us with unending grace.

In rural, remote areas, you took the lead,

Bringing spiritual enlightenment to fulfill the need.

You manifested Govardhan Vrndavana in this land,

Brought Shri Radha Vrndavana Bihari to Galtare’s sand.

Blessed our lives, linking us to the Brahma-Madhva-Gaudiya strand, Guiding us gently by your divine hand.

With dreams of Srila Prabhupada in your heart,

You manifested Shri Radha Madanmohan, a divine art.Thanks to your blessings, we received the guidance of disciples like Roop Raghunath Prabhu, Without which we’d still be lost in material pursuits, far from the spiritual clue.

Inspired by Mahaprabhu’s desire and Prabhupada’s voice,

You established Hare Krishna centers, offering the ultimate choice.

Through these, many like us overcame inner turmoil,

Breaking free from worldly bonds and material toil. As a guru, you transformed Devidas into Dhananjay Sakha Das, Bless us all so we may overcome every spiritual impasse. With utmost respect and gratitude, I bow at your lotus feet, Offering my heartfelt tribute to you, my Guru Maharaja, ??

Dear Guru Maharaj

Please accept our humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasa puja.

We wish to thank you from core of our heart for:

- your walks around the temple courtyard, yatra katha pandal, kitchen with loving / compassionate glances and words of care unto your disciples and devotees

- your Srimad-Bhagavatam classes with relevant spiritual knowledge, learnings, realisations therein and many important personal instructions shared in public, which for us act like your vapu association.

- your respectful / loving interactions and dealings with your god-brothers and god-sisters are good examples for entire Radha Gopinatha congregation.

- ecstatic Kirtanas, so that we can serve the Lord with our body, mind and words all-together and experience spiritual bliss

- ever growing annual Kartika Yatras providing more and more devotee association and service opportunities

- Sri Radha Govind Dev temple opening in Thane.

- Me and my wife are eternally grateful to you for the mercy, in receiving 2nd initiation this year. This has enabled us to practically learn and serve Sri Radha Govind Dev ji and Sri Laxmi Narayan ji.

We pray unto the lotus feet of Sri Radha Gopinatha ji and Sri Radha Govind Dev ji, to bestow upon you very good health. Aspiring to serve in your projects and mission of Srila Prabhupada and sincerely follow your instructions to the best of our abilities, to always please you.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

From the core of my heart, I express my deepest gratitude for your guidance. You are compassionately guiding us across the material ocean, expertly rowing the boat of spirituality and devotion. Your wisdom illuminates our path, bridging the gap between us and Krishna, shielding us from maya's grasp.

For us,You are just like the - 'Lamp of knowledge' - Illuminating our path by the rays of wisdom, from darkness and ignorance

'Divine Bridge' - connecting us with Krishna, filling the gap between us by opening our materialistic eyes.

'Spiritual Sun' - shining bright, burning your ownself to show us the correct direction in this distracting maze of Maya.

'Ocean of Compassion' - with boundless Compassion you guide everyone through materialism to spirituality.

Your selfless devotion has always inspired us to follow your Lotus feet.

Thank you so much, dear Guru Maharaja, for your unwavering guidance, support, mercy and love.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances again and again at your Divine lotus feet,
All glories to Sirla prubhupada

Thank you so very much for your consistent love, care and compassion over the last three decades. You have been a wonderful inspiration to me throughout my whole life I am so grateful to you. Eternally. Your classes are so inspirational. I am hearing everyday although I have learning difficulties, I find it easy to concentrate when you are speaking. The most amazing quality you have is of humility. You are always so sincere in serving the devotees as the humble servant of the servant and this is such a wonderful example not only for our society but for the whole world and for other planets.

There was a time in my life nearly 20 years ago when I was going through such a dark time and nearly took my life. But I will never forget the love you showed to me at such a crucial time And I'm forever indebted and grateful to you for being there for me at such a hard time. I still remember goswami Maharaja saying you're the most transcendental personality in ISKCON. And what an amazing relationship you shared with Bhakti Tirtha swami Maharaja it's such a wonderful example to us all in loving friendship. You have been such an inspiration on the car park service. You always stop and speak to me with such love and care l beg for forgiveness from you and for you to accept me as your humble servant.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On this auspicious appearance day,
I would like to a poem say.
Which glorifies you Oh Master,
Who covers maya with a spiritual plaster.
You are the one has much power,
With which you you bless us and bhakti shower.
Though we have done many sins,
And aren't fit to even be in a dustbin.
You are of the Lord a very sincere devotee,
And your spiritualism is like the sea.
Which is of course very very vast,
And of people's devotional ship you are the mast.
You of all are the most knowledgeable,
Also to Krishna you are more than reliable.
Which is the reason when we are in mess,
You simply vanish it when you to us bless.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances
Namo om visnu padaya Krishna preshthaya bhutale srimate Radhanath swamin iti namine!

I am not qualified to appreciate you but I will take this opportunity to glorify you for my purification for the pleasure of devotees.

Maharaja, I will try to highlight some of your qualities.

Recently I watched the film Simple Temple in which I understood how you played the most crucial role of creating a unity between Brahmacaris and grahastas and also you emphasized so much in devotee care and created systems for that.

During recent Kartika-yatra, unfortunately I couldn't come because of my placements, I saw you talking to all the devotees personally and appreciating them in kitchen, pandal and many different services and that actually keeps the devotees inspired to do more and more seva.

During your lectures, I really love hearing because of the love and realisation with which you speak. During recent Kartika-yatra, same pastimes sometimes make me bored because of my fallen nature but hearing them from you actually makes it enlivened again.

You always try to engage every person in the service of Lord that's why many of the outsider people are deeply attracted by you and your teachings a lot and they also feel that love and care you have for each living entity.

In the Kartika-yatra, I heard a pastime when you told HG Pranavanand Prabhu to bow down and touch the feet of his mother to emphasize the importance of the parents in giving us this most precious human body. This loving and sensitive nature to all the jivas around you makes them feel happy and blissful when they come in contact with you.

I also tried to contribute in offering you a small gift when you came for IIT Visit and I hope you liked that and I pray for your mercy more and more. And I hope to get your merciful glance again and again.

I repeatedly try to imbibe the qualities of humility and tolerance - trnad api sunicena, taror api sahishnuna... - in my dealings with the devotees and others. I also want to imbibe these wonderful qualities of love and care for the devotees and focusing on details and having a compassionate view towards the other living entities.

I am very much struggling with so many of my anarthas which are becoming the obstacles in serving and dealings with the other Vaisnavas. I really beg for you mercy because I know that without your mercy I won't be able to cross over these anarthas and I don't want to displease any Vaisnava because of my fallen nature.

Maharaja, I want to pray that I am able to serve my superiors with the proper mood of servant of servant that you always emphasize for your disciples and be able to contribute to this mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Currently I am sitting for my college placements, and I really pray for your mercy that I be able to serve more and more in this mission and especially through this IIT youth preaching in the future under the guidance of my superiors and be able to get this wonderful Barsana Dham Voice (IIT Bombay) association in future.

Your most insignificant servant and aspiring for your mercy,

Dearest Gurudeva,

As another year hurtles by, I take a few moments out to contemplate on how your example and words has consciously and unconsciously impacted my life.First and foremost, your accommodative spirit by which you take along anyone, from any background and offer them at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, is worth contemplating and emulating. Countless souls, who would otherwise have found it difficult to navigate through the conservative strictures seen in our society, have found shelter in your soothing and graceful words which are non-judgmental, non-dismissive and hope giving. It is no wonder that, under your guidance, so many talented people have dedicated their lives and talents to serving ISKCON (and the larger society outside), as one family. Even as I evolve on my own journey in Krishna Consciousness. and as my individual experiences (Anubhava) and realizations (Sakshatkar) gradually manifest to confirm what I've heard (from) and seen in you, I find myself needing more room for independent thoughtfulness. It is at these times that I remember your serene voice beckoning us gently, yet assertively, to offer ourselves to the mission of Lord Caitanya and Guru Parampara.

Secondly, I was very touched by a quote you made "The best gift you can give to others is a good example." How true this is Gurudeva, and I carve this on my stone like heart as an aspiration that I someday hope to follow with utmost sincerity. While this is true for everyone, it is all the more critical for a devotee (who is representing Srila Prabhupada, and ISKCON to the outside world) to behave himself/herself and present a good example that brings glory to our paramapara. And as they say, "Charity begins at home"! Good behavior begins at home, where our interactions with our family members set the precedence for children and create lifelong impressions on their fragile minds. It is also at home where the weakest links in our carefully crafted image come crashing down and I regularly catch myself falling short of expectations and ideal behavior. Children, especially, are like a mirror who show us the reality of our consciousness and expose our hypocrisy. It seems like I'm playing an endless (and sometimes hopeless) game of trying to get my actions to catch up with my words. I pray, Gurudeva, to be blessed with the strength to restrain my default downward tendencies and exhibit the behavior that will bring glory to Srila Prabhupada and the Parampara.

Lastly, Gurudeva, another valuable point which has touched my heart in the last year is your advice that we must increase our concern for our audience while continuing to present Krishna Consciousness. in our unique styles. As I have begun two outreach programs (one youth and one congregation) in Bengaluru, I strive to follow and imbibe this simple yet profound instruction of yours. Preaching must be motivated by compassion which in turn is motivated by the suffering and ignorance of the people around us along with a profound realization of the good fortune we have received from Guru and Krishna. And there is certainly no dearth of suffering and ignorance in this world, as Kali Yuga progresses and hence no dearth of motivation, if only we give up our ulterior motives of name, fame etc. While my schedules are getting tighter (with a new role as a tenure-track faculty at the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore), I have consciously taken the decision to be actively involved in outreach efforts, even if means stretching my energies at a critical juncture when my job is on the line and my kids are at a growing age. And this active involvement as not a sporadic effort, but rather taking full ownership of outreach projects and attempting to help more souls come onboard this transcendental ship captained by Srila Prabhupada. I pray, Gurudeva, for the strength to continue these projects sustainably while attempting to balance my health, family, professional and devotional commitments.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for your tireless example in showing us the way ahead in these dark times of quarrel and hypocrisy. Your life is a beacon of hope for us conditioned souls who are struggling to navigate the treacherous waters of the times we live in and our own conditioned natures.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Jai Gurudeva!
You are our saviour.
Your teachings save us like a warrior.
You are always free from fault-finding.
Never criticize devotees; in our hearts, this is residing.
Maharaja, you are so much absorbed in Krishna, even in pain.
The clutches of Maya have bound us all in a chain.
In every situation, you show us the path filled with gratitude.
In all your lectures, you emphasize servitude.
Maharaja, you deeply care for others being in discomfort.
Once we adopt this, we shall be free of the ego dirt.
Our hearts are filled with anger, pride, and lust.
All will vanish by surrendering to your lotus feet's dust. You teach us to be free from jealousy and envy.
We now realize this, what a waste in accumulating so much money.
You get joy in respecting and glorifying others.
We all vow to stay united in the Krishna conscious movement with one another.
Oh! My spiritual master
You are an ocean of auspicious qualities.
Under your loving shelter and mercy,
we are developing Krishna bhakti.

Dear Gurudeva
Please accept my humble obeisances
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada
Hope this letter meets you in good health and everything is well.
I wish to express my gratitude to you on this occasion of Vyasa-puja.

This year I have learnt and developed a lot of attraction to Lord Caitanya and his pastimes. I completed studying Shri Caitanya Charitamrta and Shri Caitanya Bhagavata. By studying these I could understand the great importance of developing devotion to Guru and the Vaisnavas, to serve and to please them. In CC Antya chapter 16, Shri Krishnadas Kaviraj Goswami explains in the beginning how Caitanya Mahaprabhu enabled his devotees to taste prema. That chapter tells the story of the devotee Kalidasa who received Lord Caitanya's special mercy because of his great faith in the Vaisnavas. He had accepted the food remnants of all the devotees in Bengal. This chapter made an impression on me when I read it and I pray that I develop such qualities in my life.

I got opportunities to visit Shri Mayapur Dham 3 times this past year. I could go to many of the pastime places and chant and pray for mercy. This was very nourishing for me.

Since June this year many things have happened in my family because of which my family members have become very much favorable to bhakti. I could never have imagined them changing so much in such a short time. We visited my grandmother in June. I used to read Krishna book to her. My mother and other relatives would also listen. Everyone liked the readings very much and they used to ask questions which I could answer satisfactorily. One day, one of our relatives who had come from the U.S.A told that she was getting connected to ISKCON there. She appreciated very much when I told her that I'm aspiring for initiation from you. So my mother was happy hearing her.

I could visit Mayapur with my parents during the Return Ratha yatra festival. They had a really good experience there. Then before going to Mayapur for Kartika-yatra my parents hosted some devotees in our home for one night. So they got to serve devotees. I remember praying so much during the last several years because they weren't very favorable, and now so much has happened in just a few months. I am very grateful for all this mercy. This transformation in them would not have been possible without the grace of you, Srila Prabhupada, Shri Shri Gaura Nitai and Shri Shri Radha Krishna.

Your lectures continue to be a source of guidance during the difficult times of my life. There was one instance where I made a mistake and the next day I received a quote of yours which was so pertinent to my situation that it seemed like you were speaking to me directly through that quote. Thank you for this inspiration and mercy and giving me strength during all the difficulties in my life.

During our recent Yatra I relished the kathas by you and HH Jayapataka Maharaja a lot. I heard your offering to Srila Prabhupada again yesterday and felt extremely inspired. I pray for your mercy so I can play a small part in serving Srila Prabhupada. Everything you said about how difficult it is to remain united despite all the differences and distractions in this world is very true. I hope and pray that I can keep the desire to serve you and Srila Prabhupada as a North star in my life as you explained that day.

Thank you very much for everything Maharaja. I feel very blessed to receive your association and I hope and pray that Shri Shri Radha Krishna and Shri Shri Gaur Nitai fulfill all of your desires for the service of Srila Prabhupada and the Vaisnava community and I pray that they bless you with good health and allow us to receive more and more of your blessings, teachings and association.

Thank you

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I want to say thank you million times, but that will be like offering a drop of water when my debt is like that of ocean. Srila Prabhupada has taught us that a jokers activities simply arouse laughter, and a person who tries to repay the spiritual master or teacher of the transcendental message of Krishna becomes a laughing stock just like a joker because it is not possible to repay such a debt.

Thank you Maharaja for all the care and concern you have shown personally to all of us though your lectures and instructions. Your disciples and aspiring disciples show the same vibes as you. This years Kartika-yatra in Sri Mayapur Dham was a grand success, all glories to you and all the devotees participating and doing services during yatra. Morning chanting with you in pandal will be a lasting impression on our consciousness. Thanks a million Maharaja for the evening katha and compassionate glances on us. Those glances gave a soothing shelter just like full moon.

Begging for your causeless mercy to imbibe the teachings and mood of Gopi-bhartur pada-kamalayor dasa-dasa-dasanu-dasah. I have no qualification and I'm full of faults, but I have great hope from the shelter of Vaisnavas. Please bless all of us to be in the mood of servant of servant, have attachment towards holy names of Krishna and chant Krishnas holy names with love, attention, affection and clear pronunciation. Thank you very much.

It's your 74th Vyasa-puja, the day when a pure soul blessed the people like me, I, the most fallen, the dirtiest among the living entities get to listen to you, get to hear about Krishna from your lotus mouth, how can you and Krishna be so merciful to me!!!

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your most auspicious lotus feet.

On this 74th Vyasa-puja occassion of yours, please allow me to express my heartfelt gratitude to you Maharaja. Since the very beginning of my journey in Krishna Consciousness., your teachings, conveyed through your lectures and perfect personal example, have been the source of inspiration for me to surrender to Srila Prabhupada, Krishna and his devotees.

In practically every lecture of yours, you have emphasised this one teaching always, that is, to be more humble than a blade of grass, to be more tolerant that a tree, to give respect to all and to not expect any in return and in this way always keep on chanting the holy names of Sri Sri Radha Krishna. I'm trying to follow this teaching in my life. But because of so many deep rooted anarthas in my heart, time and again I fail to follow this perfectly. On this auspicious day, I beg for your mercy to give me strength to follow it more and more nicely. Your teachings are the main cause which has let me to understand how Krishna will be utterly displeased no matter how big "services" we may do for him if we are hurting devotees. Please bless me Maharaja that I always remember and strive to follow this primary teaching of yours always throughout my life.

Your service to your spiritual master, Srila Prabhupada, has been so inspirational for me. Srila Prabhupada, while performing his divine pastime of disappearing from this world physically, gave a very important instruction to all his followers, "If you love me, co-operate with each other and push on this movement." You are one of the perfect examples of following this instruction dear Maharaja. Please bless me Maharaja that I can also always co-operate all devotees and push forward this movement according to the desire of my superiors.

I, along with lakhs of other devotees, feel ourselves to be of utmost fortune, that we are getting your association through your audio and video lectures, and most awaited Kartika-yatra. Thank you very much dear Guru Maharaja for showering such merciful blessings on all of us. I offer all my insignificant lives in a feeble attempt of reciprocation for your causeless blessings.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my prostrated obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you and Gauranga!

Gurudeva, you are an acarya teaching us by your own example. I would like to point to some of the teachings you gave us that help us in our devotional service.

In your talks, you emphasized the importance of hearing by saying, "Just by hearing sincerely from Guru, Sadhu, and Shastra, we will understand the urgency of spiritual life." You also mentioned, "By hearing submissively and putting the teaching in our life with determination, unflinching faith is awakened in our heart." You taught us the importance of hearing by personally sitting in the lectures of your disciples and (grand/)disciples of your godbrothers. You sat right in the temple hall for the lecture of His Holiness Shyam Bhagavan Keshav Swami, near the altar for His Holiness Bhakti Rasamrita Swami's class and near Srila Prabhupada for H.G. Baldev Prabhu's class. These are just some recent examples of you showing us how we should be hearing attentively in class.

We have learned in your class that if we put our whole heart into whatever service we are performing, Krishna wholeheartedly bestows His mercy upon us. You also mentioned that we should be willing to do whatever service is given to us [even if it may not be our choice] as it is our greatest wealth. Your nature is to sit alone in a quiet place and study and relish the katha, sing kirtana for the Lord's pleasure, but as a service to all Vaisnavas, you speak to large crowds. You speak to large gatherings even though you prefer solitary, since that is your service to all of us. Another major service that you perform is accepting disciples. You perform this service only to please your guru, H.D.G. A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. You thank your disciples for accepting the service in each of your initiation lectures.

"Despite our shortcomings and differences, our strength lies in caring for one another. We need to reach out to the roots of our affection and embrace one another with a commitment to share, care, and support." This is the teaching you imparted to us through your lecture. Your dealings with your god brothers and god sisters show the affection, care, and respect you have for them. It shows us exemplary Vaisnava behavior. When you saw your dear god brother Srutakirti Prabhu in Delhi, your face lit up, and you immediately got up to embrace your god brother. During the rath yatra in New York, you were walking with your godbrother H.G. Jananivas Prabhu to ensure he was alright. You were holding his hand whenever necessary. You were showing how to care for a devotee, how one should have genuine concern and affection for a Vaisnavaa.

Through your talks, you have instructed us on the true mood of a disciple, which is "A disciple is willing to undergo austerity to please Krishna and Guru in every situation possible in their lives."

Thank you for accepting me as your disciple and for building a wonderful community for me to thrive in my Krishna Consciousness.. Thank you for providing the school to nurture and grow spiritually while gathering material knowledge in my childhood. Thank you for GEV (a wonderful place to take our minds to Vrndavana), yatras, festivals, and the Bhaktivedanta hospital.

Please forgive me for any offense that I may have committed knowingly or unknowingly at your lotus feet.

In Caitanya Caritamrta Adi Lila 1.46 purport, Srila Prabhupada says, "Without the attentive service of his parents, a child cannot grow to manhood; similarly, without the care of the spiritual master, one cannot rise to the plane of transcendental service."

Please continue to care for me and bless me so that I can follow your instructions, which are to have a humble mood while serving, chant sincerely, and help out the local temples in whatever way possible.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisance to your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

You have given me each and every time your causeless mercy; however, I am so fallen. When I came to Mumbai on the occasion of your Vyasa-puja, my strong desire was to offer flowers on your Lotus sweet. But I saw there were nearly about 5000 devotees. After Vyasa-puja, you were living on stage, and you were covered by bodyguards. You were living in front of me, nearly a few steps away, but I couldn't reach near you. I was disappointed and closed my eyes. As soon as I heard that, you returned again and stood in front of me. I was shocked and suddenly offered flowers to your Lotus feet and touched your Lotus feet.... And you left...

On that occasion I realized... Shri Guru Charane Rati aise uttama gati... Guru Maharaja I beg you, please keep me forever in the dust of your lotus feet... And you know everything well about me. Please protect me in devotional services. I am totally helpless, Hare Krishna.

Though life has taken me to various challenges but by mercy of guru parampara I am always guided in my journey towards Krishna. The more I am trying to come closer to Krishna, He is making me more humble and helpless. I am realizing that without the mercy of guru and Krishna it is impossible for us to get Krishna prem.

I sincerely seek prayers at your lotus feet so that I can continue my journey with enthusiasm, determination and patience in receiving the ultimate goal Krishna prem.

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance.

I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for as many things I can recall from this year.

First of all, Thank you very much for inspiring your disciples to undertake the tremendous labor of organizing Kartika-yatra, which was such an important milestone in my spiritual life this year. Thanks to the yatra I could receive the chance to be touched by the mercy of holy dham Mayapur, meet with so many exemplary friendly devotees, hear from some very exalted souls who really charged my faith batteries, listen to the stories of so many Srila Prabhupada disciples which is a feast every year and of course seeing you and hearing from you the Lila of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu and glories of Srila Prabhupada.

I'm grateful for the massive association of devotees who were inspiring each other to be servants of servants, and for the super ecstatic dancing kirtanas I could experience and be a part of this year. Apart from the yatra, I couldn't be less grateful for your lectures that have always taught me to stop trusting the mind and surrender to the representative of Krishna. Thanks to you there is a support system within ISKCON now where I may find devotees struggling with similar conditions as mine and feel inspired. Was it not because of your disciples, that I received such quality training in cultivation of Bhakti early on in my life? I was struggling to grow properly in the company of the renounced order, so now I have an association with grihasthas, from whom I'm learning to deal with my conditioned nature better, again the credit goes to you for such a mature understanding of Krishna Consciousness., that you have instilled in them.

Seeking your blessings to always remember Krishna and never forget Krishna, no matter what route my spiritual journey takes...

Thank you again, Maharaja.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada & all glories to you!

I can't believe it's 2 years since you came to Detroit for your appearance day, it's also 2 years since when Nayanasundari has left this mortal world. You are ocean of mercy & compassion & I can realize that seeing the incredible mercy you showered on Nayansundari. It brings tears to my eyes thinking & remembering her great fortune & our great fortune to have you as our spiritual master. Gurudeva from the day I came to Krishna Consciousness. till this date your vaani has been a great inspiration & compass for my life. Every morning when I hear you speaking Krishna katha it touches my heart & soul deep within me. This year's Yatra classes reminds me of urgency to take this message of Krishna Consciousness. & preach all over.

I want to confess my deficiencies in terms of my struggles taking care of kids, work, trying to serve in local temple as my per my capacity however I still feel when I will payoff even little bit of debt in terms of what you have done for us. Please forgive me for these deficiencies, my heart is still filled with 6 anarthas rather than Krishna Prem. There is also new desire to recognize & have a glimpse of those ecstaties which every person in Caitanya Charitamrta is experiencing.

I sincerely bow down to your feet to seek the shade of your lotus feet & make this lifetime my last lifetime & practice Krishna Consciousness. with intensity. I heard deserve before you desire & I realize I am millions of miles away to even deserve, however being a beggar is my only qualification & I sincerely beg at your lotus feet to please please forgive my offenses please forgive my shortcomings in bhakti. Your are the only hope for me, I sincerely pray at your lotus feet to shower your mercy upon this sinful disciple.

Hare Krishna! PAMHO Dear Gurudeva,

I am very greatful for your wonderful association at recent Mayapur Kartika-yatra.

Also I am thankful for accepting my wife as your daughter by giving her Harinam Initiation.

Gurudeva, since my relationship with you from last almost 20 years or so, I am trying to follow the instructions you have given to us collectively. Although sometimes deviating from path, by your mercy and prayers for me as your insignificant disciple and Lord Krishna's divine blessings, I am clinging to path.

Previously during Pandal programs of your Vyaspuja celebration, I would be immersed in hearing your divine glorification about your divine qualities, your caring to one all, your dedication to Srila Prabhupada mission, your ambitious community projects and preaching activities. Nowadays it's getting rarer to listen on this auspicious appearance of your goodself.

On this day, I pray for your good health, very long life.

I always aspire for your merciful glance, divine speech and beautiful smile on this soul.

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude at your lotus feet. Although I am an insignificant soul, you have mercifully allowed me to participate in this wonderful Kartika-yatra 2024. Through this yatra, I was blessed with the opportunity to hear your inspiring words, filled with love and affection for Srila Prabhupada.

One profound realization I have taken from this yatra is that Krishna Consciousness. revolves around developing loving relationships and cultivating gratitude—both towards Krishna and towards all living entities.

500 years ago, Krishna descended as Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, embodying Srimati Radharani's boundless compassion and love for the suffering souls of this material world. Inspired by the same compassion, Srila Prabhupada journeyed across the globe at the age of 70, spreading the profound message of Krishna Consciousness.. Srila Prabhupada's compassion extends through his devoted disciples, like yourself, who continue to inspire and guide countless souls on the path of devotion. I feel truly blessed to have received the mercy of Srila Prabhupada in the form of your guidance. Through your example of showering love, understanding, and care on every soul, you demonstrate how to serve Krishna by serving others selflessly.

In Srimad-Bhagavatam 8.16.23, the purport explains that the Guru is the manifestation of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Krishna, as the Supersoul, resides in everyone's heart and mercifully manifests externally as the Guru to guide us out of the ocean of material existence.

Before coming to Krishna Consciousness., I was drowning in the ocean of material suffering, living with animalistic tendencies. However, through your kathas and association, I have begun to develop a heart filled with gratitude towards the Lord and all living entities. One of the most important teachings I have learned from you during this Kartika-yatra is: "The greatest service to Krishna is to accept inconvenience and difficulty in bringing joy to other living entities." This profound lesson has left a deep impression on my heart, and I am striving to imbibe it in my life. Sadhu-sanga', sadhu-sanga—sarva-sastre kaya lava-matra sadhu-sange sarva-siddhi haya "All the scriptures proclaim that even a moment's association with a pure devotee grants one all perfection." I feel so fortunate and blessed to have had the chance to hear from you. Truly, I feel empowered and successful in my spiritual life after receiving your association.

Last year, during your Vyasa-puja, I promised to chant my 16 rounds attentively and consistently. However, I must humbly admit that I fell short of fulfilling that commitment. I seek your forgiveness for my lack of sincerity. Now, I pray for your blessings so I may chant my rounds with full attention and consistency. I firmly believe that the blessings of the Guru and Vaisnavas are the greatest wealth in the 14 worlds, capable of removing all obstacles on the path of devotion and leading to pure devotional service.

I humbly offer my life and soul at your divine lotus feet. Please make me an instrument of your compassion. Without your guidance, my life holds no meaning. I am determined to take your teachings as the guiding principles of my life and dedicate myself to serving your mission with sincerity and devotion.

Yours, an unworthy, insignificant servant,

In 2011, at the time of the installation of Shree Shree Radha Madan Gopalji at Nasik, HH Radhanath Maharaja was sitting on a chair & chanting Hare Krishna. On the same day we heard nectar of Ram lila in MahaSatsanga.

Maharaja has many qualities. On the day of Vyasa-puja, I would like to mention a few for my purification.

A) Simplicity: Once Maharaja was invited for a wedding ceremony in Mumbai (the richest family), there Maharaja was told to bless them in the presence of all the international guests & spiritual leaders from other organizations, though it was a great honor for Maharaja. Maharaja was gifted something which must be costly, then Maharaja forgot this costly gift. One day, one small girl from a devotee family gifted some coins, and Maharaja kept them with him and kept telling others about this girl and the gift given by her. If we see materially, the girl gave nothing; still, Maharaja has accepted and respected so carefully.

2) Respecting the devotees: Maharaja, in his lectures, mentions "Trinadipi Shunichen Tarurupi Sahishnuna," which is observed in his behavior. If we see the Vysasasan in Chowpaty temple, it has been designed in such a way that even the senior disciples of Sreela Prabhu Pad are honored with a lot of care and love.

Maharaja mentioning forgiveness in one of his lectures: How many of you haven't made a single mistake in life? Means Maharaja wanted to remind everyone of their past life & should be ready to forgive others. Even Maharaja said in one of the lectures about Preacher that a preacher has to forgive others.

3) Loving counsellor:

Maharaja has set up the counselling system, which is very useful for involving more families in devotee culture and maintaining the standard by following the rules and regulations. Day-to-day problems are discussed where the counsellor always gives the example of Maharaja and Maharaja's disciples, which makes us feel like trying to follow the standard culture of the devotee community.

4) Mood of Guru Parampara:

Long back, Maharaja started the Kartika-yatra because of Maharaja. Devotees came from all over the world, where they shared their preaching or contribution in the mission. By hearing this we get a lot of inspiration. Even on the day of Shreela Prabhupada's tirobhav, we hear unheard stories of Shreela Prabhupada, where we directly get connected to our Guru Parampara. The way Maharaja reminds us about the sacrifice of Shreela Prabhupada for fallen souls like us always keeps us motivated in our practice of Sadhana Bhakti. Even the way Maharaja sings the Vaisnava song 'Je Anilo Premdhan Karuna Prachar' reminds the Guru Parampara.

Thanks a lot, Maharaja, for giving your life and soul for us. We will definitely try to contribute to the mission so that you will be pleased.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

Dear Maharaja, Having sought and obtained your priceless association in the yatras conducted by Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple in the most fascinating way since 2006, feel very fortunate. I thank immensely all the Vaisnavas from Dharwad, Belgaum, and Mumbai who have contributed towards bringing this fallen soul into your contact.

Since my childhood, being a Hindu and having gone through many beliefs of Christianity (believer's group), Islamism, Local and national level Swamis, and becoming an atheist finally landed in Srila Prabhupada's feet through ISKCON where my quest for enlightenment ended.

Lord Sri Krishna's teachings were very high for me to digest but the way you presented the Krishna lilas in your classes was so live and interesting because of which I could understand and connect myself very easily and firmly to Sri Krishna.

My initial attraction towards you was because you were a Jew, the most intelligent, loved, and blessed people by Jehovah as mentioned in the Old Testament. My first ISKCON book purchased was "The Science of Self Realisation" which has a comparison of Krishna versus Christ, and Christ happened to be my first love. More importantly Maharaja, in your lecturers, you always mentioned about HDG AC Bhakti Vedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada in your lecturers and the pain He took to spread the message of the Bhagavad Gita to the westerners all over the world which really inspired me. Also, your most narrated favorite verse from Sri Caitanya Shikshastakam "Trinaa dapi sunichena Taror api sahishnunaam Amaamena mana dena Kirtanaiya sadaa Hari" which is thoroughly lived by you as an Acarya gave me the boost that I needed to associate more with you.

Your totally immersed and heartily sung kirtanas and bhajans are mesmerizing to me even to this day. After one of the yatras, mostly between 2006-2010 I had met you (with my big musche) in the first floor front corridor of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha mandir and wanted to talk to you wherein, you said "can we meet later" and looking at your deep eyes with dilated pupils in such proximity, containing the vastness of the entire universe, I complied and returned to my native place thereafter could not get any opportunity only till you said "Hare Krishna" to me in person during giving Harinaam diksha in Belgaum on 05.08.2024. Maharaja till that time I could get only your distant and far-off glances on me in programs and yatras which were more than enough to sustain me in Bhakti. That's how powerful your aura is.

from you I request you to help me to serve you in your mission to Srila Prabhupada with utmost dedication, sincerity, and enthusiasm without falling back in the web of Maya devi as I am a fickle-minded, weak, and unstable person trying very hard and honestly to keep up with and live my life upto your expectations as heard in your classes and from senior Vaisnavas and especially from our local temple president H G Sadayogi Prji. This is my only humble prayer at your lotus feet.

Presently, I am taking association of your vani from your lecturers given in the year 2011 which are so potential even till this day helping me to always remember Krishna and never forget Krishna. A small wallet sized laminated entire altar photo with your picture in it was found fallen on ground in one of the yatras and allowed to be kept by a good samaritan from the "Lost & Found" yatra department stuck on my desktop monitor in my office since more than a decade, informing me that you are always watching me. I beg at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Neelamadhavji to, very closely take care of you in all aspects as there are millions and trillions of souls looking forward to your blessings.

Maharaja I can only say "You are exemplary" in the way you struggled against all odds, maintained your sanctity, searched for the ultimate truth, obtained and are serving Srila Prabhupada even to this day. Let an iota of such endurance, quality, and nature be bestowed upon me by your most kind and merciful self. Please uphold me and let not my life go waste Maharaja in becoming a pseudo devotee. This is my sincere prayerful request to you. Your most insignificant servant of servant of servant... Ganga das

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

We were not fortunate to get the physical association of Srila Prabhupada. He disappeared within months of my birth in this world. However, for us, you so much personify Srila Prabhupada's mood and teachings and especially the ideal Vaisnava character that he elucidates in his Bhaktivedanta purports. We feel Srila Prabhupada's presence and love so much in your presence and shelter. Without your 'living example' of a true Bhagavat devotee of the Lord I for sure would have been lost.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasapuja, I remember distinctly the special and causeless mercy you bestowed on me, as Srila Prabhupada's representative, during our first meeting in your room at SSRGT in Mumbai. It was 1993 in Mumbai. At the age of 17 years, I was looking for a Guru to further my spiritual quest. My explorations (coupled with divine guidance) had landed me at Chowpatty temple which in those days was under the banner of "League of Devotees".

I sat across you in the room asking many spiritual questions, being increasingly amazed by your purity, spiritual insight, compassion and gentleness. After the many spiritual instructions you gave me in that conversation....I popped the big question...."Should I look for a Guru?". You looked me in the eyes for a few moments as if scanning me and my motivations. Then looking up for a brief moment you turned to me saying "You 'may' search".....(brief pause)..... [Looking at me with incisive eyes you continued..]...."but when someone instructs you.... you should understand that he has accepted you". Then you gave me a deep look in my eyes...as if asking 'Do you understand what I am saying?". Pleasantly shocked....and unable to believe it....I hesitatingly asked you for confirmation : "Can I consider you as my spiritual master?". You broke out into you famous signature 'shoulder vibrating' laughter saying "I think you already consider me as your spiritual master". And that was it! That was the beginning of our auspicious relationship which I believe has continued from earlier lifetimes.

Thank you so much for picking me up again and giving me guidance and mercy to continue my journey toward Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha's lotus feet. I am still lame and helpless....depending even more now....thirty plus years later...on your blessings and guidance to pull me to my destination. Please continue showering your blessings and extending to us the shelter that Srila Prabhupada has given to all mankind. Please forgive my shortcomings and any inadvertent offenses unto your lotus feet.

All glory to Guru and Gauranga.

I always had a great desire of wanting to meet you personally. So when I registered for this year's yatra back in April, I was hoping and praying that during the Yatra, maybe someday, I may get a chance to meet you personally, and as the days came closer to the yatra, my anxiousness and desire became stronger and stronger.

On 1st November, when we were in the yatra in Sri Dham Mayapur, my desire grew stronger and stronger, and as the days passed and I did not get a chance to meet you, I felt maybe this time was not the right time. To my surprise and by your mercy, on the last day of the Yatra on November 6th, you noticed me and met me and spoke to me and even blessed me by placing your lotus soft hand on my head.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for always giving me your mercy and blessings.

Thank you for giving us Bhakti. Thank you for cultivating so many wonderful leaders who are guiding us. Thank you for giving us so many gifts, such as a caring devotee community, wonderful lectures, yatras, the counselor system, and mature devotees.

Thank you for the innumerable sacrifices, hardships, and troubles that you have endured to give Bhakti to all of us. It is only because of your dedication that so many of us came to Bhakti.

Thank you for teaching us, by your example, how to be a good Vaisnavaa, a caring godbrother, an able and committed disciple, and a servant leader.

Thank you for steadfastly holding on to Srila Prabhupada and his mission. Without your commitment, our future would have been bleak. Thank you for so many deep and inspiring lectures. Your lectures are a solace, shelter, and saving grace. Repeatedly, you mention that doing Bhakti without ulterior motives and in the mood of servant of the servant is the goal of life. It is my aspiration to come to that standard.

I hope and pray that I will come up to your expectations one day. It is my aspiration to contribute to the mission of Srila Prabhupada and make you proud. Please bless me so that I may become a good devotee and disciple.

My Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On 10th December last year, we celebrated the festival of gratitude in one of the most amazing places on earth—the replica of Vrndavana—the Goverdhan Eco Village. Just like we have an extension of original Goloka Vrndavana here on earth, similarly, the Goverdhan Eco Village is an extension of the extension of Vrndavana and carries the same potency as the original Vrndavana. There were a lot of heart-touching observations in this festival showing the very, very high standards of our Vaisnava philosophy and culture. Although the festival was of your Vyasa-puja, it was named the "The Festival of Gratitude." This shows the core feelings of your heart - The feeling of Trinadapi Sunichena... amanina manadena - There are absolutely no expectations of respect from others. You don't want yourself to be in the center. There were no vyas asanas for you, and you simply spoke sitting on the floor. Although all senior devotees were glorifying you in their offerings, and you were not there on stage. You were sitting somewhere on the side, expressing your gratitude towards all of them.

In your lecture, you very nicely explained our mood while we are trying to make progress in our Krishna Consciousness... You explained the importance of the association of devotees to safeguard ourselves from maya. In order to make spiritual progress, we need each other to do our Sadhana faithfully every day with an attitude that we are aspiring to be representatives of our ever-well-wisher—Krishna and Srila Prabhupada. You defined bhakti as "life of gratitude." Bhakti means to see everyone in relation to their eternal relationship as part and parcel of Krishna. Whatever we do should be in harmony with our eternal relationship with Krishna. Indeed, this is a very simple but profound explanation of how we can always remember Krishna and never forget him.

The greatest gift that we've got in this life from our dear most Srila Prabhupada is to love Krishna and see everything in relation to him.

Guru Maharaja, your heart is filled up with oceanic feelings of gratitude towards Srila Prabhupada. It's impossible that one takes your shelter and doesn't take shelter at Srila Prabhupada's lotus feet. Without taking any credit for all the amazing things you have done in service of Srila Prabhupada, you simply expressed your gratitude towards him, saying that "It is Srila Prabhupada's mercy that he is giving us a chance to serve and share this greatest treasure of bhakti with others." And then you expressed your gratitude towards those who are willing to receive this gift of bhakti. You always tell us to become an instrument in spreading the glories of the Lord by distributing bhakti to others. This is the ideal definition of being an instrument wherein we are grateful to our acaryas for giving us mercy, and we are grateful to those who are willing to receive it. For anyone who is having these feelings of gratitude, there can't be any feelings of keeping ourselves in the center. Another important aspect that you very nicely explained about gratitude is that if we are from the heart grateful to Guru, Gauranga, and Srila Prabhupada, we will not be wasting even a moment. We will be having an understanding of the preciousness of the time we have.

Guru Maharaja, although I am not qualified, I beg for your mercy that I have these feelings of gratitude towards you, Srila Prabhupada, and our acaryas and towards anyone who is trying to serve in this wonderful mission of Lord Caitanya. Please bless me so that I have a clear understanding of the preciousness of every moment in life. Please bless me so that I can intensify the feelings of gratitude within my heart and share it with others. Please give me the strength to be honest and follow your instructions sincerely and in the best possible way I can.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Hare Krishna, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

In this world of strong oceanic forces of maya around us, it's your grace only that I am still able to survive myself in Krishna Consciousness. to some extent. Your devotional prayers and fully spiritually potent words is a constant umbrella over me, to protect me from the scorching heat of materialistic contamination within me & around.

Like father helping the child to walk, it's your grace only which is helping me to endeavor & struggle to practice devotional principles with some sincerity. I sincerely pray to always remain in your shelter with much more devotion that someday I be able to purify my heart & properly walk following the footsteps of guru parampara & Srila Prabhupada.

I do realize that I am offered so much in Krishna Consciousness., for which I am not at all eligible, and most of which I am yet to imbibe. Surrender is a word very easy to speak, but I am very far away from its practice. It's much easy to identify with temporary post position given to us, but I have not yet imbibed the consciousness of being servant of the servant. Often my Krishna Consciousness. practice is simply external, without being internally devotional conscious. And on the pretext of developing internal devotional consciousness, I tend to become lazy in my devotional services. Thus, I am covered with countless faults and weaknesses in my consciousness, making it appear like dark fog, which can be dissipated only by the enlightening rays of your mercy.

I do suffer enormous pains, both on the subtle level and gross level, which shakes up my devotional practices very badly. I do understand that both the painful & pleasing situations of my life are the needful tests Lord Sri Krishna is offering me with His divine love upon me. Please bless me that I may cross over all these tests and trials nicely in Krishna Consciousness. and keep uplifting myself more and more towards the platform of pure devotion.

Please shower your causeless mercy upon me that I may bathe myself with the drop of pure devotion, as exhibited by great Bhagavata personalities like Parikshit Maharaja, Prahlad Maharaja, Prithu Maharaja, Bali Maharaja & Srila Prabhupada, and humbly follow in their footsteps. I simply pray to remain an insignificant assistant humbly serving the Vaisnavas, who are sincerely endeavoring to please you.

Thank you very much,
An insignificant servant of your servants

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glory to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Your Holiness. Wishing you a very Happy Appearance Day. On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I would like to humbly express the profound impact you've had on my life.

Maharaja, my favorite lesson of yours is, "Our deepest, most fundamental need is to love and to be loved," and "The propensity to love has its origins and finds its ultimate fulfillment in God's love." I was very deeply attracted to this teaching because I was entranced by the thought that excessive material growth isn't my sole purpose in this life. I used to prioritize my daily mundane activities, such as spending time on social media and getting distracted, instead of chanting my rounds. However, after hearing you say this, I realized that Sadhana is the pathway to learning how to love Krishna. I started to understand the reason behind chanting and I wanted to improve in my devotional service. Over the summer, I made an effort to chant 16 rounds a day. Once school started, I tried my best to maintain the streak. This habit not only helped me spiritually but also improved my overall mood during the day and taught me how to organize, plan, and prioritize my schoolwork. The Journey Within inspired me to take shelter.

Your example and encouragement are my main source of nourishment in my spiritual life and I am eternally indebted to you. All I can offer is my extreme gratitude for your shelter. I am also grateful for having Vaisesika Maharaja's kids, kirtana, and ISV's influence in my spiritual life. Happy Birthday again!

Your humble servant,

Dear Srila Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at Your Lotus feet. All glory to You.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious day, I would like to take this opportunity to humbly submit a few words of Glorification at Your Lotus feet. Even though, I am not fit and eligible to do it.

Seeing your profound compassionate nature suggests you're beyond the bodily platform. Seeing the suffering of so many people, you disregard bodily comforts and act with utmost sincerity to give people the highest gift.

Personifying dedication, you strongly endeavor to push forward this movement which Srila Prabhupada so painstakingly tried to establish.

By Krishna's mercy, even before coming into ISKCON, we got to read Maharaja's book: The Journey Home, which inspired me a lot, and the way Guru Maharaja takes classes, His love for Sri Vrndavana Dham, His humbleness and devotee care inspires me to work further hard in this path.

I hope one day I'm able to acquire just a fragment of your taste for chanting the holy names and your taste for reading Srila Prabhupada books.

We are internally Grateful to Maharaja for accepting the most fallen and insignificant soul like me.

Srila Gurudeva, I always beg you to shelter me in the dust of Your Lotus feet and forgive my offenses.

Maharaja, Please bless us by accepting us in Your service in the mission of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Hare Krishna my dear Guru Maharaja ji,
Please accept my lowly head and insignificant life at your Lotus feet today and forever. All glories to dearmost Srila Prabhupada.

My dear Guru Maharaja ji, I don't know how to write a good Vyasa-puja offering but I am writing these few words to express my gratitude towards you for teaching me how to be a good disciple by your own example, how to be a good leader by your own example, how to be a good spiritual master by your example and how to be a loving, caring soul for all by your example. I am good at nothing but when I see you and your purity of purpose, I feel like trying my best so that you will be pleased, results I can't give much but at least with my efforts. I try to co-operate with devotees and assist everyone in their services because it pleases you. I will try to put in my best efforts so that you will feel good about me and accept me as your disciple forever.

Waiting with each breadth to be initiated by you, dear Guru Maharaja Ji. Hope I become a deserving candidate someday.

Thank you my dear Guru Maharaja ji for teaching me how to love and serve dearmost Srila Prabhupada, throughout life, tirelessly.

On this most auspicious day of your divine appearance, I humbly beg to offer my deepest gratitude to your lotus feet for giving my family supreme shelter under your lotus feet.

Guru Maharaja, you sowed the seed of bhakti bhav of Great Vaisnava acaryas in Radha Gopinatha Bhakta Samaj. This small plant now became a big tree. Your prayers to the Supreme Lord for the spiritual benefit of all of us are the only reason why we are still surviving in our spiritual lives. You are preaching by your example, by your words, and by your actions. Even after my so many faults, thank you, Maharaja, for accepting me and saving my life in this suffering world.

On this most auspicious day, I pray to the supreme Lord that your health remains Evergreen so that you may continue to transfer the mercy of the supreme Lord to fallen souls like me.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On the auspicious occasion of your divine appearance, I thank you for all that you have done for me. I understand that I am unable to repay the debt that I owe you.

I still remember the kindness and compassion that you have bestowed upon me throughout my life and especially during yatras of Vrndavan, Mayapur, and Puri.

Thank you for your heart-rending and thoughtful lectures, all painstakingly prepared over hours of hard work and sacrifices.

One of your wonderful qualities is your humility and relationship with your god-brothers. I still remember your dealings with HH Bhakti Charu Swami.

You are ever ready to give Krishna to a sincere disciple, and yet you would not want anyone to compromise in any way on the rules and regulations of Krishna Consciousness..

You are like an expert surgeon who knows exactly what the patient (disciple) needs.

On this day, I aspire to be what you want me to be.

Thank you for being a beacon light in the lives of all devotees.

Dear Gurudeva please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I am very grateful to you for allowing me to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada. But please forgive me for not being very sincere in performing services.Also please forgive me for not doing Sadhana properly,not dealing with devotees properly.

You always expect from your disciples strict in Sadhana, maintaining good relationship with Vaisnavas, dedicate oneself for the services in the mission of Sril Prabhupada. But I am failing to do these things up to the mark in my life.So on the occasion of your Vyasa-puja I beg at your lotus feet that please bless me so that I can behave in such a way that you will get pleased,Srila Prabhupada will get pleased and ultimately Radha Krishna will get pleased.

Sri Guru karuna Sindhu adham janar bandhu...

I am fallen,you are ocean of mercy.Please help me to come out of my fallen condition.

Please bless me so that I will never offend any Vaisnavas and get taste in chanting the holy name.

In Kartika-yatra on the occasion of disappearance day of Srila Prabhupada you told to keep Srila Prabhupada's pleasure as pole Star. Please bless me so that I can always remember this thing in my life whenever I have to take any decisions.

I am grateful to you for everything I am getting in my life.

Respected Radhanath Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet and to all your senior disciples, counselors, and leaders worldwide who assist you in pleasing Srila Prabhupada.

Life is a big burden for me, and I await death every moment for my mistakes that badly affected the lives of my pure and simple father and brother. My innocent brother had enough potential to be offered in pure devotional service, but my deeds hampered his life.

I sincerely beg unto the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, the whole Acarya parampara, the Shad Goswamis, the 7 Mahajanas, all chiranjeevis, yourself, and all your sincere disciples that, like Lord Vamanadev, who took away all possessions of Bali Maharaja and himself, He may without delay take away all possessions entrusted to my care and my body in His service and the service of His devotees.

Requesting prayers and blessings for the onward journey of Ghanashyam Krishna Das and his father, Vinayak Dinkar Gaitonde, and I may live to please and serve them, and they may forgive me endlessly, Maharaja. Today I submit my failure to serve you in any way and seek a new life free of the pain of loss of beloved men in my life. And seek blessings for devotional happiness in my mother's life.

Ever grateful to you on behalf of Ghanashyam Krishna Das and family.

Vyasa-puja offering 2024
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga! All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Dear Gurudeva, on this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja day, I feel deeply grateful and fortunate to be part of this divine branch of Lord Caitanya's tree.

Dear Gurudeva, on this special occasion, for my own purification, I would like to reflect on one of your teachings. You always emphasize the importance of 'Gratitude'. You have mentioned in several lectures how gratefulness is the crest jewel of all virtues, and all other qualities emanate from this one quality. To me, Your Holiness embodies this very quality.

Even before joining the Krishna Consciousness. movement, you exhibited this wonderful quality throughout your spiritual journey. Your lectures often express humble acknowledgement to those who helped you. Your talks are filled with profuse gratitude to your spiritual teachers, including Srila Prabhupada, and astonishingly extend to your disciples and other Gurus' disciples.

Dear Guru Maharaja, this comes naturally to you. Among hundreds of incidents, one stands out: at Radha Gopinatha temple, I saw you with a back brace, yet you spent an hour with Western tourists, showing no signs of pain. You expressed gratitude to them, calling them Radha Gopinatha's esteemed guests, reflecting Ghanashyam Baba's spirit.

I can't thank you enough for teaching us this amazing quality of gratitude through your own affectionate dealings even with the non-devotees.

On this auspicious day, dear Guru Maharaja, I beg for a spark of this quality, connecting me to the Brahma-Madhva-Gaudiya Sampradaya lineage, in a real sense.

I pray that Their Lordships continue to bless you with good health, long life, and empowerment as a humble instrument of our Guru Parampara. I also wish to bed for fulfillment of my desire: bringing devotees from Chowpatty and other temples to the United States for a grand gathering, allowing yogis and yoginis to receive your mercy and advance in Krishna Consciousness..

Dear and respected Maharaja, please accept our humble obeisances.

Thank you very much, Maharaja, for accepting us as your disciples. We are truly unqualified for bhakti, yet by your causeless mercy, we have been fortunate to gain some qualification to serve in this devotional path. Your compassion and guidance have given us hope, even though we have no inherent strength or ability.

Maharaja, we humbly pray for your blessings, so that we can sincerely follow your instructions throughout our lives. Please bless us to always serve the Vaisnavas and Srila Prabhupada's mission in the humble mood of the servant of the servant. We understand that without your mercy and encouragement, we would struggle to stay on this sacred path.

We are especially grateful for your recent visit to Nashik Dham. Those four days were a divine blessing, and your association filled our hearts with love and devotion. Your presence has inspired us, yet we know that individually, we lack the strength to carry out the services required. We humbly seek your blessings, Maharaja, to empower us to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission with love and dedication.

We remain eternally grateful for your shelter and pray to always remain under your merciful guidance.

Meaning:

1. If Radhanath Swami Maharaja had not come, what would have happened?

The path of divine love would not have been illuminated, filling the world with light.

2. Our hearts would not be overflowing with his gentle affection,

The melody of devotion would not have touched us with sweetness.

3. What would be the peace and joy in life?

Where would we find such boundless compassion and mercy?

4. He lights the flame of divine love in devotees' hearts,

And a river of love flows through the three worlds by his grace.

5. The sweetness of holy association would not be known,

Nor the warmth of his heart-touching affection.

6. What would be the value of service and surrender?

The nectar of devotion would not have blossomed in this world.

Because of the Purity of your prayers for us, Lord ShriKrishna is slowly uncovering this Rajvidya Rajguhyam Transcedental Knowldege to me. Yet I am in the beginning stage...

The continued Hearing Harikatha from your Lotus Lips, Your Esctatic Kirtanas, Association with your Brahmacari, Grahastha disciples, teaches us,depth of your surrender to Srila Prabhupada and also your concern for uplifting the conditioned souls like me....

Guru Maharaja, Radha Gopinatha Bhakta Samaaj, GEV Facility and many other projects, including Bhaktivedanta Hospital, this Vaisnavas Association, is truly truly, is nothing but manifestation of your Heart and The Matchless Gift,you have awarded to us and to mankind so that Bhakti becomes easy but fool like me, knowing this, yet could not put my sincere efforts to become sincere in my Sadhana Bhakti.

I humbly beg at your Lotus feet for giving me and us The Spritual, Physical, Mental Strength so that by your Blessings, some day, I can do my Sadhana Properly, follow your instructions As it is, take taste in hearing Srimad-Bhagavatam Sincerely and can get drop of this mood to serve other Vaisnavas and take pleasure in their Spriritual advancement so as to reach " "Trainadapi Sunichen....." " mood, so that others who I am in contact, yet not taken to this ISKCON movement, could also begin to take advantage of this Great Fortune and make their lives successful....

Thank you. Maharaja for All you have Awarded to us, May Lord ShriKrishna give you Good Physical Health.

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances. Extremely grateful for the continuous shower of your causeless mercy, support & guidance to all those who are connected to you including me. I am amazed to see your dedication and sincerity to serve your own Guru Maharaja. This time after Kartika 2024 Yatra when I visited the Ultadanga Ashram with devotees, I was able to understand the importance and intensity of this place to some extent and also the time, energy, meditation and efforts you have put in to bring that place to the current existing conditions and also to develop it further. Same thing goes with the Srila Prabhuada birth place. I am hoping and praying that I can put all my energies to serve and please you in your mission to serve Srila Prabhupada & ISKCON.

I know for sure that I have many limitations & temptations and there is a lot of scope for improvement.

On this auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, as your humble servant, I pray at the Lotus Feet of Sri Sri Gaur Nitai to give you good health and best resources to accomplish all your desires to serve Srila Prabhupada.

I also pray at your lotus feet that, I take continuous conscious efforts to improve and serve you for the rest of the eternity. May I never leave your lotus feet and never bring slightest disgrace or unhappiness to you.

An Offering of Gratitude to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja
Hare Krishna!
Dear Maharaja,

With folded hands and a heart brimming with gratitude, I offer this humble prayer at your lotus feet. You, Maharaja, are the embodiment of mercy, spreading compassion and joy wherever you go. Your politeness and humility shine like the moon in a world longing for kindness.

Your ever-smiling demeanor reminds us of Krishna's grace, while your respect for all living beings teaches us the profound essence of true Vaisnava qualities. You have shown how to tread the path of bhakti with steadfast determination, yet with the gentleness of a caring parent.

Your life is an inspiration, Maharaja. Through your book, The Journey Home, we glimpse the immense faith, courage, and unwavering devotion that brought you to the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. Your journey is not just a story but a guide, showing how surrender to Krishna transforms even the most turbulent seas into calm waters.

Maharaja, your lectures, filled with wisdom, humility, and profound realizations, illuminate the darkness of ignorance in our hearts. They are like nectar, reviving our dormant Krishna Consciousness. and filling us with hope and joy.

Your dedication to serving others—be it through projects like the Govardhan Eco Village, Midday Meal Programs, or the Bhaktivedanta Hospital—shows us how bhakti encompasses compassion in action. You have taught us to see Krishna's presence in every living being and serve humanity as an offering to Him.

It is said in Shikshashtakam, "trinad api sunichena"—to be humbler than a blade of grass. Maharaja, you exemplify this verse perfectly. Your gentle, joyful spirit and unwavering respect for all inspire us to cultivate these qualities in our own lives.

Today, I humbly pray for your blessings. Please guide me to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission with sincerity and to follow your footsteps in dedicating my life to the loving service of Sri Sri Radha and Krishna.
Thank you, Maharaja, for being a living embodiment of Krishna's mercy and for guiding us closer to the Supreme Lord.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
"A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way".
Maharaja you are the one that true leader.
This I could experience / observe personally in your recent visit to Sri Radha Madangopal ji temple in Nasik.

While you are in the process of giving Harinam initiation to the devotees, you could see that some devotees are spaced out and involved in discussion.

Maharaja you became serious and asked those devotees "Pr, if you have something serious to discuss please go out of this place, again Maharaja, you became seriously absorbed in the process of initiating the devotees."

To my surprise only few of them understand why you suddenly spoke like that.

By this one act you gave me life time lesson that never become spaced out, be present and absorb in the process.

On the first day during the initiation lecture you spoke about Sikshshtakam prayers and you made a bold statement that "what qualification do we have to recite these prayers which were recited by Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu when He was feeling the top most separation (in the mood of Srimati Radharani) and shared only with His intimate associates."

Feeling utter humility, undeserved with full absorption and begging for the mercy we should recite these prayers.

This is the mood in which you do all the activities even while offering flowers / arati for that matter all devotional activities.
This is what it means to be a practitioner of devotional service.
Thank you Maharaja for all the blessings you have showered on all of us, begging forgiveness for all our short comings.
Trying to be absorbed in the process of devotional service.
Thank you Guru Maharaja,
Trying to be a worthy disciple,

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the countless ways you have touched and transformed my life, along with the lives of so many others. Your boundless compassion and unwavering encouragement illuminate the path of devotion, offering shelter and hope to everyone who comes in contact with you.

You embody the teachings you so eloquently share. Through your personal example, you have shown us what it means to live as a true disciple of Srila Prabhupada—with steadfast dedication, humility, and a heart full of love for Krishna. Whether in your meticulous service to the deities, your thoughtful guidance to devotees, or your tireless efforts to spread Krishna Consciousness., you inspire us to align our actions with the principles of bhakti.

Your relationships with your godbrothers are a living testament to your humility and love. The honor and respect you extend to them remind us of the unity and harmony that exemplify Krishna Consciousness.. Through your own life, you teach us that humility is not just a virtue—it is the very foundation of spiritual growth.

GuruMaharaja, you are a guiding light in this world, gently but firmly leading us toward Krishna with patience and love. Your tireless service and unwavering devotion encourage us to persevere in our own spiritual endeavors. On this sacred Vyasa-puja day, I offer not just my words, but my commitment to serve your mission with sincerity and determination.

Thank you, GuruMaharaja, for being my spiritual master, guide, and shelter. You have shown me that the highest happiness lies in serving Krishna and others selflessly. I pray to always hold your teachings close to my heart and to follow your instructions with devotion and care.

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

I want to offer you my deepest, sincerest gratitude for your continuous shelter. I realize more and more that the breadth and depth of your shelter are inconceivable to me, especially as I find myself more and more in a helpless position. Externally, everything in my life looks orderly and properly functioning, and by Krishna's grace, it is, but deep down internally, Krishna is revealing what a helpless state we are truly in when trying to conquer this material world. Any chance I have of maintaining life in Krishna Consciousness. is through your shelter and grace only. Respected dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Today on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I offer my sincere obeisances in utmost gratitude from the core of my heart. I have no words to explain my gratitude, joy and happiness being initiated by Your Holiness. I have been struggling in this world since time immemorial especially when my husband late Shri Pralhad Kotmire left this world nearly about three decades back. But fortunately, by Lord Krishna's mercy my son Bh. Ankush, then only about 18/19 turned out to be a good son and Krishna gave him a nice wife in the form of Seema Devi. They are taking good care of me. They are also blessed with a very obedient son named Jyotiraditya and he happens to be my good friend more than I being his granny or his being my grandson. Somewhere about 7/8 years before my daughter Kavita, leaving behind her son Vedant, left this world abruptly when she was about only 35. I was traumatized at her sudden demise. Then I came in touch with devotees.

Despite, my lots of ups and downs in life I survived all those difficulties just because I had full faith in Lord Krishnas mercy. And I feel Guru Maharaja, when I met devotees and started chanting Krishna truly loves me but when recently received Diksha from you in Juhu Temple, Srila Prahupada's office, in the holy abode of Shri Shri Radha Rasbihariji, I truly became indebted and eternally grateful to Lord Krishna because I received you as my Spiritual Master, a true lover of Krishna a Pure devotee of Shri Shri Radha Rasbijariji. Although I do not deserve such mercy upon me still out of causeless compassion of Srila Prabhupada which is flowing through your heart you have accepted me as your disciple. Honestly speaking I am not at all qualified for such mercy.

Dear Guru Maharaja, on this auspicious occasion of your holy Vyasa-puja I beg at your lotus feet to kindly shower your mercy upon me so that I can purify my heart and come up to your expectations.
Thank you very much

Wish you a very happy appearance day.
Thank you from the bottom of my heart for coming to Dallas yet again and showering us with the nectar of your uplifting association. It was a festival of cherishable moments, events, revelations, reaffirmation of your instructions, opportunities to serve you and learn from each other.

I was in bliss particularly to see you chanting japa in the temple hall of our dearest SS Radha Kalachandji temple and wholeheartedly participating in darshan aarati. And it was such a proud moment to hear you glorify this temple we call home in your lecture later on. These impressions will remain imprinted in my mind and keep motivating me forever.

Also want to relate to you another inspiring experience of witnessing the humble menial service attitude and attention to details of our Oklahoma godsisters who came to help with the garlands. They were completely blissful doing whatever little service opportunity they were getting and made sure that everything was done with due diligence. Not only that, they insistently stayed back to help with the wrap up and cleanup even when told not to. I was really touched seeing how they have so beautifully imbibed your teachings and pray to be able to follow in their footsteps.

Thank you also for inspiring Vraja Bihari Prabhuji to come over to USA and spend time with all of us reassuring us of your love and care. We are eternally grateful for the timely interventions his visits have made in our lives, when we most needed them.

And lastly, I also want to mention how heartening it was to see you visit ISKCON Delhi and ISKCON Ujjain to spend time with the bereaved disciples of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja and HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaja. It speaks volumes of your loving and caring heart. Hopefully, one day my hard heart can also become soft a little bit and genuinely concerned for others.
Wishing you a very happy appearance day again,
Your daughter,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. As we enter this reflective time of year, I find myself contemplating the services I have rendered and seeking your mercy for further opportunities to serve. I feel that I have very little to offer that would make you proud, except for my steadfast commitment to your teachings.

Through my experiences as a parent, I am beginning to understand the depth of love that exists without expectation. Since you initiated me and accepted me as your child, I have been continuously receiving your guidance and support. Your enlightening Bhagavatam lectures have provided me with a sense of security in this often lonely world.

Just as a parent corrects a child to foster growth, you have lovingly chastised me for my many mistakes. Despite this, I still struggle to learn and grow.

Recently, I faced a high fever that required hospitalization, which took a toll on my Sadhana; I could only manage my japa during that time. This experience has been a humbling reminder of my weaknesses and unpreparedness. In my childlike way, I reflect on how you selflessly serve Srila Prabhupada and offer shelter to countless devotees, transcending your own bodily discomfort.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, I pray for your good health and offer my sincere desire to please you and act in accordance with your will.

Gurudeva. Thank you is a small word to express our heartfelt gratitude for all that you have given us.

We are eternally grateful for so many gifts that you have showered upon all of us for so many years whether it be in form of your lectures and kirtanas, your personal association, your books, yatras or the guidance and association of your senior disciples.

You have constantly been giving and we, on the other hand are so selfish that we are not able to reciprocate your love by doing even simple things such as practising devotional service in the humble mood of servant of the servant of the devotees of the Lord. We would like to beg forgiveness unto your lotus feet and pray that we hope to please you some day. On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasapuja, we pray for your good health and we beg to get some mercy so that we can try to please you through our actions in some way even though we are not at all qualified to receive your mercy.

Dearest Guru Maharaja

By the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, I have the greatest fortune of having your loving guidance in my life. It is an unimaginable causeless mercy in my life to be under your shelter. Once, I had asked you, " Gurudeva, does the spiritual master know that the disciple is thinking of him?"

And you had said very compassionately, "I do not know about that. But I am always thinking of you just like a mother turtle thinks about her eggs eventhough far away. The mother turtle meditates upon them and nourishes them." Guru Maharaja, I was so touched by that merciful and warm answer that I am surviving on that hope and care even now. Eventhough physically far away, I know for sure that whatever I an able to do in devotional service through my body, mind and words,is only by your causeless mercy in my life. I am truly indebted to you for everything because your causeless mercy is all I am made up of.

Today on this most auspicious day of your 74th Vyaspuja, I bow my head at your lotus feet and beg for your blessings so that I may genuinely aspire to be the servant of the servant of the servant and I pray for your good health. May Lord Krishna give my remaining years of life to you so that you may continue to inspire many more souls to the loving shelter of Srila Prabhupada and the previous acaryas. Kindly make me an instrument in your hands. Let me eternally remain at the dust of your lotus feet ito assist in the glorious mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my most humble and respectful obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to you who has tirelessly served Srila Prabhupada within his mission without sparing any effort.
The journey back home is undoubtedly very long, especially for someone like me, who has taken many steps in the opposite direction of the soul's natural habitat.
However, mahatmas like you, who have already crossed this path, have shown, inspired, and facilitated us in reaching this goal through their personal example and preaching.

"Whatever action a great man performs, common men follow. And whatever standards he sets by exemplary acts, all the world pursues." (Bhagavad-gita 3.21)

This verse from the Bhagavad-gita comes to my mind because Your life is a true example to be followed.

Upon re-reading the purport of this verse in Bhagavad-gita As It Is, Srila Prabhupada mentions that Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu states that a teacher must behave properly before beginning to instruct others. For me, what stands out the most in you is precisely your personal example.

without any doubt you had developed all the qualities mentioned by Krishna in the Bhagavad-gita (16.1-3):

"The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: Fearlessness; purification of one's existence; cultivation of spiritual knowledge; charity; self-control; performance of sacrifice; study of the Vedas; austerity; simplicity; nonviolence; truthfulness; freedom from anger; renunciation; tranquility; aversion to faultfinding; compassion for all living entities; freedom from covetousness; gentleness; modesty; steady determination; vigor; forgiveness; fortitude; cleanliness; and freedom from envy and from the passion for honor — these transcendental qualities, O son of Bharata, belong to godly men endowed with divine nature."

By carefully analyzing your life, we can see that you personifies all these divine qualities. This is why you had inspired countless people worldwide and transformed the lives of thousands through your personal example.
On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, and always, I pray that my life may also be transformed through your association, whether by vani or vapu-seva.

Dear Respected Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble prostrated obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.
All glories to your divine personality. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga, and all glories to Srila Prabhupada.
On this most auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I humbly offer my heartfelt gratitude for all the merciful gifts you have bestowed upon me. First, I thank you deeply for awarding me the second initiation in April this year at GEV. I will strive with all my heart to live by the ideals of a second initiated devotee.

The recent Kartika-yatra, like every year, in Sridham Mayapur, was another incredible opportunity you gave us to purify our hearts and absorb ourselves in the holy dham. Through your dedicated servants, such as Gauranga Prabhu and all the devotees who worked tirelessly in the kitchen despite the scorching heat and humidity, you humbled us and taught us the value of selfless service. I sincerely wish to imbibe this spirit of seva within the core of my heart and act with this mood in all circumstances.

As the years go by, I feel the internal and external difficulties arising, stemming from the anarthas within my heart and the overwhelming influence of Kali-yuga.

I humbly seek your blessings to continue my journey back home, back to Godhead, with sincerity and enthusiasm, fully depending on the mercy of Guru and Gauranga. Kindly bless me to remain in the association of sincere, like-minded Vaisnavas, as I know that only through their support and your mercy can I make steady progress on this path.

We all pray to Krishna for your continued good health and great success in your mission to please Srila Prabhupada.

I am not good at writing and expressing myself so kindly pardon me for my shortcomings.

I remember vividly how nicely you explained love vs lust concept in a 'prerna' festival and I was extremely fortunate to attend that program at chowpatty temple..I was a 22 yr old medical college graduate then..I remember how I was enchanted by your wonderful explanation of love vs lust with stories both from scriptures and also from modern world examples...I was never in doubt theoretically regarding this important concept...

I remember the ecstatic kirtana after the program...I had developed strong attraction for your divine persona in that program only and I remember how I was sitting very close to you...

The memory of this program is alive all time in my heart..

On the occasion of your Vyasa-puja I beg to you to keep me in your service and your kind glance...Please bless me so that I develop attraction for the devotional service.

Many thanks for blessing this world by your divine association.

Hare Krishna, dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Maharaja, I feel truly blessed to have come under your shelter through your dedicated disciples who guided and counseled us during our college years. On this auspicious occasion, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude for the invaluable benedictions you have showered on us.

Reflecting on my journey in the devotion path, I can see how through your compassionate guidance you have provided everything essential for my progress. Your concern and desire to bestow bhakti upon souls like me has profoundly impacted my life.

Hearing you speak on the purpose and mood of studying scripture was an unforgettable experience. I learned that a student's/disciple's duty is rooted in humble inquiry and service, with unwavering loyalty to Srila Prabhupada's teachings as the foundation. Study, as you taught, should cultivate humility rather than pride, focusing on realizing the depth of Vaisnava Siddhanta and Rasatattva, and following in the footsteps of our acaryas.

Though unworthy, your disciples have kindly engaged me in serving the Vaisnavas. I humbly seek your blessings to sincerely follow your instructions and receive the wisdom needed to fulfill your desire and thus please Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Madhava and the previous acaryas.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to your unlimited qualities

Your divine qualities that attracted me during the recent Kartika yatra:

1. Friendship with your godbrothers & godsisters:

Your interactions with HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja were so pleasing to see. You touch his lotus feet, embracing him, and offering so much attention to every word he says. These actions showed how to respect one's godbrothers without any apparent envy. Your affection towards all your other godbrothers and sisters - esp. HG Dinatarini Devi Mataji, HG Mondakini Devi Mataji, HG Jananivas Pr. How do you remember every detail of your interactions with them from decades ago?

. It was so nice to see. I am inspired by Gurudeva to follow this in my life - having genuine relationships with all devotees, as they are the ones who will give me life's spiritual juice as I grow old. They are our real life and soul.

2. Tolerance towards all the upheavals during the yatra:

The sound system collapsed on the 1st day. It was very heart-breaking for you, since you came so well-prepared for the day 1. But, you simply tolerated the upheaval, and continued on with the Kirtanas without apparent disturbance. Such an inspiring act... on how to remain steadfast and rooted to the essence of tolerance in all situations - by thinking of what will please Hari, Guru, and Vaisnavas.

3. Gratitude for every small detail of the Yatra management

On the last day of the Yatra - you glorified so many aspects of the Yatra management as if you had all the time in the world. This was very endearing - such that all the devotees who served felt blessed for their endeavors and at the same time encouraged to come to yatra every year.

4. Humility in front of even the younger devotees from TOVP

Many times in the yatra, the younger devotees would tell you what to do and what not.

But, you didn't retaliate. Rather you simply obeyed. That shows your humility for all levels of devotees.

5. Detachment from all the wealth even which comes to you:

One big man gave a first check of Rs. 25L and promised to give Rs. 75L eventually. Without a second thought - you just handed over the cheque to Krishna. You are not attached to money - big or small. Let me also remain neutral in all such circumstances, and value Srila Prabhupada's servants.

When in the future any other Guru will come and invite & bring together such 10000s of devotees who are chanting 16 rounds daily. And offer them so much inspiration that they all continue to serve, cooperate, and work without reservations for Srila Prabhupada. Your contribution to the Parampara is very unique Srila Gurudeva.

Please bless us Gurudeva, that we also develop these abundance of qualities - and utilise them to bring more people to Krishna Consciousness., have wonderful friendships with devotees, and please Their Lordships!!

Thank you for being like a grass, teaching us the essential principle of humility and being satisfied serving in the background.

Thank you for being like the sky, teaching us how to be all accommodating with a big heart.

Thank you for being like air, teaching us how to not get stuck but keep moving forward in life of service.

Thank you for being like the fire, teaching us how to always remain pure and illuminating by cultivating spiritual knowledge and detachment.

Thank you for being like the mother earth, teaching us the essential art of tolerance and forgiveness...

Thank you for being tolerant of my countless short comings and always forgiving and sheltering with a loving heart and smile.

"O spiritual master, O giver of divine wisdom, O friend of the fallen, you are the giver of your bliss, and you are the only ocean of mercy. Although dwelling in Vrndavana, you have descended for the welfare of fallen souls like myself, and you are preaching the divine love of Radha for Krishna. Please be kind to me."

Maharaja, when you first saw a picture of the dark blue boy playing a flute, you were irresistibly attracted to Him. When you reached Vrndavana, it was the pinnacle of your spiritual revelations.

The path of bhakti that you would follow your whole life was revealed to you while kneeling in front of the samadhi of Srila Rupa Goswami in Radha Damodar Mandir.

The intense devotion you observed in others and practiced yourself while staying in Vrndavana left a lasting impact throughout your life. From Vrndavana, you went to New Vrndavana. From there, you came to Chowpatty Radha Gopinatha Mandir wherein you established a small replica of Vrndavana in the Vrndavana forest. This Vrndavana took a bigger shape when you established Govardhan Eco Village. In Govardhan Eco Village, you manifested Vrndavana to a very large extent, including river Yamuna, Govardhana, seven temples, Nandagaon, Barsana, and much more.

You have established the Vrndavana of your heart not only in Govardhan Eco Village but in the hearts of all your sincere disciples. After all, that is what your heart is made up of! And that is where you are residing all the time. And that is what you are sharing with everyone!

Some of your illustrious disciples have received your grace in the form of the relationships of Vrndavana being manifest in their hearts. Such disciples are trying to establish communities at various places with Krishna in the center.

Some of your disciples are exhibiting the mood of sacrifice shown by the residents of Vrndavana, and extending themselves beyond limits to give pleasure to devotees in whatever way possible.

Some of your disciples, by your grace, are spreading the glories of Vrndavana by speaking melodious Krishna Katha and transforming the hearts of many people.

Some of your disciples have received service in Vrndavana Dham as your grace.

You have expanded Vrndavana in the hearts of your disciples in various number of ways.

Yet, I am such an unfortunate soul. I have received so much from you, yet, I have never taken it seriously. I have repeatedly plunged myself into the ocean of sense gratification. I have only found unlimited reasons to escape Vrndavana and, instead, take pleasure in the forest of material enjoyment.
I humbly pray at your lotus feet to grant me the strength to remain sincere, to accept your unlimited grace, and the submission to fulfill the desires of the guru parampara.

Please accept my humble obeisances
All glory to Srila Prabhupada
All glory to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

On this 74th Divine Vyasa-puja day of your appearance, I would like to rededicate myself to the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Let me take complete shelter of Srila Prabhupada's teachings and shelter of the Holy Names of Sri Krishna.

I would like to express my deep gratitude for the shelter you have given me to stay in association with my fellow godbrothers, keeping Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Ji in the center of my life.

Services to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Ji have become my treasure of life.

Hearing in the association of devotees Bhagavatam classes, festival classes, and Brahmacari classes is the source of my sustenance.

Holy Yatras to various tirthas of Bharat Varsha is the most amazing experience to one and all, and hearing about the Lord's pastimes from your lotus mouth is most auspicious and fulfilling.

Presently, I am hearing the audio version of the book The Journey Home; It's a profound experience to hear from you directly speaking with so much absorption and intensity along the special musical effects.

It's as if visualizing the entire journey right in front of my eyes

While it is evident that with so much difficulty, challenges, and life-threatening experiences you finally came to India and met Srila Prabhupada and surrendered yourself at the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, however, in my case, it was as if everything went smoothly to join the Hare Krishna movement and getting the best possible opportunities for services.

My sincere prayer at your lotus feet is that let me never take the mercy and blessings with kindness I received which I didn't deserve but let me always remain in the shelter of the Srila Prabhupada and Vaisnava community with all sincerity and dedication

I am eternally grateful and indebted for engaging me in the Art-related services.

By the mercy of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Ji and your divine mercy, I could hold Exhibitions all over the UK visiting various cities with an overwhelming response from devotees artists art lovers, and people in general

During my tour of visiting many cities in the UK, It was a great and encouraging experience to receive all devotees to the Art Exhibitions, including senior Srila Prabhupada's disciples and Sanyasis, and see their exclusive love, affection, and dedication for Srila Prabhupada and ISKCON.

Also planning to have such Exhibitions abroad, ad especially y Europe and America.

As per your valuable advice, I would like to place these paintings of Srila Prabhupada at his birthplace in Kolkata and GEV Mumbai.

Once again, I deeply value the services you have engaged me in and rededicate myself at your divine lotus feet, which are the ultimate shelter and treasure of my life.

Begging for your mercy and blessings to continue to serve devotees, deities, and Srila Prabhupada's mission wholeheartedly with gratitude and complete dedication.

I humbly offer my deepest, most heartfelt gratitude to Gurudeva, whose divine guidance has transformed my life through lectures, classes, and association with devotees where Gurudev's pastimes are shared. Although I haven't had the privilege of personal interactions, Gurudev's teachings and presence have been a constant source of inspiration and comfort.

Gurudev's wisdom, love, and compassion have been a beacon of light, illuminating my path and nurturing my spiritual growth. I am forever grateful for the precious gifts received through Gurudev's teachings:

- The gift of spiritual growth and self-awareness
- The wisdom and guidance to navigate life's challenges
- The opportunity to connect with a community of like-minded seekers
- The blessings of Gurudev's presence and guidance in my life

Thank you, Gurudeva, for being a shining beacon of light in my life. Your teachings have helped me discover my true potential and purpose. May your blessings continue to illuminate my path, and may I always remain a humble and devoted student on this sacred journey.

With heartfelt appreciation, love, and devotion, I offer my gratitude to you, Gurudeva. May your heart be filled with joy, peace, and love, knowing that your guidance has made a profound impact on my life."

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Hare Krishna. Please accept my humble obeisances.

Recently, I was meditating on your quality of tolerance, forgiveness and giving respect without expecting any respect. Whatever You speak in your lecture there will be an instance that I can remember from your life that inspires me and gives me strength.

When someone either from devotee circle or outside corrects me or rebukes me, it gets very difficult for me to tolerate. But then I remember the tribulations that you had gone through in your life. Starting from your Teenage days when you were participating in the rally for the rights of black Americans, people got angry on you and you tolerated. You mention in the book Journey Home that whenever such instances occur you took it as an opportunity to grow internally. You never retaliated. This shows that you were and are a devotee always.

Even after becoming a sannyasi you were so obedient to your senior God Brothers and authorities. You were instructed to stop your project and go to India. You followed that. You had so much tribulations and you tolerated each of them.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyaspuja, I am begging you to please give me the ability to tolerate provoking situations and develop patience and forgiveness and obedience to my authorities.
Your Servant,
HariKrishnan

Respected & Dearest GURUMAHARAJA, PAMHO.AGTSP.AGTSGASG.

Its been 24 years that I was awarded HARINAAM DIKSHA by your causeless grace & 10 years,since BRAHMIN DIKSHA.

I fall miserably short of chanting quality of Japa that you exemplify by your personal example & through your katha & Pujari sevas,but the legacy you have created through your exemplary Brahmacari & Grihastha disciples, inspires me to aspire for the surrender expected from me.

I feel really really sheltered by the love & affection shown by HG.Radhesyam Prabhu, during situations that challenged my faith, makes me feel your presence in my life.

I am 47 years now & within a decade or so, I earnestly desire to offer myself fully in the mission of SRILA PRABHUPADA,through wonderful services & I beg for mercy. Ys, Harinam das.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glory to your most beloved Srila Prabhupada. All glory to you.

On this most auspicious day of your appearance, we all come together to glorify you. We relish hearing your exchanges with others. We share our interactions with you. We are all reminded how deeply you have touched our hearts and changed our lives forever.

How have you conquered our hearts? With love. Every one of us has personally experienced your unconditional, unmotivated love. And that purity of love is what has touched our lives in such a profound way. You make us feel seen in a way that we have never been seen before— to the very essence of our being, far beyond all the superficial, external layers. What a rare and beautiful gift you are giving to everyone who comes in contact with you.

Your love has touched my heart in ways that I cannot even begin to describe. I am eternally indebted to you in ways that I cannot even fully understand. Thank you, Guru Maharaja. Thank you for seeing me at my very essence, beyond all my shortcomings and mistakes. All I can do is try in some small way to please you by taking your instructions to heart and trying to share the gifts that you have shared with me.

Dear Gurudeva
Kindly accept my humble obeisances.

On ur auspicious day of apperance I would like to offer a poem

From deep of my heart
I had questions in chart,
Where I belong,what is purpose
Your servant came and expose,
The spiritual world,the guru parampara.
With love and association of devotees
Got to know how to chant and serve Guru.
When I first saw you and heard from you
I firmly believed here is person who will take me to my goal.
Giving away the artificial life and will free my soul.
Then the journey began, chanting, dancing, association, hearing, seva,yatra, preaching,book distribution, Spiritual journey began and material was going on with so many ups and down.
Your mercy saved us to get drown.
Your classes,kirtanas, instructions
Gave me to take right decisions.
Your love, your glances,your smile
Pushed my journey forward a mile.
Ur love and respect for your god brothers and god sister Taught and enlight me as twister
Your love for Srila Prabhupada is unparallel
Seeing this my spiritual life propel
How can I glorify u enough?
How can I thankyou?
Only thing I can do is simply follow ur instructions
Till my life breath functions.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!
All glories to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Dev

On this special and most auspicious day, I pray to Srimati Radharani and Krishna to give you the best of health and a long healthy, protected life.

This day is a day to express gratitude and appreciation to you and the Guru Parampara for the gift of Krishna that I have received from you in my life. This is the most sacred and unimaginably priceless gift that I have received and with every passing day its value only increases.

I am slowly realizing that this world truly has nothing concrete to offer except for the opportunity to be Krishna Conscious and to Serve the Mission of Gaura Nitai.

However, there needs to be an ecosystem to experience and relish this process.

This ecosystem you have given all of us. You have nurtured the ecosystem and given it to us in various formats and dimensions, so that we can truly experience real Krishna Consciousness. and the Connected Culture.

From the deepest regions of my heart. I am grateful to you. I really appreciate your many qualities too.

One of the most heart touching quality of yours is simplicity. It's amazing and has transformed my heart. Very many observations and stories that are nectar like.

Thank you Gurudeva,

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my humble obesiences,

It is by immense grace of Srimati Radharani and Govind devji that we got your vani association from the very beginning of our Krishna Consciousness. journey. Maturity, inclusivity, non criticality in your katha is worth following for aspiring Vaisnavas. Maharaja in very tough times of my personal Life, your vani had been fuel to move ahead. Every year, I used to come to Kartika-yatra, but this year couldn't make. I hope you will forgive me. Yatras are almost the only time we see you, if fortunate give some service to you. Maharaja, just to please you I attempted to give UPSC exam, my friends went to GEV academy and said how much efforts yourself and Gauranga pr putting, so that devotees become policy makers and administrators. This will bring dawn of dharma to India. Last year by your mercy I could unexpectedly reach till interview, but due to my shortcomings and past sinful karma couldn't realise service for you. This year, you came to ujjain but the same day I had to leave to give UPSC mains exam. Please forgive me for that. By your blessings only, we are able to serve Sita Raamji at home and serve in ISKCON Bangalore and indore. Your followers are like your mirrors. So soothing to be with them be Praneshwar pr, Sankirtananand pr, vraj Krishna pr and vyas acarya pr. Maharaja, my wife also now aspiring initiation from yourself. We will soon become parents, please bless us we can take care of soul entrusted to us with your expectations. Maharaja, only treasure of inspiration I try keep in all activities is that it may please you and your servants. To maintain this consciousness,Bless me that I can hear you regularly/daily, be away from screen to give quality time to consciousness. I promise you to try my the best to crack the second toughest exam of India UPSC CSE with a recommendable rank in your glory to fulfill your desires, hopefully by this attempt itself. I have full faith since, you have desired it will happen, let me try to be a small part of this great mission. This I shall do without compromising on 16 rounds, Sadhana and basic seva. Maharaja though I m not qualified let me pray to Lord Narsimha that yourself be healthy, be protected from all directions. I aspire some Dust from your lotus feet to make my life successful.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances.

I feel extremely grateful to be able to write this Vyaspuja offering for your 74th appearance day. As Mother Ganges is worshipped by offering her water back to her, I would just be trying to repeat the transcendental sound received from your divine lips in your glorification. Your instructions are a saving grace in this dark, endless material ocean and can lift one to the highest spiritual perfection. By your example, you have set the highest standards of Vaisnava conduct. Your sadhu nature is well-known within ISKCON and appreciated even by outsiders, dhiradhira-jana-priyau. In BG 5.12 purport Srila Prabhupada writes,

All that exists is a product of Krishna's energy, and Krishna is all good. Therefore, activities in Krishna Consciousness. are on the absolute plane; they are transcendental and have no material effect. One is, therefore, filled with peace in Krishna Consciousness..

This gives me an idea of your divine consciousness.

Recently, I have been facing some health issues. I realized there would be situations when body and mind wouldn't just cooperate. In such situations, the only solace is instructions received from you and your loving disciples. Sometimes, those instructions are painful for my heart, conditioned to egotism, but they are the right medicine to bring it to the natural state of being a servant of the servant.

I am deeply grateful for the instructions, examples, and systems set by you, which together are giving me a chance to aim for pure devotional service. Though my heart is filled with anarthas and insecurities, on this day, I would like to commit to finding secure shelter only in the association of Hari, Guru, and Vaisnavas and following the orders of my Spiritual Master. With a drop of your mercy only would it be possible.

Dear beloved Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance at your divine lotus feet on the auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

I consider myself so fortunate that I am writing an offering to my Spiritual Master, HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja. Guru Maharaja is one of the most prominent spiritual leaders in today's world, and he is inspiring thousands of people to realize the true nature of one's real self and the connection one has with the Super Soul. Your books and lectures are guiding me through my spiritual journey and also helping me become a better version of myself and to choose progress over running for perfection. The mercy you show on a conditioned soul like me by providing me shelter shows how compassionate you are to people like me. You are the light that is guiding me and making me understand the true meaning of life and devotion to the Lord.

Thank you, Maharaja, for everything because I really don't deserve the mercy you and your devotees have showered on me by accepting me as your eternal servant, and for that, I will be grateful forever.

On this most sacred day, who am I to pray? But if you bless me, I can pray to Lord Krishna to give you long life and good health so that you can inspire us all to contribute to the mission of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu with the mood of the servant of the servant of the servant.

With a grateful heart for everything.

Please accept my humble obeisances.
To start with, seeking your forgiveness for any mistakes I may make in this offering. I have never written an offering before; this is my first attempt, and I am deeply happy that my first offering is to you, whom I love the most.

First, I want to share how I came to know about you. Four years ago, when I connected to ISKCON, I was searching for some random lectures on YouTube. There, I saw one of your videos. I didn't know who you were, but when I listened, I felt so much relaxation and pleasure. There was something magical in your voice that brought calm and freedom from all material thoughts and tensions. Even now, whenever I listen to your voice, I feel the same. And the way you were delivering the lecture was incredible, explaining everything in such minute detail. Since that day, I have held a soft corner for you in my heart. Although I have never met you in person, I always pray to RadhaVallabh Ji for the opportunity. I even tell other devotees to keep me updated on where you are so I might meet you someday.

Your lectures have the power to transform lives. They are full of deep meaning. Besides giving Krishna-prema to this world, you also lift people from all kinds of material struggles. Your quotes are so motivating and inspiring. You teach about true love, joy, humanity, peace, harmony, kindness, tolerance, forgiveness, compassion, gratitude, service, and many more.

I also admire your humility. Despite delivering lectures at top multi-billion-dollar companies and universities like Google or Apple, Stanford or Harvard, and others, you still remain humble and kind to everyone without any pride and ego. In fact, during the Kartika-yatra, you take care of each and every devotee. Under your guidance, devotees cook and distribute food to thousands of people. For an instance, during the inauguration of ShreeRam Ji's temple in Ayodhya, your disciples distributed free Prasadam for almost two months under your direction. And during yatras, you meet everyone who has served in Prasadam making, distribution, or kitchen services and personally thank them. This shows how deeply humble you are. I even saw a video where you asked your own disciples for blessings and paid obeisances to them. The sight of a guru paying obeisances and seeking blessings from disciples is truly touching. Seriously, you are very humble and don't have 0.001% of ego and pride, always ready to serve others with a heart full of kindness toward every living creature. In your humility, you have even chosen to close opportunities for Charan Sewa, Charan Abhishek, and Vyasa-puja celebrations. Truly, your nature is extremely down to earth.

Maharaja Ji, you have done so much for the world, and we are deeply grateful. You began the mid-day meal program in ISKCON, ensuring that everyone receives Krishna Prasadam and no one sleeps hungry. You established Bhaktivedanta Hospital, providing not only medical treatment but also the blessings of Vaisnava association and Prasadam to uplift patients in Krishna Consciousness.. Your dedication and hard work are evident in ISKCON Chowpatty, Gopinatha Temple, and the beautiful Govardhan Eco Village in Maharashtra, where people can experience a sattvic lifestyle through meditation, yoga, spiritual classes, and chanting. And these are just a few of the many projects you have undertaken, and some are still in process. I dream of visiting these holy places with my family.

Maharaja Ji, you play a vital role in my life. Your humility, kindness, and gentle speech inspire me to adopt these qualities. Despite being a spiritual master, you carry no pride or ego and perform all forms of service, from serving food to cleaning floors. I am learning to serve others, to love and respect everyone, and to accept any service with joy. HG Gauranga Prabhu Ji once mentioned in a lecture that you find joy in Vaisnava seva, and since that day, I focus on serving Vaisnavas, knowing that if they are pleased, you will be pleased, and another reason is pleasing your disciple will make my path to meet you as Vaisnavas are like desire trees who can fulfil each and every desire. Your actions also teach me valuable lessons—for example, how you bow your head and join your hands in humility whenever someone praises you, or how you embrace everyone, whether they are your disciples or not. These small gestures reveal your great humility and teach me so much.

I would also like to share an incident. I am from Delhi and currently live in Pittsburgh. In Delhi, I searched for your disciples but could find only one, who lives far from my house. I often prayed to RadhaVallabh Ji to help me to find the association of disciples of Srila Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji. When I came to the USA, to Pittsburgh, I found many of your disciples, and I was extremely happy, and now I am blessed to serve under HG Shyamsundar Prabhu Ji; fortunately, via him I got the opportunity to touch the shoes that you wore in his house. I believe that pleasing him and earning his blessings, one day I will receive the fortune of meeting you and taking your blessings.

At the end of this offering, I humbly request your blessings, Maharaja Ji. My main goal in life is to do something in Krishna Consciousness., and I want to preach with my fiancée, who is also in Pittsburgh. The services that I have interests in are book distribution, harinam kirtana in the temple or on the streets, and other services like Vaisnava Sewa. I just want to preach in the USA. And my other dream is to start a weekly house program, converting our house into a mini ISKCON temple or center in the U.S. with her, spreading Krishna Consciousness. among family, neighbors, and friends. If this isn't possible, then I wish to serve under HG Shyamsundar Prabhu Ji. Please bless my family as well, as they are not yet devotees.

Once again, I apologize for any mistakes in this offering. I am still learning in Krishna Consciousness..

On this very auspicious occasion of Your appearance day, please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of Your lotus ?? feet.

In the scriptures it is said that,The Spiritual Master must be glorified as the God is glorified, but I am such a rascal that I am incapable to do this in proper way. By your mercy the most substantial knowledge ;what the soul is, who is the Supreme, what is the relation with Him, the real goal of life and and how to serve Krishna. All these things give meaning to my life.

You have divine power to make devotees from animals, and my only desire is to serve you and our mission because I do not want to remain as an animal.

Though I am very unfortunate to have your Vapu sang but by your Vani sang and your behaviour in Kartika yatras which highlights your all pure Vaisnava qualities Specially Humbleness,Humility, Servitude, Enthusiasm, poetic nature and many more which is the source of my inspiration.

Now I beg for a drop of mercy from your Lotus feet, although I know that I never deserve it. O Guru Maharaja please give me the strength to become a humble servant to you and to all the Vaisnavas in dasanu das bhav.

I pray at the Lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Murlidharji and GaurNitai for Your better health.

Dear Guru Maharaja please Accept my humble obeisances.

From the earlier life of Guru Maharaja in New Vrndavana we can see how Guru Maharaja is a perfect Disciple of Srila Prabhupada.

The services and austerities that Maharaja went through I can barely imagine doing it by myself.

Dear Guru Maharaja I express my deepest gratitude for your causeless and graceful appearance in my life. Your qualities inspires thousands of people and helps to bring us closer to Krishna. Dear Guru Maharaja,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!
Please accept my most humble and respectful obeisances.

By the grace of Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga and Vaisnavas, I got the opportunity to attend Kartika-yatra this year at Mayapur Dhaam with 10,000 devotees. This was my 2nd Kartika-yatra. It was so nourishing to the heart to sit and hear from your lotus mouth - the divine pastimes of Lord Caitanya! Thank you Guru Maharaja for bringing us closer to the Lotus Feet of Krishna, for sharing with us the message of pure devotional Service, for always reminding us to be the humble servant of the servant!

I especially loved the Dancing Kirtanas where everyone together was chanting and dancing simply to please Lord Caitanya.

Thank you for creating such beautiful communities of Vaisnavas where everyone is so caring, loving, seriously practicing Krishna Consciousness. and dedicated to the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Your dealings with your God-brothers gives us a glimpse of the Spiritual world. I remember how you suddenly stopped your lecture without even a thought, when HH JPSM arrived during this Kartika-yatra 2024.

On one of the days, you were walking out of the Pandal and you were acknowledging and accepting all devotee's love just by your divine glance. Everyone was fully satisfied by your divine exchange of love in that manner.

And, recently, when you came to our Temple, I heard that you emphasized on making space for all devotees to peacefully, happily practice Krishna-consciousness, you emphasized on watering the root.

I am very fallen, most unqualified, filled with so many anarthas.

I pray at Your Lotus Feet, please bless me so that I can develop taste for chanting the Holy Names and glorifying Lord's divine fame, let me always remain in humble spirit of being servant of the servant and let me voluntarily give up comfort zone and go out and share the message of Lord Caitanya with many, many souls...

My heart is very hard, I am adhama!! Please bless me and make me uttama!! Let me become a humble instrument in the hands of Sri Guru Parampara, let me develop some drops of sincerity and seriousness in practicing Krishna Consciousness...

Seeking your divine shelter.

The bond shared with the journey home,
Ignited a desire to meet you,
Though such a fortune seemed rare,
A Causeless mercy to be received by very few.
Little did I know, that my wait would soon end,
A message of your arrival left me amazed,
Coming for Vyasa-puja ceremony,
A dream turned into reality I couldn't comprehend.
I had accepted, I might never have your darshan,
But Radharani gave this opportunity so rare,
Your first darshan in the auditorium nourished my soul,
And your first glance in my eyes was filled with deep compassion and care.
I waited and prayed to see you when you were not around,
Chanting in that separation great shelter I found,
My heart was longing to hear from you, for In your vani a deeper shelter than your vapu I found.
Never had I thought I would chant seeing you,
Your mercy and shelter was the only desire I had,
Your seriousness in chanting inspired me,
Chanting in your association made me glad.
Then came the most awaited day of your Bhagwat class,
The whole place was packed with enthusiastic listeners
Eager to taste hari katha from your lotus mouth,
You glanced at every Vaisnava with folded palms,
Seeking their blessings as their eternal Das.
Listening to your Radha Madhav live left me nostalgic,
Every word nourished the soul,
I was getting what I longed to hear,
your vani for my soul is most dear.
Introducing yourself as an insignificant pilgrim to Delhi,
You came to glorify your beloved godbrother (HHGKGM),

Instructing to carry on the legacy Maharaja had laid,

To glorify all his projects and services and every attempt you made.

You were very personal in your exchanges with devotees,

Your little smile, a glance, accepting a flower, or reciprocating with Hare Krishna was enough to satisfy the soul,

You mercifully extended yourself to give pleasure to one and all.

You visited Radha Vallabh, residing in Chippiwada,

Who Sheltered Prabhupada to start Back to Godhead,

And the divine home of Shri Radha Madhav,

The building which blood and sweat Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja had shed.

Feels like a dream, being in your divine presence,

Which forced me to dive deeper into my own heart,

Uncovered lack of surrender and attachment to your lotus feet,

Made my heart filled with grief and repentance.

But I am grateful for this mercy received so rare,

Feeling unqualified to even aspire for,

Still, my heart longs for your shelter,

Longing for your divine love and care.

Still, I am so far from being das anu das,

Struggling to somehow follow,

Triad API Sunichena is still far from realization,

Still, my relationship with devotees is shallow. May I become a sincere servant of Prabhupada. In his army of servants may I be placed. Let me always aspire for your shelter Gurudeva. In the hope of receiving your mercy by the divine grace.

Your unqualified, unworthy, aspiring servant of your servants.

Lotus feet of spiritual master are the only ways to attain pure devotional service. The words emanating from the lotus mouth of spritual master purify my consciousness. O master, you are opening my darkened eyes and filling my heart with transcendental knowledge. O master, please be merciful on me.

On this day of your Vyasa-puja, I want to offer my heartfelt gratitude to you and the community of devotees you have raised in Chowpatty, Pune and other places. By being in association of these communities, the devotees are helping me to rise in my devotional service. Thankyou for giving me this opportunity of association of devotees.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Hare Krishna
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada. All glories and gratitude to you.

HH Bhakti Vigyan Goswami Maharaja pointed out in a recent class that we can't understand Sri Sri Radha Krishna, the pastimes in Vrndavanaa, or Lord Gauranga without serving the lotus feet of Sri Rupa and Sri Raghunath. We serve by following their instruction while sincerely serving all those stalwart devotees who are following in their footsteps. In Srimad-Bhagavatam Canto 2 Chapter 7, Srila Prabhupada mentions in the purport to Text 52, "Narada is therefore requested or ordered by his spiritual master to present this science with determination and in good plan."

Guru Maharaja, you completely exemplify this and teach us through your actions and instructions how we follow this—in how we work together, how we deepen our Sadhana, the attitude with which we should approach our services, and how we evoke determination in Krishna Conscious life. The projects you've initiated, the congregations you've built, the outreach activities you're involved with, and the personal care and diligence you bring to all of it demonstrate the planning and thoughtfulness required to help uplift souls from our material conditionings and bring us closer to the Supreme Lord and His devotees, from wherever we are. You do all this in loving glorification and service to Srila Prabhupada.

We also take inspiration from your disciples, who are following your instructions, driving significant projects, and bringing care and love to the community within ISKCON and the wider world.

Despite so many areas of my consciousness and life I need to improve on to steady myself on this journey, I take so much guidance from the classes you give. You set the standard of what you expect from us in how you engage with others and in how you lead. The instructions feel very personal, and I'm so deeply grateful that we have the opportunity to connect and learn from you in a guru-disciple relationship and all that you give to us through this connection.

Please forgive me for the many areas I lack in, and I pray to be a determined devotee, to assist Srila Prabhupada's plan and mission through serving you by imbibing your instructions and supporting devotees who are dedicated in their service to the well-being of the souls of this world.

Wishing you a very wonderful 74th appearance day!

Dearest and Respected GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I bow my head in gratitude for the immense love, guidance, and shelter you have so graciously offered to me and countless others. Your presence in our lives is the embodiment of the verse:

tad viddhi pranipatena pariprasnena sevaya upadeksyanti te jñanam jñaninas tattva-darsinah

(Bhagavad Gita 4.34)

"Just try to learn the truth by approaching a spiritual master. Inquire from him submissively and render service unto him. The self-realized soul can impart knowledge unto you because they have seen the truth."

You are that tattva-darsi, a seer of truth, who inspires all of us to rise above our lower selves and strive for the ultimate goal of life—Krishna prema. Through your words and actions, you awaken the dormant devotion in our hearts and remind us that the highest success lies in becoming instruments of Krishna's compassion.

Your kindness, Maharaja, knows no bounds. You have the rare ability to see the good in everyone and nurture it with your genuine affection and encouragement. You bring out the best in every soul by inspiring us to connect with Krishna through your heartfelt Krishna Katha, Nama-ruchi, and Vaisnava seva. As Lord Krishna says:

satam prasangan mama virya-samvido bhavanti hrt-karna-rasayanah kathah taj-josanad asv apavarga-vartmani sraddha ratir bhaktir anukramisyati

(Srimad-Bhagavatam 3.25.25)

"In the association of pure devotees, discussion of the pastimes and activities of the Supreme Personality of Godhead is very pleasing and satisfying to the ear and the heart. By cultivating such knowledge, one gradually becomes advanced on the path of liberation, and thereafter he is freed, and his attraction becomes fixed. Then real devotion and devotional service begin."

On this occasion, I also want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the unforgettable yatras you so lovingly organize for us. These yatras are like windows into the spiritual world, immersing us in the holy dhams and the eternal pastimes of the Lord. Despite facing personal health challenges, you continue to take us on these journeys, tirelessly sharing Krishna katha and giving us a taste of the Holy Name and the joy of Vaisnava seva. Your sacrifices and dedication inspire us to deepen our devotion and prioritize Krishna Consciousness. in every aspect of our lives.

Thank you, Maharaja, for gifting us these sacred experiences that ignite our love for Krishna and transform our hearts. Your yatras remind us that the path to Krishna is paved with service, humility, and gratitude.

On this sacred day, I humbly pray to Sri Sri Radha GopijanaVallabha, Sri Nitai Patitapavana Gaurahari and Srila Prabhupada for your good health and well-being. May They protect and strengthen you so that you may continue to illuminate this world with your divine wisdom and unending compassion.

In your association, Maharaja, we are uplifted by your transcendental wisdom, enlivened by your heartfelt katha, and inspired to walk the path of devotion with determination and humility. Your life is the living commentary on Srila Prabhupada's mission, and you continually remind us of the essence of devotional service: to love and serve Krishna and His devotees with sincerity and gratitude.

On this sacred occasion, I pray for the strength to follow your instructions and serve you with unwavering devotion. Please bless me that I may one day bring even a fraction of the joy and shelter to others that you have so compassionately given to me.

Dear Gurudeva, please accept my humble obeisances!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to You!

It is a special mercy and privilege to offer something from the heart in your honor on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, and for my own purification.

I am not capable of speaking, understanding, or realizing the greatness, breadth, and depth of your capacities and dedication to your beloved spiritual father and my spiritual grandfather, Srila Prabhupada. Within my limited capacities and from the perspective of my own microcosm, I still extend a heartfelt testimony of my personal experience of your sincere surrender, humility, and gratitude, filled with a heart full of love. You see us, your disciples, as a gift from your guru, Srila Prabhupada, who is your life and soul.

Thank you, dear Gurudeva, for incorporating fragments of your generosity, humility, and gratitude into so many of your wonderful disciples, my spiritual family, from whom I can learn how to develop the attitude of a humble servant in service to Krishna.

Your love and mercy are my only hope for eternal success in life, which is to follow in the footsteps of your dedicated disciples, sincere representatives, and my spiritual family, to achieve the highest success in life. That is where eternal happiness resides—to become a sincere servant of the servant of the servant of the Supreme Lord Krishna and those whom Krishna loves (as you would say, Krishna loves everyone).

Hare Krishna, Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

As I always say, Your autobiography, The Journey Home, has been a profound turning point in my life during covid time—a guiding light that inspired me to persevere in Krishna Consciousness. despite life's challenges & it continues to do so even today. The obstacles and tough lessons I've faced have been humbling, yet I am deeply grateful for them, as they have shaped my spiritual journey.

A quote of yours that often resonates in my heart is: "First become a human, and then think of becoming a devotee." Though I can't recall the exact moment you said this, its wisdom continues to guide me. I once tried to take a "double jump," skipping steps in my journey, but your graceful teachings have shown me the importance of patience and gradual growth.

Aspiring to be your disciple has been both humbling and exhilarating. This desire alone has carried me through so much in life, filling me with gratitude beyond words. Thank you, Maharaja, for EVERYTHING—for your kindness, wisdom, and constant guidance.

A very very happy 74th birthday to You dear Guru Maharaja. There is no consideration of age as You are a Nitya Mukta personality, by Your own sweet will,You have come to this mortal world to deliver fallen souls like me who have accepted maya as their authority. It is a special day for a fool like me to express his gratitude & try to praise his spiritual master. Oh! master Your glories are unlimited, Your glories are spread in all the 3 worlds. You are a devotee of highest order. Your journey to India was just to set Your glory

Your glories echo through the worlds, both near and far,
In every heart, Your light shines bright like a guiding star.
You journeyed to India, to show us the way,
A beacon of wisdom, teaching us to pray.
(Chorus)
Oh Radhanath Swami, we bow at Your feet,
In Your mercy, our lives are made complete.
With humility, devotion, You lead us through night,
Showing us the path, with Your eternal light.

A devotee of the highest character, pure and true,
In every action, Your devotion shines through.
Guru bhakti leads You, and Your heart's steady pace,
Guides us all with love, and boundless grace.
(Chorus)
Oh Radhanath Swami, we bow at Your feet,
In Your mercy, our lives are made complete.
With humility, devotion, You lead us through night,

Showing us the path, with Your eternal light.
3
Your contribution to ISKCON, vast and deep,
The fruits of Your labor, no soul can keep.
Through Shastra, You teach us, with wisdom so pure,
In Your words, our hearts find the cure.
4
Refined lectures, practical and wise,
Opening our hearts, with every sunrise.
In Mayapur, chanting by Your side,
My soul awakened, my heart opened wide.
(Chorus)
Oh Radhanath Swami, we bow at Your feet,
In Your mercy, our lives are made complete.
With humility, devotion, You lead us through night,
Showing us the path, with Your eternal light.
5 Four times this year, Your darshan I've seen,
In Radha Gopinatha, GEV, Mayapur serene.
Each moment a blessing, a gift so divine,
Through Your mercy, my heart intertwines.
6 Forgive me, Maharaja, for testing the bond,
You've shown the connection, it's real and strong.
Heart to heart, faith is the key,
And Your mercy strengthens it, setting me free.
(Chorus)
Oh Radhanath Swami, we bow at Your feet,
In Your mercy, our lives are made complete.
With humility, devotion, You lead us through night,
Showing us the path, with Your eternal light.
7 In GEV, I asked for a sign so true,
And Your reciprocation was beyond what I knew.
Day by day, Your mercy fills my soul,
In gratitude and love, You make me whole.
8 Your heart's cry for the world, endless and pure,
Your compassion, the cure that will always endure.
This fallen soul, forever in need,
But with Your mercy, I'm nourished and freed.
Oh Radhanath Swami, Your love we embrace,
Forever our hearts, in Your mercy, find grace.

One day was scrolling YouTube and then one sweet voice came which changed my life. That's our beloved Maharaja...

He has given Krishna into my life; he taught me the pure bhakti process through his lectures...

Maharaja always says that a Vaisnavaa's first quality is humility. That also I learnt from Maharaja. Maharaja inspired me a lot through his lectures.. Maharaja showed us that how to increase love towards Krishna and Krishna nam. I always pray to Gopinatha for Maharaja's good health so that his spiritual advancement continues to always inspire every person like me to get Krishna....

Hare Krishna Maharaja! All glory to Sri Guru and Gauranga!! All glory to Srila Prabhupada!!

It is the causeless mercy of the Lord, his devotees, and yourself that I could get to hear your vani. Even before coming to Krishna Consciousness., I could read your life journey. The struggle and sacrifice that you have always done and are doing for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada - your beloved spiritual master, and bestowing mercy upon unworthy jivas like me is truly inspirational. You always emphasize that serving in a mood of the servant with all humility is difficult, but I pray at your lotus feet to please bless me so that I can get close to the standards and surrender you expect from your disciples.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Guru Maharaja, all I have is an offering of gratitude for the causeless kindness you have been bestowing upon my lowly self for last several years. Your chaste representatives like HG RSP and my counselor HG Harinaam Pr have been protecting me with their regular guidance and empathetic counselling.

My birth and lineage is very impious, Maharaja. I don't know how this good fortune of getting sheltered by you and your devotees fell upon me. My life has been the testimony of all unacceptable unforgivable deeds. I can sense that your causeless karuna is my only fortune in this life.

Guru Maharaja, I cannot recount any lecture, any conversations of yours, that I have heard where you do not express your immense gratitude to your Spiritual Master, Srila Prabhupada. Dear Guru Maharaja, I often share this with devotees that it is your gratitude to Srila Prabhupada that gets expressed in your love and compassion for us all.

May my heart remain ever drenched with tears of gratitude to my Guru Maharaja and his causeless mercy upon my sinful self. May I never forget the fortune bestowed upon me. May I never ever be little the value of pure devotional service and your pure teachings in my life, Guru Maharaja.

Always praying for your good health. Althoigh undeserving, beholding a deep desire to someday please you personally to earn that warm divine embrace that so many of wonderful servants of yours have received.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to your service to your beloved spiritual master!

Now, after six long years, I am again in Sri Mayapur Dhama for some time, and I realize that it's only by Srila Prabhupada's mercy that I have the chance to chant the holy name, experience the dhama, hear about Lord Gauranga and be around His devotees. And I realize that you are always carrying Srila Prabhupada in your heart and, as his instrument, give his love and compassion to everyone you meet.

By incredible innumerable services you do and especially by your ability to touch and transform the hearts of others, I can understand that you are specially empowered by Srila Prabhupada, as well as by Lord Caitanya and Lord Nityananda. And you are very dear to Them.

Exactly twelve years ago, here in Mayapur during Kartika, you deeply touched and transformed my heart. Just by one glance of yours, you gave me faith, hope, inspiration and confidence. I never forget that and am always thinking how I can repay you.

My dear Guru Maharaja, I am so weak, foolish and unqualified, and yet so eager to be of use to you in your service to Srila Prabhupada. Please give me strength and intelligence, and make me your instrument. I see no other meaning in life.

Thank you so much for this Kartika-yatra, for absorbing us in the transcendental reality of Lord Gauranga's pastimes. I know you have invested so much of your heart and energy in it. But the most important thing is that you stay fit and healthy, and continue to bless this world with your presence.

Please take care of yourself and may Lord Nrisimhadeva always protect you!

Please accept my humble obeisance

Dear Maharaja as a humble and obedient disciple of Srila Prabhupada you are tirelessly spreading the message of Krishna Consciousness. through your own example. If I contemplate on your life I can easily relate to the Caitanya Charitamrita. You are living in Caitanya Charitamrita. Let it be Vaisnava seva, Prasada distribution, Deity worship, the relationship between Vaisnavas, dham seva, kirtana, or Bhagavatam class you are a living example of what is expected by Lord Caitanya from devotees.

You are a true inspiration to Devotees and aspiring devotees.

In a simple way, you demonstrate how a bhakta should be. You exemplify how one can remember Krishna 24x7 and live accordingly.

You often quote "Love means details", through your life, we experience how you give importance to minute aspects of devotional service which shows how much deep love you have for Srila Prabhupada, Devotees, and Lordships.

On this Holyday, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Gaur Nitai, Sri Gopalji, Guru Parampara, and Srila Prabhupada to keep you in the best health and I beg to you please bless me with a few drops of qualities which you possess to execute my service to your lotus feet.

Dear Gurudeva, please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet; all glories to Srila Prabhupada; all glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga. Although our process has a chronology of sambandh, abhideya, and prayojan in relation to Supreme Lord Sri Krishna, for a soul who has been lost in the material quagmire since time immemorial, how relieving it is to know who is his real father and mother and how reestablishing his lost relationship can give him Supreme satisfaction and happiness. Maharaja, I'm one of such innumerable lost souls who came in contact with you, and you gave me the greatest gift of my life. Your expertise is not just introducing us to Sri Krishna and Radharani, but creating infinite opportunities to serve them so that we can come closer more and more to experience the relationship. At the same time, you always assure us that gi in with your service, don't worry, don't give up, but just avoid Vaisnava offenses and you will cross the line. Maharaja, the more I hear your lectures, the message is loud and clear. Work on subtle anarthas like pride, prestige, and the number of years I spent. The goal post seems further away, elusive, and at times improbable. But your association appears like a pied piper of Hamlin. If I simply hang on to the flock who are obsessed by your personality, because you are in turn obsessed with Sri Krishna and Vrndavana dham, I am sure of success someday. My best wishes and sincere prayers to the Lord to grant you a very, very long and healthy life ahead to deliver unlimited fallen souls like me.Thank you for all your love, Maharaja. Respected and Most Worshipful Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories to Shri Prabhupada Ji Maharaja!

The human body, which is rare to attain, is a precious gift bestowed by the Lord's divine nature. Yet, through your grace and blessings, this human life has found the right direction, guidance, and purpose.

Without a Guru, just as a ship without a captain is doomed to be lost at sea, similarly, without your blessings, we would be lost in this material world. By your mercy, we have found shelter and a path to cross the ocean of material existence. Otherwise, our lives would be futile and destroyed in this world.

In the Shri Caitanya Charitamrita, the great devotee and saint, Krishnadas Kaviraj Goswami Maharaja, says:

""Who is the fortunate soul wandering in the universe? It is he who, by the mercy of Guru and Krishna, receives the seed of devotion in his heart!""

O Guru Maharaja, whatever little devotion or service we are performing today is only and solely due to your grace. On this auspicious day of your divine appearance, I bow at your holy feet and pray that I may humbly follow the essence of your teachings—remaining humble, tolerant, and always serving with the mood of a servant, without any desire for honor or recognition. I make a sincere effort to respect all, and with this attitude, I will strive throughout my life to please you.

Dear Gurudeva,
My respected obeisances at your Lotus Feet.

On the occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, we feel fortunate to express our gratitude to you for what you have given us spiritually and emotionally and taken care of all our bodily needs too.

This year, in spite of your health, you gave so much Krishna Katha and instructions from Caitanya Charitamrit, which is so important for us to imbibe in our life.

When we heard your kirtana, we learned how to absorb ourselves in taking shelter in the Holy Name. Your heart is in Name Ruci and Vaisnava seva. You showed this by your example when you entered the kitchen in the yatra by performing the first puja to the stove, and with so much love and devotion, you cooked the dal and paneer sabji. Serving devotees is very much an integral part of our devotional service. In Krishna Consciousness., the knowledge and application of the knowledge are important. This we learnt from your example.

Ones Your love for your God brothers shows how much you love Srila Prabhupada You allowed your godbrothers and sisters to speak about Prabhupada more than you did. When His Holiness Jayapataka Maharaja was speaking, you humbly sat like a student who is ever ready to learn. These are the lessons I have to learn from you, Maharaja.

Thank you so much for your shelter, guidance, and your emphasis on developing sincere service and the utter urgency to take shelter in the Holy Name.

Hare Krishna Dear Srila Gurudeva,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
I humbly offer my unlimited obeisances unto your esteemed lotus feet and express my profound gratitude for graciously providing me shelter at your revered lotus feet.

Your exalted persona is a shining example of virtue and goodness, adorned with an abundance of divine qualities that inspire and uplift all those fortunate enough to witness it.

You have mercifully manifested the transcendental forms of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, who are the life and soul of our community. Through your divine mercy, I have been able to engage in devotional service in the association of devotees, although it may be insignificant.

Your genuine concern and compassion for conditioned souls like me are my only hope for progress on the path of bhakti. I humbly beseech your lotus feet to bless me with genuine humility, tolerance, and the ability to not seek honor for myself but to show respect to others. I pray to be able to perform hari bhajan without any offenses, with sincerity and seriousness, and without any ulterior motives.

Please bless me with a true understanding and application of the principles of Sambandha, Abhidheya, and Prayojana, so that I may practice bhakti with the right mood, attitude, consciousness, goal, and understanding.

I also pray to understand and abide by your instruction:

"Vaisnavaism is to appreciate other Vaisnavas devotional service, big or small, which makes the Guru's heart filled with joy irrespective of the magnitude of one's accomplishments!"

I pray to the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to bless you with excellent health and overall well-being. May you continue to grace us with your presence and enlighten our lives with your divine teachings.

Sitting in the main room, my japa reverberating, I could see you in my mind's eye offering service to Sri Sri Radha Vrindaban Nath. It gave me great peace hearing you tell me within my heart to "Relax and Listen". Just the words I needed to hear.

janme janme prabhu sei...Srila Narottama Dasa Thakura tells us the spiritual master is with us birth after birth. I'm not the best devotee. Still, I endeavor in hopes you will not need to come back too many more times to get me out of this blazing forest fire of material existence.

Your lotus feet have come to our home, Maharaja! Felt so happy and overwhelmed with joy. You are so merciful, Maharaja. Thank you.

Also, we always feel your mercy, but we felt special protection and your presence during Covid. It was a very difficult time, but your blessings pulled us through. So, thank you, Gurudeva, for always being so kind and caring.

Hoping that one day you will come to meet our Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Today is the blessed day of your appearance day where, although not qualified, we are getting the causeless opportunity to glorify your divine qualities.

21st Feb 2022 marked a historic moment with the inauguration of the reborn Bhaktivinode Asana at 1, Ultadanga Road in Kolkata, exactly 100 years after the historic moment in the year 1922, when the seed of ISKCON was planted in the heart of Srila Prabhupada by Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur on the roof of the building.

Since then, I was hoping and praying if I can get an opportunity to visit the holy place. This year, after Mayapur yatra, when me and my family left from Mayapur to board our train at Howrah, we got the message that our train is running late and by the inconceivable arrangement of the Lord we got the opportunity to briefly visit this historical place.

The few minutes that we were there at this divine abode was a soul touching experience for me. The whole place has been exactly restored in such a way that we can simply imagine how the historical pastime would have been unfolded a century back! What was striking to me were the images of the old, dilapidated structure along with the restored monument which made me realize how the building was almost in ruins before it was amazingly transformed to what it is now. One devotee while speaking with me recalled, "HH Radhanath Maharaja had given us clear instruction that while restoring the building not even a single piece of brick should go out of this place." Indeed, the potency of Srila Prabhupada has been preserved to the fullest in this divine abode.

Maharaja, this holy place was almost in ruins and would have been at the verge of extinction if it was not preserved and restored in time. However, by your earnest desire to preserve the legacy of Srila Prabhupada, you have revived the birthplace of ISKCON which is now open for all the devotees all over the world to come, absorb and experience the historical monument.

Similarly, you had been longing for decades to fulfill Srila Prabhupada's desire of erecting a holy place of transcendental pastimes, dedicated to the personality of Krishna. As mentioned by you, "I became a devotee in Vrndavana. When I was in New Vrndavana, I had a serious fear that I would forget my experiences in Vrndavana, because they were so deeply sacred to me. So every single day for nine years, before eating I would go for Vrndavana parikrama for twenty minutes in my meditation."

Maharaja, you have been carrying the holy dham of Vrndavana in your heart however you had a fear that the memories of Vrndavana would be at the verge of extinction if it was not preserved and recreated in time. Hence, by your earnest desire to fulfill the instruction of Srila Prabhupada, you have recreated the holy dham of Vrndavana which is now open for all the devotees all over the world to come, absorb and experience the spiritual abode.

Maharaja, whether it is RESTORING the holy place (at Ultadanga) or RECREATING the holy place (at GEV), this divine manifestation is possible only by a pure devotee like you in whose heart is RESIDING the holy abode of Krishna! And because the Lord is residing in your heart, a pure devotee like you creates holy places wherever he goes!

"I offer my respectful obeisances unto the spiritual masters, the devotees of the Lord, the Lord's incarnations, His plenary portions, His energies, and the primeval Lord Himself, Sri Krishna Caitanya."

Dear Guru Maharaja, you have dedicated your life to Srila Prabhupada. With your entire being, you preach the message of Lord Caitanya to us fallen souls. You convey this message so straightforwardly that it becomes crystal clear what the perfection of our lives truly is.

You give uncompromising instructions: to be the servant of the servant of Krishna's servants, to strive for perfection, and to never give up hope. You teach us through the holy scriptures and emphasize the crucial details that help us achieve the ultimate goal of life.

I am sincerely grateful that you have accepted me as your disciple. I am proud to have a firm, focused, enlivened, humble, and compassionate spiritual teacher. I pray at your lotus feet to recommend me to our spiritual parampara and to Sri Gauranga so that they may mercifully accept my service, forgive all my mistakes, and allow me to serve with my insignificant attempts.

Thank you for inspiring me.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances

The past year has been the toughest year of my life yet! The kind of mental tension, relationship stress, ethical turmoil and faith altering events I have faced have been extremely overwhelming for me.

It is your causeless and immense mercy upon me that despite such trying circumstances; not only am I am able to continue bhakti with the proper consciousness but also to discover, experience and relish deeper and deeper aspects of the science of devotional service.

Gurudeva, I am sincerely trying my very best to follow your instructions of trnad api. I must confess that it's not easy! I have been pushed to the brink several times. But every time your guidance through your Vani reveals to me the silver lining in the dark clouds to encourage me, comfort me and give me strength to move on.

These past few months have helped me understand myself in many fundamental ways. To accept myself as I am and to allow myself to express my individuality in a better way in the sanga of Vaisnavas. You have been constantly guiding me through various means and sources.

I don't have words to describe your mercy upon me.

And yet I still hanker sometimes for things I don't have like a miser.

Please forgive me for my impudence. Please bless me that I remain humble and be of service to my fellow god brothers and seniors in the ashram.

Dearest Gurudeva,

I am extremely humbled and grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple.

It's by your mercy that my growing years were blessed in the association of devotees and Brahmacaris in the temple. Being brought up in the temple environment while being homeschooled was the best decision my parents took. The reason I say this is guru Maharaja, because we learnt majority of the things, values, scriptures, stories and everything from the Brahmacaris... it indirectly made me connect with you. They spoke your words and teachings which I received indirectly.

Gurudeva, you're so kind to shower your love to everyone and especially children. It makes me feel so proud to get your sweet and gentle blessings when I was a child, running around and suddenly meeting you around the courtyard in Radha Gopinatha temple.

I don't think I can express how grateful and thankful am I to you. Just being able to see you glance brings so much support and encouragement in life.

I have so many memories where I've received blessings from you, and they're all stored in my memory. However one which I pray to remember always is the initation day. The day when Maharaja, you so so lovingly and generously extended me as a part of your disciple family. Maharaja I was blessed to get your personal time where every word you mentioned stands out as instructions to me. Something I will remember and pray to remember for the rest of my life. You gave me so much inspiration and confidence when you said " I have full faith in you, and I pray to Radha Gopinatha to be with you". Receiving these words in the day of initiation gave me surety that you will always inspire and support me in my life. Your words have touched me and made me feel so valued Gurudeva.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, I sincerely pray on the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji to keep you in the best of health and spirit.

I pray to their Lordships to help me and remind me to serve you in the best possible way, which will help me serve them indirectly.

Thank you for your love and mercy Guru Maharaja on everyone including my brother Gautam and me.

This day brings great joy to my heart knowing that compassionate and kind person like you lives and spreads pure love on this planet Earth. I'm very thankful and grateful that 20 years ago you gave me your shelter and guidance. When I met you in the beginning of this year at GEV and asked you for the instructions you said: "Love Krishna and teach your child to love Krishna!" By your blessings, following and being inspired by your example I hope that every day and year I'm geting closer to that goal. May Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha bless and protect you!

Hare Krishna your Holiness,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

I was reflecting on the wonderful spiritual experiences I experienced under the grace of your Holiness and my Guru Maharaja on this auspicious day of your glorious Vyasa-puja.

During a Srimad-Bhagavatam class in 2012, the preacher brought up your holiness and your autobiography, "The Journey Home." Since I was fresh to Krishna Consciousness., it was the first time I had heard of your Holiness. Nevertheless, I had a peculiar impulse to purchase and read this book. Within a week, the book magically appeared in my hands, and I read it while observing the early experiences your Holiness had.

After the aforementioned start. I eventually joined your yatra in Shri Brindavan Dham in 2013, and I have since participated in other yatras to this day. Several devotees, including many of my Siksha Gurus and godbrothers and sisters from India, Bahrain, Muscat, and Qatar, joined the yatra in the years that followed because of my most delightful experiences throughout it, and the practice is still going strong today.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincerest gratitude to your Holiness for the mercy you have shown upon me, which has helped me in an unexplainable way to evolve my consciousness.

May Lord Krishna bless you with good health and long life so that you can keep uplifting the fallen souls of this miserable ocean of material existence.

All glories to Srla Prabhupada
All glories to Sri Gauranga...

On this auspicious day of your vyaspuja, I am remembering importance of your holy presence in my and my family's life feeling of gratitude pours out from my heart.

Hearing your lectures and teaching from past so many years has strengthen us so much that in many ups and downs of our life, we can remain clam and try to accept the situation as plan of the Lord, keeping faith that each situation is designed to teach us something. Always feeling the protection of the Lord, and the devotees around us, especially Hg. Giriraj Prabhuji and Hg Syamarani Mataji as councillor and your representative always their to guide us and show us the right path in the times of difficult situations....

When I just think about if we would have not been in Krishna concious movement my heart feels with fear, because mind creates so many illusions, makes small problems, big.

Thank you so much for your compassion, and mercy upon us that you accepted us as your disciple although unworthy full of faults.

On this day I beg for the mercy at your lotus feet, and please help me.. so that I can chant japa sincerely everyday early in the morning, taking care of physical health, as I have that fear in my heart, if I won't take proper sleep my health will be affected.

I can balance taking care of physical health and progress in my spiritual path too..

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept my Humble Obeisances

By the Unlimited grace of Krishna somehow an insignificant worm like me got association of ISKCON devotees, got association of Srila Prabhupada's books and his devotees and unlimited unlimited mercy is when I got association of yourself and your disciples who are like crest jewels in this whole Universe. This Counselee System made by you is a shelter for me always.

This shelter is helping me every moment to take shelter of Krishna and beg for his mercy.

As you say mercy is when we are undeserving still we get the blessings. So I am experiencing this mercy every moment of my life being undeserving. I am loving this system and trying so that many of them should get this mercy. As what I was doing before and what I am trying to do now is totally different. I am also connected with HG Anand Vrndavana Prs Japa Group so in his association trying to regulate my Sadhana too. Also materially I am not doing well. But this is helping me to take shelter of Krishna and yourself Gurudeva. Last month you have showed your mercy by initiating me and accepting this insignificant as your disciple.

Every morning while doing my duties I hear your classes which whole day reminds me of yourself and your teachings. Sorry Maharaja I am fallen as I am unable to follow many of your instructions but praying so that someday I will be able to make you happy. I am praying that Your happiness and your devotees happiness I can keep as my goal and my life and soul.

I am feeling that I am not doing my best. Yes I engage myself in services assigned to me sufficiently.

Somehow I am unable to join you in this yatra. I apologize for this from the core of my heart. my heart is really crying that I am unable to join. Please bless me so I can continue serving in this mission. Really Very Grateful to you Guru Maharaja that in this age and this condition you continuing yatras and lectures. This is the nectar for me always.

I also apologize for all the mistakes I am commiting and beg for your mercy to give me strength so I don't repeat the same mistake again and again.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, dear best friend,and Guru Maharaja ?? Jai Srila Prabhupada Jai Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga. On this day,I am honored to offer you my humble obiesances, on your appearance day. I met you when I came to New Vrndavana, because I moved to West Virginia,and visited the holy dham a few times, and I saw Srila Prabhupada, there a year or so back, I came with my childhood friend, Pralada priya dasa who became a devotee, when he met Tamal Krishna,and Vishnujana Swami, and went on the bus with Radha Damodara traveling sankertan party, for awhile, and was visiting me in West Virginia.After arti everyone disappeared, busy doing service, building New Vrndavana,,, we wanted to talk to Devotees, but no one was around. Someone told us,to walk up the road,and a nice devotee, who was in the bramachari,ashram, so we said ok and started walking up this very long road,a few miles.when we got there, a beautiful devotee came out to greet us,the only devotee there

,with some cows.As we entered,the ashram,Radhanath was looking very beautiful and ecstatic. He told showed us Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana natha, and his eyes were rolling in his head,saying these were the most beautiful Deities in all the 3 worlds,and He gaves us some Sandesh, and Rasgulla,Prasadam that he cooked,and it was a very memorable day for me and Pralada pryia dasa, I met my Guru Maharaja, and he informed me Srila Prabhupada was comming to New Vrndavana, and urged me to come and see him in a few weeks. I came to see Srila Prabhupada, and saw Radhanath, putting flowers on the ground, I asked him why,and he said,it was because he didn't want Srila Prabhupada lotus feet to touch the ground. So on that day I was with,Srila Prabhupada, and Radhanath Swami. I moved to New Vrndavana about 3 years later after I got married. Radhanath loved my family very much and we became best friends and in 2001, he gave us initiation, so we could be in the disciplic succession, with Srila Prabhupada,although we lived there for 3 years we never Took initiation from Kirtadanda Swami please accept my humble obiesances to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, my best friend and Guru Maharaja, your humble servant,Jaya Kesava dasa, and your departed disciple,my wife Radhanam

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, I am deeply grateful for everything you have given me. Your lectures, especially on ego, pride, and other anarthas, have guided me to reflect and grow spiritually. One of the most valuable lessons you have taught us is the importance of gratitude—not just feeling it but also expressing it through our actions. You live by this principle, and your example inspires me to see Krishna's mercy in every aspect of life.

Your love and care for every devotee are extraordinary. You accept everyone with their unique moods and guide them with patience and kindness. Radha Gopinatha Mandir, which you have nurtured with so much devotion, has become a spiritual home for so many of us. The temple's outreach to smaller towns like Latur reflects your deep compassion and your desire to share Krishna's message everywhere.

Your projects like Govardhan Eco Village and Bhaktivedanta Hospital are beautiful examples of service in action, showing how to care for society both materially and spiritually. The counselor system you introduced has built a loving community where devotees can grow and support each other.

I am especially thankful for the opportunity to serve you at Govardhan Eco Village. Every moment spent in service there feels like a blessing and a chance to practice the gratitude you teach us. Maharaja, I truly feel that I am who I am today because of your mercy and guidance. You are my spiritual father, and I am forever indebted to you.

Thank you, Maharaja, for teaching me to live with gratitude, to serve with love, and to see Krishna's hand in everything. I pray that I can always remain under your shelter and continue to learn from your example.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your divine service in spreading the mission of Lord Caitanya.

Maharaja, your life exemplifies pure devotion, boundless humility, and an unwavering commitment to serving Krishna. Your vision to uplift the lives of countless souls, connecting them to the lotus feet of the Lord, reflects your deep compassion and love for all living beings.When I hear your teachings, I feel a renewed sense of purpose and connection to Krishna. You remind me of the essence of life: to serve with humility, love, and gratitude. The way you see Krishna in every circumstance encourages me to look at the world with the same faith and optimism. Your efforts in building spiritual communities and spreading Srila Prabhupada's mission across the globe are extraordinary. Whether through your profound books, compassionate guidance, or soul-stirring kirtanas, you have created a space where every soul feels welcomed and cherished in Krishna's love. I feel unworthy of your causeless mercy but deeply inspired by your example. I pray to use this inspiration to serve more sincerely, to deepen my faith, and to contribute to your mission with whatever small abilities I possess. Maharaja, please bless me that I may overcome my weaknesses and always remain under the shelter of guru and Krishna. May I serve with integrity and always strive to live by the teachings you so mercifully share.

Dearest Guru Maharaja hare Krishna koti koti davdwat Pranama unto your lotus feet happy Krishnaconscious birthday to you,hare Krishna to you hare rama to you, i have nothing to offer you except my own life and want to serve u uncontionally as since I started to hear about Krishna and ISKCON only you were ISKCON for me only you were the way I can reach,know, feel,reciprocate or please Prabhupada and Krishna what I can offer,i have nothing and I am nothing till you will accept me as ur servant or till I can't deserve to be your servant. I am just acting and fooling myself anyhow by following some steps of bhakti but till you are not directly connected with me as my spiritual master,I am just a dead useless flesh piece,Oh dear lotus feet of Maharaja I am not able to connect with any other senior with heart as feel in only assumption of your shelter, I started my journey towards ISKCON by hearing your lectures and kirtana just by being in contact with one of your Aspiring decsciple,if even an Aspiring disciple of yours made me such twisted towards ISKCON, towards Prabhupada towards you then what to speak of your sheltered and Initiated disciples and hence I have no words to glorify you being such fallen soul, I don't deserve your darshan even but you are so merciful that without having any connection with such a sinful soul like me you have reciprocated and I try to never allow myself forgetting your one instruction "The more you tolerate the less you have to" and I will always try to apply this and please bless me for this so that I can understand a pinch of "trinad api sunichen,tarorapi sahishnuna,Amaani na maan dena,kirtanaiya sada hari,I don't know Krishna will fix me where as a desciple in future but he has already fixed you as my spiritual enlightenment spark in this life so I will try to never let you down by my heart, because I can't disrespect any Guru being your worst student, so I am very sorry for everything I did till now I will try more to improve myself in future so that no one will point you,or Prabhupada or Krishna because of me,please shower mercy of your Lotus feet on me forever.May you live long and add my life years to your life so that more souls can get your vani and Vapu sangh and get benefited. Please forgive me for everything which is not fulfilling your or Prabhupada 's Expectations,but I will not leave trying ever. Thank you for being in my life as anything. As for being directly connected to you I am totally depending on Krishna only.

Hare Krishna, crores of obeisances, Maharaja I first of all extend my heart-felt wishes to you on the 74th Vyasa-puja. Maharaja, I have heard that there are two types of Bhagwat, one is personal Bhagwat and the other is Granth Bhagwat. The person who is a Bhagwat, applies the Granth Bhagwat in his life and lives his life accordingly and imparts education to others according to that. According to me, Maharaja, you are the same person Bhagwat who has come to uplift people like us who are attached to material life. Maharaja, when I see you, I feel that I am not even so deserving, that is why I have got a Guru Maharaja like you. After initiation, I feel that I have been reborn and have got a father like you as my Guru. Although Guru Maharaja, we get to be with you only once a year in Kartika-yatra, but it is said that the Guru keeps his blessings on his disciple, similarly you should also keep your blessings on us. Dear Guru Maharaja,

In our Gaudiya Vaisnava Parampara, today is the very special day for all the disciples to glorify their Guru Maharaja for their unit contribution and divine Quality in the line of disciplic succession for the purification of disciples.

Guru Maharaja when we remember your Quality and contribution, our heart become purified and we gone opportunity to advance in devotion Path.

”Guru Mukh Padma Vakya Chitet Kariya Aikya” when we follow your divine massage, it’s benefit us, when we glorify you, we get benefit, when we remember you, we advance in Bhakti, your divine existence is for the benefit of the sincere Devotees, like sugar grain, sweet from all side.

But still we are so unfortunate not having any inclination nor interest to take this most precious activity to perfect our life.

so we beg at your lotus feet to shower your causeless mercy into these most fallen souls so that we can also develop the sweetness of Guru Bhakti in our Hearts.

Guru Maharaja, over the period we lost the divine taste for the devotion and we also heard many times that due to offences we lost the taste of Bhakti. on this very special moment we dare to request you to forgive all our Aparadh and be kind on us, so that again our devotional life comes to right track and reach the ultimate goal of Das Dasanu Das -(constitutional) position.

When I listened to Maharaja’s Pastimes, I got encouraged and at the same time astonished that how a foreigner is so passionate to find what real truth is. Maharaja’s journey is as same as Sripad Bhaktivinod Thakur Prabhupada because as in search of Absolute truth he read so many scriptures from different religions and concluded that Caitanya Charitamrit is different from others same way Maharaja concluded that following Srila Prabhupada's footprint will lead us to highest goal of life which is going back home back to godhead.

Maharaja is a great soul who is serving Srila Prabhupada's and Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha.

Hare Krishna dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I wish you a happy Krishna Conscious Birthday. I am not qualified to glorify you, still, kindly accept these broken words as a humble offering to you.

Gurudeva your lectures are profound, very deep, essential truths spoken so eloquently. Just as a Kalpavriksha gives many fruits, you have given us great gifts in the form of your disciples who carry the mission of Srila Prabhupada forward. Gurudeva you have given us Vrndavana Dham in the form of Govardhan Eco Village. You have also given us the spirit and consciousness of Sri Vrndavana Dham. You love and encourage the humble service attitude, cooperation, and unity among devotees. Thank you for the wonderful Yatras that provide a spiritual boost in everyone's lives.

May Sri Radha Gopinatha bless you many years of a long and healthy life to inspire everyone in Krishna Consciousness. Hare Krishna.

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Wish you a very, very Happy Birthday, dear Guru Maharaja!

I sincerely pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Madhav to bless you with good health dear Guru Maharaja.

Please allow me to write a few words and allow me to glorify you on your appearance day. I'm unqualified and do not deserve anything. But trying to make a little attempt with your permission.

Seeking your blessings and permission Guru Maharaja.

Guru Maharaja first thing I love the most is your heartfelt and innocent smile. You laugh wholeheartedly and fully, Guru Maharaja.

Guru Maharaja, you are so compassionate. While reading Journey Home book, many instances reveal your compassion. Your compassion extends to every single living entity equally. I love this quality of your Maharaja.

Your journey to attain perfection in Krishna Consciousness. and self-realization is beyond words and boundaries. You have been through a very tough patch, Guru Maharaja. One part is very saddening, and other side, I feel proud of you, dear Maharaja. The firm conviction and faith in the path of Srila Prabhupada are exemplary.

Devotee care you provide and insist on impressed me a lot, and it increased my love for you, Guru Maharaja. The attention and care you offer to every single disciple of yours are beyond words.

Yatras.. no words to explain. Best yatras.. the best Prasadam.. the best arrangements.. special care to Varista Vaisnavas.. good medical facilities.. what not I'm bewildered to explain this. Such a big mega kitchen. How is it possible to prepare Prasadam for more than 15k devotees with multiple courses every single day with variety in breakfast and Lunch? Thank you Guru Maharaja for taking care of long us us so nicely like your children.

The list goes on... there is no limit to glorifying your qualities, dear Guru Maharaja. I just wanted to say Dandavat Pranama and beg for your mercy and mercy on your appearance day so that I always stay in your association and be grateful to you and all Vaisnavas

And more importantly, follow your instructions seriously by taking them to heart. Please kindly bless this insignificant soul??

I pray at the Lotus feet of Sri Radha Madanmohan to bestow good health to Guru Maharaja.

I am very fortunate that today on Guru Maharaja's birthday I am getting a chance to sing his praises. This year I participated in the Kartika Mayapur Yatra with Maharaja, it was a very wonderful experience. I feel that I have never spent as much time with Maharaja in this journey as I have spent before. It was feeling as if Maharaja is with us every moment.

On the day of Prabhupada Tiraobhav, Maharaja himself came and blessed the devotees who were preparing the bhog, I was also present there, I felt that I don't need anything else in life except this You are like my father Guru Maharaja Have mercy on me

I pray at the feet of Shri Narsingh Dev that Guru Maharaja ji always remains healthy and may he continue to shower his blessings on us fallen souls. Thank you very much Guru Maharaja Bless me Guru Maharaja, just like you are contributing to this movement of Prabhupada, I should also remain a devotee in this movement and keep serving the Vaisnavas throughout my life. Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
I bow down to your feet a million times.

When Guru Maharaja gave me Brahmin initiation on 23rd March this year, I felt as if I have got a new life. Guru Maharaja touched me for the first time in my life during Brahmin initiation, I felt a lot of hope. Guru Maharaja has showered so much grace on me and my family in the last 17 years. Even if I spend my whole life at your feet, I cannot repay that grace.

Guru Maharaja, I will try to devote my whole life to Prabhupada's mission. Guru Maharaja, you are so kind, you are giving grace to a person like me, who is slow-witted and has low thinking.

This year, I will try to adopt the message that you have given through your speech in Kartika-yatra Mayapur in my life.

Kindly accept my heartfelt, humble prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet, Guru Maharaja. This is my first Vyasa-puja offering, and I seek your forgiveness for any mistakes I may make in expressing my unworthy self.

I was blessed to attend my first Kartik Yatra with you in Mayapur 2024. After years of listening to your divine vani through lectures, videos, and interviews, experiencing your presence in vapu form was an indescribable blessing for my body, mind, and soul.

Since 2017, when I first stumbled upon your lectures after listening to H.G. Gaur Gopal Das Prabhu, your words and presence have been my guiding light. Your compassion and humility have always inspired me; you are the very embodiment of these divine qualities. During my engineering days, whenever I felt lost or broken, your soothing smile and uplifting words were my anchor, helping me navigate life's challenges with renewed

In 2020, during the lockdown, I felt a deeper yearning to grow spiritually. By your mercy, I received chanting beads and began my journey of chanting. Through your lectures, especially those over an hour long, I started understanding the essence of ISKCON and the path of bhakti. I am grateful to H.G. Amogh Lila Prabhu for encouraging me to deepen my connection with my spiritual master. Your vani became my lifeline during those challenging times, transforming my problems into opportunities for spiritual growth.

Guru Maharaja, your smile is a soothing balm for my soul, your lectures my guiding compass, and your fatherly presence my constant refuge.

The day I saw you in Mayapur was life-changing. There was no screen separating us—just a loving father and his unworthy daughter. Seeing you, hearing your divine lectures, and receiving your glance filled my heart with indescribable joy and purpose. Your lotus feet, which I had longed to behold, became the focus of my prayers and meditation.

The most special moment was when you paused to look at me deeply, just as Srila Prabhupada once glanced at you in a crowded Maidan in Mumbai. Those few seconds felt like an eternity, as if you were directly connecting with my soul. Your merciful glance conveyed assurance, love, and the strength to continue on this path despite my flaws.

Your presence during the Yatra, your smiles, and even your silence spoke volumes, nourishing my soul and solidifying my faith in this spiritual journey.

Guru Maharaja, I seek your forgiveness for my shortcomings—my ego, my inability to fully embody the qualities you emphasize, and my tendency to take devotees' association for granted. I humbly pray for your blessings to cultivate humility, service attitude, and a deeper connection with devotees.

You have taught me that the ultimate success in life is to serve the servants of the servants of Sri Sri Radha-Krishna. Please bless me to become a speck of dust at your lotus feet and to serve you birth after birth.

On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I offer my heartfelt gratitude to Sri Krishna for bestowing you upon us. May your health, smile, and unparalleled compassion continue to inspire countless souls like mine.

I eagerly await the next Yatra to bask in your divine association once again.

My Dear Guru Maharaja,
Hare Krishna! Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On this auspicious day, with great awe, I contemplate your journey back to the eternal home. I reflect on your unwavering pursuit of the Love of God, marked by unshakeable faith and complete detachment. Despite enduring countless challenges, unimaginable discomforts, uncertainties, and life-threatening situations, you remained steadfast in your determination until Lord Krishna unveiled His divine plan for you through Srila Prabhupada. Throughout, you remained true to your mission, never allowing any material obstacles to deter your resolve.

Maharaja, speaking personally, 22 years ago, I was blessed to receive you as my Guru and life guide. You gave me complete clarity about my identity and spiritual goals early on. Now, at 66 and a half years old, I find myself comfortably retired, in reasonably good health, living with my devotee wife, and blessed with sufficient savings for the rest of my life. Both our children are married and living independently, further adding to these favorable circumstances.

Yet, despite these blessings, I am filled with regret for lost time and missed opportunities. My Sadhana lacks the sincerity and seriousness it deserves, leaving my mind and senses still uncontrolled. My chanting is riddled with distractions, and much of my day is spent in non-serious activities. The inertia of a life previously lived without a firm spiritual goal continues to haunt me.

As a result, my service to society is limited to conducting a few online classes in English and Tamil on Lilamrita and the Bhagavad Gita. I realize that I should be doing far more to connect lost souls with their divine essence.

Maharaja, on this special day, I take a solemn vow to transform myself. I resolve to live the rest of my life with gratitude towards Guru and Krishna, striving to perform my Sadhana with utmost sincerity and perfection. I also commit to sharing these blessings with others, dedicating myself to serving humanity with a pure heart.

I sincerely pray to Lord Krishna to bless you with a long and healthy life, so your merciful blessings can continue to guide this world filled with suffering souls who have lost their direction.

Maharaja, please bless us so that we may remain loyal to you, the parampara, and this sacred movement. May we serve humanity to the best of our abilities, unshackled by excessive personal desires.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I am grateful to have received your shelter, teachings, and loving glance, without which I have a misplaced identity.

You have always said that absorption is a one-word definition of Krishna Consciousness.. At times it seems easy to stay absorbed in the remembrance of Sri Krishna, Sri Gaura, in Guru parampara, especially when I have heard katha with one-pointed attention. Other times when it is difficult to stay absorbed, I feel vulnerable to everything around me. At such times, only if I take shelter in your quotes or The Journey Home or the long classes you have spoken on Gaura Lila and Krishna Lila, I feel protected and strong from within. I am very grateful to you for granting this mercifully.

I pray at your lotus feet that I never ever forget to stay connected with your vani. Please grant me this benediction for life. Dear Guru Maharaja, I desperately need one more benediction from you. Let me have a rock-solid, unshakable attachment and taste to chant the holy name and study the scriptures so that I won't maintain any material attachments.

Thank you for providing everything that is needed to stay absorbed in Krishna Consciousness.: a sweet temple, mesmerizing darsans, wonderful teachers and senior devotees, Katha and kirtana, absorbing yatras, mini Vrndavana GEV, and many seva opportunities. Seeking your blessings to utilize all these facilities so that I can please yourself,

"The spiritual master is very dear, because he is expert in assisting the gopis, who at different times make different tasteful arrangements for the perfection of Radha and Krishna's conjugal loving affairs within the groves of Vrndavana. I offer my most humble obeisances unto the lotus feet of such a spiritual master.

Maharaja, the GEV project is evidence of the above verse..

Though in your divine heart Vrndavana was already manifest and through your deep meditations you are already assisting the Gopis of Vrndavana to serve the Divine Couple, you couldn't just contain that love and it has overflown and manifested itself into Govardhan Eco Village... Through this manifestation thousands are now able to get access and serve in the groves of Vrndavana and thereby relish the sweet spiritual bliss which is extremely rare and not attained even after countless lifetimes of tapasya.

Dear Gurudeva, this material world is our temporary station and we are caught up in making permanent plans to settle here in search of illusory happiness. But through your guidance and instructions, through your innumerable wonderful classes, time and again you remind us of our real identity and ultimate destination. This helps us to detach ourselves effortlessly from our attachments to this mundane world and totally depend on the transcendental will of the Lord.

Lastly Maharaja I thank you for the bottom of my heart for granting us Brahmin initiation. With so many anarthas and disqualification I never deserved such priceless gift.

Please please bless me Maharaja that I always remember your lotus feet and never become lethargic in executing my duties and services in temple and at home.

If I live to be 100 years old it will not be enough time to express my full gratitude to you for your Mercy. My Initiation as your Disciple at the Bhakti Center on October 17, 2022 changed my life on this mortal plane so drastically, I do not know where to begin to thank you for this most divine and generous blessing. Every time I touch my Japa Beads I feel the energy you infused into them touching the deepest places in my heart and soul. I am so grateful for your shelter which has given me the ability to feel the love of Sri Krishna and Srila Prabupada in a genuine and connected way. Everything in my life since coming to your shelter has changed for the better. My spiritual practices and my faith have deepened in ways I could never have imagined. Even in times of great fear and sadness, thoughts of your Mercy sustain me and give me hope. I long to see your

I am grateful that you have accepted me as your disciple. You always remind us in your lectures about humility and tolerance. You also set an example by practicing the principles you speak of. Please bless me to develop even a drop of your divine qualities.

You are always friendly to your Godbrothers and Godsisters, and you are ready to help them as much as possible. For example, when HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja was admitted to Bhakti Vedanta Hospital, you personally took care of Maharaja, arranging for special doctors at the hospital. Kindly bless me to always have the association of devotees.

Your lectures at Wada, Chowpatty, and during Yatras are always inspiring. You speak about the pastimes of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu - Kolavecha Sridhar, Krishna's Vrndavana pastimes, the killing of asuras, etc. Your efforts to accommodate such a huge number of 10,000 devotees in the recent Mayapur Yatra were very inspiring.

Although your health is not the best, you continue to extend your mercy to all. You are so sincere in chanting the Holy Names. Please bless me to receive at least a drop of your qualities.

Firstly I just want to Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your wonderful lectures. It is the one of the important aspect for our spiritual advancement to hear your wonderful Katha's.

Though we can not personally serve you but we are trying our best to serve you by hearing your lectures and trying our best to follow all instructions given by you.

Maharaja In this Kartika-yatra You said at the end that You and whoever devotees are serving in yatra are serving because they want to make all devotees Happy.

So Maharaja please bless us so we too follow in your footsteps and serve devotees in such a way to make all Happy.

Today also Maharaja I remember, first time I saw you in HH Mahavishnu Swami Maharaja Samadhi in Nashik. Your one Glance and your Smile changed my whole life.

This time during yatra because of health issue I was not going for dham darshan but was doing seva in kitchen and serving varistha Vaisnavas, and able to meet many devotees in kitchen team.

It's all just because of you Maharaja that so many devotees are coming to hear nectarean lectures from you and from other Prabhupada disciples. And all devotees in kitchen team where having the same serving attitude, we met sabji purchasing team who goes at night and comes in morning by 11 am and gets 12-15 thousand kg of sabji for one day, so many devotees are coming for cutting and chopping, so many are coming for making chapatis, for kitchen backup, for transferring Prasada, serving Prasada, registration, pure drinking water, warm water medical help and many other counters to provide for devotees comforts, I am amazed by all this

Thank you Maharaja for everything, please keep us at your shelter always.

On this auspicious day I pray for your good health and beg to Krishna that please give a pinch of that service attitude to us

First of all, I am very grateful to all the devotes for arranging such a great Vyasa-puja offering ceremony and giving me a chance for offering through email. Thank you very much to give me this opportunity for my offering.

On this auspicious day of Vyasa-puja, "Please accept my respectful, humble obeisances at your lotus feet. I am extremely insignificant. I do not have a trace of any Vaisnava quality. Your glories are beyond my abilities to comprehend still I am trying my modest attempt to describe a drop from the ocean of your unlimited transcendental qualities.

Maharaja I am so much grateful to you to coming in my life. Gurudeva is one of today's most beloved and respected spiritual teachers. He is not only a guide, but a community builder, activist, and New York Times Bestselling author. Unless one comes in touch with a bona fide spiritual master like you there is no chance of his deliverance. In spite of the perfect example that you have set and the vast treasure chest of instructions you have left, we experience difficulty in fulfilling the expectations you have for us.

Guru Maharaja is perfect in every dealing; when he deals with anyone, he wins the heart of everyone. His behavior is inspiration for everyone. We felt our weakness.

Thank you for giving me such wonderful devotees association without which practicing Krishna Consciousness. outside the association of devotees is impossible.

All the glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Wishing you a happiest Krishna conscious 74th Vyasa-puja Guru Maharaja.

Praying to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Nitai Gaurachandra for your overall well being.

The deities of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha here in Nagpur are extremely beautiful Guru Maharaja, Please kindly- with your permission I would like to beg you to please kindly bless us with your visit in Nagpur dear Gurudeva.

”Simple words turns to magic the divine words will be yours, with our eyes blessed by you, I’m trying to see what you see”

When HG Gaura Vani prabhuji has written this song for you, I could actually relate with the every single word that he has written. However, unable to actually implement.

Guru Maharaja on the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I would like to request u to please kindly bestow your mercy upon me so that I could purify my heart, mind and senses and develop the real qualities of Vaisnavas and the devotees of the Lord.

You are the endless ocean of mercy, I totally depend upon Sri Krishna, Srila Prabhupada and you. You are the source of light whivb makes life easier to live and engage in Krishna Consciousness..

Thank you very much

Hare Krishna GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

As a conditioned soul, I can never fully understand your glories or fathom the immense sacrifices you have made for an unworthy, wretched, and sinful soul like me. You are entirely spiritual and full of infinite glories, yet out of your boundless compassion, you have bestowed upon me the blessings of Srila Prabhupada and Krishna.

Though I was running away from Krishna and Srila Prabhupada, you brought me back in such a gentle, beautiful, and inspiring way that even a fool like me has begun to glimpse the unlimited mercy of you, Srila Prabhupada, and Krishna.

Being new to Krishna Consciousness. and still learning while under the shelter of your lotus feet, I lack deep realizations and spiritual understanding. Yet, you are so merciful that you have given me personal guidance through your nature, words, and systematic teachings.

It is said that when Guru and Krishna appear in dreams, it is not just a dream but a divine reality, as they come by their own will.

This year, during Kartika-yatra in Sridham Mayapur, you mercifully granted me your darshan and even personal service in a dream, knowing my deep longing for your attention. Such moments inspire me to stay on this path, despite my many shortcomings.

You have so kindly established systems like voice training and the counselor network to help sustain and grow our Krishna Consciousness.. Although I regret not being able to attend the voice training, I deeply appreciate the vision and care behind these initiatives.

I humbly aspire for your shelter as your disciple. Please accept me as your servant and engage me in the service of your servants. I long for the day when I can sincerely follow your vani and humbly serve your disciples and Srila Prabhupada's mission with dedication and humility.

Please grant me the strength to chant attentively and to serve your servants menially and with devotion, so that I may one day become an instrument in spreading Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Thank you, Maharaja, for everything you have done and continue to do for me. Your mercy is my lifeline in this spiritual journey.

Hare Krishna Maharaja Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet. Thank you so much Maharaja to be so kind towards us and accepting as your disciple in near future (aspiring initiation). Your simplicity and pure heart serving Srila Prabhupada and his mission with utmost sincerity and dedication since long years. This will surely result a positive outcome for the future prediction of Lord Chaitnya, "pruthivite achhi jete nagar aadi gram, sarvatra prachar mora hoiba ai naam". Your prayers and offerings to Lord for this whole world will save many pure soul that have trapped by the clutches of maya. Your teachings and words will deliver this mankind and help to go back to godhead. Your association and Blissful sankirtana will keep us connect with Krishna. Even if we do not deserve to be a devotee of Krishna, you have made us qualified and giving oppertunity to be part of this Home that Srila Prabhupada have made, where the whole World can stay Happily by chanting His holy name, "Hare Krishna Hare Krishna Krishna Krishna Hare Hare, Hare Rama Hare Rama Rama Rama Hare Hare". Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you!!

I wish you a glorious 74th Vyasa-puja. Guru Maharaja, I am extremely short of words and have no ability to glorify you - for you're a pure devotee of the Lord and I am caught up in this conditioned state of life. However, by the mercy of my to-be-husband and all the Vaisnavas, I am trying to make this humble attempt to write an offering to you.

Guru Maharaja, you're an epitome of compassion and mercy. A true Guru is a representative of Lord Nityananda. Your life in search of God in the initial years has inspired me to the core, and has made me feel that I can surrender my life at your lotus feet. Only and only by Guru's mercy can we approach Krishna, and Krishna is pleased when Guru is pleased. I wish to please you through Vani Seva.

Gurudeva, you have travelled to so many places to preach. You have built hospitals, schools and served many people with compassion. You have shown by your example that mercy and compassion can transform hearts in this world. Your ever kind and humble nature has made me drawn toward you. Your mood is filled with compassion and love for all living entities.

Your dedication toward Srila Prabhupada is heart-touching, and you have dedicated your entire life for serving the mission of Srila Prabhupada. Your love, care and concern for your God brothers, and your humble and polite dealings, transform many hearts and give us an example of a pure devotee of the Lord.

In spiritual life, without the mercy of Guru, we cannot advance on the devotional path. There is no qualification to achieve Krishna in a Kali-yuga Jeeva like me, but to be dependent on mercy. One cannot understand the purpose and instructions of scriptures, or develop any taste in the holy name, unless one tries to serve Guru and Krishna ardently.

Srila Gurudeva, I am a fallen soul trying to serve Krishna and Srila Prabhupada, trying to fix my mind on the lotus feet of Guru and Krishna, and trying to become a recipient of mercy. Since I am caught up in this conditioned state of life, I cannot ever appreciate the importance of the Holy Name and this path of Krishna Consciousness. given by Jagat-Guru, Srila Prabhupada. I am incapable of doing my best and appreciating this opportunity I got in this very lifetime to attain Krishna by your mercy. Please bestow your mercy upon me, so that I can appreciate this beautiful process of Krishna Consciousness., and also develop some service attitude and attachment toward you, Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. I humbly beg for your causeless mercy so that I can attain love of Godhead in this lifetime, and continue to serve devotees with humility and enthusiasm in my heart forever.

Gurudeva, I wish to express gratitude for your blessings that I got engaged with a sincere and dedicated disciple of yours. I am eternally thankful, for you gave me a disciple of yours to serve as his companion. Please bless me so that I can serve with him nicely in Grihastha Ashram. Gurudeva, I am also grateful to you that by your mercy, I got to join Kartika-yatra this time. I got an opportunity to associate with you through live lectures. I became so fortunate by your grace.

I earnestly pray...

May Lord Krishna, Lord Narsimha and Srila Prabhupada always keep your physical health well so that you can continue to transform thousands of lives.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All Glories to Your selfless and Tireless servicess in the mission of Srila Prabhupada and Gauranga Mahaprabhu.

Gurudeva,

Wishing you a very happy, healthy and Prabhupada and Krishna conscious Appearence Day.

Gurudeva your Glories are unlimited, your deep and nectarean lectures are most important for my sadhna and to adjust in all the circumstances and overcome complacency.

From few months I am daily reading your pastimes from books " It's so happened" and "Guru Samaranam", they really tell your great vision, discipline for yourself, compassion, sacrifices, respect, love, empathy for all the loving entities whether it's speechless cow or poen or an IITian, or a great devotee..your deep love for them is same..

Your love and respect for your God brothers and sisters is very very inspiring. Thank you so much for setting perfect example for many to follow. And deep love for your God brothers disciples is even more heart touching.

Gurudeva I am blessed to be under the shelter HG Vishvarup Prabhuji and HG

Brajeshwari Mataji and my local counsellor HG Krishna Vallabha Mataji (disciple of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja), they are always there for uplifting me in Krishna Consciousness. in all circumstances.

Gurudeva please bless my father that he may give up eating non vegetarian food and drinking alcohol. He is chanting 3 rounds from 1-2 years, but not getting association. Please bless him to get elevated in Krishna Consciousness.. Please bless my son Keshav and Prabhuji too so that may chant their rounds with attentive efforts for their Krishna Consciousness..

Gurudeva, in June I sent you a letter through HG Navala Kishori Mataji, your disciple in Baltimore, that I am desperately waiting initiation from you, though my circumstances from my family is not favourable for it.

Gurudeva I will be like a fatherless child without your initiation shelter, will wait for it till my last breath, Please please bless me initiation, I very much understand that I am not all qualified for it, but with a mood of and considering myself as Jagai and Madhai expecting Causeless mercy from Gurutatva Lord Nityananda from you Gurudeva, Please bestow initiation, want to sit under lotus feet,take holy beads from lotus hands. Please bless me.

In one of your pastimes, got to know that you understand hearts of each one of thousands of devotees. Please bless me too with your shelter.

Wishing and Praying for your healthy and many many many more Krishna Conscious years in Prabhupada's service and mission.

Thank you so much Gurudeva for everything.

Respected Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Today on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I offer my sincere obeisance in utmost gratitude, Joy and happiness for being initiated by your holiness.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

By the boundless mercy of Srila Prabhupada and the causeless compassion of Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, I was rescued from a life of degradation and ignorance. I was deeply entangled in material pleasures, breaking all four regulative principles and consuming alcohol. But by divine intervention, I came in touch with the devotees, and through them, I was blessed to receive your merciful guidance.

Guru Maharaja, your holiness has given me hope and purpose in life. Today, I stand as a living testament to the truth that Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu is indeed Patit Pavan—the deliverer of the most fallen. Through your shelter and teachings, I have experienced a transformation that I never thought was possible.

Guru Maharaja, my only hope and prayer is to remain always in the association of devotees and to be blessed with the strength to follow in your footsteps. Please keep showering your mercy upon me so that I may serve you and Srila Prabhupada with a sincere heart and remain steadfast on the path of bhakti.

Thank you very much

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

It is truly a rare fortune in this material world that a conditioned soul receives a bona fide spiritual master, who acts as the agent to guide the blind soul towards the light of the Lord. I am extremely grateful for your kind mercy, which relieves us from the ever-tormenting fire of material existence. Your inspiring example for us is like a father holding his child's hand, tirelessly teaching him how to walk, even though the child keeps falling again and again.

Recently, I was listening to your lecture on Govardhan Lila. You reminded us of the two faces of our Krishna Consciousness. journey – Gratitude and Enthusiasm. Gratitude for whatever we have received so far from the Lord, despite our shortcomings and faults. Enthusiasm so that we may endeavor more and more in serving the Lord. These two factors will help us stay positive on one hand, and also strive for further progress, avoiding complacency. These are indeed the real remedies that help us even during the hardest times. Thank you very much, Guru Maharaja, for guiding us to develop a favorable attitude in every situation, whether good or bad. Thank you for tirelessly showing us the way beyond this frustrating world of nescience.

On this most blessed day, I humbly pray at your lotus feet that I may be able to serve you favorably in the divine mission of Srila Prabhupada. I beg for your forgiveness for my frailties due to embracing material ignorance, despite receiving so many opportunities in the home of Srila Prabhupada. I beg for your causeless mercy, so that I may become more sincere and honest in serving your instructions and be a humble servant in your hands.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,

I would like to wish you a happy 74th Vyasa-puja, dear Gurudeva. On this special day, I express my deep gratitude for being your disciple, even as a non-initiated follower. Though I often feel unworthy of writing this offering, your causeless mercy helps me find the words. Your strong devotion to Srila Prabhupada's teachings, along with your humility and tolerance, have greatly shaped my spiritual journey. You inspire me to embody these qualities every day. I pray for your good health and continued service to Srila Prabhupada, and for your guidance and blessings so that I can serve you and Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu with all my heart.

Gurudeva, your spiritual journey, as shared in The Journey Home, has inspired me profoundly to seek shelter at your lotus feet. Your journey was filled with challenges, yet by the causeless mercy of Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, you found your way to Srila Prabhupada in Vrndavana. Although I haven't had the chance to seek association in person, your lectures, your humility, and your tolerance—qualities taught by Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu in His Siksastakam—have drawn me to you as my aspiring spiritual master.

Through your teachings, I have gained a clear vision of my purpose: to serve the mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu. By your causeless mercy, I am able to chant and engage in service, and your life's example motivates me to stay humble and tolerant through all circumstances. I am especially moved by a pastime shared by HG Amogh Lila Prabhuji, where he mentioned that you find true joy not in receiving Vyasa-puja offerings but in seeing disciples live by your instructions as their life and soul. Your quality of respecting every soul, no matter how insignificant, reminds me to see Krishna as the Paramatma within everyone.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for guiding me on this path of devotion and self-realization. I am truly inspired by your commitment to serving Srila Prabhupada's mission wholeheartedly. I eagerly await the day you accept me as your eternal servant in the form of a disciple. I promise to always follow your instructions until the last breath of my life and to keep my senses constantly engaged in the devotional service of your lotus feet and those of Sri Sri Nitai Saci-suta. Please accept this small offering as a token of my gratitude.

Dear Gurudeva, Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. I would like to firstly express my profound gratitude, though completely undeserving you gave us the fortune and access to serve the Deities by giving Brahmin Diksha to us. Though I fall very short being a mother of two children to go regularly for this seva here in Varanasi but I feel very grateful for this opportunity. Also very grateful to the devotees here in Varanasi and HG AchyutMohan pr too. When we shifted to Varanasi it was almost corono time and mostly all lectures were online...lately this year I was observing that I was really really missing Mumbai and getting to hear in association of devotees from you..which I truly yearned for and I still do miss it very much..but at the same time here in the community of devotees at Varanasi we received so many opportunities to serve - cooking for HH Bhakti Rasamrita Maharaja, HH Bhakti Vigyan goswami Maharaja came home and HG Nand Dulal pr, HG Rasamrit pr this year and many last year too..and we felt we received your grace in cooperatively serving..!! Grateful for the Sangha here and we dearly look forward to receive you her ein Varanasi very soon. I pray to you please bless me that I do not offend Vaisnavas and in all the services I receive I render them with gratitude and for your pleasure and pleasure of Srila Prabhupada and perform them as a genuine offering to you and Srila Prabhupada. Respected and Beloved Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine feet.

Though I am utterly unqualified, insignificant, and far from deserving of your grace, I offer my heart's deepest reverence and gratitude to you for so kindly accepting me as your disciple. I am overwhelmed by your boundless humility, compassion, and unwavering dedication to the service of Srila Prabhupada.

You are truly the embodiment of humility, and through your example, you illuminate the path of devotion and service. Your life is a living testimony of the true essence of a disciple — always striving to please your Gurudeva, Srila Prabhupada, and always seeking to serve the Vaisnavas with the utmost sincerity and love. Your selfless service to your God brother and sisters, your prayerful mood for the well-being of all souls, and your constant efforts to please the Krishna are a profound inspiration to me and to everyone who comes into contact with you.

I am aware of my many shortcomings and failings in spiritual practice, and the fact that I have not yet been able to serve you in the way I deeply wish. Yet, even in my condition of unworthiness, you have showered me with your mercy, accepting me into your fold and allowing me to be in your association. For this, I am eternally grateful.

I pray to you with all my heart that you may guide me with your divine wisdom and grace, enabling me to overcome my faults and weaknesses. Please bless me with the strength and determination to serve you and the mission of Srila Prabhupada with the same dedication and sincerity with which you serve. I long for the opportunity to assist you, even in the smallest way, in your mission of spreading Krishna Consciousness., and I pray that I may become an instrument in your hands, purifying my heart and mind along the way.

May I always remain fixed at your lotus feet, receiving the eternal nourishment of your association, prayers, and instructions. Please help me to always remember my vows as your disciple and live my life in accordance with the teachings of Srila Prabhupada and the wisdom of the Bhagvad Gita, Srimad-Bhagavatam and Chaitnya Charitmrata.

Please, by your mercy, allow me to serve you, even if only in the most humble and insignificant way, and may I one day, by your grace, become the servant of servant of servant of Krishna.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

I wish you a very happy 74th birthday, and I offer a million tons of rose flowers at your lotus feet.

Today, I am sharing some of my thoughts for this most auspicious occasion in my life.

I saw you last during Ujjain Yatra when you were present for almost 3 full days, and it was an amazing experience to closely associate with you during practice, chanting, lectures, etc, like never before. My main goal of coming there was accomplished after having your darshan.

This year it was very troublesome for our small community due to lot of financial crisis followed by actions taken against the management committee. It was very disheartening for most of us. My only solace has been the golden words of His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada which I heard in your lecture often One's greatness has to be estimated by one's ability to tolerate provoking situations.

In one of your morning classes, you also mentioned that this is the age of conflicts and mismanagement, and one should be more humble than a blade of grass and more tolerant than a tree to chant Krishna's Holy names constantly.

I have been regularly reading Srimad-Bhagavatam and started telling people about the glories of distributing the mercy that I received through the causeless mercy of Guru-Parampara.

On this blessed occasion, I seek your forgiveness for committing various offenses in chanting the holy names, serving the Deities, and dealing with devotees. I'll work on and improve myself in Sadhana, svadhyaya, and seva to become a better Vaisnavaa. I also beg at your lotus feet to please give me a drop of Krishna Prema, which will inundate me in spiritual ecstasy, and then will I be able to overcome the dualities and threefold miseries of this material world.

Thank you very much.

Your humble servant,

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisance at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada and Shri Gauranga.

Wishing you a very Happy Krishna Conscious 74th Vyasa-puja Maharaja. May Lord Nrisimhadeva bless you with good health always and long life.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaja for your association at Kartika-yatra 2024. Memories of your purifying darshan will help me make right choices at every step. Contemplating on the amount of effort that devotees have put to give us the experience of Kartika-yatra makes me realize the meaning of service and inspires to do at least a drop of it for your and Srila Prabhupada's pleasure.

I am an embodiment of lies and hypocrisy, and I beg for your mercy to be able to live without pretending. I want to become like you instruct through your Vani. On your previous Vyasa-puja, I promised to improve but I failed Maharaja. A year went by and I couldn't progress in Bhakti because of my lack of sincerity. I never thought about bhakti seriously till now. But by your causeless mercy, you have arranged association of devotees and I see a hope to sincerely perform devotional service taking shelter of your lotus feet.

On this most auspicious day of your appearance, I pray for your blessings and seek forgiveness for my grossest offenses. Kindly bestow your mercy on all whom I have hurt and offended. You know all of my weaknesses. I lack faith and conviction. Kindly make me fully surrender my heart, mind, intelligence and soul to you my dear Gurudeva. I have intense desire to have deep personal relationship with you. I want to have your constant remembrance. Kindly always guide me Maharaja. I beg for your mercy to be always conscious of you and Srila Prabhupada. I can never thank you enough for the very beautiful congregation of devotees that you have nurtured tirelessly, through whom we get everything effortlessly. I pray for your mercy in order to strive hard and spread this mission of Srila Prabhupada at new places and make you feel happy.

I am the most fallen devious and wretched demon, but I beg and request you to kindly accept me as your disciple. Your mercy is my only hope. Please help and bless me Gurudeva to become a simple devotee having a grateful heart to attract the mercy of Shri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and pure devotees like yourself and Srila Prabhupada. Heartfelt Thank You Maharaja for everything. I am eternally grateful to you. May you always remain in good health.

Dear most Gurudeva,
Please accept our most humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Ji.

Gurudeva, we find ourselves most fallen and unqualified in the realms of the spiritual world. Amidst all sorts of bewilderment, the presence of your divine grace on this planet is the only source of hope for us. It is because of your causeless mercy and compassion for fallen souls that you have accepted us despite our shortcomings.

My offering to you on this auspicious occasion is to abide by your instructions, which are invaluable to me and to all of mankind.

Maharaja Ji, your service to your spiritual master, His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada, is beyond the comprehension of an ordinary person like me. Your recent gifts to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada, “Barsana Eye Hospital” and “Govardhan Eco Village,” are truly wonderful projects. They will give practicing devotees and all conditioned souls the opportunity to perfect their lives by engaging in the direct service of the Brijwasis, who are very dear to Srimati Radharani, as well as other services to devotees in GEV.

All glories to you, Maharaja Ji, for all that you are doing in the service mission of Srila Prabhupada, your spiritual master.

Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All Glories unto your divine Vani.

Maharaja thank you so very much for choosing me to hear you. Your words get me closer to Krishna, builds in confidence, gives last hope and shakes my false ego.

You are an ocean of mercy and very compassionate. Despite my deep rooted shortcomings and weakness of the heart you always bestow your mercy in many different ways.

By your causeless mercy you got us to the Dham Yatra - Sri Jagannath Puri 2023, Sri Mayapur Dham 2024 which is inconceivable because I literally don’t deserve that at allll. As you know I’m most fallen and sinful Maharaja. Only you can uplift me and my consciousness .

Only and only by your mercy and blessings we were able to enter Dham. Thankyou for your causeless mercy and infinite Love Maharaja. By hearing you Maharaja my aspirations have changed and is transforming.

By your compassion most of the devotees are able to perfect their human form of lives, getting ready to go back home back to Godhead.

I feel so happy and inspired to see your disciples specially young disciples who are so dedicated and compassionate in your holy footsteps dedicating their mind, body, words in the glorious mission of Srila Prabhupada.

By your mercy they are all so responsible in execution of devotional services to Hari Guru Vaisnavas. I don’t know to glorify others as I’m selfish Maharaja. But still please accept my broken words.

I’m blind person cannot understand you just through my material eyes and senses.

I cannot glorify even 1/10000000 of your qualities because like Supreme Lord Krishna your qualities are unlimited which is limited now to my conditioned vision. Please bless me Maharaja that I simply become more sincere, serious, develop proper humble service attitude, give up duplicity and mental speculations, offenses, desire only what pleases Hari Guru Vaisnavas, and mainly to develop unflinching faith and reverence unto sadhu, Guru, shastra and Lord Krishna.

O energy of Lord Balaram, kripa Murti of Lord Nitai please forgive me, empower me, transform me, bestow spiritual strength to strictly and humbly take up anything and everything favourable for pure devotional service and give up at once anything and everything that is unfavourable for devotional service.

Most dear and beloved Radhanath Maharaja, dear Gurudeva!
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to you on this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasapuja Celebration.

Today hundreds and thousands of devotees from all over the world and indeed from all over the universe are rejoicing because of your divine Apperance Day. All these devotees pray with intense gratitude to Srila Prabhupada and to Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu and the disciplic succession for so kindly having arranged that you took birth and appeared in front of us to so expertly and gently guiding us back home back to Godhead. Your heart is soft like a lotus flower, yet being armored with all the conclusive truths of the sastras, you expertly cut through our entanglements in the unlimited illusions of the material world. By your purity and your boundless compassion for the conditiined souls you engage each living entity you encounter in devotional service to Sri Sri Radha and Krishna and thus you gradually situate each surrendered soul at the soft lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, your most glorious spiritual master and your life and soul.

Dearest Radhanath Maharaja, when I witnessed your deep love and immense affection for His Holiness Bhakti Tirtha Swami while I visited you in New Vrndavana in 2000/2001, I developed a strong desire to serve Bhakti Tirtha Swami as a means to please you. One day I was so fortunate to hear His Holiness Bhakti Tirtha Swami and yourself glorifing Mother Hladini's extraordinary humility and exemplary Vaisnava qualities during her sweet pastimes in the world, At that time I received a small glimse of the bond and the selfless love you share with Bhakti Tirtha Swami and with Mother Hladini. My sari was wet with tears, witnessing the incredible sweet and transcendental relationships you share with one another and I wanted the moment to last forever.

The last couple of years I have been preaching in Africa together with my husband, Kesava Prabhu. Last year we arrived in Ghana to serve the devotee community here through bookdistribution, public programs and devotee care and we are supporting our local school, The Hare Krishna Academy, in whatever ways we can.

His Holiness Bhakti Tirtha Swami's Puspa Samadhi is situated in our temple here in Media, a village outside of Accra, the capital of Ghana. The devotee community His Holiness Bhakti Tirtha Swami created through his emphasizing the importance of devotee care, is truely amazing, and we both feel deeply honered and inspired to be serving amongst such a sincere and devoteed congregation who keeps the legacy of Bhakti Tirtha Swami fully alive.

Dear Guru Maharaja, alone I have no strenght. Please place me as one of the atoms at your lotus feet and make me your humble instument to serve the sankirtana mission of Lord Caitanya in this remote part of the world. I have no other desire than to please you eternally.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious occasion of your appearance I thank you for giving me shelter at your lotus feet to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission. I am eternally grateful and indebted to you for giving me shelter by giving me the holy name and service to Lord Krishna and His wonderful devotees. Many times when I face problems and difficulties in my life then your teachings and instructions have saved me and kept me going. The only thought that you are always with me gives me strength and endurance to continue against all odds. The way that you have served and are serving Srila Prabhupada is a wonderful example for us to follow that gives us strength and hope. I have not been so fortunate to serve you personally a lot but you are always in my heart and I hope and pray that someday I will be able to serve you in a way that pleases you. You taught me to be tolerant from your example and I am learning so many things from you over the years. Now that I am getting older I realise many things and try to follow in your footsteps to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission in whatever way possible because I know that it will make you happy. I humbly pray that you will always keep me close to you and never leave me unsheltered because without your shelter life has no purpose.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

With each passing day, month, and year in Krishna Consciousness., I am gradually understanding that it is really very difficult to surrender to Krishna. Because of strong material attachment and being engulfed by false ego, it becomes very difficult even to accept Krishna's will; to serve and please him is further difficult. But this morning Srila Prabhupada was speaking in one lecture that when one receives the shelter and instructions of a bona fide saintly person, the business of being kicked by lust and anger is stopped by the instructions of the devotee. Srila Prabhupada is mercifully offering you to instruct and inspire me in Krishna Consciousness...

Your lectures and instructions act as the medicine that revive us from the disease of misidentifying ourselves as enjoyers to acknowledging and understanding that we are meant to serve Krishna. Your lectures are a manifestation of your love and deep concern, personally for me and for each devotee. Your lectures offer hope in the most hopeless circumstances coming in life through the stories of CC, SB, and the lives of great Acaryas. What inspires me most in your lectures is the way you make us put ourselves in the position of the character and teach the devotional response we shall adopt in our lives, following in the footsteps of that devotee, whether it be Parikshit M, Mukunda, Prahlada, or King Prataprudra. Your lectures not only offer us wisdom but give us the empowerment to follow them if we accept them with sincerity, faith, and humility. Please bless me to understand the value of this association and empower me to hear them with longing and desire to apply them in my life.

Maharaja, I am simply amazed to see your love and respect for your Godbrothers and Godsisters, how you express that through your words, life, and example. You visited Delhi to honor and respect HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja and gave yourself completely to devotees during your visit there. Last year during the festival of gratitude, HH Bhakti Prema Maharaja had invited you to visit Ujjain. You sent HG Gauranga Prabhu just after that festival, and you personally went there this year to honor HH Bhakti Charu SM. The Vaisnava memorial in GEV is the best holy place, full of remembrance of each devotee who has given their life for the service of Prabhupada. Please bless me to follow in your footsteps to honor and love ISKCON as my real family, to rise above a fault-finding mentality, and to accept each devotee as they are, as servants of Krishna.

I feel deep gratitude for the shelter you are offering through my seniors, whose hearts are filled with genuine love and concern for me. Being empowered by you, they are representing your mercy in my life and giving hope to continue in Krishna Consciousness. through their words, life, and example. When I look back, I feel simply amazed at what I have received and am receiving from them, despite my inconceivable disqualifications. Please bless me to be loyal, submissive, and faithful to their instructions, to keep my false ego aside, and to strive to follow their words and example as my life and soul.

Maharaja One quote of yours, which I am striving to meditate upon and failing constantly, is, Of all disgraceful behavior, there is nothing worse than ingratitude. In the last lecture of Kartika-yatra, you expressed your heartfelt gratitude to each devotee who came for the yatra and inspired everyone that their reciprocation is simply to receive everything and be happy. Each action of yours, every dealing and project, is a reflection of your gratitude to Srila Prabhupada. You are teaching us through your example and words that despite facing so many challenges, we should be forever grateful for the opportunity to serve. Please bless me with a grateful heart and realizations of the grace I am receiving, Maharaja.

With time, my anarthas are getting unveiled, and life is taking so many inconceivable turns. Guru Maharaja, your real mercy is coming into my life in the form of faith that, despite many challenges, I am still continuing. It is inconceivable that although I am struggling with my shortcomings, succumbing to sense gratification and selfishness, struggling to cultivate Vaisnava relationships, and failing to serve and please superiors, still the tiny spark to serve Krishna is somehow burning, manifesting in trying to chant and trying to continue ahead with faith and sincerity, which is impossible based on any of my qualifications; this tiny desire is simply by your causeless mercy. I am most fortunate to receive your mercy, Guru Maharaja; please bless me to become a servant.

I wish to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission and to really become a servant of the devotees, but I am failing much below your expectations. Please bless me to continue in bhakti, with the strength to choose Krishna over maya and to forever be grateful for what I am receiving. Please empower me to cultivate humility and tolerance and to engage my life in Prabhupada's mission. Please offer me constant association with Vaisnavas Guru Maharaja; I wish to learn and cultivate selflessness in their association. Please allow me to be part of the Kartika-yatra to witness the service attitude of devotees and really strive to cultivate the same, seeing their example. If it is pleasing to you, please accept me in the Guru parampara system as a menial servant of the servants.

Thank you so much, Guru Maharaja.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja!!
Please accept my humble obeisances!!

Maharaja How could I describe your unlimited glories with my limited words but I will try by your mercy.

Maharaja your journey always inspired me not to give up. I remember I was living a very hard life then someone gifted me your Autobiography "The Journey Home", that book completely changed my life and perspective of looking at everything. What can I say about your humility, Turkish mobs tried to kill you but your humility forgave them, when you came to India, many people tried to harass or loot you because of you were a foreigner, but you never uttered one word against them. That is the reason why in ISKCON everyone calls you "personification of humility".

Dear Guru Maharaja, Just like Srila Prabhupada changed hippies into happies, you also changed depressed people into Divine people. Srila Prabhupada says "A true Guru is one who is true disciple of his own Guru", you proved this statment through your implementation of Srila Prabhupada's teachings in your life. You brought Srila Prabhupada's ISKCON to another level.

My words are not enough to glorify you. Maharaja, please never leave this fallen disciple yours.

Please accept my humble obeisances under your lotus feet.
All glories to you Gurudeva on this most auspicious appearance day of yours.

I'm so so grateful to be under your shelter and most importantly to be under your disciples association. I know I'm failing in my devotional practices but trying my best to get association of devotees to keep alive the enthusiasm of devotion. Gurudeva I will never forget what u have given to me in your journey home. It is an inspiration; the way you struggled to India and many other lessons from your book has really inspired me. Thank you for coming to my life this unworthy servant never deserved it but it's you who chose me and are helping me. Guru means the one who cuts off all the ties of this world suffering from the cycle of birth and death and take you back to godhead. I'm extremely grateful that atleast in this life I could develop the love for you or atleast imagined to be initiated by you even that thought has brought me your most valuable association. Gurudeva I pray may I be an instrument in your movement. I pray to be sincere and dedicated in my devotion. I pray to be under your shelter till my last breath. I pray to serve you and Lordship. I pray for your better health.

Thank you for everything and thank you for allowing me ????
Lots of love Gurudeva!!
All glories to you

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances on this most auspicious 74th anniversary of your appearance!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada and the entire Guru-Shishya Parampara.

I am eternally very grateful to you for all your causeless mercy by which I am allowed to follow the path of Krishna Consciousness.. Whenever I hear your lecture, it always enlightens, enlivens and enthuses me to engage in devotional service of the Lord and the devotees. Your melodious and heart touching kirtanas shower the nectar of Holy Names upon my dry, hard stone like heart.

Your Vani association is always a great solace for me. I hope and pray to have your more and more Vapu association as well. I wish and pray to their Lordships for the betterment of your physical health so that unlimited souls can be benefitted from your holy association.

Due to my false ego, ignorance, lethargy, conditionings, lack of sincerity and seriousness, I am unable to fully surrender unto your lotus feet to follow the path of Krishna Consciousness. with full enthusiasm and dedication. Please forgive me for all the offences which I may have committed knowingly or unknowingly.

Please bless me so that I will not offend anyone, rather always remain in the mood of humble servant of servant in Krishna Consciousness.. Please bless me so that I can always hear, chant, remember and glorify the holy names of the Lord with love, devotion, humility, gratitude and service attitude to serve and please the Lord and his devotees.

Also please bless me so that I can always read, hear, remember and preach the message of Shrimad Bhagavad Gita, Shrimad Bhagavatam, Sri Caitanya Charitamrita and all other holy scriptures written by previous acaryas and thus always remain Krishna Conscious. This way let me always share, distribute this Krishna Consciousness. and Holy Names of Lord all around to please you and Srila Prabhupada.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious day of your 74th appearance, I humbly offer my deepest gratitude, devotion, and respect to you, Maharaja. The memory of our first meeting is forever etched in my heart; it was a moment that felt like coming home, a recognition of a truth so profound that my soul felt like it had been awakened. I felt my eternal nature stirring within me, even though I could hardly comprehend the depth of surrender and devotion I was being called to. Yet in that single, unforgettable encounter, my life transformed, and my heart knew that I wanted to offer my life in service to you, even before I fully understood what that entailed.

Thank you, Maharaja, for your wisdom and dedication, for your unwavering service to Krishna and all those who come to you for guidance. You are a living example of bhakti—effortlessly walking in a grace that feels as if you’re floating, each step carrying a weightless power, each word imbued with divine presence. I am endlessly inspired by your ethereal, discerning nature, which reminds me of the path back to our true home.

Through your embodiment of this path, you have guided and empowered me to live bhakti to the best of my menial abilities in my unique way. I feel so deeply connected to you, especially through the Wisdom of the Sages and my cherished association with Raghunath and Kaustubha Prabhus. In their company, I am continually reminded of you, and I seek their guidance with the humble question, “What would Radhanath Swami do?”

On this day and every day, I offer my life in service to you, Maharaja. I am eternally grateful to have found a spiritual home in your shelter, a place where I can grow and learn, serve, and surrender.

Hare Krishna.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my respectful obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you.

I feel fortunate for having got a opportunity to write this offering on your 74th appearance day. I don't know from where should I begin to thank you. You are the reason for everything auspicious in my life from all angles of vision.

I was a dumb fool. You made my life. Everything that others see in me today, is but a mercy that you have given, though I am not worthy of it. I am able to repeat something from scriptures today, is only because of your mercy. I am able to think something to be right and wrong today, is only because of your teachings. I am able to do something today is only because of you. I am writing this offering also, only because of your mercy.

I really don't know where should I begin to thank you. Everything in my life, is what you have given me.

I simply wish to spend my time ETERNALLY remembering and thanking you.

You have given so much transcendental instructions but I am struggling to put a lot of your teachings in my personal life. I am still in deep dark ignorance and I need to hold on to the rope you have thrown and climb up leaving behind all my useless habits. I am willing to change for your pleasure. I will continue to fight with my internal enemies. I am willing to improve. Your mercy is there to make my effort complete. I just need to step up to grab it.

Thank you Gurudeva for making my life. I will try my best to follow your teachings.

Dear Maharaja,

I was reading the Gajendra Moksh pastime and thought how similar my situation is - caught in the jaws of Maya.

I was wandering aimlessly like a log of wood in the ocean of material existence, but blissfully unaware of the dangers lurking beneath the so called calm surface. There were others like me floating or rather drifting here and there. Suddenly, I found myself alone. I looked around for company but there was no one. I started panicking, being alone on this big, dark ocean.

Then suddenly, out of nowhere, I had the company(devotees) and they were encouraging me, giving me a helping hand and soothing my fears. They assured me that together, we would be able to cross this material ocean with the help of our spiritual master and they showed me your calm, glowing face on the shore waving at us, encouraging us and beckoning to us with so much love and compassion. Though I'm still caught in the jaws of Maya (crocodile), I gain strength and courage from my God brothers and God sisters who are beside me.

Your book - The Journey Home is like a straw for a drowning man. Your amazing journey culminating in the fulfillment of your dreams is a panacea for millions across the world. Your humour, humility, love and compassion has captured the hearts of billions, transforming their lives forever.

We are so fortunate Maharaja, to be able to see you, hear you, go for yatras with you and taste the nectar of your spiritual realisations and melodious kirtana.

From the offerings of your wonderful devotees, there are are so many instances and stories about your mood - being totally immersed in Krishna Consciousness. and at the same time being practical and “cool” in all situations. Also important is the way you lay stress on gratitude - of how we should always be grateful to people who have helped us in our journey. Your compassionate nature comes to the fore by your non judgemental acceptance of people in all situations. You always talk about being careful to not criticize others.

The way you got your point across to the donor who had his fixed opinions on Brahmanas was ingenious.

In your lectures on death, you pointed out that when devotees die in an accident, they become Gopis - so hope giving.

When devotees ask how they could please you, you said that you would be happy if we connect to Krishna and love him. When asked for some instructions to follow, you said that all your instructions are in your lectures making it imperative for us to hear your classes attentively, since most of us do not have any physical association with you Guru Maharaja.

As in the incident when one Mataji started crying because you couldn’t honour her Khichdi Prasada, you reminded us that you prepare for your lectures with your sweat and blood and would also cry if people don’t listen to your lectures.

We are blessed to be connected with you Maharaja who with your love and guidance is our bridge to Krishna. On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I hope to imbibe some of the qualities that we as devotees should inculcate.

Please continue to shower your causeless mercy on this fallen soul. I know I will never ever be able to repay this debt and pray that somehow I can serve you in whatever way I can.

I remain your humble servant

Please accept my Dandavat Pranamas Gurudeva
All glory to our ever-well-wisher Srila Prabhupada.
All glory to your divine guidance.

Dear Gurudeva, I am truly grateful for your unconditional mercy, which has connected me to the guru Parampara for my spiritual progress, despite my lack of qualifications and purification.

Just as water flows effortlessly from top to bottom, the mercy of the gurus flows through the guru parampara. When obstacles are absent, the flow of water is smooth and perfect. Similarly, you, as a pure Vaisnavaa, without any Vaisnava parathas, have become an instrument for the guru parampara mercy to reach us.

As Ananta Shesha is continuously glorifying Lord Vishnu, similarly, I am always striving to live with gratitude for all that you have offered me, even though I may not deserve it.

While project planning is required for the successful execution of a project, you have taught me that seeking the guru’s blessings through prayers should always come first.

Your commitment to fulfilling Srila Prabhupada’s desire, such as creating a replica of Vrndavana at ISKCON GEV, is truly admirable. Since 1973, your prayers and actions have transformed GEV into a beautiful reflection of Vrndavana.

I heard in my god brother’s lecture that in the early days of establishing GEV, despite the limited facilities, you resided at GEV, starting your day at 6 am with a parikrama of Vrndavana, followed by chanting and reading Caitanya Charitamrith, attending management meetings, and participating in Yamuna arathi in the evenings. You even embarked on a two-hour parikrama at Govardhan at dark in the night, singing kirtanas along the way. It shows me your dedication to Lord Krishna's desire to remind all the conditioned souls of their relationship with Him. With your prayers and efforts, you have also fulfilled Srila Prabhupada's vision of simple living and higher thinking through GEV.

Just like the squirrel in the Ram Setu pastime, I humbly beg at your lotus feet for the opportunity to serve as an instrument in fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's desire, in the spirit of being a servant of the servant of the servant.

On this holy occasion of Maharaja's 74th appearance day, I pray to Lordships shri shri Gaur Nitai, shri shri RadhaMadhava,shri shri Janki Janki-Vallabh Lakshaman hanuman Ji for his good health and long life.

Fortunately, in this Kartika-yatra in ShriMayapur Dham, I could hear Gaur Lila from Maharaja; this was very heart-touching to hear from a realized pure devotee like Maharaja.

I was very much inspired by Maharaja's humility and gratitude to every devotee.

I also got a chance to chant some rounds in association with Maharaja and was inspired very much by seeing his absorption.

I pray for the Lordship to have some drops of his mercy so that I can also chant attentively.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Dear Maharaja, I wish you a very happy 74rd Krishna Conscious birthday!! HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja's Avirbhava Mahotsav Ki Jai!!

Maharaja, this is my very humble attempt at writing my Vyasa-puja offering to you. Please allow me to write a few words to glorify you and to express my sincere gratitude to you. I'm not qualified enough to glorify such an exalted pure devotee like You, but for my own purification, I make this attempt, and I seek your blessings for the same.

I'm eternally indebted to you, Maharaja, for giving us shelter at your lotus feet by accepting us as your disciples. As days go by, we see and hear more and more about your exalted and flawless character, your glorious pastimes, and your glorious activities and projects to please Srila Prabhupada. On one hand, I begin to realize how much of an elevated devotee you are, how much you are dear to Lord Krishna, how close you are to Krishna, how pure you are, and how pure your desires are. On the other hand, I realize my own lack of qualification as I reflect upon myself in terms of never-ending impurities in my heart and in terms of lack of determination in following in your footsteps. It is only because of your unlimited compassion, your supremely kind heart, and your unlimited mercy that I have had the unbelievable good fortune of taking your shelter.

My family had the wonderful opportunity to have your darshan during Sadhu Sanga 2024 in Dallas, TX. During these few days, we had such a blissful experience being in your auspicious presence. As mentioned in CC Adi 1.61 and CC Adi 1.63, pure devotees are always engaged in the loving service of the Lord, and any place they visit becomes a place of pilgrimage.

isvara-svarupa bhakta tanra adhisthana bhaktera hrdaye krsnera satata visrama havad-vidha bhagavatas tirtha-bhutah svayam vibho tirthi-kurvanti tirthani
svantah-sthena gada-bhrta

You are a pure devotee constantly engaged in the loving service of the Lord, Krishna, and Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, and you always carry Krishna in your heart. Because of your purity, any place you visit becomes a sacred place of pilgrimage. We felt such auspiciousness during Sadhu Sanga getting your association, hearing and participating in your ecstatic, heartfelt katha and kirtanas.

Dear Guru Maharaja, because of your boundless compassion, you've undertaken so many austerities hour after hour, day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year for 50+ years. As stated in SB 8.7.44, great personalities accept voluntary suffering because of the suffering of people in general.

tapyante loka-tapena sadhavah prayaso janah paramaradhanam tad dhi purusasyakhilatmanah

You have taken so much voluntary suffering in making yourself available, in giving your association, traveling to Yatra, delivering nectarian katha and kirtana for hours, and engaging in so much seva, exhibiting and demonstrating such great tolerance and transcending bodily limits. I find no words to adequately glorify such austerities you have undertaken, and I find not enough words to express my sincere gratitude to you. Thank you, Maharaja, for everything that you have given us.

Dear Maharaja, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Neela Madhava, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Sri Sri Gaura Nitai, Lord Narasimha Dev, Lord Jagannath, Baladev, Subhadra, and Sudharshan Chakra to bestow and shower Their choicest blessings upon you and to grant you very good health.

I beg and pray at your lotus feet. Guru Maharaja is seeking your blessings to make progress in the path of Krishna Consciousness. and seeking your blessings to overcome my weakness of heart, as your blessings are the one and only lifeline of my spiritual journey.

I also beg at your lotus feet to please, please forgive me for the offenses I may have committed through my thoughts, words, or actions.

Aspiring to be called your worthy disciple,
your humble servant,
Krishna Murali Das

Hare Krishna Respected and beloved Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On this most auspicious day of your divine appearance, I find myself filled with profound gratitude and appreciation for all the mercy you have bestowed upon me and the entire spiritual community. Your guidance has illuminated the path of my life, and I offer my sincere prayers for your continued health and spiritual happiness.

Maharaja, I am fully aware of my imperfections, and I seek your mercy to overcome my weaknesses and shortcomings. Please bless me to remain humble and sincere in my service to you, Srila Prabhupada, and the entire spiritual family. May I always stay fixed in my devotion to Krishna and serve you with a heart full of love and respect.

I pray for your eternal well-being, that you may continue to guide and inspire countless souls on the path of devotional service.

Your humble servant,

Hare Krishna,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I am very fortunate to come across devotees from my second year of Engineering. Maharaja, it is under your encouragement and guidance that devotees from chowpatty used to keep coming to our campus every week.

Thank you Maharaja for giving the association of HG Madan Gopal Prabhu, HG Vallabha Caitanya Prabhu, and many more devotees who played very crucial role in making me and their prayers in keeping me alive in Krishna Consciousness..

Thank you Maharaja, for your instructions in the form of various classes you gave and our community of VTA devotees who teach each other and remind each other of your instructions.

Thank you for the counseling system by which we feel at home and have close association with so many devotees, giving me the opportunity to learn from them and offer some service as guided by our counselor HG Ram Govind Prabhuji and HG Arjuneya Gopi Mataji.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to the dust of your lotus feet
Wish you the very very happiest Srila Prabhupada conscious 74th appearance day beloved spiritual uncle
Dearest Guru Maharaja,

On the very very auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja,this fallen soul got the biggest opportunity to glorify your unlimited oceanic glories. Although I am not capable enough to glorify and offer even a 0.1% from my impure intelligence.

Like Anant shesh is glorifying Lord from unlimeted mouths but not done even 1% so same how can I glorify such a pure devotee of the Lord from my impure mind and words.

That's why I'm begging you for the strength and intelligence so that I can get right mood and consciousness to write some of your extraordinary glories and my realisation and offer my heart to you dearest Guru Maharaja.

I'm a disciple of HH Loknath Swami Maharaja. You Love all your God brothers and sisters so much.

You and my Guru Maharaja are very close best friends, your bond is literally wonderful and inspiring ??

Dearest Guru Dev, this fallen soul does not know very much about you but I realised your mercy and reciprocation once I desired to have your darshans once in life and then you visited Delhi for the Vyasa-puja of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja, then I wished that you would come here to Ujjain to attend the Vyasa-puja of HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaja, then I dreamt that

I had your darshan and before 5 days of Vyasa-puja I got to know that you are coming Ujjain. Krishna fulfilled my dream beacause it was not possible for me to go outside and you very rarely came in MP, first time I had your divine darshans which changed my spiritual journey, I got your blessings and lots of mercy then I could be able to distribute Srimad-Bhagavatam sets and now it became my Nitya sewa, I just started when I dreamt to have your darshan on same day I got opportunity to distribute SB first time by your mercy I completed 108 sets till now.

"Thank you" is just a word but I am deeply indebted and grateful for your causeless mercy and blessings and reciprocation.

I am highly inspired from your holiness and have a great appreciation for your holiness.

You are so humble and kind dear Gurudeva, your divine lotus face says it all, you have all 26 qualities of a Vaisnavas, everyone is inspired and impressed by your humanity and loving caring behaviour, you are so divine and filled with boundless transcendental love for the Guru and Gauranga ?? your contribution in the mission of Caitanya Mahaprabhu is incredible, you are pleasing Srila Prabhupada. Mostly Mother Earth is surely feeling very blessed by getting the association of all sons of Srila Prabhupada's army till now which cleans even mother earth ??

You gave us mini Vrndavana dham in the form of your heartiest project GEV, which is a wonderful Dham on the Earth,it can be manifested only in the heart of a pure devotee.

My millions and trillions of obeisance unto your divine lotus feet dear Gurudeva

I connected with ISKCON by the association of one of your dearest disciple HG Ayodhya Rani Mataji in Khargon, she is so pure and humble who guided me in everything and gave me shelter of Guru and Gauranga and everything I'm getting by her mercy only.??

I don't have much words and intelligence to glorify your unlimited divine qualities Guru Maharaja but I am begging for your mercy, Vaisnavas are literally so much merciful on fallen souls so please bestow your causeless and infinite mercy on this insignificant fallen unqualified weakest child that I can be an instrument in the service of Sri Guru and Gauranga

Please make me sincere and humble so that I can get pure devotion unto the lotus feet of Sri Guru and Gauranga. I'm the biggest begger at your doorstep. Please give me infinite blessings so that I can be a good devotee by heart and deeds.

Please give me the strength and intelligence to love and serve Krishna to my best and utilise this life to serve in the mission of Chaitnya Mahaprabhu and Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, I was fortunate to receive your glance during the last Yatra at Jagannath Puri. As you passed by, I could only fold my hands and look at you, and you reciprocated similarly.

I thought what a fool I was; if the Lord had given me the intelligence to smile and Say Hare Krishna, probably you would have also reciprocated similarly. Now I am waiting for another opportunity... how long, I do not know.

Dearest Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

The Vyasa-puja offering to the spiritual master is an opportunity to the disciple to express his love and affection as well as glorify the spiritual master on his birthday in his own sweet humble way. You have accepted us as a disciple and we need to express our gratitude to you, not just once a year but each and every moment of our lives, but at least on your appearance day we need to tell you how much grateful we are to you. There is no impediment in terms of language, scholarly aptitude, linguistic accomplishments. This is a straight heart to heart talk between the disciple and the spiritual master and it does not depend on whether the Spiritual master, given his intense schedule, has the time to read it or not.

I must tell you, Gurudeva, that by your own personal example you have taught me how important it is for us to express our love and gratitude on your appearance day. I remember, in the year 2003, you decided to take a break in Udupi for health reasons and a few of us including Govinda Prabhu and others had the opportunity to accompany you to Udupi to assist you in your health recovery. You were staying at HG Dayalchandra Prabhu's house, which is practically in the middle of a forest, and we had our accommodation elsewhere. One day, very late in the evening (must have been around 9 pm), a few of us entered your room and I saw that you were on your laptop writing something and I was simply amazed to see that you and the laptop were completely covered with hundreds of small insects and you were completely oblivious to it. I started wondering what is it that Radhanath Swami is writing that is so much important that he is being covered by hundreds of these insects and he is completely oblivious to it? Welcoming us to your room, you turned back and told us "Today is the last day to submit the Vyasa-puja Offering to Srila Prabhupada and I am writing my insignificant offering". I thought to myself...wow.... this is absolutely incredible...Maharaja is going through so much inconvenience just to write an offering that may be read by very few people. And then it struck me how important it is to express our gratitude to our spiritual master on his appearance day...and I mentally vowed there and then that, each year, I would write a little something to my beloved Guru Maharaja.

To be very honest, I wonder, if there is any other place in the world that can teach a person as many things as this community of devotees of Radha Gopinatha Temple teaches each and every one of us. All these arrangements you have made to teach your disciples how to live happily in association of Krishna's devotees is absolutely wonderful. Krishna is not alone in Goloka Vrndavana, he is always surrounded by millions of devotees. If we are serious about going back to godhead, we need to understand and learn the art of living, sharing our life with other devotees. This is possible only when we live in a devotee community in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant.

Offering gifts in charity, accepting charitable gifts, revealing one's mind in confidence, inquiring confidentially, accepting prasada and offering prasada are the six symptoms of love shared by one devotee and another.

By setting up and nurturing the devotee care and counselling system in Radha Gopinatha temple in the early nineties, when there were just a couple of hundred devotees, you, as a visionary disciple of Srila Prabhupada, realized that the only way to achieve the slogan of the ISKCON Devotee Care Program of "Many devotees happy devotees" was to inspire us to take on the service of extending love and care to as many devotees as we practically can and create a community of devotees based on the above verse of NOI which is in fact one of the foundational principles around which Srila Prabhupada set up ISKCON. It is easy to practice Bhakti alone at home, but to practice in the association of other Vaisnavas is a big challenge to our independent mind and false ego. Devotees all come from different regions, different backgrounds and different cultures and yet the 10,000 plus devotees who participated in the Mayapur Yatra this year is a deep testimony of your conviction that a community is only built on the foundation of long-term love and care.

A spiritual master teaches by his own personal example and a disciple, who is perceptive, can learn so many things from his spiritual master. I remember vividly the time (must have been 2008 or 2009) a few of us had come to you to set up a formal organization within Radha Gopinatha Temple of President, Vice President etc. and we had come to you with a list of names. You listened to us and at the end, in a very grave voice, you said "In Radha Gopinatha Temple there is only one personality with a title and designation, and He is HDG AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada who is the designated Founder Acarya of ISKCON. Each and every one of us are his servants and that is the most important designation for each and every one of us". You said the above words with such gravity, because you truly seek no personal glory for what you are doing and you are coming with a deep personal conviction that you are an eternal insignificant servant of Srila Prabhupada, that you shook me completely to my core.

Dear Gurudeva, on this auspicious day of your divine appearance, I pray to your lotus feet to give me the strength to be steadfast in my devotional service to the Lord and to serve the community of Vaisnavas and Vaisnavais in the humble mood of an insignificant servant of the servant of the servant.

Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious day of Vyasa-puja, I bow down to you with deep reverence, gratitude, and love. You are the embodiment of mercy, compassion, and wisdom. Your life and teachings continue to light the path for countless souls, including mine. Your presence in this world is a divine blessing, and through your guidance, you have inspired so many of us to walk the path of bhakti with sincerity and humility.

You are the perfect disciple of Srila Prabhupada, and through your devotion to him, you have exemplified the highest standards of service and surrender. By your own example, you show us what it means to live a life dedicated to the pleasure of the Lord, and to be an instrument in spreading the holy name of Krishna.

Your teachings are like a beacon of light that dispels the darkness of ignorance and material illusion. Through your books, lectures, and personal guidance, you have awakened hearts to the sweetness of Krishna Consciousness. and have instilled in us a deep longing for the lotus feet of Radha and Krishna. Every time you speak, whether through words or silence, we hear the echoes of Srila Prabhupada's own teachings, delivered with your unique and loving touch.

I remember the many times I have had the privilege to hear your classes, and I am always struck by your sincerity, your clarity, and the depth of your realizations. You have such a natural and profound way of connecting to the hearts of all devotees, regardless of their level of experience or understanding. Your kindness and patience have touched me deeply, and your personal example of humility and devotion are a constant inspiration for me.

I had the privilege this year during Kartika month to get your darshans & even exchange a few words with you. You were so humble that you let this servant of yours to speak to you in such close proximity. I will always cherish the association that you gave me Maharaja. I pray that you keep me close to your lotus feet and let me remain in your shelter forever.

Your book The Journey Home is a testimony to your unwavering faith in the Lord and your intense desire to serve Him. Through that book, millions of readers, including myself, have come to appreciate the incredible mercy and grace of Krishna that flows through your life. You have shown us that despite the challenges and trials of life, with surrender to the Supreme Lord and His holy name, we can overcome all obstacles and realize our true nature as servants of Krishna.

In your presence, we are reminded of the beauty of simplicity, the power of chanting the holy names, and the importance of always remaining humble and eager to serve. Your personal example of renunciation and compassion, coupled with your unwavering commitment to spreading the holy names, is a source of great inspiration for all of us who aspire to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

As we celebrate this Vyasa-puja in your honor, we also take this opportunity to pray for your continued guidance and blessings. We pray that you continue to inspire us to develop a deeper relationship with Krishna, to remain humble in our hearts, and to always strive to serve you and your mission with all sincerity. May we always remember the teachings you have imparted and be guided by your example of pure devotion.

Please forgive any of my offenses, and accept me as your humble servant. May I always remain in your service, following the path you have laid out for us all. With your mercy and the guidance of Srila Prabhupada, may I make progress on this path back to Krishna's lotus feet.

Thank you, Srila Radhanath Swami Maharaja, for everything you do. You are the light of our lives, and through your association, we are blessed with the most precious gift of all: the knowledge of who we really are and what our true purpose in life is.

Your presence in my life has been a beacon of light, guiding me through the darkness of ignorance. I am eternally indebted to Your kindness and compassion, which have nurtured my soul and inspired me to strive for spiritual perfection.

I beg Your forgiveness for all my offenses, both intentional and unintentional. Please accept my heartfelt apologies and grant me the strength to overcome my shortcomings and dedicate my life to Your service.

Your teachings have transformed my life, instilling in me the values of love, compassion, and humility. You have shown me the path to true happiness and fulfillment, and for that, I am eternally grateful.

A Humble Poem in Your Honor

A humble servant, ever kind and true,
A beacon of love, shining ever new.
With gentle words and a heart pure and bright,
You guide our souls towards the spiritual light.
Your love knows no bounds, your compassion's deep,
A refuge for the weary, a solace to keep.
May Your blessings shower upon us all,
And may Your divine grace forever enthrall.

My Dearest Guru Maharaja
Please accept my deepest obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

As I am sitting here, immersed in my busy schedules, deadlines and obligations, I long to stop for a while, reflect and take this opportunity to word my deepest appreciations for you. You are surely in the forefront of my daily activities, but mostly these thoughts and feelings remain inside, not being able to see the light of the world. It's not that they need to be spoken, as I believe that you hear my words and feel my thoughts despite the distance. My experiences are that you always did so in the past. Still it is with utmost gratitude that I got this opportunity to write to you.

Another year has turned over, I am grateful that you are still here with us, breathing the same air, walking the same earth, seeing the same moon, even though we don't see each other so much in person. Still, knowing that you are busy in preaching activities over there in India gives me solace, as I still may be able to see you again :)

What to speak of situations like we had this year with Lilanandini devi dasi, to whom you graciously offered first initiations before she left for her onwards journey in another body. You have saved a life of this young woman of only 28 years and gave her hope and ray of light on her scary journey. With your and other devotee's encouragements she managed to do the final test with amazing courage and dignity. It was not easy, and certainly she struggled in her last days, but Krishna was very kind upon her and sent her help from all sides. I am grateful that I could witness this magic and be some small instrument in this play. More will come about this, as I still have to deliver you her last letter & daksina and I want to tell you in person more about her. So I am looking forward to seeing you again hopefully in not too distant future.

Thank you from my tiny heart for everything that you are doing for me and for the community of devotees.

I have no qualification to glorify your unlimited qualification. Still by your causeless mercy I am able to appreciate the depth of your kindness towards conditioned souls to get out of this material world. The things which are necessary to get out of this material world like Holy Name, Association of devotees, Srimad-Bhagavatam, to be humble, vaishseva etc. that you have taught us in purity. What else is required for a devotee.

You have given so many class to hear. Only this is lacking, that effort from my side, my sincerness, determination to follow the instructions, to be steady on the path of devotion, avoiding Vaisnavas apaRadha. So on this very auspicious day of your appearance I am begging for your blessings to hear your words attentively and follow the instructions with humble heart performing Seva in Srila Prabhupada's mission without doing any appaRadha.

Dear Your Holiness, Radhanatha Swami, my dear Gurudeva, please accept my most humble obeisances to your lotus feet.
I was born in the darkness of the dullest ignorance, and you are enlightening me with the torch of knowledge. So, I offer you my respectful obeisances.

You have Krishna and love for Krishna, and since You can bestow it on anyone, you please bestow it on this servant also and bless me with the mercy of Krishna.

I am trying to be humbler than a straw on the road, more patient and tolerant than a tree, free from all false respectability, never expecting respect, and giving the most humble, sincere respect to others so that I can chant the holy name without ceasing.

I myself am weak or helpless and without sense, and therefore I beseech you to favor me with a little grace that I may slowly progress.

Our dear Srila Prabhupada, His Divine Grace, the Founder Acarya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness., and his spiritual children (our spiritual teachers), his grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, we are the members of the Saraswata family in the succession of disciples of His Divine Grace Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Goswami.

Therefore, it is our prescribed duty to spread the mission of the cult of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu (gaura vani pracarine) and to fight against impersonalism and voidism (nir-vishesa-shunyavadi-paschatya desa tarine). This was done by Sanatana Goswami, Rupa Goswami, and Anupama Goswami.

Dear Gurudeva, you have accepted me as your disciple. Therefore, I am now paying my respects to You again and again, because in this way I can develop the capacity to know You properly, to understand that the son of Saci is the same son of Nanda Maharaja, and that You are the dearest servant of Lord Mukunda. In this way I can sing the Lord's holy name with great enthusiasm, and all my offenses will disappear. Thank you for taking such exemplary care of such a large family of devotees, our brothers and sisters in Godhead, and I pray to Krishna that we will be together forever.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

Maharajai because of your grace my journey towards Krishna is taking baby steps. I am all grateful to my parents who took me and my siblings to the ISKCON Juhu temple since we were young. We were not ISKCON followers but because we are vegetarians we loved the Govindas food and Prasada there (honestly, thats what drew us initially, apart from deities darshan).

I was so fortunate that my college was near ISKCON Juhu temple; myself and my friends would visit the temple before going to walk near the beach often. However, I still wasn't much connected, it was just like a place to go to because my mom would tell me. We are a Brahmin family by birth so we used to visit holy places and see our parents doing daily pujas and vratas. Us siblings also did ekadashi and other important vrata and puja as a family but we weren't truly immersed in Krishna Consciousness..

During my college years, my brother started chanting Hare Krishna Mahamantra as his college had a nice ISKCON circle with senior devotes visiting them. My brother kept talking about what he learned and it had a positive influence on us. Initially I was reluctant to hear from him as he is my younger brother and I am the oldest, I also used to think I am more spiritual due to the vrata and puja rituals I follow. I felt I should be the one guiding my younger siblings - brother and younger sisters. I realized there is much more to understanding the Supreme God apart from just pujas/vrats.

My mom told me during one of my summer vacations before the next college year started- 'HariPriya (that's what she calls me) read the Bhagwat Geeta' that will clear so many doubts and help you a lot to understand the true goal of your life'. I did read Gita a little by little that summer but couldn't understand and implement much. Nevertheless, it made an impact on certain aspects of my daily life and understanding.

After I got married and came to US, curiously grew within me about what is the true knowledge of the Supreme. I would read Ramayana and Gita when caring for my kids but I still didn't feel I understood Gita and couldnt implement. One day we were just planning to got to some temple and found ISKCON of Central New Jersey, that's when we met several devotees and someone gave me your books 'Journey Home' and 'Journey within' they told us to take it and read it. That was the turning point of my life. I read those books in the next few weeks and I could understand what scarifies and efforts you made to spread Krishna Consciousness. to not just temples, but hospitals, and other places of worship. Your journey home was so motivational for me. You didn't give up and kept going with the focus of knowing what true knowledge is. Maharajai, your book 'Journey within' is at totally another level. You met so many people along your way and the takeaways you had were so inspiring. Both these books and your lectures give me shelter whenever I read the books and hear the lectures. I try to understand the principles of inner peace and joy from your lectures and videos. The content of wisdom in your books and lectures is way beyond my understanding but I will strive to make little progress daily.

Maharajai, your instructions in your words is like nectar taking me towards trying to understand Krishna. Your humble nature, service attitude and your interaction with anyone be a devote or non devotee is something I would like to work upon myself. I am just trying to learn from you and your instructions and maybe trying to give what I understand to my kids and family.

It looks to be a long journey for me to be anywhere like a pure devotee of Krishna and serving you Maharaja. You have influenced so many lives with your various projects like Govardhan Eco village. Bhaktivedanta hospital, to name a few. Everyday I learn something new from the congregation of the devotees in our local temple. HH Srila Prabhupada has shown us the way toward Krishna and made it so easy for us, you Maharajai have paved the way for us, I wish I could help by serving your devotees and following your instructions. Please guide me and take me under your shelter.

I aspire to be your humble servant and devotee. Please accept this insignificant soul to be a servant of your devotees

Hare Krishna,Guru Maharaja!!

I have been associated with ISKCON (Krishna Bandhu) for one year and 6 months. I am trying very hard to fight my lust, anger, greed, attachment and bring some change in myself. By your grace everything is possible, I can fight my evil. Maharaja I want to have darshan of you! I should get a place in Vrndavana Dham and I should be able to see Shri Shri Radha Shyamsundar daily. I am currently trying to learn English language so that I can listen to the English lectures of all our ISKCON Gurus. Please bless me so that I can learn quickly. You are so humble Maharaja Ji, just because of this I can bring some humility into my life, I like listening to your kirtana very much, the way you do kirtana it seems that you are talking to Radha Madhav. You are doing this. Guru Maharaja Ji, I feel that you are my Guru Maharaja, please accept me as your disciple and have mercy on this fallen person. I pray for your long life and good health at the lotus feet of Lord Shri Shri Radha Shyam Sundar.. And may you continue to shower your blessings on all of us fallen beings.

We have no word to express our gratitude to you Maharaja. You are the personification of compassion. Through your lectures you are guiding us how be a good human being and how should we be compassionate to all. And so many things you are teaching us but unfortunately we are not able to observe all. We should try our level best to get the good qualities especially when you said that how to be calm in a provoking situation. We are trying to be good disciples with your unlimited mercy Maharaja.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you.

I would first like to express my gratitude to your servants, who found me and brought me to your shelter at IIT BHU. I feel scared thinking about my position without your shelter. Sometimes, I think, "What is this crow-like person doing in the association of swans?" But there is no other shelter for me than the association of your swan-like servants.

You are carrying forward the unfulfilled mission of Srila Prabhupada with community building through the spiritual counselor system and farm community development. I am personally greatly benefited and nourished by this system. Your hospital is providing care for both the soul and the body in the true sense. The schools are setting new standards of teaching and parenting.

Despite your not-so-good health, you continue to extend the Kartika-yatra year after year for all of us, so that we all feel nourished. The yatra is something we not only look forward to, but our kids too, because of the Kids Zone, where bhakti is available to them along with fun. Such an amazing arrangement for kids – we are eternally grateful for this.

You mentioned that the Lord does not spare His own son if he offends His devotees (e.g., Bhaumasura) or even His mother (Sachi Devi). I am struggling with the responsibility given to me. I pray for the strength to carry out my services without making any offenses.

I don't have any qualifications to glorify about you and still my counselor HG Mukund Caitanya Dasa has given opportunity to glorify about my Guru Maharaja. Recently in the Mayapur Kartika-yatra, my guru Maharaja had visited on 8 Nov 24, Maharaja was telling that Prabhupada once was at this pond, he wanted temple in middle of this pond. Then all swans / ducks came near Prabhupada, without making any noise as if saying yes temple here will be great idea. From this statement it is cleared that Maharaja also wants temple in the middle of the pond and obeying the instructions of Srila Prabhupada and this is proved that in our ISKCON, guru prampara is very adhered by all disciple succession. Thank you my Guru Maharaja for accepting my offering on your lotus feet.

Happy 74 th Appearance Day my dear beloved GuruMaharaja ??,

Fortune arise in our life through your timeless wisdom and teachings....

Unfortune turns over like clouds give space to sun.....

Meditation on your qualities give coolness to the flickering mind.....

Your dedication towards Srila Prabhupada always gives full hope to all Jiva.....

How you deal with Vaisnava shows the ways to move ahead in Spiritual journey.....

Your teachings are the only one shelter on which we can rely....

Radha Gopinatha engaged you for the deliverance of fallen Jiva.....

It's a auspicious day, you appeared just to remind our lost relationships with Krishna...

Thankful and Grateful towards Srila Prabhupada for sending GuruMaharaja in my life ??. May Radha Gopinatha bless you with good physical health, so you can bless many jivas through spiritual potency. Please kindly engage laxmi in continuous service so I can able to serve and please Srila Prabhupada through surrendering your lotus feet, through which I can receive causeless mercy and blessings from Sri Krishna Caitanya Mahaprabhu and Nityananda Prabhu in this life time. You are only one my hope in this material world; your shelter is the most safest and warm place. Willing and begging to receive some tinch of dedication from your life, so I could continue to offer my insignificant service for mission in uninterrupted way.

Please accept my humble obeisance Dandavat Pranama. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you Maharaja on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja. It has been since 10 years I first came to know about yourself from the book The journey home. I was really amazed how extraordinarily Srila prabupada accepted you as his disciple. Your story left me spellbound. At that point something felt within my heart as if I finally found my own spiritual master. I finally found the boat that will easily take me beyond this troubled material life. Your words always inspires me to get back on track whenever I fall down which I always do. I always deviate from bhakti and falls prey to material life and I strongly feel that your blessing can only protect me from this up and down ride. I pray for your health and hope to assist you on the path of devotional service. With tears in my eyes, I pray you to accept me.

Srila Gurudeva, the trees have started giving flowers and fruits again. The birds have started singing again. The earth has become green again and the air has become fresh again by your merciful arrival to all the places like Belgaum,Kolhapur,Pune, Nigdi etc.

Oh merciful father, you showered so much mercy upon all the devotees everywhere. Since the time you have arrived in India, it's keval Anand kand... Thank you so much for everything guruMaharaja!

Just as sun dissipates all the darkness if one is ready to remove the curtain, Your mercy can similarly remove all the ignorance in the heart provided I take away the curtain of my conditionings and attachments.

A foolish soul like me don't know what is my welfare what is best for me. I beg at your lotus feet guruMaharaja please cut this knot of laziness and procrastination in my heart and give me strength to apply your teaching with utsah, nischay and dhairya for the welfare of my own self and help others by becoming a selfless instrument in your hands.

Thank you so much guruMaharaja.

Thank you for your example of being a disciple, and an example of the qualities of a disciple - simplicity, humility. Thank you for your example of fortitude, strong faith and steadfastness in the spiritual path. Thank you for your deep immersion in Krishna-katha at Kartika-yatra. I thank every devotee who participates in the preparation, organization and holding of Kartika-yatra. This festival for 10,000 devotees is a manifestation of your care, your relationship with each disciple.

I am learning to build relationships, I am learning to cooperate, I am learning to serve devotees. And I am going through my lessons, lessons of purification, acceptance. And the main thing I want to come to is to understand that the Holy Name is everything!!! That all happiness, all the depth of relationships is in the Holy Name.

I seek your blessings to become an instrument in your hands in caring for the devotees and in deepening the relationship with the Holy Name.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Recently I was reading your book Journey Home again; I had read it at the beginning of my Krishna Conscious journey. But that was like reading the normal book. But the second time when I read it recently just before I got initiation from you. While reading, I could feel all the inconveniences and troubles during your journey to India. All the incidents happened from getting robbed, getting saved from the dogs in Nepal, and the mongoose sleeping the whole night on your head. The way you tolerated all these situations with tolerance, hope, and keeping faith in the divine power in all the situations. I hope and pray at your lotus feet for the blessings to overcome such situations in my Krishna Conscious journey so I can be focused in my Sadhana without getting affected by any pain or turbulence around. I am neither a good writer nor a good storyteller. I have never written such things in my life. But as a gesture of gratitude and a token of love, I wanted to write a little bit as an offering at your feet. I owed my life to you.

Dear Guru Maharaja.

Recently HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja said that you are in the mood of Narotama Dasa takur.

Yes indeed it must be true as a great devotee like HH Jayapataka swami Maharaja is saying

Just like Srila Narotama Dasa takur mahashay travelled all around the Gaura mandal Bhumi In Navadwip and in Jaganath Puri.

In his sweet singing Shri Gauranga Mahaprabhu would personally come.

We can see your compassionate mood upon all of us during the Yatras. Now yatra participents have reached to 10k Devotee, though management is gone beyond imagination but the mood of the yatra is always same. During the Kirtana, the yatra is the most magnificent which is being enjoyed by everyone including babies and old people. Your concern for the devotees and most humble attitude towards any problem is what makes your personality very great seeking for your blessings to be grateful for the association of your's which I got in my life.

Jay, guruMaharaja! Hare Krishna!
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada!

Happy birthday!!!

May the Supreme Couple bless you with health, love, peace, and all the good things one can imagine! SB 5.3.14, Purport: Certainly a pure devotee's association is necessary to obtain the loving service of the Lord. One cannot be freed from maya's clutches without sadhu-sanga (CC Madhya 22.83), the benediction of a great devotee. So I thank you with all of my heart.

In Srimad-Bhagavatam (7.5.32) Prahlada Maharaja says: One cannot become the Lord's pure devotee without taking the dust of a great devotee on his head (pada-rajo-'bhisekam). A pure devotee is niskiñcana; he has no material desire to enjoy the material world. One has to take shelter of such a pure devotee to attain his qualities. The pure devotee is always free from the clutches of maya and her influence. I owe it all to you!

Your humble servant, with eternal gratitude.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet,
All glories to you, all glories to Srila Prabhupada.

The Vyasa-puja offering means glorification of the spiritual master. Actually the disciple's only strength is contemplating the glories of a spiritual master. That is the only saving grace for the disciple. Otherwise he has to glorify maya. The disciple receives mercy from the spiritual master through his instruction and conducts his life by that instruction, then he will get realization. So the Vyasa-puja day is an opportunity to share that realization to the spiritual master, so that the spiritual master will be pleased. When the spiritual master will be pleased then the disciple's spiritual life will be successful. Yasya Prasadat bhagavat Prasadat, yasya Prasadat na gati ki topi.

Guru Maharaja the more I am hearing from different sources, the more I am able to understand the importance of the association of sadhu. Without hearing from a sadhu, one cannot understand the glories of devotional service. That is why the Vedas are called Shruti. The purpose of Vedic literature is to awaken the relationship with Krishna. But it should be understood by hearing from a pure devotee. Even though I am not able to get your physical association, through your different lectures like S.B.Classes or yatras or seminars. By your teachings I am able to see and connect to Krishna through my life, or to this world. Without approaching the sadhu or hearing from him, human life is meaningless. Srila Prabhupada in every purport he mentioned that one should approach a bonafide spiritual master and hear from him and follow his instruction.

Guru Maharaja I am experiencing that, unless one comes to association of sadhu his real spiritual life will not begin. One may be very austere, one may be very expert in Vedic literature, one may be very pious, still one must approach to sadhu. Present situation people are not very austere, not very inquisitive and not interested in reading scriptures, but they want to see role models in the society. It means by seeing an exemplary one may be interested in spiritual life, then they will approach a sadhu. You are one of the exemplary sadhus to this world. Recently in the Kartika-yatra, devotees from all over the world came to Sridham Mayapur. Just to take association from you and hear from you. All types of devotees are children's, youth, old and women's. Just by seeing you, people think that here is a religious person, he brings us to a spiritual platform. Actually your lifestyle and your speech is most important to this society. Just by seeing you and hearing from you they will connect with God and they will be happy. The six days during the yatra, we completely forgot our household activities, our material life, and all our domestic activity. You make us absorbed hearing about the Lord, worshipping the Lord, taking darshan of the Lord and engaging in the service of the Lord. We felt so happy. You made us realize during this yatra how can we live our whole life in the association of devotees and at the same time how to live in this world. You said that the actual yatra begins after, when we leave during this 6 days yatra. So this is how I am understanding the importance of sadhu.

Guru Maharaja, you left the home from your childhood, you left your most loving parents, you left the worshipable land and you met so many babas, saints, renouncers and you met many monks. Just to find a guru. To meet a genuine sadhu, you did so much austerity in your life. You walk towards a sadhu, but Krishna walks towards a sadhu like you. You reached the lotus feet of a pure devotee that is Srila Prabhupada and Srila Prabhupada gave you the holy dham of Goloka Vrndavana. Guru Maharaja you came to India to give association of sadhu like yourself, Srila Prabhupada went to America to teach the value of saintly person's association to people in general.

Guru Maharaja your heart is filled with the glories of Srila Prabhupada. Whatever you do, whatever you speak and all your actions is representative of Srila Prabhupada. The success of a person in spiritual life is to be attached to sadhu. Acarya also says that, to become sadhu, one should associate with sadhu. To become a pure devotee one should associate with pure devotee. It is always touching my heart that, in all your lectures there is a glorification of Srila Prabhupada. That is how you are feeling grateful and how you are blessed by Srila Prabhupada and all the Acarya's in the disciplic succession. In the same way you are teaching me how I should be grateful in the association of your lotus feet and rendering some service to your lotus feet.

Regularly hearing from you, I am able to experience the happiness that comes from pure devotional service. Krishna Consciousness. is such a blissful process one can experience in the beginning itself. In other processes it is only fruitless labor. A person may follow different religions, one may be very austere, he may be a much influenced person, he may be a very scholarly person, he may worship different demigods but unless one comes to association of pure devotee he will not be successful. In the association of a pure devotee, one can be protected by maya, one can be happy, one can understand the relationship with Krishna, and one can develop love for Krishna. In the association of a pure devotee only one can be free from sinful activity. I am very grateful to you Maharaja, by your causeless mercy today I am able to understand the glories of Srila Prabhupada.

A true sadhu always exhibits all the qualities in all the circumstances. From his point of view there is no good or bad, pain & pleasures, heat and cold and happiness & distress. Just by seeing you one will develop all the qualities. Darsane pavitra kara-ei tomara guna. Actually Sadhu is living Bhagavatam. Just by hearing from you, just by serving you, one will understand the book Bhagavatam. A living bhagavata and book bhagavata will give only qualities and devotion. I am experiencing there is no difference between book bhagavata and person bhagavata. When I contemplate all your qualities and sacrifice my heart moves to devotional service. Bhagavatam explaining about the Mrigari hunter. Just by association with Nardhamuni he became such a wonderful saint. There are so many examples in the Srimad-Bhagavatam. Guru Maharaja you are like that, you are always giving challenges to become humble, but I am failing in that area. How many times have you told me, trnadapi sunechana taroriva sahisnuna, amanena manadena kirtanaiya sadahari. When circumstances come in such a way I am a victim of a false ego. As you said the quality of a sadhu is always looking for descending mercy. That means one who is in love with his spiritual master, he can conquer anything. Sadhu means cutting the knots of the disciple. The more a disciple gives an opportunity to sadhu by means of surrender, the more he will be free from sinful activity.

Guru Maharaja on this very auspicious occasion I am deeply praying to your lotus feet, please give me your blessing to understand the qualities of your heart. Let me become more and more humble. Let me cooperate with everyone, this is Srila Prabhupada desire, not to compare anyone, rather cooperate with everyone. And engage me in the service of Srila Prabhupada mission and your lotus feet.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaja,
Please forgive all my offences at your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my most humble obeisances unto your lotus feet which are constantly travelling to purify the world.

I am really grateful to you dear Maharaja for accepting me as your kid who is worthy of your love and compassion as I am most sinful and you are the only hope for this fallen soul. I really adore you for being compassionate to each and every living being and learning to develop at least a drop of compassion. It's so much difficult for me to have this attitude of being compassionate and not find faults with others. I am not able to follow much of your instructions but trying to being an instrument by following your this instruction. I am praying for your best health everyday so that we can have your association eternally without troubling you. I am very fortunate to have a compassionate father like you who don't discriminate and gives his mercy freely to everyone like Gaur Nitai. I don't have any capacity to sing glories of your unlimited qualities due to my impurities. Hopefully someday I will be able to serve you as an instrument in your hands so that you can make me dance as you like

I am eternally grateful and indebted.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept our respectful obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga,
All glories to you Gurudeva!

Maharaja our hearts are filled with lots of joy and gratitude towards you for all that you do for us. We fear the thought of what our lives would be if we hadn't met you. Coming in contact with you has opened the treasure house of mercy for us. Although totally undeserving we are grateful for this causeless mercy. Therefore your appearance day is the most awaited festival for us. We eagerly wait for this day.

Gurudeva you are filled with an ocean of good qualities...that it's impossible to glorify you to the fullest..also due to our inability we don't know how to glorify you nicely... however we want to make an insignificant attempt so that we can express our gratitude to you and please Srila Prabhupada and all our acaryas.

Maharaja there's so much that can be said about your good self, but we want to speak of your compassion...we have been recipients of your compassion unlimited times.. however we would like to speak about the recently concluded Kartika-yatra.

Maharaja there are countless reasons for you to say that it's difficult to lead yatra now with the increase in the number of devotees. But because you are eager to give us Krishna because you are so eager to share the mercy of our acaryas with all of us you have not given up on these yatras...while it is not uncommon to spend the holy month of Kartika in seclusion going deeper in one's spritual practises... you choose to spend your time with all of us so that we can have very enriching spritual experiences which will help us continue our spritual journey. For this you have to endure so many inconveniences....we know of your health issues and how dust can cause you extreme problems...we know seating for long hours is not easy, we know that exerting yourself by speaking for long hours can cause you lot of problems... there's so much more that we don't know. But in spite of that you invite all of us for Yatra. And under your guidance the yatra committee and all the volunteers work tirelessly to give us the best facilities and experiences.

Particularly this time there were unexpected challenges that our yatra committee faced due to the cyclone. They had almost finished with the pandal and then this cyclone hit...and our pandal was filled with water. You yourself narrated how the volunteers made all the last minute arrangements and had the wooden flooring done. This was something beyond anyone's imagination the kind of effort that must have gone to make it possible is insane. The very first day when we came in the pandal our hearts were instantly filled with appreciation and gratitude for you and all the volunteers for the amazing arrangements.

Because we know it is only and only because of your constant inspiration, encouragement and empowerment all this was possible. Whatever we saw be it the beautiful pandal, or the selfless service to Varishtha Vaisnavas the way they were served in the Prasadam area which will melt anyone's heart..how kids were joyfully engaged...how the kitchen team tirelessly works...how all the other volunteers served inspite of the extreme heat and humid weather is unfathomable.

However we do know that the only purpose behind this service was to please you. Because you constantly encourage all these volunteers by appreciating them, encouraging them by visiting the places of their service. And you yourself lead by your example. Although there were various challenging situations that were faced by the Yatra team due to the cyclone..But We could see and learn, that if we just allow ourselves to be the humble instrument in the hands of Sri Guru even impossible becomes possible...and there's no material impediment for such a surrendered soul.

Thank you Maharaja for your nectarine lectures, for your soul stirring kirtanas, for your heart touching dealings with your God brothers and sisters thank you for giving us these most memorable and precious moments. Thank you for giving us your association for entire one week... like the Govardhan Lila, where Krishna was with all the brajvasis for seven days...and how He reciprocated with each and everyone... similarly through these yatras you are giving us your personal association and reciprocating with each and every devotee through your lectures, kirtanas, japa all throughout...while we just long for this time of the year. We also understand how challenging it is to continue with these yatras with every passing year. And if this is happening then it is only and only because of your desire to serve everyone, because of your desire to bring everyone closer to Krishna by giving them blissful experiences. For which you have to compromise on your health.

We hope and pray that we never forget how much hard work and sacrifice goes behind every experience we get. And we can reciprocate by becoming better in our practices.

On this auspicious day we pray that you are blessed with good health and long life so that you can bring unlimited hope in many suffering souls lives by giving them Krishna. We also pray that we value whatever we have received. And Maharaja as you mentioned we truly want to be happy and grateful for everything. We also pray that we can serve you in a pleasing way

Thank you for everything Maharaja!
Seeking your blessings.
With lots of gratitude,
Aspiring to be the servant of your servants,

Respected and Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

A devotee once asked you a profound question: "What can be the greatest blessing one can receive from one's Spiritual Master and Lordships?" Your response amazed and mesmerized all of us present, and it has since become the foundation of my spiritual life. You said, "It is not personal association or personal instruction from the Spiritual Master. It is by the mercy of Guru and Gauranga that we enter the sampradaya. But even greater than this is their allowing us entrance into a spiritual community where Bhakti is both the center and the goal."

Reflecting on Srila Prabhupada's teachings and your emphasis on cultivating proper Vaisnava etiquette has made the significance of this teaching clearer now than ever before. While living in a devotee community can sometimes feel challenging or intense due to my own shortcomings, you have taught us how to balance intensity with sensitivity, helping us navigate these experiences with grace and humility.

On another occasion, a devotee asked, "What does it mean to chant with the heart?" Your response was so nourishing and hope-giving. You explained that the heart is the seed of desires, and chanting from the heart means cultivating desires for pure devotional service and the pleasure of Vaisnavas, Guru, and Krishna. You challenged us to reflect: "What desires are you cultivating? Do you want pure devotional service, or are you just trying to get your rounds done?" Chanting from the heart, you said, means crying out to the holy names with the earnest desire to purify oneself of all anarthas, with disgust for one's lower nature, and a deep longing to become a pure devotee.

Practicing spiritual life and maintaining purity in such a distracted and conflict-ridden world can feel daunting at times. Yet, your wisdom, teachings, and anecdotes from your personal life provide hope and dispel ignorance. Thank you for the countless blessings you have showered upon me—be it in the form of devotee association, the shelter of inspiring seniors, or service opportunities. You have given us everything, yet I often struggle, due to my lower nature, to fully appreciate and maintain gratitude for all the gifts and kindness I have received through your mercy. I pray for your blessings to serve the Vaisnavas sincerely, keeping aside my false ego, and to take shelter of the holy names of the Lord with all sincerity, remembering your instruction on how to chant with the heart.

On this auspicious occasion of Vyasapuja, I humbly pray for the strength to become steadfast in my spiritual practice and to follow your instructions sincerely and without ulterior motives.

The recent weeklong association in Mayapur was a profound experience. The atmosphere was surcharged with the consciousness of service, and it was inspiring to witness devotees from all walks of life united in their endeavor to please you, Srila Prabhupada, and the Lordships.

I pray for your good health and a long life. I beg to become an instrument of your grace, serving under the guidance of your trusted followers, and to dedicate my life in the spirit of service to Guru and Gauranga.

Dear Gurudeva, please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

This is the moment that personally I can connect with you. The days, months and years are passing and I am unable to count your unlimited qualities, your sacrifice for Srila Prabhupada, your loving dealings with your god brothers everything is fascinating. How you carry your attachment for Vrndavana that everyone can see, and the example is Radha Gopinatha alter, then corner of Radha Gopinatha where you created Vrndavana garden and now manifestation of Govardhan Eco Village all this shows nothing but your love for Vrndavana.

Gurudeva time is passing but there is no change in character, no devotion for you and Srila Prabhupada what to speak of attachment for Krishna Balaram, everything is showing off. Don't know when I will be able to serve without any selfishness and without cheating propensity, and when I will able to please you, trying to fulfill the desire of Srila Prabhupada's Self sufficiency and Varnasham but all attempts are failing. From all the sides nothing but scattered life seeing including in family life, need your mercy and blessings so that in this life even if I become human being and try to serve you the life will be some degree successful. Thank you very much for giving Vrndavana shelter.

First of all my Humble obeisances to you my dear Guru mahraj

You have unlimited qualities of Vaisnavas which I cannot describe in my limited words and with my tiny brain but I would like to express my feelings which inspire me a lot to follow, Even if can follow fraction of that quality I will feel my life is successful.

Guru Maharaja you are personifiaction of care and service attitude who teaches how to serve Vaisnavas by his personal examples whether it may be serving HH Bhakti Tirtha Goswami mararaj.

Guru Maharaja youn teaches us how to chant with full absorption..I saw you Maharaja during karttik yatra how much you are so much absorbed.

Guru Maharaja has child like Simplicity. He is innocent in front of his God Brothers,I personally witness incident when mahraj you met with HH jayapataka swami Maharaja.

I pray from Sri Sri RadhaGopinatha jiand gaura Nitai that Lord give good Healtn so that we can get more your association.

Dear mahraj please bless me so that I can follow the 4 regulative principles very strictly and chant my 16 round nicely.Also I can serve Srila Prabhupada mission and remain in association of Vaisnavas.

Me my wife(Surabhi) and my Mataji(Madhura Gopi Devi Dasi) are so very grateful for having you accepting us as your disciples. May Lord Krishna gives us the Willingness and Sincerity to serve you and Srila Prabhupada. May Lord give you Best Health so that you can shelter more devotees.

We are grateful that you have given such teachings and such standards to Radha Gopinatha temple Bramhacharis and with their association and preaching we are getting spiritual nourishment.

You have inculcated such good devotee care and counseling system that devotees feel sheltered like family. Of your immense qualities I pray to Lord to give us a tiny particle of gratitude which can transform our dealings.

You have done a lot of sacrifices and by your mercy we are able to relish Krishna Consciousness..

Please pray for our baby due date is 27th January 2025 so that baby can also become a nice devotee.

Hare Krishna Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept our humble obeisance on to your divine lotus feet.
All Glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada!
All Glories to you, Gurudeva! Happy 74th Appearance Day!

With gratitude and sincere devotion, we begin our simple offering to you. Please forgive us if we have made any offences in this process. In this dukhalayam asasvatam, you gave us a purpose of life: to transform our selfishness to selflessness, our illusion that we are the doer to understanding our constitutional position as the servitor of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. What you did for us was nothing less than a spiritual revolution – you empowered many and continue to empower each and every one of us with principles of Krishna Consciousness. and opportunities to serve Shri Radha Giridhari and His devotees in the mood of dasanudas.

Your lectures are filled with your instructions for your disciples, the prime one being that whatever we offer to guru and Lord Krishna must be done with gratitude. We are striving to follow your firm statement that progress in bhakti needs humility and should be done with a grateful heart, in a way to please the object of service. However the most important being to curtain one's ego is not to find faults in others. You say finding faults that do not help them progress in bhakti will bring about our degradation. This is going to be our goal Gurudeva, to be appreciative of others and co-operative with other devotees in our service to you and the Lord.

You are an epitome of compassion and spreading Srila Prabhupada's Mission, to help fallen souls. We always pray to serve at your lotus feet, birth after birth. Gurudeva, your mercy being unlimited and unconditional, please grant us this benediction. On this glorious and the most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, we pray to Shri Shri Radha Giridhari for your long life and good health, so that more fallen souls like us, can have a ray of hope under your shelter. We are begging for your mercy to uplift us from this fallen state. We do get association of visiting god brothers from India who are representing your mood. That gives us the feeling that you are always there through them to guide us.

Thank you for setting spiritual standards for us to follow. We will do our best to follow those standards given the fact of recognizing our fallen conditioned state. You have personally instructed us to be an exemplary and be an instrument in Srila Prabhupada's mission and to lead a life that makes Krishna happy. Also, we understand clearly Compassion, sincerity, humility and gratitude have been your key focus, and we are requesting your mercy to guide us to perform our seva in those lines that make you happy.

Finally, in a state of submissiveness and humility, Gurudeva, we are begging your Holiness for more opportunities to serve the congregation, Srila Prabhupada and other devotees in a way that makes them happy. Thank you for listening to us Gurudeva.

Hare Krishna Srila Gurudeva,
Please Accept my humble obeisances.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

A few years back, in one of the lectures, I heard one of the desires of Srila Prabhupada was to establish the Daivi Varnashrama system. How wonderful it will be and how much Srila Prabhupada will be happy if it becomes true as soon as possible. There is so much to do, but sometimes anxiety comes: who will do it, and when will it happen? If the desire is there but with no qualifications, then nothing much can be done,e, Gurudeva. So, being insignificant, I expressing my humble desire for your holiness. I hope by Krishna's mercy and Gauranga's mercy, it will happen very soon. With your mercy definitely, one day, it will happen, and Srila Prabhupada will be most pleased. Waiting for that day to come Gurudeva.

You are an inspiration to me in every part of my spiritual life, and without your mercy, I can hardly think of any progress or do any tangible service in my life. The heart is full of anarthas, no purity, but only this desire is there along with many of the other material desires.

Whatever I am trying to do in my own insignificant way is a humble attempt to please you. Thank you very much for giving everything in my life, I can't repay in any way. I can simply try to be humble to accept your mercy and offer my gratitude to you and Srila Prabhupada in my own insignificant way. Thank you very much, Gurudeva; thank you.

Thank you Srila Prabhupada.

Just want to glorify to one whose glories are insufficient as MAHA SAGAR, and for my own purification.

Just in few words.....

Maharj your lectures are necture, as the glories of the Lord is spoken by ur words is Amrita....pure necture.

As when my councillor suggest me to hear ur lectures but I always give some excuses that I don't understand and all this things.

Literally,when I little tried to hear it..... wow I was amazed.....the glories of Lord and the instructions from lilas of Lord. It was amazing. The teachings of Lord Caitanya and teachings of Acarya's explained by ur lotus mouth is amazing.

As we know we cannot take the necture from lotus,just knowing that it is there in that. But a bee can take the necture from it and give it to every one.

Your inspiration to know the absolute truth and ur journey to home is very much inspiring...a great thanks to HH Bhakti Tirth swami Maharaja..... For giving us opportunity to know ur story.??

Thank u Maharaja for inspiring us and giving and make us to understand the real instructions of Gaur sundar and Srila Prabhupada.

Please Accept My Humble Obediences unto your lotus feet

First time when I saw you and heard about you Maharaja, since that day I felt like you are the one to whom I have to surrender myself. In other words, for the rest of life I felt I should serve Srila Prabhupada as a surrendered soul at your lotus feet.

In my initial days coming to ISKCON, I started knowing little about who is Guru and his importance in life. At that time I was thinking to whom should I surrender?

Then I heard your pastimes about the compassion, love and affection. I started reading the Journey home book which was gifted by a senior devotee from our congregation then I started knowing about you more and more and felt gratitude and prayed to Krishna "please give me your mercy so that I can be situated in doing Maharaja's Vani Seva and follow his instructions all the time."

The way you always guide that one should give importance to family, and to everyone else and that they are Krishna's people sent here for us to serve. Then I realised how important it is to serve them selflessly. This one instruction brings a lot of changes in my life i.e, -The way how I behave with them and how they behave with me.

Praying to Krishna to follow in your foot steps and be in Krishna and Guru Parampara's Seva all the time with your motivation, guidance, love and care.

Seeking blessings from Krishna and Srila Prabhupada to serve your lotus feet, and be a humble insignificant servant.

Dearest Guru Maharaja ji,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your divine grace on this most auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja.

As I sit here reflecting on the immense journey my life has taken since I came under your merciful guidance, I cannot help but feel a deep sense of gratitude and reverence for the way you have changed my heart and illuminated the true path of devotion. Before I met you, Maharaja, I was wandering, seeking the true value of life. Though I had material success, my heart always yearned for something deeper—something that would satisfy the soul. There was a void that could not be filled with worldly pleasures and achievements. I was lost, seeking meaning but unsure of where to turn.

When I first encountered your teachings, something awakened within me. Your compassionate heart, your deep wisdom, and your love for Krishna shone through every word you spoke. It was as though you were speaking directly to my soul, reminding me of my eternal nature and my relationship with the Supreme Lord. I began to understand that the true purpose of life is not to seek fleeting happiness in the material world, but to develop a loving relationship with Krishna through devotional service.

Your life is the perfect embodiment of humility, service, and unconditional love. Through your example, I learned that real fulfillment comes not from personal gain, but from selflessly serving the Lord and His devotees. The way you care for each and every soul, offering guidance and love without judgment, touched my heart deeply. It was through you, Maharaja, that I began to see Krishna's hand in everything and understand that everything is part of His divine plan.

You gave me the strength to face life's challenges with faith and devotion. There were times when I felt lost in the complexities of this material world, but your teachings brought clarity and purpose. You taught me to embrace every moment as an opportunity for service and surrender, to offer everything—joys and sorrows—at the lotus feet of Krishna. Through your example, I learned to see life not as a series of obstacles, but as a journey back to Godhead.

One of the most profound lessons you have taught me is the value of humility. Watching you, Maharaja, interact with devotees and people from all walks of life, I have been struck by your kindness, patience, and ability to uplift everyone around you. Despite your elevated position, you remain grounded in your humility, always giving credit to Krishna and Srila Prabhupada. This has been a powerful lesson for me, as I realized that true leadership is rooted in service and compassion.

Through your mercy, I have also come to understand the importance of community and association with devotees. You have shown me that the real wealth of life is found in loving relationships with other devotees, who share the common goal of pleasing Krishna. You have created a spiritual family where we can all grow together, support one another, and deepen our devotion.

Maharaja, as I continue on this journey, I pray that I may always remain under your shelter. Your presence in my life has transformed me in ways I could never have imagined. I now know that the true value of life is to live in service to Krishna, to love unconditionally, and to spread His message of compassion to others. I pray that I may always be an instrument of your divine mission, and that I may never forget the lessons of humility, service, and surrender that you have so lovingly imparted.

On this sacred day, I offer my heartfelt prayers at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha and Krishna that They may continue to bestow Their blessings upon you. May you continue to inspire and guide countless souls on the path of devotion, just as you have transformed my life.

Dandavat Pranama my dear Guruji, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you, with immense love and devotion, a very Happy 74th Birthday. May Sri Krishna shower you with the choicest blessings and grant you good health and eternal happiness. Maharaja, you are my spiritual father. Can I say, "Happy Birthday, Dad?"

Thank you for lovingly guiding me, a fallen soul, and for giving me the great fortune of Brahmin initiation. You've taught me how to love and serve my family while becoming less dependent on "me and mine" and more reliant on Radha-Giridhari. Your teachings, especially to always live by trnad api sunicena, taror iva sahisnuna… have transformed my heart and life. In life's dualities—whether fear, calamities, or even moments of joy—I feel you and Srila Prabhupada standing by my sides, holding my hands. Your presence empowers me, nourishes my soul, and gives me the strength to face challenges. Though I connect with you daily through books, audio, and video recordings, I deeply miss the personal touch.

In 2023, by your mercy, I had the first opportunity of my life to dress the deities at the Central New Jersey Plainsfield temple. It was a blissful experience, and tears of joy overwhelmed me. I wondered how I deserved this. The answer was clear—it was only by the mercy of you, Srila Prabhupada, and the many Vaisnavas. I am forever indebted.

Maharaja, I am especially grateful for your prayer in Mayapur Yatra 2017 for my dying mother. You had everyone chant the Mahamantra as I showed you her on my phone. That moment of grace touched my heart profoundly. I also want to thank you for naming my grandaughter Champak lata sakhi in 2020. I also wish I could have had your touch during the passing away of my aged father and both in-laws, but it was not destined to be. I tried, but..... I wonder how others can get to you immediately during times of emergencies. Your personal presence and blessings are invaluable to me, especially during times of birth and death.

Maharaja, may I humbly request to connect with you on WhatsApp (+91-8879994996)? It would mean the world to me to feel your support during such times of need. Please trust that I would not trouble you unnecessarily, only during emergencies when I deeply need your guidance. I also dream of hosting you one day and serving you Sindhi food cooked with love. But I don't want a crowd. My family and friends would feel immensely blessed to experience your magical touch and smile, which I know would inspire them toward Krishna Consciousness.. I know your schedule is busy, but I pray that someday you will accept this humble invitation.

Your achievements in establishing so many projects, your melodious kirtanas, and your gift of storytelling are like salt and water—indispensable. I cannot imagine a day without your divine influence.

I pray for the strength and determination to sincerely follow your teachings and serve as a humble servant of your mission.

Tumi ta' thakura, tomara kukura, baliya janaha more: "O my father, my dear Guru Maharaja, please consider me your dog. Kindly keep me always engaged in your service."

Krishna se tomara, Krishna dite para: "Krishna is your property, and if you engage me in your service, Krishna will be very pleased."

Thank you for accepting me under your care. I pray for your continued good health and longevity. Please never leave me—I don't know where I would go without you. You are my life, my strength, and my greatest blessing.

Please forgive my childishness, and know that my gratitude for you is beyond words.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On the auspicious day of your appearance and all year, I pray to the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Londonisvara, Jagannath Baldev Subhadra Maharahi, Giri Govardhan, and Sri Sri Gaura Nitai to shower their unlimited blessings upon you and give you good health.

There are several points you stress most in your discourses, of which these are most dear to my heart: humility and service with no ulterior motives.

Offering respects to others and expecting none in return, I pray onto you for your blessings so that I can imbibe some of the qualities that you stress in your classes and help you in your service to Srila Prabhupada.

The way you describe Gaura lila is so sweet; every time we hear these pastimes from you, we feel that you are witnessing it live and narrating it and porting us into it.

Your singing of Gauranga bhajans & Hare Krishna is nectar to my ears and has left a permanent impression on my heart.

The yatras have become so big, so many devotees are being served so nicely—this is all because of your empowerment and desire.

I am eternally grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple and initiating me into the chanting of the Hare Krishna mahamantra and giving me the privilege to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Worshipful Guru Maharaaj,

The offering I am writing has been written in my mind about five months ago-July 2024.

I was so made to meditate in a way that filled me with inspiration and energy, and therefore, I decided to make you this offering then, five months ago during Kolkata Rathyatra.

While offering some service in an insignificant way, I was made to realize your very significant and unique contribution to ISKCON society and the universe.

I was made aware of how the devotees inspired and initiated by you have been so exemplary in my life. You have created a wave of enthusiasm, a culture, and an education to be happy in selfless, humble service.

I was made aware that, during Rathyatra, your disciples and followers were wholeheartedly engaged in background services that were vital but fetched no recognition.

Even from a gross, non-devotional perspective, they are some of the best human beings on the planet. They epitomize sacrifice and detachment just as you have been living your whole life.

They exhibit the maturity to unite the entire community and bring our larger ISKCON family together in the service of Srila Prabhupada and Radha Govindaji. In that, they take the humble roles for uplifting social values in the community to dispel any reason for discord and disunity.

Your disciples and followers, even though some of the most qualified members of our community, don't crave posts and positions in ISKCON Kolkata, a multi-guru community. They rejoice in and strive to imbibe selfless service as has been exemplified by you.

In my travels too, I observe some of the most sincere devotees of the community are your disciples or aspiring disciples.

I feel very fortunate to have been associated with them and to have been a recipient of their service. I have realized, unlike them, I'm utterly insincere and have a long, way to be called your 'disciple.'

Worshipful Maharaja, I sincerely bow down to the miraculous effect you've created within ISKCON, with deep gratitude and happiness.

Your unworthy servant.

The following two instances shared by HH Bhakti Rasamrita Sindhu Maharaja about HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja. First, Maharaja was asked by a journalist, Behind every successful man there is a woman, so who is behind you? and Maharaja promptly answered, Srimati Radharani. Second, Maharaja instructed that every devotee should always aspire to become the servant of the servant of the devotee. These instances have a deep meaning, and they inspired me. Thank you, Guru Maharaja!

Dear Radhanatha Swami
Please accept my humble obeisance's. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

The saying: "United we stand, divided we fall" is very true in the case of Your Divine Grace. You are uniting the world of devotees by always dealing so friendly with the devotees. The friendly relationship you keep with all your Godbrothers and Godsisters gives strength to everyone and make us stand together. Everyone is nourished by such loving exchanges by Your Divine Grace. Therefore, Your Divine Grace has become the life and soul of the devotees.

Lord Caitanya has said that His name will be heard in every town and village, and Your Divine Grace is wonderfully assisting Srila Prabhupada and the whole Guruparampara in fulfilling this prediction. You are constantly absorbed in thinking of the Lord and how to help spread this mission of Krishna Consciousness. all over the world. With great love you are taking up this task of travelling all over the world and inspiring thousands of conditioned souls to take up the process of Krishna Consciousness.. The face of the world will change. The only hope for a conditioned soul is to come in contact with a pure devotee by taking shelter of him, becoming initiated by him and obeying his instructions. Your Divine Grace are compassionately taking up this responsibility by becoming the guru of so many fallen conditioned souls. You are the greatest saviour.

Your Divine Grace has a remarkable dedication and determination to avoid anything that is not favourable for devotional service. You do not like to hear any gossip or negative talk about other devotees, and in this way your enthusiasm for devotional service is always fixed. You always want to talk and hear about Krishna. You have so much taste, and your moonlike transcendental taste is affecting so many others. Kali is losing his power and influence. People are gradually losing their taste for all that Kali has to offer.

The loving qualities Your Divine Grace are manifesting, reveals that you are a very sincere devotee. You have a strong desire for pure devotional service free from desire for jnana or karma. You have with and humility taken fully shelter of the Lord and has made the Lord the Supreme goal in life. Your Divine Grace is very, very dear to Krishna.

Thank you for giving me shelter at your lotus feet and letting me have the opportunity to assist you in your mission with whatever little service I can do. I am very grateful that Your Divine Grace has given me shelter at your lotus feet and accepting me as your disciple. It is all your mercy that we can absorb ourselves in the happiness of spreading Krishna Consciousness. with other devotees. Last year and this year my senior godbrother Navina Nirada prabhu graciously visited Scandinavia and I had the opportunity to travel with him for some weeks. We pray to be able to continue to serve you in this way, and that we will be able to please you with our service and development of Vaisnava qualities.

Absorption

Gurudeva your qualities are as difficult to describe as crossing the vast ocean. One of your qualities of absorption in whatever you do is very endearing whether it is worshipping the deities doing abhishek doing Dandawat to Prabhupada or giving class at Sri Sri RadhaGopinatha temple. You totally absorb yourself to whatever devotional activity you are doing and you put your heart and soul into it. The intensity of your absorption is exemplary and we pray to Sri Sri RadhaGopinatha to help us to follow in your footsteps.

Humility

Gurudeva you are the shining example of trnad api sunicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana dena kirtanaiyah sada harih. During the hampi yatra I had opportunity to personally see that you did dandawat to all the Matajis who were doing sewa. Inspite of being such a exalted sanyasi your humble and merciful nature is always appreciable.

Pls always guide and bless me. I Pray to RadhaGopinatha to keep you always healthy and pray for long life and whatever problems you face to get transferred to me.

महाराज जी के चरणों में कोटि कोटि प्रणाम

२०२४ की मायापुर की यात्रा महाराज जी की कृपा से हम कर पाए। हमारी ज़रा सी भी योग्यता नहीं थी धाम में जाने की लेकिन महाराज जी की और वैष्णवों की कृपा से सबकुछ संभव हो पाया।

वहां पहुँचकर जो अदभुत दृश्य देखने को मिला उसका वर्णन अवर्णनीय है फिर भी अपनी टूटी फूटी लेखनी से लिखने का प्रयास करते है। सबसे पहले तो वहाँ की अदभुत व्यवस्था चाहे वो प्रसादम की हो , पानी की हो, रहने की हो , धाम दर्शन की हो या लेक्चर की हो। सभी में बहुत बहुत आनंद आया। महाराज जी का अपने गुरु भाईयों और गुरु बहनों से जो स्नेहपूर्ण व्यवहार है उससे बहुत प्रेरणा मिली।

महाराज जी के लेक्चर के बाद परम आदरणीय जय पताका स्वामी जी के श्रीमुख से प्रवचन सुनने को मिला साथ ही १०००० भक्तों का दिव्य दर्शन और संग मिला।

अपने प्रवचन के माध्यम से महाराज जी ने इतनी सकारात्मक ऊर्जा का संचार किया जिसको हम अभी भी अनुभव कर रहे है और करते रहेंगे।

श्रील भक्तिविनोद ठाकुर जी की भविष्यवाणी कि मायापुर में एक स्थान पर देश विदेश से भक्त आकर हरिनाम संकीर्तन करेंगे ,इस भविष्यवाणी को सार्थक किया परमपूज्य राधानाथ स्वामी महाराज जी ने। पाकिस्तान बॉर्डर में जब महाराजजी को रोका गया था तब महाराज जी ने ये वहाँ के ऑफिसर से वादा किया था कि मै भारत में आकर असंख्य जनों का भला करूँगा तो वही महाराज जी कर रहे है।

धन्य है श्रील गुरुदेव

Many many salutes to the feet of Maharaja ji.

We were able to travel to Mayapur in 2024 with the grace of Maharaja ji. We did not have the slightest ability to go to the Dham, but with the grace of Maharaja ji and the Vaisnavas, everything was possible.

The description of the wonderful scene that we got to see after reaching there is indescribable, yet I try to write it with my broken pen. First of all, the wonderful arrangements there, whether it was for Prasadam, water, accommodation, Dham Darshan or lecture. I enjoyed everything very much. Maharaja ji's affectionate behavior with his Guru brothers and Guru sisters inspired me a lot.

After Maharaja ji's lecture, I got to hear the discourse from the holy mouth of the most respected Jai Pataka Swami ji, as well as got the divine darshan and company of 10000 devotees.

Through his discourse, Maharaja ji infused so much positive energy that we still remember it We are experiencing this and will continue to do so.

Srila Bhakti Vinod Thakur Ji's prophecy that devotees from all over the country and abroad will come to one place in Mayapur and do Hari Naam Sankirtana, Param Pujya Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji made this prophecy come true. When Maharaja Ji was stopped at the Pakistan border, Maharaja Ji had promised the officer there that I will come to India and do good to countless people, and that is what Maharaja Ji is doing.

Srila Prabhupada Ji had prayed to Advaitacarya Ji here before going abroad that I may fulfill the command of my Guru. Just like Srila Prabhupada fulfilled the command of his Guru, similarly Param Pujya Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji fulfilled the holy command of his Guru Srila Prabhupada by bringing together so many devotees here under one umbrella.

Blessed is Srila Gurudeva ????

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada
All Glories to you, Gurudeva.

On 10th November 2024, you arrived at the house of Mr. S K Behera, Vice Chairman and Managing Director of RSB Transmissions, at Circuit House in Jamshedpur, as they had invited you to be the chief guest to address 5000 people on the occasion of their organization's 50th anniversary scheduled on 11th November 2024 at Plant No. 3 of RSB Transmissions.

To assist the Behera family in whichever ways possible, I reached Jamshedpur on 8th November 2024. On 9th November I met with our host Mr. S K Behera at his residence. During our conversation, Mr. S K Behera asked me, as a disciple, how do you address H H Radhanath Swami? I said we address H. H. Radhanath Swami as Maharaja; he then said you shouldn't be addressing Swamiji as Maharaja; in our town we address cooks as Maharaja.

Although I couldn't respond to him at that point in time, I kept thinking about this for some time, and when I dived deeper, then I felt, isn't it amazing how a cook transforms raw vegetables by peeling them, cleaning them, and chopping them into something meaningful? A cook creates multiple dishes out of vegetables, which we see in the form of a menu in restaurants; the best part is Srimati Radharani also happens to be the best transcendental cook, who transforms varieties of vegetables in the creation of unique dishes for Krishna, which she never repeats again.

Similarly, great personalities like you who follow in the footsteps of the servant of the servant of Srimati Radharani are like the travelling cooks who extensively travel to different parts of the world to transform the lives of millions of people who are lost in this material world due to a lack of higher purpose.

The best part is you even freely share your multiple recipes with others through your personal example and the first recipe is recipe of HUMILITY, Gurudeva on 10th November when you arrived at the railway station, you were having difficulty in walking, you were having difficulty in speaking, as disciples some of us were very scared to see you in that condition, when you entered the house of Mr. S K Behera, with great difficulty and with humility you said to them, I wont be able to spend time with you today please give me time until tomorrow, I'm glad their entire family which was eagerly waiting to interact with you was very accommodating, this was at 6:45pm and around 7:30pm you were scheduled to informally interact with around 25 family members which was going to be followed by Damodarastakam prayers.

After you went to take a rest, the next morning, 11th November 2024, around 7:45 am, when you got out of your room, you had a big smile on your face. You said, My health is fully restored; I can do whatever the Behera family wants me to do. You first go and apologize to them on my behalf for not being able to serve them yesterday. I went and communicated the same to them; they will be overjoyed not because you apologized to them but because you were back in good health.

Then on 11th November, after interacting with you from 9:30 am to 11:30 am, the entire Behera family was fully satisfied. Then another request came from them: if you could visit their plant, you agreed to that. When you were at the plant, it was not a mere formality; you took interest in everything they were showing by being as personal as possible so their enthusiasm level continues to be on the rise. You even shared with them the commonalities that are there between them and you, how your father, from the age of 15 until the age of 90, was also in the business of auto components. From there you visited another plant, and then finally you were at the venue where over 5000 people were eagerly waiting to listen to you. When the time came for you to speak again with humility, you began with the words, I am a simple Swami who doesn't know anything about the business world; the reality is today many businesses are grappling due to a lack of people-centricity; if they get this element from simple Swami, then their lives will change.

The second recipe is the recipe of gratitude. When you were about to leave the venue, you were expressing your gratitude to whoever was coming in your way for giving their time to listen to you, expressing your gratitude to the Behera family for allowing you to serve many people through them.

The third recipe is the Recipe of Unconditional Love. From common people to high fliers, anyone who comes in touch with you will certainly say the amount of love you offer to everyone is the same. When I was interacting with Mr. R K Behera, Chairman of RSB Transmission, who has met you on three occasions in the last 10 years, he said, Whenever I have met H H Radhanath Swami, I have always experienced the same amount of warmth and love; those few interactions filled with unconditional love had a lifelong positive impact on him. He said I have met many Sadhus, but no one has touched my heart the way H. H. Radhanath Swami has done. When I first met Mr. R K Behera, elder brother of Mr. S K Behera and Chairman of RSB Transmissions, he said the only personality I desire to have during the biggest event of my life, which is the 50th anniversary of my organization, is H.H. Radhanath Swami. When you accepted his request, it was a dream come true for him. In a few interactions, Gurudeva, you have conquered him and now his entire family with your unconditional love.

When it comes to humility, gratitude, and unconditional love, you STRETCH yourself to any possible extent simply to ensure the person at the other end—doesn't matter who that person is—is not disappointed.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, I pray to Srimati Radharani that one day I take your recipes seriously so I can evolve from a raw muddy vegetable and get transformed by getting washed, peeled, and chopped into a meaningful dish that you feel worthy of offering in the service of the servant of the servant of the servant of the Supreme Lord.

Respected Guru Maharaja, Hare Krishna! Please accept my humble obeisances! Jai Srila Prabhupada! Guru Maharaja, you bring out the best of your disciples by your own example (yuktasya bhaktanshcha niyunjatopi). You are a living example of scriptures (person bhagvata) role model and great source of inspiration for everyone. Particularly when any anarthas or difficulty come in our life, one can very easily meditate on you and your life and activities and get strength and inspiration to carry on. In Srimad-Bhagavatam, we cannot repay you even by rendering devotional service for the total durations of one thousand universal creations. You have shed millions of buckets of blood, you take unimaginable pains, and you do so many personal sacrifices at the cost of your health or your spirituality (which is your only treasure) to give spiritual wealth to poor and fallen people of Kali yuga, so undoubtedly you are very dear to Shri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and previous acaryas. It reminds us of the pastime of Shriman Caitanya Mahaprabhu with King Prataprudra when Shri Chaaitainya Mahaprabhu was repeatedly saying bhurida janah. You are such a Bhurida Janah. Your lectures and kirtanas are full of an ocean of nectar and overflowing with knowledge needed to carry on spiritual life without hindrance, and there is no need to go anywhere else. Particularly, I am so poor in understanding the scriptures. But your lectures give deep understanding and practical knowledge to carry on in spiritual life. Everyone and Mother Earth is greatly blessed by having you with them. Your servant Maharaas Devi Dasi

Hare Krishna, Dandavat Pranama Maharaja,

I lack the words to fully express my gratitude to you Maharaja. I will keep this offering brief, as I do not wish to take up too much of your valuable time.

Maharaja, your book, "The Journey Home", truly saved my life. Had it not been for your guidance through "Journey home", I might have taken a much darker path, perhaps even ending my life by suicide or causing serious harm to my near and dear ones. Your words transformed me from a demon to human being. I felt emotions which I never felt. First time I felt loved by someone. First time I felt to serve others without any hidden agenda.

The Love, Care & attention to details by congregational devotees under your leadership is still inspiring me to serve Lord Krishna, & is helping me gradually become a devotee. By the grace of the Vaisnavas, I have done my best to repeat the teachings whenever possible, and by the mercy of Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, many sincere souls are embracing Krishna Consciousness..

Maharaja, I am forever indebted to you for the love and care you have shown to all of us.

Dearmost Maharaja
PLZ accept my humble obeisances, Hare Krishna. Jai Srila Prabhupada

I'm Dr. Maneshkumar, a friend of Shehnai Prabhu who joined ISKCON in 1996 from j JJ Hospital.I'm continuing my devotional service under ur affectionate care of ur lectures and under loving Shiksha guru H.G.Gaurang Prabhu. For the last 28-29 years, due to various reasons having the intense will to meet you for your blessing and mercy, I could not. I have introduced first and foremost to Beloved Srilla Prabhupadin your long lectures, which I used to hear after January 1996 till 2005, when I used to regularly attend ur lectures at ?????? temple. A sincere will to serve Srila Prabhupada arose in my mind at that time only when I used to hear ur lectures retentively. A fallen soul like me is still in the queue to get your mercy by initiation from you. I'm happily doing my devotional service with my wife and one son. Hare Krishna.Jai Srila Prabhupada

I offered my respectful obeisances un to lotus feet of Gurudeva

I was born in small village of Maharashtra in Kshatriya family with spiritual background but as usual I follow spirituality as ritual without knowledge since my child hood. I grown up and my priorities of life get changed later on I went for higher education in college and planning for enjoying material point of view that is sense gratification mentality.

If I don't meet devotees who are inspired by H. H. Radhanath swami Maharaja then I will definitely get spoiled by all bad habits of sense gratification. I saw Gurudeva first time at Golibar Maidan, Pune 14,15,16th February 2005 in National youth festival organized by ISKCON TEMPLE PUNE. There I heard lecture on Teaching of Rushabhdev to his sons and I get attracted by purity of Maharaja amongst all devotees gathered in that festival. Later on I joined Brahmacari Asram of Nasik ISKCON temple by hearing Maharaja lecture on Thorne and Priks of Grahastha Asram in that Maharaja guided every one should try to take training of Brahamchari Asram at least few days for stedy spiritual life I tried to follow Maharaja instructions through that lecture due my conditioning I change my mind and entered into Grahatha Asram and remain connected with devotees. Thank you Gurudeva for accepting such rascal, fool, and sense gratifire like me as your deciple by your causeless mercy now I am relishing association of devotees, chanting and service of preaching of Vedic wisdom magically when you accepted me second time through Brahman initiation

I aspiring as your servant of servent eternally I pray at the Lotus feet of SHRI SHRI RADHAGOPINATHA for giving you good health and long life for delivering dirty demons like me who are the servent of there senses, bad habits and kaliyug. Gurudeva your causeless mercy is only the hope for me.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Your Journey to Home book has been a torchlight for so many people around the world who have finally found the path to their original home, back to Godhead. I'm also one of those who got hold of that torchlight and trying to progress in that path with the help of your instructions, your disciples, your teachings and last but not the least your love and loyalty to your spiritual master Srila Prabhupada. You have set a personal example of how a disciple should abide by the instructions of his spiritual master without any deviation. You're the epitome of trinad api sunicena verse. I never feel far away from you because your presence is felt through your instructions. I pray at your lotus feet to shower mercy on this fallen soul so that I can try to do vani seva to whatever extent possible and serve you in your spiritual master's mission.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I thank Krishna and the guru parampara for having you and your representatives in my life, so that an ignorant jiva like me, wandering in this material world, can receive Krishna Consciousness. and perfect my life.

Hearing your glorifications from my seniors and reading about you made you the spiritual hero of my life. Hearing about your wonderful pastimes and reading about you makes me feel more and more connected to you. From your oceanic qualities, I am trying to convey not even a drop.

I would like to remember some of the activities I have heard about and seen:

How much importance you give Mangalacharan, and by your example, you have inspired so many devotees to seek the mercy of the guru parampara before performing any activity.

How you tirelessly serve in this sankirtana movement, especially in New Vrndavana, performing all the deity services with dedication, hardly getting any time to sleep, and yet continuing to read Srila Prabhupada's books, even walking while reading.

Your intense and inspiring chanting. During this Kartika-yatra, I observed that before your arrival at the pandal, our chanting was often inattentive and unfocused. But after your arrival, your divine presence and intense chanting inspired all of us, and our chanting improved drastically.

I am also deeply inspired by how much importance you give to Vaisnava etiquettes, dealing with devotees, and serving them. Your strong Vani on Vaisnava Sadachar has united many jivas to serve Hari, Guru, and Vaisnavas. Through your personal example, you have shown how important the devotees around us are. In your large projects, big congregations, and even in relationships among Brahmacaris and grihasthas, you have empowered devotees to embody the Vaisnava etiquettes you hold in your heart. You initially taught devotees how to build wonderful relationships among themselves.

I recall hearing about an incident in 1988 or 1989 when you had malaria and were in the hospital. You told the devotees, "This malaria is very painful, but I am not worried about this pain. My heart pains when I see devotees fighting among themselves. If you all stop fighting and arguing, I will get better quickly." Your compassion and mercy have kept the Gopinatha temple on the right track.

As your compassion continues to spread, jivas like me are coming into contact with your preaching and getting the wonderful opportunity to hear about you, talk about you, and aspire for your Vani and Vapu association.

I pray at your lotus feet, begging for your merciful glance so that I may serve you by serving your representatives. Please bless me with humility and proper Vaisnava etiquettes so that I never cause pain or inconvenience to devotees and always strive to serve them.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I find immense inspiration and joy in your kirtanas and heartfelt Damodarashtakams, which bring a unique sweetness and devotion that stays with me long after hearing them.

I always remember your three instructions: 1 be humble like a blade of grass, 2 Be tolerant like a tree, 3 Give respect without any expectations.

I am forever grateful for your loving guidance and pray for your blessings to remain sincere in my bhakti journey. Please continue to inspire us all with your profound devotion and service to Srila Prabhupada. Thank you, Maharaja, for being the light that leads us closer to Krishna and strengthening our

You live a life of honesty, humility, sensitivity, and purity showing us these four ways to live a life as a devotee:

1. To live without pretending
2. To hear without defending
3. To speak without offending and
4. To love without expecting

Recently, when Pranavananda Prabhu was introducing his parents to You, immediately, You asked him to bow down to his mother. Prabhu touched his head to her feet, and when he got up, Guru Mahara,j, You touched his head with Your hand and put them on Your head.

Guru Maharaja once mentioned to Prabhu that whatever you are is because of the blessings of your parents. Teaching us how to be extremely respectful and grateful to our parents.

Attention to detail is a sign of love; every dham yatra, we are amazed at how methodical everything is. Taking care of every living entity and Mother Earth as well. Steel plates and compostable spoons for 12000+ Yatra devotees with zero plastic shows genuine care and compassion for all. Guru Maharaja, You're the best of everything.?By example, showing us, we cannot take anything for granted, and showing the spirit of true leadership and compassion.?

"By serving the feet of the spiritual master, one is enabled to develop transcendental ecstasy in the service of the Personality of Godhead, who is the unchangeable enemy of the Madhu demon and whose service vanquishes one's material distresses."

(Srimad-Bhagavatam 3.7.19)

This verse resonates deeply, highlighting how service to the spiritual master paves the way to transcendental ecstasy and freedom from material suffering. It's a touching reminder that when we serve with devotion, we find ourselves in the constant care of Krishna's love and protection.

On this special occasion of Your Vyasa-puja day, pray at Your lotus feet to always be engaged in Your service to please You and Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

This year, I would like to take the opportunity to express my profuse gratitude to you for the Kartika-yatra of 2024 (as well as to all your sincere and dedicated disciples who put a great amount of work into it to make it happen). Despite my deep sadness at not being able to attend it in person, I followed closely every single bit of it online. And what a profound and heart-transforming experience it has been! I drank in every single word of yours during the Katha, laughing and crying, and deeply appreciating the pastimes and the teachings. Among my favourites were the childhood pastimes of Lord Gauranga, especially when the little Nimai kept "spoiling" the brahmana's offering—so much sweetness, love, and affection have been transmitted directly into my heart.

Thank you for the incredible amount of inspiration, deep wisdom, and glimpses of transcendental happiness that you've been bathing all of us in during an entire week. Year after year, it continues being one of the most significant experiences that reawakens my Krishna Consciousness., recharges my spiritual batteries, and reminds me of the essence of life—to always remember and never forget Krishna through my sincere efforts to please Him and by the chanting of His Holy Names.

I pray for many more such Yatras to take place, for the sake of inspiration of hundreds and by now thousands of devotees. And by Krishna's and your mercy, may I be graced with the precious opportunity after 7 years to attend it in person next year. Thank you very much for everything.

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances. Thank you for your mercy and immense love on us, the Kartika-yatra was very blissful in the association of loving devotess and the katha and kirtana were necterian. Our kids were very happy to play in the kid's zone and dance in the kirtana; the association of devotees and kirtana is significantly making an impact in their minds and souls. Thank you, dear Gurudeva and all the Vaisnavas. Without your desire and merc, nothing is possible. We are very grateful to be in this movement together and united. We desire and are trying with small, small attempts so that more and more people follow Sanatan dharma, which Shila Prabhupada has practically given us.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this sacred occasion of your 74th appearance day, I offer my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for all you do to uplift and transform our lives. Whenever my mind wanders, I turn to your lectures and find answers as if you were speaking to me. This year's Kartika-yatra in Sri Mayapur dham was a profound and life-changing experience, thank you to your loving guidance, captivating kirtanas, and soul-stirring lectures.

For six days, being in the holy dhama with you and more than 10,000 devotees was a glimpse of the spiritual world. Your kirtanas filled our hearts with Krishna's presence, and your words inspired us to reach deeper in our devotion. You reminded us of the essence of bhakti—humility, compassion, and the desire to serve all beings. The intensity of your love for Krishna and for each one of us shines through every moment of your association. It was an experience that continues to echo in my heart, motivating me to surrender more fully to this path.

Your example of unwavering dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission, your kindness to all, and your tireless efforts to spread Krishna Consciousness. around the world have touched my life and the lives of so many others. I am constantly inspired by your vision, your humility, and your sincere desire to bring all souls closer to Krishna.

On this special day, I pray to Krishna to bestow you with health, strength, and boundless blessings to continue your service. I hope to one day serve with even a fraction of the love, dedication, and humility that you embody. Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for being the light that guides me on this path.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Your glance and smile carry us through life. You have given us the ECO Village, which is far better than an EGO Village.

When I approached you for initiation, you humbly asked, "How can I serve you?" You emphasized the importance of Sadachar (good character), Sadhana (devotional practice), and Satsanga (association of devotees).

One of the most important and foundational services to one's Guru is chanting the holy names. As you often say, "Krishna Consciousness. is simple for the simple and complex for the complex." I often wonder, when will I be able to chant the holy name with the same deep devotion as you?

Through your lectures, I see a ray of hope—a chance to go back home, back to Godhead. Without you, I am nothing. You have given my life a meaningful purpose: to serve you and others.

Your lectures are uniquely engaging and inclusive, even for children. You are one of the most remarkable people I have ever met. Your lectures are not only enlightening but also enriched with sound effects and an infectious enthusiasm that keeps us captivated.

I humbly beg you to make me the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of Krishna.

Your grace is ever-present in the form of your lectures, your disciples, and the counselor system you have so thoughtfully established.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet!

That iconic moment at Cross Maidan often crosses my mind

As I hear and read the glories of Srila Prabhupada meeting his Gem – a moment so divine!

Trying to pen down words as good as the blabbering of a child,

With the hope and desire to fully relish your mercy one day,

These expressions of the heart, at your lotus feet, I confide.

Within my closed eyelids, a figure of ultimate divine grace befalls,

Situated deep in meditation, singing the Lord's praise.

Eyebrows crossed, eyes closed in deep prayers,

Folded hands, head bowed down, exuding purity so rare.

Writing an offering for Your Holiness
On a full moon Kartika night,
Gives a reflective space to pause and realize
How many moons of Srila Prabhupada have now become out of our sight.

On 5th May 2024, the disappearance of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja left a deep void.

That day, realizing the need for shelter, I cried.

Sages tell and scriptures reveal,

More than vapu, in the Vani of the Guru – His presence we feel.

My insignificant prayers unto the lotus feet of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja fructified in causeless mercy,

When soon on His Vyasa-puja, Your Holiness' darshan blessed my eyes.

At that time, offering you a crying Gajendra's prayerful lotus, I bowed down in all gratitude and appreciation.

Today, again holding aloft the supple lotus of my consciousness, I confess from my heart:

In your Vani, I find HH Gopal Krishna Maharaja's association.

By and by, in the rollercoaster journey of life,

Your lectures have become my biggest guide.

From surrender to love, from gratitude to compassion,

Who knew how your divine instructions are healing hearts despite You being distant from our vision.

To that meticulous author of The Journey Home, I pray,

May your sheltering words guide this wayfarer's lost way.

Warmth of whose loving embrace soothes a cold heart,

Maharaja, among those seeking your association – will I ever be a part?

Unto you, who manifested Govardhan Eco Village, I offer my humble Pranama.

Always carrying the Lord in your heart, you are personified holy dham.

Honoring your Godbrothers with utmost love and respect,

Epitome of humility, without service, your lotus feet never rest.

Heart-touching, soothing, deep, and profound, your melodies,

Potent enough are your kirtanas to pacify my heart's malady.

Oh Vaisnava Thakur, I am a possessor of a barren tract of land, they call heart, Nothing good do I have, nor any devotional qualities to attract.

Yet you, O master, have invoked the presence of Madanmohan in the holy land of GEV.

May your merciful smile enchant my heart to the enchanter of Cupid; for my life shall then be successful!

True, true, that Srila Prabhupada got not one but many moons,

One shining among them being you.

May your mercy shower on everyone, aspiring to take shelter in you.

If only Mr. Jerry Slavin had known the divine power of their Little Richard,

Who shall one day lead all souls to Radha Gopinatha's eternal orchard.

I know Maharaja, this journey of seeking shelter can be too long for a soul like me,

Whose eyes are still not moist and whose heart has yet to yearn desperately for service unto thee.

But on this Vyasa-puja of yours, I pray:

May my cold heart learn to cry for Guru's grace.

In all circumstances of life, in your Vani, may my heart find its eternal solace.

In serving your servants, may my heart be cleansed of its malice.

With cupped hands, I beg and beseech your mercy for the bond of service.

On your auspicious appearance day,

With folded hands, I beg and pray:

Oh deliverer of the fallen, please consider me – a soul bereft of your divine gaze.

Save me with the service of your eternal servants.

May all the three worlds sing your holy praise.

Aspiring to be your servant of servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja, In the mood of deep humbleness, I am offering to your Lotus Feet my obeisance and also in my mind, I am offering you Holiness a bouquet of wonderful flowers. All glories to all the devotees. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaja, please forgive me; I am not eligible to be your disciple because I am not qualified. I don’t have any single quality to be your disciple, but you are only my Hope. Please take me under your shelter. Please deliver this fallen soul from this cycle of birth and death. Only you can do this because you are transcendental; you are out of this world. You are representative of Radha Rani; that’s why your name is HH Radhanath Swami. I have unlimited anarthas. I pray to you to kindly help me to fight with those anarthas. Please guide me on how I can make myself eligible to be your disciple.

I can feel your presence in my home. I pray to you for every spiritual activity I start, and you always bless me in that activity and help me to complete it. Please forgive me for not hearing your lectures daily. I try to hear Amrit Droplets daily (only 10-15 mins). Please bless me so that I can hear your lectures daily. I have started reading books with my friends daily for 1 hr. Please bless us so that we can continue this service to Srila Prabhupada and connect more people with the Hare Krishna movement. I attended Guru puja daily at the nearby ISKCON Temple and prayed to Srila Prabhupada to bless me with your shelter.

Recently, I attended Mayapur Kartika-yatra 2024. It was amazing to have your darshan during chanting with devotees. My daughter BAVINI got a chance to have your close darshan. She draws a picture of Radha Rani and Gaur Nitai for you. She loves Radha Krishna and wants to worship them, but due to not being qualified, she is not able to serve them. Please bless my daughter to use her talent in service of Radha Krishna. Please bless us so that during this year we could welcome Gaur Nitai deities at our home, which we brought from Navdeep. Mayapur Yatra with devotees is a great experience. Everything was so well managed. There was not a 1% mismanagement in Yatra. Everything was perfect. This reflects your mood, which is without any fault. Kindly bless me so that I can also try to imbibe this mood in me.

Please accept my humbleobeisances.s ? Allll glories to SrilPrabhupada.da

With feelings of immense gratitude to all the Vaisnavas who have got the opportunity to write this offering to you, Maharaja.

Please forgive me for the innumerable mistakes that I might make in the offering.

You have given us a nectarian ocean of Krishna katha, kirtanas, a loving and caring devotee community, a mood of service in humility, the Kartika-yatra, the Govardhan Eco Village, the Bhaktivedanta Hospital, and invaluable jewels like HG Radheshyam Prabhuji, HG Gauranga Darshan Das Prabhuji, HG Gauranga Das Prabhuji, and HG Krishnanadan Prabhuji...

You showered upon your mercy recently in the Kartika-yatra by reciprocating with so many devotees. All the memories are still fresh in my memory, and I pray to the Lord that I don't forget them throughout life.

Please help me in overcoming my lower nature of seeking attention, appreciation, fault finding, judging others, and being lethargic with poor time management.

This tiny, insignificant little soul aspires to serve you and the mission of Srila Prabhupada. Please accept my humble prayers to be able to do so.

I long to really apply the mood of Trinadi api sunicena, which you always emphasize in my dealings with everyone.

I pray very sincerely to Krishna that he blesses you with good health and long life so that you can touch and transform thousands of struggling and trapped souls.

I beg to offer my most respectful obeisance's at your divine feet. This year we are celebrating your 74th appearance day. I had the great fortune of joining Krishan consciousness mission in Pune in Aug 2012. You were able to convert a fool like myself to the path of Krishan consciousness. You presented the pure teachings of the Lord and the acaryas without any distortion. You have spread Srila Prabhupada word's and mission around the world.

HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja dedicated his life to serve Krishna. And he is always ready to serve Krishna in all circumstances.

Maharaja Pastime from ISKCON New Vrndavana Virginia

As a young Brahmacari, celibate monk, when he was staying in ISKCON New Vrndavana, West Virginia, he was given the responsibility of doing deity worship. At that time New Vrndavana was a secluded place with almost no facility. He was taking care of the deities almost all alone

To worship the deity, he had to take bath several times in a day. It was too cold there. There was no facility for hot water. In fact, the temperature would be so low that water would turn into ice. And he would break the ice and take ice water bath. He did it without any complain and without any grudge. His purpose was to just serve Krishna in all situations. He did not ever think about his physical comforts.

Later when he was given the responsibility of sharing Krishna Conscious messages to the world, he took that service with great sense of responsibility. For last many years, he has been speaking Krishna Conscious philosophy all over the world. His lectures have inspired thousands of people to become sincere devotees of Krishna.

Hare Krishna Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances. On your appearance day, I pray to SSRGJI to keep you in good health always. It is our great fortune that you have accepted us in your shelter. Only by the mercy of a Guru can we be guided towards The Lord, and Guru Maharaja you are the one who is showing us this path by your words, actions and deeds.

.Your each class,you are explaining the meaning of surrender to The Lord and the causeless mercy that He gives to His devotees.

Your each action is full of compassion -the latest being the fixing of AC in Deity Kitchen.

We know that during the yatra you go and visit all the Matajis that prepare rotis for devotees, showing them that yes you respect and care and are with them in their this selfless service.

These are one or two incidents.

Gurudeva, thank you for being a guiding light and leading with an example to so many lost souls.

Praying once again to The Lord to keep you in good health always.

Dearest Gurudeva,

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I humbly bow at your lotus feet with deep gratitude and reverence. You are the embodiment of humility and compassion, teaching us not just through words, but by your actions, how to see every soul as a cherished part and parcel of the Supreme Lord.

“Trinad api sunichena, taror iva sahishnuna, amani na manadena, kirtanaiyah sada hari”—these divine words from the scriptures are not mere instructions for you, but a vivid reflection of your very being. Your life is a testament to tolerance, humility, and selfless service, and through your example, you inspire us to aspire for these virtues in our own lives.

Your guidance is our beacon, and your shelter is our eternal refuge. As your children, we feel safe, protected, and nourished under your divine care.

On this sacred day, I pray to always remain under your shelter, serving you in whatever way pleases you most. May we continue to grow as instruments of your service, spreading the glories of the Lord under your guidance.

Please keep us close to your lotus feet, where we may find the strength and inspiration to tread this spiritual path and bring joy to your heart.

हरे कृष्ण महाराज

आपके चरणों में मेरा दंडवत प्रणाम

महाराज आपके व्यास पूजा का प्रत्येक वर्ष इंतजार रहता है। यह वो दिन है जब सब भक्त आपके प्रति अपनी भावना इस पुस्तक के माध्यम से व्यक्त करते है।

यदि मैं अपनी बात करूं तो मुझ में कोई भी गुण नही है कि मैं आपकी कीर्ति का गान कर पाऊं परन्तु कुछ प्रयास कर रहा हूँ।

महाराज मैं केवल आपको धन्यवाद करना चाहता हूं क्योंकि यदि आप hg रघुनाथ प्रभु को अमृतसर में न भेजते तो शायद आज मैं कृष्ण भावनामृत में कभी ना आ पाता।

उनके सानिध्य में मैने आपके बारे में जाना और जब आपकी पुस्तक "अनोखा सफर " पढ़ी तो जाना के एक शुद्ध वैष्णव में क्या गुण होने चाहिए। आपका जीवन एक आदर्श है हम सभी भक्तों के लिए।

आपके हृदय में जो भाव श्रीला प्रभुपाद और आपके गुरु भाइयों के प्रति है, जिस उत्साह से आप कृष्ण भावनामृत में सेवा करते है वो बहुत ही प्रेरणा दायक है।

महाराज मैं आपसे यही याचना करता हूं कि आप मुझे भी कृपा प्रदान करें जिससे मैं भी श्रीला प्रभुपाद जी के आंदोलन में कुछ योगदान कर सकू और अपने जीवन को सार्थक बना पाऊं।

मैं भगवान् राधा गोपीनाथ जी से यही प्रार्थना करता हूं कि आपका स्वास्थ्य सदा ठीक रहे और हम सभी आपके निर्देशन में यूंही कृष्ण भावनामृत में सेवा करते रहे।

धन्यवाद।

I bow down to your feet

Maharaja, I wait for your Vyasa-puja every year. This is the day when all the devotees express their feelings towards you through this book.

If I talk about myself, I do not have any quality that I can sing your praises but I am making some efforts.

Maharaja, I only want to thank you because if you had not sent HG Raghunath Prabhu to Amritsar, I would never have come to Krishna Consciousness. today.

I came to know about you in his company and when I read your book ""Anokha Safar"", I came to know what qualities a pure Vaisnava should have. Your life is an ideal for all of us devotees.

The feeling you have in your heart for Srila Prabhupada and your Guru brothers, the enthusiasm with which you serve in Krishna Consciousness. is very inspiring.

Maharaja, I request you to bless me also so that I can also contribute to Srila Prabhupada's movement and May I be able to make my life meaningful.

I pray to Lord Radha Gopinathaji that your health remains good always and that we all continue to serve in Krishna Consciousness. under your guidance.

Thank you."

Please accept our most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

This is our first Vyasa-puja offering after our initiation. We thank you for accepting us as your disciples. Because of your causeless mercy, you have given us initiation. We have been part of the wonderful counselor system/ congregation for almost 12 years, and we are fortunate to be a part of this family. We are blessed to have an association of Ghrasta devotees and Bhramacharis. They have helped us to grow and sustain our spiritual progress. They have been with us and guiding us in all circumstances. We can feel and experience the qualities, viz., compassion, humility, tolerance, etc., which you mention in your lectures through them.

We are eternally indebted to you for creating the Congeragition preaching, the Counselor-Counselee system, devotee care, GEV, BVH, Barsana Dental Camp, Kartika yatras, drama festivals, etc. We are experiencing your love, care, and compassion through these arrangements.

You have given us the opportunity to listen to disciples of HDG Srila Prabhupada during the Kartika yatras and in Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir. We are fortunate to take darshan and blessings from such exalted devotees. This is possible only because of your mercy.

We beg at your lotus feet on this auspicious occasion to bless us so that we can serve the devotees in the right mood and attitude in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

We once again thank you for giving us such a wonderful family of devotees.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept My Humble Obesciences,
All Glories To Guru and Gauranga.

Srila Prabhupada has given us such exalted gurus in our community where we can always pay our gratitude to him through you ' Guru Maharaja'.

Guru Maharaja you have given us great soldiers as our God Brothers and God Sisters who are perfect representatives of you.

Gurudeva!! you are the captain of my boat who always show me the right path when I follow ur instructions faithfully by which I can overcome the high waves of material problems.

Service attitude is the best instruction which has made me realize many things and has given a joy of happiness By which I am able to follow ur words more obediently.

Gurudeva during yatra I am glad to see how selflessly you helped devotees in preparing Prasadam and your presence itself gave everyone enthusiasm and motivation to serve together.The facility which you have provided us with so much care and concern that you have so deeply looked after the minute things such as providing Kids zone, Water Facility, preparing bhoga for Prabhupada and many more...

Gurudeva when I contemplate about the austrities you undergo it gives me so much strength and enthusiasm. when I sit for chanting I deeply pray for your mercy when will I get that taste and sincerity towards Holy Name.

I sincerely beg at your lotus feet Gurudeva... I dont have any good qualities neither I am good at character, even my mind always thinks negative and drags me to the difficult situation of my life, still I feel you are there with us inspite of my so many nonsense thoughts and actions.....

please Gurudeva shower your mercy on this insignificant, fallen, degraded soul who always desires life after life to become a servant of you....

Mohini-priya devi dasi

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil

Hare Krishna, dear Radhanath Swami Maharaja!
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I really hope this letter finds you well.

This is Mohini-priya devi dasi from Brazil. I have been to India with my husband, now your proud disciple, Govinda Gopal das. You, your disciples, and well-wishers all received us so warmly that we can never forget and will never be able to thank you enough.

It was Govinda who first told me about you. Before we were married, I used to visit the temple, and he was always with his headphones on. Later, I found out that he was listening to your classes. He told me about your humanized way of treating people, looking them in the eyes, and showing genuine concern, along with your humility.

He told me that he met you at Govardhan Ecovillage, that you looked at him with deep respect and reverence, even without knowing him, that you talked to know more about him, and that you took him to see the Vaisnava memorial.

The way you treated him, making him feel the pure, unconditional, and genuine love that resides in your heart, impacted him so profoundly that this attitude crossed borders, oceans, cultural and linguistic barriers, time and space, and deeply touched my heart as well.

From that moment on, I wanted to meet you. I started following your classes, your Instagram page, and cultivating a sincere desire to one day have the mercy of seeing you in person.

I began to notice how much my husband's affection for you benefits him. Whenever he talks about you, his eyes shine, and he smiles. In truth, he lights up completely—not only physically, but his thoughts also become clearer.

When he repeats your teachings, even though my mind may deceive me and suggest otherwise, I am able to connect with the deepest, purest desire in my heart to be a good person, to make a difference in the world in a way that truly matters—in a spiritual way.

If all of this—these small subtleties and perceptions—is not Krishna Consciousness. at its fullest, I don't know what is.

At this moment, I am overcome with tears because, after worrying about what to write to celebrate your birthday and offer my congratulations, I realized that simply by describing how I encountered you and became one of your well-wishers would capture the essence of Krishna Consciousness. that radiates from you. I found myself recalling a collection of moments in which you, through your kindness, humility, and mercy, were sharing Krishna Consciousness. far beyond your classes—through your way of acting, looking, speaking, and moving.

These are the qualities of a Vaisnavaa. These are the qualities of an authentic guru. These are the qualities of an acarya. These are the qualities of a true representative of Krishna, someone fully qualified to guide souls back to the Supreme.

I visited India shortly after finishing "The Journey Home", and now I feel inspired to make a difference for the people of that country as well. I now remember Gopijana Vallabha, and I wonder if He is still there and where He might be, and I have transformed a simple moment—when I ate "roti" for the first time—into a deeply devotional experience.

Now, I am grateful to admire you. I no longer look up to superficial idols, but to a true representative of Krishna. I no longer need to feel proud of only material, fleeting achievements, but can be happy to experience a higher taste through devotional service—something that, even if still minute, is certainly much more valuable and lasting than any other aspiration I might have had in this life, and something enduring enough to accompany me through lifetimes.

For "only" this, I already feel fortunate and successful. Thank you for helping me, and others like me, to feel this way. Thank you for giving us the greatest gift: Krishna.

On this special and transcendental day of your appearance, I have little to offer in gratitude or reciprocation worthy of you. But it's still worth saying: thank you! I hope Krishna continues to bless and protect you, so that the life you live as an offering to Him may continue to touch and transform many others.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisance at your Lotus feet, that your blessings continue to guide us on our spiritual journey just like the way you want...
Dear Guru Maharaja.

No amount of Gratitude, we express through words will do justice, in return for what You have done for all of us, and are still doing for us, and further will continue doing for us eternally and tirelessly....

But, still, please accept our offerings and kindly forgive our mistakes and shortcomings. We are deeply grateful to you, for arranging AC installation in our Deity Kitchen.

Your Kindness has brought comfort and relief to our entire Deity kitchen family. Your compassion and consideration have touched our hearts. Your unwavering dedication to our congregation is a shining example of selflessness and devotion.

Your efforts ensure that every aspect of our spiritual journey is nurtured, from the physical comfort of our spaces to the spiritual growth of each one of us individually.

This gesture of yours reminds us of the profound teachings of our Acaryas, in line of our parampara, emphasizing the importance of Seva (selfless service) and Sahajta(comfort and harmony)

Your actions embody these principles, inspiring us to cultivate gratitude, humility and compassion.

Thank you is a very small word dear Guru Maharaja, For :

. Providing a comfortable space for us to serve with joy.

. Ensuring the well-being of our entire kitchen Family.

.Demonstrating the value of selfless service.

.Embodiment of the spirit of our Guru Parampara.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
My Dear Maharaja,

I'm writing this offering with full of gratitude, Maharaja at first please accept my respectful and humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. I don't know what is the connection of my with you, whenever I see you I feel that my father is waiting for me. I remember in this KY 2024 you're seated in front of me and I'm seeing you like when a boys sees a girls first time whom he love the most. Your reciprocation with your God brothers and God Brothers disciple give me inspiration about Sadachar. HG Radheshyam Prabhu Says in one lecture that "I'm learned the Vedic philosophy and Tatva from Srila Prabhupada and Sadachar or Vaisnava Etiquette learned from HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja", It's also for me.

At last but not the end Maharaja In KY 2024, Srila Prabhupada's Disappearance day Your Voice about 'Je Anilo Prema Dhana' it's take me in Shirla Prabhuapada's 1977,14th November.

Thank you Maharaja for being me.

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am so grateful to you for so many things. Your The Journey Home book helped me a lot to spiritually advance. How you related the eagle catching the fish that are swimming in the shallow water, not the fishes in the deep waters. Please bless me to swim deeply in the ocean of bhakti (devotional service), being absorbed in the transcendental knowledge. One of the instructions of yours that I aspire to follow is being humble. Please empower me to humble and serve Srila Prabhupada. Once again, thank you so much, Maharaja.

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances Maharaja...!

This recent Kartika-yatra was very inspirational.

I carried few lessons with me.

1) How to chant holynames?

When LCM was crying as a baby Nimai,no mayapur vasis were surrounding around him and chants Hari Hari Hari only then Nimai would laugh.

Their chanting is not for removing anarthas not for getting liberation but only for the happiness of Nimai.

You said very nicely that we should chant for the pleasure of the Lord but not for any motivation.

2) How merciful LCM nad Nityananda pr are?

During Jagai Madai lila.

Nityananda pr was so merciful to give them Krishna Prema inspite of he getting hurted.

LCM is so merciful and pleased with Madai when he stopped his brother from hitting again. LCM said you are my life you served a Vaisnavaa.

3) Your humility Gurudev:-

In recent lecture which I was hearing, you were telling that Giriraj Maharaja is reaching Bombay after long time again..

There you mentioned I would be going to Airport to 1)Offer my obeisances

2)To express gratitude.

Generally if any one speak about this event they may say "I am going to Airport to welcome Maharaja"

Thank you so much for teaching profound lessons from your Vani and as well as from your personal example.

Please shower mercy in all devotees.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

”74th Vyasa-puja of Sri Srimad Radhanath Swami Maharaja

Oh beloved Guru Maharaja, your 74th Vyasapuja tithi has come and it is the duty of every disciple to chant the glories of Guru Maharaja in his Vyaspuja day, but I have no qualification, I am a flawed person, therefore how will I be able to glorify you. And it is your wish that we should glorify you through our service and not only through our speech but still I may say something about you from this impure and flawed mouth, for my own purification, therefore I am begging your blessings Gurudeva.

I have been hearing about Kartika-yatra since long. But never participated, last year I went for 2-3 days only but could not fully receive your association. But this year I was able to attend the entire yatra for 6 days by the grace of Gaura Sundara. Although I was born in Bengal, I had no special affection for Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, but O Guru Maharaja, after hearing Gaur lila from your Lotus Mouth, I developed special affection for Sri Gauranga Mahaprabhu and I am longing to hear the pastimes of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu more and more. When I myself read Caitanya Bhagavata and Caitanya Charitamrita, it is not as nectarine as what I hear from your Srimukha. In this regard, I am reminded of the teachings of the previous Acaryas of our generation – when we hear from a realised soul then that narration become more nectarine and those words, passing through the ear and entering into the heart, it makes the heart completely pure as Srila Narottam Das Thakura wrote - Gaurangera madhura lila, jar karne prabesila, hridaya nirmala bhelo tar...

Thank you so much Guru Maharaja for making us taste the Caitanya lila from your Lotus Mouth and for making us realize Nityananda Prabhu's grace on this world and Advaita Acarya's true compassion for all the conditioned living beings and to make us understand that with that same mentality Srila Prabhupada has come to rescue the conditioned jiva's like us. Kindly bless me Guru Maharaja so that I may become an insignificant servant and serve the servants of your servants in Srila Prabhupada's mission and more and more listen to the glorious discourses of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and his associates. And as my counselor Sripada Puridasa prabhu is very fondly attached of Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, may I also develop a fraction of his attachment to Sriman Mahaprabhu.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja, kindly forgive me for any of my offenses considering me to be a foolish and ignorant soul.

Thank you Guru Maharaja,

Dandawat Pranama PAMHO AGSP

I am an aspiring servant or trying to become a servant of yours. (whatever Seva I got, I always messed up; I can't do one thing properly. Whenever I try to do things right, something troublesome always happens.)

I want to start by Thanking you ??, for everything you have done for me. I am very grateful for the efforts you have made for a fallen soul like me. Words don't have the power to express how much I love and respect you. You did and doing everything for me that I can't repay you. Whenever I get difficulties in life and get stuck at any point in life, I always get recommendations for your videos on YouTube and other social media platforms, And I get the solution to it. It's your mercy that I get your association through social media platforms. I am very grateful to have your maximum association all the time. And if I am stressed or anxious whenever I see you, all of the negative feelings are instantly gone, and I feel so protected and relieved and Happy, and a new type of energy comes to me, I feel like. I have listened to one of the lectures of HG Amogh lila Prabhuji that "when you heartly feel someone your Guru from that day your Diksha has started, Guru and Shishya relationship is heart relationship. And how gradually you develop a love for your Guru Maharaja, your Diksha becomes successful; Diksha Day is just a ceremony of celebration between Guru and Shishya. When you become good enough to deserve it." I also heartily feel that you are my Guru Maharaja, and I love you so much; your one glance makes me happy, and your lectures give me the enthusiasm to do seva, to do Bhakti of Krishna. And I know as Prabhuji said about Guru, that you are my Guru Maharaja. Whenever I am stuck in any situation, I remember you, and you are so merciful that you give me instant solutions. It is your mercy that I get to know about the path of Bhakti. And I am waiting for that Celebration Day of Diksha. But I am not deserving and capable enough, I am not telling you g just like that, really I am not able to during chant properly my 16 rounds, I fall asleep in between the rounds ?? My mind is all, so moving here and there sometimes I even can't wake up at Brahma muhurta for chanting. I am not even able to do seva properly, which is given to me; I always mess up things. Sometimes in the bh, Bhagavatam class, I fell asleep. But I am trying to improve myself, and a little bit of faults always happen in that, too ??. I am waiting for that Celebration day. And I know by your mercy that day will also come. One day I will meet you. I have registered for the Kartika-yatra for the first time to specially meet you this year. To see you offline. To take your blessings, I wanted to Talk to you so much, but a circumstance occurred when I saw that train moving in front of my eyes, and I didn't board the train. That was a painful experience in my life. My every breath is for your and Krishna's service, Maharaja Ji. My life is not mine it's yours. And I will do everything and anything for your pleasure to bring a smile to your face. I always want to serve you in any situation of my life. I am a defective piece Maharaja ji; please give this servant a chance to serve at your lotus feet. Thank you so much for being my inspiration and motivation to go ahead in Krishna Consciousness. and showing me the spiritual path. Please always keep me under the shelter of your lotus feet. I promise I will do everything properly without any trouble, some activities, or any mess.

Happy Birthday Maharaja ji.

Please forgive me if there are any mistakes in the offerings, as I have directly written everything that comes to my heart.

Forgive me if any offense happens.

Sorry So so sorry

Thank you so so so so so much.

Dear Gurudeva,

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, we offer our heartfelt gratitude and deepest reverence at your lotus feet. We are eternally grateful for the spiritual wisdom, kindness, and guidance you have showered upon us, illuminating the path of bhakti with your teachings and personal example.

You have transformed countless lives through your selfless service, humility, and compassion. In your presence, we feel uplifted and inspired to strive for purity, understanding that true spiritual life is one of devotion, service, and love. Through your books, teachings, and tireless efforts, you have opened the doors to a life of meaning and transcendence, reminding us that Krishna Consciousness. is not only a practice but a lifestyle of humility and selflessness.

Your life is a testament to courage and dedication, and you continue to embody the teachings of our disciplic succession with profound integrity. By following the example of great saints and sages, you show us that the essence of bhakti lies in loving Krishna and serving others with an open heart. You demonstrate how to practice compassion in every interaction and inspire us to connect with the world in a way that reflects Krishna's love.

Today, on this sacred day, we pray for the strength and sincerity to serve you and Srila Prabhupada's mission with the same humility and devotion that you embody. We pray for the wisdom to follow your instructions faithfully, so that we may one day be worthy of your mercy.

Thank you, Maharaja, for guiding us on this beautiful journey back to Krishna. Please continue to bless us with your teachings, kindness, and wisdom. We pray that we may always remain close to you in service and gratitude.

Your humble servant,

Please accept my most humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Guru and Gauranga.

By your causeless mercy, we have been graced with the frequent opportunity to meet you, whether in the deity room or elsewhere, and each interaction with your ever-flowing love and kindness melts our hearts in gratitude. What we are receiving from you is beyond our worthiness, yet your compassion envelops us regardless of our shortcomings. Our indebtedness to you and our desire to serve you in every possible menial way only continues to grow.

The subtle principles of devotional service—serving selflessly, with no desire for subtle or gross personal gain—are lofty ideals for conditioned souls like us. Yet, through your teachings and, most importantly, your flawless example in every situation, these principles are being firmly imprinted upon our hearts.

Recently, we had the most blessed opportunity to visit the temple at Ulta Danga, the sacred meeting place of Srila Prabhupada and Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur. Under your guidance, this historical temple has been so beautifully renovated, preserving its original sanctity while restoring its divine essence. The spiritual vibration of that place is beyond words. What was once a run-down structure has now been transformed into a beacon of inspiration for generations to come, offering the blessings of that most holy site to the world.

Equally mesmerizing is the exquisite renovation of the Calcutta temple, which has been transformed to captivate the hearts of modern people drawn to external splendor. Its beauty serves as a doorway to the eternal truths of Krishna Consciousness..

Every time we are privileged to serve Their Lordships, Sri Sri Radha-Gopinathaji, we remain acutely aware that it is solely due to your love, devotion, and boundless mercy that this opportunity has manifested in our lives. Personally, I know that even millions of lifetimes would not have brought me anywhere close to the chance to serve Their Lordships.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for everything you have given us. I pray that one day, by your grace, we may be able to reciprocate your boundless love, even in the smallest measure, and offer some meaningful service to you.

Your eternal servant and son,
Mukunda Dasa

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

Beloved Gurudeva,

I would fall short of words to describe your glories and merciful blessings unto me while writing this offering.

You are an ocean of mercy, and by your divine grace, provide to all fallen conditioned souls like me; we experienced a fatherly shelter to continue in devotional service for Srila Prabhupada, Guru Parampara, and Sri Gauranga.

Maharaja, You have envisioned the expansion of the preaching movement for our future generations with the utmost attention. Your attention to Bhakti Vedanta Research Institute for preserving the scriptural belongings of our acaryas as a root to grow is the most important project in the history of Gaudiya Vaisnava Sampradaya.

You have guided the devotees to restore the Bhaktivinode Asan as an epicenter monument, and as per your divine words, with this watering of the root of parampara, the Tree of Successions project is going to flourish more and more.

Let me be a spec of dust unto your lotus feet so that I can contribute with my mind, body, and soul to support you in your mission of activities by faithfully serving the devotees who are already serving; let my life be surrendered in your service to please Srila Prabhupada.

Your Servant,

Guru Maharaja is the embodiment of humility and dedication to Srila Prabhupada mission. I am truly indebted to Maharaja for accepting me as his disciple & to connect with parampara and Lord Krishna. I always try to be in his association through his (vani) lectures, these are our guiding force, which keeps us grounded and inspired in bhakti. Maharaja words are full love & compassion of Krishna. His caring and pure principles can be experienced in his disciples too, who are always guiding me. Yatra lectures of Maharaja are truly divine. I am eternally grateful to Maharaja and seek his blessings to follow his instructions all throught my life and I sincerely pray for his good health and well being. Thank you Maharaja. Hare Krishna.

Dear Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

I feel blessed and fortunate to get shelter at your lotus feet at 51 years of my age. I would like to express my Profound gratitude to you on the occassion of your Vyasapuja for all the Benedictions I got and unconditional grace you had showered on me.

I would have completely submerged into material pleasures had I not been destined to come into contact with ISKCON in 2001 again because of your kind mercy.

Mercy of Lord Krishna, Gauranga Mahaprabhu, Nityananda Prabhu,All our Parampara previous Acaryaas has been showered on me through your kind compassion. After hearing your instructions, lectures and your senior disciples lectures only, I came to know about Absolute Truth, Temporary Body, Eternal Soul, Pure Loving Devotional Service to the Supreme Lord and his devotees, Chanting of the Holy Name etc.,.first time in my life. Thereafter your continuous guidance through my counsellor and congregation provided me ample opportunities to participate in various services like Srila Prabhupada Transcendetal Book Distribution, Cooking Seva, Prasadam Serving, Preaching etc,'

My Life would have gone just like any other materialistic person in ignorance had this wonderful opportunity of Associating with Devotees, Hearing Srimad-Bhagavatam Classes, Harinam Sankeertan, Participating in Annual Rathayatras, Attending festivals in the temple, participating in Annual Kartika Yatras to various Holy dhams etc, gifted to me again due to your unconditional love for your disciples.

You are the embodiment of Trinadapi Sunichena mood which has become integral part of our lives. Despite your health condition you always extend your mercy to us through your lectures and physical association during Yatras.

Your vision towards devotee community as well as society is commendable and you are truly following in the footsteps of our Beloved Srila Prabhupada's Holy mission. Best Examples are GEV and Bhakti Vedanta Hospital, pening of Various BACE centres to transform lives of youth, Opening of Gurukuls, Temples, Extending Medical facilities to the needy and poor people through Dental and Eye Camps.

Any amount of gratitude can not repay for all those wonderful Benedictions and devotional Gifts we got from you Maharaja through out these years.

Praying at the Lotus Feet of Sri Sri RadhaGopinathaji to shower his Divine Blessings unto you for your sound health to continue your deficated selfless services to the community to bring more and more people(conditioned souls) into this process.

Offering of Gurudeva
Hare Krishna, dear spiritual master, my eternal guide and well-wisher, Please accept my most humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

By your causeless mercy, my life has been transformed. Though I am most unworthy, you have given me the treasure of Krishna Consciousness..

Your life is a testament to the selfless love and compassion of a true servant of Sri Guru and Gauranga.

As His Holiness Radhanath Swami often teaches:

”Real greatness is in how we serve others with humility and love, without expecting anything in return.”

Your exemplary life reminds me daily that true spirituality is not about prestige or position but about becoming a sincere servant of the Lord and His devotees.

Reflecting on the verse from Srimad-Bhagavatam (11.17.27):

acaryam mam vijaniyan navamanyeta karhicit na martya-buddhyasuyeta sarva-deva-mayo guruh

”One should know the acarya as Myself and never disrespect him in any way. One should not envy him, thinking him an ordinary man, for he is the representative of all the demigods.”

Gurudeva, you embody this divine truth. Your unwavering dedication to spreading the teachings of Srila Prabhupada and your efforts to uplift countless fallen souls inspire me deeply.

Your words always resonate with deep wisdom, as you often say:

”The path of bhakti is not about changing the world but about changing our own hearts.”

Through your mercy, I have been blessed with the association of wonderful devotees who guide and sustain me on this path.

As Mahaprabhu teaches (CC Adi 1.99):

guru-Krishna-prasade paya bhakti-lata-bija

”By the mercy of the spiritual master and Krishna, one receives the seed of the creeper of devotional service.”

In your presence and teachings, I have come to realize that my true identity is beyond any bodily designation.

Your life demonstrates that Sanatana Dharma is not confined by geography but thrives in pure devotion and service to God.

You teach us:

”When we seek not to take but to give, when we live for a higher purpose than ourselves, then we truly connect to Krishna’s love.”

Dear Gurudeva, I pray for your good health and long life so that you may continue to shower your mercy on fallen souls like me.

Let me remain a humble servant of your instructions, for as the scriptures affirm (SB 4.31.6):

yasya prasadad bhagavat-prasado yasyaprasadan na gatih kuto ’pi

”By the mercy of the spiritual master, one receives the benediction of Krishna. Without the mercy of the spiritual master, one cannot make any advancement.”

O Gurudeva, please continue to bless me so that I may offer some service to you and remain steadfast on the path of Krishna Consciousness..

With gratitude and love,
Your insignificant servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories at your lotus feet

I have been reflecting on the words of your senior disciples in glorification of you, and I am awakened further to your selfless nature in helping others. You have created Vaikuntha in ISKCON Chowpatty, Goverdhan Eco Village and many of the sub-branches of ISKCON Chowpatty. In many places where you visit to speak about Krishna, you are received with a captive audience filling every inch of the place. Every venue seems to be inadequate to house the devotees that would like to see and hear from your lotus mouth. As you enter your mid-70's, one would think your service is done and you continue to inspire in your local area and enjoy your own successes. However, it is evident you gaze your focus in area's of need such as parts of America. You have strategically positioned your senior disciples in select locations in America to inspire, maintain and expand the preaching in those communities. It seems your desire to serve the wider community of ISKCON continues to flame in full force.

Recently I had a relative come from America with a spouse-to-be. Being an American lady, I immediatly thought to give her The Journey Home. As a standard, I always find myself to be reserved in giving family members Krishna Conscious books, so not to appear preachy. However, giving her The Journey Home was extremely easy. It appeared completely non-threatening and a spiritual literature at the same time. I am convinced when she picks up the book to read, she will not be able to put it down and her journey to Krishna will begin for her. Thank you for giving us such a unique and invaluable book to help bring new people to Krishna Consciousness..

The love and care you provide to your god-brothers and god-sisters is an example to study and learn from. Recently, I have been witnessing the love you have for HH Gopal Krnsa Goswami and HH Jayapataka Swami. How you can speak about them with a thousand mouths. The way you are willing to be their menial servant. How you are ready to put them in the forefront and listen to them with rapt attention with the mood of a menial and junior god-brother.

There is so much to learn simply by observing you. They say actions speaks louder than words, but both in your words and actions, there is more than I am able to understand, assimilate and put into action in this life - you are simply a life time of study. I pray I can learn whatever I am able to from you, apply it to my own life and share it with others.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja. Dandavat Pranamas. Jai Srila Prabhupada. Wish you very very happy appearance day. I am eternally indebted to you for giving me shelter at your lotus feet. I am not qualified to be disciple of very exalted paramhamsa maha-bhagavat devotee as you. I can see it is only possible by your causeless mercy. Your quality of being saragrahi is very attractive. You always seek essence and exemplify in your life. Your words and actions are completely based on essence of sastra. You have so much love for Krishna it radiates in loving everyone and everything as everything is energy of Krishna. Your desire to serve Srila Prabhupada manifested beautifully in so many projects like Govardhan Eco Village (GEV), Bhaktivedanta hospital, Annamrita etc. You are always in Vrndavana consciousness and Vrndavana is always in your heart. It manifested in form of GEV which is non-different than Vrndavana dham. It displays principle of simple living and high thinking. So many people of different backgrounds i.e yoga, sustainable farming, women's empowerment etc are getting connected to Bhakti through GEV. Also, Bhaktivedanta hospital gives holistic care to every patient who comes there. It nourishes their body, mind and soul. Your initiatives of sharing Bhakti as per time, place and circumstance is very inspiring. You see only good in others and fan the spark and lovingly take them closer to Krishna. You have such loving relationships with everyone i.e your godbrothers, brajvasis and even devotees of other sampradayas. It is very touching to see how to respect, love and see the essence when connecting to people of different faiths. You are always humble and have mature dealings with them. And because of this essence seeking nature you are able to connect with people from different backgrounds all over the world. Whoever you meet with leaves a deep loving impression in their heart. You are personification of humility. You have exemplified life of "trinad api sunicena" principle and you are always in mood of servant of servant of the servant. You are very strict with your Sadhana but very compassionate towards others. Your love, selfless care and concern for others manifested in so many ways like implementation of counselor system and exemplary Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha community in Chowpatty Mumbai. And many many devotee communities in world take inspiration from Chowpatty temple community. Your focus on devotee care and community building is completely based on sastra like life of Shri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and how he deeply cared for all devotees. You are true representative of Srila Prabhupada and Guru parampara. Your every seva like doing kirtana, giving lectures etc is filled with complete absorption, love and devotion to Krishna. Once one of our godbrothers asked you how do you know what to speak when talking with people. You mentioned you speak whatever pleases Krishna. This is very inspiring to see that you are always absorbed in doing whatever pleases Guru and Krishna. I am very grateful to have gotten opportunity to glorify you on this day. I am eternally indebted to you for giving your shelter, love and care. I will never be able to repay what I have got. Please forgive me for any offenses and shortcomings. Whatever good I am able to do is only by your mercy. Please give your blessings that I will be able to contribute more and more to great mission of Srila Prabhupada and I will be able to please you, Srila Prabhupada, guru parampara, Vaisnavas and Krishna. I pray to Srila Prabhupada, Shri Gaurachandra and Shri Shri Radha Muralidhar for your good health. Thank you. Your servant, Nadiya Kishore das

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I wish you a very happy Krishna-conscious birthday.

I am really fortunate to get your association and learn values of life through your teachings. Your teachings really helped me to try and lead a meaningful life. I am very grateful to you for all the teachings I am trying to learn from you, Maharaja. Your selfless service attitude and continuously encouraging teachings inspire me to put more effort into practicing Krishna-conscious life. With your relentless services, many, many souls like me are getting benefited. Thank you for your mercy upon all of us. My sincere prayers to Sri Sri Radha Madhav and Sri Sri Narasimha Dev to bless you with good health and strength to practice Krishna Consciousness. and guide all of us.

I request you to kindly bless me with your mercy so that I can practice Krishna Consciousness. sincerely.

Dear Guru Maharaja my eternal father,
All glories to you, please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feets.

You really care for such an unknown, insignificant fallen soul like me to bless me with your merciful glance and smile at me at ISKCON Delhi, my life has changed since then. Your lectures on gratitude and love sparked a fire for love for others in my barren envious heart.

I am extremely grateful for you to give a new life of Krishna Consciousness. to this fallen soul as maddened by lust, anger and greed I was planning for another trip towards hellish life. However, I am still filled with lust, anger and greed but all glories to you that just by seeing your ever effulgent divine face they seem to burn into ashes.

Now my only goal in life is to be the servant of the servant of your servants. I can never reach Krishna all I know in my life is you and your merciful lectures. To please you I take a commitment to strongly follow and preach the mission of Srila Prabhupada to every brother and sister.

I humbly fall at your feets to beg for your mercy. Kindly be merciful for without your mercy I will not even be able to utter the name of Krishna once let alone preaching his glories and to increase service to Srila Prabhupada I beg you to just once pray for me to Krishna because if you will pray for me Krishna will grant me buddhi to be a menial servant of the servant of your servants.

Srila Prabhupada brought me into Krishna Consciousness. but now both you and him have bound me with invisible ropes of love without even personally knowing this unworthy and the most insignificant fallen conditioned soul.

Through your teachings and mercy I will co-operate with every devotee to spread Srila Prabhupada's glories across the 3 worlds.

I am quite new to ISKCON, having joined only a year ago, and had little knowledge that devotion could bring such bliss. This Kartika-yatra was my first pilgrimage, and experiencing the blessings through the discourses and kirtanas by HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja transported me to a transcendental realm. Tears of joy flowed endlessly. Words cannot fully express my gratitude for being blessed with such a deep experience of devotion.

Dandavat Pranama, dear Gurudeva,

Despite having no qualification, you graciously gave me two initiations—Harinaam and Brahman. After receiving the second initiation on 31st March 2024, I have experienced unpredictable and miraculous changes in my personal devotional life. This transformation has happened solely by your causeless mercy.

Previously, I was suffering from anarthas, and my Sadhana was fluctuating significantly. My practice felt mechanical and lacking in sincerity. However, by your mercy, things have changed, and I am now experiencing a deeper connection with Krishna.

I have also started preaching in my hometown, and the devotees there are sincerely practicing Krishna Consciousness.. They are seeking your blessings to become more enlightened on this path. Please continue to bless them and grant me the strength to remain focused on devotional service in the mood of the servant of the servant of the servant.

My dear Gurudeva, you always bestow your glances upon those who engage in menial and humble services. My only aspiration is to always remain engaged in such services with a proper mood, just for the chance to receive your merciful glance.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.On this sacred occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I stand before you as a beggar, with empty hands and a heart burdened by my faults. Yet, I am compelled by your boundless mercy and compassion to offer my words, however unworthy they may be.Maharaja, you are a living example of what it means to be a true servant of Krishna, carrying the light of Srila Prabhupada’s mission into the darkest corners of this world. Your life is a testimony to complete surrender, selflessness, and unshakable faith in the Supreme Lord.

Through your words, actions, and presence, you reveal the path of devotion in its purest and most transformative form.I am drowning in an ocean of my own shortcomings—pride, laziness, and lack of sincerity. Yet, your unrelenting compassion reaches even the most fallen souls like me. You tirelessly remind us that no one is too far gone for Krishna’s mercy if they simply turn to Him with sincerity.

Your kindness gives me the courage to try, again and again, despite my repeated failures.Maharaja, I beg for your mercy to lift me from the pit of ignorance and selfishness. Please grant me the determination to chant the holy names with attention and devotion.

Please bless me with the humility to serve others without expectation, and the wisdom to remain steadfast in Srila Prabhupada’s mission. Without your guidance, I am lost. Without your mercy, I have no hope.I pray that one day I may develop even a fraction of the devotion you have for the Lord and His devotees.

Please accept me as your servant, however unworthy I may be, and allow me to assist you in your service to Srila Prabhupada and the Vaisnavas. I long for nothing but your shelter, your blessings, and the opportunity to serve under your direction.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All these years I was so very eager, excited to formally be your disciple. But now when you actually accepted me as your disciple, with each passing day I am realizing how unworthy and unfit I am to be so. I have no qualifications to be your disciple. It's only and only your pure mercy that you have accepted me.

Gurudeva, you are the ocean of compassion, mercy, and love. This whole year you have been so extensively traveling, giving lectures, doing Kirtanas, and spreading love. One glance of yours purifies us of millions of births. You carry so much love and compassion for us in your heart. When I see devotees at Kartika-yatra doing wholehearted services, I see the reflections of your teachings in them. And I wish and pray to be your worthy disciple like them. Hare Krishna Maharaja, Please accept my humble and deepest obeisances. All glories to our savior Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you and your supreme mercy. Maharaja, on the occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, please allow me to express my gratitude to you for what you go through to support and nurture us. I attended the Mayapur yatra recently and was sick the entire time resulting in me being frustrated and angry. Then I became a bit introspective and thought a lot about you. How, at the age of 74 years, you still travel so much, give classes despite being unwell or tired, personally attend to the needs of so many devotees and always maintain a positive attitude. Being almost 20 years younger than you, I feel very old due to the pain this material body is giving me but I have the luxury to relax and rest at home and take time off from my commitments. But when I think of you, I realize what a difficult position it is being a sannyasi and Guru! Your life is simply embedded in service and upliftment of the society, without consideration of your own bodily pains. I am completely awed by the tremendous responsibilities a spiritual master takes upon himself to keep his disciples spiritually grounded. Maharaja, I am SO thankful to you for accepting us, despite all our mental flaws and spiritual weaknesses, and continuing to have faith in our advancement. Krishna has definitely endowed His special mercy upon you- your kindness, empathy, generosity, compassion, attention to detail, tolerance and patience are truly the ornaments I hope to have to decorate my character but I have a long way to go. You are the most merciful and gentle individual I have met and I am flattered to be your disciple. Please forgive me for not being formal in my offering but I wanted to share my heart with you and let you know that with each passing day, my appreciation for you increases and one day I hope to make myself really qualified to being your disciple. Thank you so much for everything you do for us- whether it is stirring the dal in the giant pots in the yatra, singing your heart out in kirtanas, sharing ecstatic Gaura Lila or simply smiling upon us with your doe-like eyes and blessing us with your soft glances. Please continue to bless this wretched soul who is currently focusing a little too much on the body so that I may rise above the bodily miseries and focus on going back to Godhead. I inspire to have at least 1% of your qualities. With gratitude. Your servant, Nandini Radha devi dasi (New Dvaraka)

Hare Krishna My Dearest Guru Maharaja,
PAMHO, AGTSP,

I don't know how to write offerings, but for the first time, I am trying to attempt to write something through what I have heard from my seniors in lectures and through your classes.

Maharaja, first of all, I am very grateful to you for accepting this insignificant fallen soul. I would have been a fully materialistic girl if you had not sheltered me. Who was Prabhupada? I have no idea. All I heard and saw was your journey home. By the mercy of devotees, I received your blessings. Eternally grateful to you, Maharaja.

Guru Maharaja, I have tried to make abbreviations. Please accept it.

G - Genuine

Maharaja your nature attracts so much. When H.H. Jaypataka Maharaja said he would like to come and give some class in Kartika-yatra Mayapur 2024, you used to make sure that you winded up your class by 7 pm and let Maharaja speak. So much love and affection you have for others, and this is contagious. Hope that someday I will develop the same by hearing from from your previous classes.

U - Unique

Maharaja, your unique way of preaching through love and affection inspires millions of people around. Following your footsteps, Maharaja, we have started something like that in our place, too, Gandhinagar, Gujarat. The love and affection received through devotees from SSRG temple that to fill the hollowness now we have to give. You have given your time, energy, and blood in your lectures. Whenever in difficulty it's the only solution.

R - Reliable

Maharaja, we are so much reliable in your lectures for surviving in Krishna Consciousness... I heard about one of your Vyasa-puja classes by H.G Vraj Bihari Prabhuji and got so attracted to that class I almost heard about that class 20 times. The more I hear the more I feel I am hearing something new. This helped me to connect with you more. So much that I got the guts to write.

U - United

Maharaja the way you take yatra's every year, this shows how much you want us to be united.

Thank you so much, Maharaja, for such yatas and wonderful Prasada. Devotees are intensely doing service and even great ful to all of them. Hoping someday I can make you proud. Requesting to please visit our city once Maharaja. Allow us to serve you. And if you can send someone to preach to Gandhinagar, Gujarat

Dear Gurudeva
Please accept my humble obesiences
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

GuruMaharaja, you have always been my source of inspiration, my idol. and I always looked up to you as I grew up. Your qualities, your actions, your love has always attracted me since I was a little child.

I remember, how as a kid when I was a tiny little brat hardly 3-4 years old you would embrace me with your utmost love care and affection. You also used to give me knuckle taps on my head. All these interactions felt like I was drenched in the ocean of your mercy. Your unlimited overflowing mercy and blessings has always been the greatest source of my strength.

GuruMaharaja, your vapu sanga may not be always available to me, but your Vani sanga always remains constant which gives me a feeling of your presence, your guidance.

Thankyou Gurudeva for all the love, and care you have always given me always. Thankyou for all your time and everything you have done for me.

Gurudeva, without your mercy I feel I have no qualifications to serve the Lordships. I feel no hopes without your mercy and blessings.

Gurudeva please give me all the strength to follow your instructions and may I be able to please guru and Gauranga and serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Thankyou so much Gurudeva for accepting this insignificant soul as your disciple.

Dear Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

With great joy in my heart, and by the mercy of my dear God brothers and God Sisters, I am attempting to write this Vyasa-puja offering for you.

With immense gratitude in my heart, I thank you for your unconditional love, support, and guidance. Your mercy is flowing in my life in the form of your lectures, kirtanas, classes, amrita droplets, service opportunities, temple authorities, devotional circle, and loving and caring devotees... The list is endless.

Dear Maharaja, we read about the qualities and nature of a Vaisnava in Srila Prabhupada's books. You have exemplified it all by your selfless and compassionate nature, dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission, simplicity, pridelessness, and prayerful mood.

In your classes you give great emphasis to the principles of humility, patience, and tolerance, being a servant of the servant of the servant, and a constant mood of surrender. I see myself so far away from all these qualities.

Dear Maharaja, your causeless mercy is my only hope. Begging your blessings and strength to be able to follow your instructions and simply aspiring to be an instrument in your hands.

Praying to Lord Krishna for your good health. Koti koti Pranamas to you, Maharaja. Very greatful for everything. Thank you from the core of my heart.

For a neophyte like me, who has no personal interaction with you -HHRNSM, giving Vyasa-puja offering is very tough -finding the most appealing instruction/teaching from the ocean of your teachings!

Then I remembered: one devotee asked in one Vrundavan yatra- how do you manage Yatra of eight thousand devotees? Your simple answer was: 90% prayer and 10% management!

I also prayed to remember something special!

I remembered whenever I notice disturbance in japa, and if I am able to remember you doing your japa, as if seating in front of you, very close by, in a forest/RGT/dhaam and seeing your japa my japa gets better, deeper, prayerful absorbing,.....

When you chant/sing/preach I feel it's like 100% prayer, it's 100% hard work, 100% tapasya, 100% transcendental management,.....it's simply wonderful

Thank you very much HHRNSM

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to your lotus feet. All glories to Sri Vyasa-puja.

When I first read the Journey Home, I was totally mesmerized and astonished by seeing the humility and attachment to the Lord.

Thank you for arranging the Yatra every year. This year I was in the Yatra (I have just started attending since last year). I felt this is the best time I am spending in spiritual life in terms of Sadhana or taking up the inspiration from devotees by their service attitude or by their behavior. You are very personal to all the devotees. I was seeing you were almost every day going in the kitchen to increase the enthusiasm of all the devotees. And evening katha is simply wonderful. The whole day, visit the holy place, and at night just hear from the spiritual master. Best time of my life; also, I got many realizations from the yatra.

Now I/we are enjoying the fruits that you have prepared with your hard work by making fertile land, putting it in, and watering it for years together.

I like your 2 qualities most, which you feel every lecture repeats: trnad api su-nicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana-denav kirtaniyah sada harih "One who thinks himself lower than the grass, who is more tolerant than a tree, and who does not expect personal honor yet is always prepared to give all respect to others can very easily always chant the holy name of the Lord." I always see you following these qualities.

Just a few days ago, I was hearing the lecture series given about "New Vrndavana." So much you have sacrificed your sleep and opinions just to follow the instructions of the spiritual master (his representative), and lastly, you have created GEV, the same Vrajwasi mood here.

I am eternally indebted to you; I can't pay back what you have given. Thank you, Maharaja, for all this.

Thank you, Maharaja. For all you have struggled for me, we, and innumerable other transcendental examples and instructions, illustrating your total dependence on Krishna and your resolve to fulfill the order of your spiritual master.

Your Servant,
Narayan Gunte.

Dear spiritual master,

I know I am the most fallen one, and I am not worthy of either glorifying you or even imbibing your teachings. I know it's not possible to get initiated by you in this very birth. It's not even possible to see you live. That will be possible in the next birth may be. But I consider you as my spiritual master. And you are the only reason why my spiritual journey started. All glory to you, and may I get placed under your lotus feet by your mercy. Glories to you my beloved spiritual master.

Pls accept my humble obeisances on your lotus feet.

Firstly praying to Lord Krishna for your good health so that we can get your association for more and more years.

Maharaja,I am your very tiny servant, aspiring to do many services,but currently doing small small services.

Maharaja, from your journey home book getting inspiration from the incidence of Nepal when dogs were constantly barking and you with shrill determination towards your orders of guru Maharaja and seva along with a very tiny stick you are protecting yourself itself speaks a lot.

Your eagerness to search for a True Guru is very inspiring and after meeting with Srila Prabhupada your dedication towards the shelter of Srila Prabhupada and doing so much seva and taking New Vrndavana temple to a very Next level! is so much inspiring Maharaja.

Maharaja You have given us so much of Guidance

Motivation along with such wonderful family that this can never be overshadowed by any material thing ever!

Maharaja your lectures,

Your kirtanas

Your books

Your temples

Your Devotees

Your arrangement for delicious Prasadam

Your Determination

Your Will power etc and everything is what I was and still aspiring to have so that I can succeed in the path of spirituality.

Please empower me and always keep me in your shelter to do more and more services in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Maharaja,

On this sacred day of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude and admiration for your relentless dedication to creating a community that transcends the boundaries of this material world. Under your divine guidance, you have built a family where every soul feels loved and cared for—creating a living representation of the spiritual world. It is in this community, shaped by your love and compassion, that we taste glimpses of the joy and fulfillment of Vrndavana itself.

You have poured your heart into nurturing every devotee, providing spiritual shelter that offers solace from the harshness of this world. Your teachings and example of selfless care and compassion illuminate the true needs of society today, showing us that genuine, unconditional love is the path to transforming hearts. In this oasis you've created, we find the strength to relieve ourselves of worldly burdens and rediscover the true purpose of life.

Thank you for giving us Govardhan Ecovillage (GEV), a sanctified retreat where the sacredness of Vrndavana is felt deeply. It is here that weary souls find the fulfillment of their longing to escape city life and immerse themselves in spiritual bliss. This place, molded by your vision and dedication, is not merely a retreat but a reminder of our spiritual heritage and a path to living a life of true devotion. With a humble heart, I offer my gratitude for this oasis of hope and spiritual realization in a world often marred by selfishness. Thank you for lighting our paths with your wisdom and guiding us towards a life of spiritual joy.

Yours in service,
Naresh

Poem of Gratitude to Maharaja
O Maharaja, beacon of grace,
In your warmth, we find our place.
With loving care, you lift our load,
Guiding each soul down the divine road.
A community of love you build,
Where every heart's longing is fulfilled.
You teach us to see beyond this strife,
To taste the sweetness of spiritual life.
Govardhan stands, a refuge so grand,
Crafted with care by your guiding hand.
In its peacefulness, we find release,
A taste of Vrndavana's eternal peace.
Thank you, Maharaja, for this sacred flame,
In your shelter, we call Krishna's name.

Dear Guru Maharaja ji wish You happy 74th Krishna conscious Birthday.

O Gurudeva Thank you very very very much for coming in My Life & Enlightening me on this path of Pure Devotional service, Thank you very much for giving Holy Dham, Holy Name, Holy association of Devotees, Holy Prasadam and Your enliven Holy Katha to nourish my heart in Gaur Prem. Special thanks GuruMaharaja ji for increasing my Love for all services for the Pleasures of Srila Prabhupada, as You shown by your own example how should a Sadhaka should enthusiastic to serve Srila Prabhupada.

O GuruMaharaja ji Your Glories are unlimited, as You are not from this mortal world, how can I Glorify You with my limited words...? But for my purification I will do your Glorification.

As stated in SB by Parikshit Maharaja about Srila Shukadev Goswami when he arrived in the assembly of All Great Saint's that time, King Parikshit Maharaja sings the glories just by seeing and hearing from Great soul everyone becomes purified...

Simply by our remembering you, our houses become instantly sanctified. And what to speak of seeing you, touching you, washing your holy feet and offering you a seat in our home?

In this same manner I feels, when I personally takes Darshan of Your Holy Picture, or personally in this recent Kartika-yatra, You took all of us in the Holy Dham under ther shelter of Lord Nitai Gaur Sundar and Srila Prabhupada.

GuruMaharaja ji as You says in Your class that just by hearing we can cleanse our heart and Hearing gives an opportunity to associate with the Lord. Hearing from You this Holy Katha always gives Deep instructions and lessons for being a Good Sadhak and a humble Servant who will always eagar to hear more and more.

SB 1.1.19

We never tire of hearing the transcendental pastimes of the Personality of Godhead, who is glorified by hymns and prayers. Those who have developed a taste for transcendental relationships with Him relish hearing of His pastimes at every moment.

O GuruMaharaja ji you puts all Your energy in your Katha and gives essence of Srila Prabhupada's teaching.

Dear Guru Maharaja ji I have lots of anartha in my heart, as I a rebellious Jiva - I'm full with 6 Anartha... Kama is very prominent in me and due to that I'm slave of my senses... Lower than the worm in the stool... I don't have any hope except than You, O Gurudeva... But after hearing Katha from Your Srimukha day by day my hope is increasing that one day I will sure get Love of Godhead by your Mercy...

Now I'm Your Dog.... Please accept me and keep me in the service of Your Lotus feet and Srila Prabhupada....

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. This is my first Vyasa-puja offering, and I'm honored to express my gratitude. Despite being unworthy, I've always received your unlimited mercy.

In our first meeting 2000, you bestowed upon me your blessings, saving me from a precarious situation. One of your qualities that resonates deeply with me is your 'ajata-shatru' nature your capacity to love and appreciate everyone, never criticizing or offending anyone.

Your interactions with each soul are marked by care and empathy. As I strive to cultivate this virtue, on this special day I humbly beg you to continue your mercy upon us.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

I offer my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet, which are the ultimate refuge for my soul. As my diksha guru, you have initiated me into the sacred path of Krishna Consciousness., and I am forever grateful for your divine guidance and blessings.

Your compassionate heart, overflowing with wisdom and love, is the embodiment of the six qualities of a bona fide guru, as described in the Caitanya Charitamrita. Your selfless dedication to imparting spiritual knowledge and your unwavering commitment to the well-being of your disciples are a testament to your exalted stature.

As my spiritual father, you have nourished my soul with the nectar of your teachings, and I am deeply indebted to you for revealing the path to Krishna's divine love. My prayer unto your Lotus feet is that my heart may become a worthy vessel to receive your guidance, and may I become a humble instrument in the service of the Lord.

Please accept my humble offering, dear Guru Maharaja, and may it be a token of my eternal gratitude for your guidance, blessings, and unwavering support on my spiritual journey.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!

With deep humility and reverence, I bow at your holy feet and offer this prayer of gratitude for your boundless kindness, guidance, and inspiration. You are a beacon of light in this darkened world, showing us the path to spiritual fulfilment, inner peace, and unconditional love for the Divine.

Whenever I have the privilege of taking darshan of you, one thought that always comes to mind is perfectly captured in Srimad-Bhagavatam 9.4.66:

"For those who are engaged in pure devotional service, I am always their supreme goal, and they become as dear to Me as I am to them."

In the purport, Srila Prabhupada beautifully explains, "The life of a sincere devotee is one of loving service and absolute surrender. Such a devotee is not attached to the material world but dedicates their life to the service of the Supreme Lord. Through such sincere devotion, the devotee becomes as dear to the Lord as He is to them. Their hearts are filled with love for the Lord, and by this process of service and surrender, they receive the greatest benediction—the Lord's personal mercy."

Your life, a living example of surrender and selfless service, has touched the hearts of countless souls across the world. Through your teachings, you have illuminated the true essence of devotion to Lord Krishna, showing us that the greatest gift we can offer is our hearts in service. Your unwavering compassion for all living beings and your dedication to spreading the message of the Holy Name inspire us to rise above material entanglements and seek the higher purpose of life.

You have shown us that true wealth lies not in material possessions but in devotion to the Divine. Your words and actions reveal that the path of Bhakti is one of simplicity, purity, and deep love for God. Whether through your heartfelt kirtanas, your compassionate outreach, or the books you've authored that continue to serve as a guide for spiritual aspirants, your legacy is one of profound love and service to the Divine.

Maharaja, I am eternally grateful for the opportunity to be in your association, to hear your divine teachings, and to walk the path of devotional service under your guidance. Please bless me that I may never forget your instructions, remain humble, and dedicate my life to the service of Lord Krishna, following the exemplary path you have so graciously set for us.

Your Humble Servant

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glory to you, my dear spiritual master.

Your divine grace has touched countless lives through the numerous initiatives you have established: Radha Gopinatha Temple, GEV, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, and countless Satsanga centers, all dedicated to spreading the holy name of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Your greatness is evident in the immense impact of your preaching. Millions of books have been distributed, millions have tasted the mercy of Prasadam, and millions more have been introduced to the sublime chanting of Hare Krishna, thanks to your tireless efforts and the power of your divine association.

Your humility is as profound as your spiritual potency. While you inspire millions, you remain ever modest, a shining example of selfless service to the Lord.

Thank you for Everything.

All glories to Guru Parampara
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to you, Sri Guru and Gauranga

Gurudeva by devotees prayers, your blessings, Srila Prabhupada blessings, Lord Gauras arrangement, I got a job in Narayana college in Eluru city. I never thought that I'll get that offer. I got more than I deserved. Till now I could just do basic Sadhana and could not do much preaching. But I will try from now to balance my sadana, work and preaching. Also Gurudeva I am planning to enter Grihastha Ashram this March and trying to search for good partner who will help me in my bhakti. I am not sure what type of partner I'll get. I am seeking your blessings, Srila Prabhupada's blessings and Lord Gauranga's blessing so that I can find a partner who will support my bhakti and help me in Bhakti Guru dev I am very grateful for the seed of Bhakti which you have given. I don't know what is my qualification in receiving that. I am just not qualified and it's your causeless mercy that I was given though I am most unqualified. I am trying my best to water this seed of Bhakti-Lata and protecting it.

You always emphasize on to never forget Krishna and always remember Krishna in whatever difficulties we may have. I am trying my best and I will try my best to follow your instructions till my last breath and want to serve you further after leaving this body

Thank you for everything you have given me

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja!
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

I am feeling utterly clueless and unqualified to glorify a pure devotee like yourself who is very dear to Srila Prabhupada.

Somehow, I am getting this opportunity to serve you in this way, Guru Maharaja.

Please accept my 1st humble offering and forgive me for any mistakes.

About 1.5years back, while writing an offering to Srila Prabhupada, I prayed to him to bless me with a spiritual master as his true representative and to whom I can find shelter and derive inspiration to serve this ISKCON movement wholeheartedly for a lifetime despite all difficulties and differences.

Somehow, by the causeless mercy of Lord Krishna, Sri Caitanya Mahaprab, hu, and Srila Prabhupada, I am finding this shelter in your teachings, lectures, es, and examples.

Although I have not been formally initiated by you till now, I pray to Krishna to make me qualify to get connected to this great parampara through the current link of your divine self. Although, this mercy is causeless, and therefore, that is the only hope for me. May my desire to serve and satisfy the whole parampara without any ulterior motive or expectations be strengthened by your mercy, Guru Maharaja.

In the last year, especially after accepting you as my Spiritual Master, I am practically feeling very much reciprocation from your side. This shows how the Guru is more interested in the benefit of the disciple than the disciple himself.

Giving some examples, earlier, I was thinking about how I be able to meet you or even see you. Will I ever be able to get your service, mahaPrasada, darshan, etc? Although your vani is itself very much nourishing to fallen souls like us, still, I was hankering for the Vapu association that you fulfilled.

Besides seeing you in Kartika-yatra inspiring 1000s of devotees, I got your association in Belgaum, in Newtown, and then even in Jamshedpur.. very city of my VOICE where I get nurtured in bhakti.. (where you came for the first time with Krishna's divine arrangement).

I got your mahaPrasada also. And mercy in other ways also in these places.

I was also worried about whether I would be accepted by you as I heard that devotees had to wait for more than 10 years to get initiated. Waiting was alright, ht but I feared that would ill it would be too late to get on the train. But I guess seeing my fallen condition of mine, Krishna, has shown me some hope. You have started accepting disciples again this year.

Sometimes, I feel that I am just making a show of becoming a senior devotee by aspiring for initiation. But, what else is to be done? That is the only hope for me to seek shelter from Guru. Without whom, how wiI get the get strength to se?ve.

I am very much inspired by your dedication and practical illustration of the trnad api sunicena.. verse.

I was reading the book Guru Smaranam by HG Vrndavanaa Pr, your very dear and intimate servant. There, he explains many of your pastimes and glories, which helped me know a lot about your glorious self.

There you say in one place that real Vyasa-puja means to sincerely follow the Guru's instructions.

Please bless me with the strength to be able to follow your instructions in pleasing devotees and serving Srila Prabhupada in his mission in a way satisfying to my superiors.

Please bless me with the drop of faith and taste in chanting the Holy Names of Krishna that you possess. That I shall consider the greatest success in my life.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for giving us a Spiritual Shelter.

Please accept this fool in some service to this parampara.

Seeking for Your Divine Shelter!

Respected guru Maharaja please accept my humble obisiences unto your lotus feet.

It is due to your kindness that I am able to address you as my guru in your Vyasa-puja

I consider myself fortune that I am writing an offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja my spiritual master on his 74th Vyasa-puja Prabhupada installed his qualities in all his disciples.

Every disciple of Prabhupada displays all his qualities.

In my little way I am also trying to give my offering by sharing Maharaja's qualities

Although Maharaja has unlimited qualities but some qualities which inspires me a lot

With my limited intelligence I tried to describe these qualities of Maharaja.

1. Perfect disciple of Srila Prabhupada
2. Humbleness
3. Forgiveness
4. Great Communicator
5. Full of compassion
6. Full of patience
7. Team building and promoting team work
8. appreciate every devotee
9. Dedicated devotee of Krishna

His qualities are unlimited and cannot be quantified.

Also I do not have much wisdom to know and understand his other qualities who is a pure devotee of Krishna.

I beg Maharaja to give me shelter at his lotus feet.

And bless me with their causles mercy so that I can give up all my anarthas and develop attachment in the holy names of Krishna and improve my sadhna so that I can serve Srila Prabhupada and devotees.

"Although I haven't had the privilege of meeting you in person yet, Guru Maharaja, from last three years I've been deeply inspired by you guru Maharaja particularly after reading your book 'Journey Home'. I earnestly pray for the opportunity to have your darshan and seek your blessings soon."

Seeking shelter of HH Holiness Radhanath Swami guru Maharaja.

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

You have taught us through your lectures, beliefs and actions that the basis of devotee care and love is the relationships which we have with each other. Please bless me so that I can follow the same teachings in my life. Please give your mercy so that I can take the spiritual path wholeheartedly and without becoming distracted by Maya devi, and that I endeavour fully in this path and be consistent in my devotional activities.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeiscences.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

GuruMaharaja, I had never imagined that someday I would aspire to be a devotee. it is your causeless mercy via preaching devotees who changed my life.

I find myself very insignificant to glorify you and your divine qualities. Me, being a struggling sadhaka, try to take shelter of your words. Your words are solace to my heart which always keep hankering. I had always find great wisdom and enlightenment for devotion in your words. These words reveal the futility of sense enjoyment and give me hopeful enthusiasm to serve devotees and Krishna.

Your sweet dealings with Vaisnavas always inspire me to respect devotees. In recent Kartika-yatra at Mayapur dham, your interactions with HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja and other devotees were great teaching for me. You interacted and appreciated them very personally.

GuruMaharaja, you have great love for Krishna and you always try to share that with us. Due to a lot of anarthas in my heart, I find my frequency mismatched. I seek your blessings so that someday by your mercy, I may also get taste for name and glories of Krishna and devotees.

GuruMaharaja, by mercy of HG Radheshyam Prabhu and other devotees, I am practicing Krishna Consciousness., struggling with my anarthas, and I have great aspiration to dedicate my life in service of Srila Prabhupada. I beg to you for your mercy so that I may serve, satisfy and please Hari, Guru and Vaisnavas.

begging for mercy,

Dear Spiritual Father,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you, on this auspicious day of your appearance.

Offering my most humble obeisances at the dust of the divine lotus feet of my revered Guru Maharaja, who is the light of my life, dispelling the darkness of ignorance and opening my eyes to the eternal truth of Krishna.

You are the embodiment of mercy, and through your divine teachings, I have gained wisdom that was once beyond my reach. I am eternally indebted to you for revealing to me the sacred path of loving service to Krishna and for enlightening my heart with the precious instructions that have transformed my understanding of life. Through your books, lectures, and personal example, I have found a beacon of spiritual light, and my soul is forever uplifted by your guidance.

I am especially grateful for the opportunity to attend your lecture at ISKCON Chowpatty this year, a blessing I hold close to my heart. It is a dream fulfilled, to personally hear from you and be in the presence of your divine mercy.

With deepest gratitude, I offer my sincere thanks for accepting me as your disciple and granting me the priceless gift of initiation. Your compassion and guidance have completely transformed my life, and I am forever grateful for the spiritual shelter you have lovingly provided.

You are the embodiment of humility and kindness, and your exemplary life continuously inspires me to surrender more fully to the service of Krishna. Every word you speak and every action you take is a shining example of how to live a life dedicated to the Supreme Lord, and I pray that I may follow in your footsteps with sincerity and determination.

I humbly pray that you bless me with the strength, wisdom, and resolve to follow your teachings with complete sincerity, humility, and unwavering devotion. Please guide me on this sacred journey of spiritual realization, helping me to purify my heart and to serve you, Srila Prabhupada, and Lord Krishna with all my being—as a humble servant of the servant of the servant.

Thank you for your infinite mercy, your boundless wisdom, and your unshakable love for all your disciples. I pray to Lord Nrisimhadeva for your eternal protection and long life, that we may continue to receive the light of your divine teachings for many years to come.

I remain your insignificant servant, ever eager to grow in devotion and to serve under your loving guidance.

Dear Guru Maharaja

I consider myself fortunate that I am writing an offering to HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja my spiritual Master on the occasion of his 74th Vyasa-puja.

He is inspiring thousands of people all over the world to become devotees of Krishna. Lots of his disciples across the world are giving heartfelt Offering to Maharaja and I am also trying to give my offerings by sharing my realization of Krishna Consciousness.

I was so fortunate that I attended Mayapur Yatra this year with you Maharaja. It is a lifetime achievement award for me. And I want to attend every year with all my God brothers and sisters. It was such a moment with so many exalted devotees all over the world and the count was 38000 approximately if I am not mistaken, was one of the mesmerizing moments for me. Everyday almost after the morning mangala arti and puja sitting right in front of you and chanting 16 round straight was an unforgettable moment for me. Since then, I see you and feel you every day in front of me when I am chanting early morning. Maharaja you are extremely special to me. This Yatra has given me much more realization which is beyond imagination. I am totally a different person nowadays. I feel I am in Mayapur every day in front of you in pandal and chanting with you.

You made us visit so many places which I never knew even though I was born in Kolkata. For Instance:

YOG Peeth in Mayapur is the birthplace of Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Narshimha Pali - Lord Narsimha washed his hand after killing hiraniyakashipur. I washed my chanting beads and sprinkled lots of water on my head and body all over.

Recently I lost my older brother who was 61 years only due to cancer and I came to know that that we have Ganga devi temple at Srila Prabhupada ghat in Mayapur where we can do the Pind dan in such a systematic way that I was so blessed to do that for my grandfather, father and older brother. All this happened because of you Maharaja. I am so much thankful to you.

One evening during yatra Maharaja was about to give lectures and there was a problem in the sound system, and he kept trying to continue the lecture, but it was kind of echoing, and he finally gave up and said lets do the kirtana and for that this sound works or not it does not matter. And we all got into ecstasy dancing and chanting and singing. Just unimaginable experience I went through.

Your Krishna Conscious Lectures and especially your kirtanas are so engaging and so inspiring that it quickly connects our hearts to Krishna. Let your transcendental message penetrate our hearts.

Maharaja dedicated his life to serve Krishna. When He was staying in New Vrndavana a secluded place with almost no facility, and he was taking care of the deity almost all alone.

To worship the Deity he has to take several times bath a day and there was no facility of hot water and infact the temperature go in minus that he has to break the ice to take ice water shower and he never hesitated to do that and he never complains or show any grudges, he is just prepared and always ready to serve Krishna in all circumstances.

And this time when we were in Mayapur and our accommodation was not at all good and I was thinking how to survive and I was thinking to go back but I remembered quickly your New Vrndavana story and changed my mind and because of your mercy found the better accommodation which was a miracle.

On this auspicious occasion Of Maharaja's Vyasa-puja, I beg you Maharaja to give me knowledge, intelligence and determinations so that I give up all types of sense gratification, and give up all kinds of anarthas and develop great attachments to chant the holy names of Krishna and read Prabhupads books and serve the devotees.

Please Maharaja bless my family my wife Saada Mariam, my daughter Varsha,my son Sunny, my daughter in law Tanya and not the least my Grandson Aiden to become the devotees of Krishna and that is my wish.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

The first time I heard you in Vrndavana Kartika-yatra 2019 and read the book 'The journey Home,' it gave me strength and inspiration to chant the Hare Krishna maha Mantra with firm determination and increased my faith in Krishna Consciousness.. I started listening your lectures and they are so inspiring that it quickly connects our heart to Krishna. It's my great fortune to have such a bonafide spiritual master such as you. You are just like a cloud,as you shower mercy upon we fallen souls of the world.

I am limited in glorifying you to the extent you actually deserve,I beg to give me knowledge and determination to give up all anarthas,develop attachment to chant the holy name and to carry on with your service to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I hope your health is better. At times I feel I am dreaming, about whether I am a part of this sacred movement.

I never imagined I would be so blessed to be a part of this movement. I always thanked Srimati Radharani and Gopinatha for letting their merciful eyes fall upon me the day I first came to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha with my family and was completely clueless and in illusion.

Little do I know that it was your merciful eyes that blessed me through Srimati Radharani and Gopinatha. I still think I do not deserve to be a part of this Hare Krishna movement or this devotee community, due to my piled-up anarthas, but everything I was fortunate to get your glance at me, though I was scared that you would see all my anarthas, I felt secured and loved. I keep looking forward to your merciful glance, GuruMaharaja.

Though I am not sincere in my Sadhana, I will always beg you to help me cross this ocean of misery while holding your hand, just like a child holds the hand of his father. I will always pray to Srikati Radharani and Gopinatha to take the days of my life and give to You, as your presence is way more important for the people of this world. For me, your vani is the Truth.

And I am eternally grateful to you for letting me be a tiny part of Srila Prabhupada's dream. Your insignificant servant.

Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Maharaja, your entire life is a living testament to the ideals of Srila Prabhupada. You are an infinite ocean of compassion, tirelessly teaching us about our eternal relationship with Krishna and how to experience His grace in every moment. Loving Krishna and experiencing His love is the true completeness of life, and through your instructions, we gain a deeper understanding of this supreme goal.

You emphasize the importance of a pure heart to attract Krishna's grace and guide us on how to achieve this purity through dedicated service and sincere spiritual practice. You teach us that the essence of devotion lies in serving the Lord and chersing the association of devotees.

Traveling across the globe, you spread the message of Krishna Consciousness., creating Vrndavana wherever you go. Vrndavana is so dear to your heart that it resides within you, and Krishna always dwells in your heart. Your discourses inspire us to engage wholeheartedly in the service of Krishna and His devotees, and you mercifully involve all of us in various devotional services, giving us a chance to progress on the path of bhakti.

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, we humbly pray at your lotus feet for the strength and sincerity to faithfully follow your instructions and to always remain in the cherished association of devotees.

Wish you a very happy Krishna-conscious birthday, dear and respected Guru Maharaja.

On this most auspicious day, I pray to their Lordships Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha ji, Shri Shri Gaur Nitai, Shri Gopalji, and Srila Prabhupada for your long and healthy life ahead.

Maharaja, you are following each instruction of Srila Prabhupada so meticulously and pleasing Srila Prabhupada through your so many services. You have such an earnest desire to serve devotees with each minute detail based on the principles of the teachings of Srila Prabhupada. For example, we experience so much comfort and bliss in Kartika-yatra each year.

You carry the jewel of humility in your heart and encourage us to follow through each lecture by mentioning the trinadapi verse. You tell us the pastimes of the Lord so lively with each and every minute detail. You also preach to the elite class of society at various corporate giant companies and educational institutions, percolating the sublime message of Shastra in the most practical way. You go on year after year so consistently in the mission of Srila Prabhupada with new vigor.

Thank you so much, Guru Maharaja, for making so many efforts for me to facilitate Krishna Consciousness. so easily.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept my humble Obeisances at your lotus feet!

All the prayers of pure devotees to the Lord ask for one common thing: association of devotees. Even if I am internally rebellious and far from surrendering my material desires, by being in sanga, I am continuously bombarded by Krishna katha and Krishna nama who have the power to slacken the stronghold of the Illusory energy, impure mind being one of her agents. This association does not just save me but elevates my consciousness so that someday, the most unbelievable thing could happen, I surrender my independence to the Lord. By your mercy and inconceivable arrangement, I am being saved by the continuous onslaughts of Mayadevi with the help of the association at IIT Bombay VOICE.

By coming to Krishna Consciousness., I have declared a war against Illusory energy. From time to time, I am thoroughly shaken by her prowess and during these mental tribulations, your teachings come to my rescue. Very often I have observed, that hearing your lectures miraculously satiates these turbulances. The Lord performs His pastimes to attract the conditioned souls and by transparent medium like you, conditioned souls, like me, could experience the purifying pastimes. Your Gaur Lila series takes me to Mahaprabhu's pastimes and then the troublesome mind settles for the time being.

You have very much imbibed the quality of servitude to the servants of the Lord as prescribed by the Caitanya Caritamrita. Your exemplary dealings with your God brothers and sisters, your disciples, devotees from different Sampradayas, and even conditioned souls have a constant source of inspiration and teachings for cultivating Vaisnava qualities and learning Vaisnava dealings.

A Spiritual Master is very expert in engaging his disciples in different services to the Lord. I have also developed some desire, in a lowly corner of my heart, to serve in Srila Prabhupada's mission. But the weeds of material desires tend to cover up this tender desire to preach. I pray for your mercy which will give me strength to cut off these weeds and continuously nourish and protect this now-vulnerable desire. I wish to serve your devotees in their service to you.

Guru Maharaja please forgive me for all the mistakes I may make while making this offering. I am going to repeat words of your senior disciples and what I have heard from them about you.

I love the pastime of New Vrndavana where you were given service to serve deities alone in a secluded temple without any association. Still you took the service and served the deities day and night despite the fact that there was hardly anyone coming to take darshan. This teaches us that many times the service can be in a place where there is no association and still one should go on with the service. This pastime matches with my current situation where I have a direct lesson from this pastime of yours.

Second pastime was shared by HH Bhaktirasamrita Maharaja where he took you to a medical college for preaching giving all impression that minimum 500 students will be there based on his previous program there. When you reached there it was just one student waiting. HH Bhaktirasamrita Maharaja felt bit humbled by whole situation and thought how you must be feeling. But you found entire situation very amusing and gave very important instruction that one must be detached from the results of his preaching.

Guru Maharaja please bless me to follow your two most important instructions. As of today I am not able to follow both the instructions. I cant do this by myself, please help me Guru Maharaja to follow your instructions.

1. To be servant of the servant of the devotee

2. To learn to take namashraya (shelter of the holy names)

Lastly would like to to give quick report of Bournemouth, UK preaching this year.

In this small town where there is no temple, no center, no established congregation we have started the bimonthly programs. One house program for a small group of devotees and one hall program open to everyone. By your mercy we did more than 20 programs this year. Book distribution and children preaching as well are going on. Please bless the developing congregation here which is in its infancy stage right now. Seeking your blessings Guru Maharaja.

Being recipient of your causeless mercy I want to offer my gratitude on this auspicious occasion of your glorious Vyasa-puja.

On the day of Srila Prabhupada disappearance day in this year Kartika-yatra, the way you offered your realisation I was touched and moved by it.

You made that day Prabhupada conscious and you allowed ourselves to connect with His Divine Grace. I will be always indebted to you for connecting myself with Srila Prabhupada.

That day was completely different, it was jolting to my heart and it was compelling us to connect more with our parampara system.

I just wanted to keep it close to my heart, I want to go back to yatra days, want to cherish and relish your association again and again. Thank you so much for inviting Srila Prabhupada disciples and giving their association to us.

In Bhagavatam it is mentioned that one who tries to repay the spiritual master or teacher of the transcendental message of Krishna becomes a laughing stock because it is not possible to repay the debt. Vinod patram means joker, jokers activity simply arouse laughter.

So I am joker who think how can I repay you the debt, such a fool I am.

In last day of yatra I was agitated and frustrated them you gave you divine smile upon me, I forgot everything, I felt like cooling breeze calmed my agitation and frustration.

Thank you so much Maharaja.

Beloved Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this special day of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude for the incredible inspiration you provide in my spiritual journey. Through your teachings and example, you have brought the wisdom of our scriptures to life, guiding us on the path of devotion and service.

Your life and teachings remind me of the verse from the Bhagavad Gita (4.34):

”tad viddhi pranipatena pariprashnena sevaya, upadekshyanti te jnanam jnaninas tattva-darshinah”

It emphasizes the importance of seeking guidance from a realized spiritual master, who has seen the truth. You embody this principle, always guiding us with compassion and wisdom, helping us understand the true essence of life.

You also exemplify the humility described in Bhagavad Gita (13.8):

”amanitvam adambhitvam ahimsa kshantir arjavam,” which lists humility, nonviolence, and simplicity as the key qualities of a true devotee. In your actions, we see this humility, as you constantly serve others without seeking recognition, always pointing us towards the grace of Krishna.

Your compassionate heart brings to mind the words of Srimad-Bhagavatam (1.2.6):

”sa vai pumsam paro dharmo yato bhaktir adhokshaje,” which states that the highest dharma is pure devotion to the Supreme Lord. You show us that true spirituality is about developing love for Krishna and serving all living beings selflessly, seeing them as part of Krishna’s divine family.

Your teachings often remind us of the instruction given by Lord Caitanya in the Shikshashtakam:

”trinad api sunichena taror iva sahishnuna,” to be humbler than a blade of grass and more tolerant than a tree. You live by these principles, teaching us through your own example how to navigate this world with patience and humility, focusing always on service to Krishna and His devotees.

Maharaja, I am grateful for the shelter I have found at your lotus feet. I pray for your blessings to deepen my faith, follow your instructions sincerely, and serve with a pure heart. Thank you for guiding us with your love and wisdom, showing us the path back to Krishna.

Hare Krishna. Dear Gurudeva.
Please accept my life's every breath at your lotus feet.

What a wonderful revolution you have created in the entire world? Although the movement of Srila Prabhupada is the only hope, but unless it is presented and represented with high class character and genuine care for devotees, neither can it sustain devotees nor can it spread far and wide. Your deep unconditional surrender and complete selfless dedication for Srila Prabhupada is life giving to the whole world.

Your deep love for Vrndavana, your deep absorption to chant Holynames, your transcendental ability to connect with all kinds of people & conquering their hearts, your purity, your absorption, your care for devotees, your deep vision for future of ISKCON & all devotees, your ability to empower people do become empowered world leaders along with your extraordinary simplicity, your humility, your enthusiasm to be under ISKCON authority always, your unlimited campassion has touched the heart of millions. Your every quality is substantiated with 100s of your pastimes. How can an insignificant person like myself glorify you properly. Although you are such a great person, you never let anyone know. I am very sentimental, hence I can only beg at your lotus feet for your mercy & empowerment to be able to serve you.

Last 6 years, I am struggling so badly with my mind and senses. I have no solace. No hope. I helplessly dragged by my mind into so many bad things. I am shameless to speak this to you with no real repentance & remoursefulness. But how merciful you are. I see that you forgive me, you encourage me. I am so offensive. My tears are false. I am simply show off devotee. But you knowing my pathetic situation always encourage me. In this way you are uplifting me.

Guru Maharaja, I am so fortunate to meet you everyday through your vani, through your sincere disciples, through your instructions, through the services you have given to us through your servants, through your wonderful pastimes, your examples, through your pictures, and in so many other ways. How can I ever say that I am far from you? Just few days back, you also came to Newtown and we observed how you can deal with difficult managerial situation in a very light way and give a solution by which everyone is encouraged. You are genius - ati adakshyat ati vallabhasya. You are very expert and very dear to Krishna. Although we are living in this temple - we were unable to see that how for 10 years we will sustain in this small temple, and although you came 2nd time after Nitai Gauranga's installation and immediately noted that we need very big temple hall. That is so true. We are blind and guru opens our eyes.

Today I heard in your lecture, you were telling us how we need to be in urgency to hear Srimad-Bhagavatam. I beg your for this consciousness that let me be always be very serious & desperate to hear SB, let me understand that actually for me this is very urgent. I have been postponing becoming serious for last 18 years now. And maya has trapped me for so long to continue postponing & in that way maya is slowly taking away everything. You told - "if you postpone to next year the seriousness then, we become more materially attached & it becomes more difficult." This has happened to me. So, now I don't wish to postpone - I want to become serious.

You have so kindly given so many instructions to us. Who can say that we don't have your personal instructions? We have so many instructions to work on. But I never do that.

When will I actually prioritize chanting Holynames over everything else?

When will I become strict with my mind?

When will I actually follow trinadapi sunichena taror api sahishnuna amanina mana dena kirtanaiya sada hari?

When will I give up my independence and really try to serve your dear servants?

When will become free from hypocrisy and genuinely cry out for mercy of Holynames, Sri Gauranga, holy dham, Srila Prabhupada and guru?

When will become your exemplary disciple?

When will I become your genuine instrument of compassion to distribute Krishna Consciousness. to others in the mood of servant of the servant?

Lifetimes of homework. Please bless me to follow your instructions in truth.

The way you have empowered your disciples to do magic all over the world shows your glory. There is true genuine devotion and high character in your sincere followers.

You are genuine Brijavasi who has spread glories of Vrndavana all over the world.

How you are transforming simple old village ladies in India to big Holywood stars is just a miracle? How powerfully you are distributing Krishna Consciousness. all over the world?

Gurudeva, you have so much love for Srila Prabhupada and hence for his birthplace, Kolkata, which is always in your heart. And you have mercifully given us service in Kolkata and hence kept us in your heart. I do not know how can I ever properly reciprocate with so much love and mercy you have given us. I am trying to serve the youths in IIT Kharagpur so that they may be inspired to dedicate their lives to develop Kolkata, Srila Prabhupada's birthplace. Please bless me and all these students so that all of us may fully dedicate our life to please you. That is our hope.

Gurudeva, I have seen how living independent of your mercy, my life is fully ruined and how gaining your little mercy, I am filled with such energy & enthusiasm. You have kindly given me this realization in last 1 month. Now, that I have your mercy in my life, I do not wish to loose it at any cost. Please let me preserve your mercy and never go away from following your instructions strictly.

Begging to be always at your lotus feet
Begging to always serve your servants,

Dear Gurudeva,

Words cannot fully express the depth of my gratitude for all that you have given me. Despite my countless shortcomings, you have extended your grace and guidance, equipping even a fallen soul like me with everything necessary to carry out devotional service.

You have gifted us the temple, a sanctuary radiating spiritual energy, where we are constantly uplifted by the presence of the divine. This sacred space is not just a physical place but a refuge for our restless minds and hearts, a reminder of the transcendental path you've so generously illuminated for us.

You have provided the books, to inspire us. Through your teachings, you have unlocked the doors of knowledge, showing us how to navigate the complexities of life with faith, love, and humility.

You have given us the holy name, the most powerful tool to cleanse our hearts and minds, helping us reconnect with Krishna despite our impurities. You have shown us how to chant, how to meditate on the divine sound vibration, and how to focus our consciousness on the Supreme Lord.

You have also provided your personal example—through your tireless service, your unshakable faith, and your boundless compassion. You embody the virtues we all aspire to develop: humility, patience, and unwavering devotion to the Supreme Lord. Your presence alone is a beacon of hope, pulling us from the dark clutches of ignorance and drawing us closer to the eternal light of divine love.

Through your mercy, I have come to realize that I am not alone in this journey. The association of devotees, the spiritual family you have cultivated, surrounds me with support, encouragement, and love—further proof of your kindness and the life-transforming power of your grace.

Hare Krishna. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to guru and Gauranga. As I sit to pen down this offering for my guru Maharaja, I am reminiscing the first time I got the opportunity to see Maharaja. After a long time he was away from Radha Gopinatha temple due to covid 19 and lockdown he was back again. I wouldnt forget that day, Many devotees were eager to see him and I was one of them standing behind on my tip toes just to get a glance of him. The shelter which I felt by the merciful glance by his lotus eyes is indescribable. Sitting closest to the vyasasana at your lecture is still a blessing. Biggest blessing I have in my life is hearing your lecture sitting at a corner and cleansing my mind.“trnad api sunicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana-dena kirtaniyah sada harih” Maharaja you have explained us this verse through your work and your actions. The umbrella which you have held for us in this scorching heat of Maya in the form of Radha Gopinatha temple has helped many like me to mould their lives. As a 19 year old child and an insignificant servant, I beg mercy to be a speck of dust at your lotus feet so that I could purify my consciousness. Lord use to have a lots of cows and calves similarly I beg to be a little calves sitting in a corner next to your vyasasana hearing through the lotus mouth of my Krishnakripa bindu. Thank you Maharaja for the struggles you went through for us and building thus wonderful family. Your journey towards home has inspired me to be positive and stable in all the conditions. Gopinatha has really blessed by bringing me in your shelter. Maharaja your smile has healed my tears, your words has restored my faith in the Lord. I am sorry that my little brain and lack of knowledge couldn't justify the mercy you bestow upon us. I sincerely beg at your lotus feet to bless me so that I could serve all the vaishanavas and Krishna by all my heart.

Dearest Radhanath Maharaja, please accept my respectful obeisances at Your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to You on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

In every moment of your life you teach me by example. You never waste a single moment to glorify your spiritual master A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada.

In an exemplary way, you teach me the mood to become a good disciple and devotee, showing your pure and unconditional love for Srila Prabhupada. Please, GuruMaharaja, instill in my heart a drop of that mood of love and servitude that you possess.

Please accept my gratitude by accepting me and guiding me through the path of divine knowledge (Krishna Consciousness.).

Through the translation service that I carry out here in Italy I feel a little closer to you! But I want to serve you more and better.

I follow the teachings of Traidas Prabhu and Krishnaloka devi dasi, who guide me and instruct me to become a disciple worthy of your mercy.

I am infinitely grateful to be part of this wonderful spiritual family and to improve my life step by step through your teachings.

I have a yoga school dedicated to you called "Ritorno all'Anima" (in English The Journey Within) and in every way I try to transmit your words to my students, so that Krishna Consciousness. reaches as many people as possible.

I look forward to seeing you again in Italy soon. Every time thanks to your physical presence my consciousness changes and I am able to abandon bad habits and thoughts.

I pray you to bless me so that I can follow your instructions and become your worthy servant.

Hare Krishna dear Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisances. I am aspiring to be your disciple and this aspiration has become very strong in last one year. It is Krishna's arrangement that my first shiksha guru HG Mahashringa prabhuji is your disciple and then whoever I have considered as my shiksha guru happened to be your disciples, be it HH Bhakti Rasamrita Maharaja or HG Radha Mohan prabhuji Or HG Chaitnya Charan prabhuji etc. I am very much overwhelmed by your humility. I remember one instance where in the register other devotees have mentioned their names and the post which they own for temple management but you just mentioned your name and then "Das" in the post section! I recently heard about the world record you created for longest ever lecture and longest ever kirtana. Your kirtana brings tears of ecstasy in my eyes. I am not capable of writing much and express my love and gratitude to you. On this occasion of your Krishna conscious birthday, we pray to Radha Gopinatha and Gaur Nitai that they bestow a good health to you so that you continue showering your mercy to fallen souls like us.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Wishing you a very happy 74th Vyasa-puja, GuruMaharaja. I sincerely pray to Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Vallabha, Sri Sri Gaura Nitai, and Sri Sri Jagannath, Baladev, and Subhadra for your long and healthy life in the service of Srila Prabhupada.

In your book The Journey Home, you narrate the interactions with the immigration guards at the border of India. The lady guard, knowing that you only had 26 cents, rejected your entry. When the guard changed, you cried and pleaded, promising that one day you would do good for the people. The new guard granted you entry into India. I thank that guard who granted you entry on that day. We can see the transformation you have created in the lives of thousands of devotees all over the world. Witnessing the community you have built at ISKCON Chowpatty, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Govardhan Eco Village, Annual Kartika-yatra, etc., and the service attitude instilled in the heart of every devotee in these communities, is truly inspiring. The attitude to serve others without any ulterior motive, as you say, is not just spoken but personally demonstrated by you. I saw you tirelessly cooking at the yatra every single day for the devotees in the heat, stirring huge pots.

Your personal example and the training you have provided to your disciples not only inspire the current generation but will leave a legacy for the upcoming generation to understand the spirit of Vaisnava seva and pleasing Srila Prabhupada.

From the bottom of my heart, I express my deepest gratitude for your guidance in my life. This year has been a true blessing for me, as you have formally accepted me as one of your disciples. I feel very fortunate to have come in contact with Srila Prabhupada's movement, and I seek your blessings on this auspicious occasion to continue chanting sincerely, studying Srila Prabhupada's books in the association of devotees, and being engaged in the services of Guru and Gauranga.

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja. Maharaja has always been an inspiration and a guiding light to all the Vaisnavas. Although I'm not eligible to be his disciple but he has always been a shelter to those seeking goloka dhaam and Krishna naam. I've personally met Maharaja once during his visit to Belgaum for initiation. I got a chance to give him a small offering in form of a bracelet made out of cloth of Jagannath, Baldev and subhadra maiya (snan yatra). It was an overwhelming feeling when Maharaja accepted and wore it in his wrist. I'm very grateful and fortunate for this sweet gesture by His Holiness Radhanath swami Maharaja. I'll be giving my best to serve the purpose of Prabhupada and Radhanath swami Maharaja.

Hare Krishna. Please Accept My Humble Obisenses. I am very grateful to get the rare association of Srila Prabhupada ISKCON Movement and HHRNSM. I am a person with lot of lust, anger and greed in me. But on hearing Maharaja G. I become completely cool down. His humility smashes my false ego. Hus dealing with his Guru brothers and sisters taught me how I should be in my dealing with Vaisnavas. This time I am unable to physically attend Mamaypur yatra. But I hear his online classes and observe his interactions with Mayapur devottes especially HHJPSM. I am very much grateful to have association of his disciples in my spiritual life as well as for proper guidance in material life. At last I just need to upgrade myself to be his servant because he and his disiples has set a very nice standard for spiritual life. I just pray his good physical health and he keep bless me for my spiritual life and engage me in service of Guru and Krishna.

All Glories to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada

What a glorious meditation is the Vyasapuja of our spiritual master!

So many grateful memories I have from you, even so I really met you only twice. Through your classes and your disciples, I am connected to you, and this is your grace to me. The greatest appreciation I have this year is for your loving disciples. So many wonderful and sweet servants you have; I wish every day, by your grace, to follow in their footsteps. It is when we see the servant's mood, attitude, and enthusiasm that we actually understand the greatness of the master. And when we see you, hear you, and feel you, dear Gurudeva, it is Srila Prabhupada that is glorified as the Master of the Masters.

Thank you, Maharaja, for your loving kindness, your wisdom, and all the sacrifices that I don't even understand.

Sorry, Maharaja, to be unfit to be in such a great line of masters, but I will continue the fight by your grace.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept our humble obeisances.
Kindly empower us and give us an opportunity to pen down some words glorifying you on your 74th appearance day.

Like one purifies oneself, my bathing in the Ganges, we purify our hearts and minds by just meditating on your auspicious spiritual journey from Chicago to Vrndavana. Only special souls like you have that inquisitiveness and determination to find the supreme object of love of life.

It was your deep faith and love for Srimati Radharani that made you embark on your very first journey to Vrndavana. And then your determination and dedication to Srila Prabhupada, who bestowed his unlimited mercy on you, which manifested in the form of various projects that are thriving under your expert guidance—e.g., Bhakti Center, Govardhan Eco Village, Let Them See, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Devotee Care, and many other community-building initiatives.

We heard from one of your senior disciples how you imbibe the mood of a Brajvasi, singing and dancing alone in the grooves of the ecovillage. But just to fulfill the desire of your spiritual master of distributing the fruits of Krishna Consciousness. from the garden of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, you constantly travel and preach all around the globe. May it be a visit to the White House or to Ambani's; you expertly and subtly bless them and guide them on this glorious path. From such an elite class to simple devotees in the temple, everyone is the same for you, and you had been a guiding light in all of our lives.

Once while walking through the temple room in the Sr. Sri Radha Gopinatha temple, you stopped In front of a Govardhan Lila painting and after looking at it for a few minutes, in a deep voice you shared with the accompanying devotee that the happiest Vrajwasi in this scene is that one lady standing at the back, visible only partially but with a full beaming smile. This shares your intimate mood of being a humble servant in the background, with no desire to be acknowledged or praised but satisfied by just serving humbly behind the scenes.

On this special day we pray and beg at your lotus feet to be able to imbibe the same mood not just externally but in action, so that we can overcome all desires of puja, laabh, and pratishtha and, by your mercy, be able to defeat the most notorious demons in the form of envy, pride, and ego. Kindly bless us, dear Gurudveva, that we can be instruments of your mercy and be of at least a little use in your service of spreading Krishna Consciousness.. This will be the success of our life.

Thank you for giving us Krishna Consciousness.. It is by your blessing only that I can able to do whatever little bhakti, I am doing. I am highly impressed by your perfect way of training any people in devotional service. You have given us HG Radheshyam Prabhu, under whose guidance we have been trained up in Bhakti.

Your lecture are mesmerizing. Practically, it seems you take us to the spot where Lila has happened.

You are representing Prabhupada as it is. You are very compassionate to all living entities.

You are a perfect example of trinad api sunicena.

You have a very strong loving relationship with your God brothers, this inspires me a lot.

You have given us the counselor system by which we can be able to understand your mood and mission.

Being a ignorant full with having all the anartha in heart I can't able to understand much about you.

Please bless me so that I can come out of the anartha which always disturbes me day and night. Please bless me so that I can able to contribute for the mission of Prabhupada and always remain loyal to my authorities and I can able to understand the mood and mission of our authority.

हरे कृष्णा!
श्रील प्रभुपाद की जय!
राधानाथ स्वामी महाराज की जय!

पहला: मै महाराज के एक महत्वपूर्ण गुण के बारे में कुछ कहना चाहता हूँ, जो उन्हें एक परफेक्ट गुरु (perfect guru) बनाता है, कैसे ? क्योंकी वे अपने गुरु के परफेक्ट अनुयायी (perfect follower) है। उदाहरण के लिए, जब महाराज को न्यू वृंदावन में एक पहाड़ी पर स्थित एक दूरस्थ पहाड़ी मंदिर में पूजा(deity worship) का कार्य सौपा गया, तो उन्हें रोज़ छह बार भोग अर्पित करना पड़ता था और कई बार आर्तियाँ करनी होती थी, वह भी अकेले (without devotee association) क्योंकी उस मंदिर मे भक्तो का आना-जाना कम था क्योंकी मंदिर एक पहाड़ी पर था. सर्दियों में बर्फ़ीले पानी में आरती के लिए प्रतदिनि कई बार स्नान और पहाड़ी चढ़ने-उतरने के बावजूद उन्होंने अपनी सेवा पूरी श्रद्धा से की (incl. chanting & book reading)। कोई शकियत नही, बस नरितर सेवा।

आजकल हमें(खासकर मै) कसिी सेवा को लंबी अवधि तक करने में कठनिाई होती है, क्योंकि हम अक्सर सेवा में बदलाव की तलाश में रहते है या सेवा का स्पेसफिकि (specific/choosy) पार्ट की इच्छा करते है या सेवा को बंद कर देते है ।

दूसरा: "कृष्ण भक्ति की शुरुआत करना आसान है, लेकनि उसे बनाए रखना (maintain) कठनि है।" जब हम भक्ति में अधकि समय बति लेते

है, तो गर्व(senior) आ जाता है, और अगर हम इस मानसकिता में फंसे रहते है तो माया में पड़ सकते है(Fall down)। इससे बचने के लिए महाराज ने हमें पांच महत्वपूर्ण निर्देश दिए है, जिन्हें मै अपने जीवन में अपनाने का पूरा प्रयास करूंगा:

1. तृणादपि सुनीचेन - (because when we grow older in bhakti , we get pride of being senior & Trinadapi sunichena.. point decreases).

2. मजबूत साधना – (दी गई सेवाओं के कारण जप और पुस्तक पढ़ने में समझौता किए बिना).

3. भक्तों का मजबूत संघ - (क्योंकि जैसे-जैसे हम KC में older होते जाते है, हमें यह महसूस होने लगता है कि अब हमें भक्त संगति की आवश्यकता नही है और हम अकेले ही भक्ति कर सकते है। अगर हम इस मानसकिता से चपिके रहते है तो समय के साथ नीचे गिरि जाते है। उदाहरण के लिए भरत महाराज).

4. भक्तों की महत्वता प्रोजेक्ट्स से अधिक है – (Balancing devotee's take care + relationship along with the projects because a devotee can give his whole life to the project only when he get inspire on seeing happy relationships & exchanges in other devotees).

5. भक्तों की सेवा कृष्ण की सेवा से महत्वपूर्ण है (Maharaj becomes most happy when he sees happy relationship & exchanges between devotees).

धन्यवाद।

हरे कृष्णा!

Hare Krishna!
Srila Prabhupada Ki Jai!
Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ki Jai!

First: I want to say something about one important quality of Maharaja that makes him a perfect guru. How? Because he is a perfect follower of his Guru. For example, when Maharaja was assigned to perform puja (deity worship) at a remote hill temple situated on a hill in New Vrndavana, he had to offer bhoga six times a day and perform aarti many times, that too alone (without devotee association) as the temple was less frequented by devotees as it was on a hill. Despite bathing in icy water several times a day and climbing up and down the hill for aarti in winter, he performed his seva (incl. chanting & book reading) with full devotion. No complaints, just constant seva.

Nowadays we (especially me) find it difficult to do any seva for a long period of time, because we are often looking for a change in seva or We desire a specific/choosy part of service or we stop doing service.

Second: ""It is easy to start Krishna Bhakti but difficult to maintain it."" When we spend more time in Bhakti, pride (senior) sets in, and if we remain stuck in this mindset we may fall down. To avoid this Maharaja has given us five important instructions, which I will try my best to follow in my life:

1. Trinadapi sunichena – (because when we grow older in bhakti, we get pride of being senior & Trinadapi sunichena.. point decreases).

2. Strong Sadhana – (without compromising on Japa and book reading because of the services rendered). 3. Strong association of devotees – (Because as we get older in KC, we start realizing that we no longer need devotee association and we can do devotion alone. If we stick to this mindset, we fall down over time. Example Bharat Maharaja).

4. Devotees are more important than projects – (Balancing devotee's take care + relationship along with the projects because a devotee can give his whole life to the project only when he get inspire on seeing happy relationships & exchanges in other devotees).

5. Service to devotees is more important than service to Krishna (Maharaja becomes most happy when he sees happy relationship & exchanges between devotees).

Finally, I humbly apologize to all ISKCON Kanpur devotees for any of my intentional or unintentional offenses. Please pray for me that I may develop deep devotion and attraction towards Maharaja and his instructions.

Thank you.

Happy 74th Vyasa-puja to you.
brahmanda bhramite kona bhagyavan jiva guru-Krishna-prasade paya bhakti-lata-bija

This year is very very special and auspicious for me as you have finally accepted me as your disciple. I can say with conviction that it's the best thing that happened to me in past millions of births.

It's been 74 years when you appeared on this Dhara Dham. We haven't seen Caitanya Mahaprabhu and His associates, we haven't seen Srila Prabhupada and the acaryas through these eyes but by your grace we are able to see them through your divine lectures. A crystal clear image comes in front of our eyes when you narrate any past times of Krishna or Mahaprabhu.

Dear Guru Maharaja because of technology we are fortunate to be able to listen your lectures dated back to 1988 till date. These lectures are so nourishing for our Souls. All of our spiritual existence is based on these lectures only, where you truly convey to us the mood of the Acaryas, Caitanya Mahaprabhu and Krishna.

Today, on this most Auspicious and divine occasion we submit our heart and soul at your lotus feet. We beg forgiveness for all the sins and apradhs we may have committed unto you or ISKCON Community. We pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for the best of your health.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble Obeisances.

It is my utmost fortune that you have accepted me as you disciple without considering my qualifications. Gurudeva, in most of your lectures you stress on humility being an ornament of a devotee, with heart full of gratitude in a mood of a preacher.

Gurudeva I feel sheltered under the umbrella of instructions through your lectures. It is not possible for me even though I may take millions of lifetimes to repay a tinge of mercy you have showered on me. Gurudeva, Many times I feel to have sanga of your vapu and serve you, inspite of your the fact knowing that serving your instruction is more pleasing to you. Guru Maharaja I want to please you by serving you, by being in harmony with other devotees under the roof of ISKCON.

Gurudeva your mood to please Srila Prabhupada is very very inspiring. Seeing you and wonderful smile of yours brings bliss to my heart.

I pray unto you to please please keep me at your lotus feet. Gurudeva I plan to please you by producing my report card of sadhna and preaching.

Through your mercy only Gurudeva that I can have association of such wonderful devotes who are always eager to serve Srila Prabhupada's Mission.

I am falling short of word and my mind is going completely blank to even offer my gratitude in words, I am such fallen and down rotten.

Please consider this foolish disciple of yours an ignorant and be merciful. Because without your compassion I have absolutely no chance of even thinking of progressing in bhakti.

Gurudeva I thank you for evrything you have mercifully given to me.

I pray Unto Krishna to always keep you in Good Health.

Hare Krishna dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada, Vaisnava acaryas, Goswamis, Panchatatva and Radha Madangopal ji.

Dear Gurudeva, you have showered so much mercy this year on almost all satellite centers of Radha Gopinatha temple fulfilling everyone's spiritual desire of your holy association at their center and also giving your mercy to the people visiting those centers.

You showered your most compassionate love towards the disciples of your god brothers by visiting their centers and encouraging them and giving them the love of your God brothers and thus making them feel so much loved and experiencing the holy presence of their spiritual master through you. Everyone in those places was so blissful and satisfied in your holy association. By this kind act, you encouraged us to be loving, caring and encouraging for everyone in whole ISKCON family at all times.

This year also due to unavoidable circumstances I had to cancel Kartika-yatra and thus was feeling saddened to miss your association, but to our surprise, you, by your sweet desire, came to Nasik dham and gave your holy association for three days and also initiated so many devotees by fulfilling their spirritual desires. Dear Gurudeva, seeing Shikshashtakam prabhuji and Paramhamsa prabhuji continuously crying in your presence and your gracious smile towards them gave us the experience of your parental affection for disciples.

You desired for the ISKCON center in Nasik, you empowered the devotees to preach, you blessed us with Radha Madangopal ji and Lalita Vishakaha devi ji, your desires manifested in so much of Krishna Consciousness. in Nasik. Everything manifested here in Nasik is because of your desires through the mercy of Acaryas and Lordships. Still, dear Gurudeva, out of humility you came here to thank each and every devotee and thus taught us the principle of giving credit to other devotees always.

Dear Gurudeva, thank you for blessing my wife with the shelter at your lotus feet and blessing my child with such a beautiful name and the touch of your lotus hand.

Please bless me, my wife (Aditi Priya) and my child (Ghanshyam) to follow your instructions sincerely always, to serve the devotees, to associate with devotees, to serve the Lordships in the mood of servant of your servants

Dear Gurudeva, Thank you for all the causeless mercy. Please pray for all of us. Forgive my all offenses.

Dear Guru Maharaja!
Please accept my most respectful and humble obeisances!
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Thank you very much for everything you've given us Maharaja! I'm so very grateful for everything I've received from you. Over the years, as we hear various pastimes about you from various devotees, I can't but wonder just what an amazing personality you are, with such strong uncompromising core devotional principles, unimaginable compassion towards all jivas, and such razor-sharp intellect in Srila Prabhupada's service!

I was recently hearing in a lecture from HG Gauranga Pr regarding how you're very very sharp, and are able to come to the core of any problem being discussed within a matter of moments. Your masterstroke genius is visible time and again, in so many ways by the various innovative ways and systems that you've come up with to preach and reach out to unlimited jivas! I was recently reading in a book by HG Vijaya Pr (earlier Book Distribution Minister) that how during the early days, devotees would complain that it is very difficult to make indians into ful ltime devotees, and they've only met with some success in Bengal. Then he went on to glorify you, saying that you're a wonderful example of a personality expert in acara, as well as pracara, and how in Mumbai, such wonderful preaching has happened with 100s of brahmacaris!

Be it the Journey Home, which is one of the most accessible glorification of Srila Prabhupada to newcomers, showing a seeker's path, to Govardhan Ecovillage, which is reaching out to thousands of westerners and Indians alike. From Bhaktivedanta Hospital, to the counsellor system. Time and again, history has witnessed how you reveal one innovative project after another, that challenges the status quo understanding of preaching, and expands the preaching horizons while always conforming with Srila Prabhupada's highest teachings! As Albert Einstein famously said, Great spirits have always encountered violent opposition from mediocre spirits, like a mystery plot, things may often be very difficult to understand until you, Krishna's master story writer, reveal the final twist, and everything falls marvelously into place!

The Journey Home is especially such a wonderful book, and is like a most essential book for any spiritual seeker. I was recently studying it, particularly focusing on your prayers, thoughts, and longings that you express throughout the book. All throughout, I was amazed to see that there were only the highest of spiritual longings, completely in line with Srila Rupa Goswami's anyabhilasita sunyam! Even in cases of dire illness, you were completely surrendered to the Lord's will, and only at times in the face of imminent death did you pray for protection. It was also amazing to see how in the initial part of the book, many of the prayers were seeking sambandha gyana, seeking for Lord and the path to be revealed. As the book progressed, you also started offering more prayers related to the practice of devotional service, and accepting vows, moving towards abhidheya, and as the book reaches its climax in the Vrndavana pastimes, your prayers also shift mood accordingly, showing the perfect path and journey of a seeker!

Once when your personal secretary was asked what is one quality of your that he finds most wonderful, he replied Genuine humility! I keep remembering this again and again. Especially, a few months back, when you were invited for the Presidential dinner in the US by Joe Biden, in the list of names called, right after you was Mukesh Ambani! Being at such a high level, you're still accessible, down to earth, and unimaginably humble!

Unfortunately, I have nothing to offer to you except some insignificant service in your mission in service of Srila Prabhupada, as directed by your beloved disciples. Staying in Mumbai for so many years, I've received the front row seat for many years, (especially I got to see GEV growing exponentially over years)! Now my request to you is if it is your desire, to also cast me into the next adventure you write!

As Rupa Goswami mentions in the Bhakti Rasamrita Sindhu, kamadinam kati na katidha palita durnidesas, I have a similar petition for you.

'O my Lord, there is no limit to the unwanted orders of lusty desires. Although I have rendered these desires so much service, they have not shown any mercy to me. I have not been ashamed to serve them, nor have I even desired to give them up. O my Lord, O head of the Yadu dynasty, recently, however, my intelligence has been awakened, and now I am giving them up. Due to transcendental intelligence, I now refuse to obey the unwanted orders of these desires, and I now come to You to surrender myself at Your fearless lotus feet. Kindly engage me in Your personal service and save me.' -BRS 3.2.25

As you mentioned a few months ago in the initiation lecturer class you gave in Belagavi, we can never repay the spiritual master. But we can try by receiving with all sincerity and humility what has been shared, and also share it with others. I beg you to cast your merciful glance toward me, so that I may receive wholeheartedly and have the strength, courage, and determination to practice unflinchingly.

On this most auspicious occasion of your 75th appearance day, I offer my humble petition to Lord Krishna that if it is his desire, you have good health for many, many years, continue to lead the entire devotee community, and also witness the exponential growth in the movement that I'm confident will come!

Yours in the service of Srila Prabhupada,
Nived

My dear Radhanath Swami ji,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Though miles may lie between us, we are never apart, for Krishna Consciousness. doesn't count miles; it is measured by heart, total surrender to Shri Krishna.

I might not have known you or met you in person, but your disciples are indeed a beautiful reflection of you. It's because of you as a guru that one of them has introduced me to the ineffable world of Krishna Consciousness.. I cannot be more grateful to the Almighty for having led me towards this path, and this couldn't have been possible without the blessings of a great guru like you. Your teachings, association, and nectar of devotion have offered direction to a lot of misled lives. At the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada, I thank his disciple, who still continues to sow the seed of spirituality in the hearts of millions of people like me who were unaware of the actual reservoir of pleasure, the path that leads us to it through the 'Hare Krishna maha mantra.' Your book 'The Journey Home' has inspired me to keep having faith in God's plans in spite of all the hurdles in life and that his love is beyond infinity for all his children. The glories chanted by your disciple have built a desire in my heart to grow in your presence and guidance in this spiritual path. I would be grateful if I were ever under your shadow; serving Shri Krishna would be of my utmost fortune. I believe a smile is the most beautiful reflection of God. It showcases the warmth and beauty Shri Krishna has to offer to us. I would be grateful if I could get an opportunity to get a glimpse of your smile if ever possible. I happened to be in Pandharpur on the 22nd of October with my grandparents, and along with seeking the blessings of Vithal and Rukmini Mataji, I was fortunate to also have visited the ISKCON temple at Pandharpur as well. While bowing down to Srila Prabhupada's idol over there, I was grateful to have received an apple the minute I held my head up. I was emotional to have felt the presence of Srila Prabhupada and Shri Krishna in the form of the Prasada. God has been kind to still have given me a hope to seek spirituality under someone like you someday. Falling in the dust of your feet, I beg to seek your blessings and meet you.

Yours, tiny servant (daughter by heart),
Nupur Lad.

Vyasa-puja offering for HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja Dandavat Pranama Srila Gurudeva...Please accept my humble obeisances.

Thank you so much for coming to Nasik Dham and blessing us Guru Maharaja. Thank you so much for coming here in the material world and blessing us Maharaja... Maharaja, you are so effulgent, so pure, determined, and strict about Sadhana, but still at the same time you are very compassionate, humble, loving, and joking at the same time. It seems that there is no one more beautiful or intelligent or famous or as strong as or detached or renounced or wealthy as you are Maharaja, means a true Guru or representative of Krishna_100%. In one lecture I heard HG Shyamsundar prabhu glorifying you mentioning that, "You have taken everything so perfectly what Prabhupada had to give_ Krishna Consciousness...."

When you speak Maharaja, it seems that everything is magical. As if the magic of words is so very natural and it is all around us, we are surrounded by that zone when we hear from you about Shrimad Bhaagawatam, about Srila Prabhupada, when we read your books when we hear your Kirtana...

Thank you so much for giving us your love, mercy, and care Srila Guru Maharaja...

As you always say-

1. To love means to serve and to serve means to please.

2. Instead of wasting a full lifetime in sense gratification, you better have one moment of full consciousness...

I get so much inspiration from you Gurudeva. Thank you for preaching through your actions and your words. I am also trying to inculcate these two things in my life and my dealings. I love you Guru Maharaja... Your sincere servant Om

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja. Please accept my respectful obeisances to you. All Glories to you, All Glories to Srila Prabhupada, our Acaryas, and Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji.

By the mercy of Krishna, one gets a guru, and by the mercy of the spiritual master only, that a person can understand the process of Krishna Consciousness. and also imbibe those very spirits of Krishna Consciousness.. In our parampara we had great acaryas who devoted their lives to propagating and preaching Krishna Consciousness. to everyone. Srila Prabhupada is the latest one. You, Maharaja, following in the very lineage of Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Vaisnava Parampara, are the very representative of Srila Prabhupada and Srimati Radharani.

For a disciple, it's always a most joyous occasion and honor to express something about the spiritual master. Even though not at all qualified, still you accepted the insignificant soul like me to be your disciple. I am absolutely unworthy of it. We have been witnessing the mercy that you have been bestowing on everyone for the last 2 decades, Maharaja. Reading the books written by you and hearing you, so many people became inspired to take up Krishna Consciousness.. It's really pleasantly astonishing to know that. So many occasions in the recent past, whether it be the Ram Mandir or the visit of the Chief Minister of Maharashtra to ISKCON Chowpatty, also your visit to Nashik, Belgaum, Kolhapur, and Kolkata—in all those occasions you remained the same dear, most devoted devotee of Srimati Radharani whom we witnessed for the first time in 1999. There is no doubt that you are her eternal associate, Guru Maharaja.

Your compassion towards everyone and simplicity is what attracts everyone towards you, Guru Maharaja. In the early days I had the fortune to come to Chowpatty, get your association, and your smiling glances, which would completely delight my heart. In recent times you bestowed your mercy on all of my family members at GEV. We are deeply indebted to you, Guru Maharaja, for everything. It's by your mercy only we are able to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

I hanker to serve you; I just desire that one merciful glance of yours. I yearn for the taste for chanting that you have, Guru Maharaja; I long for the shelter of your Maharaja.

Let the core values of Nama Ruchi, Jiva Daya, and Vaisnava Seva, which you have taught, be imbibed in me, Guru Maharaja.

Wishing you a very happy Krishna Conscious birthday, Guru Maharaja.

May your shelter always be upon insignificant entities like me. My hundreds and thousands of obeisances to you, Guru Maharaja.

Completely indebted to you and grateful to you, Guru Maharaja, for everything.

Thank you from the core of my heart. You are the hero of my heart. Love you, Guru Maharaja, from the inner core of my heart.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja, Dandavat Pranaam,
Jai Srila Prabhupada,

This year we were recipient to your special mercy. We are grateful to you for your visit to IIT Bombay and giving us your valuable association. You extended yourself a great deal to please the devotees. Further, by your mercy this year got the opportunity to reattend the initiation ceremony, to reaffirm my vows and to more deeply understand your teachings. After many years, got the opportunity to attend this years Kartika-yatra. Your offering and teachings on Prabhupada's disappearance day helped me a lot to strengthen the bond with the Guru Parampara. The yatra further helped in connecting to a lot of devotees and learning from them. Thanks a lot for organizing these wonderful Kartika-yatra and helping people like me to get spiritually charged.

Thanking you again.

Dear GuruMaharaja,

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to provide you with good health and it's a joyful and blessed day for a disciple as you came to this material world to deliver fallen souls like me and by your divine association both of vani and vapu which are so purifying and transforming my heart and my contaminated soul and its by your causeless mercy that I am gradually connecting to this divine parampara and ultimately to the Supreme Lord Krishna.

Gurudeva, from childhood I am very soft hearted that anyone says to me anything I feel hurt and I start crying so this hamper my material life a lot even it did hamper my spiritual life. But the difference which now I can see in both lives is that earlier I was connecting to Supreme Lord as paramatma but was dumb to understand the inner voice and now you are there as chaitya Guru and always guiding and protecting me through your vani association and I can relate things spiritually and practically your words are so soothing to my ears, heart and mind that it immediately strikes me and wherever there is my fault my false ego you remove it painlessly from within my heart and your vani gives me strength to overcome my false ego and not crush it but dovetail it. And whenever there is no false of mine but things go wrong there you give me vision to understand what is my real position as a servant of servant and to not get affected by such small small pity things and divert myself from the real goal of Krishna Consciousness..

Gurudeva, you have always taught me by your acharan and it touches my heart so deeply that I feel so guilty on my behaviours,on my actions at times that I feel I am not at all qualified to be your disciple still you accepted me. Last year was very painful and difficult as I lost my mother and in 8 months again my father but I could just survive because you my spiritual father is always with me forever and I am so much grateful to you for making this beautiful place Govardhan Eco village where I can come regularly and take your vapu sanga also can feel your presence everywhere in your absence as well.

Gurudeva, you are very merciful that you accepted me as your disciple gave me instructions and guidance of the behavior of a devotee by your own example and through lectures also you taught me to be serious in our devotional life and not be a show bottle however still I am so dumb and most useless disciple that my mind is not tranquil and fixed, when will I understand the importance of spiritual life and become serious, when will I serve and fulfill your expectation without duplicity and distraction from this material pleasures. I am trying still not able to become a good devotee, a good disciple of yours kindly shower your causeless mercy and blessings that I value what I have received and not be a scar, a burden on you.

Gurudeva, your surrender to Srila Prabhupada, ISKCON movement is full of faith and conviction, your love and care to your Godbrother and God sisters is selfless and your every action is a learning lesson for me but I don't know why I am unable to understand this and apply in my life I need your causeless blessings and mercy that is the only hope for my survival in Krishna Consciousness..

I beg for your causeless mercy Gurudeva. Wish you a very happy Vyasa-puja!

My Dearest Guru Maharaja,

On this sacred occasion of your 74th Sri Vyasapuja, I humbly offer my obeisance at your lotus feet, which are the source of divine knowledge illuminating our lives. As I express my gratitude, I am reminded of the profound impact you have had on countless souls, guiding us through the turbulent waters of this material world. I don't know from where I should begin to thank you. You are the reason for everything auspicious in my life from all angles of vision. My life in this living did not start when I was born, but when your books, Journey Home and teachings, came. My learning did not begin in school or college, but from when I started hearing your transcendental teachings. That was my real education.

I am able to coin words and speak a few sentences today only after learning your books.

I was a dumb fool. You made my life. Everything that others see in me today is but a mercy that you have given, though I am not worthy of it. I am able to repeat something from scriptures today, and it is only because of your mercy. I am able to think something to be right and wrong today only because of your teachings. I am able to do something today only because of you. I am writing this offering also, only because of your mercy. I really don't know where I should begin to thank you. Everything in my life is what you have given me.

I simply wish to spend my time ETERNALLY remembering and thanking you. You have given so much transcendental instruction, but I am struggling to put a lot of your teachings into my personal life. I am still in deep, dark ignorance, and I need to hold on to the rope you have thrown and climb up, leaving behind all my useless habits. I am willing to change for your pleasure. I will continue to fight with my internal enemies. I am willing to improve. Your mercy is there to make my effort complete. I just need to step up to grab it.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for making my life. I will try my best to follow your teachings. On the auspicious occasion of Vyasa-puja, I beg Maharaja to give me shelter at your lotus feet and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life. I beg Maharaja to give me knowledge, intelligence, and determination so that I can give up all types of sense gratification, give up all the anarthas, and develop great attachment to chanting the holy names of Krishna, reading Srila Prabhupada's books, and serving the devotees.

On this Auspicious day, I always wanted to thank you for the causeless mercy that you have bestowed upon me.

I am very thankful for changing my life and bringing me on this path of devotional service of Sri Sri Radha and Krishna.

I am also very thankful for bestowing your mercy upon my family.

Every time I meet Maharaja-ji, guruji talks to me about my plan in the devotional path and encourages me very much for devotional service. This was a wonderful experience in my life. I will never forget the moments which I spent with you. I always realize that Maharaja ji association is available in the form of Kirtana, your melodious bhajans, and Le lectures.

Dear GuruMaharaja, your constant

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for accepting this fallen-conditioned soul as your disciple. Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for always giving your association and sharing your realizations through such wonderful classes, which have always been a source of inspiration and guidance to me. The more I hear about your classes, the more they reveal newer and deeper perspectives.

Thank you for such a wonderful Mayapur yatra; for some reason, Yatra this year has infused my heart with a lot of faith in the mercy of GaurNitai.

One of the points you mentioned in the yatra lectures was that Sri Advaita Acarya could have delivered the people of this age, but being compassionate on the living entities,s, he prayed to Krishna to personally appear to give the most confidential brag bhakti. I had heard about Sri Advaita Acarya praying, but somehow this point struck me. Also, you mentioned that the Bhagavad Gita was spoken by the Lord; Srimad-Bhagavatam tells about the sweet pastimes of the Lord and his devotees, while Caitanya Caritamrita reveals the mind of the Lord. Thank you very much, Maharaja, for sharing such wonderful realizations.

On this very auspicious day, Maharaja, I pray at your Lotus Feet that someday I can truly realize the wonderful gift that Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu came to give, i.e., serving in the humble mood of the servant of those wonderful devotees serving Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Chandra.

Hare Krishna Gurudeva
Dandavat Pranama at your lotus feet,

All Glories to Entire Parampara which you are representing, I feel so much blessed and secure to be under your shelter Gurudeva as in this complex material existence where it is impossible to overcome material modes and confusing to understand the essence of Vedas.

You make bhakti appear so simple, practical, and joyful to practice which only an Uttam adhikari like your divine self can do.

The whole world is going fast in the direction opposite to Krishna and You Gurudeva, you are taking us fast towards Krishna and Srila Prabhupada which is a visible contrasting difference no one can avoid appreciating and observing.

Gurudeva your natural absorption in 5 core activities of devotional service of Chanting, Dham seva, Vaisnava sangha, deity worship, and Srimad-Bhagavatam studying and teaching is so intense that even fools like me have developed some interest, if not appreciation for these and Rupa Goswami mentions even imitation of these activities brings immense benefit.

Gurudeva I am just wondering what is it that you have not done for us to make bhakti so easy...Thriving communities, counselor systems, Govardhan eco-village, Yatras, ideal management systems, care for those who apparently fall from ideal standard, etc show your overall deep bhakti applied practically as there can be some who can make big successful communities but very few I guess can also compassionately deal with members of community who fall down from ideal standards and this shows that you value Vaisnava as Krishna values a Vaisnava (api cet su duracharo) this only a high class deeply rooted Vaisnava can do Maharaja.

Your walk, your talk, and your every action and word reflect so much Love for Caitanya Mahaprabhu and Srila Prabhupada that even hard hearts like mine melt and get impressed.

Whether Indians or Americans, Africans or Australians whom have you not tocuhed on this entire planet?

Whether rich or poor, old or Bold, Children or families, Youths or babies all have been touched and transformed by your mercy and linked to Parampara.

Always taking a humble role never coming into the limelight always wanting to reside in Barsana and Vrndavana are the qualities that penetrate deep within my heart and bring my focus back to the roots of Bhakti(which is attachment to stay and serve at these holy places)

Maharaja I strongly remember the example of your humility in 2013 when ISKCON NVCC opened, first deity Abhishek was going on you were simply watching it silently absorbed in one corner of the temple hall till HH Bhakti Vidyapurna Swami noticed you and caught your hands and took you on the altar for Abhishek and it's then you went up the stage to do Abhishek. I cannot imagine Maharaja what the extent of your humility is as you are the major contributor to ISKCON NVCC to happen so many devotees in Pune are your followers, still how can you simply be happily absorbed in 1 corner when the day has come for which devotees have strived for years to please you and build this marvelous project.

Only a pure devotee who is attached to Krishna and completely detached from name fame glory can do that.

Gurudeva you are an ocean of qualities, I feel completely ashamed and I am totally unqualified to be your disciple still you have accepted me Gurudeva, and this again is the extent of your humility and compassion I just cannot believe..

I beg forgiveness at your feet Gurudeva for so many offenses I have knowingly willingly & shamelessly done at your lotus feet Gurudeva.

I seek blessings, strength, and prayers to follow your instruction to the best of the limits in a way pleasing to you and Vaisnavas.

Gurudeva I am still struggling a lot due to my own past deeds and attachment to attachments, I beg mercy from you that get attached to pleasing Krishna and you.

Gurudeva in your presence I feel the spiritual world descended to this world.

Gurudeva please let me always feel this and be able to gratefully reciprocate with this and all the great things you have done for me... Please keep me at your feet...

Your foolish, shameless, arrogant disciple surviving only on your mercy, Pandurang Sharan Das

Respected Our Gurudeva H H Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Please Accept My humble Obeisances at Your Lotus Feet, All Glories To Srila Prabhupada!Hare Krishna!
On this auspicious 74th appearance day, We are blessed to offer our heartfelt Gratitude and Thanks at Your Lotus Feet.

We have been on a spiritual journey of more than 35 years under your grace. Your love, affection, encouragement, guidance, and concern have nourished our lives. You have tolerated us and overlooked our short-comings. we are indebted eternally at your lotus feet.

Your personal care has sheltered and protected us on this journey. Without you, we would have wandered like animals, but your grace sheltered us at your lotus feet and saved us.

We pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai and Srila Prabhupada that you have good health and a long journey ahead to Spread the glory of Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you very, very much, Maharaja, for everything you have done for us.

I offer my respectful obeisances unto my spiritual master, the deliverer of the fallen souls. His mercy turns the dumb into eloquent speakers and enables the lame to cross mountains. (CC Madhya 17.80)

Dear GuruMaharaja Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

The time of year has come when have to write a Vyasa-puja offering. The words and sentences just stop. How difficult it becomes to put the thoughts into words? 'caksu-dana dila yei, janme janme prabhu sei', You are my master, birth after birth. still We are unable to glorify you. Each and every moment of your life, you teach us by example. You never lose a single moment to glorify your spiritual master A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. Anytime anyone credits you with the wonderful service you are doing, you attribute it to Srila Prabhupada's mercy.

Guru Maharaja, you have made all arrangements not only for your disciples but for humanity at large through your many innovative ways of getting your association through your lectures, live internet broadcasts, activity reports,etc. In every activity of yours, you never fail to strengthen our commitment and conviction to Srila Prabhupada and his ISKCON. In a very exemplary way, you teach us the mood of becoming an eternal disciple by displaying your unconditional pure love for Srila Prabhupada. Please Guru Maharaja, instill in our hearts a drop of that mood of servitorship for your divine grace as you have for Srila Prabhupada.

Since, we got initiated we have been trying to follow your instruction to the best extent. Srila Gurudeva, as you mention preaching is the mood of spiritual master; we try our best to preach every chance we get. I have completely depended on your mercy on this. By your mercy only we can perform devotional service without any difficulties and can be success also.

Your most valuable guidance has given us great courage and enthusiasm to manage our spiritual life. Your blessing and encouragement has given us great strength to render devotional service and to serve the mission of Sri Caitanya Maha Prabhu by spreading the holy name and message of the supreme Lord. Please accept our heartily gratitude by accepting and guiding us by taking us through the path of divine knowledge (Krishna Consciousness.).

Last but not the least; your health is very important for our tender spiritual life. We beg the mercy of Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Sri Sri Krishna Balaram to keep you in best health for preaching Krishna Consciousness. all over the world.

For now We pray at your divine lotus feet to always have your shelter despite all my shortcomings. Thank you for being there when We need you. Thank you for always answering questions and clearing my doubts. Thank you for everything you gave us this year. We look forward to serve you more and more. Please bless us so that We can follow your instructions and become a worthy servant of yours.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

It is my immense fortune to write few words in glorification of your exalted self. Gurudeva, it is only because of your mercy that we are able to visit the holy dhams like Vrndavana, Mayapur and Jagannath Puri. You are revealing these holy places through the sound vibration in the form of your timeless lectures and classes. This year also during the Kartika-yatra in Mayapur you so wonderfully narrated the pastimes of Lord Caitanya that we could actually feel the pastime taking place in front of our eyes. Your narration of the Mahaprakash Lila, little Nimai eating the Brahmanas offering, the deliverance of Jagai and Madhai, although having heard so many times, every time you speak it's a feast for the ears. If it weren't for you, I would never have known about Lord Caitanya and His magnificent pastimes. We are eternally grateful to you for your immense kindness upon fallen souls like us. Everytime I hear you speak, it reminds me that I should be more focussed and become more sincere in terms of chanting the holy names of the Lord and try not to commit offences against devotees.

Similarly the kirtanas you would lead every evening after the class were also mesmerising. Thank you for giving us so much time of your life which is infact very valuable.

Dearest Gurudeva, on this most auspicious day of your appearance, I pray to The Lord for your good health so that we can get the opportunity of being in your divine association for many many years to come and I also pray and beg at your lotus feet to empower me to chant the holy names of the Lord sincerely in the mood of humble servant of the servant of the servant.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances

Thank you very much for allowing me to practice under your sincere disciples.

Thank you for providing me with my counselor, as he is the one who takes care of my spiritual life and guides me in all aspects of my life. Although I don't have direct access to you, the presence of my counselor has made it easy for me to connect with you and your teachings through him. I'm deeply grateful for the counselor system you have introduced. I believe it would have been impossible for me to walk this path without such a devoted care system, even though I would have been aware of the existence of the soul, God, and my relationship with God. I will be forever grateful for this beautiful offering of yours to the ISKCON community.

I once heard from one of your personal servants, who had many interactions with you, that on your appearance day, many devotees offered large and generous gifts. Among them was a little girl who gave you her piggy bank. You were so happy, Maharaja, that you showed it to every visitor with great joy, as if to say, "Look at the beautiful offering this little girl has made." That devotee explained how much you appreciate even the smallest offerings we try to give. With that same spirit, I am making this small offering of words in front of devotees who have done great service. In comparison, I am only taking small steps, holding the hands of your sincere disciples.

This year marks my second Kartika-yatra, an event I've been eagerly waiting for. It is a time for spiritual rejuvenation—cutting off from material anxieties, associating with loving devotees, meeting your senior disciples, dancing joyfully during the kirtanas you lead, sitting in your classes where you take us on a journey through the life of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu with examples from Srila Prabhupada's life. The presence of Srila Prabhupada's disciples fills me with deep gratitude, and I could go on writing about the glories of this event. Thank you so much, Maharaja, for organizing such a huge event despite the many challenges of managing nearly 10,000 devotees. Still, it feels as though you have personally invited each one of us to recharge our spiritual batteries. I am also grateful to all of your wonderful disciples who work tirelessly behind the scenes, pulling together such a miraculous event like Kartika-yatra. I was also fortunate to attend the "Festival of Gratitude" last year.

This year, I spent a lot of time with your book The Journey Within. Once again, I was charmed by your presentation of Krishna Consciousness., illustrated with so many beautiful examples and personal experiences from your life. I was especially happy to read about the Christian preacher at Ohio University who, at first, was not favorable toward your presence. However, after tasting your halwa during the regular meetings, he came to you and asked for the recipe, later cooking it at his own church meetings. Your dealings and your ability to inspire others are truly a benchmark for all of us to follow, encouraging many souls to embrace Krishna Consciousness..

Maharaja, you have many disciples who are like Garuda, soaring with great wings and performing extraordinary services. I, on the other hand, am struggling with my anarthas, but your glory is such that you allow me to practice through your disciples. I may be like a small bird, flapping my tiny wings, but I am deeply grateful to you for giving us these jewels—devotees who train others, who in turn train others, and in this chain, some devotees have also pulled me in.

I pray that I may serve you in some sincere way, with humility and devotion. Please allow me to practice Krishna Consciousness. under the guidance of the Vaisnavas who serve you with all their hearts.

Dear Param Pujya Srila Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.

Whenever we pay homage to Mother Ganga, we always put same water as a offerings to her. Similarly, I am just writing my Vyasa-puja offerings as a puspanjali in the vast ocean of your divine qualities. Please bless me with power to glorify your Holiness.

I saw your divine personification first time during Srila Prabhupada Vyasa-puja in ISKCON Juhu in year 2009. I was sitting between you and Srila BV Bhagavat Swami Maharaja. I was serving Maharaja ji as personal servant during that time. After all the programs got completed you and Maharaja ji went for Lunch Prasadam. I remember your servants got you a full plate of Prasadam almost having a big heap of rice and different other eatables. You just took a morsel of it and compassionately left the rest as Maha Maha Prasadam for all of us. Then when you were about to leave for Chowpatty temple, Srila Bhagavat Maharaja just introduced me to you and then you lovingly pampered me, by caressing my hair. You said that, "You are a good boy." Today that it is golden memories for me.

The other day it was raining very heavily I took you and Srila Bhagavat Maharaja for some meetings, I was holding an umbrella for both of you. Maharaja it is just a glimpses of memories for my purification. I have been listening to you since so many years. I always try to sit on the first row during the class. And I always try to reach the temple to have your association through your nectarine class.

I always try to follow your instructions to be humble and meek in serving devotees and serving the Lordships. Whenever I discuss any philosophy or wisdom, it's always from your divine & nectarine class. Your love for Gauranga is reflected by the way you dive in the intricacies of the Lord Gauranga's pastimes. The way you immerse all the devotees in the flood of dancing kirtana which is the heart of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's Sankirtana Movement. Your Love for serving devotees and caring for them is reflected by the beautiful Sri Radha Gopinatha devotee community developed personally by the shower of your merciful and magnanimous heart. Your divine personality is an embodiment of Love, Care for all the devotees of Srila Prabhupada's army. You nurture devotees by taking them for beautiful yatras.

Please bless me Srila Maharaja so that I can serve Srila Prabhupada and all the guru parampara with utmost love. Please bless I should avoid Vaisnava apRadha which is like unwanted weeds around the bhakti plant. Please bless so that I can follow and abide with the instructions of Srila Prabhupada and ISKCON. My Guru Maharaja, Sri Srimad Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja used to say, " ISKCON is Srila Prabhupada's body, we should never leave ISKCON." Please bless me so that I can serve the movement by becoming an asset and not be a burden on it.

Please Maharaja forgive me for the apaRadha done while writing the Vyasa-puja offering. When a child starts speaking, he speaks in broken words. Similarly, Maharaja please forgo my mistakes and bless that I should get rid of dosha buddhi and become alert to avoid apaRadha. Please bless me so that I can follow 4 regulative principles and chant at least 16 rounds all my life.

Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru parampara and Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga.

I must admit that I have not written offering to you every year because of my ungrateful heart and also since there was nothing substantial to share with you in terms of services done/realisations in a particular year.

As we see this year, you have blessed us here with your invaluable association for a greater period of time compared to the last few years thus lighting up happy hearts of God brothers and sisters around and every where. This shows your sensitive and personal approach, love, care and concern for all of us.

You are an ideal Father for us in every sense of the word and relation. This makes it so simple, clear and straight for us (children) to emulate and imbibe your spirit and approach to Krishna Consciousness..

When you speak Gaurlila, it transports us 500 years back to Gaudadesh.

Maharaja, I always behold your golden words" sincere, serious and humble practise of bhakti every day". They are my guidelines.

Hope to develop a grateful heart so that I can truly appreciate every thing that you have done for me and reciprocate.

Hare Krishna, Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet.

I am deeply grateful and feel incredibly fortunate to have received your association in this lifetime. Your words feel like a shelter to me, much like the loving protection of parents. When you speak from the Srimad-Bhagavatam, it provides not just knowledge but also a sense of comfort and safety.

Your humility and surrender to Srila Prabhupada inspire me endlessly. I always notice how you begin your classes with the heartfelt expression: "I am very grateful to you." This simple yet profound statement reflects your deep gratitude and respect for devotees and sets an exemplary standard for all of us.

Your heart is as pure and innocent as that of a child, and your face reflects that divine purity. It is truly inspiring to see someone who embodies such unalloyed devotion and kindness.

I once heard you say in a lecture: "A successful person is one who can see the positive even in the worst situations." When I compare this to your life as described in Journey Home, I see how beautifully you have exemplified this teaching. You have consistently drawn lessons from every situation, whether it was favorable or challenging, and this inspires me to follow your example.

Guru Maharaja, I humbly request your prayers so that I may acquire even a small drop of your ocean of qualities, enabling me to make sincere progress in Krishna Consciousness.. Please continue to bestow your blessings and mercy upon us, so we may feel enthusiastic and energetic in our spiritual journey.

Hare Krishna Dear GuruMaharaja, A very happy Vyasa-puja to you. I am so blessed that you accepted the fallen soul(me) as your disciple. I have so many anarthas but your mercy is limitless. Whenever I meditate on the time, I got inspired from you till the date I got initiated, I find many instances where you were my support, guiding me, nurturing me in Krishna Consciousness.. There was a time when I wanted to ran away but you were the rope who kept me tied with the Lord. I was falling each and every day in all aspects of life whether being a wife, a mother, a daughter-in-law, a human being or practicing Krishna Consciousness. at that time you send your disciples who showed the lost path and hold my hand to get up and learn to balance. I am your most foolish daughter but you being the expert father always protected me. You always guide me in my heart on all occasions, I am doing wrong but due to material contamination I slip into wrong doings but you then help me to regret and try to not repeat my misdoings.

Dearest GuruMaharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Our words are insufficient to express the gratitude and appreciation we have towards you.

We are very grateful to you and thank you for showing such causeless mercy towards us. You have so many disciples that you care about so much all over the world, but you still give us all individual attention like we are your only disciple.

This special individual attention towards our little children Gaurangi and Harinama, inspires them so much that they always look forward for coming to temple, festivals and Kartika yatras, so that they can take your darshan and seek your blessings.

Gurudeva, your ecstatic kirtanas are so inspiring. We were fortunate to witness the kirtana during 2024 Mayapur yatra, chanting and dancing along with 10,000 devotees. Our kids looked forward for the kirtana every night during yatra. So much so that on the last day the lecture got over really late and we thought the kids might be hungry so we asked them to skip kirtana and go eat dinner khichdi but they refused to have dinner so that they could sing and dance during the kirtana. GuruMaharaja your kirtanas radiate the bliss of devotional service and show us how to give everything for Krishna's pleasure.

Last but not the least, your endless love and devotion to Krishna and Srila Prabhupada makes us feel all the more determined and devoted towards pleasing you. We have always witnessed your love, devotion and dedication towards Srila Prabhupada but during this Kartika-yatra in Mayapur we felt it more intensifying where we saw how you spent more and more time at Kolkata visiting Srila Prabhupada's birthplace, the place where Srila Prabhupada met his spiritual master Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur, Prabhupada's school, college.

Your dedication in preserving each brick at the building where Prabhupada met his spiritual master. Your each of these dealings portray the immense love you have for Srila Prabhupada and it is in turn helping us strengthen our gratitude towards Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you for your dedication to follow your spiritual masters footsteps.

Thank you for giving us the wonderful association of devotees and the opportunity to engage in devotional service.

Please allow us to always take shelter of your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Dandavat Pranaam...
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada...

Guru Maharaja, who by his enthralling & enriching Vaani and illustrious Vaisnava qualities & behavior, has inspired this little being for around 2 decades on how to invest our heart and consciousness into all devotional activities and also to do all the activities with proper consciousness. Though I may not have been a perfect follower or anything near that, thus, despite being absolutely unqualified in any ability to glorify Guru Maharaja, I would still try to express my gratitude in a humble spirit for my own purification, asking for his mercy towards my little self.

Actually, I was thinking and recently hearing about Maharaja's mood when he was establishing the Chowpatty temple in the late 80s. Maharaja used to always say that our Chowpatty temple or all projects should be in the mood of love, care, and devotion. And since over my previous years, actually, I had expressed my gratitude in my offerings using the acronyms of CARE and LOVE in 2 consecutive previous Vyaspuja offering books. So, this time I thought of expressing my whatever little glorification or my feelings of gratitude for Maharaja using an acronym, DEVOTION.

• D: - (Devotee care). I was hearing a devotee narrating an incident where HH Shivram Swami Maharaja in Hungary insisted HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj's name should be specifically mentioned in the devotee care presentation of devotees. Maharaja said every disciple of Srila Prabhupada has been empowered with 1-1 aspect of Srila Prabhupada, and on a similar line Srila Prabhupada has infused his aspect of empathy and devotee carefully into HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj. HH Shivaram Swami Maharaja said this, and HH Chandramauli Swami Maharaja expressed his agreement to whatever HH Shivaram Maharaja said. So, this is what his God brothers and all the devotees feel about Maharaja because of the unprecedented manner that Guru Maharaja has established the devotee care system.

• E for his (Empowering Vaani): Maharaja's Vaani is actually transforming the people. The people with hard hearts become softhearted people. The people with a very tough disposition want to cultivate the Vaisnava qualities. This is the power of his Vaani, which also inspires a devotee to endeavor more in the direction of investing his heart in the activities of devotional service and executing his other duties responsibly with proper consciousness. I personally can definitely give credit for whatever little sincerity I have to Guru Maharaja's lectures.

• V for his special attachment towards (Vaisnava Acaryas), and I would like to emphasize this point the most in this small offering of my heartfelt appreciation for Guru Maharaja, as there's so much to be explained in this. As we see in his Yatras, even when we go to South India Yatras, whenever we go to Shirangam, he speaks about Sripad Ramanujacarya and other Sri Vaisnavaacaryas; similarly, when we go to Udupi, he speaks about Madhvacarya, but when it comes to Gaudiya Vaisnavaacaryas, he speaks all the more from his heart's content, and his heart blooms fully, and there are showers of nectar coming out of his lotus mouth as if he has four mouths, and thus he keeps on speaking about the glories of Gaudiya Vaisnavaacaryas for hours and hours. HG Krishnanand Pr, and Gaurang Pr always mention how Maharaja once had taken a follow-up yatra (Maharaja used to take a follow-up yatra of very close senior devotees after the main yatra). So he had taken a yatra to Kheturi gram in Bangladesh, where he started speaking about Narottam Das Thakur and his glories. Now, as the schedule was very tight because of the previous (main) yatra, which was very hectic, they just had a plan that they would go take darshan, do some katha, and then return in that way. Thus, everybody thought that Maharaja was going to speak for a few minutes about Narottam Das Thakur and then they'd move on. But Maharaja started in the noon and went on, went on, went on till very late in the night.Maharaja was in full-blown ecstasy speaking about Srila Narottam Das Thakur and his associate and how they arranged the very first Gaur Purnima festival. Thus, Maharaja's love and appreciation for Vaisnava Aacaryas got naturally exhibited; thus, devotees were saying that what kind of ecstasy Maharaja is experiencing while glorifying Vaisnavaacaryas, how much deep attachment he has for Gaudiya Vaisnavaacharas in his heart, whenever he gets a chance, his heart pours out for those Vaisnavas. Once, HG Gaurang Pr. was telling that till now he keeps that boarding pass of Bangladesh as his paper mark. Gaurang Pr. said, You know, if somebody is going to the US, UK, Germany, Japan, or Italy, we may have that kind of fancy for those countries that we have those things with us and we keep them as a badge of honor or something like that. But then keeping a boarding pass of Bangladesh, this thing from a material point of view, doesn't make any sense. But that reflects how Guru Maharaja has attachment for those places, since in Bangladesh so many places are there where our Gaudiya Vaisnavas Aacaryas have done many pastimes and are infused with their presence. I still remember in 2015, during the Vrndavana yatra, when we had the yatra in two separate holy places, Vrndavana and Goverdhan. While we were at Goverdhan Dham, where Maharaja was explaining once regarding the Goverdhan Parikrama and the glories of the places in the Parikrama, in which he explained about Mansi Ganga, and was going to explain more, then he said, I want to speak something about Sanatan Goswami because near Mansi Ganga there is a place of Sanatan Goswami, i.e., his Bhajan Kutir, which was exactly located near Sri Chakreshwar Mahadev temple on the bank of Sri Mansi Ganga.". Maharaja started speaking about Sanathan Goswami, and it went on for a couple of hours and more. So of course It was scheduled to be a Goverdhan Parikrama Lecture, but Maharaja's heart for Sanathan Goswami (as soon as his topic came) poured out so much that over a couple of hours, Maharaja completely spoke about Sanatan Goswami and Rupa Goswami with full enthusiasm. We've seen his intense attachment to Vaisnavaacaryas on multiple occasions, thus also giving us inspiration to aspire for such consciousness.

• O:- (Obedient servant). Maharaja considers himself an obedient servant of Srila Prabhupada, and his identity comes from that point. Identity comes from that point. It recently means that he does not identify himself as the guru of his disciple. He does not identify himself as a very big preacher who goes into very, very big corporates. One of the testimonials to this fact is that after achieving so much and quality devotees in India itself, he would have remained here and really reaped the fruits, and he would have preached to many more people while relishing peacefully with the devotees here after 2010. But then after 2010, when he felt that the devotees in India could take care of themselves. He entrusted the devotees over here to other senior devotees' care and went to a foreign country where actually the preaching was losing strength. Preaching was losing strength in a way that the local people were not coming to Krishna Consciousness. as much as NRIs.There was a devotee in ISKCON who wrote that (this was like a hypothetical/ imaginary story) how a last foreign devotee in ISKCON will be there if we don't preach to foreigners and don't invest our time and energy in it. So Maharaja always wanted that even foreign-bodied devotees should be there in our movement because this was the desire of Srila Prabhupada in accordance with the desire of HDG Bhakti Siddhant Saraswati. Maharaja, for better acceptance and propagation of Krishna Consciousness. around the world, knew it was much needed over there. So although he would have been very much glorified and would have been externally much more comfortable if he had remained here in India, yet he took that pain to go to the US & other western countries and preach there despite the fact that many places where he has to do things like cooking/driving himself are addressing much lesser numbers of devotees or people in general. Another thing that is to be very much considered for such an advanced pure devotee is that he would love to speak on acaryas, to speak on CC, and to speak on those topics that are very core to devotional service, as they would be very, very nourishing. But he chooses to go there like Srila Prabhupada and preaches to the people to whom he is supposed to speak very basic philosophy many times and take care of them personally. But just because his identity comes from being an obedient servant of Srila Prabhupada, he does that with enthusiasm and tolerance.

• T: Tolerance. We have heard a lot about Guru Maharaja's tolerance, but still there's much more to be spoken about his tolerance, as his life is full of incidents reflecting this quality. From a plethora of such pastimes, I would like to mention just a small incident: one of the devotees was saying Maharaja is a soft sleeper, but he has never told anyone that he is a soft sleeper. But one of his God brothers knew this, and he told the devotees that Maharaja is a soft sleeper, meaning his sleep may get disturbed by a very little disturbance. Then devotees understood how many times many devotees, even in Pune Yatra, slept beside Maharaja, and many of them snored also. So Maharaja actually could not sleep in those days also. But then still Maharaja was extremely enthusiastic throughout the Pune Yatras in the upcoming days and would fill thousands of devotees with enthusiasm and the nectar of Krishna Bhakti.

• I: Inspiration. Inspiration he gives in many ways. But the inspiration he gives to his God brothers is extraordinarily illustrious in a way that one of the incidents where a devotee was sharing that there was a devotee who was very close to Srila Prabhupada, but somehow after Srila Prabhupada left, he was practicing in his own quarters. I mean, he was not much into coming to ISKCON, but when he heard that HH RNSM was coming to New Vrndavana, he came to New Vrndavana, but his attire was different, and his hair was long and all. Many of his devotees could not even recognize him. Maharaja was giving a lecture at that time. This devotee came and sat somewhere at the back. Maharaja, as soon as he saw him, started glorifying him, and then Maharaja started narrating an incident about how in those early days Maharaja was very junior to him, and he wanted to offer something to Srila Prabhupada, but Maharaja was very shy in nature. So this particular Prabhuji understood Maharaja's desire, and he offered it to Srila Prabhupada, and thus Maharaja started glorifying that devotee in the midst of the class so much that this devotee's heart got deeply touched, and thus he started feeling comfortable in coming back to the association of devotees, and in that manner Maharaja inspired even his God brothers because Maharaja loved Srila Prabhupada in the way knowing well that Srila Prabhupada would surely want all his disciples to practice Krishna Bhakti happily all their lives.

• O:- Odyssey. Odyssey is specifically here used to indicate his journey, Guru Maharaja's journey for quest for the knowledge, quest for the purpose of life, quest for searching the GOD & process to reach him, and thus ultimately the quest for Krishna Consciousness.. How his journey has inspired so many people. His book, The Journey Home, and even his journey after coming to Krishna Consciousness. have inspired so many people. This is Odyssey, and unlimited incidents connected to the same are unbelievably amazing and inspiring for both the newcomer & advanced devotees.

• N: Naam Ashray. HHBRS Maharaja was telling that HHRNSM, at a deep core level, wants his disciples to not only remain on the platform of Naam Grahan but also wants his disciples to be on the level of Naam Ashray. He says, Maharaja (in earlier days), with very close devotees, he used to speak about Naam Grahan; you just take the holy name or accept the holy name and chant it. That is very good. But what he really expects from his disciples is not only to chant the holy name but also to take sincere shelter of the holy name, and HHBRS Maharaja was telling that Guru Maharaja's entire life is based on this particular mood. Whenever Maharaj chants, he chants very intensely and also makes sure he chants in the association of devotees (as we've seen in temples and yatras).

Whenever Maharaj does Kirtana, he does it very intensely with heart. All these he does in the mood of taking shelter, thus exemplifying the mood of surrender, which is at the very core of devotional service. As he knows, practices, and teaches that any service done with this consciousness has the potential to give us Krishna Prem, which is the ultimate goal of the human form of life. Thus, the important concept of Naam Ashray is both taught by his lecture as well as activities; this is what his mood is of Naam Ashray.

I humbly pray to Gurudeva that he please forgive me for any offenses that I may have committed and shower me with his mercy, thus empowering me to follow his divine instructions with enthusiasm, determination, and patience, thus ultimately enabling this insignificant servant to move a little towards perfection of life with his divine blessing.

Aspiring to serve you,

Dear GuruMaharaja
Dandwat Pranama on yours Lotus Feet

GuruMaharaja I know how fallen soul I'm I don't have any good qualities. My heart is filled by soo many anarthas anger greed and so many. But here in ISKCON in the shelter of Srila Prabhupada,you and all Vaisnavas I have a guarantee one day I'll become purified when I'll seriously take shelter of Srila Prabhupada and yours instructions.

Thank you GuruMaharaja teaching us things by your actions...your loving relations with your Godbrothers God sisters fills our heart with joy and respect, in your lectures you say every living being is a part of Krishna...see Krishna in everyone's heart.. it touches my heart and when I saw you in Sridham Mayapur yatra to looking at a bird by giving that bird your Kripadrushti it touches my heart so much.

I'm soo foolish I can't glorify you but for this opportunity I'm trying...

I like to see videos of initiations which you gave before.To every devotee after giving initiation you say thank you so much that thank you word touches our heart means actually we should say thank you but you say to us because you becomes happy that we are taking promise of following 4 regulative principles chanting 16 rounds daily and taking shelter of Srila Prabhupada and serve this mission of Srila Prabhupada in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant.

GuruMaharaja I can't glorify you but I begging on your lotus feet for your Kripadrushti upon my I really wants to do Bhakti sincerely but sometimes I fall down in my consciousness..

Thank you GuruMaharaja For giving me Panchatatva..what is Panchtatva little bit I understood just because of your lectures. Sorry GuruMaharaja but when I see you I feel like you came this world for lifting up fallen soul like me. GuruMaharaja I'll try my best to do sincerely Bhakti n try live my life for pleasure of Srila Prabhupada,you and all Vaisnavas Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

On this auspicious Vyasa-puja day, I would extend my heartiest gratitude to you for giving us the Krishna Consciousness. and your association. You always aspire to be servant of the servant and I pray to your lotus feet that I could also develop a drop of that quality which is very dear to you.

You always extend yourself for your disciples despite your health concerns which shows how important devotees are for you.

I wish to offer you my practical service by chanting my rounds regularly with faith, attention and humility which you always expect from your disciples.

Thank you very much Maharaja for everything.. I wish and pray your good health. Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna my dear Guru Maharaja ji,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja ji please accept my humble and heartfelt wishes on the auspicious occasion of your appearance day. You are the guiding angel I can't thank Krishna enough for sending in my life!

Maharaja ji, this is the first time I am writing an offering to you. For years I nurtured a cherished dream of finding shelter at your lotus feet, but was held back by a sense of inadequacy, as also by other things. I pray that I can write to you honestly without any deceit or pretension.

A dear Vaisnava enlightened me-you don't need to be perfect to take shelter of a guru, rather you become a perfect messenger of Krishna's message by taking shelter of the spiritual master. So, with all my faults, I submit to you. Maharaja ji please forgive any inappropriateness on my part.

Years ago, I read your book 'The Journey Home' and had the feeling that my heart has also found its home – at your lotus feet.

I think three or four years ago I was blessed by my first, but ephemeral, darshans of Your Holiness. You were standing in prayer before my Ista Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar in Vrndavana! I was ecstatic but continued to test my faith.

Maharaja ji, I have been connected to our local ISKCON temple (Faridabad) for more than 10 years now basking in the love of all the wonderful Vaisnavas here and trying to serve them sincerely. Currently my services include ISKCON Girls Forum, Cultural programs, assisting School preaching programs and trying to look after my family and community in a Krishna Conscious manner.

I am very happy today, to be a member of Srila Prabhupada's ISKCON family. And yet, I yearn for deeper realisations.

I am deeply inspired by your mood of love, compassion, respect and service not only to all living entities but also to mother nature's resources. Your simple rendition of the principles of devotional service has deeply touched the heart of an ignorant fool like me who has been wallowing in the mire of sense gratification.

And then earlier this year, you showed the ultimate kindness to my cousin sister in Pune when you uttered the Holy Name in her ear when she left her body hours before her initiation. Such is the concern of Your Holiness for every soul.

I am also inspired by many of your glorious disciples who employ the agencies of science, analysis and humour to preach to people in all walks of life. What a wonderful way to serve!

At many a crossroads in life, your lectures have been like a foghorn for my ship of lost sensibilities. I have no words or qualification to glorify you Maharaja ji.

At Param Pujya HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja ji's Vyasa-puja this year I got a chance to offer flowers and a poem to you, that you most mercifully accepted! I also received a glance of mercy from Your Holiness that dispelled all fears and misgivings. And then things started to take a miraculous turn in my life. All the obstacles that seemed insurmountable suddenly ceased to exist! Thank you Maharaja ji, for your merciful glance.

Maharaja ji, I am currently reading your second book 'The Journey Within' and every word of the book is as precious to me as a Cintamani jewel. I am making notes and writing poems like this one that I presented to you...

When I hold up my faults
To the light of your grace
Your brilliant effulgence dispels all illusions of a belittled soul
The many beacons
Of your unbridled mercy
Illumine the path that I walk to reclaim my pure self Beaten up by myself
For having erred so long
I now have enough faith in your love
To give myself another chance

Rising from ashes of self doubt and fear
That have held me captive
In my self defeating despair
I walk step by step holding on to your lotus feet to revive my true nature subservient to Your sweet will
With faith in your love
I will leave behind my paralyzing load
Little by little, emerging slowly like a butterfly from it's ugly shell to fly free in the firmament....
....OF YOUR DIVINE GRACE!

Maharaja ji, I am full of anarthas and caught in a web of deceitful existence that I have woven for myself.

I am lazy and unable to practice any tapasya,

I chant but have no taste for the Holy Names and my japa is imbued with nama aparadha.

I sing bhajans but hear only my own voice.

I read scriptures but am devoid of their essence.

I have so much 'dambha' that I am unable to take advantage of sadhu sanga. I ask for criticism but want only praise.

But I am very hopeful and have faith in Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar's mercy.

Maharaja ji, I beg you for a drop of mercy. You always say, that to see Krishna everywhere means to see an opportunity to serve everyone and everything as a representative of Krishna. But I am able to serve only my own senses. I have no qualification Maharaja ji, jogyata-vicare, kichu nahi pai.

My only qualification is that there is no one in such a dire need of your mercy than me. I beg you to grant me adhikara to chant sincerely and serve everyone.

Maharaja ji, please accept me as your most unworthy disciple. I promise to try to chant and serve everyone sincerely to the best of my capacity. I also seek your blessings for my brother who is a sincere devotee but struggling with health issues,as also for the others among my family and friends.

Trying to be a humble servant at the feet of the Vaisnavas,

Dearest Gurudeva, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja,

On this most auspicious occasion of Vyasa-puja, I offer my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. Today, as we celebrate and honor your unwavering dedication to spreading the teachings of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Krishna, my heart fills with immense gratitude and admiration for the profound influence you have had on my life and on countless souls across the world.

You have taught us by example that true spirituality lies in serving others selflessly and in seeing every soul as part of Lord Krishna. Through your life and words, you continually remind us that the path of bhakti is not only about seeking Krishna but also about embracing all of His children with love and compassion.

In your presence, I feel the weight of my material desires lift, and in their place grows a desire to serve and to surrender to Krishna's will. Your lectures, filled with wisdom, humor, and humility, touch the hearts of those who hear them, igniting a spark of devotion that compels us to come closer to Krishna. Your personal sacrifices inspire me to look beyond my limited self-interest and consider how I, too, might serve the divine mission you uphold with such dedication.

Gurudeva, thank you for guiding me, for showing me the path of bhakti, and for blessing me with the association of your disciples and devotees. My prayer is that I may one day serve you and Srila Prabhupada with even a fraction of the dedication and humility that you embody. I pray for the strength to continue on this path under your guidance, to serve and support this divine mission, and to bring a smile to your face through my actions.

Please accept this humble offering on this blessed Vyasa-puja day. I pray to always remain in the shelter of your lotus feet and to grow as a sincere servant of your mission.

Your aspiring servant,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you on this auspicious day.

Maharaja, it has been just a few months since I started hearing your lectures, and I'm experiencing subtle changes within myself, and your kindness will only enhance them. Thank you for making me understand the importance of Prabhupada's books and association. You always ask us to check ourselves if we are on the spiritual path, which is so inspiring and effective for a budding devotee like me. I have a shortage of words to express my gratitude towards you; your presence has provided me shelter, which is difficult to put into words.

In one of your lectures, you recited your favorite verse from Shikshashtakam and explained the essence of humility. It was powerful enough for a fallen soul like me to take Krishna Consciousness. seriously and surrender at your lotus feet.

I constantly pray to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna so that I can get your association. I humbly pray at your lotus feet, seeking a drop of mercy to nurture my spiritual growth.

Nama Om Vishnu-padaya Krishna-preshthaya bhu-tale
Srimate Radhanath-svamin iti namine
Dear Guru Maharaja,

Maharaja, you have perfectly described yourself as a prayerer. You prayed as mentioned in Journey Home: "When, I wondered, will the day come when I will cry like that baby for my beloved Lord?" and have, through innumerable pastimes, taken utter shelter of the Lord, especially in your externally difficult times, through the art of praying.

In the Memories of New Vrndavana, it has been described how you, Maharaja, lived in such austere conditions (only oats and/or only groundnuts and oat water…) with practically no sleeping in New Vrndavana; still that enthusiasm to serve Krishna never disappeared—when you were only a Brahmacari in the New Vrndavana Temple, to when your leg was hurt because of being kicked on by a pony; still you described that never ever a moment did the thought of leaving (even if going to other places in KC) cross the mind of your holiness!

You chant with so much emotion, especially the way you chant Maharaja; it appears you are directly calling Krishna and have transcendental love for chanting Maharaja, as has been evident that whole night once in Vrndavana passed, and you didn't know that dawn hit since you were chanting, or at one time when you had 3 minutes, still you asked, Where is my bead ead bag?" As Gauranga Pr tells you, Maharaja, you may be walking amongst us, but you're not of this world! You're mad for Krishna, Maharaja—as recollected by Vrndavan Pr in Guru Smaranam—on the bank of the river Yamuna in Vrndavana, Maharaja, you started singing a particular tune and went into ecstasy—loudly chanting for more than an hour!

Once seeing Jagannath, you, Maharaja, so enthusiastically hung your divine self reaching out like a monkey since you didn't want to enter the Jagannath temple. And you, Maharaja, push your divine self to serve other devotees, and that is very inspiring for people like me, who are seeking shelter at your lotus divine feet.

"Maharaja, you're looking very tired; you should take a break."

"There's no need to take a break since I am already broken!"

This itself declares how Maharaja you're truly surrendered to serving other Vaisnavas!

A pure devotee, like yourself, is like Vajradapi api kathoram and Kusmad api komalam, and you once heavily chastised Vrndavana Pr for missing Guru Parampara (although he didn't do Mangal Aarti that day), and still Maharaja, even though Vrndavana Pr was also telling you that you have every right to tell him if he were wrong, still you went to seek forgiveness from Vrndavana Pr—4 to 5 times. Such humility, even though you're a sannyasi and a pure, perfected nitya mukta jiva. You're so humble, Maharaja, that once, when your leg was hurt and you were utilizing a stick for support, whoever would come near you, you, Maharaja, would take dust of that devotee—with stick—and touch it to your forehead! Such true humility can only be seen from one who is actually a very confidential servitor of Sri Krishna and Srimati Radharani! You're always so warm and welcoming and take personal care of devotees (to the point of personally giving surprises to your disciples on their birthdays!!). And that is the reason why Radha Gopinatha Congregation is now thriving!

Your personal care saves devotees! As Maharaja, you saved Vrndavana PR by saying, "I need you," when he was disturbed and was about to give up his life! The love that you have for devotees is very evidently seen by how much you personally care for your godbrothers and can be seen in how happy you were when your godbrother very heartily appreciated Gauranga Priya Pr for the nice care that Maharaja, you, and I very tightly embraced him. So nice a relationship, Maharaja, you have developed with HH Bhakti Tirth Swami. that you cancelled all the tickets and postponed all management to take care of the Black Lotus—that you and Bhakti Tirth Maharaja developed such a close bond, discussed for hours and hours together the pastimes of Vrndavana, greeting each other with I am your obedient

The way you present Maharaja in your lectures is very enchanting, especially when you describe the pastimes of the Lord that you forget time and go on for hours and hours together; the whole lecture becomes like a movie etched in the mind of a person sitting in your audience! And you describe them spontaneously without any reference sometimes, clearly remembering the intricate details of Lord Gauranga or Sri Sri Radha Krishna. As stated in this verse, although when a pure devotee speaks, the articulation of his voice may resemble the sound of this material sky, the voice is spiritually very powerful because it touches the particles of saffron dust on the lotus feet of the Lord.

As soon as a sleeping living entity hears the powerful voice emanating from the mouth of a pure devotee, he immediately remembers his eternal relationship with the Lord, although up until that moment he had forgotten everything.

sa uttamasloka mahan-mukha-cyuto bhavat-padambhoja-sudha kananilah smrtim punar vismrta-tattva-vartmanam kuyoginam no vitaraty alam varaih

My dear Lord, You are glorified by the selected verses uttered by great personalities. Such glorification of Your lotus feet is just like saffron particles. When the transcendental vibration from the mouths of great devotees carries the aroma of the saffron dust of Your lotus feet, the forgetful living entity gradually remembers his eternal relationship with You. Devotees thus gradually come to the right conclusion about the value of life. My dear Lord, I therefore do not need any other benediction but the opportunity to hear from the mouth of Your pure devotee. I also long for the opportunity to always come and hear from you, especially when you're giving live lectures for the benefit of the world. I really wanted to come for Kartika Yatra; however, I realized I will better serve you if I prepare for the placements at this time and be available for services next year. I am extremely indebted to you, my dear spiritual master, for giving me the light to come out of this dark material world. I am very much grateful to your devotees, especially Sri Rohini Nandan Pr, who represents your divine self in my life, who takes such nice and personal care of me, and is like a father-cum-very-nice senior friend in my spiritual life!

And to please you, as you have described, I pray to chant my 16 rounds very attentively and honestly, trying sincerely my best to follow the 4 regulative principles with diligence, and please help me to avoid the 10 offences. As you once described, "My heart pains when I see devotees fighting amongst themselves. That gives me more pain than this disease [malaria] is giving me. If you all stop fighting and arguing, I'll get better quickly", and "glorification of spiritual master—glorify with actions, not with words, follow his nstructions." So, in this same light, I also would like to pray and commit to never fighting with a devotee or never offending a devotee with my body, mind, and words—and I would pray at your lotus feet to please give me your grace to develop very nice Vaisnava relationships with all the devotees.

And please, I beg your holiness to please grace me with the ability to always speak comforting, non-agitating words that are pleasing to hear to all Vaisnavas (since words are sharper than arrows to pierce the heart) and be their true, genuine well-wisher, helping them if I can in their Krishna Conscious life.

And, let me please develop very nice, friendly relationships, especially very thick with my counselor and my equals, very loving and sheltering with my counselor and seniors, and very warm, caring, and comforting with my juniors.

And, please let me completely offer myself to you through your devotees; let me burn like camphor spreading fragrance. Please help me to serve you through your devotees, to try consciously to remember Krishna so that, one time, I would be able to remember Krishna at the spur of the moment by your divine grace, to always chant the names of Lord GaurSundar and preach out the glories of Lord Nityananda and Srila Prabhupada, to become a humble menial servant in the hands of my superiors, and to take your instructions as my life and soul!

Please accept my humble obeisances.

On the occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I would like to dedicate a few words to you.

Please accept this humble offering. You have dedicated your whole life to the service of the Lord, from the days when you left your home to search for god till now when you have not only found out who god is but you have also guided lakhs of devotees including me and my family.

Both of my parents are disciples of yours and I have been very fortunate to have had the opportunity to hear from you and hear about you from childhood which has guided me through thick and thin.

Your humbleness always moves me and you have always been someone I draw inspiration from. Seeing your unwavering devotion to the lotus feet of the Lord inspires me to serve the Lord and Vaisnavas more sincerely.

I pray to Radha Gopinatha to keep you healthy always and give us the opportunity to serve you.

Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble and prostrated obeisances,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Although I do not have the right words and the right disposition to express my gratitude towards you, I do not wish to let go of the wonderful opportunity to do so.

Many sadhakas look at astrology as a medium that shows light in the darkness of future. Perhaps that's why it is called "Jyoti"sh. But there is one more powerful and a very human way to trade our way through the dense darkness of uncertainties. And that is: a "ray of hope". And every human who gets connected to you through your teachings, your words and your example carries that ray of hope in his or her heart and becomes fearless.

The unfortunate reality of this world is that success, though temporary, is the only thing that is celebrated... as a result there are countless frustrations and heart breaks even amidst our own society. But your vision Gurudeva, goes far beyond than what is seemingly perceived as success. For you, success is when a devotee is experiencing Love of Krishna through other devotees... and thus in Radha Gopinatha congregation "Vaisnava Seva" is not practiced merely as a limb of Sadhana but you have made it the very core and foundational policy of our existence.

When I ponder upon these gifts that you have bestowed on us and how you have repeatedly emphasised on these core principles, I am simply awestruck at my good fortune and I experience a deep feeling of being very very safe.

Recently you answered in one of your lectures to a question from HG Sridama Sakha prabhu, that how as we see the spectacular achievements of Srila Prabhupada's disciples, we should similarly see and appreciate the success and contributions of our own god brothers and god sisters. While I was genuinely impressed and inspired by that answer, I can not neglect the fact that I am far far away from even attempting it, what to speak of relishing it.

On your divine appearance day I pray at your lotus feet to give me strength to follow these divine words. Your cause less mercy is my only ray of hope.

महाराज जी मैने पहली बार मेरे गुरु कौन होंगे यह मुझे समझ में नहीं आ रहा था तो मै जब भी कुंज बहिरी मंदरि जाती थी तो प्रभुपाद से यही मांगती मेरे गुरु कौन होंगे कृपा करके मुझे मार्गदर्शन कीजिए, दो-तीन महीने बाद महाराज जी आप द्वादशी के दिन पहली बार मेरे सपने मे आए और दूसरी बार भी द्वादशी के दिन है आप मेरे सपने मे आए और मै इतना रो रो रही थी और मेरे पूरे शरीर कांप रहा था और आप मुझे बस एक वाक्य बोले कम क्लोज और मै मेरे काउंसलर से कहती कृपा करके मुझे बताइए महाराज जी कब आएंगे जीबी मे या जुहू चौपाटी मे आप तो विदेश मे थे तथा टाइम बट दो महीने बाद ही मुझे पता चला कि आप पुणे आने वाले हो मै इतनी खुश हो गई इतनी खुश हो गई बस मै आपको एक बार देखना चाहती थी और जब मै पहली बार आपको राधा वृंदावन चंद्र मंदरि मे आपको पहली बार देखा तो वह दिन भी द्वादशि का दिन था यह कोई स्टेटस नही था यह आपकी दिव्यता है मै इतना रो पड़े कि मुझे मेरे गुरु मिल गए महाराज जी पता नहीं सारे भक्त है बट हर एक भक्त के साथ आपका दिव्यता का संबंध है यह महसूस कर रही हूं. महाराज जी ज्यादा कुछ नही बोलना चाहती बूट जीवन के आखिरी सांस तक मे आपकी खुशी के लिए प्रभुपाद जी की खुशी के लिए और राधा रानी और कृष्ण की खुशी के लिए ही सेवा करना चाहूंगी बस और कृष्णा कॉन्शियस मे रहते है मै अंतिम सांस लेना चाहूंगी! मेरी हर एक सेवा मेरी हर एक इच्छा और मेरा हर एक प्रार्थना श्री श्री राधा कुंज बहिरी के चरणों मे होगी मेरी अगर कोई गलती हो गई हो तो प्लीज कृपा करके मुझे माफ करना हरे कृष्णा कोटि-कोटि धिन्यवाद प्रणाम.

Hare Krishna Maharaja ji,
Many many obeisances at your feet.

Maharaja ji, my English is not so good, Maharaja ji, this is the second time I have participated in your yatra. I saw a lot of love for you in the eyes of all the devotees who had come for the yatra and I felt that I am nothing, but I know that you have blessed each of your devotees in some way or the other. You have blessed me a lot too. You are very divine, I am saying this from my own experience.

Maharaja ji, I was not able to understand who my Guru would be at first. So whenever I used to go to Kunj Bihari temple, I would ask Prabhupada who my Guru would be. Kindly guide me. After two-three months, Maharaja ji, you came in my dream for the first time on the day of Dwadashi and the second time also you came in my dream on the day of Dwadashi and I was crying so much and my whole body was trembling and you just told me one sentence. He said come close and I said to my counsellor please tell me when Maharaja Ji will come to GB or Juhu Chowpatty, you were abroad and the time but after two months I came to know that you are coming to Pune, I became so happy, I just wanted to see you once and when I saw you for the first time in Radha Vrndavana Chandra Mandir, that day was also Dwadashika day, it was not a status, it is your divinity, I cried so much that I found my Guru Maharaja Ji, I don't know that all are devotees but I feel that you have a divine connection with every devotee. Maharaja Ji I don't want to say much but till the last breath of my life I would like to serve for your happiness, for the happiness of Prabhupada ji and for the happiness of Radha Rani and Krishna and I live in Krishna Consciousness., I would like to take my last breath! My every service, my every wish and my every prayer will be at the feet of Shri Shri Radha Kunj Bihari. If I have committed any mistake, please forgive me. Hare Krishna, many many thanks and Pranamas.

Happy Krishna Conscious Bday

Gurudeva This is the first time I am writing offering.Everytime my husband writes on your appearance day because I am very shy type person but there are so many things that I really want to say to you.Thanku for giving this option to write my heart for you.

My Dear Gurudeva the first time when I heard your lecture I don't know some how or other I felt connection with you that time I was just beginner in Krishna Conscious.Then we came in contact with HH Bhakti Rasamrit Swami Maharaja who always guided us like our father.Gurudeva This year was full of mercy.The day when you accept us to gave your divine shelter we can't forget for our whole life.The day when we heard we can get initiation in Bombay we were super excited but because I was due in three weeks I won't be able to travel so we were bit emotionally up down but then on Radhaashtmi we heard the news that Gurudeva is giving initiation to us online.You are so merciful Gurudeva that you have given us this mercy.I am such a fallen soul.In family life with small kids sometimes I feel I am not doing anything for you but when I hear your lecture on relationships the way you explains how everything we can connect with spirituality gives me enthusiasm. Gurudeva I have to improve so many things in my life please bless me give me the power of spirituality.

Please forgive me as in our daily life I commit so many offences knowingly or unknowingly.

Please bless our family Gurudeva so that we all serve you and Srila Prabhupada.

I pray to Radhavallabha for your good health.

Once again Happy Appearence Day Gurudeva.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious day, Guru Maharaja, I want to express my gratitude for you having accepted me as your disciple and granting me shelter, although I am miles away from doing justice to this great fortune.

As year after year is passing, Guru Maharaja, I feel a sense or urgency, in taking shelter of your teachings diligently in leading my day to day life. However, my anarthas like tendency to procrastinate, lack of sincerity keep dragging me down.

On this auspicious day, Guru Maharaja, I beg for your empowerment and mercy to give me the sincerity and strength to meticulously follow your mood and instructions. My goal in life, Guru Maharaja, is to be your worthy disciple and servant, who you would be proud to give shelter to. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Sri Jagannath Baladev Subhadra mai, Sri Gaura Nitai to bless you with good health and long life. I pray to the Lord to give me strength and intelligence to act in a way that would be pleasing to you.

Please forgive me for so many gaps and lapses in terms of how an ideal disciple should be. Please continue to give your shelter Guru Maharaja as that is my only hope. Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I feel very fortunate that I have met you at New York city at Bhakti centre. Your teachings and instructions have helped me so much to balance my para and apara dharma responsibilities.Each time I meet you at airports or temples,just your glance itself touches my heart and I dont know how tears start to profusely come out.Last time when I met you after 6 years at the Switzerland Rathaytra, in my heart I have a desire to show you my 2 children who didn't meet you after their birth, in my heart I wanted to get blessings from you, but didn't know how to aporoach you in the crowd but you glanced affectionately towards me and my children, touched their heads and gave your garland to them. I am really very touched that you understood my desire to come to Rathayatra just to meet you and get your blessings.

On this auspicious day I pray to the Lord to eternally serve you and the mission of your Guru Maharaja our dear Srila Prabhupada and remain a humble servant at your lotus feet. I don't have any other desire except to serve you from the bottom of my heart with my mind,words and body

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obesciences unto your lotus feet.

I'm really very fortunate that I got a spiritual master like you, I was wandering here and there for my spiritual path and seeking ultimate happiness. But your teachings, your love for Krishna and your practical applications inspired me. Your teachings are so relatable and they create long lasting impact on my life.

By hearing your lectures, it gives me so much power to practice my Sadhana strongly.

Thank you for everything Guru Maharaja. I'm not at all eligible but because of your causeless mercy I am able to do a little devotional practice. As you always say, whatever you got, share it with others. I will definitely try to share it with others with best of my capacity.

Dear Gurudeva,

Thank you for accepting a fallen soul like myself. I hope and pray for your good health. I'd like to begin by expressing my deepest gratitude for your support, invaluable guidance, and influence in my life through your lectures, kirtanas, and personal behavior. Your presence has made a profound difference in my journey, and I am truly fortunate to have you by my side.

Maharaja, you are mercy personified and always demonstrate humility and compassion and yearn that all of your disciples adopt this. Your wisdom, integrity, eloquence, humor, and grace are surpassed only by your immeasurable love and devotion to Lord Krishna. I hope that someday, Krishna willing, I will be able to fully walk on this path without committing any Vaisnava offense knowingly or unknowingly.

The spiritual master is very pleased when his disciples do the work of spreading Krishna Consciousness. through various means all over the world. Maharaja, I have been really trying hard to begin preaching, but somehow or other I am unable to do so due to lots of personal shortcomings and procrastination.

Please bless me so that I can do something for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada and Sri Gauranga. If they are pleased, then you will be pleased.

Gurudeva when you give lectures on Krishna lila and Gaur Lila I feel that you have just come back from vraj and are explaining glories of the Lord, how the lila happened, what was the mood of every brajvasi it gives immense pleasure to our heart. When you give lectures it attracts everyone's heart towards Krishna. Everyone develops more and more love toward Krishna and remember his form.

Every lecture you have given is very inspirational to me to progress in devotional life, remembering Krishna every moment and engaging into the service of the Lord.

I remember one example you spoke and it is very inspirational to me, how to progress in devotional life it is about eagle and the fish. Here you said we should always focus on our life and Krishna must be the center of our life. Then you explained about the fish, if the fish goes deep in water no one can catch her, similarly if we go deeper into the devotional service Maya is not able to touch us.

You always keep reminding us about our position in this world. Your smile is so attractive for all human beings. From each lecture every time we are able to learn many new things and it really helps us to progress in our devotional life.

I am very grateful to you Gurudeva for everything you have given us like a very wonderful Radha Gopinatha Mandir which is like a Home, for establishing the proper counsellor system who always help us in our devotional practice and a replica of Vrndavana a Goverdhan eco village and many more things.

Thank you so much Gurudeva. Please keep me always under your shelter.

I beg you to make me a servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of Krishna

Your grace is always available in the form of your lectures, disciples and the counselor system you have made.

Thank you for accepting me as your disciple.

I offer my humble obeisances to Radhanath Swami Maharaja who is very dear to Lord Krishna having taken shelter at His Lotus feet

Maharaja this year we are celebrating 74th Vyasa-puja of Your Holiness. On this occasion I offer my gratitude,love and worship to you. You gave your life and soul from the very beginning to fulfil the desires of His Divine Grace. In cross maidan festival Srila Prabhupada gave special attention to you and eventually you gave your life,soul and heart unconditionally to serve him. Your life and words are the foundation and inspiration for thousands of devotees all over the world. While doing extraordinary things in every way you have personal respect and affection for every devotee. You have infused faith inspiration dedication and surrender in disciples, followers and communities throughout the world. By your profound words and true dedication you teach by example Eke hi Kuru Nandan one should make the instruction of spiritual master one's life and soul.

King Rahugana was told by jada bharat that only by mercy of great devotees can one attain the absolute truth. It cannot be done by various other processes. I am very grateful to know about you through your lectures,through Journey Home and through lectures of devotees who have met you. I am very fortunate to have your darshan in Kartika yatras. It is simply amazing to see how many lives have been transformed by your holiness. By your desires and prayers we are sheltered and feel protected in devotional service. As wet grass cannot catch fire, I am ashamed to confess that I am very far away from ocean of your grace. Even after spending nine years in association of devotees I succumb to lust and greed, Sadly as time is passing I tend to become careless about them. In the initial years it was very exciting to practice Krishna Consciousness., now I am fallen into tamo guna and practicing small small vows is difficult. On the other hand small mistakes are heavily punished nowadays.

I have learnt a vert important lesson through your lectures that one should not criticize anyone. Now when I am in deep dark well of faults I repent on my previous days when I would see only faults all around the world. It is miracle of Sri Sri Nitai Gauranga that they are tolerating me and giving me chance to stay in association of devotees.

I am very very fortunate to see you, hear katha and serve devotees in Kartika-yatra 2024. It was an opportunity to flood the barren land of my heart with mercy and I tried my best to do everything enthusiastically. Those seven days I got the glimpse of spiritual world. Thank you so much for painstakingly giving this benediction to fallen souls like me.

Apart form internal struggles I am heavily troubled by my parents. I am not sure how I will convey them my decision to extend my stay in temple for more years. Society and senior devotees expect me to become mature and solve these problems myself but I am loosing the shelter day by day. Only your mercy and prayers can save me. Please help this fallen soul practice Krishna Consciousness.' in this lifetime. You are very compassionate and merciful.

Recently, I got Diksha from Maharaja in the last month, i.e., October at Nashik. It was completely a new experience for me. I am hearing lecture series given by Maharaja. After listening to lectures, I am trying to be more tolerant, persevering, and trying to be very polite with other Vaisnavas. But for all this, I do require more strength and Shraddha, for which I am praying every day to Maharaja, Shril Prabhupada, and Caitanya Mahaprabhu. Hare Krishna ??

Dearest GURUDEVA,
Please accept my humble obeisance. All glories to SRILA PRABHUPADA. All glories to SRI GURU & SRI GAURANGA.

I first got attracted to ISKCON by reading Srila Prabhupada's book, The Journey of Self-Discovery, at Sri Radha Ras Bihari Temple. Later, as I got the opportunity, I got connected to the Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple, realizing my fortune. It was here that I understood the purpose and meaning of practicing spirituality. The family of devotees was a heartwarming experience. It felt like a warm embrace of love, care, and affection.

The spirit of getting oneself involved in temple service was an immunity booster against the onslaught of the sensory urges.

All of this was and is still possible because of your sincere desire to attract all the people to take shelter under the umbrella of Srila Prabhupada's teaching. Understanding these principles through your nectarine lectures has become my only hope to sustain in devotional service. I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you and am seeking your grace to humbly continue in my journey of spiritual existence through sincerely chanting and serving you and Vaisnavas.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to Sri Gauranga!!

It's my great fortune to receive the devotional knowledge and mercy, under this Guru-Shishya Parampara. And I am very grateful to receive this opportunity to serve under your direction. In today's confusely running world, it is a great fortune to receive spiritual direction under bonafide authorities. I could find myself in great protected shelter and spiritual bliss in the association of this wonderful Vaisnavas. Eventhough, I may be struggling very patheticly in this material world. And within that great fortune I could find the causeless mercy upon me to receive you as my Spiritual Master

With a very grateful heart, I would like to glorify You for the blessings You have showered upon me causelessly:

Thank You very much for making me understand that how much Krishna is loving us

Thank You very much for making me understand that how much Srila Prabhupada and Vaisnavas have surrendered to giving us Krishna

Thank You very much for making understand the importance and beauty of Vaisnava qualities

Thank You very much for making me understand, that how foolishly I am being drowned into this material world's miseries

Thank You very much to make me understand that how Maya Devi is creating material alurements to give temporary pleasures in order to trap the fools like me into this material world

Thank You very much for making me understand the only way to come out of this material meseries, is to take the shelter of Vaishnva Satsanga

Thank You very much for giving me this most valuable knowledge for perfecting my life, even though I am not qualified so

It's not that you have made me understand this just by your valuable words, but at the same time through Your Archrana(action), with Your Vaisnava relationships and through Your vision to serve Srila Prabhupada and Lord Gauranga.

Now I don't expect much from Lord Krishna, but my desire is to make best use of my life in order to fullfil your desires

Thank you Guru Maharaja for protecting me and directing me. Please keep this causeless mercy upon me forever

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

On this most auspicious day the insignifiant myself would like to express y gratitude and beg for mercy at your lotus feet.

Recently we attended the Kartika-yatra and we could see what you have done to each and every devotee. Although thousands of differences were there everyone were united under one principle to please you. This makes us understand how wherever a pure devotee is it is nothing more than a Vaikunta, were there is no envy, no hate and everyone simply wants to serve. On Srila Prabhupada's disappearance day you wonderfully gave your Vyasa-puja offering just before the Je anilo prayers. It was such a condensed form of all the realizations and the deep love you have for Srila Prabhupada. By seeing you we understand what it means by guru bhakti. I wish and pray that I have a drop of such sincere love and affection to serve your lotus feet under the guidance of my senior Vaisnavas.

In initial years we take everything for granted Maharaja. We just hear your lectures as a way to tick our VOICE syllabus. Like a baby who don't understand anything we too just went with the flow. But by the mercy of Vaisnavas, with time, we understand the profound realizations which was pouring out your lotus mouth like nectar. Now when we hear your lectures sometimes it just shakes us to the core of our heart because I can understand how you are exactly pointing out the mistakes and foolishness I have been carrying with me all the time. My prayer is Maharaja let me never cease to hear your lectures regularly. Let it be the prescribed medicine for my overly diseased heart.

After many trails in our preaching attempts we are now trying to serve in Hyderabad. All devotees here are very experienced and well trained. I am like a crow among all the swan like devotees here. I beg at your lotus feet to kindly empower and help me to serve the devotees here and please bless me that let me never commit any offense to any devotee here in any way.

As the years go by upon seeing how much different devotees are doing so many sevas to please you and guru parampara, I understand how insignificant fool I am. I am still struggling with all the anarthas in my heart and still behave mechanically in the sevas and all aspects of devotional service. I neither have any skill nor any good qualities by which I can serve in a nice way. I sincerely beg at your lotus feet to please give me a drop of mercy so that I can serve my seniors with all my heart and thereby try to please you and guru parampara.

Your aspiring insignificant servant,

Dearest Guru Mahraj,
Please accept my Dandavat Pranamas,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

I have been contemplating these days on your quality of being a saragrahi and non-critical.

I have read in The Jouney Home about how you learnt from various teachers about life and spiritual values. Your writing shows how grateful you were to each of them without being critical. Ultimately you surrendered to Srila Prabhupada but without even showing a slight indication that any of the previous teachers whom you had met were of lesser value. Amazing! I yearn and pray at your lotus feet that I remain ever grateful to all my teachers who have taught me so much and give up this critical attitude of judging devotees.

Thank you so much for your example of Vaisnava behaviour.

Thank you so much for creating such a rich legacy of exemplary disciples whom I can look up to.

Thank you so much for introducing me to each of your Godbrothers/sisters whose glories were unknown to me.

Thank you so much for Kartika yatras for which I yearn whole year.

Thank you so much for Radha Gopinatha community.

Thank you so much for Govardhan Ecovillage, a place of pilgrimage which the world can look up to.

Thank you so much for your lectures which nourish my barren heart with the nectar of Lord's pastimes.

Thank you so much for your ever enthusiastic Kirtanas which transport me to Goloka whenever I listen to them or participate in them.

Thank you so much for writing The Journey Home which ignites my extinguished fire of Krishna Consciousness. whenever I read it.

Thank you so much for writing The Journey Within which exapnded my understanding of bhakti.

Thank you so much for EVERYTHING which is a very small word in front of what you have done for me.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

Maharaja, you always emphasize the quality of humility in your lectures and by your own example.

Prithu Maharaja tells in SB yair idrsi bhagavato gatir atma-vada ekantato nigamibhih pratipadita nah tusyantv adabhra-karunah sva-krtena nityam ko nama tat pratikaroti vinoda-patram

Prthu Maharaja continued: How can such persons, who have rendered unlimited service by explaining the path of self-realization in relation to the Supreme Personality of Godhead, and whose explanations are given for our enlightenment with complete conviction and Vedic evidence, be repaid except by folded palms containing water for their satisfaction? Such great personalities can be satisfied only by their own activities, which are distributed amongst human society out of their unlimited mercy.

Very grateful for whatever instructions and examples you have provided in the form of your lectures, kirtanas, senior devotees, yatras, etc. I will always cherish these gems in my spiritual life.

Requesting to shower your blessings on this insignificant soul so that I can continue my services with a humble service attitude.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisance at Your Lotus Feet.
All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

Extremely grateful to You for Your causeless mercy upon me, especially for this Year's Kartika-yatra 2024 to Sri Mayapur Dhaam. The situations here were not in favour for me to be able to attend Yatra, but your causeless mercy had allowed me to attend for atleast 4 days. It is my great fortune to be under the guidance of Your Servant of Servants. Just wanted to express my gratitude by:

A- Association- So many devotees association I received in Yatra, which gives me a great boost to go ahead in my life. These devotees I had met from beginning of my Krishna Consciousness., so old memories got revived.

B- Books- Your Vani in form of books and lectures is so nourishing and to be very frank, Your words exactly hit bull's eye when needed for me. Thank You for knowing me in and out and helping at every point.

C- Chanting- Lava matra sadhu sanga sarva siddhi haya, became true for me, as I was very inspired and touched by sitting with You for chanting in Yatra, and pray to You so that I keep remembering those Golden moments.

D- Diet- Such amazing Krishna Prasada in Yatra, which You personally cooked and always glorified with many mouths in Yatra, and showered mercy on me.

E- Engagement- Under HG Vikram Gauranga Prabhuji, got the opportunity to do service of Lamps, which is due to Your causeless mercy of bringing all Vaisnavas together. Fortunate to get this service in month of Kartika in Dhaam.

Among Your unlimited Vaisnava Qualities, few highlights are Your dealings with Your God brother's and God sister's, Humility, Giving respect to all, Always absorbed in chanting, serving devotees. One another thing which inspires me is the way You tell Gaur Lila Pastimes, and so many names and details You clearly remember, which takes anyone direct entrance to such wonderful pastimes. Even here in maleccha desh, I am able to get all A, B, C, D and E is just by Your causeless mercy.

I humbly pray at Your Lotus Feet to keep showering Your Causeless mercy and pick me up from this material world and place me at Your Lotus feet to serve Srila Prabhupada in mood of Servant of Servant of Servants. Forgive my offences at Your Lotus feet and Bless me to be under shelter of Srila Prabhupada.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

When a living entity burning in the forest fire has no chance of reaching ocean and neither the ocean can reach to save him, the only way it can be saved is when cloud takes the water from the ocean and showers overs the person, by its own sweet will. Similarly, my life has been blessed by your shower of grace specially in form of your Vani, personal example and your loving and caring devotees.

I have been brought to the association of devotees by the causeless mercy of the Lord, given all the facilities, inspiration, ambience to practice the sublime and simple process of Krishna Consciousness. by your mercy and visionary plan to nourish devotees with bhakti and assist them to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Almost a decade is going to pass for me after coming in touch with Vaisnavas, but I remain as it is, as my father used to say me "dog's tail", which remaining in the pipe for long time still doesn't change. I could have done much more in the past if I had utilized the time properly, I regret that I didn't utilize it properly.

From this November onwards after meeting my counsellor beginning to implement small steps to mould my life in a way to assist you in your service to HDG SP.

I thank you for giving your wonderful disciples who are taking your teachings very seriously and guiding us on true path according to your teachings.

I also seek blessings for new preaching venture in Ibrahimpatnam we have taken on your behalf by blessings of HG Radheshyam prabhu. We are trying to preach here to college students. Kindly bless we can serve in mood of servant of servant to please you.

Just 10- 12 years ago, I engaging in karmic activities. But I felt that there is someone always with me in my problems. And by your and Krishna's mercy I came in ISKCON.

I chant, read Prabhupada books. I did as I possible,

I felt difficult due to my physical problem, but I did regularly because of your mercy. It's really difficult time that's passes. But Krishna and your lecture inspired me.

Now, I want to join Prabhupada mission. Please, give your mercy.

I beg you to accept me as your disciple. I also join counciling meeting. Give me inspiration always.

Hare Krishna I'm feeling very fortunate to be born at this time in which we see self-realized souls like Guru Maharaja. Maharaja has oceans of Vaisnava qualities, but in all of them we see one very prominent one, i.e., servant of the servant of the servant. We see it in his practical life and his behavior, and Maharaja, almost in all his lectures, speaks about it. Trandapi sunichen: To be humbler than straw in the street, to be more tolerant than a tree, and to give all respect to everyone and expect nothing but respect in return. Maharaja is very intense in taking shelter in the holy name, as we see in his intense japa and kirtana, like he is crying and begging to take shelter in the Lord in the form of his holy name. We see many times Maharaja gives very much respect to his godbrothers and sisters, cooperating and glorifying them very much. Maharaja even offers obeisances to his disciples. On this auspicious day, I beg Guru Maharaja to please bless me with a sincere service attitude and give me shelter at his lotus feet, following which I can please Guru Maharaja, Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna Maharaja Ji,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga!

Although I lack any qualifications to glorify you, Maharaja Ji, I humbly attempt this for my own purification.

1. Nectarian Lectures

Your lectures, Maharaja Ji, are nothing short of nectar. Whenever I feel spiritually weak, hearing your discourses immediately recharges my enthusiasm and inspires me to practice spiritual life with renewed vigor.

During the Kartika-yatra, we witnessed how devotees relished your lectures with undivided attention. Despite any fatigue, we were absorbed in the nectar of your words.

Most importantly, Maharaja Ji, you not only speak about spiritual principles but also exemplify them through your life. I humbly pray for your blessings to sincerely apply your teachings in my own life.

2. Your Love for Godbrothers and Devotees

You embody the ideal of loving relationships among devotees. Your care and affection for your godbrothers, godsisters, and all devotees are unparalleled.

One incident that deeply touched my heart was during a meeting about book distribution. You initially emphasized humility, suggesting devotees avoid seeking the top position. However, when HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja visited and inspired the devotees, you encouraged everyone to strive for the first position—not for personal achievement, but to glorify Maharaja Ji's inspiration and dedication.

Such loving relationships and humility inspire us all to emulate your example.

3. Complete Surrender to Srila Prabhupada

Although you had limited physical interactions with Srila Prabhupada, your unwavering dedication to his instructions is a shining example for all of us.

Before starting any lecture, your deep, meditative glance at Srila Prabhupada's murti reflects your profound dependence on him. It inspires us to cultivate a similar attitude of surrender and dependence on our spiritual guides.

Your unwavering commitment to glorifying Srila Prabhupada in every discourse reveals your loyalty and deep gratitude to him.

4. Always in a Mood of Service

You consistently demonstrate how to serve others with a selfless and joyful heart. Your desire to ensure the comfort of every guest and inspire them in bhakti is unparalleled.

During the Kartika-yatra, we saw how you personally oversaw the arrangements to ensure devotees and your godbrothers had an enriching and memorable experience. You always emphasize that service is not a burden but a privilege—a teaching that inspires us to improve our own service attitude.

5. Humbleness and Simplicity

Maharaja Ji, your simplicity is evident in every aspect of your personality. A devotee once described you as being as simple and gentle as a cow, radiating humility and grace.

You avoid taking credit for yourself, always attributing success to the entire guru-parampara. For instance, when asked to speak about Journey Home at a Prerna program, you shifted the focus to the broader concept of returning to Krishna, demonstrating your humility and selflessness.

6. Focused Chanting

One of the most inspiring moments for me was witnessing your focused and heartfelt chanting during the Kartika-yatra. Your deep absorption in the holy names reminded me of the essence of bhakti and encouraged me to improve my own chanting.

Maharaja Ji, your oceanic qualities continue to inspire countless devotees to dedicate themselves fully to spiritual life.

Thank you for everything you have given us. I am eternally grateful for your guidance and blessings. I humbly beg for your mercy so that I may practice spiritual life sincerely and always remain engaged in the mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Maharaja, you are the personification of the Bhagavad-Gita verse 6.8. You always inspire us to be grateful, to not judge others, and to treat everyone with love and maintain sweet loving relationships with the Vaisnavas with your own example.

Maharaja, I beg you for mercy and that you always bless all of us so that we all do only those things which pleases you and please give us the strength to say no and abstain from things which doesn't please you.

Thank you Maharaja for showing how to practically follow the teachings and how to be mindful and grateful and understand the messages which Krishna sends us in our daily lives.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga. All glories to the Vaisnava devotees. All glories to your kindness and relentless service to Srila Prabhupada and humanity at large.

Maharaja, I wish you a very happy Krishna-conscious appearance day. We are truly blessed to have your kind association in this turbulent world for another year. That is our great fortune, and I humbly pray to Krishna to bless helpless souls like me with this benediction for a long time to come.

As I reflect on my life, I realize that everything auspicious in it stems from your merciful benediction. Our sastras describe the depth of a spiritual master's kindness toward a lost soul, and while they offer insight, I feel they cannot fully express the magnitude of your mercy (which I hope to understand more deeply in time). The world constantly presents challenges to remind us of our alien nature to it, and your words are the guiding light that reveals this truth to us. The imperceptible kindness of your mercy in our lives is felt through the devotees who train and engage us in service to the Lordships as the servant of the servant.

This year, my heart is filled with gratitude for your boundless kindness. I pray that I may strive to follow your instructions and seek your association at every opportunity. May I be blessed to take your words to heart and act in ways that are pleasing to our immediate association of devotees, Srila Prabhupada, Sri Panchatattva, and most importantly, to Your Holiness. Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Last year's Festival of Gratitude was an incredibly inspiring event for the devotees in Kanpur, allowing us to experience the essence of loving devotional service.

We could tangibly feel your deep love for Srila Prabhupada, which you have manifested through the miraculous Govardhan Ecovillage (GEV) project and the community of sincere, loving devotees. It was truly a heart-transforming experience for all of us.

Just as in the Third Canto of the Srimad-Bhagavatam, where Brahmaji vividly describes the spiritual world, the Kanpur devotees had the fortune to experience every aspect of Govardhan Ecovillage—Lord's pastime places, the holy temples embodying the Goswamis' devotion to Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, the beautiful Vrndavana-inspired gardens filled with trees, creepers, birds, butterflies, and sound-producing insects enhancing the beauty of the Lord's creation.

We witnessed Brahmanas performing yajnas, devotees engrossed in reading and relishing the Srimad-Bhagavatam, fruit-laden trees, aromatic flowering plants, the Vaisnava memorials honoring those who sacrificed for this movement, a children's park bringing joy to visitors, facilities caring for animals that embody the Lord's love for all living entities, and natural technologies like STPs that magnify appreciation for nature's blessings and divine magic.

Of course, the sravanam from realized souls and the high-class, lovingly served Prasadam were the hallmarks of devotion and hospitality.

You have set an extraordinary example of being a disciple, devotee, and spiritual master through your words and actions. We are deeply grateful to you for guiding us on the right path.

This is among the rarest gifts that Srila Prabhupada has bestowed upon us—his gem-like disciples. We are simply meant to accept this wholeheartedly, relish it, and share it with others.

When you visited Kanpur in 2015 for the Bureau meeting, you gave us parting instructions to complete the construction of the temple and establish a devotional community of sincere souls. As we meditate on those instructions, we often feel utterly helpless—neither do we possess the devotion to fully honor you, nor the dedication to serve effectively. In such moments, we depend entirely on your mercy, blessings, and prayers to carry out your instructions.

This year, we were blessed by your mercy when 13 devotees from Kanpur received Brahminical initiation from you. They are now happily engaged in deity service and delivering Srimad-Bhagavatam classes.

We also celebrated the 10th anniversary of the ISKCON Kanpur Temple inauguration on Dussehra 2024. One of the highlights was the Boat Festival of Radha Madhava in our newly constructed pond within the temple premises, made even more melodious by the sweet singing of HG Jay Sachinandan Prabhu.

Once again, I humbly pray at your lotus feet for the strength, intelligence, and devotion to remain solely engaged in loving devotional service for the pleasure of Guru Parampara.

Dear Gurudeva, your presence in our life is most valuable as you have given us true essence of bhakti.

As you always say bhakti means reciprocation and you give us so many opportunities to associate and get inspired in bhakti through wonderful Vaisnava sangh.

Your Kartika yatras are so full of bliss.

I always feel that I fall short of receiving that mercy due to my casual nature.

So much you give us through your vani.

Gurudeva, please bless us so that we associate with you through your vani with full enthusiasm and take up all your instructions seriously.

Your attention to details, your exemplary behaviour, your genuine care, your intense chanting is all experienced in your yatras and GEV.

GEV is one very close to our hearts as its your offering to Srila Prabhupada.

We feel so close to you and Vrndavana there in GEV. So thankful for such a special gift to all of us.

Amongst all the innumerable qualities of yours dear Gurudeva the one I most admire is your absorption in whatever you do and your genuine reciprocation with each and every living entity.

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja I pray at your lotus feet that every moment I may be Krishna conscious of my actions, words and thoughts and they may align to please you, Srila Prabhupada and Krishna.

Kindly bless us so that we don't commit any offenses even mentally towards any living entity and try our level best to work on getting rid of our anarthas.

Begging for your mercy to develop taste for holy names and eagerness to listen and follow your instructions.

Dear Gurudeva, kindly bless us so that we may share this beautiful gift of Krishna Consciousness. with others.

By your mercy we may always remain in the association of Vaisnavas and serve them in the mood of servant of the servant of the servant.

Praying for your long and healthy life.

Hare Krishna Guru dev PAMHO AGTSP,

In Srimad-Bhagavatam the glories of the divine relationship of the Guru and disciple is always highlighted. Many examples came such as, Narad muni - Vyas dev, Narad muni - pralhad... When disciples are bewildered & confused then guru is always helping him through his vani by guiding him, by showing him by his own actions, as well as some time by chastising. This all is the care and love of the Guru for his disciples.

Oh Guru dev, I got devotional life very easy through my perants in childhood therefore there was no any seriousness in me. But Thank you guru dev as you came in my life as (guru karna dharam) a captain of my boat, Which was shaking due sharks like my anartha, misplaced due to my unwanted desires like the heavy windstorm, your vani which is always helping us to come on right track.

Guru dev you are always deeply rooted in devotional services, by your own example you are showing us how we should do very sincerely & with all endeavours we should do all our Sadhana, sastric study, with all care to do deity worship, the cooperation within community with all heart... Those all you taught us through your own examples.??

Thanks again & again to you for creating this wonderful community GEV and Radha Gopinatha bhakt samaj because of this we can able to know the importance of devotion life and becouse of all this sincere devotees, the fool like me can also try to attempt to do some Bhakti.

Thank you Maharaja for accepting me as your disciple. I always pray to the Lotus feets of Sri Radha Vrndavana Behari ji, Sri Gaurang Maha Prabhu, Srila Prabhupada that, you are like a gardener of the flowers garden and you are engaging all flowers like devotees in the service of Lord..... I know that I am not able to become a flower but I pray that atleast I should not become a thorn which will give you pain...!!!??

I pray for your good health.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,

As I sit down to write the offering,

I realize that 25 years have gone by since I came to Krishna Consciousness. and not much has changed within.

I realize that this offering is not mere words that I need to pen down.But it's time for me to contemplate, reflect upon if I am living a life that can be offered in your service.

I realize that I am a fool and do not understand what precious gift I have been given.

I realize that I am lost and need direction. I realize that I am weak and need all the support. I realize that time is short and I have a long way to go. Gratefully, I repeat the Prayer of Pariskshit Maharaja :

punas ca bhuyad bhagavaty anante ratih prasangas ca tad-asrayesu mahatsu yam yam upayami srstim

Again, offering obeisances unto all you brahmanas,

I pray that if I should again take my birth in the material world I will have complete attachment to the unlimited Lord Krishna, association with His devotees and friendly relations with all living beings.

Dear GuruMaharaja!
Please accept my most humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

It's such a difficult task for such a lost soul as I am to glorify such an elevated soul as you are. There are no words that can express how greatful I am to our sweet Lord to send you to my life and to you for kindly giving me your shelter. Some time ago I had such a beautiful dreams that I would like to share with you.

We were celebrating your jubilee (not sure which age) in a very grand style. It was happening in a huge property with a beautiful old mansion. So many guests and devotees from all over the world gathered for the occasion. Although we were many it wasn't disturbing, it was very harmonious. In a huge hall there were photos of you with your guests explaining your stories, your relationship ... On some of the photos were obviously people from high society and on some simple village people. On all the photos that I could see everywhere was written FRIENDS. In another hall many devotees were preparing delicious colourful dishes for the main offering to you Maharaja that I have never seen before. At one point I went out to the garden. I was in such a special joyful and serene mood.

All of a sudden I see my godsister Jay gopi with her sister Ananda Vrndavana. I could see that we are sharing similar emotions. We embraced with Jaygopi. I had tears in my eyes and she also had. Feelings were so overwhelming that I couldn't find proper words to describe. So I could only say: "He is so special. So very very special." Jaygopi quietly replied: "It is the love that makes him like that."

These simple yet profound words hit me straight to my heart. I cried. And those tears woke me up from my dreams. Disappointed it ended but at the same time still experiencing all these deep emotions...

At that moment Krishna gave me such an amazing insight into how everything that matters is LOVE. And Krishna is repeatedly telling me and showing me that. The key to anyone's heart is LOVE and you dearest GuruMaharaja are unlocking everyone's heart so easily. Stealing their hearts and making them your friends. I am so grateful for this mercy showered upon me and just pray that one day I can also possess such a key to unlock devotees, guru's and ultimately Radha and Krishna's heart. ??

Deeply grateful for teaching me with your. every step and every word.

Praying to Lord for your health and strenght to continue to so joyfully serve Srila Prabhupada and all the jivas on this planet.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances! All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

Guru Maharaja, you have given everything that is required to perform devotional service..repeated instructions in your classes, sincere devoted caring godsisters and godbrothers, the wonderful festivals, the blissful yatrs and so much more.

You have taken so much pain to help us through our struggles with our conditioning and hard settled impurities. When it is said that we are made of the mercy of our spiritual masters, I had some theoretical understanding. But by your mercy I am able to slowly perceive that. Just like water constantly dripping on a rock erodes the rock eventually, in the same way if we allow ourselves to be in that mercy that you are so profusely giving, eventually the hard rock like heart has to transform...there is hope.

For 4 years, I had the opportunity to serve my mother-in-law. She needed full time care. How could I serve her, Maharaja..i dont have any capacity...it was possible only by your mercy and prayers, Maharaja.

Being away from Mumbai, during covid when there was no possibility of any association, I got more association of my godsisters through zoom which not only protected me but lifted me from my passive state of consciousness. That was possible only by your mercy and prayers. This association is so precious and I want to deepen the relationship with my god-sisters as the days go by.

You explain everything so simply that even a manda buddhi person like me can understand. So how can I understand Bhagavadgita and Srimad Bhagavatm...only by your grace, Maharaja.

This year I had the opportunity to Vrndavana after second initiation. And for the first time I have been able to appreciate the dham and the mercy of the Lord and Sri Radharani in my heart. I know with certainty it is because of your mercy and prayers to the Lord for fallen souls like me, Maharaja. You sowed the seed in our hearts through all the yatras that you took us to the holy dham with so much of compassion.

Much of this life had gone in material endeavours, and I have not used the opportunities to serve. My prayers are that I take shelter of your instructions, the Lord's holy names and Srimad-Bhagavatam in all situations in life and be able to offer service to the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the proper consciousness.

I just want to move forward, no backward steps. Helplessly praying for your mercy and prayers because only that grace can protect me from all distractions.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

I am so extremely grateful to have you present in my life that I cannot express it with words... Still, I will try to share a few words.

From our first interaction in Italy in 2007, I felt you gave me a lifelong purpose and the empowerment to help young people come closer to Krishna. From that moment, many miraculous things started to happen. I witnessed so many amazing arrangements and felt just like a puppet in your hands, trying to fulfill your wonderful desire to please Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. Through prayers to you and Krishna, I felt you were guiding me, giving me abilities, and things started to manifest out of the blue. Looking at it now from a distance, I am amazed by all the things that happened and all I have learned, which I know was only due to divine arrangement propelled primarily by your blessings.

Even though I didn't have your physical presence and guidance, I felt you so close to my heart through your lectures and by writing you daily letters asking for direction and empowerment (which I never sent you, even though I felt you read them all).

I was moved by the inspiration from your exemplary behavior, love for Krishna, Srila Prabhupada, and all living entities. I was always longing to become your good disciple and please you by my endeavors and develop some of the good qualities you always spoke about, so I can become a better instrument in your loving hands.

Until recently, I could not even imagine that I could offer some personal service to a project dear to you. I always felt that maybe in some next life I might become so fortunate to be able to serve you directly, like some of your close disciples do by offering wonderful services to you.

But due to some unimaginable good fortune arising from your pure desire to please Srila Prabhupada, my wife and I developed a longing to offer our lives in a more direct mission, and by divine arrangement ended up here in Rsikesh to assist you in western outreach, which fulfilled all our desires that we could not have even dreamt of.

I am extremely grateful for your trust, empowerment, and the opportunity to do this service for you, and I pray that all my shortcomings may disappear so I can become a better instrument in your loving hands and develop just a little of the devotion you have for Krishna, so I can share it with others and assist them in their life journey.

May you see many more glorious preaching years serving in the mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, and may you remain in the highest consciousness (as usual & as always). I thank you for giving so many wonderful devotees who have so many qualities that are rare to find in this age of Kali. Thank you for inspiring us by your personal example on all fronts/departments... be it Vaisnava Seva, Archa Seva, Dhaam Seva, the importance of Sadhana, Vaisnava aachar, Vaisnava Vichaar, and all the various Vaisnava characteristics/features.

Without taking much of your time, all I can do is thank you from the bottom of my heart and soul. On a personal level, I wish to seek forgiveness for so many mishaps and mistakes that I may have committed knowingly/unknowingly... Considering me as an immature, insignificant, foolish-like child of yours... Kindly forgive me, and I would definitely try hard to follow in the footsteps of the senior disciples of yours for my own spiritual advancement and attainment of Prema Bhakti.

Thank you very much, your insignificant, immature, foolish disciple.

Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.

Although I have only seen you physically a few times since my initiation and the only words I've spoke to you were when I asked to take shelter and when I recited my vows before you I know you are with me in my heart. It is there that I receive your guidance, mercy and love when I call out. Your immeasurable compassion and mercy for every living creature has been my inspiration and guiding light. I will be eternally grateful and pray for Krishna's blessings and mercy upon you.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

My words cannot fully capture the glory you embody, and my humble efforts whether in speech or writing are insufficient to praise your boundless greatness. On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, all I can offer is my heartfelt gratitude, as I am deeply blessed to be under your divine shelter and part of the wonderful congregation at Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha temple. I pray that I may be of some service to you and that you may be pleased with me.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

This year has been really awarding for us. We could get your direct vapu association and Vani association in the Special Kartika-yatra at Sri Dham Mayapur. Thank you so much for the spiritual boost by allowing us to hear in such oceanic association of sincere serious Vaisnavas. Seeing everyone's serving attitude itself gave us so much inspiration.

The cream on top was Kolkata yatra with HG Dwarkadhish Pr and HG Vishakhapriya Mataji, where we not only got your cherished smile but also got to witness the miracle that occurred in the past and is occurring now at Ultadunga junction and Bagh bazaar. The aura and vibrations were so awe inspiring and heart touching. By the inspiration of seniors we chanted very serious round with utmost attention and prayful mood begging our acaryas to bestow mercy on us and empower us to take more responsibility for the mission of Guru and Gauranga.

Thank you so much Maharaja for giving us the mood, the facility and the inspiration to mold our spiritual life for better and more fruitful course so as to be always engaged in devotional service in the mood of servant of servant of servants of Vaisnavas.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

It is my immense good fortune that, despite having no qualifications, I am part of this transcendental movement that has introduced me to the most sublime, simple, and efficient path of Bhakti.

It is my immense fortune that, even without contributing in any significant way due to my ungrateful nature, I am connected to the divine shelter of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Temple. This sacred place has supported and guided me in every possible way to continue my endeavors on this path of devotion.

And it is my greatest fortune that, despite having no good qualities, you have mercifully accepted me as your disciple. Being your disciple is like watering the roots of a tree—just by being connected to you, I receive everything I need to persevere on this path of Bhakti.

Being your disciple is like offering the water of the Ganges back to Mother Ganga. Simply by observing your qualities, I am inspired to develop good virtues in my own life with the sole intention of pleasing you.

Being your disciple is like trying to tie Krishna in our hearts. Though my efforts are minimal and often insufficient, your boundless mercy compensates for all my shortcomings and deficiencies.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I humbly beg for your blessings that, despite my lack of taste or qualification, I may continue to strive sincerely to please Sri Guru and Gauranga to the best of my ability.

Please accept my humble obedience.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja I am not eligible to write this, but I am grateful to all the devotees who arranged this method of offering.

After the last Kartika-yatra, I was thinking, if I was able to make an offering to Guru Maharaja by writing a letter, then how to deliver it. But I couldn't be able to do so.

But now this year it happened; I heard in lectures many times that if you have a desire to serve Guru and Gauranga, then they fulfill your desire, and that happened.

We are blessed with the Radha Gokulbhihari; they fulfill our desire unknowingly. They are so merciful.

We are very grateful that after attending Kartika-yatra, we just felt we lived some days in the spiritual world. We met many new devotees, and some of them became our best friends that sometimes we felt that we had some special relationship earlier that is completed now after meeting in yatra, especially from the train journey till yatra's last day. In every Kartika-yatra, when we return, we come back with a lot of spiritual bliss and our battery charged to fight again. With dham darshans, Guru Maharaja's lectures, and different sevas. We just felt we lived in a spiritual world where we could see everywhere there was Krishna.

And we never wanted the Yatra to end.

Very grateful to all the volunteers of Yatra who effortlessly served the devotees. Everyone was there to serve everyone; that's the thing we learned: how to serve devotees.

In our lectures we heard that it is not possible to meet our guru every time and share everything; the guru shows us the right path, and I have that full faith and experience of Guru Maharaja.

We are very grateful to our shiksha guru, HG Mahabhagvat Prabhuji, for always guiding us that even when we do not have personal sanga of our guru, we can still serve them. How we can experience it with our Bhakti and dedication, our Guru Maharaja is with us. In this material world full of miseries, we are very grateful for showing us the right path of Krishna Consciousness. and for accepting us as your disciples. We are trying to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada at our best; we need your blessings. Please forgive me for any of my mistakes.

I offer my humble obeisances to Guru Maharaja. Maharaja, your lectures inspire us to progress in Krishna-bhakti. They help us understand the importance of a service attitude and cultivate within us the mood to serve with humility. This is my prayer at your lotus feet.

In every lecture, you explain the meaning of the verse from Shikshashtakam:

””Trinadapi sunichena tarorapi sahishnunata””

(Being more humble than a blade of grass and more tolerant than a tree).

I pray that I develop this humility and tolerance within myself as you teach us."

I am so fortunate that you came into my life as my guru and accepted me as your servant of servants. Just because of your kindness and causeless mercy, I come to connect with Krishna. Thank you so much, Maharaja, for giving so many blessings, and I always remember one phrase that you wrote: To serve Krishna means life, and to engage in sense gratification means death. There is no lasting happiness in this material world because Krishna is unlimitedly attractive. Thank you, my guru Maharaja ji, for giving us the opportunity to say something for you. Maharaja taught us how to love and serve Krishna selflessly.

I recently received initiation, and during the initiation, Maharaja was expressing gratitude to everyone. His humility truly resonated with me, and I feel I need that quality within myself.

Maharaja understands the language of the heart.

I would like to share an experience. The day after my initiation was Radha Ashtami, and Maharaja was giving a class. There was a large crowd, and I couldn't get a glimpse of Maharaja, so I went back and forth to the temple hall five or six times, but I couldn't see him. After my Prasada was done, I went upstairs again to take Radha Gopinatha darshan and suddenly Maharaja appeared near the lift. I was blessed with a wonderful darshan (sighting) of him.

Thank you, Srila Prabhupada, for giving us such a wonderful guru on behalf of you.

Srila Maharaja although I am aspiring as diksha disciples of yours,I respect you from the bottom of my heart and accepted you as my diksha guru.Maharaja Shri you are living example of Trinad Api sunichena...I never have seen any individual as humble as you. you are Always bowing down to all irrespective of their position.I always used to say if you would look at me,I may get melted and that came true when I saw you in Kartika-yatra for the first time and you looked at me 3 times altogether and I still can't forget that smile you gave me, that glance you gave me and those words you talked to me....I am always hearing Gaura katha from the lotus mouth of yours and I belive there is no one in this world other than you is telling Gaur katha filled with so much nectar....Thank you Maharaja for your cause less mercy and please keep your mercy on me because I am most fallen. When I see myself I don't think I am ever able to go back home back to godhead on my own strengths. I am full of lust envy and all other bad qualities.always feeling happiness seeing others in distress, not at all loyal. But you are very merciful. Respected Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances,

I want to thank Lord Krishna for sending a spiritual master like you. Recently, I read Manah Siksha by Srila Raghunath Das Goswami, where he mentions that one who has developed faith should cultivate unprecedented attachment to eight things, the first being the Guru. By your blessings, I feel a deep attachment to you through your vani seva. The training you have provided is perfect, and I firmly believe that any of your disciples who sincerely follow your instructions can experience the same.

I also want to express my gratitude for the broader perspective you provide on the application of Krishna Consciousness. in practical life. The answers you give to different devotees are deeply heart-touching. I would like to share a few of them:

1. Once, a Mataji who was engaged in garland seva got married and stopped coming for her service. When her friends said she had stopped serving due to her child, your response was profound. You told her to reply to them that "I have not stopped my service; I have simply transformed it into raising a Krishna-conscious child."

2. Another is when you were asked that some days we feel enthusiasm in chanting and other days we feel helpless, than what we should do. You said, "On the day we feel helpless, we should think that this was my best chanting."

3. A devotee once expressed his desire to go to Vrndavana to spend personal time alone for Sadhana and chanting. Your reply was deeply enlightening: "Every day while chanting is our personal, individual time with Sri Krishna. So, there is no need to go."

4. Lastly, someone asked you about the popular saying, "Behind every successful man, there is a woman." Your response was beautifully humble: "The woman behind my success is Srimati Radharani."

Such interactions are countless—like a commerce student asking you what would happen if everyone became sannyasis like you, or an environment minister asking what you are doing to combat pollution. I have realized through your answers that while I can read and understand philosophy from books, applying it practically requires living examples like a Bhagavat devotee.

I am deeply grateful to you for providing me shelter and guidance through such mature devotees as my superiors, whom I can always turn to for support.

Finally, I want to reveal a fear I once carried: How can I always remain on the right track in bhakti? Recently, I realized that if I remain humble before my immediate superiors and refrain from seeking positions or prestige, I have nothing to fear. This realization comes from your frequent emphasis on the verse trinad api sunicena... in your lectures.

”Thank you” seems insufficient to express my gratitude for all that you have given me. I have much to improve within myself, so I humbly request you to keep me in your prayers.

Yours in service,

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious day, we gather to glorify your holiness, sharing your unconditional love with us as we realize what a great soul you are who is endeavouring so hard to guide our lives back home, back to godhead. May every day be a Vyasa-puja so it can remind me of my eternal debt towards your lotus feet.

Just as a frog cannot understand the vastness of the ocean, I find it very difficult to fully conceive of the impact that one person can make when equipped with the mercy of the guru parampara. I'm astonished to see the deep effect your association has made on the lives of many. Your association transforms average Kali-Yuga residents into great saints dedicated to giving the entirety of their lives for the pleasure of Krishna. This certainly shows the depth of your devotion and your great wielding of that mercy.

You had asked to make a sand land near the pond for the turtles, for their comfort; hearing the way they slept, your concern for those turtles (what to speak of humans) is a sign of transcendental magnanimity. You are a hero in its greatest sense.

You are indeed a weighty branch on this ISKCON tree as you unite and inspire many people from all walks of life with the great desire to become Krishna conscious. You provide stability, shelter, and direction by which this tree can expand and flourish.

All your activities act as substantial instructions for bhakti aspirants to follow. Through your expert presentation of the sastra and personal example (especially when we heard your discourses in Mayapur during the Kartika yatra), you reveal to all that Krishna Consciousness. isn't a far distant ideology but a reality that can be experienced by all. A reality that captures the perfect emotional expression and satisfaction—something we all need to thrive in.

One point that I especially admire is your individual and personal care to make sure that no one misses out on the opportunity to become Krishna conscious, something that many devotees explain to be the reason they are here today.

I hope one day I'm able to acquire just a fragment of your taste for chanting the holy names and your taste to read and distribute Srila Prabhupada's books. I pray that I get a drop of taste in my chanting, as one of the most important and first services to his guru is chanting. You say Krishna Consciousness. is simple for simple and complex for complex people.

Knowing that if I had that fortune, so many problems that arise through identifying with my body and mind would no longer affect me.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for providing stability and direction in my life and for the constant guidance and opportunity through your loving disciples to assist you and Srila Prabhupada.

I pray that my selfish conditioning be removed, so that I too can be a competent assistant in helping others. I pray for your very long and healthy life so we can relish your pastimes more and more and become serious to nourish the seed of Guru Nishtha.

Thank you for accepting someone like me in your divine shelter. Although I feel unqualified to have such a qualified spiritual master, being overly sentimental and weak, I desire greatly to become qualified.

I beg you to make me a servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of Krishna. Your grace is always available in the form of your lectures, your disciples, and the counsellor system you have made. I hope I realize soon the value of this touchstone that is bestowed on me.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble obeisances

unto your divine lotus feet.

In your lecture on Balarama Ji's appearance day, you profoundly stated, "The best master is simply the one who is the best servant. In the spiritual realm of consciousness everyone is a servant, no one is a master. But someone takes the position of a master just to serve you by showing you how to serve."

This realization transformed my entire understanding of our most revered guru parampara, helping me grasp the genuine spirit of compassion that flows within it. Just as Srila Prabhupada exemplified perfect service to his spiritual master, fulfilling his desires, you too have served Srila Prabhupada by embracing and advancing the seven purposes of ISKCON. Your preaching and flawless adherence to his teachings stand as a testament to your unwavering surrender.

Your Surrender towards Srila Prabhupada radiate through the love and affection you share with your godbrothers and godsisters. Witnessing your visit to Delhi this year, where you attended Srila Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja's Vyasa-puja and stayed to hear his glorification in its entirety, left a deep and lasting impression on me. As the saying goes, apani acari prabhu jivere sikhaya—you teach not merely through words but by your actions. You exemplify how eager we should be to hear from and hear about great souls, and you inspire us to cultivate a spirit of genuine respect, love, and servitude toward each other.

There is so much more to be said in your glorification, but any words would be like attempting to illuminate the sun with a mere lamp.

You have appeared in this world to elevate fallen souls like myself, and it is my greatest fortune to be a recipient of your causeless mercy. Though I am devoid of good qualities and struggling amidst the miseries of material existence, your divine lotus feet are my only refuge.

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I humbly beg for your mercy and pray that you may keep me forever sheltered at your divine lotus feet. Kindly grant me the privilege of being your insignificant servant, birth after birth.

I do not have the capability to speak of you in a deserving manner, but for the peace of my heart, I am expressing myself. Maharaja, there is so much I want to say to you, but I am often unable to. Still, today I will try... I have always felt a void in my life, that of a father's presence, but you have filled that place and given me everything. I am very fortunate to have you in my life. I still remember our first meeting—your smile and your Trinadapi Sunichena nature. When I saw you for the first time, I felt as if I had found everything. Even though you live far away, whenever I needed you, you were always there for me. I don't want anything else in my life, my Maharaja; I just wish for you to remain in my life until my last breath. To Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Our Humble Guide

Maharaja, from Srila Prabhupada, we learn,
That every disciple holds a divine concern.
In you, we see a reflection so pure,
Unlimited humility, a heart that's sure.
With folded hands, I've always seen you stand,
Bowing down in reverence, a soul so grand.
Your transcendental smile, a light so bright,
Filling hearts with warmth, igniting the night.
Your aura is sacred, drawing us near,
A gentle presence, casting away fear.
Words from your lips are Krishna's grace,
Practical wisdom in every embrace.
Your kindness flows, a river so wide,
Heart-transforming love, none can hide.
By your care, so many find a friend,
In your love, all wounds seem to mend.
With eyes of equality, you see us all,
Your love for your god brothers stands tall.
In your presence, Srila Prabhupada's mercy is near,
We feel blessed by your service, sincere.
Your laugh, so innocent, like a child,
In simplicity, your heart is styled.
Wearing humility as a Vaisnavaa's crown,
You lift us up, never let us down.
Your love for Radha and Krishna, so deep,
In their service, your heart takes its leap.
To Gauranga, you give with sweet devotion,
Every act immersed in a pure emotion.
Service to Srila Prabhupada, your example to all,
A guide to true surrender, a call to stand tall.
Your words, so decent, cut through illusion's veil,
Your lectures are nectar, they never fail.
Your speaking is soft, your tone so kind,
A soothing balm for the troubled mind.
Kirtanas with you, echo in our hearts,
Forever embodied, your voice never departs.
Your actions, so authentic, so true,

In every step, Krishna shines through.
A bona fide saint, a treasure we hold,
Your disciples are your signature, pure gold.
By their sincerity, they reflect your light,
Guiding us onward, through day and night.
Through their devotion, your love shines clear,
A legacy of faith, forever near.
Maharaja, your grace, we hold so dear,
Your humility, a beacon, crystal clear.
Through your guidance, we walk the path,
In Krishna's love, we find our heart.

Maharaja ji accepted me as his servant, that's why I thank Maharaja ji from my heart.. My Guru Maharaja has been taking care of everyone for so long, young and old.. When Maharaja used to give lecture in the night, his devotees made a garland... We had made it completely like the colour of our tri-color.. There were ants in it. When Maharaja ji had to wear that garland, they took out all the ants and started biting Maharaja ji... Even then Maharaja did not get disturbed for a second and continued giving lecture So that the whole class does not get disturbed because of him...

We learn from this that even in such a difficult situation Maharaja is not thinking about anything but thinking about everyone.... Maharaja ji, we have got the form of Gurudeva.... We have to fulfill his teachings...

We have to take our mission of God forward.. only then our Gurudeva will be pleased with us..hk.. Your servant PriyaRadha Devi.

Please accept our humble obeisances
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to you.

On this auspicious day of your Vysapuja, We express our sincere gratitude for giving us Harinam Diksha in the month of September in Mumbai Chowpati temple

Regularly we hear your lectures and meditate on the qualities you emphasize, which are humility and humbleness. With your blessings and the mercy of Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha(both Mumbai & Sydney Deities), one day we will be able to acquire those qualities

We wish you a happy 74th appearance Day

गुरु महाराज (राधानाथ स्वामी महाराज),

मै भक्तिजीवन में कुछ समय पहले ही आया, भक्तों के साथ रहना सीखना सब नया-नया ही था, तो पहली बार गुरु शरणागतिआश्रय यह सब सुना, और भक्तगण बड़े ही मधुर भाव से मुझे तत्व समझते फिरि वह दिनि आया जिसि दिनि मैने पहली बार, भक्तिचारु महाराज ko इंदौर शहर में देखा जिसि तरह भक्तों ने उनका स्वागत किया और प्रेम भक्तिकरुणा से वे सभी उपस्थिति वैष्णव समाज को संबोधित करने लगे वह विस्मरणीय है. उनका मुस्कुराता हुआ मुखारविंद आज भी मेरे हृदय में छपा हुआ है। गुरु की महिमा नहीं समझ पाया कई वर्ष निकिल गए महामारी का आया सन 2020 जब वैष्णव की कृपा से मै फिरि से गुरु महाराज का संग का भागीदार बना दो माह तक प्राय में रोज-रोज गुरुदेव का दर्शन करता एवं कथा श्रवण करता है मंदिरि परिक्रमण में जाप करते पौधों को देखते भक्तों से बात करते तथा उन्हें निर्देश देते, पर कौन जानता था कि कृष्ण और प्रभुपाद की क्या इच्छा है गुरु महाराज ने मन बनाया कि वह अमेरिका जाएंगे जबकि पूरे विश्व में कोरोना महामारी फैली हुई थी कई भक्तों ने चिंता जताई प्रयास किया कि गुरुदेव हमारे बीच में ही भारत में सुरक्षित रहें पर गुरु महाराज तो निश्चय कर चुके थे।, कुछ दिनों बाद जब यह जानकारी में आया कि गुरु महाराज कोरोना ग्रसित है हृदय टूट गया अपने आप को कोस रहा था कि मै कुछ भी नहीं कर सकता था प्रत्येक दिनि बस यही प्रार्थना कर रहा था कि गुरु महाराज जल्दी से ठीक हो जाएं और वापस आ जाएं, दिनि व दिनि गुरु महाराज की तबीयत बिगड़ रही थी पूरा विश्व प्रार्थना कर रहा था पर प्रभुपाद अपने शिष्य को अपने पास बुला रहे थे और ऐसा ही हुआ गुरु महाराज हम सब को छोड़कर भगवत धाम चले गए,

गुरुदेव मै तो बहुत ही नया हूं भक्तिजीवन में पर मै भी जो separation महसूस किया बहुत ही बड़ा था मुझे गुरु बहुत याद आते है,कई बार सोचता रहता हूं कि ये एक भयानक सपना है गुरु महाराज वापस आएंगे पर ऐसा हुआ नहीं गुरुदेव कई दिनि बीत गए फिरि भक्तों ने समझाया गुरु हमेशा हमारे साथ है वाणी रूप में उनकी सेवा करो तो हृदय को धैर्य बांध, शिक्षा गुरु ने कहा पारंपरिक गुरु शिष्य पद्धति में एक गुरु से दीक्षा होनी चाहिए फिरि आज्ञा का पालन शुरू किया गुरुदेव कई दिनों बाद मेरा मन बस आपको ही स्मरण करने लगा।, और एक दिनि आपकी ऑटोबायोग्राफी मै पढ़ना शुरू किया द जर्नी होम मेरे जीवन में फिरि से एक उम्मीद पैदा हुई कि मेरा बचा हुआ जीवन में आपको दूं,

प्रभुपाद,भक्तिचारु स्वामी, और अन्य वैष्णव भक्तों की कृपा से मैने ये किया

गुरुदेव पहली बार आपका दर्शन मै इस्कॉन उज्जैन में मीटिंग 2017 में किया, हमारे लिए प्रभुपाद शिष्यगण देखना ही बड़ा सौभाग्य था,

आपने दर्शन दिए मैने कार्तिक यात्रा के बारे में यह सुना था मन में इच्छा थी कि कभी लाभ प्राप्त करूं और 2 वर्षों से मै यात्रा में शामिल होता और खूब आनंद से धाम दर्शन करता, Gurudev aap gunon ki Khan hai samudra Hain, main tuchchh kya mahimamandan karunga ,

आप हमेशा केयर लव सेवा विनिम्रता पर जोर देते क्योंकि आप यह जीवन

गुरुदेव जिसि तरह प्रभुपाद को अपना जीवन समर्पित कर दिया मुझे इतनी शक्ति दे कि मै भी कुछ आपके लिए कर पाऊं एक अच्छा बनाकर दिखाऊं सेवा कर पाऊं और प्रभुपाद एवं आपके विज़न में हिस्सा ले पाऊं आपका

All glories to Prabhupada, all glories to Guru Maharaja.

I came into the bhakti life only a short time ago, and everything was new to me. I was learning to live with devotees, and then I heard about Guru Sharanagati Ashray for the first time. The devotees explained the philosophy to me with great affection.

Then came the day when I saw Bhakti Charu Maharaja for the first time in Indore city. The way the devotees welcomed him, and the way he addressed the Vaisnava community with love, devotion, and compassion, is unforgettable. His smiling face is still etched in my heart.

I didn't understand the glory of the Guru for many years. Then, in 2020, the pandemic struck, and by the grace of the Vaisnavas, I got to associate with Guru Maharaja again. For two months, I would see Guru Maharaja almost daily, listen to his katha, circumambulate the temple, chant, and talk to devotees.

But who knew what Krishna and Prabhupada had planned? Guru Maharaja decided to go to America, despite the pandemic spreading globally. Many devotees were concerned and tried to persuade Guru Maharaja to stay in India, but he was determined.

A few days later, I heard that Guru Maharaja had contracted COVID-19. My heart broke, and I felt helpless. I prayed daily for Guru Maharaja's recovery, but Prabhupada had called his disciple to be with Him.

Guru Maharaja left us and went to the spiritual world. I felt a deep separation, and I would often think, 'Is this just a bad dream? Will Guru Maharaja return?' But it wasn't meant to be.

Days passed, and devotees consoled me, saying, 'Guru is always with us, in his words and teachings.' I found solace in Guru Maharaja's autobiography, 'The Journey Home.' It gave me new hope.

I first saw Guru Maharaja in 2017 at the ISKCON Ujjain meeting. Seeing Prabhupada's disciples was a great fortune for us. You had given us darshan, and I had heard about the Kartika-yatra. I desired to participate, and for two years, I joined the yatra, relishing the dhama darshan.

Gurudeva, you are an ocean of qualities; what can I say about your glories? You emphasized care, love, service, and humility. You dedicated your life to Prabhupada's vision.

Please give me the strength to serve you, become a good devotee, and participate in Prabhupada's and your vision.

Please accept my humble obeisances

A very Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday to you. You are aware that I am not qualified enough to glorify you, I don't know how to articulate or what should I write but as a service and for my own purification this insignificant soul is trying.

You are my role model, my father. You always teach me and inspire me to be a better version of myself. The compassion that you have for all the suffering living creatures on this planet makes me feel more unqualified for your mercy and yet it makes me feel loved. I cannot thank you enough for the mercy that you have showered upon me but I am so ignorant that I don't know its value. I don't know how fortunate I am to be a part of Prabhupada's family. I am one of those people who have a diamond in their hand but just consider it as a shining rock. I know I am your most worthless child and I don't deserve or would ever deserve your shelter but you are so merciful that you have compassion for this insignificant soul also. Therefore I beg you, please please please accept me in the warm shelter of your lotus feet because without it I would not survive any longer. I promise you that I will try to change, to improve and to serve but that also I cannot do without your mercy, so please accept me.

Thank you Guru Maharaja thank you Papa, thank you, for your mercy love and compassion and for giving me this golden chance to write to you. I will forever be grateful. Also my humble apologies for all my mistakes and sins. Once again a very very very Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday to you dear Guru Maharaja.

Dear Maharaja, your whole life has been a very sweet preplanned journey to meet your eternal master Srila Prabhupada, You have given me the most authentic reason to live this human form of life by surrendering to Lordships Radha Gopinatha and their eternal devotee Srila Prabhupada. Maharaja, you are the epitome of Child Like Innocence, kindheartedness, forgiveness, forbearance & Love, Humility, and Gratitude.

Just by having your darshans, I get immense strength to fight with myself, and all the Anarthas in my Cold Black Heart & remain as faithful as a dog unto lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada every breath!

Dear Maharaja, you are the resting place of all the Divine Qualities, your divine presence motivates me to cultivate divine qualities just to please you and Radha Gopinatha.

I want to wholeheartedly thank you for gifting us the ability to enter into the eternal pastimes of Srila Prabhupada and Radha Gopinatha by being an insignificant part in the past times of Kaliyuga Paavana, Mayapurachandraa Sri Krishna Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Your Divine personality always Touches my soul and each time I witness miracles being with you.

Thanks, Dear Maharaja for being with me as my loving master lifetime after lifetime I aspire to serve you with full love.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance!
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Vyasa-puja is a day to express my heartfelt gratitude to you, Maharaja, for everything you have given us.

You provide us with everything we need to progress in life, both materially and spiritually. The yearly yatra, which you so lovingly organize, strengthens us for the entire year to carry out our Sadhana. Yatra feels like returning to a mother's home, where one can simply rest peacefully without worry. All spiritual activities are conducted smoothly and on time, free from any stress of running or struggling to fulfill them.

In your lectures, you have said that the association of devotees is the foundational cornerstone of our spiritual progress. It is through this association that we gain the faith to perform our Sadhana with the attitude of being an aspiring representative of our "ever-well-wisher." I Personally experienced it without association it is very difficult to do any spiritual activities. Your lectures, enhanced with their unique sound effects, are so simple yet so profound, making it easy to follow your instructions: "Just chant Hare Krishna, love and serve Krishna, read Srila Prabhupada's books, and serve the devotees." You remind us that these simple actions are enough to make our lives perfect.

When difficulties arise, as they often do, and when I feel shattered and hopeless, your instructions act as a tonic for my spiritual health. They lift me up, giving me the strength to start afresh. Through your words, I see a ray of hope, a vision of returning back home, back to Godhead.

Your many projects, like the Bhaktivedanta Hospital and Gopal's Garden (where my son studied), have impacted so many lives, including my own family. Gopal's Garden instilled in my son spirituality and values that, even after being away from home for over a decade, he continues to follow Krishna Consciousness.. Your vision of the Counsellor System has been a great blessing, especially for Grihastas like me, providing immense support and guidance in every phase of life. Govardhan Eco Village (GEV), your spiritual pilgrimage project, is a replica of Vrndavana that reminds us of Krishna and attracts people from all over the world—devotees and non-devotees alike. It not only nourishes their souls with Prasadam but has also created opportunities for thousands of villagers.

Maharaja, I cannot imagine life without your presence. Sometimes I wonder, if I were not in Krishna Consciousness., how miserable and hopeless my life would have been. Although I have never spoken to you personally, I feel your constant presence in my life. Your kirtana at Maan Mandir in 2004 was a transformational moment for me. It completely uplifted me from the ocean of material distress and changed my perspective on life.

From the core of my heart, I thank you for accepting me as your disciple and for being my spiritual master. I am forever indebted to you for engaging all of us in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

All glories to you, Maharaja, for your tireless efforts and vision.

Hoping to please you always...

To my beloved Gurudeva, my spiritual father,.....please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories unto you!!!

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deepest heartfelt gratitude and love to you for all that you have done not only for me but for the whole world. You selflessly give your mercy, love and time to one and all and reach out to each individual based on their level of Krishna Consciousness..

Your fantastic lectures especially on gratitude and positivity are what have got me through any difficult situation. Thank you also for instilling in me the strong pillar of faith in the mercy of Guru & Krishna! Gurudeva, You are so amazingly sensitive to the needs of everyone. You arranged for the counsellors to comfortably sit in front so that they can come to the temple and participate in all the festivals/ programs peacefully. In all the yatras, devotees can blissfully immerse themselves in Krishna katha, Kirtana and Seva only because of you and because of how superbly and meticulously the yatras are managed under your expert and personal guidance.

And these are only a few of your magnanimous qualities. Please forgive me, for as a disciple, I have not done anything to make you proud of me. But I owe you my life and will eternally be indebted to you lifetime after lifetime for the causeless love and mercy that you have showered upon me. I can only sincerely pray to Their Lordships that I may get a place at your lotus feet eternally and be able to serve you infinitely and eternally in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you again and again dearest Gurudeva for everything and please accept my love as humble token to you.

Pranapriya Jai Guru Maharaja, my countless obeisances to you.

You traveled from Mumbai to Nashik by train, reflecting your immense humility. Dear Guru Maharaja, you stayed in Nashik for four days, showering abundant grace upon all the devotees. I had the fortune of speaking to you in Marathi for two minutes, and you gave me so many blessings. It is my great fortune to have had such a close exchange with you, and I feel deeply blessed. This day has become unforgettable for me and will remain in my memory until my last breath.

You gave me the name Radha Gita. With this name, please bless me with the strength to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission sincerely and humbly through book distribution, donations, and other services.

You have enlightened me on how to lead a life filled with light after being in the darkness of ignorance. Guru Maharaja, you had no time to read books, yet while serving the cows in Vrndavana, you would read scriptures with a book placed on your lap while milking them. You endured many hardships to perform devotion, and I have learned about this from your book Tusharth Pathik.

Inspired by your difficult life journey and character, I dedicate myself to chanting the Hare Krishna Mahamantra as much as possible and offer it to you as a token of my love and devotion.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

This year during Kartika-yatra I had the good fortune of taking your darshan in Mayapur Dham. I stay in Nagpur Guru Maharaja so we get less opportunity of your divine darshan. Because of your causeless mercy I could associate with so many devotees, visit holy places and render some seva. I know, I have no qualification to come to dham, it is your causeless mercy on us that we are able to come to the dham. I had the good fortune to hear Gaur Katha from your lotus mouth every evening. How much effort you take Guru Maharaja to make all the lilas relishable to us? You pour your heart out explaining the past times of the Lord, because you know conditioned souls like to enjoy. So to give us pleasure of Krishna Katha you are taking so much trouble. In fact the whole yatra is designed to give us all a sweet Krishna conscious experience.

Thank you Guru Maharaja for everything you do for us. Thank you for the yatras and all the beautiful experiences.

Although I am useless and fallen to the core I hope to become a mature devotee some day. Please bless me Guru Maharaja so that I may serve in Srila Prabhupada's mission.

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th appearance day I pray for your long, healthy, blissful and Krishna conscious life. Happy Krishna conscious appearance day Guru Maharaja.

Dearest Srila Gurudeva,
Please accept our most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga.

On this most auspicious occasion of your divine appearance, we offer our heartfelt wishes and prayers. Gurudeva, you are truly an ocean of mercy, touching and purifying countless souls like us. Sri Balaramji has indeed been very merciful upon us by giving us the shelter of your lotus feet.

By your mercy, we had the wonderful opportunity to visit New Vrindaban (USA) in October 2024. New Vrindaban is undoubtedly a sacred place of pilgrimage for all ISKCON devotees, especially for your disciples. We were deeply moved and mesmerized by visiting the Old Vrindaban temple, where you selflessly served as a pujari, cook, cleaner, kirtanaiya, and so much more—practically everything.

Hearing about your experiences in the Old Vrindaban temple over the years has been inspiring, but witnessing the conditions of that place in person was a truly sobering experience. We were left in awe, wondering how anyone could have sustained living in such challenging conditions for more than a few days. Yet, you dedicated years of your life there, serving your spiritual master with unwavering determination.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for setting such a profound example of how to please the spiritual master. We humbly hope and pray that one day we may develop even a fraction of the determination and enthusiasm you embody, enabling us to serve you to the best of our abilities.

Gurudeva, I have been working in Nigeria for the past 20 years. Please forgive us for our shortcomings, and kindly bless us so that we may eternally serve Srila Prabhupada and ISKCON, no matter where we reside. We especially pray for your blessings upon our children, Aradhita and Kaunteya, that they may take shelter at the lotus feet of ISKCON's Guruvrinda and dedicate their lives to Krishna Consciousness..

We humbly pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, Sri Sri Gopalji, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai, and Srila Prabhupada that they bestow upon you the best of health.

Gurudeva, please always keep us under the protective shade of your divine lotus feet.

“””Srila Prabhupada has said that purity is the force. Maharaja, there is complete purity in your Sadhana, thoughts, actions and behavior. A living example of this are the Dham Yatras. Recently, about ten thousand devotees participated in the Sri Dham Mayapur Yatra of 2024. Devotees of almost all ages were included in it. The journey of so many people was completed with complete peace, joy and happiness without any untoward incident, all this could happen only by your grace.

A few days ago, initiation ceremonies were held in Sri RadhaGopinatha Temple. During that time also the whole program was held with such divinity, joy and peace, this is the result of your grace and complete purity Maharaja. We all sing in Guru Vandana in the morning. Sri Guru Karuna Sindhu Adham Janar Bandhu. Loknath Lokenar Jeevan, Ha Ha Prabhu Koron Daya, Dehon More Pad Chhaya, Abe Yash Ghushuk Tribhuvan. O Gurudeva you are the ocean of compassion, friend of the fallen, you are the well-wisher of all and their life. O Gurudeva have mercy on me and give me the shade of your feet. Your fame has spread in all the three worlds. On your 74th auspicious birthday, my only request to you is that your fame should not diminish in any way because of me and your fame should keep on increasing. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Ji, Radha Vrndavana Bihari and Radha Madan Mohan Ji that your health remains completely healthy and I always get your company, guidance and messages and I keep on following them with your grace. Thank you very much Maharaja.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to you and your divine service to ISKCON

Happy Vyasa-puja Gurudeva. It is now 74 years that you are here on this planet and blessing us all with your divine presence and mercy. Your unalloyed and non stop service to Srila Prabhupada and humanity is an inspiration for all of us. I pray that I can also please you by serving Srila Prabhupada’s mission and the devotees sincerely and tirelessly.

May Lord Narasimhadev always protect you and keep you in good health to continue with your divine mission without any obstacles. Thank you for your eternal mercy, thank you for your love, thank you for your blessings, thank you for your care and thank you for having given me shelter at your lotus feet where I aspire to always remain.

Thank you so much Gurudev

Dear Maharaja
Hare Krishna.
Please accept my Dandavats on this auspicious

74th appearance of yours.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada, Guru & Gauranga.

In one of your Vyasa-puja lectures, you had mentioned how the philosophy of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, given to us by Srila Prabhupada is so nice that no one would leave ISKCON due to a better philosophy. Only lack in care of a devotee will be the reason for him/her to leave the ISKCON family.

To ensure that such love and care is received by all the devotees, you have set up a wonderful devotee care system through the counselee network. You have not only ensured spiritual care but have inspired the devotees to look after the emotional, physical and even economical care.

This is an expansion of your compassion. You are reflecting the compassion of Srila Prabhupada. You are teaching by your example how we should understand, imply and transfer a quality of our spiritual master.

Please bless that I can understand your heart and work to fulfill your desire and the desires of the parampara. Please bless that I can understand and atone for all the offenses I did at the feet of devotees.

I beg Their Lordships - Sri Sri Radha Krishna and Caitanya Mahaprabhu to give you good health and expand your spiritual ecstasies'.

All Glories to H.D.G. A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada,
Please accept our humble obeisances.
Dear Gurudeva,

I never had planned to take to spirituality or accept a guru in my life. I had never planned to read the Gita or the Srimad-Bhagavatam. I had not even heard of the Caitanya Caritamrita.

Now when I look back and see, I cannot but be grateful enough to Lord Krishna for giving me Yourself as my guru. For me this proves the spiritual science. I was never interested in running after money or power or position. My only prayer was, O Lord, please keep me above want and protect me in the journey of life.

I had no clear idea of God. I did not even know how to distinguish between God and demigod.

But as I grew up, I was trying to grapple with the truth of life, which eluded me. I was attracted by the beauty of nature and wondered about the complexity of the Universe. The ups and downs of life were very confusing and challenging. I started looking for a platform of stability in life. The search was on.

Meanwhile, I was married and had two children. In 1990, for the first time, I came to the Sri Sri RadhaGopinatha Temple. In retrospect, I can clearly see Krishna had engineered that event when I first met you around 1992. You told me then, Make this your second home. Little did I know that it was my spiritual master instructing me. I got initiated in 1996. Today this temple is my 1st home. Home is where your heart is and love is.

Today I am HAPPY, which I was NOT.

even when I had all that a man seeks in his life. A house, good parents, a wife, children, livelihood, good standing in society.

You, Maharaja, very gently added Krishna to our lives and made that significant difference between being HAPPY and NOT HAPPY. Something that only one who has LOVE FOR GOD can give. This great treasure of Krishna Consciousness., which you have bestowed, is truly rare.

Now only by serving the servants of your servants can we express our gratitude for the rare treasure that we have got.

THE SPIRITUAL TOUCH

What matters is matter, in this world of matter.

For the soul, however, it just does not matter.

For the soul what matters,

Is LOVE of GOD.

God is the Whole, and we are a tiny soul.

Infinite is the Whole, infinitesimal the soul.

Though serrated,

Yet fully integrated.

We cannot know God by our comprehension.

But He reveals Himself by His compassion.

This knowledge you shared, to save us from darkness.

And opened our eyes to behold His brightness.

For us Maharaja, you are the tap,

To open and savor that pure LOVE OF GOD.

We bow down to you, touched by your greatness.

And secure we feel. in your embrace of kindness.

Your dasanudas,
Radhapati das
Lalita priya devi dasi.

Hare Krishna. Dandavat Pranama, Guru Maharaja.

Ever since I joined ISKCON, I had resolved in my heart that I would accept Radhanath Swami Maharaja as my spiritual master, and by his mercy, that blessing was bestowed upon me. Despite having no qualifications of my own, Guru Maharaja mercifully gave me initiation, and my journey in devotion began.

Whenever I listen to Guru Maharaja's lectures, I am always reminded of how perfectly he practices what he preaches. He is a living example of humility. I would like to share an instance: Once, Maharaja was chanting japa in a garden in Mayapur. A devotee approached him and asked, ""Maharaja, I have a friend who is very devoted. I, too, practice devotion, but how can we progress further?"" Maharaja replied, ""I want to become like this blade of grass."" Through this, Maharaja conveyed that without humility, one cannot progress in devotion.

Maharaja often emphasizes that when we travel to holy places and associate with pure devotees, we should listen to the pure narrations of the Lord, allowing ourselves to become purified. Upon returning home, we should inspire others by sharing those pure narrations and spreading Krishna's teachings as per the principle, "Yare dekha, tare kaha Krishna-upadesha" (Whoever you meet, speak to them about Krishna). This is Maharaja's desire for all of us.

Once, Maharaja was very ill and had a fever. During that time, our instructing spiritual master, Dinanath Prabhuji, had the opportunity to serve him. While being served, Maharaja said, ""When devotees commit offenses, their spiritual master suffers the consequences."" Hearing this statement deeply impacted me and made me realize how important it is to act thoughtfully at every step.

Maharaja always advises devotees to stay away from Vaisnava apaRadha (offenses against devotees). He is ever-smiling and kind, showering his special mercy upon all of us devotees.

On the occasion of Guru Maharaja's Vyasa-puja, I only wish to humbly pray for the opportunity to continue serving on this path of devotion with humility. I wish to always remain in the association of pure devotees and pray for Maharaja's blessings to help me avoid Vaisnava apaRadha and remain steadfast as a servant of the servant in this stream of devotion. Without your blessings, Radhapremi Dasi cannot survive. I deeply need your mercy.

Hare Krishna. Dandavat Pranama, Guru Maharaja.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga.

First of all, I wish to offer my sincere thanks to you at your lotus feet for always keeping us absorbed in Krishna katha and Gaur katha by year, taking us to dhams and teaching us the fine principles of the life of a devotee in relation to the Lord and devotees. Year after year, you have engrained in us so many devotional instructions to safeguard our Bhakti, to blossom our Prema, and to live happily in the association of devotees simply without making undue material demands. You have laid a royal path back to Godhead by the kind of lifestyle, behavior, culture, wisdom, and devotion that you have been teaching us. We have no words to repay for the powerful example you have set in this regard, both through your Sadachar and Siddhantic teachings and to create a systematic Community to sustain us from womb to tomb.

This year we launched Gauranga Shibir, a yearly twice Brahmacari sanga for different levels of sadhus in our ashram. Also, weekly, twice Priti vardhanam and organizing Bhakti Sastri and other courses to ensure that all sadhus in our ashram will understand the mood, spirit, and life of what it means to be a devotee. Taking inspiration from you and your lectures, we are making an effort to keep all sadhus happy in their services and to contribute to the Community and the larger world outside by their talents and example.

We have started an initiative called Sanjeevani to introduce new people to Krishna Consciousness and connect them to the Community and Counselor system eventually. Sanjeevani is blossoming powerfully with dozens of Preachers amongst Matajis and Prabhujis, and thus, new preaching ventures are on the rise every month. We beg your mercy to make it effective and Krishna Consciousness. so that we may be able to bring many good souls to Krishna's lotus feet.

Seeing your big vision for GEV to offer multifarious services to Vaisnavas worldwide, we also long to do some insignificant little service at our Velha farm, which Sri Sri Radha Damodar is presiding. HG Revatipati Prabhu has recently created facilities for Counselors and leaders to come with their groups, stay for the weekend, hold camps, take Prasada, and take advantage of the beautiful atmosphere at the Farm. Now practically every week end we get a group coming and we hope to serve more and more Vaisnavas with more and more facilities there.

It was your historical letter to me encouraging me to start youth preaching at Pune with eight specific instructions that blossomed youth preaching at Pune, bringing hundreds and thousands of youth devotees and eventually, like a flood, expanding to over a dozen temples in India. I am grateful to you for making me a humble instrument in your hands and making me dance for your pleasure. Now, HG Antardvip Prabhu has made very valuable youth preaching systems and methods available to the whole world through websites and YouTube channels. He and many other youth preaching leaders of India, like HG Sundar Gopal Prabhu, are organizing ISKCON India Youth Preachers Convention across the Country in all four DCs. Thus Indian youth preaching is becoming more and more organized and enlarged than ever before. I am taking part in all the DC youth events for leaders and mentors and contributing my lot as a member of the advisory board. In the USA and Canada, with your good instruction after my GBC College service allotment as GDO, I have been regularly visiting, and now, in Boston, Brooklyn, and Dallas, things have really blossomed well, and there are tens of boys who have become devotees and hundreds of youths thronging the temple. In Baltimore, ISV, Seattle, and LA also, preaching is slowly picking up. By your grace, I and other youth preachers taking active youth outreach in the West hope to make some positive influence in the next few years. We wish to see the US temples thronging with Indian and American youth devotees chanting and dancing, serving and preaching, stabilizing and expanding preaching, and bringing great pleasure to yourself, Srila Prabhupada, and Guru Parampara.

By your mercy, ISKCON Abids Hyderabad Temple has become a prominent youth preaching center in South India, daily attracting several hundreds of youths to the temple. Also, many VOICE centers have been started in different parts of Hyderabad, and it is picking up momentum very well by your mercy. We wish to invite you to grace us and nourish all of us with your merciful glance and instructions at Hyderabad. The Congregation has expanded more than before through Bhakti Kutirs set up in different parts of the City, and SB sets distribution every year crosses over 1000 sets! Daily Harinams in Hyderabad have inspired the Pune temple and they have also started the same at Pune!

One of my greatest joys is to have our Pune Kitchen team and Brahmacari team take an active part in cooking and serving Prasada under the guidance of HG Gauranga Prabhu in your yatra as well as in other prominent events in India. Since this service is dear to your heart, Pune devotees have taken it to their hearts. We pray that we continue to assist you in some insignificant way and earn you blessings to awaken the love of God in our lives.

Thank you very much, Maharaja, for all the great gifts that you have given us. We hope, someday, we will offer you at least one millionth of what you have done for us. Hare Krishna.

Our Most Dearest Guru Maharajai,
Kindly accept our humble obeisances at your Lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada. All Glories Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

It is with immense pleasure that we are offering this small offering at your lotus feet. Though this does not even touch the tip of the vast ocean of mercy you have showered on us, we are making a humble attempt to offer some drops.

Guru Maharaja, every action, every sentence you speak is a learning for us. Your vision is so vast and deep and filled with so much care and concern that it really leaves us spell bound. The recent changes which you have carried out in the altar, the deity rooms, the deity kitchen the Prasadam hall is so deep in every respect. You have showed us that the deity room adjacent to the mail alter is the bedroom of Their Lordships and how much beautification and neatness is required there. Earlier it was full of clothes hanging, plaster come off the ceiling and walls, but with your guidance it is now transformed into a wonderful room, with nice teak wood walls and signing polish. You also taught us the importance of the jewelry room of Their Lordships and by your personal example you taught us how to handle the room and the paraphernalia of the deities. You visited the deity kitchen and appreciated the services of the Matajis and praised the way the kitchen was kept. You got the entire kitchen Air-conditioned giving immense joy to all the Matajis cooks. So much concern you have for every devotee who renders even a small seva. Your profound teaching on the importance of the Prasadam hall and how it to be maintained was very deep. You said that the Prasadam hall should be as good as the temple hall and the devotees should have the same feeling as that felt in temple hall when they honor the Prasada in the hall. These are just a few instances which show your deep vision and there are many more. Not to forget the roof cladding for the Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Biharij's alter. The whole plane of the beautification of the GEV temple is magnificent.

The recent initiations you have given to some many fortunate souls is so touching. You have given shelter to many fortunate souls who are now rendering services with so much enthusiasm. Your visit to Belgaum and Nasik has their own wonderful stories and learnings. Your taking 10000 plus devotees to yatra is an extra-ordinary feat.

Guru Maharaja, you have given your everything for the pleasure of the devotees and for the Service of Srila Prabhupada. We are so fortunate that we have your guidance and shelter. But as conditioned we are we go back to our old bad habits and our lusty deeds. We forget that you have so much painstakingly protected us. We take you for granted. We take your teaching lightly. We feel proud of our small victories and sideline you. With all such short-coming we beg that you my kindly tolerate us and allow us your shelter eternally. We have no other hope than your shelter.

We pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji to protect you in every way and to give you good health and long life. Kindly keep showering your mercy and engage us in your service to Srila Prabhupada and his and your mission. We are grateful for all that you have done for us and all that you are doing. Kindly give us the strength and power to maintain our sacred vows and sadhna. Alone it is not possible for us.

Thanking you from the bottom of our hearts, we pray at your lotus feet to kindly engage in whatever way you feel we are worthy of doing service. We humbly place our heads at your feet and just aspire to serve you in the mood of servant of the servant of your servants. Always aspiring to be your loyal disciples and servant...we remain

Respected Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Today on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I offer my sincere obeisance in utmost gratitude, Joy and happiness for being initiated by your holiness.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

When I see your genuine humility I know for sure that it is pure and original humility of a pure devotee who truly loves Krisna. Because artificial humility can be shown for few days or few weeks or few months, but it cannot be demonstrated in all dealings for decades and decades together which I find in your Holiness.

I have heard from seniors like HG Anand Vrndavana Prabhu and others that you want your female disciples to take care of their children very diligently without any compromise on the name of bhakti.

I have received so much mercy in the form of Srila Prabhupada, your Holiness, my husband Vrajesh Kumar Das, Niraja, Vibhav and devotee association.

I feel Guru Maharaja this is all possible because of causeless mercy of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Sri Lord Ganesh whom I have been worshiping since my infancy as trained by my parents.

Indeed, I am eternally grateful to Lard Ganesh for giving you as my Spiritual Master

Hare Krishna dear Maharaja, Please accept my humble obeisances!

This year has been a wonderful time; I got your permission to visit Mount Kailash and Muktinath, and without your blessings, I would not have had the mercy of visiting Mahadev. It was a tough terrain; each step and breath towards the Kailash has humbled me and made me grateful for everything in life. I never understood the real meaning of the words “grateful and humility” when I was listening to your classes and instructions. Through your experiences. I felt what punya/austerities I might have done in my previous lives that I was able to get your mercy. Because of you, I’m trying to stand on this path, but Maharaja I’m still struggling in Sadhana, got a lot of krodha, pride, ego, laziness, and find many excuses in sevas, without you I will not be able to sustain, please bless me to get better in developing Vaisnava qualities and serve you, Srila Prabhupada and all Vaisnavas. Without you, I’m insignificantly insignificant.

I pray to Thakurji for your health and Wish you a Very Happy Birthday.

Hare Krishna Maharaja!
Please accept my most humble obeisances!

I have no capability to glorify you Maharaja but with your blessings I want to share something. You have always been merciful to me since my childhood, I first got your blessings when I was just 6 months old. Recently when you came to ISKCON East of Kailash for H.H Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja’s Vyaspuja ceremony, at that time when you gave Bhagavatam class in the auditorium, I presented a poster that has compilation of your quotes, You saw very carefully and smiled. Due to crowd, it was not possible to get your signature on the poster, but I was happy enough of getting your darshan from so close. But You were very merciful. After sometime when you were about to leave, we went near your car with a hope that there will be less crowd and you may shower your mercy on me and give your signature on the poster. But as the time came close of yours getting into the car, crowd increased and pushed me, my father, and my sister to back. But just before you were going to sit in the car, my father, a tall man, spoke from a distance "Maharaja can you please sign this Poster?". You looked at the poster, You being very mercifully leaned forward, took the poster and pen and signatured it. Thank You so much Maharaja!

Now I have this poster framed and I see it everyday and remember your mercy on me. Thank you so much Maharaja for your guidance and the yatra you organize every year, which benefit all of us. Though there is lot to say but I would end here and pray to Srimati Radha Rani for your good, healthy and long life.... Hare Krishna.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

I am deeply grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple in Chicago in 2022 and for allowing me the honor of serving you when you were in Houston in 2023. Your presence and guidance are invaluable to me, and I sincerely pray that you visit us more often. We cherish your association.

Thank you for gifting me with Bhakti and a spiritual family. You have given me far more than I could ever ask for and more than I deserve. Your teachings have brought stability and direction into my life, and I am eternally grateful for your guidance.

Through your lectures, books, and personal examples, you have shown me the true meaning of Bhakti and Love. The way you humbly carry out and follow Srila Prabhupada's mission is an inspiration to me, and it fills my heart with gratitude. I am forever indebted to you for all that you do. Thank you once again from the bottom of my heart.

Dear and Respected Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

Early this year, my mother left her body, leaving me feeling empty for some time. But when I read Srila Prabhupada writes in his letter to Hridayananda Prabhu, " When initiation is given, the Spiritual Master becomes the spiritual father and the Gayatri mantra becomes the spiritual mother and thus second birth takes place."– July 06, 1971; I felt solace. Thank you, Maharaja. I always think, will that day ever come in my life when I can feel more connected to you than my aai and papa, who gifted me this body? The answer comes to me: I must hear your classes regularly; I need your blessings, Maharaja, to be consistent in my Sadhana.

This year we could not come for the Kartika-yatra to Sri Dham Mayapur. We missed the yatra badly, but when I reflected and remembered the previous yatras, that I could attend, my heart was filled with joy and blissful memories. To name, Vrndavana yatra, 2008, the Goverdhan annakuta celebration right at Sri Giriraj near Modi ashram {cooking with devotees}; Mayapur 2009, when the yatra had been to Ekachakra Dham on Gopashtami, Sri Sri Radha Madhav altar was open till late and you were waiting till the last bus of devotees got the special darshan of Sri Sri Radha Madhav and Ashtasakhi – Gopa Vesh and caran darshan. Yatra also allows serving in whatever capacity one can; I missed serving in the association of devotees in the Dham under your guidance and shelter. Thank you Maharaja, for,giving so many sweet experiences in our spiritual life. Praying to Lord Narasimha Deva, to bless you with long and healthy life.

Please accept our humble obeisances.

We are extremely thankful to you for including us into your's and Srila Prabhupada's family.

Our Harinaam Diksha happened this September...Gratitude towards you Maharaja for untiringly giving Dikhsha to more than 2000 devotees. I am feeling extremely fortunate to be one of them.

We can learn Humility from your goodself Maharaja when you mentioned in your diksha class and I quote.....

" You all are giving me such a great blessings"

Maharaja your demeanor on the first day of yatra taught us great lessons, this is how Maharaja you walk your talk. I was wondering how will I be able to apply 1% of this quality

Our prayers to Sri Sri Gopinatha is to give you lots and lots of strength to illuminate the lives of thousands and thousands of devotees in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaja, I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to seek your shelter and guidance in my spiritual journey. My heart longs for a deeper connection with you, my spiritual master, by developing sincerity in my Sadhana and eagerness to serve your mission, which is dedicated to fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's vision.

I humbly acknowledge my lack of qualification and the shallowness of my faith and devotion to Sri Guru and Krishna. I beg for your causeless mercy to deepen my faith, devotion, and surrender, so I may wholeheartedly serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

To this end, I have made a schedule as an offering to you and Srila Prabhupada's mission, particularly as it is being guided by HG Radheshyam Prabhu in Boston and the USA. I have committed to:

12–13 hours of book distribution and 3 hours of Harinam Sankirtana weekly,

Thursdays dedicated to intense Sadhana: 4 hours of Srimad-Bhagavatam study, 2 hours of Lilamrita reading,

Regularly hearing your lectures and Srila Prabhupada's instructions to imbibe your teachings, Improving cleanliness—personal, in my surroundings, and in the temple environment.

I seek your blessings to maintain this schedule with determination and enthusiasm. On my own, I am weak, lacking in resolve and deeply affected by anarthas. However, with your mercy, I trust that my sincere attempts to hear and serve will purify my heart and make me an instrument in your mission.

I pray for intelligence and right attitudes to serve HG Radheshyam Prabhu and assist him in fulfilling your instructions. I beg for strength to avoid committing Vaisnava apaRadhas and for protection from Maya, which constantly pulls my corrupt and rascal mind away from the lotus feet of Hari, Guru, and Vaisnavas.

Guru Maharaja, I humbly plead for your mercy to:

Grant me spiritual strength,

Instill a deep taste for the Holy Name and Srimad-Bhagavatam,

Enable me to serve Vaisnavas wholeheartedly,

Purify my mind and fix it in loving service to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

On this occasion, I also pray for your good health, so you may continue to guide and inspire countless souls on the path of Krishna Consciousness.. I seek your blessings to surrender fully, offering my life in service that pleases your heart and brings satisfaction to you, Srila Prabhupada, and Lord Gauranga.

I'm understanding that this material world is really full of misieries after seeing the misieries faced by Bangladesh devotees and some people are ignorant of what is goal of life especially hindus...they are ignorant of real spiritual life. etc

I'm recollecting your words..." If a person does not have an ideal he's ready to die for, he has nothing really meaningful to live for".

By grace of the Krishna...some how by devotees of RadhaGopinatha and Radha Kunjabhihari we got this opportunity for Krishna bhakti....thank you GuruMaharaja... for giving such a wonderful devotees, temples and specially giving me Srila Prabhupada and Krishna...for then I can dedicate my life. (As making them as my ideals)

Please pray for me to practice this opportunity seriously.

Hare Krishna Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble, respectful & heartfelt obeisances at your holy lotus feet.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Every year, on the occasion of your auspicious appearance day, I try to reflect on your deep impact & ever growing influence in my own life, in the ISKCON devotee community as well as society at large. This contemplation leaves me awed & wonderstruck how by your sweet, gentle & loving Vaisnava dealings with your esteemed & beloved godbrothers and all other devotees, you are giving us a glimpse of Sri Goloka Vrndavana dham.

This year Kartika-yatra at Sri Mayapur dham is a testimony of how you are bringing all of us together in the holy presence of Srila Prabhupada & so many of his dear disciples through your Kartika dham yatras &

Thereby giving us a chance to witness the miracle of Sri Caitanya Mhaprabhu's gift of love of Sri Radha for Krishna duly bestowed upon us in Parampara by His Divine Grace Jagadguru Srila Prabhupada.

You said," Lord Caitanya gave us Srila Prabhupada and Srla Prabhupada gave us Lord Caitanya." Similarly Many years back at Sri Vrndavana dham, you had said,"Srila Prabhupada brought Vrndavana to the whole world and He brought whole world to Vrndavana." In my own humble understanding, I dare to say," Srila Prabhupada has given us our beloved Gurudeva Srila Radhanath swami Maharaja & despite all our shortcomings & heart infected and diseased with plethora of material desires and anarthas, on the strength of your holy grace, you will definitely deliver us at the divine lotus feet of Radha & Krishna in the eternal service of Srila Prabhupada."

Once HG Govinda Pr had asked you how you were so successful in anything and everything you do. You had replied that in all your interactions, you are genuinely concerned for the welfare of the person involved. This profound statement of yours has become a beacon light in my life and simply by trying to emulate it in my own humble & insignificant capacity, all my dealings with devotees and other people in general have become extremely satisfying & fulfilling. I truly feel I am being blessed to offer them an experience of Krishna's love by applying this principle of genuine concern for their welfare. I thank you very much for this sweet lesson.

As days, months & years are passing, I am feeling more & more limited & incapable of reaching the goal of purification for becoming a selfless servant of Krishna and His devotees. Therefore I beseech you to be merciful upon my wretched self to bestow a drop of faith and chisel me according to your wish for Krishna's service.

Om this holy day, I pray that you kindly accept me as an insignificant servant of the servant of all the Vaisnavas. I pray that by following your worthy example, I may get rid of my deep rooted tendency of criticizing & finding faults is others especially Vaisnavas. I pray that as you once told us I can happily struggle throughout my life for the pleasure of Krishna. I pray at your holy lotus feet that I can become a good Sainik, Sadhak, Sevak and Sahaayak in Lord Caitanya's army and truly please all the Vaisnavas, Guru & Krishna by your grace. My most humble, sincere & deepest gratitude is offered at your lotus feet.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Dandavat Pranamas.

As an aspiring disciple, I remain uncertain as to when, how, and if I shall formally receive shelter under your lotus feet. Whatever the outcome, I am already deeply indebted to you for the invaluable gift of bhakti that I have received. I was first introduced to Krishna Consciousness. during my college years, where your disciples compassionately guided, nurtured, and supported me, enduring my shortcomings with great patience. Even now, they continue to extend their support. It is said that the father is known through his sons, and through them, I have come to understand some of your divine qualities.

I am profoundly grateful for the annual Kartika-yatra, during which you tirelessly share your association, enriching the lives of so many devotees. The dedicated efforts of many to make this yatra possible are truly inspiring. I have the humble privilege of rendering service under some of your senior disciples, a contribution I am delighted to offer as my small part in Srila Prabhupada's mission. Additionally, the devotees at the Radha Gopinatha temple have been kindly assisting me in finding a suitable partner for entering the Grihastha Ashram.

I often wonder how I might properly reciprocate the abundance of your blessings in various forms. I can only pledge that I will devote my entire life to serving and contributing to this mission, ensuring that my engagement in devotional service remains unwavering.

With countless obeisances at your lotus feet,

I am deeply grateful to you for establishing the wonderful community of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. The divine atmosphere of this community, where love, devotion, and guidance flow so abundantly, is truly unique and unparalleled in the entire world.

The senior devotees you have nurtured are an exceptional source of inspiration and guidance. Their wisdom and selfless service light the path for every devotee, providing clarity and solutions to life's challenges. Their presence and support make this spiritual family a haven of hope and strength.

Through your vision and leadership, you have created a spiritual home where Krishna's mercy is experienced daily, and the bond of devotional service unites everyone. This gift is a priceless treasure, and I feel immensely fortunate to be part of such a divine mission.

I humbly offer my heartfelt gratitude to you for your tireless efforts, boundless compassion, and unwavering devotion. May I always remain a humble servant in this glorious community and continue to serve under your guidance.

Dear beloved Gurudeva
Please accept my prostrated humble obeisances

Recently when you had arrived at Jamshedpur/TATA Station, you enacted one unexpected pastime which will forever be remain etched in my heart. While you were coming out of the platform using escalator, you were about to fall because of being exhausted and tired, and I held you in my arms trying to protect you from collapsing. Eventually Keshav Chandra prabhu also joined and then we came out of station using lift. Such a rare opportunity to serve you in this way, is indeed your causeless mercy upon me. Though I am wretched insignificant soul, nonetheless you have mercifully accepted me and blessed me this time in a special way.

Thank you Gurudeva for everything you have given and you are giving for our spiritual development. Recently during Kartika-yatra I sat with Caitanya Bhagavatam (in Bengali) while listening to your class. I was amazed to see how you were repeating every single pastime exactly the way Vrndavana Das thakura has explained along with additional lessons for our spiritual progress.

Earnestly crying for your mercy to follow your instructions carefully in my life

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja Ji, please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Guru Maharaja Ji You preach & inspire us millions of times more through your exemplary aachar (behavior) than through your vaani. You are very compassionate even to fallen condition souls like me also. Guru Maharaja Ji Your divine qualities are like an ocean; thus, I am very insignificant to glorify you, but still I will try to mention at least one drop of this great oceanic divine quality for your pleasure & for my purification. The reality is that my capacity & intelligence are so limited that even I can't express a single drop of your oceanic divine qualities, but still I want to do humble endeavors because that is the only thing I can desire by your causeless mercy. Guru Maharaja Ji, you always instruct me to follow Trinad api sunichen... But due to my fallen condition, even I am not endeavoring sincerely & sufficiently, so I beg at your lotus feet, please bless me to at least sincerely endeavor to follow this instruction. Guru Maharaja Ji, you are giving every drop of your blood for making me & millions more Krishna conscious & bestowing your causeless mercy upon me & millions of more devotees. Your lectures are the only guiding lighthouse in the unfathomable, bottomless ocean of bhavsagar. Guru Maharaja Ji I beg at your lotus feet; please give me your causeless mercy to follow 4 regulative principles physically, mentally, and emotionally very rigidly. Also, I seek your blessings for chanting the holy name of the Lord very sincerely and seriously, without any ulterior motives, with humility, and attentively for the pleasure of Hari, Srilla Prabhupada ji, you, and the Vaisnavas.

Guru Maharaja ji, you take care of every small detail, which is a sign of great love for us. As you instruct, I am fully convinced that I have no single qualification to deserve your shelter, but I know you are unlimitedly merciful, so I seek your causeless mercy to seek your shelter & strength to endeavor sincerely to become your good disciple. Guru Maharaja ji, please bless me with that.

I don't have words to express my gratitude to you for your valuable contribution in every aspect of my life; I can never repay it even in millions of lifetimes. Guru Maharaja Ji, once again, please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. Always seeking your blessings & causeless merci in order to make your instructions my life & soul.

Please accept my Humble, Respectful and Grateful Obeisances at your Lotus Feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

I was fascinated by the fact that in your teens you took up activism for what you believed was the Truth.

Obviously you have brought a lot of Bhakti from previous lives because you started your journey of Seeking the Truth and Transforming yourself on the basis of realisations in your Teens. You gave up fruitive activity for Search for Truth at a Time when Americans were at the height of their glory and America was most powerful. You gave up fruitive activity before coming to Krishna Consciousness. and lived like a monk something that definitively could have been a step on your eternal journey Back Home coming from previous lives.

Your Transformation to become a Hare Krishna monk is fascinating, wonderful and inspiring.

What I most love about you is your emphasis on not only taking up the process of Krishna Consciousness. sincerely and seriously but also working on ourselves to Transform Lust into Love, Anger into Forgiveness, Envy into Appreciation, Greed into Serving Others.

This was what attracted me to your Lotus Feet and I am working on it.

Thank you for your Daily Quotes and messages as without Personal association your messages bring you into our lives Daily and I look forward to them.

Thank you for Everything and Praying to all the Dieties in Vrndavana that you remain Healthy and Guide millions more as there is never a more urgent need for Saints like you as at the present moment.

Respected and dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this day of your appearance, I remarkably remember your quality of doing devotional service with great seriousness. During this year's Mayapur Yatra also I noticed how seriously and with great gravity and respect you used to walk towards the stage offer your obeisances to Srila Prabhupada & request for blessings by sitting in front of him for few seconds and then used to begin your class.

Every day even at the age of 74 you were coming to Pandal at around 5:30 am and sitting on floor with back straight and right hand bent at the elbow and holding the bead bag towards the chest chanted japa with great absorption. You did all this just to teach us by personal example. To teach me how I should be doing these simple but very important aspects of bhakti.

I pray at your lotus feet that May I do these aspects of Bhakti in the same mood so that one day I may be able to fulfil your expectation.

Maharaja, I am most fortunate to have been accepted as your most insignificant servant & having received the shelter of your lotus feet this year on 20'th September at ISKCON Juhu. You are the confidential associate of Srila Prabhupada & carry the mood of never deviating from the parampara. Your holiness, teach through your lectures & personify in your behavior the six symptoms of surrender that Srila Bhaktivinode Thakur mentions in his bhajan.

Maharaja, HG Nimai Nitai Prabhuji, HG Sundar Caitanya Prabhuji, HG Vishnutattva Prabhuji, & HG Manoram Gauranga Prabhuji have spent a lot of drops of their blood, and it is only by their causeless mercy upon a rebellious soul like me that I could attain to receive the mercy of your lotus feet, & they are continuing to mercifully tolerate & guide me at every step.

I have not rendered any service for the pleasure of your holiness, but pray to get as soon as possible an opportunity to serve

& please you as you would like. Maharaja, please, please, please give your mercy so that we may be able to live according to your instructions for the rest of eternity & please you, Vaisnavas, & thereby please Krishna in some way & always be in the association of devotees & not act in any way that displeases or brings disgrace to the most merciful movement of Srila Prabhupada, Vaisnavas, & your holiness. On the occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja celebration, I reflect the years that have rolled on since I first saw you at the evening program at NSC grounds Worli in 1995. It was a Friday evening Satsanga program and I had travelled along with HG Radheshyam prabhu from my college to see and hear from you. I was stunned by your overall transcendental and magnetic personality and was immediately drawn to you despite the mountain of rust of anarthas in my heart. Since that day I am so very fortunate and happy to have got your association through your soul touching classes, your soul moving kirtanas and your own personal example of dealing with each and every one of us. Your immaculate Vaisnava dealing with all your god brothers and godsisters is a shining example for all of us to learn and follow suit. I was fortunate and blessed to have few memorable and close interactions with you during my early years in bhakti and those will be always a treasure in my heart. Time is passing quickly. We are still struggling to keep pace with the fast changing dynamics of life as we grow older each year. It is so amazing and inspiring to see your relentless efforts to give Krishna and Srila Prabhupada to all, engaging your disciples in newer challenging projects. Despite your advancing age you push yourself and are taking additional responsibilities especially giving shelter to disciples of your esteemed god brothers who have physically departed. I really enjoyed this years Mayapur dham yatra with over 10,000 of your disciples. It was after 26 years that my elderly parents also had attended our Yatra and were very impressed and happy. I thank you dear Maharaja for your kindness on me and my good wife arjuneya Gopi. We are trying our best to fulfill our role as counsellors and support our congregation. We pray for your blessings to continue doing this service. We also wanted to thank you for giving us the Sri Radha Govind Dev mandir in thane Piramal complex. We had recently shifted with my parents full time to thane in December 2023 from Worli and are very happy to serve them.

Praying for your good health.

"Gurudeva! By a drop of your mercy, make this servant of yours humbler than a blade of grass."

I still remember the day when you very kindly accepted this fool as your disciple, ignoring all my shortcomings and weaknesses. While giving me initiation, you said, "I am going to give you a very special name of Krishna." And then you asked me if I knew the beautiful pastime of Krishna as Ranacora, and to which I said, "Yes Maharaja" and you smiled very joyfully at me and briefly narrated the lila. I can never forget that small and only conversation I had with you and your beautiful smile. And I will always be grateful to you for it.

Maharaja Your love and compassion for all living beings is unparalleled. You are humility personified. You really walk the talk; you inspire others by your own example. It is impossible to describe your ocean-like qualities even with thousands of mouths. And still you are untouched by all these.

Maharaja, it is my greatest fortune to somehow get a tiny space under your shelter by the grace of my shiksha gurus, counselors who put me under your lotus feet. I have been an unworthy disciple so far. I have not tried to repay what has been received from you. I humbly pray at your lotus feet to shower some mercy upon this unqualified soul so that I may be able to follow your instructions in my life, may get a drop of your unlimited qualities and perfect this life and may become an instrument like a tiny insect to carry your instructions and serve in the mood of a servant of a servant, of a servant, of your servants in the mission of Srila Prabhupada!!

On this very special day of your 74th Vyaspuja, I pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai, Sri Gopalji and Srila Prabhupada to protect you grant you a long and healthy life ahead so that you keep on inspiring hundreds and thousands of people in this material world and attract them towards Sri Krishna!!

All glories to my beloved GuruMaharaja and Lord Gauranga!

On this 74th Vyasa-puja day, I wanted to convey the following:

My beloved GuruMaharaja, you have showered the causeless mercy upon me and my family by giving us the shelter in your family of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada. I am ever indebted...

You have always taught us to be sincere and serious, have no ulterior motive, and live life with full integrity. I seek your blessings so that I can make the best endeavors to fulfill your desire for us and for Srila Prabhupada's mission...

All my prayers are at the lotus feet of Lord Nityananda and Lord Gauranga for your best health and enthusiasm and inspiring unlimited living beings for the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna, dear Maharaja,
Please offer my most humble and respectful obeisance unto your lotus feet.

Thank you so much for everything you have bestowed upon me and my family. You are the only shelter for us, and we are truly aspiring to follow your instructions. This Kartika-yatra in Mayapur has been one of the best and most memorable yatras of all the yatras we have attended. I could hear katha nicely this time and understood that I can only see the Dham through my ears. Unfortunately, the sound system did not support us on the first day, and everyone was watching you to see how you would respond. You remained calm and silent; however, we know in our hearts that you always want to give us as much as we can digest. It was so nourishing and relishing to hear the wonderful pastimes and lessons from Mahaprakash lila, Jagai-Madai pastimes, and HDG Srila Prabhupada's offerings, etc. My appreciation for all the yatras, devotees increased significantly when I heard from you about the sacrifices and services done by different departments on the last day.

We were in Kolkata, and unfortunately, I could not get your darshan as every time I left Ultadanga, Srila Prabhupada Birth Place, or Radha Govinda Temple, you arrived there. I felt very morose that I could not get your darshan, convincing myself that I must follow your instructions and that I can always be in your association through vani.

After the yatra, our three families have resolved to complete our Sadhana in the morning only, with chanting to be completed by 8 AM every day, along with a minimum of 30 minutes of reading and hearing each day. We sincerely seek your blessings to follow our Sadhana sincerely and strictly. I often feel useless and unworthy for not being able to contribute much to serving Srila Prabhupada's mission. I beg you for mercy and service opportunities. we are eternally indebted to you for showering your causeless mercy upon us and accepting us. We love you so much, Maharaja; you are our father, guide, and everything. Please forgive us for any offense commited.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances. All glory to you and our glorious, merciful Parampara who have showered their causeless mercy on undeserving insignificant jivas like us.

On this most auspicious day of your 74th Vyasa-puja, it is our great fortune that we are getting this opportunity to write an offering for your pleasure.

Firstly, we are getting inspired to write that today we had a phone conversation with a devotee who mentioned that on a flight recently, he came across a person who is not connected to ISKCON but had read Journey Home. He was so enthusiastic that he was inquiring whether this devotee knew you. He was very impressed with your autobiography, and it is a matter of time before he connects with ISKCON as he has got a very favorable impression. We have learned from you, Guru Maharaja, that all newcomers are guests of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and should be treated accordingly. With Journey Home, your mercy has been spreading far and wide on this planet and we are getting more and more enthusiastic about it. You have been teaching with your life as stated in Srimad Bhagavad Gita by Lord Sri Krishna – yad acarati Shrestha, tad evetaro jonah.

Guru Maharaja, though we don't get physical proximity to you we realize that it is not necessary as you have given everything in your lectures. The more we hear about your year-wise lecture series since the early 1990s, the more realization we get of how much service and effort have been made to you, and it is now our responsibility to transform this gyan into vigyana and keep changing our life accordingly.

The question by Arjuna to Lord Krishna in Srimad Bhagavad Gita about this Pragya ka bhasha, samadhi stay Kesava. In the following verses after this, Lord Sri Krishna explains those qualities. Guru Maharaja, we see you are the personification of all those qualities. The only way we realize that we can please you is by taking anusharan of your teachings by your life and words.

We are preparing our consciousness for the upcoming Kartika-yatra by attending in person at Sri Dham Mayapur and by hearing about staying here in Kanhaiyadesh. We get this realization after attending yatras since the 2013 Vrndavanaa Yatra that this yatra will transform our lives more than ever before. The reason is that we are trying to put more endeavors to please you, though these are very insignificant endeavors. The main purpose of yatra, we understand from you, that we must serve there (importantly, more shravana and kirtana and any other menial services available without disturbing other devotees), develop more humility, understand our insignificance, and beg for mercy in the holy dham. We will be very careful not to commit any dharma offenses. Today, we heard your lecture on this topic, realizing that you have given us the treasure of a lifetime of thousands of lectures.

We are trying to understand your mood of surrender to Srila Prabhupada. This is reflected in your life and teachings. Also, your loving relationships with your godbrothers. Guru Maharaja, we desire that we don't disappoint you and put our best efforts to imbibe those qualities.

Lastly, Guru Maharaja, there are no words, deeds, and services, or even thinking about paying back the favor and debt of one's guru is not possible as per revealed scriptures. Our endeavor for the rest of our lives will be to walk on the path shown by you with full commitment and surrender and never do anything that brings disrepute to yourself or our society ISKCON.

My dear King Rahugana, unless one has the opportunity to smear his entire body with the dust of the lotus feet of great devotees, one cannot realize the Absolute Truth. One cannot realize the Absolute Truth simply by observing celibacy [brahmacarya], strictly following the rules and regulations of householder life, leaving home as a vanaprastha, accepting sannyasa, or undergoing severe penances in winter by keeping oneself submerged in water or surrounding oneself in summer by fire and the scorching heat of the sun. There are many other processes to understand the Absolute Truth, but the Absolute Truth is only revealed to one who has attained the mercy of a great devotee.

Vaisnavas are like desire trees and are especially very compassionate on their appearance day. I humbly request you Maharaja to please bless me so I be a very humble servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant of the servant like how King Kulasekhara prays and may Krishna and Guru be pleased with me and give me a place at their lotus feet.

All glories to you Gurudeva.

Thank you very much my beloved Gurudeva for accepting this insignificant soul under the shelter of your divine lotus feet in spite of my shortcomings and conditionings. Thank you very much Gurudeva for enlightening and empowering my life with your beautiful very precious instructions everyday protecting us through your very precious Vani association.

Your Vani association is our living force in our journey of life.

I am trying to be meditating on some of your very precious and inspiring divine instructions as follows :-

”The auspiciousness of any situation is how it brings us closer to Krishna.”

”Like gratitude, humility gives us access to the grace required to overcome obstacles especially the most difficult one the ego.”

”Wisdom is to transform curses into blessings challenges into opportunities it is just a matter of how we interpret the situations.”

”Every moment is perfect and scared and a divine power has engineered it in some imperceptible way and woven it into our intricate tapestry of life for our spiritual progress.”

”A devotee with every breath should be remembring Krishna with gratitude.”

”Unless we understand the value of Prema bhakti love of God, it may seems that Krishna Consciousness. is difficult but if we can just appreciate the value of ecstatic love for Krishna then what ever we have to go through in this life is actually very simple. it’s a very small price it’s not so difficult.”

”The true value of a human life lies not in the number of years one lives but in the quality of one’s consciousness and contribution.”

”If we have that strong desire then Krishna miraculously removes obstacles and gives us the power to overcome them.”

”Yogyata vichare kichu nahi payi Tomar koruna saar....”

”Mukam karoti vachalam
Pangum langhayte girim
Yad kripa tamaham vande
Sri Gurum deentarinam.”

I have no power to overcome my shortcomings and conditionings by my own.

But I have faith in your causeless mercy and compassionate concerns for us all your children.

Only by the power of your blessings this insignificant soul can get the strength and determination to follow your divine instructions and serve in Srila Prabhupada’s mission for your pleasure my most merciful and compassionate Gurudeva.....

Hare Krishna Gurudeva Please Accept my humble obeisances.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious festival of Gratitude, I am grateful to you and each one of your servants for kindly giving me this opportunity to offer my gratitude and prayers to you.

It was 10th November 2019 on the occasion of Govardhan Puja I first saw you at the goshala in GEV You performed Go puja and cast your benevolent gaze upon everyone. Due to my restlessness, I couldn't see you properly then. I prayed for another opportunity to see you.

Then you came to narrate Katha at Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Bihari Ji's temple, I finally got to hear you live. Later, during Giriraj Ji's Maha Aarti at Sri Radha Kund, when you cast your compassionate gaze upon me, it felt like only you and I existed. Yes through my eyes you were seeing me in my real form i,e spirit soul part and parcel of your Sri Krishna. I'm grateful for this unimaginable blessing.

On February 22, 2024, when you came to Palghar for Sri Sri Radha Gokul Bihari's Prana Pratishtha, I yearned to see you up close, but it didn't happen until the end. As you were leaving for GEV your glance and the raising of your lotus hand in blessing, saying 'Hare Krishna,' reassured me that you knew my heart.

In one of your video lectures, you said, "We've created this Govardhan Eco Village for you; please come here and consider it one of your spiritual Home." Your words make me feel that Govardhan Eco Village is indeed my refuge and HOME forever.

Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Bihari are my Isht Deva and revered deities, and I never imagined having such access to them. Thank you for giving me all attractive deities of Sri Radha Vrindabanbehariji. It's Srila Prabhupada's boundless grace

Although Sri Sri Radha Govind, Gopinatha, Madan Mohan, and Srinathji's deities reside far away in Rajasthan, your love and devotion make them easily accessible to us very close here in Mumbai. You brought Sri Gokul Bihari Ji, an embodiment of Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Bihari, to Palghar. Thank you for giving us The journey Home.

Whenever doubts or uncertainties arise, your words and quotes guide me effortlessly out of the darkness.

Undoubtedly, you love me deeply, and I'm unworthy. I pray at your lotus feet, Gurudeva, please grant me the mercy that may I embrace this matchless gift of Krishna Consciousness. and remain grateful at your and Srila Prabhupada's lotus feet.

Please Bestow upon me a fraction of the love you have for Srila Prabhupada.

Please forgive me if anything in this offering feels unpleasant to you, but as you say the Lord feels happy when we try to offer our prayers in broken words just like parents feel happy when their small child tries to speak in his/her broken words. I feel these broken words may please you.

I pray for sincerity and enthusiasm in my spiritual life.

Thank you for your infinite Love and kindness."

Thank you for accepting me

My humble obeisances at the lotus feet of Guru Maharaja. I feel unqualified to glorify you, Maharaja, but for my purification, I am going to do this seva.

You are one of the most sincere and confidential servants of Srila A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. You are carrying the message of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, coming down through the sampradaya. Your Vaisnava qualities are inspiring thousands of people to accept Srila Prabhupada's mission, which is the mission of Caitanya Mahaprabhu—to chant the holy names of Krishna and glorify His personality across the world. You are the personification of humility, and you are teaching us how to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the mood of being the servant of the servants.

The counseling system introduced by you at the temple of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha is exemplary. This system teaches us to serve in the mission with the mood of the servant of the servants.

You have created the congregation of the Radha Gopinatha temple, which has become a role model for ISKCON temples worldwide. Many wonderful devotees like Gaurang Prabhu, Radheshyam Prabhu, and countless others have been inspired by you. Now, they are inspiring thousands of people to accept the process of chanting the holy names of Krishna.

I am a fallen conditioned soul of Kali-yuga, and the devotees are like patit-pavan, giving me shelter. Aspiring to be your eternal servant, I believe that one day I will be able to rise above my anarthas and engage in pure devotional service.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my respectful obeisances at your lotus feet.
On this most auspicious occasion of your 74th Appearance Day, I humbly offer this Vyasa-puja offering at your lotus feet for your pleasure and my purification.

Srila Gurudeva, I am deeply grateful for your beautiful classes and for your exalted disciples who have saved my life by introducing me to Krishna Consciousness.. I am especially thankful for the guidance you provide through your lectures. Your vani is my only shelter and hope. Whenever I find myself in difficulty, I listen to your lectures, and all my questions are answered through your words.

Recently, I had the fortune of attending this year's Kartika-yatra, where I witnessed a small drop of your oceanic love through the following:

Your sweet and intimate relationship with all your Godbrothers and Godsisters, demonstrating how faithfully you follow Srila Prabhupada's teachings. As Srila Prabhupada says, we show our love for him by cooperating with one another.

The intense, heartfelt offering you made on Srila Prabhupada's Disappearance Day while singing "Je Anilo Prem Dhan" for Srila Prabhupada.

In this offering, you remembered not only Srila Prabhupada but also your Godbrothers, including those who have returned to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. This shows your deep love for Srila Prabhupada and your Godbrothers and Godsisters.

Srila Gurudeva, you are the personified form of all Vaisnava sadachar, especially in humility. You have immense love for the Holy Name and for all devotees.

I was listening to one of your lectures where you recalled your first meeting with Srila Prabhupada in Bombay during a pandal program. You were standing at a distance when Srila Prabhupada called you over, sending a devotee to bring you near him. After the lecture, as Srila Prabhupada walked by, you wanted to touch his lotus feet, but some devotees tried to prevent you. Yet, Srila Prabhupada allowed you to touch his feet, which shows his deep love for you and your eternal relationship with him.

In New Vrndavana, after Srila Prabhupada's long-awaited arrival, you used to cook sandesh for him, and he remarked, "This is the best sandesh I have ever tasted in my entire life." This shows not only your expertise in cooking but also your dedication, as you were performing 21-hour services there, embodying the best attitude of service.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for teaching me by your example and lectures. You have continuously extended yourself and made so many sacrifices to give us Krishna Consciousness..

However, I am still struggling with my anarthas and find it difficult to follow your teachings properly. Please be merciful upon me and bless me so that I can develop love for you, for Srila Prabhupada, and for the Lord, as you have for them. Kindly give me the strength and intelligence to follow the verse "trinad api sunichena" properly, and may I chant the holy name attentively.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada

Wishing you a happy 74th appearance day, dear Guru Maharaja. We pray to their Lordships, Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, to shower their choicest blessings, good health, and long life.

We are very grateful for your love and care for all of us, in the form of many lectures, yatras, communities, councellor system, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Govardhan Eco Village, Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohan Temple, Gopal Garden School and many more. You have taken care of each and everything that we needed for our spiritual and material well-being. Thank you so much, Gurudeva, for providing all of these.

Your teachings in the form of lectures are a guiding light for many of us. We are trying our best to hear them regularly, trying to understand your mood, and trying our best to implement them in our lives. We need your blessings, Gurudeva, for this insignificant endeavor. Also, a few of us are coming together and reading your books to understand your mood and your love for Srila Prabhupada. We have completed three books, and we are now reading the fourth book. All this is happening by your causeless mercy only. We beg you to continue showering your mercy upon us always Gurudeva.

With the help of many devotees around the world, we are trying to translate your classes into regional languages. Many devotees want to hear them, and by your mercy, we are just happy to be insignificant instruments to share your teachings in the regional languages of Guru Maharaja. Also with the help of many devotees, we are trying to broadcast the live translation of your talks. Thank you so much, Guru Maharaja, for allowing us to serve all the devotees. Without your mercy, all this is not possible.

We beg your lotus feet to shower your mercy so that we may understand your mood and try to implement the same in our lives and perfect them. We are very conditioned, Gurudev; we are with so many anarthas, and we are struggling to come out of them. Our past conditionings and insincerity towards Krishna Consciousness. are dragging us again and again back to suffering life. We beg your mercy to come out of these. Without your blessings, it is not possible.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance unto your lotus feet.

Thank you for whatever you are doing for us, especially this Kartika-yatra. Sitting at your lotus feet & receiving Nectar of Krishna Katha, which is the curing medicine for me in this Bhava Sagar.

I am very much thankful for your Vani sanga despite of your having health problems.

Please bless me Guru Maharaja to continue fighting with Maya & trying to serve you & your instructions.

Hare Krishna, Maharaja Ji,
Dandawat Pranaam.

I humbly pray to the divine Lordships of Sri Sri Radha Madhav Ji and Srila Prabhupada to bestow you excellent health and an abundance of divine wisdom, so that you may continue to serve with pure devotion and guide mankind to the path of bhakti.

I offer sincere prayers at your lotus feet, praying for your kind mercy, to be guided by your wonderful disciples and their instructions. I kindly request you to bless me to serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada and strive to improve in my life through pure devotional service.

This is an immense opportunity for me to make this humble offering for your Vyasa-puja.

Maharaja Ji, your darshan, and your association through your vani and disciples have been a constant and eternal source of shelter in my life. Your words have been source of inspiration in my daily life during the tough phase of life to maintain composure and be righteous. The compassion that you hold in your heart is the true testament to the extreme mercy that Sri Sri Radha Madhavji has for me. I once again pray to the Lordships that he be merciful to every human being and bestow his mercy upon everyone through you.

Glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja!

Srila Prabhupada is extremely compassionate. He has shown causeless mercy to all of humanity and every living being. He created a system through which the entire world can live joyfully and chant the holy names. Extreme renunciation and following in the footsteps of the previous acaryas are key aspects of Srila Prabhupada's life.

Dear Maharaja, you too are very compassionate. You are distributing Srila Prabhupada's mercy and showering it upon fallen souls like us. Even though we, simple rural Marathi-speaking people, often cannot fully understand your English lectures, your words captivate us and bestow grace upon us.

The Hare Krishna movement, established by Srila Rupa Goswami, fulfills the desire of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu. Similarly, you are fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's mission.

May you always have the support and blessings of the spiritual masters and acaryas. May your health remain strong. This is my humble prayer at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Govinda."

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

We feel utterly insignificant and unqualified to glorify you. Your divine qualities are as vast as the ocean. Your lectures, actions, and exemplary behavior serve as guiding beacons for all of us. Though we have never had the fortune of meeting you personally, we constantly feel spiritually nourished through your lectures, attending yatras, and the association of your disciples.

Your lectures, compassionate smile, and merciful glance inspire us to remain enthusiastic in devotional service. Our children, Ramaya and Raghav, were overjoyed when you kindly accepted their handmade drawings—it filled their hearts with delight.

My wife, Rani, visited Mayapur for the first time and participated in the Kartika-yatra, 2024, amidst the vast congregation of devotees. She felt immensely blessed to hear your lectures, join your kirtanas, and witness your calmness even amidst challenges. Your loving dealings with godbrothers, godsisters, and devotees deeply touched her heart.

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, we humbly thank you, Guru Maharaja, for accepting us and blessing us with the priceless gift of Krishna Consciousness.. I pray at your lotus feet for the intelligence and determination to sincerely follow your instructions and serve Krishna according to your wishes, thus making my human life successful.

On this sacred day, I humbly beg for your shelter and blessings. Please guide me to become serious and sincere in my Krishna conscious life. Kindly bestow upon me the strength to give up sense gratification, overcome all anarthas, and cultivate a deep attachment to chanting the holy names of Krishna, studying Srila Prabhupada's books, and serving the devotees.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Guru and Gauranga. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Thank you so much, Gurudeva, for being in my life and instructing us through your lectures on how to lead a Krishna-conscious life. However, I feel deeply ashamed that I have not been able to follow your instructions due to my false ego. It feels as though I knowingly make the same mistakes again and again. Yet, you are so merciful that you have accepted me as your disciple despite my many faults. I know your blessings are always with me, but I feel I have not yet made myself qualified to fully receive them.

On this auspicious day, I humbly beg you to continue showering your mercy upon me so that one day I may definitely follow all your instructions. I have no other shelter but you, Gurudeva. Please forgive me for all my offenses and shortcomings.

You have been selflessly dedicating yourself to guiding and uplifting us despite so many difficulties, including the challenges of advancing age. I pray that Lord Krishna always keeps you in good health. I remain ever grateful to you for everything you have done and continue to do for all of us.

My beloved, Dearest, and most respected Srila Guru Maharaja, please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet; all glory to Srila Prabhupada, all glory to

Sri Guru and Gaurang. Maharaja, we have waited for the entire year for this most auspicious day of your appearance when we get the opportunity to express our deepest gratitude to you. It is 3 decades now that our entire family has been profusely blessed by your causeless mercy despite all our flaws. Thank u so much, Maharaja. I was reading today the story of Shyamantak well from Krishna book, and I saw that the extreme attachment to this well by King Satrajit led to so many inauspicious events in his life like the death of his brother Prasena, and he was killed as well, and thus he lost the well as well as his own life. Maharaja, I see that in our life, we are also attached to so wide varieties of jewels in the form of wealth, name, fame, and power..... which Ultimately is going to kill our real self.... the soul.. so the remedy is slowly but surely we need to get detached from all these jewels. This has become easy and simple and hopeful because of your presence in our lives..so today I want to express my deepest heartfelt gratitude to u for giving us so many wonderful Shyamantak jewels to get attached to namely, wonderful Jewell of Vaisnavas association, wonderful Jewell of yantras, Jewell of deity worship, wonderful Jewell of opportunity to serve so many Vaisnavas and especially all Srila Prabhupada disciples in Bhaktivedant hospital, Jewell of the holy name.....and the list can go on.....and the most valuable and precious jewell we all have got is the cause less mercy and unlimited blessings from your divineself. Today, I pray at your divine lotus feet that I may tightly hold on to this precious jewel of your lotus feet close to my heart till the last breadth of my life. Forever wants to be the servant of Yr servants....your daughter Rasmanjari devi dasi

We are greatful to you for your visit to Nashik. Thank you for allowing us to serve you. Your visit to Nashik was most awaited for devotees. It reminded one of the Marathi abhang अजी सोनयिाचा दनिु वर्षे अमृताचा धनी means “Today is a golden day and nector is showered upon me” Saint writes further बरवा संत समागमू प्रकटला आत्मा रामू means “Because of the association of the devotees Lord Hari manifested Himself in my Heart “... “ for me... because of the senior devotees request you came to Nashik and gave your devine association”. Though Vani sang is most important I needed Vapu also. Despite of your busy schedule you conducted meeting with all of us. It was a blissful day. We are greatful to you for those surcharged days.

Radhanath Swami Maharaja ki Jai!
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Guru Maharaja, I am insignificant and unqualified to glorify you, but my heart feels immense joy in attempting to do so. Your compassion and wisdom have profoundly impacted my life, and even writing these few words feels like a blessing.

When I was in Giri Govardhan VOICE (GGD VOICE), I watched a small video where you gave the example of a fish deep in the water being safe from predators, while a fish near the surface was easily caught by a bird. You explained that just as the fish is safe deep in the water, we too must dive deeply into our sadhana-bhakti to survive and thrive in Krishna Consciousness.. This analogy touched my heart deeply and continues to inspire me to take my spiritual practice seriously.

Another example that left a lasting impression on me was the story of the redwood trees. You explained how these mighty trees withstand powerful storms by interlocking their roots, supporting one another. Similarly, you taught us to hold on to the hands of devotees and find strength in their association to sustain and progress in our internal and external bhakti. Guru Maharaja, your life is a true embodiment of humility, as exemplified by the verse:

”trnad api sunicena taror api sahisnuna amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harih.”

You are a living example of this principle, constantly demonstrating humility, tolerance, and respect for all. I pray at your lotus feet to shower your mercy upon me and my family, so we may serve you and follow your teachings sincerely.

I was wondering what I would be doing if I was not in ISKCON. At the age of 85 I would be watching television or gossiping with my neighbours and friends. Nagging at my dear & near ones.

But your Vapu & Vani thought me to keep absorbed in Krishna Consciousness. by chanting, reading and hearing. Even your disciples well trained by you are following in your footsteps. I pray on this day to Their Lordships that you Gurudeva and your disciples live a long life with good health. Thus they can keep inspiring & encouraging all of them.

Hare Krishna GuruMaharaja, Dandavat Pranama, PAMHO; I don’t know whether these words will reach you or not as I am an infinitesimal practitioner of Bhakti Yoga(Connected with Sri Gokul Dham, Kolkata headed by your disciple HG Daujikripa Das) from Rampurhat, Near Ekachakra Dham. From childhood, I have always searched for unchanging reality, the supreme controller, and Dharma, the perfect way of living. It was my fortune that my maternal side was from a cultural background of Vaisnavaism, & From an early age I knew Krishna as Paramatma but all these learnings became fruitful as my life veered towards the eternal truth after knowing about HDG Srila Prabhupada as my family condition was not so good due to my grandfather’s demise & many more. In the mid of 2020, I started chanting the Mahamantra & from January 2021 I have tried to surrender this life unto the Lotus Feet of Guru & Gauranga. Still, among these, I have come to know about you from my first counselor, HG Harsha Priya Das, Disciple of HH Bhakti Charu Swami as he told me about your journey from the book- The Journey Home. From that time I have struggled each & every moment with the hope of living a life of righteousness by accepting you as my spiritual master from the core of my heart & by realizing the lines -

There has not been, there will not be, such benefactors of the highest merit as [Caitanya] Mahaprabhu and His devotees have been. The offer of other benefits is only a deception; it is rather a great harm, whereas the benefit done by Him and His followers is the truest and greatest eternal benefit. This benefit is not for one particular country, causing mischief to another; but it benefits the whole universe.

– Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati

I am currently in my last year of College & I don’t have the facility to hear from you directly, Though I am chanting 16 rounds & following all the regulative principles.

Ekachakra Dham is very near to my town & It is the nearest ISKCON temple. Nitai is like our family member here. But Whatever I do Maharaja, I remember you at every step of my life. My parents are school teachers but they are both following your words. Each & every moment I try to connect with your community but I have no good facilities here & that's why Nitai has listened to my prayers & It is also your mercy that you have come to Mayapur to bestow the fallen souls like me. I want nothing Maharaja, As I don't deserve anything auspicious for me except your prayer for me in the path of Bhagavat-Dharma. Although my family has supported me on this path, I still struggle in this material world.

I also participated in the Kartika-yatra 2024 at Sri Mayapur Dham, and I had many opportunities to see you up close. On two occasions, I offered you The Journey Home for your signature, Maharaja, but you were tired, so you kindly blessed the book instead.

Whatever I do, both in my spiritual and material life, you will always remain my GuruMaharaja throughout my lifetime. On this 74th Vyasa-puja, I humbly pray to Nityananda Prabhu for your long and healthy spiritual life, and your continued blessings upon me.

Thank you, GuruMaharaja for coming into my life. I truly love you and eagerly await your approval to accept me as your aspiring servant.

Hare Krishna,
Please accept my respectful obeisances, Guru Maharaja.

Who am I to attempt to describe the unlimited transcendental qualities of a maha-bhagavat, a pure devotee of the Lord? It is like a sparrow trying to empty the vast ocean—insignificant and impossible. Yet, for my own purification, I humbly attempt to say a few words.

I was drowning in the ocean of material existence, but it is by your causeless mercy, Gurudeva, that I have been able to take up the path of Bhakti to Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar.

Your incredible journey to your eternal home, Vrndavana, has left a deep and lasting impact on my heart. The story of your magical journey and your ultimate meeting with Srila Prabhupada gave me unshakable faith in him and inspired me to dedicate myself to his mission of Krishna Consciousness..

It is purely your compassion, Gurudeva, that has allowed me to perform Bhakti. I am eternally grateful for your heart-melting Krishna Katha and Gaura Katha, which have become the lifeline of my spiritual life. Whenever I feel low or discouraged, your divine discourses lift me and renew my strength.

Your mood of always being the servant of Srila Prabhupada, and your practical worship of your godbrothers and godsisters, fills my heart with awe and reverence. It drowns me in the ecstasy of witnessing real love in action.

Guru Maharaja, you once said that your Deities are your chanting beads. This profound statement instills in me faith and inspires me to chant the holy names sincerely, trusting that by following the process laid out by our acaryas, which you so transparently exemplify, success is inevitable.

I am also immensely grateful for the extraordinary disciples you have nurtured, such as His Grace Radheshyam Prabhu and His Grace Vraja Krishna Prabhu. Through their guidance and care, we are able to grow in Bhakti and remain connected to your teachings.

Thank you so much, Maharaja, for everything you have given us. If I can render even the smallest service to your lotus feet, it would be the greatest success of my life.

An offering for Guru Maharaja,
Getting shelter of Guru,
Is very sacred occassion.
It purifies the soul,
And brings spiritual retention.
Although not worthy,
Still I desire the mercy.
The mercy which is causeless, and not earthly.
Transmigrating through so many bodies,
I got this human form.
After so many human bodies,
I got the sadhaka form.
After so many such bodies,
I got the sanga of bhakta.
Oh it's so rare to get the shelter
In the body which is so aasakta.
Although not deserving,
But the desire is so strong.
Although so unworthy,
But the mercy flows on and on.
When will I get the mercy?
I am so fallen.
The most unworthy,
Is begging for your darshan.
I can't run on this path,
Sometimes I kept walking.
There was a time when I even stopped,
But now I have started crawling.
Guru knows everything,
In and outside me.
He knows the past and future,
and all that binds me.
Those Lotus feet,
When will I get their darshana?
Oh I am the most fallen in this whole creation.
I beg for the mercy,
That helps me be sincere.
I beg for the mercy,
To be very humble.
Surrounded by dark clouds,
The soul was so frightened.
But that colour is of Krishna,
You told me and enlightened.
You taught me to see positive,
In all the situations.
You taught me to see good,
In all the creation.
I, the most fallen,
Is begging for your shelter.
I, the most fallen,
The most unworthy in the whole creation.

Dear Most Guru Maharaja,
HARE Krishna
Please accept my millions of humble obeisances unto your lotus feet, Maharaja.

Maharaja, one of your many great qualities is your merciful and compassionate nature, which is the foremost quality of a real Sadhu. I would like to mention a few of the incidents that clearly bring out this most wonderful quality of you.

Once, one Mataji desperately wanted to cook and serve you lunch Prasadam, and she was given a date accordingly. She was very happy and waited for that day and prepared many nice preparations and brought them to the temple with great enthusiasm. At the time, you were not well and not at all in a position to eat anything. Even doctors advised not to eat. When the brahmacaris in charge told Mataji that Maharaja is not well and cannot eat, her heart broke, and she started crying and repeatedly insisting to allow her to serve you. Hearing her perseverance and not wanting to disappoint her, Maharaja, you came down and honored everything Mataji prepared, despite your sickness, and you became even more sick afterwards. This is the highest example of showing compassion and being merciful. Keeping aside all your inconveniences, you pleased Mataji out of sheer compassion.

Another incident I remember of your merciful nature is when you met HG Kirtida Mataji during her last stage of leaving her body. Despite being sick, you came to Ghatkopar Ratha Yatra on that day, and after giving class there, you went to the home of Hg Kirtida Mataji at Chembur to meet her. Your health condition was such that you were not supposed to speak to her for more than 10 minutes, but you spent more than an hour glorifying her and encouraging her to remember and take shelter of Krishna. Later when you came back to your car, you had to fall flat on the back seat due to your unwell condition. How merciful you are, Maharaja. Your love for your disciples has no bounds, and we are truly highly fortunate to have you in our life.

The third incident is the recent initiations of all the aspiring devotees of Kolhapur, Belgaum, Goa, Mumbai, Nashik, etc. Your mercy was overflowing, and we could easily see that in your initiation classes, the compassionate smiles and glances upon devotees, talking to all the counsellors, etc. All the newly initiated devotees are really fortunate to get such unheard-of mercy from you. After meeting our congregation devotees who got your mercy, we can see a genuine satisfaction, renewed vigor, and ever-increasing gratitude in them. They are truly sold out to you, Srila Prabhupada, and to the glorious mission of the Krishna Consciousness. movement of Lord Caitanya.

Overall, Maharaja. Each of your words and acts are great learning lessons for all of us.

Today, on this most auspicious day of your appearance, I sincerely seek your blessings to develop an iota of your unlimited qualities and be an instrument of your greatest quality of mercy and compassion.

Dearest Param Pujya Radhanath Swami Maharaja,

On the special day of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I humbly offer my deepest gratitude and reverence to you. Your teachings, embodied through your wisdom in Journey Home and Journey Within, have illustrated the path of spirituality for countless souls, including mine. Your simplicity, compassion, humility, and boundless love inspire us to strive for a higher purpose, to live a life of service, and to always seek the divine within.

Through your teachings, you have shown us the profound value of love, compassion, and humility, reminding us that true happiness lies in serving others and deepening our connection with the divine. I feel eternally blessed to be among those who have been graced by your wisdom.

On this occasion, I pray that Krishna grants you better health and strength to continue guiding and inspiring us for many years to come. May your divine journey always be filled with love, peace, and spiritual fulfillment.

With utmost love, devotion, and gratitude,
Your servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I feel extremely grateful and fortunate to have this opportunity to express my gratitude on this auspicious day of your 74th vyaspuja.

This year has been a very dynamic one and the departure of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja has left a permanent vacuum in the heart. Still the amazing experience was that in hearing several days of glorification of Maharaja I felt a kind of closeness to Maharaja.

The political situation of the world as well as India has been very crucial this year and your personal guidance on this matter as to how to see it without getting involved or affected was a very great milestone learning in my Krishna Consciousness. journey.

Maharaja, as time is passing I am able to more clearly see how you are carefully preserving and sharing the legacy of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada with all of us. By your personal example in excuting rigid Sadhana and loving relationship with God brothers, by your enlightening lectures, deep heartfelt kirtanas, completely absorbing yatras, creation of GEV and varieties of opportunities to serve the deities and the devotees, you have besotwed upon all of us the opportunity to develop pure unalloyed love for Krishna.

I feel greatly fortunate to be of some insignificant service in assisting HG Radheshyam prabhujj and other temple management members in their services for your pleasure.

I only pray to you for blessing me with the right attitude to chant the Holy names with attention, serve all the Vaisnavas with affection and share Srila Prabhupada teachings with one and all. I pray to Lord for your health and well being.

Hare Krishna Maharaja. Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glory to Srila Prabhupada!! Thank you, Maharaja, for allowing us to access the mercy of Srila Prabhupada and the whole guru Parampara. Every passing year, my indebtedness to you is only increasing, I know I am far, far beyond your instructions and expectations from your disciples. But as Sri Guru is merciful to everyone, I can remain hopeful that I, too, can improve. I only pray and wish that I don't commit Vaisnava apaRadha while Vaisnava is serving them. I also pray that I develop a sincere desire to chant the holy names purely. Hare Krishna.

Dear Maharaja Ji,
Hare Krishna Dandawat Pranama.

I do not know what my good fortune is that I came in touch with you and your teachings. It is simply a causeless mercy of the Lord.

In the teachings of Caitanya Mahaprabhu, we hear that there are three most important aspects of spirituality. 1. Jiva daya, 2. Name ruchi, and 3. Vaisnava seva. You have exemplified yourself in all these three dimensions.

1. You have preached far and wide in all parts of the world. Your prominent disciples take your message and your mood. By opening hospitals, eye camps, midday meals, and yoga centres, you are outreaching to many people and getting them in Srila Prabhupada's fold.

2. When you chant, you are engrossed in it. By your kirtanas, devotees feel enlivened, and when you dance, practically the whole community dances. You cry while doing kirtanas.

3. You like to serve your god-brothers and God-sisters. By conducting yatras, you are giving us the opportunity to do Vaisnava seva, which you yourself have done for many years.

Maharaja, on this day, I pray to the Lord for your good health, and may we follow your teachings. You have given everything to us, and now it is our responsibility to take it and apply it in our lives.

Thanking you.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Words fail to express the immense gratitude I feel for the light you have brought into my life. Through your tireless compassion, humility, and unwavering devotion to Sri Sri Radha and Krishna, you have taught me the true meaning of love and surrender. Your every word and action reflect the selfless service of a pure devotee, and I am constantly inspired by your dedication to spreading the glories of the Lord.

Your teachings are like soothing nectar for my heart, guiding me through the storms of this material world. Through you, I have glimpsed the divine mercy of Krishna, and you have shown me the path to live a life of purpose and devotion.

Guru Maharaja, I pray for the strength to walk this sacred path under your guidance. Please bless me so that I may always remain a servant of your mission and an instrument of your mercy. May I never waver in my service to you and to Sri Krishna, and may I strive to bring even a drop of joy to your lotus feet.

Thank you for being the spiritual light in my life and the lives of countless others. On this sacred day, I rededicate my life to serving your instructions and spreading your divine message.

All glories to you Maharaja..!

When I heard Journey home audiobook, I got deeply inspired and understood your greatness and austerities for seeking higher truth with such a high class determination. Maharaja your each and every activities are always filled with deep absorption and prayerful mood. Maharaja you are epitome of humility which I have seen many times when you interact with Prabhupada disciples and all the devotees.

Specially your lectures on six Goswamis of Vrndavana are so much nectarine and nourishing to soul.

Fortunately this year I attended Kartika-yatra at Shridham Mayapur and it was such a wonderful experience for me.

Maharaja your Vani is most purifying but I am not applying it in my life due to my ignorance and enjoying mentality... Please bless me..so that I could apply your Vani in my life..

Also Maharaja I am not doing Sadhana sincerely and I am at all not qualified to be in association of devotees but that's the only hope for me. I need your blessings and Mercy.

Dear Srila Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your merciful lotus feet.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja day, I want express my gratitude to you for inspiring HG Radheshyam prabhu & many other of your senior disciples to do youth preaching and thus sending them into our lives, under whose guidance many of your other disciples did preaching in my college i.e. NIT Jamshedpur where I got the opportunity to get in touch with Krishna Consciousness. through Srila Prabhupada's teachings.

I remember how I first came in touch with you. That was via an audio clip of your one lecture, which was given to me by my mentor, in which you described how even great kings & leaders of the glorious past have surrendered their head in front of great beauty queens. That lecture was quite inspiring and eye opening for me.

Then I got to know more about you by hearing your audio lectures in my college days.

I got the opportunity to see you physically for the first time at ISKCON, Albert road, Kolkata where I believe you came for the launch of "The Journey Home" book.

Later I heard many more of your recorded audio lectures, live video lectures, got to see you & hear from you physically at many occasions like Kartika yatras, etc. and, got to know more about you by hearing about you from many of your disciples and by reading your book "The Journey Home".

I'm very much inspired by your Vaisnava qualities like gratitude for your guru, Srila Prabhupada and anybody who have anyway helped you in your life; simplicity in your dealings; showing respect and love to anybody & everybody who comes in contact with you;

your selfless service attitude, sacrificing & extending nature in reaching out to help suffering souls by giving them Krishna Consciousness.;

your intense eagerness & determination to take great risks, face all challenges, sacrifice all comforts of Western civilization, family members & relatives to go closer to Krishna and many more.

I'm also very much inspired by the depth of your insights, contemplations, realisations on the shastras which you share in your lectures.

I specifically find very inspiring, nourishing and purifying to hear:

you express your gratitude for getting the opportunity to serve by giving lecture, you glorify your God brothers, God sisters, and other devotees;

your lectures:

on the great Vaisnava acaryas, on cultivating the Vaisnava qualities, during all the Kartika yatras and specifically the South Indian ones.

Now, I have joined the training to become a Brahmacari at ISKCON New Town temple and I'm learning to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission under the guidance of your disciples over here.

Over here, I'm trying to do some youth preaching through online mode under the guidance of my counselor and, cultivating few youths by giving them sessions on Gita by calling them to temple, sometimes I'm going out Hari naam sankirtana and book distribution.

Although I have so many shortcomings, I'm struggling with the urges of my mind & senses, I greatly lack good qualities and, I have very weak faith but, somehow or other I have got some affection for you.

So, I seek your blessings and mercy so that I can properly learn to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission always under the guidance of the senior devotees by trying to distribute Srila Prabhupada's teachings by distributing as many books as possible and by sharing this knowledge with others and, can cultivate the Vaisnava qualities as you've explained in your lectures.

My Most Respected & Most Beloved Guru Maharaja. It's My Great Fortune To Write My Heartful Gratitudes, Prayers & Best Wishes on the Lotus Feet Of Radha Gopinathaji... On Your Auspicious 74th Appearance Day...

As an ordinary & insignificant soul, it is very difficult to know and realize the loving nature of the Lord & hands of the Lord in our ordinary human life....but only due to the causeless mercy of you & shelter of all my Shiksha gurus & loving association of Vaishnvas community inspiring from you. just trying to realize this Love & loving compassionate nature & His hands in my life through your presence & through your example which has changed all my life perspectives of this human form of life & I am just trying to live through following your divine footsteps.

It's my Great Fortune that I can see you, I can feel you...as a representative of Lord RadhaKrishna's loving nature & able to perceive how the Most merciful, compassionate Lord can be...

It's Only Your loving Shelter, Guidance, daily life teachings, philosophy & life lessons that I can live and serve & It is the only hope of a pleasant breeze in the desert life of mine.

Your daily life lessons, Your perspectives, and your views towards each & every aspect of life are so pleasant & blissful that my whole perspectives of living life are changing day by day.

Lord Krishna is Most merciful for all jivas...through His Valuable teaching of BhagavatGita, Bhagavatam & Caitanya Charitramrita.. but feeling how can be Lord so merciful that through you that He has sent you in our lives so that we can perceive it easily as living examples through you in our lives...& helping us to know how can be the heart of loving RadhaKrishna can be through your presence & example setting through you Guru Maharaja...

I am just trying to follow all your teaching & life lessons whatever I can understand in my life & just trying to develop even a minute tinge of your serving attitude towards the Lord, towards all Vaisnava Jivas for Vaisnava seva & Jiva days..within my heart... so that I can get relief even small tinge of spiritual master debt whatever I am receiving mercifully in my life..

On this Auspicious day of your Appearance Day..... I offer my heartfelt prayers to Lotus Feet of Radharani that... Keep Your Health Strong,...Your Eternal Bliss Strong...for rendering your Lovingly Services towards Radharani &...Yours Strength increases day by day to distribute this RadhaKrishna's love to each & every human lives at each corner of the world like whatever we all getting without any qualification & Let's Showers All Loving Mery of Radharani On You & us also to become qualified to distributes this causeless mercy to all reachable through your loving life lessons & your life.

Once again, My Deepest & Intense Prayers at Lotus Feet of RadhaGopinathaji for Your Healthy, Blissful, Eternal Life & for increasing the Strength of All your loving Services Towards Radharani.

Wandering in Ignorance, I had been a wretched sinner;
Until Your Divine Grace fell upon me as an eye opener
My heart was burning with guilty;
You had shown me the path to Tranquility
Unaware of my journey, I was struggling;
Thy has bestowed the mercy, which is very Soothing
I was trying to cross the material ocean by myself;
Thanks for giving me the boat of association Yourself
It's difficult to always remember Krishna;
But you give us ways to be absorbed in Krishna
I fail to recognise and see Krishna's kindness;
You teach us how to utilise everything to spread Krishna's Greatness
I would cry tear, thinking spiritual path to be suffering;
With your sense of humour, you would always keep us smiling

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feets ???????

By your mercy I am able to continue in Krishna Consciousness., Your divya Vani is the source of spiritual Inspiration, dedication and Transformation for me.

This past one year was full of wonderful and surprising events :

1. Got Opportunity to serve in kitchen of Kartika-yatra kitchen 2023 which was also first Kartika-yatra of my Life.

2. Could experience opening of New temple at Thane, Sri Sri Radha Govind devji.

3. Just after the opening of this temple, I happened to join as full time monk at this temple and received shelter of Sri Sri Radha Govinda devji.

4. Recently I was also fortunate to receive your shelter as your disciple.

And many other events just occurred in such short span of one year. Reflecting on all these events, I now understand it as your mercy and mercy of Sri Sri Radha Govinda devji on me.

By your mercy I am able to practise some devotional service. I have received :

1. Best Association of devotees
2. Proper engagement in Lord's services.
3. Best environment for Sadhana.
4. All support and inspiration from senior devotees and service authorities.

Being so fortunate, still I am struggling with my anarthas and conditionings

As time is progressing, I am realising that how insignificant I am and how much more is needed to be done.

Hare Krishna Maharaja!
Please accept my most humble obeisances at Your divine Lotus feet!

Maharaja, I don't have any qualification to glorify a Pure Devotee like You. But I will share something as a Service to Your Lotus feet.

Maharaja, this year's Kartika-yatra was very special for me. Best part of Yatra was your association during Chanting Sessions in morning. I got a chance to sit very close to You during chanting sessions, I did that day after day and your presence really inspired me. I have been mostly taking shelter of Your Vani from last many years but this time I also got your physical association from very close and it very much inspired me.

Everyday, I would eagerly wait for You to join morning Japa sessions and strongly felt that Chanting was not same in your divine presence. I observed You, sitting close to You and could realize that every second You are connected to Krishna. I could feel, how much Love and Compassion You have for all of us. I also got opportunity to Thank You personally for your association and for organizing this Yatra.

I received your merciful glances many many times during Yatra, this was not normal and has never happened before in past years. I felt this year was special. After all these divine experiences, I feel like surrendering to You more and more.

I also observed some of my senior God brothers and saw how every moment they are absorbed in your services, trying to please You. I want to follow their footsteps and surrender my life just to serve You in any way You want. But I see that my conditioning is very strong and I don't have strength to do this, I beg at your Lotus feet on auspicious day of Your Vyaspuja that, please allow me to surrender to You completely. Life is short and most part is already gone, please be merciful to me and allow me to serve You.

This is the most glorious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja. I am so indebted for the opportunity to receive your personal association during the Kartika-yatra 2024 at Sridham Mayapur. I got to chant in the morning with you in the assembly of devotees. I also got to hear Krishna katha in the evening lectures. It was indeed one of the most transformational experiences of sitting at your lotus feet and hearing the purest form of the glories of shudha bhakti and also the most wonderful qualities of Gauranga, Nithyananda. My faith in the Lordships Gaur and Nitai has strengthened through this yatra and also through the various pastime lectures I have been hearing, which you have so mercifully and painstakingly given during many of the earlier yatras. In the last year, I was able to hear your Vyasa-puja lectures and also your lectures on Srila Prabhupada's Vyasa-puja and got to understand the depth of the guru-disciple relationship. This is all by the mercy of your Vani!

On this occasion, I prostrate on the ground and beg that I may receive deep love and attachment to your lotus feet. Please accept me as your disciple. Let me surrender my life at your lotus feet and follow your instructions as my life and soul. Let me simply live for the pleasure of you and Srila Prabhupada. Let your desires be my desires. Let me not have any separate interests, aspirations, or goals.

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please accept my humble and respectful obeisance at your lotus feet.

Recently, I attended your annual Kartika-yatra, this year at Mayapur Dham. In this yatra, I realized one thing, that everything which we receive on this path is all because of blessings of Vaisnavas and Acaryas. The opportunity to serve, to be in the holy Dham, to chant, to take Prasada, to hear glories of Lord and his devotees, to practice limbs of devotional life. But as you were mentioning the tendency of mind is to focus on faults rather than opportunity to be grateful and focus on what is important. And this tendency is very prominent in me. Although, I am receiving mercy in so many ways, my inability to recognize it and to be grateful for it is very strong. The prominent reason which I can think of is no devotion and offences towards Vaisnavas. Seeking your blessings and prayers to overcome this and try to be in the mood of servant of servant in my attempt to please Hari, Guru and Vaisnavas.

Also, I am currently reading Salted Bread book. While reading this book it make me wonder how those devotees could be so dedicated and committed for the service of Srila Prabhupada. They are getting arrested when they are going for book distribution and when they get released after getting heavily beaten up still they are again going back for book distribution. To get such commitment, it will take lifetimes for me. But I could only aspire to serve them and follow their footsteps in best possible way. Apart from this, also I am reading Caitanya Charitamrit, I don't have any proper understanding but while reading it feels like I don't need to read any other book.

I have been given the opportunity to serve in SurabhiKunj voice, we are trying to connect students so that they can understand Krishna Consciousness. properly and perfect their lives. Please bless us so that we all could present Krishna Consciousness. in proper mood, and as time, place and circumstances.

On this auspicious day, I would like to seek your blessings to become a proper instrument in this mission and try to serve in the mood of servant of servant and become more genuine in my own practice and prayers and commit myself more to this mission and Parampara.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Dearest Guru Maharaja, we will be grateful to you for giving us this new life of Krishna Consciousness., the perfect life. You have also given us the jewel-like beautiful Vaisnava devotees.

Maharaja, we have received mercy from you spiritually, and we hope in the future to get more and more mercy so that we progress in Sadhana and serve the Vaisnavas as servants of the servant. On this auspicious day, we pray to Lord Narsimha Dev to bless you with a long, healthy life so that you can deliver many fallen souls.

Maharaja, glorifying your unlimited extraordinary transcendental qualities is beyond our capacity. It will be like offering Ganges water back to Mother Ganges. Guru Maharaja, your kirtanas are very ecstatic, and you dance wonderfully. Your lectures encourage everyone who hears them. You have the qualities of your godbrothers by your respectful and humble nature towards them. You are a good caretaker, as observed during the Kartika yatras. You love and care for your disciples so much.

Please accept our sincere Dandavats at your lotus feet a thousand times. H.H. Radhanath Swami ki jai. We don't have any knowledge, any skill, or any gift to offer you. Please bless us so that we can serve Srila Prabhupada's mission. Please give us your blessings forever.

Hare Krishna,
Your insignificant servant pays millions times of Dandavat Pranama in your lotus feets, my dear guru Maharaja.

Currently I am living in GGB (Base) ISKCON NIGDI, one of the temple being nourished under in your leadership. I am aspiring to become your insignificant servant. I am extremely inspired from your life long spiritual teachings, your many books like journey home...., Your trinadapi sunichena bhav, touched my heart. Whenever I see you whether on YouTube or live, my heart fills with love & devotion. You have sacrificed your life for Srila Prabhupada's mission. Under your leadership many temples & communities are growing, in India some of them are ISKCON Pune, ISKCON NIGDI, ISKCON Kolhapur, ISKCON Nasik & many more.

Dear Guru Maharaja I again pay millions of humble Dandavat at your lotus feet, please please consider me your servant & give me opportunity to serve you. I had so much hypocrisy in my behaviour, in my Sadhna, I don't know how can I save myself from this material world, only your shelter can save me.

Your Insignificant servant

Respected Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances, All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga, All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

This is a day to remember all the contribution you had in all the devotees lives. We are very grateful for pulling me out of ditch in Material world to elevate mentally physically emotionally spiritually to realize constitutional position and giving the easiest process along with the necessary ingredients esp association of devotees and opportunity to stay in the temple surrounded by devotees who are my greatest well wisher.

Your classes are my life and soul, where you have given everything in that. We just have to do search and everything is available as per the topic or year or yatra or books. So it has become so much user friendly that easily we get the topic required to hear or speak on. As many times I have heard that you mentioned you have given everything to be known by us in your classes so now I am realizing this very much in my life. Your classes are so simple to be grasped by any person even a simple villager if he listens attentively then he also attains same result as normal devotee. Classes includes philosophy,story,Srila Prabhupada or Acaryas pastimes esp from CC or CB or SB.One highlight is whenever there are any guests present either Srila Prabhupada disciples or Srila Prabhupada grand disciples you first welcome and glorify that dev infront of all.

Recent Mayapur yatra was also very inspiring to see your dealings and exchanges with different devotees and how such big number as 10000 devotees are willing to come leaving diwali festivity to celebrate with relatives,friends,near and dear one and with the mood of austerity in train journey,accomodation challenges,local transport,huge Prasada lines,pandal full jam in evening class,....and dham itself also have some austerity but devotees transcending these and are focused only to please you.this shows all devotees love for you and you also are giving yourself fully in yatra for all of us as devotees are coming so far to please you.

Maharaja please bless me to get some drop of taste in chanting holy names, hearing Krishna katha and I remain always in the mood of servant of servant of servant.please forgive me for all known and unknown offenses,

Thank you very much,
Your servant

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude for the mercy you have so graciously extended to me.

Your life of complete dedication to the service of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and the mission of Srila Prabhupada continues to be a beacon of inspiration for all.

You have shown us, not only through your words but also through your exemplary actions, what it truly means to live a life of compassion, humility, and surrender to the divine will of Krishna. Your teachings,mentor system and various projects have given me guidance and hope, reminding me time and again that our real purpose is to serve the Lord and His devotees with sincerity and love.

In my spiritual journey, I constantly seek your blessings so that I may become a better servant of the Lord, walking in the path you have so kindly shown us. Though my efforts are imperfect, I pray that with your mercy, I may some day be able to serve in a way that pleases you and assists in fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's mission.

I am eternally grateful for your love, care, and personal example. Please bless me, Maharaja, so that I may continue to grow in Krishna Consciousness. and offer my life in service to you and Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama my dear Guru Maharaja, initially I always had a burning dezire to meet you personally atleast once in my life time, but I am not fortunate enough, but later I thought what qualification do I have to meet you. Then I started focusing on your teachings,and trying to follow with my little capacity, very difficult for a insignificant person like me. But as and when I try to follow your teachings,I feel the mercy flowing from you. That's the only Joy of my life. My very existence and purpose of life is to please you Maharaja in my very small capacity. My only identity is that I am your small insignificant deciple. I am always greatful to you Maharaja for what you have given me.my only wish is to remain as your servant always forever. Thankyou Guru Maharaja. Wish you many many many happy returns of the day.

Immensely greatful to be your unworthy disciple. Thank you Gurudeva for your transcedental smile. It is your glancing smile that gives me hope to better myself spiritually. Thank you Gurudeva for your transcedental compassion. Your compassion is exemplerary for me to practice in my life and share with others. Thank you Gurudeva for your transcedental hugs. Wow, your hugs purify the most fallen soul like me and gives me hope to get very serious spiritually and my wows of commintments. I can never repay your immense mercy you have showered upon me many many times and yet I fall short of your expectations. Dear Gurudeva, I will keep trying to follow your instructions very carefully and hope to please you one day so my life becomes perfect. I am so greatful to you Gurudeva. You are my shelter of hope in every way. I beg for your forgiveness for any offences committed knowingly or unknowingly. From the darkest situation, the brightest light appears upon your shelter. Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to you, Maharaja.

Wish you a very very happy Vyasapuja, Maharaja. We pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji to bestow you, a very long healthy life to be able to fulfill your desire to serve Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, this year, due to your causeless mercy, we have the good fortune of having you for the Sadhu Sanga retreat at Dallas. This year also, you were sick like last year. We felt so sorry to see you in that condition, not able to eat much. Even in Sadhu Sanga, you were so sick but still you gave a wonderful Srimad-Bhagavatam class and later in another 2 hours, you lead a heart warming kirtana.

But, especially this trip was very fulfilling and felt more closer to you. Understanding the fact that, there are so many disciples and whatever services we get or we don't get, if we are just in the mood a servant of the servant, that really makes you happy. But, all glories to Rasaraj Prabhu and Rasakeli Mataji, who always try their best to engage everyone in a small or big way in serving you. And thanks to Gopivallabhi Mataji for setting a nice mood of being servant of servant and tried to share whatever service she got. By seeing all of them, whatever little service we got, when we shared with others, it gave us so much satisfaction and felt like you are reciprocating by the cooperation among the devotees.

Recently, before yatra, we got the opportunity to visit Govardhan EcoVillage, which you created in separation from Sri Vrndavana Dham. It was wonderful place to be in and we were very fortunate to have a short Darshan of yours. We are very grateful for allowing us to participate in Mayapur yatra.

There are so many things to share but not able to put together my thoughts into words due to my inability and lack of realization. Again this year, I am choosing to bring few of your qualities out of many millions of qualities through your name "RADHANATH SWAMI" as a în acronym. Few of these qualities are from our visit to GEV and few are from hearing from senior devotees.

R - Role model
A - Always humble
D - Deep devotion to Srila Prabhupada
H - Highest character
A - Accommodating
N - Non-judgemental
A - Affectionate
T - Trustworthy, thoughtful
H -Highly responsible
S - Sweeter than the sweetest
W - Witty
A - Adavanced devotee
M - Meticulous
I - Intellectual

Maharaja, here is an elaboration of each of those qualities.

R - Role model - By creating Govardhan EcoVillage, you have not only become the role model for the devotees but also the entire world. Everyone is looking for a place like this.

A - Always humble - Despite being greatly achieved, you always remain humble and respectful to each and every living entity.

D - Deep devotion to Srila Prabhupada - Your life and actions are complete surrender to Srila Prabhupada. Before giving a lecture, you always look at Srila Prabhupada with such prayerful mood and you won't end the lecture without glorifying Srila Prabhupada.

H - Highest character and standards - Through your own example, you instilled the same highest standards and the character in those who work at the GEV. Many of them who are working at GEV are from neighbouring villages who weren't devotees earlier. But, they all offer prayers and recite sikshastakam before starting their work either at the ayurvedic clinic or at the restaurant or any other service, they were rendering. We can feel conscious living in them. Through all these practices, they are becoming wonderful Vaisnavas.

A - Accommodating - You are very graceful and welcoming to anyone who comes in contact with you, especially new comers and westerners. During our visit to GEV, one of our niece was taking pictures of you and you told her, she can take more pictures and called her closer and said, God bless you. All of our family members are favorable to Krishna Consciousness. but not devotees, they felt very very happy to get your blessings for her.

N - Non-judgemental - Remembering HG Gauranga prabhu and HG Vraja Bihari Prabhu's pastime of eating pakoras during your lecture on one of the Govardhan puja day. Later on, they came to ask forgiveness from you for their act, but you didn't worry about it at all, rather you were so curious to hear the story.

A - Affectionate - You are very affectionate to all your God brothers and God sisters. With so much affection, you created the Vaisnava memorial at the foothills of Govardhan near Radha Kund and Shyam Kund in Govardhan EcoVillage, which is the highest destination one aspires for.

T - Trustworthy - Even though you have an idea of developing GEV before it started, no one knew, how it's going to work. But, since you are trustworthy, HG Gauranga prabhu took up the project and now everyone could see your vision by it's outcome.

H - Highly responsible - As a spiritual master and spiritual father, you are willing to take the complete responsibility of delivering your disciples, that's the reason why, you want them to get fully ready before initiation.

S - Sweeter than the sweetest - As bumblebees always look for the honey, everyone wants to surround you wherever you are, as your demeanor is as sweet as honey. But, this is not the most appealing thing for you due to your nature.

W - Witty - One devotee mentioned, we can make an excellent hollywood movie from your Journey Home book then you immediately replied, we can make Holy woods.

A - Advanced devotee - During Srimad-Bhagavatam class at Sadhu Sanga and the lecture given at the Sri Sri Radha Kalachandji temple, you mainly focused on the sign of an advanced devotee is to appreciate other devotees. You are an emblem of that quality.

M - Meticulous - The Vrndavana forest in GEV is arranged so meticulously with so much details reminding the original Vrndavana. The diaromas are very attractive. It is very very peaceful atmosphere and we can feel real Vrndavana, Maharaja.

I - Intellectual - You are such a mastermind that, you have created a sustainable living in GEV like waste water recycling, converting waste food into fertilizer, converting plastic into lubricants. These are all in working condition which impresses the highly intellectual class of people from the western countries. They are coming and taking guidance from this model. By the association of devotees, many of them are taking Krishna Consciousness.. You are fulfilling Srila Prabhupada's desire to preach westerner audience in a unique way.

Maharaja, please help us to hear the words emanating from your lotus mouth attentively and give strength to follow those instructions. We beg for your mercy to chant the holy names in the mood of servant of the servant and help us to serve you together in a way that please you, Maharaja.

Thank you so much Maharaja for everything you do for all of us.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

First of all, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for giving me shelter at your lotus feet and accepting me as your disciple.

Please accept this humble glorification, though it may seem like broken words from a child in front of his father and mother.

Recently, I have been reading your book Journey Home. By your mercy, I am able to understand how the book illustrates the consciousness that one must cultivate when approaching the Lord. From your exemplary life, I have been able to observe and learn three important lessons:

You always showed deep gratitude to the Lord in every situation of your life.

You took shelter of the Lord and earnestly begged for His mercy to guide you and help you overcome the challenges you faced.

You were able to attract the mercy of the holy people you encountered on your journey.

Through your lectures and personal behavior, you teach the mood of becoming the servant of the servant. On this auspicious occasion, I humbly beg for your mercy, so that I may follow your instructions and ultimately understand your mood. I pray that I may align myself with your vision and assist your servant in fulfilling your divine mission.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja.

Dandavat Pranama.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious occasion of your 74th appearance day, your Vyasa-puja, I feel utterly insignificant and unqualified to offer anything worthy of you. Yet, I humbly attempt to express my heart.

Guru Maharaja, though you are far away, I feel that you know me deeply—my activities, my thoughts, and my aspirations. For more than 3.5 years, I have been aspiring to receive initiation from you, if you mercifully choose to accept me as your servant.

Living in Tripura, in the northeastern corner of India beyond Assam, I find myself isolated, as there are no devotees directly connected to you here. I feel like the one out of none. Yet, by your immense mercy, I was able to come to Mayapur during the Kartika-yatra of 2024. For the first time, I saw you in person, not just online. I cannot describe the joy and overwhelming emotions I experienced during those six or seven days. It was the most cherished gift of my life—your association, Guru Maharaja.

I earnestly desire to serve you and contribute to Srila Prabhupada's mission as the servant of the servant. However, I am unsure how to proceed or whether I am even qualified to serve in this sacred mission. I don't know if you will accept me as your disciple, but the thought of not being accepted is unbearable for me.

Guru Maharaja, I have committed many mistakes in my life, even after coming to devotional service. I beg your forgiveness for all my offenses and shortcomings. Please grant me a tiny space, even as an insignificant dust particle, at your lotus feet.

With folded hands, I offer this prayer on this special day.

Jai Srila Prabhupada!
Hare Krishna!

I am very much indebted to all the teachings that I have received through your lectures. You always mention trnad api sunicena... To remain humble in all situations of life. This teaching is for all life to practice. I repeatedly listen your lecture on taking care of devotees and I am very much inspired by it. You taught us so many things what is service means? What is responsibility means? One should always be alert, like this so many lectures. I try to revise it again and again. I really feel that I am really getting sheltered by your lectures, yatras. You perfectly show how to deal with devotees, godbrothers. You always mention loving God should always be topmost position.

Thanks for giving us the opportunity to glorify you. I am really indebted to you for many many lifetimes.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to you Gurudeva!

Today is the most auspicious occasion for all disciples and aspiring disciples of yours in service to Srila Prabhupada! We heartily wish you on this occasion of your 74th appearance day! Today, as I reflect upon your mercy upon us all, I am spellbound as it is unfathomable and unlimited. I would like to take this opportunity to recollect some teachings of yours and your sweet pastimes that are instructive and nourishing.

Recently, we have been undergoing a lot of adventures in the form of newer and newer services which are high-paced and initially overwhelming. For example, we had to change our place from Pune to Hyderabad, organize a Janmashtami program, conduct an Annadan drive, and now, take up the construction of the new center. Every time I was instructed to serve in any manner, I would internally feel that I am not fit for it or that my nature doesn't allow that kind of service. I would recollect how you too were given services like that during your New Vrndavana days, and your acceptance of those services with surrender to your authority has enabled you to realize Krishna more deeply. That has been the inspiration for me to become humble and serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada under our superiors.

Recently, we all were fortunate to get your darshan and close association at IIT Bombay. Despite your health issues, you took out time to come all the way to deliver an excellent talk at IIT Bombay about sustainability and then to address all of us. I could see from close proximity that your enthusiasm to serve devotees was more than to actually take service from any of us. You patiently heard all the introductions, some software launches, and project updates, and appreciated devotees for their contributions despite your non-inclination to such things. You accepted their service attitude and wanted to encourage all of us so that our bhakti and love for Srila Prabhupada can be increased.

I had a brief moment with you in the elevator on the way down. There was a stranger who was also in the lift, who had nothing to do with a swami and maybe didn't know who you were. I felt at that moment that if it had not been by your grace upon us and had we not got bhakti, then just like that stranger, we would have not understood your value! He stood beside you just like standing beside any person. We were very observant and careful to be respectful towards you. This is the training that we all got from your instructions and teachings on how to respect a saintly person.

Maharaja, you exemplify Vaisnava etiquettes to the highest standard possible. During the yatra, we could see how much you value your Godbrothers and Godsisters and how much they value you and love you. On the first day when the sound system was down, HH Jayapataka Swami came just to please you by pleasing all of us who were a bit disappointed by the sound issue and your abrupt end to the class that day. That was his love for you and yours for him. Every day when Maharaja would come, you would give him the highest honor and respect by maybe ending the katha and giving the opportunity to Jayapataka Maharaja to speak and inspire all of us. This sets a high standard of expectations from all of your disciples on how we treat and respect our Godbrothers! I will work on my service attitude and try to value my Godbrothers and superiors with all my heart and with the highest regard.

Today I beg for your mercy, and I seek forgiveness for the innumerable shortcomings of mine and the offenses that I may be committing by not following your instructions or by slipping into sense gratification time and again. I will work on being more strict and sincere in my vows, Gurudeva.

Hare Krishna dear Maharaja,
My koti koti Dandavat to your lotus feet.

This year I had the wonderful opportunity to meet many of your amazing disciples HG Yugal Kishore prabhu, HG Caitanya Caran Prabhu and many more when they all came to preach in Hyderabad. This year I got married and had to move to USA to live with my husband. After coming here I was at a loss and felt devastated losing physical association of many merciful devotees back at hyderabad. I started reading your book Journey Home and was reflecting how travelled all that way back in that times when it was so hard on that spiritual quest and how you described meeting your Spiritual master our eternal well wisher HDG Srila Prabhupada really left a mark on me.

I was praying to him for guiding me and all glories to him I got to know wonderful devotees that I can meet and get mentored by. I am eternally grateful to you for always inspiring us to practice Krishna Consciousness. and get more closer to Krishna.

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories Srila Prabhupada

I am deeply inspired by your quote, "The Krishna Consciousness. movement means to feel for the suffering of others," and you have been a living example in connecting wandering souls like us to the Lotus feet of Lord Sri Krishna in his eternal service.

I am really grateful for all your valuable teachings through your Vani and also for teaching by living what you preach.

Recently I got the opportunity to help in your room at Chowpatty by cutting and laying the floor mat and arranging the new furniture. I am thankful to Radha Gopinatha for engaging me in serving their pure devotee.

In your Pune visit for GBC meetings, you appreciated the "Sri Radha" painting I made and the decorations devotees did, and I am happy that I could please you with a small service, and I pray I get to serve you in the Govardhan Eco Village project, which I have been aspiring to contribute to with sustainable and eco-friendly architecture.

I keep hearing your glories from Vraj Bihari prabhu's lecture, and I get overwhelmed with joy in knowing how much you care for and protect the devotees as a loving father.

HG Pranavanad prabhu at ISKCON NVCC has described your interactions with Vaisnavas in the India visit, and I am inspired by how you are very personal with each devotee, paying attention to each detail in seva, and you are the same personality inside out, a true vrajvasi at heart.

Kindly please shower your mercy and a glance on this poor soul who is stooped in a pool of sense gratification and self-created miseries.

Sakhi Priya Devi Dasi

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for accepting this insignificant and unqualified soul at your lotus feet. 19 Sept 2016 was such a memorable day to get diksha from you and to get my initiation beads. This initiation brought a lot of positivity into my life.

Dear Maharaja, through your Vani, in the form of nectarian lectures and ecstatic and soulful kirtanas, you are helping conditioned souls like me to get connected to Krishna, because you are always connected to Krishna yourself, and you have causeless mercy towards hundreds and thousands of souls going through misery in this material world.

I have started listening to your Katha, especially after I attended the 2018 and 2019 Kartika-yatra, where I felt a transformation of heart after listening in the holy dhams. I can see that your words go deep in my heart because you are so much absorbed in the love for Krishna. Maharaja's absorption is also shown in the Journey Home book. Right from his childhood, he has developed a deep relationship with God. Maharaja always says to be present in whatever we are doing, and Maharaja sets a wonderful example on how to be fully present in the moment. Maharaja has so much absorption in Vrndavana and the temples. Maharaja, your lectures are so unique. They contain deep philosophy and a great sense of spontaneous humor. Your lectures are a joy to me in the daily way of life.

I have found Maharaja's words of wisdom on positivity to be very helpful. He says, Accept reality. Accept the truth so we can face the problem.

Stay optimistic about the future and be hopeful. Have gratitude and be thankful for all the good things that happened in life. Appreciate everyone for whatever small good they are doing. Don't find fault.

Pride is like a little poison. It will take us away from Krishna, and it stops us from achieving Krishna. Rather than have pride for our own activities, we have to be proud of our Guru and our Parampara, Lord Krishna and His glorious pastimes. Then we become humble.

I also feel proud of the wonderful God brothers and sisters Maharaja has given for me to connect with Krishna.

This Vyasa-puja day is the most auspicious day, as it is a precious opportunity for the disciple to express his heartfelt gratitude to the spiritual master for all the benedictions given by the guru to a disciple. I beg at your lotus feet for your blessings so that I can get sincere attachment to your lotus feet, take shelter of the holy names, and engage in the service of the Vaisnavas in the humble mood of a servant of a servant of a servant.

Dear Maharaja, I pray to the Lordships to grant you very good health so that you feel further empowered to spread Srila Prabhupada's mission.

Maharaja, due to my conditioning, I may have committed many offenses through my thoughts, words, or actions. I fall at your lotus feet and seek forgiveness for such offenses.

Please Accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet

Wish you Most Happiest and Lovely Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha Conscious Birthday My Beloved Gurudeva!

May Radhamadhav, panchtattva, narsinghdev,jagannath baldev Subhadra and Srila Prabhupada be with you always, protect you and let u glowing always.

Oh dear Gurudeva, you are the fire extinguisher of the burning heat of my heart and for all. Oh Gurudeva, your blissful smile, your merciful glance is the only thing I found most soothing in this world.

Dear Gurudeva, although I want to tell you so many things but words always remain not enough to express.

First of All, Thank you so much Gurudeva for Everything, FOR everytime being with me, upholding me, pacifying me, For sb set you sent to me through your disciple. It seems like when I given a letter to you in delhi through one Mataji in rohini temple, in reply of that you sent whole set of Bhagavatam, but just see this unfortunate and fallen child of yours...I have no taste to read most Auspicious Srimad-Bhagavatam or to chant the most pure holy name. Gurudeva I have become very stone hearted that neither do I feel anything nor I do anything for this movement of Srila Prabhupada, for your pleasure.

Gurudeva, for this Vyasa-puja, I have taken some challenges, like chanting extra rounds for you, chanting Narsingh kavach for you, distributing books, making other people devotees, etc... All in the count of 74 for your 74th Vyasa-puja. But very heavy-heartedly, I am telling you that due to my laziness, my offences toward devotees, my lust, and my greed, I am not able to complete the targets at the desired count.

Gurudeva my soul want to be yours, to be under you serving Sri Sri Radhagovind dev, but I am so entangled in this material things of my mind... I am not able to do anything..whether it's spiritual or material achievements.

Gurudeva You are the most merciful, most compassionate,most humble, most caring, you are my Caitanya Mahaprabhu,you are my Krishna..who knows everything about me from outside as well fron inside of my heart. Gurudeva I Please Beg to you, please make me yours for this lifetime and forever, please make me yours. I have no one except you, still i do mistakes again and again and regret. I have no strength for serving you, to do bhakti, or to do even anything material. Please give me that strength that i can only think of you and Radha-Krishna, only work to please you,devotees, Krishna and my parents (also make them yours), only cry for you, devotees and Krishna.

I know I am not able for anything but please allow me to be with you always. Please accept me and let me serve you by your grace only. Let me have the pinch of love,compassion, gratitude you have for everyone. Let me be the reason of your smile gurudeva please.

Really sorry for everuthing i am doing. But i don't want to hurt you or make things burden for you although i will be always. But please gurudeva i want to be your servant who assist you and please you. Not just giving karmas and burden to you. Please forgive me.
Please make me love you eternally and purely forerver my beloved gurudeva.

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada

On the most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja I would like to express my sincere gratitude to you for giving us the association of wonderful devotees who make our Krishna conscious journey so easy and exciting. The more we are put in adversity the more we can appreciate the glories of devotees around us who are Visnudutas. This is Krishna's special mercy.

My mother departed on 11 Nov at around 2.30am she was only on water for around 20 days but very peaceful and in full Krishna Consciousness. till the end only by your mercy.

Adhoksaja Prabhu, Pandurang Prabhu and all the devotees extended themselves to see that I remain Krishna conscious.

Rupa Raghunath Prabhu sent Janardhan Lila Prabhu to do the last rites.

Even in the greatest sorrows the atmosphere was Krishna conscious.

This is the family of devotees you have given us.

Finally I pray that you please engage me so that I may also share the love that I experienced with others.

May Krishna make you the object of his mercy.

Hare Krishna!
Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!

As it is said in Sastras that Sri Guru removes all darkness and gives the Gyan Chakshu, I truly feel that, by your mercy, I have been saved from many nuisances of this world. Whatever still remains is due only to my inabilities to live according to the instructions given by you.

During this year, I got the opportunity to see you, hear from you, and become more inspired and absorbed in true spiritual values. I am so grateful to you for all the mercy and blessings you have bestowed upon me and my family members.

While there are many challenges in life, the hope and faith I derive from your instructions mean so much to me in continuing on this path. There are still many challenges in family and about our abilities to serve. I beg and pray that we may manage to contribute in some way.

Maharaja, your teachings, dealings, and behavior, full of compassion, care, and love for everyone, continue to inspire me to learn and improve in serving better.

This year, your unbounded mercy truly reached us all, as you managed to visit many places where devotees had been eagerly waiting to serve you and share their services. It was heartwarming to witness the heartfelt emotions that devotees expressed in their reciprocations with you.

During the Mayapur Yatra, I felt extremely blessed to be in the association of so many devotees. However, I now deeply feel the separation from that mood and association after the Yatra. Maharaja, I pray that this feeling of gratitude for such association always remains and helps me improve further in spiritual life.

Maharaja, your qualities of gratitude, sincerity, prayerful mood, and genuine humility are beyond belief. May even a few drops of these qualities be bestowed upon us.

I pray and beg for the strength to rid myself of frustrating anarthas and ill qualities so I may rise to the level of Sadhana and service that would please you.

On this auspicious day, I pray for your good health and all blissful associations with your god brothers, sisters and other devotees, and that all your divine qualities continue to bless millions and millions of souls

Maharaja, please bless us so that we can imbibe your teachings as our life and soul. May Radhika, Dhruva, Rakhi, my mother, other family members and I improve further in our Sadhana, services, dealings with Vaisnavas.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja. Please accept my millions of prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet. Maharaja thank you for mercifully giving us another year full of hari katha and hari kirtana. I pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohan Ji for your good health and your compassion on this unworthy servant. Your merciful glance during the Mayapur yatra and the morning japa in your presence is my treasure for this year. I beg for your forgiveness for all the mistakes I have made and seek the power of your blessings to overcome my unlimited faults. I do not find the strength to carry on alone the sankirtana of the holy name of Hari. Please bless me by giving me just one drop of faith with which to obtain the great treasure of the holy name of Krishna. Krishna is yours. You have the power to give Him to me. I am simply your servant running behind you shouting “Krishna! Krishna!”. Gurudeva! e dase korun?a kori.

Hare Krishna,
Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga,
All glories to you dear Gurudeva!

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja our hearts are filled with immense gratitude towards you...for all that you have done for us. You are endowed with countless good qualities. You are someone who walks your talk. All the scriptures come alive through your actions. We get to learn so much through your example. Although we don’t know how to express it, we will try for the pleasure of the Lord and all our Acaryas.

To begin with we want to mention that very recently we saw some very heartwarming exchanges between you and H.H. Niranjana Maharaja and his caretaker. We saw when Niranjana Maharaja was leaving GEV you personally came and embraced Maharaja and dropped him in the cart till the gate..not only that after embracing Maharaja you embraced Maharaja's personal care taker and thanked him for his dedicated service towards his spritual master. We have always heard from you of one should be grateful. And from this incident you taught us how we must deal with devotees in a loving way and express gratitude for their services.

We are also very inspired by how you always emphasize on loving relationships between devotees and when there are disagreements you say that it doesn't matter who is right or wrong these things are negligible but the relationship are higher and it should be preserved in every situation. Time and again you have exhibited this through your actions too... Thank you Gurudeva for sharing such profound wisdom.

Maharaja you have created a wonderful devotee care system in our temple and it is seen in every aspect...we got to see this during our recently concluded Kartika-yatra. Even though there were more than 10,000 devotees how devotee care reflected in all areas. The way Varishtha Vaisnavas, pregnant Matajis and devotees with health issues were served Prasada with so much of love...that just to witness this was so heart touching. Also how the kids are engaged in such a way that they enjoy the yatra to the fullest with so many fun filled games for them. There is so much planning gone in to keep all the devotees blissful is simply amazing. And the effect of this is such that we saw many local devotees of Mayapur were in awe of all the arrangements of our yatra. And it was the topic of their discussion.

Guru Maharaja recently we moved here to Mayapur and we see that although unworthy yet we get treated with so much love and respect just because we are your disciples. This makes us grateful to be connected to you and encourages us to become better devotees.

We often hear how involved you are even in the smallest details of the construction at GEV be it even the bathroom fittings you see to it that the best things are made available in every department.

We are so moved to see how under your guidance our Brahmacari God brothers, parents are given shelter and care in GEV and they are cared both spiritually and materially where they are provided with all care be it yoga for physical fitness, proper nourishing diet in form of Prasada and lots of engagements. This is such a beautiful system due to which our Brahmacaris are able to serve without any anxiety.

For the past few months for the devotees it has been a festival, the Diksha festival... while thousands of devotees are so happy to receive your shelter, it is you who is extending yourself beyond limits. In spite of your bad health you have been initiating devotees so that they get the mercy of our glorious Guru Parampara... that's your compassion.

Right from the early days you always emphasized on loving dealings between Brahmacari and Grishathas. And today we get so much inspiration from witnessing these dealings...that although unworthy we have received so much shelter and love from our ashram godbrothers. This is the most valuable gift we have been gifted by you.

A few months ago we heard from H. G Murlidhar Prabhu how you taught that every donation that we receive, it should be used for that purpose only. We need not adjust that donation for some other purpose. Also never forget any big or small seva offered by anyone even if that seva offered was only once. We must forever remain grateful to such people.

Like we mentioned before, we have recently moved to mayapur so we got to see how much our devotees worked hard to make the arrangements for the yatra..these arrangements were happening from almost 2 months prior and devotees worked so hard to give most blissful experiences during those 6 days of yatra. And after the yatra also there were devotees who stayed back for a week to wind up everything. We understand all this was possible only and only because of your constant inspiration, encouragement and empowerment. Or else these things seem impossible. We are very grateful to you and the entire Yatra volunteers for the blissful experiences.

During the yatra you nourished us through your nectarine lectures narrating from Caitanya charitamrita and Caitanya Bhagavat...and we got to see how you worship your godbrothers and God sisters and vice versa...we were so touched to see Srila Jayapataka Maharaja come and speak in the pandal in spite of his bad health. And how you submissively would offer him obeisances and then hear from him, then how you both would embrace each other with love. This same dealings were evidently seen with all your godbrothers....and when we saw this... we felt that we got to see the glimpses of what you spoke in Your lectures about the beautiful dealings between the devotees in Caitanya Lila... Our list of thank yous are endless but thank you Guru Maharaja for unlimited things.

And more can we say? All we know is we are blessed to have you as our loving father and on this auspicious day we pray for your long and healthy life so that many more suffering souls receive your shelter and we also pray that we can imbibe the mood that you are trying to teach us and we can serve you in a way which will please you.

Thank you for everything.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances,
All glory to Srila Prabhupada,

I have survived another year in the association of devotees, in the Brahmacari asrama and the Krishna Consciousness. movement by your causeless mercy. Recently, in the Srila Prabhupada festival that happened in Ujjain, you gave me your maha-garland. I was deeply touched and was celebrating in my heart. I was grateful to Krishna was this special experience.

But then I reflected and saw that my life was full of such special experiences. You came into life through your empowered servant, HG Radheshyam Prabhu. My heartfelt connection to you happened through your vani, Radha Gopinatha temple community and your yatras. In my first yatra, I got my first instruction from you to serve Prasadam and my embrace (which was accidental as I was standing near HG Radheshyam pr and HH Giriraja Swami Maharaja). Then I received my spiritual name, beads chanted by you, and your divine glance of my acceptance as your humble disciple. Again, receiving my sacred thread of Brahmanical initiation and the Gayatri mantras from your lotus mouth.

I am gifted with this divine life, which I owe to you and our beloved Srila Prabhupada.

I pray to you to kindly bless me for the new venture of Western outreach, which I am about to embark on shortly. I need your blessings to remain lifelong in the saffron order as a humble servant and keep serving in the youth preaching and community development field the consciousness of being your humble servant.

These are a few words of my humble offering at your lotus feet. I wish to offer my body, mind, and words in your humble service life and afterlife.

Once again, my heartfelt gratitude to you for everything you have given me.

Hare Krishna Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble obeisances.

This is my first offering to your Holiness ever. In fact, I am not aware how to write an offering. This might be an immature offering. By means of this offering, I just would like to express my gratitude for all that I received.

I am very thankful to you Maharaja for giving us many wonderful, committed, mature and advanced devotees like Radheshyam pr, Gaurang pr, Gopal lila pr and many more. Just by seeing their example gives me a lot of faith and respect towards the path of Bhakti. I very much relish their association, either in person or through sound.

Maharaja, I never got an opportunity to have one-one interaction with your Holiness. My relationship is only through sound. Whenever I hear your lectures, I feel a great solace and relief and a kind of shelteredness. In my opinion, I feel this because you address in all your lectures, a very essential point. You generally say that everyone is longing for LOVE. Yes, I noted it several times in many people, be it a mother, father, child, adult, boy, girl, animal everyone is looking for Love. The need for that Love is expressed through a need to receive respect, recognition etc., You also said that, COMPASSION is the utmost need in today's world both at a local and at a global level. When compassion is there, there will be abundant supply, sufficient intelligence. I completely resonate with this. Thank you Maharaja, for bringing out this essence of vedic injunctions. I just would like to be an instrument of God's Love for all, because I believe from the text of Gita, that Krishna is the supreme lover and dearmost friend of all. I just want to be an instrument of His Love and Compassion.

Also, I would like to express my deep gratitude unto you for arranging a wonderful Kartika-yatra in Mayapur. This is my first ever yatra in my life. The efforts of the organizing devotees there is highly commendable and there are no enough words I know to praise and appreciate their efforts.

All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga,

Dear HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Gurudeva,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I am deeply honoured and filled with gratitude as I write this offering for your 74th Vyasa-puja. My heart swells with reverence as I reflect on the profound impact you have had on my life and spiritual journey. Your guidance, compassion, and exemplary character have inspired me to seek a deeper connection with the Supreme Lord Krishna and embrace the path of Bhakti.

You have always and will always shower your GRACE on conditioned souls like me. To express my feelings, I am elaborating what GRACE I have received from you.

GRACE
G – Gratitude for Guiding Light
My Dear Gurudeva, it is with deepest gratitude that I bow at your lotus feet, offering my heartfelt appreciation for the immeasurable impact you have had on my life. Your teachings have shown me the path of devotion. Each word you speak feels like a beacon of light guiding me closer to Krishna, and for this, I am eternally grateful.

I thank you for the compassion, patience, and humility with which you shower grace upon all of us. Your lectures and teachings always remind me to stay focused on my spiritual goals and to keep Krishna at the centre of my life.

R – Realisation Through Your Teachings

My dear Gurudeva, your teachings have sparked realisations that I had never before considered. Through your example, I've come to understand that true spirituality is not a destination but a daily practice, it is a journey of self-purification that transforms the heart. Your narration of spiritual wisdom makes me understand spirituality much easier.

Through your favourite verse "trnad api su-nicena", you have always emphasised on humility and compassion. This has helped me examine my actions and thoughts, and work towards reshaping my approach to life and relationships.

A – Aspiration to Serve with Sincerity

Under your loving guidance, I aspire to become a worthy instrument in Krishna's and his devotees' service. My dear Gurudeva, you've shown us that the greatest act of devotion is to become das-dasanu-das. Inspired by your example, I want to make my life an offering to Krishna by living each day with humility and devotion.

I know that my mind is often scattered, and my senses out of control, but as you always emphasise that with sincere effort and a prayerful heart, Krishna will bless even the smallest offering. It is my hope to become a steady servant of servants during my spiritual journey.

C – Compassion as a Way of Life

Your compassion is like an endless stream of Mother Ganga, reaching all who come in contact with you. Gurudeva, through your example, I have understood the true meaning of compassion that it is not just a feeling but it is a way of life.

Your kindness inspires me to cultivate a more caring and understanding heart, reminding me of my responsibility to serve and uplift those around me. I pray for the strength to embody even a fraction of the love and empathy that you exemplify.

E – Enlightenment through Your Life and Example

Gurudeva, your life journey is the embodiment of selfless devotion and unwavering faith. Through your words, actions, and example, you have shown us that true enlightenment is not achieved by renouncing the world but by offering everything we have in service to the Lord.

You are the living example of the values we seek to embody, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to learn from you.

Gurudeva, As I am writing this, I am still filled with deep longing and yearning to get spiritually connected to you as your disciple. I am hoping that I will be worthy enough to receive your mercy soon. Although I am receiving the teachings from you, practising my devotional practices, serving the devotees and Lord Krishna at my best capacity, I know everything will become fruitful only when I get associated with you as your disciple. Till then I am holding your teachings close to my heart and striving to serve the devotees in the mood of becoming a servant of the servants in any way I can.

Please accept my humble obeisances
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga

Although I am not qualified to offer anything to you Maharaja, I would like to take advantage of this opportunity to express my gratitude and prayers at your lotus feet.

You have been a great source of strength and inspiration for a large community of devotees Maharaja. The way you have dedicated your life and soul in building this community in the service of Srila Prabhupada is just amazing. We can witness this during the annual Kartika yatras. It is incredible how a yatra of around 10K devotees is managed so nicely without any issues. I attended Kartika-yatra for the first time only last year in Puri and again this year in Mayapur. Both the experiences are so cherishable and memorable - visiting the holy places with 1000s of devotees and hearing about those places, sitting for evening katha with 10000 other devotees and hearing from your lotus mouth, honouring Prasada with so many devotees, and sometimes getting a chance to serve these devotees. You mentioned in one of the previous yatra lectures how rare and glorious such activities are - human life itself is rare, one in a thousand becomes a devotee so devotees association is the rarest. So, what a wonderful opportunity it is to be in a holy dham during the Kartika month in the association of thousands of devotees with everyone engaged only in the activities of devotional service - chanting, hearing, serving, etc. I feel very fortunate to be one of those devotees Maharaja and I feel immensely grateful and indebted to you for being the cause of such a memorable yatra to manifest.

I feel very grateful to all the devotees too. Towards the end of the yatra, you mentioned various services taken up by various devotees in making the yatra possible. It's amazing how these devotees took up such humungous sevas while getting nothing paid for it, just the way you were mentioning. But it still manifested so nicely because it runs on the platform of love, the love you developed in all of their hearts with your merciful instructions, kathas, kirtanas, etc. One of the highlights for me was the Prasada, they didn't serve just some simple kichdi but a feast everyday. Everyday while honoring Prasada, this was my thought - how so much effort devotees are putting just to serve all the yatris, wow.

All the training that we have received through the system of VOICE, counsellor model, etc is also your mercy through your disciples/followers. You have a major contribution in the expansion of devotee community throughout ISKCON Maharaja. So many devotees are engaged in the preaching activities in such a missionary spirit. Every year, we see so many new devotees coming up and taking to the chanting of holy names. Thank you for giving us this opportunity to take up devotional service, opportunity to spread the mission, opportunity to purify our mind and heart Maharaja by pleasing the superiors.

Maharaja, I still have a long long way to go in the path of bhakti. I am still struggling to follow all the rules and regulations and standards of basic Sadhana. My chanting is also of very low quality. Due to the lust and laziness, multiple realms of my life are getting affected - bhakti, relationships, professional, etc - they are all currently badly affected including my health too. I want to work on these issues and improve myself Maharaja. I pray for your mercy so I can overcome these problems and serve the devotees in spreading the mission of Srila Prabhupada. I wish and pray a long and healthy life to you and also all the disciples of Srila Prabhupada so that we keep getting the association of all of you and hear the nectar you all have to share. I pray that I become disciplined in following the rules and regulations of bhakti and become a proper devotee and disciple of yourself Maharaja.

Seeking your mercy,
Your servant Sandeep

Thank you so much for give us nice Krishna cousisious bhakti

As per the wish of Srila Prabhupada, your dedicated his life to serve Krishna. And he is always ready to serve Krishna in all circumstances. As a young Brahmacari, celibate monk, when he was staying in ISKCON New Vrndavana, West Virginia, he was given the responsibility of doing deity worship. At that time New Vrndavana was a secluded place with almost no facility. He was taking care of the deities almost all alone.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept our humble obeisances. Recently I was hearing HG Caitanya charan prabhuji and he told that you told him " I am neither intellectual like you or humorous like gaur gopal prabhu in my lectures but I have a deep concern for my audience and with that whatever I tell it inspires them in Krishna Consciousness. " Guru Maharaja because of your concern for all of us, we are grateful and blissful in Krishna Consciousness... whenever we hear your lecture, the urgency and sincere mood for aspiring for a change in heart is evident. Please bless us that we can be sincere and do our Sadhana with the focus on goal, Krishna prema. Hare Krishna

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obesciences. All glories to you and Gauranga.
"Nama Om Vishnu-padaya Krishna-preshthaya bhu-tale Srimate Radhanatha Swamin Iti Namine"

It's now been 12 years that I spent in ISKCON. I still remember the first darshan of your lotus feet when a pandal program was organized in front of the NVCC temple at Pune in 2013. It was really an auspicious day for me when I received your merciful glance first time in my life. I did not know anything about you at that time still I felt a great mercy taking darshan of yours.

Dear Guru Maharaja, you are full of all the great Vaisnava qualities. In every lecture, you quoted the sloka of trundapi sunichen...You are always focusing on humility, tolerance and gratefulness. One of the teachings that deeply resonates with me is your emphasis on humility and selfless service. Your life is the embodiment of these virtues, and seeing how you serve the devotees, the community, and all living beings inspires me to follow in your footsteps. Recently we attended the Mayapur Kartika-yatra, on the first day when the sound system was not working properly; you immediately started with an ecstatic kirtana. Your visit to all the volunteer devotees shows your compassion and grace on them.

I feel so deeply grateful for your lectures which helps me to introspect myself and I am trying to apply the your instructions in my life.. Through your wisdom, compassion, and personal example, you have taught me the true essence of devotion and service. Even though I am trying to follow your instructions in everyday life, it sometimes becomes so difficult due to the anarthas in my heart.Your teachings are a guiding light on my spiritual journey, and I am forever indebted to your grace.

Guru Maharaja, on this sacred day of your Vyasa-puja, I humbly pray that I may serve you with more sincerity and determination. Please bless me with the strength to overcome my anarthas and to follow your instructions wholeheartedly. My greatest desire is to serve you and the Vaisnavas with love and humility.

My Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your Lotus feet.

Thank you very much for accepting me as your disciple, I waited for 12 years for this occasion of becoming your disciple. I do not have any qualifications, it is only because of your causeless mercy. I remember my first incident of meeting you in Nashik when H H MAHAVISNU SWAMI MAHARAJA had left his body and went to Golok Vrndavana you had visited for his last rites. When you were staying at Pran Gaurang Prabhu's house then as you entered the gate I offered Dandavat, first time I heard your powerful soothing voice saying "Hare Krishna " and looked deep into my eyes and smiled beautifully at me,till that time of my life No one had looked so deeply in my eyes, no one had smiled so beautifully at me. I decided that day "I should have a Guru like him" Then I made a firm decision to be your eternal disciple. Thank you for accepting me Maharaja. I am eternally indebted to you.

Once I had come to Radha Gopinatha Temple for witnessing iniation ceremony with H G Adhbhut Hari Prabhu of Nashik ISKCON, he said "Come I will show you Radha Gopinatha Temple ". We saw all the department like deity kitchen, Ashram and behind the temple where bathrooms are there, there it was written " No one should talk to RADHANATH Swami Maharaja in this area. Many bhramcharies were standing suddenly they ran away, even Adhbhut Hari prabhu ran away without telling me and I was alone there. All of a sudden I saw you coming there and standing infront of the board where it was written "No one should talk to Maharaja in this area" You were standing in front of the board and I was completely blank what to do now. Again you looked at me this time you did not smile It was a serious look at me. I didn't understand what to do then I just bowed down and ran away and turned back to see where you are going, you went to the Washroom.

Maharaja after reading your Journey home I realised how much struggle you faced Maharaja at every step, your sincerity and never give up attitude is just amazing.

Your soothing voice and in-depth spiritual knowledge are nectar. Your Absorption in chanting and dedication and devotion towards Prabhupada is simply mesmerising.

Please bless me Maharaja so that I can also try to follow your footsteps to the best of my ability.Please forgive me Guru Maharaja for my offences.

Will never let you down Maharaja, will certainly try my best to contribute to the mission of Srila Prabhupada. May Lord Nrsimhadeva always protect you and give you long life so that we get your physical association always. Please bless me so that I can follow your instructions sincerely.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
Dandawat Pranama,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

When I reluctantly attended first ISKCON hostel preaching program in J J hospital campus in 1997, I never thought it will be turning point not only for me but for my entire family. And we will be unworthily receiving the flow of Krishna's mercy through you Guru Maharaja.

It was mercy of Vaisnavas only that made me and my family eligible for initiations and some sevas we could perform on the feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Sri Sri Radha Madangopal in Nashik. We could serve many Vaisnavas around the world with little knowledge we have about Garbhasanskar. But everywhere we received special acceptance just because we are your disciples and trying to serve Prabhupada's mission.

Even after gap of so many years, when you were in Nashik recently, you recognised all the family members and blessed next generation with unlimited love and affection. We can't fathom mercy you and senior Vaisnavas showering on us.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, we pray to Sri Sri Radha Madangopal to give you best of health and we pray to you for the blessings so that we can realise the importance of Vaisnava Satsanga and the mercy we have received and we can set a proper example so that the next generation can take inspiration from us to follow this virtuous path of Bhakti and serve Prabhupada's mission and society sincerely with the knowledge received from Guru Parampara and Kulaparampara.

Once again Dandawat Pranama.

Hare Krishna Gurudeva please accept my most humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada ??
All glories to Guru and Gauranga..

Gurudeva I know I am really not qualified or I don't have any good character to glorify you but since the disciple or the aspiring disciple should glorify his spiritual master for my own purification of the heart hence I am sharing my immature understanding realisation with you Gurudeva. Definitely there will be some immatured offerings will be there. I kindly bag get your Lotus feet Guru Maharaja, please forgive me.

I AM GRATEFUL FOR WHAT YOU HAVE GIVEN TO ME:

Gurudeva it's been more than 6 + years being in Krishna Consciousness. and as I am started aspiring from you from last 4 + years sincerely I got to know little about you based on my surrender unto your Lotus feet. Most important instructions which you have given to all of us including me is how to lead devotional life in ISKCON - TO GROW THE SANKIRTANA MOVEMENT please you and more than that please sing your God brothers by serving or please in my local authority. It took so many years to understand this instruction "pleasing in local authorities" though I heard this instructions couple of times. After associating with your senior disciples my god brothers and hearing from them understood this glorious instructions (HG Radha Gopinatha Prabhu HG Gaurang Bihari Prabhu HG Shubh Vilas Prabhu HG MahaBhagwat Prabhu, HG Sudhir Gopal Prabhu HG Prem Raj Prabhu).

I heard how much you give respect to your God brothers and sisters when I was residing at GEV for Bhakti Shastri.

One such incident was: devotees constructed a building and separate rooms for you Guru Maharaja like for taking rest, for meeting, and for other purposes. And devotees are also constructed individual rooms for your God brothers for stay when they come. But comparatively your rooms are spacious and separate rooms for each activity whereas for your God brothers not. I heard like observing this you said 'demolish everything and construct equally for me as well as to my god brothers'. I felt by hearing this, we should never discriminate yourself and your God brothers. This is my understanding Guru Deva.

BEING IN THE BACK SIDE TO PLEASE:

I HEARD CLOSE INSTANCE BUT I KNOW THERE ARE 100s & 1000's of your services to please Srila Prabhupada.

Once such incident was to t o v p. Serving financially, Brij Vilas Prabhu completely serving to rise fund for the construction of TOVP - your disciple. Technically serving by Caitanya silent Prabhu,, architectural design by your disciple, and many other ways (this is my understanding GuruMaharaja). I am just remembering the words of Gaurang Bihari Prabhu - told don't keep anything guru centric.

Serving your God brothers and sisters as equal as you which I witnessed during Kartika-yatra.

Your Complete depends on Krishna for guidance and Mercy.

Most sincerely serving Srila Prabhupada - by giving your body mind and words.

Finally thank you so much Guru Maharaja for giving us GEV which is non different from Vrndavana, devotees at GEV, Vidyapeet @ GEV & for everything. The mood of serving at ashram of gev made me humble.

Eternally grateful to you Guru Maharaja for teaching me “be in the mood of separation from - Hari (Vrindavan Bihari Ji), Guru (you), Vaisnavas (of GEV) & Vrindavan (GEV) “.

Thank you for teaching me to take care of the guest as equal as a very good friend.

Finally it is my last me understanding Guru Maharaja:

In the Material world anyone can misundertand anyone.

Sometime by seeing your decision I remember Lord Ram’s decision on Mata Sita by sending her out of Kingdom after bringing her back to the kingdom from Ravan just to set an example. Similarly you have not been to many temples of India other than Chowpatty and GEV even in your zone.

Finally now in 2024 after many many years you gurudeva started travelling and giving your holiest association to all of your aspiring and initiated devotees. This is what my understanding GuruMaharaja. Please please forgive this fallen soul if there are any mistake or immaturity in my words.

Promise: Maharaja I follow your instructions.

1. Chant minimum of 16 rounds sincerely
2. Follow four regular principles very sincerely
3. Please my local authorities for the pleasure of you & srila prabhupada to grow this sankirtan movement gurudeva.

My Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance. All glory to Srila Prabhupada. All glory to you on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

Srila Prabhupada, when he first went to America to spread the Krishna Consciousness. on the order of his guru, Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati Thakur Prabhupada, it appeared to be non-prospective initially. Also, those who were attending appeared to be not taking Krishna Consciousness. seriously. But Prabhupada has never been depressed by that. With complete dependency on his Guru’s instruction and Radha-Krishna, he consistently tried to keep the instruction in his heart. Thereby, we are reaping the benefits of what he has done.

ya idam paramam guhyam mad-bhakteshv abhidhasyati

bhaktim mayi param kritva mam evaishyaty asanshayah [Bg 18.68]

Amongst my devotees, those who teach this most confidential knowledge perform the greatest act of love. They will come to Me, without a doubt.

This is visible in His Divine Grace, You, and many devotees whom I have encountered. With this intention in mind to please Krishna, you, and His Divine Grace, I have started preaching locally to assist my seniors. You have kindly sent me some devotees to whom I can render service. With the help of HG Anandh Vrndavana Prabhu and the team, I can consistently chant my 16 rounds in the Brahma-muhurta time before starting my day-to-day activities.

I am grateful to you and your disciples for making my life centered around Krishna. I request your Holiness’s and Prabhupada’s mercy on the devotees who are attending the Satsanga to take this message seriously in their lives. Please bless me to be of some use in preaching this Krishna Consciousness..

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept My Humble Obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

Wish you a very happy 74th Vyaspuja. This is the day which is most important for each one of us, your disciples, as it reminds us once again the glories of our spiritual master.

O Gurudeva!! You are an ocean of causeless mercy. On a physical platform we don't get to personally meet you or at least have your darshan so often. But I can still declare from the core of my heart that its only by your causeless mercy we all are continuing to practice devotional service. An ordinary person can never assimilate How is that possible!! Your compassion and concern to each one of us is so oceanic that you endeavored and struggled decades to establish these communities, where each devotee is so much sheltered that they not only happily practice Krishna Consciousness. despite all odds and challenges put by material energy or one's own previous karma, but also contribute to their best capacities for this eternal mission of Lord Caitanya. You do it so expertly through your potent Vani. Different devotees undergoing different situations hear the same lecture of yours and practically every one of them could relate personally and feel very satisfied and get enthused to march ahead in their spiritual lives. I feel it to be miraculous. Because of your deep concern for each of us, may be paramatma reveals to you everything and with your deep connection to the supreme Lord you allow the flow of mercy to fall upon each of us through your Vani. Thank you so much Gurudeva, its all your mercy that we are made of.

Once I have heard that "You have to put so much your energy to prepare each lecture and deliver it" I can realize why it takes so much energy, because you need to understand each devotees level of Krishna Consciousness. and somehow or other in one-one statement you need to address all of their different needs, concerns and thus inspire them from their respective levels to realign their priorities to reconnect to their original nature of Krishna Consciousness. which alone makes one satisfied. Its really the toughest job I can imagine because now I'm also trying to preach at my level and I can see how difficult it is to inspire a soul for the same. I have realized preaching is not just speaking philosophy but actually understanding the person's overall and inspiring him gradually. You do it so expertly at a time for 1000s. During Yatras, its needless to say how much energy, absorption and consciousness you need to invest for addressing more than 10,000 devotees. I can only say Maharaja how much closely you are connected in your heart to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna that they make you a perfect instrument as their representative. I also see the increasing need in myself to take shelter of your vani more and more. I want to regularly, carefully hear from you, understand your mood and instructions as it is, as the way you want us to know (Because sometimes even after hearing from you, we manipulate according to our conditionings Which I seriously don't want to get into) and align my body, mind, words and my very life moment by moment to follow them. By doing so if I can give a drop of pleasure to your heart I can consider my existence to be successful. I seek your blessings and mercy to even do this properly.

This year Oct 2023- Nov 2024 is very very special for all the devotees. Because we have been blessed by your association (both Vani and Vapu) in India for so long (which never happened before, atleast from the time I came to Krishna Consciousness.). At Pune We had Maha Satsanga Program, then GBC meetings for continuous 10 days, then Jagannath Puri Yatra for 6 days and then many many Srimad-Bhagavatam Classes at Chowpatty, then your continuous travels to Palghar, Kolhapur, Delhi, Ujjain, Belgaum, Goa, Surat, Nashik etc then Mayapur Yatra for 6 days in Nov'24. Somehow due to online kripa, we were able to take advantage of hearing all your lectures. I also could observe how personal you are in your dealings and reciprocation with devotees during your visits to these places and yatras. Sometimes I feel a hankering in my heart to receive similar type of mercy but suddenly something struck me:: Me wanting such reciprocations that you may glance at me, touch my head etc seems to be selfish, My existence is meant for your pleasure and what pleases you the most: when I simply become happy seeing other devotees receive your mercy. That feeling itself really gave me so much satisfaction as good as your personal reciprocation. This is my realization of Love in separation being highest. This is not my glory, I have learnt such refined and subtle aspects of Krishna Consciousness. from you only Maharaja. You emphasize in your lectures repeatedly and by your own example you showed: All your Godbrothers got so much personal association of Srila Prabhupada compared to you but you were always happy and grateful just seeing that, not expecting anything. Not just that, you always desire and consider yourself to be an insignificant servant of your Godbrothers and in serving Godbrothers you see serving Srila Prabhupada. What an exalted and refined consciousness of Goloka Vrndavana!!! I'm soooo far from it but if that is what you want then I'll try my best for living in this mood. Seeking your blessings and empowerment for that.

Receiving first initiation, then second initiation and then Saffron personally from your hands, Is this not your causeless mercy?? So much of training, exalted association of seniors, equals and juniors, so many opportunities to serve and preach and many more, are all these not benidictions from You??The fact that I have come to this level of consciousness Was it possible without your mercy. YES Maharaja, I realize now How much I have received and still receiving from you. I can never reciprocate with what you have given me Gurudeva. I can only strive to please you in a small way. At this point Maharaja I would like to pause this offering as I'm unable to go ahead in writing, as I'm getting choked up imagining the amount of mercy you are bestowing upon me. I would like to express my unlimited gratitude and millions of Obeisances at your lotus feet for everything. I will continue this (Vyaspuja Offering) every year Krishna willingly to highlight each of your mercy aspects. May I always remain in this position of a humble insignificant Servant of the Servant of your Servants life after life.

Maharaja, by bringing a fallen woman like me to devotion, you have made my life meaningful. By receiving Brahmin initiation from you, I am fulfilled at the age of 80.

This year, I have participated from 1st November to 7th November only by your grace. I was getting to hear your discourses daily and I got the benefit of dancing loudly in your kirtana with great joy. In the entire journey, I got your darshan three times from very close and by my good fortune, you looked at me smiling and purified me. I am blessed. I request you that when I take my last breath, I should utter the name of Lord Krishna. Please bless me with this much, Maharaja. I am really fortunate to have found a very pure Gurudeva like you. Dear Gurudeva
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Vaisnavas are known to be para dukha dukhi. To actually feel someone else’s pain and to actually do something about it is one of the toughest qualities to have. Anyone who knows you will clearly see this quality on display. One time when you were about to embark on a long-distance road trip at night, you repeatedly inquired from the devotee who was to drive you if he was feeling good enough for the night drive. You actually even offered to drive on his behalf. You then advised him that your life was unimportant, but your work for the society would be hampered. This showed your true degree of compassion.

Just the fact that you are taking on the sins of so many of your disciples itself is a clear indication of the risks you are willing to take for the spiritual progress of your disciples.

Humans are so caught up running after success that they become desensitized to any bad actions performed by them whilst chasing success. One time you noticed an advertisement that said, “Hit the bull’s eye.” You had remarked that it was a cruel way of describing success. So your compassion is not just at the gross level but also at the subtle level.

I pray to the Supreme Lordships to always keep you in the best of health.

Through the simple act of your smile, you uplift and encourage each and every one of us. You have an extraordinary ability to identify the needs of society and work tirelessly to address them. The many projects you have initiated have helped countless poor and needy people, offering them not only material relief but also spiritual guidance.

Your lectures, filled with the teachings of Krishna Consciousness. and life lessons from the guru and acaryas, inspire us all to deepen our understanding and practice of devotion. You continually glorify Srila Prabhupada, which reflects the depth of your love and reverence for your spiritual master.

"The Sixfold Grace of My Master"

Srila Prabhupada saw in you the divine spark,
Amidst thousands at Cross Maidan's park.
Beside him, he placed you, his voice so clear,
"From the spiritual realm, a servant is here."
Your words now nourish hearts worldwide,
A brilliant orator, in whom wisdom resides.
Through observation, you learned and grew,
Like the Ganges, pure and ever true.
Even before Prabhupada's guiding light,
Your life reflected Krishna's might.
A perfect guru, a perfect disciple too,
Your life's example, in words so true.
With earnest dedication to Prabhupada's call,
You've drawn thousands to Radha Gopinatha's hall.
Through trials vast, from journey's start,
You held firm with an unwavering heart.
When storms shook ISKCON's sacred ground,
In steadfast faith, your strength was found.
In challenges, you stay serene,
Focused on Krishna, calm and keen.
Purity flows from your divine core,
Inspiring millions, forevermore.
Srila Prabhupada's wisdom so clear,
The highest truth, we hold most dear—
To be the servant of the servant is the way,
In humble service, we find our stay.
Humble at heart, you seek no praise,
In simple service, you spend your days.
Content in Radharani's kitchen's glow,
No fanfare, no title, just love to show.
You teach us that greatness lies in the small,
In selfless service, we find it all.
With unassuming grace, you never seek praise,
For all that you do, you give to your Guru's ways.
From feeding the hungry to healing the sick,
Your humility shines, in actions so quick.
You never take credit for the good that's done,
Always seeing yourself as an instrument of the Divine One.
In divine grace, you humbly trust and rely
For all that is achieved is by His mercy, you testify.
As I struggle with anarthas, lost in the fray,
Bless me, dear Master, to walk in your way.
May your grace lead me closer to Krishna's light,
And may I always walk in your divine sight.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Mahraj. Vyasa-puja mediation is one way where we take a stock of our life used in your service. This year Maharaja has been a little slow. I am in my final year of my studies and remembering your instructions on simplicity and humility. Youre emphasis has always been to develop our Sadhana and services steadily. By your grace my studies have been on track and close to completion. However there is struggle regarding publishing papers. I am hoping and aspiring to get into iim nagpur purely because of one reason. Just to get the association of HG Gaurang pr. Under his guidance I am hoping that I will get a chance to further improve my seva and Sadhana. Although I am not so qualified to associate with such an elevated Vaisnava but it's only a small spiritual desire to help me in my devotional service if Krishna so desires. Rest I am simply trying to remember your instructions on cooperation in this age of Kali. We need to be united despite faults, weaknesses and shortcomings. Only then like Prachetas we will please the Lord and in doing so will please you. Thank you Maharaja for whatever you have given us. Your aspiring servant of your servants. Satyam Mishra Respected Shri Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet. All glories to Snila Prabhupada. All glories to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha.

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Sr Guru and Gauranga. Just glancing for last 31 years in the moment, I could see following projects which are executed and maintained over decades after decades.

- Rejuvenation and refurbishment of structural retrofitting at Shri Gopinatha Mandir.
- Construction and redevelopment of Gopal Garden High School.
- Construction of Bhakti Vedant Hospital and its extension.
- Govardhan Eco Village maintained over decades after decades due to your purity and devotion, more than thousands devotees are coming from all over the different parts of the world.
- Kartika-yatra where more than 10000 devotees are coming from all over the different parts of the world.
- Cooking in kitchen for devotees more than 10000 is a special Yagya.
- Satellite centres all over the India where lakhs and lakhs of unconditional souls are getting divine message of Lord Krishna, Lord Caitanya for purifying their life as well as so many students, girls, people are purified in their life.
- Children are getting Krishna Consciousness. Sanskar as such the life is becoming more sublime and with understanding of the meaning of human form of life.

Just thinking about all these multiple facets of your divine grace fills my heart. And what have | done to be granted by the Lord, such a great spiritual master? It is indeed causeless mercy. The true offering that one can give you on this day is the promise to become a sincere and good devotee. A disciple who is like this will be most useful as an instrument in this great movement of ISKCON, Srila Prabhupada's life and soul. Maharaja, if we please you then only Krishna will ever glance upon us. Without your mercy and prayers we find ourselves nowhere. As Srila Bhaktivinodé Thakura says, ekaki amar nahi paya bala - harinam sankirtana tumi kripa kori shraddha bindu diya - deho Krishna nama dhane Krishna se tomar krishéva dite para tomar shakati ache amu to kangala Krishna Krishna boli dhai tav pache pache

I want to promise you and try again to follow your instructions to the fullest extent to become a better devotee. My whole aim is to please you Maharaja and some day to become worthy of being called as your disciple. We are always on the platform of taking from you thus putting lot of stress on you. Maharaja, when will that day come, when in smallest capacity like an ant I may properly serve you and be useful to you. Thank you very much for all that you have done for us.

Maharaja, I have always wanted to glorify you as my guru but | have no words to express my feelings. I am just making an attempt to it.

As explained in Srimad-Bhagavatam (SB 1.7.22) “The spiritual master is the mercy representative of the Lord. Therefore a person burning in the flames of material existence may receive the rains of mercy of the Lord through the transparent medium of the self realised spiritual master. The Spiritual master by his words can penetrate into the heart of the suffering person and inject knowledge transcendental which alone can extinguish the fire of material existence.”

The secret of success in spiritual life is in satisfying the spiritual master and thereby getting his sincere blessings (SB.1.1.8)

Dearest Guru Maharaja, Please accept my koti koti Dandavat Pranamas in the dust of your holy lotus feet.

Gurudeva I am neither qualified nor so pure, hence it is impossible for me to glorify your divine qualities which are as vast as ocean. But to purify myself I am trying this insignificant attempt.

Gurudeva you are the embodiement of Trinad api sunichen sloka, this very sloka radiates from your trancendental body. Few years back at Nashik, I think during deity installation ceremony, you chose blade of grass as your role model, where as others mentioned many characters from scriptures as their role models.

You are always eager to give respect to everyone and shows your genuine concern for all living beings. Vivid example was your genuine concern about the little tortoise in our temple’s fountain pond.

Especially this year was Historic in the life of all Nashik devotees. na bhuto na bhavishyati... mercy. We all were so much blessed this year. We never dreamt of this mercy which you showered on all of us during your 4 days visit to Nashik. We are eternally grateful for this to you Gurudeva and Shikshashtakam Prabhu.

Meeting with all old devotees at Krishna Prabhu’s home, initiation ceremony, Godavari Arati, MahaSatsanga program, your association during darshan of Nashik temples etc. Thank you very much Gurudeva for all of this. You are always extending your self and going beyond, although time and health is not permitting still you came to Nashik and blessed all of us.

We all were wonderstruck to hear the nectarian Shri Ram katha from your lotus mouth and were feeling as if in Ramayana. All glories to your devine absoption in the Lord’s Pastimes.

Srila Gurudeva, I have no qualification, I am eternally grateful to you for accepting me (unworthy) as your servant(disciple). Kindly forgive my offences. Your mercy is the life air of whatever small devotional activities we are performing. We are nothing without your causeless mercy.

Thank you very much for everything GuruMaharaja.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to Gauranga Mahaprabhu

On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I feel fortunate to speak of your glories, though I am unqualified to truly glorify you. Guru Maharaja, you have always emphasized the importance of pleasing and following the instructions of the Spiritual Master. Your passion for Krishna Katha and Kirtana is truly awe-inspiring, and you constantly show me the path to take shelter in the Guru and the Supreme Lord, Shri Krishna.

Your mercy extends to everyone, reaching out to people and bringing them closer to Krishna. Your dedication to chanting the Holy Name deeply inspires me. Guru Maharaja, you have offered your very best in service to Srila Prabhupada, and your humility and tolerance toward other Vaisnavas are exemplary. The simplicity of your life, combined with your rigorous commitment to spiritual practices, stands as a testament to true devotion.

You show genuine sensitivity toward the Vaisnavas around you, always striving to make others feel valued and uplifted. The affectionate relationships you maintain with your godbrothers are a beautiful example of Vaisnava love and unity.

Although I haven't had the chance to personally serve you, I feel within my heart that you know me and continue to guide and support me. I feel blessed and protected under the shelter of your lotus feet.

Dear H.H. Radhanath, Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories unto you.

Dear Maharaja, I am completely fallen, and I have no hope in my life. I have no qualification to write an offering. I am somehow trying to write this offering.

Maharaja Your love for everyone gives me hope and is my hope in life. Maharaja, you are so loving and caring towards everyone, towards every living entity. Maharaja, your words give so much hope, shelter, and solace. Maharaja, to me, you are personalism personified. Maharaja I am grateful for whatever little opportunity I have received to serve you. I cherish those moments deeply in my heart. Maharaja, your darshan, your smile, your words, and your laughter give joy to the heart. Maharaja I am completely unqualified; still, somehow, I hope to receive your causeless mercy one day.

Maharaja I pray to you to please guide me from within. I beg you and pray to you for your love and mercy.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

You are a perfect example of an ideal spiritual master and an ideal disciple. I am deeply indebted to you for the vani sanga you so generously share with me through your devotional nectar-like lectures. They have literally saved my consciousness from falling into lower states.

Your constant mood of being the servant of the servant is truly inspiring, and you emphasize this repeatedly in your teachings. Though I try to implement this principle in my life, I often fall short. I humbly pray at your lotus feet that, by following in your footsteps, I may one day imbibe this exalted mood of being the servant of the servant of the servant.

I remember once when a devotee asked you, “What pleases you, Maharaja?” You instantly replied, “Whatever pleases Srila Prabhupada.” This response perfectly reflects your dedication and the mood you expect from your disciples.

I sincerely pray that, by your mercy, I may also come to understand the deeper mission and inner mood of Srila Prabhupada. Please accept this fallen soul at your lotus feet. Though unworthy, I am anxious to reach the pure standards of Krishna Consciousness. that Srila Prabhupada has set for us.

Please help me become a sincere servant, and kindly forgive my countless shortcomings. I remain ever hopeful of your mercy and guidance.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada. All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga Gurudeva.

First of all, I must acknowledge the great fortune of a small person like me to be associated with your most auspicious and great personality. Recently I was hearing a lecture that you had delivered regarding ‘Tolerating Provoking Situations.’ You had explained in that lecture how Prabhupada has given a perfect definition to judge the greatness of anyone in the whole universe, and you explained in detail the pastime where sages gathered together to find out the greatest personality in the whole of the universe. Bhrigu Muni was sent to find out who is the greatest amongst Brahma, Vishnu, and Maheswar Ji, and ultimately Vishnu was decided to be the greatest of all, as he tolerated the most provoking situation of being physically hit by the feet of Bhrigu Muni. Then it was explained in the lecture by your good self how Srila Prabhupada explains that anyone's greatness is to be judged by their ability to tolerate provoking situations and how in our lives also we should take a lesson and try to tolerate provoking situations. Maharaja Because you yourself have followed that wonderful teaching of Srila Prabhupada and have tolerated endless difficult situations in your own life, people like me take a lot of inspiration from tolerating the anarthas in our lives, keeping your good example in mind. Not only that, Maharaja, I have seen in my life that whenever I find myself in a provoking situation or turbulent times, I just try to remember your words, which I have heard in lectures, and try to tolerate the difficult situations in my life. This has not only helped me to overcome my mind's endless desires but has also given me confidence that I can also be in your association by remembering your words. Maharaja I am a very sinful person and may be one of the most low-class human beings, although associated with you. But I take inspiration from being in association with my seniors, equals, and newer devotees who try to follow your good self and Srila Prabhupada as Guru in their lives. I feel that devotees around me are expansions of your good self in my life, and when I interact with them, I try to serve Krishna in their association as if I am associating with you. Maharaja I pray for your good health because you are one of the most required persons on this Earth, and may your health be always good because you are inspiring millions and changing the hearts of billions on this planet. Trying to follow your words, although I keep failing every day.

Thank you for creating a community of devotees who are my guiding light and fulfill all the desires of those who get their association. Thank you so much, Gurudeva.
With gratitude and love, your small servant,
Vaibhavanand Das

Maharaja mentions this sloka in every lecture 'trnad api su-nicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina mana-dena kirtaniyah sada harih' and teaches us that unless we become more humble like a blade of grass, tolerant and forgiving like the tree, and unless we can joyfully offer respect to others without demanding it for ourselves, it is very difficult to chant the holy names of God continuously and with great feeling.

I only pray that Maharaja blesses us all to be able to continue forward on this path.

PAMHO!!!

Although m not eligible to offer glorifications,but by causeless mercy of vaishanavas I would like to make dis an opportunity to glorify you on ur auspicious day of appearance.

Maharaja!! it was first time in 2004 in Kartika month I was blessed to have ur divine darshan,although an atheist earlier I was totally blown wid divinity with ur gesture and compassionate glance.

While I pen down about ur remarkable contributions the list is endless

Maharaja u hav pioneered for truly remarkable projects like GEV,Bhakti Vedanta Hospital Gopals Garden school etc

U hav extended beyond to keep ur promise to serve brajwasis in Barsana thro eye and dental camp.....which has added to lives of many and also has been life transforming experience for many devotee doctors and paramedical team who served in this project

Ur truly source of inspiration for ur transcendental dealings wid ur God Brothers and Sisters

Ur Love for ur disciples is highly appreciable

U hav cultivated gems like bhramacharis and ghrihasthas who have enlightened the lives of many by helping them to walk on the path of pure devotion....

Ur mesmerizing kirtanas and ur ecstatic dance that I witnessed during South India And Jagannath Puri Kartika-yatra are so relishable. Being a part of fond memories Pune yatra was my supreme fortune

Gurudeva.....words fall short to describe ur unlimited glories

Gurudeva lastly I wud like to express my heart to seek some solace,as past 5 years hav been a phase of struggle and downs in my life and thus I have taken shelter of Dhaam.... and somehow by ur Grace I hav surpassed dis tough phase of my life. I Begg at ur feets to bless me so that I can imbibe few qualities of urs and assist u in serving the mood and mission of Srila Prabhupada. I am truly grateful and indebted to u to eternity for connecting an insignificant soul like me to such a bonafide parampara. I am truly blessed to have such a reverred Guru in my life who walks his talks

To such a guru I offer millions of obeisances on the auspicious day of appearance.

Hare Krishna, PAMHO
JAI GURUDEVA ??
In Sri Upadesamrita, Srila Rupa Gosvami says in the first verse that the qualification of a guru or who can become a guru is the right to accept a disciple.
The verse is

वाचो वेगं मनसः क्रोधवेगं
जह्विावेगमुदरोपस्थवेगम्|
एतान्वेगान्यो वशित् धीरः
सर्वामपमिां पृथिवीं स शष्यिात्|

This means that

The patient/ Dhir man who can bear the impulses of speech, mind, anger, tongue, stomach, and past/sex desire deserves to be accepted as a disciple all over the world.

If we talk about these six things, we will come to know that these six vegas were controlled and tolerated by the Maharaja before he came to ISKCON.

1. Speed of Speech - If you see, Maharaja never slandered or hated anyone, there were many adverse situations in his life, many wrong people met him, and he suffered a lot through them, but he took positive thoughts from them and gave me such positive thoughts that it helped me to increase my endurance.

2. Mind - Talking about Maharaja's mind control, Maharaja kept his vow to never get addicted while traveling to India, he kept it till the end and even when he was proposed to by a girl during the journey, he refused to give up his mind and moved towards his spiritual goal.

3. Krodh/ Anger - Maharaja was always tolerant, humble, and without reproach, so he never got angry with anyone and never complained to anyone, on the contrary, we understand that he reached the height of his tolerance by taking inspiration from adverse situations without getting angry, so we see him as a humble personality.

4. Jiwa/ Tongue - Maharaja was always satisfied with what he got, he was never attracted to tasty food or by it, and still, if you look at his diet, it is very simple and in small quantities

5. Stomach -There have been many occasions in the life of the Maharaja in which he has remained without food and one incident in his life is that he had observed a waterless fast on the banks of the Ganges in the Himalayas for the satisfaction of the Ganges and he had nothing to break his fast when he got a peanut pouch and when he was about to eat it, the monkey came and snatched it and after snatching some peanuts fell, he bent down to pick them up until the other monkey took all the peanuts and ate them.

6. Sex desire- It is very difficult to control this speed, but we can see that the Maharaja has been deprived of it since childhood, one of the examples is that in Istanbul, the Maharaja was sitting on the street shivering in the cold, when a woman from a rich family came there and took him home, and at night while he was sleeping, the woman forced him to have sex with her. But Maharaja freed himself from the woman without caring for his life and ran away from the clutches of her bodyguard.

In this way, Maharaja is the eternal divine personality, the eternal associate of the Lord, and we come to know that he has come to this world to give grace to beings like us.

I shall always strive to imbibe at least a little of Guru Maharaja's unique qualities in me and I shall always try to follow his teachings and orders.

HH Radhanath Swami Mahara ki jay??.
Thank you..

महाराज जी आपके चरणों में कोटि कोटि प्रणाम,

आपके विषय में कुछ बोलने या लिखने की मेरी कोई काबलियित नहीं है, पर प्रभुपाद जो कि कृपा से यह ढाढस कर रहा हु, कोई त्रुटि या अपराध हो तो इस अग्यानी को क्षमा करें।

मै पहले आपके विषय में यही सोचता था कि अंग्रेज है ,भगवा पहनने से थोड़ी न कोई भक्त हो जाता हे।

क्या पता अंदर क्या होगा।

पर आदर तोह मन था कि मेरे लाला का भक्त है।

फिर मुझे तृषार्त पथिक किताब मिली किसे पढ़ने प्रभुजी ने आग्रह किया,

मैने सोचा अपनी ही जीवनी लिखने वाला अपनी ही बढ़ाई करेगे।

जैसे जैसे पन्ने खुलते गए मै रोमांचित होता गया,

मेरी मूर्खता मेरे सामने नाचनी लगी

आपका सफर मानो मै खुद कर रहा हु

आपका आंदोलन में हिस्सा लेने देश छोड़ना, प्रेम प्रस्ताव को स्वीकार न करना,

कामुक महिला के घर से भागना,अलग अलग धर्म की शिक्षा लेना

अपनी जन पर खेलना,

भारत में प्रवेश

किया हुआ वादा,

ट्रेन का सफ़र,गुफा में रहना,गंगा से मंत्र सुनना, पशुपति दर्शन महान योगी का साथ मुंबई में प्रभुपाद जी कीर्तन में जाना

कृष्ण पुस्तक लेना वृन्दावन में जाना

बाल कटना

बीमार पड़ना वीज़ा रिन्यूव करना प्रभुपाद जी से मिलना

उनसे अनुग्रह की याचना करना

संन्यास लेना वचनपूर्ति करना

आआपका जीवन सफर अद्भुत है

वैसे ही आपके गुरु, इसीलिए शायद आपके शिष्य भी उतने ही प्रतिभाशाली बनते है

आपका यह जीवन मेरे लिए ऊर्जा और प्रेरणा का स्त्रोत है जिसमें मै भी परिपक्व होने की अभिलाषा रखता हू।

अतः आपके सहस्त्रयुषी होने की कमाना के साथ प्रभुपाद और राधा गोविन्द जी चरणों प्रार्थना करता हूं कि आपकी ऐसे ही अनुकम्पा पूरे संसार को प्राप्त होती रहे।

हरे कृष्ण हरे कृष्ण कृष्ण कृष्ण हरे हरे।
हरे राम हरे राम राम राम हरे हरे।।

HARE Krishna Maharaja Ji, I bow down to your feet in millions,

I have no ability to speak or write anything about you, but, doing this by the grace of God and Srila Prabhupada if there is any mistake, please forgive this ignorance.

Earlier I used to think about you that you are an Englishman, wearing saffron clothes does not make one a devotee.

Who knows what is inside.

But I had respect for you because you are a devotee of my Lala.

Then I got the book ""The Journey Home "", which Prabhuji urged me to read,

I thought that the one who writes his own biography will praise himself.

As,I turned the pages, I became thrilled,

My foolishness started dancing in front of me,

It was as if I am doing your journey myself,

Leaving the country to participate in the movement, not accepting the love proposal,

Running away from the house of a lustful woman,

Taking education of different religions,

Playing with your people,

Entering India,

The promise made,

The journey in the train,

In the cave Staying, listening to mantras from the Ganges, Pashupati Darshan, being with the great yogi, attending Prabhupada's kirtana in Mumbai

Buying the Krishna book, going to Vrndavana

Getting a haircut

Falling sick, renewing visa, meeting Prabhupada

Pleading for his blessings

Taking sannyas, fulfilling a promise

Your journey of life is amazing.

So are your gurus, that is why perhaps your disciples also became equally talented.

This life of yours is a source of energy and inspiration for me, in which I also aspire to mature.

So, wishing for you to live a thousand years, I pray at the feet of Prabhupada and Radha Govinda that the whole world may continue to receive your blessings.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our respectful obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

This year before the Mayapur Yatra, during the fund raiser event for TOVP you were asked to speak. This means the organizers anticipated that you will be asking people to donate to TOVP to help complete the beautiful home for Sri Sri Radha Madhav, Sri Sri Pancha Tattva and Sri Sri Prahlad Narasimha Dev. It was amazing to hear you speak on the fund raising event. The way you asked everyone to support the TOVP, was so enchanting and full of love and devotion for the devotees of the Lord. You mentioned that so many senior disciples of Srila Prabhupada, who have given their lives in service of Srila Prabhupada, may not be around for very long time. It would be wonderful to complete and inaugurate the TOVP in the lifetime of these saintly Vaisnavas. Thus you communicated the urgency of supporting the completion of TOVP. It was a heart touching expression of your love for your god brothers and god sisters and setting an excellent example of how we should have respect, love and devotion for not only the Lord but our contemporary Vaisnavas.

On the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, we beg at your lotus feet, that let this consciousness, even a drop of it be imbibed in us. You fulfilled your obligation to the organizers of TOVP showing the urgency of supporting the cause but at the same time it was such a beautiful expression of your love for devotees. Let this love for Vaisnavas, be imbibed in us. We desire no other benedictions or goal.

Thank you very much.
Your servant,

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances. I consider myself most fortuanate for getting an opportunity to glorify my spiritual father on his 74th appearance day.

Maharaja, recently we visited Kolkata before joining Kartika-yatra at Sri dham Mayapur. We took a guided tour of holy places of the city where Srila Prabhupada performed his transcendental pastimes.

After a tiring day in a heavy traffic of the city, we reached the Ulta Danga junction in late evening. I never expected that a run down old place of a dirty city, could be transformed to such a beautiful temple, which will serve for centuries as a historic chapter in ISKCON's history.

This transformation is not possible with just some smart reparings and interior designing. It's actually manifestation of your love for Srila Prabhupada. We were spell bound to see minutest details have been taken care of.

Maharaja, it was a thrilling spiritual experience where we could feel the divine presence of Srila Prabhupada and Srila Bhkati Sidhanta Sarsvati Thakur. We were literally transformed a hundred year back when Bhakti Sidhanta Maharaja instructed young Abhay to go to the Western world and preach bhagavata dharma in English language.

Dear Guru Maharaja, while we pray to Sri Krishna today for your good health and long life, we also seek your blessings to commit our dedication to serve you in whatever way you wants us to serve.

Whenever I hear ur lecture, the full picture of the subject of the words appears in front of my eyes. And whenever I see you, It reminds me of verse Trunadapi sunichena.....of Shikshaashtakam prayers.

I want to tell you one of my experiences. I had come with my Gaur Nitai Deities. I wanted you to name my deities. I asked our councillor Shreemaan Satyanarayan Prabhuji. Prabhuji said that it is Jagannath Mishra festival. Come with it on that day and we will get it. (my husband Dattatreya Bhagavan Prabhu and his two brothers) came to the temple with their respective Vigrahas till two o'clock. After waiting for a little while, Shreemaan Satyanaaraayan was asking Prabhuji again and again, Prabhuji said, don't worry, the name of your Vigraha will be declared today. So at night after the whole festival was over, Param Pooja Guru Maharaja you came with two roses in your hands, as soon as I saw you I bowed to you then you gave me a rose flower and my eyes started shedding tears, I took that flower home came and ate the whole flower because you had blessed him.

Dear Maharaja,

With time in spiritual life, I realise more and more your exalted example of a spiritual seeker and try to emulate the principles of humility, simplicity and tolerance in my life. You have shown me how to put myself last and other Vaisnavas first and the joy in doing that. It was incomprehensible to an egotist like me coming from a competitive background where all my life I've been brainwashed into believing success is being first. I seek your mercy more and more to overcome the obstacles in my spiritual life.

I've learnt from this yatra how important it is to preach the message of Lord Caitanya to one and all in the guidance of superiors and to execute any spiritual project under the blessings of Vaisnavas. You have said, it's by the order of Srila Prabhupada who wanted the entire world to be in mayapur that made your qualification to be in mayapur. It showed to me that I need to aspire to see my qualification in spiritual life which is made by the merciful instructions of the senior Vaisnavas.

I seek blessings from you regarding the preaching endeavor I'm part of through bhakti kutir at vanasthalipuram where about 25 devotees are visiting the program weekly. I pray for mercy to hasten their spiritual progress and make them stable as well as to bring other new souls into Krishna Consciousness..

Personally I'm aspiring to complete Bhagavatam, reading remembering how you have studied the books of Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna. I am very grateful to you for all the teachings and learnings that you have given to us in the form of lectures, through your spiritual practices and through your books. I remember when I was new to Krishna Consciousness. I was not so much inclined, however, a few of the devote is caught in touch with me, and they shared some beautiful lectures of you which I used to hear and try to inculcate. Over the years I have been listening to your lectures. When I do so, I become quite ecstasy in learning about Krishna. I am very much grateful to Lord Krishna for sending many representatives of him who are giving us countless number of learnings, teachings through their practices, through their words by which a living entity who is trapped in this material world he gets to understand what's the real purpose of it. Out of those representatives, you are one of those whom I am connected to. Thank you for sharing all these wonderful knowledge in a very simple and easy process. I appreciate it. Hopefully one day in life I would get a chance to be a part of the disciplining succession of Srila Prabhupada and Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu by accepting you as my spiritual master. Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna to all the devotees,
Dandavat Pranama,

I am very grateful that I got this chance to offer something in the glorification of my beloved guru Maharaja.

You know, this story just astonishes, A young boy in his early 19s left his loving house in Chicago to search for the truth. He was not trying to enjoy himself like any other person, but his heart was dissatisfied to get answer about the 'self'..'

The journey begins, going through many countries and many tough situations, and he finally reaches the borders of Bharat. He was strongly resisted by the security office for his entry to this great land. But he promised that he has not came to beg anything, he will give someday for sure. That boy kept his promise till date and he is inspiring millions of people via his behaviour and speech.

I am sure we can guess that boy is none other than His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji. Maharaja's humility, compassion and servitude knows no boundaries. In this kaliyuga, when youngsters like me are getting indulged in all kind of bad habits even after having born in the great land of Bharat, Maharaja as a young boy didn't got distracted from his path and now he is transforming lives of many like me. Sometimes, I really mesmerize by the thought that who is guiding us, the type of qualities guru Maharaja has are just beyond this world.

It is my great fortune that I got shelter unde the lotus feet of His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja Ji and it's my misfortune that I am not able to follow him properly. I pray for the mercy of all the Vaisnavas, Srila Prabhupada and the supreme personality of godhead, so that I can follow my spiritual master and do something for his pleasure.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!!
All glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja ji!!!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my most humble and respectful obeisance onto your lotus feet.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada!
All glory to you, Srila Gurudeva, and all glory to Sri Gauranga!

We learn from the life of Sri Krishna Caitanya Mahaprabhu that one should be perfect in both practice and preaching of Krishna Consciousness.. I am personally deeply touched by your Vaisnava qualities, especially the quality of humility, which is a perfect example for me to follow. As we hear that humility alone attracts the mercy of Lord Krishna, because of your humility, you are very dear to Guru Parampara and Krishna, which is visible in your ability to uplift the fallen person, such as me. We see that all of our previous acaryas have exhibited this quality of humility in inconceivable ways, and because of this, they were empowered in extraordinary ways to perform many wonderful pastimes that are humanly impossible. Generally, in this world, humility is considered to be a weakness, but actually, it's the only medium that connects us with the source of all strength, Sri Krishna, and thus it enables us to transcend all qualities born of the three modes of material nature and remain firmly fixed in achieving the goal in loving service to Sri Sri Radha Krishna as servant of the servant. Dear Gurudeva, you are the personification of this quality of humility and pridelessness, and thus, you are empowered to transform the heart of a fallen person like me. Because of this wonderful quality of humility, your words are saturated with the mercy of Guru Parampara. At least I have this one thing in you (the quality of humility) to look up in my life, which bestows all other good qualities in the person. It's unknown to the rest of the world about the glories of the quality of humility, but it can easily be understood from your example. Your sublime realizations of Krishna Consciousness., which are born of your natural quality of humility, are my true wealth and are my savior, which has kept me going on and on, year after year, on the path of Krishna Consciousness. despite all token challenges due to my past and present sinful and offensive deeds. After hearing from you, all my weaknesses are becoming my strengths by connecting myself with Krishna as the servant of the servant. Otherwise, this world was a great puzzle for me, and it would have been impossible for me to face the fearful situations in this material world. In other words, my life is your property because presently you are the life of my life. I am trying to follow in your footsteps with the best possible knowledge and understanding of your teachings. Of course, I am struggling in many ways, and I am sure that by Krishna's sweet will, you know my struggles. Because of my shortcomings, I feel hesitant in coming in front of you, fearing that I may spoil your mood of absorption in Krishna's consciousness. But I want to improve in this area so that I may serve you as your humble servant. Please bestow upon me the best possible personal qualifications to be the servant of the servant to please you. I consider this to be the success of my life. Otherwise, I have no hope to improve. "Chaya vega domi, chaya dosa sodhi, chaya guna deho dase. Chaya sat sanga deho he amare bosechi sangera ase."

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I am reminded of my childhood Mayapur yatras, where my friend and I would compete to touch your lotus feet the most. It filled me with joy to succeed in touching your feet 3-4 times, feeling a deep sense of connection and blessing even then. These memories are etched in my heart and remind me of your compassionate and accessible nature.

Even now, I find immense inspiration and joy in your kirtanas and heartfelt Damodarashtakams, which bring a unique sweetness and devotion that stays with me long after hearing them.

I am forever grateful for your loving guidance and pray for your blessings to remain sincere in my bhakti journey. Please continue to inspire us all with your profound devotion and service to Srila Prabhupada. Thank you, Maharaja, for being the light that leads us closer to Krishna.

To my beloved Spiritual Father,

I want to begin this with a grateful heart because you accepted this fallen soul when I was all alone and was finding a way to calm down. My mind was restless I was searching for answers to my questions no one was there then I got you as Krishna's mercy and you got my path, my perfection, my all answers, and my Spiritual Master.

Thank you for coming into my life. You make it bloom like a beautiful garden. The word reciprocation I understand when you entered my life and started reciprocating with love and compassion. When I was all hopeless, you gave me hope. Whenever I was in the dark, you became my sunshine, and when I was all scared, you gave me the confidence to glow. Because of you,

I'm able to survive in this world again and start believing in faith and love.

You taught me what is the right path in life and how to walk on it.

Your Delhi visit was very inspiring and I'm so grateful to you for all the love you gave me. 8 am whatever today is because of you and Since now I am here in GEV to serve you and here only for you and to follow your instructions. I need your blessings to fulfill Prabhupada's dream and you love to survive while preaching the movement. I know you're always with me and listening to the inner voice you're the greatest. I believe Krishna sent you specially to guide us so that we can reach the Supreme.

Thank you for everything.

I have a lot to write but ending with The only prayer I have is Gurudeva!

kr?pa-bindu diya, koro' ei dase, tr?n?a-pekha ati hina.

Hope the heart-to-heart connection will continue and I will cherish it forever. I'll serve you forever and requesting you to always bless me with your love So I can continue this journey home as always.

Thank you for your kindness, Guru Maharaja. I love you like no other.

May Krishna protect you always.

Hare Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet

This is the first time I tried to articulate my gratitude for you.

I am extremely grateful for the nectarine Bhagavatam classes which you have given

They are my shelter when I am feeling lost, confused, lazy,y, or contaminated- I get my answers, clarity, enthusiasmsm, sm, and purity back from them.

I get appreciation and faith and gratitude for those whom I never met grossly- our whole parampara Acaryas, Lord Caitanya, and Krishna.

You explain the highest and purest meanings of the pastimes of the Lord and his devotees and how every demon in those stories is right there sitting in my own heart and controlling my life and how to cry out in these situations to the holy names and the devotees to save us and uplift us.

You showed me what matters (humility, association, purity, absorption in the chanting, speaking, hearing, singing, serving....) and the rest of the things of this world - “we just deal with them”

Your bhajans are what they call - “crying for Krishna. “ Every word is so pure and potent that one can experience divinity as if Krishna descended. It’s so helpless begging for the Lord to descend and save us, exactly similar to what Gajendra or Draupadi might have cried.

Thank you for sending many of your most sincere followers into my life who are consistently trying to protect me and uplift me.

Thank you for compassionately descending into this world.

I am a lazy, insincere, duplicitous, and faithless person. There is no hope on my own. I am completely dependent on the prayers of superiors and the arrangements of Krishna.

I will try to hear you daily, become transparent, and surrender to your representative _ HG Sri Ram Raghav Prabh.

May everyone in this world receive what you have come to give.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you, and all glories to Srila Prabhupada. On this most auspicious day of Vyasa-puja, I offer my heartfelt gratitude for your boundless mercy, which you have so graciously extended to this fallen soul. Though I am unworthy, you have allowed me to experience the nectar of devotional life, to associate with the Vaisnavas, and to take shelter of the Supreme Lord, Sri Krishna. By your grace, I have been given the opportunity to engage my senses in Krishna's service, and for this, I am eternally grateful.

"om ajñana-timirandhasya jñanañjana-salakaya caksur unmilitam yena tasmai sri-gurave namah"

"I offer my respectful obeisances unto my spiritual master, who has opened my eyes, which were blinded by the darkness of ignorance, with the torchlight of knowledge."

Guru Maharaja, you have shown me that true life begins when one dedicates all of one's senses to serving the Lord. Your teachings and guidance have opened my eyes to the divine treasures of Krishna Consciousness.. Despite my shortcomings and with no knowledge, but only by your mercy I have been able to preach Krishna's message in the Bhagavad Gita twice a week to my family members, friends and close relatives, sharing the divine wisdom of Krishna's teachings with others. I humbly recognize that without your blessings, this would not have been possible. It is your mercy that empowers me to speak, and it is by your grace that my heart finds joy in sharing Krishna's message.

"yada yada hi dharmasya glanir bhavati bharata abhyutthanam adharmasya tadatmanam srjamy aham"_

— Bhagavad-gita 4.7

"Whenever and wherever there is a decline in religious practice, O descendant of Bharata, and a predominant rise of irreligion—at that time I descend Myself."

We are born in this age of Kali, where dharma is often neglected. Your guidance, however, has reminded me that even in this age, the Lord's mercy is abundantly available through the chanting of His holy names, how Krishna is non different from his name and the sharing of His divine teachings.

Visiting the holy dhams this year has been a transformative experience, awakening my dormant devotion and deepening my connection to Krishna and His devotees. The journey began with Kancheepuram in Tamil Nadu, where I felt the sacred atmosphere of ancient temples and the soothing presence of the Lord. Each holy place visited has left an indelible mark on my heart, but Jagannath Puri especially stands out.

In Jagannath Puri, we had the sacred opportunity to take darshan of Subhadra Mai and Lord Jagannath. The sight of Their merciful forms filled my heart with joy, yet I felt something was missing, as we had not seen Baladeva. We went back to seek His darshan not once but two or three more times, as if Lord Baladeva Himself was inviting us back to behold His transcendental form. This repeated return to the temple reminded me of the Lord's limitless compassion, always drawing us closer. When it was time to leave, a profound sense of separation gripped my heart, as if Jagannath was calling me back to stay in His presence. I felt His divine pull, urging me to remain connected to Him no matter where I was.

"dhyayato visayan pumsah sangas tesupajayate sangat sañjayate kamah kamat krodho 'bhijayate"

— Bhagavad-gita 2.62

"While contemplating the objects of the senses, a person develops attachment for them, and from such attachment lust develops, and from lust anger arises."

Just as attachment to material objects binds us, attachment to the Lord and His holy places frees us. At Puri, I felt my heart deeply attached to the divine forms of the Lord, realizing that true longing is for Krishna alone. Having the mahaPrasada of Jagannath at Anand Bazaar further connected me to the Lord. To honor the remnants of His food was to accept His mercy in the most tangible form, nourishing my soul.

”patram puspam phalam toyam yo me bhaktya prayacchati tad aham bhakty-upahrtam asnami prayatatmanah”

— Bhagavad-gita 9.26

”If one offers Me with love and devotion a leaf, a flower, fruit, or water, I will accept it.”

The opportunity to visit other holy dhams such as Mayapur, Dakshineshwari, Kalighat, and Govardhan Eco Village has further blessed me with the grace of the Lord’s mercy. In Mayapur, I was overwhelmed by the sanctity of Mahaprabhu’s birthplace. Standing at that sacred spot where the golden avatar appeared to spread the glories of the holy name was profoundly moving. I also had the chance to learn about His pastimes, like the one with Chand Kazi, who initially tried to stop the public chanting of the holy names. However, through Mahaprabhu’s divine intervention, the Kazi became favorable towards sankirtana, teaching me the power of bhakti to melt even the hardest of hearts.

”harer nama harer nama harer namaiva kevalam kalau nasty eva nasty eva nasty eva gatir anyatha”

”In this age of Kali, there is no other way, no other way, no other way for spiritual progress than chanting the holy name, chanting the holy name, chanting the holy name of the Lord.”

In Mayapur, the land of sankirtana, I felt the potency of the holy name and Lord Caitanya’s mercy vibrating in the air. The experiences there ignited a deeper appreciation for the congregational chanting of the holy names, which can deliver even the most fallen souls.

At Govardhan Eco Village, I had the honor of serving the cows. Your teachings have instilled in me the understanding that Krishna’s love for the cows is a sign of His compassion for all living beings. The Lord’s pastime of lifting Govardhan Hill to protect the cows and His devotees illustrates His affection for them. By caring for these gentle creatures, I felt I was serving Krishna directly, engaging in an act dear to His heart.

”namo brahmanya-devaya go-brahmana-hitaya ca jagad-dhitaya Krishnaya govindaya namo namah”

”I offer my respectful obeisances to Krishna, who is the worshipable deity for all brahmanas, the well-wisher of cows and brahmanas, and the benefactor of the entire world.”

Having multiple opportunities to take darshan of the sacred Ganga was another blessing beyond measure. Each encounter with her holy waters brought purification, reminding me that Krishna’s mercy flows continuously, washing away our sins and material attachments.

”ganga taranga ramaneeya jataa kalapam, gauree niraantara vibhooshita vaama bhaagam, naarayana priyamanangamadaapahaaram, vaaraana seepurapate tava suprabhaatam.”

”May the auspicious morning be unto you, O Lord of Varanasi, whose matted hair is adorned with the waves of the Ganga, whose left side is always decorated by the goddess Gauri, who is beloved by Narayana, and who dispels the pride of Cupid.”

Guru Maharaja, you have taught me that true spiritual life involves the purification of the senses by dedicating them to Krishna’s service. It is by your grace that I can engage my eyes to see the deities and sacred places, my ears to hear the holy names, my hands to serve the Vaisnavas, my tongue to taste Prasadam, and my legs to walk in the dhams. Even though I am unworthy, you have blessed me with the chance to experience these divine moments. I pray to continue using my senses for the pleasure of Lord Krishna, as you have so mercifully instructed.

I offer my deepest gratitude to you, Guru Maharaja, for allowing me to partake in Krishna’s pastimes, associate with the Vaisnavas, and grow in my spiritual journey. It is your mercy that has opened the doors of bhakti to me, and I humbly pray to always remain under your shelter, striving to serve you and Krishna with devotion and sincerity.

May I always remember that it is by your blessings that I am able to walk in the holy places, see the divine forms of the deities, taste the sweetness of Krishna's Prasadam, and hear the holy names chanted in the association of devotees. With a heart filled with gratitude, I pray that I may never forget these blessings and continue to grow in devotion under your mercy.

Your compassion reminds me of Krishna's tender care for His devotees, like when He ran barefoot on the scorching sands to rescue His friend Sudama. In this way, may your loving guidance reach the hearts of countless souls, drawing them closer to the lotus feet of the Lord. May your teachings inspire us to follow in your footsteps with humility and dedication, just as the Pandavas faithfully followed Krishna, knowing that wherever He stood, victory and virtue would always prevail.

Just as Krishna extended His mercy to even the most humble creatures, like the sparrows and cows of Vrndavana, may your compassion embrace all living beings, inspiring us to cultivate kindness in our hearts. When Krishna subdued Kaliya, the serpent, He danced on Kaliya's hoods, transforming the deadly poison into nectar by His divine touch. Similarly, may your teachings transform the poisons of ignorance and doubt in our hearts into the nectar of devotion and wisdom.

May we take inspiration from Krishna's childhood pastime of stealing butter, reminding us to seek Him with the same eagerness and joy that He sought out the hidden pots of sweetness. May we strive to follow you with the simplicity and enthusiasm of the cowherd boys who played with Krishna, knowing that every moment in your presence is an opportunity to grow closer to Him.

Guru Maharaja, may we always walk the divine journey back to Godhead under your ever-merciful shelter, taking refuge in the path you have so kindly shown us. May your life continue to be an endless source of inspiration for us, teaching us to serve with unwavering faith, just as Hanuman served Lord Rama with boundless strength and dedication. May we all learn to follow in your footsteps, and through your grace, become true servants of Sri Krishna, pleasing Him by pleasing you.

Thank you for being there when we need you. Thank you for always answering and clearing our doubts.

Guru Maharaja, your health is very important for our tender spiritual life. We beg the mercy of Lord Nrsimhadeva, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Sri Sri Krishna Balaram to keep you in your best health. May your compassionate teachings inspire us to serve with humility, dedication, and unwavering faith, following in your footsteps on this divine journey back to Godhead. Just as Krishna lifted Govardhan Hill to protect the residents of Vrndavana, may He continue to uphold you and empower you to guide and shelter all those who seek refuge in your teachings. Through your tireless service and shining example, may you continue to illuminate the path of bhakti, just as Krishna brought light to the Gopis' hearts by playing His enchanting flute in the moonlit forests of Vrndavana.

Thank you so Much for Goverdhan Ecovillage!

GuruMaharaja as I was preparing for IAS I felt so much need of eco-friendly village and I was thinking if There is something which is favourable for all friendly and found GEV sustainability project! I like to join this beautiful project for more understanding and service, By your mercy and Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana bihari Ji's mercy.

Thank you so much for giving us most valuable and devoted Teachers like HH Bhakti Rasamrit Swami Maharaja ji, HG radheshyam prabhuji and HG gaurang prabhuji. Thank you so much for establishing organised Institutions of Krishna Consciousness. virtually and visually. Thank you so much for your Discipline teachings.

GuruMaharaja I so much blessed By Causeless Mercy of Lord so I able to attend Mayapur Kartika-yatra 2024 for gaining more mercy from all of you. There I was witnessed that you are a very precious jewel of Srila Prabhupada and Lord Caitanya's treasure!

I came to ISKCON having a thought that I need Gurudeva! As I was thinking that My GuruMaharaja's personality I can see in yourself, Purity, discipline, humble, Knowledgeable, generater of leaders, fully absorb in Krishna Consciousness., Taking care of body, mind and soul, Civilized, equal for each soul, understanding before following or accepting, respecting all, caring and serving to needy once.

Thank you so much for Divine HariNaam Sankirtana Meditative Nights. Wonderful arrangements during Kartika-yatra.

May be I'm not qualified being layman, poor, uncivilized and unworthy fellow to be your disciple But I want to be yours only My dear Lord! Because I need SRI Sri Radha Govind forever! I don't know how much time it will take, I will try My best to be yours. Please bless your Insignificant child.

I'm planning for marriage inspired by our Aacarya's thoughts that a girl is suitable to be mother. GuruMaharaja I have a dream that in My marriage I should receive your blessings and other Senior Vaisnavaa's blessings for My healthy Krishna Conscious marriage life. Please bless your child.

I'm continuously praying that My life partner should be yours and Srila Prabhupada's Sincere and devoted Disciple. Please bless me to be sincere and surrendered Responsible nature to serve all of you selflessly.

Please forgive me if I did any mistake and please pray that I learnt and not repeat any mistake again.

Thank you so much for your everything.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances

Recent Kartika-yatra had been extremely enlivening for me. Where my appreciation and affection for your greatness have multiplied multifold!! Indeed you are one the most dear and confidential servant of Srila Prabhupada; carrying his mercy to everyone and bringing whoever is willing to the family of Caitanya Mahaprabhu. And there is no possibility of a toddler like me to be able to understand your glories.

Yet I feel so fortunate and grateful that you are accessible to all of us through your lectures. I remember hearing from one senior devotee who was telling how you put so much of your energy and prayers in your Vani.. and that means a lot to everyone and me also. just wish to reciprocate with my insignificant attempts to

1) Hear your vaani regularly

2) Follow your teachings with my heart and Soul

3) Carry the mood and attitude of a sadhaka you describe especially the trinad api sunicena

And this is my greatest fortune and perfection of my life by hearing and following them

Dandwat Pranama!

Whenever I start writing the offering, I am short of words always. I had never imagine that I will ever be able to meet you, but you blessed the whole Delhi city by coming here. Hope I am able to follow your instructions, and serve and love the devotees. Trying to start a new preaching program with a spirit of giving individualized attention to each devotee.

I am really aspiring to take Diksha from you, but I know I am not qualified... but at the same time I cannot imagine taking Diskha from anyone else. Please forgive my mistakes and offenses, please bless me and the family which is in care of me to grow spiritually and develop even the slightest tinge of pure devotional service!

Also a new family member is coming in our family, hope the child gets blessings from you and become a servant of the servant!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja ji,

I don't know where to begin with. I saw you first at Radha Gopinatha temple and saw Devotees bowing down to you. This was in 2019.. And I wondered why are Devotees Bowing down to you. But there was something special. The afternoon Kirtana that the Devotees were singing..(just before the temple shuts) melted my heart. A stone heart like me melted at the temple. That was the turning point in my life.

I offer my Prayers to Radha Gopinatha to keep you protected always and keep me under Srila Prabhupada's shelter and your Guidance in all my lifetimes to come.

Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday Maharaja.

Thank You for "The Journey Home"

I express my deepest gratitude for the book The Journey Back Home: A Divine Love Story. It is an inspirational and profound work that offers deep spiritual insights, particularly for engaging in preaching and spiritual service.

As a humble preacher, I have endeavoured to imbibe several key lessons from this book:

1. Emphasis on Humility and Service:

The book highlights the importance of personal purification and growth in service to others. As a preacher, this reinforces the need for personal humility, self-discipline, and spiritual practice. Our own inner evolution and example are often the most compelling way to inspire others. Throughout the book, Radhanath Swami emphasizes that preaching is not about impressing others with knowledge, but about becoming a conduit for divine wisdom and offering genuine service to those seeking the truth.

2. Integrating Spirituality into Daily Life

A central theme in The Journey Back Home is the integration of spiritual wisdom into every aspect of life. Spiritual practice is not limited to temple rituals or philosophical discourses—it must permeate all areas of our daily life—relationships, work, and personal conduct. As a preacher, I aim to make spirituality relevant and practical for my audience, helping them apply these teachings in their everyday lives.

Your teachings on “Positive Humility” have profoundly reshaped my understanding of service and leadership. In the modern world, the concept of “Boss anu Boss” represents the idea of rising to a position of power over others. However, through your guidance and the teachings of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, I have come to understand that true leadership is not about mastering others but about being the servant of the servant of the servant. This is the essence of the transformation from “Boss anu Boss” to “Das anu Das,” which is at the very heart of your gospel.

Caitanya Mahaprabhu’s teachings show us that our highest identity is that of a humble servant—servant of the servant. Through your example, I have learned that positive humility is the highest form of leadership. True leadership is not about seeking power but about serving others with love, serving God with purity, and serving the devotees of the Lord with sincerity.

Where the world celebrates “Boss anu Boss”—a power-driven pursuit of prestige—”Das anu Das” teaches us to humble ourselves as servants, dedicated to serving with devotion. Through your example, Maharaja, I have witnessed the true meaning of leadership—not through authority, but through service, humility, and love.

Thank you for your lectures, which continue to inspire me. In one lecture, you revealed that the highest offering we can make is to dedicate our lives to service in the spirit of positive humility—to be Das anu Das not merely as a concept but as a daily practice. I vow to follow this path, to transform my ego-driven leadership into a life of service, and to humbly live as a servant of the servants.

In this way, I offer my life as a humble tribute to you, Maharaja. Through this transformation, I hope to become a more sincere servant of the Lord, His devotees, and the teachings you have so selflessly imparted.

Lastly, Initiation Name: The spiritual milestone from a temporary material Name to eternal spiritual name with suffix Das.

”My initiated name, Sraddhavan Das, given by yourself and HH Bhakti Rasamrita Swami Maharaja, carries profound significance. ‘Sraddhavan’ means ‘faithful,’ reflecting on my aspiration for unwavering faith in Krishna as the Summum Bonum, the eternal truth. This name serves as a constant reminder of my commitment to live a life of devotion and sincerity.”

To Sum-Up:

Although my mind is not yet fully purified and sinful thoughts still cross my consciousness, I remain humbled by the mercy you have shown me. Despite my unworthiness, you have chosen to engage me in the pure service of the Lord, and for that, I am eternally grateful.

I remain, always grateful,
Your servant

Srila Bhaktivinoda thakur has said that:
Samsara davanala lidha loka tranaya karunya ghanaghantavam
Praptasya kalyana gunarnavasya
Vande guroh sri caranaravindam.

Firstly A very happy Prabhupada concious 74th Vyasa-puja Maharaja.

He Gurudeva! You have very mercifully provided us everything accompanied with your love. You are excelled in all qualities of a Vaisnavaa, and specially humility, so much so that it is your natural virtue,it comes out naturally rather than a concious effort. Your disciples are doing seva, to such an extent that Mumbai and pune which I once considered to be a polluted bollywood corrupt city, is now not less than a dhama for me. You never distinguished between a devotee an non devotee and giving immense love to everyone and delivering them.

I remember GuruMaharaja when I read your book, that really felt like a journey home. That was my first time, when a I thought That the concept of a destiny planned by Krishna is indeed true, that was a very overwhelming moment for me.You hovered through so many obstacles, endured so much pain, and still gave respect and love. There are times guruMaharaja, when I think that there are so many conflicts on every topic, be it religion etc, but when I think of the pages of journey home, I always arrive to a conclusion that the philosophy given by Srila Prabhupada is best of all.This year guruMaharaja you gave me so much mercy, I couldn't have your darshan, but I still felt I am "sanatha".

I got so many opportunities to serve this year and trying to do my Sadhana properly,all by your mercy, your disciples, your godbrothers and their disciples especially, Srila lokanath swami Maharaja, and Krishna bandhu all have created magic in my life. If Srila Prabhupada wouldn't have been here, I see my self being a nationalist, socialist and an unending list of ideologies.

I am very polluted Maharaja, I can only ask for your blessings for everyone's good health and bhakti.If you bless and so desire, may my faith become very very strong in you, so even if you scold me, I take it as a sign of love and mark for improvement, and I become established in true Krishna Consciousness. under your guidance.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinath, Sri Panchatatva, Sri Sri Narsingh deva Prahlad Maharaja,Sri Sri Rama Lakshmana Janaki Hanumana and Srila Prabhupada to always keep you in good health.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet.

My heart this time willing to emphasize on one prominent quality of yours is your merciful and compassionate nature.

Year after year you are committed to fulfill the desire of Srila Prabhupada by cooperating at all levels and giving everyone the best experience of Krishna counciousness.You don't see your own comforts but extend yourself for catering Vaisnava family and inspiring humanity at large.

This year again,we can see as you have given so many devotees your shelter and you personally went to those centers and pleased devotees.

Also this year Kartika-yatra in Sri Dham Mayapur we could see how you were extended yourself for the service of your God brothers and sisters also caring for more than 10000 devotees by personally visiting Kitchen/ Pandal and inspire leaders to be vigilant,-submissive, co-operate and instructing them that success of Yatra is to give devotees, the best Krishna concious experience and serve all the excellent quality of Prasadam without hassle.

This Krishna Consciousness. only can take us across the cycle of birth and death and make us happy at the lotus feet of Lordships.

Therefore Lord shiva says to Mother parvati:

aradhananam sarvesam visnor aradhanam param

tasmat parataram devi tadiyanam aradhananam

My dear Devi, the worship of Lord Vishnu is the top most worship. However, above this worship of Lord visnu is the rendering of service to Vaisnavas, who are related to Lord Vishnu.

Therefore on this auspicious day of your appearance I Pray at your lotus feet to keep me engaged in the service of Vaisnavas to please Srila Prabhupada to ultimately please you..

Srila Gurudeva, Thanking you for everything.

Dear Srila Radhanatha Maharaja,
Please accept my respectful obeisances at your lotus feet,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Your Holiness,
All glories to your 74th Vyasa Puja Mahamahotsava!
Dear Maharaja,

It is with a sense of reverence and humility that I attempt to express my gratitude for your divine qualities. The task seems insurmountable, akin to a child grasping the moon. As the great saint Kabirdasa ji so eloquently stated, "Even if the entire earth were made into paper, the wood from all the forests were made into pens, and the water from all the seven seas were made into ink, the earth would still be insufficient to write the praises of the Guru."

Dear Guru Maharaja, In the Bhagavad Gita, Sri Krishna outlines the qualities of a transcendental being: "Humility; pridelessness; nonviolence; tolerance; simplicity; approaching a bona fide spiritual master; cleanliness; steadiness; self-control; renunciation of the objects of sense gratification; absence of false ego; the perception of the evil of birth, death, old age and disease; detachment; freedom from entanglement with children, wife, home and the rest; even-mindedness amid pleasant and unpleasant events; constant and unalloyed devotion to Me; aspiring to live in a solitary place; detachment from the general mass of people; accepting the importance of self-realization; and philosophical search for the Absolute Truth." Your life, Guru Maharaja, exemplifies each of these divine qualities in their fullest expression. Your transcendental nature, activities, and qualities have been a beacon of devotional service for countless devotees, inspiring generations to come.

When I read your autobiography and this verse, I couldn't help but think that Sri Krishna must have had your divine character in mind when describing these qualities. A careful study of your nature and this verse leads to the same conclusion. You embody each of these qualities in their fullest expression, your transcendental nature, activities, and qualities serving as a heart-touching tapestry of devotional service for generations past and future.

Dear Gurudeva, On your most auspicious Vyasa Puja day, I sincerely thank you from the core of my heart. I'm grateful for your causeless mercy. I'm grateful for your teachings. I'm grateful for your instructions. Your compassion has uplifted countless souls, including myself.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Your glories are unlimited and so are your pastimes. How can such an insignificant worm like me dare to even skim through its surface. Rather, it is by your kind mercy alone that I could undertake this holy task of meditating on your qualities in the form of this offering.

In the Guru Gita of the Skanda Purana, Lord Siva explains to Mother Uma as, "Sri Guru's form is the best to meditate upon; Sri Guru's lotus feet are the best for worship; Sri Guru's word is the mantra; Sri Guru's grace is the root of liberation." In accordance with this verse, today, I pray unto you for some attachment to your lotus feet and detachment from this material world!

Dear Srila Gurudeva, As Sripada Adi Sankaracarya in his Gurvastakam greatly puts forth, "The Vedas with their six limbs and the knowledge of all sciences may be on one's lips; one may possess the poetic gift and may compose fine prose and poetry; yet if one's mind be not centered upon the lotus feet of the Guru, what then, what then, what then?" On this day, I pray that the bumblebee of my mind rests ever on your brilliant, charming and soothing lotus feet. Bereft of even a slightest drop of transcendental knowledge or devotion to Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, this boastful fool begs Your Holiness to take him unto the shelter of your lotus feet, which provides great shelter to the greatest of devotees.

Dear Srila Guru Maharaja, on this glorious day, when you appeared in this world to redeem spiritually hopeless persons like us, I beg to pray unto the soothing luminescence of your divine lotus feet that may I be benedicted with a drop of good qualities that you possess! May I be a faithful follower of Srila Prabhupada, like Your Holiness and may I happen to contribute in some way to the Sankirtan Mission of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and Srila Prabhupada. Please, dear Guru Maharaja, instill in my heart a drop of that mood of service for you as you have for Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Maharaja, as I grow older, I notice more and more that all I could ever desire is to follow your footsteps. All the qualities I aspire for, I see in you, and the solution to all my problems is to listen seriously to your instructions and obey them. You are a perfect person, an ideal person, a pure devotee of Sri Krishna. I express my heartfelt gratitude to you for everything. Apart from your loving shelter, I have nothing, absolutely nothing, to aspire for.

Praying and begging to be useful in your mission, I remain,
Your most infructuous servant forever,
Shrideep.

Hare Krishna, Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please Accept My Humble Obeisances.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for accepting me as your insignificant disciple and servant. I am extremely fortunate to have come into your divine association and to be connected with the Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Sampradaya. When I examine myself, I find nothing of value; therefore, your mercy is essential to me. With a drop of your mercy, kindly make this servant of yours humbler than a blade of grass. Please bestow upon me the strength to bear all trials and troubles and to free me from all desire for honor. Kindly grant me the strength to sincerely and strictly follow my sacred vows of initiation for the rest of my life: chanting a minimum of 16 rounds on beads and following the four regulative principles—no meat eating, no intoxication, no gambling, and no illicit sex.

I deeply missed your divine presence during the Kartika-yatra due to ongoing bodily discomfort and the situation at home. However, I tried to hear your live pandal lectures through the wonderful arrangement of RG Media. Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for always extending your mercy in the form of your divine lectures and devotional kirtanas.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Gurudeva, you embody the oceanic qualities of a true Vaisnava, constantly inspiring us to remain enthusiastic in Krishna Consciousness. and dedicated to Srila Prabhupada's service. Your selfless glorification of Vaisnavas—your godbrothers, godsisters, and devotees—is a testament to your humility and pure devotion.

When you glorify others, I am reminded of Srila Rupa Gosvami's verse about the Holy Name: "tunde tandavini ratim...," which expresses the desire for thousands of mouths to chant and glorify the Holy Name. Similarly, your pleasure in glorifying others stems from your complete absorption in Krishna and lack of self-consciousness. This quality is something I can only aspire to comprehend, let alone imbibe.

You begin every lecture with gratitude to Srila Prabhupada, reflecting on his immense sacrifices and struggles for humanity. Your words consistently emphasize gratitude, humility (trnad api sunicena), and the mood of being a servant of the servant—standards so high that they make me deeply aware of my own fallen condition.

Gurudeva, I struggle with so many weaknesses:

I feel envy toward others. I take pleasure in boasting about myself. I fail to be grateful to Vaisnavas who have helped and tolerated me through difficult times. I am absorbed in self-consciousness instead of Krishna Consciousness..

I am far from embodying the mood of a servant of the servant, as I remain consumed with serving my own senses.

Guru Maharaja, I beg for your mercy and blessings to overcome these anarthas, so I may serve you and Srila Prabhupada sincerely. Please bless me with even a drop of your attachment to Srila Prabhupada, so that I may strive to become Prabhupada-conscious instead of self-conscious.

I am unworthy, yet I pray to become a humble instrument in your service, offering something tangible for your pleasure.

Recently I have started hearing your old lectures of 1989,1990 series from ISKCON desire tree. I find so much solace and bliss every time I hear. Every word of yours is so nectarine, your energy, urgency, appeal in every lecture is nothing but love and compassion from a wretched soul like me.

Please forgive me as I am still attached to the so called mundane pleasures of this world. Please give me sufficient strength to overcome it.

I know I am not worthy to become your disciple. But I simply love your personality, your yatra kirtanas are my most cherished memories Maharaja.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Maharaja, thank you so much for your profound lectures. Recently, during this Kartika-yatra in Mayapur, you were sharing a point while glorifying Mukunda during Mahaprakash Lila - 'Because of our conditionings, we see priceless things in a cheap way and cheapest things in a priceless way'. When Mukunda was told he could see the Lord after 10 million births, he was ecstatic. He so much valued the process of bhakti.

Another point you shared was regarding Jagannath Mishra and Saci mata. Eight of their daughters died immediately after their birth, yet their love and devotion to Krishna continued to increase.

You are so wonderfully teaching all of us to take this process of bhakti so seriously, and practice this path with enthusiasm and patience, even if difficult circumstances come in our path.

As years are passing, you may be facing certain challenges due to health. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji for your long and health life.

All glory to Srila Prabhupada

I would like to express my sincere gratitude that you have accepted me as your disciple. Guru Maharaja, your guidance has transformed my life. I am forever grateful to you.

By your teachings from your madhurvani, I will try to learn how to engage our mind, senses, words, and actions to please Vaisnavas.

Therefore, in the spiritual world, there is Sandhini Shakti by which the entire spiritual world manifests, and Balaram ji is the Adi guru, and whatever you have given us is to engage our mind in the service of Vaisnavas. I understand, according to my limited capacity, that you are so thoughtful about how we should please Vaisnavas in every aspect. This quality of empathy unto Vaisnavas makes me thoughtful and makes me inspired to follow this. Even though I may fail many times in following this, to be very honest, one day, I may get unflinching faith and desire to serve the Vaisnavas by following in your footsteps.

In one class, you said that as long as we're intensely taking shelter from the Lord, Maya cannot touch us. To the degree we're intensely taking shelter from Krishna, Maya cannot harm us.

Once you have said, if someone had 100s of hands how much we can grasp by our two hands, so whatever we have, please bless us so that we can share whatever we received from your good self. Thank you so much, Srila GuruMaharaja, for everything you have graced upon us.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Gurudeva, you are an abode of all Vaisnava qualities, and you live by the highest Vaisnava principles one can aspire to see in any one person. In your lectures and addresses, you always emphasize the importance of these qualities for advancement in Krishna Consciousness. Your very presence itself is so powerful and has such a tremendous impact on those in your presence that words simply become superfluous.

Vrajvihari Prabhu had once spoken of how, when he was preaching to some young boys from the slum areas in Mumbai, you came by and very spontaneously and lovingly gave the boys mercy by embracing each one of them. Out of the few boys, one of them, in particular, came from a dry, disturbed background. His mother was a prostitute, his language was foul, and his clothes were dirty and dishevelled. When you embraced this boy, he had tears in his eyes. He cried! The next day, he appeared in the temple, bathed, dressed in brand new clothes, hair combed, and asked to meet you. When he was told that you were not available, he went to your room, which was closed, and placed a rose he had bought for you outside the door of your room. And for the next many years, whenever he came to the temple, he would bring a rose and place it outside the closed door of your room.

All this, Maharaja, when you had not spoken a word to him. That one hug had transformed this boy's life.

In another instance, when you were travelling from the UK to India with HG Aniruddha Prabhu (Anil Agarwal), and the flight developed some problem and had to land in Tunisia, which is a Muslim country, you had to wait at the airport until the problem with the airplane was sorted out. At that time you insisted on going out of the airport to the marketplace there, in your sanyasi dress, refusing the change of dress that Aniruddha prabhu offered you. In the marketplace, you moved around in your saffron with folded palms, offering pranams to all the people you passed, who watched you with awe and reverence. And then, as you moved along the marketplace among the Muslims, the vendors offered you whatever they were selling, with so much love and reverence... fruits, flowers, etc. You had not spoken a word to anyone.

Maharaja, even without speaking a word, your very presence is so powerful. Only a pure devotee like yourself can have such an impact!

Behind your gentle personality, there is a strong side of you that silently assures us that in any difficulty, come what may, you are there behind us like the Rock of Gibraltar.

Maharaja, I am full of faults and most unqualified in so many ways. But probably, someday, some birth, by your mercy and the mercy of my godbrothers and sisters, I do hope to improve myself so that you are pleased. Therefore, on this day, Maharaja, I beg for your mercy, that I am able to understand and someday live by those siddhants that you teach us through your invaluable discourses and your own example. I am very grateful to you for this.

I am very happy and grateful to you for accepting me as a part of your family and hope that I may have the courage and determination to follow your instructions meticulously and be able to assist in your mission, even if it is in a very insignificant way, in the mood of a servant of your servants.

I offer my sincere prayers at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Kunja Vihari for your good health and long life, so that you continue to attract and inspire thousands of people to Krishna Consciousness.!

Thank you, Maharaja, for everything!

Aspiring to be a servant of your servants,

All glories to Srila Prabhupada

Just like the ray of sunlight does not discriminate where it falls, what it brightens or where it shines its light You have with so much mercy given us this treasure of Srila Prabhupada and Sri Krishna without discriminating our qualification to receive it

Thank you for your causeless mercy upon us. There is no way to thank you for this mercy. But we will still try to show you our gratitude by trying to follow your instructions.

Please give us the strength to do so

Thank you again and again.
Hoping to be in service always

Hare Krishna dear and respected Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am very grateful to you for you follow the teachings or Srila Prabhupada so purely, knowing his heart perfectly and spreading his teachings throughout the world vividly. Srila Prabhupada came into this world, established ISKCON and went back to the spiritual world in 1977; but you have been preserving his instructions, his teachings and his mood even till now so that fallen souls like us can receive the seed of Bhakti. Thank you for being an exemplary disciple. Please bless me that I can also become your good servant and follow your instructions sincerely throughout my life.

Recently we had Kartika-yatra, 2024. In the yatra, you invited so many of your Godbrothers and Godsisters. We could see that you carry so deep amount of love and respect towards all of them – considering all devotees as one family. You consider yourself as simply a servant of all other devotees. Srila Prabhupada said that you can show your love towards me by cooperating with one another. And we could see such a great sense of cooperation and love between you and other disciples of Srila Prabhupada. May I also imbibe this mood of yours and show cooperation and love amongst devotees.

The deep concern and sensitivity that you have towards every living entity is unparalleled. How do you carry so much love for everyone in your heart? Probably because Krishna resides in your heart!! How to be friends with all sects of people (focusing on commonalities, forgetting the differences) can be perfectly learned from you. Maharaja, please bless me that my hard insensitive heart can imbibe this great quality of yours in atleast a minute quantity.

Thank you for giving us a new life by making us devotees. Thank you for giving a meaning to our meaningless lives, by inspiring us in our devotional life with your divine words, divine behavior and divine presence. On this auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Vrndavanachandra to bless you with long and healthy life. May you keep spreading the mission of Srila Prabhupada throughout the whole world.

Please accept my respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to Sri Sri Guru & Gauranga.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, on this very auspicious occasion of your 74th appearance day on this planet, I would really like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for your so much compassion and mercy upon so many people in the world. And I really like to thank you Maharaja for accepting a completely unqualified person like me also as your disciple and thus showing your unlimited compassionate nature.

On this auspicious day Maharaja, I would like to beg you falling at your lotus feet to bless me so that I can become a useful instrument in the hands of Guru & Gauranga and thus I can always serve you and please you in my life, considering it as the only purpose of my life.

Thank you very much Maharaja for offering your such a glorious presence to this world.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Kindly accept my humble obeisance at your lotus feet! With passing years I am better able to appreciate your overflowing compassion and commitment to spread Krishna Consciousness. on a large scale as Srila Prabhupada wanted. Your example of purity, determination, humility and dedication for Prabhupada's movement is inspiring hundreds of thousands of souls all over the world. You have been able to touch and transform the hearts of so many influential people worldwide. Yet you are so humble that you never speak about or flaunt the extraordinary services you're rendering in Srila Prabhupada's movement. Your example teaches us that it is this purity of intent and humility of heart that's needed for us to be empowered as Srila Prabhupada's instruments.

Gurudeva, I find myself utterly unworthy and undeserving of the blessings I have been showered upon by you and your disciples. On this most auspicious day, I beg for your mercy to be able to genuinely follow your instructions and the teachings of Prabhupada. I beg for empowerment to be able to act as an instrument of your compassion.

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet.
All glories to our beloved Srila Prabhupada and our Guru Maharaja.

I am sincerely very grateful for your unlimited mercy and compassion. Almost 6 years ago by your causeless mercy, I got the shelter of your blessed lotus feet. Guru Maharaja, by your mercy, we got your blessed darshan and loving association in Sri Jaggannath Ratha Yatra 2024 in Zurich. Your lectures and exemplary guidance and guidance from senior Godbrothers have always helped me to handle and tolerate the ever-changing turbulent situations of Grahsta life.

Dear Guru Maharaja, thanks for giving me such a wonderful and compassionate God family. With all humility and surrendering unto the lotus feet of Sri Nrsimhadeva Bhagawan and Sri Sri Radha ShyamSundar ji, I sincerely pray for your good health and many more years of your physical association and guidance to all your disciple children. I humbly pray to the Supreme Lord that whatever I plan and wish to do gets strongly aligned to your instructions and Srila Prabhupada's satisfaction ultimately making me an instrument in your divine hands for the pleasure of Sri Sri Gaura Nitai and their devotees.

Please kindly keep showering your causeless mercy on all of us so that one day we all can eventually go back to the Godhead by following your divine instructions.

During recent Kartika-yatra, remembered two occasions - on sound system problem on day 1 and when HG Mandakini Mataji continued to talk beyond HDG Srila Prabhupada Disapperance Day Je Anilo Offering time. Your response both the times wa so broad, positive and accommodative. Really exhibited your greatness.

Recently in ISKCON KOLHAPUR, Sri Sri Radha Madhav Ji were installed by your grace. Temple interior in many ways resembles with Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir. Similar Besan laddoo Prasadam distribution has also started at Kolhapur Temple. On that resemblance, I humbly want to offer Gurudeva that, we are trying to positively immitate Radha Gopinatha Mandir. But in my opinion Gurudeva we just can't match Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir and I feel Radha Gopinatha Community is divine dream Srila Prabhupada has.

Dear Guru Maharaja, many congratulations on your 74th appearance day. We are really fortunate to take birth in the time when you are present on the earth. You are continuously traveling as a guiding light, to save most fallen souls like me, out of your true compassion. It is really inspiring to see how you spend every moment of your life fulfilling the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I always feel your presence around me through your vani. Whenever I face any provoking or adverse situation, I remember your words, and it helps me to accept the situation: “We should never complain when things go wrong in our life. We should never blame this person or that person; we should see that everything is happening by the sweet will of the Lord to give me the perfect opportunity to become His pure devotee”.

Dear Guru Maharaja, your humility and compassion have no limit. Your love and compassion for us give us real fulfillment to the heart, which we have been longing for many lifetimes.

Whenever you smile, it makes everyone around you lively. As Srila Prabhupada says, “The smile of such a Krishna conscious person is so attractive that simply by smiling, he wins so many admirers, disciples, and followers.”

May you always keep serving the Srila Prabhupada Mission, and may you keep inspiring millions of fallen souls like me by your humble and compassionate services to all of humanity.

Thank you so much for providing your loving shelter to me. Please bless me with your unlimited mercy, so that I can serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada in the mood of the most humble servant.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada

You have indeed blessed us with many transcendental gifts.Of the many the most influential in our lives of course are Bhaktivedanta hospital,Gopals garden High School, Goverdhan Eco village and the huge congregation of devotees

Often times like a person living in the Malaya hills in a forest of Sandalwood does not realize the value of his environment and uses the same wood for all purposes, but in times of need the real value does manifest.

In the past few months our family did go through a health crisis. The medical aspect is often easier to handle with the support of our hospital, but the emotional trauma often takes a heavier toll. The loving support of this wonderful congregation is just like the scent of the sandalwood that not only spreads its fragrance, but also dissipates the heat within. But the true icing on the cake which rested our burning hearts was hours and hours of Gaur Katha which You had given in 2004. We must have heard the same probably a dozen times over as Your lectures actually transport our minds to the very holy places. We are just so indebted to you Gurudeva for this Shravan-Utsav which our RG media makes it possible forever and all times to come.

Praying to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to shower their choicest blessings for a healthy and fulfilling life ahead

On this auspicious day I pray at the lotus feet of the Lord to bless you with a very long and healthy life.Our full family attended the yatra in Mayapur and came back to Pune. My grand children had come from Melbourne. All three generations were discussing and appreciating the facilities of yatra. I realised at that time that how important it is for the children to have such a wonderful experience of Vaisnava association which goes a long way in future to make the right choice of spirituality and make our lives successful.

Thank you Maharaja for all the facilities you have created under your excellent leadership to make Krishna conscious life a joyful experience. My grandson served the senior Vaisnavas and learnt the valuable lesson of respecting elders. Thank you once again Maharaja.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances unto the dust of your lotus feet,
All glory to Srila Prabhupada,

It's yet another year of your much-awaited Vyasa-puja, and I am extremely fortunate to have this opportunity to write an offering for you!

Dear Guru Maharaja, every single day passes by with the reminder that time is ticking by, and I am proceeding toward the ultimate reality- death. Yet it feels such a relief because I know this for sure, that I am under the protection of your causeless mercy. Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for always giving me a reason to make each day a little more meaningful. Your words, your thoughts, your unconditional love and mercy towards your disciples are the guiding force behind a fallen soul like me to tread the path of this material life.

Whenever there is a question in my heart, your response always comes to me in the most subtly profound way and I instantly feel in my heart that you're just a thought and a prayer away!

Thank you for coming to Mayapur for the most blissful Yatra ever! That one week felt like I was walking in the clouds and living inside a dream world- cascades of mercy, love, light, the nectar of Harinaam, of Gaura Lila katha, and endless sunshine emitted through your presence. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for giving us this wonderful experience.

Not caring about the challenges of your health, you put your disciples first and so unconditionally accepted us in your loving embrace.

On this wonderful day of your Vyasa-puja, I render my heartfelt gratitude, love, and appreciation for everything that you are doing to help us cross this ocean of material life! I also put my apologies unto your lotus feet for all those moments I couldn't think of you, while I was busy fulfilling my material responsibilities.

Thank you Guru Maharaja! Your presence in my life keeps me going and makes each day worth living.

Wishing you a very very Happy Vyasa-puja, dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept our Humble Obeisances. We pray for your good health Maharaja.We feel fortunate and blessed to serve in your mission through Bhaktivedanta Hospital(myself serving as a Surgeon and Bhadrapriya devi as a Principal of School Of Nursing).

Our memorable experience in life to cherish forever is going for yatra with you since yr 1996.I still remember my first yatra with you in Vrndavana in 1996 when I was doing my MBBS from Sion Hospital.You took us individually to so many sacred places where you made Krishna Lila to rehappen with your Vani.Your late evening kirtana in Maan Mandir is still unforgettable event in my life.

We are especially grateful to you for establishing so many systems, norms and service hubs for Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Bhakta Samaj like Counselor system,Education System,(Gopals Garden High School), Bhaktivedanta Hospital,Govardhan Eco Village etc.

We have been given responsibility as a Counselor here in Mumbai Mira road and Extension Centre in Kokan (ISKCON Kankavali extension centre and ISKCON Kudal Namhatta centre) and feel blessed to serve under your leadership and your true soldiers like Radha Gopinatha Prabhu,Nand Dulal Prabhu,Baladev Prabhu and entire team of dedicated Devotees.We have started with few Devotees small centre in Kokan Region (Kanakavali and Kudal)and now by your grace it is steadily expanding.Kindly keep your Kripa kataksha upon all Devotees here.

Our children

(Janakipriya,Brajanand and Gopika) feel fortunate as they were blessed by you with beautiful names.Please bless us as parents to take care of them properly and motivate them Spiritually too.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

During the recent Kartika-yatra to Mayapur, a devotee staying in Mayapur, who is a disciple of H.H. Indradyumna Maharaja, wrote this appreciation on WhatsApp:

”The 6 days of Yatra, the atmosphere was so surcharged with Sravanam and Kirtanam that it reminded me of Suta Goswami speaking to thousands of sages in Naimisharanya. When Maharaja was speaking in the Pandal, all the roads, Govinda’s, MahaPrasada stalls, and parks were literally empty. Thousands of devotees were so eager and enthusiastic to hear. H.H. Radhanath Swami has built the culture of emphasizing the importance of Sravanam.”

I wanted to thank you from the core of my heart for gifting us this culture of Sravanam and Kirtanam in the Radha Gopinatha temple, where we naturally got a taste for hearing your beautiful classes on Sundays, during festivals, and in yatras, which sometimes lasted up to 5 hours or more. The long hours of sankirtana together and then the spiritual discussions (guhyam akhyati prcchati) we had while taking Prasadam after the kirtanas were truly enriching.

Thank you for giving us this wonderful Vaisnava Sangha of the Radha Gopinatha Congregation.

On this day, I pray that I can always remain grateful to you, to Srila Prabhupada, and to all the devotees of the Lord who have nourished, guided, and inspired me in devotional service.

I seek your blessings so that my family and I can always serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada till our last breath and please the devotees.

I wish you a very happy 74th Vyasa-puja.

I am deeply indebted and grateful for the so many valuable teachings in your lecture as well as personal examples. These teachings can save many lives and humanity.

I desire to make these teachings my life and soul.

guru-mukha-padma-vakya, cittete koribo aikya, ar na koriho mane asa

This time in Mayapur yatra, I heard from your lotus mouth, and I observed personally.

1. Every morning, you make it a point to chant with devotees intensely. How important it is to chant together in association with devotees feeling early in the morning. Putting chanting the highest priority. It's mentioned that out of all the instructions of the spiritual master, chanting 16 rounds is the most important. You received the maha-mantra from Mother Ganga and later from His Divine Grace AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada. It's really impressive and inspiring to see that you take doing intense japa so seriously. Wherever you are in the world, you try to chant with devotees and also try to chant the whole day whenever there is free time after 16 rounds are complete. This is a great inspiration for me. Those six days of chanting with you in Sri Mayapur Dham are my greatest treasure that I shall cherish my whole life.

2. You every day hear from Srila Prabhupada's recorded lecture. Out of 64 items of devotional service described in Sri Bhakti Rasamrita Sindhu - the first three are related to the spiritual master. Sri Guru padasraya, Diksha and seva. You have then taken this so seriously and that's so inspiring to see. I also wish to make it a goal that I also hear from you every day and thereby nourish the most important connection.

3. This time in Yatra, I was deeply touched to see your sensitivity. When, on Nov 5th, it was time for Srila Prabhupada's disappearance and the time was ticking, you let Mandakini Mataji go on with her offering and also let Malati Mataji speak next, who promptly pointed the time for Je Anilo Premadhana prayer, which was your turn to sing. Sometimes, we are so obsessed with time that we don't mind doing offenses, but I was very touched and impressed to see your Vaisnava ideal behavior example - putting the feelings and satisfaction of Vaisnavas above time.

4. This time in Mayapur yatra, around 12 thousand devotees came, and you had every option and justification to reject or cut off after a certain number, but you accepted all with an open, compassionate, magnanimous heart. It's the new mission statement of the Yatra committee that the more devotees, the more there are opportunities to serve - what a broad and magnanimous way to encourage everyone.

5. At the last Vyasa-puja meeting, HG Vaisesika Maharaja was saying that one time, when all of you had to go somewhere, you took the back folded difficult seat of the car and gave everyone the comfortable seat. That was so inspiring to see how to put oneself last and everyone first.

Many, many more things Inspire all of us from your teachings and personal example, but for this year, I want to keep the above 5 as my goal and inspiration to follow, and I wish to please you by following the above principles in my life.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I honestly admit that I have been falling short, but today, I recommit to following your instructions and being a true disciple by disciplining myself to follow your instructions.

I beg forgiveness for my shortcomings and beg for your mercy and empowerment, and I immensely thank you for your kindness and mercy on this fallen soul.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohanjiu, Sriman Mahaprabhu, Sri Sri Jagannath Baladeva, Subhadra Devi, and Gaur Nitai to give you good health so that you can deliver more and more souls and serve Srila Prabhupada in his mission to his guru Maharaja Srimad Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Goswami Maharaja.

Thank you very much. Eternally indebted to you.

Your Aspiring Servant,
Shyamrupa Das.

Next year... it will be 3 years of me following Srila Prabhupada's mission. I felt that I came very late; I could join in my school days... There are so many things that affect me, changing me internally, and I said to myself, 'Yes, these are the things that actually make sense in our life: spending time doing guru puja, festivals, learning to pay obeisances to seniors, learning Vedic culture, listening to Bhagavad katha, worshipping the supreme Lord, and even I got to know the difference between God and demigods in ISKCON now... and many things that we weren't told these things in our childhood, so realizing this is a real part of life, I made the decision to follow Srila Prabhupada's mission unwaveringly.

You were saying in one of your lectures that so many services devotees do are all meant to be one goal only, and that is to please Krishna, and the service that pleases Srila Prabhupada most is to please Krishna!

You taught me hundreds of manners that one devotee should have, like proper behavior of a brahmcari, how to atone for offenses, how to destroy the ravana within, and even using the tongue in the service of the Lord instead of criticizing others.

I am not initiated yet, but I've completed my IDC exam under my facilitator/mentor, who is taking care of me. Even his teachings and blessings pointed me to follow you if you ever accept this insignificant servant of yours as your disciple.

My dear guru maharaj your journey inspires me lot to help to understand the meaning of vairagya(renunciation), now I am 20 years old and have experienced so many good and bad things in my school/student or in personal life as well, some of them teaches me very good part and others showed me very bad results of a child upbringing, I know modern schools just destroying students mental stability so till today I realised that I need this spiritual upbringing that eagerness, appetite, enthusiasm and big amount of service attitude for spiritual path like you had from your very beginning when you started your journey from Chicago, I need your instructions, teachings to make my life worth for contributing in Srila Prabhupada's mission. I've seen the nature, humility, and perfect behavior of your disciples, and one of them is my shiksha guru, so I heartily need the shelter of your lotus feet ???????.

Thank you very much for your continuous guidance in inspiring us all and especially nurturing a very fallen and ungrateful soul like me through your lectures and messages. I feel very fortunate to have you as my spiritual master. You are the reason behind my spiritual strength, who has always helped me to come out of the difficulties of my spiritual and material life.

I know that I am not worthy but still I pray from the bottom of my heart at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Srila Prabhupada that they continue to shower their choicest grace on you and that you may be blessed with good health.

And please keep smiling, your graceful charming smile gives me strength to face difficult situations easily ??.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

I am grateful to you and the Lord for many things this year, of which I will mention a few below:

Mayapur Kartika-yatra 2024

Its been more than 10 years since I last attended your yatra. It was blissful to reconnect with devotees from all over the world. Your lectures were mesmerising as always - it was joyful to meditate, contemplate and recollect them. The Prashadam was delicious and meticulously cooked with love and devotion. I am grateful as well to the organisers for allowing my mother and little sister to participate due to extenuating circumstances.

Instruments of grace

Guru Maharaja, through your behaviour and actions, you are truly living just to give the Lord's compassion and grace. I had the good fortune of hearing from various senior god brothers and god sisters of your different encounters. Through this, it has given me faith and inspiration that Krishna is always there with us and if we can simply be instruments of grace, we will witness Krishna's magic in our life. Several opportunities came up this year, from serving various devotees, to serving in various capacities, I got to see how grace is always available. We just need to put our ego aside, and then we can allow Krishna's plan to follow.

Challenges - Association of devotees

Living in the material world is full with challenges. I am grateful and fortunate, that within Srila Prabhupada's family, I have got a few well-wishers. With them, I share my heart and try to reconcile various challenges personally and within our society. Regardless of challenges, I find it so refreshing having deep and meaningful conversations with devotees who are of similar nature.

Praying to be an instrument in your hands,

Your servant,

Hare Krishna!

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
Jai Gurudeva!

I was reading the book by HH Giriraj Swami, "I'll Build You a Temple - The Juhu Story." Maharaja has mentioned Srila Prabhupada's visit to Wardha and meeting with Swami Chidananda. At Wardha, when Srila Prabhupada visited, Swami Chidananda was not so favorable to the philosophy of preaching the Bhagavad Gita message as it is. Prabhupada wanted Krishna to be in the center and then preach the message as it is.

Later, when you met Swami Chidananda, you described how Srila Prabhupada went to the US and preached the message of Caitanya Mahaprabhu. The conversation lasted for 45 minutes; you described the struggles and achievements of Srila Prabhupada in establishing ISKCON in the entire world. Swami Chidananda became so emotional that he jumped out of his seat, stood up, and, raising one of his arms in the air, with tears flooding his eyes, said, 'That was not just an instruction; that was divine prophecy.'

Prabhupada touched Swami Chidananda's heart, and then you provided the proper nourishment so that he can appreciate the mission of Srila Prabhupada. This nourishment you provide to all your disciples in the form of your lectures. You have mentioned many times that your instructions are there in your lectures. The disciples must take advantage of these lectures, hear them attentively, and apply them in their lives.

I am trying my level best to hear the lectures and follow the instructions in my endeavor to execute my devotional service. I know Maharaja, due to my past conditioning. I am failing in that, but please forgive me and keep me under the divine association, shelter, and guidance of your disciples so that I try to follow your instructions with humility, sincerity, seriousness, and without duplicity.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad
Dearest Gurudeva wish you a very happy and auspicious Appearance Day.

Dear Gurudeva you very well know that we are not at all qualified in any way but at the same time you are so merciful and kind that you accept whatever little we have to offer. We feel so fortunate and blessed to have you in our lives guiding us through your instructions and teachings. We are waiting to have your glorious Darshan here and get an eternal place under your loving shelter. Though we are very well aware of our shortcomings but we sincerely want to serve Srila Prabhupada and you in any possible capacity.

Today on the most auspicious occasion of your appearance day we sincerely pray at the lotus feet of the Supreme Lord for your long and healthy life.

Eternally grateful to you Gurudeva.

I have been connected to ISKCON for a long time, but due to financial issues and education, I never attended any yatra or got the opportunity to see Maharaja. When I went on the Kartika-yatra for the first time, I had the blessed opportunity to see Maharaja in person. Seeing Maharaja's face gave me goosebumps and brought tears to my eyes.

A few days later, by coincidence, I received the book Guru Smaran as a birthday gift.That book showed me the teachings of Maharaja, their virtues, and even more about his greatness.During the Kartika-yatra, I sometimes felt like asking why Maharaja doesn't speak in Hindi, as understanding his English is difficult for me. However, I tried increasing the playback speed and managed to listen to some of his lectures.

When Maharaja delivers a lecture, he remains completely steady, but we are constantly moving restlessly.While giving a lecture, Maharaja uses different expressions and makes various sounds, which I really like. It feels very natural and captivating.I truly enjoy Maharaja's kirtanas, especially the dancing kirtanas. His divine smile is inspiring me to do my bhakti. They say that Sang is not guaranteed, but our responsibility is to follow his instructions diligently.

The only way we can ever hope to get the mercy of Krishna is by pleasing you and following your instructions. Past 30 years went so quickly with all it's ups and downs your shelter at every step made it tolerable and blissful.

The moments where you connected my aching heart with your soothing words of wisdom gave me so much relief.

Your loving and kind glances and asking me about my family and my travelling are giving us blessings and support at every step.

I sometimes feel how will I survive without seeing you before me. Old age is coming in and I am hoping that I become more serious in my Krishna Consciousness..

Begging you to please help me to overcome all my weaknesses and give me firm conviction to take shelter of Holy Name.

You are our living Mahajan. You are the one who laid down the path of devotion to Krishna, and the practical and live demonstration is presented to us. We have just heard of the mahajans in the shashtras. But now we are seeing those mahajans in your personality. You are perfectly following what Prabhupada has taught. And we have to just follow what you are teaching. And we will definitely achieve perfection in our life. But we are not that much elevated in our consciousness to exactly follow what you are teaching. But by your mercy, one day we will be able to do so.

Please, Maharaja, forgiving our faults, always keep us near your lotus feet.

Dear Guru Maharaja.
Please accept my humble obeisances.

First, I want to thank you for giving shelter at your lotus feet, Maharaja.

Maharaja I know I am a very fallen devotee and not qualified devotee to send this offering but I want to express my gratitude please accept it Maharaja, even though I chanted 16 rounds every day for 9 years, I always used to think maybe I was not qualified and not going to get initiated and not connect to GuruMaharaja in this life. But with your causeless mercy, I connected to you, and I got initiated on December 6th,2022. Maharaja, it was a great moment in my life and the most lovable memory of how I got initiated and never forget a dream night before the initiation name list came, in which I saw my Deeksha guru and Shiksha guru together.

Maharaja, I never got an opportunity to interact personally until the moment I took owes for initiation, but I realized how gurus connect to us either through dreams or through indirect messages through devotees.

Maharaja, when you gave my name in initiation, I felt Lord Krishna arranged for my spiritual father, who is none other than my father, to do my naming ceremony, which this unfortunate soul missed and lost her father before being born.

Maharaja, please forgive my mistakes and show me myotomy family merely to progress in the p of h Bhaktihi.

Mayapur Kartika-yatra this time just we intensely prayed to Maharaja, there were many reasons and situations that we thought impossible to come for yatra. But only by causeless mercy of Gurudeva, Prabhupada and all acaryas we could make it. After coming yatra 3 days joined japa with Maharaja and it was really inspiring to see the way Maharaja chants Holyname very attentively which pleases Srila Prabhupada and Maharaja care for devotees was amazing truly witnessed in yatra one instance,when there was fan which looks like it will fall, Maharaja immediately told to take care of it during japa, so devs will not get hurt. Dear most Spiritual Master and Eternal Father, Please accept our most humble obeisances at your merciful Lotus feet. All glories to Your Divine Grace on this auspicious day! All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

I always cherish your merciful glance you showered on me when I first met about twenty five years back along with H.G Radha Gopinatha Prabhu in Chowpatty temple. That joy in my heart is ever lasting and I cherish that occasion.

"The Journey Home" book has given us the opportunity to know you more and helped us to understand the value of "Holy name". You are so impartial to all religions and all nationalities. This book has given us a better understanding of how to deal with persons of different faiths. Your determination on your spiritual journey in spite of several life threatening situations explain how one should be in his/ her Sadhana.

Unconditional surrender to Guru is the only process through which we can please Krishna. It is not very easy to desist from ego, anger, pride, etc. A lot has to be done by us in this direction. We pray for the ability to recognise our shortcomings and repent with love to become better instruments in carrying out your mission of serving the devotees. We pray for the ability to engage our minds in careful study of scriptures and engage our hearts in devotional meditation. We pray for the ability to absorb the essence of spiritual truths. We pray that we lead lives of prayer particularly considering the advanced ages and we seek your blessings to be properly fixed in devotional service for the rest of our lives.

We are able to realise the depths of Krishna Consciousness. through various projects like Govardhan Eco village, Bhakti Vedanta Hospital, Gopal Garden School, etc.; that you have developed.

We request you to kindly continue to shower your causeless mercy so that we may nurture and internalise your instructions. We pray that we may realise that our devotional progress totally depends on taking complete shelter at your Lotus Feet in a mood of complete submission and dependence. Our prayer is that we may develop the strong desire to perform service for your pleasure. When there is strong Guru Sraddha, a devotee makes progress and endures tests of purification. Maharaja, your complete faith and dedication to your spiritual master, Srila Prabhupada, are the cause for your astounding and unparalleled qualities. We can only pray that we may develop similar conviction and faith that you have for your spiritual master.

We are indebted to you for giving us the most valuable Krishna Consciousness. in our lives. We are very much thankful for your kind visit to Nashik and giving your valuable association. The recent Yatra to Mayapur is amazing. We keep remembering the time spent in the Dham and the lessons we heard through your enlivening lectures. We hope to continue coming for the yatras till our last days. (We are 77 and 73 years now.)

We want to express our gratitude on this occasion to H.G.Radha Gopinatha Prabhuji, H.G.Sikshashtakam Prabhuji, H.G.Muralidhar Prabhuji and several other Vaisnavas today for being instrumental in strengthening and nurturing our faith in you and Krishna.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja can easily understand our hearts and our thinking one should be very clean and with very pure humble heart in front of Guru Maharaja today I'm going to share one experience which would like to share with you. I am doing Guru Maharajaji Yatra since 2012 and every year would like to speak, or would like his mercy. This year, I just talk in my mind. I will not go in front of Guru Maharaja. I decided not to touch his feet to take the Raja not to go near him, not to seat. Of him in the lecture, so I decided to keep away myself from Guru Maharaja and I decided not to cook for Srila Prabhu pada on on his disappearance day, so I took Sankalp not to disturb anyway to Guru Maharaja and I keep myself away from Guru Maharaja cause since Karuna, I didn't met Guru Maharaja front to front, so I thought that maybe my energy must not be good. It will be affect to Guru Maharaja, so I kept away myself from Guru garage, I was taking Dershan from very far away, but this time I understood that Guru Maharaja reads your mind and your heart. He never does what you like. He does what he feels this time in a day to 3 times front to front I get special Dershan Maharaja. I saw Guru Maharaja very close to me how I don't know in this Mayapur Yatra why guru Maharaja was giving me Dershan again and again. I'm really grateful towards Guru Maharaja and all the Vaisnava that I understood Guru Maharaja can read you so try to make your Sankalp very pure and with Vaisnava Seva

Thank you

Hare Krishna Maharaja, Dandawat Pranama. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

We knew about HH Radhanath Swami Guru Maharaja even before joining ISKCON by reading the book 'Journey Home'.

We got connected with HG Dinanath Gopal Prabhuji from ISKCON Kanpur, completed the DYS sessions, and understood our identity as souls and the constitutional position of being a servant of Krishna. By hearing the lectures of Maharaja during Kartika-yatra and at ISKCON Chowpatty, we got to the true nature of our relationship with the Supreme Lord and the importance of Service to the devotees. Maharaja taught us the importance of Humility and Tolerance as the stepping stones for progression in Krishna Consciousness.. Maharaja has carried the teachings of Srila Prabhupada to the Western world and also to many parts of the country. The Govardhan eco-village is a mini Vrndavana experience near Mumbai and a true bliss to be experienced. Maharaja also constructed a Bhakti Vedanta multi-specialty hospital in Mumbai for the services of devotees and also for the general public, with a special focus on spiritual realization and healing. We are eternally grateful to Maharaja for accepting the fallen and most insignificant souls like us and allowing us to serve Srila Prabhupada and Lord Caitanya in his mission of spreading the Krishna Consciousness. movement all around the world and establishing the principles of Sanatana Dharma. I request Maharaja to kindly bestow his causeless, limitless mercy on us and bless us by accepting us in his service, always keeping us under the dust of his lotus feet, and forgiving us for any offenses committed due to our fallen and conditional nature.

These roads where you've walked around would be my pilgrimage,

The golden words you told would always be the sweetest nectar.

The glance you gave every time would be the most merciful ever.

Everything about you is divine, oh Gurudeva...

But the words spoken by this fallen soul are nothing more than a tiny broken letter to justify your mercy and love.

I'm that tiny, useless stone lying at any corner of the road whom everyone ignores, but you glanced through your merciful eyes at that firm, egotistic stone, which hurt others to make it gentle somehow... it couldn't be expressed in words how grateful I am. ??

Maharaja this year brought a loss which can never be filled or forgotten... 5th May morning brought news of HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja entering nitya Lila.... Maharaja was always so compassionate, loving, kind, caring to all of us that his absence became so painful to bear.... This vyaspuja of Maharaja gave us your association where you so lovingly glorified Maharaja.... Your appreciation for your godbrother is so deep. Though physical absence of Maharaja echoed in our hearts but your presence gave us solace. We got a chance to meet you. I had a lotus in my hand and you were sitting in the room where we used to meet Maharaja and he used to answer our doubts and motivate us. So while having that lotus in my hand, heart and mind full of memories of Maharaja and eyes filled with tears I offered it to you from my side and the little baby inside me. I felt as if I was seeing HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja through you. Maharaja just like you very kindly accepted that lotus flower kindly accept me and my child under shelter of your mercy and blessings.

Maharaja, I want to express my gratitude to you for all the initiatives you have been taking to serve Srila Prabhupada mission, to expand Srila Prabhupada mission and to nourish the devotees and disciples in Krishna Consciousness...

Your concern for the devotees and disciples brought out many initiatives like 1. Counselor system: This amazing system takes care of devotees all round welfare solving their emotional arind spiritual needs, philosophical doubts since help them feel connected and cared for in spiritual life enabling them to offer satisfactory contribution to Srila Prabhupada mission.

2. Yatras: Kartika yatras and Pune Yatras are great for the body, mind and souls nourished completely. We practically forget everything and absorb ourselves in the spiritual atmosphere of the dham in the association of other devotees. Arun unforgettable, matching experience.

3. Your SB classes, full of knowledge, wisdom, devotion, instructions are feast for the soul nourishing us whenever and wherever we hear.

4. I also want to appreciate your GEV project meant for both devotees, outsiders especially foriegn seekers, giving us Vrndavana atmosphere in pure, unpolluted atmosphere.

So much more to say Maharaja... Finally I want to thank for all that you have been doing for us to nourish us in Krishna Consciousness. and to expand Srila Prabhupada mission. My dear GuruMaharaja Kindly accept my dandawat Pranamas at your lotus feet.

GuruMaharaja, on your 74th Vyaspuja, I want to wish you a long, good, healthy life. This year, after 12 years, I could go to Mayapur and attend the yatra. 12 years back I remember something I loved the most was the place of Sridhar Kolevecha. Hearing and remembering his pastimes is always very special For me. But unfortunately, we couldn't go to that place. But in your lecture, while you narrated the mahaprakash lila, I could again meditate upon the same in Mayapur Dham. Thank you very much for that.

All the evening lectures and lectures at the sites, especially evening kirtanas, I enjoyed them with friends. Darshans and visits to Godrumdwip, Shantipur, Yogpeeth, Shrivas again, Belpukur, Caitanya math, and Simant dwip were very, very heart-touching. During the entire yatra, we honored Prasada on time without any hassle. All this is because of your causeless mercy Gurudeva. Cooking together on Srila Prabhupada's disappearance day was another fascinating experience. And I remember You told us in your class that all this and our activities we should do, not for our pleasure but for Krishna's pleasure, and to please Srila Prabhupada, and to please Gaurang who has come to distribute the love of Krishna. I am seeking your blessings for this consciousness. Everything I am doing, In my heart, let me check if it is pleasing to Sri Guru and Gauranga and do all of them only for their pleasure.

Dear Gurudeva, In my heart, I offer my deepest gratitude to you for everything. For accepting such a weak-hearted soul as your disciple. For keeping me in the association of devotees at Bhaktivedanta Hospital. Also, for all your classes and Kirtanas, for Bhaktivedanta Hospital and Gopal's Garden High School, For GEV and the loving Radha Gopinatha community.

Seeking your blessings.

My dearest Guru Maharaja,

Gurudeva, koti koti Dandavats at your Divine lotus feet. Jaya Srila Prabhupada. " Sri Guru carana padma kevala bhakati sadma... The lotus feet of our spiritual master is the only way we can attain pure devotional service." Gurudeva, you are an ocean of mercy, compassion, and love. You have taught us how to serve Guru, Gauranga, and Vaisnavas with grace. Your love is what sustains us when we are put through trials and tribulations in life. Your beautiful smile and tolerance keep us going, on our worst days. By your example, you have taught us to wholeheartedly serve Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundara. Your unending stamina and strength to preach the mission of Srila Prabhupada inspires us to follow in your footsteps. Your humility and kindness have no bounds as you give it freely to everyone who crosses your path. 'Panditah sama darsinah.'

By Krishna's grace, I met you when I was 18 years old; today, 40 years later, my love and respect for you have grown a millionfold. You have been there for me through every happy, sad, and trying time of my life, guiding me with love, and pushing me forward so I don't drown in self-pity and illusion. Just as Srila Prabhupada was always gentle with me, for he knew I was a crybaby, you, too, have handled me with the utmost care, even when I am fumbling around like a fool.

When we lost Nrsimha, I'm so grateful for the time you took out for the children and me, helping us understand Krishna's hand in the situation and soothing the pain we were all devastated by. I remember you said, "Cry and grieve the passing of Nrsimha but later let these tears be the tears of joy celebrating his life." Your love always shines through. I am grateful for the shelter you have bestowed on my children and me and I pray that you will grant us a place at your Divine Lotus feet. I do not know what pious deeds I did in past lives that Krishna has showered me with your mercy. Srila Prabhupada writes, "My perpetual desire is to be always situated in the shelter of your Lotus feet which bestows true fearlessness (Abhay carana). This poet, Bhaktivedanta, also named (Abhay Carana) says: Release me from this illusory noose of Maya".Gurudeva, I, too, would like to offer this prayer at your Lotus feed. A Guru is like a Kalpavrksha tree, so I pray that you bestow your mercy by bringing my sadness to an end. Jaya, all glory to you, our dearest savior, Lord, and master. I beg you to bestow a drop of mercy on me so I have an opportunity to taste the nectar of the holy name. Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna Maharaja dandawats pranaam, please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada, the beloved spiritual master who brought us the light of Krishna Consciousness. and gifted us with your merciful association.

Your prsence is a beacon of compassion and humility, guiding us to live by Krishna's teachings in every aspect of our lives. Your incredible and inspiring work done over the years really inspires us... such as the projects like(Govardhan Eco Village which is a replica of Vrindhavan...we really experince the presence), we got a chance to visit the place as a yatra conducted by the mercy of HG Pranavananda Prabhu and also your lectures are really uplifting the fallen souls like us,and inspire even the hardest of hearts.

Though I have not had the chance to serve you directly, your words and example have touched me deeply, showing me how to practice devotion not only in the temple but in every moment and in every relationship. Through your guidance, I have learned that real strength comes from serving devotees and remaining humble.

On this auspicious Vyasa-puja, we all pray for your health and strength to the lotus feet of Shri Shri Radha Vrindhavan Bihari, so you may continue guiding us for many years. I promise to honor your teachings by deepening my Sadhana and engaging in sincere seva

Thank you so much Maharaja, for being the shelter and guiding us all the time. We remain ever grateful at your lotus feet.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Maharaja you are the personification of compassion, you are such a simple, humble and a knowledgeable person and you lead an exemplary through both your preaching and behaviour. Maharaja you have taught the whole world that service to devotees is the essence of devotional practices. Maharaja, you are great in loving exchanges with devotees and your forgiveness is unimaginable. Maharaja, you have conquered everyone with love and humility. Maharaja your detachment, simplicity, loving relations with everyone and the way you are determined having undergone all the challenges whatsoever that came on your path in search of god is very inconceivable Maharaja and with all these divine qualities you always carry Vrndavana in your heart and also manifested Vrndavana physically.

Bhaktanam seva sada dharma saram
Sarva karam vaisnavebhyo arpaniyam
Etat tattvam siksitam yo vidvan
Sri Radhanatha swamin tasmai nathasmi

Service to the devotees is the essence of devotional service. Whatever we do, we should do it for the satisfaction of devotees. The one who taught this principle that by serving devotees all auspiciousness comes in our life, to that Radhanath Swami Maharaja, I surrender.

Vrndaranyam hi sthapitam hi
Dvitiyam wada desai bhakta-chitet
Saksat Radha-Gopinatha bhaktais ca
Sri Radhanatha swamin tasmai nathasmi

The one who established Vrndavanaa in two places, in wada and in the hearts of devotees. He establishes the Vrndavana dham in the heart of devotees of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji. To that Radhanath swami Maharaja, I surrender.

Maharaja you are so compassionate that you reciprocated to my last vyaspuja even to this fallen soul by giving me association of devotees, not just once but twice you have showered your mercy, once when I got opportunity to serve, but being ignorant and full of anarthas I couldn't sustain that Maharaja.

I really beg forgiveness for whatever mistakes I have committed Maharaja. Maharaja now I am everyday attending Mangal arati, reading Srimad-Bhagavatam, listening Hari katha, engaging in deity worship Maharaja. Sometimes I am also trying to do Srila Prabhupada book distribution whenever possible Maharaja.

Thank you so much for giving me a second chance Maharaja, I promise you that I will never repeat my mistakes again and will never take your mercy for granted Maharaja. I completely believe that only because of your mercy I am now blessed with devotees association and provisions to perform Sadhana. Maharaja my only desire is to speak, act in a way that pleases you Maharaja, glorifying you through my actions and serving Vaisnavas is my only goal of life Maharaja, please give your blessings accordingly Maharaja.

guru-mukha-padma-vakya, cittete koriya aikya, ar na koriho mane asa sri-guru-carane rati, ei se uttama-gati,

My only wish is to have my consciousness purified by the words emanating from his lotus mouth. Attachment to his lotus feet is the perfection that fulfills all desires.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your Lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On the most auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I am reminded your lecture where you explained about the life of Ajamila and how he helplessly called out for his son at the time of his death. You have emphasized the need to be serious, sincere, and without ulterior motives.

mriyamano harer nama grnan putropacaritam ajamilo 'py agad dhama
kim uta sraddhaya grnan

Maharaja, Ajamila called out for his son (not the Lord), he called out helplessly at the time of death, he didn't have a pure heart and he led a sinful life. By connecting us to the Guru Parampara, Maharaja, you have taught us how to call out for the Lord daily (not just at the time of death!) – just like a child calls out for the mother helplessly. You taught us how to lead a Krishna Conscious life with a pure heart and you taught us to develop attachment to the Supreme Lord (not just family members, unlike Ajamila). Finally, you taught us how to lead a Krishna-centric life. By giving us these four essential principles, Gurudeva, you have given us the access to cultivate pure love of God in the mood of the servant of the servant of the servant. As King Kulashekara also mentions,

maj-janmanah phalam idam madhu-kaitabhare mat-prarthaniya-mad-anugraha esa eva tvad-bhrtya-bhrtya-paricaraka-bhrtya-bhrtyabhrtyasya bhrtya iti mam smara loka-natha

I seek your blessings to practice devotional service in this mood of the servant of the servant of the servant and practice bhakti regularly, chant sincerely, serve the devotees, and not have envy and malice against those serving the mission of Srila Prabhupapda.

I sincerely pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji, Lalita devi, Vishakha devi, Sri Sri Gaura Nita, Sri Gopal ji, and Srila Prabhupada to keep you healthy and offer you a long life!

Dear GuruMaharaja, please accept my humble obeisances. We are deeply grateful to you as this year you have spent a lot of your time with your disciples. We were able to get your association multiple times. This has really enthused us in your devotional practices. In spite of your health challenges and commitments you have travelled a lot to give us your association and mercy. When we visited Ultadanga place we came to know how you were perseverance and prayers were instrumental in securing this place. We can understand how much you value anything related to your spiritual master and what a great place they hold in your heart. This is a very great instruction for us in how we should value and serve our spiritual master. There were few incidents this year where we realized how you are always there to protect us. This has increased our faith in Krishna and His holy names. On this auspicious occasion, we pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for your good health and keep you engaged in their eternal service.

Offering to H.H. Radhanath Swami Maharaja on His Vyasa-puja
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your divine service.

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, we offer our deepest gratitude for the extraordinary compassion and love you have shared with all of us. You have been a guiding light in this material world, illuminating the path of bhakti with your example of pure devotion, humility, and unwavering dedication to the service of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji.

Your life has been a living testimony of service to Vaisnava community and ISKCON. Through your teachings, books, and tireless travels, you have inspired countless souls to take shelter of the lotus feet of the Supreme Lord and to imbibe the principles of Krishna Consciousness. in their lives. Your kindness and care for each individual, no matter their background, is a reflection of your deep realization of the unity of all souls in Krishna's service.

We are constantly in awe of how you embody the qualities of a true Vaisnavaa: patience, humility, compassion, and the ability to see every living entity as a beloved part and parcel of Krishna. Your ability to offer solace to the suffering, encouragement to the disheartened, and strength to the weak has transformed the lives of so many devotees and continues to do so daily.

Guru Maharaja, your personal example inspires us to strive for purity and dedication in our service. You have taught us that the real meaning of life is in serving others with love and compassion, and that in doing so, we can find true happiness. You have also shown us that the most precious relationship is the one we cultivate with Krishna through sincere and dedicated practice of bhakti.

On this most sacred day, we pray to become worthy instruments of your mercy. We pray to serve you and your mission with sincerity, enthusiasm, and devotion. Please continue to bless us so that we may walk on the path you have shown with courage and determination.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for your endless care, love, and guidance. May we continue to receive your divine association and may we always remain under your shelter, striving to assist in your mission to spread the teachings of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

During our VTA training at Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Temple, we had an opportunity to have an association of HG Gaur Gopal prabhu,and while answering to one of the question he said that we are not sadhus,we are just svayam sevak,sadhu is higher position, Maharaja is sadhu,mentioning how you led ideal sadhu life.

We daily get updates on 'Sadhu walks' channels on whatsapp about you.

During our Vidyapith,we studied the primary characteristics of sadhus in on this auspicious day I thought of meditating of your qualities.

Sb 3.25.22 mentions the primary characteristics

mayy ananyena bhavena bhaktim kurvanti ye drdham mat-krte tyakta-karmanas tyakta-svajana-bandhavah

Such a sadhu engages in staunch devotional service to the Lord without deviation. For the sake of the Lord he renounces all other connections, such as family relationships and friendly acquaintances within the world.

We can see that how at age of 19 you left your home and traveled the world in search of God,leaving your friends and family. Surrendered your life to Srila Prabhupada and engaged in devotional service without deviation.Your devotional austerity in New Vrndavana, were lines on stone.

SB 3.25.22

mad-asrayah katha mrstah srnvanti kathayanti ca tapanti vividhas tapa naitan mad-gata-cetasah

Engaged constantly in chanting and hearing about Me, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the sadhus do not suffer from material miseries because they are always filled with thoughts of My pastimes and activities.

One time Guaranga prabhu was mentioning in class that earlier you used to give long long classes classes and Kirtana, it was part of your Sadhana and ecstasy and they were fortunate to be part of that.

By your personal example you showed us how a devotee should completely take shelter of hearing and chanting.

SB 3.25.21 secondary qualities of sadhus titiksavah karunikah suhrdah sarva-dehinam ajata-satravah santah

sadhavah sadhu-bhusanah

The symptoms of a sadhu are that he is tolerant, merciful and friendly to all living entities. He has no enemies, he is peaceful, he abides by the scriptures, and all his characteristics are sublime.

Tolerant :

One devotee was sharing that how in one of the Kartika-yatra,there were ants on vaysa asana,no one noticed it,you started a class and ants started biting it but for next 2-3 hour you gave a ecstatic class and kirtana and tolerated it,when devotees came to know about it and asked why your did not tell us then you mentioned that how can disturb the class when you many people has come to hear,I am speaking on I am not this body,I am soul.

Merciful

You are continuously traveling,extending yourself to give Krishna Consciousness..

Friendly to all living entities and No enemies

You have friendly relationships with devotee, non devotees,other sampradaysas, no one is inimical to you.

Govind prabhu was mentioning one of the vyaspuja that how you were speaking Maha mantras in ear of birds while you were on morning walk during covid.

Peaceful

You whole demeanor is peaceful, gracious.

Abides by the scriptures

You are essence sicker of scriptures, preaching Krishna Consciousness. in different ways based on essence of scripture.

On this auspicious occasion I just pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Bihari,Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohan for your good health.

Please bless me to have drop of these qualities and may I live my life based on teaching you have given to us.

Respected Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

2024 is a special year. I received Brahman initiation. I was not expecting to make it to the list. Am grateful to you and my counsellor, His Grace Sahadeva Prabhu for considering me worthy of the same.

Maharaja, I take Brahman diksha as an opportunity to rededicate myself to serving Srila Prabhupada's mission. A few days ago, while attending a workshop, I came across a statement – "Are your interested or are you committed?" It struck a chord deep in my heart.

It is about time that I am committed to:

- Improve my Sadhana, specifically chanting japa
- Lovingly serve the Vaisnava community in a cooperative spirit
- Understanding and following your instructions, with faith
- Living the life of a responsible grihastha
- As mentioned by you, "always preach, but speak only when necessary"

After taking stock of my current mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual health, I am working on my inner self. I have made a to-be list. I need your blessings on this next phase of my life, in which I am working towards imbibing the mood and acharan of role models like His Grace Madhavananda Prabhu, His Grace Satchitananda Prabhu and His Grace Radha Giridhari Prabhu.

Maharaja you have been very kind and super tolerant to shower us with the mercy you are receiving by serving Srila Prabhupada and his mission

You have developed a taste for the Holy name

Sankirtana is your life and soul

Your intensity in chanting and your melodious singing is well-known

Sri Sri RadhaGopinathaji are so opulent and charming

Sri Sri Vrndavana Bihariji are so simple and enchanting

They are so beautifully dressed and offering such loving worship

That they capture the hearts of even the foreign tourists

By setting high standards for your disciples to clean the temple

Our hearts become free of dirt and simple

Maharaja, you are expert in cooking for the Deities

The taste of the four kinds of foods offered is enhanced by your love and devotion

You are always so pleased to see the devotees honouring sumptuous Prasada

Whether in the temple or in a 10000 people yatra pandal

You are always so happy to hear and extoll

the unlimitedly sweet pastimes and glories of Gaur Lila, and Radha and Krishna

Constantly inspired by the lectures and teachings of Srila Prabhupada and the previous Acaryas

Maharaja, you are so very Dear to the Brajwasis

Serving them in so many ways, especially in Barsana

Your service to Srimati Radharani, the Chief of the Gopis

Will always be appreciated by the cataract free eyes of the Brajwasis

Maharaja, it is not by chance that on a journey from Europe to India you embarked

And met and served Srila Prabhupada

The scriptures glorify the Guru as Krishna's most confidential servant

And that is why we honour you in a way that is fervent

Maharaja, we cannot become eligible for devotional service

Unless, you the Spiritual Master petitions it

The Lord reciprocates with your pleas

Because you are rendering Him so much service eternally

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

I am eternally thankful to you for taking an unworthy soul like me in your shelter. If Lord Krishna manifested right in front of my eye, I may not believe, but the faith in the lotus feet of Krishna will always be firm, which I get because of hearing your katha and associating with your true representative (counsellors) and other god brothers. Dear Maharaja, the extended family that we got in ISKCON Chowpatty is taking care of us and nourishing devotional aspirations under your guidance. This loving family is the only hope for a soul like me to go back home, back to the godhead.

Maharaja, your katha not only enlightens us but also gives us inspiration to practice devotional service with utmost care and sincerity.

I pray at the lotus feet of Radha Gopinathaji to always keep you in good health, and may you always guide us in fulfilling the dream of Prabhupada for spreading the Krishna conscious movement.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glory to Srila Guru and Gauranga.

I am eternally grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple, though I am never qualified and have unlimited bad qualities. Still, you accepted me, which shows how merciful you are toward fallen souls like us. When Srila Rupa Goswami and Srila Sanatan Goswami were praying to Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, they said, "My dear Lord, please know that You will never find anyone more deserving of Your mercy than us, for we are the most fallen. So please be kind to us and deliver us."

In the same way, I must say, dear Gurudeva, please be kind to this most fallen soul and deliver me. Your causeless mercy is my only hope. In the case of Srila Rupa Goswami and Srila Sanatan Goswami, they were utterly humble when they said to Lord Caitanya, "We are the most fallen," but they were never truly fallen. However, I must say that I am indeed most fallen, and this is true.

So, accepting you as my only hope, I am trying my best to follow your instructions, which you have so mercifully spoken in your many lectures. Please bless me and empower me so that throughout my life I will hear and follow your instructions. Srila Prabhupada writes in Caitanya Charitamrita that this is what a disciple is meant to do: hear from Gurudeva and immediately carry it out. Then the disciple's life becomes successful.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja.?Please accept my most humble and respectful obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupda. All glories to you. And a very happy blessed appearance day to you!?Today on this most auspicious day I reflect on the gifts you've brought upon my life.. matchless.. causeless.. undeserving gifts that have filled my heart with genuine happiness. In this short life there's nothing that can fill the heart more than your divine instructions. In your exemplary humility you often tell us how grateful you are that we committed our life in service to Srila Prabhupada.. and your exemplary life is but a manifestation of the instructions of your spiritual master. Recently in Vrndavana you mentioned again how a devotee on this path is resolute in purpose and their aim is one and our aim is to make the order of the guru one's life and soul. As you constantly dispel darkness from my consciousness with your divine words and lead such an exemplary inspiring life I glorify and pray to you to please accept my insignificant service at your lotus feet and may your glories be spread throughout the three worlds! Thank you Guru Maharaja for sacrificing your life for our well being and unconditionally loving each one of us. Dear Gurudeva, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

When I hear your name, I’m immediately reminded of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji; it is you from whom I, and especially the congregation of ISKCON Chowpatty, have received Krishna. It is you who have given us shelter and the bonafide path to serve Krishna and Srimati Radharani. It is said that this material world is like a forest fire, and to extinguish this blazing fire, clouds full of water are needed. You are like the clouds that take water from the ocean (Krishna) and shower it on the people and especially your disciples, so that they are saved from the forest fire. Through your lectures, your Vani, you make us explain that this material world is full of suffering and a difficult place to live in, but at the same time we need not be insensitive towards the struggles faced by the people. You are an epitome of honesty, humility, sensitivity, and selflessness. You have taught us how to lead our lives perfectly in Krishna Consciousness. by exhibiting these four qualities:

1. Live without pretending
2. Hear without defending
3. Speak without offending
4. Love without expecting

Grateful to you forever. Your insignificant disciple, Sri Mohini Radha devi dasi. Hare Krishna.

Hare Krishna,
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I am really feeling overwhelmed how to share my heart. Being very insignificant and unqualified you have given me your shelter. I am unable to understand your mercy which you have showered on this poor ignorant fool and accepting me your disciple.

I used to hear everytime from my counselor that once you accept Guru in your life your life is no more your property. You become totally surrender to your Guru serving him and his mission throughout your life. He also explained us that accepting Guru is also a big responsibility. The way you have given your life and soul in serving Srila Prabhupada mission inspired me in bottom of my heart.

Maharaja you being perfect follower of your Guru like perfect disciple. H H Bhakti Rasamrita Maharaja was explaining in his talk that only such perfect disciple can only be perfect guru.This admire me lot. I only long for this qualities. Please blessed me so I can imbibe this in my life.

I like to share my experience of initiation though I was practicing Krishna Consciousness. for long time. But I was quiet nervous when initiation time came. I heard from many devotees that your Guru Maharaja takes away your sins which you committed in material life while you get initiated. I was afraid and my heart was saying I am so sinful person why I should pass these sins to Guru Maharaja. Then I remember about pastime of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu and Nityanand Prabhu giving their mercy to Jagai and Madai. When Maharaja was offering Japa Beeds my voice was choked and little afraid. But only I remember that whatever is happening is will of Lord and mercy of Guru Maharaja. Let surrender myself accept this invaluable mercy in my life and serve eternally to my Guru Maharaja.

Maharaja I am really found of your one of divine quality how to maintain our relationship by focusing on once good character culture and avoid differences. This makes your bonding strong. I experience this during yatra how your relationship with God brothers and God sisters.

I conclude my offering by saying that your instructions are my way of life. I don't know when I will speak personally with you. But whenever I attend your class I feel that I am personally sitting with you taking your instructions in my life and helping me in my spiritual journey. I only pray at lotus feet of Sri Sri RadhaGopinathaji that please keep myself humble and serve my Guru Maharaja sincerely without offending any Vaisnavas. Just like servant of servant of servant.

HARE Krishna Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances at your DIVINE LOTUS FEET

I am a condemned rascal loitering in an ashram without proper practice for 8years. I was brought in front of you in the 2019 initiation, just after being heavily rebuked by one devotee whom I met 3 weeks before initiation for my parent's yatra. My consciousness in taking things is so poor right from my childhood Maharaja that I get easily disturbed and go into loneliness, having not properly practiced your instructions due to my whims, this incident made me deadhead in front of you and practically faint in my consciousness with fast in hot and dry wadafarm & speculation filled with thoughts of surprise, shock, un-acceptability, expectations, protest, accusation & terrible thoughts like a curse all at a time attacked and arrested me at once. I don't know what the hell is awaiting me for this offense. I don't accuse that devotee because it is my improper practice of wasting time for many years and wandering that I was exposed on that day either because of that devotee or demigods behind that devotee to never forget my mistake throughout my life.

After this grave offense, I was denied saffron, thrown out of Albert Road temple, and then landed in a place of iitians whom I hated for the last 11 years. There were fights and abuses through SB Classes ripping the very core of my heart, seniors whom I trusted rejected me, and I was even shot with character abuse then.

I don't complain, MAHARAJA, because I deserve worse for my horrible consciousness that is so hellish. I am happy to be rectified. Despite all these hardships, my only hope and treasure is serving in Calcutta, BIRTHPLACE OF SRILA PRABHUPADA, to please you and thereby please Krishna and go BACK TO GODHEAD!

It is because of hearing your talk in 2008 here in Calcutta that I got so attached to this place and to dedicate my life especially when you spoke of ULTADANGA "It is here in Calcutta that the seed of entire HARE Krishna MOVEMENT IS PLANTED!" there were so many temptations with devotees moving out of this place because of getting tremendous opportunities in place of my mother tongue Andhra Pradesh. I was even asked by many Brahmacaris in Hyderabad but I was unable to give up my attachment to Calcutta, by the DIVINE power of your speech that by every moment of sacrifice, every Bengali book I distribute, every school child I reached, I celebrated deep within as the greatest treasure of my existence and an offering unto GURU PARAMPARA & Krishna.

I loved the seclusion, which was a crime in the world of capitalism. I always wanted to maintain the independence of thought towards ABSOLUTE Being taught by you. Your powerful words that gave me intense focus on ABSOLUTE have scared many to land into being fearful of me, but I wanted to remain sold out at your lotus feet, MAHARAJA, because I am fearful of losing that focus and landing into another birth.

However, I was immature in dealing with devotees with variegated interests and committed many offenses. Hearing blasphemy of Great Souls faithfully Due to my committing offenses & I got into bad association thereby into offensive life like DVIVIDA, due to which I am into the impact of curses of your dedicated disciples on my CONSCIOUSNESS & HEALTH. I woke up when I recently associated with your wonderful disciple, KANAI THAKUR Prabhu, in Pune, who opened my eyes; I could understand that I need to keep my head cool to serve you.

Now, I am trying to retain my practice & DEVOTION by soberness, trying to correct my attitude of offensive calculation and to develop a respectful attitude, trying to rectify my grave mistake of trespassing you and properly follow you at heart and purify my heart. I beg you to kindly, please, please bless me so that I can be re-instated in devotional service in a devotional mood, in devotional feelings, in devotional enthusiasm to serve you, please you in a place where SRILA PRABHUPADA has performed his Childhood Pastimes especially by his LOOKING AT RADHA GOVINDA DEITIES FOR LONG LONG TIME!

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

It is a great honor to once again make my humble offering on this most auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja.

Gurudeva, you are an ocean of Vaisnava qualities. Your kindness, compassion, humility, and loving, caring nature run profoundly deep. Your interactions with all the devotees are incredibly inspiring. We often hear pastimes from devotees who have had the privilege of closely associating with you, and I am thrilled to witness the beautiful Vaisnava character that you manifest in all your dealings.

I derive immense nourishment from your lectures. They are filled with nectarean Krishna-katha and are deeply instructive, helping to uproot my shortcomings and anarthas. Your classes impart countless valuable lessons and instructions that encourage rising above weaknesses and worldly attachments, inspiring surrender to Krishna. Each one is filled with points to reflect on and implement in my life. I simply wish to immerse myself in hearing from you and purify my consciousness.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for everything I have received from you, including your siksha, Harinam Diksha, Brahmana Diksha, the wonderful Vaisnava community, your enlightening lectures and books, memorable yatras, temples, and so much more. I cannot thank you enough for all that I have received from you and your exemplary leading disciples.

Although I am striving to follow your teachings, I recognize it is a long journey to reach the standard of a pure Vaisnava that you exemplify. I humbly seek your mercy to continue practicing sincerely and to fulfill your expectations in serving the Vaisnavas.

I aspire to please you and Srila Prabhupada by cultivating a genuine service attitude and putting sincere efforts into spreading Srila Prabhupada's mission. I pray for your blessings so that I may please my superiors through my humble attempts to serve.

Please continue to bestow your kind mercy on this unworthy soul.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja ,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,

On this most auspicious day of your Appearance Day, I want to speak a few words for my purification.

I am the most insignificant, fallen, riched, conditioned soul; what can I speak about you, who's oceanic merciful & has all wonderful Vaisnava qualities? It's like a small bird trying to drink water drop by drop from the ocean.

The Spiritual Master is pleased, the Lord is pleased, you understood the heart of your Spiritual Master, Srila Prabhupada, you are preaching & doing so many services to please Srila Prabhupada, the wonderful??? project " GEV", which is non-different from "Sri Vrndavana", Srila Prabhupada wanted the" Vrndavana "& you made it, this is what understanding the heart of the Spiritual Master. The GEV is helping so many Souls to become Krishna Consciousness., which is the most important. Like this your glorious is unlimited, kindly forgive me for all my offenses at your lotus feet,

Yours most insignificant servant,
Sri Vallabha Das.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

On this auspicious day of I wish to offer my heartfelt wishes on your appearance day. I'm grateful towards Krishna and Prabhupada for giving You to me, who not only has accepted me, gave me mercy and continuously taking me out of ignorance and showing the path of devotion.

On personal level I'm trying to assist devotees in preaching service. I may also get chance to present before newly coming people. Here I'm selfish again - Kindly bless me so that I will be able to present in the right mood and attitude.

With this humle request, I offer my prayers at Lotus Feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji to give You healthy life.

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my sincere obeisances.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

In the ocean of your disciples, I am a very significant servant of yours.

Thanks for accepting me as your disciple.

I am not at all qualified to speak about your glories. But still for my purification, what hit me for the first time is the photo of yours making the brajwasis wear the foot wear. You had personally bent down sat on the ground and helped a brajwasi put a new pair of slippers during one of the barsana eye camp. This depicts your quality of humility and serving the devotees. You are an ocean of mercy, the devotee care system through the counsellor-counselled system, has helped cultivating new devotees and I am beneficiary of this visionary care of yours.

Thanks a lot for showering your love that flows through your disciples without which I am sure I would have been caught in the web of Maya. Thank you for showing me the path of Krishna bhakti and the valuable guidance through your lectures. Kindly keep me in your prayers.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories unto your lotus feet on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

Your depth, clarity, and humility—and the way in which you embody these traits—are an inspiration and guiding light for me. I am in awe of how you move so steadily through this material world, as though you are on a different, spiritual platform. I am humbled and blown away by your selfless love, causeless mercy, and expert ability to see and share truth.

I did not get to see you this year, but I have continued to attempt to serve the deities and devotees in Laguna Beach and Long Beach. I feel beyond blessed to be able to continue to serve these communities, and I am especially humbled and grateful to be able to help dress Pancatattva each week. Words cannot describe the magic of this seva and how transformative it has been in my life. Thank you for the gift of not only helping me connect to them but also allowing me to attempt to serve them too intimately. This service is one of the biggest gifts in my life.

I have continued my seva of helping manage small aspects of the programs in Long Beach and Laguna Beach and have even attempted to receive grant funding for the temples, with the significant help of Tukaram prabhu, so that we may continue to nicely serve the Deities for generations to come. Lastly, I have been working to deepen my relationships with devotees younger than me, and my hope is to be able to help nurture and grow these future generations of devotees, not just as devotees but also as leaders in our movement, who also can help to nurture future generations of devotees.

In this coming year, I pray that I am able to continue doing the aforementioned seva. I also have a selfish and material hope to get married and start a family of my own. That said, I am scared to lose any connection to you and Krishna in the process. As such, I will do my utmost to continue to strengthen and deepen my own spiritual practice. It is clear to me that I truly stand “on the shoulders of giants,” and whatever seva it appears I am doing, or whatever small good qualities I have, are undoubtedly a reflection of your light and mercy. I want to make sure to carry this reflection wherever I go, at all times.

If it is your desire, and Krishna’s desire, I pray that I am able to continue next year, and forever, serving you, Srila Prabhupada, the Deities in Laguna Beach, and the temple in Long Beach.

Maharaja, words cannot express the level of gratitude and indebtedness I feel toward you for the causeless mercy you have poured into me. My first interaction with you was a sign to me that Krishna is real, and each interaction I have been blessed to have with you since has reinforced such truth.

I hope this year I can make you proud and serve you, Srila Prabhupada, Pancatattva, and our mission as a servant of the servant of the servant.

Maharaja you are the guiding light who dispels the darkness of ignorance and shows the eternal path to perfect our lives.

Maharaja you are an embodiment of mercy and you bestow it on your disciples. I have a fond memory where when I was in Gopals Garden I was given the service to serve you Karela sabji. I remember that there were many of your God brothers who had come none were taking the Karela sabji. But when you came I served very little sabji and you told that you wanted more. Later I came to know that you love the Karela sabji that made my day as I got a chance to serve you in a small way.

I am not too qualified to write offerings but I would take the opportunity to thank you for giving Krishna Consciousness. to my parents by which even we are getting your mercy.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!
Dandavat Pranama. Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet.

How are you guru Maharaja? A very happy 74th Vyasa-puja guru Maharaja! We are all forever grateful to little Nitai for giving us the rarest gift - association of yours, Gurudeva!

Dear Guru Maharaja to be really honest, to fight against maya devi feels impossible! I am unable to get out of her clutches and almost gave up trying! I am just disgusted and frustrated by these devils- lust, anger,greed, pride, envy, false ego and the thirst for these just keep increasing and never end. It is so tiring and sad that I don't even know who I am anymore. These days and since the start, by the mercy of Vaisnavas, I realised that I have never practised bhakti never really, all these years I have been doing it to increase my fame and nurture my pride, false ego more and more. I became more duplicitous to the point where I feel like vomiting. Amidst all this it really is the mercy of Vaisnavas and their constant association that gave me hope that Yes! I will and can be saved too! Just take up to chanting 16 rounds of Hare Krishna Maha Mantra and follow four regulative principles, read Srila Prabhupada books and do Bhagavat sravanam from Vaisnavas and be happy!!

Gurudeva to do that I really need your mercy and instructions! Gurudeva you are soo merciful that you are always willing to take up any risk, any pain for the pleasure of your dear Spiritual father, Spiritual master His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada! Such faith and love towards Srila Prabhupada! Reading Srila Prabhupada Lilamrta really makes me wonder just how can anyone ever have so much faith and love on someone that they are willing to risk their lives and sacrifice everything for someone! HH JAYAPATAKA SWAMI, HG YAMUNA MATAJI, HG HLADINI SHAKTI MATAJI, HH RADHANATHA SWAMI, etc are the examples for such show of love and faith towards their dear Guru!

Dear Srila Gurudeva! You inspire us soo much! Every single thing that you say you follow, you took up so many difficulties like New Vrndavana etc but always remained calm and never blamed or hurt anyone! Everybody loves you cuz you are the sweetest, most caring person ever! O Srila Gurudeva! You are the torch bearer who is willing to destroy the darkness of our hearts and give us the priceless gift of pure Krishna prema! Thank you!

Thank you! Lord Nimai came to this world to distribute Krishna prema freely not just to brahmanas but also women, and every person in this material world! How compassionate! How merciful! Deen dayalu Sri Nitaichandra also did the same! Thank you Gurudeva! You are really the greatest blessing of my life! Thank you! Happy Vyasa-puja Srila Gurudeva! Forgive me for this messy letter and for all the offences that I made here.

Thank you!!!!

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Devotees across the world are giving their heartfelt offerings to You on your 74th Vyasa-puja. In my little way I am also trying to write my offering.

Once Srila Prabhupada said "I never deviated from the instructions and teaching of my spiritual master". I see the same example in You.

Lord Krishna is Karuna Sindhu the ocean of mercy. And You are like the Cloud that takes the mercy of Lord from the ocean and distributes it all over the world. And thus save the fallen souls like me from the slaughter house of Maya. I am engrossed in the sense gratification exactly like the goats in front of the butcher 's shop without realising that the next is my turn. You have mercifully accepted me as your disciple and thus given me an opportunity to get saved from the slaughter house of Maya.

Srimad Bhagavadam 3.5.3 says janasya Krishnad vimukhasya daivad adharma-silasya suduhkhitasya anugraha yeh caranti nunam bhutani bhavyani janardanasya

Translation

O my Lord, great philanthropic souls travel on the earth on behalf of the Supreme Personality of Godhead to show compassion to the fallen souls who are averse to the sense of subordination to the Lord.

Dear Maharaja you are perfect example of the above sloka.

Once in a house program in Mumbai in your class you were explaining how the materialistic persons are working very hard for their sense gratification and compared them with donkeys doing hard labour as mentioned by Srila Bhakti Vinod Thakur.

One of the audience in that programme got angry and left the class immediately. When you came to know that he was hurt you phoned him and explained how Srila Bhakti Vinod Thakur explained this and asked for apology if he was hurt. Inspired by your humbleness that person became a devotee later and started chanting 16 rounds.

Dear Guru Maharaja your qualities are unlimited and cannot be quantified. Also, I do not have wisdom to know and understand all the qualities of you; who are a pure devotee of Krishna

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I beg you to give me shelter at your lotus feet and bless me so that I can become serious and sincere in my Krishna Conscious life. I beg You to give me knowledge, intelligence and determination so that I give up all types of sense gratification, give up all the anarthas and develop great attachment to chant the holy names of Krishna, read Srila Prabhupada books and serve your mission as a servant of servant.

Maharaja, thank you for accepting me as your disciple. I was enjoying my life like any other materialistic person. You came to Ahmedabad in 2004 for meeting and I got an opportunity to serve you. Your one glance upon me changed my life. From that moment I decided to accept you as my spiritual master. I started attending Kartic yatras. Listening to your lectures changed my style of living and thinking. Today if am feeling so fortunate that you accepted me. In March 2024, it was your total mercy that you gave me Brahmin initiation in GEV wada.

Today I take pride in saying to everyone that you are my spiritual master. Where ever we go just by saying that we are your disciples we get so much mercy and special treatment.

Maharaja, I am very very thankful to you, I can't imagine how I will be able to repay you for all your mercy. To please you and Srila Prabhupada, I do book distribution in marathon month. That is the only way I can repay you. I am sure you will be pleased with my this little gesture and bless me so I can continue to do book distribution till my last breath.

Thank you very much Maharaja once again.

Same way, you have absorbed the teaching of Lord Caitanya in your heart through your beloved spiritual master Srila Prabhupada and then you are distributing all over the world to please your Spiritual master and Lord Gauranga. By your genuine Tapasya you attracted the mercy of Lord and the Love of Godhead is awakened in you and now with compassion you are helping everyone and encouraging them to endeavor very sincerely to awaken their dormant Love for Krishna.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for taking us on a Pilgrimage every year which nourishes our bhakti and help us to progress in our devotional life.

Praying at your lotus feet on this auspicious Vyasa-puja day for your blessings, so that we can sincerely endeavor to practice Bhakti yoga and can help other as this is the desire of Mahaprabhu and the way to please to Lord in this Kali yuga.

"Holy name will punish if we blaspheme devotees"

"Practice Krishna Consciousness. in your own phase at your own place"

"If we are happy by seeing other devotees getting Krishna's mercy then Krishna bestows his mercy upon us too"

Pujya Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Congratulations and happy 74th Vyasa-puja. On this auspicious day of your divine appearance, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Lord Nrsimhadev, Their Lordships Sri Sri Gaura Nitai to give you health and rest required to perform your inspiring service to Srila Prabhupada and his mission. You are a true example of para-dukha-dukhi at a deeper level.

A great person's quality is measured when he transcends the bodily designations to give Krishna's supreme mercy and tolerate all inconveniences caused in the process. You lived by this principle and taught us the same. Loving relationships between living entity and Krishna, and between living entities is most satisfying to the soul. However, these relationships, when based on spiritual principles as taught by Lord Caitanya with ultimate aim of pleasing Krishna, expecting nothing in return, delivers the true happiness to the soul. Gratitude, compassion, humility, all these higher virtues are automatically rolled into the platform of para-dukha-dukhi when one truly humbles before a guru who is a representative of a parampara and pure devotee of the Lord. The happiness derived from such relationships is immeasurable, intense and powerful, making the temporary satisfaction derived from material sense gratification insignificant.

Thank you for teaching higher principles, giving inspiration to live by that in a highly distracting materialistic society. Thank you for not only showing the path, but explaining that in detail in a convincing way that even great materially qualified have absolutely no clue about them. It is a life beyond material understanding without losing any valuable part of materialistic life. Krishna Consciousness. is truly the greatest experiment performed in human existence for higher purpose. More than air, heat and food, the living entity needs love. The love that has no motives and based on the principles that Krishna and acaryas taught.

I was wondering for many years about why I chose Krishna Consciousness.. It took me all this time to realize that I did not chose Krishna Consciousness., but Lord Caitanya out of His causeless mercy awarded it to me. The feeling that the Lord chose me as a recipient of this magnificent mercy brings tears into my eyes, makes my heart and feelings tremble. It makes everything else in my life so insignificant. You are an inseparable part of the passing of this mercy to me directly. I can't thank you enough but fall again and again at your lotus feet. I don't know whether I would ever be able to please you in my entire life, but at least try hard enough not to let you down. Happy birthday Maharaja. You are my true father!

Please accept my humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Today, on this auspicious day, I take the opportunity to express my gratitude to you. My words cannot express enough of the gratitude and appreciation that I feel towards you.

Under the dark veil of ignorance, I was rotting away in this material life, becoming increasingly more degraded. although I am totally unqualified to take Holyname Through your causeless mercy, your deepest compassion for the fallen soul like me in this Kali-Yuga, you lifted that dark veil and revealed the secrets of transcendental knowledge.Your humility and compassion had always attracted me. Your soul-searching lectures had always soothed the turbulence that goes on in my heart. With your lectures you have addressed so many questions lingering in my mind.Your narration of the Ramayan in Kishore Kishore back in 2015 was always a heart-quenching lecture for me, which gave so much guidance on building friendships with devotees and how to be committed in executing devotional service like Hanuman and his associates.

Today I was able to find a very good friend and mentor in my godbrother and sister.

under the guidance of your humble disciples HG Dhananjaya Pr, HG Panduranga Pr, HG Srikishore Pr, and HG MohanLila Prabhu I am able to execute Sunday feast cooking service, temple shopping service, and book distribution.

Because of your causeless mercy, today not only I but my whole family is able to practice Krishna Consciousness. under the guidance of my God Brothers and God Sisters.

I thank you for showing such mercy towards me.Your endless love and devotion to Krishna and the previous acaryas make me feel all the more determined and devoted towards pleasing you.

I aspire to be able to serve you with the same dedication that you serve Srila Prabhupada. I aspire to share your compassion for all. These are very high aspirations for a person as low as me.

Please reveal to me how I can be a better devotee and of better service to you.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

On this auspicious day, I would like to take this opportunity to humbly submit a few words of glorification for my purification.

"The spiritual master is receiving benediction from the ocean of mercy. Just as a cloud pours water on a forest fire to extinguish it, so the spiritual master delivers the materially afflicted world by extinguishing the blazing fire of material existence. I offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of such a spiritual master, who is an ocean of auspicious qualities."

A frog cannot understand the vastness of the ocean, similarly, it is very difficult to conceive what impact you have made in my life. You are equipped with the mercy of Srila Prabhupada and the guru Parampara to deliver an insignificant person like me. The effect your association has made on the lives of many, transforming the lives of many people who have come into your association. This is just because of the depth of your devotion and your compassion.

Gurudeva, you are a leader who is worth following. I hope one day I'm able to acquire just a fragment of your humility and compassionate mood and the dedication and sincerity in fulfilling the desires of your spiritual master.

Thank you, Gurudeva for providing stability and direction in my life and for the constant guidance through your lectures. Thank you for accepting someone like me as your disciple. Hare Krishna Dear Esteemed Guru Maharaja,

I am so foolish that I did not prioritize writing a Vyasa-puja offering to you for the last 2-3 years. It is my greatest fortune that I am somehow connected with you. You are a pure devotee in front of whom illusion cannot stand. And I am a fallen soul whose life is filled with all kinds of illusions which make me continue to live in forgetfulness of Krishna. May I always keep presenting myself before you so that all the illusions my life is filled with are driven away (since illusions cannot stand in front of you).

Just like all illusions caused by the Yakshas in their battle with Dhruva Maharaja were dispelled as soon as Dhruva Maharaja chanted the Lord's Holy Names, I am sure that all illusions can be instantly driven away when a fallen soul like me comes in your presence. Although I would have so much loved to constantly be in your close physical proximity, since you have asked us to prioritize Vani over Vapu, I am trying to derive as much solace as possible in your Vani.

Your Vani is so powerful, O Guru Maharaja. Your words seem to be coming from the spiritual world. The way you describe the pastimes of the Lord is just so mesmerizing. Through your words, you inject the spiritual world in an encapsulated form into our ears, all the way up to our hearts. It is my misfortune that I am unable to attentively listen to your lectures, giving them topmost priority.

Whenever I have been able to listen to your lectures with rapt attention, and have contemplated over points made by you, it has been a transforming experience. For instance, in 2014, I had carefully listened to one powerful lecture by you titled something like: "Don't be like a bumble bee" from the Five-Star series (compiled by Anand Vrndavana Prabhu I think). One particular point from that lecture really struck me and made a deep impact in my life (when I did my part of carefully meditating over it). That lecture was based on some Bhagavatam verse connected with lessons from a python and a bee. You emphatically stated that Guru and Krishna are speaking to us and sending messages through every aspect of this world. And if we are sincere, we can perceive them. Even if somebody says something unpleasant and unpalatable to a sincere devotee, that devotee simply thinks: "maybe Krishna has a message for me in it, and this person is just being an instrument conveying that message.

Why should I blame this person for being an instrument?".

This particular point about not blaming others for their "unpleasant" words was so impactful in my life, O Guru Maharaja. And at that time, I was so thrilled when I considered how transformed my life will be if I carefully listen to every word spoken by you in every lecture. But still, Maharaja, I am a fallen soul, and I keep getting distracted. I get carried away by the phenomena of this world, and I disgustingly often even consider them more real than Radha-Krishna. Please cast your merciful glance upon this fallen conditioned soul, and pick him up from the stool-pit of materialist life. I recently signed up for Grihastha Ashram, and am concerned that I should not forget your instructions (whatever I have been able to imbibe so far). I hope I can grow in my journey toward your beloved Lordships' lotus feet, despite being engaged in material activities of family life and job life. Please bless me and my to-be-wife that we can bring some good progeny (hopefully some great souls) into this world who will live to please you and to make some significant spiritual impact in this world.

All Glories to the love that you have for Srila Prabhupada.

All Glories to the love you have for your Godbrothers. Just by seeing your loving dealings with them inspires me to love and co-operate with everyone in and out of ISKCON.

I had your darshan first time in 1994 in HG Murlidhar Prabhus home where you were having a house program. Since then you always fascinate me.

Your lectures are the most profound expressions of your deep devotional ecstasies. And the absorption with which you narrate pastimes of Krishna Lila, Gaur Lila or Ram Lila makes them come alive before our eyes.

Your simplicity in behavior and loving dealings is what attract us like a magnet towards you.

You have demonstrated how spiritual life is not only in your thoughts but in action too.

The way Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha mandir has grown into a spiritual oasis is simply awesome to behold.

From the small Vrndavana Forest to the Govardhan Ecovillage, your heart is manifesting Vrndavana for benefit of fallen souls like me.

The loving co-operation between Brahmacaris and Grihasthas is demonstrated practically due to your guidance and care.

May we remain always under your shelter and keep bringing more & more lost souls under the eternal shelter of Srila Prabhupada and your Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha.

Please bless me to play my part in the wonderful sankirtana mission and please you and the Guru Parampara.

Hare Krishna,
Please accept my most humble obeisances!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada, and all glories to His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja!

Maharaja is an ocean of good qualities, like his simplicity, tremendous compassion, and his complete dedication towards Srila Prabhupada, etc. And unlike Srila Prabhupada, he has deep compassion for all living beings. He does not just preach through his words, but he also preaches through his actions.

As Bhaktivinoda Thakura prays to the Vaisnava Goswamis that, Please accept me as your dog; I will eat whatever Prasadam you provide me, “Vaisnava thakur tomar Kukkur boliya januhu”. Similarly, Maharaja, today on this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I humbly beg you to please accept me as your household dog.

My dear Maharaja, what I can speak of glorifying you. It’s my fortune that the devotees have told me to share my offerings, as I know I am a stone-hearted person where Krishna would never want to come, but by hearing your Bhagavatam classes from the beginning, I developed an interest in hearing more. By your kind mercy, I did get the association of my god brothers and dear god sisters, who always inspire me. Maharaja, your teachings of the forgive and forget lesson I can never forget, and the importance of being grateful for everything is something that has really changed my vision of things. Only through your kindness have I started attending online japa sessions with Lokanath Maharaja. I sometimes feel that Prabhupada was so merciful to all of us and me that he sent you as my guru. The seed of bhakti that is still a little one is growing due to the love that you have taught, and the same I see getting reflected in every godbrother and sister of mine. Maharaja I will always be grateful to you and Prabhupada if I can be a speck of dust under your feet and in any way serve you in serving the mission of Prabhupada.... Hare Krishna

Dear Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Thank you very much for giving me shelter at your lotus feet. By your mercy, I have shifted to GEV in July 2023 and currently doing 2 years Vidyapeeth course at GEV along with Materials Purchase seva. I am very grateful to you for mercifully providing me the opportunity to study Srimad-Bhagavatam and Caitanya Caritamrita at GEV.

While studying Srimad-Bhagavatam, I learned that common aspirations of great devotees are to get association of Devotees and getting an opportunity to hear Krishna Katha in that association. I feel very fortunate that in GEV, by your blessings, I am always getting what great devotees are aspiring for. Through your Counselor system, we always get the timely guidance from Counselor. By hearing your classes, I get your Vani association and feel enlightened. Thus, I experience that you always take care of us.

I pray to you to always keep me engaged in serving you and your dear Srila Prabhupada eternally.

Dear Gurudeva
Please accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada,
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.

You are personification of love and care.

By your example you show how to love and care one’s Godbroters and Godsisters.

We have seen your loving exchanges with your Godbrothers.

During Kartika-yatra we have seen how you were reciprocating with HH Jaypataka swami Maharaja, HG Jananivas pr and other Prabhupada disciples.

You were personally visiting different department like Kitchen, VIP Prasadam seva and encouraging devotees with your loving and caring words.

We have seen how you welcome guests.

Last year we had an opportunity to meet you along with Vrajwasi devotees at Sri Sri RadhaGopinatha temple. That time you personally arranged transport from GEV and you personally came to your room gate and welcomed the Vrajwasi guests. Inspite of your busy schedule and your bad health still you spent 45 minutes with us. This shows how you love and take care of your guests and disciples.

Gurudeva on this auspicious day we would like to beg at your lotus feet to give us intelligence and strength to serve your guests and disciples with the best of our capacity.

Please always keep us under your divine shelter.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja..Please accept my prostrated humble obeisance.. Wish you a happy Krishna Consciousness. birthday Maharaja.. I am a insignificant soul who got attracted to you by your graceful glance when I had visited to HG Praveen Krishna prabhuji's house in Visakhapatnam in 2011. That time I didn't know anything about ISKCON and Bhakti..but your divine lectures and kirtanas and also guidance of your disciples have attracted me towards Krishna and his dear devotees.. I don't know much about Bhakti and being beaten poles to post by my own senses but I am sure you can only help me get rid of these tentacles of Maya.. I will definitely do what ever I am order to do in order to fulfill my spiritual masters goal to make Krishna happy.. I am a beggar and on this auspicious day also I am begging knowing that you are so merciful.. I sincerely pray to Lord Gopinatha to bestow upon you all his mercy and give you good health to serve him more and more.. Happy Birthday again Guru Maharaja..

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you and Srila Prabhupada, by whose mercy we have a Krishna Consciousness.. I am deeply grateful to have this opportunity to write an offering to you,

My dear Guru Maharaja.Thank you for giving me shelter at your lotus feet. I felt immensely blessed and fortunate to have a spiritual father like you who inspired me through your teachings and service to Srila Prabhupada, your godbrothers, god sisters, and all other devotees and non-devotees. I admired your gratefulness to others, your loving and compassionate nature, and, most importantly, your humility and sincerity.

During my initiation I recalled, I asked how I could serve you, and you smiled and replied, “Serve and inspire others through your service.” Guru Maharaja, by your mercy and blessing, I am trying sincerely to follow those instructions. Please bless me that I can continue follow your instructions, teachings, and serve Srila Prabhupada, you, and the devotees sincerely.

Guru Maharaja, I am eternally grateful for your kindness, mercy, and compassion in accepting me as your disciple. I pray to RadhaGovinda to let me always remain useful in your service, continue to follow your teachings and guidance and serve Srila Prabhupada movement with whatever I have and in every way possible.

Dearest Param Pujya Radhanath Swami Maharaja,

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I offer my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. Today, as we gather to honor your divine presence and tireless service to humanity, my heart overflows with gratitude for the immeasurable impact you have had on my life.

You are the lighthouse of my spiritual journey, a beacon of light that guides me through the darkest storms of life. Your teachings, filled with wisdom, love, and humility, have been my compass, directing me toward Krishna’s divine grace. Through your guidance, I have learned the meaning of true devotion, the power of surrender, and the beauty of living a life of service.

Your mercy and compassion know no bounds. You have extended your heart to all, embracing each of us with such sympathy and understanding, showing us how to live in harmony with the world and with our own hearts. The mercy that you shower upon your devotees transforms us, helping us become better versions of ourselves, more aligned with Krishna's will.

Maharaja, your books, The Journey Home and The Journey Within, are treasures of spiritual knowledge. They are not just stories but roadmaps for anyone seeking truth in the world and within their own soul. Through your words, you have allowed us to travel with you, feel your struggles, and understand the depth of your devotion. These books have touched the hearts of thousands, including mine, leading us closer to the Supreme Lord.

As I reflect on all you have done for me, for the devotees, and for the world, I am filled with a deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness. Your life is a living example of pure Bhakti, and your unwavering dedication to spreading the message of Lord Krishna inspires me every day.

Thank you, Maharaja, for everything—for your mercy, for your guidance, for your sympathy, and for your incredible service to the Lord. You are the eternal light that shines upon the path of my life, and for that, I am forever grateful.

On this sacred day, I pray to Lord Krishna to bless you with good health, long life, and continued strength so that you may continue to uplift and guide souls on the path of Bhakti for many years to come.

I read the journey home book and got encouraged. From that day my life was changed. I read that you came from a foreign country and accepted the Lord Krishna's devotional service through Srila Prabhupada. I am from India but I couldn't understand the importance of Lord Krishna's devotional service. But I read your book fully and decided to accept Krishna Consciousness.. So I joined ISKCON. From my heart I considered you my spiritual master and you have initiated me.

Thank you so much Guru Maharaja for changing my life. And for engaging me in Krishna Consciousness. which is my ultimate goal.

Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I am grateful to Lord to give me one more opportunity to glorify you on this special occasion of your Vyasa-puja day. I don't have any qualification to glorify a great soul like you. However, I am just writing few things which are coming right from the bottom of my heart. Over a period of last two decades since I have taken your shelter, I can see one of the most prominent quality of yours is touching the hearts of people by your words and actions. I would like to share recent experience which touched my heart and will remain engraved forever.

Recently on 18th October, my father left his body. Although he was 88 years old, it was unexpected and shocking for me. I spoke to HG Radha Gopinatha pr when I got the news. During our conversation he told me that you were meeting all the Brahmacaris. When I heard this, I requested him if he can inform you and requested for your prayers. Immediately he said yes. He also said that after the meeting with you, he will come to our house. Unfortunately, prabhuji got stuck in the traffic and couldn't reach home, but he came directly to crematorium, just in time before the final rites began. From this moment I started to experience your unlimited mercy. Although, you were not personally present, but I could feel your presence by the various paraphernalia, my father received. Radha Gopinatha pr told me that as soon as you saw the picture of my father, not only you prayed intensely but also you started searching your cupboard to find various auspicious things which you could send for my father. It was not just a formality to give something, but you were consciously explaining everything in detail to prabhuji. By your mercy I could offer all these auspicious things like Radha Kunda, Shyam Kunda jala, Ganges, Yamuna jala, dust from Vrndavana, dust from Srila Prabhupada Samadhi, Lord Narsingha Pavitra, Maha garland of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to my father just before the last rites were performed. He also received your charanamrita through one more devotee.

When I look back and think about it, I realise that, although I am so insignificant in all manner including my services to you, my father was not a traditional Hare Krishna devotee, however, he always appreciated you, Srila Prabhupada, read your books, distributed Bhagwad Gita and Krishna books, donated for various projects of our temple in his capacity, appreciated devotees, was chanting Hare Krishna Maha mantra every day till his last breath. I always had a desire that one day he can take initiation. Although it didn't happen, but there was a special connection with you and that's why this special reciprocation took place. I cannot express my feelings of gratitude in words for what you have done for him and for me.

As mentioned by you in your book, "The journey Home", you kept the promise to the army officer that you would do something for this country. By your visionary leadership, you have created so many projects which are catering not only to this promise of yours to this army officer, but also to Srila Prabhupada. Through various projects you have given the devotees an opportunity to serve both the aspects. By your grace, I am extremely fortunate to serve in one of such projects, Bhaktivedanta Hospital and research Institute. You have given us three Vs, Varnashrama, Vaisnava dharma prachar and Vaisnava seva. With the blessings of senior Vaisnavas I was given an opportunity to start ISKCON Devotee Healthcare Services, with the vision to serve the physical and emotional health needs of devotees from ISKCON worldwide community. We started in the year 2023 in Mayapur ILS, and have catered to more than 3000 devotees, through health talks on various topics, devotees visiting the hospital from across the world for treatment. We were able to serve right from Srila Prabhupada disciples, sanyasis, bramhacharis, to grihasthas. Our team is really taking serious efforts to improve our efforts to please the Vaisnavas and in turn you.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I know I have many faults and have made many mistakes. I seek your shelter again and again so that some way I can please you.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I consider myself fortunate to be writing this offering to you. A Guru removes darkness and ignorance and opens our eyes with the torch of knowledge. Similarly, you and your disciples have given me the right direction and true purpose in life. The goal of life is now clearer to me.

You are an ocean of good qualities. Your dedication to the mission of Srila Prabhupada is a great example of commitment. I had the opportunity to hear your lectures given during the recent Mayapur yatra, and they were really nourishing. The childhood pastimes of Lord Caitanya were especially sweet.

Thank you for cultivating wonderful disciples who have acquired your mood of Vaisnava seva. Taking care of thousands of devotees during the yatra is no easy task.

One of your statements, “Bhakti is the festival of Gratitude,” really touched my heart, and I would like to imbibe it in my life. Please bless me so that I may remember your instructions throughout my life. May I always remain grateful for all the gifts with which I am blessed and not focus on the things I don’t have.

As you teach in your lectures, the soul’s real position is to identify oneself as “Gopi Bhartur padakamalyor das dasanu das.” I aspire to serve devotees in this mood, as real happiness lies in serving Krishna and His devotees.

Thank you for all you have given.

Respected dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Today on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I offer my sincere obeisances in utmost gratitude from the core of my heart. I have no words to explain my gratitude, joy and happiness being initiated by Your Holiness. I have been struggling in this world since time immemorial especially when my father late Mr Sakharam Bhosale left this world in the year 1976, when I was only about 14 or 15 years old, with three younger siblings and widowed mother who was naïve and hunch-backed. I cannot express my miserable condition in words in those days.

But by Lord Krishna's mercy I received Mr Sidram Shinde as my husband and sons named Santosh, Prakash and Sachin. Krishna Bhajan Das (my nephew), since he lost his mother at an early so I adopted him as my own son. He is a Brahmacari disciple of yours serving under HG Brajahari Prabhu in Juhu. Because of him we all came into Krishna Consciousness.. My middle son (Prakash) Krishna Ashray Das is serving you under the guidance of HH Bhakti Rasamrit Swami Maharaja in Belgaum. Both are serving you in the last 24 years. I feel Guru Maharaja, my life is successful because they are serving you, a pure devotee of Lord Krishna.

Humbly speaking since my tender age of teens I have been witnessing the deaths of my near and dear ones, my father, my mother, my brother, my husband, and other close relatives, so I have come to a realisation that what Srila Prabhupada says in his teachings is correct, nobody is going to live permanently here. There is no happiness in this material world, no matter how much money one has or how much power one possesses. Despite my all those difficulties I survived just because of the mercy of Lord Krishna.

Dear Guru Maharaja, on this auspicious occasion of your holy Vyasa-puja I beg at your lotus feet to kindly shower your mercy upon me so that I can purify my heart and come up to your expectations.

Thank you very much

Dear HH Radhanath swami Maharaja

Hare Krishna. Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet. On the occasion of your Sri Vyasa-puja, I look back, another year is gone by. I see if I have remained loyal and faithful to the vows and practices of our Gaudiya Vaisnava Parampara and is there improvement or moving forward in my connection to you, Srila Prabhupada, Gauranga. How much I am anxious to do and see, how we are taking Srila Prabhupada Mission steadily and in strides into the society. How is my enthusiasm for Kirtana, Book Distribution, Krishna Katha and Sadhusanga. What is my realization or advancement in Spiritual life? How am I steadfast in the following of my vows like Ekadasi and Morning program in the temple etc.

How is my personal behavior and preaching mood as years roll by. Where is my sambandha and what is my Prayojana? When you were reconfirming my Sanyas in Jyotisar, Kurukshetra or you, encouraging me expand the followers of ISKCON or Srila Prabhupada. I did realize the heavy duty of standing up as a representative of our Guru Parampara. I do not asses myself as to how successful I am. But to your satisfaction, I can say, I can not stay away from the process and practices of Gaudiya Vaisnava Dharma. I also see how the world needs Krishna Consciousness. more than ever before. Kali yuga is dancing with its full power and glare. I felt our Sadhana and serving together more strongly than ever before.

I can also appreciate how Krishna is always outdoing in His reciprocation for all the small things we do to serve Him. I will also look forward to the day, in spite of my age, 69 years, I remain fixed and enthusiastic to render devotional service and preach the message of Gauranga Mahaprabhu.

Yare dekha, tare kaha Krishna upadesh..

Pridviche yeta nagaradi grama sarvatra pracara hoibe mora Nama.

I realize more and more how I am dependent and made of the mercy showered by you and the other followers of Srila Prabhupada. Kindly keep me as a speck in the mine of your Krishna conscious heart. I pray in the dust of your lotus feet that I do not fall away from the ultimate Artha 'brilliant and blissful Krishna Consciousness.'. I ever remain grateful and humble at your lotus feet.

I was born into a spiritual family, so I have had an interest in spirituality since childhood. By the grace of the Lord, I was married to the right person, who is a disciple of Radhanath Maharaja. To progress in devotion, merely having an interest in spirituality is not enough; it is essential to have the guidance of a proper instructing (Shiksha) and initiating (Diksha) spiritual master. By the grace of the Lord, I was introduced to ISKCON through my husband's guidance.

He told me many things about Maharaja, and I was always curious while listening to him. Later, I read Maharaja's autobiography, ""The Journey Home"". Maharaja's intense longing for the Lord, which led him to travel the world in search of Him despite being born outside India, left a profound impact on my heart. From that moment, I desired to receive initiation from Maharaja alone.

Listening to Maharaja's lectures has always inspired me to draw closer to the Lord. His teachings have deepened my devotion and brought significant growth to my spiritual life. After initiation, I feel even more inspired and realize I have found the perfect spiritual master, which makes me feel that my life has become meaningful.

Thank you very much, Maharaja, for accepting an unworthy soul like me as your disciple.

Thank you so much Maharaja for giving me so many means and ways to practice Krishna Consciousness.;

You have given me the wonderful association of Vaisnavas, your dear representatives, chanting of Holy names, your enlighting lectures, and much more;

I want to thank you for so many things Maharaja, the valuable lessons I have learned from your teachings through your lectures and books, and especially the importance of patience;

These are so helpful Maharaja, they help me overcome so many obstacles in day-to-day life and also help me develop so much more faith;

I am unlimitedly eternally indebted to you as you have showered me your inconceivable causeless mercy of unlimited profound love of Krishna and His dear devotees. All Glory to You. Please always keep this servant under the shelter of your lotus feet.

Maharaja, I am in Krishna Consciousness., practicing it, chanting 16 rounds everyday because of your compassion and causeless mercy upon me. Although I am not in devotees association but, I always try to follow the principles. I ask forgiveness from you for not coming to Mayapur Yatra this year due to my father's health issue & some urgent work at home.

I only pray to Sri Sri Radha Madhav for make you always healthy, give me intelligence to follow your instructions and be able to please Srila Prabhupada and our Guru Parampara.

All glories to Srila Prabhupad

Recently we have attended Kartika-yatra 2024 at Mayapur dam and we were having very good experience of your kirtana, lecture and mahaPrasada and we feel blessed very much.

We got many times your darshan and for us Kartika-yatra is the we get your association.

The way you glance on the devotees while giving darshan is very mesmerizing.

Even our little son Parth received your blessings we feel very fortunate.

Maharaja your lectures were very detail and deep & we get absorbed in your lecture and we feel the pastimes is happening infront of us.

We heard from senior devotees for giving that 2 hrs class to all devotees you prepare whole day and even you are not feeling well still you prepare and give class for the pleasure of devotees, thank you Maharaja you are setting an example to teach us we have to priority the things for the pleasure of devotees.

Whenever we see you first thing comes in our mind the 3rd slok of shikshastakam trinad api sunicena taror api sahishnuna

amanina manadena
kirtanaiyah sada harihi

One should chant the holy name of the Lord in a humble state of mind, thinking oneself lower than the straw in the street; one should be more tolerant than a tree, devoid of all sense of false prestige, and should be ready to offer all respect to others. In such a state of mind one can chant the holy name of the Lord constantly.

Thank you Maharaja for everything.

Dear Maharaja ji, I am sincerely grateful to you for being in my life and streeing my life on the way back to Godhead. the day I have started listening to you, my consciousness started to transform. My life was full of all sinful life and always breaking all the regulative principles. Your words are acting as sharp swords cutting and pulling out the weeds of materialistic desires. Your intervention in my life has transformed the way I think, I act, I feel. Maharaja ji I cannot imagine my life with out and my day starts with your vani association. Your words are in 100% sync with Srila Prabhupada and the entire Guru parampara. I am not sure when I will get iNitaited by you, whether in this life or may be after million of life times, however I just pray that you always remain my eternal spritual master and keep guiding me to serve Krishna and His devotees and ultimately on the way back to Godhead. Even though I may not be eligible to go back to Godhead, but please bless me so that I can always serve you in any way you wish.

Please accept my humble obeisances ??

I am very fortunate to be in the association of devotees. This is your first mercy upon me that I am surrounded by your fired up disciples. Here the fire of sankirtana is very high.

When I am writing to you I feel extremely grateful for you have helped me reconnect with my real father and mother ie. Sri Radha Krishna. Eight years before I was just a college student leading a sinful life. Your Preachers (tava nija jan, kono mahajan) introduced me to the eternal life of Krishna Consciousness.. Seeing their exemplary behaviour I developed a desire to dedicate my life for the mission. I am ready to walk on the path dedication and commitment which is filled with sacrifices and challanges.

I am afraid of my anarthas and lower material attachments which pull me back on the sinful path. I pray to you for the empowerment to always follow my authorities. Please bless me so that I dedicate my life for the mission of Srila Prabhupada. It would be a great miracle when all my endeavours will be to please and satisfy the devotees.

MY VYASA-PUJA OFFERING TO HH RADHANATH SWAMI GURU MAHARAJA
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja, I offer my deepest thanks and appreciation to you, having accepted me as your insignificant servant and given me this golden opportunity to go Back to Godhead. I have come to realize that it is such a blessing, such a gift to come in contact with a pure devotee of the Lord.

Maharaja this year on 20th September you officially accepted me as your disciple, connected me to Guru Parampara, and gave me the spiritual name "Sundar Bihari Das" although I am not qualified. But this is your causeless mercy upon this fallen soul. For that, I will be eternally grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple.

Maharaja this year also I got the opportunity to directly serve you by offering Sri Sri Radha Rashbihari's Maha garland and water bottle to you. At that time you have very mercifully looked upon this fallen soul. And given your divine blessings.

Maharaja on this 74th Vyasa-puja of yours I pray to your lotus feet please bless me so that I can cultivate some qualities of yours like serving the devotees in a humble mood and making friends with devotees. Tolerance, simplicity, and many more qualities. And never find fault in devotees or anybody. Always make healthy relationships with the devotees.

Maharaja, I also pray to the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Rashbihari Ji, Sri Sri Sita Ram Laxman Hanuman Ji, Sri Sri Gaur Nitai Ji, and Srila Prabhupada to bless you for long life and keep you always healthy.

Guru Maharaja at last I pray to your lotus feet please give me benediction so that I can take your instruction as my life and soul and apply it in my life.

Thank you so much, Guru Maharaja.

Please accept my humble obeisance to you,

I am very grateful for teachings you gave through your classes about science of devotional service.

Appreciate for giving your blessing to my daughter Tulsi in LA visit.

Many times we think shall I insist someone to start 16 rounds or let that person take it gradually, naturally and slowly. I realized when person start by his own free will it really very strong. Every soul have its own "free will time" to take up Krishna conscious.

My father is conservative varkari, he have his guru who gave Lord vitthal mantra,he regularly chant it. When I become devotee, he was not against but he was having doubt wether ISKCON really teaches bhakti, because he had seen many dilutions and panth in varkari line and other sampradays(like mahnubhav, bramhkumari etc).

So he was very conservative about his views on ISKCON. He was just neutral and observing devotees devotional activities etc for more than 10-15 years. He always prefer to attend pandharpur or alandi traditional yatra but never attended any ISKCON yatra. He use to observe ISKCON devotees at pandharpur and alandi however he was still reserved about ISKCON.

First time, My father attended lectures and kirtana during mayapur Kartika-yatra 2024, not as registered member but as part of individual group- probably he never ate any Prasada from yatra kitchen, however he use to attend morning program everyday in pandal seeing so many devotees sitting together and chanting, this inspired him to change his conceptions.

The most important thing touched him was Maharaja your circumblating Tulsi maharani every day morning and devotees sitting and chanting in the morning. After 10-15 years of waiting time, he started chanting 16 rounds after hearing and seeing you. As, I know many other my family members driving force to start 16 rounds as it is required to attend yatra or initiation.

However, I realized, he started 16 rounds inspired within from yatra and just to please Krishna, only way in Kali yuga.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am extremely fortunate and grateful for receiving your causeless mercy, guidance, association with devotees, opportunities for service, your exemplary character, and your wonderful classes.

By your blessings, I am very happy this year that my whole family is under the shelter of Srila Prabhupada and within the protection of our Guru Parampara. This year, we were especially fortunate to receive your darshan during the initiation ceremony of my wife. Our whole family was present for this special occasion.

It all began with the love and care of a friend, a wonderful devotee, who introduced me to the Discover Yourself course in Pune 20 years ago.

On the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I pray that I can be a good disciple and serve as an instrument in your hands in the service of Srila Prabhupada. I seek your blessings and guidance to associate with like-minded, mature devotees and assimilate the essence of your teachings through hearing, Sadhana, and seva.

Your exemplary character in dealing with devotees and your godbrothers melts my heart. I recognize my many faults and anarthas, but I often become disturbed when I see faults in others. I beg for your mercy that I may gain the maturity to understand and deal with devotees and others with compassion and effective communication.I seek your blessings to hear from you every day and follow your instructions.

Thank you very much Guru Maharaja for accepting me as your disciple and guiding me on the path of Bhakti.

When I hear your lectures:

1. I'm inspired to follow pure devotional service.
2. I'm inspired to read Srila Prabhupada's books and the books of our acaryas.
3. I'm inspired to chant good attentive rounds of Hare Krishna Maha Mantra on beads.
4. I'm inspired to do seva enthusiastically in proper spirit.
5. I'm inspired to become humble and deal properly with devotees.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please Accept My Humble Obeisance

Guru Maharaja many times you said that in your classes that Lord Karishna comes once in a day of Brahma to show us and take us to Spiritual World but Lord Caitanya came to give us love of godhead by chanting of holy name of Lord in the form of devotee. Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu in the form of a teacher teaches us how to love god. And what should be the quality of our chanting and disposition of our heart He tell us in 2nd and 3rd verse of Shikshatakam. And by your personal example you show us how to chant just as teachers himself write first on board and then tell his students to write similarly you teach us personally how you chant from the bottom of our heart with humble disposition, I saw personally for 6 days of Sri Mayapur Yatra. Which inspired me to chant attentively and with total absorption.

Once a devotee asked you "Which is your favorite item in Prasadam Maharaja?" You replied that my favorite item is Hare Krishna Mahamantra.

Another one time a devotee ask you which is your personal deity? and every one is eager for your answer and you replied that Naam deity is my personal and worshiable deity.

By this two answers, you show that first preference of our life should be the chanting of holy name.

In kali yuga Love of Godhead means love for Holy name. By this two incidents we can see how you love Krishna by chanting holy name.

GuruMaharaja in search of absolute truth you came to INDIA and went Himalayas. One day while sitting on a stone near River Ganges you heard Hare Krishna Mahamantra and started chanting it by divine arrangement of Lord.

When you came to Vrndavana first time in 1971 then first time you saw a devotee singing holy name and dancing and by seeing it, you thought how blissful he is in love of Godhead.

By all this incidents we can understand Krishna personally planned to brought you in contact with devotees who are lovers of God and feeling that love by chanting of holy names. Finally Krishna brought you to the lotus of Srila Prabhupada who is distributor of love of godhead all over the World in form of Holyname. Now you are distributing it as a servant of Srila Prabhupada all over the world. Please bless me so that I can become an insignificant part of this mercy distributor and feel that love.

Scripture says that after wandering millions and millions of birth if one is fortunate enough then by the mercy of Lord he get seed of devotional service through bona fide spiritual Master and By the mercy of spiritual Master he get Krishna.

For last 8 years I am waiting for getting the shelter of your lotus feet through initiation and finally I got it on 20th September 2024, even Rupa Goswami says in NOD that 64 limbs of devotional service are important and among which first is very very important, even bhakti start with this principle of adho Guru padaashray - taking shelter of bona fide Spiritual Master. So thank you very very much Guru Maharaja for giving the shelter of your lotus feet.

GuruMaharaja I dedicated my life for the service of Shri Radha Rasbhihari in juhu and serving their Lordship for 1 year, but now I am facing some obstacles of opposition from parents in this dedicated service please please bless me so that I will get strength and I can continue my service whole life at the lotus feet of Radha Rasbhihariji.

Guru Maharaja your life is itself a guide book for me and will keep inspiring me in many obstacles and struggles on path of pure devotional service.

How can an insignificant person like me can pray for you but still I will pray to Lordship of Radha Rasbhihariji for your health so you will keep giving your association to many devotees and inspiring them on the path of devotion.

Thank You very very much Guru Maharaja for you contributions in my life and I will forever remain indebted for your contributions.

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Today is a beautiful day for me as it's your appearance day. This is the day when I am eagerly reflecting and meditating on how I have been gifted with the real gift and blessings of having you, who is my mother...father and everything that I have. If you had not accepted me, I would have wandered and suffered like an orphan. Thank you Guru Maharaja for gifting me with Rukmini Mataji,who is my guiding light and my life and soul. I keep making millions of mistakes, quarrel, filled with so much anarthas..... inspite of knowing your mood and what would please you.....it breaks my heart seeing my pathetic condition of continuously displeasing you by always choosing maya. I cannot fight with these anarthas nor do I have stregth to tolerate them.

Please Please Guru Maharaja, hold my hand and make me to do what would please you and Srila Prabhupada.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja. Pls accept my humble obeisances.

This year in March, you kindly granted us brahman initiation. Maharaja, I thank you very much for the same for your truly causeless mercy upon me.

Thank you for your lectures in the Mayapur yatra, where you have kindly provided instructions on how we can advance in Krishna Consciousness. by pleasing devotees and thereby our gurus and keeping that as a guiding principle.

From your life, we see that your life is a dedication to pleasing Srila Prabhupada and serving others in service to Srila Prabhupada and Lord Krishna.

At this point I want to express that I find in myself so many fruitive desires and hardly a fraction of genuine desire to be a servant of servants of Krishna. I find in myself so much hope to find material happiness in future, even though I have heard repeatedly that material happiness is temporary and not fulfilling.

I find that very often even my spiritual practices are implicitly done with so many material desires and silent prayers to get them.

I am not able to have the attitude to serve and please devotees.

I humbly pray that I can develop truly spiritual qualities of no false ego and dedication to offer mind, body and words in service to Sri Guru Srila Prabhupada and Krishna.

Dear Gurudeva, Dandavat Pranama!

Your glories are unlimited and difficult for my limited condition mindset to comprehend, but just because you have accepted me as your disciple, I could dare here to glorify you with my insignificant words.

Your words are my constant source of inspiration. It's my experience that whenever I am perplexed with some difficulty and I randomly choose to hear some of your lecture, I am always shocked to hear at least some words related, giving me inspiration to rise above the situation I am going through. This gives me the realization that I am not alone; my Gurudeva is always with me.

You are truly mercy personified. An insignificant person like me blessed by you is the greatest example of you being supremely merciful. Not only from your words but also from simple actions of your own can one not remain untouched by your merciful nature. I have seen so many devotees lives transformed with your display of this quality. The more I realize about your merciful nature, the more I feel myself fortunate to receive that mercy. Without your mercy, I don't have any stand in my spiritual life.

Gurudeva I truly want to thank you for creating such a wonderful sangha of devotees who always nourish me, protect me, care for me, give me hope, and inspire me not only in my spiritual life but also in my material life. I could always experience your touch in their association. Whenever I see their degree of surrender to your instructions, it gives me great inspiration to continue with great enthusiasm this process of unconditional loving devotional service. All glories to you who have done this most difficult task of keeping so many people inspired in their spiritual lives for so long.

End with Hoping that one day I will be worthy of truly calling myself your disciple.

Thank you very much.

Hare Krishna Dandavat Pranama Maharaja
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

Maharaja amongst many of your teachings, one that has left an indelible mark on my heart is how to control Mithya Ahankar or false ego. As we learn and also explained by you, in BG 5.29 Krishna says that he is the true Bhokta of all sacrifices and austerities and the Supreme Lord of all planets and demigods 'bhoktaram yajña-tapasam sarva-loka-mahesvaram', and also mentions Himself as the Supreme Proprietor in BG 9.11 'mama bhuta-mahesvaram'. This fact being established in mind has helped me in realising my false ego and on top of that seeing a pure devotee such as yourself with so much humility that puts many of us to shame, gives encouragement and inspiration to take solid steps in overcoming this huge hurdle. Although I am unqualified to even get a chance to glorify you but still taking liberty of this opportunity, I feel blessed enough to say a few words about you. Please bless us all to be able to play some part in Srila Prabhupada's divine mission and be of service to devotees.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my Dandavat Pranama

I remember that once I met you in the last pune yatra and I was one of the participants in the drama and we were going to perform drama of the Dacoits who attack Mayapur temple in earlier time. So just before the drama I was distributing Mayapur MahaPrasada so that we all can be in mood of Mayapur Dham while doing drama. While distributing MahaPrasada Guru Maharaja came in front of me and I took the opportunity to give MahaPrasada to him. So I was having a small packet of dry sweets which was in shape of cubes (shakarpara). I took one piece to give Maharaja as dry sweets were limited and devotees were many but when I gave to Maharaja, he did not accept the MahaPrasada and indicated by his hand to put that single piece back in the packet. So I did the same and then Maharaja indicated by hand to offer whole packet to him and I did what Maharaja was telling. Now Maharaja took the lowest of the lowest particle from that MahaPrasada and honoured MahaPrasada and Maharaja left from there with a smiling face. And I continued to distribute MahaPrasada to other devotees.

Later after many months I realized that Maharaja was telling me that whenever you offer anything to guru you should offer always 100% to Guru. This teaching was given to me without speaking a single word and that too in hardly 2 minutes duration only. So I feel that great souls can teach so many things if we take their association either in vapu/vani with proper consciousness.

All Glories to Guru Maharaja.

I feel very much unqualified to write this, so many disqualifications are there, but it’s just your causeless mercy that I am able to write this. In the midst of this ocean of birth and death, I was also stuck in this ocean, and then one day I got the association of devotees. I didn’t know what I had done to receive this mercy, but one thing I was sure about is that it was causeless mercy, and then by the mercy of Srila Prabhupada, I received your association through your lectures, which changed my whole life.

From being mechanical to being truly aware of the things that you are doing for Krishna, how to serve in the right mood, how to always take a subordinate position among devotees, and how to develop good relations with Vaisnavas, and so many other things. In essence, whatever I am doing, it is just your causeless mercy, Maharaja. I am completely disqualified to ask for anything, but one thing on which I have firm faith is that you can save me, Maharaja, and I know you will save me, Maharaja. Please, Maharaja, accept me in your service. I am begging for the strength to serve you, Maharaja. My only request in your lotus feet,

Please give me a space to be fit. Please accept me so that this insignificant fool would be able to serve you and Srila Prabhupada to the best of my abilities only by your grace.

26 Divine Qualities of A Devotee exhibited by

HIS HOLINESS RADHANATH SWAMI MAHARAJA

1. Kind to everyone/ every living entity:

There was an injured cat at Radhagopintah monastery where Maharaja used to stay.One day Maharaja took one prabhuji and showed the cat and asked if he knows that cat. He thought there are many cats and at night they disturb us with their wild sounds and fighting amongst each other. And in one such fight this cat has got injured. But Maharaja told that this cat is staying with us in this monastery for few years so it must be a saint from past birth and requested him to take the responsibility to take care of that cat and take it to the clinic. The vet told that if the treatment was delayed, it would have been fatal. One week later the cat recovered and was a member of monastery again.

Past time 2

Radhanath Swami Maharaja was in Nashik and after his Japa he was taken around the temple by HG Shikshatakam Prabhu. He keenly observed everything and he especially liked the fountain in front of alter, where there were some fishes. Prabhuji informed Maharaja that apart from fishes there are two turtles in that water. But Maharaja facial expressions soon faded. He told prabhuji that turtles are not fishes, they need some dry place to rest. You should make an arrangement for this, otherwise they may not survive. He requested and reminded about this for about 10 times in a day. He told These turtles are associates of the Lord so they must be taken utmost care. He told please do the needful and inform me as soon as it's done. Within 24 hours an Island was constructed and Maharaja was informed about this. They seem to be thanking Maharaja for his kindness.

2. He does not make anyone his enemy.

Pastime1

In the initial days of RadhaGopinatha, Abhay Charan Prabhu donated 330 stainless steel plates for serving Sunday feast. One night one devotee took all the plates and ran away. Few devotees had their own agenda, they would not follow Maharaja, So Vrndavana prabhuji and other senior devotees, asked, what to do- Maharaja told They will leave on their own." And this so happened that as new devotees started joining the ashram, they started leaving. Many gruhastas lacked proper guidance and had disagreements with Maharaja, but Maharaja would patiently guide them.

Pastime 2

Once Maharaja when he was Richard, and he was wondering from place to place in his quest of realising and understanding God, he was invited at Afghanistan for dinner -, that person loudly howled and called another special guest- a mongoose, that mongoose suddenly jumped over Maharaja and slept in the hair of Richard. Richard had to sit whole night without moving. In the morning this mongoose woke up and went away happily. Maharaja neither got angry with the host nor disturbed the mongoose sleep. What an epitome of patience. Forgiving others even when we are suffering because of them is a quality of a pure devotee. Instead of making them our enemies we can forgive them. This example shows Trinad api sunichena bhaav.

3. He is truthful:

Once Richard had an habit of playing mouthorgan, when he was on the journey in the search of Absolute truth He entered a bookshop and saw a book that taught many rhythms. He didn't have enough money to buy the book, so He carried the book with him, kept with him for few days, learnt few rhythms and after few days went back and kept the book again in the same place.

4. He is equal to everyone:

Pastime 1

One bramhacharis uncle used to come for Mangal Aarti. He would teach Maharaja different Hare Krishna tunes on harmonium. After Aarti He would sit in one corner and not do Japa. In fact he would be drunk and smell badly in Mangal Aarti. One devotee told Maharaja that half of the temple hall smells like liquor. He doesn't even chant. Maharaja became sad and Told" you are chanting on your beads and he is chanting on his reeds!

Pastime2

Other day Maharaja was telling that he encountered a ghost when he was a bramhachari. Devotee asked Maharaja what did you do then: Maharaja told I chanted Hare Krishna Mahamantra, then the ghost also chanted Mahamantra. Then Maharaja told he sang Narasimha Aarti, the ghost also sang Narasimha Aarti and then disappeared. So a true Vaisnava is equal to all entities even the ghosts.

(5) No one can find any fault in him

Once Maharaja was invited for giving seminars to students of Ohio University in Athens during 1980 and protestant preacher from Christian community, in front of 100 students humiliated Maharaja and told that he will go to hell because He is worshipping a false God Krishna. Maharaja tried to explain him the purpose of all religion is only pure love, no religion preaches hatred. But he was not convinced. Maharaja used to give lectures once a week every Wednesday and about 200 students used to attend the lecture. That preacher tried to make conspiracy against Maharaja and one day he locked the classroom and wrote a note that class is cancelled. All the children met the dean and requested that classes be restarted as they are interested. Seeing their interest Dean had to restart the classes. That preacher used to attend the classes and tried to record and take photos to prove that Maharaja is teaching wrong theologies. He never honoured Prasadam prepared by Maharaja. Slowly his heart melted and he started eating Prasadam prepared by Maharaja. And finally one day he gave up his ego and asked Maharaja for the recipe of the Halwa Prasada that Maharaja prepared so that he may serve it at the church. He became so friendly with Maharaja that he embraced Maharaja and told that all his congregation members liked the Halva Prasada. Upon this Maharaja told Jokingly that he will be happy to stay in Heaven with him.

6) He is magnanimous (generous forgiving)

Once Maharaja was invited for honouring Prasadam. But the food served to him contained a small safety pin. When that Mataji came to know this she felt very guilty and started crying, Maharaja told that we should be extremely conscious, cautious and careful while we cook and serve Prasadam.

He is forgiving for even severe mistakes.

7)He is mild- (means not easily provoked/ He is gentle)

Once Maharaja while he was waiting at the Indian boundary for entering into India, one military women didn't allow his entry into the country mentioning that there are already many beggars in our country and they don't need any more. He was waiting under a tree for many hours, until duty changed and another military man took the charge. He also didn't allow for some time, but when he saw that Maharaja was true to his heart, he allowed Maharaja to enter into India. They are not provoked in any worse circumstances. But patiently waits and prays.

8) He is always clean

Maharaja was wandering in the Himalayas and was in the process of cleaning his mind by learning new meditation techniques, still he was bathing in cold waters of Ganga and Yamuna in cold winters. Although he never got hot waters in those days, he managed to remain clean by severe austerity and bathing in rivers.

9) He is without possessions.

Maharaja was in search of Absolute truth in the Himalayas, he used to sit in the lap of ganga maiya and meditate whole day, and while returning down he used to receive some peanuts from some vendor as his Prasadam to break his whole day fast. He used to play one mouth organ and play beautiful tunes, which he threw away in the Ganga so that mother Ganga in turn whispered a beautiful tune of the Lord - The Mahamantra which Maharaja could hear, after he gave up his possession. Now while returning down with this contentment, Maharaja received few peanuts to break his day long fast, but few monkeys attacked and took away those peanuts from him. Maharaja then shares his wisdom upon this incident he says " As compared to the Spiritual experiences, worldly acquisitions are like peanuts. People die, cry and lie for these peanuts. We keep on accumulating material things whole life. But at some time or another some monkey due to their greed will take away all these peanuts." So a true Vaishanava who is seeking spiritual experiences should be without material possessions.

10) He works for everyone's benefit

Giving Krishna Prem to all the fallen souls is the highest seva that one could render as a benefit towards any living entity. Maharaja is guiding his disciples, by engaging them in seva.

Also Mahraj has undertaken many successful projects, like Bhaktivedanta Hospital, Mumbai. When Maharaja entered the first time in the Indian boundary, initially he was not allowed by a military woman. Maharaja sat whole day under a tree and when her duty changed a military man aged saw Maharaja and called him, initially he also asked Maharaja not to enter India and return back. But when his heart melted when Maharj pleaded from the bottom of his heart that he has come to our land in search of Absolute truth. Finally he allowed Maharaja to enter India and he told Him" May you get what you are searching for". That time Maharaja made a promise that he will some day do some good and beneficial for the people of this country. "

Literally after 40 years Maharaja dream and promise is becoming true. He has started free Eye camps and free eye operations for Vrajvasis and it is a great Vaisnava seva.

11) He is very peaceful

Once Maharaja was in Prayag and he wished to take a holy dip into Triveni Sangam, TirthRaj, Prayag. While taking Holy dip was sufficient Maharj being a good swimmer thought to swim a little. Now Triveni Sangam is a sangam place for Ganga, Yamuna and Saraswati. The Currents of river Ganga forced Maharaja to the other side of the river, he was dragged and taken away by the forceful flow of the river and his legs were pressed in the muds. The more pressure he was trying to apply, the more he was being pushed inside the muds. He just saw a thorny bush on his path which was the only source of grip for him. He hold it so tightly that he was bleeding, and this thorny bush could not stand stronger and was dragged in the water, Maharaja stood peaceful took a long breath and prayed intensely in his heart. This time he could balance himself and slowly pull himself out of the mud. In this way he slowly came to the shore.

This shows how peaceful he was in a terrible situation, because any panic would have drowned him.

12) He is always surrendered to Krishna

When Maharaja first came to India he was wandering on the streets of Delhi, he passed by a person who was selling few posters, he saw those posters for the first time, he saw many photos, like one with an huge elephant head, one with eight arms, one with a water gushing from the head and neck with the necklace of snakes, he finally saw a poster of a blue boy with a flute. He didn't have sufficient money but he bought this poster. This shows that He is always surrendered to Krishna even before he had any knowledge in this birth.

13) He has no material desires

Chowpatty temple in the earlier days was an old deteriorating building. All the floors were scattered the side corridors were broken. There were bamboo sticks supporting the building to stay erect. There was a small bathroom, and a tank which is used to collect water. Once Maharaja woke up at 3.30 am and he was sitting under that dirty tap and trying to take bath from dripping water from that tank.He didn't complain. He was still staying in that condition even though he was a sanyasi. Nathji Prabhu and Krishnachandra Prabhu were wealthy and would invite Maharaja to their houses but Maharaja preferred to stay in the temple with devotees. This shows how Maharaja rejected material comforts and underwent all austerities for Prabhupada Mission.

14) He is very meek

Once Srila Prabhupada came to Pittsburgh, and Maharaja was cleaning Srila Prabhupada's car. Because he didn't find himself qualified to go very close to Srila Prabhupada, so he would do any menial seva.Prabhupada saw this from his room on the second floor and he nodded his head, signalling that he has accepted this seva.

15)He is steady.

On ekadashis, Maharaja chants 16 rounds in the morning, 2 sets in the daytime and another set at night. One Saturday night Maharaja and Devamrit Prabhu were absorbed discussing about preaching activities whole night, but still next day being Sunday Maharaja attended Mangal Aarti lead guru puja and Bhagavatam class and he meet devotees on a personal level, then gave Sunday feast class till 5pm and then kirtana and again meet devotees personally. This shows how Maharaja is steady in spite of being exhausted.

(16) He controls his senses.

One Brahmachary asked Maharaja, Do Sanyasis get thoughts about sex life, and Maharaja replied "Yes". But they take it in a different mood. You cannot stop thoughts in Kaliyuga, especially when you see billboards then such thoughts can attack you, but Knowledge of Bhagwad Gita comes to your rescue.

Knowledge helps you from stop from contemplating on these thoughts.

A person is not disturbed by the incessant flow of desires, like a sea is not disturbed but it is at peace even when overly filling with river waters.

17)He does not eat more than required.

Rath Yatra of New York is most famous event.

Thousands of devotees attend this event.

Once few sanyasis and Maharaja attended this rath yatra that started around 10 am and ended at around 1pm. There was a feast Prasadam for all the 10,000 devotees, and these 5 sanyasis were standing in one corner. Vrndavana prabhuji asked "Did you take Prasada?". He replied" Nobody asked us".

Immediately, one Mataji was arranged to cook simple Prasadam and these 5 Five sanyasis honoured the Prasadam.

Yet Guru Maharaja was not upset.The other day one Lataji was expert in cooking American dishes. Although feast Prasadam was available Maharaja preferred to eat simple food.

(18) He is not influenced by the Lord's illusory energy.

Servant of the servant: It was Ekadasi day, and in Vridavan climate is too hot. One day Vrndavana Prabhu and Maharaja took shower and he had dipped the clothes of Maharaja and his clothes in different buckets and ordered Vrndavana Prabhu to get some watermelons, so he went and returned with the watermelon he found two sets of clothes hanging to dry. He asked Maharaja, why did he do this?.This has prompted Vaisnava aparadh of taking seva from senior or Maharaja.

But Maharaja told he got an opportunity to be the servant of the servant of the Lord, and that is his Humility of not being in the mood of master. Which is natural illusory energy of the Lord.

This shows Maharaja is not under Krishnas Illusory energy.

(19) He offers respect to everyone.

Once preaching was going on in orphanage and small boys would attend the program. Once in a year they have an opportunity to go for Yatra with Maharaja.

Now one small boy came to Maharaja and requested whether his mother can attend the Yatra in his local language. Maharj understood his Gesture and smilingly replied "yes".

Maharaja took utmost care of his mother throughout the Yatra, he ordered his disciples that this mother should be taken care like Mufatlal's mother.

This shows how respectful Maharaja is towards everybody.

20. He does not desire any respect for himself

One devotee was writing a Pranati mantra for Maharaja, but Maharaja said this is not the real glorification, Glorification should be in action, Follow my instructions.

21. He is very grave

At one time a Brahmacari was preaching in IIT Mumbai and many youth joined our movement that program was very successful. Simultaneously he was giving lecture at another place and the crowd was just coming, attending the class and going back, nobody was chanting or no progress among them. So he approached Maharaja, should we continue or not.

Maharj replied"you should continue it". This program will make you humble. Some programs are successful and you get the credit. But sometimes we are not successful. So we are not preaching Krishna is preaching". We are only to serve in the mood of servant.

22)He is very merciful:

Once a cow gave birth to a calf and she died.

Maharaja came to know about this, he arranged a mother for that calf, HG Vrndavana prabhuji was its mother. He named it Prahlad

He also taught prabhuji how to feed this little calf milk by using a milk feeding bottle. This shows how kind Maharaja is towards all the living entities.

-Vrndavana Das

(23) He is friendly.

Once Maharaja was about to board a flight and at the airport he was carrying his Sanyasi danda and one lady suddenly asked Him what is this that you are carrying? Is this a Fishing rod or something. That time BhaktiRasamrit Swami Maharaja felt that this could be Vaisnava Aparadh and tried to stop that lady. But Maharaja just calmly answered that "Yes this is a Fishing Rod", Like Jesus once told that I am a fisherman came here to deliver the fallen souls. Similarly Maharaja told that he has come here to deliver us from this material Ocean of material world. In this way Maharaja showed his virtue of being friendly with even Non devotees without envying them.

(24) He is poetic.

The combination of words are so meaningful and artistic

Love of God within our heart is not our property; it is Srimati Radharani's property. It can be awakened only by Her grace. It has to be directed towards Krishna. When it is directed towards Krishna, it expands to the whole universe i.e. you love each and every part and parcel of Krishna. Materialistic science heals in retail and kills in wholesale.

(25) He is expert.

All the projects- GEV, hospital innMumbai, Eye hospital in Barsana, Jhuhu and Chowpatty temples, are all manifestation of his expertise.

26) He is silent:

Two devotees came fighting over some matter, both were right in their place. They came over to Maharaja to get a solution from Maharaja. Maharaja heard both the view points and finally told, " Do you want to be correct or do you want to be Krishna Concious? In this way Maharaja resolved the fight within few minutes This shows Maharaja is so cool in his thoughts. He quotes" Silence is golden- To be silent means speak only of the Golden Avatar".

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. I offer my sincere prayers to Shri Shri Radha Madan Mohan Ji for your continued health and longevity, so that you may remain with us, guiding us on the sacred path of bhakti and service to Krishna.

Guru Maharaja, although I am a small devotee who may not be known to you personally, I feel blessed beyond measure to have received the mercy of taking shelter at your lotus feet. Previously, I was lost in material struggles, unable to find a way forward. However, by Krishna's grace, I was led toward our esteemed guru parampara and ultimately to you. Since that time, profound transformations have taken place in my life, all of which I attribute to the grace of our guru parampara and the shelter of your lotus feet.

I humbly acknowledge that everything Krishna has bestowed upon me rightfully belongs to you. I pray that you impart the wisdom to employ all that I have in service to you.

Observing your many disciples, some of whom have dedicated decades of their lives in service to you, fills me with awe and inspires me to deepen my devotion. While I may feel distant from such a level of dedication, the recent Kartika-yatra afforded me the blessing of your merciful presence. Each morning, as you walked slowly and patiently, glancing kindly upon all who gathered, I was fortunate to receive those glances, which brought me a deep sense of connection with you.

I am also sincerely grateful for the exemplary devotees you have sent into my life, such as my Siksha Guru, Lilananda Das Prabhu. Through his guidance, we have the good fortune of associating with senior disciples of your esteemed self, including Caitanya Charan Prabhu, Gauranga Darshan Prabhu, and others who visit our congregation, nurturing our spiritual advancement and sharing your love and care with us.

Hare Krishna, Maharaja.

Dearest Gurudeva,

In the last 2 letters I wrote to you, I mentioned how my heart was yearning for your reciprocation deeply despite all my disqualification and shortcomings and how I was longing to be accepted and loved by you.

In this Vyasa-puja offering, I want to thank you, thank you for years of compassionate, thoughtful and tiring work you have done to nourish communities and for creating compassionate, creative, empowered, authentic, determined and enthusiastic warriors in Mahaprabhu's army.

I want to express gratitude for your love, care and compassion that has flowed to me through your disciples who have come as a cooling balm to my burning heart in times of great difficulty. In deepest corners of my heart, I know that there is absolutely no one who I can even think of accepting as my Gurudeva except you.

Maharaja from all my heart I confess that I absolutely don't deserve your mercy, infact I can't even put up a plea for myself because my weak mind can put me in clutches of Maya anytime but I absolutely don't find any hope for me if not in your shelter, I need your mercy Gurudeva and hence, I beg you to overwhelm my stone heart with your loving compassion so that atleast then it is consumed by a desire to give back and serve.

Gurudeva, I don't know exactly the depth of this statement and what it will take to do this and whether I have the courage to stand upto this statement or not but I will say this because I know through your mercy, I can do everything, Gurudeva, I really want to give you my life and soul. Please accept me as your loving Spiritual daughter. Don't let me beg as an orphan door to door for love when I have you.

Will forever yearn to be in your shelter. Please keep me engaged in your service despite my poor attempts. Again, Thank you Gurudeva for creating a loving God family. You have given us the greatest fortunes of our life.

My Dandavat Pranama at the lotus feet of Radhanath swami Maharaja.

Recently Maharaja has given me deeksha and during the time I was able to see Maharaja in his eyes. At that moment I could see the humbleness and lots of love for his disciples. It was a wonderful experience. What Maharaja preaches he follows. His favorite sloka is “trinad appi suneechena taror api Sahishnuna, Amanina Manadena kirtanaiya sada Hari”. I do not find words to express my Gratitude for what Maharaja has done to me.

Hare Krishna, Dandwat Pranama ??
Dear Srila Gurudeva,
All glory to your divine grace. Please accept my humble obeisances.

I feel fortunate to get an opportunity to write this offering on your divine appearance day. I don't know where I should begin. I am not at all eligible to write, but still, I shall try my best to write my heartfelt offerings by the mercy of Guru, Gauranga, and whatever I heard from senior Vaisnavas

My life in this living did not start when I was born, but when I started reading books and hearing from senior Vaisnavasas. I am extremely grateful to HDG for writing so many divine books for fallen souls like us. It's Only HDG mercy that we got your divine association, Gurudeva.

I wanted to share a beautiful incident that happened recently in the divine shelter of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. I offered a flower at the Lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and was praying for your divine darshan Then suddenly I realized, I m so fallen, how could I get darshan of such a pure soul and as I was about to leave after doing dandwats and got up and saw you just standing before me, it was a miracle for me and indeed the mercy of RadhaGopinatha that instead of my impurity, he allowed me to see a pure soul like you, Gurudeva ??

Your teachings always guided me to the right path, especially in the time of calamity. Hearing you through "The Journey Home" has enriched my faith in Parampara and enlightened me with great spiritual wisdom. I wanted to share the following wisdom, which always acts as a torchlight in the extreme darkness of the material world.

"Each and every one of us within our own hearts has unlimited spiritual power. The essence of true religion is to access that spiritual power and express it through every aspect of life!! Then, with a pure heart, we can overcome so many obstacles that seem so impossible!"

The unforgettable day of my life was "the 7th of September " when I received your mercy and blessings as "Sveta gopika dd."

Thank you, Srila Gurudeva, for all that you have given me. I can never repay the debt. The success of my life is to constantly be engaged in Guru, Gauranga, and Vaisnavaa's service and follow your teachings with depth.

On this auspicious occasion, please bless me so that I can contribute to the Srila Prabhupada mission with my utmost capacity

Yours trying to be humble servant,

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja, Please accept my prostrated humble obeisance. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaja, first time I came to know about you from senior devotees, and my counselor HG Dauji Kripa Prabhuji, being your staunch follower. After that with inspiration of devotees, I read your autobiography, The Journey Home. From the book I learnt more about you, the struggles you faced in search of God and true Religion. You studied all different paths of religion throughout the world, met different spiritual leaders, even practiced all types of Yoga and finally surrendered to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada, as your Spiritual Master, to accept the eternal religion, Krishna Consciousness..

Guru Maharaja, under the instruction of Srila Prabhupada you served as Pujari and cows care-taker in New Vrndavan, for years under extreme conditions and bare minimum living facilities. After taking sannyasa, you preached in many colleges in America all alone, travelling in a van, cooking for all new students. Guru Maharaja you have so much compassion for all living entities and to serve them you go to any extent. Every year you give the opportunity to get association of yourself and your disciples by organising the Mahakumbh of devotees- The Annual KARTIKA-YATRA. Here all devotees nourish their connection with you and with each other as a big spiritual family of Srila Prabhupada.

Guru Maharaja, it is your spiritual vision and strong efforts that you laid down spiritual foundation for establishment of Bhaktivedanta Hospitals, Govardhan Eco Village and many ISKCON temples. Once I heard from my counselor how you instructed Hg Radheshyam Prabhuji that "You don't try to do everything. You inspire the devotees and with their God-gifted talents they will get the services done." This is just one examples out of millions such instances in which you have inspired and empowered devotees to extend their limits and get miracles done as Srila Prabhupada had done in his times.

Guru Maharaja, once I heard your lecture about Srila Haridas Thakur's life and then when I read that excerpt from Sri Caitanya Caritamrta, I was wondering how you have got all the scriptures by heart in details. Again one day I heard Srila Prabhupada lecture and same day evening I heard your lecture. I felt as if you were repeating exactly what Srila Prabhupada told that morning and I became so happy in my heart that you are so deeply connected to Srila Prabhupada and Guru Parampara, repeating the divine message of Lord Sri Krishna as it is. The appreciation and love you have for Srila Prabhupada inspires love for you in my heart. However I need your blessings to be able to surrender for serving in the mission of Srila Prabhupada and unto yourself.

Guru Maharaja, the most inspiring thing I have learnt from your living example is that you yourself follow principles of pure devotional service in your own life with great determination- By you own exemplary life You inspire all devotees to wear as ornament the Shikshashtakam verse of TRNAD API SUNICENA. You inspire to keep moving even if Maya tries to stop or put obstructions in services and Sadhana, Krishna always shows us a way. Your lectures always guide me and offer practical solutions whenever I face any difficulty. You have taught us that keeping the essence of Bhakti intact, Devotional service itself is not a stereotype process and every action/propensity can be engaged in service to Krishna.

Guru Maharaja, by mercy of Lord Sri Krishna I met you and Your disciples to guide me. I have just started my devotional service. I confess that I am weak in my determination and impure in my heart. I get succumbed to illusory allurements of Maya and if you don't give me your shelter I will be swayed away from this divine path of Bhakti, which somehow I have got to know after millions of lives, by mercy of devotees. I want to become a strong devotee so that I can offer myself to be of some use in your service and service to Srila Prabhupada. I seek for your blessings.

t's my pleasure to get opportunity to do the offering for Guru Maharaja although I am not having any qualification.whatever little progress I am trying make in Sadhava, is only due to Guru Maharaja, his lectures and through his disciples. Whenever I think of Maharaja, first thing come in mind is Maharaja glances and smiles which are like full blossom lotus flower which gives millions time positivity and energy to us

There is so much to learn from Maharaja that next hundred birth won't be enough to take a single drop from that endless ocean of mercy.

Maharaja lectures are like 1st ray of Sun after waning crescent moon. Maharaja ecstatic Kirtana, his association in Kartika-yatra are the best moments to cheris.

....May Maharaja always remain in good health and keep inspiring fallen and unworthy soul like me for all the time to come.

Hare Krishna Dear GuruMaharaja!
Please accept my humble obiesances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Firstly, I seek Your divine blessings on Your most auspicious 74th Appearance Day. I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for Your favorable health and merciful association. I offer my heartfelt gratitude at Your lotus feet for all the troubles You are taking just to push us more closer to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna.

Throughout Your journey, You are teaching us how to seek shelter of the Supreme Lord at all times, especially at times of adversity. Prayers have always been Your companion. It is quite inconceivable to imagine how You always remembered Krishna throughout Your uneasy journey from the west to the east. Your journey truly ignites the dormant feeling of love in separation for Krishna in the hearts of the heart of each soul who comes in association of You.

Out of Your deep compassion, You always teach us the crest jewel of all the values – humility, tolerance, and gratefulness. You personify the teachings of Lord Caitanya. Your lectures are filled with these profound teachings. It creates a sense of urgency in our minds to develop these divine Vaisnava qualities following in the footsteps of our previous Acaryas. Thank You so very much for educating us these values both through Your words and through Your actions.

After the Puri Kartika-yatra and Your Kolkata visit in 2023, You gave me Your merciful Darshan during the Sravana Utsava in March 2024 at Sridham Mayapur. I heartily relished the class hearing about the glories of Advaita Acarya. Then, I was fortunate enough to participate in the Mayapur Kartika-yatra 2024. I am forever indebted to You for Your nectarine classes, Kirtanas, jokes, invaluable association, and tastiest Prasadam. It is only by Your mercy and Krishna's sweet will that I was a part of all these unforgettable interactions. Thank You so much for Your divine grace upon me.

I am very happy to tell You that I have completed ISKCON Disciple Course in June 2024 with 100% score. It is only because of Your merciful blessings. All glories to You. Also, I promised on Your last Vyasa-puja that I will chant properly, read Srila Prabhupada Books, and hear Krishna Katha daily. With so much gratitude and humbleness, I would like to share that I have been following these vows to the best of my capacity. I have also been trying to serve sincerely under the guidance of my seniors especially HG Puridas Prabhuji, my counsellor. Your lectures are the backbone of all these minute attempts that I am making to please Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. Thank You very very much for always being with me through Your instructions provided in the Lectures. You are my eternal Siksha Guru.

During this Kartika-yatra, at Mamgachi, HG Krishnananda Prabhuji mentioned that the only gift You ever wanted from Your followers is – "To chant the Holy Names of the Lord with Faith, Attention, and Humility". So, I commit to chant with faith, attention, and humility as an offering to You on Your 74th Vyasa-puja. I also commit to serve the Vaisnavas with affection, study and hear Srila Prabhupada enthusiastically. But, I am so insignificant and fallen that without Your mercy, I cannot follow my commitment for a day. So, please please bless me and empower me to be consistent with my commitments and to be a humble instrument in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

I long to receive Your formal blessings and pray for You everyday to Sri Sri Radha Govinda. I pray to You to reveal me how to Pray consistently with faith and remember Krishna always.

Thank You so much for giving me the opportunity to glorify You and offer You my offerings on Your 74th Vyasa-puja Mahamahotsava.

My dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to your unparalleled service and mercy.

Way back in 2015, when I had the first encounter with devotees and was exposed to Krishna Consciousness., I was hesitant to accept it by heart. I was also circumspect about the practical application of the philosophy & what it really means for me. I started reading and listening to the lectures, and slowly and steadily came to grips with the subject matter. Still, the essence remained vague and up in the air for me. I was struggling to decipher its true meaning. I sort of got a clue that there is something enchanting and different from what I was doing being a materialist, but Krishna Consciousness. didn't become my life and soul. I was trying my best to balance my spiritual quest with my material ambitions but was struggling.

The whole mist of confusion slowly started clearing as I read your life journey home. I found answers to my umpteen questions and found parallels to my own life as I read through. There was a transformational change. My inner world was never the same from then on. The layers of understanding our real core, our position, & the whole purpose of our existence unfolded and unravelled, giving me conviction to move forward in my spiritual quest.

On this occasion I pray to you to bless me that I can continue to serve Srila Prabhupada, you, the devotees, and the world. I write spiritual blogs on various social media platforms about life lessons from our scriptures with the intent to first purify myself and to create value for my readers and to slowly dovetail them in loving Krishna. I seek your blessings to continue with my efforts.

Thank you very much.
Hare Krishna.

This guru Pranama mantra is absolutely right with my life because since the time Srila Guru Maharaja has entered my life my spiritual life now has a meaning. Earlier I was doing bhakti with my own beliefs. I had guidance but also a space which was empty and which was only to be filled by Srila Guru Maharaja.

I still remember the first time I heard Srila Guru Maharaja speaking I felt immense peace which I never felt before. Maharaja was speaking at G.E.V in the month of July.

From that lecture I felt some connection with Maharaja.

I very sincerely offer my gratitude onto the lotus feet of Lord Balram for guiding me. And because of the mercy of Lord Balram Srila Guru Maharaja very mercifully entered my dark life and enlightened my whole spiritual journey.

I can't describe in words what Srila Guru Maharaja has given me, Maharaja is teaching me the real meaning of "trnad api sunicena taror api sahisnuna amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harih" every single day.

I won't say Maharaja taught me because I am not a great student but Maharaja his teaching me everyday, that how to practically apply this verse in my daily life and to be really humble, to consider myself lower than the blade of a grass on street and to give all the respect and credit to others and constantly chanting the holy names of Krishna. For me Maharaja is the ocean of peace. I've never met Maharaja in my whole life and I don't know if I have the great fortune of meeting Maharaja in real life. But just by looking at Maharaja's one photo or listening to a lecture I feel immense peace deep down in my heart. Someone said this to me that it is a bit hard for me to get Diksha from Maharaja. I don't know if I will get initiated from Maharaja or not but one thing I know is that Srila Guru Maharaja is my spiritual master and deep down in my heart I know that Maharaja has very mercifully and copassionately accepted this fallen soul.

Maharaja, I just want to make a very humble request onto your lotus feet, please always bless me with your shelter and mercy, because of you dark life has enlightened, please never leave this fallen soul.

Wishing you a very Happy Vyasa-puja

Respected Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at Your divine lotus feet. All Glories to Your Holiness, the carrier of divine grace, love & mercy!

You are a personification of spiritual love, the desperate need of every jiva in this material world. Whomever You meet or comes to You, whatever situation may be, You simply give love and thus You are very dear to the Lord.

Once in desperation when I approached You for diksha, you emphasized on the principle of spiritual integrity, which You always uphold, in a very loving way.

Your dealings with Your God brothers and God sisters is a treat to our hearts to witness. You teach us how to be an ideal devotee, disciple, not just by Your transcendental words, but by Your divine example as well.

Whatever You speak is so potent & transcendental because it's coming from a heart that loves Sri Sri Radha & Krishna and thus all the part and parcel jivas. You teach us to take shelter of the holynames which is non different from Krishna. But because You are already experiencing unfathomable shelter of the holynames, Your words have unlimited potency. I feel most fortunate & blessed to have been intercepted by Your pure love & compassion in my otherwise useless and insignificant life.

I humbly seek forgiveness from You for all the mistakes I have committed knowingly and unknowingly. Guru Maharaja, I humbly beg at Your divine lotus feet on this most auspicious day of Your divine appearance, that I may always hold on to Your lotus feet forever close to my heart.

Aspiring to become Your loving servant,

Dear Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances
All glory to Srila Prabhupada
Happy Vyasapuja to you, Maharaja.

I was recently contemplating on your pure heart Maharaja. Everything I have noted about you is just an outward expression of that purity of your heart. For example, your gentle and at the same time firm interactions with your disciples, or your endeavors to ensure the comfort of your Godbrothers (and even all others) who you host, your careful and considerate awareness of other living entities, and also the environment, are just some things I've noted based on what I've heard from others, read about you or observed in you. Only one with a pure and humble heart would interact in this way.

Vaisnavas are oceans of compassion and mercy, and so I want to take this opportunity to request your blessings so that my heart is rid of anarthas and I can follow in the footsteps of your good example of purity.

Dear Maharaja,

I offer my respectful obeisances unto my spiritual master, who has opened my eyes, which were blinded by the darkness of ignorance, with the torchlight of knowledge On this most auspicious occasion of your 74th Vyasa-puja, I humbly offer my obeisances at your divine feet. Your compassionate guidance illuminates the path of spiritual progress for all of us. Your kindness and dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission continue to inspire and uplift us, enabling us to understand and appreciate the deep wisdom of the Vedic scriptures.

Each moment of your life is the teaching me importance of Bhakti and how to serve the Lord sincerely. The way you convey the lessons from each incident of life always inspires me in the path of Krishna Consciousness..

I humbly offer my prayers that I may continue to serve you and take shelter under your guidance. Your divine mercy is the beacon that lights my way through the darkness of material existence, and I pray that by your grace, I may grow in my devotion to Lord Krishna and to you.

"yasya prasadad bhagavat-prasadahyasya aprasadad na gatih kuto 'pi" "By the mercy of the spiritual master, one receives the mercy of Lord Krishna. Without the grace of the spiritual master, there is no possibility of attaining the supreme goal of life."

Your grace is the ultimate blessing, and I am forever indebted to you for the mercy that flows from your heart to guide me along this difficult but rewarding path of devotion. As we celebrate your 74th Vyasa-puja, I offer my deepest gratitude to you for being my eternal spiritual guide and protecting me from the illusion of this material life. I pray that I can continue to serve you with sincerity and dedication. Please bless me, that I may always be engaged in the service of Krishna and that I may never fall into the illusion of material life. With deep respect and gratitude, Syamanga Gopa Das

Dear Radhanath Swami Maharaja,
Please, accept my humble obeisance.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada!
All glories to Srila Prabhupada's mission in which you have dedicated your being and are serving the lotus feet of Lord Krishna.

I would like to express my appreciation for your humble and persevering teachings to all devotees and conditioned souls.

I have been blessed by God because two years ago I met Tulasi-nandini Mataji in the hungarian sanga in Budapest. She coordinates the team work making translations of your teachings. It is an honour for me to take part in this service and through this I can serve Srila Prabhupada's mission and all devotees.

I read your book Journey home which is about your beautiful way of reaching bhakti thanks to all the great gurus, yogis and spiritual masters with whom you have met. The message of this book touches my heart. Thank you so much for writing your life to help me and others to seek and find the shelter at the lotusfeet of Lord Krishna. The most important and everlasting treasure of your teaching is the humble heart what you very often cite from Siksastakam. Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu gave us this unique code for life which we should live in order to grow spiritually and have a chance to understand and experience the unconditional love of God.

Your personal character and way of teaching are so close to my heart and mind. I am honoured to be a medium between your words coming from Krishna and all devotees.

Everytime when I make a translation from your teachings in a form of audio recording it touches my heart and I feel the grace which is with me in my own way.

It was a special gift when the last week I have received one copy of your book Journey within with your signature.

I am so grateful for all these gifts by which I can stay on the way and hope my heart will be open for humble service to all living beings, ultimately to Lord Krishna.

I pray for your blessing to give me the inner strength and persevarence to take austerities in serving Srila Prabhupada's mission and being the tool in God's lotus hands.

Please forgive all of my faults and bless me with a bright consciousness to continue this way and serve, to be able to carry out my duties under the protection of you and Srila Prabhupada's divine movement and always remain in the association of the sincere devotees.

Begging to remain under the shelter of Lord Krisna's and Srimati Radharani's lotusfeet.

My humble obeisance unto your lotus feet guru, Maharaja. I am not initiated by you I don't know, but I am addressing you as my guru, Maharaja, without your permission. I am aspiring to you. First time after reading your autobiography in 2012 I felt great feelings for you. I am very much inspired and connected to you after reading about you. I desired to see you, and by Krishna's grace, I got the opportunity to see you in the last year, Jagannath Puri Kartika-yatra 2023. You also look at me in the whole crowd of your disciples; I know I am nothing in all of them. I feel you are my father and guide. I am also scared to come near you, Maharaja. I heard many, many times about you from your disciples. Each time I heard about you, I felt more connection, but I am not at all significant to become your disciple like others. I hope to continue to hear more from you and more about you, Maharaja. I am trying to follow your instructions and please you. If you feel Please shower your Mercy upon me, Maharaja.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Thank you very much, Maharaja, for mercifully accepting this unqualified fool into the Guru-Shishya parampara, despite my countless shortcomings. Earlier this year, I was immensely blessed to receive Brahman Diksha from you, and I am gradually realizing the magnitude of this mercy. Though I am filled with the qualities of a shudra, I have been graciously granted the privilege of rendering deity services.

Your selfless and sacrificial nature deeply inspires me. Despite your health challenges, you tirelessly deliver Krishna's message and spread Srila Prabhupada's mission. I remember how uncertain it was during our Brahman Diksha initiation whether you would be able to conduct the ceremony. At one point, it was decided to postpone it, but the next day we received the message that, despite your poor health, you had resolved to proceed with the initiation. Later in the year, you visited IIT Bombay for a program. We were blessed to hear from you and present a report along with offerings prepared by the devotees about our preaching efforts. This program, too, was uncertain until the last moment due to your health. During your lecture, we could even sense the ointment applied to your forehead for fever and headache. Yet, you delivered the talk, met the devotees, and shared Krishna's message with the students, undeterred by physical discomfort.

At that time, we had been planning your visit to the youth center. The devotees enthusiastically cleaned and decorated the entire center, eagerly awaiting your arrival like chataka birds longing for a rain-filled cloud. Although you could not visit, we understand that you accepted the offerings in your heart and showered your blessings upon us.

Your intense Sadhana is a beacon of inspiration for me. Chanting with devotees every morning, attending Mangal Aarti daily, and dancing for the pleasure of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, especially during Guru Puja, is a vivid testament to your unwavering devotion. Often, I feel ashamed of myself for not being as enthusiastic to chant, dance, and raise my hands during aartis, despite having a young and healthy body.

Your selfless service reminds me of this verse from Caitanya Charitamrita:

pragadha-premera ei svabhava-acara nija-duhkha-vighnadira na kare vicara

Translation: "This is the natural result of intense love of Godhead. The devotee does not consider personal inconveniences or impediments. In all circumstances, he wants to serve the Supreme Personality of Godhead."

Your lectures are the primary nourishment for my spiritual life. A senior devotee once shared that you never speak of anything you have not personally realized. This practice of walking your talk compels everyone to surrender to you, Srila Prabhupada, and Krishna. This year, I could not attend the yatra due to stay-back services at the temple. I deeply regret missing the opportunity to hear from you and serve the 10,000 devotees who participated.

Guru Maharaja, I humbly beg for your mercy and strength to sincerely follow your instructions—to improve my Sadhana, perform service with enthusiasm and without ulterior motives, and cooperate harmoniously with other devotees.

Dear GuruMaharaja,

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I humbly offer my gratitude at your lotus feet. Your mercy has lifted me onto the path of Krishna Consciousness., and your acceptance of me as your disciple is a blessing I am endlessly grateful for. Every word of your teachings brings clarity, purpose, and joy into my life, showing me the way through even the most challenging times. Your lectures, filled with profound wisdom and compassion, are a wellspring of sustenance, guiding me to walk this path with sincerity.

During the recent Kartika-yatra, I had the divine opportunity to be in your association, especially while chanting. Those precious moments strengthened my faith, grounding me more deeply in Krishna's holy names. Being close to you, even for a short time, filled my heart with renewed strength and purpose.

Your compassion and patience have taught me invaluable lessons on humility and dedication. As I move forward, I seek your continued blessings to grow in service to Sri Krishna and to be a worthy servant in this transcendental journey.

Please accept my Humble obeisances Maharaja Ji,

I am writing my last year spiritual Journey Maharaja.

1) Maharaja from the this year Jan the gift which was given to us by Krishna is the daughter we have got, we have named her as Krisha and on this yatra you have given her blessings too and I am very much obliged to receive that mercy from you Maharaja.

2) Maharaja ji, we both have chosen our counsellor as HG Mukundanand pr ji and Hg Parmeshwari Mata ji and we are trying to serve them and under their guidance we are trying to practice our spiritual life Maharaja.

3) Maharaja ji, we both are doing Bhakti shastri course Maharaja from HG Sanatan Dharma das and we have reached the last module of this course. We have also completed the IDC course Maharaja.

4) We are doing our Sadhna properly Maharaja, but sometimes we are missing our reading and hearing while taking care of our daughter but now we are again trying to balance Maharaja.

5) From, the time we have come from Pune, we are missing the association of devotees Maharaja as the Sanga which was there in Pune, we haven't got it here yet Maharaja. I have got one service in Chandigarh Temple Maharaja of Cooking from 4-6pm on Sunday and I am trying that I keep myself free during this seva time.

6) I don't know much about how to write the offering Maharaja, but I am very much grateful to you to keep me always under your shelter.

Thank you Maharaja for everything. Next year, we will Improve our hearing and Reading sadhna Maharaja and we will try to serve Srila Prabhupada's mission by doing other services which we have not done as Book distribution and Preaching Maharaja.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Some years ago, when I visited you in Villa Vrndavanaa, Italy, I prayed to our Deities, Sri Sri Nitai Gaurasundara, for an essential instruction from you that would nourish my creeper of bhakti for a long time.

And sure enough, in your very first class, the response came: In the middle of the class, you suddenly paused and looked up thoughtfully, as if stretching to pick a fruit from the transcendental tree of profound wisdom. You said:

"Krishna's love is the ultimate reality."

I had read the Bhagavad Gita a number of times, including the verse where Krishna states, "I am the mother, I am the father," and Srila Prabhupada's purports on how Krishna manifests as our fathers and mothers. However, it was only recently, when my 97-year-old mother left this world, that the meaning of this verse became apparent to me. The ultimate reality is that Krishna manifested as my mother in this life as part of His divine love.

My mother was not exactly religious, but she was certainly pious. Her life was filled with selfless service to her husband, children, extended family, and village community. As a boy and young teenager, I had a very fiery temperament ("you were not easy to handle"), but she dealt with me expertly with her tolerance, patience, and affection, nourishing my growth and psychophysical stamina. In her old age, she became increasingly peaceful, grateful, and content, and this was evident in her happy joking.

Some years ago, she said to me, "I would also like to have such faith as you have." Towards the end of her life, her desire was fulfilled. I spoke to her very directly about Krishna in different ways: "When it rains on the priest, it drips on his assistant" (a Norwegian proverb, meaning here that the mercy and love I have received from the Lord and His devotees will also be shared with her), "Krishna will take nice care of you," and "Krishna has given you everything." She accepted it: "Oh, that is very nice!" In her own way, she accepted Krishna's love as a reality in her life.

As she nourished my material growth with her tolerance, patience, and affection, you, Guru Maharaja, have similarly nourished my spiritual growth with your tolerance, patience, and affection. By opening my eyes with the torchlight of your knowledge, I have been able to see how Krishna manifested His love in my life — first through the care of my mother, and finally, by offering me shelter at your lotus feet.

The vision of Krishna's love as the ultimate reality, which you revealed in that class in Villa Vrndavanaa, I was able to share with my mother in the end. So much so, that she too could accept Krishna's love and care as a reality in her life. This is all your mercy — both for me and for her.

Respected Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisance at your divine lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

As a representative of Vyasadev, you are truly passing on the true knowledge and love of absolute truth and giving us, all the guidance and tolerating my shortcomings and offences.

The spiritual master is interested in taking back his disciples but because of my mundane attachments, I am searching happiness in this material world only to suffer more miseries. As a kind father, please take me out of this situation by your spiritual potency.

Please forgive me for my shortcomings and bless me with pure devotional service. I am begging for your causeless mercy though I don't deserve.

When I see your stalwart disciples doing selflessly so many great services for you, I feel worthless. Pl forgive and empower me to serve this mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Always praying for your.long healthy life

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja Please accept my humble obeisance.
All glory to Srila Prabhupada, and all glory to you.

We are very excited to welcome the auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja. We are too unqualified to even start glorifying someone like you.

We pray to Lord Narsingh Dev to bless you with good health so that you can continue saving fallen souls like us. May you be able to serve Krishna more and spread more love, compassion, and mercy to all those whose hearts are paining for spiritual guidance all over the world?

We are grateful for your spiritual presence and guidance and for always being a great source of inspiration for us in every situation of life.

The instructions through your lectures and talks inspire me to practice devotional service. Some days, it gets tough and overwhelming, but your Nectarian words somehow or other keep me going. Through your actions, we could understand the depth of the meaning "How may I serve you. "

With your mercy day, I may become a genuine, humble servant to Vaisnavas and a better devotee. We need your blessings, Gurudeva to overcome my anarthas. We struggle every day to overcome these, and I wish to be able to serve with a mood of humble servant, to be able to practice the devotional service with enthusiasm, eagerness, and determination.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for inspiring thousands of us to take the path of devotion. We cannot imagine how miserable our lives would have been without you, entangled in Maya, leading a directionless, aimless life and wasting all the precious moments of this human birth.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for preaching humility, compassion, tolerance, patience, and simplicity through your actions, words,s, and deeds.

The gratitude you have for your spiritual master and the selfless services that you do in your kind, humble mood to please all living entities show us what a disciple should aspire for.

Thank you for inspiring me so much, thank you for being who you are to me, a source of compassion and sincerity.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja. The world is so uncertain. There's danger at every step. So much violence and unrest is going on everywhere. But when I hear from you, I get solace in the heart. When I hear Srimad-Bhagavatam from you, I get reminded that the material world has always been and will always be like this. Hearing from you about the devotees mentioned in Srimad-Bhagavatam, I realize that these devotees have already set examples by their own lives, how to convert misfortune into good fortune, and how to take Krishna's shelter in all situations.

Then, when I hear Gaura Katha from you, I get reminded of my extreme good fortune. The Same Supreme Lord comes here once in a day of Brahma, to relish something that He doesn't experience even in the spiritual world and to have come to distribute it to the whole world. You highlight that Lord Caitanya has given us the highest thing that no one has ever given, Krishna Prem, through chanting of the Holy Names. And then you remind again and again the mood to be cultivated for being able to actually chant continuously. I get reminded by your talks that I have nothing to be proud of, rather I should humble myself in front of all other Vaisnavas, without expecting any respect. And your personal example in this regard is a great source of inspiration to me. How you interact with your God brothers and God sisters is of the highest standard to me.

I have been a bhukti, mukti, and siddhi Kami and hence always disturbed in mind. By your absorbing Krishna Katha and Gaura Katha you kill these anarthas in my heart even without explicitly mentioning about them. In all your interactions, your emphasis has been to help us absorb in the Nama, Rupa, Guna, and Lila of the Lord. That automatically kills my materialistic tendencies. I understand that I only have to keep hearing your Vani.

You have also given me so many instructions by your Vani. In your Vapu association, in my first initiation, you also instructed me to focus on Nama Ruchi, Jiva Daya, Vaisnava Seva, and Bhagavat Shravana. During the second initiation, you emphasized again on quality chanting and setting an example as a Vaisnavaa. I am far from your expectations, but I can only beg, and pray to be able to follow these instructions sincerely, so that I can please you and hence, please Srila Prabhupada and the whole Guru Paramapara. On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I pray to the Lordships that may you remain healthy to continue your mission and may I accept what you have given to me wholeheartedly and practice it, and share it with others.

Dear Maharaja thank you very much for giving us ospecious gift of Krishna Consciousness. under very unfavourable circumstances in the human society.I am soo munch inspired when I read your book “Journey Home”. In which you have explained your complete journey that how you came to ISKCON after doing soo much hardwork. You have given us Vrndavana in Mumbai in the form of Goverdhan ecovillage because of your mercy not the peoples from India also the peoples from other countries can come to Vrndavana(Goverdhan ecovillage) and take the Krishna Consciousness., take darshan of Lord ships, beautiful Prasadam etc.

Dear guru Maharaja You have given different types of festivals likes pushpa Abhishek,Kartika-yatra, also you have created different projects like devotee care, gopala garden, annamruit, Sunday feast programs which helps many people to grow in Krishna Consciousness..

Dear guru Maharaja your small quotes and teachings messages makes a big changes in my life and help me to grow in Krishna Consciousness. and to do my Sadhana bhakti.I am praying at your lotus feet that please give me your mercy and blessings so that I can do my Sadhana sincerely and to serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada without doing any offences with the devotees

Gurudeva, your presence in my spiritual life has taken me miles away from material sorrows and brought me closer to Sri Krishna.

Your humbleness and compassion for Lord Caitanya teach us how to be stable in our devotional life, even amidst the turmoil of the material world. Gurudeva, you have taught me how to stay calm while facing the ups and downs of material life. Your patience teaches me how to believe in Krishna completely and trust His decisions for each of us. I was fortunate to get your darshan very closely this time and to experience your sang. It always feels great to hear you.

Getting this human body is a rare achievement. But rarest of the rarest is getting a spiritual master. By your causeless mercy I have been connected to Guru Sishya Parampara. You have been pouring your mercy in the form of pure nectarine lectures, arranging various pandal programs at numerous places and conducting Katrik yatra 2024 at Mayapur Dham with such force like Ganga devi's flowing of water from spiritual world to this material world. Like Lord Shiva hold the force of mother Ganga on his Jata, I also need the association of sincere instructing Gurus and Vaisnavas who can catch hold your flood of mercy and pass to me. Even after initiation of somany years I am not able become serious in spiritual life due to my anantha, offenses and no sincere Sadhana.

On this auspicious day of your 74th Vyasa-puja I pray at the lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha for you good health and also begging your mercy being I the most fallen soul in this world to become more sincere in my Sadhana, following your instruction and association of such Vaisnavas who are seriously following on this path.

My prostrated obeiasances unto the lotus feet of His Holiness Radanath Swami Maharaja on the Vyasa-puja celebrating his 74th appearance day. On this occasion I would like to extend my gratitude to Radanath Swami for saving this fallen and unfortunate soul from the ocean of worldly miseries and allowing us the opportunity to become a menial servant of the servant's servant in the humble mission of Srila Prabhupada. For this blessing we are eternally grateful, and it is something we will strive with our every breath to repay, knowing very well that doing so is never going to be possible. Since having been bestowed upon the seed of bhakti, striving to assist the devotees in their service unto to the lotus feet of Gauranga Mahaprabhu has become our life and soul. It has thus become totally unimportant to us if we ever get the opportunity to have

His Holiness' intimate association, as long as we can continue serving his words. Our only desire is therefore to be used as an instrument for Lord Caitanya's mercy, and we have full faith that by always serving the instruction of guru we can help to inundate the whole world with love of God, or to give Krishna Consciousness. to all the fallen victims of Kali Yuga.

My prayers to Radanath Swami who is a bona fide ambassador for Krishna Consciousness. having risked everything, including his life to attain the shelter of the Lord's lotus feet, as described in his autobiography, The Journey Home. We can only aspire to follow in his footsteps and take the dust of His lotus feet, so that by his great mercy, even the most unimportant and disposable servant can attain perfection of life, which is to develop love of God. Thus by his grace we may be able to perform something wonderful for the satisfaction of Sri Sri guru and Gauranga, seeing which would make us most pleased. Again, our sincerest gratitude for letting us take part in this great sankirtana movement.

Hare Krishna!
PAMHO!!!

In the presence of His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja, words often fall short to convey the gratitude and reverence that fills our hearts. Maharaja's compassion is boundless; he radiates a divine wisdom that not only teaches us the principles of devotion but also guides us to embody them in our lives. His unwavering dedication to spreading the teachings of Lord Krishna and selfless service has uplifted countless souls, offering solace, direction, and a sense of purpose in the world.

Maharaja's life journey is an epitome of humility and sacrifice. Through his every word, he inspires us to rise above the mundane, to find joy in service, and to seek the divine in all. His kindness shines like a beacon, illuminating paths for those who are lost, comforting those who are in distress, and empowering every seeker to find the true meaning of love and devotion.

Being blessed with the association of HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja is the greatest gift. His presence is like a soothing rain that quenches the thirst of the soul. Each of his teachings, each of his actions, shows us what it means to live in harmony with the divine and to cultivate a life of true bhakti.

May we, by his mercy, carry forward his vision and continue to be instruments of his divine mission.

Dear Maharaja;
Please Accept My Humble Obeisances!!!

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you Maharaja. Maharaja, your Vyasa-puja gives us a unique opportunity to ponder over the various sevas and Sadhana done over the year. This year the enthralling experience in the Kartika-yatra at Mayapur left a deep impression. The amount of sevas rendered by the senior Vaishanavas with such enthusiasm for 10,000 devotees, simply showed how much is there to be done in Srila Prabhupada's seva, and seeing their enthusiasm, I am not even a firefly in front of their sun like enthusiasm.

Your focus on keeping core Krishna Consciousness. in the center always is so very evident Maharaja from the pastimes you shared in the Kartika-yatra and in general. Previously, I used to think that we have to do something practical, we must use our hands and legs and do something. But gradually by your mercy, I am able to see that pleasing Krishna should be the center, serving Vaisnavas, that would actually help develop wonderful relationships and help us advance in our Krishna Consciousness..

Your visit to IIT this year was an opportunity for all of us to get your personal association. I was wondering how it would be, what shall I prepare? In the meeting, I could slowly understand that by keeping cooperation and serving under our counsellors seriously and with a mood of humble servant of servant would please you the most and that would provide us your shelter.

The purity you carry Maharaja was so very evident in the Kartika-yatra, and how you are the prefect via medium of Krishna's mercy. It would be most shocking to a materialist when he would hear what you said that these devotees are not paid and yet they are rendering so much seva. Yes indeed, previously I would also think that money is everything and that without money, even a sweeper is not ready to work. But over the years, through various ways, like lectures at Chowpatty temple, Kartika-yatra and others, I am slowly developing confidence that there has to be something that everyone is getting attracted to and is ready to sacrifice their lives for the same. The mercy of Krishna, you are making accessible to someone like me who is so undeserving, makes me spell bound, what a magnanimous personality you are Maharaja.

Thank you very much Maharaja for providing your shelter to such an insignificant fool like me. Please bless me Maharaja that I always keep pleasure of devotees in the forefront and render sevas as per the instructions of my seniors.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Although the path of spiritual life seems to get harder and harder for me, I have no palce to turn back. I cannot continue as causally as now since that is causing me sickness, but I cannot turn back because back is most horrible. I have to come to the standard of putting continuous attention. However I am not able to, nor inspired to. If you do not shower causeless mercy now, I am hopeless.

Your example is the beacon light for me, for most all devotees I know. But its so hard. What to speak of getting near your practice, I am not getting strength to follow in your footsteps. You have exhibited continuous attention in your life. Your japa in this Kartika-yatra gave me a strong chastisement to my normal way of inattention to holy name, very often accompanied by sleep, which I am trying to remember everyday. To my surprise, this year I had slept in your lectures in the evening. My attention is reducing day by day instead of increasing. I am not so serious about this fall down on everyday basis, but now I am begging before you – to forgive my shortcomings and bestow your causeless mercy. I don't see any other hope. My consciousness of body is increasing and yet I am thinking am more advanced than others. I don't understand how to practice devotional with such a false ego. My only hope is your causeless mercy. I am begging for mercy, because I have lost my little bit of spiritual taste in my arrogance of achieving something more in my spiritual life. Kindly give me assurance of your being pleased in my endeavors to please you and guide me in that direction.

There are countless physical mental and intellectual benefits I am reaping due to your care for all of devotee communities. But I am feeling bereft of the spiritual benefit you are trying to give me. I want to hear you as attentive as you want me to hear. I want to chant as attentively as you want me to chant. I want to serve as humble as you want me to serve. But I am not seeing how to give shape to all these desires. Kindly allow to fulfill these desires or else my material desires for eating, competing, accumulating, controlling, exploiting are increasing day by day.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances, all glories to Srila Prabhupada, all glories to you and your compassion!

Your presence through your classes has been a transformative guiding light to me - since I first saw you and heard your Srimad-Bhagavatam class at Soho Temple, ISKCON London, Friday 18 May 2007, just 2 weeks after I met devotees at my university, and still today, 17 years later.

I appreciate your deep gratitude and service attitude towards Srila Prabhupada, as that helps me develop my relationship with him too. And from there, I feel more connected to the amazing, incredible devotees Srila Prabhupada has brought together as a global family, on the principle of unity in diversity, to serve Sri Sri Radha Krishna and share the love between ourselves and others around us, as humble channels of grace.

Guru Maharaja, you make Bhakti ever-fresh, exciting and full of noticeable nuances - your mood is so personal and grounds me in the present moment. Thank you for taking me along for the adventure, even though I am sometimes a slow and stubborn straddler. I am thankful for your forgiving nature and patience and also how you challenge me to be a better version of myself and reach my full potential.

In the last 8 months, I have appreciated what I have learnt on my Bhakti journey more than ever. A lot of challenges and changes to navigate on the choppy sea of life.

You often share that Bhakti means to serve with the right mood, the right consciousness: sincere devotional intention behind external action.

You emphasise sincerity, humility and being the servant of the servant enthusiastically; choosing to be a well-wisher - appreciating and encouraging others with love; being tolerant and remaining determined even when life seems unfair, and taking deep shelter of Krishna and the holy names and Srimad-Bhagavatam at all times, and especially at difficult times, without losing faith in Krishna's protection.

I have been working on simplicity in recent times and was recently remembering a verse from Caitanya Charitamrita that Srila Prabhupada mentions in Bhagavad Gita As It Is 2.41:

CC Madhya 22.62

'sraddha'-sabde — visvasa kahe sudrdha niscaya

krsne bhakti kaile sarva-karma krta haya

"Sraddha is confident, firm faith that by rendering transcendental loving service to Krishna one automatically performs all subsidiary activities. Such faith is favorable to the discharge of devotional service.

Bhakti Tirtha Swami has this statement:

"When your desire to serve is beyond your capacity yet you act without hesitation, that is the moment empowerment comes."

These two pieces of wisdom have been woven into my heart to keep me confidently serving with trust and resilience.

And based on that desire, I sincerely pray for your guidance and blessings in any services I am engaged in, by the devotees' and Krishna's mercifully giving me the opportunity, and that I can always be attentively aware of what will please Krishna, in the present moment, with clarity. I pray my plans to serve are in alignment with Krishna's plan for me and his wonderful will, which is best and beneficial for all as He is our well-wisher always and so kind. His devotees even moreso.

In this regard, I am deeply grateful for the association and examples of many wonderful devotees around me, in-person and online: mentors, friends and those who are eager to learn about Bhakti spirituality as a new path. I feel nourished in their company and aspire to work as a team with them to serve guru and Gauranga.

Thank you for always inspiring me to want to increasingly serve in the mood of the third verse of Siksastakam, which is a daily dynamic process.

Due to your association, this aspiration is my deepest wish, greatest joy and highest purpose.

In closing, I wanted to share that my realisation in recent times is that I wish to take more responsibility for my life and help others too.

Everything is there, I just need to be more sincere and serious to align myself to be an instrument, with humility, enthusiasm, discipline, intelligence, integrity, creativity, gratitude and compassion.

Srila Prabhupada wrote in a letter, something which inspired me with this goal I am working on:

"Actually, Krishna offers this intelligence freely to everyone, but only the fortunate persons will take to it. Unfortunate persons will speculate upon the words of Krishna and concoct some meaning according to their own sense gratification. But Krishna and His bona fide representatives are giving this knowledge freely to everyone. Now it is our duty to assimilate this knowledge and practise it. Just like the electric current is equal on all points of the electric system, but different light bulbs will take different amounts of energy. This depends upon the capacity of the bulb to accept the electric current. Similarly, the Lord is not partial to anyone, but according to one's sincere desire to render unalloyed devotional service, so will He respond to enlighten such devotee."

Srila Prabhupada's letter to Steven Hebel, dated December 6th, 1969.

Ending by expressing an ever-growing gratitude for you Guru Maharaja, for all you do to bring us closer to Srila Prabhuada's mood in serving Radha and Krishna and each other: lovingly, pleasingly and joyfully!

Dear Guru Maharaja, I had your first Darshans at Kolkata (Gurusaday Road SB Class) on 8th of October 2023. When You entered the lecture hall, the crowd of devotees surrounded You and I didn't get the chance to see You. So, I also tried to enter the crowd, but my Spiritual Mentor forbade me to do so because You do not like this. When the crowd care team cleared the crowd, then I finally got Your first merciful Darshans, and I was blessed. I can't describe in words how fortunate I felt that time by getting Your first merciful Darshans. After that I got your Darshans in Sridham Mayapur in Sravana Utsava. There I first heard Your Shrimad Bhagavatam lecture live. I was very blessed by hearing You. It was unbelievable for me to realise that I was hearing You live.

Before getting your first Darshans, I heard a lecture glorifying You by HG Amogh Lila Prabhuji. After hearing that lecture, I was stunned that how can anyone go this far for spirituality, for realising God, for finding the real purpose of life. Few months ago, on my birthday, my devotee friend gifted me "The Journey Home". I am really so grateful to You for writing the book. This book was the spark that ignited my spiritual yearning. After reading the Book, I understood that how important Bhakti is in our lives. By Your lecture I am learning many lessons. I feel very blessed to be able to hear from You. Every lecture is imprinting an eternal impact on my life. I love to hear the Gaur Lila lectures given by you and I am trying to hear them everyday.

I thank Krishna so much for allowing me to stay at Sridham Mayapur to attend the Kartika-yatra 2024 Camp. In that camp, I learnt many many profound teachings. I am especially grateful to You for the ecstatic Katha You gave every evening and the MahaPrasadam that You lovingly cooked for all of us. I am till now amazed to experience how at the age of 73 years You were give long long classes effortlessly. How You are still serving hard to liberate fallen souls like us is an inspiration to me. But, I am unable to follow the principles of Bhakti properly. I beg forgiveness from You Maharaja for not following all Your instructions properly. Please forgive me and bless me with Your association both personally and through lectures.

I am totally unqualified to offer you anything but, You are so merciful that You have given me this opportunity to glorify You and offer my prayers. Please bless me with Your divine mercy. So, on Your 74th Vyasa-puja, I am making a commitment to chant my rounds more attentively. May Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Srila Prabhupada always bless you. I pray for your good health and association.

Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for giving all the mercy and teachings.

You are living model of all the teachings of Srila Prabhupada.

Your instructions makes everything so simple.You said,to make your life perfect just chant Hare Krishna and love Krishna and serve devotees.

Your profound lectures are helping and protecting me in every situation.

When I listen to your lectures I feel your presence and shelter.

From your lectures, I understand how deeply you are focused and absorbed in glorifying Krishna.

You are teaching us by your own action "What Krishna Consciousness. mean" always glorifying Krishna and his devotees in all situation.

A true and pure devotee of Lord will always want to give preference to satisfying and please the Lord than their ownselves. That's why you always seek the opportunities to glorify Lord Krishna and devotees.

You are such a wonderful epitome of Humility for all of us to follow.

I beg unto your lotus feet, so that I imbibe this quality of yours to always glorify Krishna and devotees in all situations of my life.

With profound appreciation and gratitude I bow down and beg for your mercy for serving constructively in Japan.

Dear Guru Maharaja, Please accept our humble obeisances. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada and unto you.

This is our first Vyasa-puja offering after taking initiation vows Sept of this year. We remain eternally grateful to you for your unlimited mercy and compassion on insignificant souls like us. Our journey on the path of Krishna Consciousness. is fraught with many challenges but its your instructions and devotees association that is keeping us going. While we are endeavoring to follow your instructions we are no way close. On this auspicious occasion of your appearance we seek your blessings that we may develop spiritual strength to follow your nectarine and most practical instructions. We pray at lotus feet of Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji for your good health.

Thank you Maharaja for connecting us to Guru Parampara
Thank you, Gurudeva for sheltering us by rescuing us from this material world
Thank you Maharaja for creating a devotional ecosystem that has taken care of diverse devotee
Thank you Maharaja for creating so many services for the engagement of devotees

Gurudeva we would like to submit our understanding of how anyone coming in contact with you becomes peaceful and happy through the eyes of Bhagavad Gita 2.66

nästi buddhir ayuktasya na cäyuktasya bhävanä na cäbhävayataù çäntir açäntasya kutaù sukham

One who is not connected with the Supreme [in Krishna Consciousness.] can have neither transcendental intelligence nor a steady mind, without which there is no possibility of peace. And how can there be any happiness without peace?

Gurudeva, since you are connected to Radha Gopinatha, you are bestowed with transcendental intelligence and a steady Mind, and hence, you are peaceful. Thus any fortunate soul who enters that realm of peace becomes happy

Gurudeva we have been fortunate to be counselees of HG Sridama Prabhu and HG Kishore Mataji who have shared your association with us by being transparent via media through regular council meetings, spiritual outings, japa retreats, counseled group dhama yatra, through seva in Dramas, children program, Bhagavatam reading, Zoom japa, and person guidance if in time of medical need. We are thankful for such gems in our lives with whom we find spiritual bliss

Gurudeva we pray at your lotus feet to bless us and that we are pleasing to every living entity, Devotees, and Sadhu to receive the favor of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji

My dear Guru, please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet. Today I pray to the Lord to find words of greeting and praise on your 74th day of appearance.

Your example as a disciple and your desire to do everything to please your spiritual master Srila Prabhupada are so inspiring to me.

You are so kind to every soul, giving us knowledge and your merciful gaze full of love.

I still remember your gaze full of love for me, a sinful soul. Your instructions to give love to everyone have deeply settled in my heart. Your desire that we should take care of our partners as beloved sons of God.

I was encouraged to go to study and learn to care on three levels: physical, emotional, and spiritual. Learn to forgive, sympathize, and respect, and also inspire to serve my husband and all parts of the Lord.

All this, and several more services that, by the grace of the Lord and devotees, I managed to do, I did with the aim of satisfying you. And I gave all the fruits of my service to you. I am grateful to you because you are my main inspirer.

I am so grateful to you that you guide me, protect, and guard me from everything negative. That through dreams you calmed me and gave answers to questions. I felt your presence and love. Thank you for praying for all of us; your prayer supports me so much. Thank you for giving spiritual intelligence. I am so grateful that through your senior disciples, you answered my questions and gave advice in difficult moments. I was so afraid to do something that could upset you, and if I upset you in something, please forgive me. Every day I ask forgiveness from those whom I have offended and hurt; I bow to their feet mentally. I pray for them. I ask them to forgive me, because I am still so sinful; my heart is full of envy and desire for fame.

But I really want to purify my heart and serve your mission.

Please bless me to be like you in the strength of the desire to serve.

Bless me and my husband to be devoted to you and your mission and learn to love all living beings as you do. To preach Krishna Consciousness. and lots of Prasadam.

I wish you much health, strength, and inspiration to preach and inspire all of us and new people to be in Krishna Consciousness. and serve Prabhupada's mission. I pray for your well-being and health. May, by the grace of Krishna, you stay with us on this earth for a long time. And grant us shelter at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

As time goes by me the awareness that we are transient more and more deeply invades my mind. At the same time my awareness increases that I have been and am blessed with spiritual guidance that so deeply and widely presents the most wonderful wisdoms related to Radha and Krishna at the same time. When you so sincerely and truly show how to live bhakti yoga in this challenging age. When you give yourself so immeasurably for your disciples, your God brothers and God sisters and all the people of this world, my gratitude only deepens. At the same time, because of the nature of Kali Yuga, you are a sometimes criticized. However, because you love people, they also love you. Thank you for everything. I only wish to serve you sincerely here and in the other world.

Although I am not at all eligible to receive such mercy, you kindly gave me Brahmin Initiation on the most auspicious occasion of Gaur Pournima (25 Mar 24). Please bless that I can develop a sincere desire for deity worship and render good service for the pleasure of Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Chandra.

Because of some family engagements, we could not attend the Mayapur Kartika-yatra this year. We missed a great opportunity to hear your nectarine discourses and associate with devotees in the holy dham. We wish not to miss such opportunities in the future.

Dear GuruMaharaja, on this special day of your Vyaspuja, we seek your blessings so that we may develop deep appreciation & gratitude for what we have got from you, Srila Prabhupada & our Parampara. Not sure where to begin when it comes to glorifying you, Maharaja; you have given your entire life to the mission of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada. Srila Prabhupada must be very much pleased by your most precious contribution to ISKCON. Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha would be so happy to see how Chowpathy temple is growing and how many new souls are joining this mission of Harinaam Sankirtana under your leadership and guidance. We are so grateful to have gotten this opportunity to listen to your live lectures in Kartika Yatra; it was so blissful.

Dearest Sri Guru Maharaja,

On the occasion of this very auspicious 74th Vyasa-puja day of yours, I offer my humble obeisances to the dust of your lotus feet. I am so grateful to have the opportunity to submit my offerings to you. From the day I read Journey Home, my search for a spiritual master ended. From that very day, my heart accepted you as my spiritual master. Your journey in spiritual quest at the tender age of 19 is so inspiring. Whenever I hear a kirtana from your melodious voice or a lecture, I can see the purity of your heart and a deep sense of separation from Krishna in your heart.

Through your lectures, I have tried to be in your association. Even if I could awaken a pinch of devotional service in my heart through your various teachings, I would consider it receiving an ocean of mercy. Your teachings are so pure, and your instructions and guidance are so simple that they immediately inspire me to follow them. The words spoken by you pierce my heart and instantly awaken me from my ignorance. You are the only spark of light for me in this material world. Through your relentless service and so many preachings, you have uplifted so many fallen souls, and I see hope in those preachings for my own upliftment.

Until I came in contact with ISKCON, I was miserably fallen. It is only after reading Journey Home that I began thinking seriously about my life and understood the purpose of human life. I will try to serve and please Your Holiness in whatever insignificant way I can, whenever I get the opportunity to do so.

Please keep me in your association and prayers. Please shower your blessings upon me so that I can uplift myself a little bit after so many lives. Please guide me in my spiritual journey as I traverse this samsara-davanala. There is no hope for me to awaken my love for Krishna other than your teachings and guidance. I beg you to please, please provide me a little place at your lotus feet so that I can awaken from my fallen condition, feel the separation from Krishna, and attempt to perform devotional service.

Hoping to see you face to face.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Out of all your wonderful qualities, I am wonderstruck by your simple and merciful nature. Last year I had the fortune to have your darshan in Paris and I could see you so simply mingling with everyone as if you knew them from years. There was a God brother of yours, other junior members, some new people who didn't seem to know anything about ISKCON etc. And I could see how you were interacting with them with so much love and compassion and at the same time with complete simplicity. As Bhagvad Gita mentions that a saintly person is never affected by fame or infamy and other dualities. So your interactions whether you are amongst thousands of people or very few are always down to earth and simple. They just charm the heart of anyone who sees it.

I pray at your lotus feet that I can get a drop of such quality and be able to serve you in the mood of the servant of the servant of servant.

Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your feet Gurudeva!

Thank you Maharaja for your divine lectures filled with guru and Krishna's pastimes, which help me revive my spirit of Krishna Consciousness. every time. Maharaja, you have worked very hard to please Srila Prabhupada and his followers, always in the mood of the servant of the servant. Like an acarya, you teach by practising and setting an example yourself.

Maharaja your dealing with your god brothers, disciples etc is so pleasing to my heart. Dear Gurudeva, I am remembering you were preaching so nicely in the USA but you were sent in the most difficult situations in Chowpatty, and you cared for and nurtured the devotees and congregation, who were later on to become instruments in attracting many people to Radha Gopinatha's lotus feet and it became a hub for nation wide and worldwide preaching which is so pleasing to Srila Prabhupada.

Nectarean Krishna katha, your impeccable Sadhana, emphasis on loving relationships and the mood of the servant of the servant in the association with devotees have attracted my heart to you.

However, for the past year or so, it has been a very tough phase for me, dear Maharaja please give me a chance so that I can rectify my mistake and become serious sincere and without ulterior motives and transition from the false promises of maya to relish of Krishna Consciousness.

Please accept this lowly insignificant servant Maharaja I give you my commitment that I will become a sincere devotee and follow your instructions.

I feel incredibly blessed and fortunate to have the opportunity to glorify you. You are always present in my thoughts as a divine representative of God and the glorious disciplic succession. Through your life and teachings, you embody the sacred Word of God, as elucidated and applied by the timeless guru-parampara descending from Krishna Himself.

O spiritual master, ocean of mercy, and dearest friend of the fallen souls! O universal guide and life of all people, I humbly beg for your causeless mercy. Kindly bless us with the cooling shade of your lotus feet, and may your glories be proclaimed across the three worlds.

Among the countless wandering souls in this material world, only the most fortunate are blessed by Krishna's grace to find the shelter of a genuine spiritual master. By the mercy of both Krishna and such a spiritual guide, the seed of bhakti-lata, the creeper of devotional service, is planted in the heart. My wife and I consider ourselves truly fortunate to have received your shelter, and we humbly express our gratitude for your causeless mercy.

Taking refuge at the lotus feet of the spiritual master liberates us from illusion, fear, and distress. If we sincerely and wholeheartedly beg for your mercy without duplicity, you bestow all auspiciousness upon us.

Thank you, Gurudeva, for officially granting us shelter at your lotus feet. Please bless us to follow our initiation vows with steadfastness, sincerity, and unwavering devotion until our final breath.

The words spoken by a pure devotee or spiritual master are to be revered as the voice of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, conveyed through the parampara system:

"When a pure devotee or spiritual master speaks, what he says should be accepted as having been directly spoken by the Supreme Personality of Godhead." — Sri Caitanya Caritamrita, Antya Lila 5.71

We pray for your empowerment to faithfully follow your instructions without deviation, aligning our lives with your sublime teachings. May we always be instruments of your mission and live in harmony with the divine path you have illuminated.

Thank you once again, Gurudeva, for your boundless compassion and mercy upon fallen souls like us.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada. All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga Gurudeva.

First of all, I must acknowledge the great fortune of a small person like me to be associated with your most auspicious and great personality. Recently I was hearing a lecture that you had delivered regarding 'Tolerating Provoking Situations.' You had explained in that lecture how Prabhupada has given a perfect definition to judge the greatness of anyone in the whole universe, and you explained in detail the pastime where sages gathered together to find out the greatest personality in the whole of the universe. Bhrigu Muni was sent to find out who is the greatest amongst Brahma, Vishnu, and Maheswar Ji, and ultimately Vishnu was decided to be the greatest of all, as he tolerated the most provoking situation of being physically hit by the feet of Bhrigu Muni. Then it was explained in the lecture by your good self how Srila Prabhupada explains that anyone's greatness is to be judged by their ability to tolerate provoking situations and how in our lives also we should take a lesson and try to tolerate provoking situations. Maharaja Because you yourself have followed that wonderful teaching of Srila Prabhupada and have tolerated endless difficult situations in your own life, people like me take a lot of inspiration from tolerating the anarthas in our lives, keeping your good example in mind. Not only that, Maharaja, I have seen in my life that whenever I find myself in a provoking situation or turbulent times, I just try to remember your words, which I have heard in lectures, and try to tolerate the difficult situations in my life. This has not only helped me to overcome my mind's endless desires but has also given me confidence that I can also be in your association by remembering your words. Maharaja I am a very sinful person and may be one of the most low-class human beings, although associated with you. But I take inspiration from being in association with my seniors, equals, and newer devotees who try to follow your good self and Srila Prabhupada as Guru in their lives. I feel that devotees around me are expansions of your good self in my life, and when I interact with them, I try to serve Krishna in their association as if I am associating with you. Maharaja I pray for your good health because you are one of the most required persons on this Earth, and may your health be always good because you are inspiring millions and changing the hearts of billions on this planet. Trying to follow your words, although I keep failing every day.

Thank you for creating a community of devotees who are my guiding light and fulfill all the desires of those who get their association. Thank you so much, Gurudeva.

Hare Krishna Dear GuruMaharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance.

I am very grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple. I know I am not qualified, it is just your mercy. It reminds me of how the hippies were favored by Srila Prabhupada.

I want to share something that happened in my life. That again shows how merciful you are and how powerful the Mahamantra is.

I always had a guilty feeling in mind that I didn't love my father-in-law. I didn't like many of his habits. I would think what will happen to me once leave this planet. I will be guilty of not serving him. I always think, but I couldn't serve or love him from the heart.

After receiving the initiation, when I reached home, my father-in-law was not there. He had a cough and cold and often complained about feeling giddiness. At night I came to know from his blood report that he is suffering from leukaemia. We took him to the hospital but didn't admit it because we couldn't afford it. At our own risk, we took him home. I was always praying to the Lord for his protection. My hatred transformed into love and sympathy. We informed our shiksha guru, Dr ShaligramKrishna Prabhu. We spoke to another devotee whose father also suffered from leukemia. They supported us.

I realized it was my GuruMaharaja's mercy that he gave me a chance to love and take care of my father-in-law. And I did. They told me that I might revive for three or four months. But he lived only 20 days after that. We used to take him to Srimad-Bhagavatam class after the lockdown. And my son used to chant one round with him and do kirtana. On his last days, he listened to Mahamantra, Bhagavatam, Bhagavadgita, and other prayers every day. And I gave my tulsimala along with Narasimha kavaca to him.

On his last day, he left his body hono-honoringer from from Sri Radhakund and Shyam kundKunda charanamruth of sro Shaligramki and maha maha Prasada Sri Sri Radharasabhihari.

He used to tease us earlier for joining Hare Krishna. But he got the benefit of chanting and listening to the SrimadBhagavatamin association of devotees.

That is the glory of Harinam. Because of your mercy, I could serve him. He didn't suffer like any other cancer patient. He left peacefully.

Thankyou Maharaja
Please apologize for my mistakes.
I pray to the Lord to keep me at your lotus feet forever. Hare Krishna

Dearest Guru Maharaja
Please accept my most humble obeisances on the dust of Your divine lotus feet.
All glories to Your divine grace. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Though the Lord is worshipable by all, He accepts the devotee as the object of His own devotion. He does not exist independently of His devotee. If the devotee awakens Him, He gets up, if the devotee gives Him a seat, He sits, and if the devotee feeds Him, He eats. The devotee is His heart and He is the heart of the devotee. The Lord knows nothing but His devotee, and the devotee knows nothing other than the Lord. The Lord calls none but the devotee His own, He finds the happiest home in the devotees heart, for it has been made soft by the unrelenting desire to always render Him service. The Lord loudly proclaimed this fact in the famous story of Ambarish Maharaja. When Durvasa muni was unable to find refuge anywhere from the Sudarshana chakra he went to see Lord Narayana, Lord Narayana then glorified the devotees and expressed His love for them in terms that are unequalled anywhere in the scriptures. He said

aham bhakta paradhino hy asvatantra iva dvija sadhubhir grasta hrdayo bhaktair bhakta jana priya

”O Brahmin, I am completely under the control of My devotees. Indeed, I am not at all independent. Because My devotees are completely devoid of material desires, I sit only within the cores of their hearts. What to speak of My devotee, even those who are devotee of My devotee are very dear to Me.”

And You are such a devotee O Gurudeva, who is uninteruptedly rendering service to the supreme Lord and within the core of Your heart the Supreme Lord is sitting because You are anyabhilasita sunya, as Srila Prabhupada explains in the purport, who is devotee. You are all in all to Krishna and Krishna is all in all to You. Neither You nor Krishna can tolerate moment of sepration from each other. It is clear that anyone who wishes to attain Krishna’s mercy must first seek the intercession of His devotee. Srila Prabhupada also quotes Srila Narottam das Thakur in his purport to the above verse, ‘chadiya Vaisnavaa-seva nistara payeche keba’, without being devotee of devotee one cannot be released from material entanglement.

But I am so fallen, the fact that I am still materialy entangled proves so long I have simply made a pretense of being initiated, I have not done that which a surrendered soul should do. I have not strictly followed Your instructions, thus I have not made even a little advancement in spiritual life. All the contamination in my heart prior to initiation are still there today, so how is there any hope of my attaining the divine realization which is said to be the real sign of initiation? Like a lump of iron my heart is without feelings. Even though I chant the holy names it does not melt.

O Gurudeva, You who see no fault in anyone. Be generous to me and give me Your mercy. Please help me to be free of all offences so I develop a taste for the Holy names which You have instructed me to chant. Allow me to earn the right to be called the genuine servant of Your servant. With Your divine vision, You see me perfectly, externally and internally. You know everything I do, therefore I pray that everything I do-my behaviour, my devotional service- be a source of pleasure to You. I am so useless and fallen that on this most auspicious day I am suppose to offer something to You instead of that I am begging from You.

Eternally Your beggar

Sincerely grateful to you, Maharaja, for your constant association that you are providing us. By personal example, you show us that by aspiring to be simple, humble, sincere, and determined, we can please Sri Guru and Gauranga. Kindly bless us that we may follow in your footsteps at least once in this lifetime.

Forever grateful to you for accepting us and showing your compassion in so many ways and unbounded kindness to fallen conditioned souls like us.

Your mercy is all we are dependent on, life after life.

Dear Radhanath Swami Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

As I reflect on the last year, you have been travelling so much lately and reaching out to so many souls. You are following Srila Prabhupada's example so perfectly, travelling and sharing the teachings of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

I am trying to make a little difference in the Upper St. Clair, PA area to the people by sharing Krishna Consciousness. and making good, friendly relationships. Our Bhakti Vriksha program is going well, and we meet weekly and do Hare Krishna Kirtana & Japa meditation, discuss the Bhagavad Gita, and honor Krishna Prasadam. We travel to New Vrndavana frequently to attend festivals and render services. We always remember you and your time there. Your words nourish us every moment of our life, and we are always eager to hear either current talk or previous talks. I beg for your forgiveness and mercy that I may not commit any offenses to people and become helpful in their Krishna Consciousness..

Hare Krishna!
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet, Gurudeva.

This is my first attempt to write something about you, and I find myself at a loss for words. I am a fallen soul, entirely unqualified to glorify you, but for my purification, I would like to share my heartfelt sentiments.

The first time I read The Journey Home, I was profoundly moved. Your life's journey, filled with humility, courage, and unwavering devotion, revealed the depth of your pure soul. Every moment in the book felt like a divine lesson, and your humility, as soft and gentle as a blade of grass, became an inspiration for my heart.

Gurudeva, your innocent, childlike smile radiates love and melts the hearts of all who have your darshan. It is a window to your pure and compassionate nature, and it draws me closer to Krishna Consciousness..

When I had my very first darshan of you in Vrndavana, my heart was deeply touched in a way that words cannot describe. That moment reaffirmed my desire to seek shelter under your lotus feet.

Gurudeva, I pray for your mercy, that I may one day become worthy of serving you and pleasing you through sincere devotion and humility.

Your servant always,

It is an immense opportunity to dedicate this offering to you on your auspicious Vyasa-puja. I have no qualification but it's by your causeless mercy that I am able to walk steadily on the path of bhakti. You are an inspiration to many around the world and a beacon of grace for many seekers. You have set an example with your dedication to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. Your Holiness has perfectly fulfilled the desires of Srila Prabhupada and Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha. Kindly allow this fallen soul to serve Your Holiness with love and devotion.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances,

I'm thankful for this opportunity to recollect and remember few of your glorious qualities and pastimes.

Many years ago, during the initial days of my KC, I heard a clipping of HH Jaya Pataka Maharaja glorifying you as a sadhu. But, isn't HH Jaya Pataka Maharaja an exalted sadhu himself? It didn't strike me at that time. Over the years I heard various pastimes that related your vision in projects, mood in dealing with devotees, guiding principles in the practice of Krishna Consciousness... For example, how you deal with Madhu Pandit Pr, how you're keen on reconnecting the deserted disciples of SP, how you dealt with Kirtanananda Maharaja when he came to Mumbai towards the later part of his life. Jaya Pataka Maharajas words now make full sense and they couldn't be more accurate. One pastime, a more recent incident, reminded me how sensitive you are in your dealings.

On the disappearance day of Srila Prabhupada all senior disciples of Srila Prabhupada were giving heartfelt offerings and everyone was rapt in attention, except the managers. Je anilo prayers were supposed to begin at 725 and it's 720 already. HG Shyamanand pr was advancing towards the stage to do something he definitely didn't want to - request the speaker to stop!

Maharaja quickly sent Pranavanda Pr to stop Shyamanand pr. He knew perfectly well about purpose of singing Je anilo prayers - to express our deep feelings our separation from Prabhupada and thereby go closer to him - and knew the perfect way to go about the situation by keeping everyone content in their means to serve

I'm extremely grateful for your exemplary presence in our lives and not just inspiring us but also providing us with all the means to live upto the instructions of yours

I hope and pray to Their Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Srila Prabhupada that they bless us with more association of yours for otherwise what hope do we have?

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja!!
Please accept my humble obeisances!

It's been a year since I've decided to be your disciple, when I first attended your live lecture at Pune. Earlier I used to just hear your lectures, but could grasp much. It was very difficult for me to understand your mood and imbibe it. But the more I heard your lectures, the more clarity I started getting.

Since then, I've been eager to get your association and you have been very merciful to grant it. During the Nayan Unmilan and the Pran Prathishta ceremony of Sri Sri Radha Govind dev ji Mandir, Thane, I got your close association and personal service too. I was fortunate to attend your lecture at IIT Bombay and associate with you at HG Gaura Hari Pr's home. It was on that day that I decided to take the vow of wearing Kanthi mala.

I was also very fortunate to attend my first ever Kartika-yatra at Sri Dham Mayapur and could that association of you, HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja, HH Chandramouli Swami Maharaja, HH Bhakti Purushottam Swami Maharaja and all senior Vaisnavas. It was definitely a nourishing and inspiring experience. The atmosphere of the pandal was electrifying when you started the Kirtana. The Kathas which you gave us a virtual tour of the Dham, and entry into the pastimes of Lord Nimai, as if we were personally present at the time of the Lord's birth in Nabadwip Dham.

It feels that I've got a direction in life and your example inspires me to continue in Krishna Consciousness. and extend myself to serve the mission of the Lord and you. You gave the lecture in IIT Bombay, despite not being well. I was moved by your sincerity and dedication in serving the mission of your Guru Maharaja and delivering the fallen conditioned souls. I request for your blessings in the services which I'm doing, so that I can please my superiors and you.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Sri Sri Nimai Nitai, Sri Sri Giridhari Gopalji, Srila Prabhupada and all the Vaisnavas for your good health, so that you can propagate the mission of Srila Prabhupada all over the world, and shower us with your mercy.

Dear Maharaja,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
Please accept my humble obeisances.

In this world of constant struggle for existence, my life is wholly sustained and guided by your lectures. You answer every question I could ever ask. Your lectures nourish my spiritual life and help me experience Krishna's presence in my day-to-day activities. They provide the wisdom I need to see and address everything in the light of Srimad-Bhagavatam.

You give me hope and a clear sense of direction toward attaining spiritual happiness. However, I feel insignificant and weak, constantly struggling to meet the expectations, standards, and aspirations you set. I stumble repeatedly, making mistakes, yet I try to rise again and continue. You are like a mighty banyan tree, sheltering and guiding so many, while I am like a small seed, struggling to sprout and grow for your pleasure.

Recently, my name was added to the initiation list, but I feel deeply unqualified for this honor. I am ashamed of my inadequacies but also aware that I must work earnestly on my purity and commitment. Under the guidance of your worthy disciple, HG Maharaas Prabhu, who exemplifies focus and dedication in spiritual life, I am striving to bring the same focus into my own life. I listen to his lectures (though I must make this a regular practice) and try to follow his instructions.

I am reminded of the immense responsibility of assisting you in your mission and service to your spiritual master, His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. Yet, I am currently preoccupied with pursuing my career. I pray that, by your grace and the Supreme Lord's mercy, I may secure a proper position in life to serve you, please you, and attempt to repay you in some way.

Whatever I am, both internally and externally, I am wholly yours, Maharaja. Kindly accept me as your servant and place me at your lotus feet. Please bless me with the strength to serve you, please you, and make tangible spiritual progress.

Dear Guru Maharaja, please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I see you, dear guru Maharaja, as an example of dedication and inspiration for many of us, your disciples, and many others; your heart is so great that it is difficult to understand you.

I see you always trying to help people, and I am so inspired by your compassionate heart in trying to follow you.

I have this desire, Maharaja: to know your deeper realizations in your soul, your relationship with our dear most Srila Prabhupada, and the divine couple. Praying, praying, praying to have this divine darshan, but always grateful for what I receive daily from you.

I am here, Maharaja, trying to go deeper into myself, trying to find out what true Krishna Consciousness. is. What I found? Deep darkness is always there in the mental plane, but hoping to be relieved of this obscurity, always confident that the grace will descend in a stronger and illuminating way.

I know that I am a small, insignificant insect trying to catch the moon. Really, I don't know what my final realization in this life will be because at the present time I do not have anything deep that the scriptures describe as a loving relationship with the divine couple and his devotees. From my small brain, mind, intelligence, and heart, I don't see the powerful love described in the sastra.

Anyways, I am here fighting with this strong energy of Maya, trying to serve in some ways.

Always confident in your grace and affectionate love, embracing your feet...

My Dandavat Pranamaa to HH Radhanath Maharaja for eternity.

Your lotus feet are the shelter of bliss and auspiciousness of Krishna Consciousness. in this dark age of Kali where people like me born with inherent faults, misfortune, greed, and lust have some chance to become a sane person spiritually.

I mark the day I met you for the first time in my life as the watershed moment. From there on I have received all the mercy of various Vaisnavas and Acaryas through your causeless mercy.

I had no idea what spirituality and Krishna Consciousness. is to begin with and even now the journey continues on this path by your grace in search of eternal truth. Whatever good deeds and fame I have in this world is because of your penultimate blessings.

I might have hardly come face to face with you twice or thrice and that I have been initiated by you is the ultimate fortune you have bestowed on this foolish and disgraceful soul.

My goal is always to assist Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir and ISKCON at large and I will strive for that till the end.

I pray to their Lordships Sri Radha Gopinatha ji to give you physical and mental strength and to guide fallen souls like us and may you keep spreading the fragrance of pure devotion to this material world as a disciple of HDG AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada and keep shining as an illustrious personality in disciplic succession of the Gaudiya Vaisnava Sampradaya

Your teachings and your service attitude towards the devotees inspire all of us. In a very exemplary way, you teach us the mood of becoming an eternal disciple by displaying your unconditional pure love for Srila Prabhupada. Please, Guru Maharaja, instill in our hearts a drop of that mood of servitorship for your divine grace as you have for Srila Prabhupada.

Since we have been initiated, we have tried to follow your instruction to the best extent. Srila Gurudeva, as you mention that preaching is the mood of the spiritual master, we try our best to preach every chance we get. I have completely depended on your mercy on this. By your mercy only, we can perform devotional service without any difficulties and can be successful also.

Last but not least, your health is of great importance for all the devotees. We beg the mercy of Shri Shri Radha Gopinatha to keep

To My Beloved Guru Maharaja (Nanna),

I feel immense gratitude every single day for your divine presence in my life. Yet, as an insignificant soul, I have nothing truly worthy to offer at your lotus feet. I am striving to remain in Krishna Consciousness. daily, but I find myself struggling. However, one thing is certain: you are my Nanna (Father in Telugu), and in my spiritual journal, I lovingly refer to Srila Prabhupada as Thathayya (Grandfather).

All I desire in life is to reach a stage where my only purpose is to please you, Srila Prabhupada, and ultimately, Krishna. Not just as a fleeting wish but as the essence of my entire existence. I know I am not there yet, but the day I achieve this will be the most sincere offering I can place at your lotus feet. On that day, I hope you will find me worthy of being recommended to the Lord for His eternal service.

Maharaja, even to be a sincere disciple, I rely entirely on your mercy. I am undeserving in every way, yet I humbly pray that, by your endless kindness, you might consider me even 1% worthy of your oceanic compassion. If that were to happen, it would be the greatest blessing of my life, and I would remain eternally grateful.

I am aware of how flawed and unworthy I am, and I am confident that I am your most fallen disciple. Yet, just as a loving father embraces his child, regardless of their shortcomings, I beg you to accept me in the same way.

This is my first Vyasa-puja offering unto your lotus feet, and I humbly beg forgiveness for any offenses I may have unknowingly committed through this. I have done my best to express my feelings in words, though they fall far short of what is in my heart.

Your ever-aspiring servant,

Hare Krishna!
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga!
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

As I sit down to write this Vyasa-puja offering, I am deeply humbled by the realization of how ungrateful I have been. Despite receiving an ocean of blessings from you, I rarely take the time to reflect on them or express my gratitude.

Today, in the process of writing this offering, I attempted to recount the priceless gifts I have received through your causeless mercy. Though my heart is not yet fully grateful, I feel inspired to enumerate just a few of these invaluable blessings:

1. Kartika Yatras:

Being settled in Akola, these yatras are the only opportunity I have to receive your direct association. They serve as spiritually charged fuel that sustains my Sadhana-bhakti throughout the year. Witnessing the devotees serving together in harmony during these yatras fills my heart with inspiration and renews my determination to serve sincerely.

2. The Chowpatty Ashram Experience:

The time I spent as a part of the Chowpatty ashram was transformational. It gave me a broader perspective on bhakti and a deeper understanding of how to integrate it into my life practically and holistically.

3. Devotee Care Initiatives:

Your vision of a well-structured devotee care system has been life-changing. The counselor system, Bhaktivedanta Hospital, and Gopal's Garden school reflect your compassionate approach to nurturing devotees and their families both spiritually and materially.

4. Experiencing Vrndavana through GEV:

Govardhan Ecovillage (GEV) has given me a tangible experience of Vrndavana's spiritual essence. It stands as a model of simple living and high thinking, reinforcing the principles of bhakti in my life.

5. Scriptural Study through Bhaktivedanta Vidyapitha:

Your encouragement to study and delve deeply into scriptures through Bhaktivedanta Vidyapitha has been a profound blessing. It has given me the tools to understand the philosophy of Krishna Consciousness. more deeply and apply it in my life.

These are just a few of the innumerable gifts you have showered upon me. I know there is so much more that I have not even recognized, let alone expressed gratitude for. Yet, in my heart, I know that every aspect of my spiritual journey has been touched and transformed by your mercy.

Though I have written this offering at the last moment and feel its inadequacy, I pray that you kindly forgive my shortcomings and accept it as a small token of my gratitude.

Some causeless mercy brought me to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Temple. I was just curious to see what happens there.

I saw you speaking so much profound philosophy. I was dumb struck. I always had a false ego that we Indians know so much of philosophy. That day I realised that there is so much depth in Krishna Consciousness..

Then I became a regular visitor to the temple. Your simplicity & soft spoken behaviour surprised me.

Thus till this day I have sustained myself in Krishna Consciousness. by hearing your classes, chanting, reading Srila Prabhupada's books.

Our lifestyle has totally changed. From eating Junks we are eating Krishna Prasada. Instead of going for luxury tour we are coming for Yatras. Temple programs are more enlivening than TV programmes. All these culture you have instilled in us by your constant association and endeavours.Even your well trained and cultured disciples are following your instructions thoroughly and passing in the legacy.I pray on this auspicious day that I I live by all your instructions sincerely. I also pray that Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji give you and your disciples a long & healthy life ahead. So that we all and others to come will benefit in the years to come.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and to your Holiness.

The philosopher Chanakya Pandit gave parenting advice that Srila Prabhupada would sometimes quote. He said that for the child's first five years, the parent should simply shower them with love. From age 5 to 16, the parent should discipline the child and emphasize strictness. And once the child turns 16, the parent should treat them like a friend.

Maharaja, I've always looked at you as my spiritual parent. This year, I'm reflecting on how perfectly you embody Chanakya's advice in our relationship.

When I first met you, I was an awkward and troubled teenager—literally still a kid. But you never made me feel less than anyone else. You showered me with so much unconditional love and patience. You overlooked my countless missteps and embarrassing shortcomings and just encouraged me. I remember once you accepted my family's invitation to have lunch at our home. I was so happy and insisted on serving you. I lay down a sheet on the floor of our den, and we sat on the floor. You asked that I eat with you too. But still I wanted to be the one to scoop seconds onto your plate or offer you items—and I did that, even though my hands and mouth were not clean and I was also in the middle of eating.

But you didn't seem disturbed at all; you just treated it like we were one big happy family eating together.

But then about five years after we first met, things changed. After you graciously offered me initiation in 1998, you reminded me that I had a responsibility to represent you and the parampara. You expected me to be thoughtful and sensitive, especially towards other devotees. And when I kept stumbling and failing, you would correct and even chastise me. Sometimes, especially if my actions were really problematic or causing a disturbance to Vaisnavas, you didn't hesitate to correct me publicly. My godsiblings consoled me that I was getting "special mercy" or "the sauce." But I just felt miserable. I remember one day after I made an especially big blunder and you called me out about it, I thought I just couldn't take it anymore. I asked for a meeting with you. I was sitting in front of you in your room and sobbing and saying that I just always felt like a fool. You looked at me with a loving but very firm gaze and said, "Well, it's nice to feel like a fool in front of the spiritual master... but we should try to actually NOT be foolish. We should try to do something about it." And then you said something that seemed almost mystical. You said, "It is time for you to grow up." You said that you saw potential in me and that you wanted me to step into that potential. And just like that, the weight of sorrow lifted from my shoulders. I knew you saw and loved me.

In 2009, almost exactly 16 years after we first met, our relationship shifted yet again. Now the mood of instruction and correction gave way to conversations about what was going on in each of our lives. You shared experiences and revealed more and more of your personal feelings. You sometimes requested my opinion or advice or asked for specific feedback, especially as your outreach began to take you into newer territory. You took me on walks, and sometimes we just sat together with few words spoken between us. Once, a few years ago, when we were sitting by the Yamuna at GEV, I exclaimed that I just couldn't understand why you gave me so much of your time and attention, why you treated me like a friend. Surely I didn't deserve it. "It just doesn't make any sense!" I exclaimed. You smiled and answered matter-of-factly, "Love doesn't make sense. Love is beyond sense. I love you and like to spend time with you."

It still doesn't make sense to me, but I recently re-read the Bhagavatam verse in which Kapila Dev enunciates the ornaments of a sadhu, sadhu-bhasanam. One of them, "suhrid-sarva-dehinam"—being the friend of all beings. This is just who you are, Maharaja. You are eager to be our friend... patiently waiting for us to grow into that friendship.

Thank you for being my indulgent and patient father, for being my guide and teacher, challenging me to grow into my better self, and for being my well-wishing friend.

My family and I love you, and we are so grateful for the gift of you in our lives.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,
Pls accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja I humbly express my heartfelt gratitude at your lotus feet for taking care of my spiritual life.

Though I am still NOT serious about the urgency of the message of Krishna Consciousness., you are kind enough to encourage me in my faulty endeavours to please Krishna.

Your unconditional love and selfless efforts are evident in your -

1. Classes you give wherein you pour every ounce of your realisations and energy to inspire me in my Bhakti. Whenever I hear them with a sincere heart and attention I see a change in my consciousness. They are very potent and if I regularly listen to your vani I will always stay protected.

I just pray that one fine day I get the desire and eagerness to hear you everyday.

2. Spiritual retreats where thousands and thousands of devotees take shelter of the holy dham and your vani. So much efforts your sincere followers are taking to inspire thousands of devotees worldwide. This time in Mayapur the yatra was spiritual uplifting and again I see this as your endeavour to improve my Krishna Consciousness..

I just pray that one fine day I have enough gratitude to hear every word coming from your lotus mouth with full attention and dance like a child when you perform Naam Sankirtana.

3. Senior disciples who are always eager to share their realisations and your teachings with me. They have taught me so much and they constantly pray for me. Without them I will be lost Gurudeva. HH Bhakti Rasamrita Swami, HG Radheshyam Prabhu, HG Anand Vrndavana Prabhu, HG Jhanava Mataji, HG Rupa Goswami Prabhu and many more are always checking on how I am doing and supporting my small endeavours of Krishna Consciousness.. They represent you perfectly so serving them and following their instruction is like following you, with this understanding I am looking forward to advance in my Krishna Consciousness. one day to have your loving glance.

I just pray that one day I am eager to serve senior devotees more and more and this one day down how please you with my endeavour.

Gurudeva, one day I read a beautiful offering of heart of HH Satsvarupa Das Goswami Maharaja in which he shared that how he felt one day that maybe Prabhupada didn't love him. I guess it was during the early days when Prabhupada was still present on the planet. After days of introspection Maharaja came to the conclusion that it was not the love of Prabhupada which was missing but his love for Prabhupada. I see myself in the same way. Your love is always there for me it's just that I can't see it Maharaja and the day I clear my vision by the endeavours to follow your instruction I will for sure feel it in my heart.

I just hope that one fine day I can feel that love in my heart.

Thank you very much.

Respected Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Trying to count your blessings upon us is like trying to drops of rain during a thunder shower!

You gave us everything... from association of Vaisnavas, to yatras, lectures, kirtanas, personal guidance, beautiful temples. Yet you never took any credit for yourself and instead passed all credit to Srila Prabhupada and Guru Parampara.

You remained humbly in the background, working tirelessly day and night, not thinking about your own needs or health. This reminds me the words from a famous song, "All gave some, but some gave all!" Every atom of your mind, body and soul, you engaged in doing welfare of others.

You taught us by your words, actions and behavior of how to spend this life gloriously in the service of others. And there is no greater service in this world than to give Krishna Consciousness. to others.

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th appearance day, I pray at your lotus feet that I may become an instrument of sharing your compassion with others.

That I may give up my petty weaknesses and take up Krishna Consciousness. more seriously, recommit myself to this transcendental process of self-realization.

Thank you.
Praying for your good health.

Dear Spiritual Master,

Please accept my dandwats at your lotus feet. I'm in immense debt for your causeless mercy unto me. You have always shown me a clear path whenever I was stuck spiritually as well as materially. You showed me how love and humility can conquer any obstacle. You are love personified, and just like your name, your qualities are driven from Srimati Radharani. Without your compassion, I would not be even able to stand in this movement. You're a true disciple of Srila Prabhupada, and I sincerely desire to follow your footsteps.

I want to get initiated by you and spend my entire life in your service and see your priceless smiling face turn towards me. I want to follow you like a sunflower follows the sun in every direction.

Please bless and accept this insignificant being to serve your divine lotus feet.

Please accept my respectful obseinces unto your divine Lotus feet.
A very Happy Vyasa-puja Gurudeva!
Writing something as an offering for one's Guru Maharaja is the most beautiful opportunity one could ever get.

You are the most adorable and precious gift of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha and Srila Prabhupada to us Gurudeva. Thank you for everything.I always used to be very much attached to you speaking about Lord Krishna but the day I heard Gaur katha from your Lotus mouth, there is no going back. How much love you carry for Gaur Nitai can't be describe in words totally inconceivable. Gurudeva, when I heard the lines from The Journey Home that whenever you applied your mind to something, it is with intense absorption,We can actually by your grace, able to witness that bhava in everything you do-your ecstatic kirtanas are filled with so much love for Krishna, the way you call out for Lord so intensely, your love for revealing and reciting kathas without time limit, doing parikramas, chanting the holy name, dancing in kirtanas or assisting Srila Prabhupada in everything.

You always teach us with your own example to be in the mood of humble servant of servant of servant of the Lord, to always take shelter of holy name in all situations, to maintain heart warming loving exchanges with devotees, to live so simple in and out, to always smiling beautifully in gratitude and many many more.

Thank you again and again my dear Gurudeva for always guiding me, teaching me how and what to aspire for, to share the reality of this world,always making me understand and realise the importance of having devotees' association and friendships in life.

As only by your causeless mercy, I was able to see you once in front of me (that feels like the most wonderful and beautiful moment of my life and as I have got everything), in that way I hope one day, I could serve you and bring that beautiful smile on your Lotus face. That's what I am aspiring for. But I am not capable of doing anything without your mercy dear Gurudeva as your presence illuminates my dark life. I pray to your beloved Lordships Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to always keep you in the best health. Please forgive me Guru Maharaja for mistakes/offenses that I have done knowingly or unknowingly in serving Lord and his beloved devotees.

Hare Krishna,Dear Gurudeva,Pls accept our humble obeisances at your lotus feet.First of all pls accept the greetings from Raaghav and Vasudha for most wonderful arrangements in Kids Zone in Yatra,which also included various gifts this time,infact total 62 gifts received by both.Dear Gurudeva, out of your unlimited qualities,one is to explain the essential philosophical truths in very simple way,this year while explaining the Childhood pastimes of Nimai,you explained the essence of Leele when all the ladies would chant Hare Krishna whenever Nimai would cry and Chanting would make Nimai Happy,Maharaja you explained that Nimai would be happy because those ladies would chant without any motive but just to please Nimai.This way you explained the principle of Ahaituki Bhakti. Dear Gurudeva when I look in my heart I can clearly see it's is filled with so many desires while even trying to engage in Bhakti,.Pls bless me so that I could also be engaged in Ahaituki Bhakti one day and please you.

Dear Gurudeva you also explained once that to the degree we can glorify Krishna which obviously includes his devotees,to that degree we are free from false ego,this statement looks like to me a barometer of spritual progress,It's so difficult to wholeheartedly glorify Krishna and specially devotees,because my heart is filled with so much ego and you do it so spontaneously because you have no ego,please bless me on this auspicious day so that I could learn to glorify Krishna and specially devotees.

Dear Gurudeva at the end of the Yatra while thanking all the devotees who did various sevas,you explained that they will be happy if all the devotees are happy by their seva.Thank you Maharaja for so simply yet profoundly explaining the purpose of seva which is to please devotees without any other motive,may by your mercy I also get some service attitude along with right spirit of service attitude and be of some service to you.

Thank you Very Very much Maharaja giving me a chance to write a glorification for you. A very Fallen soul Maharaja I don't have a single good qualification, then to how merciful you are to me giving a chance to write something about for you.

Once your brahmacari disciple asked you Maharaja pls give me personal instruction you replied you listen my lecture, again he asked, you replied the same,then again he asked,then you said you hear my lecture which instruction you like that is my personal instruction for you. But Maharaja I am most fallen whenever I hear your lecture I like all your instruction but I am unable to follow not even a small instruction. Pls bless me Maharaja so that by following your instruction I can do unlimited service for our Beloved Jagad Guru HDG A.C Bhakti Vedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada's movement. I have so much anarthas that I am unable to hear your lectures attentively,or chant attentively, or do service in service attitude mood. when my authority give me even a small service I get angry internally. Pls Maharaja I want to become Servant of the servant of the servant..... now I have boss mentality.

Pls bless me Maharaja,Pls Bless Me Maharaja, Pls Bless Me Maharaja I want to become like Kolavecha Sridhar. When I heard your lecture "My Favourite Verse " from that day I have only one desire to become like Kolavecha Sridhar but practically my behaviour is completely opposite. Pls bless Maharaja. I am Just writing not in a mood of Guru Bhakti. Pls bless Me Maharaja. PLs forgive any offence while writing this offering

Guru Maharaja Offering 2024
My dear Guru Maharaja,
This year has been a wonderful year for many reasons.

I have been able to make sincere efforts in Bhakti by your mercy and the mercy of the Vaisnavas. I have been given some responsible service, for which I am very, very grateful. Without the service, my spiritual life felt very hollow and unsatisfying. I always used to feel that I was not able to do any justice to the love and care showered upon me by the devotees. The devotees are very merciful and forgiving. For almost the last two years, they have been showering their love unconditionally without expecting anything in return. Be it the devotees in VOICE who have always been eager to bring us Prasadam at the time of need, or our very big-hearted grihastha devotees who have accepted us with open arms, we are very grateful to them, and now we have also got our chance to show our gratitude.

The day HG Acyuta Mohan Prabhu called me and asked me to make up some documents on initiation, I really felt that I had some meaning to my life. Now, he has given me the responsibility of coordinating all the initiations of our temple. All that I pray is that I am able to live up to his expectations and carry on my service for your, the devotees', and Krishna's pleasure.

Another service that has been bestowed upon me is to inspire our devotees by repeating the words of the acaryas and shastras. While I am not at all qualified to carry on such a huge service, I am trying my best to do the service only for the pleasure of my mentor and the devotees. I need your blessings and mercy, Maharaja, to be able to carry on this service. Apart from this, I also give a few talks on different occasions to inspire new, upcoming devotees in Krishna Consciousness.. Now, I have requested devotees' permission to interact with more devotees from Prayagraj so that I can be of some help to them as well.

Somehow, by Krishna's grace, my wife is slowly taking to Bhakti as well. I can see her eagerness to serve devotees, and I am trying my best to engage her in the service of devotees by having different programs at our home, with the hope that by serving devotees in different ways, she will receive the mercy of devotees and will very soon take to Bhakti with all her heart. Specifically, I am trying to have our leaders' class at home where we cook and serve Prasadam to all the devotees.

Maharaja, but there are some services which are still to be done. First, HG Acyuta Mohan Prabhu wants some books to be written, which I need to focus on and complete so that his preaching activities can grow multifold in the West. I need your blessings, Maharaja, to complete this service.

Another very, very important service that I need to start very soon is the house program service. HG Acyuta Mohan Prabhu is really wanting to have a house program inside the campus. This is also the desire of HG Radhesyam Prabhu. I have given my word to my mentor that I will start it at my place just to please him, Maharaja. I have absolutely no idea how to go about it. But just for his, HG Radhesyam Prabhu's, your, and Srila Prabhupada's pleasure, I need to start this service very soon. Please bless that this little endeavor pleases the entire guru parampara.

Finally, Maharaja, there is a small desire in my heart to learn performing yajnas because, in Varanasi, there is a dire need for a devotee priest. I still need to get blessings from my mentor for the same. If you and your representatives feel that this is a suitable service for me and I am suitable for it, then I would like to put in my everything in this service for your pleasure. This would be a good service for the temple and the devotees.

Maharaja, very recently in one lecture, you mentioned that we should not chant just for the sake of it. Rather, we need to chant with all our heart and soul just to please Krishna. I am very much struggling in this regard. The mind just takes me for a jolly ride every time. I am trying my best. However, now I have the opportunity to do the morning program with devotees. Please bless me that I am able to take full advantage of this and be sincere in my Sadhana. Since I have plenty of time now, I am planning to read Srimad-Bhagavatam as much as possible for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada. Also, Maharaja, this year we have bought a new altar for Their Lordships. This is a small effort from my side to engage all the earnings in the Lord's service.

This year, we are in the process of welcoming our second child as an offering to Radha Gopal ji. All our prayers are that both of my children become your devotees and make service to Srila Prabhupada's mission their only goal in life. This is my only prayer for me, my wife, and your children. Lord Nrisimha Deva has been very, very merciful to us for giving us another chance to practice bhakti in this same lifetime. The car accident which we encountered would have been fatal. It cannot be anything else but your causeless mercy that all of us survived. I feel we should be grateful and dedicate all our lives only in your service, leaving aside all other material things. This is the only prayer I have. But Maharaja, as the mind is what it is, it very easily distracts me from bhakti and engages in all sorts of nonsense. Please bless that I am able to be sincere in my practice of Sadhana bhakti.

Maharaja, the Kartika-yatra seems to be a big inspiration for my wife. I sacrificed my hearing for the sake of her hearing, with the only hope that she grows leaps and bounds in bhakti by your association, with the ultimate aim to just serve the mission of Srila Prabhupada for the pleasure of the Guru Parampara. I want to be able to continue and increase my services in quality and quantity with time, and I really need your mercy for the same, without which I am just useless, Maharaja.

You are an ocean of mercy, and if I am able to sincerely take shelter of even a drop of it, my life will be perfect.

You're taking so much efforts to take devotees more towards Krishna.

Despite having lot of health issues for the pleasure of Krishna and devotees you effortlessly giving you guidance.

Gurudeva I am becoming dry in Krishna conscious, also there is no taste in chanting as I am doing lot of offences, I am trying to hear your lectures but I forget the lessons.

I am not putting my sincere efforts for progressing in Krishna Consciousness...

Gurudeva I will try to read 1 page per day Prabhupada books and also will try to hear 30 min every day.

Please bless me so I can do less offence and chant attentively

I cannot thank you enough but still wish to thank you for the great mercy you have bestowed upon us in the form of your sincere devotees, in the association of whom we are able to practice bhakti..

The association of devotees is indeed an incomparable fortune which has been bestowed upon us.

During 2012 maha kumbh at Varanasi, while I was serving Prasadam, you caught hold of my hand and mercifully touched my palm and instructed me in appreciation - " Yes, serve devotees". This small reciprocation from you is my life and soul..I cherish those words which came as blessings to me.. My life's purpose is to truly live by it by overcoming all my shortcomings.

All Glories to Srila Prabhupad

Maharaja first & foremost I would like to express my deepfelt gratitude as your grace is always available in the form of your sweet & profound lectures, your gem like disciples and the loving counselor system you have blessed me with. Through it I could get the love of my counsellor HG Pankaj gop prabhu. Through which I could experience the eternal love Krishna has for me however fallen I was, I was given a chance to stand up again & serve even in the most tough situations. And to whom I could love transparently.

You always shared the mood of being servant of the servant of devotees of the Lord & exemplified it. By your grace & mercy of your disciples I was made part of the Kitchen services at my very first Kartika-yatra at Sridham Mayapur this year, where I could relish the joy of serving in that mood. Its difficult to understand the mood by head,its only an experience,of the heart that comes through serving Vaisnavas. At yatra I could hear from you at a stretch for a week, In association of exalted Vaisnavas by which I could hear sincerely. My senses would be fully active & absorbed from beginning till end of the lecture, eyes wide open, ear hungry for hearing, hands enthusiastic for writing, heart desperate to relish.

Your love for your Godbrothers, their disciples is the source of inspiration for inculcating cooperation in our community, which HDG Srila Prabhupada wanted us to do the most. Your deep focus & priority to relationship with each other is the foundation of our loving community. I aspire to prioritize the same & follow in your footsteps Maharaja.

I got your first darshan in person at Radhaashthami festival at iskon chowpathy in Sep 2023. It was very mesmerizing to see you circumulating around tulsi maharani, then I sat in front row & heard the nectarian pastimes of divine couple, we all sat tight in the temple hall. As HG Gauranga Prabhu rightly mentioned before the class Yat gatva nivartante!

Then you blessed me with your darshan at GEV in feb 2024 where I could offer obesiences to you personally & you waited for us till we completed our obesiences & got up. Your gestures like this for insignificant person like me made me deeply respect you Maharaja. There we got to see you with your Friend Gary, other devotees & see your loving relationships with them in person.

Then I got your prolonged association during the temple opening ceremony of ISKON thane, where an unqualified person as me got to do so many direct services to Sri Sri RadhaGovinddeva, without the causeless mercy I wouldn't imagine this to be possible. Also I realized that at my stage getting to much association wasn't the need many a times I would have material vission, vani is more imp than vapu as you have always preached Maharaja & you exemplify it everytime with the love in your eyes whenever you see of our beloved AC Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabupad. I aspire to develop the same love & service attitude for you Maharaja. Please shower your mercy on me.

Your compassion for every living entity, all being children of Krishna was the foremost quality I got attracted to you Maharaja & relished those pastimes shared by devotees in the book titled "it so happened". Your glorious pastimes of Journey home & your sacrifices during your services at new Vrndavana are a constant source of inspiration for me & devotees around me.

Whenever I struggle in my chanting,I try to hear your audioclip of the right mood to chant the holy name with sincerity, humility calling out for the mercy of the holy name, desiring only to please Hari guru Vaisnavas is my utmost need Maharaja. Please kindly bless me to chant attentively, in this mood and get the mercy of harinam prabhu as that's my only hope due to my weak heart & strong troubling mind. Please empower me with purity & save me from maya,so that I may serve Hari,Guru,Vaisnavas eternally,uninterrupted & without any alterior motives.

I beg for your causeless mercy to empower me so that I may become eligible to be your disciple.

Dear Guru Maharaja,Please engage me eternally in the loving service of you lotus feet

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

On the auspicious occasion of your 74th Krishna Conscious Birthday, I offer my heartfelt gratitude and prayers for your health, happiness, and continued service to Srila Prabhupada's mission. I am eternally thankful for your merciful presence in my life, which has illuminated my path toward pure devotional service.

You have blessed me with the priceless gifts of: The holy dham, The holy name, The holy association of devotees, Sacred Prasadam, and Your enlivening holy katha, which nourishes my heart with Gaura Prem.

Your example as a servant of Srila Prabhupada inspires me deeply. Your enthusiasm and tireless dedication in serving Srila Prabhupada's mission have increased my love and eagerness to render all services for his pleasure. Guru Maharaja, your glories are unlimited. As a soul not of this mortal world, how can I fully glorify you with my limited words? Yet for my own purification, I humbly attempt to express my feelings.

In Srimad-Bhagavatam 1.19.33, King Pariksit glorifies Sukadeva Goswami:

"Simply by remembering you, our homes become sanctified. What then can be said of seeing you, touching you, washing your feet, or offering you a seat in our home?"

Similarly, when I see your picture or take darshan of you, especially during the recent Kartika-yatra, I feel the sanctity of your presence. You have lovingly taken us all under the shelter of Lord Nityananda-Gauranga and Srila Prabhupada. Your katha is my lifeline.

You often emphasize in your lectures that hearing the holy katha purifies the heart and brings us closer to the Lord. As Srimad-Bhagavatam 1.1.19 says:

”We never tire of hearing the transcendental pastimes of the Personality of Godhead. Those who have developed a taste for transcendental relationships relish hearing His pastimes at every moment.”

Your words are filled with Srila Prabhupada’s essence, delivering deep lessons and instructions to mold us into better sadhakas and humble servants.

Guru Maharaja, I confess my shortcomings.

I am plagued by countless anarthas and dominated by lust, enslaved by my senses. I am truly fallen—lower than a worm in the stool. Yet, hearing your katha gives me hope that, by your mercy, I may one day attain love of Godhead.

Now, I am your dog. I surrender everything at your lotus feet:

”sarvasva tomar, charane sampiya, podechi tomara ghare tumi to’ thakur, tomara kukur, boliya janaho more”

On this auspicious day, I humbly pray: please accept this wretched soul as your eternal servant. I beg for your blessings to serve your lotus feet and Srila Prabhupada’s mission with sincerity, humility, and dedication.

May Sri Sri Radha-Gopinatha, Sri Sri Gaura-Nitai, Sri Jagannatha, Baladeva, Subhadra Maharani, and Sri Sudarsana bless you with good health and a long life, so you may continue fulfilling Srila Prabhupada’s vision and spreading Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu’s mercy.

liked so much all the services done by many devotees.

Everyday katha is very very nice and I am knowing the stories very deeply and I understand the essense of the stories.

And all the yatra parikarmas are also nice. and I visited many places.

And one day essence of yatra is service and spread Krishna counsiouness.

And one day H.H Japataka swami Maharaja said bring more and more devotees expand the moment through out the world and make them devotees.

Do devotional service nicely and give to others.

I understand mood of dham. I am carrying the entire yatra classes and dham darsans upto next Kartika-yatra.

My committments.

I have to chant 16 rounds regularly.

Reading of Srila Prabhupada book for 15 minutes daily if possible more.

Mostly I want complete my chanting in morning.

I want to preach Krishna counsiouness more and more.

I want to serve ISKCON society with full heart.

I want to be sincere, serious and without ulterior motives devotee.

I want to chant in a way that is pleasing to Krishna. I want to serve you in a way that is pleasing to you, Srila Prabhupada, all Vaisnavas and Sri Sri Gaur Nitai and Sri Sri Radha Govind Dev. I am really grateful for all things that I have recieved from you.

I do remember when first time I sat in your class at ISKCON Juhu Temple.

Please give me your blessings to be sincere, serious and without ulterior motives. I want to have desires for chanting to have Love of Krishna. Please give me blessings that I don't offend devotees, I do not become an offender towards you,

I read Srila Prabhupada books daily.

Please give me your blessings that one day I get Prema for Sri Sri Radha Krishna.

Thanks a lot for whatever you have given to me and I beg forgiveness for all the offences I did.

Hare Krishna, dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. I am deeply grateful to Krishna for granting me the privilege of your association. Below is my offering:

1) R - Respectful:

Even after your godbrother left Sannyasa, you still respected him as your godbrother and as a devotee who served Srila Prabhupada intimately. I was astonished when I heard this, as it reflected the deep respect you have for all devotees.

2) A - Absorbed:

Maharaja, you are always absorbed in the service of Hari, Srila Prabhupada, and all Vaisnavas. In Pune, when asked about the temple hall color, you humbly suggested using the same color as Srila Prabhupada chose during his time, showing your deep reverence for his desires.

3) D - Determined:

Your determination to attain Krishna and please Srila Prabhupada is unparalleled. Ganga revealed the Hare Krishna Mahamantra to you, and your determination is evident in the austerities you endured in New Vrndavana. I have seen a photo of you after taking Sannyasa, sleeping directly on the floor, reflecting your extreme austerity and determination.

4) H - Humble Servant of the Servant:

You are the personification of humility and the humble servant of the servant. When Srila Prabhupada asked for HH Kirtanand Maharaja to garland him, you humbly stepped back, and even now, you give initiations at the request of your godbrothers. This reflects your deep humility.

5) A - Always Remembering Krishna:

As the scriptures mention, we should always remember Krishna and never forget Him. You embody this principle. The way you narrate Krishna's pastimes makes it clear that you are actually witnessing them. By your grace, we also get a glimpse of that remembrance and absorption, for Krishna resides fully in your heart.

6) N - Never Expecting Respect:

You personify the third verse of the Siksashtaka. I've seen a photo of you sleeping on the ground directly after taking Sannyasa, demonstrating your austerities. In New Vrndavana, when you were ill and refused to take any medicine, you accepted everything as Krishna's will, without expecting anything for yourself.

7) A - Affectionate & Appreciating:

HG Sundarshyam Prabhu shared how, when he was leaving the temple at 11 PM, you showed genuine concern for him, asking if he would reach Pune late. Your affectionate nature is a shining example of compassion and care. I remember your Vrndavana Yatra lecture in 2019, where you began by expressing heartfelt gratitude to all devotees, paying obeisances to them. Your appreciation was genuine, and it deeply touched all of us.

8) T - Tolerant:

For Srila Prabhupada, you would do anything. Your tolerance is incredible, as shown in the story when, despite not having shoes, you humbly asked a stranger for shoes just to follow Srila Prabhupada's instructions. This demonstrates your deep gratitude and devotion to your spiritual master.

9) H - Holy Place Personified:

As the Srimad-Bhagavatam states, devotees like you are holy places personified. Because Krishna resides in your heart, wherever you go, you make that place a holy pilgrimage. Your preaching in the West is fearless, and wherever you go, devotees feel Krishna's presence through you.

10) S - Sincere:

Your sincerity in seeking Krishna and serving His devotees is evident to everyone. You left America at a young age to seek God in India, and due to your sincerity, the Ganges revealed the Hare Krishna Mahamantra to you before you even met Srila Prabhupada. Your sincere service has united us all in devotion.

11) W - Wealthy and Well-Wisher of Everyone:

You have built Radha Gopinatha Temple and Bhaktivedanta Hospital, and you always bring hope and happiness to everyone. You are wealthy because you have Krishna, and your wealth is not measured in material terms. You are a true successor to Srila Prabhupada, always thinking of the welfare of others.

12) A - Authentic:

You always speak according to the scriptures and Srila Prabhupada's books. I've heard how, even while serving in New Vrndavana, you would read Srila Prabhupada's books while milking cows. You are a sara grahi, seeking the essence in everything, never compromising spiritual values.

13) M - Merciful:

Your mercy is boundless. Through your lectures, you impart the essence of the scriptures and instill deep Vaisnava qualities in all of us. Thank you for sharing your mercy and wisdom with us through your divine vani.

14) I - Ideal Vaisnavaa:

You are the ideal Vaisnavaa, possessing all the qualities of a perfect devotee. Your example is a beacon of light for all of us to follow.

Hare Krishna dear Guru Maharaja,
Srila Prabhupada ki Jaya!
On this auspicious occasion of your 74th Appearance day, I would like to share a few of my thoughts.

Dear Guru Maharaja, you have been an inspiration and an exemplary personality who follows the teachings of Srila Prabhupada. Your dedication and surrender unto your Guru Maharaja is what we all should aspire to follow.

Your concern for every detail of seva which you perform, your classes in which you go very deeply into the pastimes of Krishna. Your dedication for Chanting the Holy Names. Your in-depth knowledge and realization of the Vedic scriptures.

You gave us Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha ji and Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Bihari Ji, you gave us a Home called ISKCON Chowpatty and ISKCON GEV, you have given us such a nice opportunity to associate with devotees who inspire each other to perform devotional service.

You have practically manifested Vrndavana Dham and Mayapur Dham in the heart of South Mumbai!

Thank you very much Guru Maharaja for this gift, and it's a promise to utilise all these facilities so that I make my life perfect.

Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances on to your Lotus feet.

It is indeed the rarest of the rare good fortune for me and all of us that we are able to see you in person and here from you nectarean Krishna Katha in various auspicious occasions and in Kartika-yatra.

On this special day of your appearance in this world I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Lord Krishna for giving us your presence in our lives and I keep on praying that you get the best of health so that many more get benefited and inspired from your mercy.

Through your senior disciples we constantly get inspiration and always wonder how carefully and lovingly you have nurtured them and invested in them all your energy so that they become the replica of your compassion.

The most important instruction from you on staying humble like a Grass and tolerant like a tree is embossed on our hearts. This quality is something which I will keep striving to adopt.

May Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha always keep you in the best of health and many more struggling jivas get shelter in your teachings.

Jay Srila Prabhupada.

Please accept my humble obeisances, Guru Maharaja.

Maharaja, I was reflecting on how the mercy of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu has reached me. This mercy has come through the tireless efforts of so many acaryas, Srila Prabhupada, and his disciples, including yourself and your glorious followers. It is solely your causeless mercy and love that brought me Krishna Consciousness. as though it were spoon-fed to me—something I neither deserved nor could have achieved on my own.

Maharaja, I was deeply drawn to you after witnessing your genuine yearning for Krishna and your incredible spiritual journey. Your mercy, especially in fostering Vrndavana-like association among devotees filled with love and care, is profoundly inspiring.

One of your teachings, “trinad api sunicena” (being humbler than a blade of grass), has already resolved many of my challenges, and I marvel at the immense transformation one can achieve by sincerely applying more of your instructions.

Although I am deeply entangled in this material world, with little inclination to escape, it is solely by your mercy that I now see hope and assurance of returning back home, back to Godhead.

Maharaja, like a beggar who can only shamelessly beg, I plead for your blessings. Please grant me the strength to follow your teachings in the parampara. Despite my constant failures, you continue to provide hope to this hopeless soul, and for that, I am eternally grateful.

From this day forward, I aspire to remember the acaryas daily, as mentioned in the Mangal Aarti—"dhyayastu te yatra saparyaya smrtih..." Kindly bless me to remain steadfast in this resolve.

Thank you so much, Maharaja, for your boundless mercy and guidance.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada and You!
I have made a humble attempt to write something for you, kindly accept me and my offerings, it's your mercy that sustains this fallen soul...

Leaving your home at a tender age to visit all the holy dham

Waiting for Prabhupada's invitation for the sankirtana of Shuddha Naam

Just like Lord Nityananda leaving his home like a renunciant

Waiting for Mahaprabhu to initiate the movement that is transcendentally munificent

You are the perfect representative of Lord Nityananda

For, you are there for all who are very fallen and Niraananda

Srimad-Bhagavatam becomes relishable for us when it emanates from your divine lips

For we are like the helpless chataka birds who cannot relish the nectar unless you shower it from your lotus lips

Your singing reminds us of the cuckoos and bumblebees welcoming Brajendra Nandan to the forest of Vrndavan

You are a perfect Brajwasi Maharaja because wherever you are is actually Sri Radhika's dearest Vrndavan

You are the embodiment of Mahaprabhu's compassion, it is only through you we taste the sweetness of transcendental passion

There's no one for the fallen souls like me except for you Maharaja

And I am eternally indebted for your mercy which is beyond any cause Maharaja

My only aspiration is to eternally serve your servants in Sri Vrndavan

Where you eternally serve Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha under Prabhupada with all other Mahajan

This poem is my true feeling and my prayers at your lotus feet for eternity

All I want to see is a smile on your face and an eternal life at your service O' personified Humility

With a grateful heart

Hare Krishna, Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisances.

We are deeply grateful to you for taking immense effort to bring Krishna Consciousness. into our lives and guiding us on how to live a Krishna-conscious life. Your teachings have shown us the importance of receiving the mercy of Vaisnavas through their association, and for this, we are eternally thankful.

Although we reside near the Nashik temple, we feel as though our home is an extension of the temple, and we experience great joy living here in Krishna's service.

It is incredibly inspiring to see the next generation in our family listen to your instructions, just as we did 20 years ago, and take notes from your lectures. Watching them imbibe the same enthusiasm to serve Srila Prabhupada fills our hearts with happiness and gratitude.

Being in your association is a profound blessing that leaves everyone feeling satisfied, protected, and uplifted. Your merciful and happy glance, as well as your instructions, give our lives direction and meaning every day.

Thank you, Guru Maharaja, for your care, mercy, and inspiration that guide us on this spiritual journey.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance.

Dear Guru Maharaja, I don't have the opportunity and qualifications to have your close acquaintance.

But still, by your causeless mercy, you have conveyed and conquered my heart by love and care I received through all the devotees.

I never felt distant from you. I always learn from my seniors how to be closer to the spiritual master by always remembering and following the instructions.

Not yet learned but trying to practice the same, please bless me.

I always found you closer, especially whenever I was in need of you the most.

Maharaja, we learn from each and every action of yours how much you love Srila Prabhupada. Because we get the same love and care from you.

One of the incidents, I was in deep trouble and pain when my mother was serious and admitted to the hospital. You took away all my tensions by sending a devotee doctor. I went to his home, saw your picture with Alter, and later learned also how Prabhupada sent blessings.

Because I was complaining that morning to Srila Prabhupada, "By thinking—why did you make me stuck in the third city where I don't know anyone to help me," especially no devotees there?

In the same way, Guru Maharaja, you came every time as my father to take care of me everywhere.

On this special occasion, I pray to Sri Sri Radha Govind Dev to please take care of my Guru Maharaja with very good health. I also thank Srila Prabhupada, who gifted you in my life.

I am in need of your blessings consistently so that I can have the association and services of your devotees so that I can learn from them to serve you and please you in any way.

Please utilize me, my life, and my service to you as you desire.

Dear Guru Maharaja, please accept me as your disciple.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obesciances at your lotus feet

I am eternally indebted to you for saving our lives from wandering in this material world. We are being so much inspired by your teachings in line with Srila Prabhupada and we feel Srila Prabhupada's mercy is available to us through your grace. While serving in Hyderabad we always try to keep your instructions and teachings in fore front.

You always gave importance to Vaisnava seva, Vaisnava dealings and cooperation amongst devotees. I have understood that following these principles we can always keep Srila Prabhupadan in center.

Your katha has always transported us to spiritual world and we witness Lord's presence in your katha. Seeing your relationships with your Godbrothers we strongly feel presence of Srila Prabhupada and inspires us and sets example infront of us about how he should have relations with our godbrothers and other Gurus disciples.

You have set an excellent example of devotee care and I wish to.imbibe that in my service to you and Srila Prabhupada.

Thanking you for all your gifts and I desire your blessings to follow your instructions and to be in line with Srila Prabhupada for whole life

Hare Krishna, dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada and your holiness.

Your life's journey is a constant source of inspiration and fills us with admiration for all your extraordinary qualities. Your decision to hitchhike from Europe to India in search of God and a spiritual master was no coincidence—it was Krishna's divine plan to bring you into our lives. The perseverance you displayed in your quest for the truth is truly beyond our comprehension. Also, after joining this movement, you endured numerous challenges, including the austerities of the early days in New Vrndavana, navigating ISKCON's turbulent period after Srila Prabhupada's disappearance, and facing false allegations from blasphemers. Yet, through it all, you remained unwavering in your service to Srila Prabhupada's mission. With unshakable humility and determination, you continued to inspire and create exceptional devotees and leaders. Such resilience and dedication are possible only for an empowered soul like you.

Your lectures always emphasize the principle of trinad api sunichena (being humbler than a blade of grass), and you truly practice what you preach. Whether offering obeisances to devotees or folding your hands even before those who are sometimes your disciples, your humility sets a powerful example for all of us.

You have nurtured and empowered countless leaders within our society, and their contributions are immeasurable. These leaders have enriched our society by creating thousands of devotees, temples, farmhouses, GEV, HK TV, IDT, and many more. A true leader is one who creates other leaders, and you are the embodiment of this greatness.

Despite health challenges, you continue to lead yatras for over 10,000 devotees every year. Although we were unable to attend the yatra this year, we are deeply grateful to the RG Media devotees for online arrangements to get your Vani association.

Thank you for continuously inspiring us. I humbly pray for a drop of your blessings to help me overcome my shortcomings and imbibe the qualities you expect from your disciples.

धन्य ते परम पूज्य राधानाथ स्वामी महाराज

In this age, where social media reigns supreme, and people have lost the stability of their minds to the extent that they struggle to focus for even five minutes, here in a single grand pavilion, 11,000–12,000 people from around the world—different regions, languages, and eating habits—come together. For hours on end, they remain pin-drop silent, absorbed in Krishna Katha, immersed in the divine nectar of spiritual storytelling, and ecstatic during devotional kirtanas. This is evidence of Vaikuntha manifesting in today's age—a testament to Radhanath Swami Maharaja.

Every year, during the auspicious Kartika month, devotees gather to hear the sweet pastimes of Lord Krishna directly from the divine voice of their most beloved and singular heart's refuge, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaja, in the company of pure devotees. Preparations for this grand gathering begin as early as February or March.

The Radha Gopinatha Temple in Girgaon, Mumbai, is unparalleled in its exceptional management of this pilgrimage. Inspired by the Guru Maharaja, a database of devoted practitioners is created, including those serious practitioners (who chant 16 rounds of the Hare Krishna Maha Mantra daily for 2 hours) capable of focused listening. Registration, accommodation arrangements, and the most important service—preparing pure, sanctified Maha Prasadam—are meticulously planned. From hot breakfast at 6 a.m., to a grand lunch of diverse dishes at 1 p.m., to dinner later in the evening, every meal is served with utmost care and purity. About 200 buses are organized to transport devotees to various holy sites, an enormous effort in itself.

The highlight is the evening Krishna Katha by Maharaja. Over 10,000 devotees, with intense eagerness, listen to the divine words flowing from Maharaja's lips, becoming completely absorbed. Maharaja's childlike innocence, his divine fervor, and his narration make one feel as though the Lord Himself is present, enacting His pastimes. Maharaja's enthusiasm, as he narrates Krishna's lilas, is unparalleled, like that of an innocent child in rapt joy.

Devotees from around the world, who spend lakhs of rupees to travel to India, devote their earnings and penance to attend this divine nectar-filled discourse. Witnessing their enthusiasm and devotion instills a new life force within us, serving as a spiritual recharge for the entire year. The mutual love, selflessness, and eagerness for service among the devotees are truly divine.

When the 2-3 hour-long Katha (which earlier used to last 6-7 hours) concludes, the mellifluous voice of Maharaja begins the kirtana, and the devotees' enthusiasm knows no bounds. All devotees cry out to the Lord with intense fervor in unison—a moment beyond words, one that raises goosebumps and floods the eyes with tears. The fatigue of a day that starts at 3:30 a.m. and stretches until 10 p.m. vanishes, leaving behind an overflowing energy and youthful joy.

Describing this divinity in words will always fall short.

All Glories to Sri Sri Gaur Nitai!! All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!! All Glories to you Gurudeva!!
Gurudeva I have no qualification but your compassion on me is only giving me this opportunity to glorify you. I am eternally in depth to you for giving me the opportunity to practice pure devotional service in the Parampara.

At the very beginning of my Krishna Consciousness., I had been behaving too enthusiastically but not having genuine appreciation and gratitude for what I have got hence my enthusiasm was like a mad elephant. But when I started attentively hearing your transcendental lectures, which are systematically arranged and provided by HG Radheshyam Prabhuji, I understood the importance and rarity of Krishna Consciousness..

In a series of lectures given by HG Radheshyam Prabhuji about the meaning of Guru Puja, he tells that to go on long in Krishna Consciousness. one needs to have strong inspiration. And for millions of devotees in and out of our movement you are that great inspiration.

Gurudeva, in every lecture, you throw light on the Vaisnava relationships, Humility and Gratitude. And you are like Srila Haridas Thakur who has perfect Achar and does glories Prachar. Once in SB class HG Radha Gopinatha Prabhuji was mentioning the pastime of Srila Haridas Thakur when he blesses the prisoners while passing away in front of prison and Prji said that Srila Prabhupada is Srila Haridas Thakur for us and Gurudeva for me you are personification of Srila Haridas Thakur who took tremendous risks to set an extreme example of search for God and then blessed many souls by giving them faith in holy name.

Gurudeva, you are the personification of humility. At the time of Maha Satsanga program at Pune with HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja, you were invited for inauguration of Sri Balaji Mahanatya. There you and and Srila Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja were holding sezers in your lotus hands. And when it was time to cut the rope and inaugurate, you were just holding sezer to look like you are cutting but you was waiting for HH Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja to cut first. I heart melted at that time seeing you humility.

Gurudeva, once I was reading the BKC book of Srila Bhakti Vikas Swami Maharaja where he was mentioned about the need of trained seniors in our movement and by your blessings and teachings we have extraordinary examples in front like HG Radheshyam Prabhuji, HG Gauranga Prabhuji and many of your glories disciples. Your blessing in my life is manifested through HG Radheshyam Prabhuji, HG Antardwip Prabhuji, HG Amshu Prabhuji, HG Kadamb Kanan Prabhuji, Amit Prabhuji and my merciful counselor HG Subal Priya Prabhuji. I am eternally grateful to all of them.

By the permission and blessings of all authorities and you, I was really felt fortunate to attend the auspicious Kartika-yatra. It added more seriousness and sincerity to my Krishna Consciousness.. Before reaching to Sridham Mayapur in the train I offended devotees while managing Prasadam department and I was really broken but I heard your class and your transcendental instructions gave me great shelter. When we reached to Pandal there we saw seeting you in the middle of circle chanting japa with intensity.. that was the perfect beginning of Yatra for me. On the auspicious disappearance day of Srila Prabhupada you didn't spoke your offering on the stage rather you kept your God brothers and God sisters ahead and you spoke for short in the evening during the disappearance song. There you told to remember the presence of Srila Prabhupada in our life and I was contemplating on it and was really touched when I saw the blessing of Srila Prabhupada in my life till now. There I came to the sudden conclusion that I should seriously endeavour to chant attentively which I am greatly lacking at. This was the influence of your purity. In this Yatra during the classes, kirtanas and services I felt that this movement may never end and I always keep dancing on your instructions eternally.

Gurudeva, whenever I see your dancing video which was recorded in front of Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, my all the impurities are vanished for the time being and get a strong desire to surrender this life in your service. Your short clip where you spoke about the importance of having Devotees in our life feels my heart with gratitude and humility.

Gurudeva, you have very simple instructions for all your disciples that just take any of the instructions from your transcendental lectures and apply them but I am so fallen that still I am unable to follow you. I have many times disobeyed your instructions and I am simply a scar on your reputation. But Gurudeva you are so compassionate that you are still allowing me to stay in the association of devotees. I haven't done even any insignificant service to you but please keep showering your mercy and blessings. That is the only hope for me.

Hare Krishna dear Gurudeva
Kindly accept my humble obeisances.

On this Vyasa-puja occasion, firstly I want to thank you for being in the land of India for a longer time, pacifying the hearts of countless devotees who get purified with your darshans and personally observing your love for Srila Prabhupada through your actions.

Secondly, I am thoroughly grateful for organizing such an unparalleled 2024 Kartika-yatra at Sridham Mayapur with an ocean of devotees coming from across the world for a common purpose, to rejuvenate their hearts in harmony with each other, chanting and feeling the strength of the Holy Names of the Lord at the birthplace of our movement. One could envision the deep selfless service mood of everyone serving in the Yatra, the potency of the Holy Dham and the divine presence of yourself, for you were taking personal care and responsibility of everything. Even my parents who came this time felt awe struck at the details of the services.

Thirdly, thank you Maharaja for uncovering Kolkata as a most important Holy place for all Gaudiya Vaisnavas. In addition to Srila Prabhupada's birthplace and BhatiVinode Asana, this time I got an opportunity to visit BhaktiVedanta Research Centre, and this place is enough to understand the legacy and sacrifice behind the spiritual past of our movement. One cannot come out without being grateful. We as family adopted 3 Shastras for lifetime with your blessings dear Maharaja. As you beautifully mention Maharaja that "Kolkata is the Gateway to Sridham Mayapur", we will try to look through that lens.

Finally, your intense love and care for your Godbrothers and Godsisters moves everyone's hearts. Following your mood, we intensely kept praying for the good health of HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja. At the same time, we deeply pray that you also keep in very good health and kindly keep showering your mercy so that we can keep chanting and serving without coming offences. We all love you very much Maharaja.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja...
Dandavat Pranama..

I don't know anything what to offer you. Because I most sinful person. Then also you saved me from covid 2nd wave. I cannot forget in my this life that when I was infected with Corona virus, I forgot everything, I am not able to remember Lord Krishna, I was hopeless and thought that I will not survive and soon I will die. I was very weak, and able to eat anything. That time my wife scold me and told me that where is your ISKCON and their Lectures. That time I suddenly thought to watch your Lectures on You Tube, when I click for a video, I heard one statement of you. If Krishna wants to kill someone then no body can save him and if Krishna wants to save someone nobody can kill him. A leaf of tree can't fall down without permission of Lord Krishna, and Krishna knows everything. After this statement, there was a energy flow in my body, and I stood up and said to my family that why to worry, it is Krishna's will..

My life is in Krishna's hand. So I started eating food and taking medicine, and recovered fast from that moment.

So guruMaharaja, I have survived from death because of you. Please guide me to serve you, Krishna and Vaisnavas.

This year I have first time attended yatra and it was a great experience with all 10k devotees. Really looking forwards to upcoming yatras. Previously I am going every diwali home only but this time decided to come to yatra and that's totally worth it. thank you for giving us wonderful ISKCON community and continue Srila prbhupad legacy to make more devotees happy devotees

I am really sorry as I am first time writting the offering and I don't know what should I need to write but what I am learning from you is to express gratitude to someone and have compassion towards all living beings.

I am currently working in IT company so to my colleague I have given key chains of Radha Krishna which I bought from ISKCON mayapur Shops to express my gratitude towards them for all the help they are doing to me so I can live my Krishna conscious life and may be they also start following ISKCON one day thank you

Dear Maharaja,
Please accept my humble Pranamas at the dust of your lotus feet
Iam very insignificant and not qualified to offer anything to you.

Iam Thank ful to The Supreme Lord Sri Radha Shyamsunder, Yasodha Nandan Sri Krishna to get in association of sincere devotees who live in Your shelter and guidance. These merciful devotees helped me and are helping me to love and live for Krishna.

I pray at your lotus feet for your blessings to all these devotees who help cultivate more devotees. Please also bless me to live upto your expectations, Srila Prabhupada instructions, remembering Sacinandana Gaur Hari and I always be in the service of devotees.

I also want to request The Supreme Lord to bestow good health to you, so you can keep inspiring all of us

All Glories to Srila Prabhpad.
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Dhandawat Pranamas.

Happy Birthday dear Guru Maharaja!!!

7th December, 1950 isn't just your birthday, it's the most auspicious day of our lives. As it's the seed of our spiritual journey - as you already know, you are the root and the cord that binds all of us together.

Without your lotus feet, your divine lectures, your presence, your loving smile, your intense Kirtanas, the Journey Home, the Journey Within, your counselling system, your Sr disciples, your divine Brahmacaris of Radha Gopinatha Mandir, your ever-growing Kartika Yatras, the Radha Gopinatha Mandir itself, the ever-enchanting forms of our Lordships - Radha Gopinathaji, Gaur-Nitai, Gopalji, Radha GopijanaVallabaji, Janardhanji, Laxmi-Narayanji, the beautiful worship that your disciples perform, the humility shown by all the Vaisnavas that follow you, your own humility and simplicity and most of all your unlimited mercy of initiating a devil like myself - a mercy that is unfathomable to my limited brain.

There's an unlimited ocean that you have given us on a plate, and there are and will be no words, no service that I can ever do to showcase my gratitude - all I can pray at your feet is that I can follow and stay on the path you have shown us till my dying breath.

And hopefully, in the life beyond this one as well.

To be honest Maharaja, going back to Godhead is not something for me, because I know in my heart I don't and will never deserve it, so I'd rather not aspire for it.

I'll be better if I can serve you or your representative in this life and the next and the next and next...till one day you decide otherwise.

My life, my soul is eternally in your hands.

Thank you very much for accepting me and being my Guru Maharaja. You are awesome beyond words.

Your undeserving disciple, servant and son - now and forever.

Vyasa-puja 2024
Dear Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances. All glory to Srila Prabhupada.

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for picking me up from the horrible depths of a life of sense gratification and sheltering me at Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha Mandir. The community is a surreal oasis, a Spiritual world, where sincere devotees who love you, assist you in Your service to Their Lordships, Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha, Srila Prabhupada, and their devotees. And these devotees truly carry your compassion in their hearts. My profuse thanks to you for giving me the shelter of Vaisnavas who perfectly imbibe your mood and mission, your love and loyalty to Srila Prabhupada, and your devotion and dedication to the sacred Brahma Madhva Gaudiya Parampara.

Today, I would like to particularly thank you for the series of lectures you gave recently during the initiation festivals that we had in Mumbai, Nasik, Kolhapur, and Belgaum. I heard them as sincerely and attentively as possible and drew many important lessons for my own Spiritual life. I would like to thank you for the same. The most important lesson I learned from your heartfelt instructions during these ceremonies, which I would like to particularly meditate today on your 74th Vyasapuja, is as follows:

"All attractions of this world not only pale in comparison to the attractiveness of Krishna but also ultimately come from an insignificant portion of Krishna's splendor. Through occasions like initiation ceremonies, Krishna is beaconing us to come to Him and He has mercifully sent the parampara to help us come to Him."

When I heard this from you, I knew instantly that you were sent by Krishna, for you were on your way to the Himalayas, but inconceivably, you got off the train at a station and then realized it was Mathura Junction, and that day happened to be Krishna's appearance day. This was ordained by Krishna Himself that you visit His birthplace on His birthday. Even at Patna, when you were hearing Ram Katha from Ramsevak Swami, his disciple was translating the Hindi talk into English for you, but he only kept narrating the Damodar Lila to you daily. Puzzled, you asked him why he repeated the same story daily while you could hear words like Rama, Sita, Hanuman, etc, in the talks of Ramsevak Swami. The disciple humbly said that his guru had told him that Lord Rama had appeared to him in a dream and told him that you are a devotee of Krishna and you should hear Krishna Katha. Unfortunately, the disciple didn't know any pastime other than Damodar Lila, so he daily spoke the same story to you while Ramsevak Swami was speaking Ramayana daily. This was another confirmation that you are especially dear to Krishna.

Once, at the Kumbh Mela in January 2000, I saw a sophisticated CEO challenge you at the preaching tent. He repeatedly asked you why you left Judaism to embrace Hinduism when all religions essentially teach the same thing. You offered a diplomatic answer at first, saying how love of God is the message of all faiths; and perfection can be attained by any religious system. Instead of placating him, this agitated him more and he persisted with his challenge. Finally, when you realized that his questioning was pointed and specific, and there was no way you could avoid answering the truth, you humbly bowed your head and then softly, yet confidently, looking straight into his eyes, said, "I accepted Krishna Consciousness. because Krishna attracted my heart like nobody and nothing else."

All these incidents confirm that you are an eternal associate of Krishna and sent by Krishna to save us from material life and take us back to Him.

In one of the mid-1990s lectures you gave to the fledgling congregation at Nigdi, you spoke about the Brahmin wife's pastime where the simple women ran, overcoming all obstacles and breaking all social barriers, to offer all the foodstuffs to Krishna and Balarama. At one point in the class, you paused and slowly said that just like Krishna sent the boys to the Brahmanas and then to their wives to ask for food, similarly, you have been sent by Krishna and Srila Prabhupada to ask them to offer their 'food' (life) to Krishna. You said with loving compassion that you are sincerely going to offer them to Srila Prabhupada and Krishna. Then, you requested all of us not to be like the proud and reluctant Brahmanas but the simple and surrendered wives of the Brahmanas.

On this most auspicious occasion of your appearance day, I wish to repeatedly remember how you are most dear to Krishna and how you have been mercifully sent by Krishna to ask us to offer our lives to Krishna.

Today, I wish to offer all that I have to you for pleasing you, for I know you are faithfully serving Srila Prabhupada and Krishna's orders of delivering the conditioned souls who are rotting in this bizarre material world.

Dear Guru Maharaja, please take pity on me, pick me up from the abyss of material life, and accept my meager offerings made in a feeble voice. Please accept me and give me a chance to redeem myself and come back to Krishna in this one lifetime.

Thank you again

Please accept my humble & respectful obeisances at Your Holiness' Lotus Feet.
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga.
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Your Holiness.

I am so grateful that I am being blessed with an opportunity to glorify Your Holiness on this auspicious occasion of 74th Vyasa-puja.

It's out of Your Holiness' kindness and causeless mercy that Your Holiness has given me shelter, even though I am filled with all bad qualities.

Your Holiness is a personification of all Vaisnava qualities. Your Holiness' teaches all, through your lectures and personal examples, how one should always be humble, tolerant, grateful for everything & ready to offer honour & respect to others, without expecting anything in return and ultimately develop pure devotional service by taking shelter in the Hare Krishna maha mantra.

Your Holiness has wonderfully implemented devotee care & counsellor systems which have been helping devotees to balance their life & advance spiritually.

Your Holiness guided & inspired disciples to build a wonderful Govardhan Eco Village, a replica of Sri Vrndavana Dham, as one may have the same feeling as one has entered Vrndavana. Kartika-yatra has been a great benediction for all of us to get Your Holiness' association with enlightening lectures & devotees painstakingly make all arrangements systematically so that we can be free of any anxieties, & just chant & hear. All glories to Yatra team & devotees engaged in various services, the source of inspiration for all is Your Holiness.

On this auspicious occasion of Sri Vyasa-puja, prayers to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to keep Your Holiness in good health and spirits so that Your Holiness can continue inspiring millions of souls in Krishna Consciousness. & execute the will of Srila Prabhupada. Kindly bless me so that one day I can be a good disciple by taking Your Holiness' order as my life & soul.

Always holding on to Your Holiness' Lotus Feet

Please accept my humble obeisance at the feet of all acaryas and Lord Shri Krishna,

It is a great privilege for me to get asscociation and initiation from HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja, Maharaja is Bhagwat personified, whatever the teachings of sastras are there the qualities are perfectly represented in Maharaja, Maharaja teaches us through his example and lectures how one should be a Vaisnava and how to serve in Srila Prabhupada's mission. Maharaja has endless qualities and one of the qualities that inspires us is the humility, austerity and taste and love for the Holy Name.

I pray at lotus feet of Maharaja that I be blessed and become a good Vaisnava and serve Lord Krishna and his devotees

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

When my father was in an advanced stage of lung cancer, I consulted a cancer specialist about his treatment. Seeing the reports he suggested that one of his lungs have to be removed by surgery. He asked about the physical condition of my father and I told him that he is very weak. The doctor refused to do the surgery saying that my father would not be able to survive it because of his weak condition.

Even the best medical specialists can't remove the cancerous cells without harming the good cells in the body. And many can't survive the surgery. But you are such an expert surgeon Maharaja, who removes the cancerous cells of anarthas from our hearts with the scalpel of strong words of shastra. You handle the scalpel with the precision of your realizations, to ensure that you cut out only the cancerous cells, while simultaneously soothing the good cells with your deep concern, love, humor, and beautiful smile.

Just like any surgeon becomes an expert with years of training under another expert, you have gained this precision by hearing and serving faithfully under Srila Prabhupada. Complicated surgeries last very long and the surgeon has to endure a lot of physical discomfort to complete the surgery. You also take a lot of pain and discomfort for the sake of your disciples, putting all your energy and realizations into your classes. I have made a little progress with my spiritual health, but I am still struggling with my cancer. It is a lifetime of surgery. Thank you, Maharaja.

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories unto the dust of your lotus feet.

Despite my efforts, I know that I cannot go back home on the strength of my own efforts. My endeavours to make spiritual advancement are far from being uninterrupted and unmotivated. I have my ups and downs, good days and not so good ones.

I depend on your purity.

And your purity is obvious. During your recent Kartika-yatra, I witnessed again and again how strong your devotion towards Krishna is, whether it be through your absorption in Caitanya Mahaprabhu's pastimes, the respect you show to your Godbrothers and Godsisters as well as your emphasis on serving the devotees. No doubt you have faced countless challenges over the years, and yet you have remained steadfast in your commitment to Srila Prabhupada's movement.

I look forward to your next visit to the UK.

Dear Gurudeva,

It is time for expressing my heart
On your appearance day Gurudeva and be sincere!
Many lectures of yours, I have heard
To soften my heart with love and Gratitude!
I read BG 13.8-12 to learn
Humility, pride lessness, tolerance,
Simplicity, Self-control, detachment, and Many more, as it is declared to be Knowledge.
However, the qualities mentioned in BG 16.4
Have overtaken me fully, filled with Ignorance, lust, greed, anger, envy
Pride, arrogance, conceit, harshness!
By your mercy, have attended many Yatras
Chanted The Holy names
Participated in Kirtanas, Did Parikramas!
Alas! Where is my progress?
Heard many lectures
Had thousands of feasts, associated with devotees
Performed innumerable lip services
Alas! where is the transformation of my heart?
When I search for meaning
Alas! I am struck with wonder
Where am I? What am I doing?
Where is Bhakti? Is there any hope of my Progress, dear Gurudeva?
Have I transformed myself over the years through Bhakti?
Have I gone on a Yatra inside my heart?
Have I chanted from my heart with love?
Have I associated in true spirit?
While my dear Gurudeva, you are in my heart to guide me
How dirty have I made it a place to suffocate.
With my filthy thoughts...stinking attitude
Dirty habits and false promises to myself and others!
I promised when I took initiation to chant sincerely!
Also, I would sincerely serve and engage in your mission!
Alas! It is a pity that I do not practice it
Even when I have the opportunity in your projects.
When in difficult times
I promised that I will honor and respect others.
When I came out of the situation
Alas! I walk as though I didn't make any promise!
I heard lectures, philosophies, clapped hands...
How much have I applied in my life, in dealing with others?
While I read Bhagavd Gita As it is My nature and thoughts have remained as it is!

While I try to preach and change others
I failed to preach to myself and change!
While I expect humility in others
I failed to exhibit humility when needed!
I seek shelter of my mind often instead of your instructions
My mind helps me to blame other or even you!
Let me now seek shelter of you completely,
Which is the only hope to transform myself!
To practice Bhakti easily, you guided me
Placed me at Bhaktivedana Hospital
Facilitated me with wonderful services, association etc
Alas! I remain ungrateful and hampering my spiritual progress
My dear Gurudeva & Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji
Please give me one more Opportunity on this day of your appearance!
To reform, transform and perform Bhakti to you and to your dear devotees
Your Causeless Mercy is my only hope!!!

Out of your many many qualities, one quality is “Caring for others”. You have inspired this quality of yours in your disciples too. The most recent example is our Kartika-yatra 2024 at Mayapur Dham. In spite of over 10000 devotees participating in the yatra, everything was arranged so perfectly.

Every small detail, right from registration, water arrangements, lunch Prasadam, pandal, local darshans were so meticulously arranged that devotees of all age groups were well taken care of.

1. Special arrangements were made for lunch Prasadam of Varishta Vaisnavas. This made it so convenient for our 87 year old mother who was attending your yatra for the first time.

2.You yourself mentioned about the wooden planks that were laid down in the pandal to protect devotees from sudden rains. This act was beyond our expectation. In fact we stayed for 2 more days after the yatra and we saw the efforts required to remove these planks. So much extra efforts, just so that devotees are comfortable!

3. Kids zone arrangement so that the kids are engaged and have good memories of yatras and at the same time, gives an opportunity to parents to hear your classes peacefully.

4. Bus and boat arrangements for local darshans at various places.

5. Special dry Prasadam distributed by HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja in the evenings was overwhelming.

6. Moreover Mayapur local devotees also went all out to ensure that the yatra devotees were well taken care of. The various Prasadam distribution outlets in the temple premises also went all out to take care of dinner Prasadam for yatra devotees, by extending their working timings.

All Glories to you dear Guru Maharaja and Srila Prabhupada to instill such feelings in the devotees.

I pray to Sri Sri Radha Gopinathaji, Sri Sri Gaur Nitay and Sri Gopalji to give you good health so that we can get more and more of your association and serve in the mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja, I wish to offer my heartfelt gratitude and reflections inspired by your teachings. Listening to your lecture from “The Power of Gratitude” has deeply impacted my heart, and I feel compelled to share the realizations it has invoked within me.

You explained how gratitude is the key to unlocking our relationship with Krishna and transforming our lives into acts of devotion. Your words helped me see that every moment, every breath, and every situation is a gift from Krishna, meant to deepen our faith and humility. You reminded us that instead of being consumed by desires and expectations, a grateful heart focuses on serving and glorifying the Lord.

This realization has been profoundly humbling for me. I often struggle with material dissatisfaction and forget Krishna’s ever-present mercy. Your lecture illuminated how gratitude can turn even the challenges and difficulties of life into stepping stones on the path of bhakti. I felt deeply inspired by your example of viewing every situation—whether joyous or painful—as Krishna’s special arrangement for our spiritual growth.

Guru Maharaja, you embody the qualities of a truly grateful heart, always glorifying Krishna and serving His devotees with love and compassion. Witnessing your devotion and humility reminds me to strive for a life of thankfulness and service.

On this sacred occasion, I offer my prayers and commitment to cultivating a grateful attitude and using it to deepen my service to you, to Srila Prabhupada, and to Krishna. Please bless me so that I may always strive to please you and remain sincere and steadfast in my devotional practices.

Thank you for your tireless efforts to uplift and guide us, even though we are so undeserving. Your compassion and wisdom are my greatest treasures, and I pray to always remain sheltered under your lotus feet.

Life in this material world is a struggle. To maintain one's body itself takes so much energy everyday. Animals, birds, reptiles and aquatics work very hard each day, human beings also work hard but then it is the practice of spiritual life that distinguishes humans from animals. A spiritual life with a goal to reconnect and revive our lost relationship with Sri Krishna keeps humans separate from animals. By your mercy I am practising spiritual life. I beg that I don't take this lightly or do it like a mechanical process. I beg to hear from you to always put my attention,heart and soul into all spiritual practices like chanting, reading Bhagavatam, worshipping deities, visiting holy places and serving devotees.

Respected Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet,
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Today on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja I offer my sincere obeisance in utmost gratitude, Joy and happiness for being initiated by your holiness.

As Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu says to Srila Rupa Goswami in Caitanya Charitamrita Madhya Lila 19.151

brahmanda bhramite kona bhagyavan jiva
guru-Krishna-prasade paya bhakti-lata-bija

By the mercy of Krishna one meets pure sadhu like you and by the mercy of pure sadhu one achieves Krisna. So, I am confident since I have received your divine grace as my spiritual master that the Supreme Personality of Godhead Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha are kindly showering Their mercy upon me without the mercy of Radha Gopinatha it is not possible to come in touch with pure sadhu like you.

As Srila Prabhupada writes in one purport "If one is fortunate he gets birth in a devotee family, and if he is further more gets a pure devotee as Spiritual Master. I was fortunate to get devotee parents like Sri Gaur Mohan De and Rajani Devi. Further I received HDG Bhakti Siddhanta Saraswati Thakur as my spiritual Master". Dear Guru Maharaja I was also fortunate to get birth in Maharashtrian Brahmin family my father Sri Yatindra Kashinath Joshi and my mother Yogita, trained me from my infancy of life about brahminical culture and devotion to the Supreme Lord. In the year 2008 my mother left this world due to cancer, in the year 2020 my father left this world. After that I came in touch with devotees. Then by the inconceivable mercy of Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Nityananda Prabhu and Lord Sri Ganesh our family deity I received your holiness as my divine Spiritual Master recently in Sri Sri Radha Rasabihari temple Juhu.

Guru Maharaja when I hear your lectures and your practical demonstrations which you have shown by your lifestyle. This gives me immense inspiration to dedicate my life at lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada. Now I only desire to inculcate your teachings to my kids Niraja and Vibhav,and distribute Srila Prabhupada's compassion following your footsteps.

As of now I am trying to help Srila Prabhupada's preaching mission in Virar area which is close to Govardhan Eco Village. Ever since I got connected with devotees myself and my wife Radhika Rani Devi Dasi, we are trying to complete our morning japa in Brahma Muhurta. She is a school teacher and I being a professor at college having so many responsibilities, preaching and management related services we are trying to follow your footsteps. In order to follow your mood and mission Radhika Rani Devi always inspires and supports me.

My only concern is that "To whom much is given much is expected". Since I have received so many blessings in the form of Srila Prabhupada, your Holiness,my parents, Radhika Rani Devi, Niraja, Vibhav and wonderful devotee association. I am worried that Krisna has given me so much abundantly I should not be falsely proud and loose the chance of devotional service. Guru Maharaja give me your special mercy so that I always remain grateful, humble, tolerant respecting everyone, In the association of your sincere followers I should be gratefully chant

Wishing you a very happy Krishna Concious appearance day guru Maharaja... Praying to Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha to bless you with good health always and may Lord Narasimha dev protect you always.

Guru Maharaja I m not qualified enough to glorify your unlimited divine qualities but being a disciple, it is my duty. hence I m making this small insignificant attempt.

Guru Maharaja we are grateful to you for everything. This year most of the time you were in India, travelling through different centres, giving so many classes, conducting initiation ceremony, tirelessly spreading your causeless mercy far and wide...you have given shelter to thousands and thousands of devotees.it is our great fortune that you accepted us as your insignificant servant.

This year Kartika-yatra to mayapur was the most memorable one. everything was so meticulously planned under your guidance.. hearing to hari katha and your soulful kirtana, these experiences are the best time in our Krishna Consciousness. life...it is only through your vani that we get to understand Lords pasttimes and philosophical understanding and how we can practically apply this teachings in our life....we are soo grateful to you for giving us this experience and opportunity.

Your exchanges with your god brothers and sisters are sooo exemplary. the love, respect and honour you share with them is soo unique.. You teach us through your own example on how we should respect and honour each devotee and live together in perfect peace and cooperation, taking our spiritual master mission ahead. You teaches us through your own example on how to remain humble and tolerant. You exemplify these qualities.

On this auspicious day, I beg for your mercy and blessing..please bless me so that I follow your instructions faithfully and sincerely. Please bless me so tht I can chant the holy name in humble state of mind, become more tolerant than tree, offering all respects to other and not expecting anything in return. In this mood please let me become an instruction in your hand to serve the Srila Prabhupada movement. Guru Maharaja I m trying to serve the community here by conducting small kids gurukul classes every week and trying to help congregations in conducting various festivals and programs..i beg for your mercy so that I always carry your mood of serving vaishanva,by being servant of servant of servant.

Please forgive me for my offenses and shower your mercy on this fallen soul.

Thank you guru Maharaja..we are grateful to you for everything.

Hare Krishna Dear Guru Maharaja!
Please accept my humble obeisances.

Recently I went through many difficult situations in which I am survived only because of your quotes which I used to read daily.

Because of your inspiring words I can do our seva and family responsibilities.

Maharaja, Please bless me and give me strength in all respects so that I can play my each role (It may be wife, Mother, Daughter, Daughter-in-law, friend, philosopher, Counsellor etc) in more perfect way.

Thank you Guru Maharaja for everything.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obesciances at your lotus.All glories to Guru & Gauranga.

On this auspicious day a conditioned living entity gets an opportunity to offer prayers & glorification at the lotus feet of the spiritual master, which is the most rarest opportunity ever bestowed by the Lord upon the living entity. The kindness & the mercy of the spiritual master cannot be repaid back by the disciple, for he is eternally indebted to his Guru life after life. Maharaja you have saved us from this onslaught of material desires & temptations & have navigated our path back to the supreme truth.

On this auspicious day, we beg at your lotus feet, that let us never forget this highest favour that you have bestowed upon us & give us the strength to adhere to your instructions & live up to the integrity what you expect from your disciples.

Thank you very much Maharaja for considering these unworthy souls as a recipient for your mercy.

Hare Krishna,

Dear Guru Maharaja please accept my humble obeisances at you lotus feet. As I have heard from my Shikasha Gurus over the years, while all Vaisnavas are worshippable for us and they are adorned with Vaisnava qualities, one's Guru Maharaja should be seen as crest jewel among all the Vaisnavas. With passing of every year, this truth becomes more and more evident and true in my heart.

From being a true spiritual seeker hitch-hiking from Europe to India and then crisscrossing the length & breadth of India, searching for absolute truth and a path that leads to it with utmost sincerity and all the qualities of a Sadhu.

titikṣavaḥ kāruṇikāḥ suhṛdaḥ sarva-dehinām ajāta-śatravaḥ śāntāḥ sādhavaḥ sādhu-bhūṣaṇāḥ
(Srimad-Bhagavatam 3.25.21)

[The symptoms of a sädhu are that he is tolerant, merciful and friendly to all living entities. He has no enemies, he is peaceful, he abides by the scriptures, and all his characteristics are sublime.]

amidst various unthinkable, unbearable situations that you were put in.

Later coming to Himalayas where you received the holy names in the loving embrace of mother Ganga and then in Vrndavanaa in deciding to choose Bhakti as the path you wish to follow and Krishna as the absolute truth to be worshipped.

Then accepting Srila Prabhupada as your Guru and demonstrating extreme degree of surrender, sacrifice, dedication in New-Vrndavanaa and then revolution in youth preaching in colleges in US and later creating a beacon of inspiration for whole of ISKCON in Chowpatty, Mumbai and then taking up the monumental task of establishing ISKCON GEV & parallelly re-invigorating preaching in western world where Srila Prabhupada so much worked hard to establish more than 50 years ago.

Word fall short in glorifying a Mahatma like you, but even as I do so in just a few lined above, I am proud to be associated with you and your illustrious disciples and inspired to re-dedicate myself & re-commit myself in my spiritual life.

This February is the 6th Anniversary of you formally giving me shelter at your lotus feet and I have to confess, the last 5 years have not been my finest hour. I have been fighting with my demons but in vain and after coming to my senses, I want to beg you for strength to be able to over these demons within me, feel my relationship with Krishna and contribute in the mission of Srila Prabhupada to be the best of my capacity.

Respected Maharaja
All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to his disciples.
All glories to you.

This year you have spent so much time in mumbai.It is very wonderful to see you every now n then in our RadhaGopinatha temple.

I am still staying in Udupi with my daughter Amrita.

I am grateful n indebted to you eternally for the path you have shown for the devotees association you have given for all your teachings. My 108 days on the remote island of st Vincent has taught me that there is no nector like devotees association.

Every day I cried because I missed the temple and the devotees. It was a purification for me. Krishna has been always kind to me,when I look back.

Krishna has personally protected me on many occasions. I am so indebted to Srila Prabhupada and yourself for keeping me on right path n eternally available to give guidance. what better life can one get than this.

Miseries will come n go but through that to be in midst of devotees makes everything easy to sail through.

May I always remember and thank Lord Krishna in all situations of life.

Dear Gurudeva,Please accept my prostrated obeisances at your divine lotus feet. I vividly recall how I presumptuously requested for a meeting with you in your room in early nineteen nineteens.Pavitra(Radharani dd),Shobha(Keertida dd) and I(Vrishabhanudas) met you in your room. Totally oblivious of your spiritual splendour,I audaciously narrated to you my experience and endeavours.I narrated to you how I became attracted to Swami Yogananda after reading his book 'Autobiography of a Yogi.' I almost joined Yogoda Satsanga Society in Bihar but did not.I next came in touch with and felt attracted to Poornananda Saraswati. He spoke mostly on Shankaracarya's philosophy and his book, 'Jnansudha. ' I got disillusioned.

When he seemed to criticize institution of marriage(my foolish perception).After marriage we met Swami Muktananda,Nagesh mam, who taught us principles of Krishna Consciousness., mother Krishnabai of Kanchangad from whom Kirtida and I received Ramnam initiation.There was no discipline in our food habits.I recall that I presumptuously said to you that now that we have accepted Krishna Consciousness.,will there be disillusionment again? You, in your benign, compassionate and reassuring way said that now that you have taken shelter of lotus feet of Krishna,there is no looking back.Yes indeed! I have lost my partner, Kirtida,my sister,my brothers and recently HG Krishna Kumar Prabhu and HG Shyamapriya Mataji all precious jewels. By your and Srila Prabhupada's mercy and grace and love from all devotees, I have come to accept that human life is a journey from alone to the alone.I am grateful for what I have received from you,Gurudeva. May Sri Sri Radha Gopinatha bestow good health on you. I beg to remain your servant eternally, Vrishabhanudas Hare Krishna! I offer my countless obeisances at the lotus feet of my most revered Guru Maharaja...

Shri Prabhupada and Shri Caitanya Mahaprabhu had the vision to spread the congregational chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna (Harinam Sankirtana) across all the continents, to every village and town of the world. To fulfill this noble mission, they founded the ISKCON movement. Through this divine lineage, I have had the privilege of receiving your association, for which I am deeply grateful.

The Guru must be respected and honored in the same way as God, for he is the personal servant of the Lord. This is affirmed in many scriptures, and it has been followed by many great saints and authorities. Therefore, as a sincere representative of Lord Hari, I offer my respectful obeisances to you. I also pray at your feet that I may always remember Lord Krishna, the Vaisnavas, and your holy feet, so I can remain ever engaged in devotion."""

Glories of Radhanath Maharaja
I offer my humble respect to all devotes & my spiritual master. Taking an opportunity to speak few words about my Guru Maharaja HH Radhanath Swami Maharaja Beloved Parmpujya Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Guru and Gauranga.

Maharaja, your glories are indeed unlimited.

Maharaja, my life is full of sins and ignorance. I am an insignificant person with incomplete knowledge and I do not even know how to glorify an exalted Vaisnava like you.

It is only by your mercy and compassion that a stone hearted person like me has been attracted to the teachings of Srila Prabhupada.

Maharaja I remember the 1st time I saw you in Pune Yatra in 2007 that was my 1st experience of Yatra with ISKCON. I have heard that you where operated 1 month before the Pune Yatra, but the way you gave the lecture & specially the most favorite of mine the dancing Kirtana you danced nearly for 2to3 hours non stop. That day I recognized that the man with Special mercy of Lord can only do this.

Also in this Puri Yatra I had an experience as we Speak Purity is the force. There where devotees with me who had just heard about you, when we came in Pandal on 21st Nov with devotees they sat down in the corner & were watching you, some of them even where Not aware with English yet they sat steering at you on big screen as if they got connected, when told by me shall we move out they were Not ready & still absorbed watching & hearing you, it was really amazing & great lesson for me.

There are many glories but your Humbleness behavior is something to learn yet.

The very special thing about you is when you glance at devotees your eyes seems to watch each & every devotee & everyone things that Maharaja had glanced on me.

Maharaja, your smile can make a person pure. Your looks can save a number of souls. Your words are not just words; they are nectar drops, which can give direction to the aimless and wandering souls engaged in sinful and material activities.

Maharaja we don't have your association always, but your mercy and the perfect message which you deliver, keeps us geared up for serving the servant of all your servants.

I can only beg you to bless me with a little bit of intelligence, so that I can understand what devotional service really means and in this way render a little bit of service to this great mission of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear Maharaja,
Please accept the humble obeisances of this most insignificant creature.

I want to express this heart as an offering (even though I don't deserve it yet) on the very auspicious occasion of your Vyasa-puja by thanking you for showing your mercy on this fallen soul who has not yet got the opportunity to pass through your transcendental sight.

I thank all your Vaisnava devotees for organizing this most auspicious opportunity of seeking your glance through these words, if possible.

Dear Maharaja, I want to thank you for creating such wonderful devotees out of your association, who, to please you, have been going up in making so much effort to align us to be able to purify ourselves by walking on your instructions, example, and timeless wisdom made practical by your footprints. It's been the association of H.G. Madan Sundar Prji and his Evolve Pune platform. I have been able to receive the association of your devotees and the opportunity to hear your lectures. It has been their mercy I have been able to know the way you are serving Srila Prabhupada and receiving your association to come in line with Srila Prabhupada's teachings and their practical application. I am grateful for the presence of Govardhan Ecovillage and the association being provided through its online platforms.

Maharaja, I am very insignificant and foolish, as Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu describes, but I want to try to truly share that the way you have showcased the philosophy of Srila Prabhupada has lifted up the most fallen to become the most significant in your association.

To me personally, you showcase the aura of Srimati Radharani and have given shelter to all her sincere souls. Please forgive me, Maharaja, if I say something irrelevant and unworthy due to my low position, but I am very thankful you gave your very life in service to Srila Prabhupada; else I would have surely missed the value of ISKCON, losing the opportunity of knowing about Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu and his associates and ever relishing this most beautiful process, science, and meditation of Gopis. Maharaja, you have not left any corner to cover and be impeccable in your service. Even though I am very insignificant and unworthy, please let me be the instrument of your pleasure. Let whatever sustains you due to your association be engaged in your loving service. I am very eager for your association, even though I am very sinful. Please grace me with the wisdom of being able to receive it. ??

Dear Radhanath Maharaja,
Please accept our humble obeisance.

Happy appearance day dear Maharaja. Our fortune has no bounds to be under your and your disciple's shelter.

This year we had good fortune to visit New Vrindaban and seeing Palace of Gold, Old Vrindaban, how devotees worked very hard and survived turbulent times gave us immense faith and enthusiasm on path of Krishna Consciousness.. One of your god-brother put it aptly saying that "Devotees did not build Palace of gold, but it built them as devotees". It was so thrilling to hear this. We also learned how you would spend each moment in service of Lord and devotees. Your god-brothers at New Vrindaban miss you so much, even though we didn't deserve anything, we got so much love from HG Kripamay prabhu, HG Tatpunja prabhu just by knowing that we are your disciples.

Even today, we see that you have been touching lives of millions of souls and inspiring everyone around you. Please bless us for our renewed enthusiasm and behavior pleasing to you.

We profusely thank for your eternal shelter.

Hare Krishna Dear Srila Gurudeva,
Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Today, on the auspicious occasion of Your Vyasa-puja, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for Your innumerable contributions to ISKCON and the mission of Srila Prabhupada. You are a loyal commander in the army of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, assisting Srila Prabhupada and all the previous acaryas in spreading the Krishna Consciousness. movement worldwide. Your many projects, such as establishing GEV, your valuable contributions to the New Vrndavana Project, devotee care, training devotees to build numerous ISKCON centers, the Annual Kartika-yatra, and also giving me shelter at Your Lotus Feet, are all testaments to Your dedication.

I recently read the book Guru Smaranam, written by your senior and dear disciple, H.G. Vrndavana Prabhu. I was struck by the nectar and important instructions contained within, which I should follow in my personal life to become worthy of being Your disciple. Through this book and personal interactions with Your senior disciples, we are able to understand Your mood.

Once, you were asked by a disciple, “How can a disciple please You?” You replied, “It is very simple: chant 16 rounds attentively and honestly, and sincerely follow the four regulative principles with diligence. Avoid the ten offenses, and that way, pleasing Me is very simple. If you do that, it is pleasing to Me.” Srila Gurudeva, I humbly admit that I am lacking in following this simple instruction.

Once, devotees were planning to celebrate Your first Vyasa-puja after You were officially given the responsibility of an ISKCON Guru. The devotees made all the arrangements, and You said, “Do all of you know what the meaning of Vyasa-puja is?” You then explained, “It is the glorification of the spiritual master, and you glorify Him with action, not with words”

Srila Gurudeva, I may write many words in Your glorification, but I know, and You are also aware, that I am lacking in bringing Your words into action. You mentioned to one devotee who was asking you for personal instruction after a lecture, “My entire lecture is personal instruction.” I heard one of your lectures where you said, “A sincere disciple is one who always thinks, ‘How can I please my Guru, Srila Prabhupada, and Krishna with my thoughts, words, and actions?’” I consider this point from the lecture to be a personal instruction for my whole life. On many occasions, I have failed to follow this personal instruction.

I seek Your blessings on this auspicious occasion of Your Vyasa-puja. May my offering not just be words, but may I please You through my thoughts, words, and actions at every moment of my life.

Remembrance of your pure devotion to Krishna is the inspiration that alone maintains my life. Your ocean of humility, kindness, and compassion penetrates the steel heart of mine.

Just try to learn the truth by approaching a spiritual master. Inquire from him submissively and render service unto him. The self-realized soul can impart knowledge unto you because he has seen the truth.

yasya deve para bhaktir
yatha deve tatha gurau

"Only unto those great souls who have implicit faith in both the Lord and the spiritual master are all the imports of Vedic knowledge automatically revealed."

tad-vijñanartham sa gurum evabhigacchet

Mundaka Upanisad (1.2.12)

To obtain knowledge of the Supreme Absolute Reality Bhagavan (bhagavad-vastu) Sri, the sincere soul must approach a sad-guru, carrying firewood for sacrifice in his hands. In other words, he must approach sad-guru with transcendental faith in his heart and surrender to him in every respect with body, mind, and words and with all the humility at his command.

GuruMaharaja, you say that love that is not expressed is not real. Your infinite compassion and love towards every single devotee and every living entity is always beyond this material realm. Let me try to reciprocate your limitless ocean of care and love. I don't have any love or devotion to your lotus feet. I pray that I develop the qualities of sincerity and seriousness with no ulterior motives. To always strive to please you and the Lordships and be satisfied only in devotional service to Krishna. Srila Prabhupada and all the previous Acaryas are Mercifully giving out the treasure of Absolute truth to get connected to that Supreme Person in the form of books. And to achieve the only goal prema pumartho mahan. Let me accept their mercy with great urgency and serve the Yuga Avatara. Please give me the strength to never fall away from your lotus feet by neglecting teachings and principles.

You have once again revealed and revealed till eternity your infinite love to everyone. I pray that I may forever aspire to reciprocate with that most precious love, My Spiritual Master and My Spiritual Father Eternally and Unconditionally.

I pray that I may worship your lotus feet with my heart and soul for all of eternity.

There is no existence for me without your presence and grace, Srila GuruMaharaja. I cannot approach Krishna with all my anarthas. Please forgive me for all the offenses and all the mistakes. Your causeless mercy is all I am made of and always will be eternally. Your unqualified helpless child.

Respected GuruMaharaja please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada.
All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga.

First of all, I am very grateful for your association in this year's Kartika-yatra at Sridhaam Mayapur. This was my first Kartika-yatra, and it was a great blessing to witness the devotees, who are intensely inspired by your divine grace to serve in Srila Prabhupada's mission so sincerely and take care of each and every detail of service only to please and serve other Vaisnavas. This year's Kartika-yatra was truly special. This year, HH Jayapataka Swami Maharaja wanted to come each night and give his divine association to all devotees present there, and seeing your loving exchanges with your God brothers and God sisters was truly heart touching.

Your personal example at each and every moment to serve in Srila Prabhupada mission and understanding real mood in which Srila Prabhupada will be pleased shows your true Surrender to Srila Prabhupada.

GuruMaharaja you have really given heart of bhakti in your lectures in form of your Vani, one of my aspirations is to always be following what you want us to follow, but because of my egoistic idea, I am striving to do that.

The Chowpatty community is a real, loving, spiritual community that is inspiring all over the ISKCON world and outside also to give a glimpse of the spiritual world in this material manifestation.

Hearing about your sacrifices in New Vrndavana and your journey for a spiritual quest to India is really inspirational.

I am blessed with the association of your representatives in the form of loving and caring devotees who are guiding me through their personal example to follow your Vani, guiding me personally by accepting me as I am and inspiring me to go ahead in the path of surrender.

You have taught devotees how to be real sarghahis and take to heart the service and actions we do to please, which makes the service really pleasing to Krishna and his devotees.

May my aspirations and capacity to be a mere servant of a servant in the hands of your servants increase day by day, remembering your teachings moment after moment.

Dear GuruMaharaja, I am a very new devotee aspiring for your grace and some service under your servants.
Thank you for your Vani, which is really cultivating and protecting my heart's land to be fertile so that the seed of bhakti can grow and sprout to reach the lotus feet of Krishna.

Please accept my humble obeisances Guru Maharaja

I am forever grateful to you, Maharaja, for providing such a remarkable safety net in the form of a devoted community on whom we can rely during both our triumphs and challenges. Your exemplary life, embodying the attitude of being a servant of the servant at every moment, serves as a profound source of inspiration to me. The yatras you lead are truly nectarean experiences, unmatched in their spiritual depth and joy.

Here's a refined version of your offering, maintaining the heartfelt emotion and adding some clarity:
Hare Krishna, Maharaja Ji,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to Guru and Gauranga!

I feel deeply fortunate to have the association of devotees and to have received the inspiration to serve and take shelter under a spiritual master.

Maharaja Ji, I was initially taking guidance from His Holiness Gopal Krishna Goswami Maharaja. After his departure, I realized the need to choose a living guru to guide me further on my spiritual journey.

At first, I struggled to feel a connection while listening to your lectures. However, after the recent Kartika-yatra, I experienced a change. Now, your lectures resonate with my heart, and I can feel how they relate to my life. Your disciples are truly remarkable; their service attitude is inspiring. I am especially grateful for the association of such wonderful devotees, particularly His Grace Radheshyam Prabhu Ji. My journey in Krishna Consciousness. began with his VOICE training program, and his guidance has been a significant influence in my spiritual life.

Maharaja Ji, I humbly seek your forgiveness for my many anarthas, which feel like insurmountable mountains. At times, I fear I will lose this battle against them. Yet, it is the mercy of devotees that sustains me, keeping me in their uplifting association and giving me hope. I beg for your blessings to overcome my shortcomings and to become a humble servant of the servant of the devotees. Please forgive me for any offenses I have committed knowingly or unknowingly.

Your insignificant servant,

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisances.

I feel myself to be unworthy and unqualified to glorify you, but still I will because that will please the Lord and also purify my heart.

Maharaja, this year you have been very merciful to all of us: you came to Ayodhya and gave us the opportunity to serve you; also, you called for Brahmana initiation and the festival of gratitude. Now, with the Kartika-yatra, etc., you are showering your mercy with your physical presence and vani both. Some of your qualities that I would like to mention:

1. Appreciating and encouraging the devotees who are background or menial services: In yatra, every day you were going in the kitchen and encouraging the devotees by yourself cooking.

2. Loving, friendly relationship with your Godbrothers: You always keep yourself as one of them in front of your Godbrother and appreciate them. This is the reason many of your Godbrothers and Godsisters come to hear from you.

3. Absorb all the devotees in Krishna katha: When we are sitting in yatra with 10k devotees but still in pin-drop silence, that shows how you take everyone deep into the pastimes of the Lord and teach the lessons from that.

4. Encourages devotees to chant attentively: In yatra, every day you came and chanted with us at this age also; this is very inspiring. You want all of us to take the Holy Name very seriously.

Thank you, Maharaja, for giving so much to us. As I cannot repay for what you have given, still I will give my best by practicing whatever you have taught and sharing it with others.

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaja,
Dandwat pranaam please accept my humble obeisances.

On your auspicious appearance day, I offer my humble obeisances and heartfelt gratitude. Your divine guidance has transforming my life, illuminating the path of spiritual growth and self-realization.

Your unconditional love, compassion, and wisdom have been a constant source of inspiration, empowering me to navigate life's challenges. Your selfless service to Sri Krishna and humanity is a shining example for me.

I am not sufficiently qualified to glorify your greatness, and my words may fall short in expressing the depth of my gratitude. Please forgive me if my words are inadequate or inappropriate.

I pray to Sri Radha Gopinatha to bless you with continued health, happiness, and spiritual strength. May your presence remain a beacon of hope and guidance for countless souls.

As an insignificant servant, I pledge to strive for sincerity, humility, and devotion on my spiritual journey, following your sacred instructions.

Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble, prostrated obeisance.

Thank you so much, dear Gurudeva, for your recorded lectures, which have uplifted me and sustained me. Thank you for giving your presence in your vani.

Thank you for allowing me to be a part of this Kartika-yatra. This helped me to improve my faith and dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission. You made us realize the contribution of Srila Prabhupada in our lives.

Thank you, dear Gurudeva, for giving us your association in chanting in yatra. Your absorption in japa and kirtana is most inspiring to me.

Your relationship with your God brothers and God sisters is heart touching.

Your mood of servant of servant is heart-melting. HG Krishnananda Prabhu was telling us that one person came to give some donation to you, and he asked you whether he can give it to your servant. You replied, "He is not my servant, but you can give him."

Dear Gurudeva, my heart is filled with the mentality of being a master. I feel I am better than others; I find fault in devotees. Please give me a trace of mercy that I can develop this mood of being a servant of the servant of servants.

Dear Gurudeva, today I am on a journey to Noida from Kolkata in order to have some savings so that I can join Brahmacari Ashram and take care of my parents. My only desire is for them to become devotees. Please bless them so that they can get the shelter of the lotus feet of Lord.

Dear Gurudeva, I aspire to get the shelter of your lotus feet; please accept me as your humble servant of servants and engage me in the transcendental mission of Srila Prabhupada.
Your aspiring servant of servant
Yogesh.

Hare Krishna,
Dear Guru Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Happy Krishna Conscious Birthday Maharaja.

Thank you for graciously organizing the Kartika-yatra year after year. My appreciation for these sacred pilgrimages has only deepened, especially after experiencing the divine Mayapur Yatra this year.

Maharaja, we had to lovingly persuade Nishita and Niraj to join us on this yatra despite their academic commitments. By your blessings and the mercy of Their Lordships, Sri Sri Radha Vrndavana Chandra, His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada, and the association of devotees, Nishita has successfully secured admission to the First Year MBBS program at BJ Medical College, Pune. She aspires to become a compassionate doctor and is determined to serve the devotee community. Your inspiring projects, like the Bhaktivedanta Hospital and Barsana Eye Camp, have deeply influenced her aspirations.

Maharaja, I have also heard from a devotee friend in Pune about your vision of more Chartered Accountants embracing Krishna Consciousness.. Niraj is currently pursuing Chartered Accountancy, and I am delighted to share that your uplifting lectures and the transformative Mayapur Yatra have ignited a spiritual awakening in him. I am confident that he will remain steadfast on the path of Krishna Consciousness..

During the Yatra, I received countless valuable instructions from your lectures and interactions with Godbrothers and devotees. I earnestly pray at your lotus feet for the strength to follow one of your most cherished teachings: trnad api sunicena taror iva sahisnuna amanina manadena kirtaniyah sada harih—to be more humble than a blade of grass, more tolerant than a tree, and to always offer respect to others without expecting any in return.

Maharaja, please forgive me for any shortcomings in my service. From this Vyasa-puja day forward, I am committed to chanting one additional round daily for your well-being.

Thank you for your immeasurable kindness, boundless patience, and unconditional love.

Hare Krishna Maharaja,
Please accept my humble obeisances.
All glories to His Loving Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada.

Today, as I sit down to write my very first Vyasa-puja offering to you, my heart is filled with gratitude as I reflect on the journey that led me here. It all began in 2018, six years ago, when, through a divine arrangement, I first encountered you, Maharaja—not in person, but through your book, Journey Home. I was an avid reader, always drawn to New York Times bestsellers, yet my true passion lay in seeking spiritual wisdom. So, when I came across your book, I ordered it on Amazon without hesitation. Little did I know that this book would be a turning point in my life.

From the moment I started reading, I was captivated. The words flowed with such depth and sincerity that I couldn't put it down, finishing the entire book in just two days. Maharaja, your story of your spiritual quest resonated deeply with me. I had always dreamed of embarking on my own spiritual journey, facing challenges, experiencing adventures, and discovering my true destination. But as a girl born in Nepal, raised within the bounds of traditional Hindu culture, such dreams seemed out of reach. In my world, girls were expected to complete their education, earn a degree, marry, and devote themselves to their new families. The freedom to explore one's spiritual path was not a choice.

Yet through Journey Home, I lived out my unfulfilled dream. I found myself walking alongside you, sharing in your trials, your moments of awe, and your revelations. It felt as though I knew you personally as if we were spiritually connected. I remember telling my husband that if the author ever visited our hometown, I would make sure to meet him. At that time, I had no connection to ISKCON or knowledge of Krishna Consciousness.. It was a seed that would bloom later, in a way I could never have foreseen.

In 2022, life took a painful turn. I lost my mother and brother within a month, and my world crumbled. Grief overwhelmed me, and I found myself crying endlessly, questioning the reasons behind my loss. During those dark and difficult days, I felt an inexplicable calling to visit a nearby Krishna temple. When I walked into that temple, I felt an instant sense of peace, as if a part of me had finally come home. I fell in love with the deities there, and returning to the temple became my solace. I would sit quietly, gazing at the deities, feeling a profound sense of belonging.

Slowly, I began to delve deeper into Krishna Consciousness. and its teachings. As my understanding grew, I discovered that Radhanath Swami, whose words had once lit up my life, was one of the revered Diksha Gurus in the parampara. It was as if I had found a long-lost path, a buried hope coming to life once more. I felt immense gratitude to Lord Sri Krishna for leading me back to this journey, and for giving me a second chance to pursue the spiritual calling that had been dormant within me.

Today, I am an aspiring devotee, taking shelter under the guidance of my spiritual master, HH Radhanath Swami. My heart is full and content, knowing that I have found my true home. I vow to serve Maharaja with all my heart and soul, dedicating myself to following his instructions and living a life that brings him joy. I pray every day for the moment when I can meet him in person and tell him, with all the sincerity in my heart, “Maharaja, I am home.” Deeply grateful to you in every possible way. Respected Gurudeva Radhanath Maharaja
Please accept my humble obeisance’s
All glory to Srila Prabhupada

It is well known that you are one of the deeply respected leaders of our ISKCON movement. What struck me was that you have nurtured, encouraged, and trained many more leaders, especially among your disciples.

You have nurtured Thought Leaders, Creative Leaders, Administrative Leaders, Preaching Leaders, Management Leaders, Spiritual Leaders, Popular Leaders, and the list goes on.

Creating the next rung of leadership is an extremely herculean task and you have done it so amazingly – without any hurry and a shout.

I pray your inspiration and care are available to us through so many leaders that you have nurtured for a long time to come.

Dear guru Maharaja, I feel myself an unqualified disciple of yours... I have always seen your so much struggle to serve Srila Prabhupada and desire to help every living entity to practice and serve Krishna... I wish to follow you but I now and then get up and fall again coz of conditioning...

I can’t request you to pray for me as I don’t have so sincere desire to serve....

On this auspicious day, I request you to keep me as your disciple and pray for strength to fight against my conditioning to finally dedicate my complete life to serving Srila Prabhupada.....

Srila Gurudeva! Please accept my humble obessiance at your Lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada!!

It's your 74th birthday and still you steadily are engaged in enlightening the ignorant souls around the world.

You very mercifuly accepted this unworthy as your disciple. Your standards of Vaisnava etiquette are very high. As an acarya, you practice what you preach. So being a disciple of your raises the bench mark of expectations of others from us.

But I fail though I want to follow your instructions as it is, and I sincerely try. I always want to remain bound to your and Srila Prabhupada Lotus feet. I sincerely pray to Sri Sri Radha Shyamsunder to bestow Their mercy upon us all by giving you good health.

And I heard that aacarya are very merciful on the day of their appearance and they bestow causeless mercy and give benedictions.

Gurudeva! please bless me with one benediction of humility on this auspicious day.

With your mercy I will be able to serve Prabhupada.

Jai Gauranga! Jai Jai Srila Prabhupada!
Jai Shree Guru Maharaja!

Living in Doha, it was through a YouTube video that I first heard your lecture10 years ago.....Guru Maharaja. Your voice was so peaceful and calm, leaving a profound impact on me—never before had I encountered such a saintly and powerful voice. Although I had studied the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita, your words illuminated its essence like never before.

In February of this year, Krishna blessed me with your darshan at Eco Village. I never imagined that I would meet you in person. Holding my newly purchased beads I sought for your blessings, and you mercifully touched and blessed them. Without uttering a word, your aura radiates an endless flow of compassion and love, teaching us to spread Krishna's love to all living beings.

Your mercy extends even through your disciples, who shared with me the details of the Chowpatty yatra and guided me during the early hours when I stood outside the Radha Madhava temple, unsure where to go.

I am deeply thankful to you for showing us how to savour the spiritual dham and meditate for blessings of Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Srila Prabhupada and Holy acaryas. The Mayapur yatra and your soul-stirring kirtana amidst loving Vaisnava association further inspires my resolve for humble service and seeking your life long guidance.

Thank you GuruMaharaja for showing us light!
All glories to Guru and Gauranga,

Vyasa-puja 2024

On this auspicious day, I offer my deepest respects to my spiritual master. Words cannot capture the pain of separation, woven with the love that burns in my heart. Gurudeva is so far, yet so close.

I dedicate this material life—one among many—in service to Lord Krishna and Srila Prabhupada's mission. Only by your mercy, Gurudeva is all this possible. Only by your mercy can this fallen soul find the true path. Standing amidst the storms of illusion, I humbly hold one single goal: to please you through my devotional service.

The shelter you provide and the instructions that guide me through the dark tunnels of material existence renew my unexplainable energy and enthusiasm to be the servant of the servant of the servant. To satisfy every devotee through my service—I know this is the only way to make you pleased.

I wish you transcendental joy, filled with dedicated, humble service from all your disciples. I pray for the fulfillment of all your goals in this mission through which you lead us in Srila Prabhupada's name. May millions of hearts melt for Lord Krishna, and many millions of devotees follow your instructions, waiting humbly for the day of their eternal liberation from material bondage. You are our only chance to reach Vaikuntha. Just as a newborn depends on its mother in this material existence, we fallen souls depend on your mercy in the transcendental realm. United in diversity, again and again, we surrender to your instructions.

Please remain in good health, full of enthusiasm and energy as always, for without you, we are lost and bound in the endless cycle of birth and death.

Your eternal servant,
bh. Žarko
